Mr. John Brennan fell over the bridge at Rockwood on Sunday evening last, and was so badly hurt that it is feared he cannot recover.

DR. PARKER'S INJURIES.—As soon as Dr. Parker arrived at home on Monday the fracture of his thigh (a compound one) was reduced by Drs. Howitt and Herod. He is, as might be expected, very low, but as well, his medical attendants say, as he could be expected to be under the circumstances.

HORSE RACE.—We hear that there is to be a race on Monday next, on the Waterloo Road, somewhere beyond the limits of the Corporation, between Mr. Henry Newton's mare, 'Kitty Clyde,' and a pony belonging to Mr. Budgeon. The race is to be a half mile dash. Her owner backs the mare, while Mr. McCruden puts up the stakes on the pony, which is said to be a fleet runner for half-a-mile.

TOWN COUNCIL.—No business was transacted by the Council last night, in consequence of a want of a quorum. The members present were: The Mayor, Messrs. Massie, Mays, Mitchell, Hefferman, Melvin, Buckland and Howard. After the expiration of the fifteen minutes grace the Council adjourned, and scarcely had they done so, when Mr. Harvey entered. There was then exact: a quorum, but it was too late.

WAWANOSH PLOUGHING MATCH.—The ploughing match in connection with the Agricultural Society of the township of Wawanosh, took place on the farm of Mr. H. Helps, on Thursday last. There was a good turn out of ploughmen as well as spectators, and the work done was superior to that of any previous year. Dinner was provided at the house of Mr. Helps for the ploughmen and judges, as well as for a number of the spectators. Prizes were awarded as follows:—First Class, 1st Alex. Porter, (Stephenson plough) 2nd Duncan Robertson, (McTavish) 3rd Chas. Garvin, (Runciman) 4th John Barbour, (Stephenson). Second Class, 1st Wm. Brecken, (Stephenson) 2nd Jas. Helps, (McTavish).

THE UNIVERSITY EXAMINATION.—Dr. McCaul in his speech at the annual Convocation on Friday stated, that the report that thirty-two out of fifty-five students who went up for examination were plucked was incorrect. Only 8 out of the 55 were plucked. In this connection we may state that Mr. Chas. McLellan, one of the Rockwood Academy pupils, passed with honours in English Chemistry. Mr. Gilbert Smith, from the same Academy also passed a creditable examination at Knox's College. During the present year students from the same Academy have passed successful examinations at different educational institutions in Toronto, besides those who have passed as teachers at the different County Boards of Public Instruction.

CHARITY CONCERT.—We would refer our readers to the advertisement, which appears in another column, of a concert in aid of the orphans and aged poor, under the care of the Sisters of Charity in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, which event will take place on the evening of Wednesday the 28th inst. Several singers of note from a distance will be present, and, as a plea for a good attendance, we may just remind our readers, that in addition to an attractive programme the cause should form a strong recommendation, the orphans and the unfortunate poor, having always a claim on our generosity. Being almost assured that people will bear this fact in mind, we confidently anticipate a large gathering.

READINGS AT SALEM.—Last Friday evening the people of Salem were afforded a rich treat by Dr. Griffith's reading of selections from his own new story, as well as from other authors. Although the night was very disagreeable yet the attendance was large, the school house being well filled. Whether this was owing to a desire to hear the author, or to further the object of laying the side-walk for the children we cannot say, but the profound attention of the audience, and the frequent applause elicited while the Dr. read his own productions would make it appear that it was the former. His manner of reading is very entertaining and somewhat original. A song by Mr. A. Findlay, and a recitation by Mr. Peter Sim added much to the amusement of the evening. If the Dr. continues to read he will probably be receiving an invitation from some of the large towns.—Com.

RELIGIOUS REVIVAL IN GALT.—Our neighbours in Galt have had, perhaps still have, a rather remarkable religious revival among them. It began five or six weeks ago under the preaching of Douglas Russell, Scotland, who addressed an audience of six or seven hundred people in the open air. Several pulpits were afterwards opened to him, the people took an interest in the meetings, the houses of worship were crowded, and when out door preaching was resorted to, as many as eight hundred have been convened. More recently the services have been confined to the Wesleyan Methodist and New Connection Churches, where they are held two or three nights each week. Mr. Russell was obliged to come to a London friend, Mr. Carroll, to come down to his assistance, and the call being promptly responded to, the two gentlemen continued the work with earnestness. In addition to the usual appeals from the pulpit, hearers were personally exhorted in their pews, and there has been a great interest in the meetings, and not been without effect.

Laying of the Corner Stone of Knox's Church, Guelph.

The corner stone of the above church was laid yesterday by the Rev. Dr. Ormiston of Hamilton. The fact, as announced by us, that he was to preach the thanksgiving services, had the effect of drawing a large and respectable attendance to the church, eager to hear the Rev. gentleman, whose reputation as a speaker and an orator, as well as a divine and philanthropist, has almost become world-wide; and their highest expectations regarding him were more than fully realized. Amongst those present we beheld some from remote parts of the County. In consequence of a delay on the railway, it was a few minutes after one o'clock ere the services began. Dr. Ormiston sang part of the 37th Psalm, and read the 84th Psalm, and leading in prayer, the Dr. preached an able and eloquent discourse from Romans 14th, ver. 13. The arguments adduced were sound, logical, pointed and convincing, abounding throughout with a fervency, pathos and zeal peculiar to a devoted ambassador of Jesus Christ, the whole being singularly suggestive. At the close of his remarks the Rev. W. F. Clarke engaged in prayer shortly after which the benediction was pronounced and the congregation adjourned to the new church in order to witness the interesting ceremony of laying the corner stone.

The ceremony itself was Presbyterian-like—plain and unpretending. A vast concourse of people was here assembled, amongst whom we observed the Rev. R. Torrance, Rev. W. F. Clarke, Rev. W. S. Griffin, Rev. Geo. Wood, Guelph; Rev. W. K. Smith, Galt; Rev. K. McDonald, Poulshnik; Rev. L. Cameron, Acton; Rev. W. Barrie, Erasmous; Rev. J. Duff, J. J. Middlemiss, Elora, besides many of our leading citizens, and prominent residents from the country. Before proceeding to lay the stone in its resting place, the Rev. Mr. Ball gave out three verses to be sung of the 87th Psalm, in which the assemblage joined. Charles Mickle, Esq., then advanced, and as chairman of the building committee, deposited a sealed jar in the cavity prepared for it, stating that it contained a sheet of parchment, upon which was the following inscription:—"This corner stone of Knox's Church, Guelph, in connection with the Canada Presbyterian Church, was laid by Dr. Ormiston of Hamilton, on Monday, the 19th of October, 1868." On it were also some statistics of the congregation, the signatures of Mr. Ball and Dr. Ormiston, as well as that of Dr. McGuire, Messrs. Thos. Anderson, Peter Hunter, Robert Miller, Geo. H. Carter, W. Wilkie and J. M. Dunn, as elders, and that of the managers, with the names of the architect and contractors. The jar also contained a copy of the last proceedings of Synod, and the Guelph WEEKLY MERCURY, Herald and Advertiser and the Toronto daily Globe and Leader, and the coin of the British realm. Mr. Mickle then handed the jar to a trowel, who smoothed the mortar, and ordered the stone to be lowered, and then gave it a few taps with a mallet, and declared it laid on high, and a blessing upon the building and the congregation for whom it was to be erected. Rev. Mr. Torrance closed the ceremony with prayer, after which the people returned to the church to listen to addresses, which could not be delivered on account of the consequence of the coldness of the afternoon.

We may here state that the church is to be built somewhat after the plan adopted last year. That plan was remodelled by the present architect, Mr. Joseph Hobson, and when built will be an ornament to the town. It is elegant in design, substantial but not heavy in appearance, and will be convenient and commodious. The plan is of the modern gothic style of architecture—in some measure a transcript of Knox's Church, Toronto, the difference being principally in the accessories and ornamentation of the spire. The building will be 88 feet length, 64 feet in width, and 68 feet in height, the spire rising to an elevation of 156 feet. There will be a basement floor, comprehending the entire area of the edifice, well lighted, lofty, and of easy access, giving ample accommodation for Sunday School, Bible Classes, Library, Vestry, &c. The church will be seated to accommodate from 800 to 900 people in the first instance, provision being made for more extensive accommodation ultimately, embracing all the latest improvements in Church architecture.

Upon returning to the church, the Rev. Mr. Smith, in a few complimentary sentences addressed the congregation and encouraged them as to the work before them. He was followed by Dr. Ormiston, who delivered a long address in a manner peculiarly happy and pungent with great and solemn truths. In the outset he gave a vivid illustration of the relation in which a church stood to all other buildings. We lived in a church building age, and it would be a hard matter for any singer who went to a cathedral to stand amidst a forest of steeples, towering heavenward, and serving, as it were, as warning posts to return to a living and a gracious God. Rapid strides had been in the building of churches in Canada within the past few years. Formerly it took centuries to build a cathedral—it was a nation's gift—costing large sums of money. In Canada alone, if all the money that had been expended within the last twenty-five years by the Presbyterian and other Protestant churches, in the erection of temples to a living God were together, the sum would be found to be vast, proving that we also had made great and material progress in this line. The day was not far gone by when he, like many of his clerical brethren around him, had to walk fifteen or twenty miles to preach to a congregation of a few persons in a log cabin, and when the appointed place became too small they adjourned to the open air, taking a wagon for their pulpit, the leaves of the trees, and the clear blue sky forming their canopy. He then dwelt at considerable length upon the character and attributes of God as He is revealed to us in His works and words, pictured the character of various homes, but the home of a christian family was the happiest upon earth, because it was a type of Heaven itself. Religion in no way taught us to be selfish. All genuine, true christians are open-hearted and open-handed. The church which this congregation was building was not only intended for themselves and their cotemporaries but for their children, and for generations yet unborn. Churches had always been regarded as national boons, and instanced the petition of the Centurion, who so loved the nation that he built it a synagogue. Ideas, of which religion was the greatest, governed the world. There was no idea like religion for grappling with a man's conscience; it was pregnant with glorious truths in reference to the future, hence the frequent attacks that were made upon it by the unbeliever. He regarded church building a positive means of grace, and considered himself highly favoured to be even permitted to see the stone in such a building, and designed for so noble a purpose. He hoped there were not here people whom he could call nothing else but religious sponges—people who wanted to be carried in the arms of others to the gates of heaven; but in his opinion that would be as far as such people would ever get, and further they had no right to ask to get, and from such he prayed to be delivered. He had heard a great deal about "giving" and the "widow's mite," but never yet heard of any one giving as much, for she gave her all; and we talking about giving our mites, when God had given us millions, was ingratitude and hypocrisy of the basest kind. In patriarchal days they gave the first fruits of the earth to the Lord, and the best fatlings of the flock were offered as sacrifices and burnt offerings. In conclusion, he hoped that not only would they build the church but that they also would fill it, and give it and themselves to the Lord, and prayed that happiness, peace and prosperity, and the fear of God might ever abound in the congregation. His remarks were listened to throughout with breathless attention. The Rev. Mr. Ball, on behalf of himself and the congregation thanked Dr. Ormiston for his kind and valued assistance upon the present auspicious occasion. The congregation joined in singing a part of the 133rd Psalm, after which the Rev. Mr. Barrie pronounced the benediction, and the congregation dispersed.

The Base Ball Concert.

The third annual Concert of the Guelph Maple Leaf Base Ball Club took place in the Town Hall last night, and as on former occasions was an extraordinary success, whether we regard the attendance or the character of the entertainment. Long before the hour of commencing every inch of room was occupied, although a gallery had been put up at the south end of the Hall, and all the passages and part of the platform filled with seats. By judicious seating the Base Ballers managed to crowd more than 500 people within the four walls of the building. The Hall was tastefully and appropriately decorated for the occasion. Flags and banners—conspicuous among which was the flag lately presented by the ladies to the Club—festooned the north end of the Hall. Over the door was a pretty transparency with the Maple Leaf and the initials of the Club, and around the walls were suspended smaller flags, balls, and other articles used in the game. The concert opened with a popular quickstep by Lawrence's Cornet Band, which was admirably played. The chorus—"Hail to the Queen of the silent night"—followed, the singers being Miss Fraser, Misses Holden and Messrs. Clark, Taylor and Braden. The chorus well sung and highly appreciated. It strikes us that if we had more pieces like this at our popular concerts, they would give all the more pleasure to the listeners. Messrs. Taylor and Braden next gave with great effect "The minute gun at sea"—a fine old duet, which though a little old-fashioned, was always welcomed in our country. Mr. D. Watson, of Goderich, sang "Falling Leaves." He has a good clear, tenor voice and gave the piece with great taste. The duet—"What Fairy-like music"—was admirably sung by the Misses Holden, whose voices are well suited for such music. They received a cordial encore, and gave in response also sprightly duet—"The merriest girls out." Mr. J. W. Clark, of Hamilton, followed with Reichardt's fine song, "Love's Request." This gentleman has a splendid baritone voice—full, pure and resonant. He sang with fine feeling, and did not receive the applause he deserved. Miss Jennie Fraser was more than heretofore in evidence on the Bench. Cultivation has greatly enhanced her singing, and a marked improvement was noticeable in the expression and taste which characterized her rendering of the music. She received a hearty encore, and sang a sweet little piece in response. The good old song, "Jessie the Flower of Dunblane," was well sung by Mr. Braden, who was recalled and repeated a part of it. The closing piece of the first part was a comic medley—"Ye Babes in the Wood"—by Mr. T. H. Taylor, in character. Mr. Taylor is such a master of the comic, that his appearance was sufficient to set the audience in a roar, and the irrepressible laughter burst out every where while he was singing the lugubrious strains of the doleful tragedy, and experimenting on all the popular airs from "Old Dan Tucker" to "Bobbie AROUND."

The Band opened the second part with a waltz, which was well played. Then followed a solo and chorus—"Flora and Forester" by Miss Fraser, Messrs. Holden and Messrs. Clark, Taylor and Braden. Russell's great song, "The Mahina" was next given by Mr. Taylor. This piece is confessedly a difficult one, and unless well sung fails to be appreciated. The best praise we can give Mr. Taylor is that it was appreciated last night, and given with that power and feeling which insures success. Mr. Clark's "Death of Nelson" was finely rendered, so also was "The Larboard Watch" by Messrs. Clarke and Watson. Mr. Vale gave a beautiful solo on the violin, and the applause was so enthusiastic that he was obliged to come out and give another which was equally as good. The song by Miss Fraser—"Good bye, but come again," was very sweetly sung. She gave on an encore "The flowers of Edinboro" with her old spirit. Mr. Watson followed with "Canotting to-night," after which the Misses Holden sang with much feeling the duet "Mother, can this glory be?" Billy Barlow in the person of Mr. Taylor then made his appearance in appropriate costume, and like a true philosopher improved the occasion. Mr. Taylor with that inimitable drollery of which he is a master touched on various topics and treated them all in such a way as to compel unbounded laughter. We know not which to admire most—Mr. Martin's talent in giving them voice and expression. It would be hard to match either. The national Anthem concluded his long and admirably selected programme. Mrs. Budd's and Mr. Martin's accompaniments were excellent, and could only have been given by those who made music a life's study.

After the concert a large number of the young folks indulged in a dance to the inspiring strains of Vale's Quadrille Band.

The Braes of Yarrow

An Historical Tale of the Sixteenth Century.

Jock had been honest enough to fulfil Gilbert's command to carry his note to the castle in the event of his not returning to the inn...

"Hem—hem—I'm not just sure—that is, I'm not precisely prepared to say, but no the man, I mean—that is, in fact I don't think the gentleman is the creature you take him to be."

"I am satisfied, Master Elliot," he said decisively, "I am satisfied that you have been mistaken, for I will use no harsher expression."

"My lord, my lord," interrupted Gilbert earnestly, "I am not mistaken; this poor wight is too much afraid to speak what he knows to be the truth—that yonder stands the man who drugged me and robbed me."

"It is false," said Barras, with the greatest self-possession. "Then you lie, Heron Barras, and I will prove it on your body."

"Peace, you sirrah, and Birnam be still, broke in the Earl haughtily. "What, is there no respect due the majesty I represent? By the mass, the first of ye that speaks save with my permission shall dearly rue the indignity he casts upon the Queen and Douglas."

"I humbly crave your lordship's pardon," said Birnam with sycophantic servility. "But your lordship must have noted that it was only by the reiterated assurance of the basest accusation, that I was forced into the unseemly forgetfulness of the presence in which I stand."

Gilbert was silent, but the flush which covered his cheeks and brow betokened the indignation he suppressed. "Enough, enough," cried Angus hotly, "we have done with this dispute. You, Master Elliot, have had your say, and you shall see that I have no wish to deal unjustly with you."

"At your solicitation, the King pardoned one who has proved himself a false knave and traitor." "My lord, Spens was my friend."

"Take heed, Master Elliot, the consort of traitors can scarcely escape contagion. I would not that you force me to look on you as such. When so much favour has been extended what shall condone the weakness which for a cup of wine can risk, not only a friend's life, but the failure of an embassy in which the King himself has taken an interest?"

Gilbert's cheeks burned with shame, and his heart seemed to leap into his throat, choking him. "Nothing can condone such weakness, my lord," he said huskily, and feeling it was vain to strive against the influence which was pressing him down, "but accident alone caused me to halt on my journey, and treachery made that halt fatal."

"Accident and treachery it may have been," pursued Angus sternly, "but men upon whose truth and strength depends the life of Majesty should be beyond the reach of such accident or treachery as that. You have said nothing can condone the weakness, and you have pronounced your own verdict. But your judge is a lenient one, and her Majesty requires no other punishment than that your name be struck from the roll of the guard. Deliver up your sword."

TO BE CONTINUED.

DUBLIN, Oct. 19th.—Mr. Geo. Francis Traill has published an address to the American people bidding the Irishmen to vote for Gen. He denounces Tammany Hall, and declares that the voters of the Fifth Congressional District of New York must take him as an independent candidate or not at all.

American Despatches.

The Election in the States—Immense Majorities for the Republicans—Democrats working vigorously—Great Excitement—Murder, etc. etc.

New York, Oct. 19. The Herald says the proposed change of Democratic standard is being vigorously urged by prominent members of the party. Many Southern Democrats are favoring the new course. At Raleigh, N. C., both parties are working vigorously, the Republicans are jubilant over elections in the North. It is asserted positively that Seymour and Blair have both placed letters of withdrawal in the hands of their friends. Several leading Democrats profess to believe that the movement is supported and urged by Mr. Seymour out of no friendship to the Democratic party. In Indianapolis, the Republican majority was so large that a protest has been ordered and large numbers of fraudulent votes have been found. The Tribune's New Orleans special says on the night of the 17th, Valentine Chase, (Republican) Parish Judge, was murdered, and his body was found next morning in the street in Franklin.

It is a perfect and wonderful article. Cure baldness. Makes hair grow. A better dressing than any Oil or Pomade. Softens hair, dry and wiry hair into beautiful and Silken Tresses. But, above all, the great wonder is the rapidity with which it restores GRAY HAIR to its ORIGINAL COLOR. The whitest and worst looking hair resumes its youthful beauty by its use. It does not dye the hair, but strikes at the root and fills it with new life and coloring matter. The first application will do good; you will see the NATURAL COLOR returning every day, and before you know it, the old, gray, discolored appearance of the hair will be gone, giving lustrous, shining and beautiful locks. Ask for Hall's Sicilian Hair Restorer; no other article is at all like it in effect. See that each bottle has our private Government Stamp over the top of the bottle. All others are imitations. In the Leather War now going on between their opponents on the South side of Wyndham Street.

WE do not believe in bosh and blarney, but deal with facts, and leave the verdict in the hands of the intelligent people of Wellington.
