We hear a lot about Mother's Day, but no one ever says a word about setting a day apart for poor old father when he can't smoke up the lace curtains as much as he liked, throw matches on the floor, not bother to wipe his shoes before coming in the house, put his feet on the sofa and do any one of a thousand and one little things that most women prohibit their helpmates from doing.

THERE is almost an alarming shortage of flax seed the world over, and the high price of last year will probably be eclipsed before this year's crop is marketed. Farmers have cleared the cost of crop and land in returns for a single planting of flax since the high prices went into effect. The rise in price may induce farmers in Lambton to take up its growth as a profitable side issue.

PERCY R. TILFORD and Miss Leontine Bacon, both of Indianapolis, and members of the senior class of the Indiana university school were married last month at Shelbyville, by the Rev. ACCORDING to the Records of the Provincial Police Department this spring has witnessed a remarkable falling off in the number of "hoboes" who usually cross the border into Canada with the robins. About 500 hoboes were rounded up in different parts of the Province last year. The great majority of them got the limit—six months in jail—and they have not forgotten it.

A STORY is told of a newspaper editor in one of the Manitoba villages who had the joke on a citizen of his own town not long since. The citizen and his family are great admirers of the departmental store and buy all their goods in Winnipeg. A few weeks ago a daughter of the house got married, and the entire bridal paraphernalia, including the invitations, was purchased in the city. The day after the wedding the bride's father brought to the newspaper office a long account of the event, but when the paper appeared it contained nothing about the wedding but an announcement of three or four lines. Next day the citizen called at the newspaper office to demand an explanation why the report of the wedding had not been printed. "Oh, that's all right," said the editor, "You'll probably find it in Beaton's spring catalogue."

JOHN MCPHERSON, an old man who has worked for many years for farmers in Warwick, and who lately came into town to live, was on Tuesday sent by the Council to the House of Refuge at Sarnia, being an invalid and unable to take care of himself. He was taken to the county town in charge of Mr. John Shaw, but was refused admission into the County House by the physician in charge. A communication in another column goes fully into the matter.

A PANAMA HAT for the 24th. New styles in Saturday.—SWIFT'S.

THE Farmers Bank wreck was one of the most utter and hopeless smashes that this country has seen. Not only are the unfortunate shareholders being called upon to pay up the double liability; they must also pay back all the dividends they have received. The Farmers Bank failure probably means utter financial ruin for hundreds of unfortunate people who had invested their savings in the stock of an institution which ought never to have been granted a charter.

THE annual meeting of the Sunday school and church workers of the Deane-ry of Lambton, was held in Christ church, Petrolia, on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 9th and 10th. On Tuesday Rev. R. A. Hiltz, Mrs. Shore, Rev. F. R. Howard, Miss Johnston and Rev. T. G. A. Wright.

Little Mamie Moor and Master George Chambers gave two selections on the piano which were very well rendered. The next meeting is to be held in the town hall, June 8th. All are cordially invited.

An ingenious Japanese has succeeded in perfecting a set of artificial teeth made entirely of wood. The woodenware makers are said to be as effective and satisfactory for grinding purposes as the present ivory and porcelain equipment. The opportunity they offer for dental decoration will appeal to the artistic mind. An upper set of Georgia pine, inlaid in weathered oak, and a lower of Douglas fir with mahogany veneer would be an agreeable departure from the conventional gold and composition interior upholstery.—D.A.D., Vancouver Province.

THE remains of the late Mrs. John Mitchell arrived from Toronto on Thursday morning and were conveyed to the Methodist Church where service was held at 1 o'clock by the Rev. W. J. Mitchell, Warwick, and Harry Mitchell, of Wallaceburg. The deceased leaves six sons and four daughters. Visit of Colonel Towers and Colonel R. MacKenzie to the Provisional School.

On May 9th, Colonel Towers, commanding the 27th Rgt. and Colonel R. MacKenzie, formerly in command but now Brigade Major, came down from Sarnia to visit the Provisional School. Colonel Hodgins, D.O.C., had expected to be present but was absent on leave, owing to the death of a relative in Ontario.

After inspecting the class and watching them conduct company drill, the officers proceeded to the mess room where a banquet in their honor took place. After a tasty luncheon served by senior members of the boy scouts the following toast list was disposed of:—

"The King,"

"Our Country," responded to by Lieut. H. K. Laird.

"Canadian Militia," by Colonel MacKenzie.

"Twenty-Seventh Regiment," in a masterly address by Col. R. I. Towers.

"The Army Medical Corps," Dr. R. G. Kelly.

"Royal Garrison Artillery," Lieut. R. F. Fairbrother.

"Our Educational Institutions," Mr. Clayton Fuller, in his usual happy vein.

"Our Sergeants," by Sgt. Jordan Griffith.

Lieutenant Arthur R. Brown presided and the audience showed their hearty appreciation of his ability as a toast master by singing, "He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

The singing of the National Anthem brought to a close a very enjoyable evening.

Trinity Church, Watford.

The annual statement of the Rector and auditors of the above church has just been printed, and the reading of it must be very gratifying to the people connected with the church. The year just closed at Easter has been a very successful one. From the report we glean that every department of the church has a cash surplus on hand, the whole totalling $380.05. The receipts from all sources during the year were $1201.42. There were 19 baptisms, 7 marriages, 13 confirmed and 17 burials during the year, the average attendance was 128, total number of communicants 718, Easter communicants 100. The Rector informs us that the subscriptions towards the new church building now amount to four thousand dollars, exclusive of the $2000 bequest of the late Mr. Woods towards the school room and $800 which the ladies have raised for the new building. The Rector, members and adherents of the church are to be congratulated on the success of their efforts to promote the cause of Christ and the members of other denominations are pleased to see the spiritual efforts of pastor and people crowned with success.

Lambton to the Front.

Lambton was the first among the counties of Ontario to undertake a publicity campaign, and the splendid booklet recently issued is proof that there was enterprise and earnestness behind the undertaking. It contains 18 pages of double folder size, and there is much valuable information contained therein, showing the great advantages of the county. The county council is footing the bill. Of late, Lambton has been forging to the front as a fruit-growing section, and is considered by many to be a rival of the Niagara Peninsula. The quality of the fruit grown here is very high, the climate being particularly adapted for growing the best quality. The fine soil, the excellent, but not rigorous climate, the shipping facilities, and the many other advantages of location are strong factors in the popularity of this county, and there is no doubt that good results will come from the enterprise shown by the residents of this district. The booklets will be distributed throughout the United States and Great Britain, and every effort made to induce settlers to come to Lambton. Like all advertising that is to the point, the booklet is sure to bring results. The gathering of the material and the planning of the booklet and other county advertising is chiefly the work of Mr. Johnston McAdam, of Sarnia, who is an expert in the art of publicity.

James Lockwood, a well-known and highly esteemed farmer of Ekfrid tp., died from heart failure while plowing in his field about noon on Wednesday of last week. His daughter, Mrs. Campbell, went out to call him for dinner, when she noticed the team was alone and immediately went to investigate. Mr. Lockwood had seemingly fallen off the seat of the plow and when found was dead. He was about 74 years of age.

Military Notes.

Three more drills and lectures will bring the Provisional School to a close.

Members of the Provisional School will be "At Home" to their friends on 29th of May.

The enforced absence from drill of Lieut. Howard Brown is keenly regretted. He had taken a distinguished course up to the time of his accident.

Colonels Towers and MacKenzie expressed themselves as highly pleased with the School.

The Farmers' Bank.

The list of contributors as shareholders of the Farmers Bank, together with the amounts in which they are indebted to the bank under the double liability clause, were handed out Friday last by the official referee.

Notices will be served on all the contributors, informing them of the amount for which the liquidator claims they are liable. Parties residing in Ontario must attend before the referee before the 14th day after service and those living outside Ontario on the 28th day after service, if they wish to contest the amount settled against them. If they wish to contest the amount they must file notice six days before they appear. Any who do not take this course will be deemed to admit the amount settled against them.

Among the shareholders in this district we notice the following with the amounts for which they are liable.

BROOKE.

James King's stock sale on Wednesday, 10th, was well attended and good prices were the rule. Auctioneer Elliot wielded the hammer. Mr. King has bought a farm in Warwick.

The following have been named as census enumerators for Brooke.—P. A. Campbell, Dugald McCallum, Archibald Leach, Archibald N. Campbell, W. J. West, Lachlan Lindsay, D. McEachern, D. L. Fisher, W. J. Leach, John Corstine, D. A. McDonald.

A. J. Davis, Sutorville, wishes to inform his many patrons, that while his bill paper sale has been quite up to expectations, owing to his having had such a large stock to begin with, he still has large quantities on hand of any desired kind and pattern that he has decided to make the price such as will effect a complete clearance. He also has several pieces of linoleum of heavy quality and choice pattern that will be included in the sale. m12-2t

The late John McGregor was born in the Township of Beckwith, Lanark County, Ontario, August 1829. He moved with his father's family to the Township of Brooke and settled on lot 19, con. 14, in the year of 1859. He was the last of his family, his sister, Mrs. Wm. Saunders, having died in March, 1909, and his father and only brother, Alexander, having died in the year 1883. In religion a Presbyterian, and politics Liberal, quiet and reserved in manner, which was more noticeable on account of deafness. In the early days when the log buildings of Brooke were going up he took an active part, being known as a good corner man. In the year of 1886 he left the farm in Brooke and moved into Watford to reside with his niece, Mrs. A. D. Hone, and in 1898 he moved to Cornucopia and built a brick residence opposite Stag Island where he resided for six years. Finding the winters a little lonely he sold out and moved back to Watford where he resided till his death. He was fond of travelling, having visited the World's Fairs at Chicago and St. Louis and spent a winter in Florida, and in 1907 he visited the birth place of his father in Scotland, Balquidder, Perthshire, also the birth place of his mother in Ireland, Ennisicorthy, County of Wexford. And we lay them to rest and say, "Tread softly o'er the ground where lie the pioneers of days gone by."—Com.

OPERATION HER ONLY CHANCE

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lindsay, Ont.—"I think it is no more than right for me to thank Mrs. Pinkham for what her kind advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. When I wrote to her some time ago I was a very sick woman, suffering from female troubles. I had inflammation of the female organs, and could not stand or walk any distance. At last I was confined to my bed, and the doctor said I would have to go through an operation, but this I refused to do. A friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now, after using three bottles of it, I feel like a new woman. I most heartily recommend this medicine to all women who suffer with female troubles. I have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills and think they are fine."—Mrs. FRANK EMBLEY, Lindsay, Ontario.

We cannot understand why women will take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, without first trying Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration.

HARRIS & CO. PROPRIETORS.
WATFORD, MAY 19, 1911.

An Ancient Swindle.

The "green goods" swindle, against which the provincial Police Department has issued a warning, is such an ancient device, and has been so often exposed, that the miracle is that anyone should be deceived by it. But there are some swindles, such as the Spanish prisoner and the shell game, which combine robustness and longevity to a surprising degree. Generation after generation seems to fall a prey to them with equal lack of caution. The public may not be as "green" as it used to be, but the desire to get something for nothing is stronger than ever. Hence cupid-ity triumphs over reason, and the get-rich-quick promoters find dupes aplenty.

Little sympathy is likely to be felt for victims of the "green goods" swindle to which attention is now being called. The user of this stale but enticing bait informs his intended victim by letter that he has come into possession of plates whereby he can duplicate bank notes. The recipient of the communication is invited to go to some out-of-the-way place in the United States, where he may see a sample of the counterfeit notes in question. This "sample" is a real bank note, and the dupe sometimes agrees to part with good money for a package of the same. By a sleight-of-hand proceeding which is made easy by the necessity for secrecy which is impressed on the victim, the package which he thinks he is to get remains in the possession of the other party, and he finds out later that he has received nothing but a bundle of useless paper. The swindlers are safe, because he cannot accuse them without accusing himself, and they have no counterfeit bills in their possession in any event.

As the men who help the "green goods" operator to get rich go into the transaction in full knowledge that it is illegal, and with the intention of becoming a party to counterfeiting, they are entitled to no sympathy. They merely serve to illustrate the dangers of the get-rich-quick ambition, and to emphasize the safety of the pathway of honest endeavor.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Remember the Clergyman.

The Fort Rowan News advances an idea to which many ministers will respond "amen" and which it would be hard for others to say is not right. The article reads as follows:—There are not many men who don't beat their way along some lines, but the worst offenders in villages and rural centres are those who ignore the church except when they have special need for some of its functions or services. The undertaker who buries 50 people in a year, makes a good living out of his labors, the minister who buries 50 people is out fifty dollars or more for horse hire. There is no reason founded on business morals, or righteousness, why the minister should not be paid for his work as well as the undertaker. His church gives him a stipend for preaching the gospel, but that is no reason why some outsider who supports no church should drag him miles to a funeral and expect him to pay all his own expenses. And it is not in burials alone, but in many ways that every citizen receives benefits from the church, and a great many receive them without thought of payment. Some mistake in the policy of the churchmen of the past has pauperized the moral sentiment of many. They beg the services for which the church pays good money and are not ashamed. Many men do not realize their position in this respect, but these are perhaps, to some extent and in some degree, lacking in the qualities of a real man.

A Good Idea in Hair Treatment.

The trouble with most women's hair is that they won't take the time to give it proper treatment. If you want your hair to have that look of lustre and vitality, you must take care of it. You cannot expect to have splendid hair if you simply run a comb through it in the morning—give it a dab on the outer edge with a brush—throw it into a braid—switch it around the head—do in a few hair pins—and let it go at that.

Hair is like any other growing thing—it needs attention—it needs care—it needs thorough grooming regularly—not only the hair but the scalp.

If you have the time and patience you won't need any hair tonic—but most women haven't. The next best thing is Nyal's Hirutone. It is the best thing offered to take the place of hours of combing and brushing. It tones up the roots, brightens the color, improves the texture and makes it stay gracefully where it is put. Hirutone literally revitalizes the neglected hair.

Your Hair Druggist cheerfully recommends Hirutone because he knows. In artistic bottles $1.00 and 50c.

Be Able to do Small Things Yourself.

"Paddle your own canoe," if you ever expect to be able to navigate without a captain and crew. There are men who can't part their hair or button their collar without getting their wives into the game. They go through life as badly handicapped as a fellow with a wooden leg. There are men in business who would hardly know how to open the door in the morning or light a fire. It's poor policy for the head of a concern to do chores but it's a mighty sight poorer to leave himself so that he cannot run the place if a salesman or a chore-boy is absent. It is worse still if he has to follow the lead of a competitor or depend upon his neighbors for ideas. The successful men to-day are those who can jump in when occasion offers and do any kind of a stunt to make things go.

EXTERNALLY OR INTERNALLY, IT IS GOOD.—When applied externally by brisk rubbing, Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil opens the pores and penetrates the tissue as few liniments do, touching the seat of the trouble and immediately affording relief. Administered internally, it will still the irritation in the throat which induces coughing and will cure affections of the bronchial tubes and respiratory organs. Try it and be convinced.

Thos. Poole, Ailsa Craig, lost some $30 about six years ago, and a neighbor's wife was suspected of stealing it. After his death lately his executors found the money in an old tin box where it had been placed for safe keeping. Hasty judgment kept the woman under suspicion for six long years before vindicated.

Horse Distemper

Prince Edward Farmer Solemnly Declares "Nerviline" Is a Specific.

"After fifty years' experience in raising horses I can safely testify that no remedy gives such good results for an all-round stable liniment as Nerviline." Thus opens the very earnest letter of J. J. Ervinton, who lives near Wellington, P. E. "I had a very valuable horse that took distemper a month ago, and was afraid I was going to lose him. His throat swelled and hard lumps developed. His nostrils ran and he had a terrible cough. I tried different remedies, but was unable to relieve my horse of his pain and suffering till I started to use Nerviline. I mixed a bottle of Nerviline and sweet oil and rubbed the mixture on the throat and chest three times a day and you would scarcely believe the way that horse picked up. Nerviline cured him. I also have used Nerviline for colic in horses and cows, and earnestly recommend it to every man that is raising stock."

For strains, sprains, swellings, colic, distemper, coughs, and colds, no liniment will prove so efficacious in the stable as "Nerviline"—it's good for man or beast, for internal or external use. Wherever there is pain, Nerviline will cure it. Refuse substitutes. Large bottles 50c, trial size 25c, at all dealers, or The Catarrhose Co., Kingston, Ont.

Public Charity.

Lambton has a Home of Refuge (so called). On May 15th, a man in destitute circumstances and unable to work was committed in due form by the Reeve of Watford to Lambton's Home for the Poor. The necessary medical certificate certifying that he was free from any contagious or infectious disease was filled out by a licensed physician. "What was the result when this man was presented for admission to the Refuge? Turned away by the authorities in charge because he has trouble of a malignant nature on the side of his face which is neither contagious nor infectious. "Take him to the Home for Incurables," they said. Might I ask where is Lambton's Home for Incurables? One says "commit him to the county jail as a vagrant." What humiliation to a man whose only crime is that he is poor and afflicted. Is the man going to be let die on the street? Is this section of Lambton, that has done its share in erecting and maintaining this institution, going to stand such treatment as this? Is one single physician going to say who shall and who shall not enter Lambton's Work House? Charity, charity, what a cold thing thou art!

What a blot on our boasted civilization! "The mills the Gods grind slowly but they grind exceedingly fine," and the end is not yet.

Dedicated to You.

The following original poem from the Beaver (Utah) Weekly Press has been sent to us by an old subscriber:

The editor sits in his easy chair, Awaiting the dollars to come, His force has quit, His rent is due, And his credit is on the bum.

Oh, Lord! How long will the battle last? How long will he have to wait For subscriptions due, From your neighbor and you, Which for years has been charged on his slate?

Don't your conscience prick just a little bit? Don't your heart a warning tell? When you see his face, And hear his voice, Like the wail of a soul in hell, Don't you see his babies, shabby and cold, Their faces pinched and blue?

When they might be warm; Well fed—well clad, With the money that's due from you Oh, God! Up there in your realms of light;

In justice and love arrayed, Don't let the delinquent Pass the gate, Until his subscription's paid.

THE SPREADING PLAGUE.

It Has Become, in a Measure, a World-wide Menace.

The terrible bubonic plague, which appeared in Hongkong in 1894, spread from there to Bombay and in the next twelve years carried off more than 6,000,000 victims, has been almost quiescent for the past few years, but in 1910 it appeared in a virulent form in Harbin, has since spread to other cities and is now a worldwide menace.

More alarming than the reappearance of the disease in Manchuria is the discovery of the disease in the eastern coastwise counties of England, where several deaths have occurred.

Until 1906 little was known regarding the mode of propagation of this terrible disease, although the disease itself is as old as history. In 1906 the Indian plague research commission definitely traced the spread of the epidemic to the fleas on the black rats of the country. The rats themselves have the disease. A flea which sucks the blood of the rat takes the germs into its stomach. If the flea bites a human being within a period of three weeks the germs are transferred and the human being contracts the disease.

Until recently it had been supposed that only the black rat is susceptible to the plague and that only the flea known as Pulex cheopis could transfer it. Later discoveries, however, have shown that the common brown or Norway rat is also liable to the disease and that it may be transferred by the ordinary rat flea.

Still another matter of great interest has been disclosed by the cases in England, which are not the bubonic, but the even more deadly and more dangerous pneumonic plague. The bubonic form, in which the lymphatic glands swell and suppurate, is transferable only through some such medium as the rat and the flea. The pneumonic form, on the other hand, is directly infectious.—Youth's Companion.

FELLING BIG TREES.

The Great Waste That Comes With Making Up Their Beds.

In logging operations the felling of one of the big trees requires much skill in order that it may not be broken in the fall, as such an accident means perhaps the loss of fully $500, owing to the value of the wood. As yet, however, the old method prevails of cutting it part of the way through with the crosscut saw worked by two men, the ax being used for an incision on the opposite side, the trunk being felled by means of wedges.

In felling the tree, a number of smaller ones are frequently cut down to form a bed on which it may fall so that it will not break on account of its weight. Here is a great waste, since the felling of a fir 150 tons in weight may require the sacrifice of a group of other trees which at maturity would equal it in size. In the "clearings" may be seen thousands of the young trees which have been cut down merely for "beds."

Undoubtedly a mechanical system could be utilized in the work, such as a portable power derrick, the top of which could be attached to a tree by the block and tackle system, thus allowing the trunk when cut through to be lowered gradually by means of ropes of steel cable without the timber being injured and the crushing of the smaller trees near it.—W. SAVES BABY CHICKS.

The principal reason that so many baby chicks die is that they do not get the proper feed. Cornmeal dough sours in their little crops. Cheap mixtures are fatal. So after years of practical experience we have perfected Purina Chick Feed, containing the largest variety of carefully selected grains and seeds. It is just suited to baby chicks' tender digestive organs, being ground to the proper degree of fineness and screened of all meal, dust and waste matter. It is absolutely pure. No grit. It has a larger sale than any other chick feed in the world because it saves baby chicks and brings about healthy and rapid development. In 100-lb. bags at $2.75.

The free lecture, at Taylor's Lyceum, on the above named subject, by Dr. Geo. D. Porter, of Toronto, under the auspices of Lambton County Medical Society, last Thursday evening, was not as well attended as the merits of the lecture warranted. Dr. Porter occupied the chair and after a short address by Dr. C. O. Fairbank, of Petrolia, the speaker of the evening, Dr. Porter, who by the way is one of the best platform men in Canada, was introduced.

He traced the history of the White Plague and pointed out the dreadful mortality every year in the United States having 150,000 deaths from that disease last year while Canada had 12,000 mostly in the prime of life and in the wage-earning period. The disease is not infectious in the same sense as is scarlet fever or measles, the principal sources of infection being from the sputum of the human consumptive and the milk of tuberculous cows. From the latter source children are much in danger owing to their weak digestive organs. This source of danger can be overcome by pasteurizing (not boiling) the milk, for continued use of boiled milk produces indigestion. The lecturer described a simple method of pasteurizing milk by placing a pot of boiling water on back of stove and placing bottles of milk therein for half an hour. The first source of danger can be largely overcome by observing the motto, "don't spit in public places." He pointed out that sunlight will kill the germs in half an hour while those same germs live in a dark room for months. The disease is curable if treated in the early stages otherwise it is hopeless. Some are benefited by change of climate but people of limited means had better remain near home and friends for when in foreign climes comes that worst of ills, homesickness. He then dilated upon the folly of trusting to quack remedies containing alcohol and opiates which only build up false hopes and prove injurious in the end. In religion it is faith, hope and charity, in treatment of consumption it is good food, plenty of rest and fresh air. These are the mainstays for the prevention of disease and the essentials for treatment when one has the disease. The food must be well cooked and appetizing, plenty of well regulated rest of mind and body and abundance of fresh air by living the outdoor life as much as possible and when necessary to live in doors by raising the windows high in summer time and lower in winter according to the temperatures, because when the air is hot within and cold without there is a freer entrance of "God's own fresh air."

INWOOD.

Mr. A. H. Graves is putting a new foundation under his house.

The Inwood brass band has been engaged at Oil Spring for the 24th of May.

Mrs. Joshua Thomas, spent a few days last week in St. Thomas with her daughter, Mrs. Farr.

Mr. Alex. Campbell and Willie Aylesworth, of Watford, spent Sunday at their homes here.

Alvinston will celebrate the 24th, and expect to tender a good program. They expect the 7th Fusiliers Band, of London, to be present.

Mr. Thomas Mathews and family have moved into their new home, and Mr. Anderson has taken possession of the house vacated by Mr. Mathews.

Mr. John Spearman, of South Brooke, lost a valuable horse last week. The animal got tangled with its halter during the night and was nearly dead when they discovered it in the morning.

At the meeting held by the I. J. G. Club last Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. J. Bishop, the following officers were elected for basket ball.—Pres., Miss Lorena Casselman; Sec.-Treas., Miss Adeline Armstrong; Capt., Miss Etta Hume; Reteree, John McTavish. The play nights will be Monday Wednesday and Friday.

What might have been a very serious accident occurred last Thursday morning while Mr. George Cade was drawing sand to Mr. Graves' house. He had taken one load and was returning with the empty wagon, and while crossing the bridge over the ditch near Dr. McLevey's barn the bridge went through and let one of the horses into the deep ditch, with part of the wagon on top of it. A number of men soon gathered and got the horse out, which seemed not much the worse for such an experience.

TAYLORS' WHERE QUALITY AND VALUE MEET

CONCRETE THE SALVATION OF THE FARM

It is only a few years since concrete was generally accepted as a reliable building material, yet the difference which this convenient and economical form of construction has made in the outlook of the farmer in these few years, has done much to revolutionize things on the farm.

The growing scarcity of lumber and its consequent rise in price, has gradually caused that commodity to assume the general aspect of a luxury. So much lumber is used on the farm for buildings and fences that its extremely high price has made it almost prohibitive to the average farmer unless he has an extra large sum of money to spend on outlay. Wire fencing partially solved the problem, but real relief did not come until concrete was proven by actual tests to be not only practicable, but to possess many advantages over wood as a building material.

The uses to which concrete can be put are practically without limit, more particularly on the farm. Already the list includes forms of construction ranging from the large hip-roofed barn down to a nest-egg that deceives the wisest old layer in the brood. These uses have been extended largely by a series of extensive experiments conducted under the auspices of the Canada Cement Company, on farms throughout the country. This large concern, which has fathered the concrete building process in Canada, has been a large factor in the spreading of knowledge of concrete and its uses. Recently it has distributed 65,000 copies of a book entitled "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete." This work contains information which makes it possible for any farmer to do almost any kind of construction work around a farm with concrete, and is given free of charge. This generous distribution of literature and the efforts of this firm to show the farmer how practical concrete really is, have earned for them the highest of commendations.

The most recent plan to introduce concrete to the farmer is a contest arranged by the Canada Cement Company. The lines along which the contest is planned are broad enough to enable every farmer to compete with equal chance of success with the most experienced user of concrete. In each Province there are four cash prizes of equal value offered, each prize $100. The first is to be given to the farmer in each Province who will use the greatest number of barrels of "Canada" cement in a given time on his farm; another prize will be given to the farmer in each Province who uses "Canada" Cement on his farm in 1911 for the greatest number of purposes; the third is to be given to the farmer in each Province who furnishes a photograph showing the best of any particular kind of work done on his farm during 1911 with "Canada" Cement. The fourth will be for the farmer in each Province furnishing the most complete description of how any particular piece of work, shown by any photograph sent in, was done. This contest will be open until November 15th, 1911.

Already much has been accomplished on the farm by the use of concrete. Perhaps the greatest argument in its favor, and one which has developed only since concrete has actually been put into general use, is its health-promoting properties.

If sickness occurs in a city to any great extent, a searching investigation usually follows, conducted by a medical health officer, with the result that it is traced back to its cause and this cause removed.

The farmer must be his own medical health officer. He must look to the causes to be found on his own farm. A great deal is now being done along these lines, and in many places, particularly in the West, it has been found that a number of the causes of sickness can be avoided by the use of concrete.

A common sense view of the situation shows that this simply-handled material is peculiarly well adapted to measures of sanitation and in preventing germs from spreading.

Possibly the place visited more often than any other by the farmer is his well. If it is so situated that unhealthful ground streams can leak into the drinking water, there is every possibility of this unhealthfulness being communicated to the farmer and his family by the most direct route. Concrete has done much to remedy this. If a well is built of concrete—a solid cylinder set into the ground—it is impossible for such leakage to occur. In the same way a concrete dairy provides but slim accommodation for disease germs. These two simple precautions are a long stride in the direction of good health, as water and milk, the latter even more than the former, are the commonest of the germ-distributing agencies and both are used frequently by the farmer and his family.

Not only has the modern farmer studied out a method of guarding against sickness from sources which might, in the case of water and milk, be termed, internal. He has gone a step further and has decided that the barnyard must also be subjected to some changes if doctors' pills and doctors' bills are to be dodged.

The average barnyard—there are many worse, some better—consists of a stack of hay or straw, a manure pile, a watering trough, and a spongy, oozy mass of mud, dirt, and filth, in between and all around. Most farmers will recognize this type as being familiar, even those whose farms are models in other respects. Until recently it has seemed almost impossible to avoid this objectionable condition in a barnyard. Owing to the stamping of cattle and the rotting and scratching of the smaller stock, the ground seems to be kept constantly worked up into its oozy state. Into this, and through it, the farmer is compelled to make his way several times a day while doing his chores. Despite his best efforts, a certain amount remains upon his shoes and clothing. If he escapes the germs that are sure to exist in the stagnant wallow, and does not catch a cold from wetting his feet in it, he always runs the risk of carrying some small particles into the house on his shoes, where they dry into fine dust and are stirred up by the next sweeping, filling the atmosphere that has to be breathed.

To avoid this altogether would be impossible, but the farmer has found a way in which much can be done to alleviate the barnyard troubles.

Instead of wading through mud, the farmer and his family walk dryshod to the barns and amongst the buildings on concrete walks and drive-ways. Instead of standing in a muddy hole, while he waters the stock, he stands on a concrete platform on which is set a concrete drinking pool. This serves a double purpose of not only providing cleaner water for the horses and cattle, but also does not harbor the germs of contagious diseases which so often lurk in old wooden drinking troughs.

His small stock and poultry, instead of rooting in the mud and filth for their food, take it from a concrete feeding floor laid in a convenient spot in the barnyard. This may be swept down or washed off and prevents a waste of feed.

The use of concrete as drainage material and in forming gutters under eaves makes it possible for farmers' wives and daughters to visit the barns without danger of contracting colds and without many other unpleasantnesses.

With water pressure secured from a concrete cistern built above ground, and the use of concrete in the building of closets, many of the objectionable features are removed and with proper drainage, much can be done to make such buildings perfectly sanitary.

Aside from its advantages as a germ-proof material, concrete finds favor with the farmer of to-day because he can use it himself as easily as he could use wood. All that is required is a quantity of broken stone, sand, and Portland cement. The moulds are easily constructed and can be made of odd pieces of lumber handy. With the exception of the cement, the materials can be found on almost any farm and should cost little or nothing.

Cleaning London.

More than 62,840,000 gallons of water were used last year in washing and watering the streets of the city of London. The quantity of refuse removed from the city by the corporation during the year was 51,821 van loads taken from premises and 28,930 loads of sweepings from the public places making a total of 80,759 loads, or about 263 per working day. The sum of £279 was received from the sale of refuse collected from street orderly bins, and old tins were disposed of for £184. During the past year more than 2 miles of derelict or disused overhead wires across the city streets were removed by the city engineer's officials, making 25 miles during the past 10 years. The number of private owners of overhead wires in the city is 141. In all, about 733,956 spans of wire cross the public thoroughfares, and during the last twelve months 6,765 cases of broken wires were reported. The city engineer mentions in his report the erection, for experimental purposes, of various aerial lines for the purpose of intercepting wireless telegraphic messages.—London News.

The Coronation in Watford.

As Watford has only had one celebration since the coronation of King Edward, it has been suggested that the coronation of King George next month would be a grand opportunity for a celebration of some kind here, and we would suggest that the Reeve call a meeting of the citizens to discuss the matter, so that the day may be observed in a fitting manner. This is an event in which every loyal citizen of the community will be interested. The crowning of a King is a great event in the history of any nation, and as the day (June 22nd) has been proclaimed a holiday throughout the whole of the British Empire, doubtless arrangements will be made to commemorate the occasion in some suitable manner wherever it may be convenient to hold a public gathering. If the citizens think fit to hold a celebration in Watford the nature thereof could be decided at said meeting and plans devised to keep the day in a manner that will be fitting and creditable to us as a people. One thing that we would like to see would be the gathering together of all the children of the district in one grand chorus to sing "The National Anthem," and songs such as "Canada," "The Maple Leaf," "Rule Britannia," etc.

MOTHERS! DO YOU KNOW—

That when you put a salve onto your child's skin, it passes through the pores and enters the blood, just as surely as if you put it into the child's stomach?

You would not put a coarse mass of animal fat, colored by various mineral poisons (such as many crude salves are) into your child's blood by way of the stomach? Then why do so by way of the pores?

Take no risk. Use always the pure herbal essences provided in Zam-Buk. Zam-Buk contains no trace of any animal oil or fat, and no poisonous mineral coloring matter. From start to finish it is purely herbal.

Don't Scatter Your Brains.

"Don't put all your eggs in one basket," is poor philosophy when it means that a man scatters his brains or his brawn so much that he gets only half their value from their use. There are some fellows who have so many baskets that it takes them all their time going around and keeping track of the eggs. These days a fellow has to do something well to make any kind of an impression. The streets are full of fellows who can do a whole lot of things, but cannot do any of them so well that anybody wants him. There are some who can always get more than they can do in any line because they are "men of one idea."

Acute Dyspepsia

Restoration of Stomach Power Comes Quickly With the Right Medicine.

"My food seemed to decompose in my stomach," writes Mr. Ralph Clemmons, of Newbridge, P.O. "I had a stomach that failed in some way to perform its work. Digestion seemed more or less arrested and I grew thin, yellow, nervous. The stomach became distended and impeded apparently the action of the heart, for often at night it would do great stunts. At times I would vomit a mucous mass, and at these times my head ached most terribly. A friend, who had been cured of a similar condition, advised me to take Dr. Hamilton's Pills regularly, which I did. The result in my case was simply marvelous. Dr. Hamilton's Pills removed the cause, strengthened the stomach, excited the liver to normal action, the kidneys were released of excessive work. Health soon glowed within me. I can now eat, sleep, and live like a live man."
Be advised—Use Dr. Hamilton's Pills—they are sure to do you good. 25c per box, at all dealers, or The Cattaraugus Co., Kingston, Canada.

Mark Hitchcock, of Point Edward, has recently completed the task of planting whitefish and trout spawn in Lake Heron. It is estimated that close to eighty million little fish were turned loose in the lake in the vicinity of the beaches and St. Clair river. Mr. Hitchcock took the spawn out in his launch and emptied into the lake from the Point Edward fish hatchery.

IT IS A LIVER PILL.—Many of the ailments that man has to contend with have their origin in a disordered liver, which is a delicate organ, peculiarly susceptible to the disturbances that come from irregular habits or lack of care in eating and drinking. This accounts for the great many liver regulators now pressed on the attention of sufferers. Of these there is none superior to Parmelee's Vegetable

Arch. D. Campbell, the Ontario Agricultural Department's representative at Morrisburg, took charge of five orchards with excellent results last year. From one of these orchards 1 1/2 acres, forty-three trees, the owner netted $400, the most ever received previously being $175. Another orchard of thirty trees harvested $250 worth of apples. From another of three acres the fruit sold on the trees at $350, while the unsprayed orchards in the district were practically worthless. It certainly pays to give the apple orchards a little care and attention.

quickly stops coughs, cures colds, heals the throat and lungs. 25 cents.

An especially sad funeral took place on Monday afternoon from the home of Mr. J. D. Neilson, 4th con., Bosanquet, when the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Close was buried, only three days after his twin brother was laid to rest. Less than six months ago Mr. and Mrs. Close lost their only other child of seventeen months, thus making three children taken from them inside of six months. It is particularly hard for Mrs. Close since Mr. Close has returned to their home in the west, where Mrs. Close had hoped with the children to join him in the near future. They have the deepest sympathy of their neighbors in their time of sorrow.

MORE ABOUT STYLE

STYLE is the most important feature of clothing now-a-days. By this we do not mean fancy cuffs, extremely long coats, odd shaped lapels, or loud patterns. We do not mean foppish clothes. Style isn't something that makes a man look odd or calls special attention to his clothes. It is, and should be, the element that contributes an air of culture, refinement, taste. That's the kind of refinement you'll find in 20th Century Brand bench-tailored clothes.

Resolution of Condolence.

At the last regular meeting of Warwick Union L.O.L. No. 1029 held May 10th, the following resolution of condolence was passed:—

To BROS. ROBERT, ARTHUR, AND WM. THOS. HIGGINS:

DEAR BRETHREN:—At our last regular meeting it was resolved that a letter should be forwarded to you expressing our sincere sympathy in your sad bereavement through the death of your father, who for many years has been a highly esteemed and valued member of the Orange Order, and by his noble Christian character and abiding love for the brotherhood has endeared himself to all. With you we mourn his loss and with you we feel the separation from one so dear. But we comfort ourselves with the knowledge that God is too wise to err and too good to be unkind. He doeth all things well. We would ask you not to sorrow as those without hope, but trust in God who can and will remove all sorrow. And when our journey on earth is over may we all meet the loved one in the Grand Lodge above; and may you as a family be reunited and not one member missing in that land where death comes not. Human sympathy is weak, but may God bless and comfort you in this your hour of sorrow, is the prayer of the brethren of Warwick Union Lodge.

The dead body of William Wills was found in the bush of Mr. Vernon, of the first concession of Bosanquet, on Monday. He had been drinking the day he left home, it is said. The coroner decided an inquest unnecessary. The body was badly decomposed, and he ordered the remains to be interred at once. Interment took place in Finchill Cemetery, second concession Bosanquet. Wills was 71 years of age. Besides his wife he leaves a large family of grown-up children, two of whom are at home.

INDIGESTION RIGHTLY CURED STAYS CURED

Not by Treating the Symptoms but by Toning up the Stomach to do Nature's Work.

Indigestion should not be neglected for by depriving the body of its proper nourishment it grows steadily worse. Neither stimulating medicines, which ruin the already weak stomach by making it work beyond its strength, should be used, nor predigested foods, which do not excite a flow of the digestive fluids, and by disuse cause the stomach to grow weaker. Nowhere is the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills more clearly useful. Its principle is to enable the stomach to do its own work by building up the blood and giving tone to the nerves. When these are once more restored to their normal health indigestion disappears and the cure is permanent. In proof of these statements we give the experience of Mrs. Paul Gannon, Star City, Sask., who says: "For more than a year I suffered with all the terrible pains of indigestion, and my life was one of the greatest misery. I did not seem to make any difference whether I ate or not, the pains were always there, often accompanied by a severe bloating and a belching of wind. I did not even get relief at night, and sometimes hardly got a bit of sleep in my misery. I tried many remedies said to cure indigestion, but they did me not one particle of good and I fully expected that I would always be afflicted in this way. At this time my brother came home on a visit and he urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and got six boxes for me. By the time I had taken four boxes I began to improve and could eat with some relish. I was greatly cheered, and continued taking the Pills until all traces of the trouble had disappeared and I could once more eat all kinds of food without the smallest inconvenience. We have since used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in our family for other troubles. I am so firmly convinced of their virtue as a family medicine that I have no hesitation in recommending them to all weak, ailing people."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
