FARMERS SHOULD BE PRAYING MEN

Should Have Spent Thanksgiving on Their Knees Praising God for His Good Gifts—Not a Sermon

"Never saw so many turnips in my life." "Where do they all come from?" Such are common ejaculations these days. This may not go into history as "the year of the big turnip," but it will go on record as a year of lots of them. The general public was not aware that Carleton and Victoria counties had become a turnip producing section until the market opened and they commenced to come—thousands of barrels a day! One day four carloads were hauled to Hartland, and at every siding from Debec to Grand Falls they were loading as fast as an army of men could work. Probably the two counties are shipping an average of ten carloads a day, by far the most of them going to the American market for table use. The Potato Products Co., of which H. H. Hatfield is chief push, will soon commence evaporating turnips at their Woodstock plant—that is, if ever the price falls low enough to make it profitable.

Today turnips bring 75 cents a barrel, and a fair piece of land produce 350 barrels to the acre. Don't have to hoe 'em, weed 'em or sprinkle 'em. Only use 500 pounds of fertilizer to the acre. Plant the seed and when the plants appear too thick pull out the weakest ones and feed them to the hogs and cattle—great stuff for stock. In the fall pull the turnips, top 'em and haul 'em to market. The stock fatten on the tops and the farmer fatten on the easy money. Sure easier than swinging a sledgehammer, or piling lumber, or adding figures in a stuffy office, or standing behind a counter whistling for trade. Just as easy money as running a newspaper—and a great deal more of it.

But what of the hogs that fat on turnip tops? Last week James McIsaac of East Florenceville loaded into a refrigerator car at Hartland the dressed carcasses of more than 160 hogs for which the farmer got 13½ cents a pound. The hogs went to Halifax and goodness knows what Jim got. Round pork at 13½ cents is some price, all right. A few years ago this journal quoted it at 3½ cents and the farmers hauled it over frozen roads all the way to Florenceville. There is big money in hogs and they enrich the farm.

There are probably 100 carloads of potatoes passing through and out of the two counties every day. While most of these are en route from Aroostook county, a large portion of them were grown in the St. John Valley. The price hangs at $2 a barrel while there would be good money in them for half that price. A large proportion of this crop is being shipped direct from the field than ever before. Most farmers consider the price good enough, although all are housing a part of their crop, for potatoes are sure to be higher later on.

There seems to be no activity in the oat market in spite of the alluring price of 45 cents. If, as it appears, less oats are being sold and more grain fed, the sign is a good one.

Buckwheat meal, the one-time staff of life in this section, and which used to bring 80 cents a hundred weight, is today quoted at $3, which brings pancakes to somewhere around a cent apiece.

What of the humble hen? Years ago eggs commonly dropped to 6 cents in summer, and it was a rare season when at Christmas time the price was high as 25c. Farmers' wives used to commence in August to "pack eggs down to hold for 20c." Now the price doesn't go down to 20 cents and this week you've got to pay 30 for them—and later on 35 and 40 cents, or go without. The old hen herself brings a big price. Chickens sold for 18 cents a pound early in the season, but the price is getting down to where people can afford to use them for food—about 13 to 15 cents a pound. Used to sell, years ago, for 7 cents.

This country doesn't produce as much butter as it should, but the quality is pay excellence, as a rule. The price nowadays never goes below 22 cents, and the farmers have no difficulty in contracting with city customers at the year-round price of 27 cents. The price today is 27 to 30 cents. Most customers are willing to pay a higher price for prints that bear the maker's name. Less than 20 years ago a local merchant bought tons of packed butter for 12 to 14 cents a pound and the quality was so vile that he was glad to sell it to a soap maker at the same price he bought it for.

The big stir has not yet commenced in hay. There will be twice the quantity shipped than there was last year and the price is likely to be good.

Beef cattle are scarce and high. The farmers should produce more of this commodity.

The season for lambs is about over. The live animals brought $5 to $10, a marked contrast to the old price of $1.50 to $2. An unsolved mystery is why all our farmers, instead of comparatively a few, do not raise sheep.

Beans are bringing $5 a bushel! There is a good market for anything that can be grown if the article can be furnished so as to fill a car. Carrots are being shipped.

So busy were the farmers with their potatoes, turnips and hogs that many neglected to plant pumpkins and cabbage, so that it is not unusual to see a farmer drive home with these in his wagon—bought from a grocer.

In spite of the war—possibly because of the war—times for the farmer were never better. He is getting prices "beyond his wildest dream of avarice." True, commodities he has to buy are high, also, but not higher in proportion

LETTERS FROM WOUNDED BOYS

Ed. Hanning Unable to Write, Captain Writes for Him

Following are letters from Ed. Hanning and Ed. Downey, both Hartland boys who were recently wounded in battle.

Canadian Corps H. Q.

Dear Mrs. Hanning: At the request of your son Pte. E. G. Hanning No. 69402 I am writing to tell you that he was wounded in the side about Sept. 15. It was impossible to get him out from the trenches immediately, but on Sept. 19 we took up a party of ninety men and carried him and nine of his wounded comrades out to the Field Ambulance where the Medical officers gave them every possible attention. They described his condition as wonderfully good. I hope you will hear from time to time of his constant progress towards recovery, and I congratulate you on the magnificent work he has done in the great struggle in which the Canadian Troops are now engaged.

Yours Sincerely,
(Capt.) A. H. McGreer.

France, Sept. 23.

Dear Mother: Just a few lines to let you know how I am making out. I am in the hospital at present, getting along fine. I am in the hospital but able to be up around. I was buried up by a shell and got a bad shake but not hurt very bad. I don't know how the rest of the boys came out. All the boys you know were all right when I left the trench. It was a rough spot, the worst that I have been in yet. One thing about it, we could get back at them for what shells that they fired at us. This is all for this time. Goodby,

Ed. Downey.

Senator Stephenson Visits Old Scenes

Senator Isaac Stephenson and party consisting of his daughter, Mrs. Joshua Hodgins, his niece, Miss Bertha Baker, his grandson, I. Watson Stephenson and Mr. Fred Hutchinson of Marinette, Wis., who have been visiting Mrs. T. J. Boyer and other relatives in town, were taken to Presque Isle on Saturday by Geo. W. Boryer in his automobile where they visited Mr. and Mrs. John Seeley. They came to Florenceville on Sunday and were the guests of Mrs. Andrew Stephenson. They returned to Woodstock on Monday and left for Montreal on Tuesday on their return home.—Dispatch.

to what he is getting. Two years ago he sold 18 barrels of potatoes for the price of a barrel of flour. Today he can trade five barrels of potatoes for a barrel of flour. Two years ago he got a pound of cream of tartar for a barrel of potatoes that will today bring him five pounds.

Living under such beneficence the farmers should all be praying men and Christians.

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS

The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body. In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is ebbing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, tiredness, drowsiness, sleep, irritability and unless corrected, leads straight to a breakdown.

To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich nutrient gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve-cells within the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. Free from harmful drugs.

WELCOMING FLEMING

The Moncton Times says that that Frank B. Carvell must have had a bad spell when he received the returns of Carleton by-election, and it adds: "The Hon. J. K. Fleming will be Carleton's next representative at Ottawa."

There you are. The Carleton county result is regarded by the Conservative machine as a victory for Mr. Fleming, and he is accepted as a more desirable man to have in parliament than the man who exposed his political misdeeds. What does the better element of the Conservative party think of it? Is Mr. Fleming its ideal of a Canadian statesman?

That is the real issue in New Brunswick today. Mr. Fleming is welcomed back to the fold, with all his works. He is accepted as a sample of the sort of New Brunswick man the leaders of his party want in the parliament of Canada. He is congratulated on his "victory" and welcomed in advance to the inner circle at Ottawa. No doubt a reorganization of the cabinet is contemplated, so that he may have a portfolio and a chance to do in the wider field of Dominion politics what he did to the railroad contractors and lumbermen in New Brunswick.

How do honest Conservatives regard the situation? Do they want the Fleming conception of public honor and public duty to prevail in Canada? Does the Conservative press reflect the real feeling of the members of the party when it rejoices in what it regards as evidence that J. K. Fleming is to go as one of the party's representatives at Ottawa and possibly in the cabinet at Ottawa? Surely not.—Times.

Belgian Relief from Highgate

A basket social for the Belgian Relief Fund was held in the school house at Highgate on Friday evening, Oct. 6. The sum of $54.25 was realized.

The people of Highgate consider this a large sum to be raised by so small a school, there being only eleven families resident in the district.

They thank those from the neighbouring districts who came to help and hope that they enjoyed a full share of the good things provided.

Miss Ruth Harper, daughter of Mrs. John F. Harper, Jacksonville, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. P. A. Fitzpatrick, of Moncton, left on Thursday 21 for Toronto, where she will spend a year at the National Training School to prepare for Foreign Mission Work. At Hampton Station she was met by a delegation of the Hampton Auxiliary, who presented her with a beautiful bouquet from the Auxiliary and at St. John Mrs. Sanford, President of the N. B. and P. E. I. Branch and a number of other ladies were at the station to wish her God Speed and success in her work.—Dispatch.

LAST-MINUTE LOACALS

C. E. Havens of Jacksonville is reported "killed in action" in France.

Poultry, Eggs, Butter, Buckwheat Meal, Oats, etc., wanted at Carr's.

Miss Vera Carr came from Fredericton to spend Thanksgiving at her home here.

Dr. L. deC. MacIntosh, whose home-coming from the war was announced last week, arrived on Monday looking very fit.

James Lindsay, an aged and respected resident of East Cloverdale passed peacefully away on Oct. 3, in the 66th year of his age. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. P. J. Quiggin at the Cloverdale church.

The subscription price of The Observer is $1.00 per year. New subscribers may have the paper from now to Jan. 1, 1918 for $1.00. Old subscribers paying $1.00 this month will have their subscriptions extend 15 months. No subscriptions will be accepted at less than $1.00.

Envelopes and the common grades of writing paper have exactly doubled in price within the past year. Type and many other printer's supplies costs just twice what it did previous to the war. Many newspapers and printing offices in Canada have been compelled to go out of business on account of the increased expenses.

The next regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Mrs. L. E. McFarland on Thursday evening Oct. 12. After the opening exercises the evening will be spent in preparation for filling a number of Christmas boxes with comforts for our soldier boys on the field of action in France.

The following is a report from Florenceville Red Cross: During the year the society has been at work they have shipped 253 pairs of socks, 28 hospital shirts, and 14 gray flannel shirts, and have now ready to ship a box containing sheets, pillow cases, hospital shirts, handkerchiefs, mouth wipes, etc. Receipts for the year ending in Aug. $251.70. Expenditures $185.43, leaving a balance on hand of $66.17. Mrs. W. L. McCain, president; Mrs. R. B. Hagerman, secretary.

Last week much interest centred in an automobile race between cars owned by George W. Boyer of Woodstock and Jake Wise of Houlton. The race was for a $500 stake and was run between Houlton and Boston. Boyer's car, a Chalmers, was run by A. D. Holyoke, while Wise ran his own Hollier-8. Each took a machine, a pilot and an umpire to see that all the conditions were adhered to. Wise won the race by something like five minutes, both cars doing the 385 miles in a little over 14 hours. One stretch of 63 miles was covered in 59 minutes by both cars.

Florenceville Facts

Mrs. James Peters is spending a few days with friends in Boston.

Dr. Merrill and wife arrived in the village Friday evening. They are guests of Mrs. Merrill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Ross.

Mrs. A. H. Estabrooks left on Monday to attend the U. B. M. U. at Bridgewater, N. S.

Child Killed at East Florenceville

On Saturday forenoon the three-year-old daughter of J. C. Hunter of East Florenceville fell from a wagon loaded with potatoes and was instantly killed, a wheel of the heavy vehicle passing over her. The county was shocked by the news of the terrible accident which gives such grief to the parents.

The funeral, on Sunday, conducted by Rev. G. A. Ross, was largely attended.

BURIAL OF HON. JOHN COSTIGAN

Interred at Grand Falls After Requiem Mass

Flags were flying at half-mast at Grand Falls on Oct. 2, in honor of Victoria county's most distinguished son, the late Senator John Costigan, whose body in accordance with his own request, was brought there for burial. The remains arrived from Ottawa on the down C. P. R. express, accompanied by the late Senator's daughter, Mrs. Walter Armstrong, and her son, Bertram, and were taken to the home of Mrs. Z. Gabel, the Senator's niece, where they were viewed by great numbers of friends of the dead statesman. Friends found the man who was for many years the most prominent figure in the county looking much as in life, dressed in his Windsor uniform.

At the request of the family, floral tributes had not been sent, but on the casket was a magnificent wreath, the gift of the Canadian Senate.

The funeral was held at 10 o'clock Tuesday at the Church of the Assumption. The ceremony was most beautiful and impressive and elaborate preparations for it had been made by Rev. Father Joyner, parish priest. The church was draped in black, Rev. Father Hart of Chatham grand nephew of the senator, was celebrant of Requiem Mass, and was assisted by the senator's grandson, Bertram Armstrong, as deacon, and Rev. Father Dugal of Drummond as sub-deacon.

The pall-bearers were James Watson, James Burgess, H. W. Taylor, James P. Kelly, Joseph Leclair and Rosamond St. Thomas.

All the stores and places of business were closed. Among those who attended the funeral were Senator Poirer, Shediak; Pius Michaud, M. P., Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand, of Edmundston; John T. Kelly and Hubert Kelly, St. John, and many other relatives and friends from different parts of the province. Interment was made in the new Catholic cemetery, beside the bodies of his father and mother. Thus has one whose life was spent before the public eye and who died possessing the love and respect of all who knew him passed away.

Children Must be Protected

The children must be safeguarded, for, if they do survive the frequent coughs and colds, it is often with the lungs so weakened that they become chronic sufferers from bronchitis or consumption. Being composed of simple ingredients of undoubted value, Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is admirably suited as a treatment for children. It is pleasant to the taste. So much so that children delight to take it on this account, as well as because of the quick relief it affords them.

Off to California

Frank Hendry, a well known and prosperous farmer of Waterville, went last week to San Diego, Calif., taking his family with him. The move is made in hope that the change of climate will prove beneficial to Mrs. Hendry's health, which is somewhat impaired. Mr. Hendry sold his farm last spring to Fred Culbertson, his nearest neighbor.

A few days before the Hendrys' departure Waterville friends assembled at their home and made them a presentation, accompanied by a written address. The evening was very pleasant and as happy as one could be, signalling, as it did, the parting of life-long friends and associations.

Mrs. Luke DeWitt, mother of Mr. Hendry, went with the party to the land of perennial sunshine.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Institute will be held next Monday evening, Oct. 16, in the Town Hall at 8 o'clock. A good program is expected. Roll call: "Your Hero during the war."

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try It! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

Pretty Women Prefer Plain Walls

Why? Because walls of solid shades provide better backgrounds for beautiful faces, figures and frocks than those which are "cluttered up" with intricate wall-paper patterns.
One important reason for the rapidly-growing popularity of

FRESCO-TONE
The easily applied, artistic wall finish is that artistically-inclined women have discovered how well it sets off their beauty and that of their dresses, pictures, curtains, and furniture. Its soft, velvety, colors, may be selected to harmonize with any style of furnishings, and, being non-fading and washable, Fresco-Toned walls preserve their original beauty for many years.

And the most gratifying fact of all—to many women—is that Fresco-Tone, in spite of its superiority, costs less than ordinary qualities of wall-paper.
For beauty, cleanliness, durability and economy, use Fresco-Tone.

GREETING

To the People of Bristol and Vicinity

During the past two or three years I have been piling stock into this store faster than it has been going out. Stocking up got to be a fad with me, and the time has come when I must forego the pleasure of buying and confine my energy to selling—selling at any price—so long as during the next 30 days I turn this big $40,000 stock into $20,000. And have left, of course, enough stock to do business on. But this is the plain fact—the stock I've prided myself in piling up must go. And out it goes at any old price that will leave me anything like a whole skin. Our shelves are creaking under the burden of too much weight in high-class goods—the very best grades the market could supply. Bought largely before the tremendous advance during the past few months. You can select from this stock at prices lower than if you were in a wholesale warehouse in St. John or Montreal. Let this fact in upon your understanding.

We do not quote any prices in this advertisement, but come along and state your wants. The jingle of your coin will make me reckless, and the price you name will in all probability take the goods.

It is cash I want this fall more than I want these goods, and there is a Big Bargain for you on every shelf in the store. Money speaks louder than words. Bring yours along and let it do the talking!

I thank you for your trade in the past, and am glad to extend this money-saving opportunity to you. Come and bring your cash and produce and supply your wants for months to come at practically your own prices.

Yours faithfully,

A. W. PHILLIPS

You Have

"WHY CONSCRIPTION?"

The boys in the trenches were a friendly lot. Billy's Platoon came from the same little town in far-away Canada. They had known each other quite well in the homeland, but months of training and fighting together had ripened that neighbourly acquaintanceship into a brotherly affection that only exists between comrades who have side by side withstood the death storm of the battlefield. When a letter came from a mother, sweetheart or friend at home, bringing news of the "doings about the old burg," it was considered, after its perusal by the owner, as the property of the Platoon, and was eagerly read and passed from hand to hand until well-nigh worn out in the process.

Billy had a girl—a dear, good girl—in the far-away home town, whom many of Billy's present pals had, when at home, tried in vain to win, for her affections centred on Billy, and her letters were always considered a special treat by the platoon because of their breezy newsy items and the deep touches of tenderness here and there. Lately for some unexplained reason these longed for letters had ceased to come so often, much to the disappointment of poor fighting Billy and the Platoon as well.

All the boys had enlisted as Privates (it was at the beginning of the war before so many young seventeen-year-olds had come to consider that only an officer's job was good enough) and until yesterday the platoon sergeant had been a well trained old Imperial soldier who had left the English service and was farming in Canada when the war broke out, but who, poor chap, had been picked off early in the morning and buried last night "behind the trench in a shell hole," and Billy had been chosen in his stead. Before he died the old grizzled warrior of many an Indian frontier raid had bequeathed Billy his stripes, saying "take 'em, mate, I'm all in, and the Cap. will pick you, I know, and stripes are scarce 'round Wipers." The "Cap" had made Billy Platoon Sergeant and the boys were delighted. Billy was longing for a few spare minutes so that he might write home to Mabel and tell her all about it.

Since Billy had gone, Mabel had become lonesome and to cheer her up a bit Billy's chum had taken her out now and then in his new car. Charlie had not yet "made up his mind" about enlisting. The car-rides became more frequent, letters to Billy less frequent, and finally Mabel and Charlie decided that "if a chap really loved a girl he would not leave her and go away to fight in a strange country, but would wait until Canada was attacked and fight for her then." She changed her mind, and so it was that the last letter was written to Billy, telling him how sorry she was about it all, but her love for Charlie was so great that she must break off the engagement, and then—"Charlie would never leave me alone and deserted in the world."

The letter came with the rations. 'Twas raining tonight in "No Man's Land" and Billy with a patrol had gone out to find a weak spot in the Boche entanglements. A strong German patrol had ambushed Billy's little force and wiped it out. Billy, with a bullet through the lung, crawled back to safety. Billy's comrades gathered round. They tried to comfort him with words of encouragement—they knew he could not live—they wept and cursed in turns. His rambling thoughts carried him back to Canada. He talked of the sweetheart he would not see again. Why had she not written for so long a time? Had she so soon forgotten—had her love grown cold? Charlie, his chum, could tell him. He called to Charlie over the sea. Mabel would not come. Charlie would not answer. His fast glazing eyes filled with tears. The Corporal found the letter and pressed it into his hands. He tried to open it, but failed. A comrade offered to help, but Billy said "me first, always," and they did not urge him farther. Billy, his face wreathed in happiness, and forgetting his pain in the wave of youthful love that filled his heart, answered the last call. They buried him beside the English Platoon Sergeant, "back of the trench in a shell hole." They opened the letter to read the news from home—for it was platoon property now. "Charlie would never leave me alone and deserted in the world." They shuddered at the sentiment, and again cursed and wept in turns. But then, Thank God, he had not known. "It ain't a fair deal," said Corporal Brown. "They all should have to fight the same. If Charlie had been doin'

The Racking Pains of Sciatic Rheumatism

Were Well-nigh Unbearable—After Five Years of Suffering Cure Was Effected by Dr. Chase's Medicines.

For downright excruciating pain few ailments can be compared to sciatic rheumatism. Since this condition of the sciatic nerve denotes exhaustion of the nervous system, the logical cure is found in the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to nourish the exhausted nerves back to health and vigor.

Reports are continually coming in to us regarding the splendid results obtained in the treatment of sciatic rheumatism by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food after each meal and Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills occasionally as a means of arousing the action of the liver, kidneys and bowels and thereby keeping the system freed of pain causing poisonous impurities.

Mr. W. J. Talbot, Edenwood, Sask., writes:—"It is a great pleasure for me to recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and Nerve Food as a cure for Sciatic Rheumatism. The pain I have suffered has been well-nigh unbearable. It would attack the hips and run down the legs to the toes, gradually getting worse. The nerves contract until one is practically paralyzed. My doctor tried many different treatments, but could only afford relief for a time.

"For about five years I was subject to this trouble with severe attacks which would last about two months. The last attack I had was shortened to two weeks by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and Nerve Food. This treatment was continued until I was satisfied that the cure was lasting."

This statement is endorsed by Mr. H. E. Woolley, J. R.
