MR. WALLACE MET HIS CONSTITUENTS

him of reconciling the public expenditure with the professions of the Liberal party. He was very anxious to demonstrate that the country had made wonderful progress.

Liberal Audacity.

The Liberal party had opposed the National Policy from Dan to Beer Sheba, and also every scheme for the advancement of the people, and to-day they have the audacity to claim credit for the very policy they had opposed.

Direct Misrepresentation.

One of the statements, said Mr. Clarke Wallace, that the country had made as much progress during the three years of the Liberal party had been in office as the preceding six years of the Conservative Government was in power. Taking any gauge of measure of increase in Canada between the period of Conservative rule and that of the Liberal Government, Sir Richard Cartwright's figures could not be supported. After giving answers against the progress of Ontario was not as great in the six weeks in that city. What did the actual figures show—that the building permits in the last six weeks only amounted to $100,000, while during the same six weeks the amount had been $12,000,000—two hundred times as much. Sir Richard Wallace, he said, had come to bolster up to use such fallacious arguments.

Undesirable Immigrants.

Sir Richard took credit for the policy of his Government for increasing the population, and how was this done? By bringing in, by anti-British instincts, and the Dunkirkers, who would not take any arms in defence of British or Canadian interests, or for the defence of the Empire. Hence, said he, I look upon the effort to bring in such foreigners as an experiment going the wrong way.

Ignored the Record.

Mr. Clarke Wallace then gave figures to show that there was a decrease in the number of settlers' effects in the last three years of the Conservative Government, and that in the same number of years under the Liberal Government the figures were nearly the same—$1,123,000 as against $1,018,000. Hence, Sir Richard Cartwright in this, as in every other statement, willfully ignored the record.

Crow's Nest Pass Railway.

Mr. Clarke Wallace dealt at length with the Liberal Government's policy in regard to the Crow's Nest Pass Railway showing that the Liberal Government gave the Canadian Pacific Railway $2,000,000 more than was necessary for the construction of the line.

Who Got the Profits?

Analyzing the figures given by Sir Richard as to the profits of the expenditure in British Columbia and the Northwest, Mr. Wallace said, instead of the great profits which Sir Richard, the customs receipts were in the last year $200 less than before the Crow's Nest Railway was built. What got the profits of the Crow's Nest Pass Railway? The Messrs. Cox, Jeffrey & Co.—(applause)—who never invested a dollar in applying for the franchise.

Mythical Figures.

The figures, Mr. Wallace proceeded to show, as to the increased customs duties by the opening up of the Crow's Nest Pass Railway were mythical. And yet these figures were produced by Sir Richard to justify the reckless expenditure of the Liberal Government. It was utterly unjustified to say that the Liberal Government had pledged themselves one and all to reduce expenditure. Sir Richard Cartwright had laid it down that the Government of Canada had no right to spend $30,000,000 a year. Now they are prepared to spend double that amount. The fact is, the master of the situation—the ruler of the Liberal party—is Hon. Mr. Duff.

Belied All Their Professions.

Then Mr. Wallace criticized the Government's proposed expenditure on the line from Port Arthur to Winnipeg, a commercial undertaking that should be paid for itself. There was also the unjustifiable expenditure on the railway from Montreal to Quebec. The Drummond County deal was strongly denounced. Instead of reducing the cost of Government by $5,000,000, the Liberals had increased it by $20,000,000. The Government had belied every profession of economy they ever made, and had put a mortgage on every farm, house and plot in Canada. (Applause.)

Is Trade Growing?

They say this is a growing time for Canada, but this growing time is not going to last forever. Instead of Canadian trade increasing, the exports for this year show $18,000,000 the other way. The balance of trade is against us. A prudent Government would recognize this fact, and prepare to reduce its extravagance. But extravagant and ill-considered men are the rulers of Canada to-day. (Applause.)

As to the Canals.

Sir Richard's explanation of the expenditures on the canals was not honest. His statement that the Liberal Government is doing in this respect in three years what the Conservative Government had agreed to do in 10 years was not true. This and other expenditures on public works, especially in Quebec, was severely criticized. The Government had been wildly extravagant and corrupt. They had ignored the public conscience, but now the public would ignore them. They would soon have a chance to get even. (Laughter and applause.)

The National Policy.

Sir Richard Cartwright said that the National Policy made no addition to the national wealth. If there is any one statement, said Mr. Wallace, with vigor, that Sir Richard should be ashamed of it, it is this. (Applause.) The speaker then gave official figures disproving the gallant knight's assertion. The fact is that 118,000 more men were employed in manufacturing industries in 1897 than in 1887. There was also an increase of $108,000,000 in the value of manufactured products. The increase in wages was $141,000,000. The Liberals came into office to kill the National Policy, but up to the present day they had feared to give it the fatal blow. (Applause.)

Two Special Points.

There are, continued Mr. Clarke Wallace, two questions connected with the National Policy. The first is: Will the Government administer it honestly and without corruption? The second is: Will they carry it to its legitimate conclusion? To the first, the government is responsible for something they had all along disavowed. They accorded protection to no article as a matter of principle. They simply continue the policy of the Conservative party, and they reserve to themselves the right, at any moment to take away the protection given. They will hold the citizens before they will punish to the people of Canada what surrenders or concessions they have made to the United States. (Applause.) I would like to have full particulars of the increase of duties on cotton goods. It is safer for the country to have a particular policy administered by men who believe in it than by those who have hitherto in every way opposed it.

Why Not made here?

We imported, said Mr. Wallace, 27,000 bicycles and tricycles last year. We made 35,000 of such machines in Canada. We have demonstrated that we can make as good machines in Toronto Junction as anywhere else. Why, then, does not the government give sufficient protection to have these machines which we import made in Canada? But, what can you expect from a free trade government? (Laughter and applause.)

The Conservative Government said it down as a principle that if the duty was not sufficient to protect any trade they would see that the duty was increased. The fact is that the National Policy is administered by men who are ostensibly hostile to it, and they would put the knife into it as soon as possible if they only dared. If you want the National Policy honestly administered, it must be by men who are in sympathy with it; otherwise it will go to destruction. The National Policy was easily answered—would these men carry the National Policy to its legitimate conclusion everywhere? The answer was, they have refused to do it.

Reciprocal Trade with Britain.

Then Mr. Clarke Wallace dealt with Sir Wilfrid Laurier's rejection of reciprocal trade with Britain. This, the speaker said, was a ridiculous policy. A ridiculous position for a Canadian statesman to take. And yet they send the scoundrel Europe over here, and they send the scoundrel Canada there to bring them here—loud laughter and applause—and the vice President is the head of them.

Do Not Depend on the U. S.

The Liberal party makes the mistake of believing that our very existence depends on the United States. This is not so. We have a tariff for trade with the United States in preference to England. Liberals, in fact, don't care a straw for Canada. We need not ask any favors of the United States. Our duty is to consider what is the best thing for the people of Canada; to have our own lumber cut in our own country; to have the pulp manufactured in our own country; and to put a duty on both these products. (Applause.) Canada has all the facilities for being the greatest paper-making country in the world. We are already increasing our manufactures in this respect enormously. I would prohibit the export of the pulp and the sawlogs. They make labor, and should give employment here to tens of thousands. (Loud applause.) The same policy, Mr. Wallace said he would adopt with regard to nickel. Thousands of people in Canada could be employed in this manufacture. But in the face of Parliament, Sir Richard Wallace made reference to the Yukon charges. The Government appointed one of their own officials to investigate these charges. It was a roasting fare. The charges could not be investigated; they had been investigated; and would not be investigated until another Government comes into power, which may not be very long. (Applause.) I do not, said he, believe that the people of this country approve of wrong-doing. The country is not being honestly governed and a large portion of the Liberal party is consequently discredited. The fact is there is in the Liberal party a dishonest element, which is on top—the Tories, the Bluffs and the Sissons, (Cheers). The Province, Ontario, Mr. Wallace showed, is not getting its fair share in the government of this country.

The Duty of the Hour.

Whenever the hour arrives for the election of a new Parliament, the Liberals have a great duty to perform, and they will not neglect to do their duty—to turn out, to power the men who have been false to their political professions, and put in their places men who will do their duty to this great country, irrespective of party. (Loud cheering during which Hon. Mr. Wallace resigned, etc.)

The Member for East York.

Mr. W. F. Maclean, M.P., in a brief yet vigorous speech, said he came to hear what Mr. Wallace had to say in reference to Sir Richard Cartwright's recent speech. In his opinion, said Mr. Maclean, "is that the man from Woodbridge had knocked out Sullivan's." (Applause.) Then the member for East York said a tribute to the brother member for West York, who had formed an opinion in the House of Commons, and who would doubtless be again returned by an overwhelming majority.

Prepare for the Elections.

In view of the approaching elections, Mr. Maclean advised the holding of a meeting all over the country, the result of which would be that the people would be convinced that the Liberal party is the party of hypocrisy. (Applause.) They denounced the National Policy which they said they would wipe out. This they had not done, nor had they kept their other pledges to the country. The people were only waiting for the opportunity to wipe them out. (Applause.)

Extend the National Policy.

"It will be," continued Mr. Maclean, "the first duty of the Liberal party to extend the National Policy on the lines laid down by Mr. Clarke Wallace. He has hoped the Conservative party would go in for the public ownership of public franchises—the telegraph and telephone systems, as well as the postal system. (Applause.) Mr. Maclean also advocated a road, irrigation, and a policy with the Mother Country that would promote the agricultural and manufacturing industries of Canada. He strongly denounced the recent revelations of electoral corruption in West York and the apathy of the Government as regards the prosecution of these impositions. He made an earnest plea for the triumphant return of the forthcoming elections of Mr. Clarke Wallace to the Dominion House and Mr. St. John to the Ontario Legislature.

Mr. J. W. Johnson followed with a vigorous speech on Ontario politics. The customary words of thanks concluded the proceedings of this very enthusiastic meeting.

London, Sept. 7.—The Western Fair opened to-day, under the most auspicious circumstances. This was getting-ready day, and much remains yet to be done before the exhibits will be all in their appointed places. The fair will be formally opened to-morrow and everything will be in full swing by Saturday, which is Chicago Day. A change which will be appreciated by the business men attending the fair this year is the concentration of postoffice, telegraph, telephone and express companies' offices at the King-street entrance to the grounds, instead of being scattered about the different buildings, as formerly.

St. Catharines, Ont., Sept. 7.—A peculiar and sudden death occurred about 1 o'clock this morning at the home of Mr. John Nichols, his only daughter, Jennie. The little girl, who was ten years of age, had been playing in the park yesterday afternoon and went home about 5 o'clock, complaining of feeling chilly. She put on a jacket and stood near the stove, and presently lay down. She fell into a sleep about 7 o'clock, from which she did not awake, and since she did not struggle in death, and since she had no fears were expressed, the death was apparently a peaceful one. Two doctors were called in, but they were unable to do anything. The body of the child had lived. A coroner's inquest is now proceeding.

Ottawa, Sept. 7.—The Father Guy mica mine at Gracedale was transferred yesterday to Mr. W. H. Sills of Chicago. Rumors of the deal were published some time ago, but the transaction did not take place until yesterday. The mine is the richest in the district. A new plant will be put in, embracing all the latest machinery. Orders were placed to-day for the machinery and will be put into operation as soon as possible.

The remains of David Jamieson, late of Little York, who died in the General Hospital, were yesterday interred in the Necropolis.

EMBALMERS CONCLUDE

Thirteen Persons Registered Diplomas—New Officers Elected—Next Session in Toronto.

The Canadian Embalmers' Association resumed its session on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. The president, in his address, strongly advocated the adoption of the sanitary laws and regulations required by the various provincial boards of health in the Dominion. The form of certificate required by these boards of health for the transport of bodies on the railways should be sufficient for officers, without the necessity of additional forms now required by trunk lines which enter into the neighboring republic.

Eighty-five students have registered during the session, 15 of whom succeeded in passing the examination for the diploma of proficiency issued by the association: Jay J. Marsh, Kemptonville, N. Owen, Parkhill, F. E. Hollister, Toronto; N. Fawcett, Orlow; D. E. Garner, St. Mary's; A. M. Mitchell, Guelph; J. L. Wright, Queensville; J. A. Winterstein, Zephyr; L. B. Marz, Ripley; S. T. Holmer, Zephyr; W. T. Zinn, Lestow; K. T. Seagrath, Newwood; W. N. Acton, Gainsborough.

The treasurer reported that the receipts during the past year amounted to $605, and the expenditures $275.

RED RIVER EXPEDITION

Twenty-Ninth Anniversary Was Right Royally Celebrated at Webb's Tuesday.

The twenty-ninth anniversary of the Red River Expedition of 1870 was celebrated at Webb's Tuesday night by the annual dinner and reunion of the Red River Expedition Association.

The chair was occupied by Capt. S. Bruce Harman, the president of the association, and the vice-chair by Major W. J. McMurtry. Lieut-Col. Delamare, Major Manley and Capt. Barker were present as guests. In the absence of Capt. J. A. Bell, the secretary of the association, Capt. Harman read a number of letters from members of the force, conveying their best wishes and congratulations on their jubilee.

Capt. Harman proposed the toast, "The Queen," and "Our Old Commanders, Lord Wolsey," Major McMurtry, "The Army," and "The Navy," to which Col. Delamare and Major Manley responded. "Our Absent Commanders" was proposed by A. W. Wright, and a speech full of reminiscences of the past.

A vote of thanks was passed to Capt. Bell for his interesting account of the Expedition, published recently in The Canadian Magazine.

Songs and anecdotes were highly appreciated from Capt. Harman, Lieut-Col. Delamare, Major Manley, Capt. Barker and Mr. Wright.

Should Have Their Medals. No little disappointment was shown at the delay in presenting the medals for the expedition. Two years having nearly elapsed since Her Majesty granted the decoration, and it was felt that the medals should be presented much longer, few would be given. In a letter of regret from Col. William Smith of Stratford, Ont., not being able to be present at the gathering, he said: "My own life and possessions to you all, and may you live long and prosper. My medals, which I fancy is wishing you a pretty lengthy sojourn in this state of tears."

The officers and committee for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Capt. S. B. Harman; secretary, Capt. J. J. Bell; treasurer, Lieut-Col. William Smith; Major G. T. Cook; William Sutton, Vice; J. Dingman, A. W. Wright, E. J. S. Fergus, A. Percy, Saml's Falls; C. McFergus, Niagara Falls; George Young, Rockton; A. A. Greenwood, Niagara Falls; Robert Odell, Downview; A. W. Wright, Niagara Falls; J. Knapp, Toronto; William Keates, Toronto; Eliran Mars, Toronto.

A telegram was received during the evening from Serg. W. T. Scott, 9th company, Corcoran, California, and her health as a consequence has always been poor. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills have remained in perfect health. I am truly thankful for the great benefit they have conferred upon me.

A TALK WITH J. H. GINGE.

Canadian Packing Company's Manager Gives Some Pointers Out for Farmers.

The World's young man ran across a very interesting visitor in the city yesterday in the person of Mr. John H. Ginge of the Canadian Packing Company, London, Ont. Mr. Ginge is a native of Denmark, and has large interests in that country and in Ireland. The Canadian Packing Company's business is chiefly export, and the manager has studied the requirements of the British market.

Speaking of the class of hogs the packers needed, Mr. Ginge said the farmers were giving hogs too much corn. They were also feeding just so long would they have soft hogs. How does the Danish article compare with the Canadian in the British market? "During the season our product has averaged more than a shilling or two higher than the Danish product in the British market."

Speaking of the value of the hog industry in Ontario for the farmers, it is a great thing to the farmer if he gets a 50 cent hog. The significance of the packer's industry that country would have been limited long before this. There are so many buyers for hogs, that every day are better than cash.

Mr. Ginge then referred to the necessity for keeping a packing factory absolutely clean. "The people of this country use too little soap and water," he remarked with emphasis.

Youthful Recklessness.

The natural exuberance of youth often leads to recklessness. Young people don't take care of themselves, get over-heated, catch cold, and allow it to settle on the kidneys. They don't realize the importance of the kidneys. They don't realize the importance of the kidneys.

Among those present at the dinner were: E. J. S. Fergus, A. Percy, Saml's Falls; C. McFergus, Niagara Falls; George Young, Rockton; A. A. Greenwood, Niagara Falls; Robert Odell, Downview; A. W. Wright, Niagara Falls; J. Knapp, Toronto; William Keates, Toronto; Eliran Mars, Toronto.

A telegram was received during the evening from Serg. W. T. Scott, 9th company, Corcoran, California, and her health as a consequence has always been poor. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills have remained in perfect health. I am truly thankful for the great benefit they have conferred upon me.
