THE favorable opinion I formerly entertained of the waters of the Caledonia Springs is MORE THAN CONFIRMED, as well from the benefits personally derived from their use, as from what I observed of their effects on others. The water should be drunk in moderate quantities before breakfast, and persevered in for some weeks at least.

DR. E. SPOHN, a German physician of much note, having devoted his attention for some years to the cure and removal of the causes of NERVOUS AND SICK HEADACHE, has the satisfaction to make known, that he has a remedy which by removing the causes cures effectually and permanently this distressing complaint. There are many families who have considered Sick Headache a constitutional incurable family complaint. Dr. S. assures them that they are mistaken, and labouring under distress which they might not only alleviate, but actually eradicate by the use of his remedy. It is the result of scientific research, and is entirely of a different character from advertised patent medicine, and is not unpleasant to the taste. To be had of Poetry.

TO THE LADY FLORA HASTINGS.

Blush not, oh Moira's daughter! though the East
And scorching breath of stander hath swept by;
Shadowing awhile the name it brightened not;
And wringing from thy heart the indignant sigh
Like the simoon, the parching desert blast,
Fiercely it came to slay—the calm, for it hath past,
Wee! not! the serpent's coil may twine secure,
While unperceived, around the lily's root,
But look we on the lily as less pure!
No! With a kindling eye and trampling foot
We drag the reptile forth!—sudden death,
While free the lily blooms in summer's kindly breath.

Mark how this slander, hard and undeserved
Backward rebounds from Virtue's shielded breast;
How, like an ill-poised shaft, this lie hath swerved
And struck at those who feared its venom least,
While all unavowed by the treacher's foot,
Dost lit to cruel fœgan unperturbed brow.

Not unprotected is the soldier's child,
Who leaves his glory to a nation's care,
Not to be cruel—'who'er's pride beguiled'
May claim the courtly right to strike or spare;
A grateful country feels for Hastings' line,
He fought 'gainst England's foes—England shall fight 'gainst thine.

THE TRANSCRIPT.

QUEBEC, WEDNESDAY, 28th AUG. 1839.

Our latest New York papers are of Thursday last, received by yesterday's mail there being none due this day.

There has been considerable excitement, and, as the papers say, "almost a riot" in Baltimore, in consequence of the escape of a nun from the Aisquith street nunnery, around which a large concourse of people assembled. The New York Express adds:—"The nun effected her escape about noon, (on Sunday, the 18th inst.) and was followed by a number of persons in pursuit. She applied for admittance at one of the houses near by, and was refused, but afterwards found shelter in another dwelling. These facts becoming known a great crowd of people were soon attracted to the spot. Rumours were afloat that the priests were about to compel her to return,—and it is stated that they demanded the surrender of the fugitive, which was promptly refused. A carriage was then procured and the nun removed to Washington College. The excitement now became so intense that apprehensions were entertained of some serious outbreak. The mayor was sent for, and, with the aid of a strong police force, he succeeded in restoring some degree of quiet, but the crowd manifested no disposition to disperse. In the evening the mayor ordered out the brigade of the city guards and towards midnight all became quiet. The only cause assigned by the nun for her conduct was, that she wanted to get out, and had long been watching a favourable opportunity to do so. Her name is Neal, of Charles County, Maryland, about 26 years old, and has been for ten years a member of the Carmelite Order. She is a niece of the late Robert Walsh, and cousin to the literary gentleman of that name, now in Europe.

Destructive Fire.

The Eastern Mail furnishes us with our regular exchange papers, and a slip from the Frederickton Sentinel, of the 19th instant, containing the following melancholy intelligence:—"A dreadful fire broke out in the city of St. John's, New Brunswick, on the 17th instant, at nine o'clock, p. m., and continued until the morning of the 18th. The night was seen from Frederickton, a distance of sixty miles. One hundred and forty houses, including fifty mercantile establishments, were consumed, and a new ship and several smaller vessels. It began in Nelson-street, in a store occupied by Hugh Irvine Brothers, ship-builders. All the buildings on both sides of Nelson-street, and on Dawson's, Waterby's, Donaldson's, and the North Market, wharves, together with those on both sides of Dock-street, (from the Market-square to Union-street,) on the south side of Union-street, from the new dwelling houses of Messrs. John and James Lawton to the water, including all the erections and Lumber on the Hon. William Black's and on Crookshank and Walker's wharves fronting Adam's slip, and all the buildings on the North-side of the Market-square, with the house of Thomas Merritt, Esq., occupied by Messrs. A. R. Truro and William Stuckland, fronting on Prince William-street (opposite the Commercial Bank), are entirely destroyed, and a great part of their contents either burnt or lost. Only two or three of the buildings were of bricks, the rest wood. A fire of January 15, 1837, destroyed 115 buildings. The total loss by the present fire is estimated at £200,000.

The Halifax papers speak very favourably of the state of the crops throughout their respective districts. The Falmouth July mail has arrived at Halifax in forty two days.

LATE FROM JAMAICA.—The New York Commercial Advertiser acknowledges receipt of copious files of Jamaica papers to the instant. From the extracts given by the Commercial we compile the following summary:—

Several Baptist missionaries, Messrs. Ogilby, Philipps, Palmer, Castello and others, in actions of slander brought by various persons have been mulcted in damages to the tune of, in some cases £2000—in some £1000—and in some £2500. The slanders it is believed were in some way connected with the slavery question.

The removal of Sir Lionel Smith, does not appear to be known at the latest dates, but it was anticipated.

A very severe shock of an earthquake was felt at Kingston, on the 29th July it occasioned great alarm, but it was not known that any damage had ensued.

There had been disturbances in the Spring-hill parish, particulars of which have not transpired; but it seems that 50 men of the 2nd W. I. regiment, had to co-operate with the civil authorities, by whom six of the rioters were apprehended. They were subsequently tried and convicted of an outrageous assault on the magistrates; three were sentenced to two years and the other three to twenty months imprisonment and hard labour.

Some commotion was excited at Kingston, on the 1st of August, by the appearance of a Haytien (negro republican) sloop of war in the harbour,—the day being the anniversary of the final emancipation.

Major General Macdonnell returned from Montreal on Sunday last, where he had been on a visit for the purpose of being invested with the Order of the Bath by His Excellency Sir John Colborne. The following account of this interesting ceremony we copy from the Montreal Herald of Monday last:—

Montreal, August 26.—Yesterday at two o'clock, a numerous company of officers and civilians assembled at the residence of His Excellency Sir John Colborne to witness the investiture of the most honorable the military order of Knight Commander of the Bath on Major General Sir James Macdonnell. A considerable number of ladies and gentlemen from the United States were also present. About half past two o'clock, His Excellency, accompanied by his Staff, entered at the top of the room, and took his seat on a chair placed to represent the throne. Behind him on either side, were the colours of the 71st Regiment of Highland Light Infantry, in compliment to Sir James as a Scotchman; and in front, on either side, were the colours of the Grenadier Guards, the battalion commanded by Sir James at the ever memorable battle of Waterloo. Each colour was guarded by a sergeant of the Regiment to whom it belonged. Sir James Macdonnell entered by the door leading from the lower end of the hall, passing through the crowd, and bowing three times to His Excellency as he advanced; after which Major Goldie read the warrant from Her Majesty for

His Excellency investing Sir James with the order. His Excellency rose and, in a highly complimentary address, alluding to the services of Sir James in Egypt, the Peninsula and at Waterloo under the Great Captain of the age, he stated that he was highly gratified at having been deputed and commanded by Her Majesty to perform the pleasing duty he was about to perform of investing him with a distinguished mark of Her Majesty's sense of his valuable services as a soldier and a faithful subject. Sir James then knelt and Sir John placed the red ribbon, to which the order was suspended, round his neck, after which Sir James retired backwards in the same manner as he entered, bowing three times to His Excellency. A superb collation was prepared for the occasion, which was partaken by the parties present. The Hussar band was outside of His Excellency's residence, and played during a portion of the time previous to, and after, the ceremony of the investiture. One of the pipers of the 71st Regiment was in the hall, and played some appropriate Highland airs, though the music might have been more appreciated had it been played at a greater distance. A company of the Grenadier Guards formed a guard of honor on the occasion.

We believe this is the first instance of the military honor of the Bath having been conferred on this continent, and it naturally excited considerable interest both among the military and civilians in town. It is a very rare circumstance indeed that such a ceremony takes place out of London, although we have heard that one did take place at Malta about six or seven years ago. One thing is certain that nothing could be more imposing than to witness a war worn hero like Sir John Colborne, covered with wounds, and wearing numerous stars and orders as the rewards of his heroism, being the means of bestowing a mark of Her Majesty's favor on one who had with him opposed, and triumphed over, the gigantic power of Napoleon. There was a moral fitness in the toute ensemble, which could not but strike the most casual observer, and we trust that both the gallant veterans may long live in health to wear their honours.

In our last we gave such particulars of the collision between the steamers Lady Colborne and the Britannia as we gathered from people on board the latter vessel. We have since received the Montreal Courier containing the following version of the accident, which it will be seen, throws the whole blame on the Britannia:—

STAMBOURD COLLISION.—On Saturday night, between 10 and 11 o'clock, while the Lady Colborne was on her way up, about half way between Three Rivers and Port Saint Francis, she was met and run into by the Britannia, with such tremendous force, that had she not been a new boat, she certainly would have been sunk. The head of the Britannia struck her opposite the opening for the gang way on the starboard bow, carried away the guard, stanchions, stay, and part of the deck, and stove in her side till within a few inches of the water. Although the Britannia had no light, she was seen running direct for the Lady Colborne by those on board, and hailed to alter her course, but to this no attention was paid.

After the collision, and before the extent of the damage could be ascertained, the Britannia was again hailed and requested to stop in case of need; to this, also, she paid no attention, but proceeded on her way, leaving part of her figure head on the deck of the Lady Colborne. As soon as it was ascertained that the hull was not damaged beyond water mark, she came on to Port Saint Francis, and lay there all night. To prevent the water from running into the hold when she leaned to that side, a few boards and blankets were nailed on, and she arrived in port yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock. It is expected that it will not require more than three days to complete her repairs.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA.

Concert.—Last night, Mr. and Mrs. Seguin assisted by Mr. Latham, gave a concert at the Theatre Royal and delighted a fashionable though not very numerous audience with "sweet sounds." The concert opened with the "Indian Drum," a trio in which the splendid voice of Mrs. Seguin harmonized with the magnificent bass of Mr. S. We have not time at present to enter into full details of the concert, but we can assure all who were not present that if they do not go to-morrow night—when it will be seen by an advertisement in this Transcript—a second concert will be given—they will lose a treat which it may not be in their power to enjoy in Quebec at a future time. Of the fourteen pieces in the programme no less than nine were enthusiastically encored, including the irresistible comic effusions of Mr. Latham—"The King of Otaheite's toe," and "Taking tea in the arbour." A new romance arranged expressly for Mr. Seguin, founded on the following legendary ballad of 1663, made a decided impression on the audience; nothing in fact could exceed—at all events nothing has ever equaled in Quebec—the clearness with which this charming singer executed the most difficult passages:—

"A Gallie Maide, of Lowe Degree,
"Became a Corsaire's prize;
"Enchanted he did bend the knee,
"Enslaved by Her sparkling Eyes.
"His costly gems and love she spared,
"Although of Lowe Degree,
"Her virtue awoke the Lovelie Lord,
"Who quick restored her—Libertie."

We perceive, by handbills in the street, that Miss Davenport will make her first appearance in this city, on Monday evening next, at the Theatre Royal. The characters she is to sustain on this occasion are not mentioned.

Miss Shireff and Mr. Wilson, from the Theatres Royal Drury Lane and Covent Garden, have advertised a concert to take place at Rasco's Hotel, Montreal, this (Wednesday) evening. These vocalists, previous to leaving Toronto came forward in the most handsome manner, and volunteered a concert for the benefit of the House of Industry of that city.

The following members of the theatrical profession arrived at New York, on the 26th instant, in the packet ship Gladiator, from London; P. Thomas and Lady, Theatre Royal, Covent Garden; C. B. Maivers and Lily, and Miss Maivers of Theatres Royal, Drury Lane and Covent Garden; J. E. Shaw and F. Salter, Theatre Royal, English Opera House.

Mr. Wallace, Charles Kean, and a whole host of theatrical ladies and gentlemen came out in the Liverpool, to fulfil engagements at the Park and National Theatres, among whom we notice the names of Mrs. Fitzwilliam, Mrs. Martyn, (who it seems has recently taken that name in exchange for that of Miss Inverarity,) Mr. Martyn, Miss Inbolton, &c. &c.

We are pleased to find that the hope we expressed some time since respecting Sally's celebrated full length portrait of Her Majesty the Queen is in a fair way of being gratified, as in the Montreal papers, we observe an advertisement to the effect that the portrait painted by Mr. S. expressly for the St. George's Society of Philadelphia is daily expected in the sister city. We take it for granted that the persons in charge of the painting will, with the valuable article entrusted to them, pay a visit to the capital of British North America, where, from the well known loyalty of a large portion of the inhabitants, combined with the fact of the painting being exhibited for the benefit of a society of old countrymen in its adjoining republic, a handsome sum may be reckoned on.

A new daily paper with the bombast title of the "Spirit of '76" has made its appearance in Detroit, under the editorial management of no less a personage than the convicted and refugee pirate Theller. It is published by H. H. Snelling and, in course advocates the cause "patriotism" or in plain Saxon English, murder and robbery.

The following is a precious specimen of the "editorial" of this vile print:—

Mr. McKenzie.—This persecuted Patriot is still confined in prison, but not, we are confident, for any length of time. Measures the most effectual have been, and are being taken, to have the sovereign people's will, laid before their public servant the Executive of the United States. We feel confident that he is a good Democrat, and will act on the people's instructions. Nous verrons.

The Canadian of Monday last has the following piece of nonsense:—

"Mr. T. S. Brown has addressed us a letter from Charleston in which he complains, as being an injustice to him, of the remark which we made some time ago, in saying that the surgeons had been abandoned by their general. but the interests of the Canadians prevent him from speaking for the present."

We learn from the Gazette de Quebec of yesterday that E. Bedard, Esq., late Judge of the Court of King's Bench of this District, is returned to Quebec.

Yesterday evening, a lad of the name of Donoghue, of St. Roch, was drowned on the opposite side of the River St. Charles, while bathing. The water was not more than knee deep; but having fell into an irritating sluice, he was drowned before assistance could be procured. He was about 16 years of age.

The Police, on Saturday night last, discovered a portion of the tea lately stolen in the Lower Town and also obtained possession of a number of skeleton keys by means of which they were enabled to enter a number of stores in the Lower Town.

Three persons have been apprehended on the charge of being concerned in the robberies and three others have absconded. The names of the latter are Neron, Chabot, and Charpentier. We are assured on good authority that no store was broken into, entrance having been quietly effected by means of the skeleton keys above alluded to.

It is reported that His Excellency the Governor General will shortly visit Quebec. His Excellency's departure from this Government will probably not take place before the ensuing spring; at least, neither the public papers, received by the Liverpool, nor private advices, so far as we are informed, make any mention of his successor, or of any vessel being in preparation to bring out a new Governor to Canada.

A NEW TRADE.—A cargo of eggs has arrived at Charleston, South Carolina, from France, and it is said commanded a ready sale and yielded a great profit to the importers.

Among the names of the passengers in the packet ship North America, which left New York for Liverpool, on the 21st instant, we observe the following.—Hon. Col. Grey, 71st regiment, British Army, lady and servant; Captain Brander, British Army.

Among the Durham manifestations, as they are called, we notice an account of one said to have been publicly held at Eldon, in this district. Now we can state on the best authority that a gentleman, at whose house the gathering of the said meeting, slept the night previous, did not know one single word of the meeting till after it was over. This is the way in which Durham meetings are concocted hereabouts.—Coburg, (U. C.) Star.

Montreal, 26th August.—On Friday the 23d instant, at about 5 P. M., Robert Anderson, a native of Dublin, a groom in the employ of Mr. J. D. Gibb, was found suspended by the neck with a dog chain and collar to a beam in the hay loft. The body was instantly taken down and medical aid sent for, but life was extinct. It is not known what circumstance may have urged him to this rash act. He was a stranger in Montreal and only entered his situation on Tuesday last, where he seemed to be quite happy; he had since participated in the amusements of the week, and even joked with a fellow servant within an hour previous to his decease. The Coroner's jury returned a verdict of "hung himself in a fit of temporary insanity."

His Excellency Sir John Colborne has issued a proclamation declaring that martial law has ceased to exist from Saturday last. The criminal term commences to-morrow, we believe, and the calendar is much heavier than on almost any previous occasion.—Montreal Herald of Monday.

Commercial.

Extract from Messrs. Cuvillier & Son's circular dated Montreal, Saturday evening, Aug. 24th. "We have nothing to record indicating a revival of business—the same languor still prevails, occasionally, however, enlivened by speculative operations, confined to one or two articles, of which we have heretofore made mention—Tea and Sugar.

"The former article has again advanced 3d or 4d per lb since the arrival at New York of the steamship Liverpool. The latter article has not been affected by the same source of information, and appears to remain stationary at the advanced rates noted in our last circular.

"Preparations are very generally making for an active Fall business, of which we are still sanguine, notwithstanding the unfavourable reports of the state of Crops, which we believe are very much exaggerated. In Lower Canada, there will be an average crop of Wheat, and an abundant one of all other Grain and Pulse."

Liverpool Corn Exchange, July 30.—A very large business has been done with the dealers and speculators, in all kinds of wheat, chiefly free foreign, at an advance on last Tuesday's quotations of 3d. to 6d. according to quantity and quality.

Free barrel and sack flour have been in good demand at a further advance in each of 1s. to 2s., and a lot of Virginia, in bond, brought 33s. for exportation.

Canadian wheat (free) per 70 lbs. is quoted at 11s. 3d. @ 11s. 9d.

BALDNESS.

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the grandest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance, and prematurely brings on the appearance of old age, which causes many to recoil at being so covered, and sometimes even shun society; the remainder of their lives consequently spent in retirement. In short, not even the loss of property fills the generous thinking youth with the heavy sinking gloom as does the loss of hair.—To avert all these unpleasant circumstances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on its application and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers, prevents the hair from turning gray, makes curl beautifully, and frees it from scurf. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm are shown by the proprietors. READ the following: ROBERT WHARTON, Esquire, late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following gentleman: The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventative against the falling off of hair, but also a certain restorative. WM. THATCHER, 6th Methodist Minister in St. George's Church, No. 86 North Fifth St. JOHN P. INGLISH, 334 Arch St. JOHN D. THOMAS, M. D. 163 Race St. JOHN S. FURRY, 101 Spruce St. HUGH MCCURRY, 243 South 7th St. JOHN GARD, Jr., 128 Arch St. It will certainly raise its virtues in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 40. From the Mayor, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, City of Philadelphia. CAUTION.—Observe that each bottle of the genuine Balm has a splendid engraved wrapper, on which is represented the Falls of Niagara, the agent's name, &c. Sold wholesale and retail by J. I.
