

4 PROVINCES BONE DRY BY REFERENDUM

Halifax Only Large Place in Nova Scotia to Vote to Keep the Liquor Traffic.

WINNIPEG WET, BUT PROVINCE IS DRY

Incomplete Returns Indicate Alberta and Saskatchewan Are on the Dry Side.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 25.—Incomplete returns indicate that Nova Scotia has voted overwhelmingly in favor of bone dry prohibition, as a result of today's referendum on the question as to whether the importation of liquor for personal use should be continued. Halifax alone, of all the towns heard from gave a wet majority. The mining and industrial centres which many had anticipated would vote wet, were dry by substantial majorities and early indications were that the province as a whole would go dry by upwards of 40,000 majority. Apparently party in the referendum taken today was an exceptionally small vote was cast. In Halifax city less than one third of the qualified voters went to the polls. Early returns indicated an even smaller percentage of actual voters to qualified voters in the rural sections of the province.

Big in Cape Breton. Cape Breton County, with such large centres as Sydney, Glace Bay, New Waterford, Sydney Mines and North Sydney, recorded a majority for the "dry" of over five thousand. The largest county majority yet given is that of Pictou, which while still incomplete was 6,000 last night. Rev. H. R. Grant, the leader of the prohibition forces who is in Pictou, said tonight that the returns showed that there would be a forty thousand majority when all the returns were in. The counties heard from and the majorities they polled were as follows: Antigonish, (incomplete) 1,302 wet, 668 dry, majority 634. Cape Breton, (incomplete) majority of 6,000 for the "dry." Colchester County, majority of 6,615. Cumberland, majority 3,600 dry. Digby, dry, 2,304, wet 338, majority 1,966. Guysboro reported ten to one dry. Hants, 4,973 majority dry. Inverness, 3,500 majority dry. Kings, 4,000 majority dry. Pictou County over 6,000 dry. Queens, 3,000 majority dry. Shelburne, 2,000 majority dry. Victoria, 1,500 majority dry.

Winnipeg is "Wet". Winnipeg, Oct. 25.—The Province of Manitoba has voted on the liquor importation in the referendum taken today. Approximately fifty per cent of the electorate have voted "yes" on the ballot, which will cause the cessation of the liquor supply of the province from inter-provincial houses. The city of Winnipeg voted wet, by a majority of 5,800 majority, but this figure was killed by the vote outside its limits. There were few places besides that voted wet. Dauphin, Brandon City, Provencher are among the smaller places to go wet. St. Boniface was very largely so. So far as tabulated, the city of Winnipeg has 5,800 wet, 13,225. There are a few more polls to count.

Close in Saskatchewan. Regina, Sask., Oct. 25.—Saskatchewan will go dry, but the final count will be a fairly close one. Contrary to expectations Regina city went in the wet column with the figures: dry 3,317; wet, 3,508. The other principal cities in the province, Saskatoon and Moose Jaw have voted dry by close majorities. It is in the fifteen rural constituencies that the prohibition forces will score their lead. Returns from many of the polling stations indicate that the wet will be about 7,000 short of a victory, Alberta Bone Dry. Edmonton, Alta., Oct. 25.—Returns tonight indicate that Alberta will go bone-dry by a majority of from 15,000 to 20,000. All the cities have gone dry according to indications.

CHARLOTTE COUNTY RECOUNT WILL BE FINISHED TODAY

Scovil (G) and Pollard (O) Running a Close Race for Honors.

Special to The Standard. St. Andrews, Oct. 25.—Judge Carleton today resumed his task of recounting the votes cast in Charlotte county for the provincial election of October 14th. It was thought at the close of today's proceedings the recount would be finished tomorrow afternoon. The poll taken by Judge Carleton that indicates a cross on them after a candidate's name should not be counted, tends to militate against the opposition candidate, Mr. Pollard. Many ballots have been thrown which carried a cross after his name. The total votes checked up to tonight show Mr. Scovil (G) with a slight lead over Mr. Pollard (O).

The ballot boxes in the island district will be examined tomorrow when the friends of Mr. Pollard look for him to overturn the handicap now imposed upon him and shoot into the lead.

GREEK'S KING IS DEAD FROM MONKEY BITE

Death Came to King Alexander at Athens After Three Weeks' Intense Suffering.

BITTEN BY ANIMAL ON OCTOBER 3RD

Succeeded to the Throne in 1917 After Allies Had Deposed Pro-German Father.

Athens, Oct. 25.—King Alexander of Greece died this evening at 6.30. His death was due to wounds which he had received in an attack on him by a pet monkey early in October, the King being badly mutilated. Throughout last night the heart action grew weaker, his general ability became more pronounced, and pulmonary symptoms were intense. Breathing at times was most difficult and weakening, and at noon today it was announced that the king's condition was hopeless.

Ruled Three Years

Alexander succeeded to the throne of Greece in 1917, after the deposition of his father, King Constantine, and at the time of his accession was not quite 24 years old.

On October 3 he was bitten by a monkey while endeavoring to protect his dog from an attack. His wound became infected, and several operations for the removal of flesh were performed.

SUGAR IS DOWN TO 17 CENTS AT ALL REFINERIES

Should Retail at New Prices at Not Over Nineteen Cents Per Pound Now.

REFINERS TO LOSE OVER $4,500,000

Condition of Manufacturers Not Bettered at All, They Say, by Ottawa Visit.

Montreal, Oct. 25.—It was announced this afternoon by four sugar refiners, the Canada, Atlantic, St. Lawrence and Acadia, that the price of granulated sugar would be immediately reduced two cents a pound, from 19 1/2 cents to 17.50 cents, less five per cent, which makes the amount received by the refiners for the sugar exactly 17 cents a pound. This will mean that the retail price of sugar, based on the two cents a pound "spread" as fixed by the defunct board of commerce, should be 19 cents, possibly less, since sugar has been retailing here at around 20 cents.

Down to 16 Cents. The Dominion Sugar Company, which chiefly handled best sugar, at present has reduced its price to 16 cents a pound, which further complicates the position and makes the price of granulated sugar less secure.

It is figured that the Montreal cut in prices will entail a loss to the refiners of about $4,500,000, or a total loss of around $14,000,000 since the decline in sugar prices started. All the refiners returned this week from Ottawa. It was stated by Huntley R. Drummond, president of the Canada Sugar Refiners, that while full representations had been made to the government, they had returned to Montreal, without having bettered their condition.

CALLS FOR SUNDAY MASWINEY PROTEST

Churches to be Draped in Black and Flags Half-Mast-ed for the Occasion.

Cork, Oct. 25.—Joseph Murphy, one of the hunger strikers in Cork jail, died tonight. His death occurred at 10 p.m. He was twenty-five years old and unmarried. Murphy was a member of the Irish Volunteers and was well known as an athlete.

Joseph Murphy was one of the seven men imprisoned in Cork jail two days before Lord Mayor MacSwiney was sent to Brixton prison in London. All the men in Cork jail immediately went on a hunger strike. Last week one of them, Michael Fitzgerald, died.

There were reports last month that Murphy was a United States citizen. It was asserted that he was born in Lynn, Mass. Secretary of State Coby was declared to be investigating the claim.

It is asserted that the government accusation against Murphy was that he had a bomb in his possession.

New York, Oct. 25.—Dermot Lynch, national secretary of the Friends of Irish Freedom, tonight urged all state and local branches of the organization calling for organized "manifestations of indignation and sorrow" on Sunday over the "murder" of Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork and Michael Fitzgerald, who died recently after a hunger strike in a Cork jail. The demonstrations are to be in the form of processions, and the marchers are to carry banners with general services in Cathedral and principal churches and courtyards. Banners are to be draped in black. No motions are to be carried and no speeches made on that day, according to the orders of national executive director, Lynch stated.

The inalienable right to liberty, the privilege of the citizen, is being denied now had been promulgated in railway practice. MacSWINEY DIES IN BRIXTON AT END OF 73 DAYS

Death Came to Food Striker After He Had Been Unconscious for 36 Hours.

BROTHER AT HIS SIDE AT DEATH

No Demonstration When News of His Death Became Known on Streets.

London, Oct. 25.—Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, died at Brixton prison, this city, at 5.40 o'clock this morning.

His death followed a hunger strike of more than 73 days, culminating in the annals of the medical world. MacSwiney, who had been unconscious for several days, did not recover his faculties before he died. Father Dominic, his private chaplain, and his brother, John MacSwiney, were with him when the news of his death was received at the prison at night and did not leave until several hours after MacSwiney breathed his last.

Brothers Were Present. John MacSwiney and the chaplain, who had been waiting down stairs in the prison, were told by prison officials at 4.30 o'clock that they should go to the mayor's bedside, as they thought death was approaching. The brother asked for the privilege of communicating with other relatives who were not present.

John MacSwiney, as soon as death occurred, conveyed the news to the father of the lord mayor, who was staying at a Western hotel, with Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien, the former being the London executive of the Irish Self-Determination League.

Mrs. MacSwiney, accompanied by her parents, and the Misses Annie and Mary MacSwiney, sisters of the lord mayor, arrived at Brixton prison at 9.30 o'clock.

The usual large contingent of police was on duty inside the prison grounds to prevent any demonstration, but outside, and along the road leading to the main highway there were no unusual signs of activity.

No civilians were waiting there, as they usually did, in the early days of the lord mayor's hunger strike. Caret of Lord Mayor. Terence MacSwiney was 40 years old and was one of the most prominent Irish patriots. He started life as a draper's assistant, but became a poet author and a playwright before taking up politics seriously. Later he became violently anti-English.

LABOR FAILED IN ATTACK ON SPECIAL BILL

Emergency Bill Giving Special Powers to British Gov't is Given Second Reading.

STRIKE IS COSTING 3,000,000 STERLING

Gov't and Labor Leaders Still in Conference With Good Hopes of a Settlement.

London, Oct. 25.—After conferences of the miners' leaders with Mr. Lloyd George and other members of the government today and prolonged consideration of the government's new offer by the executive of the miners' federation no definite decision had been taken tonight. The executive will meet tomorrow morning to renew its consideration of the matter.

Both sides continue secretive regarding the nature of the government's proposal, which, however, is believed to be framed along some what similar lines as those suggested by Wm. Brace, president of the South Wales Miners' Federation, in the House of Commons last week. This was the effect that the two shillings demanded by the miners should be granted temporarily, pending the creation of a permanent wages board and the whole matter reviewed by the end of the year.

Emergency Bill Debated. The emergency bill providing protection against public disorder was debated in the House of Commons tonight on a second reading, and was referred to a committee of the whole house, the labor motion for its rejection being defeated by a large majority.

This decision was followed by another debate on Irish reparations for which the adjournment of the House was moved. Answering questions on transport the Minister of Transportation said that the miners' strike costing the taxpayers on average two and three million pounds sterling per week.

Montreal, Oct. 25.—The Elder Dempster freighter Chama, which went ashore last Thursday on Bellechasse Island, 17 miles below Quebec was refloated today by the Lord Strathcona and other tugs. The ship was released about one o'clock and was taken to Quebec. It is understood she has sustained considerable damage to No. 1 hold which was making water badly. The cargo in that hold was for South African ports, and in all probability has been damaged. It is probable the Chama will be dry docked at Quebec.

CANADA NEEDS A PROTECTIVE TARIFF POLICY

Premier Meighen at Winnipeg Defends Policy of Gov't Beginning Western Tour.

SCORES "POLITICAL JIG DANCING"

Promises Definite Policy Before the Electors Are Asked to Decide on Government.

Winnipeg, Oct. 25.—A defence of the government's course over the past three years, an attack on what he termed the "Political Jig-Dancing" of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King in his present western tour, and statements on the government's tariff policy featured the address here tonight of Hon. Arthur Meighen, Premier of Canada, in the opening meeting of his tour of the Western Provinces. He was preceded by Hon. J. A. Calder, who is to accompany the premier on his trip and who reviewed briefly tonight what he considered some of the outstanding achievements of the government in recent years.

Must Have Protection. "There must be," said Premier Meighen, "such tariff as will make it pay Canadian industries to remain in Canada and make it pay industries to grow and to make good within this country. Up to that point, and no beyond that point, the tariff in Canada, in any class of goods should go. I ask the people of Winnipeg, if you first of all decide that you must take account of the needs of industry and the necessity of keeping them in this country, can you possibly adopt a more restricted principle than that? We do not intend to go further. There is no value whatever in a tariff that does less. I do not see how to find out what is necessary, except by the most careful and thorough enquiry that can be made.

Presents a Policy. That is the course the government is pursuing, and before the electors of this country are asked to decide between our course and the vagaries of our various oppositions, they will have a definite tariff from us in black and white. By the principle I have defined, by the limits I have clearly set out, that tariff will be constructed. There were only two tariff principles, he said—protective and free trade. "I believe the protective principle can be abused," he said. "I certainly believe it can be too high. I believe it has been abused. I believe in places and at times it has been too high, but I don't believe it can be abolished. There are many who believe that there is little, if anything, to be lost and very much to be gained by practically a prohibitive tariff.

Free Trade. With that opinion the government of Canada holds no sympathy and against the prevalence of the opposite opinion, the theory of free trade, if we abandon the principle of protection we will pass a sure and heavy penalty and every class will share in the calamity. We do not intend any system of shifting our imports. We must hold the level of our tariff down to the minimum that will maintain fair but active competition with industries outside.

The speaker declared that Mr. King was trying to get the free trade vote as well as the votes of those who expect a protective tariff. "He says," declared the premier, "that he wants union with the farmers, and he says I am trying to keep them from uniting. In the name of common sense, what could I do to keep them from uniting?"

Farmers' Platform. "If the Farmers Party want to take account of the needs of industry, then I tell them they want a protective tariff, and they ought to get out in the open and say so. I say, let them unite if they want to, and when they do, let them tell us just where they all stand, and don't try to hold up two flags, and don't try to get votes on the one hand and on the other. You can't mix salt and moonshine."

Mr. Meighen stated that when Mr. King himself was in office, the tariff on implements averaged 30.18 per cent, and now was 14.94 per cent. The average tariff now was scarcely 25 per cent on dutiable goods.

The New Programme. In conclusion Mr. Meighen referred to the programme of the National Liberal and Conservatives, a programme of reform really accomplished, he said. "I appeal to the citizens of Canada, to have regard to performance and to principle, and to know well where they are going. I ask you to consider as citizens of a great country whether it is better to adhere in reason and in moderation to policies that have stood the test of forty years, that have been weighed in the balance of two great parties and have not been found wanting, or to attempt to put your party in men who have stood true in the days of trial and through the night of tragedy and terror, rather than to follow the uncertain vagaries of an orator who promises all things to all men.

Must Develop Canada. "The big task of the next two years is the development of the resources of Canada. Constructive plans that bring real results in the development of our resources must be thought out and put to advices received here today.

Do not let the west of this country get the idea that the east must remain the business centre, or even the manufacturing centre of the dominion. Territory that has the coal and the ore, and the mineral wealth of Western Canada is bound to become a great industrial land.

Date on Old Lines

"There are those who continue to date upon the old partisan hatreds, who would divide our politics into narrow grooves of bigoted thought, who want a return to the old fence quarrels. These men do not take into account the new spirit created by the war. Do you believe that men and women are not profoundly affected when they see about them the tragedies and the sufferings of a scourged and bleeding world? Surely it should teach us to avoid harsh extremes, to avoid the rigid, narrow mould of party-manship, which crushes and warps and blinds. Surely it should teach us to stand still firmly together while storms rage round to march with care, to remember that experience is better than theory, that performance is better than promise, and to hold fast that which is good."

"The authority of parliament over its executive is just as complete, just as final, just as supreme at this hour and has been at every moment of the last six years as it ever has been in the history of Canada or any country on earth," he said.

Answers Mr. King

The Premier answered criticisms which he said were made by Mr. King that the government spent in such building money that was devoted by parliament. Assuming that the auditor-general would have passed a single check for which parliament's authority had not been given, Mr. Meighen said parliament passed in February, 1917, a supply bill for five hundred million dollars, out of which $20,000,000 was set aside for building ships. An amount to this effect was made by Sir Robert Borden in March, 1918, and there was no criticism for the following year. $40,000,000 was specifically voted by parliament and a further sum was voted last session for the same purpose. Every cent was taken to get the construction done at the lowest possible cost, but the tender system was not retained, he stated, as one or two ports would have set off the contracts and the work had to be distributed through various firms or it would not have been done at all.

Defends G. T. R. Purchase

The Premier quoted Mr. King as asserting that the acquisition of the Grand Trunk railway was a "striking example of autocrat's control," and went on to say that parliament had discussed the bill fully and all members had the right to make amendments. The proposal had been before the committee for a year and five months, and had been freely discussed, so that there was no element of surprise. The Premier advised the calling of the special session of 1919 to ratify the purchase, and said that Mr. King's assertion that the last session was closed with the franchise bill for which there was no need, he declared, was in the discussion of the bill in parliament the Liberal leader had admitted the bill's necessity.

King's Ethereal Wandrings

"Whenever," the Premier said, "the leader of the opposition has condescended to come down from his ethereal wandrings and meaningless exhortations, from the habit of ranting platitudes when an evangelistic fervor, when he comes down from words to concrete allegations, he can be refuted in every case just as easily and just as decisively as in the instances I have selected tonight."

The Premier answered criticisms that the government was reactionary and inactive by pointing to its policy of land settlement, its vocational training and re-establishment policy, the nationalization of nearly 20,000 miles of railway, the granting of the franchise to women, the part taken by Canada in the peace treaty, the League of Nations and the framing of the labor conventions, its scheme of technical education, its road and house construction.

"If I am asked," he continued, "whether it will be possible to have a lower scale than prevails today, or not, I say that must await the completion of the investigation. For myself, I would hope that it would be found not to be higher, and perhaps lower than it is now, but I believe the interest of Canadians of every class require that Canadian industries remain Canadian industries and not American industries grow with the growth of Canada."

Mr. Meighen declared that the language of the leader of the Opposition on the stump, "was even more reckless than his language in parliament," he defended the government from Mr. King's charges that it had been "paralyzing the nation's mind" and asserted that the Opposition leader's words on the Grand Trunk bill constituted a glaring example of incomprehensible incoherence.

The irresponsible utterances of the leader of the Opposition said the Premier, "are an illustration of how completely partisan blindness can paralyze the human mind." The Premier spoke in high terms of the services of the state rendered by Sir Robert Borden, and paid tribute to the memory of Sir Wilfrid Laurier who taught public men, he said, lessons of self-control of cheerfulness of mind and heart, of kindness of manner and of dignity of bearing.

Reviewing the record of the government, the Premier said that as trustees for the people they were proud to account "for every day and every hour of the conduct of our reign."

The leader of the government dealt in some detail with Western claims by the leader of the Opposition, "and said wayward declamations" of Mr. King, "they were termed, Mr. Meighen asserted that Mr. King has no case when he charged the government with autocratic methods."

Hon. Mr. Calder spoke of the appearance of Mr. Meighen in Winnipeg three years ago in the war election, and asked if the government had not carried out its mandate. There were vociferous cries of "no" from various parts of the hall.

"That," said Mr. Calder, "is a matter which will bear discussion," and declared that from that election to the end of the war the government bent every energy towards its fulfillment. There were isolated shouts of "sugar," "loss rules" and "give soldiers a square deal." "I have never had any regret as to my course in joining the Union government, and I have no apology," said Mr. Calder. There were further interruptions, and the chair-

The idea of the great modern morality play, "Everywoman," existed in the mind of Walter Browne many years before it reached the stage. It was a work of love and he spent every moment he could spare from his newspaper duties writing, revising, and perfecting. When at last it was submitted to the managers, they accepted it enthusiastically. Produced at the Herd Square Theatre in February, 1911, it received what was probably the most flattering notice ever given a new stage drama by the New York critics. It is a tragic fact that Mr. Browne died on the very evening of his triumph. "Everywoman" has been played throughout America and Europe by countless road companies, with uniform success everywhere.

"Everywoman" Film Better Than The Play

Everybody has heard of "Everywoman." It was hailed as something wonderful, new on the stage when it was first produced in New York eight years ago, and it has been played continuously on the road since that time. Not only has it been a great artistic success, but it has proven one of the most lucrative money-makers ever staged. However, great as its popularity as spoken drama has been, it has taken the screen to bring out the entertaining and spectacular values of "Everywoman" to the full. Lavish beauty is the keynote of the picture. A cast composed exclusively of talented and prominent players, an expert director, and an unstinted expenditure of artistic effort and money have been combined to produce one of the finest photoplays of all times. Great crowds enjoyed it greatly at the Imperial yesterday.

She stakes all her possessions in a great gaming hall, hoping to win a clew to Love. She loses everything and New Year's Eve finds Everywoman and Youth, poverty-stricken, wandering in the streets. Father Time beckons and Youth leaves forever. In desperation, Everywoman tries to sell herself to Wealth, but he will have nothing to do with her without Youth and Beauty.

As the chimes ring out, Truth and Conscience leave the great church across the street. Falling at the feet of Truth, Everywoman declares she is ready to follow her. To a modest hut, Everywoman comes and finds that Love, the son of Truth, lives there. He is the young physician.

Who Gets the 9 Pounds of Sugar?

THE genuine Barbados—the pure concentrate of the finest juice of the ripe British West Indian cane—contains 9 pounds of SUGAR to the gallon. It is the sugar that gives it its food value—its delightful flavour—its heat and energy producing qualities.

It's YOURS!!

But sugar jumped in price—so high that they began to take the 9 pounds of sugar out and sell you the refuse as Molasses, or blend it with glucose, water, and chemicals as table syrups—with fancy names. It wasn't fair to you, and it wasn't fair to the British planters in Barbados, who have always tried to serve Canada faithfully. These planters have united to protect your interests, by shipping their finest Super-Fancy grade, whole-sugar molasses under the safeguard of a REGISTERED name—"Windmill".

Buy it in Bulk—Just as Much as You Need!

Moncton Rotarians Guests In The City

Rotarian Spirit Rampant When Jolly Good Fellow Got Together Last Night

The local Rotarians held a very nice night when they entertained members of the Moncton Rotary Club who arrived here in the afternoon by motor cars to pay a fraternal visit. One hundred and fifty members were present, including the following Rotarians from Moncton: R. A. Mead, R. A. Cummings, W. H. Wheeler, B. Weldon, W. J. Alston, A. B. Spooner, H. P. Doolittle, W. H. Leary, C. H. Blakely, Dr. J. M. O'P. W. McDonald, Dr. A. B. Jardon, B. Keating, C. B. Trites, G. O. Spence, J. H. Norris. This visit was the result of an invitation extended by the Rotary Club of St. John, N. B. to Rotarians of Moncton with the hope of future intercourse between various clubs in the Maritime Provinces.

Object of Meeting

The chairman, Ned Terry, was particularly happy and spoke in hearty terms of welcome to the Moncton Rotarians, mentioning that it was the initial step in the proposed fraternal trips of Rotary Clubs in the Maritime Provinces. Mr. Terry proceeded to remark that in addition to a real moving picture, the Rev. C. Armstrong would narrate the story of his trip to the Rotarian Convention at Atlantic City, but added that, while he expected that Canon Armstrong would talk about his had been there, was afraid he might not touch upon his experiences in a personal manner and for this reason he proposed a real moving picture, the Rev. Moncton Rotarians Guests In The City

Rotarian Spirit Rampant When Jolly Good Fellows Got Together Last Night.

The local Rotarians held away last night when they entertained members of the Moncton Rotary Club who arrived here in the afternoon by motor cars to pay a fraternal visit. Over one hundred and fifty members were present, including the following Rotarians from Moncton: R. A. Beaton, R. A. Cummings, W. H. Wheeler, D. B. Weldon, W. J. Allison, A. H. McSpencer, R. P. Dickson, H. J. Macnamara, C. H. Bickney, Dr. J. M. O'Neil, P. W. McDonald, Dr. A. H. Birdon, R. K. Keating, C. B. Trites, G. O. Spencer, J. H. Norton. This visit was the result of an invitation extended by the Rotary Club of St. John, N. B. to the Rotarians of Moncton with the view of future intercourse between the various clubs in the Maritime Provinces.

Object of Meeting

The chairman, Ned Terry, was in a particularly happy vein and spoke in hearty terms of welcome to the Moncton Rotarians, mentioning that it was the initial step in the proposed fraternal trips of Rotary Clubs in the Maritime Provinces. Mr. Terry proceeded to remark that in addition to a live and interesting program, the Rev. Canon Armstrong would narrate the story of his trip to the Rotarian Convention at Atlantic City, but added that, while he expected that Canon Armstrong would tell about all he had seen there, he was afraid he might not touch upon his experiences in a personal manner, and for this reason he proposed to call upon Rotarians, who had been with the returned gentleman during the convention.

His Worship, Mayor Schofield, as a member of the club, endeavored to remark that there had been a good deal of talk about the population of St. John, Moncton and Halifax, and it apparently had been decided by a Rotarian of this city that there was to be something done for the rising generation here. He thereupon, amidst great laughter and vigorous applause, presented Mr. Harold Bickney with a bird emblematic of the stork. The chairman then suggested that Alex. McSwiney should also examine the stork very critically.

Rotarian Spirit Rampant

True Rotarian spirit was evident throughout the evening, and the members from each city freely fraternized with one another. Upon Mr. Terry reading a communication from the Postal Employees asking for a hearing in connection with their request for increased salaries, it was decided to pass the matter to the committee for attention. The Moncton president, owing to his absence in Ottawa, was unable to be present, but he was represented by Geo. O. Spencer, Mr. Speaker stated that he regretted that he was unable to represent "The Marine" as he would like to, but that it was with great pleasure that the Rotarians of his city had accepted the invitation to come to St. John, and they were very glad that they had come. It was the first collective visit of Moncton Rotarians to this city, and he was pleased to perceive that such a good sense and feeling of fellowship existed in the Club. He referred to the timely aid St. John had rendered to Moncton in the organization and formation of the Moncton Club, and felt that the Rotarians of his city would always feel deeply indebted to St. John. De Wm. Cairns, who was in excellent voice, sang several songs which were received with loud applause, and was accompanied by Rotarian Mona Waring, Vice-President M. D. Patterson and Jimmy Norton, Secretary of the Moncton Club. Percy Dickson, Moncton, and Sandy Wilson, delivered brief addresses.

Pink Bathing Suit

Rotarian Wilson, in referring to the trip to Atlantic City, told a very interesting story in connection with a favored gentleman who was in his party, and a young lady in a pink bathing suit, which was the occasion for another outbreak of laughter. The Rotary Club of Ottawa was represented by the Rev. Styles, who narrated a story about an Irish woman who was ill. She requested her husband to send for the Jewish Rabbi, and upon her spouse asking if it was not the good father she wanted, she replied: "No. Do you think that I want the good father to get small pos?" CORK DEPUTY ALLEGES THREAT

Acting Lord Mayor Thinks He is Destined to Follow Dead MacSwiney.

Cork, Oct. 25.—Deputy Lord Mayor O'Callaghan, in a statement today on Lord Mayor MacSwiney's death, referred to the assassination of Lord Mayor MacCurran, who he declared, was "murdered by the English," and asserted that MacSwiney had followed in the same line. "In short interval since his imprisonment while I have been temporarily taking his place," declared the deputy mayor, "I have received notice of an official origin threatening me with a similar end. "The republican hold over the municipal chair in Cork causes only when the last republican in Cork has followed MacCurran and MacSwiney into the grave. Murder will not terrorize us."

JAPAN PLANS LAND GRANTS.

(Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger.) Tokyo, Oct. 25.—The Japanese committee of the League of Nations is preparing to introduce a bill giving the right to acquire land in Japan and Korea to foreigners whose nations accord reciprocal rights to the Japanese. It is believed that the bill will not only be passed, but that any amendments made will tend to extend rather than limit such provisions.

BIRTHRATE INCREASES.

Philadelphia, Oct. 25.—Philadelphia's birthrate has shown a notable increase in the first eight months of 1920, after a decline during the war. The increase this year has been 103 births a month over 1919 and if the present rate continues will be far in excess of previous years.

Canon Armstrong

The Rev. Canon Armstrong, during the course of his speech, referring to the recent convention, stated: "I will give you the impressions which were made upon me as the result of my trip to Atlantic City. The first one was that of good will. Good will and good fellowship seemed to permeate the minds of everyone throughout the trip. I saw a photo also of three men from St. John that would make you think they were saints representing 'Faith, Hope and Charity,' but this picture, however, was taken at 1 A. M. when I was 'right' in my bed. This good will was so apparent that even a Hellenic was observed to lead in song, imbued with a good old Rotarian spirit. I think that perhaps our own Rotarians were responsible for the parody 'It's a long way to Atlantic City.' People at Atlantic City also sang, one song to the music of 'The Pink Lady.' Canon Armstrong then went on to say that there were present Rotarians from many parts of the world, including China; and that some representatives from Tennessee sang over-bells at the hotel table with questionable harmony. He also mentioned that the president in opening the convention requested each man to turn to either side of him and shake hands with his brother Rotarian. Raymond Robbins, the speaker added, 'mustered a great and wonderful procession of all delegates, and Canada was given a front place in that regard. He mentioned that Judge Higgins, of Kansas, had delivered an address in connection with the new industrial course which had recently been established for the purpose of compelling people to continue their labors without striking until an award had been made, so that mankind in general could not suffer through a strike. The office of first vice president had also been given to a Canadian by an overwhelming majority and the chairman had called upon a 'brother of the Gospel' to close the convention in prayer. Mr. Terry, after expressing thanks to Canon Armstrong for his address, stated that he hoped that Moncton would again be ably represented in March next at the convention in St. John and mentioned that a committee would shortly get to work in preparation for the coming gathering. During the evening the usual Rotarian songs were sung with great gusto; and the gathering broke up at ten o'clock after singing 'God Save the King.'

Baptist Young People's Union

Large Gathering at Main St. Last Evening Addressed by Rev. Isaac Brindley.

Proving that the society is a flourishing one there was a very large attendance at the weekly meeting of the Baptist Young People's Union held in the Main street Baptist church last evening. Between six and seven hundred persons filled the church.

Those present included members of the following B. Y. P. U. societies: Central, German street, Waterloo street, Tabernacle, Ladlow street, Charlotte street, Main street, Victoria street. The President, R. H. Parsons, was in the chair. A choir of young girls, the G. G. I. T. of Main street furnished music. Songs were rendered by Clyde Parsons and Stewart. A prayer was read by Rev. J. H. Jenner. Prayer was offered by the Rev. S. B. Poole. The Roll Call was responded to by Rev. F. H. Hone, Rev. J. H. Jenner, Rev. W. R. Robinson, Rev. Isaac Brindley and others.

An address of welcome was given by the pastor of Main street Baptist church, Rev. Dr. David Hutchinson. A report of the B. Y. P. U. convention at Toronto was given by the president, who also pointed out the importance of the B. Y. P. U. in the churches.

An address on "What Do You Behold?" was delivered by Rev. Isaac Brindley of the Tabernacle Baptist church. With original and striking illustrations the speaker pointed out the influence of what we behold upon our lives. He said that when the young people of today looked more on the card table and cabaret than at prayer and prayer meetings it was time that things should be changed. He had heard that few now care are to be started in St. John. He urged more personal consecration and asked that all should open their eyes to see the Master and follow Him. Rev. J. H. Jenner moved a vote of thanks to the speaker and the meeting closed with prayer, after the singing of "Jesus Be the Tie that Binds," all hands linked.

SCOTLAND YARD SAYS "RED" CASH BEHIND STRIKE

That is Reason Lloyd George is So Determined to Crush the Outbreak.

By WILLIAM G. HUNTER. (Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic.) London, Oct. 25.—The key to the unflinching attitude with which the Premier faced the coal strike crisis in his speech in parliament may be found in the statement made to us tonight by Superintendent McEwan of Scotland Yard, that the Government has absolute evidence that Bolshevik money is behind the Whitehall riots and the coal strike.

Labor leaders who had seen Lloyd George earlier in the evening were convinced that when he spoke he would make concessions to the miners. When there were no concessions they were bitterly disappointed and believed that in an intervening meeting of the cabinet the Premier had been overcome by members who wish a firmer policy in labor matters. The same group favors a more aggressive policy.

Red Activity Charged.

It is hinted strongly in Government circles tonight that discovery of the Bolshevik plot has much to do with the changed attitude. This leaves the situation much confused. The Government and the miners' leaders are each apparently awaiting approach from the other. The fullwaymen's Union met to consider sympathetic action, but adjourned without decision. Scotland Yard discovered the first traces of Red activities when investigating the sale here during the past fortnight of a large amount of platinum, priced below the market. They traced the material to high members of the Bolshevik trade commission. They are confident that hundreds of thousands of dollars were involved in the deals and were used to finance the strike and riot.

Krasin in Deal.

Scotland Yard is working on evidence to link Krasin with the disposal of the platinum. If the connection is made, it is said, the Premier will send him back to Russia as he did in the case of Kamouff. The leaders of the riots were foreigners, not from the unemployed, and they handled the money as if all the details had previously been worked out. Only a few small fry were caught by the police in Whitehall and the big fish escaped, but sensational arrests are expected. Reports that Robert Smith, the author chief, was involved in a Bolshevik plot are scouted by Scotland Yard, which claims to have complete evidence that he is doing all that is possible to hold back the extremists.

RUM-CHASING LAUNCH PAYING INVESTMENT

Amherstburg, Oct. 25.—The Government's recent investment in a speed boat to chase rum-runners paid 10 per cent. returns one night last week. Using the boat Rev. J. O. Spradlin and his assistant, S. M. Halkum picked up 75 cases of illicit liquor in process of transport to Detroit. The liquor, which will be confiscated, is valued at $3,000. A Laporte Lancia is alleged to have had 27 cases of the whiskey. The cases had been left on the Canadian shore for runners.

Sonny Horgan NOW HAS A LOVELY SKIN

FOR eight months my boy's face was literally covered with Eczema, writes Mrs. Horgan of 187 Manning Avenue, Toronto.

"It so pained and irritated him that he could not sleep. He was so badly disfigured that I felt ashamed to let him go out of the house. As nothing did him any good I took him to the hospital. When the treatment there appeared to make the eczema worse I heard about Zam-Buk.

No More Eczema!

"So I got a supply of Zam-Buk and applied it liberally and regularly. The pain disappeared and the irritation was wonderfully allayed. Soon healing began and as I continued the Zam-Buk treatment the disease gradually disappeared until in time my boy's skin was perfectly clear, healthy and smooth."

WATCH YOUR GUMS—BLEEDING A SIGN OF TROUBLE

Medical science knows how serious is the sign of bleeding gums. For it knows that tender and bleeding gums are the forerunners of Pycorrhoea, that dread disease which afflicts four out of five people over forty.

If the disease is unchecked, the gum-line recedes, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of the Pycorrhoea poisons generated at their base—poisons which seep into the system and wreck the health. They cause rheumatism, nervous disorders, anaemia, and many other ills.

To avoid Pycorrhoea, visit your dentist often for tooth and gum inspection, and use Forhan's For the Gums. Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pycorrhoea or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums firm and healthy—the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions and consult your dentist immediately for special treatment.

ALL TO BE "BLACK" IN HOME OF BRIDE

Paris, Oct. 25.—Calling marriage a tragedy for which the mind must be adequately prepared, Germaine de la Boissiere, French artist, has designed a black apartment in which she and her prospective husband will spend their honeymoon.

The nine rooms of the apartment are covered with black, some with black velvet, others with satin, linen or wallpaper. Curtains and portieres are black. Black the furniture, black the bed, black the sheets, black the towels. The bathtub is a huge black marble.

The bride's trousseau is a mass of black chiffon and chantilly lace, while she has sent notes written with white ink on black paper, informing her friends that only black-clad persons will be received.

FLAME BURST FROM HOSE WHEN FIREMAN TURNED ON STREAM

"Most Interesting Thing That Ever Happened in Fire Fighting" Says Chief.

Boston, Oct. 25.—The phenomenon of flame bursting from a fire hose through which water was passing when there was no fire nearby, has mystified the Boston fire department. Nothing like it ever occurred before, according to fire commissioner Murphy, who said it was "the most interesting thing that has happened in the fire business in a long time."

The hose described as a 2 1/2 inch rubber lined, double cotton jacket hose, was of a standard make, its composition well within the specifications of the department and of the national board of fire underwriters.

The fire developed during a test of big motor pumping engines. It burned holes through the hose in two places, each near the engine connection, flame breaking through on the outside. First opinion of experts was that "free sulphur" had been left between layers of the hose as a residue of vulcanization, but analysis showed a minute quantity as compared with specification allowance.

The burned sections have been sent to the Massachusetts institute of technology for examination.

TRIED TO MURDER CONSTABLE WHERE ONE WAS KILLED

Montreal, Oct. 25.—At the very spot, a lane near the corner of Bernard Park Avenue, where Constable Chicoine was shot and fatally wounded on June 15th last, Constable Hately was last night fired at when pursuing three suspects. The Bullet missed him and firing at the flash, he shot and brought down one of the men who was found to be wounded in the leg and was taken to the General Hospital. A search of the district revealed several places broken into among them a garage and a liquor shop.

English Cricket Team In Australia

Resumption of Match Year After Period of Years Rest.

Melbourne, Australia, Oct. 25.—(Canadian Press.)—The resumed year of the test cricket match between the M. C. C. and Australia a period of eight years since their return to international sports. The test match was played on Saturday last Saturday. The English team, which had been in Australia since the outbreak of the war in 1914. The English team, which had been in Australia since the outbreak of the war in 1914. The English team, which had been in Australia since the outbreak of the war in 1914.

Commot is life among spectators as to whether the English really as strong as that which they had shown in 1911-12. It is pointed out, J. W. Sargent, Douglas, Hobbs, Rhodes, Hurren and Strudwick are good if not better than they were but two bowlers of the present, Parkin and Howell, are not the equals of H. G. Foster at either with the ball, but in others of the English side, Russell, M. K. P. V. W. C. H. Wilson, Waddington, P. G. G. der, and Hendren.

In previous test matches between Australia and Rhodes, Rhodes' ready proved their ability in stumps; the former in his own innings against Australia he 1,230 runs with an average while Rhodes in fifty-five test matches has been four not out, scored 1,397 runs, average of 34.07 and taken 300 wickets. Thus Rhodes out three wickets to complete these games. If he gets the is highly probable, he will unique distinction of being English player to make over and capture 100 wickets matches against Australia.

Exactly what the strength Australian eleven will be give as present, and will not until it has been tried in the match. The probable line-up to expect opinion, will be for, still believed to be the keeper in this country; W. C. Kallis, C. G. Macartney, Armstrong, V. S. Ransford, gory, C. B. Pellow, C. B. W. Taylor and H. L. Collins. Have outlasted recovered wounds, R. J. Mansel will take the place of Taylor, certainly, at any rate, the chance above will be carefully and unless some of the young men have never previously in a test match get a chance the Australian side for the is not likely to differ very one above.

Many a man hasn't since he was a boy. The harder a man labor time he has to win.

U. N. B. Defeated King's College

First Intercollegiate Game of Season Played at Fredericton—Score 6 to 3.

Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 25.—The first inter-collegiate football game of the season was won by U. N. B. today when they defeated King's College by a score of 6 to 3.

U. N. B. went over King's goal five times in the first half but only two or three tries were allowed and one of them was of a questionable character, the claim being made that Lounsbury was forced to touch when he was diving across the line for the first try. Trimble scored U. N. B.'s second try as the climax of a spectacular combination play, one of the few occasions when the U. N. B. half line got into action impressively. King's scored their three points with a Burrell drop kicked a goal on a penalty from in front of U. N. B.'s goal line from in front of U. N. B.'s goal posts.

Sgt. Major Aston was referee and headed off many free kicks, the majority of which went to King's College.

The teams lined up as follows:

English Cricket Team In Australia

Resumption of Matches This Year After Period of Eight Years Rest.

Melbourne, Australia, Oct. 25.—By Canadian Press.—The resumption this year of the test cricket matches between the M. C. C. and Australia after a period of eight years signifies the return to international sporting interests of this pre-war classic which was abandoned by the outbreak of hostilities in 1914. The English team is at present in this country having started its schedule last Saturday against West Australia and during the sojourn in the Antipodes will play no less than twenty six matches, according to its schedule, before sailing for home on March 18. The players will have the chance of getting into form before they commence the test series on December 17, having nine state matches to play in the meantime. Other dates set for the test matches are December 31, January 14, February 11 and February 25.

Comment is rife among sports circles here as to whether the English side is really as strong as that which last visited this country in 1913-14. Of that team it is pointed out, J. W. H. P. "Algie" Douglas, Hobart Rhodes, Woolley, Hurme and Strudwick are as good if not better than they were then, but two bowlers of the present side, Parkin and Howell, are not considered the equals of P. H. Foster and Barnes, either with the ball, but or in the field. Others on the English side include Russell, Mackenzie, V. W. C. Jupp, E. H. Wilson, Waddington, P. G. H. Foster, and Henderson.

Being Groomed Like Thoroughbred

Lanenburg, N. S., Oct. 25.—Lanenburg is thinking of little but the coming international schooner race, and is bending all her energies toward seeing that the Dalawana is groomed like a thoroughbred. Since dawn the marine life has been a scene of unexampled activity in this town. Between visitors and workmen, practically all Lanenburg has been there at one time or another today.

By the time dark overtook the busy riggers and painters, Dalawana has been transformed from a conventional red and black fisherman to a snappy colored racer. Her top sides got a fresh coat of glistening black, and her under-body a rich coat of bright green. In the morning she will be given an even more generous application, a three inch white water-line stripe will be added, and the Canadian hull will be ready so far as the aesthetic is concerned.

There has been a great deal of talk of black leading the hull. It is possible that the challenger will be given this as a last minute treatment. Marine varnish, for a gloss, is variously favored. The night will decide.

Capt. Tommy Himmelman
As the Delawana's skipper and boatman, is the outstanding figure in these activities. But he is not above taking the right kind of advice, and there are many in Lanenburg quite capable of offering valuable counsel. These men are displaying no end of interest in the race, and were at the slip all day. The members of the firm of Smith and Rhinard, designers and builders, are looking to a practical end of things generally, and there are voters by the score. A prominent local clergyman was noticed welding a paint brush this afternoon.

It had been the intention to slip Dalawana back into the water this evening. The question of paint is, however, an important one, and every one feels that it is better to be sure than sorry. So the process of sandpapering the hull was carried out thoroughly before the paint was applied, and the vessel will remain on the slip until another good coat is put on tomorrow.

Balloons In The Race Have Landed

Participants in the International Contest Had Experience and Escaped Injury.

Deerol, Oct. 25.—The balloon Goodyear II, an entry in the international contest for the Bennett trophy, landed shortly before 5 o'clock this afternoon at Amherst, Ont., across the Detroit River from Detroit.

The Goodyear II left Birmingham, Ala., at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Pilot Upson stated upon landing that he had encountered air currents over Southern Michigan and severe snow storm high above the Detroit River.

Lorraine Lands.
Springfield, Ill., Oct. 25.—The French balloon Lorraine, entrant in the international balloon race, landed near Mason City, Illinois, last night, according to a telephone message received here this afternoon. Bad weather caused the descent, it was said.

Heavy Snowstorm.
New York, Oct. 25.—Ralph Upson, pilot of the Goodyear II, which landed at 8 o'clock this afternoon at Amherst, Ont., across the river from Detroit, in a telegram to the Aero Club, said he was forced down by a heavy snowstorm encountered at 20,000 feet.

The Belgian Entry.
Lieut. Demmytor, pilot of the Belgian entry, also sent word of his landing on North Hero Island, Lake Champlain, saying his descent was forced because he was out of ballast. He landed at 8:38 o'clock this morning. The balloon crossed over the Great Lakes last night and the maximum height reached was 20,000 feet, which altitude a heavy snow and rainstorm was encountered.

Kansas City II.
Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 25.—The balloon Kansas City II, piloted by Captain H. P. Honeywell, a participant in the international flight for the Bennett trophy, landed today on Tongue Mountain, near Lake George, N. Y. He landed at 8:38 o'clock this morning, according to a telegram from Captain Honeywell, received tonight by Geo. Myers, president of the Kansas City Aero Club.

The Italian Balloon.
New York, Oct. 25.—The balloon Andione, the first Italian entry in the international race for the Gordon Bennett trophy, piloted by Major Valle, descended this afternoon at Homer, Cortlandt County. Major Valle telegraphed the news to the Aero Club of America tonight. The message said the balloon had been up more than 48 hours and the descent was made without accident. Major Valle hopes to reach New York tomorrow.

Great Interest In Basketball

Fans Held Meeting in Y. M. C. A. Last Evening—General Meeting Wednesday.

A meeting of basketball fans was held in the Y. M. C. A. last evening to discuss the possibility of a city league. It was decided to enter two teams in the Senior League, which would make the competition more keen; also to enter one team in the Intermediate League. There appears to be plenty of good material in the "Y" membership for the season, and the coming season points to the best ever. So far St. David's and the Y. M. C. I. will have teams, and it is quite possible that the Sugar Refinery will enter a team.

A general meeting of all teams will be held at the Y. M. C. A. on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, when matters pertaining to the formation of the two leagues will be discussed and final plans decided on. The players are most anxious for the season to open, and the attendance at this meeting should be large, as it is important to have the leagues start with a swing which will assure success.

GERMAN TEXTILE MILLS' PROFITS BREAK RECORDS

Berlin, Oct. 25.—Ten large German textile concerns earned larger profits for the year ended April, 1924, than in the best years before the war. One Bremen concern increased its profits as compared with last year from 4,400,000 marks to 16,800,000 marks, including shares allotted gratis to the shareholders. The dividend paid is 62 per cent. A cotton company increased its profits from 2,000,000 to 3,700,000 marks. Of the other companies the minimum dividend is 16 per cent and there are several dividends exceeding 30 and one exceeding 40 per cent. The profits are due to the big price rise of last winter. All finished goods put on the market during the winter were priced on the basis of the price of raw cotton at the time of their sale, and as raw cotton rapidly advanced in price the public was charged several hundred per cent more than the actual production cost.

ACTRESS BECOMES YOUTHFUL AGAIN

Fifty Year Old Connie Ediss Astouris London Audiences—Took Lank Treatment.

London, Oct. 25.—"I feel I could jump over a house," said Connie Ediss today. She was for many years the principal actress at the Gaiety theatre, afterwards going to America, where she earned fresh laurels. She is now appearing with Cyril Maude at the Criterion theatre in the successful comedy, "Lord Richard in the Pantry," and everybody has been struck with her youthful vigor despite her fifty years.

The secret of this rejuvenescence is that four months she has been taking a thyroid gland treatment. She has taken altogether twelve injections of thyroid extract, and is overjoyed at the result although she confesses to the latent fear she may slowly turn into an animal. She says Maude tells her that she will revert to the monkey type which would have its compensation, she admits, since she ought then to have no difficulty in amusing her audiences.

Interviews With Local Merchants

Neil McLean Says "Any Idea of Drastic Drop is Out of the Question."

Further interviews with local merchants of this city only tend to show that there is no divergence of opinion among them on the question of whether or not there is any possibility of reductions in commodities of an appreciable nature. The matter was also discussed with Neil McLean, of Scott Bros., who made the following assertions: "Any idea of a drastic drop is out of the question. Any reductions will certainly come only in time, and the receding of prices will be gradual. If the consumer wants prices to strike a normal level, the best thing to do is to buy in accordance with requirements."

Spasmodic buying will never have the desired effect. When buying stops the market becomes stagnant, and consequently when purchases are again resumed and orders come rushing in prices run up. There are three kinds of labor—productive, constructive and destructive. When the war closed the labor market was increased, and we have noticed as merchants that production is now catching up. The real wealth of the world, one must realize, consist of commodities, and as these commodities are scarce and plentiful which money prices fluctuate. The additional labor brought about by the termination of the war has gone back into productive channels and goods have gradually become more plentiful. We observe that it is very much easier lately to get shipments from manufacturers now than it was one year ago. I think it may possibly be easier to get goods in six months from now. But the process is going to be slow, and the best policy for the merchant is to take advantage of the market for the benefit of his customers whenever it is possible to purchase at a reduction. Personally we have been compelled in the past to have a reserve of stock all the time, but now we do not need to take this precaution, but rather to take the position of not placing orders too far ahead, and always be ready to buy so as to give the consumer the benefit of any gradual process of deflation whenever such happens to occur.

Jack Thomas Won From Adrian Blazy

Montreal, Oct. 24.—Jack Thomas, local welterweight, knocked out Adrian Blazy, a French fighter, now living in the United States in the third round of their ten round bout at the Monument Nationale here tonight. Thomas had recently been barred by the chief of police here for participating in bouts for a foul committed in the previous fight with Blazy. This ban was lifted by the chief today.

RACES OFF ON ACCOUNT OF STRIKE

London, Oct. 25.—(Canadian Associated Press)—The Jackey Club have declared all racing off this week on account of the strike, and consequently the Cambridgeshire stakes at Newmarket will not be run on Wednesday next.

HEAVY PATROLS NEAR BRIXTON

No Trouble Occurred But All Signboards that Might Make Missiles Removed.

London, Oct. 25.—Heavy police reinforcements patrolled the Brixton prison area tonight as a precaution against disorders which the authorities feared might arise from the group of ardent MacSwiney sympathizers in London.

A small crowd gathered in the vicinity of the prison and waited up and down discussing with animation the circumstances of the tragic end of the Lord Mayor. The people, however, showed no disposition to make trouble. The police removed from the district materials which would be serviceable as missiles, including signboards, which supporters of the hunger strikers employed to excellent advantage in former scurrilous attacks against the police.

About the first thing a child learns in this strenuous old world is how not to behave.

It is useless to expect, however, that prices will return to what they were prior to the war, as it is a recognized fact that labor, especially in clothing business is being paid at a much higher rate. Wool may have dropped a little as regards raw material only, but we must realize that there is a small amount of raw material in garments and consequently it does not affect the price as some people think it should, when the cost of labor does not change. The wholesalers could also help by being willing to take small orders and in not asking for orders in advance; and we thereby could better control our stock by purchasing more closely in case there happens to be a receding in prices. In our business it is chiefly the cost of manufacturing that keeps prices high. No one wants to see any drastic cut in wages, and I think we should work on the principle of a fair day's pay for a fair day's work. If the manufacturing plants are all kept going, it will ultimately result in things reaching a normal level. We all must work and cooperate all same steady lines, buying as our needs necessitate. As I said before, any material reduction at present is positively out of the question."

THE SINN FEIN SUICIDE.

Mr. Terence MacSwiney accomplished nothing else he at least created a new record, and his name will be down in medical text books as having sustained a fast of seventy-three days before death claimed him. It may be accomplished any useful purpose, or that the cause for which he stubbornly determined to give his life will really be benefited by the course he took. A certain amount of sympathy no doubt went out for him, engendered by the fact that he was not afraid to give up his life for the sake of his convictions, but this was a mistaken view. He really went on a hunger strike because he thought that by so doing he would eventually be released. If the cause which he had at heart could have gained any advantage by his death, his course might have had some justification, but the British Government has made it abundantly plain that it will not allow the tactics of MacSwiney and his followers to be used to change its policies. It is clear that if Sinn Feiners wish to starve themselves to death they will be permitted to do so. No doubt MacSwiney and others believed that at the eleventh hour the British Government would waver and would order their release rather than take what share of responsibility for their death properly belongs to it. In the case of the militant suffragettes the Government would have been seriously embarrassed had a prisoner been permitted to starve to death, and so the "cat and mouse" law was employed, the strikers being forcibly fed, and when this process endangered their health they were set at liberty, only to be re-arrested when their strength was restored. But the suffragettes stopped short at murder. The British Government will not be weakened at home by the suicide of Sinn Feiners. Nor are the eyes of the outside world fastened upon the fasters. There are those, of course, who will look upon MacSwiney as a martyr, but he is infinitely less a martyr than the police officers who have been so wantonly murdered by the men with whom he was associated, and of whose officers he was one of the chief officers. These men died at the post of duty, stricken down unawares by unseen agencies. MacSwiney deliberately lay down and died, rather than act the part of a man by accepting the punishment that the laws of his country awarded him for his offences against them.

INJURIOUS CRITICISM.

When criticism descends to carping it loses its value. If this holds true for the individual it also applies to a whole people. In a speech recently made at Hamilton before the Canadian Club, Sir Arthur Currie indirectly questioned if we Canadians were not acquiring the habit of letting our criticisms of the public men of the country touch on the border land of depreciation. The question has been in the minds of other Canadians, too, and they see in the proneness to this practice a danger to the development and strengthening of our established political system, a menace to Canadian national life. The best qualities of the mind and heart of the majority of men and women develop most readily under the favorable conditions of approval, under the best engendered by the feeling that their best efforts, given to any cause or project, will win the approbation of their co-workers, and of those for whom they expend their forces. If this is true, how can we expect our public men, our politicians, to give us their "best" if we deprive them of the major source of their inspiration, of the means of stimulation to "argued activities." It goes without saying that a man in public offices owes a duty to the public he serves; the public having chosen and elected him to service, and the encouragement his services call for comes short of his responsibilities. If the younger generation are imbued with the idea that as soon as a man enters into office he becomes a target for the vituperations and gibes of a public ready to vilify and distract, it is not likely that those who might best serve their fellow countrymen will submit themselves to a fore-ordained "grilling"—and Canada will be the loser.—London Free Press. Electors in Scotland will vote on amendments to the liquor law on November 2nd. It is stretching the meaning of the word to say that they will ballot in "Prohibition." The most drastic resolution submitted to the electors is called "No License Resolution," which means that no certificate for the sale of exciseable liquors shall be granted, except "for inns and hotels and restaurants in special cases." There would not seem to be any immediate danger of the heather taking fire on account of a scarcity of "Mountain Dew." People who confidently predict that Scotland will be "dry" in five years differ with the scientists who believe that the world will last for at least a couple of hundred thousand years. As a result of the recount in Charlotte, it appears highly probable that Mr. J. W. Flowering will get his seat, the deputy returning officer having made an affidavit in which he states that he made a mistake in making up his return. In the case of St. John County there is no allegation of any mistake having been made anywhere, nor is there any suggestion made that would lead to the conclusion that the totals as given to the sheriff are incorrect. The application for a recount is nothing but a "put-up job" to irritate and annoy Mr. Baxter.

RECOUNTED NINE POLLS IN FIRST DAY IN ST. JOHN
 Net Result of Day's Work Was to Add Nine Votes to Poll for Mr. Hayes.
ARGUED QUESTION OF COURT COSTS
 Government Lawyer Questions Way Sheriff Had Taken Care of the Ballots.

At the assembling of Judge Armstrong's court yesterday forenoon, to take up the recount of ballots cast in the city for the provincial election on October 20th, there were a few lively tilts between counsel for the Government and the presiding judge. The judge added a little of "pep" to an otherwise dull session. Mr. Ryan, leading counsel for the Government, at Saturday's session of the court, announced he would not raise any technical objections to impede the progress of the court, and that he would do all in his power to facilitate the count.

Quite Technical.
 Monday Mr. Ryan was older by two days and he was full of technicalities and began springing them at every turn. Forgetting his declaration of Saturday he blocked progress by arguing with the court over trivial matters.
 At the outset Mr. Ryan informed the court that he had been in conference with Mr. Davidson, counsel for the petitioner, relative to payment of costs, but the latter had no suggestion to make about providing means for paying the judge's assistants. The judge thought some arrangements should have been made to take care of this important matter.

Matter of Expense.
 The sum of $2 a day had to be paid a tallyman. Dr. Baxter said he would personally pay half the amount. Mr. Ryan said he had no authority from his clients to pay any part of the expense and would not agree to become responsible for any share of it. He was urged by the court to get in touch with the Premier and see if he would make an offer equal to Dr. Baxter's. The Government forces failed to "come across" with any assistance in the way of helping to bear the expense of the tally man, and Judge Armstrong, apparently very much disgusted with Government hedging, announced he would himself pay the bills with Dr. Baxter.

How Best to Proceed.
 There was more or less uncertainty as to the best method of proceeding with the count. Mr. Tagman, second counsel for the Government, suggested that, in view of the fact Judge Barry in the appeal case, now before the court on a recount, might order Judge Armstrong to proceed forthwith with the count of those ballots, and as it would not take a very long time to count them, it might be advisable to wait and see what machinery was developed for the count at that time.
 Dr. Baxter asked: "Do you suppose if Judge Barry ordered a recount I would not appeal from his decision?"

Get Down to Ballots.
 With the naming of Roy Davidson as scrutineer for the petitioner, and Mr. Trueman in similar capacity for the Government Judge Armstrong was ready to begin the task before him. Judge Armstrong brought in a bag in which were packed large envelopes holding the ballots cast at the various polling booths. This did not look good to Mr. Ryan. The bag was to be the cause of more technicalities. He thought those ballots should have been returned to the official boxes and locked up. He thought it "a mighty serious state of affairs to have those ballots kicking around in that bag."
 Sheriff Wilson started to explain, but he was squelched by Mr. Ryan, who remarked he was addressing the court and not the sheriff.
 Judge Armstrong announced that the Sheriff should have a chance to explain and ordered Mr. Ryan to quiet himself and give the Sheriff a chance.

Couldn't Pump Sheriff.
 The Sheriff explained that the ballots were placed in envelopes the envelopes sealed up and placed in a bag after they had been tallied on declaration day, and the bag had been locked in a safe place.
 "Where were they left?" queried Mr. Ryan.
 "Do you think I am going to tell you or anybody else where they were kept," replied the Sheriff. "They were in a safe place, and the same place where the county ballots were kept."
 Mr. Ryan regarded this as a most unheard of procedure and made a few remarks regarding the situation that called forth a mild reprimand from the judge. The whole so started Mr. Ryan that he asked for a few minutes that he might consult with his advisers over the bag and the ballots. It was granted. After a few minutes in consultation he returned to court and allowed the whole affair was very irregular, but as he was anxious to facilitate matters he would interpose no objection.
 While out for this consultation the judge urged Mr. Ryan to once more sound the Premier on matters of expenses. There was nothing doing on the part of the Premier.

The Count Begins.
 The actual count was then started with Judge Armstrong reading out the ballots. Mr. Clifford acting as tally clerk, Dr. Baxter

WEDDINGS.

Lawlor-Gillis
 A wedding of much interest was solemnized at six o'clock yesterday morning in Holy Trinity church, when Mr. Rev. J. J. Walsh, P. D. F. united in marriage Helen Catherine, daughter of Mrs. Catherine and the late Edward Gillis, and William Francis, son of Mrs. Margaret and the late Peter Lawlor of this city. The bride entered the church with her brother-in-law, J. R. Clarkson. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Anna McGarrigle. The groom was supported by Edward Gillis, brother of the bride. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother in Stanley street, after which Mr. and Mrs. Lawlor left by train for a trip through the maritime provinces. On their return they will reside at 114 Union street. Many beautiful wedding gifts were received, testifying to their popularity.

Kinaman-Ingraham
 A wedding of local interest was solemnized in St. Mary's church at half past six o'clock yesterday morning when the pastor, Rev. R. Taylor McKim, united in marriage Miss Pearl Ingraham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ingraham, and C. Percy Kinaman. The bride who was given away by her father was unattended. Following the ceremony the bride and groom left for Grand Lake on a hunting trip. On their return they will reside at 33 Summer street. They were the recipients of a large number of magnificent presents in silver, cut glass and furniture, among which were a beautiful hall table and looking glass of seasoned oak, finished in old English style, from the depot staff and friends; a chest of silver from the freight office staff of the C. N. R.; a mahogany tray and a silver coffee percolator, from the C. N. R. yard staff; a silver scallop dish from George S. DeForest & Sons, with whom the groom was employed, and an electric reading lamp from the employees.

OBITUARY.
Mrs. David McInerney
 The death of Mrs. David McInerney took place Sunday at her home in Westmorland Road after a brief illness, at the age of thirty-nine years. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fletcher of St. Martins, and besides her parents leaves her husband, an infant child, two brothers, William and Wesley and two sisters, Ida, of St. Martins and Bessie, of the Victorian Order of Nurses of this city. A large circle of friends extend sympathy to the bereaved ones. The funeral will take place this afternoon from her late residence.

Mrs. Catherine Craig
 Friends in this city will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Catherine Craig, of Chatham, N. B., which occurred after a lengthy illness. Besides her husband Robert, she is survived by an son, Philip Barry, of Chatham and one daughter, Mrs. Edward J. Mooney of this city. Mrs. Mooney was with her mother at the time of her death.

the Opposition, Messrs. Ryan and Smith for the Government.
 Judge Armstrong asked for the opinion of counsel regarding the ballots which contained a cross or some other mark.
 Dr. Baxter argued that because a man places a cross after a name on a ballot should not invalidate that vote. It should be borne in mind that the electors had recently passed through two federal elections in which the marking with a cross before a name, or a question to be voted upon, was the method employed to express the electors' choice or preference. That method, he believed, was employed by many in the provincial election, and because they had so marked their ballots they should not be deprived of their vote.
 On the other hand he argued that if there were any marking on the ballot for corrupt purposes the object of tracing the identity of the votes then, he believed, it was right and proper to reject that ballot. Dr. Baxter recited from election decisions from courts of England and Canada in substantiating his position. Mr. Ryan was opposed to Dr. Baxter's position, claiming that every ballot with a cross or any mark on it should be thrown out.
 Judge Armstrong took Dr. Baxter's view of the situation and so ruled.

Disgusted Voter.
 Poll 25 furnished the comedy of the day. Judge Armstrong pulled from among the ballots a voter from a disgruntled, disgruntled elector. It read "Since the women, Inspector Wilson and Old Lady Belding of the Times are running the country, I have no further use for my vote. They can have it."

MacSWINEY DIES IN BRIXTON AT END OF 73 DAYS

Death Came to Food Striker After He Had Been Unconscious for 36 Hours.

BROTHER AT HIS SIDE AT DEATH

No Demonstration When News of His Death Became Known on Streets.

(Continued from page one.) While in Wakefield Jail, Yorkshire, in 1916, he met, through the kindness of a wealthy Cork distiller, who visited the jail, and shortly after they were married, despite much opposition.

MacSwiney was elected as a Sinn Féin member from Cork to the British parliament in 1913, but never took his seat. He was present at the first session of the Irish parliament in 1919 when the establishment of the republic was confirmed, and was elected lord mayor of Cork in 1920.

For various political offenses, he had been in jail with brief intervals of liberty, since January, 1916, and in October, 1917, secured his release from jail by hunger striking.

Unconscious 36 Hours. MacSwiney was unconscious for 36 hours before his death came, it is stated. Father Dominic, therefore, was unable to give him the last sacraments, but he administered extreme unction.

The cause of MacSwiney's death was heart failure, according to a statement issued at the Home Office. This statement is considered an indirect answer to the criticism of Dr. Joseph O'Connell, the physician and publicist, who had declared it was wrong for the lord mayor's doctors to administer most juice and brandy. He said brandy was a poison and that a man at the point of death was very susceptible to poison. Dr. O'Connell added that when a man fasted a long time the first food he could endure was fruit juice.

Cork, Oct. 25.—Fervent interest in possible developments caused by the death of Lord Mayor MacSwiney of this city, which occurred in Brixton prison, London, this morning, is mingled with the grief in which his death has plunged many people in South Ireland. Although these people appear stirred to the highest degree of patriotism, it is regarded as extremely improbable that there will be any outbreaks or disorderly demonstrations in this city.

It is expected, however, there will be a considerable extension and intensification of guerrilla warfare against the police and military forces, which, notwithstanding reprisals, are pushing their vigilance, especially in remote districts.

Cork jail, where a number of hunger strikers are in a grave condition, is guarded inside and out by soldiers equipped with machine guns.

There is an exceptionally large guard present. It is equipped with gas, and a number of tanks and armored cars and is ready for instant service.

No One Near Jail. London, Oct. 25.—As soon as the news of the lord mayor's death began to spread through the city small knots of people began moving toward Brixton prison. The police, however, did not allow anyone to move into the street leading to the prison entrance, keeping the people moving so that a crowd would not form.

during the morning for the removal of the body from the prison to St. George's Cathedral, in London, as soon as the inquest was ended. The body will lie in state there until it is taken, probably on board a special train, to Dublin, where it is planned to place the body for a day or two in the Mansion House.

MacSwiney's grave will be alongside that of his official predecessor, Lord Mayor Thomas MacDonagh, who was shot in his home in Cork on March 20.

MacSwiney will be the fourth to be buried in this plot, the others being MacDonagh, McQuinn, and the late lord mayor of Cork in 1920.

DEATHS FROM SNAKE BITES IN INDIA ARE MUCH MORE NUMEROUS

London, Oct. 25.—India still pays its annual tribute of human life to the jungle. In fact, the number of deaths from snakebites or the attacks of wild beasts has steadily increased during the last few years, a fact which has been attributed to the great floods.

The rising waters have driven the serpents out of the lowlands up into the villages, and have diminished through drowning the natural food supply of the larger wild beasts.

CZAR'S BROTHER WITH WRANGEL

Grand Duke Michael is Said to be the Dashing Cavalry Chief, Gen. Slashatker.

Vienna, Oct. 25.—That General Slashatker, General Wrangel's most dashing divisional commander, is in reality the Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovich, brother of the former czar, is the report here. Slashatker is said to be the only leader with power to draw the people together and found a new constitutional government in Russia after the destruction of the Bolsheviks. French troops are now on the Black Sea, en route to Novorossisk and Sebastopol to reinforce Wrangel. They are a colorful force which are immune to the Red propaganda.

STORE HANDS STRIKE. London, Oct. 25.—A strike of store hands has caused the postponement of the wool sales in Australia which had been fixed for this week.

Work was begun in the spring of 1919 for the construction of the launching of the Ada A. McIntyre. The new schooner is the largest three-masted schooner ever built at Moss Glen, a 100-ton shipbuilding centre in the old shipbuilding days. She is built of British Columbia fir and native spruce knees, beams, keels, etc., being hewn by hand. The vessel is particularly staunch construction and has a keel length of 147 feet. Her beam width is 35 feet, and she has a depth of hold of 12 feet. Following the launching the vessel will be towed through the falls and taken to Lower Cove to be rigged.
