FUNERAL OBSEQUIES CAPT. W. LONGMIRE

A Splendid Tribute of Respect by Hundreds of Citizens From Town and Countryside

FLORAL TRIBUTES

Sketch Of The Career Of A Citizen Who Will Be Surely Missed In All The Local Walks Of Life.

The funeral of Captain William R. Longmire, which took place on Thursday afternoon last, was the most largely attended in a very long course of years and was a notable tribute of respect to one whose influence was felt for a long period in every movement which was made for the good of the town.

After a short service at the home, the funeral cortege proceeded to St. James' Church, which was filled to capacity, large numbers of people not being able to gain admittance at all. The pastor wishes to express his thanks to Mr. G. H. Warey for his valuable services in connection with seating arrangements. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. Underwood, and were of a very impressive character. The hymns rendered by the choir were "Nearer My God To Thee," "Jesus Loves Me This I Know," "Jesus Loves Me This I Know."

The latter hymn was chosen by the Captain himself the day before his decease and showed in this way his thoughts for the children of the Sunday School over whom he was the loved and honored superintendent for many years. The last rendering was "The Lord's My Shepherd." The main portion of the church was occupied by the family and mourners, the officers and members of Crescent Lodge, I. O. O. F., and Autumn Leaf Rebekah. The floral tributes were very handsome and included the following:

Pillow for father, family; Lillies, Curtis and Bessie; Spray, Florence and Bernard; Wreath, Clara and Jim; Wreath, John and Jennie; Cushion with Cross of Roses, Congregation of St. James; Cross, staff and scholars of St. James Sunday School; Three Links, Crescent Lodge, I. O. O. F.; Crescent, Autumn Leaf Rebekahs; Pillow, Business firms of Bridgetown; Wreath, Bridgetown Hockey Club; Wreath, The Buckler Family; Cross, G. O. Thies and family; Cross, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Flett, New Glasgow; Spray, Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Mills; Spray Calla Lillies, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hicks; Wreath, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Piggott.

The undertakers were Capt. W. E. Gessner, A. P. Hiltz, G. O. Thies and C. L. Piggott.

At the close of the church services the funeral cortege formed up as follows—Oddfellows, Clergymen, Hearse, mourners, Sunday School children headed by the Up Streamers Tuxis Boys, Corporation of St. James' Church, Delegation from St. Mary's Church, Belleisle; Town Council and School Board, citizens generally.

With the other services the children gathered about the grave and repeated the Lord's prayer. The impressive service of the Order was carried out by the officers and members of Crescent Lodge, I. O. O. F., who sang "Shall We Gather At The River", and the remains of one of the best loved citizens of this part of Nova Scotia were committed to the grave.

Capt. William R. Longmire was a son of Capt. John H. Longmire, and was born fifty three years ago, shortly after his father and mother came to Bridgetown. Thus the deceased has spent his entire life in the town and became identified with all its general interests.

After reaching manhood he followed the sea for a considerable period of years, obtaining a master's certificate early in his career. Some twelve or more years ago the Captain transferred the Bridgetown Steamship Company and the S. S. Valinda was the sole commission. The firm also had a number of sailing vessels and engaged in a coal business in town. The Captain was a member of the Town Council several years and during his whole career was Mayor of Bridgetown. This is one of the distinctions which go to show how highly his services were appreciated by the citizens.

He was a member of the Board of the School Board, a member of the Board of Directors of Riverdale Cemetery, and active in the various movements carried out. As a member of the Board of Trade he was efficient and active in every step for

W. C. T. U. HAVE INTERESTING AFTERNOON—ADDRESSES AND MUSICAL PROGRAMME

The Bridgetown W.C.T.U. had a well attended and interesting meeting last Thursday evening in Gordon-Providence United Church. The meeting which was presided over by Mrs. E. A. Hicks, opened with the hymn: "Onward Christian Soldiers", followed by prayer.

After the reading of the Scripture Lesson, the hymn: "Sowing in the Morning" was sung, followed by an excellent paper by Miss Jost on the "Life of Frances Willard". A duet beautifully rendered by Miss Burns and Miss Bertha Fulmer was pleasingly rendered.

After which interesting papers were read, the first by Mrs. R. J. Messenger, on "Anna Borden Private Secretary to Miss Willard", the second by Mrs. Melbourne Wentzell on "Cigarettes". The next number was "Yield Not to Temptation" and an instructive paper on W.C.T.U. women was read by Mrs. Jost.

Dr. Armstrong was then called upon and delivered an interesting talk in "Personal Recollections of Frances Willard", whom he heard address a number of meetings in this county years ago.

Mrs. E. A. Hicks made a strong case on "Why I Should Belong to the W. C. T. U." Meeting closed with Benediction by Rev. J. H. Freestone.

MELVERN SQUARE

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker were some what surprised on Wednesday evening when about sixty of their friends visited them to extend congratulations on the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. The host and hostess rose to the occasion and extended a cordial greeting. A very pleasant evening was spent in music, conversation and readings. At the close Deacon Chute, in a few well chosen words, presented the bride and groom of twenty-five years, a purse of money to show in a small way the esteem the worthy couple are held in the community in which they live. After singing "Auld Lang Syne" and wishing Mr. and Mrs. Baker many more happy years of life together, the company dispersed.

Miss Myrtle Morse, of Bridgetown, is visiting her uncle, Mr. Daniel Outhit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Phinney were calling on friends in Greenwood Tuesday. Mrs. Reis Baker and Mrs. Eliza Stronach are on the sick list. Mr. John G. Masters, who has been confined to the house with the "flu", is somewhat better.

Miss Dorothy Lantz has gone to Jordan Falls, Shelburne Co., to teach the school there for the remainder of the year.

The town's betterment. In St. James' Church he was an honored Warden and the Superintendent of the Sunday School. No activity of the church, religious, social or official, was without his presence and active assistance. A few years ago when the Tuxis movement for boys of teen age was organized, Capt. Longmire was appointed a member of the Boys' Work Board and in that connection his work was enjoyed and appreciated and mentioned incidentally that one of his sons, Charles, was a member of the victorious Bridgetown debating team, which in 1920 won the Davidson cup put up by A. L. Davidson, then M. P. for the County.

It is stated that not since the death of John P. Murdoch in 1893, has the loss of any citizen caused so big a gap in the leadership of active men in Bridgetown as that caused by the passing of Capt. Will. Longmire.

He is survived by an aged mother, wife, daughter of the late Edgar Bent of Paradise, a noble help mate to a noble man; four sons, John Charles, Paul and Donald; one daughter, Mrs. Walter W. Flett; four brothers, C. B. Longmire, Bernard, Martin and Hatheway.

Never in the history of Oddfellowship in Bridgetown have so large a number of the Order gathered to pay their tribute to a deceased brother. In a closing word we might say that the Captain will be long and sincerely mourned. He led an active and useful life, affable and courteous, consistent and conscientious was loved and respected by all. He so ordered his life that he found time to devote carefully and effectively to every interest. Ideal as a father and husband, a strong supporter of his church and of every good work, liberal minded and generous, he passed through the gates of death universally mourned.

MISSIONARY LECTURE BY REV. DR. SMITH

Fine Address By Veteran Missionary Who Has Labored Twenty-five Years In China.

To a fine audience in the Sunday School room of the United Church, Bridgetown, Rev. Dr. (M.D.) Smith, delivered a highly interesting and instructive lecture last Thursday evening. Dr. Smith illustrated his lecture with some fine slides of Chinese life. The Rev. Mr. Smith was the first Missionary to go to China under the Missionary Board of the Methodist Church of Canada, supported by the Young People's Forward Movement. He expects to go back there to spend the remainder of his life. A significant statement made by the lecturer illustrating the changes going on in China was made in his explanation of the Chinese dress which he was wearing. Dr. Smith has spent twenty-five years in China and upon leaving the city in which he resides to take his furlough the chief citizens, some of whom were not Christians, assembled and made him, his wife and son, present of suits which are only presented to the most distinguished as marks of the very high esteem in which they are held by their fellow citizens. The red sash which he wore he said was the equivalent of the "freedom of the city". When one recalls that Dr. Smith when he first went to that same city was hissed and accorded the usual treatment meted out in those days to the "foreign devil" it speaks well for the magnificent influence and success of his labors in behalf of the Master. But the most significant thing of all was the fact that those assembled asked the doctor to express their thanks to his audience in Canada for subscribing the money that made it possible for them to have the Gospel. A deep impression was made on the audience, not alone by the words of the speaker, but by his personality—a man devoted body and soul to the carrying out of the great commission.

The pastor, the Rev. J. H. Freestone, announced that the Wednesday (Feby. 28th) Prayer Service would be devoted to Missionary interests, and that an illustrated lecture would be read by him on Missionary work in West China. The slides that will be shown are of a very fine type and the latest thing out of the Mission rooms, Toronto.

Dr. Jost was asked by the pastor to express the thanks of the audience to Dr. Smith. This he did very feelingly and the meeting closed with the Doxology. Many people stayed behind to view the curios which Dr. Smith had.

DIPLOMA AWARDED

Miss Minnie E. Brown, Hampton, N.S., having completed the three-year New Standard Teacher Training Course of the Sunday School Board of the United Baptist Convention of the Maritime Provinces, has been awarded the diploma of the Board. This correspondence course has been quietly carried on at her home, unknown to even her nearest neighbors. Miss Brown has done splendid work and on some subjects in her examination has gone high above the pass mark. She has been specializing on our B.Y.P.U. and Leaders of Young People. It is gratifying to know that such a worthy undertaking has been carried out so successfully. With the diploma came a very pleasty letter with compliments and hearty congratulations from the Board. Miss Brown is also taking other studies preparatory to religious work, and we wish her every success.

WILL SPOT SEALS WITH AIRPLANE

St. John's, Nfld.—The Newfoundland seal fishing season will open March 7th, it was announced. An airplane will be used to "spot" the seal herds on the ice.

The sealing fleet has now been reduced to eight vessels. Seven of these will operate on the Grand Banks and one in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. An airplane used by the Antarctic steamer "Quest" will be employed in connection with the Grand Banks contingent of vessels. It will be conveyed on a special platform built on the steamer "Thetis".

In Hararanga, the most populous of the Cook Islands in the Pacific, it is provided by law that the head of each family shall plant a cocconut tree for each year of a child's age until the child is old enough to plant trees himself.

BRIDGETOWN AND MIDDLETON TIE

High School Teams Played Interesting Game With a Score of 3-3.

Middleton—One of the best hockey games of the season took place at the local rink Friday evening when the local rink and Middleton High School teams met. The play was even from start to finish and in spite of overtime play neither team could put in a winning goal.

In the first period the visitors had the best of the play, but neither team scored. In the first part of the second period Bridgetown forced the home team to play on the defence, and scored two goals, first by Hoyt and second by Todd. Then the Middleton team recovered and by brilliant bits of combination secured two tallies. Shaffner scoring the first and Parsons the second on a pass from Shaffner. This ended the scoring for the period. The third period was keenly fought, but was not as good an exhibition of hockey as the first two.

Each team, however, netted goal. Hoyt for the visitors and Shaffner for the home team, being responsible. An overtime period was played but as neither side scored again, the game was called with score standing three all.

The teams lined up as follows: Bridgetown—Troop, goal; Orlando, Price, defence; Hoyt, centre; Foster, Todd, Beattie, forwards. Middleton—Hoyt, goal; Pierce, Parsons, defence; Kelly, centre; Shaffner, Joudrey, Baker, Keady, forwards.

C. Fisher refereed satisfactorily. A playoff is being arranged for next week at Bridgetown.

MRS. AMOS BURNS CELEBRATES EIGHTEENTH ANNIVERSARY

Many Gifts And Tributes To This Active Old Lady From Numerous Friends.

On Sunday, 18th inst. Mrs. Amos Burns, of Clementsport, wife of Capt. Amos Burns, celebrated her 80th birthday in a quiet way at home. Mrs. Moore C. McCormick, of Annapolis Royal, and Miss Grace Burns, daughters, were present. Many were the gifts and remembrances from friends and relatives everywhere. Among the tributes were the following piece of verse written by a friend and namesake which perhaps best describes the appreciation of her friends for her. The MONITOR joins with others in congratulations:

A Happy Birthday

"Congratulations please accept My dearest friend today, May content, joy and happiness Be strewn along your way, And may this birthday bring to you Blessings both rich and rare, And also a little surprise That all your friends may share.

Honored, Respected and Beloved, Your friends are not a few Their love is such they would not care To change for something new.

In years gone by you seemed a queen Always so good and kind And one more beautiful than you Was very hard to find.

Over your life some clouds have passed Dark shadows came and went But still you trusted all to Him Who knew why they were sent.

A loving husband, happy home, Children clever and bright, Were sent to help you on your way To make things seem just right.

And so my dear I feel quite sure, No matter where they roam, They'll never forget the happiness Of mother, love and home.

May many birthdays come to you, With greetings from your friends, Who wish to show respect and love, And will until the end.

And when they do not come to you, Just when we cannot tell, I'm sure I never will forget, My name—sister, Ruby L." Feby 18th, 1923.

FINE LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT AT PARADISE

Industrial Life of Paradise In Bygone Years, Community Saddened By Death.

One of the finest Literary Society programs of the Winter was given Monday evening, Feby. 19th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bishop. The entertainment was of a miscellaneous character. Music was especially attractive. Dressed in costume, Miss Marlon Bishop sang a rhapsody song. Mr. E. G. Morse and Miss Bishop sang a song suitably acting the sentiment of the song. Albertine Angers, niece of Mrs. Bishop, delighted her hearers with two very entertaining readings. Her talent and training as a reader bespeak a promising future as an entertainer for little Miss Angers. A paper written by Mr. Bishop on "The Industrial Life of Paradise in Bygone Years", was of special merit. It was not easy for the younger members present to picture on the once flowing streams of this place a large lumber industry with its saw mills, with furniture and hat making as a side line. The evening was well and profitably spent.

Our entire community was saddened last week by the death of one of our brightest and most popular school boys, Eugene Balcom. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Balcom, have our deepest sympathy in the loss of their oldest child.

Mrs. Minnie Rice, of this place, lately received word of the death of her father-in-law, Mr. Edward Rice, of Worcester, Mass. Mr. Rice was born 82 years ago at Bloody Creek, near Bridgetown.

IT'S SOME JUMP FROM PARADISE TO WICHITA FALLS, BUT VISITORS TO OIL FIELDS APPARENTLY LIKE IT

"From Paradise to Wichita Falls." That may be considered a terrible jump by some, but Kenneth M. Brooks of Paradise, Nova Scotia, declares it to be a very pleasant experience. While Paradise, nestled amid the orchards of a delightful fruit-bearing valley of this Canadian peninsula, famed as the landing place of many new world pioneers, is truly paradise to him, Mr. Brooks expressed himself as agreeably surprised and profoundly pleased with the South-west with the great state of Texas and with Wichita Falls in particular.

An Inspection Tour

Mr. Brooks is on an inspection tour of oil fields of the Southwest in the interest of oil royalties holdings of himself and associates. He is accompanied by R. H. Savage of Boston and Thomas O. Payne of Dallas, Texas.

A week was consumed in traveling the 2,000 miles from Paradise to Wichita Falls. Snow six feet deep covered streets of his home town when Mr. Brooks left, so the few inches encountered here during the past week failed to depress him to any extent.

Mr. Savage reports the present winter to be the worst "that Boston has experienced in twenty years, and a little thing like a few blasts of west Texas wind and snow enough to cover the ground failed to stop him from venturing out to see the wonderful fields of the world.

Both visitors expressed themselves as delighted with Wichita Falls, being particularly impressed with the progressiveness of the city.

"One is immediately struck by the apparent newness of things," said Mr. Savage. "The many new buildings, towns seemingly erected overnight, the recent opening up of the farm lands—the very youthfulness of the population cannot but impress one from the east who is accustomed to older things, things that have every evidence of age"—Wichita Falls News.

The above reference is of course to Mr. Kenneth M. Brooks, the prominent business man of Paradise. Mr. Brooks expects to return home some time next month.—(Ed. Monitor.)

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION COURSE LECTURES

The third in the series of the University Extension Course Lectures was delivered on Tuesday evening last, 20th inst., by Rev. Dr. Boyle, the President of King's University, Windsor, N. S. His subject was "Deen Swift, His Life and Times". There is little picture in the minds of his hearers. Possessed of a fine literary taste and a gift of humour, the audience were charmed throughout and they were well rewarded for coming. Dr. Boyle's lecture was at once schol-

MR. JOHN TITUS HAS UNIQUE AND LONG RECORD AS MAIL DRIVER

Mr. John Titus, of Hampton, who drives the mail between here and the Bay Shore port, has had a length of service which is quite unique in mail driving annals. He has been on the route over twenty-five years and during that time Canada has had nine Premiers: Sir John A. McDonald, Sir J. S. D. Thompson, Sir John Abbott, Hon. McKenzie Bowell, Sir Charles Tupper, Sir Wilfred Laurier, Sir Robt. Borden, Hon. Arthur Meighen and Hon. W. L. McKenzie King. The MONITOR would like to hear from some other mail drivers who have had so long and even record. Mr. Titus still drives the mail three times per week on this route, Mr. George O'Neal driving the other three days.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO SEE "MISS CANADA"

Halifax is to entertain "Miss Canada", Queen of the Winter Carnival, recently held at Montreal, who will be accompanied by "Miss Moncton" and "Miss Halifax". An opportunity will be given everybody to see these distinguished young ladies, as a celebration is to be held in the Arena Rink, Halifax, on Friday evening at 8 p.m., March 2nd. This will be followed by a Grand Ball at the Halifax Auditorium on Saturday evening.

Many of our lovers of Winter sport will wish to be present at the "Moccasin Dance" which is understood to be a feature in connection with the carnival at the Arena, at which the beautiful costumes of the guests of honor will be a drawing card for the ladies.

REV. H. Y. COREY, M.A., TALENTED MISSIONARY TO SPEAK AT LAWRENCETOWN

Rev. H. Y. Corey, M. A., returned Missionary from the Telegan Baptist Mission in India, under the Canadian Baptist Foreign Mission Board, will be the special speaker at the Baptist Church, Lawrencetown, on Sunday, March 4th.

The services for the day will be as follows: Lawrencetown, 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m.; Williamston, 3 p.m. The evening service will be especially under the auspices of the Men's Brotherhood. It is hoped that the men of the community may take advantage of the opportunity to hear one of the most talented Missionary speakers in the Baptist denomination.

Characterized by deep interest, large sled loads of young people coming in from the outside sections. Pastor Whitman and his workers are being much encouraged in their efforts to build up the cause of righteousness in the church and community.

Early and highly entertaining and his were a hundred people present and moved to deep paths of hearty laughter according to the item of the speaker. Dr. Boyle's lecture is in strict keeping with the very high level set at the beginning by Dr. Fraser Harris of Dalhousie, and maintained by Professor Norman Rodgers, of Acadia. The chairman for the evening was His Worship the Mayor, Mr. Henry B. Hicks, who suitably introduced the lecturer and presided throughout. A vote of thanks was pleasingly moved by Mr. Irvin, K.C., seconded by Rev. J. H. Freestone, chairman of the Boys' Work Board, under whose auspices these lectures were arranged.

FIFTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Balcom Receive Felicitations of Their Many Friends

SO L AND PERSONAL

"Live Wires" New Society Formed.—Lecture, Care of Feeble Minded And The Blind.

Lawrencetown.—Mrs. Pearl Pigeon has gone to Paradise. This popular nurse does not get very much rest, as constant calls are for her. Mrs. B. Banks has had the sad tidings that another sister has died. The home of Mr. Woodworth and most of the contents was burned at South Williamston.

Mrs. W. Reigh has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Arthur Balcom. Mrs. DeLancy has lost one child; another, who was ill, is now recovering. Mrs. Palfrey has been rather poorly with a severe cold.

We regret that Harvey Palfrey has been indoors suffering from a cold. This young man will be missed from the various games and sports in which he is a popular leader. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Balcom have had their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Relatives and friends spent a pleasant evening with the happy couple in their new home—a pretty cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Tupper are now in Lawrencetown. All glad to welcome the bride.

A society of young people has been formed in the Methodist congregation called "Live Wires"—Success to them. Miss Polly Cypher and Verma Bourke are collecting funds for the Baptist Mission, India.

Rev. H. R. Grant lectured Monday night in the Methodist Church. Not a large number came out; some were sick, others not much interested, it would appear. Among other subjects mentioned in Dr. Grant's address was that of the "Feeble Minded". The need of greater care and interest in this class of unfortunate people. Also a word in behalf of the "Blind". Mr. Palfrey spoke of "Mother's Pensioners", gave some touching examples of the deep need of women left without means of support and often children too young to be a help. These things need real practical Christian work, not mere words.

Mrs. Feener has taken her daughter, Mrs. Silver, who has been very ill for some time, to her home in Lawrencetown, where she can receive medical treatment and careful attention.

Mr. Roy Bent is spending a vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Bent, Lawrencetown. Miss Florence and Master Edward, children of Mrs. C. Archibald, have been suffering from a severe cold. We are glad to hear both young people are now better.

Miss Lillian Shaffner is now quite recovered from her illness. Miss Mildred Durling has gone to Boston for a visit to relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Balcom have a sad bereavement in the death of their eldest son, a fine boy of great promise. This youth is a nephew of Mrs. T. O. Bishop, Lawrencetown.

Mrs. John Shaffner has gone to visit relatives in Middleton. In a letter to Mr. W. McKewan, Rev. J. Hawkins wrote: "We were five hours on the way from Lawrencetown to Digby. When we got there all the hotels were filled. After walking about for some time we at last got rooms. Crossing the Bay was unpleasant; rough sea and high winds upset us very much. We of Nova Scotia can boast about our Bay of Fundy. It can hold its own even with the Bay of Biscay. A great deal of interest is taken in the work of Gipsy John Hawkins in St. John, we are pleased to hear.

Mrs. H. Freeman had a visit from Miss Cora Elliott, who is home from the Mission field, India. Mrs. Morrison is leaving Lawrencetown to reside in Waterville. Mr. Charles Balcom, who spent some time at the old home, has charge of the wall paper department of T. Eaton & Co., Toronto.

Mr. Elmer McGill seems to be doing very well in his business at the new market. Rev. Mr. McIntosh spent a day in town, the guest of Dr. J. B. and Mrs. Hall.

Friday evening a pleasant meeting was held in the Methodist vestry. A good many attended, but illness prevented. (Continued on Page Four.)

SYDNEY MACNEIL LOST HIS JOB

Dismissal of Employee Who Caused Strike at Sydney is Confirmed.

Sydney.—The discharge of Sydney MacNeil, which caused the steel strike here last week, has been confirmed in a statement handed down by General Superintendent W. H. Bischoff, of Besco.

By the terms settlement, the affair was to be investigated, and if MacNeil was found guilty he was to be discharged, if exonerated he was to be reinstated. After an investigation lasting two days, Mr. Bischoff finds as follows:

"After carefully considering the evidence given in connection with the investigation of the dismissal of Sydney MacNeil, I have come to the conclusion that the Superintendent was justified in discharging him on Tuesday, February 12th. It is, perhaps, needless to give in detail the various reasons which justified MacNeil's dismissal. His conduct was insubordinate to such a degree as to render his immediate dismissal unavoidable. It is sufficient for me to state that MacNeil willfully and improperly disobeyed the lawful and reasonable orders of his superintendent, that he ceased work without any good and sufficient reason, that he improperly stopped his machine without any orders from his foreman or superintendent, and without other sufficient excuse, and that he won about the shop advising other workmen to quit work. I also think that the evidence justifies me in concluding that MacNeil used offensive and insulting language to his superintendent. I confirm MacNeil's discharge."

General Superintendent.

NEW SOMERVILLE LAWYER

Robie E. Kempton is to be Admitted to Bar March 16th.

Robie E. Kempton, of 191 Love's Street, Somerville, has been notified by the Bar Examiners that he has qualified as an attorney, and will be admitted to the bar March 16th.

Mr. Kempton was educated in the grammar and high schools of Nova Scotia, and later attended the Ontario Business College at Belleville, Ont. Afterwards he came to Cambridge, Mass., and became a conductor for the Boston Elevated Railway Company. From the cars he was promoted to the Claim Department of the road, where he remained for nine years. He was the youngest court assistant ever assigned to their trial counsel by the "L." He assisted F. J. W. Fosdick, W. G. Thompson, F. J. Carney, W. R. Evans, Walter Shuebruk, H. D. McClellan, P. F. Drew, and others of the legal staff.

In September, 1918, Mr. Kempton resigned from the "L." Claim Department to take a position with the Fidelity and Casualty Company, of New York, and since that time has worked as an adjuster, court assistant, and spare examiner for that company, working from their Providence, Hartford and Boston offices.

Mr. Kempton is a Republican, and a member of the Middlesex Sportsmen's Association, the Everett Gun Club, the National Rifle Association, the Commercial Travelers Association, of Utica, N. Y., and the Spring Hill Men's Club. He attended North-western University, from which he received a L.L.B.—Somerville Journal—graduated in June, 1922, with the honor.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Leander S. Elliott.

At one time nearly every village in Ontario had its weekly paper but the best of them have since been swept away. At one time, when living was cheap and life simple, a printer with a handpress, a few fonts of type and some strong party prejudices, would team his chattels, into a village, consult local partisans, and bring out a weekly journal that delighted the heart of the villagers and farmers who belonged to his political party, and was supposed to spread terror among political opponents even as far away as Toronto and Ottawa. The local merchants were expected to take advertising space in the local paper to help it along, and that they had no real belief in advertising was shown by the way they failed to change copy for six months at a time. But somehow or other the local paper used to struggle along, and the editor got a great deal of satisfaction out of life and the hot encounters he had with his hated contemporaries. It costs money nowadays to issue even the smallest kind of a newspaper, and the larger it is the costlier. Paper, ink, type, postage, labor, cost double what they did a few years ago, and no local paper can be expected to succeed unless every local activity pays it for the publicity which it is supposed to give all local doings. A local paper can't haul a ton along unless it secures enough income to pay for the gasoline that will keep its engine going. (Toronto Star.)

THE LOCAL PAPER

Canada's next House of Commons will consist of 245 members, an increase of ten over the present representation. Last week Premier King presented the long awaited re-distribution bill. Under its provisions—passed in turn on the 1921 census—the Maritime Provinces lose two members, both in Nova Scotia—the Prairie Provinces gain 11—four going to Alberta, five to Saskatchewan and two to Manitoba, and British Columbia gains one. The other provinces remain as at present as does the representation of Yukon Territory. The net increase in representation for the whole Dominion is therefore ten.

As was the case in the last two re-distributions, the bill will be referred to a special committee, composed of members of the three parties, to work out the limits of constituencies.

3700 steel workers went back to work at the mills of Besco at Sydney, N. S., Monday.

RE-DISTRIBUTION CUTS DOWN REPRESENTATION OF NOVA SCOTIA BY TWO

Canada's next House of Commons will consist of 245 members, an increase of ten over the present representation. Last week Premier King presented the long awaited re-distribution bill. Under its provisions—passed in turn on the 1921 census—the Maritime Provinces lose two members, both in Nova Scotia—the Prairie Provinces gain 11—four going to Alberta, five to Saskatchewan and two to Manitoba, and British Columbia gains one. The other provinces remain as at present as does the representation of Yukon Territory. The net increase in representation for the whole Dominion is therefore ten.

As was the case in the last two re-distributions, the bill will be referred to a special committee, composed of members of the three parties, to work out the limits of constituencies.

Some Orchard Secrets

You cannot expect results if you neglect your orchard. It has to be cared for, and it is a confining business. It takes attention.

Just what attention means in the way of results was emphasized in an orchard I recently visited. Did you ever visit a Ben Davis orchard with hardly a tree missing because of blight or canker? I had not, for a long time, until a neighbor took me thru that first orchard. The trees were far enough apart to leave elbow room, and as for crop, it could hardly be beaten. About all the trees had their branches braced. Under one tree I counted eleven bracing the heavily loaded branches. Here the trees were kept growing vigorously, with cultivation and proper cover crops. The spraying prevented insects and fungous disease from weakening the tree, and the pruning nipped any budding canker before it could get a fair start.

Avoid planting too thickly, is the gist of another piece of advice from the grower. He told of an orchard planted too thickly and never thinned. It was absolutely gone to pot and for only one reason. The trees were never thinned out.

There are several things which the home orchardist should remember. The first is the choice of varieties, and in this you can well be governed by your experiment station.

The second thing is spraying—and you'll have to spray to get clean fruit, your spraying must be thorough. You can get along with three or four sprays, but you must spray. Again because of local conditions, your experiment station can give you the information you desire.

Conserve moisture. Cultivate, keep the weeds down. Your apple trees are a crop in the same sense as corn, only the apples are a perennial, and live from year to year. Prune the trees and keep the dead, diseased, and interfering branches out.

Finally, don't be afraid to ask questions. I believe that my neighbor knows more about apple trees than most any one in his county but do you know what he said? He said: "When I started in there were a lot of things I didn't know, and there still are. But I have put questions to the experts at the college and experimental station and I have tried to keep in touch with progress in orchard management as well as in other lines of farming. I have tried to learn the reason why as well as how. We have experimented and adapted methods to our own particular needs. But when we didn't know about something we found out from someone whose business it is to know, and who knows."

There you are; if you are interested enough to like your orchard, if you are interested enough to take an orchard problem to some one who knows if you don't know yourself, let me assure you, your home orchard will do as much for you in proportion to its size as the orchard here referred to did for its owners.

BROKEN DISHES

A good lady of New Glasgow, who is practical as well, has found a sure cure for broken dishes. It is this:—If the dish to be mended can be tied together with a stout string then place it in boiling milk and left one hour, you can never tell the dish had been broken, and it can afterwards be put in boiling water without the pieces coming apart. This experiment has been tried and proven, and many broken dishes made as good as new.

THE TELEPHONE OPERATORS

Telephone service has become a commonplace, so much a matter of course, that telephone users infrequently think of the nervous strain of the human force that keeps it in operation. The operators are hidden from us. We seldom see them face to face. We talk every day with those whom we would not recognize on the street. So we regard telephone service as mechanical and impersonal.

There is, however, a personal side to it, and the rector of St. Luke's Church at Evanston, Ill., has paid this tribute to those who conduct it: "Number, please." Uncrowned heroes of patience, gentleness, courtesy—these are our telephone operators. To sit for hours says "Number, please" in a pleasant voice, to give that soft answer which turneth away wrath; to suffer fools gladly when they hawl a number in your ear or put the baby at the mouthpiece to hear the baby blabber; to say, quietly, "No party on your line now," knowing the receiver will be slammed at you; to be yelled at, howled at, denounced or derided, and yet to remember all ways that you are a public servant and never to lose your temper—some job!"

PORT LORNE

It is with regret we announce the passing away of Mrs. Janet Sabean, which took place on Tuesday morning, Feb. 20th. Mrs. Sabean has been in failing health for some time, but not until the early part of Winter was it known that her disease was that which doctors and kind care could not cure. She leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate wife and mother, her husband, Mr. Isaiah Sabean, one son Larry, and two daughters, Mrs. Stephen Neaves and Mrs. Howard Neaves, all of Port Lorne, and Mrs. Everett Sullivan, of Nutby, Colchester Co.; a stepdaughter, Mrs. William Long, of Alston, Mass.; two sisters, Mrs. George Snow of Hampton, Mrs. Robert Neaves at present in St. John, Mr. Lewis Sabean, Port Lorne; Mr. William and Mr. Adelbert Sabean in the United States are brothers.

Mr. Sabean and family have the sympathy of many friends.

FRENCH TO EXPEL GERMAN OFFICIALS

Dusseldorf.—The French, determined to rid the Rhineland and the Ruhr of German officials who are suspected of being trouble makers, have announced the expulsion of numerous officials from various parts of the occupied territory. The German people and their newspapers declare that French measures antagonistic to the populace would only serve to increase the resistance and bolster up the German cause. The more expulsions, they say, the greater they determine to stick it out.

The latest official to be expelled is Burgomaster Kotten, of Dusseldorf, who was escorted by French soldiers into unoccupied territory. He was ousted because of his refusal to carry out General Degoutte's orders, and publish his proclamations.

RUSSIA DECLARES WAR ON BOOTLEGGERS

Moscow.—The Russian Government declared war on bootleggers and man-hunters of illicit "shoch" and the campaign duplicating in many of its scenes the situation in some of the cities of Canada's dry provinces. The sale of wines and beers is legal in Russia, but the soviet regime has continued the war policy established in 1915, of banning vodka and other stronger intoxicants.

These now are being made in huge quantities illicitly and nearly every one of Moscow's newly rich has his private source of supply.

THE STEADY SUBSCRIBER

How dear to our hearts, is the steady subscriber, Who pays in advance at the birth of each year, Who lays down the money and does it quite gladly, And casts 'round the office a halo of cheer.

NOVEMBER SLAUGHTER OF DEER IN QUEBEC

A recent issue of the Amherst News has a story and deer are being slaughtered on a wholesale pan throughout the country. This was the assertion made to the News this morning by a citizen of Amherst who has been tramping through the various sporting sections of the country.

Scores of deer, does and yearlings have been killed off, those have been shot and their parts laid the deep, untrampled snow, and slain indiscriminately with axe and rifle in different parts of the country. These activities are not regarded as sacred. Deer meat and moose meat, it is alleged, can be secured on request. It is also rumored that small parties are following the first fall of the snow, laid in their winter's supply of "beef" by locating moose pits and killing the occupants. Moose and deer, with the snow between three and five feet deep on the level in the woods, have little opportunity of escaping from attackers. In fact, the animals can only be forced into the deep snow by persistent pressure. Merely to show that the animals fear the snow—a farmer who resides near the town was travelling along the Tyndale Road. He observed a moose coming toward him, but thought that the animal would back off the road and permit him to pass with his tandem team. Instead, the moose crowded the first horse off into the snow and then pressed close upon the second horse. Only when the driver hit the moose across the neck with an axe handle, did the big beast plunge awkwardly into the snow and remain there while the team went past.

Near Port Greville, on the Parrisho Shore, it has been alleged that sixteen deer were killed by one man this Winter, while at another point on the Shore, it has been remarked that a full score has been slaughtered. At other points through the County, scores of the animals have been killed. In the Cobeguidis, moose and deer have been pursued and shot when founded in the snow.

There is no trouble for the man equipped with snowshoes to make a kill. He has only to start a moose or deer, drive it from the yard into the deep snow, until it loses all energy.

There will also be a dearth of partridge in the Spring months. These game birds, instead of roosting in the trees during the Winter months, plunge into the snow, and using wings and feet burrow well into the drifts. But a sharp thaw and a freeze, with the resultant formation of a crust, keeps the birds prisoners until they die from starvation. As one sportsman said to the News: "A close season will be necessary for the next two years to restore the partridge to its old time status."

BOARD OF TRADE OF KENTVILLE MEETS

Kentville.—At the monthly meeting of the Board of Trade, George E. Graham gave a report of the Library Committee, showing a membership of 176; books, 1219, of which 119 volumes were fiction. The receipts totalled $1,169.78, with an expenditure of $1,169.25, leaving a balance on hand of $60.53. The report was adopted.

Mr. Graham also spoke in favor of a publicity campaign for the purpose of inducing tourists to this Province. In 1922 59,600 people came through the Vermont gateway to Nova Scotia. He had conversed with different officials of the Government in regard to this matter, as well as with others, and it was deemed advisable to seek the co-operation of the people of Nova Scotia.

FORTUNES QUICKLY MADE AND LOST IN BIG SHIPPING BOOM

Cardiff.—Cardiff, one of the chief coal-exporting ports of England, may truly be said to be a city of lost millionaires.

A tragic price is now being paid in that city and in South Wales generally for the wild riot of speculation and extravagance during the shipping boom in this country, that followed the armistice, when companies and capital values sprung up in a night, issues were subscribed several times over before they were announced. Men rose to fame and fortune almost in a week. Hundreds of pounds were turned into thousands, and Cardiff rose in a great golden bubble.

But the bubble, as was inevitable has now burst. Something like half the pre-war shipping companies have crashed to irremediable disaster, while others just hang on desperately.

Men who two years ago owned half a dozen motor cars now walk, for cars, estates, houses, horses and furniture have been sold in the efforts to avert disaster.

Self-made millionaires who, for a brief period kept up vast establishments, with small armies of servants, now live in lodgings, and in case after case lavish display has given place to a poverty, that is all the more bitter by contrast.

The poorer classes also have suffered. When the enormous war demand was made for ships everyone rushed to speculate with money that in many cases represented life savings.

Now it is gone, and thousands of minor tragedies are being played out under the smaller roofs of Cardiff. Many of the older and sounder companies have weathered the storm, but it is stated that even they are threatened with possible bankruptcy by German competition.

PURSE OF $150 GOLD FOR REV. D. J. NELLY Wife of Medford Pastor Also Receives Gifts.

Medford.—Rev. Denton J. Nelly, pastor of the First Baptist Church on Oakland Street, Medford Centre, for five years, was surprised recently at the close of the service and presented a purse of $150 in gold and a pair of field glasses in connection with the observance of the 50th anniversary of his pastorate. Mrs. Nelly was presented a basket of flowers and a gold bar pin, in the gift of the members of the church and Sunday School.

The presentation of the purse was made by James A. Bovey on behalf of the congregation. Dorothy Pinkham, aged nine, presented the basket of flowers, and her twin brother, Richard, presented the field glasses. Rev. Mr. Nelly expressed his appreciation of the gifts for himself and his wife.

His subject at the evening service was "The Great Dramas of Modern and Ancient Life." William Simons led the large chorus. Rev. Mr. Nelly referred to above is a son of Mrs. H. S. Nelly and brother of Mrs. Burpee Chute, of this town. Both he and Mrs. Nelly have hosts of friends in Annapolis and Digby Counties who will be pleased to learn of this tribute to the esteem in which they are held by their congregation in Medford.—(Ed. ST. CROIX COVE

Mr. Basil Hills and Clyde Marshall left on Friday, the 2nd, for Boston. Master Frank Hall, of Central Clarence, spent last week with his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hall, of Central Clarence, visited his parents, the 11th.

Miss Eunice Britton, of Paradise, spent the week-end at the home of her parents. Miss Alice Beardsley has returned home after spending a few weeks in Port Lorne at the home of Mrs. Charles Beardsley.

Mr. and Mrs. Israel Banks, of Port Lorne, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Zachary Hall. On Thursday evening, Feb. 23, a goodly number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hall met at their home and gave them a surprise, the occasion being the Deacon's 70th birthday anniversary. A good time was spent in talking over bye-gone days. The musical part of the company enjoyed a good sing, after which a bountiful lunch of cakes, pies and tea was served by the ladies. At the close of the evening some of the ladies proposed giving the Deacon a thrashing. The challenge was accepted. Result—Deacon the winner, proving to the onlookers that although three score and ten it requires more than two ordinary women to handle him. After extending congratulations and wishing him many more anniversaries, the company departed for their homes.

JOURNALISTIC AMENITIES

The London Free Press says: A St. John's girl has been chosen as Miss Canada. Which is about the first time since Noah built the ark that St. John has earned a position on the front page.
At the present time more than a hundred of the world's best skaters are here in St. John to compete in championship events. There is not a London representative among them. Many times in recent years St. John skaters have been the front in Canadian and international skating championships and for two successive years a St. John oarsman has journeyed to Ontario and brought home the Canadian sculling championships. If London has had a representative in any of these contests the fact is not remembered by reason of any honors won. Neither is it remembered that in any other way or for any other achievement London has secured a "first" page or first place distinction justifying it either to crow or to sneer at St. John—St. John Globe.

MORE ESSAY PRIZES

Frank J. D. Barnum, who recently distributed five thousand dollars in prizes on Forest Conservation, now announces two series of three prizes each, totalling two thousand dollars, for the most convincing essays in English and French in favor of prohibiting the export of unmanufactured Canadian wood. There are to be three prizes for each language. The subject of raw material is a subject calling for careful study. Mr. Barnum's recent offer to purchase and turn into a public preserve a large stand of virgin cedar is another very convincing proof of the serious interest of Mr. Barnum in forest preservation. His effort to arouse a Canadian interest which will free our legislative bodies to realize how near to depletion our forests are, is worthy a support that will bring results. An asset of inestimable value for all time to come will be wiped out within the life time of the present generation unless heed is paid to the advice of the lumberman turned prophet and philanthropist.

KEEP IT PURE

English as she is spoke today is but a mixture as it is, it will be argued. But what a mixture, and what a glorious whole as our writers and poets have used it. It would be a thousand pities to have it poisoned with a general admixture of frothy expression. Perfect diction is, after all, more or less a matter of careful attention to small details, and while no sensible man would press for the Oxford accent or university exactitude at all times, England defied with slang is not a desirable objective, and should be eliminated from our growing generation so far as is compatible with reason and the ab-

BALDNESS AND WAR

The Saskatoon Star remarks that the theatre audience no longer shows shining rows of bald heads, long the objects of the darts of cartoonists and humorists. A dermatologist says that Frenchmen are no longer getting bald at forty, and he attributes the change to the war, because soldiers worked more and travelled and lived in different climates, thus stirring up the sluggish blood. It seems rather hard that in order to preserve the hair it is necessary to risk the head. The price is too high to pay for a covering which few men prize very highly as an adornment.

But if the impression gains ground that baldness is due to sluggish circulation and can be prevented by careful dieting and abundant exercise the human race will receive benefits greater than the preservation of the hair. Men can have all the blessings of soldiering with none of the drawbacks.—(Toronto Globe.)

HIGHER EDUCATION

The following from the Montreal "Gazette" is respectfully submitted to the Superintendent of Education for Nova Scotia. That gentleman has had a long experience in educational matters, and his opinion in connection with the question, "Should not the plan of educating the masses be revised?" would be of great value:

"We have always been higher education mad," said Dr. Lansing Lewis at a recent meeting of the St. James' Literary Society, in the course of a very able dissertation on the question, "Should not the plan of educating the masses be revised?" Sixty years ago, a well-known educationist described the state of the middle class female education as "deplorable." The evidence in fact at that time was clear that the girls' school of the period were inferior to the boys' schools. But in the interim it can fairly be claimed that all this has changed and that the local education authorities in this Dominion have little to fear from criticism of a kindred nature. The movement for the higher education of women derives much of its force from the faith in and the claim to sexual equality. Women have certainly achieved great things. Their work has enriched national life with a growing volume of energy and intellectual force. In every department of activity—industrial, commercial, political, scientific—we owe much to the service of educated women. There is considerable diversity of opinion between the capacity of boys and girls in different subjects.

Girls, we are told, show equal or superior originality and capacity in English, literature, history, modern languages, and possibly the biological sciences, but are inferior to boys in ancient languages, especially Latin, in mathematics, and in those branches of natural science "which especially require a knowledge of mathematics." But the physical history of a girl is secure the same as that of a boy. After much medical and psychological testing it has been suggested that girls are on the whole less strong than boys, being more inclined to nervous strain and more liable to fatigue. Teachers and examiners have warned that girls worry more than boys. If that is so, then differentiation is necessary. If you give a girl too much to do at school she breaks down; if you give a boy too much to do he doesn't do it. But neither should be given too much to do, although there is general agreement that the average boy possesses a large amount of physical and mental energy which enables him as a rule to surpass girls of his own age. But how is woman to make good her footing in all the professions which have opened their doors to her? How is she to win more important positions? How, in a word, is she to earn her livelihood in a competitive world if her education is not identical with that of a man?

If the current curriculum is to be revised, the standard of education for males and females should be laid out under similar lines. There are many advocates of the present school system, as well as those who are of a contrary opinion. This evil or injustice that women suffer nowadays under existing educational circumstances must be infinitesimal in comparison with their brothers. A woman and a man, for example, entering the medical profession of to-day are not necessarily trained in the same subjects at school. It is fully recognized that the vast majority of the girls in the schools must, for a period at least, earn their own living outside their homes, and have, therefore, to be prepared not only for domestic life, but for business or professional work. The claim to equality of education as the corollary of the equality of the sexes is adequately answered by the evidence of those large employers of labor who are specifically clear in their demands for business assistants in what they require is for the schools to cultivate children's intelligence and not to impart special information or teach particular subjects. Development of capacity, if we may say so, is, after all, the surest means to attaining an individual economic value.—Acadian Recorder.

HIGHLY TRAINED SMALL UNITS, IS THE REQUIREMENT

Ottawa.—Small units highly trained was the need of Canada at the present moment of much needed economy, declared His Excellency, the Governor General, at the annual meeting of the Canadian Artillery Association here. His Excellency, who was introduced briefly by Brig. General C. H. MacLaren, President of the Association, said that the apparent apathy on the part of those who conducted the affairs of the Dominion did not mean that they did not wish the artillery and other military associations well. It was perfectly natural that immediately after a war when the high note of economy was being sounded that military appropriations should be cut down.

The same condition, said His Excellency, existed in Great Britain. The government, he said, did not want large units which they had only sufficient funds to partially train; but rather highly trained small units.

THE CASE FOR THE WEEKLY NEWSPAPER

Canada is well-served by more than 1000 weekly newspapers, each with its own field and sphere of influence. These progressive local papers occupy a position and serve a purpose of the country quite distinct from the metropolitan daily papers or a national farm journal such as The Family Herald and Weekly Star.

Fortunate indeed is the community—whether it be a small hamlet or entire county—that is represented by its own newspaper. The local newspaper tends to knit together all the elements in its field. It serves as a reinforcing material in the social structure of a community. If the local weekly newspapers of Canada are to fulfill their proper mission and be real live assets in the development of their respective constituencies, they need the moral and practical support of every citizen. Ask the publisher and he will agree that the most practical method of demonstrating your appreciation is to send in a year's subscription to the local paper when you also renew your order for The Family Herald and Weekly Star.

5,000 FACTS ABOUT CANADA

A popular and handy annual is the "5,000 Facts about Canada" issued for twenty years by Frank Yeigh, the well known Canadian writer and lecturer. The 1923 edition is now out and contains many additions and improvements, including a valuable map of the natural resources of the Dominion. The booklet is a wonderful compilation in brief of the story of the Dominion under fifty subjects, ranging from "Agriculture" to "The West" and "The Yukon" and is indispensable to any educated and intelligent Canadian who wants to keep up to date about his country, or who wishes to advertise it by sending copies away, as many do, while it is widely used in schools. Leading newsdealers keep the book in stock or it may be had by sending 20 cents for a copy to the Canadian Facts Pub. Co., 588 Huron St., Toronto.

Bed Ridden From Neuritis, Toronto Woman Takes Tanlac and Now Restored

Mrs. Ada Daniels, 29 First Ave., Toronto, Ont., reports a gain of sixteen pounds in weight and relates an experience with Tanlac that will be of interest throughout Canada.

"Before I got Tanlac," says her statement, "I had lost fifteen pounds and was down in bed suffering unmercifully. Neuritis had affected my whole system so awfully that I could scarcely move a muscle in my body. I had no appetite, and suffered such agony from heart palpitation and gas on the stomach that I had to prop myself up in bed at times in order to get my breath. I was just racked with pain and misery, and my nerves were so shattered that many nights I couldn't sleep a wink.

"Tanlac has rid me of rheumatism two years previous, so I took the treatment again, and have gained sixteen pounds and feel as fine as I ever did in my life. Tanlac has done me so much good I can't resist telling everyone I can about it."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Over 35-million bottles sold.

SUCCESSFUL EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN AT LAWRENCETOWN

Evangelist Gipsy John Hawkins, Mrs. Hawkins and Miss Winnifred Gould, Gospel soloist, left Lawrencetown on Friday, Feb. 16th, after a very successful series of evangelistic services conducted in the Baptist Church. Each meeting was largely attended, the interest was sustained to the close. Many received new visions of duty and of their relation to God and their fellow men, and much lasting good has come as a result to the community.

The farewell service was unusually impressive. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather conditions, the Baptist vestry was packed, several being compelled to stand. A pleasing feature of this closing service was the presentation of dedication cards to the new converts by Mrs. Hawkins. All who heard Evangelist Hawkins were pleased with his sane methods won by his attractive personality, and inspired by the sincerity and earnestness of his manner. Mrs. Hawkins and Miss Gould also made many friends, the Gospel songs sung by Miss Gould aiding much to make effective the appeals of the Evangelist. The services in the Baptist Church since the special campaign closed have been largely attended and have been characterized by deep interest large led loads of young people coming in from the outside sections.
Pastor Whitman and his workers are being much encouraged in their efforts to build up the cause of righteousness in the church and community.

OLDEST RULER HAS PASSED ON

King Khama, Near the Century Mark Was a Real Reformer!

London.—King Khama, the oldest sovereign in the world and one of its pioneer prohibitionists as well, is dead at Serowe, Bechuanaland. His exact age is unknown, but he is believed to have been near 100.

Early in his reign, King Khama proclaimed religious freedom for heathens and Christians alike and introduced many reforms, abolishing witchcraft and the practices of selling women as cattle and burying live babies and dead mothers.

While Khama was still a young man, the Matabele tribe under the notorious Lobengula conquered him and enslaved his people. Later, however, the Bamangwato, under Khama's leadership regained their independence and since that time have waxed strong and prosperous until they now total 55,000.

Khama was always friendly to the British and visited Queen Victoria in London in 1895.

Mrs. Mary Vroom has returned from Windsor. Miss Lottie Sullis, of Annapolis Royal, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Sullis, last week. Glad to report Mrs. Jane Hoyt much improved in health. Mrs. Roderick Cress and little son Avery, are spending a fortnight in Kentville, where Mr. Cress is a patient at the Sanatorium. Mr. Harry Vroom returned from Halifax last week. Messrs. J. C. W. Dittmars and Frank Dittmars went to St. John Monday, 19th, on a business trip, returning Wednesday. Mrs. J. D. Spurr passed through here Friday, 16th, en route to Annapolis Royal from New York. On Wednesday afternoon Mr. L. E. Sherman entertained the Dorcas Society in a most delightful way. It might well have been called "Babies' afternoon" for all the mothers and twenty members and ten babies were present. An attractive picture was indeed, as all gathered in the spacious living room around the open fire, the babies playing while the mothers and friends did society work and discussed the recent accomplishments of the tiny tots. At the close of the afternoon tea was served by the hostess and before the guests left for their homes, a cordial vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Sherman for the happy afternoon.

Local Happenings

Every Rebekah is specially urged to attend the meeting of the Order on Monday evening, March 5th.

The monthly meeting of the W. M. A. S. of the Baptist Church, will meet at the home of Mrs. E. C. Young Tuesday afternoon, March 6th, at 3 o'clock.

Mr. William Slaunwhite was painfully but not seriously injured last week while felling a large tree on East Granville Street. A branch of the tree in its descent struck him, scratching his face and inflicting a number of bodily injuries.

B. C. Goodwin, of Granville, Annapolis County, was in Berwick on business for a couple of days last week. Mr. Goodwin is a contractor and builder, well and favorably known here, having built the Union Church at Woodville, and several buildings in Berwick and vicinity.—Register.

At the evening service in St. James' Church, next Sunday, the rector will pay his tribute to the memory of the late Capt. Longmire. Immediately after the service a meeting of the Parishioners will be held to elect a successor to the Captain in the office of Church Warden, a position he held for many years.

The Women's Institute invites the ladies of Bridgetown and vicinity to a meeting in the Board of Trade room, Thursday, March 1st, at three o'clock. Mr. Humphrey, of Graves & Co., will be present and will demonstrate cooking with the different products made from apples. As this will be very interesting to the ladies, we would ask for a good attendance.

Show conditions have been a bad blow to the horse racing game this Winter, but the various promoters are hoping for the best and expect to pull off some good contests yet. On Saturday there was a slight brush not quite a real race, but at least a good work out. Harry Annis had "Cuzzing Bingen" on the ice. Kenneth Hebb was there with "Nancy", Arthur Marshall with "Cormorack" and Elias Ramey with "George I". The first and last named horses we understand appeared to have the best of the argument. At the conclusion Mr. Ramey gave an exhibition with his latest acquired horse, the well known "Crown J".

Chief Bishop, after a toilsome journey through snow banks and partly broken roads, captured one Durling of Annapolis on a delicate charge preferred against him by a dusky damsel of that locality. The accused made his way to Annapolis County and secured work. A description of him was forwarded the Chief by the Kentville police authorities and this resulted in his undoing. He was held here till an officer from Kentville arrived to take him back. After preliminary hearing he was committed to stand trial at next session of Supreme Court and placed in jail. Three days ago it was found that the bird had made his escape. Episodes of that kind in Kentville jail do not cause much of a ripple on the tide. They have happened before.

On Friday night last the final heat of the mile open race was run off in Bridgetown rink. There were four contestants, Harry Walker, Frank Durling, Bennie Poole and Eugene Poole. The race was keenly fought out. Bennie Poole had the misfortune to have a fall or two which put him out of the running. Harry Walker was ahead slightly at the end of the fourteenth lap, but through an error the race continued another lap or so with Frank Durling then ahead. The race under these circumstances was awarded to Mr. Walker. Arrangements were made for another race in which Bennie will endeavor to secure honors and the two will have a final and finally deciding heat to settle who is the best speed king.

Mr. Lyall Salter, Accountant in the United Fruit Co.'s head office at Kentville, was operated upon in Halifax several days ago for appendicitis but later peritonitis developed. His parents, Capt. Salter and Mrs. Salter both proceeded to Halifax, his condition being considered very serious at time of writing.

Mrs. Ann Chase, while on a visit last week to Rev. and Mrs. McFall, of Somerset, had the misfortune to slip and falling fractured her hip. She was brought to Bridgetown and taken to the residence of her niece, Mrs. R. W. Donaldson, with whom she has been residing where she is doing as favorably as could be expected, the injury being a severe one.

By walking from Tormentine to Cape Traverse, via the ice-ronite across the Northumberland Strait, Messrs. Warren Allen and Prindman Allen, of Tormentine, on Sunday accomplished a feat that has not been done in the past thirty years. This is a distance of some nine miles. Considerable trouble has been experienced this Winter with the ice, but the car-ferry has been making her trips with varying regularity.—Sackville Tribune.

ENGLISH AS IT IS SPELLED

A stranger in our land was he; He tried to learn our spelling. He thought it would be easy he, As buying or as selling.

He tried to write, but couldn't quite learn when to write or right. He couldn't tell just where he stood. When using food or wood or shod. He had to stand a lot of chaffing. Then other things confused him so, As doe and dough and roe and row, And mafe and maff and gaff and saff, And many more that turned him pale. Said he, "I left my wife and daughter in other lands across the waughter, I wanted much to bring them here, But they will have to stay, I fear, And I must leave you." With a sigh He added, "Else I'll sigh."

"THE PORT OF GLORY"

—O—

Come all you able seamen,
That plough the raging main,
Come tell me what king you've got,
And what's your captain's name.
My God, He is my King,
And is my Captain, too;
He shipped me aboard the Gospel Ship,
And made me one of the crew.

The ship has got an anchor.
That's cast within the vale.
The ship has got an anchor
That will ride out all the gale.
The cable it is tested,
By the captain, you might know
She's bound to the port of Glory
Let the wind blow high or low.

Now when you make the harbor,
The city you shall know,
You get a command from the Captain
To let the anchor go.
Oh! the Port of Glory,
We've got here at last,
Oh! the Port of Glory,
It is the sailor's rest.

I've sailed across the ocean,
And reached the other shore
I've found the heavenly city
Where the people die no more.
Oh, my Heavenly Captain
That has kept me in His fear,
Prepared me for the heavenly city
By making me holy here.

When I leave this world below
I leave it forever more,
And when I sight the land across,
It will be the golden shore.

(The above lines were composed and committed to memory by Mr. Thomas Alcorn, an aged gentleman then residing in Bear River, but long passed to his reward. The verses were made up one after another and were never written on paper until the whole were completed. The above Mr. Alcorn was grandfather to Mrs. R. F. Connel, Sr., of this town.

MARCH ROD AND GUN

The March issue of "Rod and Gun in Canada", the well known Canadian sportsmen's magazine of the out of doors, contains many attractive features and abounds in stories and articles that are sure to please. "In the Canadian Alps" by Campbell J. Lewis, is a breezy, interesting article, while "Euryvostic" Dale's article, "Spunging the Luncheoner" is worthy of special mention. Harry M. Moore, whose work is popular with Rod and Gun readers, is among the writers who contribute red-blooded stories. H. Morfimer Batten is another. C. S. Landis and Robert Page Lincoln are at their best in their departments, Guns and Ammunition and Fishing Notes, respectively, while the other departments and features contain splendid features of outstanding quality. The magazine is illustrated profusely throughout, and, in every way, the March issue is one that no one will want to miss.

Rod and Gun in Canada is published monthly at Woodstock, Ontario, by W. J. Taylor, Limited.

THE SPIRIT OF UNIONISM

During the past couple of weeks a gent with a hooked nose and a cracked voice has been quietly spreading propaganda against this paper, stating that the shop was non-union and his staff a bunch of scabs. Some people entertain the idea that to belong to a union qualifies a man to lay claim to being a trades-unionist. This is far from the truth. A union man, built from the ground up, does not carry his union principles on his arm, making it known to the world. In his everyday life he practices these principles. Only recently we said that the worst scab we know of is the man who carries a perfectly clean union card in a sweatshop made suit of clothes.—Cranbrook-B.B.—Courier.

To Consider Himself Dead

Mr. L., a good-natured German, was the proprietor of a clothing business in a country town. He had in his employ one John S., whom he had advanced from cash boy to head clerk. Since his promotion John had several times asked for an increase of salary, and each time his request had been granted. One morning he again appeared at the old man's desk with another request for an increase of $10 per month.

"Vy, Shon," said Mr. L., "I tink I pays you pooty vell shretty; vat for I pays you any more?"

"Well," replied John, confidentially, "I am your principal help here. I know every detail of the business, and, indeed, I think that you could not get along without me."

"Is dot so?" Vy, Shon, yet would I do suppose you vas to die?"

"Well, I suppose you would have to get along without me then."

The old Teuton took several whiffs from his big pipe and finally said:—"Vell, Shon, I gues you petter consider yourself dead."

Stormy Weather Hard on Baby

The stormy, misty weather which we have during February and March is extremely hard on children. Conditions make it necessary for the mother to keep them in the house. They are often confined to overheated, badly ventilated rooms and catch colds which rack their whole system. To guard against this a box of Baby's Own Tablets should be kept in the house and an occasional dose given the baby to keep its stomach and bowels working regularly. This will not fail to break up colds and keep the health of the baby in good condition till the brighter days come along. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

What's the Difference?

One day a lady painted her doorstep and put up a notice on the door which ran as follows: "Please don't step on the new paint." An old man whose eye-sight was not very good saw the notice, and placed both of his hands on the steps so to get a good view of it, to read it. Nuf sed.

Fair Play For Nova Scotia

The recent great Imperial Fruit Show in London demonstrated the fact that Canada can produce the very finest apples in the world. This alone should have been sufficient source of pride and satisfaction to all Canadians with the interest of their country at heart. But some have their province at heart before their country, and instead of national pride there has appeared sectional boasting that has caused some bitterness of feeling between two of the three principal apple-growing regions in the Dominion.

Nova Scotia and Ontario were the chief prize-winners in the Imperial show. Ontario won 19 prizes and Nova Scotia three. On the face of it, this would indicate that Ontario "swept all before her", and to foster this impression the Ontario government, it is claimed by Nova Scotia, has allowed the apparent superiority of this province to be published broadcast without explaining the true situation. As a matter of fact—and on this point impartial authorities agree—Nova Scotia had much the better exhibit of apples.

Eager to see justice done, the Halifax Chronicle recently composed a two column philippic against Ontario in which subjects other than apples were touched upon. But the arguments of the Chronicle seem sound and the facts need calling to public attention. First of all the Maritime newspaper complains of a statement issued by the Ontario government and published in Toronto, in which it is said that Ontario apples competed with apples from all parts of the Empire and "won eleven firsts, nine seconds and one third, two other apple-growing provinces of Canada won three firsts and two firsts respectively. These figures speak for themselves as to the quality of the Ontario product."

But, according to Nova Scotia, the figures simply do not speak for themselves. The facts are that there were two sections in which Canadian fruit-growers competed. One was the British Empire section of two classes, the first for the best exhibit of twenty boxes of dessert apples and the second for an equal display of culinary apples. All Canada and all Britain competed in this section, and Nova Scotia won first in both classes. This was the big competition in the show. The second section was for overseas exhibitors. In this, Ontario was the big winner, and all her prizes were confined to this section.

One high agricultural official in Ottawa, who saw the show, says of the Canadian exhibits: "While the Ontario exhibit was a good one, there is no doubt at all that the Nova Scotia exhibit was very much better, although they did not gain the majority of prizes since some of their exhibits arrived rather late." The Journal of the British ministry of agriculture, in the official report of the show, devotes practically all its comments on the Canadian display to Nova Scotia. In the interval of fair play and as a protest against the sectionalism that is so blighting to Canadian national progress, it seems to The Citizen that the facts about the apples ought to be made known.—(Ottawa Citizen).

MADE QUICK RUN FROM NEW YORK

The Lunenburg schooner, "Marshal Peck", Capt. A. Geldert, was towed into port recently by the D. G. steamer Aberdeen and docked at Mayor Walker's wharf. The schooner was from New York and brought a cargo of over 500 tons of hard coal for L. E. Baker & Co.

Capt. Geldert reports that he sailed from New York at 6 o'clock on Thursday evening and at midnight on Saturday he laid the vessel to between the Yarmouth Northwest buoy and the Lurcher lightship, where the vessel remained all of Sunday, as there was not sufficient wind for Capt. Geldert to work the schooner into port. During Sunday night the wind broadened considerably and Capt. Geldert hauled the vessel off until the next morning, when he made in through the ice and into the Sound. The schooner laid there until afternoon when the Aberdeen went down, took the vessel in tow and brought the craft up to dock. Owing to the ice, the vessel, although made fast to the above wharf, laid several feet into the channel, but was moved closer into the wharf.

The weather throughout the passage was very cold and on Sunday the vessel was heavily iced. The crew was kept busy after arrival clearing the schooner of the frozen mass.—Yarmouth Herald.

BAD OUTLOOK FOR LOBSTER MEN

Ice Conditions on Western Shore Will Present Opening of Season on March First.

Yarmouth.—Lobster fishermen everywhere along these shores have grave fears for the opening of the lobster fishing season on March 1st, and are much concerned over the fact that the great masses of ice on the shore will prevent any fishing before the first of that month, and possibly it will be some days later before men in some sections will be able to put out a trap. As a consequence, the fishermen of Port Maitland and vicinity are circulating for signature a petition which they will forward to the Department of Marine and Fisheries at Ottawa, urging that the opening of the lobster fishing season for this year be postponed until March 15th, and that it be allowed to continue for three months from that date.

KENTVILLE BOARD CALLS CONFERENCE ON DEVELOPMENT

Kentville.—Important matters relative to the future development of our towns and country are being put in motion by the Board of Trade. At the Council meeting of the matter of calling a meeting of newspaper men from the Valley and outside points, including Halifax, Truro, Yarmouth, etc., together with hotel managers and representatives of the Boards of Trade in the towns and districts, was approved and arrangements made for inviting same to gather at an early date, when a publicity scheme and other important matters will be discussed. The matter of immigration of a large number of British officials, now in India, to the Maritime Provinces, received consideration and a resolution was adopted in reference to governmental action on same. This resolution will be forwarded to Boards of Trade for approval and joint action.

Catching the "Higher Ups"

At last the New York police have caught some of the "higher-ups" in the bootlegging business. The "proletarians of the trade, the little fellows who sneak from customer to customer with a case or a bottle, have been gathered in by the hundreds and fined, but nobody paid much attention to them except the police. The conviction of the four La Montagne brothers however, is a reigning sensation because they happen to be socially prominent. Rene La Montagne is an international poloist, and his brothers are members of an exclusive racquet and tennis club in New York. A newspaper report says:

The court room was crowded to overflowing with society friends, men and women, of the indicted men when the latter entered. The spectators showed nearly as much emotion as the brothers, of whom Rene, noted sportsman, seemed most moved. The eyes of all four were filled with tears. All four changed their plea from not guilty to guilty, and three were sentenced to four months in jail and fined $2,000 each, the other being given two months and fined $2,000. Their counsel quoted Nicholas Murray Butler, President of Columbia University, as saying that prohibition laws did not represent the common will, and that a violation of them was not a crime against society. Counsel for the prosecution characterized Butler, as a justifier of crime, and asked for prison sentences to check the tendency toward "alcoholic anarchy" in New York.

There would have been no emotion in court if the offenders had been of the common or garden variety of "alcoholic anarchist". Probably the majority of those who shed sympathetic tears belonged to the circles of fashionable people who have made a jest of the law in speech and practice, and have regarded themselves as being protected by their social station against the consequences. The imprisonment of some of them was an overdue and much-needed lesson. And New York is not the only place on the continent where law-breakers in high places need to be taught that they are not a bit better than the lowly bootleggers whom they patronize and despise.

LABOR MEMBERS IN BRITISH HOUSE SAY FRANCE MUST PAY G. B.

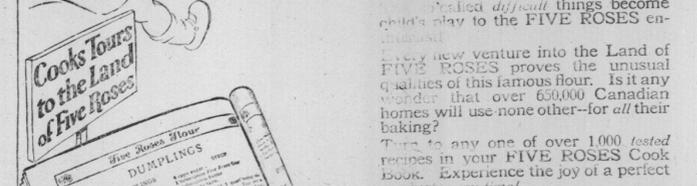

Ramsay MacDonald, one of the Chief Labor members of the House of Commons, in a speech delivered at Cardiff, said it was erroneous to suppose the Labor Party held any antagonism toward France. But, he added, if France was able to afford the expense of sending soldiers to the Ruhr, she also was able to afford to pay her debts to Great Britain. Moreover, Mr. MacDonald contended, if it was the contention of the French that Germany could pay her debts, it was a thousand fold easier for France to discharge her obligations.

UNIVERSITY OF NEW BRUNSWICK

Will Not Enter the Proposed Federation of Maritime Universities.

Fredericton, N. B.—University of New Brunswick will not enter the proposed federation of Maritime Universities it was announced by Premier P. J. Veniot here, following a meeting of the Executive Council, adjourned shortly before midnight. The announcement did not give any details but a statement of the reason for the government's decision will be issued shortly, Premier Veniot said.

The Government approved the recommendations of the University Senate, which were adverse to the conclusion of the College in a proposed federation of Maritime Universities at Halifax.

It was pointed out that inclusion in the Federation would involve the removal of the University from Fredericton and from the province of New Brunswick, by whose Government it is maintained. The Governors of Acadia University, Wolfville, recently recommended against Acadia's inclusion in the proposed federation of the United Baptist Convention of the Maritime Provinces, the final decision in the matter, however, is still pending.

Gem "Trumpet Island" Gem
 A TOM TERRIS PRODUCTION. From the Story by Gouverneur Morris
 Intensely dramatic and abounding in spectacular scenes. The climax is reached in a honeymoon airplane flight into the center of a violent thunder storm, where the machine is wrecked. The fall of the shattered airplane, and its crash into a tree on Trumpet Island, provide thrilling spectacles. There is a love story of rare charm, and the brave struggle of a man against poverty and then against the temptation which come with sudden wealth. Wild orgies in a metropolitan hotel are shown, followed by scenes on rugged and lonely Trumpet Island, to which Richard Bellied fled from vice. The shattered airplane brings Eve De Merincourt to the island.

Feeding a wringer has gone out of style
 It isn't necessary nowadays, any more than it is necessary to crank an automobile. The Laun-Dry-Ette has made wringers old-fashioned. The Laun-Dry-Ette has no wringer—and needs none. It washes the clothes, then wrings them dry for the line in one minute—a tubful at a time. Let us show you the wringerless Laun-Dry-Ette—the electric washer that both washes and dries.
