ALICE IN WONDERLAND

To crowd the Opera House at a mid-week matinee, when a performance is on for a whole week, is something new in St. John; but Alice in Wonderland did it yesterday. Miss Ruth Simonds took the part of Alice and delighted the audience with her clever work. All the principals in the cast were more at home, and the play went with greater smoothness throughout. The house was filled to the doors again last evening, and the performance as a whole was the best that has yet been given. Marion Belding as Alice was entirely at home in the various scenes, and two bouquets were presented to her. A similar tribute was paid to several others among the young performers, while there were many encores and unstinted applause as the play went on. Those who have not seen it can form no conception of the charming succession of bright pictures that follow in rapid succession as the prettily costumed children appear in scene after scene, with rapid motion, catchy music and changing lights; while the specialist acts of exceptional merit, and the work of the young ladies and gentlemen in the parts allotted to them deserves the highest praise. "I had no idea you had such talent, that could be so well developed in a short time," said a lady from the west last evening. "I think it is wonderful." The advance sale for tonight indicates another crowded house. Miss Ruth Simonds will appear in the title role.

Lumbering Near Salisbury
Chip McFarlane, of Lewis Mountain, Salisbury, expects to carry on a lumber operation on a large scale at Indian Mountain this winter. Mr. McFarlane has bought up the David Rogers lumber areas and will move his portable mill, which has been cutting all summer at South Bay, Saint John, to this lumber chance. The sawn lumber will be hauled from the mill by Catamount siding on the Northern N. C. R. above Berry's Mills, and shipped to Saint John by rail. This big lumber operation at the Mountain this winter will give employment to a large number of men and teams.

Sir George Donaldson, in Suit, Tells of Picture Bought For $50,000 and Sold For $75,000 — $2,000 One Brought $25,000

London, Nov. 6.—The great profits made by art dealers from American purchasers were exposed in the testimony given today in the suit brought against Sir George Donaldson, by Alfred G. Temple, the art expert, for commission in connection with the sale of a collection of old masters to the United States Senator William A. Clark for $740,000. Judgment was given to Mr. Temple for $77,000 and the Lord Chief Justice, who tried the suit, awarded him another $3,700 as recompense for the detention of the money by Sir George Donaldson since 1909, when the last deal took place with Mr. Clark.

In the course of cross examination Sir George Donaldson testified that he had made a big profit from Mr. Clark. He said he had bought a picture by Turner for $20,000 and had sold it for $75,000 and he had acquired a seascape by Jan Van Goyen for $2,000 and had sold it for $25,000.

AMUSEMENTS IN ST. JOHN; WHAT THE PLAYHOUSES OFFER

FINE MID-WEEK BILL AT THE GEM
Those who attended the Gem Theatre yesterday now understand fully the meaning of the phrase "A Man Hunt." Much has been written concerning the most awful of ordeals, this organized trail of a man who is generally wanted for some criminal action, but few really appreciate the utter significance of the term, nor can they do so unless they were to witness the harrowing grill in question. At the Gem yesterday, however, the feature of the programme was a two reel production entitled "The Man Hunt," in which the factors which compose an organized search by wretched citizens for a criminal were cleverly displayed, and interwoven with a tender story of love and pathos which lent charm to the narrative and added to the general interest. The feature took well and those who saw it were well pleased.

There was also a comedy "The Listeners' Lesson," dealing with two old maid anxious to marry and their schemes to lead into the matrimony mesh two nearby farmers who were slightly more cunning than they and defeated their way plans. Miss Grace Holcombe, a new singer, is proving a decided hit, and making a most favorable impression with her audience, while the orchestra also had a nice new programme yesterday.

A Bit of Railroad History
St. Andrews Beacon.—Addressing a teachers' conference in Toronto recently, W. J. Thomson outlined the historical development of railway construction in Canada. Among other things he said was that an attempt was made in 1827, two years after Stephenson completed the first railway in England, to construct a railway between St. Andrews, N. B., and Quebec, but the project was dropped. Mr. Thompson was not very accurate in his figures. The minute-book of the "Transactions of the St. Andrews and Quebec Railroad Association," which we have access to, shows that the first meeting in furtherance of this object was held in St. Andrews on October 5, 1835. Right of way had been surveyed as far as the international boundary, and fourteen miles of track laid from St. Andrews before the international difficulties intervened and compelled the stoppage of the work. This was several years after the project had been mooted.

Boxes are best for verbena, heliotrope lobelia, agratum, alyssum, etc., which all need a frost-proof structure later on, but are best rooted in a cold frame. Keep the frames close during the day, air at night, and prevent flagging by spraying on bright days, and having the sashes white-washed till roots are formed.

HERE ARE SOME SOLDIERS WHO FORCED TURKEY TO SUE FOR PEACE

BULGARIAN ARTILLERY IN ACTION

The war in the Balkans had hardly started before it seemed to be over. Turkey was whipped at all points and in every engagement. It mattered not whether Serbians, Montenegrins or Bulgarians engaged the Turks, the soldiers of the Sultan were whipped. The Bulgarians and the Montenegrins had well equipped artillery and many rapid fire Maxim guns that proved to be deadly when actual fighting began.

Sofia, Nov. 6.-The Turkish army, commanded by Maxim Pasha, was completely crushed in the great battle of the last two days on the Serai Tchokur line. According to the semi-officials the Turks lost 10,000 men, more than double the losses at Lule Burgas. The Bulgarians are now pursuing the defeated army.

The sanguinary character of the recent engagement, which it is reported have involved the loss of 40,000 men, has been due to the extraordinary energy of the Bulgarian attack.

The view of the Bulgarian staff is that the Turks are so demoralized that frontal attacks may be undertaken even against the strongest positions without superior forces, and the Turkish shortage of artillery and ammunition has contributed to the success of these tactics.

The Bulgarian vanguard, it is said, has reached Lake Derka, one detachment passing between the lake and sea.

Another line of the Bulgarian advance is reported to be attacking the forts in front of the town of Tchatalia, while still another column, which marched down the main road from Tchatalia to Silivri, is now advancing to Bogdova, for the purpose of forcing a passage along the coast of the Sea of Marmora.

These, however, are only flying columns. The main body has not yet commenced the attack on the Tchatalia fortifications.

According to statements made by prominent public men in Sofia, Bulgaria is not making any progress against the Bulgarians, but it is said that entry into Constantinople is no part of the allied plan. Bulgaria will not listen to the suggestion of peace negotiations unless Turkey gives an undertaking to bring no more reinforcements from Asia.

VALLEY RAILWAY WORK

Kennedy and Macdonald, the Contractors, are Rushing Construction From Woodstock to Centreville (Woodstock Press).

Considering the unfavorable weather all summer, Kennedy and Macdonald, the contractors, who have the territory from Woodstock to Centreville are extremely pleased at the large amount of work done on their contract.

There are three divisional engineers on the section, Mr. Wetmore at Woodstock, Mr. Crossdale farther north, and Mr. McKenzie from Lakeville to Centreville. The latter has been going over the right of way in his territory, locating and erecting camps. The sub-contractors have been let and work will commence immediately to be continued all winter in the rock cuts.

Some 500 men are now employed on this section. About sixty Bulgarians have left within the past two weeks, en route to Bulgaria to join their former regiment now having a successful war against the Turks; there are about seventy-five more here, who have decided to stay with the job, feeling satisfied that the Turks can be trimmed without their assistance.

The sub-contractors who will be continued until this section is completed, and who will do all the work with probably one more additional contractor, commencing from Woodstock going north, are A. J. McInnis, Kennedy and Fraser, W. McE. Archibald, Mitchell and Buchanland, McMillan and McGillivray. These contractors extend to Lindsay, but the two former firms, A. J. McInnis and Kennedy & Fraser have finished their first contract and are moving north toward Centreville.

The fencing and telegraph pole contract on this section is held by Fleming & Babkirk; they are rushing the work and have now reached Lindsay.

Scott & Kelly the sub-contractors below town have a large crew of men grading on the west side of the C. P. R. near the lower end of town, to enable a spur line to be laid to connect with the C. P. R., so that the steam shovel, rails, etc., can be got to the work being done previously by the contractors, the steam shovel in particular being required by the contractors as soon as it can possibly be got in by rail; it will take nearly a month before the grading will be finished to enable the spur line to be built.

Kennedy and Macdonald are personally doing some seven miles of heavy rock cutting; they have 150 men at work; starting at the Houlton road, near the Stratford Park, they have finished some three miles up to the crossing of the Medunank; some of these cuts were 50 feet deep; they will now commence the other four miles after crossing the creek, which will be really heavier work than the three miles now commenced. These seven miles of heavy cuts will be completed by May 1st, when Gallivan's swamp will be reached and it will be a comparatively level country from there to Lakeville.

The contractors, Kennedy and Macdonald, have decided to build the bridge across the creek themselves; they are working on the excavation and foundation at present and will continue during the winter months. The bridge will be 300 feet long.

INQUIRY INTO DEATH OF BERNARD CRIBBS

The inquiry into the death of Bernard Cribbs, who was killed by falling down an elevator shaft in the Opera House block on Saturday last, was begun by Coroner Berriman in the police court room last night. Most of the evidence submitted was concerning the nature of the protection of the shaft and the opening leading to it at the time of the accident. The witnesses were Chief Kerr and District Foreman Charles Jackson of the fire department; John Kenney, factory inspector for New Brunswick; Harry N. DeMille, Master A. King and George Lobb. Chief Kerr told of inspecting the elevator in company with Mr. Jackson. He considered the entrances to the elevator shaft on the second and third floors were good, but that the one on the first floor was not. He thought that if there had been a guard inside the door that the accident would not have happened. He also said that there were no lights near the elevator.

Inspector Kenney gave a report of his inspection of the building. He testified that he found the lower entrance protected by two narrow doors, fastening in the centre, and also by a low picket gate which lifted up and down. The entrances on the second and third floors were protected with low gates. He thought the protection was sufficient for all practical purposes.

Harry DeMille told of finding the body in the elevator shaft, and of taking it to the hospital. George Lobb told of being with Cribbs and others in one of the rooms on the Saturday night in question, and said that all were perfectly sober. The inquest was further adjourned until Monday night at seven o'clock.

What Good Roads Mean

(From the Toronto News)

One has only to visit Great Britain to find out what smooth highways mean to the people. Even the lanes invite vehicular traffic. France has not only good roads through the country, but the neighborhood roads leading in and out amongst the farms from the main highways are generally excellent. In that country only competent and authorized engineers are allowed to meddle with roads. You do not find mountain road changing its grade suddenly. The national highways are the widest and best tended; they are divided into short sections, each with its government contractor, who has his house and tools alongside and goes over his section every day as if it were a railway.

MAYOR FRINK AND W. B. STEWART TALK OF THE STEEL INDUSTRY PLANS

(Daily Telegraph)

When asked about the proposition after the meeting yesterday, Mayor Frink said that the scheme seemed quite feasible, and that the people back of it seemed to consider steel works here as a paying proposition. The plans as presented to the commissioners had not spent much time considering them yet but he thought the matter of the ownership of the foreshore and the reclaimed land would have to be settled before the city could guarantee the bonds. He hoped for the adjustment of matters so that the steel works could be erected as soon as possible.

His Sister Took Him to the Neal Institute

He Had Drank for Twenty Years

It takes years of drinking for one to become a drunkard. The appetite for liquor gradually but steadily grows upon the drinker and he finds that it requires more liquor each succeeding year to satisfy him. Then he must have liquor, cannot do without it. Now he is a slave to drink. However much he would like to quit it he cannot of his own accord, for he cannot resist the craving of his appetite. This is why his sister took him to the Neal Institute. For many years he was a prosperous business man, but lost everything through drink. He was a pitiable subject. His sister paid for his cure. At the end of his third day at the Institute, when his treatment was completed, she came to see him. He was a changed man, all desire, craving and appetite for liquor gone. Putting her arms lovingly around her brother's neck, she said: "Oh, how I wish mother was alive to see you now."

Bronchitis begins with a tightness across the chest, difficulty of breathing and a wheezing sound comes from the lungs. There is also a raising of phlegm from the lungs, especially in the morning. On the first sign of a cold or cough take Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and prevent it turning to bronchitis, for once bronchitis gets installed into the system it is only a short step to Consumption.

MRS. GRONLUND'S LECTURE

An interesting lecture on Norway and Sweden was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Gronlund before the ladies association of the Natural History Society. Mrs. Gronlund led her audience through the Scandinavian Land of the Midnight Sun. Norway and Sweden were not dotted over with royal palaces as were the British Isles. The early kings of these countries were primitive in their manner of life, but their homes were not made the centres of courts of luxury, but the homes of the kings of the north were the most beautiful in the illustrations referred to. Their pictures were thrown into the screen as was the picture of the famous ingalle, and Christine Nilsson, opera singer. The lecture was brought to a close with the singing of the National Anthem. The members of the association gave Mrs. Gronlund a hearty vote of thanks. On November 12 will be given the next lecture of the course by Mrs. Ellis on Rome.

THE BLESSING OF MOTHERHOOD

Healthy Mothers and Children Make Happy Homes

Motherhood is woman's highest sphere in life. It is the fruition of her dearest hopes and greatest desires; yet thousands of noble women through some derangement have been denied this blessing. In many homes one childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong. This is evidenced by the following letters which are genuine and truthful:

London, Ont.—"I wish to thank you for the benefit I received by taking your famous medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before my baby was born I was so ill I could not stand long of walk any distance. I had to lie down nearly all the time. After I took your medicine I felt like a new woman. I could work from morning till night and was happy and well. I certainly think it relieves pain at childbirth and recommend it to every woman who is pregnant. You may use this testimonial if you like. It may help some other woman."—Mrs. FRANK GOSNOLD, 122 Adelaide St., London, Ont.

Brooklyn, N.Y.—"It was alling all the time and did not know what the matter was. I wanted a baby but my health would not permit it. I was nervous, my side ached and I was all run down. I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was good and took the medicine. I have now a beautiful baby and your Compound has helped me in every way."—Mrs. J. J. STEWART, 299 Humber St., Brooklyn, N.Y.

Duffy Has Offer of $7,000. St. Paul, Nov. 6.—Hughie Duffy, former manager of the Chicago White Sox, has had an offer of $7,000 to manage the local American Association team next year, according to a report in circulation here. That figure would be the largest ever paid to a St. Paul manager.

Likely Lynch Again. New York, Nov. 6.—That Tom Lynch will be released president of the National League seems to be a foregone conclusion. The magnates may even make his term four or five years this time, for it has been demonstrated that the very short term is impracticable. While Lynch was criticised for permitting Murphy and Fogel to go as far as they did during the last year, his honesty and integrity have never been questioned, and his personal conduct is a credit to the game.

One or two instances might be picked out where the head of the National League failed to display the drastic efficiency of a Ben Johnson, but on the run of the season he earned himself another term, and the National League cannot afford to abandon him now in the face of the Fogel fuss.

VanDyke for Red Sox. Worcester, Nov. 6.—Ben Van Dyke will get a chance with the Red Sox all right. Treasurer John J. O'Donnell of Worcester baseball club has received a letter from James R. McAler, president of the Red Sox asking for the home address of Van Dyke a contract for next season. Van Dyke joined the Red Sox at the close of the New England league season, and worked in two games. McAler's intention to sign him for next season indicates that he will give the pitcher a chance in the spring.

To Introduce It in France. Richard Klein of Sioux City, a baseball magnate intends to take two teams of semi-professional ball players over to France in April or May of next year to play a series of games, and to introduce baseball to that country. After the game gets going in France, he intends introducing it in Italy and other countries.

A Spy in Camp? It is reported that the baseball circles of the big leagues that President Murphy of the Chicago Nationals, had a man engaged during the playing months to report to him wins the players were saying about the management of the team; that the man in question was carried with the team wherever it went, and was supposed to be one of the players.

The Ring Says Carpenter Was Starved. Paris, Nov. 6.—Descamps, the French boxing champion's trainer, says that Carpenter lost the match with Papke from having to reduce himself to the weight limit. "Ten days before the day," he says.

STEPPING BACK IS A BLACK MARK AGAINST BATTER

"Give me a natural hitter and I will make a ball player out of him," is the oft-repeated prescription of John McGraw, manager of the Giants, when discussing the requisites of a big leaguer. Few good hitters have been manufactured. Like poets, painters and other artists, they are born, not made, the latent talent lying there to be developed. To continue along the McGraw line of thought the baseball club out of a lot of batters and has won two consecutive pennants with it. It is a notable fact that in team fielding the Giants are away down near the bottom of the list, but in the slugging column they are always near the top. There are certain it is difficult to correct that will improve hitting.

The cardinal sin of batting is "stepping back." Many a youngster comes into the big leagues in the spring with his head full of hope and stimulated by the same ambition to climb which actuates men of the walks of life, and goes out in the field and does sensational work. Then comes the "take a turn at bat," says the manager. "The recruit walks up to the plate and the old test is usually applied to him before the manager directs the pitcher to 'shoot a fast one at his beam.' If the man steps back from the plate he at the same time steps back from the limelight, because his chances of big league associations go with that fact.

Suppose, however, that he is clumsy in the field and handles the ball awfully, but when he comes to the plate he steps up to the "bean ball" and ducks only his head after he sees that it is not going to break and curve over his plate.

"There's one that's got the stuff in him," declares the manager, and he adds to him and goes about making a fielder out of the recruit. Many a man has come to the Giants in just this way.

Larry Doyle was far from a polished performer at second base when he joined the Giants, but one look at him in action at the bat was enough for the keen-eyed McGraw. The Giants often tell of what the New York manager saw in him.

"There's a hitter," remarked McGraw, "he falls away on the back and then the pitcher is referred to him whether the pitcher is a left or right hander." And it does not follow the ball with his eye and punches at it. He is free swinger, the same or better perfection. It is hard for most left-handed hitters to bat southpaw pitchers.

Larry was very rough in his stick work when he first went to the Giants, bringing with him many of the mistakes of the "bat" around the lot. Finally so many catches on the part of the second baseman that a rule was made in the league that whenever a batter struck a catcher by the careless manner in which he placed the bat after hitting the ball he was to be ejected from the game.

Larry, who has no respect for the conventions and niceties of the big league, promptly got a stout piece of timber and tied the bat to himself after he had been removed from three or four games for bumping the willow of the more or less resilient shins of several catchers, to the great detriment of the shins.

Potatoes and Reciprocity (New Glasgow Chronicle) A local paper declared that the price of potatoes in Prince Edward Island is 25 cents a bushel. On the other hand the price in Boston is sixty and sixty-five cents. It serves the island potato growers about right, for the majority of them voted against reciprocity which would give them a market in which they could get about twice as much for a bushel of potatoes as they are getting now at the wharf in New Glasgow endeavoring to sell. Another paper says that there is a combine among them to keep up the price but that will avail them little, as the crop in the country is good—the cellars are full of potatoes and the Islanders must struggle for their product. In a year of poor crops the prices in the home markets are good; but in a year of plenty the prices are low. If the growers of this section had had free access to the American market, as Laurier and Pelling had to give them, they would get lathens of money for their potatoes this year; as it is, the price on account of the heavy crop will run low—the seller will get at least 25 cents a bushel less for his crop. As a rule a big world wide market means stable prices; a contracted market makes always for unstable, generally lower prices. In time the farmers of the maritime provinces will learn a lesson which thereafter will prevent them from being imposed upon or led astray by the financial interests.

"If you refuse me I shall never love another woman." "Does that promise stand good if I accept you?"

NO DRINK OR TOBACCO; HE IS ABOUT TO WIN $500,000

Herman Oulrich to Receive That From Aunt in Few Weeks

New York, Nov. 7.—To feel glad that you are going to lose $500,000! What a rare and exquisite sensation! It is the sensation which Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt Jr. is about to enjoy.

Already she is testing in anticipation the delights of giving up $500,000. Mrs. Vanderbilt is the youthful aunt of young Herman Oulrich, Jr. He is the son of her older sister, who is the widow of Herman Oulrich, Jr. He was page at his aunt's wedding.

She let her nephew $500,000 that he could not obtain from drinking and smoking as most of the young men of his class do until the 21st birthday. Within a month, in all human probability, she will have to pay her bet.

Young Hermann, one of the most promising youths physically in the Four Handred, is a rider, a fencer, and he won all sorts of golf and tennis prizes. He is the son of a father who was as strong as an ox, young Hermann Oulrich was the most powerful man in society. He could swim for four hours at a time and could not obtain from drinking and smoking as most of the young men of his class do until the 21st birthday. Within a month, in all human probability, she will have to pay her bet.

Two years ago young Hermann Oulrich was nineteen years old, just at the age when life begins to offer its greatest temptations to the rich and well favored. Mrs. Vanderbilt saw the pitfalls that lay before her young and attractive nephew, and she determined to guide him on the path of abstinence and industry in a very original way.

"Why don't you do some real work, Hermann?" she inquired.

"Can't earn enough to make it worth while," said the youth carelessly.

"How much would you consider worth while?" inquired his aunt.

"Oh $100,000 a year, or so."

"Well, I will give you a chance to make it."

She caught the young man's attention and drew his thoughts away from cigarettes and whatever other worthless objects that were centered upon.

He said that he would work for her. He said that he would work for her. He said that he would work for her.

But in the months to come he found it was not easy to be temperate and self-denying in the fashionable society of New York and Newport.

He spent his time working for his wages, however, and the result of his persistence was that he grew stronger in mind and body, a better sportsman and a more popular member of society.

GERMAN POPULATION

Fatherland Has Gained More Than Fifteen Per Cent in Ten Years

Berlin, Nov. 7.—The population statistics based on the imperial census of December 1, 1910 show that the total population of Germany has increased by 15.18 per cent in ten years. One of the most remarkable facts shown by the new statistical tables is the importance of the foreign element in the German Empire, and the extent to which the foreign and foreign-born population has recently increased. With a population of 63,255,983 subjects of the imperial throne, Germany also counts 1,339,873 foreigners within her frontiers.

It is pointed out that Germany is importing more than 1,000,000 Italians, and in the foreign population has been four times as rapid as that of the native population in only five years, the total addition to the foreign population within this period being 293,131.

There is little fear that the character of the nation will be changed in consequence, as more than 80 per cent of the population comes from German-speaking Austria, and the next largest element comes from Holland, a country which has increased in common with Germany than most of the other nations. In all, there were 14,000 Dutchmen, 127,000 Russians, 104,000 Italians, and 80,000 Swiss. The Rhine provinces continue to be more international than any other part of the empire. The statistics as to religion show that the Protestants outnumber Catholics in the proportion of three to two.

INSANE MAN SHOTS HIS AUNT AND UNCLE AND KILLS HIMSELF

Alstead, N. H., Nov. 7.—Frank Kidder, an insane man, shot and fatally wounded his aged aunt, Miss Mary Richardson, slightly injured his uncle, Martin L. Richardson, and committed suicide here yesterday as neighbors were about to overpower him. Mr. Richardson was elected to the legislature on Tuesday by the democratic party.

Kidder was released from an asylum some time ago and had been living with his father, E. P. Kidder. The shooting occurred while Mrs. Richardson and her brother were calling at the Kidder home. Frank Kidder apparently was pleased to see them, but during their conversation he suddenly drew a revolver and began firing. Miss Richardson, who is seventy-six years old, was shot in the abdomen and is not expected to recover.

He saw the alarm near the corner but the fender of the car struck Mrs. Parker and launched her a few feet to one side. She was not hurt but was shaken severely, although able to continue on her journey home. Bystanders who saw the accident were of the opinion that the motorman was not to blame, as he had applied the brakes with care and speed and the rail was in a slippery condition.

Logan was arraigned in the police court this morning and pleaded guilty. He said that he did not think the sleeping quarters on the ship good enough to sleep in and came ashore to get lodgings, also that he had to return to the ship another year before his time expired. ST. JOHN HEALTH RECORD FOR YEAR IS EXCEPTIONAL

Deaths Were More Than 100 Fewer Than in Previous Twelve Months

THE BOARD'S RECORDS

Mr. Burns' Annual Statement For Year Ended With October 31 - Tuberculosis Deaths Fewer by Eight

Most encouraging conditions regarding the general health of the city are provided in the statistics furnished in the annual report of T. M. Burns, secretary of the board of health, for the year ended October 31, now ready for presentation at the annual meeting on Tuesday next. The figures disclose the fact that the number of deaths during the twelve months was considerably less than for many years previous, and also show that the deaths from infectious disease is fully fifty per cent below that of other years.

This the secretary is in a position to report such conditions is believed due in no small measure to the precautions exercised by the board and the care taken in stamping out disease and preventing its spread while the atmospheric conditions during last year were also instrumental in checking infection, particularly with diseases amongst children.

There were 684 deaths reported as compared with 790 for the same period of the previous year. The causes of death of course embrace a wide range of diseases. Tuberculosis took the lead having a thirty-six victims in all its forms, seventy-eight of them succumbing to tuberculosis of the lungs.

From organic diseases of the heart fifty-six passed away and congestion and cerebral hemorrhage took forty-one persons from this life. A total of forty died from cancer in all its forms while thirty-seven were claimed by pneumonia and seventeen by broncho pneumonia. The number of children dying from cholera infantum was twenty-two, which is much lighter than for some years. Deaths from malnutrition, marasmus, and premature birth totalled fifty-seven. Two people suicided, one by hanging and one by shooting while from violence under other methods, including five from accidental drowning, there were five deaths.

Of those whose deaths are reported 549 were Canadian born, 104 foreign and there was no stated place of nativity was not stated. There were also forty-three deaths reported among non-residents but these are not included in the general totals. Some were foreigners brought to the hospital, or dying upon steamers, etc. The number of males was 328 while the number of females was 358. Regarding their social condition, 319 were married and 368 a single while the balance of the city only.

These statistics refer to the city only, while the figures in the list of infectious diseases are furnished for the city and county as well. The number of cases of infectious diseases was 190 as compared with 204 last year while the deaths totalled only eight as against fourteen last year. The cases were as follows: Diphtheria, thirty-two; deaths three; scarlet fever seventy-two; deaths one; typhoid fever forty-four; deaths four; measles, five; and smallpox three, no deaths.

The following shows the number of deaths according to the ages: Under one year, 142; 1 to 5 years, forty-two; 6 to 10 years, 10; 11 to 15 years, ten; 15 to 20 years, nineteen; 20 to 25 years, nineteen; 25 to 30 years, twenty-three; 30 to 40 years, forty-five; 40 to 50 years, thirty-four; 50 to 60 years, sixty-seven; 60 to 70 years, ninety-eight; 70 to 80 years, eighty-eight; and 80 years and upwards, fifty-five deaths.

The figures for each month were: November, forty-six; December, fifty-one; January, sixty-two; February, forty-eight; March, sixty-three; April, sixty-two; May, 85; June, 53; July, forty-four; August, sixty-three; September, fifty-one; and October, forty-six.

News of the sudden death of W. Rupert Willett, president of the Willett Fruit Company, Deak street, shocked the business community this morning. Though a sufferer from heart trouble for some months, there was no thought that the end of his life was near, and yesterday he was in his usual good spirits. About three o'clock this morning Mrs. Willett was awakened by his distressed breathing, and within a few minutes he passed away. There will be deep sympathy felt for Mrs. Willett and her son in their bereavement, especially in its suddenness.

Mr. Willett was born on September 24, 1839, a native of Granville, N. S. He was a son of Gilbert Willett who lived to be an octogenarian, but whose last illness was of less than two hours' duration. Gilbert Willett was a great-grandfather of the first of New York's English-speaking mayors.

W. Rupert Willett carried on fruit-growing at Granville and came five years ago to St. John, where he joined his son, John G., in the business the latter had established here. He was a member of the Church of England, and in politics a Conservative. He is survived by his wife and son. There will be service at his late residence, 53 Meekinsburg street, on Friday evening, and the body will be taken on Saturday morning's boat to Granville for burial.

TO HAVE BRIDGE At a meeting of the executive of St. Monica's Society this week it was decided to hold a bridge whist tournament with dancing in Kaid's Assembly rooms on November 27. Committees are to be appointed at once, and arrangements begun. The affair, which will be run on a large scale.
