Dental Work Among Our Soldiers

Story of the Movement Which Eventuated in Modern System of Army Dental Hygiene and Surgery—Maritime Men Take Lead in Canada—Completeness of Dental Service at Aldershot.

Specially Written for The Nova Scotia Highlander

The Army Dental Service is the latest addition to the Military Organization for the cure and prevention of disease and disability amongst soldiers.

The recognition of Medical, Surgical and Sanitary Organization has only occurred in very modern times. Napoleon was the first great Military Leader to recognize Surgical Aid in the field of battle. In early times the wounded soldier was looked upon as a nuisance, and was often slyly put out of the way.

The importance of the organization of a Dental Service has also been long in getting recognition. In fact it is quite a modern institution, and was long considered a mere part of Medicine and Surgery, and the habit prevailed of simply extracting the teeth. As a profession, however, Dentistry has made great strides in very recent years, and the importance to the general health of preserving and perfecting the grinding surface for the proper mastication of the food, and the keeping of the mouth in a healthy condition is now fully recognized.

Professor E. C. Kirk of the University of Pennsylvania associated with Professor Nichols has gone into extensive research and experiment with the secretion of the mouth, and it has been found that all of the juices and secretions of the body none are of more importance than the saliva, and that from an analysis of the saliva a diagnosis of all constitutional diseases can be early and accurately made. For instance, Bright's Disease, Cancer, Typhoid Fever, Pneumonia and so on.

Capt. James M. Magee, head of the Dental Service here at Aldershot Camp, and Acting Assistant Director Dental Services for Military District No. 6, read a paper ten years ago before a meeting of the Maritime Medical Association in Charlottetown, entitled "The mouth as an index of health." This was the first Dental paper ever read in a meeting of a Medical Association in Canada, and attracted wide-spread comment.

ORGANIZATION

At a meeting of the Canadian Dental Association in Montreal in 1902 a special committee was appointed for the purpose of conferring with the Military Authorities with a view to organize a Canadian Army Dental Association. In 1904 at the World's Dental Congress held at St. Louis, a resolution was passed memorializing the American Congress to establish a Dental Corps in the Army and Navy. Following this, Dental Surgeons were appointed in the American Army and Navy, and about the same time the movement assumed tangible form in Canada. The first establishment provided for 18 Dental Surgeons, two for each Military District. This was later increased to 26. Each Dental Surgeon was given the honorary rank of Lieutenant, and they were all attached to the Field Ambulance.

About 1910 Dr. G. K. Thomson, of Halifax, who is now Capt. Thomson, Assistant Director of Dental Services for

Director of Dental Services for Military District No. 6, and Capt. Magee got the ear of General Drury, who was always modern and progressive in his ideas. A general scheme of organization was mapped out; similar to that of the Army Medical Corps. This, however, was not put into practical operation until the breaking out of the war in 1914.

MARITIME MEN LEAD

As in all great and progressive movements in Canada, Maritime Province men were found playing a foremost part. So, in this movement Capt. G. K. Thomson, of Halifax, and Capt. Magee, of St. John, were the moving spirits. Sir Sam Hughes, ever alert and quick to discern an advantage to the Service, immediately gave this movement his support, and a Canadian Army Dental Corps was formed after the manner of the Canadian Army Medical Corps, and Dr. J. A. Armstrong, a leading dentist of Ottawa, was appointed Director General of Dental Service, with the rank of Lt.-Colonel. Col. Armstrong was sent overseas in command of the Canadian Army Dental Corps. Major O. K. Gibson was also sent over as second in command. Major A. A. Smith remained on this side as the chief executive.

Assistant Directors of Dental Services were appointed for the different Military Districts of Canada. Dr. G. K. Thomson, of Halifax, was made A.D.D.S., for Military District No. 6, the Maritime Provinces, with the rank of Captain. On Capt. Thomson taking charge of the administration of the Dental Service at Valcartier Camp, Capt. Magee was appointed A.A.D.D.S., for the District No. 6.

ALDERSHOT CAMP

Capt. Magee was, at the time, at the head of the Dental Services at Aldershot, which he is still directing. The Dental Service at Aldershot is most complete. Through the enterprises of Capt. Thomson a commodious and well equipped building was secured, and there are six experienced operators now at work, but there is still a shortage of enough men to meet the requirements.

Previous to the advent of an adequate system of properly caring for the mouth and teeth, a large number of casualties were constantly occurring from disease of the mouth and teeth. A man might be as big as a Goliath and as strong as Samson, but a pin-hole in one of his teeth, sufficient to give a violent tooth-ache, would place him upon the casualty list, and he would feel like Bobby Burns that he was afflicted with "the hell of a' diseases."

With the adequate system now in vogue, men's teeth and mouth can be kept in a perfectly healthy condition, and plates supplied to fill any vacancies caused by lost teeth. Altogether it is an exceedingly important department of the Military Service, to which too much importance cannot be attached.

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM ROYALTY

(Editorial in N. S. Highlander)

Although the visit of Field Marshal, His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught to Aldershot Camp last Saturday was dwelt upon at length in the last issue of The Nova Scotia Highlander, it is considered important that further reference should be made to the address given by him to the officers of the Brigade, now that we are in a position to draw attention to several of the points he emphasized.

His Royal Highness highly complimented the Brigade by remarking that it is one of the finest bodies of men in Canada. He strengthened this by adding that he had inspected troops from Vancouver Island to Prince Edward Island and could speak, therefore, with knowledge of what the Division had done.

The Nova Scotia Highland Brigade was amongst the finest units inspected by His Royal Highness. He was glad to see this and noticed with pleasure that the officers wore full equipment as well as the men.

In a stirring manner he drew attention to the splendid response throughout the Empire. It had opened the eyes of Germany and of the whole world. The Empire has done well so far but it is up hill work because Germany has been preparing for at least forty years while Great Britain paid more attention to better development. Now that the life of the Empire depends upon it, attention must be turned to military matters.

His Royal Highness pointed out that whenever a victory has been won it was in no small measure due to the excellent discipline maintained. He strongly urged that every means be taken to have the men well disciplined. Vital results depend upon it.

In this war, he pointed out, the soldier specializes. Men are required to become expert in bombing, bayonet fighting, sniping, machine gunning, and so on.

In conclusion, His Royal Highness said that as this would be almost his last review in Canada he desired to thank the people of the Dominion for the gratifying manner in which his office had been upheld during his term in this country and his work made pleasant as well as profitable. He wished the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade success and above all victory and thanked one and all for the splendid review.

Major-General Lesard, Inspector-Unit—Impressed With Personnel and Efficiency.

During his visit to Aldershot Camp, among other matters, Major-General Lesard, Inspector-General for Eastern Canada, inspected the 85th Battalion. He expressed himself as much pleased with the personnel and efficiency of the Battalion.

His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught visited the Hospital on the occasion of his recent visit to camp and spoke encouragingly of the work.

Motoring is two things—a pleasure and a business. One might say it was used sixty per cent. for entertainment and forty per cent. for commercial purposes. Yet no matter whether you use your car to get orders or money, your greatest economy will be the reduced cost of mishaps.

No accident ever befel an automobile but what the tires were forced to play a part in it. And no accident ever was averted but what the tires had a say in that, too.

If you will make those sudden stops,
If the city will water asphalt,
If rain will make muddy roads;

Why then—the possibility of skidding will always be with you, unless you figure on those elements of danger when you buy your tires. When you think of how to avert danger in motoring you immediately think of Winnipeg, Aug. 30—Reports from points in Saskatchewan and Manitoba indicate that the cyclone on Monday night did terrific damage at certain grain centres. Melville, Esternazy, Tantallon, in Saskatchewan, and Hargrave, Plumus and Binscarth in Manitoba suffered heavily, tens of thousands of acres of crop being ruined, barns and houses were mroofed and hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of damage being done. Box cars were blown off the track, wire poles uprooted. At Bana, Sask., a school was demolished, burying the teacher and 21 pupils in the debris. One girl is dead, and others were injured severely. The town of Bromhead Sask., caught fire during the storm, and was practically wiped out.

"What the matter, dear?" asked Mrs. Wainright as her husband entered the house looking gloomy. "I got C. B. for something I didn't do," replied her husband. "That's an outrage! Oh those horrible officers. What was it that you didn't do?" "I didn't carry out an order."

Engaged in Important Considerations for Good of Canadian Troops—Met New Governor General

London, Sept. 1st.—Consequently upon his recent visit to headquarters in France the Canadian minister of militia is spending this week at the Canadian camps at Bramshott and Shorncliffe. He is accompanied by Lord Daudonald, formerly commander in-chief of the Canadian militia. It is rumored that a thorough reorganization will be the result of the minister's visit. The Duke of Devonshire, Canada's new Governor General, and Sir Sam Hughes were guests at a dinner given on Wednesday by members of the Anglo-Canadian colony in London.

The Spirit of the Dying

(Special from British Headquarters.) A second lieutenant of the Lincolns was leading a patrol when a bomb inflicted numerous wounds. As he was being borne upon a stretcher his commanding officer asked him how he felt, not realizing the extent of his injuries. "I'm pretty bad, sir," answered the gallant lad, "but never mind me, we have got the trench." These are believed to be the last words he spoke.

A captain of the same battalion, whilst leading his company across a perfect inferno, was hit in the leg and again in the thigh and again in the arm, but continued to stagger on, crying to his brave boys to "get at 'em." A fourth bullet brought him to earth, and his soldiers swept on at he himself would have wished. When later the body of this valiant officer was recovered he was lying stretched in a posture of pointing eagerness towards the German position.

RECRUITING

Under the auspices of the Amherst Recruiting Association, a large and enthusiastic meeting was held in the Empress Theatre, Wednesday night, H. J. Logan, K. C., president, presiding. The speakers of the evening were Rev. Capt. Gillis, R. C. Chaplain of the 185th; Capt. Dr. G. B. Cutten, of the 219th; Rev. Capt. Geo. M. Campbell, and Lieut. Churchill, who was so seriously wounded in the second battle of Ypres, and who is now on leave. The addresses were of an exceptionally high order and no doubt will be followed by satisfactory results, as Amherst has never failed to respond to any appeal yet made. The appeal was for recruits for the 246th Battalion, now being organized.

War Not Ended Yet

Johnny had just started learning history and very proud of himself he was. One evening as he sat studying his lesson, he thought he would test his grandfather's knowledge of the subject, so he asked:

"Grandpa, do you know what great war broke out in 1850?"

The old man raised his head from the evening paper, looking thoughtfully at the lad. Then a sudden light came into his eyes.

"Why," said he, "that was the year I married your grandmother!"

"Dinah, wilt thou take Erastus for thy wedded husband, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love, cherish and obey, till death you do part?" "No, sah, I takes him just as he is. If he gets any better he'll go to Heaven. If he gets any worse I'll take him to the police station!"

185th Visited By Hon. Colonel

D. H. McDougall, Industrial Magnate, Spent Day in Camp Gave Cheque to Band.

Honorary Colonel D. H. McDougall, born in St. Peters, C. B., has had a brilliant career in Canada's industrial life. From a boy in the mines at Glace Bay, he rose through his own efforts to be, in 1900 at the age of 21, Superintendent of Mines and Quarries of the Dominion Iron and Steel Co. On the Steel and Coal Companies amalgamation 1910, he became Assistant General Manager of the Dominion Coal Co. Then he became General Manager of the Coal Co. and later of both Steel and Coal Companies.

Under him are employed about 15,000 men, the number being slightly decreased through the scarcity of labor during the war.

He was but 34 years of age the day war was declared. During the first eighteen months of the war, Mr. McDougall was most active in recruiting through the officials in his employ. Of late, the shortage of labor began to impede the output of war munitions from the plant under his control. Mr. McDougall then urged that recruiting be discontinued in the mining districts.

Three or four weeks ago, the Militia Department appointed him Honorary Colonel of the 185th O. S. Battalion, Nova Scotia Highland Brigade, an honor which Mr. McDougall as a Cape Bretoner highly appreciates.

A cheque from him for $750.00 towards the Regimental Fund to be used for his band instruments, is proof of his interest in the 185th Battalion.

Inspector-General, With Gen. Watkin and Col. Thompson Arrange For Amalgamation of Three Units.

Aldershot Camp, Sept. 2—A Board of Officers, consisting of Major-General Lessard, Inspector-General for Eastern Canada, as president, Major General Watkin, Chief of the General Staff, and Colonel W. E. Thompson, Camp Commandant, assembled at Aldershot Camp on Wednesday, the 30th ultimo, for the purpose of making arrangements for the amalgamation of the 97th, 212th and 237th Battalions.

Major-General Lessard gave each unit a thorough inspection and carried out a practical examination of each individual officer. After their practical examination, each officer was examined by the two other members of the Board as to their other qualifications that would fit them for an appointment to the amalgamated Battalion.

The Board left for Halifax this morning. During their stay in Camp, Major Lessard and Major-General Watkin were the guests of Colonel Thompson, Camp Commandant, and the Officers of the Camp Staff.

INTRODUCING "WILLIAM" THE GOAT

First appearance 219th's famous Mascot (undisguised) in print. Don't miss seeing him in his specialties, as recounted below by William's press agent.

(From N. S. Highlander)

The 219th goat. It goes round a button.

The tax collector came out the other day and levied four dollars on the animal. He said he had instructions to tax everything that was a button on the highway a dollar a foot, and the goat had four feet. The Quartermaster sent him to collect it from the goat. A squad was detailed later to collect the tax collector.

The goat's name is Billy. He has a watery eye, rakish horns, and a waggish goatee. One of the 97th mistook him for Uncle Sam. Billy resented it, and the member of the 97th knows exactly how the Crown Prince will feel, when he gets it in the same place.

Billy has a past. Every goat has for that matter. Billy's is a sealed page. He came as a welcome gift from Mr. E. Smith of Wolfville and is the pet of the regiment, but is suspected of thirteen years of untold history.

His habits are ENGLISH. He has his bath every day, pretends he likes it, until he gets within a few feet of the shower, when he says, "By Jove" and has to be dragged the rest of the way. His temperament is SCOTCH. If he does not get his oatmeal three times a day, nothing is safe within the length of his tether.

His tastes are CANADIAN. He loves tobacco. He chews anything, but as he wags his fragrant goatee he indicates pretty clearly his preference: "Cigarettes may be all very well in their way, but for myself Old Macdonald twist gets my goat."

He goes on route marches, and never falls out—except with any person who touches his tail. He is a good soldier, is the first up at reveille, and knows all the bugle calls—especially "Come to the cook house door."

Pte. F. C. Dolliver is his "guide, philosopher and friend" and Billy thinks he is the greatest commissariat genius in the world. When the Premier visited the camp, Billy had to be restrained lest he should upset the Government.

He is called the 219th, but is the one and only goat.—K.M.C.

CROUP QUICKLY CURED

Don't Let the Child Choke to Death While Waiting For the Doctor.

Hyomei, the miraculous, antiseptic dry air treatment, will cure croup in either the first or second stages. Easily inhaled even when the breathing is irregular, it reaches more promptly than any other remedy the terribly inflamed membrane of the windpipe. Its soothing balsams act immediately, the inflammation is allayed and the swelling reduced.

George H. King, of 22 Wellington Street, South Woodstock, says: "We would not think of keeping house without Hyomei. It has warded off colds, croup, coughs and sore throat for all of our three children many and many a time. When a child breathes badly and through the mouth and the glands around the eyes and nose commence to swell, then is the time that we find the Hyomei quickly relieves the trouble and gets the bronchial tubes, lungs and throat cleared up."

Hyomei, (pronounced High-o-me) is guaranteed by J. D. Clark to cure catarrh, coughs, cold, asthma, bronchitis and croup, or money back. A complete outfit, including a neat hard rubber pocket inhaler, costs only $1.00. An extra bottle of Hyomei, if afterwards needed, cost but 50 cents.

Miss Parker of Newport, formerly of the office staff of the Dominion Coal Co, Glace Bay, was visiting Camp this week.

MUST PAY MORE FOR SEMI-WEEKLY NEWSPAPER

For some time the agitation for the increase of the weekly newspaper subscription rate has been going on with the result that many have adopted a price of $1.50 per year, others have gone out of business and yet more have tried to hold on to the original rate of one dollar a year hoping that the limit of war prices had been passed.

The cost of living is still mounting higher and the cost of manufacturing the weekly newspaper is still increasing.

Can our readers think of any other commodity purchased in this Valley except newspapers which has remained unchanged and unchanging year after year. Why should the newspaper rate remain the same now as years ago when we could purchase coal at $4.50 a ton, wood at $1.50 to $2.00 a cord, chickens for 25 to 35 cents, geese at 50 cents, eggs 10 cents a dozen, butter for 18 cents, cows for $20 and horses for $75, beef and pork at our half the present rate?

Publishers everywhere are being vexed by the present condition of war prices in everything used in the manufacture of a newspaper. Paper, ink, type and supplies, gasoline for running our machinery, have all mounted skyward, and the doubled cost of production must be met in some way by an increase in the subscription rate. The only alternative is to fall into the hands of the Sheriff.

If a weekly newspaper finds it necessary to increase in price how much more necessary for a semi-weekly like "The Advertiser" to increase its rate. No other paper between Halifax and Yarmouth is giving so much reading matter as we do. Reasonable people will realize at once that an increase in our subscription rate is necessary.

During the month of September we will allow each and every of our subscribers in Canada to renew their subscription at the present rate of One Dollar a year. Subscribers in arrears may also pay full amount due and one full year in advance and likewise obtain the same rate. For United States and Foreign subscribers the rate is $1.50 per year payable in advance and the same terms would be accepted for those in arrears by paying one full year in advance.

We feel sure that most of our subscribers are persons of reason and will meet the necessities of the situation most cheerfully. Three cents a week is not the full value of your semi-weekly newspaper but by paying this month if you reside anywhere in Canada you can obtain The Advertiser for one year or more (five, if desired) by paying in advance at less than two cents per week or one cent per copy.

Do not delay in your remittance but send immediately to this office. A delay of a few weeks means 50 cents a year added to the amount. Grasp opportunity now, and thus place in our hands money which we urgently require.

Owing to the high freight rates prevailing this year, viz., $2.00 per barrel from Halifax to Liverpool or London, Annapolis Valley apples will have to sell extremely high in the English markets to net the growers fair values for their stocks. In order for a net return of $2.00 per barrel apples will have to sell for twenty shillings a barrel, a price hitherto unheard of for an average for the season. The extremely high ocean freight is causing somewhat hard feelings throughout the Valley.

RUSSIANS CAPTURED 15,500 MEN AND 289 OFFICERS

Petrograd, Sept. 1, via London—In the course of battles yesterday on the Western Russian front, says the Russian official statement of today, the Russians captured 289 officers and 15,501 men.

Of this number 2,400 were Germans. The Russians also captured six guns, 55 machine guns and seven bomb-throwers.

"Our aviator, Ensign Filipov, with an observer, Sub-Lieutenant Khrisoskolev, attacked an enemy machine which, having side-slipped, turned its nose downwards and fell steeply to the earth.

"In the direction of Halicz in the region of the River Horovanka, fierce fighting is raging. "In the Carpathians, in the region of the Tomnatic Mountain, our troops captured a whole series of heights.

"In the region of Dornavatra, on the Roumanian border, we made slight advance to the westward.

"During yesterday's battles the Russians captured 289 officers and 15,501 men, of whom 2,400 were Germans. They also took six guns, 55 machine guns and seven bomb-throwers."

ALLIED FLEET HAS ARRIVED OFF PIRAEUS

Athens, Sept. 1, via London—An Entente Allied fleet, consisting of twenty-three warships and seven transports, has arrived off Piraeus.

London, Sept. 1—Following two days of silence in telegraphic communication with Athens during which sensational rumors of a revolution gained currency, but no confirmation comes the startling news of the arrival of an Entente Allied fleet, with transports at Piraeus and that the general Greek elections will be postponed for a fortnight.

The brevity of the despatches seems to indicate that something unusual is happening, and the development of events is awaited with the greatest curiosity here.

From the fragmentary despatches which have reached

London it is deduced by some observer that changes of decisive character already have taken place in Athens, and that the de facto Government of Greece has decided to abandon neutrality and range itself on the side of the Entente Allies.

Other experts take a more conservative view. The Times, editorially, attaches small importance to Wednesday's revolutionary movement at Saloniki declaring that this is completely overshadowed by the news of the appearance of Entente Allied ships off Piraeus.

"This must be taken to indicate," says the Times, "that the Allies are wearied of the equivocations which have so long solved to battle the intrigues of their enemies."

The Chronicle discusses what it terms the grand difficulties which former Premier Venizelos must encounter in an endeavor to guide Greece.

SERIOUSLY INJURED

On Sunday evening about 8 p.m. a distressing accident took place at the Kentville Garage. Mr. Everett Rottler was engaged in work under a heavy car when Mr. W. S. Wallace of Wolfville entered the garage with his car. By some means he lost control of his car for a moment and it hit the other, doubling young Rottler up in a terrible state under the car being repaired. Soldiers had to lift the car to get the injured man out. He was taken to the American House and Dr. Burns and the best medical aid and nurses from Aldershot summoned and all done that was possible. He was taken to Halifax later by special train and stood the journey well. Mr. Wallace brought his father and mother from Highbury and did all he could to aid the injured man. He has been a most careful auto driver and keenly feels the result of the accident.

Lost on Wednesday, Aug. 30, at Upper Canard, a gentleman's silver wrist watch, Elgin, with illuminous dial. Finder please notify J. C. Harris, Upper Canard or leave at Advertiser Office.

Your Neighbors Will Think
Alice Verlet is Singing

When your home has a New Edison and Alice Verlet is singing from it, her silvery unsullied voice will convince your neighbors that a wonderful singer has come to your house.

And their mistake will be natural, for this famed Belgian Coloratura Soprano, a member of the Paris Opera, has sung side by side with the Edison Re-Creation of her voice, and a large audience could not tell the two voices apart.

So with all the voices and all instruments—the Edison Re-Creates their music. Come and make sure.

FROM DIARY OF 193RD OBSERVER

The 193rd transfers to the 246th Reserve Battalion, N. S. H. are being affected with every facility and the Blue Feather Company of the reserve unit is being built up and organized as speedily as possible.

The 193rd is busy with musketry these days. They are developing temporarily some shoulders, but permanent efficiency.

The Headquarters Company of the 193rd has been organized, composed of the following details: Stretcher bearers, pipers, signallers, machine gun section, grenadiers, band, transport section, pioneers, shoemaker and tailor. This newly organized company is under Major J. P. LeGallais for discipline.

NEW WAR STAMP

Considerable complaint having been made as to the difficulty experienced in distinguishing between the ordinary two-cent postage stamp and the two-cent postage and war tax two-cent stamp surcharged by one cent after consideration by the Post-Master General, it has been decided to issue a new stamp in an entirely different color, so that the difficulty experienced by the business men will be eliminated.

Therefore a new stamp has been issued of the value of two cents and surcharged in a manner similar to the one now in use, the only difference being the color, which is brown. In the future these stamps will be issued in this color, so as to overcome the difficulty, owing to the similarity in the color of the present surcharged stamp to the ordinary two-cent stamp.

Recruiting and News Items From 246 Battalion

Pleasant Brevities Relating to the Lads Who are Fast Recruiting

Consistent enthusiasm was shown by the battalions of the Highland Brigade in recruiting for their respective companies of the 246th on Friday and Saturday. Good recruiting work was done by the men among the visitors. Tents were pitched on the left of each battalion line, signs and banners were displayed, and officers placed in charge of the work.

Forty-four recruits were signed on during last week. This is a good average considering the rate of recruiting at the present time. Eight enlisted on Monday as a start for this week and the pace is being kept up.

Captain George Cutten and Captain Chaplain M. Gillis of the Highland Brigade spoke at a recruiting meeting in Amherst on Wednesday evening. This is to be followed by men who will make a personal canvass.

Lt. Colonel Parsons spent a number of days on a tour visiting Amherst, Digby and Truro in the interests of recruiting.

Q. M. Sgt. Instructor Hawkins, so well known as instructor with the 85th, reports for duty with the 246th from Valcartier on Monday next.

The 246th Battalion has added to their grounds and general equipment and has tents and room for any number of recruits that may come at short notice.

Mrs. Parsons, wife of Lt. Colonel Parsons, O. C. 246th, was a visitor on Friday.

The officers now assisting in the work of the Battalion are—Lieut.-Col. N. H. Parsons, C. O., Capt. W. Wilson, M. O., Capt. G. Cutten, Acting 2nd in Command; Lieut. E. S. Baker Acting Adjutant; Lt. Titus, Acting Q. M.

Recently a new plot of ground was cleared in Aldershot Camp. Today it marks the site of the lines of the 246th Reserve Battalion of the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade. The Militia Department is still supplying uniforms and equipment; and there is abundance of Highland Brigade feathers, red and green and blue and purple. Also, the files of the 246th Battalion show

Otto G. Cochrane, 22 years of age, of Watertown, Mass., gave his life in his effort to save that of his companion, Miss Giggie, when their canoe was upset in the Charles river on Sunday afternoon last. He was teaching Miss Giggie to paddle when the accident occurred. Although neither could swim young Cochrane supported his companion in the water until she was rescued, when he immediately sank and did not come to the surface again. He went from Nova Scotia about a year ago and was employed as a bookkeeper with the Hood Milk Co. at Brookline.

C. N. R. WOULD BRING MORE FARM SETTLEMENTS

A. DEW. FOSTER, EX. M. P. IN CHARGE OF WORK.
Saskatoon Daily Star.

Plans to develop the lands contiguous to their main and branch lines and to encourage settlement of farms on these lands, drawing especially from the western United States, have been begun by the Canadian Northern Railway. Within the next few weeks a far-reaching campaign of publicity will be centered from a department of immigration of the railway, with its headquarters at Chicago.

An outline of the new scheme was given to a representative of the Star this morning by Mr. A. deW. Foster, who is making a tour of inspection of the whole C. N. R. system and who will have charge of the new work.

For several weeks past the Canadian Northern has been laying plans for developing natural resources of their territory and several parties of experts have been engaged along scientific and technical lines.

A WIDE CAMPAIGN.
While the C. N. R. has no plans at present for the organization of any large branch of natural resources similar to the C. P. R., yet the company is going to conduct a wide campaign to induce settlers to locate along its lines, said Mr. Foster. "I am just concluding a trip which has covered every mile of the main and branch lines of the road in Manitoba and Saskatchewan, and except for the journey from Edmonton to Vancouver I have practically traversed the whole system."

"I have met throughout the most cordial co-operation from the boards of trade and at Calgary and Edmonton special meetings were called to discuss the project. These meetings promised every assistance to the C. N. R. in the new project."

BOARD OF TRADE SUPPORT
Mr. Foster was in conference with F. Macleure Sclanders, commissioner of the Saskatchewan Board of Trade today. The visitor declared that Mr. Sclanders was very much alive to the scheme and offered every assistance within his power.

Crops all over the west were in splendid condition. Mr. Foster averred. He admitted that he was given to speaking more optimistically than many, yet the most conservative estimate he could make of Saskatchewan's 1916 yield was that it would be between 150,000,000 and 20,000,000 bushels which was only about 40,000,000 less than last year.

The black rust scare Mr. Foster regarded lightly. Saskatchewan district, he stated, was comparatively free from rust and farmers in this locality had nothing to fear.

"I have travelled up and down every part of the C. N. R., and as yet I have seen nothing that can outdo the crops in the Saskatchewan district," he said.

MET AN ACCIDENTAL DEATH

FOR HIS COUNTRY'S SAKE

(See speech of German Emperor to his wounded soldiers.)

"I must not die," the Kaiser said, "My country needs me sore; If I were gone you'd never have a leader any more. I with Gott's help will yet survive, And safely from the rear, Direct my mighty armed hosts, Who show, like me, no fear."

"If Gott had not willed otherwise, To the trenches I would hie, And 'snip' some cursed Englishman (How I'd love to see him die!) But, then, you know, there's danger there, Shells might your ruler kill. What would become of Germany? No one my place could fill."

"I have my sons; they do their best, But no victories do they gain; They've not my eagle eye to scan. Nor my colossal brain. But when their father's gained the day (Sank all the British ships, Maybe on them he'll pity take, And pardon all their slips."

Be a Mon

"There's woe an' murder o'er the sea; There's blood been spilt for you an' me; Braw hearts is sad, but still guid lad. Ye never heed!"

There's women greet for them that's gone, An' mither's mourn for many a son; But still ye stay an' while awa' The precious hours.

There's broken hearts that winna' heal, They're broken wi' the ruthless steel. That robs the world o' a' its best. Can ye no' hear?

There's mony a braw deed that is done An' mony a hard earned fecht that's won. Tae save the friends ye love the best. Dae ye no' care?

There's wark left yet for ye tae do; It's the big fecht across the sea; It's just the place for men like ye. Come! Be a mon.

—Sgt. G. E. Todd, 133rd Battalion.

THE HIGHLAND BRIGADE

By Private Jack Collins, 97th Batt'n.

They call you lads the "Bluenose" men; Nova Scotians are proud of you; Canada wishes you the best of luck! The world knows you'll prove true blue. Your a hardy race, so show your pace. When you tackle the Kaiser's clan. When the battles on and you're face to face, Give a yell for the "Bluenose" man.

Your countrymen have died well On the crimsoned fields of France; Your comrades deaths you must avenge. When the orders are, "Advance!" For your country now depends on you. Where the shells their havoc rend. Then play the game and play it true; Show what makes the "Bluenose" men.

Your a happy lot of jolly lads; Your country looks to you. Whatever you do, just keep the hunch, You can beat the Germans too. When you get the orders to make the charge, And the German trenches you ram, Grab your rifles boys, and charge them hard, And yell for the "Bluenose" man.

The Coronation Cup, blue ribbon trophy of yachting in Maritime Province waters, was yesterday forwarded to Chester. The cup was raced for in Halifax harbour recently the Gem and Winward, of the Royal Nova Scotia Yacht Squadron, being the defenders, and four yachts of the Chester Yacht Club being the challengers. The Gem won two races and the cup was awarded her conditionally to the result of an investigation of the measurements of the yacht Linnet owned by Mr. Talcott, of the American Summer colony at Chester. On Wednesday at a meeting of the Sailing Committee of the Royal Nova Scotia Yacht Squadron it was decided to award the cup to Mr. Talcott. It has been despatched to Chester, and there it will be held for a year, at the expiration of which it will doubtless again be challenged for.
