Germans Make No Gain; They Lose Hangard

British Advance Lines Slightly Near Festubert; Enemy Keeps up Attacks But British and French Repulse Them

London, April 13.—The Germans made an attack last night west of Meriville, on the northern battle front, and were repulsed, the war office announces. The British advanced their lines slightly in the neighborhood of Festubert and took a few prisoners. There was heavy fighting last evening near Neuve Eglise and Wulverghem, and the battle here was still in progress at a late hour last night. Strong enemy forces launched an attack early last night east of Locon and succeeded in entering the British lines at certain points, but were ejected by a counter-attack. A second attack attempted later in the night at the same place was beaten off. In the sector south of the Somme, British and French troops by counter-attacks drove out the Germans from Hangard, which they penetrated yesterday.

AIR RAIDERS KILL FOUR IN ENGLAND AND 24 IN PARIS

Attacks on East Coast and in French Capital Made Last Night

London, April 13.—Five persons were killed and fifteen others were injured in an air raid last night on England, according to an official statement made today. The text reads: "Four airships patrolled in last night's raid. Two of them penetrated a few miles inland. Of the other two one reached the Midlands and the other nearly reached the northwest coast. The raiders were travelling at a great height and showed no inclination to attempt to penetrate during the night. The bombs were dropped in open country, and apart from the demolition of four houses at one place the damage so far reported is inconsiderable. Particulars of the casualties will be published later."

Paris, April 13.—Most of the bombs dropped during an air raid last evening fell in one spot, striking a house. It was evident the raiders found their work much more difficult under the new system of aerial defences and dropped their bombs hastily. Crowds in the theatres made their way to the cellars or to other sheltered places. Eleven persons were killed and fifty injured in the raid.

Paris, April 13.—Twenty-four persons were killed and sixty-two others were wounded in the German air raid last night.

ATTACKED OLD MAN WHO WAS SAID TO HAVE GIVEN INFORMATION ABOUT DRAFTEES

Quebec, April 13.—The provincial police are after two disturbers who early this week assaulted an elderly man named Frederick Deslisle, at Deschambault, and smashed his house, on the ground that he had reported draftees to the military authorities. So far two of the alleged disturbers, named Rodrigue, are in the hands of the police, but there are two or three other men who are being hunted down.

FOOD RIOTS IN HOLLAND

Amsterdam, April 13.—Military forces called out to protect bakers' shops in Haarlem, fired on a crowd which attacked them with stones, killing one woman and wounding several others. The troops were charged with drawn swords on crowds in various parts of the town and many people were injured. In Rotterdam, where bread carts were pillaged, reinforcements were sent to the troops there.

THREE SMASHES ON FRONT NEAR ARMENTIERES

Germans Successful in Only Part of Programme

THEIR LOSSES APPALLING

Still They Fling Themselves Against Stoutly Fighting British—Trying Yesterday to win Railway Centre at Aire

With the British Army in France, April 13.—(By the Associated Press.) With the exception of Meriville, the Germans thus far have not reached their objectives in part for the present drive north and south of Armentieres, but today's developments indicate that the enemy had no intention of abandoning the assault immediately. A captured German document reveals that there were to be three smashes on the front north and south of Armentieres. One had Bullen as its main objective, the other Meriville and Aire and the third Bethune. Not fewer than twenty-eight divisions have been employed by the enemy in this pretentious programme which has meant that at some places the British have been very heavily outnumbered. A German division aggregates 18,000 to 14,000 men, including 7,000 rifles.

SHIPBUILDING UNDER DISCUSSION IN SENATE

Ottawa, April 13.—In the senate yesterday there was a debate on the stimulation of Canadian shipbuilding. ## LET CHINESE IN HERE AS BRITAIN AND FRANCE

Niagara Falls, Ont., April 13.—The Niagara Falls Independent Labor party discussed the Chinese problem. It was said that information had just been received from Vancouver to the effect that almost every ship landing there was bringing thousands of Chinese to the coast. Various speakers expressed their view that Chinese laborers should be allowed into Canada on the same terms as into Great Britain and France.

WANTS STATE LEVELLED

Senator Owen Would Drop Frederick II Into Potomac River. ### Clause Affecting Ireland Passed in Committee of Whole; Joseph Devlin's Offer; Henderson and Asquith Against Enforced Service

London, April 13.—When the House of Commons, in committee of the whole, yesterday afternoon reached the clause in the man power bill extending conscription to Ireland, James Lardner, Nationalist M. P. for North Monaghan, moved that the bill should not be enforced with regard to Ireland until the passage of a resolution by the Irish parliament approving conscription in Ireland. "Today," he said, "County Clare is an armed camp, and what Clare is today the rest of Ireland will be tomorrow, if the government went on with this proposal. Eventually Mr. Lardner's motion was rejected 280 to 108. The conscription clause finally passed in committee by a majority of 165.

FIRE CALL TO PORTERS' DRUG STORE

Considerable damage was done in Frank E. Porter's drug store, 303 Union street, in a blaze there about half past twelve. Mr. Porter was heating some oil when the liquid caught fire and a sudden burst of flame spread over that part of the store. Box No. 18 was rung in and apparatus was sent from engine houses Nos. 2 and 3. The flames were quickly put under control. The front windows were saved and the fire damage was chiefly in the rear of the store. There was much smoke damage and it was feared that the prescription files had been lost, at least in part. A roof fire occurred in the house of Fred Fuller at Quispamis on Tuesday night and the family was forced to turn out of doors at 10:30. With the assistance of the neighbors the flames were extinguished. There was little damage. Mr. Fuller is employed at Smith's Fish Market, Union street.

The British casualties reported in the last week are more than twice the number reported in the preceding week. For several weeks the total British losses have been running between 3,000 and 4,000, the killed, wounded and missing in the great battles that have been going on in France not yet having been included.

IN TROUBLE WITH URUGUAY

Montevideo, April 12.—The government of Uruguay has asked Berlin, through Switzerland, if Germany would do this and Mr. Devlin himself, who at the beginning of the war had asked the late John Redmond's permission to join the colors, would join as a private now and constitute himself the leader of the young and generous hearts who would be touched by the chivalry and justice of the government's act and he would do his best to rally them to the government's support in this time of bitter trial. What more could a man offer than this? Mr. Devlin said it was for the government to say. Bonar Law. WHERE THEY FAILED.

Nothing whatever was shown by the advocates of the New Brunswick Power Company before the members of the legislature to prove that if the old St. John Railway Company, whose profits were yearly increasing, had gone on with its then existing capitalization of a little over $2,000,000, it could not have gone safely through the present period without raising rates or getting into financial difficulties.

HAIG'S MESSAGE.

The grim message of Sir Douglas Haig to his men, the very death warrant, it may be, of thousands and scores of thousands of them, is the most fateful that has come out of France since the war began. Only extreme urgency could move this silent and undemonstrative commander to make such an appeal to his soldiers as that which carried with it over the cables last night a stab for every heart that is not impetuous to the agony of suspense and suffering.

Details of Scheme Referred to by Sir Horace Plunkett Given Out

The scheme mentioned by Sir Horace Plunkett as meeting the approval of a majority of the delegates is set forth in paragraph forty-two of the report, under the title: "Statement of conclusions," summed up as follows:

Notwithstanding the establishment of an Irish parliament, the supreme power and authority of the parliament of the United Kingdom shall remain unaffected and undiminished over all persons, matters and things in law and equity which touch the crown, the prerogatives, privileges and qualifications of the members of the Irish parliament to be limited as in the act of 1914; rights of existing Irish officers to be safeguarded. Carried 48 to 15.

Section 2—The Irish parliament to have no power to make laws on the following: Crown and succession, the making of peace and war, army and navy, and all other matters which touch the crown, the prerogatives, privileges and qualifications of the members of the Irish parliament to be limited as in the act of 1914; rights of existing Irish officers to be safeguarded. Carried 48 to 15.

Carried 48 to 15.

Major General Maurice said today that a definite crisis had again been reached on the British front, although the advancing enemy has not yet gained any dominating position. The Allies are still in the early stages of a battle that may decide the war—but there will be no decision unless the Germans are beaten; for Britain and the United States would still fight on, even if at present they lost the day in France.

The British are fighting with their traditional courage and determination, and today's reports show that every foot of ground gained by the enemy is at heavy cost. It is clearly a question as to which side can stand the most punishment. The Germans are sacrificing men with a savage disregard for human life which is so pronounced a characteristic of the militarists responsible for the war.

Mr. Joseph Devlin's offer if home rule is granted at once to join the ranks as a private and constitute himself the leader of young Ireland in rallying to the colors is worth considering, especially since men like Mr. Asquith and Mr. Arthur Henderson are bitterly opposed to conscription in Ireland at the present moment.

Mr. E. J. Hilyard, in a letter to the Times, explains that he is not in the employ of the power company. It would clear the atmosphere if he and all the other candidates would tell the people where they stand in regard to the power company's demand for increased rates. That should be required of them by the citizens before polling day.

Dr. Robertson's grave message on food conservation and increased production should appeal with infinitely greater force because of today's news from France. The Canadian at home who is prodigal in his eating is guilty of taking some one else's food, for there is growing hunger in Europe.

POLICE COURT

Four boys and one man were before Magistrate Ritchie at the police court this morning, charged with trespassing on the C. P. R. trestle bridge between Long Wharf and Acadia street. His Honor fined the boys, and the man, Carl Vogie, was sent below, being also charged with giving the wrong name and address to a policeman who questioned him. His Honor remarked that the fine was $20, and it would pay pedestrians to walk around. There was too much trespassing on the bridge lately, he said.

THIRTY DEATHS

Twelve of Them Due To Forms Of Pneumonia

An unusual proportion of the city's weekly death has been due of late to various forms of pneumonia. Of thirty deaths this week, no fewer than twelve were due to this disease, and the proportion has been equally high in the last few weeks. The only reason given for this is the inclemency of the weather during the latter part of March and the first part of April. This week seven deaths were due to pneumonia and five to broncho-pneumonia, four to meningitis, three to pulmonary tuberculosis, two each to meningitis, convulsions and heart disease, and one to each of the following: Myocarditis, endocarditis, intussusception, spinal gangrene and cancer of the gall bladder.

CREDITORS WIN IN A. C. SMITH SUIT

Claim of Executor and Trustees of Smith Estate Against Company, Arising From Sale of C. B. Lockhart's Interest, Disallowed

In the matter of the assignment of A. C. Smith & Co., His Honor Judge Armstrong gave an important judgment with respect to a claim to the amount of $11,500, filed against the A. C. Smith & Co. by the executor and trustees of the estate of Albert C. Smith, deceased. The claim was contested on behalf of the assignees and creditors of the estate of A. C. Smith & Co. It arose over a transfer of the interest of C. B. Lockhart and wife to A. C. Smith & Co.

Mr. Lockhart and wife, formerly having had a one-third interest in the A. C. Smith & Co. firm, transferred their interest on July 14, 1905, by way of indenture made between them of the first part, H. Colby Smith and his mother, the second part, and H. Colby Smith and his mother as executors and trustees of the estate of Albert C. Smith, of the third part.

The first was the Miller property at Pokitok and the second the iron bark Ashmore, which is a wreck of the Mill Leidges. A large crowd gathered and when the Miller property, consisting of twenty acres of land, a lumber mill, five houses and two lines of bus, was put up for sale, the first bid made was $3,000 but this was soon raised and the sale was finally made at $9,000 to Harry Garson. T. T. Lantala was the auctioneer.

Better listeners no one need wish for, and reverence pervades the whole atmosphere. Our decision cases number from a few to sometimes 100. The prayer meetings are great. Last night we had over eighty men on their knees seeking God. Think of what this means. Our greatest handicap is the want of workers. If overwhims one when we remember that in a few hours these men move up, to the firing line and the regions of death. The very ablest workers should be sent out. It is a responsible work and an opportunity second to none.

Our own boys are brave and many take their stand for God in a noble way. A chaplain said to me the other day, "Our boys are splendid. They are consecrated to their religion, brave in their acknowledgement of conversion and are in every way a good example."

We visit the hospitals, where we distribute chocolates, fruits, flowers, writing paper, etc., and frequently write letters to friends all over the world. We are inundated with expressions of thanks. A wounded soldier in hospital said to Mrs. Greenway the other day, "You people do back us up. We are glad to see you come in; it does cheer us." Said another when about to be evacuated to "Blighty," "I do not want to go until I see the Salvation Army Sister, as I do want to thank her for her kindness." The nursing sisters say when our workers go, "Now, do not forget my ward today, my boys want to see you."

We are still building huts and hostels and opening hotels out here for the troops. This means something, as a hut runs away with a lot of money in these days. Ten thousand dollars does not go far.

I cannot close this report without paying a tribute to the courage of our workers. As you may imagine, some have felt that a release from the strain of work that has to be carried on where it is necessary to fly to dug-outs very often, and removal to a safer zone, has been suggested, this has been taken as almost tantamount to an insult. The girls, as well as the men officers have

SALVATION ARMY WORK AMONG THE SOLDIERS IN FRANCE The following report upon Salvation Army Work with the soldiers in France, has been received at the Toronto Headquarters of the organization, by Commissioner W. J. Richards. It is written by Lieutenant-Colonel Thomas Greenway, one of The Army's officials who are directing these operations: We try (writes the colonel) to do what we can to help the 'boys' not only by providing the 'hot drinks', but in a multitude of ways. Whenever we erect a hut we try to make it 'home away from home'. The human touch is upon all sides of our work, and we seek the aid of the Divine Hand and God's blessing all the time. It is marvellous to see the whole thing becomes quite a beehive of social and religious agencies. You may see a very large hut where the refreshments are dealt out, simply jammed with a long queue of lads wait-

BIG MORMON LAND DEAL

The Property of the Knight Sugar Company is Being Subdivided A big land deal has been completed in Southern Alberta, whereby 122,000 acres become open for smaller farm holdings. The tract was formerly part of the extensive holdings of Ray Knight and the Knight Sugar Company. By this transaction, which is the largest land deal between individuals ever made in the entire northwest, the Central Alberta Ranch Company and the Montana Ranches Company acquire the vast holdings of the Knight-Watson Ranching Company in the Stirling and Raymond districts. It is understood that the new holders will place the property on the market in segregated parcels, and it is believed that the event will mark the beginning of a great era of development in Southern Alberta, particularly the sections around Stirling, Raymond, Warner, New Dayton and Magrath. The bulk of the land will be taken up by the Mormons.

AN EXAMPLE TO ST. JOHN

The Work for Food Production Being Done in Orillia, Ont. (Toronto Globe.) The citizens of Orillia have responded to the greater production appeal with enthusiasm and energy in a highly practical way. They have divided the town into districts, each with a chairman, and the council will plow all gardens at the rate of fifty cents an hour actual plowing time. The production committee has bought a number of pigs, and is arranging for incubators to accommodate those who cannot get the hens to bring out the eggs supplied by the government. The town will be thoroughly canvassed, and everyone who has a vacant lot which he cannot work will be asked to turn it over to the committee. The town owns a farm which will be put under cultivation, and conferences will be held with farm clubs in the vicinity to discuss farm help, seeds, and other production topics. Arrangements will be made also to recruit labor in the town for the countryside. It is due to the enterprise and patriotism of the people of Orillia that their work should be given publicity. It will be an example and a stimulus to other communities. Two Camden, N. J., men are held at Chester, Pa., charged with a plot to blow up a shipyard there.

SPRING IMPURITIES CLOG THE BLOOD

A Tonic Medicine is a Necessity at This Season

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are an all-year-round tonic, blood-builder and nerve restorer. But these are especially valuable in the spring when the system is loaded with impurities as a result of the indoor life of the winter months. There is no other reason of the year when the blood is so much in need of purifying and enriching, and every dose of these pills helps to make new, red blood. In the spring one feels weak and tired—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills give new strength—In the spring the appetite is often poor—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills develop the appetite, tone the stomach and aid weak digestion. It is in the spring that poisons in the blood find an outlet in disgusting pimples, eruptions and boils—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills speedily clear the skin because they go to the root of the trouble in the blood. In the spring anæmia, rheumatism, neuritis, erysipelas and many other troubles are most persistent because of poor, weak blood, and it is at this time, when all nature takes on new life, that the blood most seriously needs attention. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually renew and enrich the blood, and this new blood reaches every organ and every nerve in the body, bringing new health and new strength to weak, easily tired men, women and children—Here is a bit of proof: Miss Anna Patterson, R. F. D. No. 1, Thorold, Ont., says:—"My trouble was one of general weakness, which thinned my blood and gave me at times unbearable headaches, loss of appetite and also loss in weight. I tried several medicines, but without success. Then I heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to give them a fair trial. The result is that I feel like a new person. My appetite improved, I gained in weight, my blood is thoroughly purified, and my face cured of some unsightly pimples which had troubled me. If one good turn deserves another then I have much pleasure in recommending Dr. Williams' Pink Pills." If you need a medicine this spring try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills—they will not disappoint you. These pills are sold by all medicine dealers, or you can get them by mail at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Vocational Training For New Brunswick

Striking Facts and Strong Recommendations In Report of Provincial Committee

Fredrickton, April 12—The provincial committee on vocational training, appointed last September, has completed its labor, and the result now goes to the legislature in the form of certain findings and recommendations with a bill based thereon which the committee hope will meet with a favorable reception.

There were meetings of the committee in St. John, Fredericton and Halifax, and some members also visited Massachusetts, while Mr. Peacock went as far as Pennsylvania to gain personal knowledge of systems of vocational training.

The summary of findings and the recommendations, with some of the general observations which will form a valuable portion of the full report when printed are as follows:

Report on Vocational Education. To His Honor the Hon. Wm. Fungley, K. C., D. C. L., P. C., Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of New Brunswick.

1. That the modern conception of the States' obligation as far as education is concerned includes training all the boys and girls from 5 to 18 years of age.

2. That those who cannot or do not wish to go to college, should be trained for efficiency as workers in the industries of the country.

3. That the training which best fits a child for efficiency as a producer in industry also tends to his own highest well being and value as a citizen.

Last winter I discovered a real remedy, a new scientific marvel which sets like no other Catarrh remedy on earth.

5. That there are 16,000 persons not in school between fourteen and eighteen years old in New Brunswick.

6. That a policy of developing regional agricultural and trade schools be continued by New Brunswick at the Woodstock and Sussex schools be used to inaugurate this.

7. That county vocational educational boards be organized to control the county vocational schools.

9. Sixteen thousand of secondary school age not in school. There are at least 45,000 persons in the province of New Brunswick aged 14 and 15 years of age.

"Our Backs To The Wall" Field Marshal Haig Calls on British to Stand To the Last Man

London, April 12—Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig in a special order of the day addressed to "all ranks of the British army in France and Flanders" says:

"Three weeks ago today the enemy began his terrific attacks against us on a forty mile front. His objects are to separate us from the French, to take the Channel ports, and to destroy the British army.

"We owe this to the determined fighting and self-sacrifice of our troops. Words fail me to express the admiration which I feel for the splendid resistance offered by all ranks of our army under the most trying circumstances.

"Every position must be held to the last man. There must be no retirement. With our backs to the wall and believing in the justice of our cause each one of us must fight to the end. The safety of our homes and the freedom of mankind depend alike upon the conduct of each one of us at this critical moment."

These expenses, Mr. McLellan added, did not include printing and other items which would probably bring the total to approximately $5,000,000 or about one and a quarter per cent of the allotment.

The House then considered a resolution by Hon. J. D. Reid, providing that in future the expenses of Canadian government railways and of all railways under the management of the minister of railways shall be paid out of the receipts and revenue of the railways.

Sir Robert added that he would make inquiries and report to the House.

Mother and Children Had Awful Coughs WERE CURED BY DR. WOOD'S RWAY PINE SYRUP

Mother and Children Had Awful Coughs

WERE CURED BY DR. WOOD'S RWAY PINE SYRUP

Mrs. Arthur Appleyard, Novar, Ont., writes: "This past winter my children and I had awful colds and coughs which we got by being in drafts. I tried a number of different remedies for us, but got no relief."

But the tide had turned and now Judge Neil has seen the juvenile court procedure in twenty-seven states changed and thousands of children and their mothers have been rescued from the disgrace of charity.

"It is cheaper to hire the mother to care for her own children than to pay for their maintenance in public institutions," says Judge Neil from scores of platforms throughout the country.

"Within ten years," said Judge Neil, "there will be no child in poverty. No state will permit its children to go hungry, poorly clothed, and no state will take children from their own mothers and turn them over to public institutions."

"The idea that children should be kept in poverty because their parents are drunkard, a criminal, or incompetent, is inhuman, wasteful and bad policy from every point of view, to prevent that funds can be begged to solve the problem of child poverty is dangerous as it destroys the self-respect of charity's victims and perpetuates the disgrace of poverty child."

"Within ten years the United States will have no children stunted by poverty, and we will then be really preparing for peace or for defence of our country. Last year more than 70 per cent of the young men applying for enlistment in the military and naval forces were found to be physically or mentally unfit."

accommodate the wounded. Many hundreds of persons are homeless.

No deaths of Europeans have been reported. Most foreigners left their houses and took refuge in the ships.

An instance of the severity of the disaster is that a ship, thirty miles to sea off Amoy felt the shock distinctly. It is believed that Amoy suffered as much as if not more than Swatow.

WONDER WORK IN LOCATING ENEMY

French Artillery Now Have Daily Maps Showing Positions to Margin of Five Yards

French Front, March 10.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Accuracy and efficiency have been made possible for the French artillery by the invention of an instrument that enables French map-makers to locate almost exactly an object within the enemy lines which has been photographed from an airplane.

This permits the French artillery to pour its shells with almost certain aim on to German gun emplacements, trench positions, cross-roads, communication, railroad lines, aviation camps and other enemy organization. It is unnecessary for the gunner to have even a distant view of the object he is firing at.

To take a photograph of the enemy lines from a French airplane is an easy matter, but to transfer the objects photographed to their exact location on a map was for a time extremely difficult. This was due to the varying heights and angles from which the airplane observers made their photographs. By the invention of one of the officers attached to the geographical section this difficulty has been almost eliminated.

Not only the aerial observation service, but other methods of spotting German positions—more especially cannon and machine gun emplacements—are utilized as aids to the work of the military map-maker. The sketches of guns as they are fired from the German side form one valuable adjunct to his work, but the most important of all is the calculation of the speed of the sound of the firing charge of the German shells. This has been brought to a basis of such perfection that the guns can now be located with almost absolute accuracy. In fact in recent operations it has proved that the system of observation by sound has given successful results in more than 80 per cent of instances.

In every army there is a branch of the geographical section and each is furnished with a complete lithographic and anisographic printing plant and skilled workers, photographers and mathematicians from all the various sources, dozens of copies of the corrected maps are ready for issue to all the staffs of corps, divisions and brigades comprised within the army concerned.

Nothing is omitted from the maps—every church, house, chimney, mill, bridge, road, railroad, group of trees is marked as well as every turn and twist of an enemy trench or system of barbed wire entanglements, every stream, ditch, bridge, ford, every path used by supply parties, every point of resistance, organized shell crater, look-out post is shown on the maps. Maps on a very large scale are given when an attack is about to be carried out, so that each officer and man participating may know exactly what is in front of him and what he may expect to encounter during his advance.

ANGER LURKS IN EVERY ONE OF US

We Are As Full of Deadly Poisons As a Germ Laboratory

AUTO-INTOXICATION OR SELF-POISONING

The chief cause of poor health is out of the bowels. Waste matter, instead of passing from the lower intestine regularly every day, is allowed to remain there, generating poisons which are absorbed by the blood.

In other words, a person who is habitually constipated, is poisoning himself. We know now that Auto-Intoxication, due to non-action of the bowels, is directly responsible for serious Kidney and Bladder Troubles; that it upsets the Stomach, causes Indigestion, Loss of Appetite and Sleeplessness; that chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Pain in the Back, are relieved as soon as the bowels become regular; and that Pimples, Rash, Eczema and other Skin Affections disappear when "Fruit-a-tive" is taken to correct Constipation.

"Fruit-a-tive" will protect you against Auto-intoxication because this wonderful Auto-intoxication medicine acts directly on all the eliminating organs.

The conservation and increased production of food and how Canadians should meet the crisis formed the subject of an eloquent and intensely interesting address by Dr. J. W. Robertson in the Seaman's Institute last evening.

It will be impossible for the people of Europe to be fed next year. "There will be just enough food if the people of Canada eat about three-quarters of the amount that they now consume," was his declaration.

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally; has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remembers a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile, and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. It was agreed that the schools should be allowed to be used by the Playgrounds Association during the summer. The matter of dangerous crossings for the younger children was left to Dr. Bridges after a suggestion had been made that older pupils should form a patrol to protect the younger ones. The High School fire escapes being in need of repair, the matter was left with the visitors to that school. The reports of the secretary showed 7,800 pupils enrolled with a daily attendance averaging 6,919.

Exploit's Harbor, Notre Dame Bay, Nfld., April 12.—That Dodd's Kidney Pills are upholding their enviable reputation in every corner of Canada is evidenced by the statement of Mrs. Samuel Milley, a well-known resident of this place.

"For several years I suffered from rheumatism and heart failure," Mrs. Milley states. "I used twenty-two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and my rheumatism is all gone. I know Dodd's Kidney Pills are a wonderful medicine. I recommend them to all my friends who are not feeling well, and they, like myself, speak highly of them."

"I used Dodd's Kidney Pills and got relief." Dodd's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. If the kidneys are weak and sick they cannot do their full work of straining the impurities out of the blood. The result is bound to be sickness and disease. To keep the kidneys sound is to lay the foundation of good health. Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills do not cure sick kidneys.

Two Motor Problems Solved

—cold weather starting
—power from low-grade gasoline

SURELY this is an essential test for an engine—especially in Canada:—

That it will "warm up" quickly in cold weather—and do it with a poor grade of gasoline.

The new Chalmers meets this test. It runs as smoothly in December as in May. It thrives on low-grade gasoline. A great engine, truly!

Two features make the Chalmers engine great: Features that turn poor gasoline into high power—use the last bit of gas—keep raw gasoline out of the cylinders. Two new features solve the problems that have annoyed motorists for months. First, the "hot spot" in the manifold vaporizes every drop of gasoline to a rare, highly combustible state. Second, the "ramshorn" manifold carries this vapor straight to the cylinders. There are no traps in the Chalmers "ramshorn" for raw gasoline. No sharp bends, no rough surfaces or crevices.

Every motorist should see this great engine. For its great features are readily understood. Its performance is instantly appreciated. To-day's Chalmers is a delight to the critical driver. Arrange for a demonstration and take a turn at the wheel yourself. Let the great Chalmers engine tell you its own story. Any time.

Basic Facts About Belting

AND PARTICULARLY

Dunlop "Gibraltar RedSpecial" Frictioned-Surface Transmission Belting

A Worthy Product
Years of careful study of the high-power belt problem have enabled Dunlop Laboratory experts to create "Gibraltar RedSpecial" Belting, the original Red Face Rubber Belting of Canada—a quarter-century record of success back of them.

"Gibraltar RedSpecial" Virtues Are Real
Dunlop "Gibraltar RedSpecial" Belting is to-day widely used in a multitude of ways in the many varied industries in this country. It owes its success, not to any illogical deductions or fantastic analyses, but to the simplest cause—causes so simple that they are now, always have been, and always will be, in our opinion, the bedrock of success in belt-making—Power, Speed, Service—in actual use as well as in the test-room.

Permanent Elasticity Means "Life" in Belting
In producing this new, this original, this master red belt, our object has been to have the friction coat of rubber between the plies such as will retain its life indefinitely, and to have a quality of rubber with long "fingers," and not a quality of rubber the elasticity of which has not been sacrificed to obtain the so-called high-pulling test.

That "Friction Pull"
When you are informed that such-and-such a belt has a "friction-pull" of abnormal poundage, do not imagine that you are getting a quality friction. What you have to secure in a belt is a friction full of elasticity. There must be between the plies of duck only a certain class of rubber to give uniform strength and pliability.

Resilient Quality Must Not Be Sacrificed To Excess of Friction Strength
To obtain high figures, such as referred to above, in belt frictions you have to take away from the elasticity of the friction; hence, there is a happy medium, and this medium we have obtained through our laboratory experts. It ensures for you a belt, the friction of which will hold the plies together and will be sufficiently elastic in its properties to allow for the give and take necessary in rounding the pulleys.

Universal Recognition of "Gibraltar RedSpecial"
To cite the names of users of this famous, red frictioned-surface belt would necessitate the use of much space. We have on file recommendations from almost every type of industry requiring "Gibraltar RedSpecial" Belting in widths varying from 1½" to 48". These testimonials are available for your perusal at any time.

The Original "Red"
"Gibraltar RedSpecial," as noted previously, is the Original Red Rubber Belt—and like most things that are original, its success is of the kind that endures.

Fills The Bill
"Gibraltar RedSpecial" Belting is to be found in practically every industry in Canada, and if it is Power, Speed and Service that you want, then it is "Gibraltar RedSpecial" Frictioned-Surface Belting that you require for your work.

BASEBALL STORIES OF THIRTY YEARS AGO

BY JOE PAGE

Every now and then a paragraph or two, written by American baseball writers, contains the information that the baseball game will not be seriously affected during the season of 1918, and as if to cap off the contention, they usually wind up with something on the following order: After more than three years of war, baseball still holds its popularity in Canada, as witness the large gatherings at the various league games throughout that country in the last season.

Again—Baseball not affected by the war, as evidenced by the excellent showing of the International League in point of attendance at both Montreal and Toronto, Canada.

Again—in spite of the war baseball still holds the affections of the Canadian public. Toronto, winner of the International League pennant, not only finished first, but had one of its biggest if not the biggest, financial years, and this after three years of war.

The latest one is from my friend, Thomas S. Rice, representing the Brooklyn Eagle, in the city of churches—Brooklyn. While the gentleman undoubtedly looks for a diminution so far as baseball attendance is concerned, he writes that when the boys from America get thoroughly into the greater scrup, "Over There," and America would be reading the first of its horrible death lists about the time it would be reading the first of the baseball scores, perhaps if the United States had already been in the war three years, as Canada has been, and the public had become calloused, the effect might not be so serious.

One thing is this, I cannot find where they get this kind of dope. Any and everyone familiar with baseball and sports in general throughout the whole of Canada, knows absolutely that if there is any one thing that has suffered by reason of war it has been athletic sport (professional), and the professional baseball leagues either organized or independent government have suffered by far more than all the rest of athletic sport put together.

When the war broke out in August, 1914, there were organized professional leagues in Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Today how many of these leagues are there in existence? None. Here we have the International League going to the wall only a short time ago, and this was supposed to be the premier league, after the two majors. While there were but two cities represented from the Canadian side—Toronto and Montreal, the former city has been tumbled all along the line as being one of the greatest baseball cities outside the major league on the continent, and mind you, this during the war and what's more, in the third year of the war. It is honestly enough to make one laugh. It is a well known fact that just like the other cities of the late circuit, they either had to be a winner or in place position to break even or better. Toronto, with a second division team throughout a season would not fare any better financially than any one of the other seven clubs.

As it was last year, winning the championship, together with numerous exhibition games arranged between major league clubs, they managed, it is said, to clear less than $16,000, which it is said by those who have inside information, is not a patch on what their losses have been since they won a championship previously. And had it not been for the generous helping hand of the press boys on many, many occasions during the stormy times, yes and again last season, together with the able business management of that reliable veteran of the game and one who knows its ins and outs from A to Z, it's better than an even bet that Toronto would have been lucky to in-ish any where near as well financially as they did. Hats off to good old Arthur Irwin.

With Toronto in this new league if it starts there is the bare possibility of one other city in Canada being in professional baseball for the coming season—Vancouver. So where would the United States stand on what Rice writes as follows:

"If the United States had already been in war three years as Canada has been and the public had become calloused the effect might not be so serious."

Figure it out, Mr. Baseball Dopester, and give the baseball public the answer to the following question: If Canada in 1913 had six professional leagues in organized ball and at least eight independent professional leagues and only one, possibly two, Canadian cities were in two American leagues for 1918, inside of four years of war, how many leagues in organized ball would the United States have if the war lasted until April 6, 1921 if they had only twenty leagues in organized ball on April 6, 1917?

Note for dopester—Especially if the United States keeps up the rapidity of her general mobilization as started until the period of time stated has elapsed.

Baseball is not different from any other line of sport or business that is not absolutely essential to the winning of the war. Each and every magnate, manager, player and baseball writer has that point to look at—squarely in the face. All industries, all sports and all classes, high and low, wherever they may be on this continent will not only have to give of their might but in whatever capacity they are able to will have to do their bit as the war progresses and the longer it takes to win it the surer the non-industrial war winning guy either of sport or business will in time be called upon to make good.

There is no question of the fact that we, the Allies, are out to win. So is Germany and her cohorts. The United States is young in this game of war as yet. And when 1921 rolls around and should the war not be over (please God it will be) there will be few sport writers writing to say that the United States public have become calloused and organized baseball might not be seriously affected. However baseball is in the real making and the war is the cause of it.

Editor's note—There will be several more articles on this subject to follow soon.

HERZOG CAMPS ON GIANTS' DOORSTEP

Likely to Draw $10,000 For Warming Beach—Setting Bad Example

New York, April 9—Charlie Herzog is in town, but so far has failed to renew acquaintance with President Hemstead of the Giants. Herzog declares that unless the Braves come to his terms he will camp right on the Giants' doorstep and present himself to McGraw for active service in next Tuesday's opening game at the Polo Grounds.

In the meantime the case rests right where it fell when Herzog took a run out on the Braves. It may be possible that the magnates have fixed up some sort of side agreement to cover the trade in case Herzog does insist in playing the prodigal at the Polo Grounds.

If he cared to stomach the resentment from manager and players his return would entail, Herzog could collect his $10,000 salary for doing nothing but warm the bench. That would be $1,000 less than he would receive at Boston.

With an expired contract next fall he would be forced to seek seclusion or play in 1919 at a ridiculously low salary.

Boston needs Herzog, it is true, and needs him badly, but it is doubtful if in the end it would be the better policy to capitulate. Capitulation now spells a source of great trouble in the future.

Herzog puts one over other players cannot be expected for attempting the same thing later on.

WILD HORSES, 800 OF THEM, ON RAMPAGE IN STREETS OF CITY

Bombay, Feb. 26—(Correspondence Associated Press)—Eight hundred unbroken horses ran wild recently in a paddock at the Byalla Racing Club here, smashed down the fences and spread all over Bombay, causing considerable panic in the native quarters, and dislocating railway and street traffic for the entire day.

Large numbers of the animals got on to the railway lines, where several of them were killed. Six of them fell into a large sewage culvert. Horsemen from the race track spent the whole day and the following night in pursuit of the animals. Only 460 horses were finally recovered, the remainder having either been killed or escaped into the countryside.

One man was seriously injured in the bazaar district by being trampled by a herd, while in a main street a motor car was wrecked by the horses rushing madly over it.

PERSIUS, NAVAL CRITIC, SKEPTICAL OF GERMAN DREAM

Freedom of Seas in Wartime a Chimera, He Declares—Victory Over British Fleet Would Not Secure Trade With Unfriendly Nations.

New York, April 12—In rejecting unceremoniously the German idea of freedom of the seas, Captain Persius, the German naval expert, in an analysis of the question in the Berliner Tageblatt of March 9, revived here, reaches this conclusion:

"We can, in other words, gain freedom of seas of advantage to us only by means of force by understanding. Every peace by force would seal the unfreedom of the seas for us also in times of peace."

From the captain's article it appears that there are two views of how Germany must secure freedom of the seas "for the future."

Acquisition of the Azores, a pamphlet by Dr. Victor Hensel, of Kiel, is referred to by Captain Persius. Dr. Hensel believed that German use of the Azores would prove a strong card in the German campaign. The following passage from his pamphlet is quoted by Persius: "A German fleet, however strong, will not be able to prevent a breach of international treaties, for the enemy will always possess enough U-boats to disturb our commerce. If we could use the Azores as a base of support for our U-boats there would follow, in case of the destruction of merchantmen which, necessarily, would have to be avoided by both sides as sheer nonsense. That would lead then to the desired freedom of the seas."

British Sea Power. Captain Persius then says: "Even if the British sea power which today dictates the conditions under which the seas are to be used, could be broken, hardly anything could be gained thereby. For, if the British fleet would have to cede its position to some other power, the latter would undoubtedly pursue, not a policy of sentiment, but one of materialism—to do what best serves its own interests. There never will be an undisturbed use of the seas in times of war."

"It should be clear to us that, even if our army and fleet should achieve the greatest victories we could not force the other nations to trade with us and could not force them to exchange raw materials for our industrial products. If other nations are not willing to resume friendly commercial competition, then our merchant fleet would be of no advantage to us."

"Our enemies in the west hold in their hands a large part of our possibilities of existence. Having this in mind, Dr. Michaelis, the chancellor, said in the Reichstag on July 17, 1917: 'We must safeguard the conditions of existence of the German people the continent and abroad by understandings and compensation.'

CAPTURE OF PARIS WAS THE OBJECTIVE

All German Plans Contemplated Rapid Advance and Open Warfare

Washington, April 12—Statements of German prisoners have convinced French military critics that the real object of the great German offensive was Paris, and that so far from expecting checks which would make Amiens the goal of bloody and undecided battles, the Teutonic high command sent its forces forward prepared for rapid advances in open warfare.

"In order to alleviate the march of the troops," says an official despatch from France, "the order was given to prepare for their departure and to organize the convoys in such a way as only to carry with them what was indispensable. The remainder was to be stored at a depot designated by the divisions. The loading carriages, the munitions to be carried, the equipment and arming of the men all had been carefully planned as well as the distribution of maps of the country to be invaded. The men were to carry reserves of food, enough to last two days, and two flasks, the usual food for a day following them in rolling kitchens and provisions for three days in company convoys.

"In short, every arrangement shows that the German command had decided to resort to open warfare. It is certain that the military situation, after more than fifteen days of operations, is one of extreme disappointment to the German command."

Bob Long Overalls Shirts & Gloves

Bob Long says: "My overalls and shirts are the best made, because—the cloth I use stands 60 pounds pressure to the square inch. Such pressure would go through the usual cheap overall cloth like a tank through the German lines." Insist on "Bob Long" brand. Times Call For Thrift

Mrs. Arthur Meighen Believes in Carrying Her Own Parcels; Her Twelve-Year-Old Boy Will Herd Sheep This Summer

MRS. ARTHUR MEIGHEN, Wife of the Minister of the Interior.

"The war has done us good in many ways. Before it broke out women were simply strolling to get ahead of each other, both in clothes and entertainment. Each one tried to outdo the other in the refreshments she served at functions. Now we are straining rather towards simplicity, and it is better for us all. It will mean the building up of a new womanhood."

MRS. ARTHUR MEIGHEN.

Mrs. Arthur Meighen regards the food conservation question from two angles—through her own and her children's eyes. She believes that just as the children of Europe are suffering cruelly as a result of the war, so the children of Canada should be taught by their mothers to have some share in working or sacrificing for the sake of the little brothers and sisters across the sea.

She is the exponent of this principle in her own home, for her three children are enthusiastic young patriots who are doing their share by adding their small quota to the food supply of the country. Behind the Meighen home is what is called the "backyard farmyard," where there is lively competition between the hens and the garden. This year it is either a question of enlarging the hen-run or the garden, and the decision is still in abeyance. Last year the children built the hen-house themselves, and they looked after the chickens diligently and enthusiastically. In fact, it is a standing grievance with them that "there is never any garbage" for their chickens. Mrs. Meighen heartily endorses the Soldiers of the Soil movement, and is pleased with the way the boys are signing. She thinks it is an excellent thing, both for the boys and for the country. Her eldest boy is just twelve years old, and although too young to enroll with the S. O. S. boys, he is going to do his share this summer on a farm in Manitoba, where he will live with friends and act as a youthful shepherd. The youngster is immensely keen over the prospect of herding sheep. As Mrs. Meighen explained, when turned out on the stubble, with no fences in Manitoba, the sheep need a good deal of shepherding.

A hearty advocate of the cash and carry system is the wife of the minister of the interior. She carries home all her own parcels, unless their size makes this out of the question. In discussing it, she laughed as she pictured herself starting out to do her shopping with a huge bag over her arm. She finds it more profitable, however, than shopping by telephone. The main advantage, in her opinion, is the fact that if every woman once got into the habit of doing this, the delivery system would be simplified and men would be released for the farms, where they are going to be badly needed this year. Mrs. Meighen seems rather to like the idea of sleeping in the good, old-fashioned way with a modern edition of the market basket.

She speaks from practical experience of girls' ability to do farm work, declaring that any girl of average strength can run a hay rake or mower and do any number of "jobs" on a mixed farm. Personally she has run a hay rake and knows how to throw over the gears of this implement. Mrs. Meighen thinks that a great many girls who are living at home now and others who are engaged in non-essential industries would be well advised to go to the farms. She referred especially to the numbers of girls who spend so much time in the tea-rooms when they would be better employed in learning how to cook in their own homes. "In saying that I think afternoon tea and extra meals should be cut out, I am not speaking merely from the standpoint of food economy. There is the other consideration that they tend to give girls an excuse for gadding around at a time when all their energies are needed for practical work. It is appalling how little some girls know about domestic economy. They might be learning a whole lot these days in the kitchen—because the kitchen is of the first importance now. I really think the tea-rooms should be closed, for you can hardly blame the girls for going to them so long as they remain open. There is no doubt that they are tempting. Afternoon tea in the home as a social custom is all right if judgment is exercised in the use and abuse of food. I like afternoon tea myself, but I think the tea room is a distinct temptation that might be done away with." Mrs. Meighen thinks that the new waste and hoarding regulations issued by the Canada Food Board are excellent. She believes that women will be scrupulous in reporting any cases of hoarding of waste they hear of, and that there will be some of these she is certain. In her own home as much economy is practised as possible. Graham or corn meal muffins have taken the place of bread at breakfast time, and war bread is baked once a week. The use of beef and bacon has been reduced to the minimum, and every possible source of waste is carefully watched. "When you stop to think of how people are suffering in Europe and of how fortunate we are, it's astonishing that we can be so indifferent," said Mrs. Meighen. "The latest war news comes with such a shock that I think it rather puts us up. Certainly the spirit of self-sacrifice which has characterized our women in other ways is now spreading by slow degrees to material things. For one thing, I believe women are reading the papers more than they ever did, and this,

SAILINGS OF U. S. TROOPS SPEEDED UP

Training With British Forces Now Instead of French, is the Order

Washington, April 12.—Transportation of American troops to France already is proceeding at the accelerated rate contemplated by the speeding up measures taken after the battle of Picardy began. Acting Secretary Crowell made this statement, but would give no details. For military reasons the extent of the increased troop movement has not been made public. Following the conference between Secretary Baker and Allied officials, orders were given under which a British official statement was issued saying that American forces were to be brigaded with British troops in order to hasten American participation in the war. Officials explained today that the process to be followed was similar to that adopted in placing American troops in the front lines with the French for training. It has been estimated that thirty days' training of this character with American battalions units assigned with the British organizations will fit the newcomers for active duty at the front. The divisions now moved from this side are composed of men who have had several months of preliminary training and who need only final instructions to take their full share in the fighting. The training process will be quicker with the British than with the French, it is believed, because the language difficulty does not exist. American units will find every veteran an instructor and there will be no need for interpreters. It was indicated that the new plans call for a more extensive training scheme with the British army than has been the case with General Pershing's original force. There probably will be no attempt to set up a purely American force within the British ranks as has been done with the French. The Americans are to be withdrawn when trained and turned over to General Pershing as part of his army. They will share fully with their British comrades the battles on the front, and the belief here is that they will not be withdrawn as long as there is pressing need for their service with the British lines.
