The Next Big Mining Camp in British Columbia

TO BE NEAR WHISKY POINT

Land is Now Being Cleared for the Location of a Town Site.

A Demand for Labor in the Cariboo and Lillooet Districts Next Spring—What the Journal Says—Mr. Thomas Davies of the Thunders Bay District—Saw-Bill is a Veritable Bonanza—News From Hawk Bay—Mining Notes.

The next big mining camp in British Columbia is to be near Whisky Point on the Upper Arrow Lake, about six miles above Arrowhead.

The place derives its name from the fact that near it were buried by smugglers years ago 250 barrels of whisky, the hiding place never having been discovered.

The region is said to be a good one for prospecting and development work is going ahead rapidly.

The R. M. Horne-Payne Company has commenced to clear 50 acres of land at Galena Bay, which is to be the town site for that district.

Fifty men are now at work building a road from Galena Bay to Trout Lake, and the road will be completed within the next 90 days.

WHERE TO GO NEXT YEAR.

Men should be able to get work in these districts in '97.

It is the British Columbia Mining Journal is well informed, there bids fair to be a demand for labor in the Cariboo and Lillooet districts next spring.

The Journal says:

Development work for the season of 1896 has served to materially advance the Cariboo and Lillooet mining districts.

The season of 1897 will see the opening up of some valuable mines.

At Quesselle Forks work on the Golden River Quesselle Company's dam will be pushed with 200 men, who will be employed all through the winter, and it is safe to say that 200 men will be employed in the early spring.

The Cariboo mine, in conjunction with the Moorhead Lake ditch, and the James Moore property that is to be opened up; the Montreal Company, with their ten miles of property at Pease Lake; the Vancouver, Harvey Creek, and other big properties; the big drifting and hydraulic mines of the Horse Fly, only 30 miles away; and Quesselle Forks and vicinity—these, together with ample employment for several thousand men.

At Quesselle Forks there will be the Lavois mine, the Columbia mines and various others. At Stanley, work on a large scale will be begun on the famous old Lightning Creek. At Slough Creek, Willow River, Antler, Cunningham, Big Valley, and other creeks; also at Barkerville, on that richest of all known creeks in the Cariboo.

Many hundreds of men, forming a boom, will be in the Cariboo, and the value of gold and silver will be increased to an enormous extent by the Cariboo Gold Fields Company, with a hydraulic elevator—all these promises well for the future prosperity of Cariboo.

From Ashcroft to Barkerville, a distance of 285 miles, more than 80 teams are being freighted, and from the present outlook, it is shown that the quantity of freight per week, as now shipping for the year from 25,000 to 30,000 tons, will be largely increased.

Omica and the Peace River countries, which are best reached by the Cariboo-road, will attract much attention next season, as there is a large and profitable section of country that is believed to be rich in gold and silver.

The opening up of the State and Menon hydraulic mines by the 43rd Mining and Milling Company of Ottawa, and the Victoria Hydraulic Company, have presented by Manager Black, will give that company a well-developed province.

These mines, which are nearly 400 miles north of Ashcroft, are already partly equipped and they will be in full operation before the close of the season of 1897.

There is said to be much rich hydraulic ground in that section, Mr. Black claiming to have ground, rich patches in which go as high as 75 cents per ton.

IN ONTARIO.

Some Notes as to How Mining Goes Ahead in the West.

Mr. Thomas Davies of Toronto is in Fort Arthur, Manitoba, largely interested in mining and mineral lands in Thunders Bay District.

He will visit a number of his locations and if they seem to him to equal reports he has heard, he will open them.

The claims are near Schreiber, and W. McBean, another Torontonian, is at Fort Arthur representing Eastern money.

Jackfish District.

Port Arthur Herald.

The Jackfish gold belt promises almost as great things as the Lake of the Woods or Seine River belts.

A number of discoveries have been made recently by Schreiber people and others residing in the vicinity.

Incomes Do Not Bear Their Fair Share of Taxation.

Toronto Ratepayers' Association on Its Merits—Preparing for the Municipal Campaign—Some Plain Speaking at St. George's Hall Last Night—E. A. Macdonald Made Thunders Bay—Resolution Approving of the Fleming Injunction Postponed Till Next Meeting. But only on a Technically.

An adjourned meeting of the Toronto Ratepayers' Association was held last evening in St. George's Hall to discuss a series of resolutions in regard to assessment. These were: That the assessment be equalized; that those who directly or indirectly receive benefit from the municipal services, and are able, should pay a just proportion of the expense therefor.

In order to distribute as equitably as possible the tax of municipal taxation, a uniform basis of assessment should be established.

Apart from income for personal service, the tax should be levied on the net cash value of wealth in whatever form it exists, whether in land, buildings or form of stocks, bonds, debentures, mortgages, deposits, etc.

That all other municipalities doing business should be assessed on the same basis.

That the first of the above series had been fully discussed at the previous meeting, and it only needed reading last night to be declared carried unanimously.

The second resolution, as to whether there is not now a uniform basis of assessment in this city and that it is illegal to act otherwise.

In amendment, it was moved by Mr. Adair that the assessment be equalized as far as possible the burden of taxation, a uniform basis of assessment be established, and that every assessment be made to act as a commissioner should direct the road improvement generally.

SENATOR MILLS TALKS.

The Sage of Bothwell Does Not Seem to Have a Very High Idea of the Upper Chamber.

Hon. David Mills has been called to the Senate. But he will not remain there long.

He is soon to be back in the House of Commons, representing a constituency.

His return to the House of Commons will be a relief to him. At least that is the opinion of those who know him.

After receiving the congratulations of the House of Commons, Mr. Mills went on to say that he had received a great many congratulations from his friends.

He did not think it was his prerogative to say that he had received a great many congratulations from his friends.

He spoke of the irresponsibility of the House of Commons, and the lack of interest on the part of the public in their actions on the great questions of the day.

"I have several works in process of completion," he said, "and I am in the hands of the publishers. The Senate will be a good point of observation for me, and I shall be able to criticize the Senate library in preparing them. There is too much political inactivity in the House of Commons, and I am sorry to see that it is so." "Marked the Sage of Bothwell.

But Sir Oliver Mowat is an able and a public politician, and he appears to have reconciled himself to it," said The Workman.

"But you will understand," was the reply, "that Sir Oliver holds the position in the House of Commons, while I, if I stay in public life, will not be in a position to take any part in the Government."

THE ROAD MISSIONARY TALKS.

Mr. Campbell Explains the Causes of the Bad Condition of Country Roads at Present.

The Provincial Road Commissioner, Mr. A. W. Campbell, was seen at his office yesterday by representatives of the press.

In the course of a conversation on the good roads movement, Mr. Campbell said, in reply to the question, "Why are our country roads in such a bad condition?"

"Well, in the first place, those in charge of the work do not understand the principles of roadmaking." About the only plan followed is to heap up earth in the centre of the road according to what we put gravel on for, chiefly, but very few understand this.

It is not a question of money, as the system of doing road work has grown very rusty. The system employed is that of an amateur, and the roads constructed and maintained must be placed on a business-like basis before any amount of money can be returned.
