of the day:—

From the Medical Times, August 26, 1649.

But it is not easy to obtain pure Cod Oli, That which comes from Rousen and the consa of Normandy is obtained from the boiled livers of ray-fash, R. Joses and R. desate; a variety from Norway is procured from the roes and entrails of the galdes species boiled together; and some sent from Benegal to France is obtained by rosating the entrails of a species of erab, C, rusricale. Under these oiscumstances, it is gratifying to know that Meaers. Languagement, and the sent of the control of the consideration of our readers." EDUCED RATES OF PREMIUM-HALF REDUCED RATES OF PREMIUM—HALF CREDIT RATES OF PREMIUM.

THE great and decided success which has attended this Institution, has induced the Directors to REDUCE the RATES originally required in British North America, to the ordinary European Rates. The result of such Reduction is to enable parties to avail the decleves of the important benefits to Life Assurance at much lower Rates of Premium than those of any other Assurance Company t anaecting business in Canada.

The Directors have also resolved to extend to British North America the advantages afforded by the HALF CREDIT RATES of PREMIUM which have been so highly approved, and are so generally adopted by Policy Holders in the United Kingdom. The most liberal conditions are like-wise offered to the Assured in the limits to which they may proceed by sea or land, to other parts of ideration of our readers. From the Lancet, October 15, 1849.

The chief points in favor of Mosers. Langton & Scott's Oil are, first, its sacertained freedom from admineration; secondly, its enotatining in due proposition all the known constituents of Cod Liver Oil in general; and, hirdly, its being beyond comparison, the most agreerble, both in taste and odour, or rather the only one that is both in taste and odour, or rather the only one that is agreeable at all.

The pride of the American race is to stand upon t Continent as sole undisputed proprietors of the soil; and in every American heart is planted a belief that destiny has conferred upon their race the lords aip of this Continent. Time may eventually realize aspirations which, from their intensity, may hereafter effect their own fruition; and the current of events in this Province for the past few years, leaves little room to doubt that we are passing through the premonitory symptoms which betoken an altered political existence, and a closer alliance with them. We are not unmindful of the fact, that those who are removed by wealth from the necessity of seeking pecuniary rewards for their industry, and those of moderate means, who look towards the British Isles as a possible retreat in old age, are in some cases little inclined to regard the flirtations of the Annexationists with favor; but the masses of our population are daily and hourly becoming infected by Republicanism, -more imbued with a longing to become Americans. The dogmas of allegiance are less potent than the diurnal necessities of existence; and feelings, however fervid and pure, cannot long withstand the cold calculations of profit and loss. It is in vain we fount men with their faithlessness and ahandonment of national instincts; they may ef-Atlantic seaboard each season, and, spreading far and wide into the interior, occupy new lands build cities, found Colleges, and develope the outlines of future States. There is not a foreigner who lands upon the shores of the United States, and adopts that soil as his home, who is not, if guilt there be, far guiltier than the Annexationists of Canada. They have contributed nothing to the growth of the Colony—they bear the arts and soil, as well the resources of an ation whose fabulous sciences, and skill in mechanics, to a foreign soil, to swell the resources of a nation whose fabulous growth and unbounded power appal the decaying dynasties of Earope; while those who have toiled dynasties of Earope; while those who have toiled for the proper at the control of the sum of the sam of the power and except the solution to the proper at the decaying dynasties of Earope; while those who have toiled for the proper at the control of the sum of the sam of the power appal the decaying dynasties of Earope; while those who have toiled for the proper at the control of the sum of the sum of the sam of the power appal the decaying dynasties of Earope; while those who have toiled for the proper at the sum of the sum of the sam of the power appal the decaying dynasties of Earope; while those who have toiled for the proper at the sum of t fectively fling back the reproach by pointing to

STEAMBOAT TRIMMER. - We saw yesterday a STEAMBOAT TRIMMER.—We saw yesterday a very clever mechanical invention for trimming Steomboats, the work of an American engineer living near Philadelphia. It is difficult to describe machinery without diagrams, but this being a machinery without diagrams, but this being a was the purchaser of a large number of seats at prices varying from $8 to $15. Messrs. Wm. Itali & Son, Music-dealers, were also purliving near Philadelphia. It is difficult to describe machinery without diagrams, but this being a very simple contrivance, we think we can explain it is not be understood. The Trimmer consists, then, of a cast iron box filled with pig iron, runing on four wheels between four wooden rails, the apper pair of which support a platform. On this platform is a drum with a friction wheel and spring attached, by means of which the motion of size the ballast box can be instantly arrested at any point, and be held there immoveable, no matter how great the medion of the vessel. 'In regard to promination, we feel perfectly satis succeation and mere fishion. • • It is now, as we full believe, in this revision, brought down to the true e-reun stances of the commonity in ail respects. And we hope will find its way rapidly, not only to the schools and the aduly, but to the parier, the counting-room, and to the ever day purposes of life, "—Hon. Win. B. Calsonn. Dec. 1847.

"We venture to say that there is no Dictionary in the English language which combuses so many advantages, with such economy of price, beauty of execution, comparences and clearness, as this Quarto Edition of Webster."—"We rejoice that the public award is strongly grandying our long-cheristed conviction that Noah Webster was decidedly the best Lexicographer who has treated of the English language. Emphatically the Dictionary of the English language. Emphatically the Dictionary of the English language. Emphatically the Dictionary of the English language, "—N. Y. Tribuse.

"There is no Dictionary but this of Webster's that can be adopted as a standard,"—Boston Courser.

"In it andmirable definitions, its accurate philology, its copromises, good sense, and completeness, it is fast receiving the judgment of the learned word, that it has no equal,"—N. Y. Evangeliss.

"With materials so abundant, advantages so unusual, and upon a basis so valuable as the result of the labors of Webster, during the thirty years which he devoted to the subject. Professor Goodrich has completed a perfect and most authoritative Dictionary of the English language as speken and written in A. D. 1848. "—Baltimore Parriot, "Perhaps no work ever issued from the press mere faultless in every particular,"—Dully Ohio State Journal.

"Its cheapures is not the least remarkable thing about it, nearly 1,500 quarto pages for $6, "—St. Louis Herald of Religious Liberty.

For the past twelve months I bave frequently recommended the Waters of the St. Leon and Caxton Springs, and have formed a favorable opinion of their efficiency as aperients in various derangements and disease. I have found both Waters well subject, in the generality of eases, for necomplishing all the purposes of the ordinary maine aperient draughts, over which their tomic and alternative ingredients give them, for continued use, a superiority. MEDICINES containing Molasses or Liquonizee, like the boasted Saraaparillas, require into the Age of the Age in health. The Forest Wine is altogether a different article. It co tains no Syrups to give it consistency, but acquires the excellent flavor and powerful me dicinal qualities from the vegetable plants of which it is composed. The Forest Wine cumbines the virtues of the

it is composed. The Forest Wise combines the virtues of the WILD CHERRY, DANDELION, YELLOW I OCK, and MARMAPARILLA With other valuable Plants whose properties are still more powerful.

Its high concentration renders it one of the most emcient Medicines now in use. Less than a single bottle restores the lingering Patient from weakness, dibility, and sickness, to strong and vigorous health. Every dos shows its good elects on the constitution, and improves the state of the health. The Forest Wine is recommended, in the strongest terms, for all complaints of the

TEN YEARS STANDING!
NEW YORK, Jan. 9, 1848.
DB. HALSEY—DEAR SIR:—Having taken your
Screet Wing and Pulls to remove a disease of the Forest Wine and Pills to remove a disease of the Liver, from which I have suffered severely tor upwards of ten years; and, having adnered ct. sely to the directions which accompany the Madicines, I have recovered my health, notwithstanding all who knew me thought my case incurable. Previous to taking the Wine and Pills, I had recourse the heat medical teatment, but continued to l hava recovered my halth, nowithtanding all who knew me thought my case incurable. Previous to taking the Wine and Pills, I had recourse to the best medical treatment, but continued to grow worse to an alarming degree. Some of my frends spoke despairingly of my case, and vired to persuade me from making use of any advertused remedies; and, I doubt not, but what there are hundrals who are dissuaded from taking your excellent Medicines, in consequence of the deception and inefficiency of many advertused remedies are not any storetised remedies put forth by usprincipled men, in flaming advertusements. But, what a pity it is that the deception used by others should be the means of dissuading many laboring under disease, from making trial and being cured by your axcellent remedies. Humanly speaking, they have saved my life; when I commenced making use of them, I was in a wretched condition, but begain to experience their good effects in less than three days; and, in six weeks from the time I purchased the Medicines, to the great surprise of all my friends, I was entirely cured, and had increased fifteen pounds in weight, having taken sue box of the Pills and two bettles of the Wine. Westlet to God that every poor suffere would avail himself of the same remedies!

Dr. David Marvin, celebrated Practitioner of New York, declared publicly, that one bottle of Halsey's Forest Wine, it is an axcellent and good dedicine, and will, undoubtedly, become the leading Medicine of the day."

Life Pifls and Phenix Bitters. These Medicines have now been before the public for a period of FIFTEEN YEARS, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the globe for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of dicease to which the hung- frame is liable. IN MARY THOUSANDS of certificated instances, they have even rescued sufferers from the very verge of an unimely grave, after aft the deceptive metrums of the day had atterly failed; and to many thousands they have permanently secured that uniform enjoyment of health, without which life itself is but a pactual blessing. So great, indeed, has their efficacy invariably and infellibly proved, that it has appeared stancely less than miraculous to those who were acquainted with the beau: [fally philosophical principles upon which they are compounded, and upon which they consequently act. It was to their manifest and sensible action in purifying the springs and channels of hie, and enduing them with renewed tone and vigor, that they were indebted for their name.

and channels of hie, and enduing them with renewed tone and vigor, that they were indebted for their name.

Unlike the host of pernicious quackeries which boast of vegetable ingredients, the LIFE MEDITIBES are purely and solely vegetable; and contain neither Merchay, nor Antimony, nor Arganic, nor any other nineral, in any form whatever. They are entirely composed of extracts from rare and powerful plants, the virtues of which, though long known to soveral Indian tribos, and recently to some eminent pharmaceutical chemists, are altegether unknown to the ignorant prutenders to medical science; and were never before administered in so happily efficacious a combination.

The first operation is to loosen from the coats of the stomach and bowels the various impurities and crudities constantly setting round them; and to remove the hardened finese which collect in the convolutious of the small intestinas. Other roadicines only partially cleanse these, and leave such collected masses behind to produce habitual Costiveness, with all its train of evits, or sudden Diarrhea with its immriment dangers. This fact is well known to all regular anatemists who examine the human bowels after death; and hence the projudice of these well-informed men against the quack medicines of the age. The second effect of the VEGETABLE LIVE MEDICINES is to cleanse the kidneys and the bladder; and, by this means, the liver and lungs, the healthful action of which entirely depends upon the regularity of the urinary organs. The blood, which takes its red color from the agency of the liver and lungs, before it passes into the heart, being thus partified by them, and nourished by food coming from a clean stomach, course freely through the veins, renew every part of the system, and triumphantly mounts the banner of health in the blooming cheek.

The fellowing are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the VEGETABLE LIVE MEDICINES are well known to be infallable:

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure healthy bile, instead of the stale and aerid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss of Appetite Heartburn, Headaca, Restlessness, Ill-temper, Ansusty, Languor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

Costiveness, by cleansing the whole length of the intestiner with a solvent process, and without violence: all violent purges leave the bowels constructive within two days.

From Edward Brinkey, Es., Ne. 3, South side Femeual Hall, Boston, Jan. 19, 1837.

Dear Sir: Having for some time purchased of your agent the art cle of hair restorative prepared by you. and having found it the most valuable preparation for the hair, in my estimation, ever offered the Fuice, I feel it a pleasure, as well as a duty, to offer you my humble testimonial as to its worth, begging you to make such use of it as may seem best to you.

The public has long been deluded and imposed upon, and still are, by shousands of nostrum, promising a benefit to the hair, whilst they have proved but an injury. But the article you have produced, I feel a pleasure in asying, is the most agreeable preparation for densing the hair, and keeping it in a healthy, vigorous condition, that I have ever known. And wishing you had full success in its sale which its merius so fully and pre-eminently entitle it sol. I am, duar wis, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
