ASSASSINATIONS CARRIED OUT BY THE ARMY AND A NEW MONARCH PROCLAIMED

Belgrade, June 11.—(Special.)—The assassinations carried out by the army and a new monarch proclaimed. The king, Alexander, was shot and killed in the royal palace at 2 A.M. today as the result of a deep laid plot on the part of the leaders of the army. The assassination was carried out by military officers besides the king and queen, the queen's two brothers, premier Markovic, the minister of war, two aides-de-camp, and two other officers of the royal guard were killed. Prince Peter Karagevitch has been proclaimed king of Serbia by the army.

MILITARY CONSPIRACY.
Belgrade, June 11.—A military conspiracy, which subsequent events showed had the sympathy of the mass of the Serbian people, was carried out in the early hours of this morning, and King Alexander, Queen Draga, her two brothers and several ministers were assassinated. Prince Peter Karagevitch, the pretender to the throne, has been proclaimed king by the army, and this is every reason to believe that this decision will be confirmed by the Serbian parliament, which has been summoned to meet on June 15.

The revolution was executed without any opposition on the part of the people of Belgrade and the capital and the country remain tranquil. The chief conspirators were all men of high rank, who acted in concert with the army. Disaffection against King Alexander's rule has been accentuated since his suspension of the constitution last April, and it is from that time that the military plot dates.

The organization of last night's bloody deed was carried out with the utmost skill. The king for the past two months was thrown off his guard by the apparent quietude of the reception his recent coup d'etat. In the meantime the conspirators had decided on June 10 as the date of the execution of the revolution. For two reasons, firstly, it is the anniversary of the murder of King Alexander's grand uncle, Michael, 35 years ago, and secondly, because it was feared that further delay would permit the Skupschina to settle the succession to the throne, according to the king's wishes, and it was believed that Queen Draga would be his choice. The prime movers in the plot were Ljubomir Skoblic and Vojislav Kovic, who have entered the new cabinet as ministers of justice and finance respectively.

The king and queen passed the eve of their death very quietly. They attended a choral festival, then took supper in the Konak, and afterwards retired to rest. Meeting, the conspirators held a meeting. About 1 o'clock in the morning, the Sixth and Seventh Regiments were called to arms, and were led to the Royal Palace, which they entirely surrounded. A band of music led by Col. Maschin and Col. Mischic, forced their way into the palace, shooting all who attempted to bar their passage. They were aided by reason within. The aides de camp on duty, Col. Naumovic, had been won over by the conspirators and was entrusted with plans for action within the royal enclosure. Several doors leading to the royal apartments were blown in by dynamite. Col. Naumovic himself bursting in the door of the royal bedchamber with a bomb. The officers had called on the king to open, but he refused. As the door fell, the king rushed to a window and appealed for assistance, but no answer came. Realizing the situation, he returned to the queen, holding her in his arms, to protect her, and awaited the conspirators. Col. Naumovic presented to the king a form of abdication for his signature. The document contained the statement that by marrying a "pompous pretentious" king he had degraded Serbia, and that he must abdicate. The king's answer was to draw a revolver and kill Naumovic on the spot. Col. Mischic poked up the document and presented it again. King Alexander waved it from him. The officers then, with their drawn revolvers, fired a hail of bullets, and the royal couple fell together to the ground. The king lingered dying until 4 o'clock this morning.

The band which carried out the assassinations appear to have met with a great resistance on the balcony side of the royal enclosure, and the officers had tried to escape into the garden. A single cannon shot, which killed a number of the conspirators, and the details of which may perhaps never be accurately known, had the effect of immediately marching to the railway stations, and telegrams and other troops immediately marched to the barracks, and proclaimed King Karagevitch.

Enthusiastic shouts were raised of "Long live Karagevitch" and "Long live the army." The warmest welcome was extended to Queen Draga's brother-in-law, Col. Maschin, one of the regicides. The troops at the barracks received the news with joy. There was only one

OSBORNE CLEARLY PROVED AN ALIBI IN WHALEN MYSTERY

His Accuser Himself in Custody, Tho Story and Arrest Are Declared Unimportant.

Hanover, June 11.—(Special.)—Carrying himself with the habitual flippancy, arrogant style, to cover apparent evidences of extreme nervousness, William Mulhern, an itinerant moulder, climbed into the smoking car on Tuesday evening of the express bound for Owen Sound, Chief of Police McAuley of Owen Sound and R. J. Fells, chief constable of Chesley, had charge of the man. The two officers arrived in Hanover on Tuesday afternoon's train, and having rounded up Mulhern, the trio were soon seated in Magistrate Campbell's office. Acting on advice from the magistrate, the moulder was arrested on suspicion of knowing something of the murder of Thomas Mulhern, at Collingwood of little glory Whalen.

Not Regarded Seriously.
The magistrate does not take his utterances seriously, however. Mulhern has gained quite a local reputation for his witty phraseology. When the man was brought before the magistrate, Mr. Campbell put the question: "Where were you working last Monday?" "At Collingwood," answered the moulder. "You will get free time for as long as you will work for me," remarked the magistrate, to which Mulhern replied, "You bet," as he slung out of the dock.

Had Him in the "Sweet Box."
Before the train pulled out, your correspondent had a lengthy interview with Chief Fells of the police, and heard a curious tale. Mulhern, as previously stated, was quite willing to talk to the officers of the law. Mulhern had been in the "sweet box" for a good part of the afternoon, according to Chief Fells, and the officers were pretty cocksure that they had made a great capture. Upon their arrival in town, Mulhern had given every evidence that he wished to elude them, but he backed up his talk by making a written statement, in which he implicated a peddler of Polish descent, named Osborn, as the perpetrator of the foul deed. Chief Fells stated that Chief McAuley and he had traced Mulhern from the tragedy at Collingwood to Toronto, and then to Bradford, from there to Barrie, and then to Collingwood, and after the arrest of Mulhern, they had been to Chatsworth, Durham and Hanover.

Don't Like It.
Ottawa, June 11.—(Special.)—It is said in well informed circles that Mr. Maclean's telephone bill will be jolted along by the sub-committee appointed to look into it, till it dies of old age. The government has no desire to have a telephone bill giving municipalities their just rights over telephone companies, come before parliament, for then the members would have to state their positions in regard to the people's rights. DISCUSSION OF THE DEALS

Crown Lands Department Stated by the Opposition in Legislature All Day Yesterday.

EVIDENCE UNEARTHED REINFORCED

Mr. Whitney Says Mr. Davis' Office is a Pesterous Sink Hole of Corruption.

The Shannon timber deal was discussed, to the entire exclusion of all other matters, in the legislature yesterday afternoon. When the report of the Public Accounts Committee was laid on the table, with the evidence and some data as to the number of times the committee had sat, Col. Matheson rose. He began by saying that the Public Accounts Committee had held more meetings than at any time during the past ten years, and the opposition had done their best to have a full investigation of certain matters connected with the administration of the Crown Lands department. He regretted, however, to say that, owing to the obstruction of certain members of the Crown, their efforts had been to a certain extent hampered. What evidence there was brought out, however, indicated that the administration of affairs, especially that of the Crown Lands department, was a disgrace to the province. He referred to the limit in Rutherford Township, which was shown before the committee that there had been a large tract of land within a few miles of the shores of Georgian Bay, a limit that had been under license, and that the Crown had sold a large tract of land to John Sullivan, thru Patrick Shannon, for $250,000, and had sold to Mr. Munro, Col. Matheson's agent, for $900,000. This man Sullivan divided the profits with a clerk of the Woods and Forests department, the Crown Lands department, who swore that he had received $400,000 from the deal. It was shown that the department president over by the Minister of Crown Lands, it was shown that a number of people had applied for the limit, and that no effort had been made to ascertain its value. The evidence also showed that the limit was worth all the way from $700 to $10,000.

Then, the clerk of the department was in on another deal—that of Chew Bros. It was shown that the firm had not over $200 or $300 in the limit in the Township of Capreol, and it was sold for $700,000. No license was issued for these limits to Chew Bros., but one was sold to a man who represented J. W. Munro. Mr. Munro's name does not appear in the records. The limit was sold to Mr. Munro for $28,000. Out of the two transactions Sullivan and Taylor received $12,000. Taylor swore that he had been given whatever for the $1900 he received from Sullivan for the Chew Bros. limit. The fact was that Taylor got the money for keeping his mouth shut, Taylor held up the Crown Lands Department, while Sullivan held up the lumbermen.

Refused Investigation. Mr. Matheson charged that the committee refused to allow an adjournment for a few days, to permit the opposition to have the accounts produced, and to obtain the evidence of Mr. Chew, who was absent from the Province. He had information that Chew Bros. were held up. They were given a limit where they had not over $200 invested, and were compelled to sell it for $28,000 to J. W. Munro for his election expenses. Chew Bros. did not wish to sell. It practically amounted to this—that they would get the Capreol limits unless they consent to sell.

Mr. Matheson said the minister had informed the House that the amount of timber on the limit was four million feet, when it had been given out that there were seventeen million feet. In the matter of Chew Bros. limit, they were told that $700 was a good price for the islands given to Chew Bros. Col. Matheson charged that the work of the committee was hampered by time. But some good had been done.

the purchaser of the limit. In the case of Chew Bros. there were two or three dummies.

Slap at the Minister. Mr. Clarke (Liberal, Northumberland) said if the Minister of Crown Lands secured more information concerning limits to be sold, it would be to the advantage of the province. After discussing the question with a good deal of levity Mr. Clarke devoted attention to Mr. Gurney's remark that there were other transactions of this kind that they could not get their finger on. He was surprised at the member for Capreol not being able to get his finger on anything.

Mr. Gurney: The Provincial Secretary doesn't agree with you. Continuing, Mr. Clarke spoke of the evidence of McDermott that the Shannon limit would not be sold by public auction.

Mr. Downey: He had it offcially from Frank Sullivan. (Laughter.) Mr. Reid said the province was losing millions by the incapacity of the Crown Lands Department. Mr. St. John continued the discussion till 6 o'clock.

St. John Had the Floor. After recess Mr. St. John assumed, dealing with the appearance of the Sullivan in Ontario politics. He did not impute corruption to the Minister of Crown Lands. He charged the resources of the province were being dissipated while the watchdog of the department slept. Some Ministers should be anxious to investigate the truth, and he was free to admit there was an excessive fatness in the chairman of the committee that was lacking in the Ministers of Crown Lands and the Public Accounts.

Mr. Matheson replied that he got the figures from the evidence, and he produced the report to show that he was correct. The fact that the limit was sold at a higher price was not an argument that the proper value was not obtained for it. He frequently mentioned that limits were transferred, immediately after being sold by the province, at fabulous advances.

Mr. Whitney: From Mr. Whitney. Mr. Matheson replied that he was a member of the Imperial Parliament, to state only the facts of the case. Mr. Smythe (Algonia) regretted that the investigation had been checked off.

Excuse for the Cap. Mr. Latchford, after excusing the long absence of Capt. Sullivan, who was the committee member, defended the committee from charges of burking the enquiry. He then went into an exhaustive review of the situation, and said that the fact that Cap. Sullivan had taken part in elections should not prevent him from acting as a timber broker.

Looked Like a Scarp. For a while things looked favorable for a repetition of the scenes enacted in the morning. Aubrey White, Deputy Minister of Crown Lands, was called. He submitted a memorandum of the transaction with Chew Bros., showing that this firm received the right to cut timber on some islands in Georgian Bay from the Ontario Lumber Company, but later the government was asked to protect the scenic beauties of the islands, and after some negotiations it was agreed to give the firm limits in Capreol Township in exchange for the islands. They wanted five or six million feet in exchange for the islands, but it was agreed to give them 4,000,000 feet; any excess of that they should pay for. The estimate of the pine in Capreol Township was 4,836,000 feet, while on the islands there was about 4,000,000 feet of timber, of which $1,143,041 was pine. The transfer was made in December, 1890, and Chew Bros. transferred the limit to J. W. Munro in 1900.

Got $28,000 for Limit. Edwin Leatherly, manager for Chew Bros. in 1890, said the firm paid the Ontario Lumber Company between $8,000 and $9,000 for the islands. He did not know whether Cap. Sullivan was up there before the Chew Bros. got the Capreol limit. Munro paid Chew Bros. $28,000 for the limit. George Chew was a candidate in the Dominion elections in 1900.

To Mr. Latchford, witness said the firm offered $200 to the government to be placed in the limit.

Bill for Line From Toronto to Hamilton Passes Committee.
Ottawa, June 11.—The Toronto and Hamilton Railway Co. bill passed the Railway Committee this forenoon. The company will have a capital of $500,000. As shown on the map submitted to the committee, the electric line starts from Dundas and Roscoe-avenue, parallels the C.P.R. on the south for some distance, passing thru King-street. Running in a southerly direction, it crosses the G.T.R. opposite Ross-street, and the north until the Humbler is crossed. From that point it bears to the northwest thru Mimico, connecting with the main line just south of the Grand Trunk opposite the rifle ranges. From Lorne Park it runs midway between the Lake Shore road and the next concession line to Burlington, at which point it forks again, one branch going along Burlington Beach and the other direct to Hamilton.

Mr. Gorman's bill incorporating the Niagara Question and the Catharines Railway Company, was reported. The company is empowered to construct and operate an electric railway from St. Catharines to Queenston, thence along the Niagara River to Niagara Falls, and back to St. Catharines, forming a triangular route.

TWELVE HUNDRED AT THREE INITIATIONS

Toronto Independent Foresters Greet Oronhyatekha With 476 New Members—Great Gathering at the Temple Building.

The great Assembly Hall in the Temple Building was gaily decorated last night with flags and bunting, and jammed with an immense audience, the occasion being the home-coming from his trip of inspection abroad of the Supreme Chief Ranger of the order, the event of the evening was the initiation of 476 new members, these having been secured for the order by the members of the subordinate courts of the order in Toronto during the past three weeks as the home-coming greeting to the Supreme Chief.

The large class of new members who were being initiated and the members of the order who had preceded them for membership.

If Oronhyatekha had ever doubted the place which he held in the hearts of Toronto Foresters that doubt must have been removed at the enthusiastic reception of last night's meeting. Cheer after cheer greeted him as he entered the hall, and he had to speak to the scene of great enthusiasm was witnessed. Every member present was in possession of a British flag, which he waved vigorously as the veteran leader stood up to receive the address of welcome which was presented by Mr. R. Aikens of the Ontario Civil Service, an active member of the order.

Three Great Initiations.

These great initiations seem to have become a habit with the Independent Foresters, since it was stated at last night's gathering that during the last two weeks it has been the privilege of the head of the order to initiate three different classes in the Cities of Brooklyn, Newark and Toronto, which altogether total between 1200 and 1300 new members.

The great initiation of last night's gathering in Toronto was that this was a meeting of the workers of the order, the members of the subordinate courts, whose loyalty and devotion to the interests of the institution and gladness of heart at the Supreme Chief's return in improved health had inspired them to arrange this gathering as an especial greeting of the masses of the order.

Escorted from his place of residence by a special reception committee, consisting of Messrs. R. Aikens, A. McGuire and J. Davis, and headed by the Royal Foresters' Band, in beautiful uniforms and in charge of Major Emery, the Supreme Chief Ranger arrived at the Temple Building and was received by a guard of honor. The scene at the building itself was an enthusiasm, hundreds of Foresters filling the corridors to welcome and shake the hand of the man who has obtained such a high position, not only in the order, but in the business life of his country as well.

Presented with Decoration.

While the gathering itself was confined to Toronto Foresters, there was presented a visiting brother from Liverpool, who came with a message of greeting and souvenir in the head of the order. The Liverpool Cycle Club, which is composed of members of the various courts in Liverpool, had received the hands of Brother Bradley a magnificent gold decoration to the Supreme Chief Ranger, whom they had elected their patron. It was a great honor for this club to have one of the features of the charity parades in Liverpool, and to have done so in the hands of the order.

During the course of the evening the Supreme Chief Ranger tendered his very hearty thanks to the brethren whose labors had made the affair such a success. The brethren whom he named were as follows:

Different Nations Represented.

As the different countries in which Forestry has been planted by the Supreme Chief Ranger were mentioned in the address, a very interesting and picturesque group, and one which excited a great deal of attention, came upon the platform. Each one was dressed to represent the country which he represented, and, altogether, they made a very pleasing picture.

The Initiation.

The initiation of the candidates, of whom there were four hundred and seventy-six, was performed by the Royal Forester Encampment. Over 100 of these were present under command of Col. C. Stone. The initiation work was in charge of Bro. T. Lawrence, A. S. C. R., and he was assisted by Bro. J. E. Cook, W. H. Lodge and John Pearson. The work was beautifully done.

Address to the S.C.R.

Mr. I. R. Aikens of the Provincial Secretary's Department, upon behalf of the courts, presented the address of welcome. It was a splendidly written document, and must have immensely pleased the man to whom it was presented. It was indeed the testimony of affection from the courts, and the order was great by reason of having a great man at its head, who had so long served it. His address had been achieved by hard work, honorable dealing, as well as the possession of genius. Independent Foresters was almost today parallel with the limits of civilization. The past of the order was

The Tract and Book Society.

During May the collectors of the Tract and Book Society sold in their many journeys 2003 copies of the Scriptures and of the literature wherever they needed. Another new collector has been added to the staff, who is now in Northern Ontario, May Messrs. Bone, Porter and Hunsman, the three missionaries to sailors employed by the society, sailed over 100 vessels, and held services wherever suitable, and distributed a large amount of the best reading among the men. In the past few weeks they have made 1000 calls, and have secured 1000 new members, and to far-off mission fields. The foreign mission work in Central China is being carried on in a very efficient way, as last year there were sold no less than 20,000 copies of Chinese Christian books. During the next few weeks the Rev. Dr. Moffat will visit a number of Western towns in presenting the manifold mission work of this old and honored society.

A splendid program has been arranged for the closing exercises at Normal School this evening. Rev. Prof. Cody will deliver an address.

An Impertinent Enquiry.

The Board of Control do not take kindly to the enquiry of Ald. S. W. Burns regarding the board's policy respecting the Yonge-street bridge. Ald. Burns asked if the board were doing anything toward hastening along negotiations between the G. T. R. and the city, and whether the loss of a life recently at this dangerous crossing would tend to facilitate matters. Controller Richardson termed the enquiry "impertinent," and the board decided to ignore the matter.

HOUSE SAT TILL MIDNIGHT

Will Meet To-day to Finally Dispose of All Matters of Legislation.

CONCILIATION BILL IS WITHDRAWN

Good Deal of Opposition Encountered—Explanation of Minister of Public Works.

The legislature adjourned at midnight until 11 o'clock this morning, when it is thought all the business will be concluded in two hours. The Lieutenant-Governor will be on hand to assist to the bills passed during the last days of the session. Then the House will adjourn till Tuesday to discuss the Ganevy report, the any matters that may arise in the meantime will be considered proper subjects for debate. Premier Ross informed the House last night. The only items to be cleared off are the adoption of the supplementary estimates and the concurrence in the resolutions adopted by the conference of Premiers at Quebec in December last.

During the late hours last night a great many bills were disposed of. The most important announcement was that the Hon. Mr. Latchford would withdraw his bill regarding the creation of a board of conciliation and arbitration. The Minister of Public Works gave as a reason for his change of mind that there was a great diversity of opinion regarding the bill. Mr. Gibbons' bill to improve and make certain land titles, and Mr. McKay's bill respecting conveyancing, were also withdrawn.

All the other bills on the paper went thru all the stages. The Attorney-General included in his bill an amendment act the bill respecting police villages, that respecting local works and improvements, and the bill to amend the Municipal Act.

BARKERS FOUND GUILTY.

Montreal, Que., June 11.—Mr. C. A. Barker and his wife, charged with conspiring to secure $15,000 in cheques and notes from Thomas Brown, the Hon. Dame-street merchant, were found guilty this evening in the Court of the Queen's Bench. The couple were sentenced to six months in jail, with hard labor, and were threatened and made to sign the notes.

DIED FAR FROM HOME.

Winnipeg, June 11.—The dead body of a new arrival from England, named Charles Bowden, was found lying on the bed in his room at the boarding house of William Hulse, Ross-avenue, in this country and only arrived on April 13. There were no signs of violent death.

FIRE RECORD.

At 9:55 a.m.: box 134; false alarm; smoke from chimney of mill on Davenport-road mistaken for fire.

Montreal Rugby Championship.

Montreal, June 11.—An Irish firm of distillers have offered a trophy emblematic of the Rugby championship of the city, Montreal will be competed for by Montreal, Britannia, Westmount, and, it is hoped, McGill.

This year English rules will govern the play, and if they prove satisfactory the Q. R. F. U. will be asked to adopt them. The rules of the competition will be drawn up at a meeting to be held immediately after the Q. R. F. U. schedule meeting this month.
