DR. MOTHERWELL IN THE VALLEY

The Minister of Agriculture Sounds Optimistic Note at Lawrence-town Meeting.

Lawrencetown.—Hon. Mr. Motherwell, Dominion Minister of Agriculture, addressed a meeting in the Demonstration Building, Lawrence-town, on Thursday afternoon.

The speaker said he was in the Province to gain the knowledge necessary for the administration of his Department. He had lived on a farm all his life.

There was need of better understanding between East and West misconceptions were bound to come through incomplete knowledge of conditions.

He also touched upon the cattle export business to the Old Country and recommended shipment of live cattle as most likely to prove remunerative to the farmers.

The Honorable gentleman then referred to the general state of the country. He mentioned a "certain newspaper" that preached calamity, and stated though we were in for some hard sledding, no difficulty confronted us that could not be met with work and patience.

Dr. Lovett, M.P., made a short speech, and Professor Blair, of the Experimental Farm, Kentville, responded to the request for a few words.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Saunders entertained the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van Baskirk, of Wilmot.

U. S. SHIPOWNERS REFUSE TO HELP

Winnipeg.—With the advent of the heavy crop movement from the Prairies and the refusal of United States vessel owners to engage in the Canadian carrying trade under the terms of the new Lakes freight act requiring them to file tariffs, all Canadian boats on the Great Lakes were ordered by telegraph to report at Port William or Port Arthur next week to engage in carrying the 1923 grain crop to the eastern terminals, it was reported here.

It is estimated that the grain will move in to the head of the Lakes elevators at the rate of 2,000,000 bushels a day and that Canadian boats will be able to take care of about 1,000,000 bushels a day. The balance will have to be left in store unless the United States vessels come in.

BRIDGETOWN WINS BY BIG MARGIN

Local Cricket Team Trims Kentville 118 to 57 Saturday Afternoon.

In ideal weather for cricket Bridgetown brought the season to a most successful conclusion by defeating their friends from Kentville by 56 runs. W. Donat and Malcolm gave the home team a good start by putting together 24 runs before "Jack" returned one to the bowler.

Upon Phillip Donat joining his brother runs came at a great pace in spite of several changes in the bowling. Both were out when the score reached 70, "Billy" who hit the ball out of the ground four times, had the splendid score of 47 to his credit.

Dr. Rice and Jervis played good cricket and added 40 runs for the third wicket, the latter having helped himself to 29 before being dismissed.

Bridgetown declared their innings closed when the score had reached 118 for 4 wickets.

The veteran Miller and Beauchamp opened the innings for Kentville. The former was at the top of his form and hit up a useful 22. Walker, who also played splendid cricket, was the only other veteran to reach double figures.

Table with columns for player names and scores. Includes names like W. Donat, J. Malcolm, P. E. Donat, Dr. Rice, D. Evans, C. S. Bothamley, R. G. Evans, J. Donat, D. Ovens.

It is understood that Mr. Byron Bent, who has superintended many of Wolville's biggest building operations, will have charge of the work.

Miss Ross is a very cultured pleasing speaker, and seldom has a Lawrence-town audience had a greater treat.

REMARKABLE CASES OF LONGEVITY

Deac. McKeown of Lawrence-town, Visits five Relatives Whose Ages Combined With His Own Total 522 Years.

Lawrencetown.—Recently Deacon W. B. McKeown, of Lawrence-town, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. D. M. Balcom, his grandson, Mr. A. B. Balcom and his granddaughter, Mrs. Pearl Pitceon, made an auto trip of nearly one hundred miles to call on elderly relatives. It seems, sometimes, that longevity runs in families.

Deacon McKeown is 78 years of age, hale, hearty, enjoys good health, able, to do a good day's work and to all appearance good for the century mark.

The first call was on Mr. Neander Whitman, of Albany, a gentleman of 70 years of age and as youthful in appearance as 40 years ago.

The next call was at the home of Mr. Lemuel Murray, South Albany, where reside Mr. and Mrs. Albert Oakes, relatives of Deacon McKeown. This couple are respectively 90 and 92 years of age. They are in good health, pleasant to meet and enjoy the full use of their faculties.

After this pleasant call, the auto sped along through Springfield and Falkland Ridge. This is a delightful country. Its attractive homes indicate a prosperous and contented people. Large orchards filled with clean fruit everywhere meet the eye.

The next stop was at the home of Mr. Elton Saunders, East Dalhousie. Another relative, Mrs. Rachael Saunders resides here. This lady is 98 years old the 16th, of last August. Notwithstanding her remarkable age, she is smart, bright, has a clear intellect, good hearing and memory and as able to get around as when she was 40. Last summer she visited her sister, Mrs. Albert Oakes of Albany, and expects to do so again this Summer.

Onward swept the car to Dalhousie Corner and northerly along the Appleford Road to the home of a nephew, Mr. Seldon Hodges, at Morris-town. Mrs. Wm. Hodges, another relative 94 years of age, resides here. The hand of Time rests lightly on this youthful lady. Her mind is clear and memory good. She is active and able to get about the house and attend to many household duties.

From Dalhousie Corner to Morris-town is a delightful drive. Rugged scenery, winding roads, prosperous farms and picturesque lakes, about fifteen in all, enhance the beauty of the scene and delight the eye.

From Morris-town, the Deacon and his party returned to Lawrence-town. The combined ages of the Deacon and the five relatives on whom he called is 522 years, an average age of 87 years. Can a hundred mile trip among relatives of equal age be duplicated either in the County or Province?

INDIAN ARMY OFFICERS HERE

A Number Already in Valley—Others Coming—A Fine Type of Citizen.

A number of British officers from India have reached the Valley recently and are now at the homes of prominent citizens. They are taking note of conditions generally and familiarizing themselves with these before taking the step of purchasing properties. In this they are proceeding wisely and when finally settled on their own lands likely to become permanent residents. They are splendid types of citizen. The Monitor welcomes them to our Valley and trusts and believes that conditions will please them and that they will enjoy a good measure of prosperity and happiness in our Province.

Among those at present in the vicinity or in King's County are: Capt. G. St. J. Robinson at Mr. C. S. Bothamley's; Major and Mrs. Bridge, at Mr. A. M. O. Golds; Lieut. Stevenson, at Mr. E. B. Tracey's; Mr. Clink, late of the Indian Police, at Mr. Benson's; Capt. Keene, wife and child, at Mr. W. W. Pineo's, Waterville; Major Leefe, from British West Indies; Lieut. Rosser and a number of others. Some sixty more are expected to arrive in a few months. The movement as before mentioned was originated and directed by Col. Innes, Director of Agriculture, under the Soldiers' Settlement Board. Capt. R. W. Donaldson, of this town, acting under him is active in every way calculated to render the plan pleasing and successful.

Another movement is also being prosecuted involving survey of undeveloped lands and encouraging settlement of these by Canadian or other soldiers. In the course of a little time the officers from India will become familiar with conditions here and be ready to purchase places.

Parties having desirable places to dispose of would do well to communicate with Capt. R. W. Donaldson.

Vol. 1, No. 5 BRIDGETOWN, SEPT. 19th, 1923 FREE

A Tourist Tip

An American visitor, who has been coming to Canada for holidays the past eleven Summers, says he squares himself when he goes home by always bringing a five pound package of Moir's Chocolates.

Another buys four of these five pound packages before going home, and says he wouldn't be allowed back without them.

Canadians like Moir's Chocolates. Americans, when they get the chance, are crazy about them.

A little girl was seen in the Halifax Public Gardens lately, feeding the ducks. She had cake and Moir's Dan-Dee Bread. Whether by accident or choice she was throwing the cake to the ducks and keeping Moir's Bread for herself!

ASPIRIN

While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

VANCOUVER GRAIN SHIPPING

British Columbia City Claims An Advantage Over Atlantic Ports In Movement of Grain to the United Kingdom.

Vancouver, B. C.—This port will stand second only to New York in the volume of its trading when it serves the grain trade on Western Canada as shipping men are satisfied Vancouver can serve it. This statement was made before the Royal Grain Inquiry Commission by H. A. Stevenson, a local shipping man, who replied to statements made on the prairies regarding local shipping facilities. There was no room for doubt, he said, that adequate facilities would be available.

"Vancouver has an advantage over Atlantic ports in the movement of grain in the United Kingdom," said Mr. Stevenson. "Chartering for a long haul is sought after by tramp vessel owners. It is recognized that there is ample shipping tonnage in existence to more than take care of the world's trade. There has never been so many vessels as there are today. It is reasonable to assume that where there is cargo to move, ships will be available."

DIGBY EDITOR WILL MANAGE NEW COMPANY

Digby—James J. Wallis, for the past five years editor and manager of the Digby Courier, has resigned that position to take that of manager and secretary of a new printing company just formed in this town, for which articles of incorporation are now being prepared. The new company will be known as Printers Ltd., and it will have a capitalization of $5,000. The provisional directors are: B. W. Tobin, President; C. E. Dexter, Treasurer, and James J. Wallis, Secretary and Managing Director. The place of business will be in Digby, and the company starts out with a good equipment of type and machinery.

Mr. Howard Healey, of Halifax, the welterweight champion, will leave shortly for Boston on a few weeks vacation. While there Healey intends to keep in training.

CANADA CAPITAL SAFE

In Russia Today as in the Dominion, Says Sir Donald Mann, Railway Builder, on His Return From Soviet Russia.

Toronto.—"Canadian capital is as safe today in Russia as in Canada," Sir Donald Mann, Canadian railway builder, said on his return to Toronto from a 2,500 mile trip through Soviet Russia. "I believe the Russian Government will live up to any contracts they make. It is up to them now. They must have foreign capital and they must keep their bargains to get it."

"They offered me a great many things, including the railways. But I told them no one had any money for railways, especially as far away as Russia. They had a list of all these things, mines, big plants, railways. I had one interview with the government men that lasted six and a half hours. But I didn't do any business with them."

Living in Russia, according to Sir Donald, is fairly comfortable. "Crops in the north have been damaged by heavy rains but in the south the harvest is very fair."

"What I was impressed by most," Sir Donald said, "was the earnestness of the people. Men in government positions often work all night. Everyone is working at top speed to get the country back on its feet. They are doing business on a gold basis in Russia and you always know where you are with the money. Their gold notes are worth five to the pound sterling. When you go out of the country at any time, you can take them to a bank and get England pounds or American dollars for them."

C. N. R. EARNINGS

Montreal.—The gross earnings of the Canadian National Railways for the week ending Sept. 7th, 1923, were $4,781,656, being an increase of $100,189, or two per cent, as compared with the corresponding week of 1922.

The gross earnings of the Canadian National Railways from Jan. 1st to Sept. 7th, 1923, have been $164,520,721, being an increase of $17,675,203, as compared with the corresponding period of 1922.

Try it yourself. Level off a teaspoon of Rakwana Golden Orange Pekoe, place in earthen or china pot, well heated. Pour on violently boiling fresh water. After three minutes, stir and steep again.

TRAINING CAMPS

To Be Started in England This Autumn to Fit Prospective Overseas Settlers For Their New Duties.

London.—A letter in the Morning Post signed by Col. Leslie Wilson, M. P., Parliamentary Secretary to the Treasury, who has been appointed Governor of Bombay; Lord Strathpey, Lord Richard Frederick Cavendish and others deal at length with the scheme of training camps for empire settlement. The letter appeals for financial assistance in starting the camps for the training of prospective settlers overseas this Autumn in different parts of the country so as to fit the emigrants for their new duties.

The Post in an editorial supports the appeal and says: "Of all the relief schemes proposed none promises a more fruitful return. The pressure of unemployment and distress would be at once abated and the empire would be ultimately enriched by the increase of productivity and consuming power. Money spent in enabling workless men and women to become self-sustaining members of the community again is employed much more profitably than a great deal of many millions of pounds lavished upon education at the present time."

Continuing, the Post says: "It is strange perhaps that such a scheme should have been left to unofficial initiative, but these circumstances have one advantage that it denotes energy and promptitude in that these training camps are to be opened this very Autumn unless the necessary support from the public fails. Its success may well establish the first step in a movement that has deep national even imperial significance. It may solve by practical demonstration the problem that lies at the root of empire development."

It is a man's duty to have books.

ELIMINATION RACE OFF

GLOUCESTER OCTOBER 12

Gloucester, Mass.—The Gloucester fishing schooners will race about October 12th for the honor of challenging for the International Fisherman's cup, won last year by the Nova Scotia schooner Bluenose. This date has been tentatively set for the American elimination series, although the American Race Committee has not yet announced its plans.

The new Columbia is now on the banks salt fishing, but Capt. Alden Geele has promised to leave for home Sept. 20th, in order to be ready for the elimination.

The Henry Ford, runner-up to the Bluenose last year, is regarded as another certainty for the elimination tests.

The Elizabeth Howard is the third probability here.

THE APPLE OF THE FUTURE

(From the Manchester Guardian) "The apple of the future," said Mr. J. J. Ammon, of Utica, New York, "can be eaten in the dark." Mr. Ammon, who is visiting London, is an official of the New York State Apple-Growers' Association and a man of enthusiasm. "Our Association," he went on, "has adopted as its slogan: 'Grow, grade, and pack apples that can be eaten in the dark.' Other States have taken it up. It is the only way to do. Just as the farmer has learned from bitter experience that poor cattle do not pay, so the fruit-grower has learned from equally bitter experience that poor fruit 'will not pay.'"

"I admit it is a heroic slogan from every point of view," he went on. "It takes sublime faith to bite an apple in the dark nowadays, and it takes heroism in the apple-grower to reject rigidly all bruised and inferior fruit, but it pays. We've now got our bankers educated so that they will lead more money per tree to the man who sticks to our slogan than to the man who tries to sell everything on the place."

The visitor said he was unfamiliar with English fruit "except historically in the text-books," but was generous in his praise of Canadian fruit-growers. "They are a very conscientious lot," was the way he put it. Apparently they have reaped recently a reward, for when the United States Department of Agriculture placed a ban on foreign fruit a few weeks ago "to guard against disease" it made a specific exception of guaranteed Canadian fruit.

SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

Restored to Health By Taking "Fruit-a-tives"

Made of Fruit Juices and Tonics

The most convincing proof of the true worth of "Fruit-a-tives" as a medicine for women is found in a letter written by them to "Fruit-a-tives". For instance: "I suffered with all the symptoms of female trouble, pains low down in the back and sides, constipation and constant headache. A doctor advised an operation. I started taking 'Fruit-a-tives' and this fruit medicine completely relieved me of all my misery".

- APART FOR 51 YEARS. BROTHERS ARE UNITED
St. John, N. B.—Visiting St. John are two brothers, natives of New Brunswick, who had not seen each other for 51 years, until last week. They are Thomas E. Smith, of Passmore, King's County, and Isaac P. Smith, of Paris, Ont. Equally remarkable is the fact that there is another brother, residing in California, who has not met the members of his family for 56 years. Still a fourth brother is in Newton, Mass., but he has been a recent visitor to his native province.

THREATENED RAILWAY STRIKE

Certain branches of labor on the Canadian National Railway system, including station, shop, roundhouse and clerical hands, threaten to strike if their latest submitted wage demands are not complied with, and it is expected that these demands will be endorsed by their union, the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees, now in session at Toronto. They claim that their rates of pay are below the general standard of wages in the Dominion, and far below what other lines of railway men are paid. The average rate of wages on the C. N. R., as on other railways is fairly high, but wages are unequally distributed. While conductors, drivers and other train hands earn high wages, ranging from ten to twenty dollars a day, other classes of railway employees, such as station hands, switchmen, track hands, shovellers and others, are paid as low as three and a half dollars a day. Although the duties of actual train hands, like drivers and conductors, brakemen and firemen, are of greater responsibility than those of the auxiliary lines of railway labor, yet the discrepancy in wages is so great, between the higher and lower paid classes, as to cause a lot of discontent and consequent agitation.

As in many other lines of labor the higher paid men, and they are not infrequently the most active agitators absorb so much of the railway's earnings as to leave little for those who have not sufficient weight in the labor organization to compel the payment of a better wage. The same thing may be noted in the collieries. Coal cutters and others working at the face earn three or four times the wages paid laborers on the surface. Probably this is unavoidable. Their work is more important, requires greater skill, and it is done underground, entailing risk to life and limb, though the hours as a general rule are shorter than those on the surface. But no matter what the difference between wages paid the higher classes of labor and the lower, whenever a raise of pay is mooted the lion's share of the increase is ear-marked for those who already have got the cream of the industry's earnings.

For instance, if the company proposed to raise the wages of all those paid less than five dollars a day to that figure without giving a proportionate increase to the remainder of the working force, the latter would probably raise objections. The argument doubtless would be that the rate of pay would then be out of scale. It would never do for a surface laborer to get five dollars a day while a man in the pit, in one of the more remunerative jobs, was paid only six or seven dollars. If the $3.50 a day man were advanced to $5.00, the $6.50 man would demand a rate that would net him $9.00 a day. This aspect of the problem was noted during the recent steel strike at Sydney. It was pointed out that if the increase demanded had been granted the higher paid men would be getting a larger advance than the lower paid laborer for whose benefit ostensibly the whole agitation was carried on. Doubtless if the company instead of acceding to the steel workers' request for a general advance of 20 per cent, had come back with an offer of an advance of ten cents an hour, it would probably have been unsatisfactory—to the higher paid men. On the other hand it would have meant more for the lower paid men than the 20 per cent. raise. To a man paid at the rate of 35 cents an hour a 20 per cent. increase would only raise him to 42 cents an hour, whereas an additional ten cents an hour would have meant 45 cents to him. But to the man paid a fairly high rate, say 70 cents an hour, the 20 per cent. would of course have meant more than an extra 10 cents an hour.

Labor leaders speak of the solidarity and brotherhood of labor, but when it comes to a scramble for higher wages the altruistic aspect of the matter is apparently forgotten, and those occupying the lowest grades of labor must be content with an increase in proportion to their miserable pittance. Those at the top, already getting perhaps as much as they are fairly entitled to, must still have the largest share of the increase.

Not that we should for a moment advocate a general leveling up, or down of wages. Superior skill and energy, the nature of the job, the quality of the work, must be recognized. The suggestion often put forward by labor leaders that a workman is recreant to his order, who strives to be more and better worker than his fellows, is one that cannot be counteracted. It is evidently not counteracted among our miners at any rate. When a coal cutter earns four times the pay of a man employed on the surface there is no cavilling on the part either of his fellow workmen or his employer. It is recognized that he has fairly earned his day's pay, large though it seem in comparison to that earned by those in other lines. At the same time there is not much doubt that not enough consideration is shown those who are paid the lowest daily wage. Very often an employer would like to advance certain low grades of labor, but is afraid to open the question lest a general advance be demanded. So that is doubtless the problem before the railway authorities. Men who earn from $2.50 to $4.00 a day, and there are many in the service, feel that they have a grievance when they contrast their meagre pay with the splendid remuneration of some of their fellow-employees.—Glouce Bay Gazette.

WEST PARADISE

Mrs. Clara Patterson has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Morse for the past week.

Mr. Frank Poole, with Mr. Robie Whitman, engaged in making a complete renovation of his residence. With the addition of roof and sides, a complete shingling of dormer windows, and painting, the house is going to present a much improved appearance.

Mr. Carl Saunders and bride returned on Monday last from a trip to Smith's Cove. A rousing serenade of welcome was given them that evening at the home of the groom's parents by fifty-three of the people of the neighborhood. Horns, bells and suns, all combined, tended to a very noisy, if not melodious, effect. Mr. Henry Sanford was the means of displaying a number of pretty rackets. When the young couple appeared in the doorway, the noise abated. After many congratulations the senders were invited inside, where they partook of dainty refreshments. Many good wishes for a long and happy period of married life follow Mr. and Mrs. Saunders to their new home in West

REMINISCENCES OF BRIDGETOWN IN THE DAYS GONE BY

I may mention Chas. H. Eason and I cannot help paying a tribute to Maurice Calnek, son of Bernard Calnek, of Granville Centre. He was a Preux Chevalier, honest as the day...

he neither drank nor smoked, and was a brilliant conversationalist, so that he was much sought after wherever he went. He studied medicine in New York and then went to Costa Rica as doctor on a steamer which was owned by the millionaire, Miner C. Keith, a nephew of Henry and John McGeary, of Peruvian fame. They built the railway over the Andes. He settled in Costa Rica, where he was one of the first physicians, but his health had been undermined by yellow fever, and malaria fever, of which he eventually died. He was generous to a fault, but hissing like a viper made him like a wild bull.

Besides the Shipley, there was the genial lawyer Timothy Partridge whom everybody liked, and his equally popular brother-in-law, James H. Thorne. I had nearly forgotten Dr. Forsythe, a good man whose acts of kindness I can never forget.

The above is reproduced in this issue on account of an unfortunate misplacement of a few lines in last issue which rather mixed some characteristics of the persons described.

The painter uses for a foil to his brilliant colors more sombre pigments to bring out the former. So will I before I throw upon the screen my last garish picture, at once calm and eve and enhance the glory of every picture by using the pale grey of the Quaker garb.

I described in a former letter the excellence of the Colonial House, and I wish to emphasize even more that account and if possible add to it.

This time however, the waves of the sea of life cast me up bearded and cold at the foot of Mrs. Duncan's luncheon. She took me in, poured oil into my wounds, gave me good food, and put me into a warm and comfortable bed. Mrs. Duncan is a true Christian woman, who does not worship the golden calf, she takes for her motto "Do unto others as ye would that they should do unto you" she gives her time and her strength for a very moderate price—and her best is ever excellent.

Now having rested the weary eyes of your readers by my Quaker garb I will proceed to give them my last picture of Elphinstone.

Appendix II. It is a brilliant September day, and the sun bathes the streets in glory. There issues from the door of the old Central Hotel, a tall, handsome, showy girl, dressed like the popples of the field. She has a proud look on her face as though conscious of her beauty. She sails along like a variegated balloon, for she wears the large, revolving hat of the "sixties". She is a striking spectacle in the brilliant sunshine that is merely toned down by the green of the trees that form an arch over her head which is so characteristic of Elphinstone. Any one seeing her could have imagined that she was ancient Greek goddess, say Pallas Athene or Minerva, as she was called by the Romans about to ascend up above the skies, and watch over the Greek hosts that were besieging Troy. She floated along the streets and many admiring eyes were directed at her.

Years after I saw her again. She was keeping a liquor shop near the wharf, but had grown coarse. Her name was A. M. She is dead now. "May the Heavenly Father forgive her her frailties."

Let him who is without sin among us cast the first stone at her. COLIN W. F. CAMPBELL.

YOUR GROCER HAS IT

Few vegetables are more useful for first aid work than the much despised onion. For hoarseness or soreness of the chest, you cannot have a better supper than boiled onions. Raw onions, eaten at bedtime, will break up a heavy cold, they will also stimulate a tired person. If stung in the mouth or throat by an insect, chew raw onion until the doctor comes. It is not necessary to swallow any of the onion: the juice has the soothing properties. The onion is as valuable for outward application as it is for inward. In cases of burns, raw and pounded onions applied to the affected parts gives immediate relief. An onion poultice relieves ulcerated throat and bronchitis. Boil a large onion until it drops to pieces. Strain and mash, then lay between soft muslin, and apply at once to the throat. To be effective, the poultice must be hot. Similar treatment is good for hoarseness and inflammation. When swelling ensues, do so with the hands under water, then you will not be troubled with stained hands, or watering eyes.

"Thank God for Tea! What did the world do without it—how did it exist? I am glad I was not born before Tea." Thus wrote the brilliant Sydney Smith in the early days of the nineteenth century, and countless thousands have echoed his sentiments since. But if Sydney Smith could so enthuse over Tea as it was then, what would he say of it to-day, when science in growing and art in blending have brought your cup of Tea to such a high point of perfection.

And what would he think of to-day's cost? At an incomparably lower price you are able to enjoy Tea of a deliciousness Sydney Smith never knew or imagined.

When you make your trip to the Far East, in which China must be embraced, you will be sure to visit Hong Kong and Canton, for both places are renowned in poetry and prose the world over. You cannot, very well, call at Hong Kong without "making your number" at Canton, for the places are only eighty miles distant from each other. The Canadian Pacific "Empresses" call at Hong Kong and from there you can proceed to Canton by either train or river steamer. Those in the "know" usually go by train and return by steamer, or vice versa. By the train you will be able to feast your eyes on southern China inland scenery and village life. By the steamer you go up or down the Canton river. Both journeys are interesting; but the run on the Canton river will be more enjoyed. A number of the Canton river steamers, as well as being large, fast and spacious vessels, will take a lot of beating as regards accommodation, table and general service. There is at all times plenty of excellent company on board—visitors like yourself, and European residents in various parts of Asia—in whom you will discover charming and instructive companions. There will be so much to attract your attention in Hong Kong that your heart's desire will be to "just see every place of interest at one time." As your steamer glides into the magnificent harbour hundreds of Chinese junks will be thrust upon your view, under sail, tacking, "going about" and at anchor. They are all picturesque to a degree, with their rich brown sails, peculiar rig—strictly indigenous to Old Cathay—and their hulls with an eye on the port and starboard sides of the bow, for, as the Chinese will explain to you: "Suppose no got eye, no can see." Stretched before you, as your steamer passes to her wharf at Kowloon, is the noble Praya—now named Connaught Road—or waterfront. The denizens of Shanghai call their waterfront, The Bund. Part of the Praya, to the left, is land reclaimed from the sea. Splendid buildings, with their tiers of terraces, have been erected upon it, among which is that of the Hong Kong Club, one of the most luxurious social institutions in the world.

NOVA SCOTIA LED IN APPLE PRODUCTION. The following is contained in the weekly supplement of the Agricultural and Industrial Progress in Canada:— Halifax—Nova Scotia occupied the premier position in the Dominion as an apple producing province last year, according to figures made public by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics while British Columbia was second and Ontario third. Nova Scotia produced last year 1,891,000 barrels; British Columbia, 1,000,000; Ontario, 809,000; Quebec, 112,000, and New Brunswick 25,000. The total production for the Dominion last year is placed at 3,828,000, as compared with 4,046,000 in 1921. Fredericton.—The first shipment of seed potatoes this year from New Brunswick to Bermuda, left last week. For several years New Brunswick has been furnishing some quantities of seed potatoes to Bermuda, where there is a demand for northern grown seed stock which is available for the crop that is grown especially for the Christmas market in England.

Local Happenings

The Social Service Council are circulating petitions in Nova Scotia asking the Local Provincial Government to request the Federal Authorities to cancel the licenses under which wholesale warehouses can export liquor from Halifax. They are also asking for strict supervision of liquor sales throughout the Provinces by the Provincial Vendors' Commission, and that stringent measures be adopted for the enforcement of the Nova Scotia Temperance Act. These petitions are being circulated in Bridgetown by a number of the ladies and are being quite widely signed.

Among visitors to town last week were: Collector of Customs William Pugh, Mrs. Pugh and daughter, Mrs. Fred Denton; Ex-Warden H. P. Bowers and son Bernard; Mr. Gerald Strickland, of Westport; Capt. and Mrs. C. W. Collins and daughters, Miss Vera and Miss Blanche, of Granville Ferry. U. members and other citizens of a substantial purse. During his residence here "Ernie" enjoyed unusual esteem. A first class ball player, a good all-round sport and high type of gentleman in every respect, the presentation referred to above was a tribute well merited and his many friends wish him and his young bride all happiness and prosperity in their new home in the U. S. A.

Make .:. Money

Some men make their money in business—some in stocks—some by tollsome saving of their daily wage.

But we submit to you the unquestioned fact that more men have reached a comfortable competence thru the ownership of property—houses and land which bring in a fixed income—than in any other way.

Business requires your sole attention—stocks mean sleepless nights and days of worry—property works by itself for you without your care.

Select it—set it to work—it takes care of itself and will take care of you.

Buy the land that will make you comfortable for life. We can show you a property worthy of your purchase.

How to make your skin fresh and clear

Palm and olive oils—nothing else—give nature's green color to Palmolive Soap

Made in Canada

Every woman passes as pretty if only her skin is fresh, smooth and young. It is within the power of every woman to possess this attraction to make her complexion as beautiful as she longs for it to be.

The secret? Cleopatra knew and practiced it in the days of ancient Egypt. She observed a daily ceremonious cleansing. The cleansers she used were the same you may have today, Palm and Olive oils.

These beautifying oils are scientifically blended in famous Palmolive Soap. They give it softness, wonderful soothing qualities, rofiness, creamy and refreshing lather.

Cleansing with Palmolive is a beauty treatment in itself. No woman should say her skin is too sensitive to use soap until she has tried Palmolive.

The attractive green cake, the natural color of the oils, is within the reach of every one who appreciates that cleanliness is the greatest beautifier.

You can buy Palmolive Soap at all first class dealers.

Is Your Wife Marooned During the Day?

HAVE you ever considered what is meant by hundreds of cars parked in the downtown districts during the day and in the large number of cars driven for business purposes by the men folks of the family?

It means that during the day, the wife must stay at home, must walk or must take the street car or bus.

In the Chevrolet Superior Utility Coupe the wife finds an ideal means of transportation for shopping or social calls. It gives her a freedom of action that she deserves.

Why not leave a Utility Coupe at home for the wife and children while you are using the other car for business?
