TWO GERMAN CRUISERS CAPTURED AND ONE SUNK IN THE MEDITERRANEAN

Flee After Bombarding Algerian Towns, and Are Trapped Between British and French Squadrons

London, Aug. 5.—An official report from Paris this morning says that the German cruisers Goeben, Breslau and Panther, after bombarding Bona, were captured by the French fleet which captured the Goeben and Breslau and sank the Panther.

London, Aug. 5.—A despatch to the "Chronicle" from Paris says that after bombarding the Algerian town of Bona, the German cruisers Goeben, Breslau and Panther were caught by British and French squadrons which had been awaiting them. The French warships captured the Goeben and Breslau and sank the Panther.

The French vessels hurried over from Toulon in time to intercept the German warships as they fled eastward following the bombardment of Phillipville and Bona. British warships standing eastward from Gibraltar forced the German vessels to choose an effort to escape eastward and they were entrapped by the French.

It is reported from Calais that French torpedo boat destroyers captured two large German sailing ships.

GERMANS LOSE ANOTHER

Copenhagen, Aug. 5.—A German torpedo boat destroyer, was sunk today near Gedser lightship, off South Gedser, by the explosion of one of her boilers. Thirty men were drowned. A few of the crew were saved and taken on board the lightship.

Brussels, Aug. 5.—A German aviation has been received here of the reported capture or destruction of German warships by the French fleet off the Algerian coast.

Algiers via London, Aug. 5.—Authentic confirmation of the report of the destruction of the German cruiser Panther, and of the capture of the German cruisers Goeben and Breslau reached here today.

In The North Sea

London, Aug. 5.—A naval battle between German and British warships is reported in the North Sea, off Hull. It is believed that the battle is between coast ships as the main column of the German fleet is still reported as being close to the mouth of the Elbe.

London, Aug. 5.—A naval battle in the North Sea about thirty miles east of Hull is reported to have occurred last night. A despatch from Grimsby says that the firing of heavy guns could be heard and the flash of searchlights were seen trailing along the bay.

Newcastle reports that the officials there and at South Shields have been instructed to prepare for the reception of wounded men. Emergency hospitals are being fitted up in public halls at both places.

Aberdeen, Scotland, Aug. 5.—A despatch from Cromarty says that a fleet tender with wounded from yesterday's battle between German scout ships and a British mine layer and accompanying escort of destroyers have reached there. The mine layer vessel was sunk. The naval authorities have established a strict censorship and details are refused. It is understood that the main German fleet has position close to the German coast and that the British fleet has engaged only German scouts to date.

London, Aug. 5.—The mayor of Margate has reported to the authorities here that tremendous firing can be heard there from the direction of the North Sea. It is believed that German and British warships are engaged.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 5.—A German fleet of nineteen vessels was signalled yesterday in the Baltic sailing from Memel in the direction of Libau.

London, Aug. 5.—A message here says one German cruiser was sunk and two captured in the North Sea. A fourth escaped.

STIRRING TONE OF LONDON PRESS ON WAR IS BEGUN

London, Aug. 5.—These brief extracts from editorials in the morning papers, now the undaunted spirit whereby Britain prepared to face Armageddon. The Times says: "Now let everything go on" must be our motto as it was the motto of our kinsmen across the Atlantic when all they held worth in life was at stake. We must suffer much, but we shall suffer more willingly for the great name of England for all her high ideals as our fathers before us.

GERMAN TROOPS IN SWITZERLAND

Paris, Aug. 5.—The foreign office today confirmed the invasion of Switzerland by German troops. This is a violation of Swiss neutrality.

THE ERIN IS NEW BRITISH FIGHTER

London, Aug. 5.—The British government will pay in the neighborhood of $20,000,000 for the two Turkish battleships being constructed in English yards and which it has taken over. The one which has been renamed Agincourt is completed. The other, Osman I, and which will be known in the British navy as the Erin, is nearly completed. They are first-class battleships.

ENGLAND GETS TREASURE SHIP

Newport, England, Aug. 5.—A treasure ship carrying gold from Mexico to Germany fell into the hands of England today when the Hamburg-American liner Belgica was forced to put in here on account of lack of coal.

In Buenos Aires

Buenos Aires, Argentina, Aug. 5.—The news of the declaration of war between

British Troops May Oppose Germans in Belgium

London, Aug. 5.—British troops will probably be sent to the assistance of Belgium; it is understood that the war office believes this is the way to use the army. The Belgians are holding the Germans in check but are likely to be overwhelmed by the enormous German army.

All Canadian Bank Notes Now Legal Tender

Ottawa, Aug. 5.—The minister of finance announced, on behalf of the dominion government, that it has authorized the use of all Canadian bank notes as legal tender. This will relieve any anxiety which holders of Canadian bank bills may have on account of the war, as in addition to their former security the notes of all Canadian banks are now guaranteed by the dominion government.

CANNONADING OFF THE MAINE COAST?

Portland, Me., Aug. 5.—Firing was heard here by many citizens. Wireless stations here say that the German protected cruiser Kadet and the cruiser Dresden were both in touch with this port last night.

The French cruisers Conde and Descaux have been reported as steaming northward and it is believed that if a fight took place some of these craft were engaged.

Portland, Maine, Aug. 5.—The firing of heavy guns off the Maine coast was heard early today. Eight or ten shots within two minutes were heard a little before seven o'clock, by the keeper of Portland Observatory. The sound seemed to come from twenty-five or thirty miles south-southwest of Portland, and probably in the vicinity of Seguin Island.

The shots which were heard at the harbor forts, and at points between here and Bath, were quite distinct at Bath. Seguin is a small island off the mouth of the Kennebec River, a few miles below Bath.

The reported firing was not heard by the life savers at either Cape Elizabeth or Popham Beach stations. At Popham Beach, which is near Seguin Island, the life savers were certain they would have heard the guns if there had been a naval engagement off Seguin.

No information was available at Bath or Boothbay Harbor, but in this city the reports continued to come in from all sources that there had been heavy firing.

Blowing for a state highway at Falmouth, three miles to eastward, was suggested as an explanation, but it was not generally accepted.

New York, Aug. 5.—Eight cruisers—three German, three British and two French—are hovering somewhere off this coast. For days incoming steamships have reported news of fragmentary wireless indicating that these vessels were in American waters, but no shipper was able to fix their position.

New York, Aug. 5.—The firing heard off the coast of Maine today, may have marked the first engagement between either the German and British, or the German and French ships.

The British cruisers known to be in those waters are the Berwick, Essex and Lancaster. The German cruisers are the Dresden, Strassburg, and Karlsruhe. The French cruisers are the Conde and Descaux. These vessels have been primarily concerned in attempts to intercept merchant vessels of the enemy, and several big liners, notably the Kron Princess Cecile, which put into Bar Harbor, Maine, yesterday after abandoning her trip to Europe, have had narrow escapes. Captain Folger believes that one time she was in imminent danger of being captured by one of the French vessels.

GERMANY IS CUT OFF FROM WORLD BY CUTTING OF CABLES; NOTHING NOW BUT WIRELESS

New York, Aug. 5.—Direct cable communication with Germany was stopped today. The German Atlantic cable line from New York to Emden, via the Azores, was cut about 130 a. m. at some point east of the Azores, possibly by British warships. The Commercial Cable Company, which operates the American end of this line, made the announcement of the cutting today, and refused to accept messages for Germany. It was decided that the lines had been cut by British warships on this side of the Atlantic.

The cable was working, according to announcement, as far as the Azores. Charles P. Adams, second vice-president of the Commercial Cable Company, said there was no trouble with the regular Commercial Cable Company's lines which run from New York to Nova Scotia and thence to points on the English coast. Communication with England over these lines was still being maintained. No hope was held out, however, for any immediate restoration of communication with Germany over the direct lines. The cutting of the German cable between Emden and the Azores virtually completes the isolation of Germany from communication with the outside world, except in so far as messages may be exchanged by wireless.

PRESIDENT WILSON OFFERS TO ACT AS MEDIATOR

Washington, Aug. 5.—President Wilson today offered his good offices to mediate in the European war situation. He sent the following message to the Emperor of Germany, the Emperor of Russia, the Emperor of Austria-Hungary, the president of France and the King of England:—"As official head of one of the powers signatory to the Hague Convention, I feel it to be my privilege and duty to

FRANCE HURLS MILLION MEN AGAINST ENEMY

Germans Fail to Capture Liege--Heavy Losses in Fighting on Belgian Soil--The Land Operations

Paris, Aug. 5.—Assured of England's support and protection of the French coast from German attack, France today hurled more than 1,000,000 men toward the frontiers of Germany and Belgium. Those advancing on Germany will not stop at the border, but those advancing on Belgium will be held there unless King Albert appeals for help.

General Joffre, the commander-in-chief, took control of the troops on the German border in person today, superseding General Lumier, who will command the northern division.

BOMBARDING OF TWO BELGIAN TOWNS OF NAMUR AND LIEGE BY THE GERMANS

Brussels, Aug. 5.—The German artillery is bombarding the Belgian towns of Namur and Liege. Heavy field guns were placed in position today and when the surrender of the cities was refused the shelling was immediately begun.

The Belgian troops successfully resisted the first attack upon Liege, turning back the right wing of a force of 80,000 Germans invading the little kingdom. Heavy losses were sustained by the German infantry. The attack was renewed today with the support of the artillery.

Brussels, Aug. 5.—It was officially announced today that the Belgian forces have effectively checked the German advance. The attacking forces have suffered heavy loss, while the Belgian casualties were trifling.

The country is aflame with the war spirit and even the women are demanding that they be enrolled in defence of the nation.

ARMY SHOT TO PIECES

Brussels, Aug. 5.—A German aviator flew across the Belgian defenses outside of Liege today. He was greeted with a storm of bullets from the forts and literally shot to pieces falling to the ground in the middle of the Belgian lines. A result of the other German aviators who had been seen in the distance flew back to the German lines.

GERMANY AGAIN BREAKS FAITH

Paris, Aug. 5.—It is reported from Montbelliard in the department of Doubs, that the Germans have violated the neutrality of Switzerland.

GERMAN FLEET IN BALTIC

St. Petersburg, Aug. 5.—A German fleet of nineteen ships was sighted yesterday near the east coast of the Baltic Sea, between Memel and Libau. Russian warships in the Black Sea, have captured many merchantmen.

RUSSIANS DROVE GERMANS BACK

St. Petersburg, Aug. 5.—Russians today have established contact with the enemy along the greater part of the Russo-German frontier, in Northeastern Prussia.

SET FIRE TO BELGIAN TOWN

Brussels, Aug. 5.—Defeated by Belgium in their attempt further to proceed toward the French frontier, the right wing of a German invading force early today fell back on Vise, occupied the city and then fired it.

BEEFSTEAK FORT-TWO CENTS POUND IN LONDON

London, Aug. 5.—A British government scheme to control the food supplies of the British Isles is probably to be issued in the immediate future, as the retail stores already are experiencing a shortage. In several districts of London the stores opened for only a few hours this morning. The price of beefsteak which yesterday was 22 cents a pound, today rose to 24 cents. On Mark Lane the price of wheat advanced today from 81 to 81.25 a quarter while maize rose from 82 to 82.25 a quarter.

KING'S WORDS OF CONFIDENCE TO NAVY

London, Aug. 5.—King George today sent the following message to Vice Admiral Sir John Jellicoe, who has been made commander of the British fleet:—"At this grave moment in our national history, I send you and through you to the officers and men of the fleets of which you have assumed command, assurance of my confidence that, under your direction, they will re-visit and renew the old glories of the royal navy, and prove once again the sure shield of Britain and her empire in the hour of trial. Admiral Jellicoe replies as follows to the king's message:—"In behalf of the officers and men of the home fleet, I beg to tender dutiful thanks to Your Majesty for the gracious message which will inspire all with determination to uphold the glorious traditions of the past."

TODAY'S SUMMARY OF THE WAR NEWS

The combined British and French fleet inflicted a crushing defeat on the German fleet in the Mediterranean, sinking the cruiser Panther which figured in the Agadir incident and capturing the cruisers Breslau and Goeben. Heavy firing has been heard off Margate at the mouth of the Thames and off Hull on the Yorkshire coast. It is believed that this signifies shots exchanged between scouting cruisers of British and German fleets.

Heavy firing has been heard off the Maine coast at Portland, and is believed to have come from German and British ships engaged.

The Russian Black Sea fleet is bottled up in the Black Sea, Turkey having issued a proclamation closing the Bosphorus.

The German forces in Belgium are bombarding Liege. The Belgian government claims to have defeated them.

German forces are bombarding Namur. They have already burned Vise and Argenteau in their retreat from their first attack upon Liege.

German and Russian soldiers are fighting all along the border. The Germans have already invaded and decimated many Russian villages.

The Germans have again advanced upon Petit Croix, on the French border, and have again been repulsed by the French.

Germany has invaded Holland at Eysden. The Dutch are offering a desperate resistance to the invaders.

Germany has invaded Switzerland and the Swiss army has been mobilized.

Belgium has appealed for aid from French and British troops. France has rushed an army corps to the border, and England will send troops across the North Sea to Belgium's assistance.

Germany has demanded that Italy live up to her treaty obligations under the triple alliance agreement, and join the fray, now that Great Britain has declared war against Germany. The Italian force is now in session, considering this request.

President Wilson has now offered to mediate between the powers now at war.

TURKEY CLOSING THE BOSPHORUS

Constantinople, Aug. 5.—The Russian Black Sea fleet is bottled up and will be unable to participate in the war. The Turkish government issued an official declaration today announcing that the Bosphorus has been closed to warships of all nations and that any attempt to force a passage will be repulsed.

MARTIAL LAW IN ANTWERP; GERMANS ARE EXPULSED

Antwerp, Aug. 5.—Serious anti-German rioting occurred here today. An angry mob sacked the German cafes and restaurants and tore the cutchcoats from the door of the German consulate. The police being unable to check the disorders, the Belgian military government placed the city under martial law and ordered the expulsion of all German residents.

REFUSE TO ISSUE A $20,000 MONEY ORDER

Business in Boston as Affected by The War Situation

(Boston Globe, Tuesday)

An application for an international money order for $20,000 was refused at the Boston Postoffice this morning and the applicant was unable to get the amount requested.

Such power is vested with the postal authorities when they believe any circumstance is giving rise to abuses of the postal system.

The treaties entered into by the United States and those nations with which Uncle Sam has money order regulations, provide that each postal administration may suspend temporarily the exchange of these orders "in case of the course of exchange or any other circumstance gives rise to abuses or causes a detriment to postal revenue."

The effect of the closing of the foreign exchanges because of war operations in European countries, is directly noticeable in the international money order business of the United States government.

In Boston alone the business in international money orders has greatly increased since the war started. Varying from $1,000 to $2,000 the first three days of last week, it rose to $4,512 Thursday, $16,490 on Friday and on Saturday went to $20,987.

Supr. F. S. Child of the money order division, in discussing the sudden increase of business, said this morning: "A small part of the business is due to efforts of friends here to assist Americans abroad, but the greater volume of the business is due to the efforts of merchants to meet their foreign obligations since the closing of the exchanges."

The international money orders are about the only substitute the government has for a bill of exchange. The orders are honored abroad at the prevailing rates of exchange in the country where they are payable.

The local postal authorities have been instructed by the department at Washington to send their two-cent mail to Germany to New York, and thence via the Lusitania, through England to its destination. This mail was held up

BIG CRACKS ON HAND AND FINGERS

Eczema for Three Years. Broke Out on Head in Scales, Itched and Burned Badly. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

Lyons Brook, N. S.—"I suffered with eczema for three years. It started on my hands first in sores between my fingers and all over the palms of my hands. My hands and fingers were big cracks. Then it broke out on my head in scales. It itched and burned so badly I could not sleep. It was so itching and burning that I scratched and made sores and my hair came out awfully bad. I did not know what it was.

"I was treated for a long time and it did me no good. I gave up my work for a month but as soon as I started doing my house-work again my hands got just as bad as ever. I used two bottles of—and it did not do any good. One day I read about Cuticura Soap and Ointment and decided to try them. I sent for a sample and I used them till I saw it stopped the itching and burning, so I got three cakes of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment and that cured me." (Signed) Mrs. P. J. McKeown, May 27, 1913.

Not only are Cuticura Soap and Ointment most valuable in the treatment of eczema and other distressing eruptions of skin and scalp, but no other medicine does so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough skin, itching, scaly scalp, dandruff, dry, thin and falling hair, chapped hands and chapped nails, nor do it so economically. Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. Free liberal free sample of each, with 25c. book, send post-card to Boston Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. D, Boston, U. S. A.

The Assassination of Jean Jaures in Paris—The History of Gaby Deslys

(Copyright, 1914, by the Brentwood Company.)

The murder of Jean Jaures on last Friday morning was a very remarkable figure from French public life, and incidentally serves as a striking lesson to those who make it a practice to persistently assail and abuse the rulers of their native land.

We saw a striking evidence of this last week in the British parliament, when, in response to the stirring appeal of Premier Asquith, the bitter contest concerning Ulster and Home Rule was by common consent postponed indefinitely, so as to admit of the empire showing a united front in face of the greatest foreign war which England has ever been called upon to face.

It is the same in France, and the people now, in view of war with Germany, are full of bitterness against those who for the sake of mere party considerations, or still more selfish personal interests, have fought so ruthlessly against restoring the three years compulsory military service system, which in the opinion of all experts is indispensable to the efficacy of the French army.

Such men come to be looked upon in moments such as these, as traitors, and as national dangers, and it is these considerations that led Roum in France, who was wedded as leader of the Socialist and radical elements, has been all the greater because he refused to take office.

But the members of the British parliament, and also of the present cabinet, were his obedient servants, and held their office by his occult selection and nomination, while even the majority of the Barthelemy cabinet regarded him as their master, to whom they owed obedience.

Perhaps the greatest evidence of his power was the return of Joseph Gallix to public life, immediately after the murder of Gaston Calmette.

Contrary to general belief, this ardent Socialist was a man of excellent family, of brilliant university education, of some fortune, the brother of Captain Jaures of the French navy, and the nephew of that gallant Admiral Jaures who commanded an army corps on land in the Franco-German war of 1870, and who died in 1889, as minister of marine.

His adoption of the foolish doctrine of communism of Karl Marx and men of the same stripe, having the effect of estranging him from all his family, friends and relatives, and of estranging him even from his wife and children, more than once have these doctrines, of which he was the principal exponent in France, been torn to pieces with the most caustic and irrefragable logic by such convinced republicans as Premier Clemenceau. But he was deaf to all reason, and was never so happy as when in very hot parliamentary strife.

With all that Jean Jaures was a man of the most simple, kindly manners, with a nature that was in no wise embittered by the imputations and insults of French parliamentary life. There was always a disposition to regard him as a mere orator. But the manner in which he expounded his doctrine, and the series of cabinets, forcing even those that rebelled against him to treat with him as power to power, shows that if he was not a great statesman, he was at any rate a great politician, the greatest occult force in French public life since the death of Gambetta.

For the sake of advertisement, the impressions of the young woman who styles herself Gaby Deslys, are for ever recurring in the old-fashioned, and totally unfounded story that Kinz Manuel had sacrificed the throne of Portugal for her sake and that she was the principal cause of the loss of his crown. It may be of interest to state that she is not a Bohemian girl, native of the village of Horni Mestecize, in Moravia, where she was born in 1884. Her real name is not Gaby Deslys, but Hedwig Nawratil. She spent several years as chambermaid in private families and hotels, before she turned up as a chorus girl on the stage of the Apollo music hall or theatre in the little town of Kattowitz.

She made use of a whole series of stage names, first of all that of Hedwig Rogee, then of Marie Nogradi. Afterwards she was known as the Austrian musical stage as Little Hieraikin. Then she fell in with a Russian dancer, who took her in hand with such good results that she was able to make her appearance in the cafe chantants of Paris, under the name of Gaby Deslys. All this has been brought to light through the Vienna "Official Gazette" of a fortnight ago, which publishes a judgment against her by the courts, for a very large unpaid jewelry bill due to a Viennese firm.

Tennis and Politics.

Among the many ways of gaining favor for oneself at court, is the game of tennis. Germany's crown prince has long been devoted to the game and he has just secured from the Kaiser the appointment of Otto Von Muller, of the First Regiment of Guards, as his equerry and aide-de-camp, because this particular officer is Germany's foremost tennis player. Not only that, but his wife is also an adept at the game.

The new chief aide-de-camp of the crown prince is his old friend and comrade Major von der Planitz, son of a well known artillery general of that name, and married to one of the three daughters and heiresses of the colorfully rich Baron Wilhelm von Heyl, the untitled King of the City of Worms and the biggest cotton-spinner of the German Empire.

Major von der Planitz, son of a well known artillery general of that name, and married to one of the three daughters and heiresses of the colorfully rich Baron Wilhelm von Heyl, the untitled King of the City of Worms and the biggest cotton-spinner of the German Empire.

It is to be feared that with the war which has now begun, and which is spreading all over Europe, the German crown prince will have but little opportunity for engaging in his favorite pastime of tennis.

LOOK! $200.00 IN CASH GIVEN AWAY!!

Can you solve the PUZZLE DESCRIBED BELOW? It is not easy, but by the counts, before—Try it! If you are correct, you will win a cash prize—and if you are not correct the puzzle will afford you amusement and instruction. In any case you need not be out of pocket to the extent of one cent in order to enter this contest.

Below will be found the picture of an old man, also the faces of his seven daughters. Can you find them? Try! It is no easy task, but by patience and perseverance you can probably find four or five faces.

Mark the ones you find with an X. Cut out the picture and return it to us at once. It means money to you to do so.

To the person who finds the largest number of faces you will give the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) in Cash. To the person who finds the second largest number you will give the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) in Cash. To the person who finds the third largest number you will give the sum of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) in Cash.

The Judge will be done by two gentlemen of undoubted integrity, who have no connection with the company. Their decision must be accepted as final. No expenses of any kind or any of their relatives are allowed to compete. No one who has won a cash prize from us in previous competitions is eligible in this one.

There is another similar contest to be completed with, about which we will write you, as soon as we receive your reply and know that you are interested in winning a Cash Prize.

Do not Delay. If you think you can solve this puzzle, do it now. If you put it aside it will probably be forgotten. It is an opportunity to win a cash prize. Write at once and you can expect an answer by return mail.

A London Girl's Success

She Makes a Profession of Beauty Advice and Gains Renown. Simple and Effective Recipes given under this Heading each Week.

By OLGA AMSEDEL, Special Correspondent, London, England. In this department each week I can give my Colonial women readers a rare treat by simply appending current clippings from the writings of a most remarkable young woman, Miss Ella Moya, a young London actress, has suddenly leaped into fame as a beauty writer. Owing to the remarkable effectiveness of her suggestions for advice to beauty seekers are now eagerly sought by the leading newspapers and periodicals of England, and many thousands of women here are ruled by them. Miss Moya's recommendations have the merit of astonishing simplicity, novelty and effectiveness. I shall select only those most interesting ingredients which could be obtained from Canadian chemists or druggists. Watch this department for new hints from Miss Moya and other experts each week.

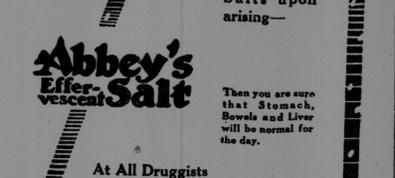

Sure Way of Permanently Removing Superfluous Hair. The usual hair removers on the market I have found not all satisfactory. I advise the following preparation. It is really wonderful in its action, destroying hair completely in a few moments. Many women have merely a down on the arms and face and imagine they do not need a hair remover. They hardly realize what a wonderful difference there would be in their appearance if this down, even light as it may be, were removed. Get at once a druggist's ounce of pure powdered platinum. Mix a little of it into a paste with water and apply to the hair growth. Wash off after two minutes and the hair will have entirely disappeared. A little ungreasy face cream can then be applied with advantage.

Eye-brows and Lashes. Long, dark lashes and even, dark eyebrows, add more than anything else to the beauty and beauty of the face. The practice of clipping the brows and the hair eventually. Moreover it is entirely unnecessary. The hair can be made perfectly straight, merely by applying a simple ingredient as pure salicylic acid. In the morning you will find the hair with a clean tooth brush and a teaspoonful of which dissolved in a cup of water, is sufficient for the hair. Wash the hair with this liquid salicylic acid and it is not sticky or greasy. A couple of days later, as the hair grows, it will be straight and not sticky or greasy. A couple of days later, as the hair grows, it will be straight and not sticky or greasy. A couple of days later, as the hair grows, it will be straight and not sticky or greasy.

Free Advice About Your Manly Strength

TO MY READER:

Whether or not you lack an abundant vigor, here is a free offer which will surely interest you, and through which you may easily profit from now on to the end of a ripe, healthy, advanced age. I have compiled a little treatise for self help (book form) which I am pleased to send absolutely free by mail in a perfectly plain, sealed envelope to any man anywhere who writes for it. Over a million copies have already been thus distributed to those who wrote for them from all over the world. There is no obligation whatsoever involved in this offer, nothing which you are required to buy, nothing which you are required to pay for in any way, either now or in the future. It is just simply an out-and-out free proposal. In this little book of 72 pages, 8,000 words and 50 half-tone photo reproductions, I have endeavored to give a straightforward talk to men, young and elderly, single and married, a concise compendium for self-reference, a perfectly plain discourse upon those important, personal matters relating to vital strength of men, the preservation of vitality, its possible self restoration, its legitimate uses and its wanton abuses. Every man should be in possession of this book. One part describes a little drugless mechanical vitalizer, which I make and distribute, but whether or not you wish to use one of these vitalizers is for you yourself to determine. However, aside from anything it contains in reference to my vitalizer, the book should be read by all for its own real worth. Therefore, please use free coupon below.

SANDEN, Author.

Reader, the whole world is today alive to the importance of a better general understanding of sex hygiene. The much discussed science of eugenics is teaching the great mass of people that strong, healthy, rugged parents beget equally sturdy children. Manhood, no matter where or in what condition of life we find it, is the single power that most fascinates both men and women. The one who radiates this manly influence, this result of a vigorous, sturdy nerve force, is the one who forges to the front, while weaker people stand aside.

It is my opinion that any man may hope for a complete restoration of his manhood and vigor if he but make up his mind that he WILL conquer himself.

Let Me Send You This Book FREE

If you live too far to call, or if you cannot call, please fill in the coupon below and send it to me. You will receive free, sealed, by return mail, my 72-page illustrated book, containing 8,000 words, a complete compendium of useful information for men young or elderly, single or married, who want the truth about the subject of vital strength, its preservation, its possible self restoration and its legitimate uses and wanton abuses. You get it all, free.

DR. E. F. SANDEN CO., 140 Yonge St., Toronto, Ont.

THE DIE IS CAST

The die is cast. A war involving practically all the great powers of Europe, world-blighting in its effects, and the end whereof none may foresee, has been precipitated by the action of Germany.

Never in the world's history have such fleets and armies been engaged as will be brought into collision in this awful war. The race for armaments which has been in progress for years past, and the invention of new and deadly fighting machines on land and sea, and in the very air itself, have combined to add new horrors to the conflict.

The people upon whom the burden must fall, while they do not withhold the sacrifice, may well look to the future with grim forebodings. The mere withdrawal of so many millions of men from productive industry is itself a thing terrible to contemplate; but, when there is added the awful loss of life and the destruction of property upon so colossal a scale as must accompany this titanic struggle, the mind is staggered by the thought of what it all means, not merely to this generation but to the next.

One cannot but grieve at the very outset over the loss, the suffering and the heartbreak which must come to millions of homes, and there cannot be other than a feeling of resentment against the German ruler, whose arrogance and disregard for the value of human lives has hurled so many nations into the maelstrom of war.

The people of Canada are confronted by a situation without parallel in their history. There must be a readjustment of conditions of trade and commerce and industry entirely new to this generation. Trade must for a time be crippled, and turned into new channels. The problem of safe markets, and the labor problem as well, will test the resourcefulness of the business community. Here as elsewhere men must be withdrawn from productive industry, prices will rise, and the problem of supply must become one of growing seriousness.

The spirit of the Canadian people, however, is equal to any sacrifice that may be necessary, and the quick response throughout the country to the Empire's need cannot but thrill the hearts of all, and give them renewed courage to face whatever vicissitudes the fortunes of war may bring. There was not a man or woman in St. John who was not thrilled by the cabled words of Sir Edward Grey.

"Since Germany will have it, she shall have it in full measure. No nation ever went into war with better heart or clearer conscience than Great Britain does now."

THE MODERN VIKING.

The methods of the piratical forefathers of the German people have not been discarded by his most Christian majesty the reigning emperor. Not only has he sent his armies into France before declaring war, but he has violated the neutrality of Belgium, which he was pledged to maintain, and has attacked scattered units of the British fleet without waiting for the formality of a declaration of war. The world might well fear the ascendancy of a ruler whose record is thus blackened with perfidy. His conduct will make all the more determined the spirit of the British and French forces, and fill them with ardor to give the Germans "in full measure" the punishment they deserve. So far as Britain is concerned, she truly enters upon this war with a clear science, since the government first exhausted every honorable means to restore peace, and only decided to enter the lists when the claims of national honor and good faith could no longer brook delay. The next few days will be big with destiny for Europe. The destruction of the German fleet is the first great aim of the British, and even now the deadly struggle in the North Sea may be in progress. The power of Germany must be broken. For years she has been the challenger in the race for armaments, and upon her more than upon any other nation rests the responsibility for the colossal burdens laid upon the people of all nations. The day of reckoning has come, and there can be no peace until the German war-lord is beaten to his knees. He must be taught that the viking spirit is not the spirit of this age, and that the modern pirate is deserving of no more consideration than the ruthless freebooters of the bygone centuries.

CANADA IS READY.

The Canadian government has taken prompt action following the declaration of war. Parliament is summoned to meet on August 18, and will take the necessary action to provide for the full assumption by Canada of her share in the defence of the Empire. So far as measures relating to the war are concerned, party lines are obliterated. Speaking for the Liberal party, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who has cancelled all his meetings, says:—"The policy of the Canadian Liberal party under the painful circumstances is well known. I have often declared that if the Mother Country were ever in danger, or if danger ever threatens, Canada would render assistance to the full extent of her power. Pending such grave conditions there should be a truce of party strife."

It will be found when parliament meets that the same spirit which today characterizes the parties in the British parliament prevails. He would be an extremely fool-hardy individual who would today give utterance to views in opposition to the leader of the government and the leader of the opposition in relation to Canada's duty in this crisis in the affairs of the British Empire and of the world at large.

SIR JOHN FRENCH.

Field Marshal Sir John French, who has been appointed Inspector-general of the British forces, has had a brilliant military career. He served in the Sudan campaign in 1884-85, and participated in the battles of Abu Klea, Gubat and Metemeh. In 1899 he was appointed to command a cavalry division in Natal, commended the troops at the battle of Elandlaagte, and the cavalry at Retfontein and Lombard's Kop. He commanded a cavalry division in South Africa from 1900 until 1902, was mentioned in despatches and promoted to the rank of major-general. He led the cavalry force in the operations which culminated in the relief of Kimberley, and was with Lord Roberts' forces throughout the operations ending in the capture of Bloemfontein and Pretoria. During the conflict east of Pretoria he was eight times mentioned in despatches and continued a brilliant career until the end of the war.

St. John will soon present some of the features of an armed camp, although the number of men under arms will not be large.

"Capture or destroy the enemy's ships," was the message of King George to the British navy. With the combined fleets of Britain, France and Russia there is no reason to doubt that the order will be obeyed to the letter.

The despatches show that intense enthusiasm prevails throughout Canada, and that everywhere men are ready to flock to the colors. A similar condition prevails in every British country. It is a remarkable demonstration of the unity of the Empire.

Despite the knowledge of the horrors of war there was something to stir the pulses of the citizens of St. John this morning at sight of the young men of the militia in uniform, marching briskly through the streets to the army, to take their places in the line of defence, and if need be embark for foreign fields to fight the battles of the Empire.

Electric machines with plungers are now employed to make waves for the delictation of bathers in the tidal waters at inland summer resorts. Anything can be furnished to order from choppy wavelets to long, rolling billows.

Unbearable. Ray—As long as there was another boarder in the farmhouse you had somebody to talk to. "But as there were only the two of us, there was nobody to talk about."

Elevated. "You say your friend is rising in political life?" "Yes, he's rising all right. He used to be on the level and now he's known as the man higher up."—(Washington Star.)

Where Shall I Invest My Money?

This is a question that often bothers us when we have any surplus money. Some people are born rich and do not have to provide for independence, others are looking for investments that will bring them in good dividends. The Silver Black Fox Industry in P. E. Island has made thousands of investors wealthy. In 1913 alone, 30 companies paid to their shareholders an average cash dividend of 105 p. c. Is there any other industry that would do this? 1914 dividends will be even greater than before. Now is the time to invest. Send in your application today to the St. Lawrence Silver Black Fox Co, Ltd. Head Office—Charlottetown, P. E. Island

Foxes Capitalized at $17,000 PER PAIR. This capitalization included all expenses for the first year up to September 1, 1910. In other words, the breeding stock will be ranches, cared for, fed and all expenses paid for the first year without any cost whatever to the shareholders. Instead of paying the 10 per cent to 15-18 per cent. increase charge paid to most ranches this money will go directly into the pocket of the investor.

Your Investment is Protected. Each director is placing practically all his fox investments in this enterprise and the directors have their interests so involved in this ranch that they cannot afford to let their interest and watchful care lapse for a moment. The best breeding stock has been secured and one of the strongest, safest and most convenient ranches yet established is being erected and equipped.

Wm. Moran, Secretary-Treasurer. St. Lawrence Silver Black Fox Company, Ltd. I hereby make application for shares of the capital stock of the St. Lawrence Silver Black Fox Co. Ltd. Charlottetown, P. E. Island, and enclose $ being 20 per cent. of total amount and agree to pay the balance on or before the first of August, 1914.

Should stock not be allotted it is understood that all money paid by me will be returned in full. NAME: ADDRESS: OCCUPATION: Total Amount: $

The History of The Industry. If you inquire, you will find that the majority of rich men in P. E. Island have made their money in the Fox Industry, which, while yet in its infancy, shows the probability of making a great many more rich men. This being the case, you should not let this opportunity of increasing the earning powers of your money pass without giving it your careful consideration.

Directors ARE Reliable Men. This is a most important feature when you consider that these are the men that you must look to for a square deal. Read the list over carefully and you will certainly conclude that an investment here is as safe with better prospects than money in the bank. This Company has only a limited amount of stock for sale. Secure yours today. This is a gilt-edged proposition.

CONSTITUTIONALITY OF THE WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION ACT

(Montreal Journal of Commerce.) A New York despatch says: New York, July 28.—That the constitutionality of the Workmen's Compensation Act, as modified, will be tested in the courts is the belief entertained by many students of this new legislation. Underwriters and casualty insurance lawyers maintain that the commission in its rulings to date has shown a disposition to exceed the authority vested in it. Lack of business methods and an arbitrary attitude are among the things most widely criticized. The commission recently ordered that all stock insurance companies transacting workmen's compensation insurance deposit with it the sum of $100,000 and that mutual companies deposit $50,000 to provide funds out of which the commission may pay claims against insurance carriers. The injustice of such a demand is demonstrated when it is considered that some companies have written probably $8,000,000 in workmen's compensation premiums in this state, whereas some have only written a few thousand dollars in premiums. The injustice of such a demand is demonstrated when it is considered that some companies have written probably $8,000,000 in workmen's compensation premiums in this state, whereas some have only written a few thousand dollars in premiums.

is extremely worried at his inability to obtain news of his children, who are at St. Moritz. He was cheered by the news given to him by the correspondent of the Boston Post that Representative Fairchild had come through from Switzerland to London without difficulty. Mr. Vanderbilt contemplated going to Switzerland, but decided to communicate with Washington and have the United States authorities communicate with St. Moritz. His intention is, if his children get out of Switzerland safely, to leave at once for the United States aboard the North Star.

WELL KNOWN HERE. At Milton, N. S., last week, Clarence DeWolfe Freeman, died. He was born at Milton in 1869. His father was Edward Gorham Freeman; his mother, Harriet Neal, of Halifax. When about sixteen years of age, he entered the services of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Liverpool. After three years he was transferred to Halifax and then to St. John, N. B., where he remained for fifteen years. Hard work and ability soon placed him in the manager's chair, and in this capacity he served at Newcastle, N. B., Sussex, N. B., Berlin, Ont., and other important places in the east, and at Kingston, in Jamaica, he made an excellent showing. About ten years ago his health broke down, and he was forced to quit banking and go in search of health. California, Arizona, Muskoka, Lakeview, N. J., and Jamaica were all tried with varying results. In June, 1911, he returned to his old home, where he remained until his death.

M. Jaurès' Funeral. Paris, Aug. 4.—The funeral of M. Jaurès, the Socialist leader, who was assassinated last week, was held today. Presently in the hall nearly all the members of the cabinet, the presidents of the senate and chamber of deputies and a vast concourse of Socialists attended the ceremonies.

Courtesy Returned. Mr. Lloyd George after distributing prizes at a school, said he hoped the children would have a good record when he came again. Thereupon they rose and with one accord said, "Same to you, sir."

AUDITOR WANTS NEW YORK BOOKS

Could Not Complete Audit Without Them

P. F. BLANCHETTE TESTIFIES

Called Attention of Premier Fleming to Graft Payments But Report Was Not Made Public—Advised Acting Premier of Ten Per Cent Profit Added to Cost

P. F. Blanchette, chartered accountant was the principal witness at the afternoon session of the Dugal inquiry yesterday. Mr. Blanchette told of auditing the books of the construction company at Fredericton and submitted the report which he had made to Premier Fleming after his first audit. The report drew attention to the charges for J. D. Seely's $10,000, the $100,000 for Fredericton lease, an apparent overcharge of $14,440 in the interest account and the $5,000 salary to A. H. Gould. This report was never made public by the premier. After the second audit Mr. Blanchette drew the attention of Acting Premier Clarke to the fact that ten per cent was being added to the cost of construction for profit.

The witness said that he was unable to complete the audit on account of lack of the New York books. Two requests to forward the books were addressed to the New York office but attention was paid to them. He also tried to get details of a bill for more than $900 paid to a firm of New York lawyers but to no avail.

Ralph D. Hoban, accountant for the construction company, was called upon when the commission resumed for the afternoon session. Mr. Carvell produced a statement, furnished by the witness, of the cash paid out by the company. This did not include the cost of rails or bridges which were paid for by the trust company but did include payments reported to have been made from the New York office.

Mr. Hoban was allowed to stand aside while Paul F. Blanchette, chartered accountant, gave evidence. Examined by Mr. Stevens, Mr. Blanchette told of making an audit of the books of the railway in January, 1914, at the request of Premier Fleming.

In his report, a copy of which he produced, he mentioned several items which he thought should be taken out of the construction account. The report was submitted in Fredericton, N. B., March 4, 1914. Hon. J. K. Flemming, Premier, Fredericton, N. B.

Dear Sir:—I enclose you herewith my report of the construction accounts of the Valley Railway to December 31, 1913. I am very much pleased with the system of accounting, the books being well kept and the vouchers being in particularly good shape, in a way that is carefully checked and initialed bills and statements, also the cancelled bank checks enclosed with each voucher, the whole being certified by Mr. Ross Thompson. A number of these vouchers were reduced before payment was made, which is a most commendable system.

There are some items I would like to draw attention to. Bills payable, $16,000. This was a note given Mr. J. D. Seely of St. John, N. B., for advertising services obtained right of way and promotion of the company. This would be a fairer charge when the advertising should more properly be carried by the shareholders. In the same way voucher No. 2016, $10,000 for advertising, should more properly be carried by the shareholders. The bond interest was charged to construction as follows: Voucher 924, to Dec. 1, 1912, $18,000; Voucher 1,461, to Jan. 1, 1913, $23,500; Voucher 2,450, to Dec. 1, 1913, $45,000.

Amounting to $86,500. I attach a statement which shows the bond interest approximately $71,000. I therefore credited construction accounts with $14,440 for overcharge of interest. The Prudential Trust Company and the St. John & Quebec Railway Company should be able to furnish the exact figures of bond interest and we could then get them properly entered in the books.

A. R. Gould has received in salary, $5,000 per year, from July 1, 1911 to Dec. 31, 1913, and $800 per year from June, 1912, for office expenses, salary of stenographer, etc. Judging from my audit I would say in conclusion that the construction to Dec. 31, 1913, has been prudently and economically handled.

Yours very truly, (Sgd.) P. F. BLANCHETTE, Auditor.

The report was submitted in evidence. The audit was made showing the totals of the balance sheet of Dec. 31, but covered the transactions in the distribution ledger only up to Nov. 30.

Mr. Stevens said he had found an account with the auditor's stamp which seemed to be included in that audit although it was dated after Dec. 31. The witness could not understand how it could have occurred.

Up To Promoters. Mr. Blanchette had reported verbally to the premier advising him that the $10,000 payment to Seely and the $1,000 to the Gleason should not be charged to construction but should be borne by the promoters or shareholders. Hearing the Gleason matter the witness told the premier that Mr. Thompson had explained it to him and he supposed he would explain to the premier, if asked. The legal bills of Mr. McLeod and Mr. Winslow were discussed by the witness with Mr. Fleming and the latter had said that Mr. McLeod should not have accepted services while in the government.

The premier had told the witness that he understood that none of the men who organized the railway received anything but their expenses and asked him to watch out for this. The salary to Mr. Gould was the only instance of this he had found and he reported it to Mr. Fleming. He could not remember any comment.

Regarding interest charges the witness said that he had informed Mr. Fleming that he could not complete the audit because of lack of information about three interest payments, until he received the books from New York. Several interest payments were necessary to explain the interest charges.

A.—Yes, and other matters. I was anxious to check all the payments made by the trust company and the New York office. As a result of my letter I was summoned to Fredericton later and given a statement prepared by the New York office. There were no vouchers or anything to verify it and so I could not use it.

Q.—You were not able to get the information? A.—No, I could not. Mr. Thompson said the interest on the $200,000 loan was figured it on the orders in council. I made that up and found that it came to $71,000 while it had been charged up as $85,500, so the $14,440 was deducted and charged back. He did not know if the railway company received any interest on construction company bonds.

Q.—Did you trace the moneys received to the original source? A.—No, I had no accounts of the trust company—or the railway company, so after making an unsuccessful effort, I gave it up.

Q.—Were you able to tell how the interest on the $200,000 loan was charged? A.—It was all charged to construction. I could not tell if all the principal came in but I found the accounts rendered for the interest and they were charged up.

Mr. Carvell—it is all shown on that account between the trust and construction companies, which was ruled out a month ago.

Mr. Fisher—What is your opinion of the fairness of the charge to construction of interest on this borrowed money? A.—It would be all right if the money went into construction.

Mr. Fisher—If the company had borrowed money. Mr. Stevens—If the construction company received sufficient money by sale of stock could they charge their dividends to construction? A.—No.

Q.—If they had these funds but still went to the bank and borrowed money, would interest on it be a fair charge? A.—I hardly think so.

Witness then gave the details of the charges for interest made by the Prudential Trust Company. He stated that he had no information as to the transactions with the Prudential Trust Company, beyond what appeared on five vouchers, and aside from the Prudential Trust Company account should be closely checked up by the people who handled the business. I presume it is the New York office. The total loan to the

The Taimyr did not know of the outbreak of the war until her arrival here.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional medicine. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed, it causes a humming sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Searle's Compound is the only medicine that will give you Searle's Compound for deafness. It will give you Searle's Compound for deafness. It will give you Searle's Compound for deafness. It will give you Searle's Compound for deafness.

Imperial Year Book. The Times has received a copy of the Imperial Year Book for the Dominion of Canada, which is a statesman's and business man's year book for Canada and the British Empire. This very valuable book of reference, which contains nearly six hundred pages, has been prepared by Albert E. Southall, and is the result of three years' personal effort. The author points out that it is designed to supplement and not supplant the works of reference already on the market, and it will be published regularly on Dominion Day of each year. The Imperial Year Book is filled with an infinite variety of valuable information relative to the Dominion, the various provinces and the other self-governing dominions, arranged and tabulated in the most convenient form for ready reference. It is described by its author as the first book dealing specifically with the Empire that has been published in Canada. There is a calendar of National and Imperial events, information regarding the official bodies in the various Dominions and the mother country, government departments, Canadian trade, railways and canals, fisheries, shipping, militia and defence, Dominion lands, labor, customs revenue, agriculture minerals, churches and religious, education, press, sport, and in short, condensed and classified information of every sort, carefully compiled

CENSORSHIP DELAYS

All cable and telegraph companies in New York have issued notices that owing to strict censorship exercised by Russia, Austria, Germany, France, England and other powers, there is considerable delay in getting news from the various European capitals, and those despatches which are sent through are heavily censored, in many instances being cut down to unimportant details.

May Put Off Celebration. Montreal, Aug. 5.—E. W. Villeneuve, president of the Carier-Entente celebration, says that this festival, which had been planned for next month, would probably be postponed in view of the condition of Europe. While it has not yet been definitely decided to postpone the celebration, it is likely the committee will take this step within a few days. In all probability the centenary will be observed next Dominion Day.

HOW THIN PEOPLE CAN PUT ON FLESH

A New Discovery. Thin men and women—that big hearty, filling dinner you ate last night. What became of all that fat-producing nourishment it contained? You haven't gained weight one ounce. That food passed from your body like unburned coal through an open grate. The material was there, but your food doesn't work and stick, and the plain truth is you haven't gained enough nourishment from your meals to pay for the cost of cooking. This is true of thin folk the world over. Your nutritive organs, your functions of assimilation are sadly out of gear and need reconstruction.

Cut out the foolish foods and funny sawdust diets. Omit the flesh cream butter, and eat everything but the meals you are eating now and eat with every one of those single Sargol tablets. In two weeks note the difference. Five to eight good solid pounds of healthy, "stay there" fat should be the net result. Sargol changes your weak, stagnant blood with millions of fresh new red blood corpuscles—gives the blood the carrying power to deliver every ounce of fat-making material in your food to every part of your body. Sargol, too, mixes with your food and prepares it for the blood in easily assimilated form. Thin people gain all the way from 10 to 25 pounds a month while taking Sargol, and the new flesh stays put. Sargol tablets are a scientific combination of six of the best flesh-producing elements known to chemistry. They come 40 tablets to a package are pleasant, harmless and inexpensive, and all druggists sell them subject to an absolute guarantee of weight increase or money back.

Get Your Home Mortgaged?
 Then, of course, you'll pay off the indebtedness in time. But suppose you should die suddenly—will the mortgagee foreclose, or will your wife be able to meet the payments?
 And even if she can, won't it make a big hole in her resources?
 Well, then, why not ensure its repayment, whether you live or die, by means of an Imperial Endowment policy for the amount of the mortgage?
 Hundreds of men have adopted this method. It is the surest way yet devised for protecting the home.
 Write for further particulars today. To-morrow may be too late.

DIED IN SOUTH
 Many friends here, particularly in West St. John, were grieved to learn of the death of a former resident, Mrs. Florence E. O'Reilly, wife of Thomas B. O'Reilly, formerly of Lancaster Heights, she died in Lynchburg, Va., on Saturday where Mr. and Mrs. O'Reilly had made their home for several years. Mrs. O'Reilly last summer visited Captain and Mrs. Hayes, who had loved her as an adopted daughter, and while here renewed acquaintance with many old friends. Her husband and she have been very well known in St. John and many friends by whom she was most highly esteemed, will have sincere sympathy for Mr. O'Reilly and her bereaved parents.

GRIM DETERMINATION IS LONDON'S ATTITUDE
 London, Aug. 5.—Throughout England today there is a feeling that the war has been forced upon it, it will be the most horrible in the world's history, but the fire of national patriotism burns brightly today, and the whole nation is stirred as never before, willing to lay down its life in defence of its home country.
 Since last night's tremendous outbreak, there is no showing of frenzied enthusiasm here, as there is in the other European capitals. The people are taking the situation quietly but their grim determination plainly shows in their actions. They did not want war, but now that they must engage in it, against their will, they mean to proceed about it with thoroughness.

POSTAL ARRANGEMENT
 Washington, D.C., Aug. 5.—Postmaster-General Burleson announced today that, because of the entrance of Great Britain into the General European war, American mails were being transferred to ships of the United States, Sweden and other countries not involved.

The Defence of St. John

The preparations for the defence of St. John were further advanced this morning. The new army in Lower Cove was alive with the hustle of men placing themselves in readiness for active service, and tense with an air of expectancy amongst the more than 300 assembled. At two o'clock this afternoon orders were that a detachment of the 3rd Regiment C. A. would take up a position at Fort Dufferin to defend the entrance to the harbor with special 47 guns brought here last night from Petewawa. The guns are to be brought from the I. C. R. railway yard today. A guard of members from the 8th Regiment stood duty upon them last night.
 It was also said today that a battery would be placed at Red Head, and possibly another on Partridge Island, and have to be manned by the artillery. There were also rumors that the detachment to the bay was to be manned by the general belief amongst observers: it is no need to fear so far as the protection of St. John is concerned, for it is thought that if there are any German vessels in the neighborhood of the bay, it is not to molest Canadian Atlantic ports, but to offer as much protection as possible for the safe conveyance of the country's shipping interests and commerce on the high seas and to capture the enemy's vessels of the bay and to be in the immediate neighborhood of the Bay of Fundy were circled today but little faith was placed in the stories.
Recruiting.
 Recruiting continues steadily amongst the local units. The 28th, N. B. Dragoons are rapidly approaching war strength, some 300 men of the ordinary times. Colonel H. H. McLean, O. C. the 28th, will leave this evening for an order to consult with the military authorities. He was in conference with Major Hamilton-Grey this morning. The recruiting will be continued until Major C. H. McLean, who will return from Boston tonight.
 With the 28th Regiment, St. John Fusiliers, there have been many volunteers. There has been manifested an

LOCAL SCOTS TO ORGANIZE COMPANY

Luftwaffe, Kron Prinz Wilhelm and Lorraine at Sea
 New York, Aug. 5.—In the face of possible capture by German cruisers the waters just outside the harbor, the Cunard liner Lusitania passed out to sea at 1:55 o'clock this morning on what is expected to be a record breaking trip to Liverpool.
 The German cruisers known to be only a short distance off the coast are the Dresden, Karlsruhe and Strasbourg. Two French cruisers, said to be the Conde and the Decaris are also reported to be in the vicinity of the east-bound trans-Atlantic line.
Kron Prinz Wilhelm.
 New York, Aug. 5.—Nothing has been heard of the North German liner Krona Prinz Wilhelm since the steamer slipped the line said that so far as they know, the steamer was bound for Bremen under orders received from Germany.
 The 6,000 tons of coal taken along, for use in an emergency, is for use in the steamer usually carries, is for use in an emergency, it was explained as the steamer is about to make a dash for a neutral port.
 Another steamer, the French liner Lorraine, is expected to make a dash for home today. She is to take 1,200 recruits who hope to fight for France. The Lorraine is understood to be carrying an auxiliary cruiser and will join the French naval forces if she gets through the English Channel.

REASSURING AS TO FOOD SUPPLIES IN GREAT BRITAIN
 London, Aug. 5.—The authorities are taking all possible steps to supply public as liberally in regard to food supplies, and to prevent any unjustifiable attempts in regard to the four months supply of wheat actually in the country, or being harvested, there were large consignments of wheat now on the way here, much of which was already near British shores.
 There was no circumstance, it was said, in which a wheat famine could arise and accordingly, fear of the scarcity of wheat supplies, and to prevent unjustifiable attempts to artificially raise prices. The Home Office today issued an official statement to the effect that in addition to the four months supply of wheat actually in the country, or being harvested, there were large consignments of wheat now on the way here, much of which was already near British shores.
 The situation regarding meat was not less satisfactory. "Normal killings of home stock supply sixty per cent of our annual consumption," reads the statement, and we are not necessarily dependent upon foreign ports for the balance of our supplies, as in case of emergency it could be provided by slaughtering a larger proportion of our own stock.
 This contingency cannot arise in the present circumstances. There is now an exceptionally large supply of foreign meat in cold storage, and heavy consignment of meat is on the way to us. Therefore, no justification exists for any rise in the prices of bread or meat."
 The circular concluded with the assurance that arrangements have been made with a view to controlling prices so far as possible.
 General Radomir Putnik, chief of the Serbian general staff, has fallen ill and his son was wounded in a recent battle.

England and Germany at War

Kaiser's Ships, Without Waiting For Declaration, Hit Foul and Sink Small British Vessels—Early Morning Despatches

"Capture or destroy the enemy" Such is King George's orders to the British fleet. "I have every confidence that the British fleet will revive the old glories of the navy. I am sure that the navy will again shield Britain in this hour of trial. It will prove the bulwark of the empire."

THE DECLARATION

London, Aug. 4.—Great Britain declared war on Germany tonight. The momentous decision of the British government, for which the whole world had been waiting, came before the expiration of the time limit set by Great Britain in her ultimatum to Germany demanding a satisfactory reply in respect to Belgian neutrality.

Germany's reply was the summary rejection of the request that Belgian neutrality should be respected.

The British ambassador at Berlin thereupon received his passports, and the British government notified Germany that a state of war existed between the two countries.

All Europe is now in arms. On the one hand, Austria-Hungary and Germany are opposed by Russia, France, and Great Britain, Serbia and Montenegro.

Italy has declared her neutrality, but is mobilizing.

Belgium, Holland and Switzerland have mobilized. The German demand that the Belgian government should permit the free passage of German troops through Belgium was answered by hasty preparations to resist such an advance across Belgian territory.

Sweden has made no answer to inquiries from Russia and Germany regarding her attitude, but is preparing to defend her neutrality. Japan is making ready to live up to her alliance with Great Britain, in case of certain eventualities.

Spain is reported to be preparing a proclamation of neutrality.

Austria-Hungary for the moment has retired from her campaign against Serbia for the purpose of holding back Russia, and Serbia has mobilized with the reported intention of invading Bosnia.

Treacherous Work of Germany

London, Aug. 4.—Germany has violated the law of nations once again. Before war was declared between Germany and England, the German North Sea fleet assumed the offensive and attacked scattered units of the British fleet.

When the news became known in London the indignation of the populace knew no bounds. An attempt was made to wreck the German embassy by thousands of infuriated citizens and thousands of Metropolitan police, including the whole of the mounted force, struggled for over an hour and a half against overwhelming odds. The building was partially wrecked, but nobody was seriously hurt among its occupants, though scores of people in the crowd were trampled by the police who repeatedly charged the mob.

News of a naval engagement in the North Sea is confirmed tonight. Wounded from the battle have landed at Comarney, in Scotland, and are now being cared for by a special corps of doctors and nurses rushed from Aberdeen in a troop train on an emergency call.

No word can express the rage of the British public. News received in London from the provincial cities and towns report the most violent demonstrations in all quarters.

The admiralty offices were a blaze of light all the evening and shortly after midnight the first lord, Winston Churchill, moved to Buckingham Palace with Sir Edward Grey. High admiralty and naval officers were going and coming, and it is known that wireless signals were sent to the first fleet under Admiral Calthorpe.

BRITISH VESSEL DESTROYED.

London, Aug. 4.—The admiralty tonight received a report that the German fleet in the North Sea had destroyed a British mine-laying vessel. The identity of the vessel is not yet known.

London, Aug. 4.—A despatch to the Central News from Amsterdam says the German have captured the French steamer Le Mouton, eight miles northeast of Liege.

GERMAN FLEET BOTTLED UP?

London, Aug. 4.—It is learned on high authority that the admiralty has received a wireless message from the German fleet that has been bottled up by an English fleet north of Denmark.

Dover harbor was closed tonight at the order of the admiralty. Dover is directly across the channel from the principal ports of communication between England and the continent.

LIEGE AND NAMUR UNDER FIRE.

Brussels, Aug. 4.—News has reached here that the Germans are shelling Liege and Namur.

TWO CRUISERS CAPTURED.

Algiers, Aug. 4.—According to an unofficial report, a French fleet has captured two German cruisers, the Goeben and Breslau.

PRIEST KILLED BY GERMANS.

Paris, Aug. 4.—A German detachment today entered the village of Marnay, in the Department of Meurthe et Moselle. A parish priest was killed.

RUSSIANS REPULSED.

Berlin, Aug. 4.—The German detaching force tonight repulsed an attack in force of the Russian army at Marnay, the most northerly town in Prussia. The Russian army penetrated the empire at the railway and advanced on Marnay. The frontier guards interposed no resistance until the fortification outside the town was reached.

Here the German commander had his men supported by a battery of artillery and the Russians when they attempted to charge were raked by a cross-fire and retreated in confusion. The Russian loss is said to have been heavy.

Asquith's Speech

London, Aug. 4.—Premier Asquith in the house of commons this afternoon, confirmed the sending to Germany of a request that she should give the same assurance of neutrality of Belgium as France had done, and that her reply should be sent to England before midnight.

Continuing his speech, Premier Asquith stated that Germany only this morning had renewed her assurance to England that she would respect Belgium's territorial integrity. This announcement drew a chorus of derisive sneers from every corner of the chamber.

Mr. Asquith continued: "Immediately after we received from the Belgian legation here the following telegram from the Belgian minister of foreign affairs:

"The Belgian general staff announces that Belgian territory has been violated at Verrières near Aix-La-Chapelle."

"Subsequent information tends to show that a German force has penetrated still farther into Belgian territory."

"We also received this note this morning from the German ambassador here:

"Please dispel any delusion that may exist on the part of the British government with regard to our intentions by repeating most positively, the formal assurance that even in case of armed conflict with Belgium, Germany will under no pretensions whatsoever, annex Belgian territory. The sincerity of this declaration is borne out by the fact that we have solemnly pledged our word to Holland strictly to respect her neutrality. It is obvious that we could not probably annex Belgian territory without making territorial acquisition at the expense of Holland. Please impress upon Sir Edward Grey that the German army could not remain exposed to a French attack across Belgium which was planned according to absolutely unimpeachable information. Germany has at a consequence disregarded Belgian neutrality to prevent what means to her a question of life and death—a French advance through Belgium."

Premier Asquith then said:

"I have to add this on behalf of His Majesty's government. We cannot regard this as in any sense a satisfactory communication. We have in reply repeated the request made last week to the German government, that it should give us the same assurance regarding Belgian neutrality as was given to us by France last week."

"We have asked that the German reply to that request and a satisfactory answer to our telegram of this morning should be given before midnight tonight."

The premier concluded his grave statement amid a great outburst of cheering from all parts of the house.

Premier Asquith explained, during his speech, that all England had demanded of Germany was that she give the same assurance regarding respecting Belgium's neutrality as France had. This, he said, was refused.

"We only had promises from Germany," the premier continued, "and these promises were made simultaneously with the pressing of demands on Belgium herself by the German foreign office. Of course this was not satisfactory. Germany's attitude throughout in connection with Belgium has been entirely in opposition to British interests."

ARTILLERY TO DEFEND ST. JOHN

Local Battery To Man Guns At Fort Dufferin

OTHER BATTERIES ON CALL

Army Service Corps Ordered To Fort Dufferin and Halifax—Recruiting in Progress—Wireless Plant Dismantled—Official Announcements

The call for volunteers about St. John has been answered with a hearty and substantial response. Already every regiment which issued a call for recruits has received many applications while those already members have in most cases expressed their willingness to go to the front. One hundred recruits last night joined the 1st Regt. C. A. A. who is being raised to war strength, many of them former members or veterans of South Africa who re-enlisted.

Port Dufferin has been selected as the recruiting centre for the local garrison and the battery selected will remain on duty with the 47 guns which reached the city last night from Petrevalva with the reserve party of the regiment who were turned back. A detachment from the Army Service Corps will supply rations for the men.

A detachment of the Army Service Corps, consisting of eight men: Sergt. Smith, Corporal H. Donovan and J. Navas; Private D. Barle, C. Barton, J. Mackin, T. Merritt, left last night at 11.30 for Halifax to assist in the work of the corps at the garrison there.

Employees of the Marconi Wireless Co. last night dismantled the wireless plant at Partridge Island; it was brought to the city and stored away. It is said that the plant at the Leuchers and other stations along the coast will be dismantled and that the Lansdowne will pick up all the boys and lights in the city. The crew of the C. G. S. Curlew now at Halifax, will be transferred to the cruiser Canopus.

At four o'clock this morning Lieut. Governor Wood received formal notice of the declaration of war. Hon. A. T. Dunn, collector of customs for St. John received word last night from Ottawa and French is being supposed to be far ahead of her neighbors, came as a relation to the people who, in ordinary times are chronic grumblers over the government's supposed backwardness in military organizations.

Vic Admiral Sir John Jellicoe, in whom the nation reposes the utmost confidence, has been gazetted commander-in-chief of the British fleet. Field Marshal Earl Kitchener will undoubtedly take charge of the army. The announcement is made that he has been called to the war office for a similar position.

Work, without his status being designated, but it is not probable that he would occupy a subordinate position.

Ottawa, Aug. 4.—At the conclusion of tonight's cabinet council meeting the prime minister announced that parliament was summoned to meet on Tuesday, Aug. 18, two weeks hence.

Crowds gathered about the government offices throughout the day, and observed the ministers whenever they appeared, and pressed around their motor cars.

The railway stations were filled with army reserves, and territorialists, but there were no flags or signs on the buildings and the great mass of the people went about their ordinary occupations with serious faces.

The first effects of the war were found in the increased prices of the necessities of life, but the people expected this as a result of the war. Opposition to the war has been almost completely dispelled by the events of the past twenty-four hours, except from a section of organized labor.

The Liberal papers, the Citizens and the Daily News, have come into line and are supporting the government.

The Manchester Guardian and the Antigonish are virtually alone in antagonizing the government's policy. The Guardian, representing the great commercial interests of Lancashire, continues its violent opposition. It says:

"It is mockery to thrave on the house of commons, at a moment's notice and in circumstances of great excitement, the responsibility for deciding on a policy that has been maturing for years."

Viccount Bryce, the former ambassador at Washington, heads the signers of a manifesto expressing the hope that the government has not exhausted the possibilities of diplomacy.

David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, announced in the house of commons his scheme for insuring shipping against war risks.

"Because this scheme is promulgated in the midst of an emergency," said the chancellor, "it is not in any sense a panic scheme prepared in an emergency."

The committee of imperial defence has labored on the plan for more than a year, he said. Its aim was that in case of war British commerce should not be interrupted by inability to secure war risks, and that to insure that insurance rates should not go so high as to cause any considerable rise in prices.

"We are perfectly convinced," he continued, "that with the protection of the British navy we can make certain of vital control."

The work is to be undertaken by the state insurance office, with a flat rate premium capable of variation from time to time. The government, he said, was insuring eighty per cent of the hulls of vessels. In regard to voyages current on the outbreak of war, no premium would be charged, but it would afterwards.

The chancellor expressed the hope that the time for putting the scheme into operation had not arrived, but, if it had, the plan would do something to relieve the anxiety of the shipping of the mercantile world.

A royal proclamation today appealed to all citizens in the present crisis to respect the orders of all military and civil officials, and to render them all assistance in their work.

By another proclamation the government took control of the railways which are to be operated by a committee.

BUILDING AND ORNAMENTAL STONES OF NEW BRUNSWICK

(Montreal Gazette)

The building and ornamental stones of the maritime provinces are the subject of a report by William A. Parks, issued by the department of mines at Ottawa. While in Quebec limestone of the best quality for building purposes is abundant in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia it appears to be rare. The reliance of the builder and architect is on granite and sandstone. Quebec has granite of good quality, but has little or no sandstone. Its granite is in large blocks and is supplied largely from the United States, while some has been brought from Scotland.

What is said in Mr. Parks' report about the sandstones of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island suggests that its wants might well be supplied from nearer home. The colors of the sandstone are grey, red, yellow and brown, so that all tastes may be satisfied. The stones have been used in the construction of public and other buildings and have stood the test of time and the weather. They might well be more used if more was known about them. The report should help to this end.

THE HEIR TO AUSTRIA'S THRONE

Budapest, Hungary, Aug. 5.—While the new heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne, the Archduke Charles Francis Joseph, is not so well known in Hungary as in Austria, his popularity has been spreading with the telling of numerous anecdotes illustrative of his democratic simplicity.

The story of his honeymoon, which came with his marriage to the Princess Zita of Parma in 1911, has it that from Warholts castle the young couple journeyed regularly to the village to see the moving picture shows. When the films lost their novelty they ordered new reels for the proprietor.

Again, while in Posony, the ancient coronation city of Hungary, they entered a barber shop to buy a comb. They were recognized by three officers being shaved, who jumped from their chairs and saluted with lathered faces, to the astonishment of the barbers.

The Archduke's sympathy for Hungary is well known, and both he and his princess speak the Hungarian language well. It is said the new heir and his consort have chosen the magnificent royal palace at Buda as their abode.

Missionary Conference

Acadia College, Wolfville (N. S.), has been the scene of much activity during the past few days. Delegates to the 10th annual conference of the United Order of the Daughters of the Empire at a meeting today decided to appeal to all women's organizations for subscriptions towards placing a hospital ship at the disposal of the British admiralty.

WALTHAM BANKER JOINS BENEDICTS

On Trip from Coast He Weds Bride of Seventy-two Years in Chicago

Chicago, Aug. 5.—J. M. Braly, a millionaire banker of Pasadena, Cal., and Mrs. Mary Howard Gidley of Glendale, Cal., married in Chicago long enough to get married. News of the marriage is not a surprise. They left the coast last Tuesday, each ostensibly on a pleasure trip. The bridegroom is 81 years old. His bride is 72.

The one who performed the ceremony is not known. Mr. and Mrs. Braly are on their way to Poughkeepsie and will go later to New York. They will sail for Europe to spend their honeymoon.

Mr. Braly decided all of his property except $100,000 to his children before his marriage. They are under contract to pay him $8,000 a month income as long as he lives.

(Boston Globe)

Mayor James M. Curley, his wife, two children and a party of friends were rescued from a broken-down power boat between Haverling and Minots Light yesterday afternoon, after they had been tossed about in a heavy sea for nearly two hours. The mayor's secretary, the superintendent of Rainsford Island, and two other men were also on board.

The party left Hull on the launch Rainford for an afternoon's outing, and had reached a point several miles below Boston light when the engine broke down. A strong southwesterly breeze was blowing and the tiny craft tossed and pitched in the turbulent seas until nearly the entire party, including the mayor, were seasick.

The gasoline yacht Donalce went to the assistance of the party, but was unable to take the boat in tow. The tugboat Junio, Capt. Benjamin Kemp, was lying off Boston Lightship waiting for a tow, and the Donalce hastened from the broken down boat to ask for her services. Captain Kemp immediately went to their aid and after taking Mayor Curley and his party on board, the crippled launch was taken in tow and the tug headed for Hull.

The accident happened before three p. m. and it was 4.30 before the tug picked up the excursionists.

C. P. R. Fiscal Year Figures

Net Earnings Were Almost Four Million Dollars Less Than in Preceding Year - Earnings in June Showed Considerable Improvement Over May

(Montreal Journal of Commerce.)

With the month of June the Canadian Pacific Railway Company has brought its fiscal year to a close and operating figures covering that period are now available.

Both the gross and net earnings in 1913-14 are very materially less than they were in 1912-13, but so great were the economies effected in the management of the line that the latter show a much less decline than the former. While the gross decrease amounted to $9,860,876, the net decrease aggregated $3,819,947.

Statement of earnings and expenses, for the month of June and for the year to date compare as follows:-

	1914	1913	Decrease
Gross earnings	$10,084,241.08	$11,074,480.42	$1,020,009.80
Working expenses	6,718,798.10	8,046,076.84	1,327,278.74
Net profits	$3,365,442.98	$3,028,403.58	$337,039.40
Gross earnings from July 1 to June 30, 1914	$42,485,927.07	$41,315,874.15	$1,169,052.92
Gross earnings from July 1 to June 30, 1913	$40,150,897.15	$40,150,897.15	$0

A comparison of the gross and net earnings by months throughout the past year is as follows:-

Month	1913-14	1912-13	1911-12
July	$1,108,092	$1,020,808	$4,116,708

LONDON SOCIETY

Lord Curzon's Daughter To Wed Lord Althorp?

CANADIANS ABROAD

Gossip of Duchess and Actress Who Has Usurped Her Place - The Queen's Ban on Some Society Folk

(Times Special Correspondence.)

London, July 23.-Lord Althorp, the son of Earl Spencer, is seen about a great deal at the same parties as Lady Mary Curzon and they appear to be the best of friends, as a rule, though they certainly had a difference of opinion at the opera the other night when, with party, they were sitting next each other in the royal box.

Lord Althorp is one of the great party men in the exclusive set which is on terms of intimacy with the royal family and their Majesties' father early this year.

Lady Mary is exceedingly ambitious and is quite determined to marry brightly. She is rather too clever to be popular with the young men. It is being said by those who ought to know that there is an "understanding" between her and Lord Althorp, but that her father, Lord Curzon, will not hear of another year at least. Lord Curzon who is most certainly "showering" his daughter, finds chaperoning a bit of bore and no doubt would be glad to have her "settled".

One afternoon last week the automobile of a well known duchess was to be seen in front of the residence of a very popular musical comedy and music-hall artist, the object of Her Grace's visit being to induce the actress to use her influence with the duke not to carry out certain threats against his wife and relations, the article being the only one who has any real influence with him. I hear the ladies took tea together and to marry a commoner, and is hemmed in to a degree unknown to freer mortals.

Private Life.

The emperor was so fond of his pipe, which in later years was a constant companion. So too, the poor Cinderella Empress was. And it seems a pity that she should have drifted apart and died a violent death at the hands of an assassin.

But it is pleasant to tell stories of Francis Joseph's kindnesses to Francis Joseph's kindheartedness than of his misdeeds, and of each anecdote there is no end. A little barefooted boy ran towards the emperor's carriage as he was driving into Vienna one day, threw a letter into it, and disappeared down a side street. The boy, whose name was Joseph, was out of employment, and had written a pathetic letter to His Majesty requesting assistance for his father, a carpenter, who was out of employment, and for his five little brothers and sisters, who were starving at home. He added that he would give up his position as a soldier for the rest of his life as soon as he should reach the age of twenty-one. His Majesty would help them. By the emperor's command investigations were made, and the family was found to be in great distress. Francis Joseph sent them a considerable sum of money, and he also placed the boy Joseph in a high-class technical school.

The Karolyi Curse

A son of the Countess Karolyi had been slain as a rebel in that tragic war of the Succession in Hungary. And she had pronounced this curse upon the emperor:-

"May Heaven and Hell blast his happiness! May his family be exterminated! May he be smitten in the persons of those he loves! May his life be wrecked, and may his children be brought to ruin!"

She has a formidable list. The marriage failure, involving separation, the tragic death of their son, Rudolph, in the steam "Waldsee" tragedy, the assassination of the empress. Add to this the murder of the emperor's brother-in-law by Mexican Republican rebels, and several minor incidents of fatal import. His long reign has been fraught with international trouble, and the progress of war on a large scale after the Balkan struggle was but narrowly averted. For some time the old man's health has given grave anxiety and the very succession is likely to give cause for fresh debate; so that a discussion of European politics is incomplete without the recollection of this leading, if old, actor on the stage of nations. Since this was written the present war broke out.

THE MONARCH OF AUSTRO-HUNGARY

Emperor Francis Joseph, Head of The Unhappy Hapsburg Family

(T. P.'s Weekly)

The humanity of the Austrian Emperor is revealed in his dealings with the peasantry. In his earlier days the emperor had many adventures in the mountains, for, undistinguished in the shooting hit by any mark of his rank, the Tyrolean peasants often failed to recognize him. Once, when he was descending late in the evening from one of these expeditions, he met an old wrinkled peasant woman, grumbling and grumbling under the weight of a faggot. The emperor addressed a cheery good evening to her. His overtures were not at all well received, for the old lady was in a very bad temper. "If I were a great strong man," she observed "I should like to help a body to carry the faggot, and carried it for nearly two miles to the nearest village, with the old lady grumbling at him behind. It was only when she saw the imperial foresters anxiously looking out for their master, that she shifted her burden to the heavily-weighted shoulders of the emperor. The burden of Empire.

Truly those shoulders have carried a weight. He was born in 1830, a son of the Archduke Francis Charles and of Sophie, daughter of Maximilian I. of Bavaria, and had a good training for one born of a royal house, destined to weather stormy seas. His position as a future Austrian ruler made it necessary for him to know French, Italian, German, Czech and Polish. The diplomatic art he learnt from Metternich himself. And as a soldier he learnt all that need be known by infantry, cavalry, or artillery men. Literature, chemistry and mathematics were subjects in which his mother saw that he had a thorough grounding. And it is a well known fact that Vienna musical circles are much exercised as to whether his successor will subsidize the fine opera house to the same extent.

The very year of his birth had been one of revolution in Austria, and 1848 a critical year for Italy and Austria were at loggerheads. It must be remembered that at that time there was no German Empire, nor a United Italy. What is now the Triple Alliance was as divided as the Balkan States today. And Austria and Hungary were severed by racial differences which are to this day fundamental. "Farewell to Youth," said the emperor on his accession.

The Hungarian War

The very year following his accession race war began. Austria accepted the emperor. Tyrol was loyal. But the Hungarians would accept him only as King of Hungary subject to their own law. Francis Joseph has told us the details of that dreadful civil strife that even the good-natured, young monarch could not avert. Croatian soldiers were given leave to ravish and pillage. Women, including a lady of the manor were dragged into public view and flogged. Executions were general. Refugees even sought an asylum in Turkey. Whether the emperor in the midst of unexampled grief at Vienna, knew of the horrors he had committed in his name was not known. Probably he knew and was powerless. Well might he have said, "Farewell to Youth."

Emperor and School Girl

In the midst of the youth not yet twenty met his cousin, Princess Elizabeth of Bavaria, who was but sixteen. He had gone to Italy to be betrothed to his sister, Helen. But at a ball the emperor and the school girl danced together half the night in defiance of court etiquette. The very next morning the betrothal was announced. In Austria there is a betrothal ceremony, and as the guests came out he said to his bride-to-be:-

"This is the happiest day of my life. I owe my happiness to you, and I thank you for the light that you have brought into my life!"

"Perhaps it was the happiest day. For that red rose of passion crumpled and crumpled as the betrothal of a 'Yes,' a tragic red rose of passion came untimely to flower.

The empress was said to be the most beautiful woman in Europe. She had, too, a trace of Hungarian ancestry, and this was a good omen from the national point of view. Her very name, Elizabeth of Hungary, was good to hear. Hypochondria and jealousy were the rocks that split the bark. In a platonic way the emperor had a great friendship for the Archduchess Elisabeth, and this the young Elisabeth was too foolish to relearn from Metternich himself. And as a soldier he learnt all that need be known by infantry, cavalry, or artillery men. Literature, chemistry and mathematics were subjects in which his mother saw that he had a thorough grounding. And it is a well known fact that Vienna musical circles are much exercised as to whether his successor will subsidize the fine opera house to the same extent.

Counsel Sink Their Political Differences Both Sides Agree To Do All In Their Power To Bring Dugal Inquiries To a Close in View of Declaration of War—The Need of The New York Books Now The Only Barrier

The announcement of war, the summoning of parliament and the preparations for the international conflict have made their influence felt on the Dugal inquiry. At this morning's session Mr. Carvell, chief counsel for Mr. Dugal, took the lead and announced that he and his associates were willing to bring the matters to a close. This course was suggested not only for the purpose of leaving those engaged in the inquiry free for various public duties, but also that the political differences which inevitably relate to the matter should not be allowed to affect the public mind at a time when the whole country stands shoulder to shoulder. Mr. Carvell suggested that the timber lands charges should be argued tomorrow and the railway charges adjourned for a few days, while another effort is made to secure the New York books. Counsel on both sides declared their willingness to do everything possible to expedite matters, the only difference arising from the continuance of the demand for the railway company's books. No decision regarding the arrangements was reached this morning. The session was marked by an earnest desire to clear up all details in which counsel for both sides joined. P. F. Blanchet and R. D. Hohen were the only witnesses and their evidence produced nothing new. When the court was called to order Mr. Carvell addressed the commission, saying: "It is my opinion that, in view of the momentous occurrences which have marked the last few days, we should close this inquiry as soon as possible. The inquiry was commenced with the honest intention of clearing up the business of New Brunswick political matters here and there, they could not be left out, and on this account I feel that the inquiry should not be prolonged more than necessary. The timber inquiry is completed except for the evidence of 'Mr. Berry,' which I am assured will be brought in tomorrow. It was our purpose to call Mr. Fleming to supplement the evidence of Mr. Kennedy. I do not feel that we can proceed intelligently with the railway inquiry until the books are brought here from New York and I do not see why they could not be brought here within four or five days. We wanted a long cross-examination of Ross Thompson but am willing to forego that but if we adjourn without the books it would only be fair to hear Messrs. Baxter and McLeod, his evidence dealing with matters which have been brought out before. Ralph D. Holden was then recalled and examined by Mr. Hohen regarding details of the accounts, Mr. Carvell asked for a statement of the cost of the station buildings, etc., and copies of the contracts. Mr. Teed put the witness through a brief cross-examination before the commission adjourned.

COMMON COUNCIL

The common council this morning met for the first time under the new arrangement of three meetings a week. Commissioner Russell moved that the Wednesday and Friday meetings be meetings of a committee of the whole, and this was agreed to. The mayor presided, and Commissioners Wigmore, Russell and Potts and the common clerk were present. On motion of Com. Wigmore the tender of Fred Nice for the water extension in Sand Cove road was accepted, being the lowest—rock, $3,500, and earth, $60; a lineal foot—estimated total $2,450. On motion of Com. Wigmore the tender of French, Moses and Simons, for water extension in the Marsh road, was accepted, being the lowest—rock, $3,225; a lineal foot, and earth 78c—estimated $1,816. Sand Cove road extension, His Worship said that the revenue was only $1,000. Com. Wigmore said that a people there had built with an anticipation of the water extension. Com. Potts suggested that the city might take the contract and employ many men who were now out of work. Com. Wigmore said that the price was so low that it could hardly be done cheaper. Com. Potts—"We may have a hard winter and there are men who will be forced out of work." The contract was awarded on motion of Com. Wigmore, who promised to see that only city men were employed. The commissioner recommended that permission be given the Rhodes Curry Company, Ltd., to tunnel across Prince William street to the Globe building and to connect the post office sewer with the St. John street sewer, upon a bond to the satisfaction of the recorder being given the city that the company will indemnify the city for any damage which might arise from the company's operations in tunnelling the street, and that the company also pay for entering the sewer in St. John street in the usual manner. This was carried. It was pointed out that the depth of the cellar of the new post office would not allow sewerage connection with the Prince William street sewer. A bill from the Granite Street Park and Construction Co., for $202.25 for curbing Mill and Gernain streets was ordered paid. A motion passed authorizing the controller to refund to the department of public works the cost of the permanent sidewalk placed in front of the C. P. R. property in Mill street. This work was paid for out of the appropriations, and the cost was to have been covered by bond issue.

VICTORIAN HELD Messrs William Thomson & Co. local agents for the Allan Line have received advice that the steamer Victorian, which was to have sailed yesterday from Montreal and Quebec, has been held at Quebec and is expected to sail from there on Friday. Although no reason was given for the detention of the steamer it is supposed that on account of the European trouble, the Allan Line will not let their steamer sail without an escort and arrangements along this line are being made.

MRS. MARY L. WISTED The death of Mrs. Mary L. Wisted occurred this morning at her residence, 5 St. David street, after an illness of several months with nervous prostration and heart trouble. She was forty-nine years of age and is survived by four sons, Thomas E., Frederick M., Charles and Leo; and three daughters, Mrs. E. Ricketts, of the Marsh Road; Mrs. Leo Holland, of St. Patrick street, and one daughter at home.

HALIFAX GETTING READY The work of putting the fortifications of Halifax on an effective war basis, and completing the precautions necessary to guard the harbor, were continued all day Monday and yesterday. The naval law, under which the harbor and all government property along the waterfront are now governed, was in full force, and the citizens who had business at the dockyard and other naval centers were made acquainted with the strict discipline of such contingencies. No one is allowed to enter or leave naval property without a pass.

CANNOT GET HOME YET. Miss Royce Carter, daughter of E. S. Carter, of Rothesay, who has been spending two months at her brother, Arthur, on the continent and in England and Scotland, intended to return home on the 19th, but as that and other steamers for Canadian ports are not sailing, will be detained at other New Brunswick ports. The Misses Kitchen of Vancouver, daughters of Willard Kitchen, were with Miss Carter in Paris on July 24, but left for England a few days later. They also are detained.

THE 'PRENTICE BOYS' At a meeting of the 'Prentice Boys' lodge in West St. John last evening, it was decided to observe Decoration day on next Sunday. Headed by the Carleton Cornet Band, the members will march from their hall on the West Side to Cedar Hill and decorate the graves of twelve of their departed members. Delegations will be sent at the same time to Ferrisville and Lorneville cemeteries. After the decoration ceremonies, the procession will march to the Fairville lodge's hall. The members also decided last evening to attend in a body the picnic to be given on August 12 by the Lorneville lodge.

A DREDGING MATTER

The matter of the disposition of the material that is being dredged from the channel at Courtenay Bay, was brought before the commissioners by Mayor Prink at this morning's council meeting. His Worship said that he had noticed the hopper scoops take their loads from the dredges and around and dump the silt on the other side of the breakwater. This may be, from an engineering standpoint, all right, but to me or any other ordinary individual, it seems a strange method of disposing of it. I cannot see what is to prevent the matter from washing back again into the place from which it was taken. On motion of Commissioner Wigmore, the mayor was authorized to confer with the recorder and then communicate with the proper authorities in order to get a statement of the situation.

RIOTING CASES ARE TO BE DEALT WITH FRIDAY

A variety of cases came before the attention of Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning. Thomas Shannon, William Eddeleston, and William Chambers, charged with riotous conduct, were brought in and again remanded to jail. The magistrate said he would endeavor to dispose of the rioting cases on Friday. Robert Jackson, who was arrested on Kennebecasis Island by Special Officer McBrine, was brought in and also remanded to jail. Joseph Henry was fined $50 or three months in jail with hard labor for actions in Rockwood Park. Dunire Warasick, an Austrian, charged with window breaking, was sent back to jail until tomorrow morning. His companion, Wasile Savenak, was allowed out yesterday on depositing $10. Warasick agreed to pay the balance of the damage. Louis Feder was told to have the work done and submit the bill in the morning. Harry Watt, charged with stealing bags from Steen Bros., was remanded to jail.

The Man In The Street

What's the use of writing this stuff, when all the people want to read it was news!

Standard on Monday came out with one page upside down. Excitement in the office must have been worse than in Germany.

News head speaks of "new recruits" when they become old!

"We will walk," is still the motto of many North Enders who desire to feel sure of getting home within a definite time.

Often heard of the Blue Danube, but probably the people in that vicinity are even bluer, now.

Fellow told us yesterday he had a "pair of opera," on a fishing trip. He wasn't referring to poker—he meant corkers.

The old-time "bus" was slow, but, to resort to slang, it didn't have much on the car service in North End, these days.

Considering the range of the camera, we'd just as soon X-ray a motion picture photographer near the Franco-German frontier.

If all our soldiers go to war, who's going to attend the exhibition?

Boston woman's diary has complete record of her husband's night life, in recent years. The record may be not to wed a recording angel.

The old song says "Old Budweiser's a friend of the Kaiser." That probably explains why several of our patriotic acquaintances eschew our own Budweiser at every opportunity.

Taking market prospects on coal as an indication, we may be burning rage this winter.

News note says "900,000,000 spent for diamonds in United States last year." Perhaps, for it is true that some girls become engaged more than two or three times a year.

Most Convenient To show how truly accommodating the street car service in North End has actually become, a man was seen last night to get out of a car which had been stalled near Paradise Row, enter a shoe emporium nearby, and have his shoes shined. Nothing unusual in that, for the car to resume its normal course, he had to be waiting for the shoe emporium, or rather the Greek was, in having his shoes polished. And then when the performance was ended, he coolly returned to the car, and continued reading his paper, waiting for another dash onward.

Many an amused smile was cast in the direction of a well known ecleclectic who proceeded along Charlotte street on Sunday evening on his way to conduct divine services. It was not because of the reverend's gait, but because of the interest he was manifesting in the war. Under one arm he carried a Bible, but in his hand was a copy of the extra war edition of the Times, which he was reading intently.

NEWFOUNDLANDERS WILL MAN THE NIOBE The Newfoundland Naval Reserve will man the Canadian cruiser Niobe. Over 1,000 of these men efficiently and thoroughly trained for either naval or militia service, it is stated, will be brought to Halifax immediately. The reserve is being mobilized in Newfoundland, both for service there and in Nova Scotia. The strength of the force numerically is about 1,600.

Preparations for making ready the Niobe, which has been lying idle at the Dockyard Pier in Halifax ever since the government put this valuable training cruiser out of commission two years ago, are going on apace, and the ship is being provisioned for three months for 1,600 men. Advertisements appear calling for forty volunteers to man the engine room. The ship will be put into an effective working order as possible, and with such a magnificently trained body of men, as are the naval reserve of Newfoundland, manning her, the Niobe is expected to be a most effective addition to the protective facilities of Halifax and the coast of Nova Scotia in the event of hostilities.

The Sussex News and Kings County Advocate is the latest addition to New Brunswick journalism. The News will be issued every Saturday. The first issue in addition to the news of Sussex contains correspondence from many sections of Kings County and presents an attractive appearance. Considerable attention is given to agricultural matters. The News announces that it is not controlled by any party or clique, and will be independent of both political parties.
