CALL FOR RECRUITS IS STILL INSISTENT

Appeal Made for Men for Batteries and 600 for Overseas Service as Reinforcements

The calls for recruits is still insistent, and although the officers here had the names of a number of volunteers, only two were passed last week, and have gone down to Sussex, those two men were

Vincent O'Neil, Grand Casapedia Simon Doucet, Richardsville.

Recruiting officer A. Mc G. McDonald received a wire from Partridge Island asking for sixty men to fill up vacancies in the Artillery. These are now asked for and will be sent to St. John tomorrow, Friday.

Mr. McDonald has also received the following letter from Halifax, and it is hoped that a goodly response will be made to the appeal.

Halifax, N. S., 23-9-1915.

600 recruits are urgently required for Overseas Service with the Royal Canadian Regiment and other Overseas Units as reinforcements.

They will be trained at Wellington Barracks, Halifax, N. S., and will be sent overseas as soon as trained. It is not anticipated that recruits will be kept at Wellington Barracks for a longer period than three months before proceeding overseas.

Volunteers will be sent to the nearest Recruiting Officer who will have them examined and if medically fit and otherwise suitable they will be forwarded to Wellington Barracks, Halifax, N. S.

Your co-operation and assistance in this matter will be greatly appreciated.

QUEEN MARY SETS VERY GOOD EXAMPLE

Garments Made by Her Majesty to be Sold in N. B.—Mrs. S. J. Trites Interested

Her Majesty Queen Mary of England who has always been admired for right thinking people for her good sound sense, has measured up fully to her reputation, and has set a noble example to the women of the Empire in this the greatest of all wars.

By her unflinching efforts and sympathy she ranks second only to Queen Elizabeth of Belgium. With her own hands Queen Mary has crocheted a number of petticoats which have been sent out to the Canadian Branch of Queen Mary's Needlework Guild.

It has been decided to send one petticoat to each province of the Dominion in the hope that each petticoat will bring five hundred dollars with which to buy materials to make garments for the soldiers in the hospitals. The materials so bought are to be distributed among the out-of-way places of the Dominion where women feel that they cannot give both the time and material. It will thus be seen that the money will be spent in Canada for materials and the garments made therefrom will be sent direct to Queen Mary who distributes them herself in the various hospitals.

Mrs. Wood, wife of Lieutenant Governor Wood has consented to direct this work in New Brunswick, that the

FUNERAL OF LATE SUPERINTENDENT PRICE

Well-known Railroad Man Who Died on Monday Laid to Rest on Wednesday Afternoon

The funeral of the late Evan Price, Division Superintendent on this division of the I. C. R., took place from his late residence on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Price, who was in his 62nd year had been off on leave of absence through sickness, for a couple of months, yet his death which took place on Monday morning was entirely unexpected and cast a gloom over the railway employees and the public generally.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. W. Squires of the Methodist Church, the ministers of the other Protestant churches, Rev. Hugh Millar, Rev. J. H. Jenner and Rev. J. E. Purdie also attending. The service at the house was most solemn and impressive, no music being used at the request of the deceased's family. The pall bearers were Messrs. W. A. True-man, W. Appleton, Jasper Davison, Wm. Metzler, Jas. Patterson and W. Fitzmaurice. The floral tributes were many and beautiful, wreaths and bouquets being received from many sources, showing the high esteem in which the deceased gentleman was held. Interment was made in the Rural cemetery, and the remains were followed to the grave by a large concourse of sorrowing friends.

Mr. Evan Price was a son of William Price, a well-known contractor of Montreal, now many years deceased. He is survived by a widow and two children, Mrs. Alexander Hall, of Hamilton, Ont., and Joseph Price, M. D., of Campbellton. Two brothers also survive, viz., Messrs. William Price, of Lindsay, Ont., and Frederick Price, Supt. of Car Service for the Grand Trunk System, Montreal.

The deceased superintendent came to the I. C. R. as a young man, and was promoted successively as train-despatcher, chief train despatcher, and district superintendent on the North Shore division. He worked as chief despatcher under the late General Superintendent, James E. Price, when the latter was superintendent on the North Shore, and later succeeded Supt. Reynolds in charge of what has become the most extensive district on the road.

Mr. Price has been connected with the I. C. R. for thirty nine years, and since Aug. 1902 has held the position of District Supt. of the Campbellton Division, which runs from St. Flavie to Moncton. When the Canada Eastern was taken over by the I. C. R. it was placed under Mr. Price's management, as were also the I. N. R. and the St. John Valley Railway, making the Campbellton Division of the I. C. R. by far the largest district of any on the government railway system.

The news of Mr. Price's death will be heard with regret by railroaders all over the I. C. R. and particularly on the division under his management where he was well thought of by all the employees. Aside from his public life his kindly personality endeared him to all in the community.

So passes away one who will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends in this town. A man of large heart and generous mind, his influence spread far beyond the confines of this community and where ever men gather the name of Evan Price recalls many a kind word spoken, a good deed wrought and a sympathetic bearing to all his fellows. It is acknowledged by all that under his management this division has been the most economically run, and the relations of employees and superintendent were always of the most cordial nature. Although in later years Mr. Price was quiet and unassuming, yet under that calm there was a large fund of kindly humour which in past years made many a pleasant hour.

To his widow and family all classes extend a kindly sympathy in which the Graphic joins.

women of Canada may stand a chance of owning a garment made by Her Majesty, Queen Mary of England. It is probable that tickets will be sold at 25 cents each. This is not a large sum, and without doubt many women in New Brunswick will possess themselves of a number of tickets in the hope of being a proud possessor of such a garment.

Mrs. S. J. Trites has consented to sell these tickets in Campbellton. Any one from other districts in the county can have tickets by mail. Price of tickets 25c. Any one wishing to buy tickets can call at home of Mrs. Trites Andrew St.

THE BATHURST FIRE

An eyewitness of the Bathurst fire of last week was a welcome visitor to the Graphic the other day and desired to express his appreciation of the way the Campbellton Fire Brigade handled themselves at Bathurst. This gentleman was much struck by the "resourcefulness of the department, their quickness and attitude, and he considered that no praise was adequate enough for their great work in the long hours they spent fighting the flames." This coming from an outsider makes us feel proud of our brigade, which under Chief O'Donnell is worthily upholding the traditions of Campbellton Fire Department. It has always been their record and the opinion of the eyewitness coincides with our own, although we never care to blow about it. The brigade are always ready to do their duty cheerfully and courageously, and we can feel satisfied that their efforts are appreciated by the outside public.

RE-DIRECTED MAIL

Many people seem to think that catalogues, papers, parcels and other articles can be re-directed at the post office as letters and post cards can. This is a mistake. The postal instructions expressly state that letters and post cards are the only articles of mailable matter that do not require additional postage when re-directed from the post office to which they are addressed to the addressee at another office. Re-directed parcels are chargeable with additional postage, and in every case where a parcel cannot be delivered at the post office to which the sender addressed it, but has to be re-directed to some other post office, the additional postage must be prepaid by the person who re-directs the parcel or surcharged upon the parcel itself to be collected at the office delivering it. Postage paid on a parcel when it is posted will not carry it any farther than the post office named in the address, and new postage must be paid if the parcel is sent to another post office.

PIONEER PRESERVING

(By Peter McArthur)

A request made some weeks ago for the recipes used by the pioneers for preserving fruit without sugar has brought me replies from all parts of the Dominion. Although the methods differ slightly in detail they are practically the same. Of course many of our grandmothers dried their fruit, but their methods have already been described in the press this season, and are so simple that they should be within the capacity of any housewife who can boil water without burning it. Here is a recipe for preserving blackberries and plums that is guaranteed to keep them fresh for any reasonable length of time.

Take a deep stone crock, one that holds five or six gallons, and fill it with plums or berries that are not too ripe. Place over them a board or plate with a weight on it, preferably a good smooth stone which is easily cleaned, and then fill the crock to overflowing with hard water. Be sure that the weight is heavy enough to keep the plums under the water or they will spoil. There will be a scum formed on top of the crock which must be removed before reaching the fruit which will be found as fresh as when put up. Rhubarb cut in lengths to fit the crock will keep the same way.

Another correspondent writes: "I have canned cantaloupes, apples, rhubarb and plums without sugar, and have had good success. After the fruit has been cleaned and prepared in the usual way fill the jars as full as possible, shaking the fruit down and packing it tightly, then place rubbers and tops on tightly, and as many jars as will fill the crock of a water boiler, with it in a heavy weight over them to hold them down. Pour in as much cold water as will cover the top of the jars and let it stand twenty minutes after the water has come to a boil. Plums may be a little longer. They will be a little softer, but they will be delicious. Put away with too much sugar. Here is another recipe that I have used with success. Pick the fruit from the stalks and put into a crock or tub. Add one dram of alum to four gallons of boiling water and let it stand until it is cold. Fill the bottles with this liquor, bring them to a boil, and then in a crock of cold water and heat to 175 degrees. Then tie them over with a bladder and seal them."

That would probably preserve the fruit but the very mention of alum puckers my mouth, and I doubt if fruit put up in this way would be relished. However, the housewives who think sugar is too dear to use this season need not be without fruit. Several to whom I have shown these recipes say they are going to try them anyway for it would be a luxury to have fresh blackberries and cream or fresh plums in the winter time.

FULL VALUE FRUIT

(By Peter McArthur)

The war is developing in many people a higher ideal of citizenship, a clearer conception of the fair-play that should prevail in all the business of the country. Even the business of trading honesty, thrift and economy—work that was usually left to the pupils. In addition to this, business organizations are adopting a more public-spirited attitude and giving more attention to the service they should render for the money they receive.

A notable example of this new spirit is being shown in the fruit industry. The fruit growers, who are trading honesty, thrift and economy, are particularly anxious to place the work of marketing and distribution on a plane of patriotic public service. It is their aim to distribute their products so widely that there will be no waste and at the same time to place them on the market at as low a price as the consumers shall have full value for their money. During the past few months I have had an opportunity to observe the business of marketing plums and peaches. I have interviewed growers, dealers and retailers and have no hesitation in saying that except in a few centres where there are local ordinances that interfere with the business of marketing, the price paid and date of making the purchase for consumers to get better service than they have ever had in the past. They should get good sound peaches and plums at a fair price and in order that they may be able to do so I am going to make them an unusual offer.

If you feel that you are being overcharged for peaches, plums or tender fruits kindly send the facts to me, stating price paid and date of making the purchase and the district from which fruit was secured. This will enable me to learn exactly what the price of fruit should have been where you bought at that particular time. If you have been overcharged I shall write and let you know so that we may expose everyone who is trying to make undue profits in this year when every man should be doing his part for the good of his wretched country.

The campaign to sell the fruits is the first big selling campaign to be organized within the empire since the outbreak of the war and it is desired to handle the business in such a way as to set an example to the rest of the empire. To this end everyone is asked to co-operate with the grower to the consumer. The consumer in particular is requested to report all instances of over-charging so that the persons guilty of it may be exposed to public censure. Complaints will be investigated by Peter McArthur, Appleton P.O., Ont.

Let us all get together and see that the fruit crop is marketed this season in a manner worthy of patriotic citizens of the empire who wish to avoid waste and to see to it that everyone gets full value for it.

Sum for Red Cross Work.—

List of Subscriptions

The Women's Institute of Dalhousie recently conducted a canvass of the town and vicinity for funds for the Red Cross and other patriotic work in which they are engaged. The town was divided into districts and two collectors appointed for each district, while solicitors also visited Point La Nim and Eel River. The collectors did their part well. The response on the part of the people was most hearty and generous, and within a few days the handsome sum of three hundred and fifty eight dollars and thirty-five cents was realized. The members of the Institute feel much encouraged and deeply grateful for this expression of the interest and good will of the people. Special thanks are due to the collectors, some of whom though not members of the Institute, kindly offered and freely gave their services. The members of the Institute have not yet decided on the disposition of the money but some will probably be sent to the Red Cross Society and the remainder used in purchasing materials to be made into comforts and supplies for the soldiers. human liberty and of the world's civilization.

Kidney Trouble?

The waste material which the kidneys are intended to remove from the blood, if allowed to accumulate in the system, poison the blood and thus produce deleterious effects.

If from over-work, exposure to cold, or some local injury, the kidneys become congested or inflamed and cannot perform their functions, the system becomes filled with uric poison.

Whenever a dull, heavy pain is felt over the region of the kidneys for any length of time, accompanied by a yellow complexion, loss of appetite, decrease of weight, and a puffy condition under the eyes and in the ankles, a chronic inflammation of the kidneys must be suspected, and if not relieved promptly chronic Bright's Disease will certainly develop.

Abbey's Effervescent Salt, sold everywhere at 25c and 50c which is a Diuretic as well as an Aperient, will carry out of the system the poisonous material which the kidneys cannot get rid of, and will relieve the congestion of the kidneys.

VALCARTIER CAMP WILL BE CLOSED SOON

Said to be Unsuitable for Winter Training. Troops Will be Distributed in Other Cities

According to reports from Ottawa, Valcartier is not yet suitable as a winter camp, and will probably be closed up in a month or so. The troops there will then be quartered in the various armories throughout eastern Canada. The utilisation of these armories is not in the hands of the attention of the militia authorities, and no doubt the disposition of the troops in training amongst the various armories of the country will soon be announced.

At Valcartier 3500 interned Germans and Austrians have been at work on permanent improvements to the camp area, building roads, etc. At Petawawa 1000 interned Austrians have been similarly employed. They will continue all winter there as there is ample work for them to do.

Altogether about one thousand aliens of enemy nationality have been interned all engaged upon military work of this nature.

Those who are at Valcarlos now will perform some work for the Government during the winter.
