MARKED PROGRESS IN GRAND FALLS WORK

HYDRO-ELECTRIC DEVELOPMENT BEING PUSHED

Transforms Town Completely Inside Few Months

TUNNEL BORED

Workers Have Pierced 275 Feet of Solid Rock Underneath Headland

According to a Saint John business man returned today from Grand Falls, the activity resultant upon the development of the water power there for the new pulp and paper mill of the International Paper Co. has turned night into day and completely transformed the routine of the place. It is now a sort of magic town with three shifts of workmen aggregating between 200 and 300; hotels and boarding houses keeping open the clock around, and electric lights, clouds of steam, clatter of machinery without ceasing day and night.

Since Premier Baxter pressed the button early last August setting the big job in motion, the construction contractors have not wasted an hour.

PIER NEAR READY

Already one big pier or abutment of the dam above the Falls has been moulded, and other sections from which gates will be swung, are being rapidly prepared. This construction is being protected by a coffer-dam. When the work of the tunnel is completed and the dam is finished, the whole course of the swirling tide will empty first in the dam and then be shot through the tunnel under a section of the town to the power house, to be built under the splash of the falls.

275 FEET OF TUNNEL

When it is realized that 275 feet of gigantic tunnel have already been bored under the very very top of the falls or headland to it, in an oblique direction through a peninsula or headland of the town, to a point above the falls, it is 300 feet and will be lined with concrete. It is through this tunnel the surge of water will flow, leaving the historic precipice over which Grand Falls now roars, an inert, jagged rock, smothered by curtains of rushing waters.

EVERYBODY BUSY

It is expected the tunnel job will be completed in a year's time, and along with it the dam construction above the falls. Thunders of explosives rend the air in a muffled way from the tunnel location every little while. By compressed air fans, the smoke and gas are expelled, though even with this prompt relief, workmen find it difficult at times to withdraw from the tunnel. Saint John man says, in these active days at Grand Falls, the village is profiting greatly by it.

MEMORIAL SERVICE AT CAPITAL SUNDAY

Canadian Legion Will Decorate Graves of War Dead After Ceremony

Special to The Times-Star
FREDERICTON, N. B., Nov. 6.—Forty-eight graves of those who served in the Great War and whose bodies lie in cemeteries in Fredericton, will be decorated Sunday afternoon by the Fredericton branch, Canadian Legion, following a ceremony at the Cenotaph near Christ Church Cathedral. Two of the graves are those of nursing sisters.

DIVINE SERVICE

The address at the Memorial service at the Cenotaph will be delivered by Rev. N. P. Fairweather, rector of St. Mary's church, Devon. Sunday morning the Canadian Legion will attend divine service at Christ Church Parish Church, where the preacher will be Rev. A. F. Bates, rector of Fredericton. The customary sale of poppies took place here today.

Auto Body From Fir Tree Being Planned

MONTESANO, Wash., Nov. 6.—A tour in a Douglas fir is under way. The apartment plan calls for a combination bedroom and living room with two folding beds, two closets, a combined kitchen and dining room and a china closet. The log home is to be electrically lighted throughout and have electric cooking appliances. The stump measured nine feet four inches across and is now 16 feet long, weighing 4,250 pounds. When complete the house goes upon a truck trailer.

Churchill Looms Strongly In Peacemaker Role At Strike Parleys

Pastor's Coat Stolen While In The Pulpit

Special to The Times-Star
MONCTON, N. B., Nov. 6.—All thefts are criminal, but some are meaner and more contemptible than others. The meanest theft in the city, which has come to light as the result of the recent burglary developments, is that where a visiting clergyman had his overcoat stolen while he was preaching to one of the local pulpits. The church, of course, bought the visiting cleric a new coat and reported the matter to the police, and there the matter rests. This is the first time in the history of the City of Moncton that a thief mean and bold enough has stolen a minister's coat while he was expounding the gospel from the pulpit.

TO TAKE VOTE ON RAILWAY AWARD

Committee Asks Membership To Reject Wage Findings

MONTREAL, Nov. 6.—The 15,000 membership of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors will be asked to vote on acceptance or rejection of the award of the board of conciliation which heard their dispute with the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways. This was decided by two hundred of their representatives who have been meeting here. It was further decided to recommend that the membership reject the award. Officials of the railways concerned refused to comment on the situation. The board recently rejected the application of the men for an increase in wages.

Today was that a meeting had been called for tomorrow to consider the entire matter.

Manitoba Liberals To Convene Nov. 23

WINNIPEG, Man., Nov. 6.—Liberal leaders throughout the province will convene in Winnipeg Nov. 23, to discuss a final general election which falls due next year. On call of F. C. Hamilton president of the Manitoba Liberal Association, each of the 55 provincial constituencies will send one delegate to the meeting.

The conference, it was learned last night, probably will be preparatory.

OPPOSE EFFORT TO REDUCE INCOME TAX

Canadian Council of Agriculture Passes Resolution at Winnipeg Meeting

WINNIPEG, Man., Nov. 6.—Any effort to abolish the Dominion income tax or further reduce it will be strongly opposed by the Canadian Council of Agriculture, though it recognizes the injuries of subjecting any form of income to double taxation and favors the adoption of measures designed to remove such inequalities in the incidence of the income tax, according to a resolution passed at the closing session yesterday of the conference held in the office of the United Grain Growers.

Romantic Questions Embarrass Ileana

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 6.—When romance is mentioned Princess Ileana of Rumania blushes. There was quite a crimson profusion when she was asked whether Prince Humbert of Italy was her intended. "It is not true," she insisted.

World-Wide Disarmament Conference In 1928 Mooted

GENEVA, Nov. 6.—The United States delegation to the preliminary disarmament conference is leaving Geneva distinctly encouraged by certain aspects of the negotiations which ended yesterday with the framing of a complete report on technical questions. A general disarmament conference in 1928, which would make some beginning toward limitation of armaments is now the program of the statesmen close to the negotiators.

MINISTERS TO U. S. WILL WORK INDEPENDENTLY

Canadian Envoy Not Affiliated With British Embassy

DUTIES DEFINED

Massey Will Confine Activities to Dominion and American Matters

By HERBERT BAILEY
British United Press
LONDON, Nov. 6.—While as yet nothing has been officially announced in the matter of the appointment of Canada's representative at Washington, the British United Press is informed that the Hon. Vincent Massey will not have any official affiliation with the British Embassy at the United States capital, but will confine his official activities to questions affecting relations between Canada and America.

The system of association between the Embassy and the Canadian Ministry will be developed as experience indicates along traditional British lines.

Mr. Massey has strong ideas on the value of such a post as Canadian interpreter between the British and American peoples. Mr. Massey is not making any speeches in London, but in a quiet, unobtrusive way is making himself felt as a decided force in Imperial Conference circles. While he has no official place at the conference itself, his position as first Canadian Minister to Washington gives him unique prestige and opportunity.

No Statement Yet In Sale of Gunn's, Ltd.

TORONTO, Nov. 6.—"I am not prepared to make any statement today," Brig. General John A. Gunn said today to confirm the report to the effect that P. Burns, the western packer, had bought Gunn's abattoir.

IN NARROW ESCAPE AT GAGETOWN, N. B.

J. Frank Reid, Ex-sheriff, Falls Under Heavy Wagon; Resting Easily

GAGETOWN, Nov. 5.—J. Frank Reid, ex-sheriff of Queens county, had a narrow escape from a fatal injury on Thursday afternoon, when he was thrown beneath a heavy wagon while pressing hay at his home here. Mr. Reid and a number of men were at work pressing hay, and he was standing for a moment on the tongue of the wagon to adjust the harness, when the horses became frightened at the sight of a car and started. Reid and his men were thrown about, and he was severely injured about the head and legs, over which the wagon passed. Dr. W. M. Jenkins was summoned and he is today resting comfortably.

Miss Mary E. Staples Dies At Nashwaaksis

FREDERICTON, N. B., Nov. 6.—(Special).—The death of Miss Mary E. Staples occurred last night at the home of her cousin, John Bailey, Nashwaaksis, the deceased is survived by a brother, Frank Staples, of Nashwaaksis. The funeral will take place Sunday morning.

LEADER AT 36

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Philip Busch, who will make his American debut in March as guest conductor of the New York Symphony orchestra, has been a conductor since he was 19 years old. At the age of 36, he now is director of the Dresden Opera House. His first New York appearance will be on March 10.

FRANC MOVING UP

French Cabinet Takes Measures To Halt Trend

PARIS, Nov. 6.—Operations by the French Government against its own money to check a too-rapid rise of the franc, was announced by Premier Poincaré yesterday before the Finance Committee of the Chamber of Deputies. He told the committee that he was obliged to take this action in order to prevent sky-rocketing, which involved great danger to France's economic situation. Stabilization, the Premier declared, remained the policy of the government, but it was also an essential part of that policy that he should disclose nothing of the plans, except to say that the government would feel its way carefully in an endeavor to avoid the pitfalls always in the path which led to the stabilization of a country's money.

BRAZILIAN REVOLT

Rebels Marching on Bella Vista, Brazil, Report

ASUNCION, Paraguay, Nov. 6.—News reaching here from Brazilian territory is to the effect that a band of Brazilian revolutionaries is marching on the town of Bella Vista Brazil. The situation is said to be serious. Some of the people of the region are emigrating to Paraguay.

Hungarian Premier Nails Union Rumor

CANADIAN PRESS
BUDAPEST, Nov. 6.—Rumors of an impending union between Hungary and Rumania were spiced in parliament yesterday by Premier Bethlen. Referring to a statement at Thursday's session by former Minister of Justice Emil Nagy that everything had been prepared for the union, the Premier said that he was surprised that a Hungarian deputy could be so better informed of his own country's situation and possibilities than to swallow and then disseminate in the National Assembly rumors hatched by a foreign newspaper. Premier Bethlen equally denied a remark made by M. Nagy that former Minister of Foreign Affairs Banffy had returned to Transylvania to prepare the ground for a Hungarian-Rumanian union.

EMPIRE PREMIERS TOUR MANCHESTER

Premier Mackenzie King to Spend Week-end at Chequers

CANADIAN PRESS
MANCHESTER, Eng., Nov. 6.—The Dominion premiers spent this morning in a tour of Manchester. They were accompanied by Lord Mayor Mitchell and members of the city corporation.

The premiers visited the Manchester Ship Canal and afterwards proceeded to Rugby where they inspected the wireless station as guests of the British Postmaster General, Sir William Mitchell Thomson.

Premier Mackenzie King will spend the week-end at Chequers as the guest of Premier Baldwin.

VANCOUVER GIVES GREETING TO MARIE

Party Boards Train to Pay Respects; Queen in Busy Program

CANADIAN PRESS
VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 6.—Neither the grayness of a rainy autumn day nor the annoying situation which has developed aboard her special train affected the radiant charm of Marie, Rumania's colorful Queen, as she followed out the extensive program which had been prepared for her entertainment here yesterday.

Samuel Hill, Seattle millionaire and the Queen's self-styled host, was the first person to defend from the royal train when it arrived promptly at noon. He greeted members of the welcoming party, who immediately boarded Her Majesty's car to pay their respects.

Her Majesty's car was escorted by Hon. Wm. Sloan, acting premier, and Mayor Louis D. Taylor, while the party on behalf of British Columbia and Vancouver.

SEEK MEMORIAL AID

Shakespeare Theatre Board Sends Chairman to U. S.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Archibald Flower, chairman of the Board of Governors of the Shakespeare Memorial Theatre at Stratford-on-Avon, sailed today for New York to discuss with the people of the United States the need to provide money to aid in building a new Shakespeare Theatre in Stratford-on-Avon to replace the one destroyed by fire some time ago. Of the $500,000 required the English people have found only $200,000 including the insurance on the old building.

TIDAL WAVE IN ITALY

BARI, Italy, Nov. 6.—A thirty-inch tidal wave swept the city today. A number of persons were injured and property was damaged heavily. Hundreds of families were driven from their homes. The western part of the city was isolated. Elsewhere boats and rafts were used to succor the homeless.

NEW YORK WILL STUDY CANADA'S CRIME METHODS

Commission From United States Due Next Week

THREE HEARINGS

Will Visit Toronto and Montreal and Also Kingston Penitentiary

CANADIAN PRESS
ALBANY, Nov. 6.—The New York State crime commission will study at first hand methods of dealing with the criminal in Canada. Herbert L. Smith, secretary of the commission, announced today that the commission plans to visit the Dominion and hold hearings there for three days this month on November 9, 10 and 11.

The first of the hearings will be in Toronto in the King's Bench court room on November 9. The next day the commission will visit the penal institution at Kingston to inspect and study the methods employed there. On the last day the commission will hold a hearing at Montreal in the court house.

CAUSE OF CRIME

The commission was created by the legislature to carry on in a broader way the work of the Bauman legislative commission, many of whose recommendations were directed into law at the last session. The commission purposes to investigate causes of crime, punishment and law-breaking, especially major crimes.

9-SUSPECTS HELD

Alleged Plotters Against Mussolini Arrested on Border

AOSTA, Italy, Nov. 6.—Nine well known anti-Fascists, believed to have been connected with the recent attempt to assassinate Premier Mussolini in Rome, were arrested today as they tried to cross the frontier into Switzerland.

They carried no documents by which they could be identified. It is probable they will be taken back to Bologna.

DELIVERIES HEAVY IN SASKATCHEWAN

About 50,000,000 Bushels Are Handled Through Provincial Wheat Pool

REGINA, Sask., Nov. 6.—Approximately 50,000,000 bushels of wheat have been handled to date through the 380 country elevators in the Saskatchewan wheat pools. With threshing operations in full swing in several parts of the province, where frequent delays were caused by rain, and with farmers at other points hauling their grain, deliveries to the pool elevators are now being made at the rate of about 120,000 bushels a day.

Attempt To Rescue Cat Ends Disastrously

DALBY, Ont., Nov. 6.—His desire to rescue a forlorn black cat trapped in a tree has landed Owen Johnson, 36, Brookfield Centre fireman, in a hospital where little hope is held of his ever walking again.

The cat's howling annoyed residents in the neighborhood as Johnson, essayed to assist the animal. Just as he caught hold of the cat, the feline bit him, causing him to fall 15 feet to the ground. His pelvis was broken.

FERGUSON DEFENDS HIS LIQUOR POLICY

Wants Controlled Sale and Not Uncontrolled Whiskey Use in Ontario

SHELBURNE, Ont., Nov. 6.—"All I am pleading for is controlled distribution of liquor instead of uncontrolled distribution," declared Premier Howard Ferguson while discussing his liquor policy at the Dufferin Conservative convention here yesterday.

"All I want to see is that those in charge of enforcement will know who gets liquor and who does not; who breaks the law and who does not. What I want is to put all this liquor—loose and otherwise—into one channel of supply, put a sentry on it, and be able to say that whoever dips into it will be known to us."

TAX REDUCTION

President Coolidge Orders Refund on Income Taxes

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Immediate tax reduction in the form of refund of 10 or 12 per cent. individual and corporation taxes paid this year on last year's incomes was approved yesterday by President Coolidge.

It was said at the White House that studies made by the President in the last few days indicated the surplus for this year would amount to at least $250,000,000, and on that basis Mr. Coolidge believed the refund warranted. While the President will make such a recommendation to the present Congress at its short session opening in December, he will not ask for a permanent tax cut in the form of a new revenue law at this time.

INTENDED VICTIM OF HOLD-UP ROUTS THUG

William Smith, of Geary, Accosted While Returning From Lumber Camp, Effectively Swings Lamp and Has Would-Be Robber Begging for Mercy

FREDERICTON, N. B., Nov. 6.—Word has been heard here of a recent bold attempt at robbery which was made in Sunbury county and was frustrated by the prompt defence put up by the intended victim.

William Smith of Geary had settled on an account at a logging camp which he had supplied with provisions and food, and had been paid several hundred dollars which he took with him when he left. He walked from the camp after dark, lighting his way with a lantern.

ACCOSTED BY STRANGER

Some distance from camp he was accosted by a man who came out of the woods and asked for a match. Smith obliged him.

"I've broke me a dollar," said the stranger.

"I have no money on me," was the reply.

"You're a liar," said the stranger who struck Smith with the blow on the shoulder at the same time swinging with his lantern at the side of the other man's head. The blow with the lantern was effective and the man went down.

He begged for mercy, and being given none, ran for the woods. The payment of money to Smith evidently had been observed by someone who went after it.

Nicaragua Visited By Severe Quake

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Nov. 6.—For nearly a minute early yesterday, Managua and most of Nicaragua trembled in the worst earthquake felt in the country for 28 years. A number of persons were killed and many injured, while the property damage is estimated at $4,000,000. The worst damage was done at Leon, about 50 miles northwest of Managua. There about 80 per cent. of the houses sustained damage and many of them were totally destroyed. The towers of the old cathedral fell to the ground and all the walls were badly cracked.

CHANCELLOR'S PRESTIGE RISES DURING DISPUTE

Labor Leaders Begin to Compare Him With Premier Baldwin

COMEDY ENACTED

Birkenhead and Cook Met Over Table After Bitter Newspaper Debate

By HERBERT BAILEY
British United Press

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Winston Churchill's part in the coal dispute negotiations is making a special appeal to the labor party and unless something unforeseen goes wrong at the last moment it looks as if the Chancellor of the Exchequer will appear in a new role in addition to the many he has already played, that is, peacemaker.

His prestige is naturally rising and labor leaders are comparing him to Baldwin who is being severely criticized by the miners. Meanwhile there was a little comedy played during the negotiations yesterday.

CRITICIZES LOOK

Lord Birkenhead, who had made a scathing attack on A. J. Cook, saying that he took his orders from Moscow, and wanted to destroy the mines, was answered by the men's secretary in strong language, Cook saying that the statement was a deliberate lie and insult on the withdrawal of the allegation.

The two met across the conference table yesterday. The Daily Herald, organ of the Labor party, claims that Lord Birkenhead looked "cheerful" but the idea of the ex-Lord Chancellor looking "cheerful" is causing much amusement and, among friends, no small amount of doubt.

NEW MEXICAN BILL

Measure Provides For Training of Ministers

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 6.—President Calles has presented to congress a bill which would regulate article 130 of the Mexican constitution so as to permit foreign colonies in which Spanish is not spoken to have foreign dignitaries for a six-year period. During this period such foreign ministers would be compelled to agree to teach their religion to native-born Mexicans. The purpose of this is to have Mexican citizens at the end of six years qualified to succeed all foreign ministers.

STEEPLE BUILT BESIDE CHURCH

Strange Edifice Seen in England; Some Stories About It

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The little village of Brookland, in the Romney Marsh, glories in the possession of a church which has a steeple not on it, but a separate building on the ground. The steeple is one of the strangest ever seen. It is octagonal, or oak, and has four overlapping storeys. The church itself dates back to the twelfth century. Mystery surrounds the steeple's detachment from the main building. "Story, sir? Which story will you have?" the landlord of the village inn asked an enquirer.

SOME EXPLANATIONS.

"They say that the man who built the church was a very sharp fellow. They didn't pay him much to do it, so he bided his time while his laborers worked at the wooden steeple on the ground alongside the church. Presently he said it was finished. 'But you've got to put it on the church,' said the villagers. 'Oh, no,' he replied, 'your contract was for a church with a steeple, but there was nothing in it about the steeple being on top of the church.'"

"Another story has it that Satan was so annoyed at the thought of bells ringing out from the church across the marsh—which he considered his, since the witches used to ride it every night on their broomsticks—that he came every night and undid the work the builders had done on the steeple the previous day, till they were forced to leave it on the ground."

"A third explanation has it that people used to live rather free and easy lives here in the middle ages. One day a man and woman went into the church to be married, and the steeple was so surprised that it jumped off its seat to the earth."

In olden days neighboring farmers used the steeple as a stable, and stalls may still be seen in it.

The boyish habit for girls looks much better than the girlish habit for boys.

Women's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Hears Good Reports; Miss M. Pearce Chosen Head

At the annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Paul's church held last evening, a standing resolution of deep regret in the loss sustained by the branch in the removal of its president, Mrs. J. R. Campbell, was passed. Miss Marjorie Pearce was elected president for the ensuing year.

The members attended corporate communion in the church at 10:30 a. m. in the morning when Ven. Archdeacon A. H. Crowfoot, the rector, conducted the service and gave an inspirational address. The business session was held in the evening and opened with short devotions led by Archdeacon Crowfoot. Mrs. Pearce, first vice-president, was in the chair. Reports presented showed that good progress had been made in all branches of the W. A. work, and the year had been characterized by marked activity. The financial report was very satisfactory and showed that all pledges had been met. Dorcas work had included the making of outfits for two Indian girls at Whitefish Lake school, articles for the higher mission, and for the Gravel missions, filling a Christmas box for a needy mission parish in the diocese and making a complete layette for the Victorian Order nurses to use in their work among the poor in the city.

The meeting was largely attended and enthusiastic. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Miss Marjorie Pearce; vice-presidents, first, Mrs. Cortlandt Robinson; second, Mrs. J. E. Schofield; third, Miss Dorothy Hickson; corresponding secretary, Miss Edith Stevenson; recording secretary, Mrs. A. W. Hickson; treasurer, Miss Annie Taylor; Dorcas secretary, Mrs. Fred Schofield; E. C. D. treasurer, Mrs. H. H. Scovill; Little Helpers' secretary, Mrs. C. O. Myers; Living Message, Mrs. Fred Short; Junior superintendent, Miss Gladys Hegan; rector's appointees, Mrs. James Peacock and Miss Gladys Frink; delegates to the diocesan annual, Miss Marjorie Pearce and Mrs. James Hickson; substitutes, Mrs. A. W. Hickson and Mrs. E. B. Schofield.

Nice Program Is Given For Those In Old Ladies' Home

The Young People's Association of the Portland United Church greatly delighted the residents in the Old Ladies' Home last night when the members furnished a pleasing entertainment. Refreshments consisted of Miss Mary Kirk, Miss Anne Hartshorn, Miss Doris Bromfield, Miss Mildred Kirk, Miss Margaret Kien, Miss Cora Carr, Miss Greta Robertson, George Hartshorn and John Howe. The members of the association were very cordially thanked for the entertainment and urged to come again.

ALL-DAY SHOWS IMPERIAL MONDAY

Three Sessions Starting at 10 a. m.—Big Thanks-giving Bill

Imperial Theatre will open its doors for Thanksgiving Day crowds in the morning and run a special forenoon period, starting at 10 o'clock and ending about 11:45 in plenty of time for the turkey dinner. The afternoon show will begin at 2 o'clock as usual and the evening shows at 7 o'clock. It will be a grand round of moving picture and musical entertainment. Here is the program:

Reel, the famous moving picture horse, will be seen in his greatest drama entitled "The Devil Horse." As a colt "The Devil Horse" lost its mother in an Indian attack upon a covered wagon-train, as did also the hero of the story, who was then a little boy. The colt and little boy were the only survivors of the attack and both afterwards hated the Redskins. In later years the wild horse, which kept constantly fighting Indian bands, came to the rescue of the lad and his wife, when being attacked by war-whooping Indians. It is a thriller of a western adventure.

The Imperial is also going to have that big, beautiful comedian, Lloyd Hamilton, in one of his funniest skits, entitled "More Along." The Asop's Fable comedy reel is entitled "Choppy and Noodles," and besides all this there will be Pathe Weekly with the latest world news. A big holiday package of fun, adventure and music. The ordinary scale of prices.

Arrange To Bring Dr. Webster Here

An informal meeting was held yesterday afternoon at which plans were being made to have Dr. Webster, of Shelburne, give a lecture in Saint John on Nov. 18. Among those present at the meeting were Mrs. L. P. D. Tully, representing the Women's Canadian Club; Judge G. A. Henderson, representing the Natural History Society; D. C. Clinch, representing the Historical Society; and W. Grant Smith, representing the Canadian Club. The lecture will be held under the patronage of these clubs and the subject to be discussed will be "Historical Sites and Early Events in the Province of New Brunswick."

Family Re-unions

There will be many family reunions Thanksgiving Day. How is your old worn-out Dining Suite? A new Dining Room Suite is what you need most to make your home more attractive to receive your guests. We will take your old Dining Room Suite for part payment and allow you a whole year to pay the balance. Come in and See us.

Deaths

YARMOUTH, Nov. 5.—The death took place at his home in Sharnford, Yarmouth county, yesterday, of Edgar C. Landers, after a lingering illness. He was in the 86th year of his age, and for several years was a very progressive farmer and fisherman of that place. Mr. Landers is survived by his widow, five daughters, Mrs. Albert Shaw, Mrs. Stanley Churchill, Sandford; Mrs. Robert McCloy, Mattapan; Misses Ruth and Dorothea, at home; five sons, Percy, Howard, George, Clayton and Robert Landers, all in Saint John; also 12 grandchildren. Two sisters, Mrs. Ellen Kenney, Lynn, Mass.; Mrs. Jacob Reeves, Hebron, Yarmouth county, also survive.

The funeral will take place from his home on Sunday afternoon, and will be conducted by Rev. Hartley Mullen, of the Sandford and Port Maitland Reformed Baptist pastorate.

FRENCH AIR MARKS

Aviators Have Set New Marks During Recent Months

France is making a drive against air records and during the last ten months has set world's marks for altitude, duration, distance and non-stop flights. Callizo, Pelletier, D'Oisy, Weiss, Girier, the Arrachart brothers, Drouhin and Landry, have all inscribed their names in the aviation hall of fame. Jean Marie Callizo reached a height of 40,820 feet. Drouhin and Landry remained in the air for 48 hours, 11 minutes and 59 seconds, traveling in a closed circuit. Captain Weiser and Lieutenant Challe flew approximately 3,100 miles without a stop. Captain Girier and Lieutenant Dorville made a record of 2,887 miles. The total cost for the feats amounted to about 2,000,000 francs, which is less than the expense incurred in the ill-fated attempt of Captain Rene Fonck to bridge the Atlantic.

Makes Hair Behave But Doesn't SHOW!

There's a way to keep your hair just without any of that objectionable, "plastered-down" look. Just use a few drops of Danderine—comb it through hair, or use a Danderine-dampened towel—you'll be amazed at the way your hair then behaves, and its beautiful lustre!

Any permanent wave or water wave lasts much longer and looks much nicer when Danderine is used instead of water to "set" the wave.

Of course, you know what Danderine does to Dandruff! Dissolves every bit of it. Puts scalp in the pink of condition. Invigorates hair and hair-roots. Why use anything else?

Ask Your Druggist

Get a bottle of Danderine and start its benefits today. Every drug store has it, for only 15c. For the fastest dressing you could find, and the best aid to hair health yet discovered, just try—

Hope Chest Drawing

There was a large number of people who read the appeal last month re subsidizing a "Thanksgiving dollar" (or more) for the orphans to wipe out balance of overdraft, who at once decided to act on the suggestion, but unfortunately most of them have overlooked the matter. This is merely to remind you that it is not yet too late. No matter what our circumstances may be we all have much for which to be thankful. Should we not at this time demonstrate our appreciation in some way according to our respective means?

The Hope Chest will be drawn for at the Imperial Theatre on Saturday, Nov. 16th, the Auto on Nov. 20th. Tickets still on sale, Orphanage Fair Committee, P. O. Box 796, City.

REGRET LAXITY IN ENFORCING OF LIQUOR LAW

Grand Division of S. of T.
Meets in Moncton
Yesterday

MONCTON, Nov. 5.—Resolutions passed by the New Brunswick Grand Division Sons of Temperance, in annual session here today, regretted alleged laxity in enforcement of the prohibition act and called for more effective action on the part of the government.

Taylor, of Notre Dame, was re-elected grand worthy patriarch. Other officers elected were: Grand worthy associate, William Harper; grand patron, Miss Janie Coy; grand scribe, George A. A. Clark; grand treasurer, S. Stott; grand chaplain, Rev. W. J. Kirby; grand conductor, J. A. McKnight; grand sentinel, A. T. Berry; past grand worthy patriarch, Rev. Charles Fleming; of Dorchester; grand organist, Miss L. May Kirby.

In the course of the morning's business James Gibson, of Millstream, and A. J. Berry, of Moncton, were admitted.

The address of C. L. Taylor, grand worthy patriarch, showed splendid results from the year's work; while the Grand Scribe's report showed the order had a small increase in membership, and that the financial standing of the organization was sound.

In the afternoon Mr. MacLeod gave an address on organization and outlined plans whereby the division could work to increase the membership. The resolution committee then received and presented their resolution re the prohibition situation in New Brunswick.

In the evening a public meeting was held in the City Hall, which a good number of citizens attended. The Grand Worthy Patriarch, C. L. Taylor, presided. An address of welcome was extended to the visitors by Mayor Ambrose Wheeler, and replied to by Rev. Charles Fleming, of Dorchester. Speeches were given by Most Worthy Associate George MacLeod, Rev. Benny Irvine, pastor of Central church, Rev. J. A. Ramsay, minister of St. John's church, and C. N. Vroom, vice-president of the New Brunswick Temperance Alliance, St. Stephen. At the opening of the evening meeting Wesley Memorial Male choir under the leadership of the pastor, Rev. Harold Tompkinson, rendered two pleasing selections.

The meeting unanimously passed the following resolution, in the form of conclusions arrived at:

Firstly, That the Prohibition Act of New Brunswick is not being enforced as the promises made during the election campaign in 1925 and confirmed by the present government since coming into power led us to expect.

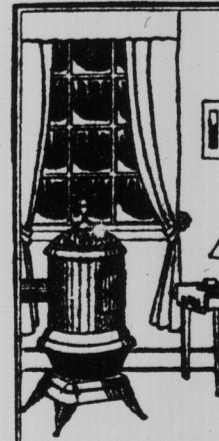

Secondly, Believing the honorable men and their colleagues to be men of honor and gentlemen who hold their word sacred, so that when it was publicly stated that the officials in charge of this important function should have a free hand so that they might act for the strictest enforcement of the Prohibition Act.

Thirdly, That from evidence apparent many things go to prove, that from some reasons unknown to the public violations of the law, even when charged, fall short of conviction and due punishment, encouraging other violations to continue in their evil course, this bringing dishonor to the act and discouraging to those who are trying to do their duty in office.

Therefore, We as members of the Grand Division, now in session in the City of Moncton, would at this time voice our dissatisfaction with present conditions and our regret that the law is in any part of the province being enforced we will gladly give credit to those deserving and would rejoice as temperance voters, men and women, when the government will do its utmost to prove the efficiency of this Prohibition Act throughout our province, for we need no better law if it is honestly and fearlessly enforced.

Following the election of officers they

NEW INVENTION SAVES MILLIONS

A Lamp that Burns 94% Air

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 25 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, O. K. Johnson, 246 Craig St. W., Montreal, is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

He was assisted in the installation ceremony by Deputy Most Worthy Patriarch Rev. W. J. Kirby.

MISTAKEN FOR DEER

Fatal End to Hunting Trip of
Two Friends

ELLSWORTH, Nov. 5.—Walter Curtis, 35, of Enfield, was mistaken for a deer, shot and killed by his companion, John Porter, of Lowell, late yesterday afternoon. It appears that they separated and Porter, seeing what he thought was a deer, fired, shooting Curtis through the body. He lived but a few minutes. Sheriff Macomber, of this county, investigated and stated that there was no doubt that the shooting was accidental. Porter has not been arrested, being allowed at liberty on his own recognizance until action is taken. Curtis leaves a wife and an infant child. The men had been close friends for years.

Poison Liquor Blamed In Bangor Death

BANGOR, Me., Nov. 5.—Cecil Pearson, 32, a lumberjack, died in the hospital this morning from drinking poison liquor, three hours after he had been picked up by the police in a serious condition. He had no home, as far as known, and had recently been released from jail for attempting to break into the vault in the Court House where seized liquor is stored.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., NOVEMBER 6, 1926.

THANKSGIVING

TOMORROW and Monday particular reference will be made to Canadian causes for thanksgiving. These are many. Prosperity is returning, and there is a universal feeling that we have entered upon a period of better times. This has been another year of good crops, with every prospect that the markets will be satisfactory. The various industries of the country are increasing their output. The last year saw a marked increase in the total trade of the Dominion, and there is no reason to doubt that the next year will witness further growth. The transportation companies have had a good year. We are to have a period of stable government, which has been sorely needed for several years past. There has been during the past year a nation-wide effort to overcome sectionalism, and bring the people of the four geographical divisions of the country into closer sympathy through the medium of a better understanding. One outstanding result of this effort is the Canadian Board of Trade.

So far as the Maritime Provinces are concerned, they have reason for gratitude in the Duncan report and the reference of their case to the Canadian Board of Trade. The Duncan report is a far more hopeful feeling on that account, and, while we must await legislation, there is a feeling that justice will not be denied by Parliament to this portion of the Dominion.

Looking back over the past year, the people of the Maritime Provinces may well be thankful that they have not suffered disaster from the unleashed elements of nature, as have those of many other parts of the world. We live in a climate which, though marked by extremes as between winter and summer, yet does not greatly vary from year to year.

While we give thanks we may well resolve to take full advantage of our great opportunities in the future than we have done in the past. The next year should bring developments that will be a decided stimulus to industrial and commercial activities, and lessen the drain upon our population caused by the movement of people to the United States. The year has brought its spiritual as well as its temporal blessings, and the people of Canada may well obey the injunction: "In everything give thanks."

YOUTH AND PROHIBITION

Premier Ferguson has declared war on the home brew boot-legger. Public opinion will endorse his stand in that matter, since the quality of home brew does not usually make for good drinking. The Ontario Premier is much concerned over the amount of drinking done by young men and women, and he predicts that "unless we educate these young people involved that what they are doing is not the proper thing to do" disaster will follow. It is indeed in the highest degree desirable that the young people be educated along the lines indicated by Premier Ferguson. A very excellent means of education is that of example. To take a simple illustration: When a distinguished visitor, who likes his today, arrives in Toronto, do Premier Ferguson and his friends politely intimate that prohibition is the law of Ontario, or do they have something "on the side"? The young people have ways of finding out just what the leaders in political, administrative and high social circles are doing. They are quick to see the force of example.

MR. JOHN T. O'BRIEN

It was a shock to the community this morning to learn of the passing of Mr. John T. O'Brien of Fairville, many of whose friends did not even know that he had been ill. Mr. O'Brien was still a young man, with the apparent promise of a much longer life of usefulness in a community to which he had rendered valued service for quite a number of years. The suburb of Fairville had in him a staunch friend and advocate, and he never lost an opportunity to promote its interests. His excellent services, its well equipped fire department and other evidences of his ambition to make Fairville a better place in which to live are gratefully recalled by the friends who mourn his early death. Mr. O'Brien was a man of generous instincts, whose contributions to close personal friendships. He was a good public speaker, and exerted a strong influence upon the deliberations of the Municipal Council during his long membership in that body. His death the city and county of Saint John sustain a very real loss.

Dr. L. M. Curran has announced his decision to retire from the chairmanship of the School Board. While recognizing the inroads his duties must have made upon his time since he became chairman, the citizens would very much regret his retirement. Because of the construction, equipment and opening of the new Vocational School the last two years have been exceptionally busy ones for the members of the School Board. Dr. Curran has an enlightened vision of what education should mean for our young people, and has not spared himself during his term of office. If he feels that he must now give up the helm, it must always be a source of great satisfaction to him that he was chairman of the Board when the splendid new school was established, and his fellow citizens will pay him the tribute that is due to service well and unselfishly rendered.

The question of the nationalization of the port of Saint John, over which the city was somewhat stirred up five years ago, again is very much to the fore. Mayor White brought the matter up in one of his first addresses after being elected. The question was referred to several times at the recent convention of the Canadian Board of Trade here. Yesterday Mr. W. H. Harrison, K. C., delivered a talk at harbor commission matters before the Y's Men's Club, in which he pointed out the heavy burden which would have been imposed on the port had the proposed harbor commission bill been adopted in 1921. If and when the time comes again for Saint John to consider the question of nationalization, the experience of the past will stand in good stead in avoiding any bargain which might defeat the purpose of the suggested change in port policy.

Editorial

Nothing is more significant in connection with the extension of Canadian trade in recent years than the development of the Pacific ports. It is the subject of frequent comment in the Press, and it is noted that not only will an immense traffic be developed with the Orient but with the United Kingdom and continental Europe, by way of the Panama Canal. As the Edmonton Journal puts it: "The granaries of the Prairie Provinces and the forests and mines of the coast province now have access to world markets that formerly were so far away as to be almost out of reach." The Pacific ports are fortunate. They do not see the traffic which should come to them diverted to ports south of the border.

Canada's total trade with the United States during the twelve months ending with September amounted to $1,188,207,708. During the same period our total trade with the United Kingdom amounted to $661,985,528. Trade with both countries showed very substantial gains during the year. But for the restriction their tariff imposes, our trade with the United States would be very much greater than it is. While an enormous trade with our immediate neighbor is inevitable, every effort should be made to increase our business with the Mother Country. It may be hoped that one outcome of the Imperial Conference will be a decided impetus to inter-imperial trade.

"Red" Ryan, the bank-robbler, serving a life sentence, has perfected a thief-proof lock for mail bags. Once upon a time in a small Indian station the key of the treasury vault was lost or stolen. The treasury guard happened to be formed by a battery that covered, without undue pride, the worst "bad-hat" in the Army, and it chanced that he was one of the guard. He promptly volunteered to open the vault and with wire and pliers accomplished the feat in a few minutes. Consequently Gunner Badhat was never again detailed for treasury guard, a duty not much sought after. One wonders how "Red" Ryan will come out of his achievement.

The story of demonstration farms in Quebec is encouraging. We are told that they are now a paying proposition. More important, however, is the influence they have exerted upon farmers in the neighborhood. In one district, for example, thirty farmers have copied the methods used on the demonstration farm. What this means to the farmers themselves, and to increased production, is not easy to estimate. Agriculture will advance more rapidly in New Brunswick when individual farmers take more advantage of improved methods and carry more of their problems to the agricultural department.

The belief that a packing industry could be established in Saint John has been crystallized in the plant which will begin operations next week. The project has met with many discouragements, and it deserves the live support of the Canadian interests of the province. Only by establishing industries can we hope to retain our people, and every citizen is in some degree interested in the success of each new industrial venture in our midst.

It is indeed a cork piled in the grave where the hatchet buries when the German obstinate to open with the British Admiralty to produce the British official film reconstructing the naval battles off Coronado where Craddock went down fighting, and of the Falkland Islands when von Spee suffered like fate.

This is not a good time of year to be compelled to contemplate the possibility of a railway strike in Canada. It may be hoped the difference of opinion with regard to wages will not reach that stage at the beginning of the winter season, when there will be a heavy crop movement.

Other Views

SUNNY ALBERTA

THE Alberta government has reason to be very much pleased with the bond sale that it has put through. Debentures to the extent of $6,000,000 have been disposed of. The money is being raised on an interest basis of 4.95 per cent. These terms are almost as favorable as those which Ontario and Quebec have been able to secure. When it is considered what a difference there usually is between the rate at which money can be obtained in an old and a newly settled country, it must be apparent what confidence exists in Alberta's future.

HINT TO STOCKMEN

GREATEST success is coming today to industries where the chief effort is to bring down production costs. To this end other and other experts are being paid and are earning large salaries. Are Canadian stockmen producing their product in the most economical way? Have they developed the most economical means to place their products on world markets? It is not possible that they have some things yet to learn before they are in a position to say this or that can be done by the meat and cattle trade of Canada?

TO BE TAKEN FOR GRANTED

WHAT this empire of ours needs is a little mutual consideration, understanding and tolerance. We should all assume that everybody in it means well—until the contrary is proved. Nothing could be more mischievous than the pre-conference chatter about certain elements in that body desiring disintegration. It is like challenging the virtue of a woman. It should never be done until the damning proofs are beyond dispute.

GLORIFYING MURDERERS

PEOPLE have a right of course, to work to abolish capital punishment if they are opposed to it. But making heroes and martyrs of cold-blooded killers is another matter. It is against public policy to picture cowardly killers about to pay the penalty as noble lads bravely facing the gallows.

FIRE EDUCATION

THE current fire prevention campaign illustrates the necessity of educating people along a long way ahead. A long step forward will have been taken when we understand that timber is a "crop" no less than wheat.

WORDS OF ADVICE

LET us all forget the past and start in to lay our plans for the future. The hands on the clock of time are pointing toward the future. It is the community which is awake to these possibilities which will reap the benefit.

NOT WANTED THERE

BY THE expulsion of the physical director of the heavy burden which would have been imposed on the port had the proposed harbor commission bill been adopted in 1921. If and when the time comes again for Saint John to consider the question of nationalization, the experience of the past will stand in good stead in avoiding any bargain which might defeat the purpose of the suggested change in port policy.

News and Views From The British Capital

LONDON, October 21, 1926.—Mr. Churchill's American blood is not likely to blind him to certain gross inequalities in the U. S. income-tax methods compared with our own. It has been pointed out by one famous actor that, whereas the American stage star makes up to a bumper house on the box office, and clears off the lot free with the swag to America, without the least interference by our treasury officials, it is not so by any means in the case of a British actor or actress who visits America. They must pay the full American income-tax on every cent they make in U. S. A. A similar disparity exists in the case of literary people. America is a far better market for literary wares than this country, and our writers permitting full use of the fact, but they are income-taxed on all they earn across the Atlantic. No such levy is made on American writers who sell extensively in this country.

A Red Riff
From an eminently reliable source the news reaches me that there is strong probability of Battersby's Red Riff, Mr. Saklatvala, being re-elected at the next election. This prospect is not due to the fact that the Conservatives have a pretty popular candidate in the field in the person of Commander Mervyn, R. N., nor is it at all attributable to anything that happened during the general strike. The fact that Mr. Saklatvala took a strong Red line on that occasion, and suffered a term of imprisonment in consequence, would be rather a recommendation than otherwise to the voters of the genuine Battersby Reds. In fact it was after that affair that he became known in the constituency as "Sak". And there is a triple crown of transient popularity. The trouble is far more subtle than that, and arises from some characteristic squabble among the Red leaders. There is a serious rift in the late, and "Sak's" political shares are down.

Americans Abroad
Little wonder that the French do not love the Americans. A friend who has just returned from a month's holiday across the Channel tells me that the behavior of "the Yankees" was truly appalling. It is many years since Mark Twain bitterly satirized the American attitude. Two days out of the past-war new-rich Americans heaven knows vulgar ostentatious, bluish ignorance, and purse-proud contempt are the marked characteristics that Parisians resent furiously. Even the raucous voice of the American is in fact typical, because largely preponderant, and naturally the French regard them as such. FAMED PSALTER NOW BY ROMSEY

Fabulous Offers Made for Book Which Dates From 1440

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Although the power of the American dollar is fabulous, it has so far failed to induce Romney to part with his famous psalter. This illuminated manuscript, bound in calf, reposes under lock and key in a small cupboard, built into the wall, in the vestry of the Abbey, along with the parish records and it is not every visitor who is privileged to inspect, much less to handle it.

During the past summer more Americans than ever have journeyed to Romney—locally pronounced "Romsey"—to see the famous psalter, and many of them have gazed "pop-eyed" at the psalter, which dates from 1440. "We have received many offers from them, running into huge sums, for the psalter," said an official, "but we have not been tempted to sell it, nor do I think that the present generation would contemplate doing so, whatever may occur in the future."

PROPERTY OF TOWN

The Abbey is the property of the town, who bought it from Henry VIII for $800—the deed hangs in a frame near the cupboard—and for a period the psalter disappeared.

It was eventually found in a London collector's shop and an inspection showed that in the meantime it had been in a private library. Romney bought it back by public subscription. Today this book, known throughout the world, is in excellent preservation and is only rarely brought out into the light. An indiscriminate exhibition of it threatened to impair its beauty, and one page in particular was beginning to wear away under excessive thumbing, but now better care is taken of the precious manuscript.

NEWSBOYS PLAN FOR WINTER SPORTS

Telegraph-Times Club to Have Boxing Matches and Skating Races

A merry company of between 125 and 150 members of The Telegraph-Times Newsboys' Club gathered for the weekly meeting of the club last night in the mailing room of the newspaper office and made some grand plans for winter sports and other activities. Ronald MacDonald, president, was in the chair and the meeting was conducted in most orderly fashion.

Harry Logan, 22 Meadow street, it was decided, had invented the best slogan, "We yell and sell." That slogan was promptly adopted and the members were asked to set their wits to work to see who could make the best yell for the club. Two weeks were allowed in which to produce the masterpiece of a yell and at the meeting in a fortnight's time the members will judge which is the best and adopt it for their use.

MAKE PLANS

The boys planned on having boxing matches during the season and decided to ask Charlie Gorman to be their referee for all of these encounters. Plans were made for holding skating races and the champion of the club was to be entered in the big meet later.

A committee was appointed to arrange for basketball teams to represent the club in the junior league this winter and not to slight any of the sports that offer the boys discussed plans for a hockey team. C. Homes, who is better known among the fraternity as "Hump," was appointed to act with Arthur Nicholson in making inquiries about prospects for hockey games and practices and the possibility of lining up some snappy players.

The boys selected an old friend for a signal honor and chose Sergeant Baxter to be honorary president of their club.

The second meeting of the club was in every way a fine success. On leaving the meeting the boys were given nut bars.

CABLE APPEALS

PARIS, Nov. 6.—Four French senators, including Senator Caillaux, the former minister of finance, have cabled appeals to President Coolidge in behalf of Nocoli Sacca and Bartolomeo Vanzetti the two New England radicals under sentence of death for an alleged identification with a fatal highway robbery.

To Make Pine Cough Syrup at Home

Has no equal for prompt results. Takes but a moment to make. Saves about $2.

Pine is used in nearly all prescriptions and remedies for coughs. The reason is, pine has a remarkable effect in soothing and healing the membrane of the throat and chest.

Pine cough syrups are combinations of pine and syrup. The "syrup" part is usually plain sugar syrup. To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2½ ounces of Pine in a 10-oz. bottle and fill up with home-made sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified honey, instead of sugar syrup. This makes 10 ounces—more than you can buy ready-made for $2.00. It is pure, good, and pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough will be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cause is the same—the inflamed membrane—and this Pine and Syrup combination stops it—usually in 24 hours or less. Splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, whooping cough, and hoarseness.

Pine is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable guaracol, and is famous the world over for its prompt effect upon coughs.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pine" with directions. Give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pine Co., Toronto, Ont.

PINE
for Coughs

ACROSS CANADA

REGINA, Sask.—A story of being freed of $10,400, the savings of 26 years in the mining fields of the Yukon, was told here by Frank Kalifeze, aged 62, to police. According to Kalifeze, he was the victim of an ancient "race track swindle." He arrived in Vancouver October 22 from Dawson City, intending to buy a home in Victoria. He talked of his work in the gold fields and confided to acquaintances that he had enough money to retire.

TORONTO.—One of the government air service planes will make a trip to Moose Factory, on Hudson Bay, shortly before the provincial polling day. The plane will carry in the ballot box, ballots and necessary supplies for the registering of the 40 odd votes in that district. The collection of those 40 votes will entail an expenditure of $4,000.

EDMONTON, Alta.—Tenders for the new Canadian National railway station here will likely be called for in February, while it is intended to have the structure completed next year, according to Sir Henry Thornton, president of the C. N. R., who arrived in the city recently. The C. N. R. will carry out its agreement with the city in regard to the station.

TORONTO, Ont.—Sally Gamp and the present-day trained nurse differ just as widely as the old type of hospital residence and the spacious new Edith Cavell Memorial Residence for Nurses, which was opened recently in connection with the Toronto Western Hospital. The new building, which is the most up-to-date of its kind, will provide a home for the nurses of both Grace Hospital and Western. The rooms have practically all been furnished by women's organizations, business firms, and generous individuals.

TORONTO.—Sampson Handley, a distinguished British surgeon, one of the leading authorities in the world on cancer research, speaking in the city, chose as his subject: "Moles and Melanotic Growths, and Their Treatment." The speaker pointed out that simple moles, when irritated were very liable to develop malignancy, and deplored the treatment sometimes carried out for their removal in the use of such irritants as caustic, carbon, dioxide, snow, etc., which were likely to set free potentially malignant cells. One might compare the treatment of pigmented moles or melanotic growths to that which one would use on meeting a tiger in the jungle: "do not irritate and wait for the result, but kill at once," he stated.

WINNIPEG.—The One Big Union Bulletin has retracted all allegations made in an article published a year ago to the effect that a certain employer of domestic workers, a woman, had treated her maid-servants "inhumanly." And further a sum of money had been given by the Union in settlement.

AGASSIZ, B. C.—Laying an egg each day since last Wednesday, when she had already broken the world's record for yearly production, Mrs. L. D. Bernier, of the University of British Columbia white Leghorn estate, has established a new record with 351 eggs to her credit for the last 365 days.

Cousin of Wales Is Now a Dressmaker

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The Prince of Wales now boasts a cousin who is a successful Berkeley street dressmaker. He is George Fitz-George, grandson of the Duke of Cambridge.

In partnership with Miss Rose Taylor, he last year made $3,000. "This year we are doing even better, which is not bad considering that we started with a few hundred pounds as capital."

Prince of Wales Sets Fashions Unwillingly

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The Prince of Wales can start a fashion in any article of men's wear and often does but he does it unwittingly and is certainly not a willing arbiter of fashion. Rather he is most anxious to avoid publicity or advertisement of any sort and often goes out of his way to escape attention. He dresses well and tastefully, but not any more so than the average man about town.

His high rank and popularity, however, are seized on by haberdashers and tailors to do some quiet advertising on their own. When it becomes known through whisperings that the Prince of Wales favors this or that article of attire, it becomes the fashion immediately although others may have worn them before.

The Kitty-Katy Letters

Confidential Communications Between Two Charming Girls Friends—One Married

DEAR KITTY:—

I was tempted to begin this letter "Dear Old Cat" but I realize you don't mean to be caty although you sound that way sometimes.

I have not seen Jack yet, but he phoned and everything is all right. He said he had had a bad attack of pneumonia poisoning and had been confined to the hotel nearly all of the time he was in Fredericton. You see, dear Kitty-Catty, all of your remarks about "aligning the pledge" and so on were doing dear Jack a cruel injustice. I really think you owe him an apology.

I had quite an argument with mother about the chest of silver. Mother wanted me to go to a big jewelry store in Montreal but I explained to her that the store did not manufacture the silverware they sell. They merely buy it at wholesale and Saint John stores buy from the same places the stores in big cities do. I finally convinced her and we have selected the pattern or design and placed the order here. When is your friend Miss Merryseat coming over?

NOTE:—Is the break coming between these two "dear" friends? Katy suggests that Kitty is "Catty." What will Kitty say to this? See Monday's letter.

ACADIA ALUMNI MEET IN BOSTON

Former Saint John Man Is Chosen as Secretary

THE largest gathering in the history of the association marked the attendance of the New England Alumni Association of Acadia University at the Hotel Westminister, Boston Nov. 2 on the occasion of the annual banquet. President W. S. Jacobs, of Cleveland, Ohio, presided. The speakers included President Daniel L. Marsh, of Boston University; President E. C. Herrick, of the Newton Theological Institution; President Mrs. R. D. Foster, of the Women's Auxiliary of the Canadian Club, Boston; John F. Masters, of the Canadian Club, of Boston; Dr. Herbert S. W. Patterson, of Acadia, gave the closing address.

Miss Jean MacDonald, noted Canadian mezzo-soprano, a great favorite with the late Alexander Graham Bell, sang Scotch songs. Orchestral music was enjoyed and the singing of college songs. The banquet hall was decorated with Canadian and American flags in profusion.

OFFICERS CHOSEN

Officers elected for the ensuing year were as follows: President, Rev. Clyde W. Robbins, pastor of the Rosedale Baptist church, Boston; vice-president, Rev. T. S. Roy, of the First Baptist church, Brockton; secretary, Stockwell Simms, East Boston; treasurer, Austin Chute, Newton, Mass.; auditor, John Eaton Boston; historian, John Masters, Boston; executive committee, Dr. E. H. Coburn, Medford State Hospital; Rev. W. H. Dyas, Somerset; Rev. I. D. Hardy, Weymouth, Mass.; Dr. Barry Burgess, Boston; Dr. R. H. Wetmore, Harvard University.

The Mr. Simms referred to above is a former resident of Saint John, a son of the late T. S. and Mrs. Simms and a step-brother of L. W. Simms, of the Simms Brush Co., Ltd., this city. John F. Masters, president of the Boston Canadian Club, is also well known here.

REGAINED HEALTH IS NOW HAPPY

The Experience of a Quebec Woman With Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Mrs. L. D. Bernier, 89 d'Arguillon street, Quebec, is one of the thousands of women who, when she found her health failing, resorted at once to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and was unable to sleep well. Testimonials in the newspapers persuaded me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I have regained my health, the headaches have left me; I sleep well and feel strong. Naturally I am feeling happy. I strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all weak people.

Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for anaemia, rheumatism, neuritis, nervousness. Take them as a tonic if you are not in the best physical condition and cultivate a resistance that will keep you well and strong. If you will send us your name and address a little book, "Building Up the Blood," will be mailed you prepaid. This little book contains many useful health hints.

You can get these pills through any dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Barrie's Phone Under Name of His Butler

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Like many shy persons, Sir James Barrie dreads being called on the telephone. But despite his dislike, the author feels that he should have a telephone in his home.

The name of Sir James, however, does not appear in the telephone directory. Nor is it registered in the secret files of the telephone department.

Instead, the phone is listed under the name of Sir James' butler, and by this system the writer is accessible by wire only to those intimate friends who know him well enough to also be aware of the name of his butler.

IN BIRTHDAY HONOR

Sixteen friends of Miss Mac Macheath, gathered at her home at 285 Germain street, last night, and entered her a surprise party in honor of her birthday. Bridge and dancing were enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served by Miss Evelyn Powell and Miss Amy Chesley.

Men are Usually Liberal With Spending Money Because They Make It—But When It Comes to Real Giving, the Kind that Means Self-Denial, Women Show the Finest Examples of Generosity.

ARE women stingy? There is no charge that men are fonder of bringing against them than that of being tightwads, and in support thereof they always bring up woman's passion for the bargain counter, the size of her tips, when she gives any at all, and the case with which she can be flattered by any crook who will offer her more than the legal rate of interest on her money.

WOMEN will bitterly deny this allegation. We are not stingy, and if, as a sex, we are less free with our money and more given to a chattering policy than men, it is for the sufficient reason that we have less money to spend.

MAN, as a general thing, is the money-earner. He carries the pocketbook and may spend as he pleases without giving an account to any one. The average woman seldom has any money of which she has absolute control. What is given her for housekeeping, for clothes and necessary expenses is the very least with which the expected and desired results can be accomplished, and she must needs look well to every cent and see that she gets the worth of it.

IF ANY woman spent as much money on the gratification of her purely individual tastes as a man does on cigars and lunches, she would be held up as a warning to young men about to commit matrimony. Nobody would speak of her as a liberal woman. They would say she was recklessly, ruinously extravagant.

IT CANNOT be denied that men and women look at money from different points of view when it comes to spending. A man feels, for instance, that he must treat his friends even though he is behind with the rent and owes the butcher and baker and candlestick maker.

SO IT often happens that he is generous before he is just or honest. He will give though he may never pay. A woman reverses the process. She will pay even if she never gives.

COLONEL BLUSTER always heads the public subscription list of all the charities in town. He contributes to the campaign fund and spends money like water to elect him a candidate from the Stentch Ward, even if his family has to go on short rations and inch and pinch to pay for it. So he is accounted a liberal man.

Mrs. Colonel Bluster is called a close woman. She takes no stock in such generosity. An unpaid bill is a nightmare to her. Mrs. Jones might go without soda-water forever if she waited for her to treat her while Mary needed a new frock or the baby needed shoes. And if her candidate's election to office, in a woman's club depended on her putting up money for it she would never get into the president's chair in the world.

BUT when it comes to real generosity—the giving that means self-denial and self-sacrifice—the finest flower of it may be found among women. A woman may insist upon having the worth of her money, she may refuse to treat or to pay the way of those who are perfectly able to pay for themselves, but when it comes to a question of real need her hand is the first and quickest to give. It is the mites that women save by cutting down here and pinching there that build the churches and sustain the charities and clothe the naked and feed the hungry.

AMONG the women against whom the charge of stinginess is oftenest brought is the woman who keeps a boarding house. Cheap wiles have rung the changes on Mrs. Slim's economics, but no one has said anything about the other side of the question. No one has told of the times she has given shelter and homes to poor girls out of work or of the months she has let a board bill run along for some young chap who had lost his job and who but for her would have been down and out on the bread line.

FEW have any idea of the extent of the generosity—the generosity that nine times out of ten goes unremembered—that such women bestow. It is given out of poverty and hard work and bitter striving. But one girl kept off the street, one man saved from tramping or desperation, is more real generosity and worth than a line of colleges.

BEHIND the apparent stinginess of many a woman lies a pathetic little story that the world never knows. Sometimes the prosperous-looking, handsomely dressed woman who never gives and who more or less deadbeats her way through society, lets the world blame her for her close-fistedness rather than reveal her husband's misdeeds to her.

OFTEN and often the woman whose husband hangs thousands of dollars of jewels about her has not twenty-five cents in her purse. Sometimes a woman's niggardliness is the result of her standing like a lonely and deserted sentinel over wrecked and ruined fortunes, trying to keep up appearances until the girls are married or the boys in business.

IT IS to his mother's being a dime-nurse and a nickel-sweater than many a poor boy owes his college education and his career in life. His father hadn't the courage to refuse to spend because he couldn't afford it and because the children needed the money. He had to be liberal and belong to lodges and pay his part for expensive formal dinners when brother members died and contribute to the fund whenever some idiot suggested presenting a loving cup or a medal to somebody for something.

BUT his wife was cast in a different mold. Her business was forwarding the fortunes of her children, not winning the plaudits of her neighbors. They might praise her husband as the soul of generosity and deride her for her stinginess. She went impulsively on her way, and when the time came the little board that she had saved by self-denial and self-sacrifice and toil, every penny of which was wet with her sweat and her heart's blood, set her boys and girls on their way just as she had planned for them.

STINGY? No. It is an unfounded criticism. Women are careful of money. They are just with it. But when there is need they are liberal, as witness the dead benefactions of rich women and the fact that nearly every poor working woman in the world is helping to take care of some one poorer than she is.

BEHIND THE SCREEN

By DAN THOMAS

YOUTH'S handicap toward success with gray and supposedly wise heads has been reduced to a time element of five minutes.

If the young man has brains, it should take his elders just that long to discover them.

It also is sufficient time for youth to discern whether the older man has any of that valuable matter.

That's what Irving Thalberg, 27-year-old "genius" of moviedom, told Otto Kahn, one of America's leading bankers, when the two men met recently.

"MOST REMARKABLE MAN" Kahn, who afterward called Thalberg "the most remarkable man I ever have met," had asked the young man if he hadn't found his youth a handicap toward establishing himself.

"No, it didn't seem to make a particle of difference," replied Thalberg. "It has been my experience that age does not count after the first five minutes."

Thalberg got his start in the cinema world as a boy of 18 on the Universal lot. In nine years he rose to be one of the "big four" of the Metro-Goldwin-Mayer combine.

Recently Kahn visited the Metro-Goldwin-Mayer studios. The New York banker spent two hours with Thalberg, during which time he went over every corner of the lot.

JUDGE ONE ANOTHER

Their judgment of one another, expressed after their meeting, the mutual judgment of two of the keenest minds in America, is given:

"Thalberg impresses me as a boy with the mind of a 60-year-old man," said Kahn. "He never speaks without first thinking, and he thinks so fast that the time he takes in doing it is not noticed by the average person."

"Mr. Kahn has a mind completely equipped for grasping any situation in the field," said Thalberg. "His brain functions with the regularity of a speedometer clicking off miles. His ability is not confined to banking but extends to almost every phase of business."

And what could be fairer than that?

The Rhyming Optimist

Day is filled with labor, crammed with eager schemes bare of tender musings, void of happy dreams; kinder, gentler, sweeter, are the thoughts men know in the twilight hour when the sun is low. Day is for the toiler, but when toil is done, twilight brings its message to each weary one. Ever at this hour, just as dusk descends, twilight brings men visions, scenes of home and friends. Day sees great works fashioned, splendid deeds attained, science with fresh wonders daily, hourly gained; day sees art made nobler, growing fairer still, till it stirs the senses, makes the pulses thrill. Yet how much, I wonder, would the vast world gain of these rare creations, without spot or stain, what of power and beauty, all Earth's matchless things, were it not for twilight and the dreams it brings!

AGNES REPPLIER

The theatre, if that can be called a hobby, is the favorite recreation of Agnes Repplier, noted American essayist and lecturer.

"Beyond my work, which very fully occupies me, I have few activities," Miss Repplier told the United Press. "But the theatre, ever since my girlhood, has been an unceasing delight to me. As a child we were allowed frequently to go to plays for then five out of six productions were Shakespeare, and play-going for the young was regarded more in the light of education than entertainment."

"I find the same pleasure in many of the modern plays, and one can name two or three almost every season that are first rate dramatic works, judged in the strictest standards."

"I remember the great older actors, Booth, Barrett, Fichter, the Danish actor, Davenport, Jefferson and others. I remember, some years ago attending John Drew when I told him I had seen his grandmother on the stage at a benefit performance."

The movies, Miss Repplier feels are "uncommonly dull."

"The settings and mechanics of the films are extraordinarily fine," she said, "but the looseness of theme and the liberties taken by scenario writers and producers with many of the standard works they adapt to their medium detracts from the dramatic and entertainment value of the original and tends to weaken the interest of the audience."

Policeman: You say your husband died from the effects of eating a cake you baked for him? That's murder, man—you must come along.

Widow: No, it was suicide. He knew that I baked the cake.

Wives can't really think their husbands are made of money, or a lot of them would have been changed.

Fashion Fancies.

Most of the modish new afternoon frocks combine two materials, and the use of velvet with crepe is one of the most effective.

A fairly deep sea green crepe is used for the two-piece afternoon dress above, with loops of hunter's green velvet making the effective trimming. Note the new very long blouse.

The hat carries out the same two colors in velvet, and exploits the high crushed crown.

Menus For The Family

MENU HINT.

HERE is a dinner menu that is a little different and therefore a help to the housewife who is a bit tired of planning meals and may be getting into a rut.

Yet-ka-Mein.
Sliced Tomatoes and Mayonnaise.
Celery.
Peach Cobbler.
Tea.

TODAY'S RECIPES.

Yet-ka-Mein.—When you have a chicken the day before boil the white meat and use it and the broth for this meal. If you have not had chicken buy a small piece of pork-shoulder and boil it. Then removing the meat from the broth, of which there should be about a quart, add one can of Chinese noodles and boil them for four minutes. Remove broth and noodles to soup plates and place match-like pieces of meat on top. Serve with soy sauce if desired.

Peach Cobbler.—Make a rich biscuit dough. In bottom of a shallow pan place halves of peaches, which have been well sugared. Use the balance of the cup of sugar and mix it with a tablespoon of flour. Pour over peaches. Place biscuit dough covering over all and bake. Serve with top milk, to which a small amount of sugar and nutmeg have been added, or serve with sugar and cream. Canned peaches may be used in place of fresh, but you will, of course, need little sugar with the latter.

Sea-Sawing Along Broadway

MANHATTAN constantly is being referred to as a terrible place in which to bring up children. Visitors are continuously throwing up their hands and wondering how healthy young men and women can possibly be produced.

Yet, somehow or other, those very districts about which so much is said and written continue year on year to produce young athletes of high caliber.

An east side grammar school, famous for the number of tongues to be heard within its walls, wins most of the loving cups in athletics and scholarships alike. Its track teams win, its baseball teams win, its debaters, orators, essayists win—and yet it is in that section of the ghetto where tenements pile one upon the other in dirty monotony. And the children who represent it come from every kingdom upon the earth.

GOING up a notch—the universal within the city turn out football teams which prove a match for the he-men of the great open spaces. Did not New York University recently vanquish the worthy southerners from Tulane?

Did not a New York girl swim the channel? And another New Yorker, the mother of two, repeat the deed? And a third New Yorker make a most valiant struggle?

I HAVE often thought of these matters as I have combed the drab and dirty streets of the East Side.

I have noticed the streets and sidewalks, ankle-deep in debris from the pushcarts. I have seen youngsters running in the streets until midnight. Walk through these highways on hot days or cold, or at almost any hour of the day or night and you can see the sidewalks lined with baby carriages.

Often have I heard mothers gape at seeing an East Side baby soundly sleeping in its stroller on nights that snapped with the chill of approaching winter.

This is no belt for hot-house plants. The youngsters who survive have got to be sturdy. They must have undergone a period of struggle that Lady Hazen entertained at Hazen Castle on Thursday afternoon at a charmingly arranged tea in honor of Mrs. King Hazen, of Fredericton, beautiful pink and mauve chrysanthemums making attractive decorations in both drawing room and dining room.

Mrs. F. Peniston Johnston entertained at her home in Sewall street yesterday afternoon at a delightful arranged drawing room tea in honor of her guests, Mrs. J. M. Kinnear, of Sussex, and Miss du Vernet, of Digby, N. S. The tea table was attractively decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums and was presided over by Mrs. Glidden Campbell, of Weymouth, N. S. Those who assisted in serving were Mrs. F. M. Keaton, Mrs. Corlanti Robinson, Mrs. Gordon MacDonald and Mrs. Percy Fairweather.

Mrs. Thomas Bell entertained delightfully at a small dinner at the Admiral Beatty on Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Freeman Lake, of Montreal. The table was artistically centered with pink gladioli, and covers were laid for eight. After dinner bridge was enjoyed at Mrs. Bell's residence in Germain street.

Mrs. J. M. Kinnear, of Sussex, and Miss du Vernet, of Digby, N. S., are guests of Mrs. F. F. Johnston at her home in Sewall street.

A delightful shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Price, 13 Magazine street, in honor of Miss Doris Riley, whose marriage is to take place in the near future. The drawing room was effectively decorated. Little Miss Prudence Price and Dick Price, nephew and niece of the bride-to-be, wheeled in a beautifully decorated wagon in which many handsome gifts were placed. The evening was pleasantly spent in games, music and dancing and delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Wright, of 164 Market Place, West Saint John, entertained on Thursday evening at three tables of bridge. The fortunate prize winners were Miss Marie Giggley, ladies first; Mrs. S. Compton, ladies second; Lesley Gray, gentlemen's first and C. M. Howard, gentlemen's second prize. Supper was served at 11 o'clock, covers being laid for 12. The hostess was assisted in serving by Miss Betty Hanson. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert O'Dell, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Howard, Mrs. S. Compton, Miss Maude Reed, Miss Mildred Long, Miss Marie Giggley, Mr. Carl Hanson, Mr. Lesley Gray and Mr. Walter Lloyd.

Mrs. Walter C. Allison and Miss Helen Allison left last night for Montreal, where they will spend two weeks at the Ritz-Carlton.

Miss Eleanor Hall, of Halifax, arrived in the city last night and is the guest of Miss Audrey Rankine at her home in King street east.

Mrs. James Gault and Mrs. Willard A. Smith were joint hostesses at an enjoyable tea at the residence of Mrs. Gault, 149 Douglas avenue, on Wednesday afternoon. The drawing rooms were very attractive with roses and potted plants. In the dining room the table was centered with scarlet geraniums in silver epergne and was presided over by Mrs. Kenneth F. Gault and Mrs. Harold B. Gault. Assisting in serving were Miss Hazel Flewelling,

Weddings

Williams-Aird

A wedding of interest to friends in Saint John took place in St. Stephen's church, Montreal, on Saturday, October 30, when Rev. Frank Charters united in marriage Miss Jeanie Buchanan Aird, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Aird, of this city, and James Hugh Williams, son of Mrs. James Ross and the late James Williams, of Liverpool, England. The bride, who was unattended, was becomingly attired in a tailored suit with grey shoes and stockings and hat to match and wore a fox fur. Mr. and Mrs. Williams will reside in Montreal. The bride has many friends in this city, who will extend best wishes for her future happiness.

Colwell-Palmer

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at Wilmett, Fredericton, on Wednesday, November 3, when Miss Irene Agnes Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Palmer, of Douglas Harbor, became the bride of Mr. Ira Cecil Colwell, of Scotchtown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. H. Holmes, M. A., pastor of Wilmett church, Fredericton. The bride looked very charming in a dress of rosewood satin with shoes and stockings to match and black hat with rosewood trimming. Going away she wore a coat of cranberry velvet with grey fur trimmings. The couple were attended by Miss Greta L. Palmer and Kenneth Colwell, of Scotchtown. After a short trip they will reside in Scotchtown.

Fenderson-Woodrow

The marriage of Miss Doris Mill Woodrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Woodrow, and LeRoy Fenderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Fenderson, of Jacques River, was quietly solemnized in St. Andrew's Kirk yesterday afternoon at 5:30 in the presence of the relatives and immediate friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Bonnell. The bride looked charming in a gown of lawn georgette with hat and shoes to match and carried a bouquet of Opalis roses. She was given in marriage by her father and was unattended. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Fenderson left on a honeymoon trip to be spent in New Brunswick. The bride's traveling coat was of green needledpoint trimmer in a gown of lawn georgette with hat and shoes to match. The bride has many friends in the city and province and all good wishes have been extended to them for their future happiness.

Dann-Doherty

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Oct. 27 at Hampton, in St. Alphonsus church, Fairville, in the marriage of Miss Gladys Gertrude Doherty, of Hampton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Doherty, of Hampton, and William James Dann, of Hampton. The bride looked charming in a gown of lawn georgette with hat and shoes to match. The bride has many friends in the city and province and all good wishes have been extended to them for their future happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. White, Centreville, had for recent guests Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hayes, and son, Stanley, of Millstream, Kings county, and Mrs. Herman Hoyt and son, Percy, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Cosman, of this city, are spending a few days at the home of Owen Green in Grand Manan.

Miss Gwen Jack, of St. Andrews, who had been visiting at Glenwood and also in this city, has returned to her home.

Miss Nan Coleman, student at Mt. Allison University, has arrived to spend Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Coleman, King street east.

Mrs. F. T. Belyea and son, Harry, left yesterday evening to spend the holiday season in Moncton with Mrs. Belyea's son, Percy F., in that city.

Misses Susie Daisell, Jeanette Thomas, Helen Boone, Edna Harvey, Ann P. Spinyne and Ella McLean, of St. Stephen, came to the city on Tuesday to write the Reg. N. examinations.

Mrs. Fred H. Barker, Misses Ollene and Stella Barker, Miss Vera Vanwart and Mrs. Williams, arrived in the city yesterday from Pleasant Villa, N. B., by automobile, and will spend the week-end with friends.

Mrs. K. B. Parker, who is to leave for a two month tour in the United States, was the guest of honor Thursday evening at a delightful surprise party when friends gathered at her home in Horsfield street and presented to her a handsome club bag. Mrs. J. T. Lyon made the presentation and the guest of honor suitably expressed her thanks. Games and music were enjoyed, and delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. J. T. Lyon and Mrs. B. F. Wilson.

Mrs. Austin Resigns As Committee Head

The City Union of The King's Daughters at its meeting last night regretfully accepted the resignation of Mrs. M. D. Austin as convener of the spiritual committee, an office which she had filled efficiently during the last three years. Mrs. E. L. Corbett was chosen to succeed Mrs. Austin as convener.

vener. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Frank McArthur, first vice president, who led the opening devotions which had for their theme "Thanksgiving." There was a large attendance of members and excellent reports were presented by the committees regarding the house, hospital visitation and spiritual programs. It was announced that Mrs. C. F. Sanford would be in charge of the gospel service on Sunday and the subject of the afternoon would be "Prayer." In the report on the hospital work a donation of books from Miss Blanch Thomas was very gratefully acknowledged.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cowi, of New York, who were in Dorchester attending the funeral of the latter's grandmother, Lady Smith, widow of Sir Albert J. Smith, a former Premier of this province, left Tuesday, and visited Mrs. Cowi's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Young Smith, Moncton. On Wednesday they started on their return to New York.

Reference to the coming Thanksgiving Day holiday was made in the city schools yesterday. In Centennial school the pupils gathered in the assembly hall and the principal, H. C. Ricker, gave a short address on the meaning of the day, pointing out that it was first a Holy Day and then a holiday and a day on which to give thanks for blessings received. The pupils sang the hymns "O King of Kings" and "We Plough the Fields and Scatter" and they also sang a Thanksgiving song. The program closed with the hearty singing of "O Canada" and the National Anthem.

Fletcher's CASTORIA

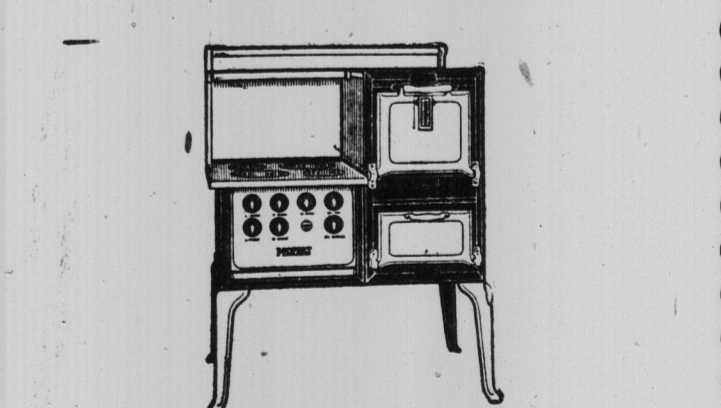

When Baby Complains.

There are many ways a baby has of expressing any pain or irregularity or depression from its normal condition of health and happiness. A short sharp cry, a prolonged irritated cry. Restlessness, a constant turning of the head or of the whole body, fretful. In these and other ways a baby tells you there is something wrong. Most mothers know that a disordered stomach, or bowels that do not act naturally are the cause of most of baby's sufferings. A call for the doctor is the first thought, but in the event of any delay there should be ready at hand a safe remedy such as Fletcher's Castoria.

Castoria has been used for baby's ailments for over 30 years and has merited the good will of the family physician in a measure not equaled by any other baby's medicine because of its harmlessness and the good results achieved.

And remember this: Castoria is essentially a baby's remedy and not a cure-all for every member of the family. What might help you is too often dangerous when given to a babe.

To avoid imitations always look for the signature of Fletcher Proven directions on each package. Physicians everywhere recommend it.

ABBATOIR TO BEGIN ITS WORK NEXT TUESDAY

New Industry Building to be Open for Inspection on Monday

On Monday, Thanksgiving Day, the general public will be given an opportunity to inspect the plant of Saint John's newest industry, the abattoir of the British Canadian Packing Company, East Saint John. The staff will be on duty from 8 o'clock in the morning to show visitors over the plant. Active operations will begin Tuesday when the first animals will be killed. As soon as the company have their product ready to market a car service will be operated out of the city to several points in the Maritime Provinces. The plant is complete in every detail and in the last word in modern abattoir equipment and everything turned out will be government inspected to ensure the public that all the goods bearing the trade mark of the company is all that it ought to be as a food product. All the tables and racks which the meat come in contact with are of galvanized iron and must be kept scrupulously clean at all times. An inspection of the plant and equipment will well repay any person for time spent. The company was the successful bidder for three carloads of prize winning stock at the Amherst fair,

SPOILS OF A STILL HUNT

Estimated to have cost $300,000 to construct, this is all that remains of a giant bootleg distillery near Atlantic City, N. J. State police and prohibition agents destroyed it with five charges of dynamite. The copper coils were six inches in diameter, and a feed pipe of the same size led to the waterfront a quarter of a mile away, where it once was used to load the liquor into small boats.

The only car loads that were sold for slaughter to Maritime bidders, one being a car of beef steers, another a car of prize winning lambs and the third a car of select bacon hogs. These three carloads have already arrived at the plant and more are expected on Monday. When the machinery starts on Tuesday morning there will be at least six carloads of stock waiting to be made into meat.

The plant has a capacity of 300 hogs, 40 cattle, 300 lambs and 300 calves a day and this can be very readily added to if the patronage warrants. The company hope to be able to secure all the raw material necessary to keep the plant running from Maritime Province farmers, but if necessary are prepared to bring live stock from western points.

In handling the animals the plant is divided into two zones, that where the edible is handled and that which is not edible, and the inspector sees that nothing, which should go to the inedible part of the plant, gets into the goods intended for human consumption.

The animals coming in car lots are unloaded at the company siding and brought into the sorting pens. As they come in they are weighed and graded for quality. The hogs are driven up a passageway to the shackling pen. As they pass along any legards are gently prodded with an electric prod, which has the desired effect of speeding up their progress. In the shackling pen a chain is passed around one hind leg and the animal drawn up to a rack and stuck. It then passes along this rack to the scalding pen.

From this it goes to the de-hairing machine which will handle 125 hogs an hour. It then goes to a table where it is cut up and then sent to the cooler, where it remains for 24 hours at a temperature of 28 to 40 above zero. After 24 hours it is brought out of the cooler and cut up into the various cuts and cured in oak barrels. Special salvaged boxes are used for the curing of fancy bacon.

The lard is cooked under steam pressure in special kettles, then carried to a refining kettle and after passing through a filter press goes to a lard roll to be cooled and from this roll is poured into the various receptacles in which it reaches the public.

The cattle go from the sorting pens to knocking pen where a man standing on the outside knocks them on the head. The animal is then hoisted to a track by one foot and bled after which it is dressed and sent to the cooler. After being in there for 24 hours it is cut up into quarters and is made ready for shipment.

Before going into the cooler every animal that is killed is inspected for disease and anything that is condemned must go to another part of the building to be used in some of the 31 by-products which the plant extracts from the animals.

The inedible parts of the animals and those that have been condemned are put through various processes. White and brown grease and fertilizer are the main products of this department.

The company will make their own casings for sausage and bologna. In the cooked food department a number of cookers have been installed, all the cooking being done by steam. In the sausage department there is installed a large grinder with a capacity of 5,000 pounds an hour and a silent cutter of the same capacity. It is a mixer and stuffer, the latter being run by compressed air. The smoke houses are of the most modern type and all the meat is hung on galvanized iron hooks and racks.

In the construction of the building the company have whenever possible bought their supplies in the Maritime Provinces and Saint John firms have been given the preference.

The offices are light and airy and everything has been installed to make working conditions for the men the best possible. On the second floor is found the lunch room, wash room and sanitariums for the men. As the men come from the slaughtering floor they change their clothes and shower baths are provided for their benefit.

The superintendent and inspector each have their own quarters with private shower bath and toilet. J. A. Kennedy, formerly manager of Gunn's Ltd., here, is general manager; William Paradine, of Toronto, is superintendent, and Dr. McDonald is the government inspector. Mr. Paradine has had nearly 30 years' experience in the packing house business.

The officers of the company are: G. C. P. McIntyre, president and managing director; B. R. Armstrong, vice-president; S. J. Parkhill, secretary-treasurer; the directors are P. M. Star-ley, Coventry, England; Charles Gray, Woodstock; W. Frank Tait, Dorchester; Horace Wright, Victoria, B. C.; George E. Graham, Kentville, N. S.; Alexander McMillan and W. I. Fenton, Saint John.

Left Penniless To Fight it out Alone

THE savings of many years eaten up by Tom's long and fatal illness, Mrs. L. finds herself penniless.

Frail and sorrowful she faces the future with despair.

What work can a woman of sixty do to eke out a precarious living?

If there had only been some insurance—

But Tom had always said they'd have enough laid by to tide them through old age without spending money on life insurance. And she had trusted to Tom's judgment.

If Tom could have foreseen the future clearly would he not have carried life insurance? We think so, don't you?

How clearly can you foresee the future? Might not your widow be left in just as straitened circumstances as Mrs. L.?

Why take a chance, when you can protect her with Life Insurance?—particularly when the generous profits earned by Mutual Life Policies make the cost of life insurance so very reasonable.

SPEEDIRON

The Element that Makes Electric Cooking Dependable

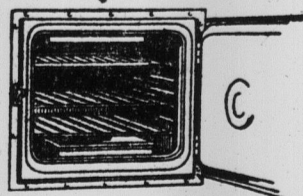

McCLARY'S Speediron element gives to electric cooking a new efficiency, a new satisfaction never dreamed of before.

It is the speediest, most economical, most reliable protected element made—as durable as the range itself.

The smooth, flat, cast-iron surface completely protects the coils from accidents. Boiling over, knocks, spills, leaks, dripping grease cannot injure them.

If coils burn out simply lift out element and have coils replaced at trivial expense. No delays.

Cooks better, faster, cheaper—the one day in and day out efficient element. Now on all McClary's Electric Ranges.

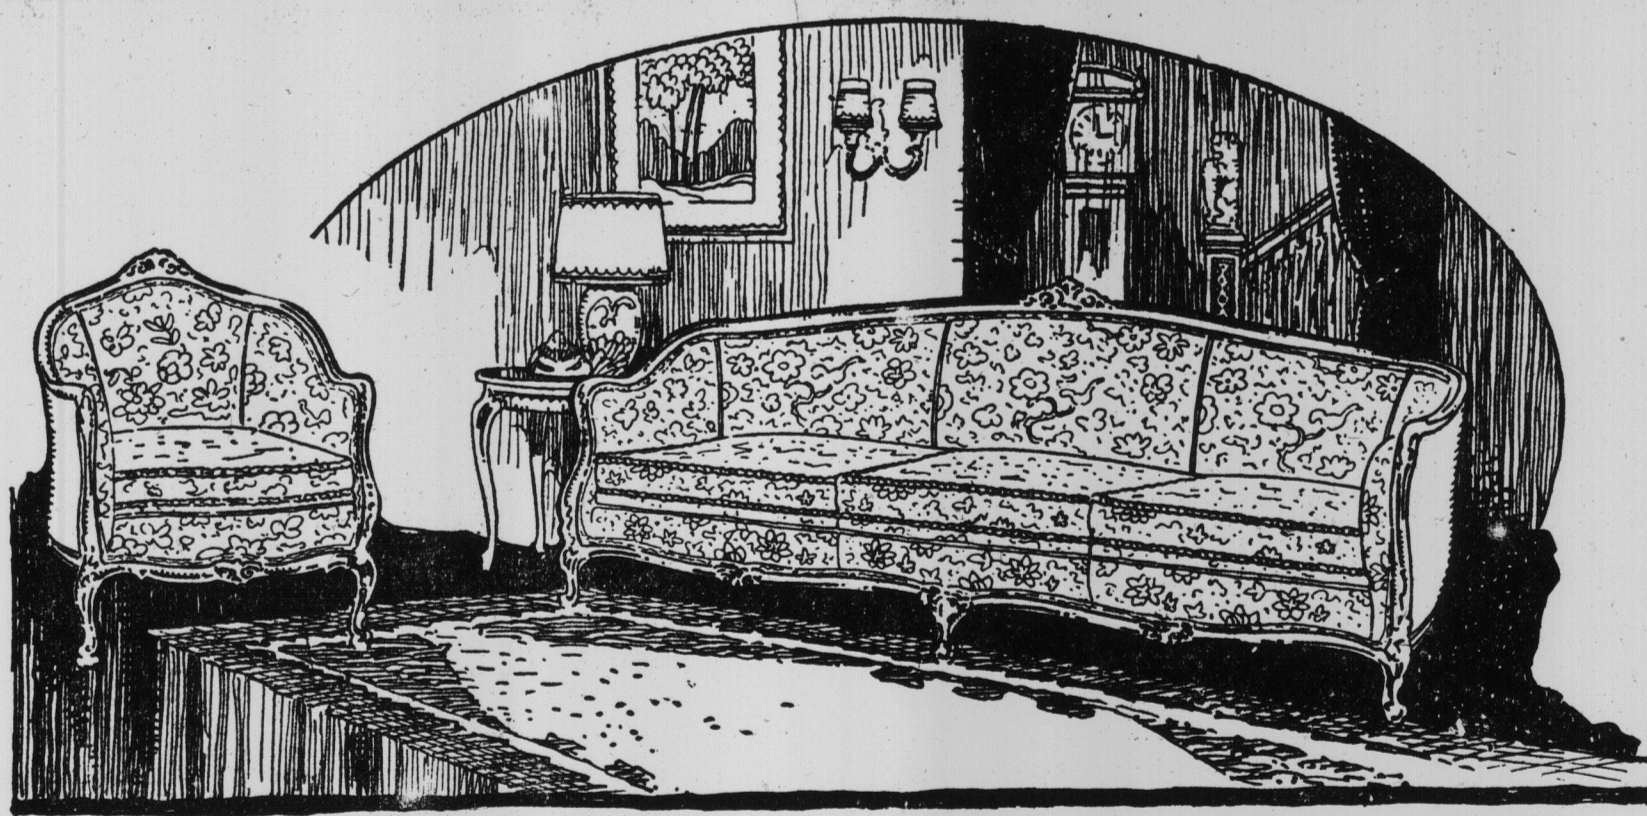

The Wonderful Oven

McClary's fireless cooker oven goes on baking for hours after current is turned off. The heavily insulated oven walls retain the heat indefinitely—giving splendid baking results and insuring great economy.

POULTRY AND EGG EXCHANGE FOR MARITIMES

Commercial Hatchery for Saint John Seems
Assured

THE FIRST STEPS towards the formation of a Maritime Egg and Poultry Exchange were taken at the joint meeting of the New Brunswick Exchange and the Nova Scotia Exchange held in Amherst this week. It was said yesterday by A. R. Jones, manager of the New Brunswick Exchange who returned to the city on Thursday night. The complete amalgamation of the two provincial bodies to form the Maritime organization awaits the granting of a Dominion charter. When the Maritime organization is effected the poultry industry in the East as the whole pool serves the grain growers of the West.

By having a big volume to handle wider markets can be served, and the overhead can be cut down appreciably, while competition will be eliminated. The Maritime exchange, Mr. Jones said, would serve the poultry industry in the East as the whole pool serves the grain growers of the West.

SEEKS TO SELL LINERS.
One of the big things which he hopes may be achieved is in the supplying of poultry products to the liners using the winter port here. When the matter of buying New Brunswick poultry and eggs was taken up with the agents of the Canadian Pacific steamers by Mr. Jones last year he was surprised to learn that the supplies of poultry and eggs for the liners are all purchased in England. He is hopeful that the Canadian product may be given a chance to enter this market and that the ships sailing from Saint John will take on at least part of their poultry and egg supplies in native produce at this port.

HATCHERY FOR HERE.
The matter of the proposed commercial hatchery to be established in Saint John seems assured.

In Indiana school superintendent refused to let a little girl come to school garbed in knickers. Now a school teacher in Marian, Ky., has gone him one better by refusing to let 8-year-old Iona Green attend school in overalls, as shown above.
The girl's mother says Iona wears overalls to play in and she can wear
'em to school; but she isn't getting in,
and the town's in a controversy over it.

Saint John was discussed further at the Amherst meeting. Mr. Jones said, and he was satisfied that the project would go through, although it would be about the middle of this month before any definite word would be received in this regard. The hatchery will have a 6,000 to 7,000 egg capacity, and will be located in the exchange shipping rooms on Main street.

With reference to the movement of poultry in New Brunswick Mr. Jones said that considerable quantities had come in from Westmorland, Kent and Gloucester counties up to the present time, and that these are graded and packed at Saint John and shipped in car loads or go into storage. There are comparatively few in storage up to the present time.

1,000 EXCHANGE MEMBERS.
He has now more than 1,000 of the farmers in New Brunswick who are members of the exchange, and there are others in the province who are shipping their poultry through the exchange but have not signed as members. In Nova Scotia the exchange has only recently been formed and there are only from 200 to 300 members. It is expected, however, that a large number of eggs circles will be formed in that province this winter.

TURKEYS SCARCE

Regarding supplies for the Thanksgiving market in Saint John he said that there were fair quantities of ducks
and geese, and chicken were plentiful, but turkey was scarce. Because of the late season the turkeys were still thin and not really fit for killing.

He was disappointed in the dressed poultry shown at the Amherst winter fair, Mr. Jones said, as there was not much exhibited and the quality was poor. The live poultry exhibits on the other hand were of good quality.

"GREAT ROSE" DIAMOND HAS STRANGE STORY

Valuable Stone Was Stolen
From Idol in India
Years Ago

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Scotland Yard
is co-operating with the French Sûreté
and the foremost detectives of Europe and America in an endeavor to track down the jewel thieves who stole the famous rose-colored Conde diamond from the Castle of Chantilly, near Paris.

The robbery of "The Great Rose" and other historic treasures is supposed to have been the work of an international gang, some of whose members may have taken refuge in London.

Like every other world-famous jewel,
"The Great Rose" has a thrilling and sinister story of its own. Many estimates have been made of the value of the Conde diamond. Some say this stone is worth $1,000,000; others declare that its intrinsic value is no more than $75,000.

LITERALLY PRICELESS.
—as this gem has been called owing to its delicate, roseate hue—is literally priceless. It is worth anything that a collector might choose to give for it,
because it is unique and irreplaceable.

And it has historic associations of the most extraordinary kind. Like the missing Orloff gem, which was even more valuable, and which disappeared from the sceptre of the Czars of Russia, the Conde diamond was discovered in India, and for long years it glittered in the centre of the brow of a frightening idol.

STOLEN FROM TEMPLE.
The temple in which the idol was housed, was guarded day and night, but the treasure vanished and the watchman declared that it must have been spirited away by a superior deity.

The head priest would have nothing of this supernatural explanation and all the wretched guards were put to the torture and—since even then they would not confess to collusion with a thief—they were slain.

Exactly how the gem reached Europe is not recorded, and was probably never ascertained. But it certainly fell into the hands of a Jewish dealer, who recognized its rarity and sold it to a wealthy French aristocrat. The new owner, Count de Runcin, presented it to his mistress, who was told by a fortune-teller that it would bring her ill luck and that it would be better that she should give it back to the donor.

told, but the lady certainly did hand
the diamond back to him, and exacted in exchange a very considerable sum of money.

But the old woman's prophecy that the gem would bring misfortune to its owner was fulfilled. Before very long both the count and the woman
he loved died violent deaths.

The jewel then came into the possession of the Condes, that proud and princely French family.

Effects On Earth Of Sun's Loss Told

Canadian Press Despatch.
NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—If the earth were taken away from the sun for a year, the ocean would not only be frozen but the atmosphere would be condensed to liquid air, washing on the icy rocks of a frozen sea, in the opinion of Prof. Henry Norris Russell, professor of astronomy at Princeton University.

There may be thousands of habitable worlds in the universe, he said, in a lecture at the American Museum of Natural History, but the only other one in our solar system that might possibly sustain life is Mars. All the others are too hot or too cold, he declared. He is convinced that the moon could not sustain life because it has no
air or water.

OTHER TRIBUTES

"In his death the municipality suffered a distinct loss. He was a man fitted by nature and by ability to travel far in public service and had been destined to take a large place in public affairs," said Commissioner Frink this morning when discussing the death of Mr. O'Brien. "He was a resourceful antagonist but never carried a grudge against a man who differed from him in matters of policy."

John Thornton, a former warden of the municipality, said this morning that he was very sorry to learn of Mr. O'Brien's death at such an early age. He had sat in council with him for a number of years and had always found him upright in his dealings and a good citizen in every respect.

Mr. O'Brien was a generous open hearted citizen and a faithful and devoted member of St. Rose's congregation.

His passing will be very deeply mourned throughout the county, city and province.

Decide his wife he leaves one son, Joseph, two daughters, Geraldine and Gertrude, all at home. One brother, Joseph L., of Fairville, a member of the Board of Commissioners of the General Public Hospital and one sister, Miss Mary E. O'Brien, of the teaching staff of St. Rose's school, also survive.

MARRIAGE WINES REASON FOR DEATH

Professional "Best Man" in Hungary Had Strange Career

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The death has occurred in Debrecen of Imre Desai, aged 67, the last professional "best man" in Hungary up to the last decade of the profession of "best man" was an accepted and honorable career, earning a living in Hungary. The duties of the "best man" were to officiate at the wedding, and in the name of the bridegroom, to receive the bride and to receive the bridegroom's presents. Desai was extremely proud of his original duties, which, however, were lost to posterity, for he never permitted anyone to write them down.

Desai also combined the business of marriage-broker with that of "best man" and in a large volume, entries have been found which show that he brought together more than a thousand couples receiving sums which varied during the 60 years of his career from 18 florins to several million crowns. Etiquette demanded that guests at peasant festivities should consume much solid and liquid refreshments as capacity allowed in the three days of their duration, and Desai made it his business to have the bridegroom and his relatives, for the many baptisms and silver weddings celebrated by him, clients, at which he was the guest of honor, so affected his health as to bring on an untimely death.

ISLANDS UNITED

SEATTLE, Nov. 6.—Three islands in the Aleutian chain, 1,600 miles southwest of Alaska, have been united by submarine volcanic eruptions. The coast guard cutter H-14, just returned from an Alaskan cruise, reported that Bogoslof, Castle and Fire Islands have been joined by lava formations. Bogoslof Island appeared out of the sea in 1796 and Fire Island arose above the surface in 1883. Twice since the latter date they have been united by volcanic action and separated again.

BUYS NO. 7

LONDON, Nov. 6.—King Albert of Belgium, the monarch who drives his own motor cycle, has bought his seventh machine of this type. The ruler's latest mount, made here, was displayed at the Olympia motor cycle show and attracted a great deal of attention. It is of unusual design, and when making high speed it is almost noiseless due to an improved type of silencer. The King, who is also fond of aviation, often makes 200 miles a day, unaccompanied, when out on a motor cycle spin.

REPULSE CANTONESE

SHANGHAI, Nov. 6.—Toho news agency dispatches from Kiangsu Province, report that Marshal Sun Chuan Fang's troops recaptured Kiangling today, driving out 1,000 Cantonese who had taken the city by a surprise attack. Sun Chuan-Fang, overlord of five eastern provinces of China, is said to be proceeding up the Yangtze River toward Wusheng.

ONE $5 BILL WAS LOST

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 6.—One $5 bill was the total amount of loot obtained by two bandits who yesterday kidnapped Truman M. King, railway mail clerk at Sibbing, stole a registered mail pouch and drove in an automobile to Minneapolis, more than 200 miles away, carrying their victim with them.

MAJ. BELFORD NOMINATED

PETERBORO, Ont., Nov. 6.—Major J. F. B. Belford was yesterday the choice of the Conservative association of Northumberland in convention at Warkworth. Major Belford was chosen in opposition to Col. F. D. Rogers of Cobourg, an avowed supporter of Premier Ferguson and his liquor policy.

Boston-Yarmouth Travel Continues

YARMOUTH, Nov. 6.—Travel by the Boston and Yarmouth Steamship Company's ships, regardless of the late season, continues good between this port and Boston, as the following figures for October will show. During that month they transported a total of 5,960 passengers. Of that number, 3,744 passengers left Yarmouth for Boston exceeding the arrivals here from that port by 1,216, the total number being 2,216. With the exception of October, 1923, when 6,647 passengers—4,293 outbound, 2,444 in—the next largest was in 1925, with 5,795, and from that it varied considerably, the lowest being in 1917, with 3,076.

FATHERS AND SONS AT BANQUET TABLE

Many Gather For Pleasant Evening of Carleton United Church

The annual father and son banquet of Carleton United Church was held in the Sunday school room last evening with a large attendance. In his opening remarks Charles F. Stevens, chairman, stated that the purpose of the gathering was to have the fathers become more interested in the work and organization of the boys of the Sunday school and he urged them to take a greater interest in the things that were necessary to the well being of the boys.

The chief speaker of the evening was A. M. Belding, who spoke along the lines of successful organization and demonstrated how young people generally and boys especially were benefited by good leadership. Mr. Belding took as his theme, "The Father's Influence," and he pointed out the importance of the father's influence in the life of the boy. He said that if fathers desired that their sons should be good and useful citizens it remained for everybody to get behind those who were devoting to the time to the welfare and betterment of their boys.

Rev. F. T. Bertram moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Belding. A vote of thanks also was tendered the ladies who provided the banquet and the toast list follows: The King, proposed by Edwin Williams, responded to by Rev. Mr. Bertram; Our Sunday School, proposed by Arthur Boddington, responded to by LeBaron Stubbs; Our Fathers, proposed by Roy Thompson, responded to by A. M. Belding; sing song, directed by F. J. Punter; orchestra selections, Messrs. Robert, mandolin; Messing, guitar; Reed, banjo.

Trained Choirs Harm Singing in Churches

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Trained choirs have taken the life out of church singing by congregations and are defeating the original purpose, declares Dean Peter C. Lutkin of the college of music of Northwestern University. Dr. Lutkin this fall established a college course for church choirs.

"A church choir should stimulate and not discourage congregational singing," said Dr. Lutkin, "but the average professional church musician looks upon hymn singing as a bore. This attitude is all wrong. But it will persist until there are training schools for church musicians which stress religion above artistry. And the church itself should supply such training."

$50,000 FIRE DAMAGE

NATCHEZ, Miss., Nov. 6.—Fire which broke out in the Natchez Hotel yesterday, was under control three hours later, after gutting the hotel, threatening the business district and causing several other minor fires in the residential section of the city. The hotel building was estimated to have cost $50,000 exclusive of fixtures.

Notes From Movieland

Because of a scarcity of rain in New York, the remainder of the Colleen Moore "Orchids and Brimstone" company, which went East to film exterior, was obliged to delay its return. The company had about 15 outdoor shots to take, showing New York under the weather. It is unusual for a company to be delayed on account of too much sunshine. The reverse usually is the rule.

When fires occurred recently in the studios of Glorrie Swanson and Charlie Chaplin, camera men made "shots" of the flames for possible use in future productions.

Fan letters from India often puzzled Belle Bennett because of their identity in form. She sought an explanation from J. J. Madan, executive of more than 85 theatres in India, when he visited Hollywood.

"Thousands in India are unable to read or write," he explained. "When they desire a photograph of their favorite motion picture stars, the professional letter-writers come to their aid with printed form letters."

"Now look jealous!" commanded a director of a young actor he was testing in a close-up. The young actor tried his best; he looked pained, disgusted, angry, but the facial expression of jealousy eluded him. "I guess you can't do it," grumbled the director. He called another actor.

The discomfited youth sank into a chair and watched his rival step in front of the camera. After a moment the director turned sharply to the youth in the chair. "That's it!" he cried. "Hold that expression!" And he grabbed the youth and forced him in front of the lens.

The life of movie performers has its disagreeable features. One of them is the long waits they sometimes must endure before they are called into action. Some read magazines, but most of the cast either talk in groups or sit idly by while awaiting their turn in the scenes that are being shot. One noted star had three days of it, waiting to be momentarily called.

Persons in waiters' attire being served by waitresses was an odd sight at lunch time in the Paramount cafe at the Long Island studio during the filming of a recent picture. Some of the cast had the role of waiters in the play.

In the secret rooms of a Limehouse dive set planned ingeniously for many successive lighting and camera angles, which is believed to be a record. By means of special equipment and camera the finished "shot" of 220 feet is unbroken. If made by the ordinary method, it would have been cut in from eleven to thirty parts.

Irene Rich has just completed her second Russian picture, but under the last circumstances than her first. In Warners production of "My Official Wife," Miss Rich appears as a mob scene. She appeared as one of the women soldiers for ten days.

TREASURE SEARCH WITH POLICE DOGS

Italian Robber Says He Threw 4,000,000 Lire Over Hedge Near Milan

ROME, Nov. 6.—Musocco, in the Lombard Plain, near Milan, has been and is the scene of a great treasure hunt by detectives seeking traces of some 4,000,000 lire ($175,000) which Walter Murerati, a confessed swindler, says he threw over a hedge while motoring from Milan to escape arrest last month.

Walter had passed false checks and got away with the missing treasure in large bank notes and other paper money.

Before the police arrested him he had doubled on his tracks, and returned to Milan under a false name. He had then no money in his possession; but the police at first hardly thought the booty had been rashly thrown over a hedge—they suspected it had been hidden away.

NO TRACE OF NOTES.

Numbers of many of the notes are known; and there is no trace of their having come back into circulation since Walter Murerati received them. Later the detectives, "from information received" began to think there was something in the hedge story—hence the hedge-to-hedge hunt. So far it has failed, though many Lombard peasants—having learned why their bridges are being so over-dug—have joined, enthusiastically in the great bank-note hunt, making a hopeful holiday of it. Now the police are digging on property near Musocco which belongs to the arrested man and his partner. Police dogs are "on the scent" with the diggers. Possibly, when Murerati threw out the package of many 1,000-lire bank notes, there was an accomplice hidden in the hedge to catch the money and hide it again.

Unrivalled with cold meat.

DEATHS NUMBER NINE

Nine deaths in Saint John were reported to the Board of Health for the week ending today, from the following causes: Old age, two; intestinal obstruction, two; birth injury, cardiac failure, cancer of colon, carcinoma of omentum, cerebral hemorrhage, one in each.

DR. CURREN TO QUIT POST ON SCHOOL BOARD

Will Resign as Chairman; Vocational Matters Before Officials

It was announced by Dr. L. M. Curren yesterday at a meeting of the vocational committee of the Board of School Trustees that he would resign from the office of chairman of the Board of Trustees and of the vocational committee, on account of pressure of other duties.

Dr. Curren took over the unexpired term of Hon. Mr. McKewen which terminates this year. During the two years in office the site of the Vocational School was finally decided upon and the entire work of construction, equipping, staffing and putting into operation of that school was carried out. During the same period the school finances have been subjected to much criticism by the City Council and Dr. Curren has aided greatly in smoothing away misunderstandings and bringing about more cordial relations between the two bodies. He has given of his time and efforts unflinchingly and had ably upheld the dignity of the office.

THE MEETING.
Dr. L. M. Curren, chairman, presided.

CURIOUS UNIT OF BRITISH NAVY

The naval aircraft carrier, "Hermes," now in Chinese waters, is a most peculiar looking craft, constructed as it is to allow clear deck space from which aeroplanes may take off and upon which they can land.

Others present at yesterday's meeting were Thomas Nagle, T. H. Carter, John MacKinnon, Alexander Wilson, Fletcher Peacock, director, A. Gordon Leavitt, secretary, and Dr. S. A. Worrell, superintendent of schools. It was reported by Mr. Carter for the housekeeping committee that William D. McClelland had been appointed as janitor with one woman helper, and John Cummings was now assisting the engineer and would do work on the grounds in the summer. The condition of the building had been very greatly improved since the additional help had been secured. Mr. McClelland's salary will be $1,200 and he will do interior renovations in summer. This action was approved. The woman will be paid $80 a month. For the committee on a range and refrigerators, Mr. Nagle reported it had purchased a Moffat range at $225 from the city hydro committee. This action was approved. It was stated by Mr. Peacock this range costs $400 at all price.

Mr. Leavitt said that the vocational school business had occupied about three-quarters of the school board sessions over a lengthy period and he thought it would simplify matters if all vocational education work was handled in connection with the school board, the committee being considered merely a committee of the board.

TEACHERS' COMMITTEE

In teachers' committee the meeting approved the action of the director in having Mrs. D. V. White as substitute teacher on eight days in October, authorized the appointment of Miss Elizabeth Elderkin as teacher of English, succeeding Miss McLean, the salary to be $100 a month; approved the appointment of Stewart MacFarlane as teacher of general education temporarily at a salary of $125 a month and agreed to having Miss R. Jack, appointed supervisor of evening classes two nights each week.

Night school teachers were appointed as follows: French, J. E. Polier, Miss Salome Townshend, Rev. F. J. LeMay, general education, E. J. Alexander, Rev. H. C. Ricker, bookkeeping, A. E. Rideout, shorthand, T. H. Kerr, millinery, Miss Greta Watson, dressmaking, Miss Mary Mullin and Mrs. B. S. Tippet.

Mr. Peacock was authorized to make additional staff appointments necessary.

Dropping of Suit In Hall Case Is Asked

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 5.—Discontinuance of a suit brought by Arthur S. Riehl, of Roselle Park, to annul his marriage to Miss Louise E. Geist, a former parlor maid, E. J. Alexander, general education, E. J. Alexander, Rev. H. C. Ricker, bookkeeping, A. E. Rideout, shorthand, T. H. Kerr, millinery, Miss Greta Watson, dressmaking, Miss Mary Mullin and Mrs. B. S. Tippet.

Allegations made by Riehl in his original petition filed early in July were responsible for the re-opening of the Hall-Mills murder mystery and the appointment by Governor Moore of Senator Alexander Simpson as special prosecutor. The wife of the Rector and two of her brothers are now on trial at Sonville under indictment charging them with the killing.

Maybe the girl who married the bootlegger's daughter thought she was Scotch.

The request of the Women's Canadian Club for the use of the Vocational School auditorium for an illustrated lecture on the "Ascent of Mount Everest," was discussed. It was felt a precedent would be created but in view of the educational nature of the subject and the community appeal of the Canadian Club work, it was decided to leave the matter in the hands of the chairman and director with power to act.

The entertaining of representative groups of citizens at the school was decided to be a good policy in stimulating public interest. The vocational committee was to be host on such occasions it was agreed.

It was suggested the City Council and the School Board should be among the first entertained. Authority was given for the executive of the Provincial Council of Women to be served at luncheon at the cafeteria and to meet in the school on Nov. 15. They will pay for their luncheon.

The request of the Trojan Rowers for the use of the gymnasium on two nights a week it was regretted could not be acceded to.

Dr. Curren said some question had been raised regarding the authority on

HOPE FOR 51 MEN IN PIT ABANDONED

Experts Report no Chance of Any Being Alive in Michigan Mine

Canadian Press Despatch.
LOHEMING, Mich., Nov. 5.—There is not the slightest possibility that any of the 51 men entrapped in the cave-in at the Barnes-Hecker iron mine here Wednesday are alive, according to a report issued here tonight by a group of 24 mining experts and engineers representing various state and safety organizations as well as the Cleveland Cliffs Company, owners of the mine.

The report was issued after a careful inspection of the mine, and was intended to spike recurrent rumors that there was a possibility that some of the men may be alive in air-pockets not penetrated by the flood.

The mine was thoroughly flooded and sealed at the top, there was no chance of any one surviving, the report declared.

WILDFOWL REMAIN LATE IN THIS AREA

SHEPARD, Nov. 4.—Although the weather continues mild in this section several flocks of wild geese have passed over in a southeasterly direction. Geese and ducks are reported on some of the rivers and lakes of the province, indicating that many wild fowl have not yet gone south for the winter.

Hon. Dr. E. A. Smith, of Shediac, Hon. Senator A. B. Cope, of Sackville, Bill C. Raworth, also of Sackville, and Lee Dickson left yesterday for the Grand Lake district in Queens county, on a duck shooting expedition.

MOTHERS PRAISE BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Mrs. L. M. Brown, Walton, N. S., says:—"I cannot recommend Baby's Own Tablets too highly. I have found them invaluable for the ailments of little ones." Mrs. Brown's testimony is the same as that of thousands of other mothers who have used the Tablets. To use them once is a sure guarantee that they will always be kept in the home as long as there are babies or young children to be cared for. The Tablets are a laxative-mild but thorough in action—which never fail to regulate the stomach and bowels; relieve constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and make the dreaded teething period easy. In fact you banish all the minor ills from which little ones suffer. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

4 BOSTON STUDENTS GUILTY IN RIOTING

Admit Wanton Destruction of $3,300 Property; Are Freed
on Bail

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—Investigations over the trail blazed by celebrating students of Massachusetts Institute of Technology last night in Cambridge and Boston disclosed today that the amount of property damage was less than first estimated.

One student, L. S. Thomson, of Ellsworth, Me., was still in a serious condition at a hospital with an injured spine and other hurts.

Four students pleaded not guilty today in Roxbury court to wanton destruction of property of the tent hall-room to the extent of $3,300 and to inciting riot. They were released in $500 bail each for a hearing on Nov. 19. Among them was Harold A. Smith, of Magog, Que.

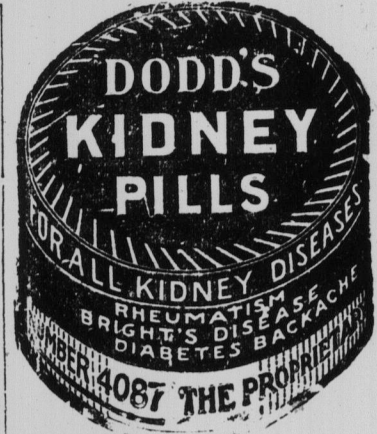

FRENCH DEBT PACT WITH U. S. IS LIKED

Termed More Favorable to the Country Than British Settlement

Canadian Press Despatch.
PARIS, Nov. 5.—France's debt settlement with the United States is declared to be more favorable to this country than the settlement with Great Britain, in the report of the sub-committee on debts of the Chamber of Deputies finance committee.

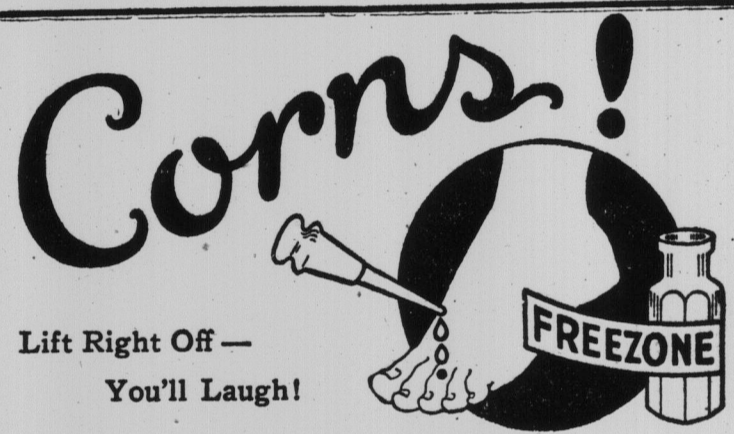

M. Diare in summing up today the documents submitted to the committee admitted that the receipt for France under the Dawes reparations plan, if they continue under the normal schedule, will care for the debt payments and leave a surplus of $100,000,000 for the year 1927, this surplus to be increased to $126,000,000 in 1928.

The sub-committee makes no recommendations merely passing the information it summarized on to the full finance committee.

Trust Increases Production Quota

BRUSSELS, Nov. 5.—The newly created continental steel trust today decided to increase its annual production quota from 29,000,000 to 31,000,000 tons as from Oct. 1. The Swiss Fidelity Society will control the quotas of the individual members of the combine.

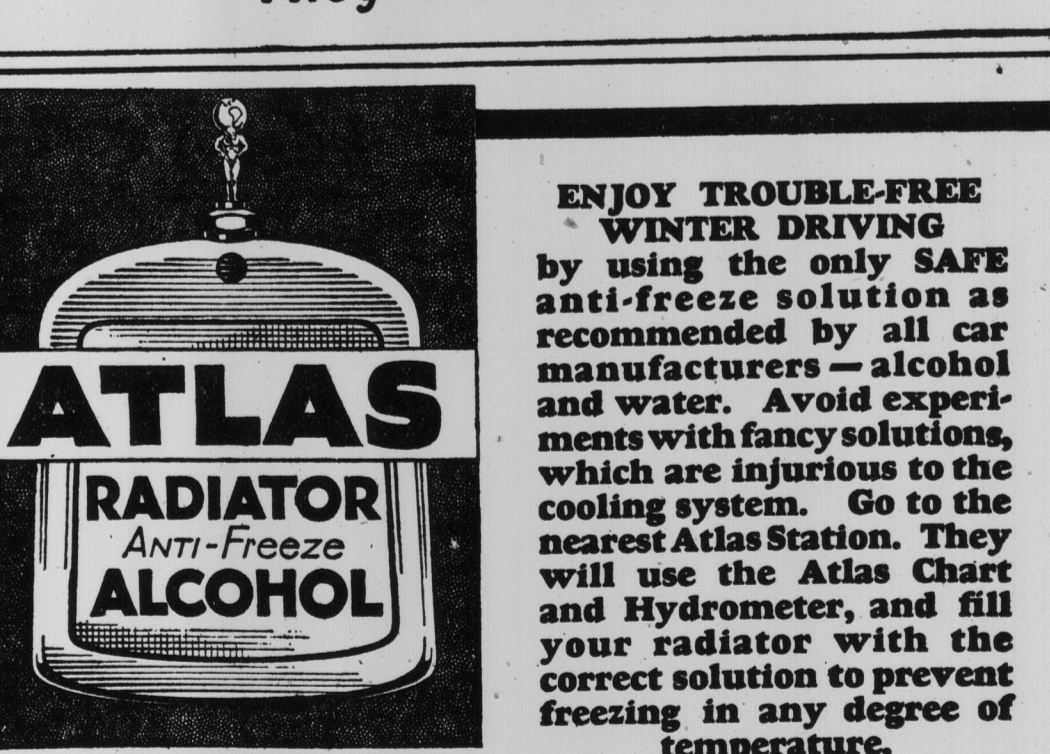

Stop cutting at that corn! Don't risk lockjaw! Drop "Freezone" on any corn or callus, then shortly lift that sore, touchy corn or callus right off. A few cents buys a bottle of any root and all, without pain or soreness, drug store.

DULL TRADING AT MONTREAL OPENING; PRICES REVEAL FIRM TONE

WINNIPEG RAILS ACTIVE LEADER THIS MORNING

Lackawanna and Allied Chemical Gain on Wall Street

MONTREAL, Nov. 6.—Trading on the local stock exchange during the first half hour this morning was a dull affair, with prices revealing a firm tone. Winnipeg Rails was the active leader, and sold unchanged at 59 1/2, this being the only issue with a turnover of more than 200 shares. Brazilian lost a quarter at 108 1/2; Quebec Power opened unchanged at 172, and Wapagumack gained a quarter at 109 1/2.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Stock prices displayed a firm undertone at the opening of today despite the surprise occasioned by the relatively small reduction in brokers' loans reported by members of the New York Stock Exchange for October, compared with the Federal Reserve totals during the same period. Lackawanna and Allied Chemical, each showed increased gains of about 1 1/2 points and United States Steel Common, May Department Stores and Matheson Alkali showed substantial fractional advances.

MILLS TESTIFIES IN HALL MURDER TRIAL

Widow of Slain Rector Only Once Appears on Verge of Tears

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Nov. 5.—James Mills, made a widow when his wife, Eleanor R. Mills, was slain with the Rev. Edward W. Hall, in what is now the Hall-Mills case, testified for three hours today, contributing no information as to the double killing and but vague testimony as to events preceding the tragedy.

Only once during Mills' testimony did Mrs. Hall's lips seem to quiver and her eyes appear to be on the verge of tears. This was when the former section of the slain minister, and her brother, William and Henry Stevens, all charged with the murder of Mrs. Mills, sat throughout the trying court day without losing their composure.

LAMB SAYS BASKETBALL BODIES SHOULD JOIN CANADA UNION

ALSO FAVORS HARMONY WITH A. A. U. BRANCH

Meeting Date of Proposed N. B. A. A. Nov. 20—Reasons for Formation

IN REGARD to the basketball Association in New Brunswick and the proposal to form a body here to govern this sport, Dr. A. S. Lamb, secretary of the A. A. U. of C., has sent the following telegram in answer to a query from this office:

"Eastern Canada Basketball Association is not directly affiliated with A. A. U. of C. Eastern Canadian Association is part of the Canadian Basketball Association, which is affiliated with this union. Consider it advisable for all basketball associations to be affiliated with Canadian Basketball Association. George Macdonald, 200 Pied Street, Montreal, chairman Eastern Association, can give you further information. Consider it advisable for basketball interests in the Maritimes to work in close co-operation with Amateur Athletic Union of Canada."

"A. S. LAMB." It was said by one familiar with the situation that without the formation of an association here the Trojans would be the only team that could compete for honors in the Eastern Canada circuit, as it was the only one down this way recognized by that association. The idea of forming an association was to give other teams a chance by the process of elimination, and if the Trojans wished to represent this province this season, that team would have to win over the others that played under the jurisdiction of the proposed association.

NEW DATE NAMED.

The meeting which had been called for the formation of the N. B. Basketball Association on November 18 has been postponed until November 20, owing to the fact that the two colleges interested, U. N. B. and Mount A., wish to dispose of the football season before taking up the question of basketball. It was said that several of the prominent basketball clubs in the province were in favor of the formation of the proposed association.

Big Football Battles On In East and West of U.S. Today

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Football heroes of Harvard and Princeton were cast in the role of minute men today as more than 50,000 gathered to see the rivals of more than 50 years standing grapple in the first conflict of the big three series at Cambridge.

Of all the previous 26 battles between the rivals, no struggle appeared more in doubt than that of today. Although Harvard has been a slight favorite, inspired Princeton team have soared to so many magnificent victories on apparently hopeless back-grounds, that Harvard supporters would give no better than even money in the wagering.

Princeton, on regaining their winning stride before next week's Princeton grapple, Yale warriors were ready to take the field at almost full strength against Maryland at New Haven. New York University aiming for its seventh straight victory, was slated for a hard battle against Carnegie Tech. Sharing the spotlight with these games

N. B. S. A. Will Arouse More Interest In Sport In Province

THE annual meeting of the New Brunswick Skating Association, held yesterday afternoon at the office of the secretary, Frank White, in the city of Saint John, was a success in every way.

Members of the N. B. Association in their remarks showed that they were not in favor of any one club being given control of all skating in its city, but favored the idea that a provincial association have such control. Among the members present at yesterday's meeting was F. W. Cole, representing the club at Sackville, which being called on stated that the Sackville Club had about 800 members and was doing its best to promote skating and was meeting with success. Sackville at the present time has a closed rink of 16 laps to the mile and accommodation for about 1,000 spectators, and it was expected within the next two years Sackville would have an open rink.

SOME DISCUSSION There was considerable discussion regarding an article which appeared in a Montreal paper last April in which it was alleged that a prominent official of the Amateur Skating Association of Canada claimed that the winners of the World Championships meet held here last winter were not World Champions as the sanction for holding the meet was received from the International Association of America and that the Canadian body had not been notified regarding such sanction, and further the International Skating Association of America were not affiliated with the European while the Canadian body was.

It was pointed out by a few members that sanction of the American Association was not necessary for the Canadian body to continue its affiliation with both the Canadian Association and the International Association of America and the secretary was instructed to immediately send to these bodies the annual amount of money necessary to keep the N. B. Association in good standing.

A communication was read from the Canadian Association regarding the application of the Frontenac Winter Sports Club to the International Association of America for affiliation with that body, and asking power to control skating in the city of Quebec. This was objected to by the Canadian Association who thought that no single club should have sole control of skating in their city but that the Canadian Association should control all skating in Canada.

It was decided that the N. B. Association would continue its affiliation with both the Canadian Association and the International Association of America and the secretary was instructed to immediately send to these bodies the annual amount of money necessary to keep the N. B. Association in good standing.

APPLY FOR BOUT NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Application for a match between Fidel La Barba and Elky Clark European champion, was presented today to the New York State Boxing Commission. Decision was withheld.

PETIPAS MAKES REPLY TO M. P. D.

Says Secretary Is Trying to Becloud Issue—Did Not Seek Office

A reply has been made by A. C. Petipas, of Halifax, provisional president of the N. S. Amateur Athletic Union, to a circular issued by L. B. Macmillan, secretary of the M. P. B., in which the latter asked the clubs forming the formation of separate unions for New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

Mr. Petipas denied that the N. S. branch was formed through jealousy and that he had wished to seek office in the M. P. B. He also declared that the formation of new branches would not prevent the declaration of Maritime titles and that the Nova Scotia clubs should not be misled in this matter.

Continuing, Mr. Petipas attributes to Mr. Macmillan a bold attempt to misrepresent the situation and says that asking for a vote regarding secession looked like simply trying to becloud the real issues and bring to discredit an honest attempt to bring peace and harmony out of chaos in the sporting life of Nova Scotia. The proposed N. S. branch, if recognized, would be as much a part of the A. A. U. of C. as the M. P. B., says Mr. Petipas, who ends his reply with the slogan, "Nova Scotia for Nova Scotia Athletes."

Mr. Petipas also stated that the N. S. branch was formed through jealousy and that he had wished to seek office in the M. P. B. He also declared that the formation of new branches would not prevent the declaration of Maritime titles and that the Nova Scotia clubs should not be misled in this matter.

Some High Speed Action

Anybody's Ball—A rare shot of a tense moment during the Army-Yale engagement at New Haven when the rapid-fire backfield of the West Pointers riddled the Yale goal 23-0. Here we have a Yale player fruitlessly striving to block three Army men from a fumbled ball (arrow) which was recovered by Born, of the cadets, and a short time later carried over for a touchdown.

ATE 218 OYSTERS AT ONE SITTING

Shelfish Supremacy Again Interests London—Challenge is Issued

LONDON, Nov. 1.—London has boasted of some hefty oyster eaters in time gone by, and now that the season is in full swing the question of oyster eating supremacy is again to the fore. Only the other day Lord Peel, first commissioner of works, challenged Sir Arthur Pinero, dramatist, to a contest because of Sir Arthur's boasts of his oyster-eating ability. It is on record that one young man goes to a well known place in Regent street several times a week and consumes one hundred oysters at a sitting. The owner of the restaurant declares one of his customers regularly consumed 218 at a sitting, but explains that was in the days "when they were smaller and cheaper."

A well known stock broker in the city has four dozen plain and four dozen grilled oysters waiting for him every morning.

Bill Tilden May Turn Professional Next Year

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Had he not been tumbled from his throne as amateur tennis champion, Bill Tilden might have turned professional this year, he says. "But, as an ex-champion, I would have felt I quit under fire," he explains. "I told C. C. Pyle I would gladly listen to another proposition next season," he is quoted as admitting.

W. H. HARRISON URGES SURVEY OF LOCAL PORT

Speaks of Nationalization of Harbor Before Y's Men's Club

DEFEAT OF BILL IN 1921 IS REFERRED TO

Says Policy Should be Adopted Relative to Future Development

Harbor nationalization was the subject of an interesting address given yesterday by W. H. Harrison, K. C., M. L. A., before the Y's Men's Club at their weekly luncheon yesterday afternoon. He dealt with the last plebiscite on harbor commission and the success of Montreal with harbor commission. Fred Myles was in the chair and there was a good attendance.

Mr. Harrison first referred to the announcement made by Sir Henry Thornton while here a short time ago to the effect that the time had come when the government should take over Saint John harbor. He also recalled the statement of E. W. Beatty, president of the C. P. R., that he was in favor of harbor commission.

In view of the situation in Saint John, Mr. Harrison said, with the C. N. R. located on the eastern side and the C. P. R. on the west-side of the harbor, there was a lack of co-ordination between the two, and that was one of the reasons why something like harbor nationalization should be put into effect.

HARBOR REVENUE

The city should not be called on to make further expenditures, the speaker declared. He pointed out that last year the harbor revenue netted about $6,000 and that only $400,000 insurance was carried on property which was valued at $2,000,000. No provision had been made for depreciation or renewals, and if more money was required it must be secured from either increased charges or higher taxes.

He referred to the success of the Montreal harbor commission, which owned all the terminals at that port, including the rail leading to the docks, and controlled the elevators and sold storage plant, retained engineers to give advice as to prepare and carry out plans for further development. In this connection he pointed out that such plan had never been prepared for Saint John, as there was not sufficient money to engage engineers to look after them.

"The time has now come," the speaker declared, "when a comprehensive survey of Saint John harbor should be made and a policy for future development defined. We are the only people who have spent money on port development, and we should be compensated for what is now admitted to be a national undertaking."

After nationalization, he continued, it would likely be put under the direction of a commission or trustees for the government.

REVIEWS HISTORY

Mr. Harrison referred to the history of harbor commission and the election here in August, 1921, when out of a list of 18,000 qualified voters, only about 3,500 voted and defeated the measure nearly 2 to 1.

With the proposed bill at that time was that it burdened the commission with interest on the cost of development of government wharves and elevator work which had always been unproductive. The bill, he declared, provided no guarantee by the government of bonds to the sum of $1,300,000 issued by the city for port development. Apparently if the harbor revenues did not meet the operating expenses and interest charges, the bonds would be left for the citizens to take care of—this, in itself, he thought, was enough to condemn the measure.

CHARGES HIGHER

He said that there was no doubt that the charges here were higher than at Halifax and Portland. Halifax he called a real case of terminalization as the money for the terminals was expended without calling on the harbor to recoup them by interest or sinking fund. He figured that, if the proposed bill had been put in force here the annual deficit would have amounted to something like $80,000.

Calling attention to the recent advance in the trade of the Dominion, the increase in railway earnings and immigration, he declared that it was Saint John's right to share in the general prosperity which was now on the way.

Cadets To Attend Memorial Service

St. Andrew's Cadet Corps and Band will parade to St. Andrew's church tomorrow for the annual memorial service to be held in the morning. The members of the G. W. V. A. will also attend, but will not parade.

In the morning a special sermon will be preached by Rev. J. S. Bonnell on "Memories of the Trenches." In the evening the sermon will be "Mars or Christ."

At the evening service a number of the St. Andrew's Cadets will be present in the uniform of the Black Watch. Killies and will take part in the memorial service by laying a wreath on the memorial tablet erected in the church to the memory of those of the congregation who were killed overseas. Sergeant Burton, in charge of the Cadets will sound the "Last Post."

At the evening service Miss Blenda Thompson will sing a special solo, "A Song of the Trenches," composed by Sergeant Somers. The pastor, Rev. J. S. Bonnell, was formerly a sergeant in the Fifth Siege Battery of Charlotte town, P. E. I.

Boys of Y. M. C. A. Shown Interesting Films

Through the courtesy of L. C. Lynda, local ticket agent of the C. N. R., the boys of the Y. M. C. A. were privileged to see some remarkably fine motion pictures of Maritime Province and Alaskan scenes. The films were shown on Thursday night at the association building for the employed boys and the Boys' Club and last night they were shown for the school boys. In all about 125 boys saw the pictures, which were a real education in a form that the boys greatly enjoyed. There were pictures of Saint John and the reversing falls, Moncton and by total bore. Point Du Chene was also shown, many places in Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia, as well as some scenes in Alaska. Harold Williams, boys' work secretary, was in charge of the showing of the films.

WORKERS ARE BUSY

Cathedral High Tea Event For Next Week

The committee which has in hand the arrangements for the annual Cathedral High Tea, which opens on Monday evening in the Y. M. C. A., are putting the finishing touches on the preparations for the big event and a large party was busy today decorating the building. The high tea will be served each evening from 5.30 to 8 o'clock. The City Cornet Band will be in attendance and a new feature this year will be the presence of an orchestra which will play in the dining room during the meal hour. Among the door prizes which will be given each evening, will be a ton of coal, chairs, folding table, blankets, fancy work and an Imperial season pass.

Farewell Gift Presented To Miss Pearl Wayne

Mrs. F. Kenney Parks entertained on Thursday evening in honor of Miss Pearl Wayne, who is to leave the city in the near future to make her home in North Vancouver, B. C. During the evening a large number of guests were present and a large number of beautiful and useful gifts, for which the guest of honor expressed her appreciation and thanks in a pleasing manner.

Miss Wayne has many friends here and will be greatly missed from their circle.

As Hiram Sees It

"What about that there Hiram d'Amours—brother of Louis an' Mathieu?" says I to the town feller, as we watched the patch of moonlight on Long Beach.

"Rene," says he, "he had a big grant o' land on the Saint John home Fred'line. His home was a few miles above Port Nashwaak. He was there in 1696. He had a big trade with the Injuns. John Gyles tells about him sellin' liquor to the Injuns at their town o' Meluclic. Him an' other feller had charge o' the Injuns that helped Villebon save Port Nashwaak from Hawthorne an' Church. He never done much farmin'—an' didn't do the Injuns no good—nuther. He was around their town a lot—traded rum an' tinkets fer furs. He took part in raids against the New Englanders. While he had a grant of about a million acres of his own he lived on part of his brother Louis's land—fer Louis had a lot around Nashwaak. He was at Jima's on that land—accordin' to a census in 1695—he was some corn, peas an' beans—an' had twelve hogs an' six cows. He had that year two men an' one woman servant, three guns an' a sword. He didn't live there long after that—an' I guess he went back to Quebec. They wasn't none o' the d'Amours brothers or their families left on the Saint John river a year or two after Villebon died—but three of 'em cut quite a figure fer fifteen year or so—an' we've seen their ghosts in the moonlight on the river."

CO-OPERATION NEEDS RADIO CLEARING WORK

Official Here From Ottawa Speaks of Operations

INTERFERENCE IS FROM MANY SOURCES

G. J. Gomm Brings Equipment Auto Here for Task

The main thing in clearing up interference to radio reception was co-operation of all those concerned, it was said by G. J. Gomm, electrical engineer and inspector for the Radio branch of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, who has arrived here in charge of the automobile specially equipped for the locating of interference. Mr. Gomm, who has been doing this sort of work for the department ever since its inception, about two years ago, arrived in New Brunswick with the car on Oct. 21 and commenced at Edmundston, working down towards the southern part of the province. He was accompanied by H. Bransme, radio inspector for New Brunswick, with headquarters at Saint John, who met him at Edmundston.

While Mr. Gomm has been doing good work in the elimination of interference, he was averse to publicity, as he said, better results could be obtained by working quietly. He will be in Saint John about two weeks, and will endeavor to improve conditions here. The work depended much on the weather, it was said. While he did not wish to go into specific details in regard to the work, he said, much depended on the experience of the inspector. He likened it somewhat to that of a doctor who, by listening to a patient's chest with a stethoscope, could tell, by the sounds within, the patient's condition and be able to differentiate between the harmless ones and those that were causing trouble.

MANY SOURCES

In locating radio interference there were such a multitude of sources from which interference would come that the operator who had sufficient experience could tell, by the various noises and the different shadings, the probable cause while listening in on his receiver. Too much, however, should not be expected by the arrival of the car, it was said, after interference was located it might take considerable time and money to eliminate it.

AUTO EQUIPMENT

The special automobile consists of a light truck chassis with a special body, and the equipment includes a seven-tube superheterodyne set with loop complete within the car; also a spare superheterodyne set and a specially built three-tube set which can be carried by hand and used where it is not feasible to drive the car. There also are special dry batteries and other equipment.

E. J. Nolan, who will have permanent charge of the car for the Maritime Provinces, will join Mr. Gomm here immediately, and work will be started in this territory the first of the week. Mr. Gomm will remain in Saint John for about two weeks and then return to Ottawa.

After arriving at Edmundston, Mr. Gomm and Mr. Bransme, who will be in charge of the car for the Maritime Provinces, will join Mr. Gomm here immediately, and work will be started in this territory the first of the week. Mr. Gomm will remain in Saint John for about two weeks and then return to Ottawa.

MAY ASK CONGRESS TO MEET IN CITY

Trades and Labor Council Considers Matter Interested in Civic Survey

The advisability of extending an invitation to the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress to hold its 1928 meeting in Saint John, was discussed by the Saint John Trades and Labor Council at its meeting last night, when there was a large attendance of members and the president, Charles H. Stevens, was in the chair.

A committee was appointed to look into the matter and to report back. It was felt that could the Dominion meeting of the T. & L. Council be brought to Saint John it would be to the benefit of the Maritime Provinces and there was no right to be every possibility that the invitation would be accepted if it were extended. The last time the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress met in Saint John was in 1914 and the gathering then was of considerable importance. In 1927 the Congress meets in Edmonton.

WANT NIGHT SESSIONS.

The Trades and Labor Council last night passed a resolution requesting the Common Council to hold night sessions for the hearing of the report of the civic survey in order that some of the labor representatives may have an opportunity of attending. The secretary was asked to forward the resolution to the Common Council and also to make the request that the Trades and Labor Council be furnished with a copy of the report of the survey.
