151. Let each one also pray, Lord, save me! For none but Jesus can save and keep my soul.

LESSON 27.

The Leper.

152. A man that was very sore all over came to Jesus. The man fell on his face, and said, Lord, if thou wilt, thou art able to make me well; O do it.

153. And Jesus felt for the poor man, and said, I will; be thou well. And he was made well at once.

154. How good was Jesus, and how kind to this poor man! And is He not now as good as ever, and as kind to you?

155. Love him all your days. O love Him now, He will not turn away, even from a babe; He will not turn away from you.

156. O Lord Jesu, save me from my sins, and make me good.

LESSON 28.

The Child Samuel.

157. There was a good woman, named Hannah, who took her son Samuel, when he was a little boy, to Eli the High Priest. She said, I prayed that the Lord would give me a child, and he gave me this my son. Now I bring him to thee, that all his life may belong to the Lord.

158. Eli took the child to dwell with him, and to serve the Lord in the temple.

159. One night, when Samuel had lain down to sleep, the Lord called him; and he woke and ran to Eli, and said, Here am I, for thou calledst me. And Eli said, I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down.

160. The Lord called him once more. Then Samuel went to Eli, and said, Here am I, for thou didst call me. And Eli sent him to lie down again.

161. The Lord called him the third time. And Eli knew that the Lord had called Samuel. Then Eli said to him, Go, lie down again; and if he call thee, thou shalt say, Speak, Lord; for thy servant heareth.

162. So Samuel went and lay down in his place. And the Lord called, as before, Samuel, Samuel! Then he said, Speak, Lord; for thy servant heareth.

163. Then the Lord spake, and told Samuel that the sons of Eli were wicked. And that though their father knew this, he did not reprove and correct them as he ought. And because of this, the Lord said that he would punish both Eli and his sons.

164. Samuel laid himself down again until the morning. Then he got up to open the door of the Lord's house. And he was afraid to tell Eli what he had heard.

165. But Eli wished very much to know what the Lord had said. And he called Samuel to him, saying, Tell me what the Lord hath said unto thee. I pray thee hide it not from me. And Samuel told him all, and hid nothing from him. And Eli said, It is the Lord; let him do what seemeth good unto him.

166. Not long after this, the two sons of Eli were slain in battle, and the ark of God was taken. When Eli heard of it he fell back from his seat and died.

167. The wicked cannot escape. God will surely punish those who sin against him. Let me fear, lest I offend God by my sins.

168. And the child Samuel grew, and was in favor both with the Lord, and also with men. And the Lord was with him, and he became a great prophet.

169. Samuel when he was a child, waited on the Lord. We cannot begin too soon to love and serve God.

170. Those who fear God early will grow up to be wise and useful.

188. We have turned, every one to his own way.
189. While we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

LESSON 32.

Jesus Christ Receiving Little Children.

190. The prophet Isaiah foretold about Jesus Christ and said: He shall feed his flock like a shepherd; He shall gather the lambs with His arms, and carry them in His bosom.

191. When Jesus Christ was upon earth young children were brought to Him that He should put His hands on them and bless them.

192. Some that were with Him, who did not know how kind and loving Jesus was, did rebuke those who brought them. And they wished to send the children away from Him.

193. When Jesus saw how unkind they were He was angry with them. And He said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God. Truly I say unto you, he that shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, shall not enter therein.

194. Then Jesus kindly called the dear little children unto Him, and took them up in His arms, and put His hands upon them, and blessed them.

210. The blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth us from all sin.

211. If any man be in Christ he is a new creature.

212. Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me.

LESSON 35.

The Parable of the Sower.

213. Jesus said, Hearken! Behold, a sower went forth to sow seed. And some fell by the way side; and the fowls came and ate it up.

214. And some fell on stony places, where it had not much earth, and it sprang up quickly. But when the sun was up, it was scorched. And because it had no root, it soon died away.

215. And some fell among thorns; and they choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

216. And other fell on good ground; and it sprang up, and grew, and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundred fold.

217. When Jesus had said these things, He cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

218. Some who were with Him asked Him to explain what He had said. And Jesus said, the seed is the word of God.

219. These are they who receive the seed by the way side. When they hear the word and mind it not, Satan cometh and taketh it away lest they should believe and be saved.

220. These are they who receive the seed on stony ground. When they hear the word they receive it with gladness. But they have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time. And when any trial comes, for the world's sake, they soon fall away.

221. These are they who receive the seed among the thorns. When they have heard, they go forth; and the cares, riches and pleasures of this life, choke the word so that it cannot bring forth good fruit.

222. These are they who receive the seed into good ground. They hear the word, attend to its meaning, and keep it in an honest and good heart. So they bring forth good fruit; some thirty, some sixty, and some a hundred fold.

223. May the word of God drop like good seed into my youthful heart. Let me not be a careless hearer, but a constant doer of His word. May the word of Christ dwell in me richly in all wisdom. May I believe, obey and be saved.
