Cope, Canadian secretary of state, came here at the instance of the Canadian government. He paid his respects to the body of the late President in the Capitol grounds.

Mr. Cope participated in the services with the British diplomatic group. Washington, Aug. 8.—The thousands who could not be given places in the funeral hall where the body of the late President Harding lies in state were formed in a line at a distance so that after the service they might file past the casket to pay their last respects.

Hours beforehand the long line, four abreast, began to form in the deep shadows of the Capitol grounds. Profiting by the sad lesson of the last state funeral to a President, when many were injured in the crush of eagerness to pass in tribute past the casket of McKinley, a wide space in front of the Capitol itself was kept cleared of all except those who had cards of admission.

After the relatives had passed through, all but Mrs. Harding, the casket and the casket bearers were selected at random from the crowd. Outside, the casket that was to bear the body along the crowded-lined avenue of mourning, had drawn up ready to receive its burden.

San Francisco, Aug. 8.—The death certificate of President Harding was made public yesterday by the city health board and showed that he died of an acute gastro-intestinal infection. The certificate was signed by Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of Stanford University and one of the five physicians who were in attendance upon President Harding here.

The certificate gave the cause of death as follows: "Cerebral apoplexy, following an acute gastro-intestinal infection, including cholecystitis (inflammation of the gall bladder) and bronchial pneumonia — instantaneous contributing cause, arterial sclerosis (hardening of the arteries of several years duration)." Thousands Come For Services.

Washington, Aug. 8.—Day came to a city filled with the stir of troops being sent to France before the White House to take part in the services for Warren G. Harding.

The funeral train of President Harding reached Washington at 10:22 o'clock last night and was met by thousands of mourners who, though the train was nine hours late, had been waiting patiently to pay their last tribute to their President. The funeral car with its casket draped in black rode in first and stopped where the group headed by President Coolidge waited.

Mr. Harding stepped off the train leaning on the arm of Secretary Christian with Dr. Sawyer on the other side. As he stepped from the train he said: "Nearer My God To Thee."

According to word from Marion, Ohio, the late President's home town, he had pronounced of death. When his train was going westward through Kansas on the way to Alaska he told Brig-Gen. Sawyer, his personal physician, that he did not expect to return alive. Dr. Sawyer said the President had been in poor health for some time, exhausted and was unable to throw off his fatigue as he knew he should.

ALL FRIDAY BIG LEAGUE GAMES POSTPONED. New York, Aug. 8.—All National American and International baseball games scheduled for Friday, Aug. 10, are postponed on account of Harding's funeral.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THE THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

GREAT FIRE STORY THE THIRD ALARM

Imperial Has This Thrilling Melodrama Tomorrow. At last a photodrama, constructed on gigantic lines, that sings the long-delayed praises of the firemen of this country. It has been a long time coming to be sure, but now that it is here in lavish reality, firemen and their hundreds of thousands of friends are rejoicing because it shows in vivid and logical sequences the degree of service the fireman gives to his employers—the well known public.

The production is appropriately titled "The Third Alarm" and is scheduled for its initial exhibition at the Imperial Theatre tomorrow and the remainder of the week. That the fireman is a vital factor in the welfare of any community is brought out with smashing dramatic power in "The Third Alarm." It shows not only how thrillingly he serves but it also depicts in thrilling scenes the dangers he confronts, the perils he faces uncomplainingly in the daily pursuit of his duties.

LAST NIGHT FOR ARLISS FEATURE. The George Arliss feature "The Man Who Played God" at the Imperial is attracting great summer crowds. The attendance yesterday was nearly twice as large as on Monday, a signal tribute to the worth of the excellent feature and its English star.

KILLS JAMAICA BAY SHARK. New York, Aug. 8.—A 200-pound shark was caught in Jamaica Bay near lower Fishkill recently. By George Groth of that place. For some time fishermen have suspected the presence of sharks in the vicinity and yesterday Groth set out to determine the truth. As bait he used weakfish on a hook fastened by a chain to a line of kum cord. Presently a shark took the bait. Groth ensued a contest of three-quarters of an hour between fisherman and fish. At the end of that time the exhausted shark was pulled alongside the launch, shot and stabbed. Earlier in the day a shark was seen by John Schuster of Carmansie landing, while fishing in Jamaica Bay.

CAUSE TO CURE. A CAUSE MUST BE ADJUSTED. MADE RIGHT. CHIROPRACTIC. CHIROPRACTIC is based on fundamental, natural laws. The organs of the body are the motors, the nerves are power lines which carry vital energy or life to all parts of the body. Impingement or pinching of the nerves interferes with their life-carrying power and disease is the result. The Chiropractor adjusts with his hands the misaligned vertebrae and the impinged nerves are freed. The flow of life enters the part diseased, normal functions are restored and health restored. The Chiropractic way is Nature's way.

Bon Ami

Do you know there are two kinds of Bon Ami—cake and powder? Both are made from the same ingredients—both are equally good.

It's a matter of taste which you use. Many women prefer the powder in its handy sprinkler-top tin—it's so easy to shake the powder on a damp cloth.

Others prefer the solid cake—that's rubbed on the cloth like ordinary soap.

Many women keep both kinds on hand—they prefer the cake for some uses, the powder for others. It's a splendid idea to keep both—why not try it?

Are you familiar with the principal uses of Bon Ami—they're listed at the right?

Cathedral S. S. Outing at Torryburn Enjoyed by All.

The "Bishop's Picnic" of 1923 at Torryburn yesterday was very successful and enjoyable, though the attendance was not so large as last year.

This picnic fills a two-fold object, a big day's outing for children and adults and revenue for support of the children in the Catholic orphanages.

One of the most successful picnics for the congregation and Sunday school of the Cathedral church was held yesterday at Grand Bay.

LIGHTING TALK AT COUNCIL MEETING

Action on Germain Street Request Deferred Till Tomorrow.

The City Council yesterday discussed the placing of ornamental lights on the wood poles on Germain street and dealt with a number of routine matters.

The Commissioner of Finance and Public Affairs recommended payment of the following departmental accounts for the month of July: Treasury department, $754.60; public safety, $2,896.99; public works, $5,393.63; water and sewerage, $10,172.51; harbors, ferries and public lands, $11,955.63. He reported payments for the month of July amounting to $181,289.43.

The report of the committee of the whole, recommending authorization of the expenditure of $2,287.62 for meters and $3,075 for poles by the Civic Power Commission; the appointment of the Mayor as a delegate to the Public Ownership Conference in Toronto; the entering into negotiations for the transfer of Fort Howe to the city by the Dominion Government; and the vesting of the appointment of delegates to the Union of Canadian Municipalities and the New Brunswick Union of Municipalities in the Mayor, was adopted.

A bill of $60 for membership in the Union of New Brunswick Municipalities was ordered paid if found correct. Appeals from their assessment were received from F. R. Taylor, George B. McGeehan and John Kennedy and were referred to the Mayor to arrange for hearing.

On motion of Commissioner Wigmore the bill from the James Robertson Company of $264.06 for one four-inch meter was ordered paid. Hereof the latter amount will be returned to the city by the Provincial Government.

Commissioner Thornton reported that James McGeehan had transferred his lease in the market building to A. Earle Kincaid and on his motion the transfer was approved.

On motion of Commissioner Thornton, the application of the United Automobile Tire Co. for permission to install a second gasoline tank and pump at the corner of Union and Prince Edward streets, was granted, subject to the carrying out of the proposal of Allan McAvery to allow the use of the drive ways to traffic.

Commissioner Bullock said he had been spoken to on the matter of lights for Germain street, between Princess and Queen streets, and given to understand the residents would be satisfied if they were given the ornamental light bracket on the wood pole and he moved this be done. The members of the Germain Street Improvement Association had spent a large sum of money in beautifying the street and their request should receive consideration.

Commissioner Frink said he thought the request was a reasonable one but the Civic Power Commission had been created for the purpose of building and operating a distribution system and he felt the council should not interfere in

Practically an offer to swap off enough of his property to allow for the extension of Carnarvon street through to Prince Edward street, in exchange for a site (a triangle) at the corner of Union and Prince Edward streets for a proposed gas filling station, was made by the city engineer yesterday by Allan McAvery, who discussed the matter with the Commissioners.

Mr. McAvery said he believed the proposed structure on the lot at the corner of Union and Prince Edward streets would remove to a very large extent the complaint about not being

EGYPTIAN SHOT DEAD IN LONDON

Alli Bey Fahmy, Found in Corridor of Hotel—Wife Accused.

London Aug. 6.—Alli Bey Fahmy the 28-year-old son of a wealthy Egyptian, was found shot recently in a corridor on the fourth floor at the Savoy Hotel, Strand, W.C., near the suite of rooms which he occupied with his French wife. He died in Charing Cross Hospital room afterwards.

His wife was arrested, and in the afternoon was remanded at Bow-street on a charge of murdering him.

One of the hotel staff heard a shot and found Alli Bey Fahmy lying in the corridor bleeding from a wound in the head. Near him was a Browning revolver.

able to see an approaching team at this point, but with an eye to the future, it would be better to extend Carnarvon street right through to Prince Edward, and he would be willing to exchange land there for a site equally good for his business. He suggested the triangle between the streets, which would give a driveway on three sides. He also offered, subject to the approval of the lessee, the United Automobile Tire Co., to allow the use of his driveways to teams.

A petition from residents of Prince Edward street asking that Carnarvon street be extended to that street was presented to the council as well. Action was deferred until Commissioner Frink had an opportunity to look over the ground and get a report from the city engineer.

Alvin O. Lombard, a logger, was the inventor of the continuous tread tractor.

It has been established, says the London Evening News, that at 1 a.m. Alli Bey Fahmy was noticed, in evening dress and alone, in the foyer of the hotel. He is stated to have called a taxi and gone out—where it is not known.

Alli Bey, who had recently come from Paris, and was living luxuriously but comparatively inconspicuously at the hotel, intended, it was understood, remaining there to the end of the London season. His party included a secretary, a maid, and a valet. He had previously stayed at the Savoy.

Although described by the police as a prince, Alli Bey Fahmy had no title, which he disliked, and he had been living for some time on money borrowed on the security of his vast estates, which he was a notorious spendthrift, and

He made himself conspicuous by dabbling about the streets of Cairo in a high-powered motor-car, and one of his latest acquisitions was a motor-bout, which was useless in Cairo.

He owned one of the most luxuriously furnished houses in Cairo, which none but his satellites saw. He was very fond of jewellery, which he wore ostentatiously, and his glittering diamonds used to attract attention in the Opera House.

He often visited London, and was known in the West End as a graceful dancer. He married his wife less than a year ago.

Divisional Detective Inspector Grosse said that on examination of the cord he found on the wall at right angles to suite 41, about 8 feet from the door, a small hole apparently caused by a ricochet bullet. A few yards further along the same corridor, part of the heading of a glass door had apparently been shot away, and a few yards further still there was a dent on a wooden bannister, apparently caused by a ricochet bullet.

In a bedroom occupied by Mme. Fahmy he found a white evening gown on the bottom of which were blood stains. In another bedroom in the same suite there were several crushed beads similar to those on the trimming of the evening gown.

Power Commission Now Claims City In Its Debt $30,050

Another bill for $10,000 for current from Musquash was rendered to the city yesterday by the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission, and in addition a bill for $20 interest on the first $10,000 bill, which brought the total amount due $30,050. As no answer had been received to the communication from the city re notification of readiness to serve as required by the Act, it was decided to defer action until this was forthcoming.

Should there be no settlement of the account before another month has gone by the interest bill will have grown to $150, as there will be another $30 added to the first month and $60 on the second bill, making $100 for this item on next month's bill.

DAUGHTER WRITES OF FOUNDER OF OUR Y. M. C. A.; MEMORIAL SUGGESTED

To The Editor,
The Evening Times-Star,
St. John, N. B.

Dear Sir—
I have read with interest an article in the issue of the Times-Star of July 31, 1923, entitled, "Men who conducted Y. M. C. A. here in 1857" and in view of my recent activities during my present visit to your city, in memory of my beloved father, William Welsh, in connection with the Y. M. C. A. of long ago—which activities may have caused to be brought forth from the archives of the past, the article above referred to, I shall appreciate it if you will publish the following, which I believe will be of interest to many of your readers.

While much that I am about to relate happened before my time, my statements may be relied upon as to their accuracy, for I have before me both printed and written data to substantiate same, as well as the recollection of numerous conversations with my father in the past, which data is at the disposal of the officers of the Y. M. C. A. if desired.

The 1857 Organization.
The association spoken of in the article referred to as existing in 1857, was in many respects quite different from that which later came into existence. It was a group of Christian young men, among whom was my father, that were active in the interest of the moral uplift of the city and in Christian work in the community, but they met in a room or rooms and had no established association building of their own. At first the public manifested great interest in this association of young men, but as the years passed this interest began to languish. My father, realizing this, became possessed with an overwhelming desire to establish a Y. M. C. A. in St. John that would be a permanent institution, a monument to the city and one that neither time nor change would ever despoil.

Having heard of the progress of a Y. M. C. A. in Halifax, Wm. Welsh, with a group of other gentlemen, attended a convention held there and on their return, my father, with his determination further strengthened, called a meeting in St. David's church school room and the present organization was effected. At this time the young men were meeting in a room that I believe was in a building located in what was called Horner's Corner.

Charlotte Street Building.
With the assistance of earnest workers, my father then began a crusade to raise funds for the project. Concerts were given at which some of the finest artists in the city participated, donating their services to the cause. Bazaars were held and a large amount of money was subscribed, many leading citizens promising substantial aid. A building committee was appointed and a contract signed with Messrs. D. and T. Sullivan, for excavating for the cellar and drain and for building the foundation walls for their new building in Charlotte street. To quote further from the newspaper record before me:

"The work has been commenced and will be pressed forward rapidly. Advertisement for tenders for the other portion of the building will be made in a few days and the committee hopes to have the building ready for occupation on the first of May next. The building committee are, Messrs. Wm. Welsh, John Stewart, H. B. White, John E. Irvine, E. McLeod, G. Bertheaux, W. H. Fairall and Joshua Clawson. The first five gentlemen named, together with T. W. Daniel and Isaac Burpee, are the trustees under the Act of Incorporation. (A lot was purchased from Mr. Archibald Sinclair). The building will be 50x50, with a passage of 9 feet reserved as an entrance to a lot in the rear. There will be two stores on the ground floor, 11x20 and 13x17, with good cellars. The main entrance will be 8 feet wide. The apartments for the use of the association will consist of a lecture hall, class room, parlor, committee room, office, gymnasium, dressing room, baths, kitchen, and the many questionable places of resort open in the city, the great need of such a building as the one now being erected, must be obvious to everyone who has the welfare of our young men at heart."

My father, Wm. Welsh, was president of the association, which office he held for six years until his departure for England and was without question the founder of the Y. M. C. A. of St. John, as it is today, a permanent institution in the city. His labors in this cause were unceasing. He devoted so much time to the work that he would find it necessary to spend the early morning hours, frequently till two and three o'clock, at his desk in his office, to accomplish his duties in connection with his shipping business; the shipyards being on the Matsin Road.

The Smallpox Days.
When the smallpox epidemic raged in St. John and many of the merchants left the city with their families to escape infection, Wm. Welsh remained and worked tirelessly to relieve the awful suffering in the community, sending food to the homes of the afflicted, often taking it there himself and caring for the burial of the dead. Frequently an undertaker would say: "Mr. Welsh that man died of black smallpox, I cannot bury him, and would rush from the house leaving my father alone with the dead, and he would have to find a willing undertaker to complete the task of burial and would then accompany the body to the grave, the only mourner. To quote from the words of the Rev. Dr. Hutchins of Brooklyn, N. Y., at the time of my father's death: "I used to see a manly form sitting among you, the form of one we were all glad to see; a noble, kindly, accomplished Christian gentleman who did you and your pastor and me, much good. I feel very sad when I think that Mr. Welsh is gone. He belonged to a rare class of men."

Again I quote from a letter written to my father in 1868, from a great friend of his in England. It is a word picture:
"I fancy I see you standing up to him in your intent, earnest way, looking him right in the eye with those bright orbs of yours, the words coming right from your heart. Who could resist you." A wonderful tribute from one man to another.

All Enthusiast.
My father's ministrations to the sick and dying and his self-sacrificing spirit, were beyond understanding. Among his many other activities he held service in the Marine Hospital as well as cottage prayer meetings and outdoor services. He presided at the Sunday evening services of the Y. M. C. A., playing the organ and leading the singing. It is said by those that recall the early days—that but few now remain—that never in the years since has such enthusiasm prevailed in the Y. M. C. A., as then. The hall would be crowded to the door, and the stairs leading to the street, as well as the street itself to the opposite pavement would contain a mass of people, all joining in the service of song, the singing being heard for a distance of many blocks—a thing unprecedented in the annals of the association. So popular did the Y. M. C. A. become during my father's presidency, the churches complained that their services were being interfered with as their congregations flocked to the meetings of the Y. M. C. A., so the time for holding the meetings had to be changed.

Another important work carried on by my beloved father was a mission on Sheffield street, in which work he was assisted by D. M. Stearns, who afterwards became the Rev. Dr. Stearns, a noted preacher in Philadelphia. My father's efforts in the cause of temperance were also unceasing and I have today newspaper copies of two wonderful letters written by him at that time, which would doubtless be well worth reproducing today. His philanthropic work and interest in the welfare of the city and people of St. John, were unparalleled.

For years my father was superintendent of the Old Kirk Sabbath School, later removing to St. David's Church, where he became an elder and teacher of a young women's Bible class.

Went To England.
The esteem and love in which my father was held by the community were made manifest at the time of his departure for England. I have in my possession the newspaper record of the banquet held in his honor in the Y. M. C. A. and have a copy of the menu of said banquet—I presume the only records of the occasion in existence.

A large number of gentlemen gathered to unite in the entertainment of Wm. Welsh, Esq., the retiring president, and to witness the presentation to him of an address and accompanying present, indicative of the feeling of the association towards him. The supper tables were spread in the class room. John E. Irvine, Esq., president, with the guest of the evening on his right and Rev. Dr. Waters on his left, Hon. E. Willis, Dr. Botsford, T. W. Daniel and other prominent citizens lined seats at the president's table.

A splendid address, engrossed on velvet and richly bound in leather, was read by Mr. Irvine and presented to Wm. Welsh. I have the record of my father's response. Another address was presented to my father by T. W. Daniel, Esq., on behalf of the Evangelical Alliance of which he (father) was the vice president. Brief addresses were made by Dr. Waters, Rev. Geo. Armstrong, Dr. Botsford, Hon. Mr. Willis,

D. M. Stearns and many others. Many handsome silver gifts, all bearing inscriptions, were presented to Wm. Welsh, also albums containing many portraits. Addresses were also presented to him by practically every church and Christian society in the city. Upon his departure from their midst the wharf was crowded by St. John citizens, most of whom were in tears, and many were purchasing his photographs from an enterprising citizen.

Helped Fire Sufferers.
My father's interest in St. John and the Y. M. C. A. did not languish even though business interests took him from the work in which he had labored so abundantly, and when news of the great fire of St. John reached Liverpool, he called a meeting of the shipowners, addressed them in the town hall and there raised a large sum of money which he sent to the committee in charge of relief work. Upon his return on another occasion when the Y. M. C. A. was making a special effort to raise money, he contributed most liberally to the cause.

His work for the Master never wavered. In Liverpool he attended the Canning Street Presbyterian church and was, though a comparative stranger, elected an elder by the largest vote ever known to have been taken in the church. He became superintendent of the Hyalop street mission. He found the school house in great need of repair and the poor children in tatters, standing with their little bare feet in their hats, which they had thrown on the floor for warmth. In a very short time the building was renovated, and the children clothed, fed and shod.

Many young men and women of the church were influenced by my father to teach classes on Sunday and a great work for the good of the neighborhood was carried on. My father was so beloved by the children that he would make a point of shaking hands with every one of the more than 600 every Sunday afternoon.

Suggests Memorial.
It has been a great disappointment to my brother, Thomas Plummer, Welsh and me to discover that the portrait of our dear father, that for so many years hung on the wall of the Y. M. C. A. is no longer to be found there—having been misplaced during the changes that have taken place and in cherished memory I have called upon the secretary of the Association, Mr. Gregg, to take up with him the erection of a memorial to William Welsh, which honor is surely due him, and if the Association does not see its way clear at this time to do present a tablet or other suitable emblem to the association in our father's memory.

On his death bed, my father, who was conscious to the last moment, talked constantly with me of the Y. M. C. A. of St. John, going over many of the incidents mentioned, and I later discovered that he had been that day reading the published records of the work of the association in the early days, as I found the book of records, probably the only one now in existence, lying on the table beside his old armchair.

William Welsh now rests in a hallowed grave beside my mother, Ellen Plummer, on Linden Avenue in Fernhill Cemetery, the "City of Sleep" and in his dear memory, and with deepest reverence, I have addressed this letter to you, believing that it will revive loving recollections among those that once knew and labored with him in the past, in the service of the Master, and awaken in the younger generation, and a reverence for the pioneers of the past and a reverence for the memory of their leader in the erection and ownership of a Young Men's Christian Association building as a permanent institution and monument in the city of St. John—my father William Welsh.

Very sincerely,
ELIZABETH MARION WELSH,
Loch Lomond, N.B.,

POOR DOCUMENT

1923

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 8, 1923.

WHAT'S DOING IN THE MONEY AND STOCK MARKETS TODAY

SHIPPING VIA OUR OWN PORTS

"Industrial Canada" Gives Encouraging Testimony—St. John in One Case.

The following, regarding the growing interest in the use of Canadian ports, is taken from "Industrial Canada" for August.

Some encouraging testimony as to the manner in which manufacturers were taking a personal interest in routing shipments over Canadian roads and through Canadian ports was forthcoming at the recent annual meeting of the C. M. A. Several speakers stated that they were moving all their freight in this way and urged other manufacturers to take similar action.

Norman Holland of the Holland Varnish Co., Montreal, in discussing the matter, said: "There is no question but that we as Canadians have the desire to help our own country and one reason possibly why we don't give as much help as we should is not through the lack of desire but through the lack of personal interest in matters of that nature. I speak with knowledge on this point because we have to import possibly 90 to 95 per cent of our raw materials. These come through China, India, Singapore, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa. Prior to the war practically all these materials were imported through New York. That was the standard route which had always been in use. It was claimed that there was no other way of bringing in our raw material. But the war caused us to look for other methods. Today, instead of bringing the bulk of our materials through New York, we are bringing them through Vancouver or Seattle and Tacoma, and when we bring them via Seattle and Tacoma we insist that all goods must be handled over to the C. P. R. at Sumas. We will not accept shipments through Northern States.

"Our goods which come through London and the east must come by the winter port of St. John. We had that up for a final final year through Boston, on account of the trouble on some of the railways. It is only a question of taking enough personal interest in these matters. If the heads of firms would only take enough interest in their own business to see that these details are carried out, there isn't a question but that we can help to build up our own ports."

MORNING STOCK LETTER.

(McDougall & Cowan)

New York, Aug. 8.—Weakness in foreign exchange was without any effect on the market and we do not believe the further weakness today in exchange will have any effect on stocks.

It has been seen for some time that the reputation of the market was only a question of time and the reputation should have no more effect than the recent absurd quotes for them. Generally, we believe the market will be strong again today with a reaction coming after early trading tomorrow. We would think that the outcome of the American Loco. meeting tomorrow cause a good deal of profit-taking. In addition the unfilled tonnage report and it is quite likely to show a decrease in forward bookings nearer to 400,000 tons. We would believe in exchange this would cause some selling. Therefore we would be inclined to take profits in trading stocks on strength today, expecting a reaction tomorrow and over the week-end.

FINANCIAL FIRM TONE AS MARKET OPENS

Some Leaders in Wall Street Improve—Dull in Montreal

New York, Aug. 8.—(Opening)—Prices displayed a firm tone at the opening of today's market. Baldwin, Studebaker, Bethlehem Steel and a number of other leaders improved fractionally. Rails were again in fair demand, D. & H. rising 1 1/4 points and the northwestern carriers making nominal gains. Some of the minor oils were again heavy.

Canadian Report.

New York, Aug. 8.—(Wall street)—Stock prices continued their move to higher ground during the morning session of today's stock market despite the uncovering of several weak spots. Central Leather common and preferred, American Hide and Leather Pfd., Allied Chemical, Burns Bros. A. and Marine Pfd. all established new low records for the year, the losses ranging from 1 to 4 points. The 112 stocks in the industrial leaders were limited to fractions. Chicago, Northwestern and Dupont each advancing two points and a number of specialties gained a point or more. Trading was on a restricted scale, the market suspending trading from 11:30 to 12:30 p.m. out of respect for President Harding.

Call money opened at 4 3/4 per cent. New York, Aug. 8.—(Wall street)—The resumption of trading on the stock exchange was followed by a slight sliding from the earlier high figures, weakness of the leather and chemical shares causing profit taking in other quarters.

WANTS INVESTIGATION INTO DEATH AT BAYSWATER; SPEAKS OF LIQUOR

Strange Circumstances in Case of American, Says Minister.

Police investigation is asked by Rev. J. H. E. Rickard, a minister from Albany, New York, in connection with the death of Allan B. Estey of Allston, Mass., which occurred on Saturday, July 28.

Mr. Rickard thought the matter of sufficient importance to report it to the St. John detectives. He believes that if there was any foul play it should be thoroughly investigated, and if not, the men who were with Estey would be quite willing to come forward and explain all the circumstances.

He said that the men had arrived at Bayswater by the steamer Maggie Miller on Monday, July 23, and that the three kept pretty much indoors. They had rented a camp and Estey was not seen at all by any of the residents.

Neither Hollis nor the third man, he said, had communicated during the day with Dr. Pratt, but late Sunday night called up Brennan and asked him to call him on Sunday if Estey got any worse.

Dr. C. M. Pratt gave a certificate of natural death from heart failure. He said that death was due to heart failure caused by alcoholic excess.

Mr. Rickard said that every body had been told by two companions of Estey to keep "mum" and that "money was no object." This was what increased his suspicions that perhaps there had been foul play.

Another point which he thought increased the mystery was a "code" telegram which Hollis had received from New York asking him to "save three brass registers, and if you can't get me three, hold two."

Mr. Rickard was of the opinion, and he said this opinion was shared by the other residents of Bayswater, that the whole affair was so secretive and mysterious as to warrant an investigation by the authorities and he intended to take steps to have this brought about.

Sergeant-Detective Power said last night that a request for an investigation should come from the relatives of the dead man and that permission would have to be given by the Chief of Police and the Commissioner of Public Safety.

Health Matters at Board Meeting. And now the tri-partite agreement has become an issue with the Board of Health on account of the provision for the extension of the sewers through the area to be reclaimed.

At a meeting of the St. John Presbytery in Fredericton yesterday afternoon with Rev. W. W. Malcolm as moderator the resignation of Rev. W. A. Wood of Nashua was accepted.

NEWS NOTES OF BAPTIST PEOPLE

(Maritime Baptist.) The pastors of the Baptist churches in St. John are now pretty well scattered for vacation. Rev. David Hutchinson, D. D., is touring parts of Europe after attendance at the meeting of the Baptist World Alliance in Stockholm.

Rev. J. A. Swetnam, of the Waterloo St. Church, was preacher during July for the united congregations of Waterloo St. Church and Exmouth St. Methodist Church. Mr. Swetnam spends his vacation during August partly along the St. John River and partly in Nova Scotia.

At present writing Rev. C. R. Freeman and Rev. W. A. Robbins, pastors on the West Side, have not left the city for vacation. Rev. Clifford T. Clark, of Fairville, has spent some time with his family at Chance Harbor.

Neither Hollis nor the third man, he said, had communicated during the day with Dr. Pratt, but late Sunday night called up Brennan and asked him to call him on Sunday if Estey got any worse.

WORK NIGHT AND DAY ON THIS JOB

Problem of Market Square Paving and the Traffic.

The road engineer of the city has a serious problem on his hands at the present time, and that is to rush along the paving of Market Square, and at the same time not hold up the street car traffic. As all the cars pass through this portion of the city, a hold-up there would mean a disruption of the whole service.

An effort would be made, the engineer said, to have the contractor work night and day on the track section, and he was hopeful that it would not be necessary to interfere with the cars for more than a couple of days. As one method of meeting the situation he was proposing to use pitch for the joints instead of grout, and that would allow the use of the rail as soon as the pitch was poured.

Commissioner Wigmore reported this morning that two crews of men were busy on the job which developed during the morning. One was in the 16 inch main at the head of Prince Edward street, where the test and definite work was being done. The other was in the main in Garden street.

J. D. O'CONNELL
HERE FOR PICNICS

Plans Treat for Orphans of the City for Next Week.

J. D. O'Connell, friend of the orphans, arrived in the city yesterday, and went immediately to Terryburn, where he attended the shop's picnic. Mr. O'Connell said today that it was his intention to hold his picnic here as usual, but if circumstances arising prevented him from doing so, he would do something else for the orphans, as each one of them had to receive his or her 80 cents, whatever happened. If nothing unforeseen occurred he will hold the picnic next week, he said. He will also hold one in Sussex next week and very probably a joint one for Minto and Chipman. There will also be picnics on the North Shore and in Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia.

Thomas Cornell, of Brown University, Providence, R. I., new twirler for the Vets, arrived on the Boston train at noon today.

Frederick Mall—The executive of the Fredericton Baseball Club was in session Monday night for a short time. Owing to the absence of a number of members all the business intended was not transacted. An effort is being made to strengthen the team and definite word in that connection will be known soon.

CRAWFORD CASE OFF TILL SATURDAY

Erin Street Disturbance Brings Fine of Twenty-Eight Dollars.

Owing to the absence of E. J. Henneberry, counsel for the defense, the preliminary hearing of Thomas Crawford on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Owen McCann, was not begun this morning. It probably will be taken up on Saturday morning.

Mr. Henneberry is in Kent County attending sessions of the Circuit Court. He expects to return to the city on Friday night or Saturday.

William Odell was charged in the police court this morning with creating a disturbance in Erin street, and also with using abusive and insulting language to Charles Paterson on May 28. He pleaded not guilty. Detective Biddiscombe told of arresting the accused last night about 10:30 in Erin street. Paterson, brother-in-law of the accused, told of the nature of the language which he asserted the accused had used to him. A fine of $28 or four months in jail.

Two men, charged with drunkenness were fined $5 or two months in jail.

UNION STREET TO GET CURRENT NEXT

Hydro in Houses There by End of Week, is the Expectation.

Applications for contracts were coming in every day, about 250 having been signed since the stringing of wire was begun. It was reported at the office of the Civic Power Commission this morning and they believed the estimate of 4,000 users. Musquodocou current was well within the mark.

Services had already been installed in Cranston avenue, Rockland Road and Wall street and Dorchester street, Hasen street and Union street would be the next to get hydro. Wires were being strung on the two first named today and Union street would be served by the end of the week.

The contractor for the distribution system, it was reported, was making better progress with his work but had not reached the mark set by the Commission for the number of poles set daily.

That the tests made of the ornamental lighting system had been satisfactory and that city would be notified by the 15th of the month that the commission were ready to take over from the contractor the system of lighting in the area served by the ornamental lighting, was a statement made today at the office of the Civic Commission.

TODAY'S OLD COINS

Another old coin reported to The Times is a half penny token of 1813. On one side is the inscription "Half Penny Token, 1813," and on the other "Payable by John Alexander Barry, Halifax." This coin is the property of Mrs. H. A. Lyman of this city who found it last year while digging in the garden at her home, 228 Pitt street.

Le. H. Hope, of Toronto, called yesterday in passing to show an English shilling of 1816, which bore the inscription "Georg. III. D. G. Brit. Rex. S. D. 1816."

Ernest Ross of 112 Charlotte street has one of the year 1822, a penny with the inscription Georgius VI on one side and Hibernia on the other.

Mrs. John Egan of the North End has a coin of the time of Queen Victoria dated 1854, a United States one-cent piece dated 1848, a Spanish coin of the time of Charles III, dated 1779, and a penny coined during the time of George III, dated 1807.

Nathan Rovovsky, 641 Main street, has two half-penny tokens, one from Bristol, England, dated 1811, and the other from Halifax, dated 1815. In addition he has a coin of the reign of George III, dated 1806, and a British coin of 1814.

Frank Dunham, 56 Sydney street, brought in a coin found after the great Miramichi fire, dated 1820, and an American two-cent piece found on Fort Howe and dated 1846.

As Hiram Sees It

"I see a hull lot of folks he's old coins layin' round," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to The Times reporter. "Talk about the nimble dollar—but I s'pose them pennies is just fer curiosities. All the same I know some folks in The Settlement—that knows how to hold onto any old money or any no money they kin git. I ain't sayin' you folks here has all got the habit. I hear you hev two million dollars—an' after a few years you'll hev about two thousand dollars' worth o' scrap. But I s'pose folks thinks they git their money's worth afore they git to the scrap heap. But you got folks, too, that keeps a awful tight grab on whatever they git. You couldn't git 'em to start a little in-dustry—or take hold of a hotel—or do anything but board it up. Mister—you wouldn't hear so much talk about people goin' to the States if them that has made their pile right here 'ud loosen up a little. I like what that there woman told the Rotarians yesterday. We got to wake up—yes, sir—we got to wake up—By Hen!"
