FORTUNE FOR HOUSE IN LONDON

Prices for Coronation Accommodation Are Soaring To The Skies

VISIT TO MANUEL

King George and Queen Mary Spend Sunday Hours With Deposed Monarch—Harem Skirts Cause Uproar in Hyde Park—Papers Rather Like Them

(Canadian Press)

London, Mar. 13.—Rents for London houses for the coronation season are rising with the increasing demand for accommodations.

According to the Chronicle, one Liberal peer has received an offer of £10,000 for the use of his residence for six weeks. Another offer of £17,000 was made for the tenancy for a house in Hill street during May, June and July, but the owner refused to take less than £20,000.

The private residence of Prime Minister Asquith, at No. 29 Cavendish Square, which has always greatly coveted by reason of its splendid reception rooms, old mahogany staircases and walls, painted by Sir John Thornhill, two centuries ago, has been secured by Lady Curzon.

King George and Queen Mary visited King Manuel and Queen Amelie at Richmond Sunday afternoon.

A big crowd followed two handsome young women wearing harem skirts in Hyde Park yesterday in the church parade. The mob finally became so demonstrative that the women escaped in a taxi. The general impression as shown by the newspapers is that the harem skirt is a comfortable walking skirt.

Sir Horace Plunkett who has just returned after an inspection of the Panama Canal, believes it is possible to finish the cutting of the canal by the end of next year, but he says that while January 1, 1915, is the official date for its opening, it probably will be a year later than that.

PRISONERS FIGHT LIKE WILD BEASTS

Sensational Italian Trial Furnishes Exciting Episode—Terrified Jurors Promise To Return

(Canadian Press)

Viterbo, Italy, Mar. 13.—While members of the Neapolitan Camorra were fighting like wild beasts in their cells in the monastery prison today, government officers under the direction of Cavaliere Dianchi, of the assist court, continued their hunt for them. Though the box was filled on Saturday several later refused to serve and five more were excused today from Cavaliere Santoro, the king's counsel, learned that they were closely affiliated with the Camorra organization.

The panel probably will be completed tomorrow as eighteen of those who had refused to return upon promise of complete protection and pay of ninety cents a day, were taken into the corridors for a complete exercise a free for all fight resulted, and was quelled only when the fire department turned a hose on the rioters and drove them back into their cells. There the fighting continued until the firemen were again called in and nearly drowned the combatants like rats in a trap.

Father Vittozzi the "Guardian Angel of the Camorra" is seriously ill. It is said that he took poison, smuggled to him by a bribed soldier.

PART OF FLOOR OF I.C.R. FLOUR SHED GIVES WAY

Without any warning whatsoever, a portion of the floor in the I. C. R. flour warehouse in Pond street collapsed a few minutes before 12 o'clock this morning, carrying with it about twenty-five or thirty barrels of flour. Luckily none of the workmen were near at the time.

When nearly all the flour that had been damaged by smoke in the recent warehouse fire had been stored in one end, the floor gave way and the flour fell through. Fortunately only a couple of the barrels were destroyed the rest of being practically unharmed.

After dinner a gang of workmen were put to work lifting the barrels out of the hole with a derrick. The work has not been laid in the opposite part of the shed. The carpenters will be put to work repairing the break.

TELLER OF BANK WAS PLUCKY ONE

Ontario Official Fought Two Robbers and Drove Them Off

(Canadian Press)

Windsor, Ont., Mar. 13.—When C. R. Weaver, teller of the Bank of Toronto here, stepped into his room over the bank Sunday morning on his return after an evening party, he was confronted by a masked man armed with a revolver, who called upon him to throw up his hands.

Weaver jumped at the man, wrenching his revolver from him, and after a vigorous wrestling bout, succeeded in throwing him on his back. A companion of the holdup man then sprang to the assistance of his mate, and they were able to overpower the teller. After vainly endeavoring to secure from Weaver the number of the combination to the bank vault, the robbers proceeded to bind and gag him. They then descended to the bank.

After several minutes of struggling, Weaver succeeded in getting himself free, and securing his revolver, he opened fire through an opening in the floor of his room which is directly above the front of the bank.

After firing a shot in return which narrowly missed Weaver, the would-be robbers fled.

A small office safe was found open, but nothing was taken.

REPUBLIC OF MEXICO IS ENTIRELY UNDER MARTIAL LAW TODAY

Rebels Will Be Hunted Down Like Wild Beasts—Diaz Hopes To Quickly Close Insurrection

(Canadian Press)

Mexico City, Mar. 13.—(Canadian Press)—The entire republic of Mexico is under martial law today. Without awaiting the assent of the permanent commission of congress to the proclamation setting aside constitutional guarantees, the government has begun the movement of additional troops to Chihuahua and Coahuila.

The rebels will be hunted down like wild beasts and any one found interfering with the railroad service will be shot without trial. With a wall of United States troops along the border, President Diaz is confident that the remnants of regular troops which he will now hunt against the revolutionary forces will be able to crush out the insurrection.

El Paso, Texas, March 13.—Two hundred Mexican soldiers and officers have been killed and wounded in the three latest battles of the revolution as a result of which the revolutionary forces have gained ground in their extended campaign in the state of Sonora, but have suffered heavily in Chihuahua. The rebels are today in possession of the town of Navajo, Sonora, but lost many of their best men, officers and soldiers of the foreign legion, about Casas Grandes.

The rebels were massing their forces before Agua Prieta today, after having been driven off last night by a galling cannonade from the federal machine guns. The 200 federals in the garrison at Agua Prieta supported the artillery fire by constant volleys of musketry. The rebels tried to capture the town under cover of darkness after bombarding it all day. After capturing Navajo, the rebels returned to the bridge in the vicinity to check a reinforcement of the federals, who drew off after determining the overwhelming strength of the enemy. A great deal of doubt exists as to the dead and wounded cases Casas Grandes. The junta here received word today that Captain R. F. Harrington, a United States soldier of fortune, and Giuseppe Garibaldi, descendant of the Italian patriot, had been wounded but not killed.

He insisted on riding a spirited cavalry horse and he galloped so furiously that the stork, carrying the governor's staff, had a difficult time keeping pace with him through a sea of mud.

The secret of Col. Roosevelt's trip across the continent is out at last. The colonel has planned his spring through the southern states in such a way as to bring him just ahead of the scheduled visit of the stork at the home of Theodore J. Roosevelt, Jr., who was married to Miss Alexander, daughter of Mrs. Henry Addison Alexander of New York on June 21 of last year.

IMPROVEMENTS TO THEIR BIG PREMISES DESCRIBED—Something of New Styles for Coming Season
 One has had to almost a daily visitor to the store of Manchester Robertson Allison, Limited, to keep in touch with the many and frequent improvements and additions that are constantly being made to their already large premises.
 Just now the management of the store has completed alterations to the original King street store, and has added only the new styles which have added of time to time, undoubtedly the greatest improvements they have ever made.
 On entering the lower King street store is amazed at the transformation that has taken place. The old wall that confronted one, dividing the handkerchiefs, gloves and small fancy goods departments, an uninterrupted view of the store above, and a new fixture has been made possible by the removal of the middle wall, old stairway and the cash railway station which hung from the ceiling. In place of the wall, iron columns now support the floor above, and a new fixture of steel, seven feet high with shelves on both sides, runs the 110 feet length of the main store, opening to the annex and leading to the hoistery and ribbon departments, and above to the new building, furnishings department. Now one gets an unbroken view of store space the whole length and breadth of the second floor. The installation of the most modern store lighting scheme up stairs and down adds still more to the whole, and the new building is to have their whole equipment up-to-date in detail.
 The new stairway, added to the second floor is in the rear of the store near the elevator. Many new "silent salesman" goods counters have been added, which changes give the only hitherto modern modern look to the store in all other respects up-to-date emporium.
 The retail offices on the second floor have been removed and a new building built for the purpose in the rear of M. R. A.'s Prince William street property. These offices with the new building on the second floor immediately through the silk department.
 The pattern which formerly separated the offices from the costume department have been entirely removed and replaced by iron columns and a new staircase, the whole floor 50x110 feet, to the display of ladies' and men's jackets, costumes, sweaters, coats and ready-made dresses, sweaters, wrappers and coat and costume cloaks.
 Three new oak paneled fitting rooms besides "silent salesman" counters, handkerchiefs and glass wall show cases and many mirrors have been added to the equipment, all making for the comfort and convenience of the shopping public. The ladies' costume cloth department has also been considerably enlarged.
 On Tuesday morning an opportunity will be offered the ladies to inspect the first arrivals in the firm's spring importations of ladies', misses' and children's indoor and outdoor apparel—all ready to wear and favoring strongly of Paris, London, Berlin and New York.
 A representative of the Times was accorded the privilege of inspecting some of the almost endless variety of cloth costumes, and dresses of silk, cloth and lingerie. He was particularly struck with the attractiveness of certain dresses for house wear in dainty colors and of a new material called marquette—one of those filmy, silky things which always make a woman appear well-gowned. Very smart are some tailored costumes in cream, grey and navy flannel effects. A number of the black color scheme dresses testify to their popularity this season.
 The young ladies have not been forgotten in this large assortment of garments for they can also be suited in cloth costumes and silk and lingerie dresses, in all sizes and the little tots from babyhood up to the age of twelve years can have smart sailor suits and jackets and real waterproof cloaks.
 A novelty among the ladies' waterproofs shown in a roomy oil silk motor cloak and hood light and absolutely dust, wind and water-proof, which folds so small as to fit in any hand pocket on the motor car and is shown in several colors.
 An almost endless variety of dust cloaks in linen, silk and cotton, together with black and colored cloth jackets and separate dress skirts will also be found among this really greatest aggregation of indoor and outdoor garments that have ever been brought to St. John.

BALLOON MYSTERY SOLVED

Keep your eyes open for a balloon! Mr. Wanamaker, of Wanamaker's Restaurant Charlotte street, is sending a small aerial craft every day this week—weather permitting. Each contains some valuable information in the form of small circulars. These circulars—about 1000 in each—are yellow in color. Among them is a six-cent postage stamp if returned to Mr. Wanamaker.

Pastor outside of the balloon is another one—Find the Balloon, cut out the coupon and give it to Mr. Wanamaker on your way to work. Mr. Wanamaker will send you a reward.

The balloon was first noticed by me flying over "Ashburn Lake," after having had my attention called to it by the graph operator at the Island yard office, St. John, it truly made a spectacular sight and gradually descended in the woods just opposite the station.

This morning Gordon and Willard Noble and myself went to the place where it fell, secured the above mentioned balloon from St. John's greatest restaurant.

A Very Open Letter

TO ALL PEOPLE WHO HAVE FEET:

For some time now there has been a steady increase in the price of footwear, to offset this it has been necessary to do one of three things: raise the prices, rob the boot, or curtail the profit. The first of these was so much against the grain that Steel's Shoe Stores would not do it, least some of the customers, who have been buying a certain boot, at a certain price, might feel tempted to look elsewhere on account of the quantity of sensational advertising carried by our newspapers. To hold our regular customers, Steel's Shoe Stores did not raise their prices. Now a shoe may be robbed by the use of a cheap inferior, a union or paper counter, an inferior box toe, or what is called an imitation welt, while none of these or all combined would affect the appearance of the shoe, each and every one affects the wear of the shoe. Steel's Shoe Stores would rather raise the price than resort to this method.
 Steel's Shoe Stores decided to curtail the profit and look to make it up by increased business, which this method of procedure will surely result in.
 Customers may look forward to this spring's buying at these stores with pleasure, and you are courteously invited to bring your best friends, it will be cement the friendship.

THE FORWARD MOVEMENT

At no previous period in the history of St. John has the outlook seemed as bright as now for a general forward movement in many directions for the advancement of the city's welfare.

So far as material improvements are concerned, much constructive work of an expensive character will be undertaken, and this will be the beginning of still more expensive works to be carried to completion within the next few years.

Large expenditures will be made by the federal government and by railway companies, and there seems every prospect that some important new industries will be located here.

The practical certainty that the citizens next month will declare in favor of the adoption of the commission plan of government means much to the city, because it will introduce business principles in civic administration, improve the public services, and result in better returns for the money expended.

The mere fact that so many movements pertaining to the advancement of the city are in progress or likely to be seriously taken up should have a stimulating effect upon the citizens generally.

They should feel a deep personal interest in the welfare of the city and desire to have some part in its promotion. This should be a memorable year in the history of St. John. It is easy to be pessimistic, to find fault, and to sneer at efforts put forth for the public good.

There are always some who have that attitude, because it is so easy, but it may be hoped that the great mass of the people will unite their efforts to encourage every movement for civic betterment.

THE PLEBISCITE

"If the majority of the voters should vote in favor of the scheme it shall be the duty of the common council to submit a measure to the provincial legislature at the next session thereof in accordance therewith."

The above section of the bill relating to the plebiscite on commission government in St. John is not as clear as it should be. The word voters ought to be defined and it should also be clearly stated whether a majority of all the voters of the city or a majority of those who go to the polls will be required to carry the measure.

The friends of commission government will doubtless ask for a hearing before the municipalities committee and endeavor to have the bill adopted in such form as will make it possible for the will of the people to prevail.

There are some persons bitterly opposed to any change in the form of city government. If they should succeed in loading the bill in such a way that when adopted it would be open to various interpretations, they would be particularly well pleased. The members of the legislature may be relied on, however, when the case is put fairly before them, to give effect to the will of the citizens.

The canvass thus far made proves conclusively that the great majority of the people of St. John want a change in the system of city government. No obstacle should be placed in the way of securing an expression of their views, and having their wishes carried out. It will be necessary, however, to keep a sharp eye on the opponents of the measure.

SIR BILL'S DICTUM

Sir William Van Horne is alleged to have said in an interview in this city last week that what Canada needed was a few men of the type of President Diaz of Mexico. President Diaz may be a very excellent man, and has been the dictator of Mexico for very many years. Perhaps if Canada would submit to a dictator by the name of Sir William Van Horne, everything would run along entirely to the liking of an American citizen who made a fortune and won a title in Canada, and then hid himself away to Cuba and Mexico and other inviting fields. But the average Canadian is well content to have this country governed by the people, and to have their will prevail.

Sir William will doubtless observe that the net result of Diaz rule in Mexico is a rebellion, which has assumed somewhat formidable proportions. Saturday's papers tell us of a battle in which there were three hundred casualties.

THE AUDITOR GENERAL

The following paragraph from the St. John Standard shows how inconvenient it is for the Hazen government to have in office an auditor-general who tries to do his duty. The Standard says:

"The present auditor, whose services were continued, is the appointee of the old government; and, while no charge of unfairness has been made against him, he has been somewhat unfortunate this year in his choice of language in one or two of his letters as published in his report."

That is to say, the auditor-general, despite the famous Audit Act, should take his orders from the government and forget the provisions of the Act itself.

CITY GOVERNMENT

The city council system, which St. John is about to abandon, appears to have broken down in the city of Victoria, B. C. The Colonist of that city says:

"No private business corporation would hope to keep its head above water, if at the meetings of its directors such things went on as often characterize the meetings of the Victoria city council."

The affairs of a city should be conducted with quite as much care as those of a private business corporation. Those responsible for the administration are spending the money of the taxpayers, and if the latter do not receive good value for the expenditure, there is something radically wrong with the system. The citizens of St. John for years past have received value for the money expended on the water works system, the streets, the ferry, public works, and other services. The reason they have not received value is that their affairs have been conducted by a large city council, whose members only give to the business a portion of their time and do not gain a thorough knowledge of the affairs of the various departments. It inevitably follows, in St. John at least, that a few of the members of the council, and usually a few who are thinking about patronage and the like, more than they are thinking about the welfare of the city, gain a controlling influence in civic affairs.

Under the commission plan, where there are only five men, each giving his whole time or as much of it as may be necessary, to conduct in the most efficient way the affairs of the city, and each responsible for a particular department, while all of them meet daily to confer on city business, the people get such a service as is given to the conduct of the affairs of a private corporation. The people get value for the money expended. There can be no evasion of responsibility, and the record gives the people the power at any time to compel the retirement of a representative who fails to serve them well.

Says the Montreal Herald: "Whatever we may say of the inferiority of American political institutions and American political life, the cities of the United States are today becoming distinguished for an intelligent and self-devoting humanitarianism which we can well afford to imitate. A profound appreciation of the possibilities of every human being as a citizen, and a recognition of the duty of the social organism to help in making the most of those possibilities, seems to be the best thing that the United States has got out of its new democracy."

Premier Hazen stated at Ottawa yesterday that his government would not submit to the legislature a resolution on the question of reciprocity. If such a resolution were introduced, Mr. Hazen might be able to whip the majority of his supporters into line, but it would be at the risk of having them defeated when next they appear to the people. Therefore he prefers not to touch the question. He is not impressed by the example of his friends Messrs. Roblin and Whitney. He knows that in the province of New Brunswick the sentiment of the people is overwhelmingly in favor of reciprocity, and that his followers have no desire to run counter to popular opinion in their own constituencies in order to encourage Mr. Roblin at Ottawa.

DAREST THOU NOW, O SOUL

Darest thou now, O Soul, Walk out with me toward Unknown Regions

Where neither ground is for the feet, nor any path to follow?

No map there, nor guide, Nor voice sounding, nor touch of human hand,

Nor face with blooming flesh, nor lips, nor eyes, are in that land.

I know it not, O Soul, Nor dost thou—all is a blank before us; All waits, undreamed of, in that region—that inaccessible land.

Till, when the ties loosen, All but the ties of mortal, Time and Space, Nor darkness, gravitation, space, nor any bounds, bound us.

Then we burst forth—we float, In Time and Space, O Soul—prepared for them, Equal, equip at last—(O joy! O fruit of all) them to fulfill, O Soul.

—Walt Whitman.

LECOQC, COMPOSER, DEAD

Mons. Charles Lecoq, the French opera bouffe composer, whose full name was Alexander Charles Lecoq, is dead in the island of Guernsey. He is best known as the composer of "La Fille de Madame Angot" and of "Girofle Girofle." When he was at the height of his vogue all Paris was singing his airs. They were gay and sparkling and caught the popular fancy. "La Fille de Madame Angot" ran for more than 800 consecutive nights at the Folies Dramatiques in Paris, and has been reproduced all over the world.

Born nearly seventy-seven years ago, Mons. Lecoq gave evidence of his musical genius at an early age. He had difficulty, however, in getting recognition. He entered the Conservatory of Music in Paris, the city in which he was born, at the

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"A H, HOW rare it is to find a soul still enough to hear God speak!" I will be considered sacrilegious if I use that incomparable sentence to introduce a somewhat similar thought.

"How rare it is to find a mind silent enough to listen to the wisdom of other minds!"

A great statesman whose knowledge of many subjects and consequent breadth of mind was the wonder of all he met, was introduced to a sheep rancher one day and straightway began to question him about the raising of sheep.

The rancher was astonished at the fuid of previous information the questions showed.

A Latin professor happened to be in the crowd. "He knows just as much about archeology," said this professor. "I think he dines off encyclopedias. Tell me, senator, how you find time to read and study up on so many subjects."

The senator laughed. "I don't find time to read much at all," he said, "and when I do I read mostly Congressional reports and poetry."

"Well, how DO you do it then?" persisted the rancher. "Well," said the senator, "I guess it's just this. All my life I've made it a rule to meet the other fellow talks as much as possible. And to make him talk of something he knows about. Every man you meet has some specialties that he knows more about than you do. Instead of telling him what you know, you get him talking on that for forty years now and I find it works pretty well."

If all of us followed the senator's rule, of course there would be trouble, because everybody would be trying to listen and there would be nobody to talk. Let us long as human nature is what it is, I don't believe there is much danger of such a dire state of affairs.

Let the other fellow talk and make him talk of something he knows a lot about. Let the other fellow talk and make him talk of something he knows a lot about. Let the other fellow talk and make him talk of something he knows a lot about.

Joseph Emerson, that prince of teachers once said, "He who is not willing to be taught by the youngest of his pupils is not fit to be a teacher."

Doubtless the reason Emerson was so great a teacher was that he realized that the youngest of his pupils COULD teach him something.

Was though you may never realize it, every one you meet could teach you something, almost every one, a great deal.

Do you want a broad and splendid education? "Without money and without price?"

Then keep silent and listen.

Daily Hints for the Cook

To broil a steak, have the griddle as hot as possible, cover with butter and lay the steak on it. It will sizzle, but in a moment or two will loosen; brown it well and turn it over. Repeat the turning till the steak is done as you wish, keeping it at a quick heat. Melt butter in a hot dish, lay the steak in it and turn it over in the butter; sprinkle with salt and pepper, garnish with parsley and sliced onion, and serve with French fried potatoes.

TO USE TOUGH MEAT.

Run the meat through a chopper, will putting a small piece of the meat in before it is chopped. Wet up bread crumbs, and mix with the meat. Rub the meat with salt and add to the beaten egg to hold it together. Season with pepper and salt and, if you like it, a little onion and sage; if it does not hold well, add a little flour; pat into a cake an inch and a half thick and broil. This same mixture can be molded into rolls, rolled in either flour or cracker crumbs, and egg and fried for beef fingers, molded into beef balls and fried, or be made into a thick cake flour and baked as hamburger roast, and served with tomato sauce. If the mixture is not rich enough from the suet, add a little butter.

STUPID BEESWAX.

Make a dressing for duck of bread crumbs, a little butter and an egg, seasoning with salt and pepper; chopped onion and green peppers or chopped oysters and celery. Spread this dressing over a round steak, roll up and fasten with a string. Rub the steak with butter, sprinkle lightly with flour and place in a baking pan. Add a cup of hot brown at once, then cover well and bake slowly. Serve with brown gravy, tomato sauce or, if oysters have been used, with oyster sauce.

STARVING AND FREEZING, BOY FOUND IN GARRET

Father, in Cell, Rages at Law—Officials Take William Jennings From Hospital, Near Death From Long Exposure

(New York Herald)

With his feet so badly affected by gangrene following frostbite that five toes are missing and in all probability amputation of the legs will be necessary to save his life, William Jennings had declared that he did not know the condition of the boy's feet required the service of a physician and says that the charge of cruelty is an invention of his enemies.

The father is in the Hackensack jail under commitment by Justice James Brett. As he was being taken from the justice's office the father declared to the justice and the crowd:

"I'll kill the man that started this trouble and caused my arrest. This boy is mine and why does his mind belong to your business and let me alone."

The removal of the boy from his home to the hospital yesterday came about through information which reached John B. Zabricki, an assistant county prosecutor, on Monday. Mr. Zabricki was told that a boy suffering from some ailment of the feet was being kept in the garret of a cabin in the Ramapo Mountains; that he had been ill all winter and that no physician had been informed of the case.

The boy's father extra $9 a week when he lives at the cabin and keeps house. There are four other children in the family, all of whom are in good health. When Trainer and the constable asked the boy where his hat and coat were he replied that he had none.

AMERICAN IN PARIS HAS THREE "NOBLEMEN" ARRESTED—HE IS OUT $52,000

Paris, March 13.—Three men describing themselves as Italian noblemen are under arrest charged with having swindled Levin Henry, a New York American, out of $52,000.

The prisoners gave the names of Borelli, Carminati and Bordepi, and are alleged to be wanted by the police of Italy.

According to the story told by Hart he met the strangers at his hotel in the Place de l'Europe and was introduced by them at various gambling clubs. During the visits to these places he says that he won, by the use of marked cards and other devices, robbed him of his entire fortune.

POTATOES CHEAP.

A Presque Isle correspondent writes to the Under Secretary of Agriculture that the potato market is claimed by the local buyers to be in a paralyzed condition and it is only with the greatest diligence that they succeed in marketing any at all. Prices here range all the way from 50 cents to 60 cents a barrel, and buyers are not anxious even at those low prices. Farmers hardly know what to do about planting the usual acreage this spring for unless the acreage is considerably reduced throughout the potato-producing sections of the country, another overproduction would result next year unless broad areas should be proscribed for Canadian potato planting. It is only with the greatest care that the potato supply is being kept up. They tell you that the potato supply market might be still further increased.

IN DREAD OF SOMETHING

You Can Scarcely Tell What It May Be Hysteria, Insanity, Nervous Collapse

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

When the nervous system breaks down you live in constant dread of something terrible about to happen.

Physical suffering cannot be compared to the mental agonies of the nervous wreck who fears that his mind may give way or that his body may be paralyzed.

It is not a matter of life and death for friends, who do not understand or sympathize with you. They tell you to cheer up, or say it is only imagination.

You are only three days of this depression when the nerve food restored to health by me, treated at Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. You are now able to get out and support your family and to be a help to other souls.

It will relieve nervous patients and persistent treatment, but there is no way by which you can so certainly restore health and vigor as by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

The beginning to restore the nervous system is long before such a critical condition is reached. Such symptoms as sleeplessness, headaches, nervous indigestion, muscular weakness, loss of energy, loss of memory and power of concentration, irritability and discouragement tell of a failure of the nervous system and warn you of the approach of serious trouble.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 8 boxes for $2.50, all dealers, or Edman, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Sheet-waisted blouses are among early spring models. They are especially becoming to juniors and misses.

SNOW FALL WAS A MATTER FOR WONDER

Apoahqui Woman Receives Interesting Clippings From San Francisco Papers

Mrs. G. M. Mason of Apoahqui, sends the Times the following clippings from a San Francisco paper sent by her uncle, Robert Brown, telling of a recent rare occurrence there—a snow storm.

For a few minutes yesterday afternoon San Francisco's hills were snow capped. The city claims the distinction of having a mild climate the year round had the greater distinction by contrast of being visited by a skip of snow that stayed only long enough to show that it had fallen. It was an event of importance to the citizens and small boys alike, for it has been years since any snow has been seen in San Francisco.

In 1903 a light flurry of snow fell, but the old-timers have to go back to the winter of 1887 to recall what passes for a real snowstorm at the Golden Gate.

Yesterdays downfall was not so much to brag about to easterners. But there was enough of it and it lasted long enough to excite the wonder of the citizens who were in the storm districts. The small boy did not forget that snow was made for the especial purpose of being made into balls and thrown at any person or thing that was in the way.

Even the older people joined in the sports, and snow fights raged among the old and young wherever there was sufficient ammunition for the fray. The hills of South San Francisco, Twin Peaks and the Sutter forest were the most covered with the white flakes, though in the storm districts, the small boy did not forget that snow was made for the especial purpose of being made into balls and thrown at any person or thing that was in the way.

THE EVERY DAY CLUB

To Editor Times:

Sir, I have read with pleasure the account of the work of the E. D. C. for the last four years. I note with great pleasure its determination to make itself a still greater power for good. To me the club was like a great round balcony, with its strong able-bodied members standing all round it, with outstretched hands to fallen men who had been caught in forbidden paths, saying: "Catch hold of Our Hands And We Will Help You to Make Men of Yourselves Again."

Now, Sir, you have justified yourselves, for being a club. After holding out patient hands, putting down your money, giving steadily of your precious time day and night, to try to rescue men, they seeing your patience and determination, are just as determined not to be rescued; and, seeing the open door of the club and extended sympathy, they are encouraged to keep on in their evil course. My experience is that it is not a matter of rescue, but of prevention. The more you do for some people the more you have to do, and the more abuse you have to bear from them. In my life the men I helped the most used me the worst. It is strange but it is true. I admire your determination to exclude "dead-heads" from your excellent club, after four steady years of patient efforts to do them good. After 20 years of steady efforts to reform drunkards, I have given up forever any more to do with them. My efforts in the future will be to prevent as far as in me lies young men from entering that path that leads to hell. Some do escape from being drunkards after they have started on that road, but it's only a few in thousands. At one time I knew forty young men, sober boys once, but tonight every one lies in a drunkard's grave. The most horrible road on earth is the drunkard's path.

May the club flourish like a green bay tree. May its success be ten-fold greater than ever. May every young man in St. John, who wants an outlet for his new born energy, join the new E. D. C. Let us rally to its support. Let us give it of our time, sympathy, energy and glorious enthusiasm, and it will be a greater credit to St. John than ever, when it puts forth all its new power.

I remain, sincerely,
A. TURNER B. HOWARD.

OVER THE WIRES

The government steamer Stanley, disabled, is now at Halifax.

Edward Brown, captain of the tugboat Proctor, was burned to death at the Standard Oil piers in Brooklyn on Saturday night. Three of the crew escaped by leaping to nearby craft. The fire started in the warehouses, and was fed by 100,000 five-gallon cans of kerosene. The loss is estimated at about $100,000.

The steamer Boston arrived in Boston yesterday from Jamaica, after a terrific battle with the sea. She suffered the loss of her wheelhouse, two boats were smashed, doors broken and part of the rail washed overboard.

Arthur Bourgeois, of Moncton, is under arrest, charged with stealing a box of candy from the Moncton & Bouchette railway freight house last Tuesday.

The I. C. B. Board of Management met with the Halifax Board of Trade on Saturday and discussed plans for a new concrete terminal there. Engineer Kennedy of Montreal submitted plans for a new terminal to cost about $1,500,000 to $2,000,000 and the board will recommend it to parliament.

The Mexican federal troops won a victory over the insurgents last week. Sixty-two of the insurgents were killed, seventeen captured, and six wounded escaped. A number of Americans were among the killed and injured. The total casualties amounted to about 300. The federal general was about to surrender when reinforcements arrived.

DR. LUNNEY'S LECTURE.

"Reminiscences of an European Trip" was the subject of a very interesting lecture yesterday afternoon in the rooms of St. Peter's Y. M. A. Douglas avenue, by Dr. Thos. Lunney, who was followed with close attention as he took his audience across the Atlantic, and through the various European countries which he visited, dwelling at some length on Ireland. The travel was well described, and was interspersed with humorous anecdotes which served to make all pleased listeners.

As the close Dr. Lunney was tendered a hearty vote of thanks, by the chairman of the literary and dramatic committee, J. E. Burke, who presided.

THOUSAND SEE RACES ON THE ICE

Jay Wilkes Defeats Buchanan and Paddy Bangs Wins in Three Straight - Talk of More This Week

The much talked of horse race between William Kiernan's Buchanan and Jay Wilkes, owned by Ross Bros., of Musquash was run off on the speedway at Millidgeville on Saturday afternoon, and resulted in an easy win for Jay Wilkes which carried off the money in three straight heats.

Upwards of 1,000 people were on the ice long before the race started. Every conceivable mode of conveyance was present in service—autos, buckboards, sledges and carriages—to take the crowd out of the track was in fairly good condition.

The first heat saw the only close finish of the day. Some little dispute followed over the decision of the judges awarding this heat to Wilkes, but after Judge Colter had heard the report of the judges of the course, he announced his decision as final, awarding the heat to Wilkes.

The second and third heats proved even more handily for the bay pacer and at the close the judges announced Jay Wilkes a winner. The opinion among the wise ones, however, was that the little grey pacer was off and they are not satisfied by any means that the down shore horse has anything on him.

The second race called was the McDonald-Flood race for $50 a side. Thomas Hayes was behind the pacer Paddy Bangs, while William Kiepley drove the trotter Royal Pandee. This race was won by Paddy Bangs in three straight heats. In no heat was the pacer in danger, as the son of Royal Pandee acted badly through out the entire race, losing himself the chance of winning the stakes.

The tracks, though in fair condition, were anything but like the speedway over the same course a couple of winters ago. Much trouble and a real live issue of the Millidgeville course as it is the intention of the promoters of other years to get the horsemen to give up and form a permanent club for the sport.

The opinion is expressed that by that time there will be a number of men around St. John and that the sport will then receive from the public a large and considerable more support than it has been receiving in the past.

In all probability there will be another race this week over the same course, at least there is talk of it, as several of the local horsemen are anxious to match their horses with the Wilkes horse.

THE WINTER PORT GAIN

The statement in Saturday's Standard indicating a decrease of something more than $2,000,000 in the exports of this port this winter, falsely gives the impression that the winter port business has fallen off. It compares this season's figures with those of the same date last year. The fair comparison is between the cargoes of a like number of steamers. There have been sixty-four this season, and sixty-nine last, but there will be fully as many this year as last by the end of the season, as some have gone behind schedule, because of rough weather, and will make this up.

SHE WAS SURPRISED

When Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills Cured her Chronic Liver Complaint

Mrs. R. Smith, of Winnipeg, Man., tells an interesting story of relief from almost intolerable suffering. "I can hardly tell you how great my sufferings have been. Chronic liver complaint accompanied by biliousness was the daily source of trial to me. I had experienced the sickening effects of these ailments. I longed for some medicine that should permanently drive them away."

Hearing of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, I thought they were worthy of a trial. My surprise was great. From the very first I experienced relief. Continuing with them I found my bowels were slowly but surely leaving me, and before long I once more knew what it was to be free from the harassing effects of the ailments that had long distressed and weakened me. So great is my faith in Dr. Morse's Indian Pills that I shall never on any account be without them."

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cure Bowel and Kidney as well as Liver troubles, and keep you healthy. 25c a box at your dealer's.

Resistant, your druggist, is the first to import this preparation into St. John and a large number of bottles can be procured for 25c.

WAS TERRIBLY AFFLICTED WITH LAME BACK.

COULD NOT SWEEP FLOOR. Three Boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills Cured Her.

It is hard to do housework with a weak and aching back. Backache comes from sick kidneys, and what a lot of trouble sick kidneys cause. But they can't help it. If more work is put on them than they can stand it is not to be wondered they get out of order.

Weak back is simply a warning from the kidneys and should be attended to immediately so as to avoid years of terrible suffering from kidney trouble.

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25, at all drug stores. Write to The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. If ordering direct specify "Doan's."

DEPOT HOTEL IN SUSSEX IS BURNED

People in House Escape by Ladders and Jumping Into Blankets—Drug Store and Ticket Office Destroyed

Sussex, March 13.—The Depot Hotel was destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning, and the people in the house had narrow escapes from death. The fire started about 1:30 o'clock, and spread with great rapidity, so that guests sleeping in the upper rooms, found themselves trapped. A number had to jump from windows and were caught in blankets held by the crowd that quickly assembled.

Others waited until ladders were placed up to the windows, and were rescued in that way. Some of those staying in the house saved anything, so quickly did the flames spread. Mrs. Arthur McLean, who owns the hotel, was carried out in her night clothes.

Through the firemen arrived early on the scene they could do little to stop the fire and their attention was given mainly to protecting the adjoining buildings owned by Dr. White and Miller Bros.

The origin of the fire is unknown and the loss is estimated to be in the vicinity of $80,000.

D. J. Sharpe, who conducted a drug store on the ground floor, lost everything, and the C. P. R. ticket agent, who had an office in the building, also lost everything. The Depot House was built about ten years ago and was conducted under the management of A. D. Pugsley. There were about twenty-five staying in the hotel at the time of the fire.

The hotel and furniture were insured as follows: Hotel, Queens, $20,000; British American, $2,000; Liverpool, London, Globe, $2,000; Western, $2,000; Furniture, $13,000; D. J. Sharpe carried $2,000 in the Queen on his stock, and $2,000 in the same company office fixtures.

WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB

Prof. Frank P. Day of the University of New Brunswick delivered a very interesting address before the Women's Canadian Club in the assembly room of the Nickel theatre on Saturday afternoon. His subject was "The Evolution of the English Novel," and he held the close attention of a large audience throughout the afternoon.

The report was adopted and the president urged the members to give the society a cordial welcome. Some of the members of the choir were people of title and presented in their number would be the members of the Sheffield school of the afternoon of March 25 in Keith's assembly rooms.

The tea tables were particularly attractive, with their wealth of spring flowers, silver and dainty china. Arrangements were in charge of Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. Hart and Mrs. Isaac. While in the city Prof. Day was the guest of Dr. G. U. and Mrs. Hay.

SPORT NEWS OF A DAY; HOME AND ABROAD

Hockey: The Amherst Ramblers defeated the St. John team, to 3 in a fast game on Saturday night. The ice was soft and sticky and prevented very good play. The St. John team played without two of their best men, July and McAvity, but put up a good game nevertheless. Chas. Brown scored the two goals for the locals while Jack Twaddle was responsible for most of the visitors' tallies. The team were:

Remblers: Goal... St. John: Goal... Philps... Cover... P. McAvity... Gilbert... Clawsan... Mooney... Right Wing... Parker... H. E. C. Sturdee was referee.

Giants Victors: The Giants defeated the Rotheray College hockey team in the final game of the intermediate championship series on Saturday night. This gives the Giants the championship for this year.

A Team of Brothers: Quebec, Que., March 12.—There was a unique hockey match here on Saturday night, when the Montreal Wanderers met a team from the St. George club. In addition to the seven brothers, on the ice there was an eighth brother as sponsor.

Toronto Team Won: Toronto, March 13.—The Parkades, of Toronto, defeated the Crescent Athletic Club on Saturday night, three goals to nothing.

Ottawa, Ont., March 13.—William Foran has appointed Dr. Bernie and Duncan Campbell, of Montreal, as referees in the Ottawa-Galt match for the Stanley Cup tonight. He has also invited Dr. White and Miller Bros. to officiate at the puck. Betting is three to one on Ottawa.

In the Commercial league, the Canadian Oil Company team forfeited four points to T. McAvity and Sons. The scores of the McAvity team were:

CHANGE IN SENTIMENT HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR CRIME INCREASE

(Ottawa Free Press). The high rate of crime which was a marked feature of the statistics of 1908, is again apparent, from the blue book on crime statistics for 1909, just laid on the table of parliament. In 1908 the total number of persons tried for indictable offences was 68,116, a larger number than in any previous year for which figures are available. In 1909 the number was 67,140, smaller than in 1908, but considerably larger than in any other previous year. The average number for 1909, 1908, and 1907, was 62,258, it was 62,090, while the figure for 1909, as already stated, was 67,140.

The steadily increase in crime is considered to point to some regular cause. It is noted first of all, that the real increase of crime is probably being greater than the figures indicate, for there is a growing disinclination to prosecute for the less serious offences, a growing inclination to show leniency to first offenders and a growing reluctance to prosecute a thief who is likely to be let off with little or no punishment.

The habitual criminal class, in the opinion of the police, shows no strong tendency either to diminish or to increase. This class has had certain good results in mitigation of the public sentiment, but public sentiment is in the community generally. Various causes are suggested for this. In the first place there is noted a marked growth since 1908 of a strong sentiment of compassion for the criminal. This sentiment is declared, is commoner in magazines and newspapers than ever before, while the sentiment expressed toward the criminal towards after to be weak and often sympathetic to an extent that no previous generation has shown. It is suggested that there is all events ground for fearing that repression of crime and punishment are being diminished strength in the primary function of civilization—the safeguarding of persons and property, and the enforcement of the law.

WEDDING MARCH WAS SHOCKING: A young girl who had never heard of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, but was familiar with the most popular parody on it, was a witness to a wedding. As the betrothed pair walked with dignified tread towards the altar to be wed and the organ pealed forth Mendelssohn's inspiring march, the young girl was plainly shocked. When she arrived at her home she told her mother of the wedding ceremony and innocently exclaimed: "What do you think, mother, they played 'Wedding'! I'm glad I'm free."

LADY LAURIE: DOGS: A rather funny story is told by Madge Macbeth, in the March number of CANADA MONTHLY, of a young mother who was calling at a house where Lady Laurie was also paying a visit. After an unusual short stay, the mother rose and pleaded her boy as an excuse for leaving. "I must get back to that young man of mine," she said, with conscious pride.

"I must go now, also," she said. "I have that same trouble with my dogs, you know," she added, much to the young mother's secret indignation.

THAT FEELING OF FULLNESS

Disappears in Five Minutes After Taking a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet

A Trial Package Sent Free on Request. All of the unpleasant sensations attend, not upon eating too heartily, but upon eating too fast enough to digest it properly. The reason is simple and easy to understand.

Infusion Of The Stomach From Undigested Food: Charles B. A. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

When you take food into a stomach that is tired and over-taxed the gastric juices do not form fast enough to digest it properly. So the food becomes sour and at once begins to throw off gases. Your stomach becomes bloated and you feel as if you attached a toy balloon to a gas jet. Then the gases and foul odors issue forth and pollute your breath, making you an object of nausea to your friends. Your tongue quickly becomes coated and you can taste the odors that it withers away.

Now all this condition is changed almost instantly by a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet. This little pill gets into your stomach and restores your stomach to normal. It is a great relief to you. It is a great relief to you. It is a great relief to you.

Try a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and you will see how you ever get along without them. They are sold at 25c at all druggists everywhere. A trial package sent free on request to E. J. Stuart Co., 159 Street Blig, Montreal, Mich.

MORNING LOCALS: A. C. Smith and Will Vaughan arrived in the city yesterday morning from Fredericton, having covered the long trip in 19 hours and 15 minutes. They were picked up by the city bus and taken to their homes.

The Allan River Virginian arrived yesterday morning from Liverpool via Halifax. The passengers numbered 1,400 passengers, but brought only 400 of them here—160 saloon, 350 second cabin and 300 third cabin. They were met by the city bus and taken to their homes.

Freddie, the eight-year-old son of John Glynn, of Dorchester street, fell over an embankment, a distance of about fifteen feet yesterday, and was unconscious for a couple of hours.

Dr. R. F. Quigley, D. Mullin, K. C., and Hon. J. D. Hazen, E. R. Taylor, and J. D. Allen, to William F. Williams, of Chatham (N. B.) The officiating clergyman was Rev. H. A. Cady, Mr. and Mrs. Williams were unattended and will reside in Chatham.

Rev. J. W. Taylor of Vancouver occupied the pulpit in St. David's church last night and preached a forcible address on "The Need of Rest."

A SON OF ERIN: "Kit," who is responsible for the warm department in CANADA MONTHLY tells in the March number a characteristic story of Dublin.

"Old White," says "Kit," "one time house-steward of the Mansion House, Dublin, was a well-known character. He had a hot temper and a sarcastic tongue—a very Irish combination and the Lord Mayor himself often felt the sting of both. White was once guilty of some neglect of duty, and was summoned before the mayor, who said: 'White, I have borne with you in many things, but this complaint goes beyond my power of endurance. I've just heard it from two members of the Corporation.'" "Faith," retorted White, "if I believed all that twenty-two members of the Corporation say about you, I'd think you were fit to wear the foul chain of the Lord Mayor of Dublin."

AMUSEMENTS FOR OURSELVES AND OTHERS OPERA HOUSE.

Henry B. Harris, who produced such noted successes as A Treading Salsman, The Lion and the Mouse, A Chorus Lady, The Third Degree, is again before the theatre going public with another winner—Such a Little Queen—a play dealing with political conditions in the Balkan country, put chiefly with the conditions which confront the young and handsome queen in her exile in America. The play, it is said, is furnished with a complete and lavish production in keeping with Mr. Harris' reputation as a producer. Such a Little Queen will be seen here on Wednesday matinee and night, March 15, at the Opera House.

THE GEM: The kindrons of "Bright Eyes," an Indian squaw in saving the settlement of some white pioneers on the prairie, from destruction by Indians, is the theme of a very touching and highly exciting drama today and tomorrow at the Gem theatre. Such a Little Queen, a play dealing with political conditions in the Balkan country, put chiefly with the conditions which confront the young and handsome queen in her exile in America. The play, it is said, is furnished with a complete and lavish production in keeping with Mr. Harris' reputation as a producer. TIE-UP OF LOGS

Some Millions Belonging to Maine Operators Likely to Stay in the Woods.

A Ranger report says that some of the lumber operators in northern Aroostook county are having difficulty in getting their season's cut of logs to the landings, and the St. John Lumber Co., of Van Buren, will leave about 3,000,000 feet of logs on the yards on two of their operations.

On the Little Black river the St. John Lumber Co. made a cut of about 5,000,000 feet of logs for the mill at Van Buren. They have already landed 1,000,000 feet on the river and are at present working on the third million. After that is out it is expected that the rest will have to be left in until next season. The men are working night and day on the operation.

The other operation which is being conducted on T. 12, R. 17 by Flavin Chouinard, is having the same trouble and the hauler there is remaining worked overtime. It is expected that the operator will have to leave about 1,000,000 feet of logs on the river.

There is about 3 1/2 feet of snow in the northern part of Maine at the present time, but there is no body to it. Indications are that the main St. John river will be open to the log drives earlier than usual this spring. Lumbermen in Aroostook county are praying for rain and a lot of it.

THE ST. JOHN BILLS

They Are Not Likely to be Before House Committee Until Next Week

It was learned today that the St. John bills for the legislature will probably not be before the municipal committee until some time next week. Several of the bills sent up from this city are now ready to go before the committee, including that for taking a plebiscite on commission, for changing the date of elections and granting exemptions to the James Pender co., as well as one or two others, but there are still several bills which have been authorized by the common council but are not out of the hands of the bills and by-laws committee, and it is proposed to have them all before the committee of the legislature before sending a delegation from the council to Fredericton.

Among the private bills that will likely be opposed by the city and municipal council, is that introduced by the Hydro Electric Company, in which they ask for power to open up streets in the city or county for the erection of poles or laying power lines, etc. The city and county will probably ask that the bill be so amended as to allow the company to open up streets only on permission being granted by the governing municipal bodies.

The members of the legislature who have been spending Sunday at their homes will return to the capital tonight or tomorrow morning. It is thought that the session of the house will be a short one.

MUST STOP SPEEDING

Judge Ritchie Would Like to See Numbers on Front of Autos as Well as Rear

That some automobile owners in the city drive their machines too fast was the opinion expressed this morning by Judge Ritchie in the police court, and he also said that for identification purposes, if for nothing else, every machine should be equipped with a number, and he would like to see an amendment to the law, so that every auto would have a number in front as well as in the rear. He would do all in his power to stop over-speeding and with the police active in the matter, he thought an spd could be put to it.

He imposed a fine of $10 on Wm. Anderson for driving without a number, and accepted the explanation given by Otto White as satisfactory, therefore allowing him to go. The reports were made by policeman Rankin.

DECLINES LEADERSHIP ON THE NOBE

City Cornet Band Director Decides to Stay in St. John

OFFER WAS TEMPTING

Had Appointment as First Bandmaster in Canada's Navy—Mr. Waddington Has Had Brilliant Career in the World of Music

Bandmaster Frank Waddington, director of the City Cornet Band, has today declined a tempting offer to become the first bandmaster of the Canadian navy, and instead he will remain in St. John as leader of the City Cornet Band.

Mr. Waddington has been in communication with the department at Ottawa, controlling naval matters, and received notification that if he accepted the appointment, he might proceed at once to Halifax to join the flagship "Nobe," where there is already a nucleus of thirty-two for a naval band. He had practically decided to accept, but on further considering the matter, felt that he owed it to the St. John band to remain with them for a longer time.

Professor Waddington was born at East Morton, a village in Yorkshire, England, on September 11, 1874. He belongs to a well known musical family, and received his earliest musical training at home, his father and four brothers forming a quintette, consisting of two cornets, tenor horn, trombone and euphonium. When but ten years old, Frank joined a band which was led by his father, playing the cornet. One year later he joined the Bingley Volunteer Band at the request of Joseph Paley, the famous cornet soloist. He made such rapid progress that Mr. Paley took him as a pupil, giving him private lessons.

After remaining with the Volunteers for a year, he was engaged as solo cornetist to the Keighley Volunteer Band for two seasons. He then joined the famous Saltaire Mills Band, as principal cornet. In 1895 he became assistant solo cornetist to John Paley in the famous Black Dike Mills Band. During his stay with the band, he took part in more than fifty first-class competitions where the band was successful in winning ten challenge cups, and more than forty first prizes. The band also attended between 700 and 800 engagements in England and Scotland. During that time the Black Dike Band won nineteen prizes out of twenty-one consecutive contests, a record never attained by any other band.

After leaving the band he joined the Brecon Family Opera Company as solo cornetist for two seasons. His next engagement was with the West Hartlepool Operatic Band, in which he played with them only a short time. He then joined the Bohemia and Carrietta Band and played solo cornet with them when they won the Scottish Challenge Cup. The judges spoke highly of Mr. Waddington's work, and he was later appointed sub-director to the band under John Gladney. Later on he was appointed conductor and teacher of the Linlithgow Town Band. In October, 1899, he became resident conductor and teacher to the Dumfries Town Band and remained with them three years. At the expiration of his contract with them he became conductor of the St. Albans City Silver Band. In Canada he was bandmaster in Quebec and from there came to St. John in January, 1910.

To sum up his career, he has been connected with eighteen bands, and has acted as trainer to six others. Mr. Waddington is a hard-working and painstaking director and spares no effort to bring his band to the front.

Bandmaster Waddington has showed his worth, in the year he has been here, by what he has done with the City Cornet Band. New life was instilled into the organization by his bubbling enthusiasm. He is a great worker, full of energy and he instilled the same spirit into the bandmen and brought results in a remarkably short time. People will remember the marked improvement the band showed in the Opera House concert given a little while after the new director had taken charge. So, too, in his recent performance in the Opera House. He has won the best wages and esteem of the members of the band, and they, with many other friends he has made in St. John, will be pleased at his decision to remain in St. John.

Mr. Waddington, who is an engineer by trade, has just completed the erection of a music stand and is having it patented. It will fold up like an umbrella, and may be enclosed in a case 2 1/2 feet long and 3 inches in diameter, but when in use it will provide a music stand for no fewer than twelve bandmen.

THE NEW DONALDSON LINER

The Donaldson liner Saturnus which is now at Sand Point on her first trip to St. John was visited yesterday by a large number of people and the ship's crew was greatly admired. She is much like the Cassandra, though possessing new features and improvements. This evening a dinner will be given by the steamship company to a number of transportation officials.

CORONATION CONTINGENT.

On Wednesday evening eleven men of the 62nd regiment will parade before Col. Hampley, D.O.C., and Col. J. L. McAvity, and from this number three will be picked to represent the regiment at the coronation of King George in June next. The choice will be made from the color sergeant in the regiment.
