"Oh Come Let Us Give Thanks"---Why Canada Should Rejoice

Lieutenant-Governors Speak for the People of Six Provinces.

ONTARIO:

No country has greater reason for thankful minds and hearts than Canada.

We are prospering and progressing materially, and laying a broad foundation for national greatness.

We keep striving towards higher and more varied standards of education and a wider diffusion of its advantages.

We have excellent public institutions for classes of our people who are helpless or incapable, and there is a prevalent and ever willing disposition to participate in voluntary efforts for the uplifting and betterment of humanity.

Our country is more or less a network of churches and charities, and a general striving toward better conditions is evident.

We also see more clearly and definitely than ever before the national future of Canada, bound to and associated with our Mother Country, and the other great outlying dominions, in the great scheme of Imperial Federation, now in rapid course of evolution.

Let us be thankful, always remembering that Man's chief end is to glorify God and enjoy Him for ever.

J. M. GIBSON,
Lieutenant-Governor.

NEW BRUNSWICK:

In common with the other provinces of the Dominion, New Brunswick has good cause this day, so fittingly set apart, for thanksgiving to the Almighty for a year of prosperity.

Our province is progressing, perhaps not rapidly, but surely, and there was never a period in its history when the future looked so promising. New industries are being created, and its resources, hitherto neglected, are being speedily developed. The outlook is bright. We are emerging from the glamor of the west, and our people are realizing that "there is no place like home."

Whatever may befall, the world over, let us hope that Canada may in future years have as abundant reason for thanksgiving as she has to-day.

L. J. TWEEDIE,
Lieutenant-Governor.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND:

Altho' cheerfully yielding islanders to join the winners of the west, our province has doubled in value its production of the soil for our home-workers since 1900; our fishermen hold their own at sea, our tourists have been given rejuvenated transportation, until airships arrive, aided by the powerful winter steamer, Earl Grey. Our hearts are lifted up in thanksgiving for many blessings.

D. A. MCKINNON,
Lieutenant-Governor.

QUEBEC:

We, the inhabitants of the Province of Quebec, should undoubtedly be most grateful to Providence for the beautiful harvest and the continued prosperity we have enjoyed in the past year.

C. A. P. PELLETIER,
Lieutenant-Governor.

ALBERTA:

Alberta is thankful for the peace of the empire, the prosperity of the Dominion at large, and particularly for the growth of her own population, her beautiful harvest, now safely gathered, and the sound condition of her commercial interests.

G. H. V. BULYEA,
Lieutenant-Governor.

SASKATCHEWAN:

Saskatchewan has special reasons for thanksgiving, in a remarkably beautiful harvest, and in continued enjoyment of peace, plenty and lusty growth.

A. E. FORGET,
Lieutenant-Governor.

NEW CHANCELLOR WANTED BY ASQUITH

Haldane Likely to Succeed Lloyd-George if Liberals Win General Election—Premier May Soon Announce January Contest.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—(New York Tribune cable)—Practical politicians are convinced that royal diplomacy has failed to avert the rejection of the budget, but expect that it may be more successful when the necessity arises for providing the emergency measures predicted by the treasury. It is now generally expected that Premier Asquith was anxious to secure a compromise through changes in the budget itself, and that the opposition leaders were unwilling to commit themselves to definite pledges. The rejection of the finance bill will produce an anomalous state of affairs in the treasury, and special arrangements will be required for tidying over the crisis. The King's negotiations may be resumed in the middle of November, with improved chance of success.

Candidates on all sides are spending money freely. It is a sure sign that elections are near, altho the party managers do not expect them before Christmas. The Unionists have gained confidence during the last week. There is now a forecast of an absolute majority for tariff reform over all parties, and it is expected that the Liberals are losing ground thru the cabinet dissension and there are news of signs of a moderate movement against the budget.

Lloyd-George May Resign. The prime minister and the chancellor of the exchequer are not working harmoniously. The breach between them may not involve David Lloyd-George's resignation on the eve of the construction cabinet with R. B. Haldane as chancellor is not unlikely if the Liberals carry the general election. Winston Churchill is the only successor who can hold the Radical vote if a change is made in the treasury before the elections.

What is most likely is a temporary truce between the factions in the cabinet on the assumption that the lords will reject the budget after it and help to unite the Liberal party by raising a constitutional issue.

The country is showing signs of alarm over the investment of surplus capital abroad, the paralysis of building operations, the lack of employment in London and provincial towns and the increase of unemployment. The facts are exaggerated by the partisan press without doubt, yet the condition of business and trade is not so bright as it appears. The financial policy is definitely ordered and the country expresses its final judgment upon it. The chancellor's revised estimate shows a deficit half as large as the expected surplus, and this will be made up by a fresh invasion of the sinking fund. He has suddenly become cautious, and is making belated efforts to conciliate the restaurants and hotels thru licenses.

Premier to Rush Lords. The prime minister, if convinced that the lords will throw out the budget, may announce the elections for January as a matter of fact before the third reading of the finance bill in the commons. This expedient will be contrary to the usual practice of conceding the date of election until the last moment. It may be useful when the lords are threatening to hold up the budget, or when the commons are in a hurry to pass judgment on it. If it is known that the elections will be held whether the budget is accepted or rejected, the premier can neither pose as the champion of popular rights nor claim the advantage of forcing an appeal to the country on its own terms.

PERISHES IN FLAMES

Prescott Man Loses His Life With Couple of Race Horses.

PRESCOTT, Oct. 24.—About 2 o'clock this morning Night Chief Lavery discovered a fire in the stables of S. Prescott, on Henry street. The stable contained two valuable race horses, "Go Past," owned by J. S. Flynn, and "Mary Kelly," owned by S. D. Flynn. J. S. Flynn, an uncle of the horses, was sleeping in the stable, and with the horses, perished in the flames.

Czar in Italy Pleases France

Regarded as a Blow to the Triple Alliance—Austria Has Been Liberally Slighted.

PARIS, Oct. 24.—(New York Tribune cable)—The visit of Emperor Nicholas II to King Victor Emmanuel causes a thrill of satisfaction thruout France. In diplomatic circles it is regarded as an event of the greatest significance, the immediate effect of which is to rivet the link of friendship between Italy and France and Russia, and also to sever a link in the chain which binds Italy to the Triple Alliance. This is represented as the first official visit ever made to Italy by a Czar of Russia. The scrupulous care with which the imperial itinerary was drawn up so as to avoid touching Austrian territory, thereby lengthening the imperial journey by five hours, proves that Russia has not forgotten the threats and humiliations inflicted a year ago on Russia by Baron von Aehrenthal's stand-and-deliver methods, which at the time were backed up by the unrelenting determination of Germany to bring about the complete triumph of Baron von Aehrenthal's policy in the Balkans.

On the other hand, the graceful and tactful visit of Nicholas to the emperor made in France at Belfort, and elsewhere on French territory, and the arrangements concluded at the Emperor's personal initiative for receiving M. Pichon, the French minister of foreign affairs, on his return journey from Raconigi, as well as for the meeting with the emperor in the presence of M. Pichon and M. Jewolsky, show how thorough and complete is the frankness which continues to characterize the Franco-Russian alliance.

It is felt here that Italy's adhesion to the Triple Alliance hangs only by a thread, notwithstanding the mild and courteous protestations of the Italian government, and that the Italian people, whenever the emergency might arise, would be found standing shoulder to shoulder with France.

THE HIGHER BANK RATE

Politics Given as One Cause of the British Increase.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—(New York Tribune cable)—American speculators are held responsible for the rapid rise in the bank rate to 8 per cent. when additional turns of the screw seemed hardly necessary and certainly premature. The influence of the bankers is always felt at this time of year, and any pretext serves for making money dear and increasing the profits of the lenders. The dividends of the banks at Berlin as well as at New York have been attracting masses of capital for legitimate business, apart from speculation, and other countries have been calling for gold. There is also a lurking apprehension of the demoralization of all markets by the budget imbroglio, and the directors of the Bank of England have considered defensive measures for guarding the increasing reserves indispensable.

The immediate effect is depressing for speculation and investment, and brokers are inclined to take a long holiday. There is a prospect of several months of slack business, with 8 per cent. as the Christmas rate until the January dividends begin to come in and the country emerges from the welter of politics.

POISONED WIFE; MANSLAUGHTER

MONTREAL, Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Dr. Sampson of Perce was found guilty on Saturday evening of manslaughter, and will be sentenced on Monday. The prisoner was charged with poisoning his wife.

MABEL TURNER'S SENTENCE 15 YEARS

Woman Who Killed Baby Auteurs Gets Comparatively Short Prison Term After Surprising Verdict of Manslaughter.

After he had criticized the action of the jury in bringing in a verdict of a lesser crime than murder for which the death sentence would have been inevitable, Judge Magee on Saturday night sentenced Mrs. Mabel Turner to serve 15 years in Kingston Penitentiary for strangling the infant of Mrs. Annie Auteurs, which she had adopted for $100. Mrs. Turner gives her age as 32 years, which will bring her out of the gray prison at the age of 47 years, or with good conduct allowance, two and a half years earlier.

Sentence was passed at 7.30, at the close of a curious scene, which many prominent lawyers say is without precedent in any Canadian court. When G. T. Blackstock, K.C., crown prosecutor, rose to object to the sentence, he launched into a terrific denunciation of the jury.

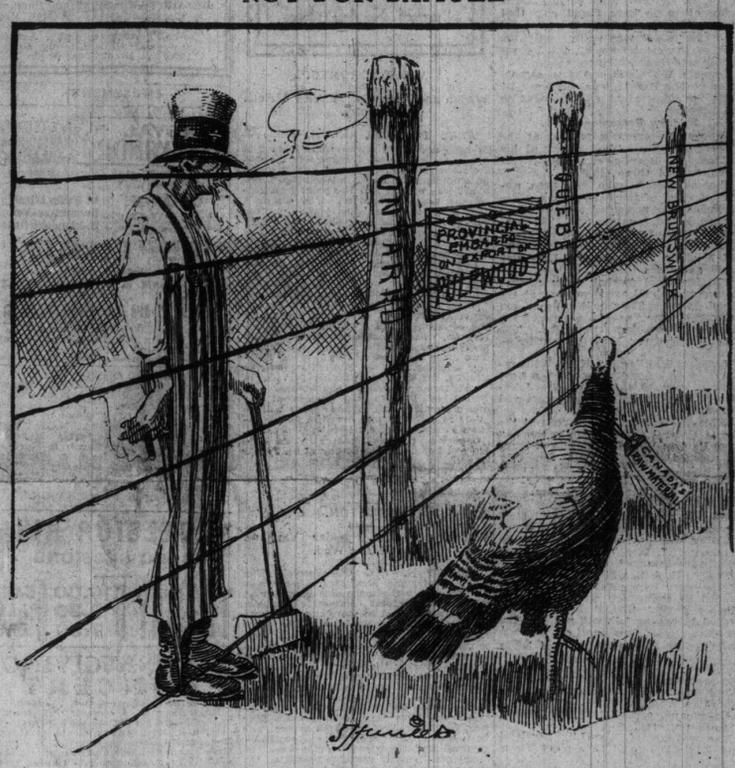

Miscarriage of Justice. "It is my duty to state that the verdict given by the jury was a grave disappointment to those who have charge of the administration of justice. We hear a great deal about the defects that are alleged to exist in the administration of justice, and it is advisable when these discussions take place that the responsibility for miscarriage should be placed exactly in each case where it belongs. Now, if there has been, as I venture to think there has in this case, a serious departure from the sound administration of justice, it is only right and proper to say that the whole responsibility for it rests upon the jury who tried the case of this prisoner."

Mr. Blackstock continuing said "that he had pointed out to the jury that the case was exceptional, a number of witnesses had testified to the facts, and all witnesses were of a high character. There had not been a tittle of a reply to the crown's allegations, and it was inconceivable that there could have been a stronger case. The character of the crime as disclosed by the evidence could only lead to a verdict of murder if the prisoner was at all guilty. In spite of these circumstances the jury took upon themselves to avoid being guided by the directions given by your lordship, and brought in a verdict of manslaughter, which they were expressly directed not to pronounce, if they found the prisoner guilty."

Such a course of conduct he said has a demoralizing effect. It was a direct incentive to crime. Numbers of persons were not apprehended because it was said that a jury would not convict. Then those who were responsible for the exercise of the police functions could not be expected to efficiently perform their duties when there are miscarriages of this kind.

Plea for Leniency. T. C. Robinette, K.C., spoke for Mrs. Turner, but first he took occasion for a counter blow at the crown prosecutor. "My learned friend," said he, "would not have dared to so criticize any action of your lordship. Had he done so, he would have been asked to leave the court. The jury stands in the same position. It is a part of the court. A part of the ancient machinery of British justice, and their dignities are indissoluble. I am surprised that such remarks should be made in any court."

HUNTER, WIFE MURDERER, SUICIDES IN HIS CELL

Hangs Himself With Strips of Bed Clothing—Was Awaiting Trial.

LANDSAY, Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Joseph Hunter, the Bobayson hotel-keeper, awaiting trial for the murder of his wife, hanged himself during the night in his cell in the county jail.

Last night he retired early apparently in the best of spirits. About 7 o'clock this morning his body was found hanging to the cell iron work. Hunter had torn a sheet of bed clothing into strips, fastened one end to the top bar of the cell and put a noose around his neck. He had tied his feet together with his braces and his hands with his necktie, and after using an upturned stool to stand on, had knocked it away and strangled.

Hunter, a hotelman, shot his wife to death one night last August. He had been drinking heavily for some time and had domestic quarrels. When brought up in the fall assizes, his trial was traversed until spring to permit of evidence being secured by the defence to prove that he was an epileptic. He leaves one child.

One thousand men were, of course, at present in Bowmanville, and Turnkey Andrews was in charge.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Merchants Truly Thankful for a Bountiful Year. Toronto merchants are taking a well-earned Thanksgiving holiday. We do not hesitate in suggesting that a great many of them have experienced an unexpectedly large and bountiful harvest of coin of the realm. Speaking to Mr. William Dineen, the president of the big fur firm of that name, the question of the comparative increase in trade arose. Mr. Dineen said that, altho the increase had heretofore been very steady from year to year, the last twelve months eclipsed anything in his company's history. "It has been really surprising," said Mr. Dineen, "and I fancy every merchant in Toronto to-day realizes there is an honest feature about this particular thanksgiving."

TEN YEARS AGO TO-DAY TROOPS LEFT FOR WAR

Decade Since All Canada Rose to Defence of Britain in South Africa.

Ten years ago to-day 130 of Toronto's bravest sons departed for far-off South Africa, to help fight Britain's battles against the Boers. Accompanied by 900 others from different parts of Canada, they sailed on Oct. 30, on the Sardinian from old Quebec which for the first time in 150 years, was stirred by the war spirit, and enlivened by military activity.

They were the first men of the first contingent. Others followed them during the succeeding 18 months, 2000 or 4000 of them, but the patriotic enthusiasm which marked the departure of the first body of soldiers was never equalled before nor since. War was new to Canadians of that generation, and it became the all absorbing topic of the day. The anxiety to prove the loyalty to the empire, which many superficial observers had questioned, helped to bring about the general outburst.

One thousand men were, of course, at present in Bowmanville, and Turnkey Andrews was in charge. The Boer war has passed into history, and now at the close of only the first decade, the outstanding historical fact is the reconciliation of the races in the territory where they strove so bitterly for supremacy. What fiction-ary appearance of probability pictured the days of 1899 could have pictured the reconciliation of the races in the territory where they strove so bitterly for supremacy. What fiction-ary appearance of probability pictured the days of 1899 could have pictured the reconciliation of the races in the territory where they strove so bitterly for supremacy. What fiction-ary appearance of probability pictured the days of 1899 could have pictured the reconciliation of the races in the territory where they strove so bitterly for supremacy.

CANADA'S NAVAL POLICY AS VIEWED IN QUEBEC

F. D. Monk Will Give His Opinion of Borden's Attitude at Banquet in Week's Time.

MONTREAL, Oct. 24.—(Special.)—There can be no doubt as to the peculiar position of the Conservatives in this province regarding the attitude of the party, when Sir Wilfrid Laurier brings down his naval defence policy at the opening of the coming session.

Perhaps the situation may be a little clearer after F. D. Monk makes his speech at Lachine to-morrow week, at a banquet given in the French Conservative leader's honor by his supporters in Jacques Cartier.

It is understood Mr. Monk is to have an interview with R. L. Borden before the banquet. As usual, the French Liberal papers are taking their word of command from their leaders, and go the whole project as far as the nava policy is concerned. Again, as usual, the French Conservative sheets are divided and L'Evenement, which is supposed to speak for Senator Landry and Hon. Thomas Chapais, while endorsing Borden, says that they cannot adhere to his policy in its entirety, preferring the motion of the Hon. Geo. E. Foster to the Laurier policy. It believes in fact that the question justifies an appeal to the people before undertaking such a heavy expenditure. Le Courrier, a paper published in Grand Mere, is also alarmed at the growing spirit of imperialism and militarism, and wants to know who is to take the place of Broussard and Lavergne when the measure is brought before the house of commons. La Patrie is also very careful, and believes that the people should be consulted.

BAYONETED BY MILITIAMAN AT RECEPTION TO TAFT.

DALLAS, Texas, Oct. 24.—As President Taft was entering the fairgrounds yesterday afternoon, Louis Rostenstein was bayoneted by one of the militia guards and died later. Rostenstein belonged to a well-known family here and had been in local politics for many years.

EIGHTEEN YEARS FOR BLYTHE IN CELL

Jury in Second Trial of Agin-court Wife-Slayer Pronounces Him Guilty of Manslaughter—He Escapes Gallows.

Walter Blythe escapes the gallows. With the verdict of manslaughter brought in by the second jury to hold this man's life in their hands, and the sentence of Judge Magee, that he shall serve 18 years in Kingston Penitentiary, one of the most celebrated cases in Canadian criminal history is finally closed, and this man, whose fate has been on every tongue for nearly a year, goes from the limelight of strange publicity to a long silence behind the gray walls at Kingston.

At 2.30 Saturday night, after nearly two hours' deliberation upon a great bulk of evidence, and while the air of the courtroom was still tense from the emotional stress of the scenes surrounding the sentence of Mrs. Mabel Turner to fifteen years for the killing of the Auteurs infant, which she had adopted, the jury filed into the room and in a tense silence delivered their verdict of "guilty of manslaughter."

Blythe Smiled. For the first time since he has been in court, Blythe smiled, and he shook hands with T. C. Robinette, K.C., the counsel that has fought for the "out" many months and thru many courts, he looked ten years younger than he has at any time since his second appearance in court. The drawn look returned as G. T. Blackstock, K.C., crown prosecutor, rose and moved for sentence. Mr. Robinette then addressed the court to make the last plea for this man whose interests have occupied most of his time for nearly a year.

He urged upon the court that Blythe was a criminal of accident and not from whom society stood in no danger. He rehearsed with pitiful realism the agony of mind already endured by Blythe, whom he described as having three times walked thru the valley of the shadow of death. He had been relieved only to be cast once more in peril of his life. He had been tortured in soul during three terrible periods of hope, suspense and despair, and now it must be cast once more in the solution of every human tie and upon long years of the daily monotony of a felon's life, offering as it does such fearful opportunity and occasion for remorse.

Judge Magee spoke at considerable length to the condemned man, who stood dumbly before him, and at the close was led silently away to expiate his crime committed nearly a year ago.

Popular Verdict.

The verdict was popular in the courtroom. Even Mr. Blackstock said at the close of court that he considered it a just verdict, and said that he had always had a great deal of sympathy for Blythe thru both trials, and was glad that he was not to be hanged. In his plea before sentence Mr. Robinette styled it a "righteous verdict upon the evidence."

Mr. Robinette Thanks World.

Speaking of the case after sentence had been passed, T. C. Robinette, K.C., his counsel, said Saturday night: "I cannot let this matter pass without thanking the world for the part it has taken in the matter. From its fair and impartial exposition of the facts last June there came so many letters of encouragement to me from prominent and sane citizens and so many offers of assistance that I took heart when I had already made three unsuccessful applications for clemency to Hon. Mr. Aylesworth, minister of justice, and subsequently to Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself, and then to Hon. Charles Doherty, when they respectively occupied the position of acting minister. All had refused, but the world's work in the matter brought me hope. Large cheques were offered, which were, fortunately, not necessary, and one prominent judge of the court of appeal wrote to me and to Ottawa offering encouragement and giving valuable advice as to the legal course to be taken. I want to thank the world for its part in this case. Walter Blythe is now somewhat over 35 years of age. The good conduct allowance of two

"The Man's World" is said to be a play of vivid realism, giving Miss Manning many opportunities for appealing feminine portrayals. Sale of seats commences on Thursday.

At St. Philip's Church yesterday afternoon, the order of Canadian Home Circles celebrated their twenty-fifth anniversary. The sermon was preached by Supreme Chaplain Rev. T. Stainey Boyle of Chatham. The musical part of the service, under the direction of Mr. Fred Race, was excellent. The principal officers of the order present were: W. B. Graham, supreme leader; T. R. "School Days," at the Grand. "School Days," a rollicking musical comedy, is offering at the Grand this week, opening with a special holiday matinee to-day. The happiest period in life is presented in "School Days." Two acts are laid in and around a public school in New York City and the title is a pupil's home near the metropolis. Herman Timberg is the star and his support includes the principals who made the great success at the Circle Theatre, New York, last year. The musical numbers include those old favorites, "Sunbonnet Sue," "You're Just the Girl for Me," "Tittle Tattle," "Omaha" and others, and there are a variety of new numbers which will be heard here for the first time. Timberg continues to play his violin in the last act; the big feature of the performance last season. Besides the matinee to-day the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be given.

Pat White at Star. An unusually strong company, and entirely different from the usual run of burlesque shows will be seen at the Star Theatre this week. Pat White and his Gaiety Girls, composed of artists that are the cream of the profession, will appear in two brand new skits, written and produced by Pat White, entitled, "Casey Among the stars," and "Dr. Dunn-Out-done, or the Fountain of Fun," that will prove a revelation to theatregoers in this city from the fact that they breathe with novelty and are a distinct and radical departure from the old-style burlesque. An olio of six vaudeville acts are introduced between the first and second part, which is bound to please.

Fred Irwin's Big Show. Nothing is so sure to attract attention from the theatrical-going public this season as will Fred Irwin's Big Show, which opens up a week's engagement at the Grand Theatre to-day. This company has been here before, but this season offers new faces with the olio is new, and comprises only the best in the vaudeville market. The musical comedy is new and has been built on a scale of grandeur.

ROLLS MILES WITH BROKEN LEG. RAPID CITY, S.D., Oct. 24.—Forced to roll over and over for a distance of two miles, with a leg and an arm broken, after he had been buried twice at the bottom of a shaft, both times digging himself out with his hands, was the experience of Bert Miller, a mining expert, who went to inspect a shaft at Silver City. The flesh on the fingers of his left hand was worn to the bone and amputation was necessary.

OPENING DAY AT PIMLICO

Stella Land, at 6 to 1, Captures the Steeplechase—Results.

PIMLICO RACE TRACK, Md., Oct. 23.—(Special.)—The fall meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club opened up here this afternoon with a crowd of about 8000 persons in the grand stand when the horses went to the post for the opening event. The weather was not of the very best, as it was rather cool, and at the same time cloudy and threatening, but, as this is one town where the horse is in favor, the crowd took the chances of receiving a drenching in order to witness their favorite sport. The card of races which was to furnish the sport this afternoon called for the running of six well-filled races, in which the Inaugural Handicap Steeplechase event, at about two miles, was the main feature. These cross-country events are very popular here, and eleven of the best timber-toppers in these parts were named to sport silk. The Baltimore Cup, for 2-year-olds and up, was at six furlongs, which had gentlemen riders in the saddle, was the next event of interest.

FIRST RACE—For all ages, 6 furlongs: 1. Jack Aikin, 120 (Rettig), 3 to 1, 2 to 1, 1 to 1; 2. Charles Castan, 117 (G. Burns), 12 to 1 and out; 3. Indomitable, 107 (C. Brady), 100 to 1 and 5 to 1; 4. Time 1:24. No other starters.

SECOND RACE—For 2-year-olds and up, 1 mile and 70 yards: 1. High Private, 106 (P. Goldstein), 3 to 1 and 2 to 1; 2. Aronack, 105 (McCahey), 5 to 1 and 3 to 1; 3. Gracia Green, 116 (G. Burns), 6 to 1, 3 to 1 and 4 to 5; 4. Time 1:46. Rio Grande, Live Wire, Stable, Philander, Fin and Needles also ran.

THIRD RACE—Selling, 2-year-olds, 5/8 mile: 1. Intruder, 116 (G. Burns), 3 to 1, even; 2. Louise Wells, 112 (McCabe), 5 to 1, 3 to 1 and 2 to 1; 3. Compton, 111 (Goldstein), 3 to 1, 2 to 1 and 1 to 1; 4. Time 1:08. 2-1/2. Hotel, Tom Melton, Op-par, Hedge Rose, Tom Cat, Acumen, Inspection, Miss O'Toole and Rebellion also ran.

FOURTH RACE—About 2 miles, steeplechase, for all ages: 1. Stella Land, 137 (Sobell), 6 to 1, 2 to 1 and even; 2. Jim McGill, 114 (Williams), 10 to 1, 4 to 1 and 2 to 1; 3. SIXTH RACE—One mile and 40 yards: 1. Nethermost, 107 (McCahey), 2 to 1, 1 to 1 and 1 to 1; 2. Silver, 106 (G. Burns), 15 to 1, 5 to 1 and 2 to 1; 3. Saturday at Dufferin. DUFFERIN PARK, Toronto, Oct. 23.—(Special.)—The attendance at the track yesterday was lower than usual, probably due to the fact of the cold wind which swept the track. Varsity Pile Up a Record Score Have No Less Than Eleven Tries Ottawa College Simply Smothered by Griffiths' Blue and White Machinery—Poor College! Ottawa College was buried under an avalanche by Varsity in the intercollegiate Rugby game at Varsity Field Saturday. The match was witnessed by 250 spectators, who soon grew weary of the struggle. There was little wind and playing conditions were excellent.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Not long ago a distinguished English Judge preached a delightful lay sermon to the Bartholomew Club of London on "The Fourteen Mistakes of Life." The first three of these were: "To set up our own standard of right and wrong and to expect everyone to conform to it"; "To try to measure the enjoyment of others by our own"; "To expect uniformity of opinion in this world." These commend themselves as excellent things to avoid and probably no one but will admit in the abstract that what they inferentially require in the way of tolerance and sympathy ought to be willingly yielded. But when it comes down to actual practice there are too many people, and good people, too, who cannot refrain from condemning or at least deprecating all conduct that conflicts with their notions of what that ought to be.

Thanksgiving Day provides an opportunity for the committing of the errors specially covered by Judge Rentoul's first three mistakes of life. It is a commendable institution, the every particular individual may not spend it well. But even if it is looked at as nothing else than a holiday, and probably to the great majority it is that and nothing more, it does not therefore fall of its purpose. Hurling a long face or attending conventional observances are not necessary elements in Thanksgiving, and a heart that is contented enough to rejoice over the pleasures of a free day, provided they be innocent, may be rendering a tribute to Providence more acceptable than if it were less honest.

It is not possible that the best lessons of Thanksgiving Days, for many people, come with the memories that cluster round them? Thanksgiving Day may mean family and social reunions, happy hours at home or in the country, perhaps only respite from monotonous toil. It passes, but it is not forgotten. Pleasant associations cling to it, and the mind is sensibly led to the reason for its appointment, and thence to individual causes for thankfulness. Those who habitually live at higher levels will spend Thanksgiving Day in their own way, but they will not if they are wise, judge the many who seek less excited forms of enjoyment. Contentment alone is great gain.

FIRE PROTECTION FOR THE PUBLIC.

Every paper in the city except The World has been alarmed about the danger of fire in the public schools, where the responsible officials declare there is no danger. Every paper in the city except The World ignores the nightly danger in the theatres and places of amusement which continue to violate the regulations laid down by the responsible officials for proper exits and their use. Fire in Toronto schools in several cases has been shown to be provided for by proper exits. Fire in a Toronto theatre with inadequate exits or exits which are closed every night and unfamiliar to playgoers would result in panic and death, such as in Chicago and elsewhere constitute tragic memories. The schools are a safe mark for criticism because no personal interests are touched, and while The World will be glad to see fireproof staircases in every school, the urgent need of Toronto for the protection of life from fire is adequate exits in the theatres not so provided, and the compulsory use of every one of them at the close of each performance.

Fire Chief Thompson ought to be on record in regard to this, and so also should be the city architect.

THE WIDER PATRIOTISM.

Quite in accord with the line taken by The World the other day, when recommending the opening of the path of knowledge to the people was the appearance of Professor Baker of Toronto University at the annual convention of the teachers of south Ontario. The appreciation elicited by his address on "Our Broadening Conception of Country and Compatriot," while every way deserved, has wider significance since it shows the attraction which addresses, delivered on subjects of real and vital importance, have for the community at large. It is not enough for universities and university professors to await the coming of students to their halls and lecture rooms. They should be ready and willing to carry the cup of learning to the thirsty crowds and spread broadcast the seeds of knowledge and culture that all may have a chance to hear something about the great formative questions of the day.

Professor Baker's treatment of his theme was suggestive and inspiring. Britain stands first among the nations to recognize that the existence of local patriotism far from impairing a wider loyalty was its surest foundation. It took, however, many years and some sharp lessons before the way of escape was found from the dilemma which threatened the future of the British empire. Even yet there are occasional re-appearances of the old notions, but they are now felt to be anachronisms and to have no power to disturb the steady movement of the British states towards co-partnership for common purposes on equal terms. To become that means the realization of their true community of interest and Professor Baker's suggestions on this point were practical and timely. What is needed is earnest effort on the part of every citizen who believes that the British peoples can play a great part in promoting the higher civilization, and in leading the world along a more excellent way than that of the past.

CITY ATTACKED TO-DAY "RED" FORCE INVADERS. Sham Battle Will Take Place on Humber Between Regulars and Militia. To-day the City of Toronto will be attacked by a hostile force. As, however, the attackers consist of citizen soldiers of the Queen City, there should be no cause for alarm. It will be practically a battle between the permanent force and the militia, for on the troops from Stanley Barracks rests the honor of defending the city.

months for every year will give him 36 months reduction, so that if he believes himself he may look for liberty at the age of 29 years, 12 months hence, a bright prospect for a man who has three times faced the gallows within one short year.

One Short Year. The history of Walter Blythe as known in Canada is unique in the annals of crime. Up till the night of Sunday, Jan. 2, of this year, he was an unknown trackman on the G.T.R. at the little village of Agincourt, living there quietly with his wife and two children in a little cottage. There was nothing to distinguish him from the average citizen of the little railway village in the quiet farming community.

On that night he rushed into the house of his neighbor, Malcolm Walker, and drunkenly announced that he had killed his wife—beaten her to death with a poker. He was taken to Toronto jail after making arrangements for her burial; and then began a legal fight which was to cost thousands of dollars and to make legal history, and all to save the life of this poor trackman, who had boasted with conscious pride that by a year of labor he had made the poor sum of a little over $500.

He was tried before Mr. Justice Riddell in the criminal assizes, found guilty of murder, and sentenced to be hanged at Toronto jail, May 14 next. The trial occupied a single day, and the man's defence was that he was insane.

Reprieve Granted. An appeal was made to the minister of justice for a commutation of this sentence. On the very day before he was to be hanged a reprieve was granted till June 17, and again, on the very day before this date when the certificates of admission to his hanging had been issued by the sheriff, Mr. Robinson, he was reprieved.

THE J. F. BROWN CO., LIMITED, 193-5-7 YONGE STREET

His eyes wavered and filled with tears. Blythe Denounced. He was followed by G. T. Blackstock, K.C., who denounced Blythe as a faker who had sat back while the farce that he was insane was played thru at an earlier trial hearing; it pleaded that he was incapable of giving rational evidence, but who now came forward when that device had failed and pleaded once more against his own conviction, that he should be hanged with a rope as he had asked when taken on the night of the murder.

The Sentence. Judge Magee's charge to the jury was notable for its impartiality. In passing sentence upon Blythe, he said: "One cannot but regret to see a man of your appearance in the position that you are. Your wife was apparently an inoffensive woman. She had borne you two children. When men who love their wives become affected with Blythe they usually display greater love. With you, you have displayed a nature that I feel should be always under control. From your act, one would consider your nature brutal, and in dealing with the case I cannot look upon it as one that has borne no ill-will. The jury have taken a lenient view of your case. You might have been sentenced to the grave to-night. You may prepare yourself to spend a considerable portion of the balance of your life in prison. I cannot but take into account your two children whom you have deprived of a mother. I hope when you come out you will resolve to make atonement as best you can, not only to your children, but to society at large. If you would only realize that intoxication is poison when you come out you will endeavor to retrieve yourself. The sentence of the court upon you, Walter Blythe, is that you be confined in Kingston Penitentiary for the period of eighteen years."

$10.00—New York and Return. From Suspension Bridge, via Lehigh Valley Railroad, Thursday, Oct. 28, tickets good ten days. Particulars: No. 54 King-street East, Toronto, Ont. 5112.

LET BOYS BE BOYS. Worst Specimens Are Those Who Have No Spare House. A boys' service was held at Carlton-street Methodist Church yesterday evening for the delegates to the Fourth Boys' Annual Y.M.C.A. Conference. They were addressed by Dr. George J. Phelps of New York, who spoke on

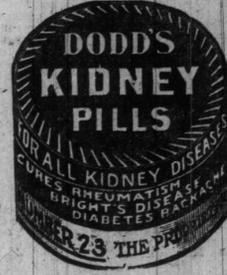

"Boys' Strength and Power." The boys, the speaker declared, were greatly hampered by too many "don'ts" in their home training. Boys, said Dr. Phelps, were full of enthusiasm and in order that they may be a success in future years, it is necessary that they should be given lots of amusement, good healthy pastimes help to develop the brain. The worst specimens of boys that I ever saw were those who had no spare hours. They were weak, unenthusiastic and unambitious. A striking example of the old proverb, "All work and no play," is therefore essential that in a boy's training he be given plenty of good, wholesome recreation, not forgetting his spiritual training."

Later Day Saints' Conference. The Toronto district conference of the Latter Day Saints' Church is in session at the Solo-street church. Many delegates from various points are in attendance. The Bishop of Canada and missionary in charge and the district president are conducting the session. The Saturday sessions were devoted to business and yesterday the pulpits at the 11 a.m., 2.30 p.m. and 7 p.m. services were occupied by prominent speakers.

FARM HOUSE DYNAMITED.

Queer Outrage Is Reported From Harwich Township. CHATHAM, Oct. 24.—An attempt was made Friday night upon the lives of John Rumble, his son, and son's wife, who live on a farm about three miles up the river in Harwich, which is owned by Sidney Knapp. About 3 a.m., the three were aroused by the sound of an explosion, followed by the crashing of timbers. They found that the whole corner of the frame structure had been blown off. Nothing but dynamite could have wrought the work. No one was injured. No one can imagine the identity of the perpetrators of the deed. An investigation is being made. Mrs. Tolchard, who was 61 years of age, is survived by her husband, two sons and a daughter.

Pastor Russell's Sermon

Grieving the Spirit. Text: "Grieve Not the Holy Spirit of God, By Which You Were Sealed Unto the Day of Deliverance." (Ephesians iv, 30).

Pastor Russell of the Brooklyn Tabernacle preached Sunday from the text, "Grieve not the holy spirit of God, by which you were sealed unto the day of deliverance" (Ephesians iv, 30). He said:

"Most evidently our text is not addressed to the heathen, who know not God, nor to the masses of Christendom even, but merely to those who come to an intimate acquaintance with the Lord and who have received His holy spirit as a seal. Many evidence, proof that they by and by will attain the fruition of their hopes—the completion of their redemption, their absolute deliverance from sin and its conditions. Most assuredly no one could grieve the holy spirit who had not received it!

The expression, holy spirit of God, is here used exactly in the same sense as if we were speaking of a dear earthly friend, whose sympathy, fellowship, favor we had received and esteem very highly. Of such we might say in very similar language, if you do so and so, it would grieve me, and so on, and so on, the spirit of your dearest friend. The intimation would be that you would no longer have his esteem and favor as before; that the respect and conduct would cause more or less of a breach between you and your friend. It would not mean that his acquaintance would necessarily be cut forever, and that he would become your enemy, instead of your friend. It would mean, rather, that having been your friend he would esteem you no longer worthy of the same degree of fellowship and confidence as before. He would no longer treat you as a dear and intimate friend, and communicate to you his plans and arrangements along various lines. He might still speak as if he loved you, and treat you in every way kindly, yet there would be a difference, a coolness, a separation, a cloud, between you. If you esteemed the love of your friend, his fellowship, his interest in all of your affairs, you would assuredly be continually on guard to do nothing that might offend or grieve him and alienate his sympathy and fellowship, especially if he were on a higher plane of wealth or honor or intelligence than yourself, and one, therefore, whose patronage, advice and counsel you needed and desired.

This, we take it, is the thought behind the apostle's word "grieve" in our text. It is closely allied with the thought of offending our best friend, our Creator, our Heavenly Father. We are not to get the thought that the great Creator of the universe could be actually caused sorrow, grief, pain, by any conduct of ours. He is too great and we are too insignificant. Yet our Heavenly Father takes note of us as a world of mankind. He has provided for our relief from sin and its penalty, death. He is specially interested in those who have turned to His gracious proffer. "Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that reverence Him" (Psalm ciii, 13). His pity extends beyond this—even to love, when we have accepted His favor and made full consecration of our little all to Him. It was then that He was pleased to seal us, to give us the mark or stamp of sonship, to evidence to us that we have been begotten again to a New Nature, to immortality, to glory with Himself—it so that we continue faithful to our vow of consecration.

As a father He watches over the interests of this consecrated class. Altho, as the Scriptures say, they are "few," He esteems them very highly and, amongst other precious names, gives to these sons of God the title of "jewels." The experiences of the present life are intended to polish these jewels—to prepare them for a heavenly setting in the resurrection morning.

"They shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels" (Malachi iii, 17).

As the lapidary first washes the diamond which has been picked from the myrr clay; as he then critically examines it to note its very best possibilities; as he then gives direction to the workman respecting its cutting and subsequently respecting its polishing, we have the divine illustration of how God's providence thru the holy spirit, the holy power of God, overrules and guides in all the experiences of this consecrated "jewel" class. It is required of them that they exercise faith and learn to rejoice in tribulations, as well as in more pleasurable experiences, knowing that they are in God's hand, and that, if they are submissive to Him, He will "work out for them a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory" thru the disappointments, the frictions, the sorrows, the tears, the anguish even, of earthly experiences—if these be endured or righteousness sake.

Coming down to human comprehension, the Lord represents Himself as pleased or displeased, rejoiced or grieved, after the manner of the most noble of the human family. Because of His generosity, His benevolence, His desire to do good unto all, and especially to the household of faith, and particularly to the fully consecrated, our Creator takes pleasure in the working out of a great plan of salvation for humanity.

For six thousand years our loving Creator has permitted Adam's disobedience to bring upon his family a terrible reign of sin and death. God sympathizes with the "groaning creation" and has promised assistance—deliverance. But His wisdom determines that the lesson of the sinfulness of sin and the bitterness of its fruit must first be thoroughly learned. Then the deliverance to righteousness and life may be the better appreciated and all danger of a reversion to sin be avoided, and an eternity of righteousness and blessing result.

Preparation for this great program has not been swift, nor is haste necessary. The lesson of sin and its bitter fruitage has come to the world during six thousand years, no single member of the race needed or received so prolonged a lesson. The first step of recovery was accomplished by our Redeemer's sacrifice of Himself. The second step has been in process since Pentecost—the calling and accepting of the antitypical Levites) specially amongst these of the antitypical priesthood, who now joyfully suffer with the great High Priest. They lay down their lives in His service, under the promise that in the First Resurrection they shall be with their Redeemer and share His glory, and, as a "royal priesthood" under Him, rule, instruct, a devery way assist in uplifting the "groaning creation" during the Millennial Kingdom of the great Mediator, whose members they will be. This step in the Divine Plan is spoken of in the Scriptures as "The Mystery of God," that the Church now being selected are "members of The Christ. As soon as this 'mystery hidden from ages' shall be completed and the Church be glorified, with her Lord, then our prayer and the prayer of our Redeemer will begin to have fulfillment—"Thy Kingdom come, they will be done on earth as it is done in heaven."

Not all who have named the name of Christ; not all who have made full consecration of themselves even will attain to the glorious "things which God hath in reservation for them that love Him." Only such of the consecrated as learn in the School of Christ the great lesson of supreme love to God and heart obedience to His will (without conditions also) to the glory of His Father, only these will be accounted worthy to share in the Kingdom. It is these that are mentioned in our text as sealed by the Holy Spirit of promise and waiting for the resurrection morning, the deliverance day, the day of attainment to the glorious things which God has in reservation for the faithful. As a loving parent watches the progress of his child in school, so the Heavenly Father is interested in our progress, and desirous that we shall make our calling and our election sure to the heavenly glories. Hence He pictures Himself as pleased with our progress and as grieved when we fail to learn the necessary lessons. He has promised us a place with our Lord in His Millennial Kingdom Throne, but this promise is a conditional one. Our Redeemer expresses it thus: "To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my Throne." Thus we get a glimpse of God's special interest in each of His consecrated, spirit-begotten children. They have His love and favor and smile in proportion as they follow the Redeemer's footsteps. A failure to walk in this way grieves the Lord's spirit or figuratively binds His crown instead of His smile and tends to separate us from His love.

The child of God should seek to ever live in the sunshine of the Heavenly Father's favor. Whatever clouds arise between such and their very best earthly friends will be light afflictions indeed, if they still abide in fellowship with the Heavenly Father and the Son, thru the Holy Spirit—the spirit of love, the spirit of truth, the spirit of obedience, the spirit of self-sacrifice. Indeed, if earthly friendships and earthly loves be entirely severed thru faithfulness to the Lord, the loyal one may reach the place where he can "rejoice in tribulation also."

A seal is an authoritative mark. With a signature a seal implies that the contract of the document is no longer open, no longer a mere proposal, but an accomplished, finished agreement or bargain. In olden times seals were usually impressed in wax while it was yet soft; the seal itself represented a coat of arms of something representing the personality of the one who used it. The pressure upon the soft wax was gradually increased and then held firmly until the wax had cooled, hardened, and permitted the removal of the seal, without injury to the impress which then was clearly revealed. This is the mental picture which our text brings before our minds. God our Creator, our Father, impresses upon our willing hearts by His Holy Spirit His own characteristics, which is specially exemplified for us in the words and doings of our Redeemer and the Apostles who walk like our Lord on the spirit plane and share of His glory. Then we shall be granted the privileges of association with Him in His millennial kingdom work for the uplifting, the restoration, the blessing of Israel and all the families of the earth. But let us not forget that no one is sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, except he has turned from sin and accepted our Lord Jesus as his Redeemer and who has, additionally, consecrated unto death all his human rights and interests in every kind—to sacrifice the same as guided by the holy spirit of the Lord.

God's holy spirit, in effecting this sealing of our hearts, in making this impress of the divine character upon us as new creatures, uses various means. One of these is the word of God, sometimes called "the sword of the Spirit." His instructions, encouragements, warnings and promises constitute a power of God upon the hearts of those who love righteousness and hate iniquity and who are striving to serve the Lord with willing and self-sacrificing hearts. The Word of God may reach others and influence them more or less this way or that, but only upon this special class does it exercise this sealing power. Another agency for the impressing of the divine will, "the mind of Christ," the holy spirit upon our hearts is God's Providence. These, however, can be rightly understood only by those enlightened by the word, the Bible, and can be rightly applied only by the meek, the humble, the trustful, who have made the consecration and are seeking to make their calling and election sure.

The holy spirit uses these different means of developing in the consecrated ones of the mind of Christ, the spirit of God, the holy spirit; and the sealing thus effected marks each individual as one of the Lord's "jewels," one of the Lord's "members," in preparation for a share with the Lord in the heavenly Kingdom. There is a blessing expressed in conjunction with the sealing itself—a joy, a peace, a rest of heart, which the world can neither give nor take away. However, these gifts of the present time are merely a foretaste or "earnest" of the great inheritance which is to be theirs with the completion of their experiences in the school of Christ. In the end of this age all of the faithful ones, "not many," "a little flock," will reach the end of the journey and, by the first resurrection, be "changed in a moment," into the twinkling of an eye, "into the glorious likeness of the Redeemer." That wonderful moment will be in the early dawn of the millennial day, which is the day of redemption, the day of deliverance.

MURDER, THEN SUICIDE IN TRIO OF TRAGEDIES

Chorus Girl Shot by Husband, Who Had Served Term in Prison—Wife Slays Husband.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. 24.—Enraged because his chorus girl wife, Evelyn Howard, preferred the life of the stage to his companionship, Wm. H. Short of New York City to-day shot and fatally wounded her in the Union Station here to-day. He then fired a bullet into his own head and died an hour later.

Mrs. Short had just alighted from a cab, which also was occupied by her husband and her girl friend, Miss Maud Caldwell, and was endeavoring to catch a train for Pittsburg when Short fired three bullets from a revolver into her back.

She was formerly Evelyn Lewis of Jacksonville, Fla., and married Short, who is from Livingston, Ala., about seven years ago. They lived in New York, where he was employed as a bookkeeper in a bank. Soon after their marriage Short was arrested for alleged misappropriation of funds, and served a term in Sing Sing, and she drifted to the stage. Short recently was paroled from prison. He followed her here, endeavoring to persuade her to quit the stage and return to New York with him.

Before Drowning Herself, Woman Wrote News to Son.

WARREN, Pa., Oct. 24.—"I have killed father and have made my own grave. When you receive this, I will be dead," was read in a letter received here to-day by Elmer Anderson of this city from his mother.

Alarmed, young Anderson went to the home of his parents, five miles from here, and found his father, F. O. Anderson, dead. Two bullet wounds and two deep knife scars were in the body. It is believed the woman has drowned herself.

Anderson was a wealthy man and had extensive oil interests.

Murder and Suicide Over a Parrot. ANDERSON, Ind., Oct. 24.—As the result of a quarrel over the possession of a parrot, Chas. Bunn to-day shot and fatally wounded his landlady, Mrs. Robert Nelson, and then killed himself. It is said that the parrot was first taken from Bunn by Mrs. Nelson, but he went to her home and recovered it. She filed an affidavit charging him with the theft of the bird. To-day he went to her home, and the double shooting followed.

Word received from the front of the building of the Grand Trunk Pacific, west of Edmonton, announces that construction gangs all the way along from the Pembina River to Tete Jaune Cache are working, and that at the rate at which the work is progressing the line will undoubtedly be graded and ready for steel by next fall. The bridge over the Pembina River is almost half completed and will likely be finished the end of next November.

CRAZED BY TRACK LOSSES

DETROIT, Oct. 24.—The Free Press says: Driven desperate by repeated losses at the Windsor race track—losses that totaled over $1000 and reduced him to temporary poverty—A. W. Crossman of Boston, member of a select family of that city and a Mystic Shrine, dashed from Joseph Gross-light pawnbroking establishment on Monroe-avenue, last night, carrying a $200 diamond ring. He was arrested.

His bride of two weeks collapsed after a visit to police headquarters. She told the police that she had known nothing of her husband's gambling proclivities. His mother, who resided in New Brunswick, was killed in a railroad accident, while she was on her way to Woodstock, Ont., to attend her son's wedding.

CAZAR IS ITALY'S GUEST GUARDED BY AN ARMY

Two Monarchs Embrace Each Other, and Nicholas is Given a Rousing Welcome.

RACCONIGI, Italy, Oct. 24.—Emperor Nicholas of Russia is the guest of King Victor Emmanuel. He arrived here Saturday afternoon and was met by the king and a notable assembly of high officials. The two monarchs embraced and then proceeded to the royal castle, where Queen Helena, the Dowager Duchess of Genoa and the Princess Letitia, surrounded by the ladies-in-waiting, received the emperor, who kissed their hands and exchanged courtesies.

At the king's dinner last evening, at which covers were laid for 36, the emperor expressed his warmest appreciation of the reception which had been tendered him. A special commission of generals met the emperor on the Italian frontier, and on the way to Racconigi the imperial train passed thru a double line of 23,000 men who guarded the tracks. Four thousand troops were massed along the short road leading from the station to the castle. Everywhere the royal guest was received with enthusiasm. He looked the picture of health.

Not the slightest unpleasantness has occurred to mark the emperor's visit, but considerable anxiety is now felt because of the arrival here of the socialist Deputy Signor Morgari, the originator of the campaign against the Emperor of Russia. Because Signor Morgari is a member of the chamber of the police were unable to keep him out of the city. The socialist leader said today that he would avoid provoking disorders, but that he intended to deliver a speech of protest against this visit, at a private meeting here.

ROLLER SKATING No Better Combined Amusement and Exercise—A Pastime That Meets Many Requirements.

Young men and young women who have not learned the art of roller skating should do so at once. This statement was made by the writer by no other than E. Frank Vernon, one of the world's greatest skaters. Skating is good amusement, and on either ice or rollers, a fine exercise, and no pastime more beneficial. Prof. Vernon comes here directly from Pittsburgh; he states that nearly every summer 20,000 of the Pittsburgh baseball team is an enthusiastic roller skater. Roller skating, says Prof. Vernon, is now taking a prominent part in the early indoor training of the professional baseball player. Pittsburgh is one of the best skating cities in the States. Three large roller rinks conducted in the most up-to-date style are packed each night, besides a large artificial ice rink, which does a big business. Prof. Vernon is at the Parkdale rink all this week, giving a performance every night at nine o'clock with holiday and Saturday matinees. This performance is different from anything ever presented in this city and his electric auto act should not be missed by a skater in Toronto. The management of Parkdale rink is very fortunate in looking such a strong attraction Thanksgiving Day—three sessions will be held at this rink, morning, afternoon and evening. Band at each session. Thursday, Oct. 28, contest will be held for ladies skating alone. Prof. Vernon will judge. The rink is up-to-date in every way, the floor is kept white, and is very fast, but is never slippery, and skates glide over the glassy surface with the least possible exertion. The little noise made by the skates is commented on by many. The most interesting feature of the rink is the Wiggins, which is said to be the best rink band in America.

Three Firemen Hurt by Force of Hose. NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—A $20,000 fire burned for two hours in a five-story building on West Broadway, and caused the injury of three firemen, one of whom is dying from a broken back. The fire was caused by a broken back of the order was given forth that all engines in the precinct were not to answer fire alarms. But the trust in the high-pressure system proved badly misplaced, for took three alarms to bring Chief Croker sent half a dozen men with hose up the fire escapes in an effort to check the blaze from the outside. But six men fell from the top of the building, one of them, Arthur Fineman, knocked over the high railing of the escape and broke his back upon the pavement below. Edward McDonnell of the "Russian navy company" had his arm broken, and a second later the hose broke his hip. John McMahon broke his knee cap.

Dutch Printed Fabrics for Modern Rooms

For Bed Covers. For Curtains. For Table Covers. For Cushion Covers.

The fabric itself is somewhat coarse and decidedly heavy, the effect when printed being deep and almost plush-like.

THE Dutch people have a faculty for quaint "homey" decoration that amounts to genius. Take their candlesticks, their pottery, their furniture, their fire places, as examples. The Dutch fabrics we are showing in the Curtain Department form another instance of this comfortable, home-like style of design.

Printed by hand in Amsterdam. We'll be glad to show you scores of patterns.

Dutch Curtains, per pair, $6.00. Dutch Table Covers, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00. Dutch Bed Covers, each, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00, $4.50, $5.00. Dutch Cushion Covers, 35c.
