

Particulars of the affair at Great Bethel.

By the arrival of the steamers "America" and "Eastern States," we are in possession of New York dates of Tuesday, and Boston of Wednesday.

The capture of the Federal troops at Great Bethel has been confirmed, while no mention whatever is made of the subsequent attack upon the Secessionists, and the capture of one thousand men, &c., as announced by telegraph.

The rebels of the Federal troops at Great Bethel has been confirmed, while no mention whatever is made of the subsequent attack upon the Secessionists, and the capture of one thousand men, &c., as announced by telegraph.

At the same time Col. Bendis's regiment and a detachment of the Vermont and Massachusetts regiments at Newport News moved forward to form a junction with the regiments from Fortress Monroe, at the latter place, half way between Hampton and Great Bethel.

The Zouaves passed Little Bethel at about 4 o'clock, the rebels' regiment arrived next, and took position at the intersection of the roads, but not understanding the signal the German regiment in the darkness of the morning, fired upon Col. Townsend's column then marching in close order, and led by Lieut. Butler, the latter's men, with two pieces of artillery.

Other accounts say that Col. Townsend's regiment fired first. At all events, the fire of the Albany regiment was harmless, while that of the Germans was fatal, killing many and wounding two others, besides several other slight casualties.

The Albany regiment, being back of the Germans, discovered from a position on the left of the field that the supposed enemy was a friend; that had meantime fired nine rounds with small arms and a field piece.

The Zouaves during the firing had turned and fired also upon the Albany regiment. At day break Col. Allen's and Col. Carr's regiments moved from the rear of Fortress Monroe to support the main body, the mistake at Little Bethel having been ascertained.

The buildings were burned, and a Major and two prominent secessionists named Siver and Whiting were made prisoners, and taken to the first attack, was again taken ill on the first day, and died. However, no serious fears are entertained. The latest despatches say that he was recovering.

A large volume would not contain the mass of testimony which has accumulated in favor of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, as a safe, efficient, and reliable remedy in curing coughs, colds, and pulmonary disease. Many of the cures are truly wonderful.

VEGETABLE PULMONARY. Which has maintained its high reputation for nearly forty years, and is recommended by many of the most eminent physicians and gentlemen in the country, among them are Revd. Josiah Litch, Philip Bar, Dr. Lyman Beecher, New York; the late Prof. Leonard Woods, Andover Theological Seminary; L. P. Thompson, former Secretary of the Board of Christian Missions; Parker, Barry, and many others; by the Press, and by the largest and oldest dealers in drugs and medicines in the United States and Canada.

It has a long and successful history, and has been used with confidence and with wonderful success. "I am satisfied it is a valuable medicine." "It is a safe, trustworthy, and it has never disappointed the reasonable expectations of those who have used it." "I confidently recommend it in all complaints of the chest, as equal, if not superior, to any other medicine within my knowledge." "Of all the principal remedies used for coughs, I am forty years in the habit of using it, and hope it will be better known, and more generally used." "I have prescribed your balsam, and regard it as the most valuable and effective remedy within my knowledge."

PURIFY THE BLOOD.-Not a few of the worst diseases that afflict man arise from the corruption that accumulates in the blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purify it, none have ever been found which would equal that of a single bottle of Sarsaparilla. It cleanses and renovates the blood, instils the vigor of health into the system and purges out the impurities that make it sickly. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body and expels the dross that grows and rankle in the blood, its extraordinary virtues are not yet widely known, but when they are well no longer a question what remedy to employ in the great variety of afflicting diseases that require an alterative remedy. Such a remedy can only be relied on, has long been found. When the news of the retiring of our forces reached Fortress Monroe, Gen Butler repaired instantly to Newport News, and Col. Dimmick ordered additional mortars and howitzers to be mounted on the ramparts on the land side.

About 9 o'clock in the evening, the steamer Cataline reached Fortress Monroe with some of the dead and wounded.

In the meantime nearly all the armed fleet proceeded up James River to Newport News Point. Lieut. Greble was killed by a rifle cannon ball striking his forehead, and he fell, a portion of his head. Lieut. Co. Grennell is supposed to be killed. -Express.

(From the Halifax Reporter.) BOSTON, June 15.-The rebels at Harper's Ferry have retreated on Winchester and Martinsburg. They have burned down and destroyed bridges for fifty miles along the river, and prevent pursuit. They have destroyed fully a million of property at the Ferry, it is estimated. The Maryland Congress men have all been elected. The Unionists have carried the district. East Tennessee has thrown a thousand votes majority in favor of Union. General Jackson has called Missouri to arms. General Johnson the Government General is pursuing him with a strong force. The Boston Regt. left today for the seat of war. The rebels at Mansass Junction are retreating-where, is not yet stated.

Latest from Europe.

ST. JOHN'S N.Y., June 10, via Sackville 11th. Steamship Adriatic, from Galway 5th inst. arrived here this morning. She brings no mail.

The Adriatic sailed from Galway at nine o'clock on Wednesday morning, and made the passage in 5 days and 8 hours. She encountered head winds, and was obliged to stop at New York for 6 o'clock Monday. She sailed for Quebec on the 6th inst.

Steamship Great Eastern came by the Mercantile on Tuesday morning, having been detained all night for want of water.

Lord John Russell has announced in Parliament that Government has determined to prohibit privateers to remain over 24 hours in port, and to dispose of their prizes when there.

He also said England and France had sent propositions to Washington, based on the declaration of the Paris Congress, and expected an answer by very mail.

The Derby was won by the unknown horse "Kil Drum," against whom the betting was 16 to 1.

Eighteen horses ran for the Derby. The favorites were Dundee and Diophantus. The Diophantus was a bright chestnut, with a length. Dundee, black, came in collision and faltered, but beat Diophantus, chestnut, by a head, who beat Aurelian, 4th, by a neck, and was seventh.

The following was the result of the "Oaks" race: Eighteen horses ran; Bruce Duchesne, first; Lady Ripon second; and Fairwater third.

The Times has an editorial on the speeches of the American Ministers at the recent meeting in Paris, charging them with groundless irritability and anger against England. It also alludes to the violent and unparliamentary conduct of the American Ministers at the recent meeting in Paris, charging them with groundless irritability and anger against England.

The Patrie says Prince Napoleon, after visiting Algeria, Spain and Portugal, will go to America. The Monitor publishes a decree warning public writers to exercise moderation in their discussions against the Catholics, and to abstain from all attacks on the Emperor.

It is asserted that the Emperor has sent an autograph letter to Turin, in which the Roman question is alluded to. It was favorably received, and Victor Emanuel sent a reply on the 27th May.

The conditions stipulated for the evacuation of Rome are not known, but it is said they include on the part of the Government neither the recognition of the rights of the Holy See nor the patrimony of St. Peter, nor any cessation of territory.

Count Cavour, after having improved from the first attack, was again taken ill on the first day, and died. However, no serious fears are entertained. The latest despatches say that he was recovering.

The Italian Parliament stood adjourned until June 20th. At that point our reports successively and endeavored to take a large masked rebel battery.

The efforts to fill our three small pieces of artillery not being able to cope with the heavy rifle cannon of the enemy, being, according to some accounts, thirty in number.

The rebel battery was completely masked, so that no man could be seen, only flashes of the guns.

There were probably not less than 1000 men behind batteries of the rebels.

A well concerted attack might have secured the position, but Brigadier General Pierce, who commanded the expedition, appears to have lost his presence of mind, and the Troy regiment stood at bay exposed to the galling fire.

The order of retreat was at last given, but at that moment Lieut. Grebble of the regulars, in command of the artillery, was struck by a cannon ball, and instantly killed.

He had spiked his gun, and was gallantly endeavoring to withdraw his command.

Capt. George W. Wilson of the Troy regiment, after the order of retreat, took possession of the guns, and with his company, which brought it off the field, with the corpse of the Lieutenant, which was brought to the Fortress, this evening. There were probably 25 killed and 100 wounded.

Lieut. Butler deserves the greatest credit for bringing off the killed and wounded. Several of the latter are now in the hospital here.

It should be stated that McCheeny's Zouaves formed the reserve.

New Books.

We have received from Mr. E. G. Fuller a copy of Harper's Magazine for June, for which we last week received a pamphlet from the Rev. A. W. Nicolson, which was not noticed owing to absence at the District Meeting. We have the pamphlet on sale at the office. We cut the subjoined notice of it from a P. E. L. paper:-

"THE UNREAD PAGE OF HUMAN HISTORY: The substance of a Lecture delivered before the Young Men's Christian Association of Charlotte town, April 4, 1861, by Rev. A. W. Nicolson. Not having had the pleasure of hearing this Lecture delivered, we have read it in its pamphlet form with a great deal of interest. The style of the Lecture is good, and its matter displays considerable thought, and not a little acquaintance with the history of the world, and the treatment of its subject, by no means attempts to write the unvarnished, or, as he has it, the unvarnished page of human history. Though the substance of the Lecture has been long tempted to launch into the region of speculation, yet he has cautiously kept in view the landmarks of the past in his conjectures of the future. In one respect, however, we cannot agree with him. We do not think he is right in his republican form of Government as one of the causes of the existing turmoil in the United States. The grand cause of the civil war there, not slavery, but the despotic rule of a monarchial form of government, might have operated in a different way, but still it is certain to work mischief, in whichever country, or under whatever circumstances, it may be introduced. We support the opinion that the Government of the United States will probably prove a failure, he appeals to the downfall of the various forms of republicanism, and to the history of the world. True, they have been overthrown; but we may in turn ask what has become of the monarchies of antiquity? They also are numbered among the things that have passed away. The only form of government, we may conclude also, of the different forms of monarchial government that exist at the present day. We, therefore, we believe the British Constitution is better than any other form of government in the world, and that the United States; still we do not consider it right to charge republicanism with being the cause of evil, which cannot be shown for their own good. It breathes a good Christian spirit, and upon the whole is well worthy of a careful perusal. The pamphlet, which contains some 26 pages, is neatly got up, and is for sale in this City at John S. Bremner's, Prince Street.

In the absence of the Editor from the City during the session of Conference at St. John, N. B., it is quite possible that the forbearance of our friends may be called into exercise. Any letters requiring special attention must await their return-orders received during his absence will be attended to as far as possible. Letters and monies will be acknowledged on his return.

A large volume would not contain the mass of testimony which has accumulated in favor of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, as a safe, efficient, and reliable remedy in curing coughs, colds, and pulmonary disease. Many of the cures are truly wonderful.

OXYGENATED BITTERS.-A Query.-Why will you suffer? Dyspepsia is a brief but complex ailment, which affects the stomach, liver, and in fact the whole human system. Until Dr. Fenn discovered the Oxygenated Bitters, it was generally considered incurable, and exhausted itself in fruitless efforts to cure this disease. The Dyspeptic need suffer no longer with this ailment, as it is always painful, and frequently a fatal affliction.

This unique and peculiar compound will assist in curing the disease as the disease exists. As it is not a powerful, it does not remain in the system, but is given in its favor.-Dyspepsia, Read "ANNUAL REPORT, 6, 1859.-Messrs S. W. Fowler & Co., New York, N. Y., have reduced in strength as to be unable to attend to the common duties of my household, and suffered from a complication of diseases that truly rendered life a burthen, and it is only through the aid of acknowledged skill, but without relief, and my case was considered beyond the possibility of cure; but at this juncture I received a bottle of Oxygenated Bitters, and so rapidly did I find that the effect was wonderful. My physician's distrust of the medicine gave place to the utmost confidence in it. After a lapse of two years, I now remain in the enjoyment of good health, and have ever found the Bitters a never failing antidote for the various symptoms which attend the disease. I have recommended them to several of my friends, with uniform and satisfactory results.

Read the following Order.-From a respectable and well known Druggist.-"I have recommended them to several of my friends, with uniform and satisfactory results. Charlotte Town, Prince Edward Island, June 21, 1860.-Messrs S. W. Fowler & Co., Gentlemen.-You will please send me another supply of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and also some more of the Oxygenated Bitters, the sale of which I have happily either of them have borne willing testimony to their efficacy as remedial agents in the diseases to which they are respectively applicable. Respectfully yours, WM. R. WATSON.

None but a physician knows how much a reliable alterative remedy will be by the people. On all sides of us, in all communities everywhere there are multitudes that suffer from complaints that nothing but an alterative remedy will cure. A great many of them have been made and put abroad with the assurance of being effectual. But they fail to accomplish the cure they promise because they have not the ingredients which will do the work. In the case of Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, have supplied us with a compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, which is a most valuable and long desired remedy. Its peculiar difference from other kindred preparations in market is that it cures the diseases for which it is recommended, while the others do not. For all the purposes of a family physic, take Ayer's Cathartic Pills, which are everywhere sold. It is a safe and reliable alterative, and is the most delicate and agreeable that is offered to the American People. Price, 25 Cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

Sold by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., and by all Druggists everywhere. May 22. 4m.

The Dyspeptic need suffer no longer with this ailment, as it is always painful, and frequently a fatal affliction.

This unique and peculiar compound will assist in curing the disease as the disease exists. As it is not a powerful, it does not remain in the system, but is given in its favor.-Dyspepsia, Read "ANNUAL REPORT, 6, 1859.-Messrs S. W. Fowler & Co., New York, N. Y., have reduced in strength as to be unable to attend to the common duties of my household, and suffered from a complication of diseases that truly rendered life a burthen, and it is only through the aid of acknowledged skill, but without relief, and my case was considered beyond the possibility of cure; but at this juncture I received a bottle of Oxygenated Bitters, and so rapidly did I find that the effect was wonderful. My physician's distrust of the medicine gave place to the utmost confidence in it. After a lapse of two years, I now remain in the enjoyment of good health, and have ever found the Bitters a never failing antidote for the various symptoms which attend the disease. I have recommended them to several of my friends, with uniform and satisfactory results.

None but a physician knows how much a reliable alterative remedy will be by the people. On all sides of us, in all communities everywhere there are multitudes that suffer from complaints that nothing but an alterative remedy will cure. A great many of them have been made and put abroad with the assurance of being effectual. But they fail to accomplish the cure they promise because they have not the ingredients which will do the work. In the case of Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, have supplied us with a compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, which is a most valuable and long desired remedy. Its peculiar difference from other kindred preparations in market is that it cures the diseases for which it is recommended, while the others do not. For all the purposes of a family physic, take Ayer's Cathartic Pills, which are everywhere sold. It is a safe and reliable alterative, and is the most delicate and agreeable that is offered to the American People. Price, 25 Cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.
