Editorial Topics.

THE NEW YEAR. THIS number opens another year in the history of Trinity University and of THE REVIEW. Last session, under the able guidance of Mr. G. B. Strathy, THE REVIEW had perhaps the most successful year of its existence. Being deeply conscious of this, the new management takes the place of the old with some degree of trepidation, but also with the determination to do all that can be done to maintain the standard of last year.

THE FRESHMEN. THE prospects of this College never seemed brighter. We commence this session with a larger Freshmen class than has entered these halls for many years. Though this class may not exceed former years in quality, it most certainly does in quantity; and we hold before the members of this promising year, the hope that in time they may, even in quality attain the standard of their Seniors. THE REVIEW takes this opportunity of welcoming them to this University, hoping that they will ever do their utmost to further her interests as loyal sons. They have entered this College at a turning point in her existence, when progress seems the order of the day, at a time when every effort is being put forth to bring this institution before the Church people of the Province, and to awaken them to the realization that this is the Church University of Ontario.

THE TROUBLE IN CHINA. It is curious to notice the change of front in some papers here and elsewhere, in regard to the influence of the missionary in the Celestial Empire. In ordinary times he is represented as a mistaken fanatic, who labours in vain among the Chinamen, whose influence is nothing, and whose energies are lost, yet when a great anti-foreign movement arises in China, all the blame is laid at the feet of the missionary. He, the narrow minded bigot, the laughing stock of the whole Chinese world, is the cause of all the bloodshed, and we are asked to believe that if only he could be driven out, and the other foreigners left to their mines, railroads, opium trading, etc., peace would be restored. Now the interesting point of all this is the compliment passed upon these ignorant, uninfluential missionaries. What a mighty power these two thousand men and women must be to have stirred that vast sluggish empire to such a depth! Their influence must be greater and wider than the world dreamed of, their daily work for the last few years, without the help of rifle or sword, must have been telling indeed.

But as a matter of fact, the missionary is but one of the many factors in the present trouble. In the edicts and placards published throughout the length and breadth of the Empire, the Chinaman himself, counts the missionary as only one of his grievances, for to quote from the Japan Weekly Mail "it really concedes too much power and influence to the missionary to say, that he did it, or even a greater part of it." The trouble springs from the Boxer movement against all foreign institutions. Neither the Boxers nor the officials implicated with them, care anything for the missionaries as such, or for their religion. Their quarrel is with all foreigners, missionaries among them.

PROFESSOR CAYLEY'S RESIGNATION. "PROFESSOR CAYLEY is resigning his chair in Theology." This was one of the items of news that we heard as soon as we came up this term.

Mr. Cayley has been appointed to the Rectory of S. Simon the Apostle, in this city. While we are convinced of the wisdom of the Bishop of Toronto in his choice for this important living, and can congratulate both Mr. Cayley and the congregation to which he is going to minister, yet at the same time we do feel that the loss which "Trinity" sustains is a severe one, and it is with sincere regret that we shall part with one who has been so long connected with our Alma Mater.

Mr. Cayley has been connected with Trinity all his life, he is a Canadian and a Torontonion, belonging to a family well-known and highly honoured in the annals of our own city. He is a son of the Rev. John D'Arcy Cayley, Canon of S. Alban's Cathedral and Rector of S. George's Church, Toronto, and a grandson of the late Hon. William Cayley, formerly Finance Minister.

Professor Cayley was educated at Trinity College School, Port Hope, and at Trinity University, Toronto, where he won three scholarships. He took his degree in 1885, and was ordained to the sacred ministry in 1889. He has been attached to his Alma Mater ever since he first entered the University as an undergraduate, and at the present time holds the responsible position of Second Professor in Divinity, in which office he succeeded the Rev. Dr. Roper, now of the General Theological Seminary in New York.

We are sure that Mr. Cayley will carry on the work of S. Simon's parish in no less successful way than it has been carried on by our Provost for the last thirteen years. The enrichment to Mr. Cayley himself in taking up the work of a Parish Priest, so different in all its aspects from that of a Professor, will not be the least of the blessings to accrue from this change; and if the writer were a prophet and could pierce the future, he would predict what he humbly ventures to hope for, that, after some years of parochial experience, in the providence of God, Mr. Cayley will be called back by his Alma Mater, to devote his whole life to that work within her walls, for which he is so eminently qualified.

ELECTION OF GILBERT PARKER, D.C.L. TRINITY has a new right to be proud of her illustrious alumnus Gilbert Parker, D.C.L. He has recently been elected to a seat in the British House of Commons.

Trinity feels highly honoured in having one of her sons at S. Stephens. But chiefly we congratulate the successful candidate himself. As is well-known, both he and Dr. Parkin have together and separately been urging Imperial Federation for many years back, and whether he succeeds in obtaining his ideal or not, we know that Gilbert Parker will always be a staunch friend of the Colonies of Great Britain, an ornament in the British Parliament and credit to Canada and to Trinity University.

COLLEGE MAGAZINES. DURING the past session, college magazines have frequently contained treatises on the functions of a college magazine.

It seems to be the general impression, that all functions unite in the one aim of cultivating a literary taste. With this view we venture to disagree.

Suppose a university with three or four thousand, students in attendance. What proportion of these men would contribute articles pretending to literary excellence, and what proportion would care to read such contributions? The idea is too narrow, the principle too exclusive. Students do not read their college magazines for instruction; they get that in the class-room. If they desire to acquire a literary style, let them use their college reading-rooms and libraries.

The functions of a college magazine are twofold: first to interest the student-body, second to interest the alumni. Every contributor should endeavour to use a good style, but he should first endeavour to interest his readers.

The magazine that appeals to "college spirit" for support is doing wrong; it is following in the steps of the politician, who, in default of a policy, waves his country's flag. One does not have to look closely to see that those magazines, whose appeals are most incessant, are the very ones which least deserve support.

THE ELECTIONS. It must be admitted that Trinity men are not absorbed with interest in the coming Dominion Elections. Discussions upon the relative merits of the two parties, both of which are "appealing confidently" to the country at the present time, are exceedingly rare. Most of the men seem to take a pride in being totally ignorant of all political questions, and being utterly indifferent to the issues in the coming contest. This state of affairs is greatly to be regretted. It is the duty of every British citizen to take an intelligent interest in affairs which are so closely connected with the welfare of our Dominion. The questions before this country are of vital importance, and he surely is lacking in real patriotism, who fails to face intelligently, issues so nearly connected with the best interests of Canada.

THE VACANCY ON THE STAFF. The announcement of the retirement of Rev. Mr. Cayley from the college staff, which has called forth regret on all sides, has also given rise to some speculation as to his probable successor. While no name has yet been mentioned—at all events openly—in connection with the appointment, the matter will no doubt soon claim the attention of the powers that be, and the selection of a new Professor of Divinity is likely to prove no easy task.

Apart from the energy and ability displayed by Rev. Mr. Cayley in his own particular line of work, he enjoyed to an unlimited extent the goodwill and confidence of the men. His interest in college institutions was of the keenest, particularly in the line of sport, that greatest of all factors in the maintenance of a hearty college spirit. He never failed to recognize that the greatest power for good lay in entering as completely as possible into the lives of those whom he sought to influence. The withdrawal of a don so thoroughly in sympathy with undergraduate aims and purposes leaves a gap that will be difficult indeed to fill.

It is a somewhat significant fact that the minds of graduates and undergraduates alike seem to have turned by common consent to a former member of the Faculty as the man most eminently fitted to take up and carry on this work. Mention of his name would be superfluous; it will occur to everyone. His absence from the College has been greatly felt, his return would be hailed in every quarter with satisfaction and pleasure. His former record was a most enviable one, his influence in and out of college was of the greatest, and from the men he succeeded in winning admiration and respect such as few can boast. In recommending this appointment to the earnest consideration of those with whom it lies, THE REVIEW does no more than give expression to the wish of all Trinity men and, it is believed, most of her other supporters. So strong a feeling is at least an evidence of the hearty support that will be accorded this gentleman should their wish become realized.

Athletics.

FOOTBALL.

STEPS were taken this year to get the team men back early for Rugby. The college assisted the men very materially, for on request they generously offered ten days free board to all bona fide members of the team. Most of the men returned on September 24th or in the early part of that week, and put in some good work. It is worthy of notice and praise that Trinity had a good practice match with the Westerns of Parkdale nearly a week before term opened. Trinity won in a close game, which showed up some of our many weak points, and efforts were made to remedy them during the next week.

THE opening of term brought quite a number of husky Freshmen who were at once put on the football field. The men turned out well to practices and good work was indulged in. Mr. J. A. R. Macdonald made a very energetic captain and coached his men well. Shortly after the opening of term he gave the new men a good chalk talk which ought to give them a good idea of the game. The gymnasium also was got in shape with bars, punching bag, etc., and the offer of Mr. R. V. Harris, '02, to take charge of this department was accepted. Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at 3 p.m. just before turning out to football were the days for instruction. A training table was also kept up.

TRINITY VS. WESTERNS OF PARKDALE.

ON Saturday, October 6th, the second practice game was played with the Westerns. Trinity winning by a score of 14-0.

The game was a pretty good exhibition, and showed a good deal of improvement in every way. Three of the regular team men were off, Strathy, Burbidge, and Hewetson. In the first half Mockridge scored a try, which Sawers converted. In the second half, Baldwin and Richards each went over for a try, but the kick was not tried in either. Trinity team was as follows:—

Back, Nevitt; half backs, Mockridge, Walker, Sawers; quarter, Sait; Scrimmage, Macdonald, (captain), Baldwin, Honey; wings, Richards, Lancefield, Clarke, Trotter, Kelley, Weedmark.

TRINITY VS. UPPER CANADA.

UPPER CANADA played a practice match here on Tuesday, October 9th, and easily won from the Trinity team. The men seemed to go all to pieces in this game, and perhaps one reason was that they were too confident of winning. We were outplayed in every position. Trinity men did not hold their wings and did not follow up at all, while Upper Canada got through every time and were always on the ball. Mr. Grant of U.C.C. refereed the game very satisfactorily, Mr. Woodcock umpired.

Trinity team was as follows:—

Back, Nevitt; half backs, Mockridge, Walker, Sawers; quarter, Sait; scrimmage, Macdonald, Hewetson, Wade; wings, Richards, Lancefield, Burbidge, Clarke, Hovey, Trotter, Weedmark.

Strathy played on the half back line in the second half, and Sawers went on the wing line, Weedmark dropping out.

TRINITY VS. VARSITY II.

TRINITY certainly received a very bad beating at the hands of Varsity II on October 13th, on the Trinity campus. Trinity put up a plucky fight, and struggled for all that was in them, but they found Varsity more than a match for them at every point. Two men were unable to play in this game. Macdonald, the captain, was very much under the weather, and Clarke had a sprained ankle. All the men played well, and did all they could against a team so much heavier than they were. Strathy bore the brunt of the battle at half back, but had no support as he sent his halves on the wing line. Varsity's kicking chiefly disconcerted us, but in a mass play Trinity would often gain a good deal of ground even against such weight. Varsity would average at least ten pounds heavier, and all were older hands at the game. "Biddy" Barr refereed and gave good satisfaction by his fair decisions; C. W. Bell umpired.

The teams were as follows:—

TRINITY.—Back, Sawers; halves, Mockridge, Strathy, Walker; quarter, Sait; scrimmage, Wade, Hewetson, Baldwin; wings, Richards, Lancefield, Burbidge, Kelley, Hammond, Kidd, Trotter.

VARSIITY.—Back, Thorne; halves, Wallace, Stratton, Wright; quarter, Ballard; scrimmage, Harvey, Burnham, McKittrick; wings, Snively, Ingram, Henry, Moore, Martin, Wood, Hoyles, (captain.)

* * *

TRINITY plays a return match with Upper Canada on Wednesday, October 17th, which is the prize day there.

* * *

PETERBOROUGH RUGBY CLUB have been very anxious to arrange a game with us. They wanted a game on Thanksgiving day at first in Peterborough, then they wanted one on October 24th. They are holding their annual football dance on that evening and wished the team to be their guests at that social affair. Although all the men were very anxious to go, and would have spent a very pleasant time in Peterborough, it was thought best to decline their very kind invitation.

* * *

THE athletic executive committee are already considering a suitable date for the athletic dance, but no time has been set as yet. It will likely take place in the last part of November.

* * *

THE steeplechase has also to be run off in the early part of November, and the men would do well to begin to train for it. A large entry is expected.

Miscellany.

THE LIBRARY.

AFTER two years hard work and by giving up his summer vacation to it, Mr. A. H. Young has at last brought to an end the labour of cataloging the books in the Library of Trinity College. He was assisted at intervals during the summer by Mr. Armour and Mr. Nevitt. The library is divided into twelve sections containing works on Science, History, Fine Arts, Classics, Moderns, old and curious editions of the Bible and Commentaries, Dr. Bray's Bequest, Sermons, Apologetics, Homiletics, Ancient Fathers, besides many rare volumes of other authors. Among other curios are an address to Bishop Strachan from the trustees of English Church Sunday Schools of the Diocese of Upper Canada, congratulating him on his consecration to the sacred office of the Episcopacy, also books presented to the Library by Her most gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, both containing her signature, one of them her autograph of presentation. The original plans of the chapel have been framed and hung up on the walls. The library is open every day from 1 to 1.15 p.m., when students may take out books for two weeks, and non-resident graduates may obtain books on prepaying expenses of freight and carriage. The privilege is much esteemed and rightly so by the students. The assistants of the librarian for the present year are Messrs. E. P. S. Spencer, M.A., and R. B. Nevitt, B.A., one of them always being in the library at the regular hours to issue and receive books.

THE UPPER CANADA SCHOLARSHIP.

WE are pleased to announce that owing to the exertions of certain alumni, who are also old Upper Canada College boys, a scholarship will be offered to matriculation next year, open to students from that institution alone.

There is no reason why Upper Canada College should not be a recruiting ground for the student-body of Trinity College. A unity of aim is found in the residential and common life, and friendship between the two institutions is ensured by the fact that four members of our faculty, including the Provost, received their early education at Upper Canada. When once the influx of college boys commences, conditions of academic life here make its continuance undoubted. Nothing could be better calculated to establish the movement than the foundation of this scholarship.

The value of the scholarship is $100 and three years, tuition, $60 being payable in the first and $40 in the second year. It will be awarded for general proficiency, with the provision that the candidate must have secured first-class honours in at least one department; that is, in classics, mathematics, moderns, English, and history or science. In order to enjoy the scholarship in the second and third years, the holder must take first-class honours in some department at primary and previous examinations.

Those from whom subscriptions to the scholarship fund have been received are:—The Provost; Revs. Dr. Jones; Canon Cayley; J. Allan Ballard, Grand Valley; Charles J. Mockridge, Detroit; D. F. Bogart, Belleville; C. R. Lee, Grimsby; C. B. Beck; F. G. Plummer; Lenox Smith; Dr. S. R. Parkin, C. M. G.; Messrs. D. T. Symonds, B.C.L.; Christopher Robinson, Q.C.; J. Henderson, Q.C.; Chas. J. Benson, M.A., St. Catharines; J. E. O'Rielly, M.A., Hamilton; A. H. Young, M.A.; J. D. McMurrich, B. A.; Henry Brock, B.C.L.; P. A. Manning; A. E. Hoskin, B.C.L.; Dr. W. H. Pepler; W. Rein Wadsworth, B.A.; J. H. McConnell, Q.C.; H. S. Southam, B.A., Winnipeg; R. H. Parmenter, B.A.; A. Angus Macdonald, Montreal.

We are delighted to gather from Dr. Parkin's annual address at Upper Canada College the other day, that there is the possibility of another Trinity scholarship for U.C.C. boys. We understand that this scholarship is to be founded in memory of one who was once an Upper Canada boy, and who, at the time of his death, was an undergraduate in Arts here.

The scholarship is to consist of a substantial sum in money, with three years tuition free, and will be open to all Upper Canada boys. The founders of this benefice could not have chosen a more fitting memorial to one, to whom both Upper Canada College and Trinity University were very dear.

THE SECOND YEAR SUPPER.

THE annual Second Year supper was held on Monday night, October 15th, when the Freshman Class of 1903 was solemnly initiated into some of the mysteries of Trinity. This supper is a very old institution, and has come down through many years in unbroken progress. It is one of the best functions in the year, and there is no doubt that the interest which is taken in it will not diminish in the near future at any rate. There was quite a large crowd present. Besides our own senior students, Trinity Med. and Osgoode sent up a very good representation of graduates, who seemed to enjoy themselves as heartily as ever.

The entertainment was well carried out, and quite varied in its attractions. The Freshmen entered into the spirit of the performance very well, and showed that they had lots of good stuff in them. We shall expect great things from this year of '03. They are the first which are to figure in the new era of Trinity's life. The sun has been under a cloud for a time, but now it is just beginning to break through the haze, and we can see in this glimmering light something of the future in store for this grand old college of ours. We have had our dark day, we have seen the darkest side, but now everything is changing, and a very bright prospect is before us, and it is our sincere hope that our new men will realize this fact, and use all their influence to bring that bright day near as soon as possible.

The procession started, and marched through all the corridors with their old-time songs. They presented quite a motley appearance. The Second Year, costumed in all kinds of unique dress, no doubt inspired great awe and respect in the Freshmen, who, arrayed in spotless football suits, brought up the rear of the crowd, and marched along in the train of their most grave seniors.

After everything had been performed duly and in order the year of '03 were lined up in front of the platform, from which Mr. Sawers, the head of the third year, harangued them. He urged upon them the necessity of knowing their place, and of keeping it. They had made a great stride in life, and their spirits should be very high. If they wished some channel into which they might direct their exuberant feelings, let it be in the line of college spirit, always to stick up for the College, always to support her by taking part in her institutions, to turn out well on the football field, etc. We were a small college, and if every man did not do his duty we could never expect to do anything in the line of sport, which always showed the real state of a college.

Finally, he exhorted them to make themselves worthy of this grand old College, which next year would celebrate its bi-centennial; to use all their opportunities for improvement, so that when they passed from its portals, they might show that distinctive mark upon them which the world knows now, that stamp which always shows forth a genuine Trinity man.

After this speech, Metagona was sung and the College yell given with great spirit; then after going around the College, a circle was formed in the front hall and "Auld Lang Syne" was sung, according to the custom of time immemorial. Thus a fine evening was brought to a suitable close.

BISHOP'S COLLEGE.

BISHOP'S UNIVERSITY, Lennoxville, has a new principle in the person of the Rev. James Pounder Whitney.

At Owen's College, Manchester, and at King's College, Cambridge, Mr. Whitney distinguished himself as a scholar in history and mathematics. When in 1881 he took his B.A. degree, he was bracketed first in the first class in the History Tripos and was twenty-fourth Wrangler. Ordained priest in 1885, he has since that time been actively engaged in clerical work, and in addition was for some time an instructor in history at Cambridge. Mr. Whitney married in 1891.

FIVE or six months ago the Dalhousie College Gazette was replete with letters, sometimes bitterly partisan, discussing the advisability of introducing gowns. The same question is now being debated at the University of Toronto. It is probable that Varsity will fall in line with the English and certain Canadian universities, and make the wearing of gowns compulsory. There are, however, not a few arguments that can be advanced against the introduction of these academic insignia. Expense itself is a considerable item—gowns come at $5 and $6, while caps run anywhere from $2.50 to $5. Judging by the appearance of a gown after passing through three years of Trinity life, we think that in his fourth year at Varsity a student might be under the necessity of purchasing again.

TUFTS COLLEGE, near Boston, has a new scheme for diminishing the tendency of college students to absent themselves from recitations. It has devised a system of fines by which any student who commits an unauthorized absence or fails to comply with certain regulations pays two dollars into the college treasury. It seems possible that some of our larger universities which include in their membership large numbers of young men who can more easily spare their money than their time, might derive highly important revenue from a system of this sort. Harvard, for example, which charges, or used to charge, $150 for tuition, might easily collect as much more from many students for the privilege of neglecting their privileges. She follows a more liberal course, making absence free, but providing that a reasonable growth in knowledge shall be compulsory.—From Life.

HITHERTO the Chinese people have been thought unpatriotic, the ease with which they were vanquished in the war with Japan being held up as an example. But it always takes two nations to make two patriots, and for centuries China has existed for herself alone. To a Chinaman, China was the whole world. He was satisfied with his methods and convinced that his religion and life were the only ones worth living. He looked with a certain contempt upon what he considered Western barbarians, and the advance of the Anglo-Saxon in science and the art of government, while freely admitted, was not thought to be of great consequence compared with his own superior development in the science of right living.

There can be no doubt that the Chinese people are superior to us in many ways, strange as this may seem to the self-effacing and ever-modest European. There can be no doubt, also, that with their preponderance of population, their adaptive intelligence and the co-ordination of intense patriotism which the aggressions of other nations are even now arousing in their minds, that they do not present altogether the helpless spectacle which it has been the fashion for us to depict.—From Life.

College Chronicle.

IT is our pleasant task to record the fact that quite a number of new men have entered the Senior Years. The Divinity Class especially has had quite an addition to its numbers.

We welcome most heartily a graduate of Hobart. Mr. G. G. Ballard, B.A., graduated from the above College in '98, and he purposes completing his divinity course here. We sincerely hope he will find his stay here pleasant and profitable. The other new residents of the divinity corridor are Mr. F. H. Pengelly, from Vancouver, B.C.; Mr. C. G. Austin, from Edmonton, N.W.T., and Mr. D. R. Smith, from Colborne, Ont. In Arts, Mr. T. H. Wilson joins the year '02, and Mr. H. A. de Pinna is taking special lectures. THE REVIEW heartily welcomes these gentlemen to this University.

THERE is an air of improvement and progress all through the College. The results of the Provost's efforts and untiring energy are visible to all, and too much credit cannot be given him for the way in which he has inaugurated so many changes for the better. Not even the smallest details have been overlooked, and almost everything possible for the comfort of the inhabitants of these halls has been done.

WE are pleased to hear that the Rev. Prof. Huntingford is on the road to recovery. Mr. Huntingford has been quite ill for the last week, and has been much missed.

THE weekly gatherings of the Divinity men in Mr. Davidson's rooms on Monday afternoons are much enjoyed. The men deeply appreciate the kindness of Mr. Davidson in having these enjoyable little socials.

THE Rev. L. W. B. Broughall, M.A., of Trinity's Associate Mission at Minden, Ont., dined in "Hall" the other day. It seemed like the old days to see him once more.

REV. T. C. Simpson is in College, the guest of his brother, Mr. H. C. Simpson. Mr. Simpson is on a holiday from his work in the mission field of Central Africa, where he has been for the last eight years, under the auspices of the Universities Missions.

THE new Rector of S. Thomas' Church, the Rev. Father Davenport was a visitor in College the other day.

THE Provost had made arrangements to give, on behalf of the faculty and students, an old time college supper in honour of Lieut. Stuart Wilkie, a graduate of '96, who has recently returned from the Transvaal. But unfortunately Mr. Wilkie could not be present on the date fixed and hence the supper has been postponed indefinitely.

ABOUT a fortnight ago the College had a short visit from Mr. G. Mackenzie, an old '00 man. He was on his way to Queen's, where he will take a special course in mining engineering.

THIS year we have living with us three old graduates of the College. Mr. C. W. Bell, who did so much for our cricket club last year, is going to remain in residence while Mr. E. C. Cattanaach '94, and Mr. W. M. Griffin have also taken rooms.

WE regret that Mr. F. J. Martin, B.A., has gone out of residence. He is now in British Columbia, where he intends to practice Law.

OUR Chapel Choir has lately been re-inforced by ten boy-choristers whose voices for the last three months have been under the special training of Dr. Ham and Professor Huntingford.

HEREAFTER instead of the three o'clock service on Sunday afternoons, there will be a full Choral Evensong and Sermon at four o'clock, at which one of the city choirs will assist.

On Oct. 7th, S. Simon's choir led the singing, and Rev. Professor Clark was the special preacher; on the 14th, All Saints' choir assisted, and the sermon was preached by the Rev. the Provost. This new departure must be a subject for congratulation from everyone who has the interests of this College at heart. We are now, by these means, brought into touch with the various churches of the city, and we trust it will be for our mutual benefit. The old, dreary Sunday afternoon service is now replaced by a bright beautiful service, which is attracting many Church people to our chapel, who before hardly knew anything of us, or our doings. By these means the Church in Toronto will come to realize that in her midst is the Church University of the Province.

At a College meeting on Thursday, Oct. 11th, Messrs. Spencer, Kidd and Mockridge were elected to represent the Students on the Convocation Dinner Committee.

At the same meeting, Mr. R. B. Nevitt, B.A., was chosen to fill the vacancy on the editorial staff of THE REVIEW.

WE were very glad to welcome one of our old grads. in the Rev. A. U. de Pencier, Rector of Uxbridge, who spent a day with us lately.

OUR thanks are due to Mr. G. B. Strathy, '00, for his great help to Trinity sport, in playing football this year for us.

THE Brotherhood of St. Andrew Convention, being held in the city at the date of writing, has brought quite a number of old grads. back to the College. The Rev. J. F. Rounthwaite, M.A., has been staying in the College for a few days, also Rev. G. S. Anderson, of Morrisburg, Ont. Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick dined "in hall" the other day. We were pleased to see the Rev. J. A. Richardson, of Trinity Church, St. John, N.B., a guest in College also. We hope to have a full report of the Brotherhood Convention in our next issue.

IT is a matter of congratulation when we can join with the Meds in sport and therefore we are exceedingly happy to have the services of J. M. Baldwin, B.A., '99, and Mr. Arthur Hammond of the medical school for our University football team.

EVERY Trinity man heartily sympathizes with the Rev. Professor Cayley on the loss of his mother. THE REVIEW extends to him and to his father its deepest sympathy in their great loss.

Trinity Medical College.

It was a gala day at Trinity Medical College when Pte. Archie Anderson returned from South Africa. He left his college to go with the first contingent that Canada sent to the defence of the Empire. When the students got word that their gallant comrade was on his way home they gathered together all the bunting and flags they could find and marched down to the Union Station, professors, students and all, to meet their warrior class-mate. Cheer after cheer went up as the train came in. Everyone crowded around Anderson and carried him on their shoulders to a cab. It might well be called a horseless carriage, for the horses were wildly shouting, madly gesticulating Meds. The streets were filled with people turning round to see what was going on. They quickly found out, for the Meds had no secret to keep from the ears of the people. They were glad indeed to be able to welcome him back safe and sound from the fever traps of South Africa no less deadly than the whizzing Boer bullet. A further cause for congratulation to Mr. Anderson personally is that he has been granted his second year. He certainly deserves it, for it would be very hard on a man who has made such sacrifices as Anderson did to lose a whole year because he heard the call of duty and obeyed the voice. We may mention in passing that Anderson is a brother to Dr. H. B. Anderson, the popular lecturer at Trinity Medical College, and we must congratulate that gentleman on his brother's safe return. The Meds are now waiting only for the return of the Toronto contingent to indulge in another grand demonstration.

It is with the greatest pleasure possible that we quote the following from the Mail and Empire, October 17th:

"Before about one thousand rooting, hooting, shouting medical students Trinity Medical School defeated Toronto Medical School in their annual game of baseball yesterday afternoon, by the score of 11 to 8. The game was played on the Varsity Athletic field, and the freshmen vied with the seniors as to who could make the most noise. Big canes, with bunches of blue and white or red and black ribbons, were very prominent.

"It was Trinity's first win for three years, and their supporters fairly carried the team off when the last inning was over. A procession was quickly formed, and the victorious team was escorted by their loyal band of rooters through the principal streets.

"Charlie Maddock umpired the game, and gave universal satisfaction. The weather, though, was cold, but some excellent fielding was seen. For Varsity Parry, Sinclair and Kappelle did the bulk of the hitting. Biggs was knocked out in the first inning, and was replaced by Drohan, who pitched a good game. For Trinity 'Freshman' Williams' work at first was a feature. Lyons also did great work in the box for Trinity.

"Toronto did not score until the third innings, when hits by Drohan, Kappelle, Parry and Smith scored three runs. Another came in the sixth. Drohan led off with a hit, an out, and Sinclair's single scored the run. With two men out in the eighth, Toronto added four runs, on singles by Kappelle, Sinclair, Parry, and Davey's two-bagger; a hit by Smith scored Davey.

"Trinity started right in to win, and made four in their first inning. In the second, bases on balls and an error gave them two more. The game was won in the fourth, when timely hitting, a couple of passes, and a hit by pitcher scored four runs. Just to clinch it, Trinity added another in the seventh. Duggan got hit by pitched ball, and hits scored the run. Drohan struck out the side in this inning.

"The teams were as follows:

"Trinity—Treadgold, cf; Williams, 1b; Duggan, c; Lyons, p; Livingston, 3b; Hutton, ss; Brown, rf; Turnbull, 2b; Elliott, lf.

"Toronto—Kappelle, 3b; Sinclair, 2b; Parry, c; Davey, ss; Smith, 1b; Brown, cf; Graham, lf; McIlwraith, rf; Drohan, p; and Biggs, p.

"Score by innings:

Trinity..... 4 2 0 4 0 0 1 0 *—11
 Toronto..... 0 0 3 0 0 1 6 4 0— 8

"Batteries.—Lyons and Duggan; Biggs, Drohan and Parry."

T. C. S. Notes.

WE have just enjoyed a delightful break in the monotony of the term due to the coincidence of the Sports and Thanksgiving. Since we returned from the four winds of heaven, in the middle of September, we have been favoured with an almost unbroken succession of beautiful days. All the more aggravating, therefore, was the temporary break in the weather which rendered the first day of the sports extremely unpleasant. The second day was more fortunate, being bright and fresh. On the whole, the events were well contested. The best results were obtained in the high jumps. Crawford cleared four feet seven inches in the junior event, and Gordon went two inches better in the open one. Several others jumped even. The mile produced a dead heat between Gordon and Kersterman, who were the two foremost athletes of this year's sports. The former has already gained enough points to make his winning of the championship a moral certainty. The latter is a young competitor who has many victories yet in store for him.

THE football team this season is somewhat light, but unusually fast. Rathbun is captain. Some of the new boys have proved valuable acquisitions, notably Duggan, McPherson, Trow and Walker. Carry is playing an excellent game at quarter. The team has already tried conclusions twice with the town. Both games were well contested and the honours were divided. The Bishop Ridley College match is fixed for November 11th. This year the match will be played at U.C.C.

Of the prominent boys who left in June to enter upon a college career, F. N. Creighton went to Trinity, where he had gained first-class honours in Classics at Matriculation; J. W. Greey to McGill, G. J. Bonsfield to Lennoxville (with an exhibition), F. T. Lucas, M. V. Plummer and K. A. Ramsay to R.M.C.

* * *

LOOKING around to see what ravages the summer has made in our ranks, as we naturally do at this time of the year when a new session is commencing, we call the roll of the various School teams and mark the absentees.

* * *

FROM last year's football team there have disappeared Lucas, Ramsay, E. Rathbun, Bonsfield, Fuller, Beckwith, Greey, Labatt, Garvey, Shannon and Carnegie. The hockey teams are reduced by the loss of Labatt, Garvey, Reid, M. Plummer and Ramsay. This year's cricket eleven will miss Lucas, Ramsay, M. Plummer, Labatt, Garvey, Reid and Avery.

* * *

OVER twenty new boys have entered this term, and several of these have already given proof of athletic prowess.

* * *

THE prefects this season are:—L. M. Rathbun, P. W. Plummer, F. G. McLaren, H. R. Mockridge, A. E. Piercy and W. H. B. Bevan.

S. Hilda's Notes.

MRS. RIGBY and the S. Hildians entertained the convention of "The National Household Economic Association" at afternoon tea on Thursday, October 4th.

* * *

A MEETING of the officers of the Literary Society was held on Saturday, October 13th, and it was decided that the society should have its first meeting on Monday, the 22nd inst., when we expect a great treat in hearing Miss Trotter, A.T.C.M., graduate of the Boston School of Oratory. It was also decided that a paper on S. Hilda, which is in Mrs. Rigby's possession, should be read before the Society so that the first year may know all about their patron saint.

MISS NOURSE '01 represented S. Hilda's Literary Society at the annual "Autumn Tea" of the Women's Literary Society of Toronto University on Saturday, October 13th, and upheld the honour of the College in a few well chosen words in reply to a toast "Sister Colleges." This is the first time that we have been represented at Varsity, and we trust that it shows a growth of friendly feeling between the two Colleges. The Women of Varsity are very anxious for a residence and they probably were made even more so when they learned from Miss Nourse the many advantages we enjoy at S. Hilda's.

Miss Wood '99 was in town last week.

THE Tea Club has reorganized and meets daily in Miss Greenwood's room.

Literary Institute

As this is the beginning of term there are no meetings of the "Lit." to record. We feel that this column could not be used to a better advantage than by publishing an essay on the Literary Institute of the Rev. J. R. H. Warren, which was read before the society last year.

* * *

I FEEL very diffident about writing anything on such a subject as the Literary Institute since, owing to my enforced absence from its meetings, I am not in a position to say anything worthy of your notice. But may I be pardoned for broaching the subject on the ground that I have come to realize what a loss mine is, in not being able to take a more active share in our society's proceedings. There is scarcely a man who leaves this college without acknowledging that, through his own inactivity, he has missed a good deal of what the Institute had to teach him; and who laments the fact from the bottom of his heart.

The object of this Institute is the first thing to be considered.

That object seems to me to be summed up in the word "Literary," which is defined as that which pertains to literature, or that which deals with learning or learned men. It is true, we cannot call ourselves a body of learned men, but it is equally true to say that we cannot deal much with literature without becoming learned men to a certain extent. Part of that dealing with literature is the being trained to speak and write correctly which presupposes preparation on the part of the speaker or writer. This is the object aimed at here; but just as an apple will remain on a tree so long as sufficient trouble is not taken to bring it down; so will the object of this Institute be unattained, so long as its members do not care to take sufficient pains to pluck the ripe fruit which it offers. And, only in accordance with the amount of trouble we exert over the matter, can we be benefited by our connection with it.

The Institute is to train men to speak correctly, intelligently and fluently. This is done in our debates. The subjects chosen generally deal with questions of the day, and other matters which are of wide-spread interest.

Yet, the subject can be the best in the world, and still the debates be dry and uninteresting. Why? Simply because those who take part in them have neither interested themselves in the subjects, or tried to interest anybody else. An intelligent debate pre-supposes preparation. This is often sadly overlooked and the result is that many pronounce the Institute a dead failure. Whereas, it is not the Institute which is at fault, but those who compose it. Everyone of us is open to blame in this respect. How many during the past year have taken even a fair amount of trouble to prepare their speeches? Very few—and yet we say the Institute is a failure. Certainly it is if we think it is going to do everything for us—and we nothing for it. It is here for the purpose of training us to speak intelligently and fluently; but it will fall very far short of its object if we neglect our duties. So far from it training us in speaking in this way, it will teach us in the best possible way how to dribble if we come into this room with hazy ideas of what we are going to talk about.

I believe the whole secret of our failures in the past lies in the fact that men have not taken the trouble to properly work up the subject matter of their speeches before they came into the hall. If this trouble were taken three results would follow.

First, those who speak would be, themselves, thoroughly benefited by the debate.

Secondly, owing to the good speeches, which must follow upon preparation, our meetings would be more largely attended than they are at present.

And thirdly, those meetings would be interesting and attractive.

I think this matter is a practical one for us all. Many of us will be called upon to assume positions in life in which speaking will form a large proportion of our work. When are we going to receive the training which is necessary to enable us to speak as we should? Are we going to wait until after we leave college before we begin. We can do so if we like, and thereby throw ourselves back two or three years. And, if we are to receive that training here, where can we do so except in the debates of the Literary Institute? There is no other means provided for this in College.

We ought to lay to heart an inference which can be drawn from what Dr. Parkin said in his address here lately. He spoke of the debates of the Oxford Union being listened to with great interest by eminent political men, and referred to more than one of the debaters being chosen to fill certain positions at the government's disposal. And then he said, "think of Sir Wilfrid Laurier prowling about the halls of our universities, looking among debating societies for men whose talents would fit them for political positions!" Yes, think of it! Think of any outsiders coming in and enjoying our average speeches!

Let us awaken to the fact that by our want of interest we are missing golden opportunities for intellectual improvement such as will never come to us again.

Theological and Missionary.

At a meeting of the Divinity class held last week the subject of "Mission Study" was considered, and it was decided that the class would follow up the work of last year with a further study of missions in Japan; a field in which we are particularly interested at the present time owing to the efforts of the Divinity Alumni Association to establish, on a firm basis, an associate mission in that field, to be supplied and supported by the graduates of Trinity. The Rev. E. Murrell Wright, B. A., was chosen as leader of the Class for the year, and he is sparing no pains to make the meetings both most interesting and most instructive. It is hoped that the members will fully appreciate his efforts, as this will ensure the unqualified success of the work of the Class.

* * *

It will be gratifying to the relatives of our late fellow student, Mr. Arthur Boddy, to learn that the Compline and Mission Study Room that was furnished by them in memory of him is in daily use by the Class for Compline as well as for the weekly meeting of the Mission Study Class, and is much appreciated by the students.

* * *

MR. E. W. B. RICHARDS, is to be thanked for the suggestion that the readers in Chapel during the week be responsible for the ordering of the room and reading Compline, an arrangement that has been found to work most satisfactory, as punctuality is guaranteed.

"OUR New Provost" was introduced to his chair as President of "The Theological and Missionary Society of Trinity College," at the meeting of the Executive Committee of that organization, held on the afternoon of Monday 15th, to arrange a programme of meetings for the term. It was decided to ask Rev. Mr. Simpson, of the Universities' Mission, Central Africa, to take charge of the Public Missionary Meeting. Mr. Simpson has since expressed his willingness to gratify the wish of the Society by delivering a lecture, on the work in Central Africa, in Convocation Hall, on the evening of November 6th.

REV. FATHER DAVENPORT is to be asked to lead the Devotional Meeting this term, at some date in December, that he may find convenient.

* * *

THE next regular meeting of the Society is to be held at 7.30 on Tuesday evening, Nov. 20th. The programme for this meeting will consist of the reading of papers by some of the undergraduate members of the Society. A committee consisting of Rev. G. F. Davidson, Rev. D. T. Owen and Mr. Spencer, has the matter of appointment of the writers of these papers in hand.

DURING the vacation the following members of the Society have been ordained to the Diaconate:—Rev. W. J. Brain, B.A., to assist at Holy Trinity Church, Toronto; Rev. A. B. Higginson, M.A., to take charge of Smithville, in the Diocese of Niagara; Rev. G. Code, B.A., to Queenbury, in the Ontario Diocese; Rev. F. W. Walker, to the Curacy of St. Anne's Church, Toronto; Rev. D. T. Owen, similarly to St. John's Church, Toronto; Rev. H. S. Musson, to the charge of the Mission of St. Olave's, Swansea; Rev. J. E. Murrell Wright, to enter upon a charge in the Diocese of Q'Appelle, at the end of the academical year, and the following undergraduate members were engaged in mission duties, or assisting in lay-work for the summer:—E. P. S. Spencer, M.A., was engaged in the Mission of Korah, and later at Thessalon and Bruce Mines Mission, both in the Diocese of Algoma; R. Gurley, B.A., was, in the latter part of the summer, taking duty at Vankleek Hill, in the Diocese of Ottawa; T. A. Trotter, B.A., continued his work at York Mills, under Rev. T. W. Powell; W. F. Kerney, B.A., laboured at two stations in the Mission of Powassan; R. B. Nevitt, B.A., continued lectionary duty at All Saints, Toronto; Mr. E. J. McKittrick, was busily engaged at a mission of seventeen stations along the C.P.R., with head-quarters at Schreiber, and later at Port Arthur; Mr. J. A. R. McDonald, continues his duty at Clareville, and G. B. Gordon, B.A., at Humber Bay; A. C. Lancefield, was at Lowville and Nassagaweya; Mr. E. W. B. Richards, a Carleton Place; Mr. D. R. Smith, was stationed at Markham; Mr. T. F. Summerhayes, assisted at St.

Matthew's, Toronto, and took the duty at the General Hospital; F. J. Sawers, assisted at Grand Valley all summer; H. J. Johnson, B.A., relieved Rev. E. G. Dymond, L.Th., for May and June, while the latter holidayed in England. Among the members who took occasional duty are Messrs. F. H. Pengelley, at Vancouver, B.C., and other stations; G. G. Ballard, B.A., in Buffalo, N.Y.; A. Bagshaw, at Uxbridge; H. F. Woodcock.

It is gratifying to learn the unqualified success of Trinity's Associate Mission recently established at Minden, Haliburton County, in charge of Rev. J. E. Fenning, in conjunction with Rev. L. W. B. Broughall, M.A., and Rev. E. G. Ryerson, M.A. The latter, it will be remembered, has, since his setting out for the mission field in Japan, been succeeded by Rev. J. F. Rounthwaite, M.A. His Lordship, the Bishop, on his visit to the Mission last week, held three confirmation services, consecrated two churches and laid the foundation-stone of another at the station of Boscum. This speaks well for the earnest work of the three untiring missionaries. In aid of the building fund of this new church at Boscum we are certain that any assistance that our readers may feel inclined to lend, will be fully appreciated.

Personal.

THE following figures will be interesting to friends of Trinity.

REV. H. T. S. BOYLE, B.A., is acting as curate to Archdeacon Naylor, at Shawville, Quebec.

MESSRS. WHITTAKER, '99, Strathy, '00, and R. A. Carman, '00 are all in town attending lectures at Osgoode.

THE REVIEW extends its hearty congratulations to Rev. J. R. H. Warren, on building a church at Madawaska.

MR. F. H. HANSFIELD, '00 is working this year in the Diocese of Ottawa, he proposes entering Divinity next year.

WE congratulate Rev. Harold McCausland, on obtaining his degree, and also on his appointment to a curacy at St. Thomas' Church, Toronto.

MR. H. C. WILSON, B.A., was ordained Deacon by the Bishop of Toronto on Sunday, September 23rd. Mr. Wilson intends working in this diocese.

WE notice that Rev. H. H. Bedford-Jones, for many years Fellow in Theology at Trinity, and her mainstay in football, hockey and cricket, has donned football clothes

TRINITY is very glad indeed to be able to welcome Lieut. Wilkie back from South Africa, whither he went on the call of duty, and though he fell a victim to disease while there, he was in the thick of the fight on recovery.

MR. C. H. CARLETON, B.A., a '93 grad. of Trinity, has returned from Oxford, where he has spent the last few years. Mr. Carleton has been General Secretary of the English branch of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew since its commencement in that country.

It is interesting to note that in the re-union of the Seventh Form of Upper Canada College of 1852, there were three old Trinity men—Dr. N. Walker, of Port Dover, J. E. Reilly, Master of Chancery, Hamilton, and General C. W. Robinson, of England.

WE are glad to hear of the safe arrival in England of the Rev. W. H. White, M.A., late Fellow in Classics here. Mr. White has entered up his duties of curate in the parish of All Souls, London. We quote the following from the September number of All Souls Parish Magazine.—"This month, I trust, the Rev. W. H. White will be coming amongst us as our curate. I need not ask that you will show him what kindness you can, and all the more because he is coming as a stranger, from Canada. You will then have two colonials for your clergy—a good sign of the unity of the Empire.

A BOY was passing a saloon, and seeing a drunken man lying in the gutter in front of it, he opened the door and said, "Mister, your sign's fell down."

Convocation Notes.

EDITORS.

A. H. YOUNG, M.A.

THE REV. G. F. DAVIDSON, M.A.

In consideration of a grant of $50.00 a year this space is set aside for the use of the Convocation of the University.

THE annual general meeting of Convocation will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 23rd and 24th.

The conferring of degrees will take place in the Convocation Hall on Tuesday afternoon at 4 p.m. Amongst others to receive honorary degrees will be the Right Rev. C. P. Anderson, Bishop Coadjutor of Chicago, an old Trinity man, who was recently elected to that position by an almost unanimous vote on the first ballot.

The Convocation service will be held in the chapel at 8 p.m., when Bishop Anderson will be the preacher.

On the following day the annual business meeting of Convocation will take place, followed by the dinner in the evening, at 7.30.

Among the matters to be discussed, the commemoration of the approaching jubilee will occupy a prominent place.

The members retiring from the Executive Committee by notation are:—Dr. J. T. Fotheringham, Rev. H. O. Tremayne, Rev. C. H. Shortt, Rev. H. B. George, Dr. J. A. Worrell, D. T. Symons. The Rev. W. H. White has also retired as he is now living in England. His removal from Toronto rendered vacant the position of secretary of the Extension Lecture Committee, to which the Executive Committee at its last meeting appointed Mr. C. W. Bell.

It is hoped that this meeting of Convocation, the first since the appointment of the new Provost and the last before the commemoration of the jubilee will be well attended.

Tickets for the dinner, price $2, may be obtained from the clerk of Convocation, who will also be glad to receive the annual subscription of all members who have not yet paid.

The annual report and list of members in good standing will be published in our next issue.
