AN INTERNATIONAL GUNNERY CONTEST
May be Arranged Between British and United States Ships
Shooting Conditions in the U. S. Navy are Easy Compared to Those Under Which British Gunners Fire.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—A special cable to the Sun from London says: There is great interest in naval circles in the suggestion of Rear Admiral Bradford of the United States navy for a gunnery competition between picked teams from British and American battleships. In the British navy there is a tendency to disagree somewhat on the records of good shooting in the United States navy. It is not denied that there are many good marksmen across the Atlantic, but it is pointed out that the American service target is considerably larger than the British, while the Americans do not carry their shooting on the lines of British battle practice, relations such as would prevail in war. Running target practice in the American navy is carried out in smooth water, rendering it much easier to score a large percentage of hits.

EMPEROR NICHOLAS TEMPTING FATE VISITING KRASNOYE-SELO.

Has Gone to Spend a Week There—Police Believe They Have Broken up the Revolutionary Headquarters at Moscow.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 14.—In spite of the attempt on the life of Grand Duke Nicholas Nikolaevitch on August 10 at Krasnoye-Sele, the emperor, accompanied by his family and the major portion of court, has gone to Krasnoye-Sele to spend a week at the guards' camp. Six additional guard regiments have gone to the camp from St. Petersburg, and the most rigid precautions have been taken to protect the emperor's safety during his stay. The railroad station at St. Petersburg is heavily guarded, and no civilians are allowed to leave there for Krasnoye-Sele except after being fully identified. A grand review is scheduled for August 19, after which the imperial family will go to Tsarskoye-Sele instead of returning to Peterhof, although some of the papers report that it is the intention of the imperial family to immediately go by sea to Livadia, in the Crimea, and spend the autumn there.

TORONTO BUILDING TRADES STRIKE A SERIOUS ONE
Five Thousand Men Will Go Out in Sympathy With Carpenters—S. T. Bastedo Gets a New Job.

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 14.—Five thousand men, representative of the building trades in Toronto, will be on strike at 5 o'clock tonight if the carpenters' strike is not settled. This was decided upon last night after nearly four hours of animated discussion by the federated council of building trades at a most representative meeting in Labor Temple. At 5 o'clock tonight the trades with the exception of bricklayers and bricklayers' laborers will put away their tools until the carpenters' difficulty with employers is settled. The trades interested are plumbers, sheet metal workers, plasterers, bathers, steamfitters, painters, electrical workers, stone cutters and marble workers. The bricklayers, according to reports from Labor Temple, are in sympathy with the movement but cannot go out on account of an agreement with the employers at the settlement of their recent strike which settlement was the effect that on receipt of their additional 5 cents an hour they would not join in sympathetic strikes such as this.

MARITIME PROVINCES WILL BE WINTER PORT Too Much Traffic for One Harbor; All Will Share, Says Mr. Emmerson in Brilliant Speech While Laying Corner Stone of New I. C. R. Shops at Moncton Yesterday.

MONCTON, Aug. 13.—Before a crowd of over seven thousand people today the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the first of the I. C. R. new shops took place under most auspicious circumstances, marked by glowing speeches bright with promise for the future of Moncton and of New Brunswick through the agencies of the Intercolonial and Grand Trunk Pacific railways.

THE principal speech maker was Hon. E. R. Emmerson, minister of railways, and the big crowd was also addressed by Hon. Mr. Templeman, minister of inland revenue; Mr. Zimmerman, M. P., Hamilton, Ont.; Senator Mitchell, Montreal; Hon. W. P. Jones, solicitor general of New Brunswick. The ceremony of laying the stone was preceded by a big procession, in which over seven hundred men, headed by the Citizens' band, participated.

Mr. Emmerson upon his success in the management of the Intercolonial, said: "We in Canada, minister like to have the G. T. He said the people of Carleton county rejoice that the shops had been secured for New Brunswick."

MONCTON, Aug. 13.—John McInnes, who married Mary Bellevue in Amherst four weeks ago and came to Moncton to live, has disappeared with a hundred and fifty dollars of his bride's money, which was a purse in her trunk, and which she had just drawn from the bank. About midnight Sunday Mrs. McInnes arose to get her husband some medicine, leaving the purse which contained the money on top of her trunk. Shortly after she came back her husband arose, saying he wanted to get a drink, and put on his coat. The wife thought this strange but suspected nothing, and he went down stairs. Since then he has not been seen, and the money was missed shortly after. Previous to coming to Moncton the bride worked as servant girl in Amherst, her husband being employed in the water works there.

PRISONER STOLE SOFTLY AWAY Deputy Sheriff Foster Awoke to Find His Bird Had Flown

WOODSTOCK, N. B., Aug. 12.—Late Saturday afternoon Florenceville, Deputy Sheriff Foster arrested one Gus Goodine, wanted by the York county authorities at the instance of the poor commissioners. There being no lockup near the deputy took Goodine to his home at Middle Simonds, intending to keep him over Sunday and then transfer him to the York county jail. He went well until just after bedtime Sunday night, when the bird flew softly away. In the morning the deputy found his bird had flown, but quickly organized a posse and gave chase. Goodine was in a few hours recaptured in a clump of woods near the very spot where he had first been taken into custody. The sheriff brought him home and lodged him in jail. There ought to be a good list of entries for the Bowditch cup race next Saturday, as it is the last sailing race of the season. Already six entries have been received and the owners of a number of other yachts have expressed their intention of entering. This is a smaller race than the one which the larger boats think they can win irrespective of their handicaps. For many years this race has brought the largest list of starters and has been the most keenly contested each season.

The final arrangements for the field day of the Natural History Society at "Camp Nature on the Steeps," the collecting resort of Wm. McIntosh and A. Gordon Leavitt, for Saturday, the 18th inst., have been made, weather permitting. The train leaves the union depot at 11 o'clock and returns at 10 o'clock the city at 10 p. m., and through the kindness of the C. P. R. will, both ways, stop at Mount Hope station, thereby materially lessening the walk to and from the camp. The outing takes the form of a "basket picnic." All members of the society and their friends are cordially invited and there will be addresses by several of the working members of the society.

MUST STOP DRINKING FOR SIXTEEN YEARS

Matthew Garnett Gets on the Water Wagon—Had Trip to the Alms House

In the police court this morning Edward York pleaded not guilty to begging on the street. Policeman Ward testified that he saw York begging York was given his choice of jail or Alms House. He took the latter.

Jeremiah Kennedy pleaded not guilty to fighting and Matthew Garnett pleaded guilty but said that Kennedy had struck him first. Henry Garnett, a witness, said that Kennedy was the first to strike.

Mrs. Catherine Kennedy, wife of the defendant, said that Garnett came to the house and invited her husband to fight. Kennedy's daughter gave the same evidence as her mother.

Kennedy said that he and Garnett were hood carriers. They had trouble and Garnett came to his house and assaulted him.

Garnett claimed that it was not his fault, that Kennedy was the first to strike.

The magistrate gave Garnett a lecture for drinking, and Aid. Sproule gave a good name for both. Garnett said he had a child only three weeks old. He promised not to drink any liquor until his child would reach the age of 16 years and the case was allowed to stand.

Frank Coyle, a small boy, had another boy named Hally before the court for assaulting him. A fine of $20 was allowed to stand against Hally and he was given some sound advice.

Miss Margaret Smith, of Brock and Patterson's, returned this morning from a business trip to the States.

NEARING THE FINISH OF THE E.T.P. SURVEY

Only a Small Stretch Near Chipman Remains to be Done on the Alternative Routes.

The work of the G. T. P. surveying parties is progressing well. The survey on the alternative routes is nearly complete, and there are now only a few parties at work and these are getting near Chipman. When these parties have completed their task the whole survey of the routes will be finished. The other surveying parties are now at work on the location of the routes from Chipman to Moncton and from Grand Falls to the boundary, as these lines are common to both the central and river routes. The quantities and estimates of the alternative routes are now being checked over in the office and it is expected that in a month the office will have a report ready to forward to Ottawa.

POLICE ASK ABOUT A RUNAWAY WIFE

Mrs. Havelock Murphy Left Her Home Here Some Time Ago

And Now the Salem Authorities Seek Information as to Her Past Life.

Havelock Murphy, who is in the employ of J. D. Turner, King square, is looking for information about his wife and fears that the young woman has been doing some things contrary to law.

It appears that Mrs. Murphy, who was formerly Christina Theodore, the daughter of a Greek sea captain, named Panos Theophilus Theodore, was brought up, after the death of her father, by Mrs. A. H. Hibbon, of St. James street.

Some six years ago Christina and Mr. Murphy were married at the former's home on St. James street by Rev. A. D. Dewdney. This was in October, 8th, 1900, and two years later they went to Brockton, Mass., where they lived for two years. Mrs. Murphy's mother was during this time a resident of St. John, but died in 1901.

Early in April, 1904, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy returned to St. John from Brockton and went to live with Mr. and Mrs. Hibbon. They remained there the month Mrs. Murphy got up in the morning and prepared her husband's breakfast before he went to work. She then quietly closed the doors to the old people's rooms, gathered together a bundle of clothes and walked out of the house. She has never since been heard from until a week ago.

Mr. Murphy has learned that on the first day of February, 1906, which came on Wednesday, his wife spent the day with some friends in St. John, that she was also around the city on Thursday and that on Friday she left for the States, going to Providence, where she has a half-sister married. He has also found that she spent some time in Salem and that later she went back to Providence where she is now supposed to be.

A week ago last Saturday Mr. Murphy received the first letter from his wife since she left. She urged him to go to Providence and get a job there. He has not answered the letter on Friday last. Chief of Police Clark received a letter from Chief of Police H. B. Gillier, of 17 Leche street, Salem, asking for information about Havelock Murphy, and requesting proofs of his marriage to the woman known in Salem as Mrs. Murphy. Chief Clark at once communicated with Mr. Murphy, and learned that he had had in his possession the marriage certificate which he had quietly kept to himself instead of handing over to his wife as is the usual custom.

This information was sent to Mr. Gillier, and the Star learns that an investigation is being carried on by the police of Salem and Providence in the career of the woman. Mr. Murphy says he has reason to believe that a charge, perhaps of bigamy, will be made against her and he would not be at all surprised if such were done. He states that his wife's half-sister had a leaning in this direction. The Star has learned that up to the present no arrest has been made, but information from Salem is expected at any time.
