VORWAERTS BUILDING STORMED BY GOVERNMENT TROOPS

After an All-Night Bombardment—Many Killed and Wounded.

London, Jan. 12.—All reports from Berlin, including despatches coming direct from that city, indicate that the government is now definitely in the ascendancy. The troops, who, after a brave show at the outset, repeatedly have shown themselves accessible to Spartacans, have now apparently arrived themselves definitely on the side of the government.

The Vorwaerts was recaptured by government troops this morning in heavy fighting. Three hundred Spartacans are reported to have been taken prisoner. More than 20 Spartacans were killed and forty wounded in the fighting. The government losses are said to have been slight.

The building was attacked from adjoining streets and house-tops. The attacking forces used light artillery, mine-throwers and gas bombs in an all-night bombardment. The Spartacans, who were barricaded in the building, replied with heavy rifle and machine gun fire. Panic reigned throughout the neighboring district during the bombardment.

Newspaper Row, where the plants of The Tagblatt, Vossische Zeitung and Lokale Anzeiger are located, was temporarily quiet this morning as a result of a truce patched up Friday night between the government forces and the Spartacans. The armistice, which was not without elements of humor, was dictated by the urgent need of the civilian population living in the danger zone to attend to its marketing and to afford the business firms in the neighborhood an opportunity to look over the situation.

BURLINGTON WANTS HYDRO TO CONTROL

Citizens Also Determined Not to Permit Higher Fares by Radial. BECOME ALARMED

Indications That Corporation is Worrying Over Size of the Landslide.

Hamilton, Jan. 12.—With the newly-elected Burlington Council assuming the reins of office tomorrow night in the little lakeside town, two outstanding features of the fight against the radial corporation are that the residents are unanimously in favor of Sir Adam Beck taking over the line and fully determined that they will never permit the capitalists to break the agreement which calls for a minimum fare of 25 cents return to Hamilton.

May Defer Action.

Mayor-elect Peart stated that there was a possibility that the radial matter would not be discussed at the opening meeting of the council on Monday night, but that it would be gone into in the course of a few days.

HYDRO COMMISSION MAY ABSORB RADIALS

plan would be the consolidation of the radials into one system, thereby doing away with the considerable multiplication of fares which now exists. For example, Gordon Wilson, M.P., for Wentworth, urges that the Hamilton and Dundas should be linked up with the Hamilton and Burlington and Oakville line so that men employed in East Hamilton and living in Dundas could travel back and forth without changing cars and paying two fares.

EARLSCOURT G.A.C. CLAIMS TO BE POLITICAL

Members Assist Independent Party Aims of Soldier Body.

The Grand Army of Canada opened a campaign for membership on Saturday evening in the Earlscourt Public School, North Dufferin street. Comrade Parsons presided, and outlined the aims and objects of the organization. He said that the G. A. C. was an independent political body that intended to make itself heard in the halls of the legislature so that the returned man could be properly represented and his rights protected.

Co-operative Stores.

This G. A. C. said Parsons intends to start a system of co-operative stores, with a capital of one million dollars, fifty per cent of the net profits to go to customers, forty per cent to a sick and benefit fund, and ten per cent to a reserve fund. Another $50,000 to be raised for a number of co-operative stores, in which disabled soldiers who have lost their limbs could be placed and assisted in gaining a profitable living.

Not Ultra-Radical.

Pte. Carmichael declared that the G. A. C. was neither ultra-radical nor ultra-conservative. He said he had no sympathy with any such movement. The provisional officers already appointed are voluntary workers without pay, and are being paid for the regular election of officers in the headquarters on Elm street, Toronto.

THE EXAMPLE OF JAPAN.

Rev. Dr. Mackenzie, for thirty years a missionary in Japan, gave an address at the men's own at the Central Methodist Church Sunday afternoon. He spoke of the wonderful progress made by Japan during the past few years and declared that Japan was not so much a military nation, as their actual fighting men only amounted to 5 per cent of the 40 million population, but the spirit of devotion to their country made up the balance of 95 per cent.

NORTH TORONTO STORMY MEETING OF RATEPAYERS

W. G. Ellis Attacks North Toronto Executive re Metropolitan Case. ADVISES DELAY

Ald. Ball Vigorously Denounces Proposal to Re-open Question.

For the first time probably in its history, the North Toronto Ratepayers' Association was on Saturday night, automatically adjourned by the approach of midnight, at a time when the flow of oratory, and motions and counter motions were coming thick and fast, with no apparent prospect of an amicable solution. It was two meetings rolled into one, the freight and express campaign committee taking the first innings, and later in the evening the North Toronto ratepayers. The first was comparatively calm, and along conventional lines, but the latter was a hummer, and it all arose over the same old debatable ground, the Metropolitan Railway.

RIVERDALE

"The Citizens' Best Chance," was the subject of an eloquent sermon preached at Riverdale, by Rev. pastor East Gerrard Street Methodist Church at the morning service yesterday. The speaker pointed out that the experience of our first parents in the Garden of Eden was a warning to us, and that the present new state of transition, the next best chance, has come. "If the citizen measures up to Christ's ideal there is a golden opportunity," said the Rev. Mr. Bruce. There was a crowded congregation.

The annual business meeting in connection with the Riverdale Baptist Church was held in the church recently. Rev. D. W. T. Graham, pastor, occupied the chair. The various reports were received and read. The secretary stated that 48 new members were received during the year and $400 increase was reported over last year's contributions. The treasurer's balance sheet showed $178 balance in hand. A vote of thanks was tendered the pastor, Rev. Dr. W. P. Graham, for his service to the church during the past year and a half. There was a good attendance.

The grip is still very prevalent in the Riverdale neighborhood. Members of the First Avenue Baptist Church, who were confined to their homes with the complaint, according to Rev. Dr. P. C. MacNeil, are being nursed by the church.

A hockey match of local interest was played at Willow Park between the Melville Junior and Senior teams, resulting in 13 goals to 0 in favor of the former. The Melville Junior team consisted of pupils from Frankland School, Logan Avenue.

Torbay Lodge No. 361, L. O. L. held their first meeting of the year in Playlodge Hall, Danforth, on Saturday evening. W. M. Smith presided, and other events were the chief business of the evening. There was a good attendance.

Under the auspices of the choir, an oratorio will be given in St. David's Church, Danforth, on Sunday evening, the last four days of the week at the work of the local executive and the association, the whole proceeding entailing an enormous amount of work.

Others who spoke were Robert Ferguson, George J. Hodgson, C. Hodgson, bank, J. M. Skelton (who introduced an amendment favoring a conference of the executive and the committee, which was not put to a vote), D. A. Reid, who opposed delay, E. V. Donnelly, Ald. Beamish, Dr. Risk and others. At 12 o'clock midnight, when the discussion was going strong, G. A. C. was automatically adjourned, and in two minutes the hall was cleared.

A week ago a deputation, composed of W. G. Ellis, G. A. Hodgson, Capt. Thorne, W. M. Smith and R. Ferguson, were appointed to see the city solicitor and in the interim between the visit of the committee to the city hall and Saturday night, the executive met and adopted a resolution disapproving of the action of the meeting and recommending the steps taken. The action of the executive was freely criticized, and a good deal of the controversy centered around this. Apparently the matter is where it was before, and the expropriation proceedings are scheduled to go ahead on Feb. 4.

THE EXAMPLE OF JAPAN.

Rev. Dr. Mackenzie, for thirty years a missionary in Japan, gave an address at the men's own at the Central Methodist Church Sunday afternoon. He spoke of the wonderful progress made by Japan during the past few years and declared that Japan was not so much a military nation, as their actual fighting men only amounted to 5 per cent of the 40 million population, but the spirit of devotion to their country made up the balance of 95 per cent.

OTTAWA MISSION WILL CO-OPERATE

Scope and Purpose of Canadian Mission in London Outlined.

Ottawa, Jan. 11.—In a memorandum issued here, the Canadian Trade Commission outlines the scope and purpose of the Canadian mission in London with which the Ottawa mission will work in co-operation. Overseas business, according to the memo, will be handled in this wise: (1) If governments negotiate for any specified requirements of manufactured goods or other materials and where such business involves the granting of credits by Canada in order to enable us to furnish such requirements, such business as called for under specified agreements will be negotiated thru the Canadian mission in London (No. 2 Whitehall Gardens, London, S.W.) and they in turn would turn this over to the Canadian Trade Commission in Ottawa, who would distribute the same amongst Canadian manufacturers. It is not yet determined how much of this kind of business there may be to participate in as the tendency seems to be on all sides and by all countries to re-establish business in normal channels as quickly as possible where conditions permit. Purchase From Agents. (2) The other business to be secured will be done thru the recognized trade channels by purchasers overseas directly with Canadian manufacturers or their representatives or agents. The Canadian mission in London will be in a position to assist Canadian manufacturers by placing them in direct touch with firms or individuals there who may be capable of handling such business, but would have to leave the working out of the details of the transaction to the manufacturers in Canada as it could not obviously act as their agents, but would be in a position to give them every assistance and direct them in every way possible towards the securing of the business that is being sought. It is very strongly urged, the memorandum proceeds, that Canadian manufacturers who are in a position to take large contracts for export business, who have not already done so or who have not already direct connections abroad, should send

TARIFF SOP HINTED FOR WESTERNERS

Action Expected to Tide Government Over Another Session.

Special to The Toronto World. Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 11.—There are indications that a tariff sop will be given to the westerners and to Liberal lower-tariff element in order to tide the government thru the coming session and prevent a precipitate break-up of the union administration. It is reported that some at least of high tariff interests are willing to compromise with the farmers and the other low tariff advocates to the extent of consenting to the removal of the 7-1-2 per cent. war-time increase and continuing the duty free farm products together with the lowering of the duty on agricultural implements to 12-1-2 per cent. If this modicum of tariff relief is granted by the government this session, as now seems likely, it is prob-

GERMANS SURRENDER A SUPERDREADNOUGHT

London, Jan. 12.—The German super-dreadnought Baden has arrived in Scapa Flow and has been interned there with other vessels of the German fleet. The surrender of this warship was demanded in place of the battle cruiser Mackensen, which was not sufficiently completed to leave Germany. The Baden is a vessel of about 27,000 tons, similar to the Queen Elizabeth class, mounting eight 15-inch guns and steaming nominally 23 knots. Another flotilla of German submarines, numbering 16, left Germany day for the surrender to the allies. This and continuing the duty free farm products together with the lowering of the duty on agricultural implements was signed and three others inspected by the allied naval commission at Wilhelmshaven. There are still seven submarines in neutral waters which are about to be

SAY SHOP-LIFTING RING IS ARRESTED IN WINNIPEG

Besides her husband, she is survived by her father, three sisters, Mrs. Hetherington and Mrs. Phillips, Toronto; Miss Effie, at home, and one brother, Lieut. E. Crippling of Fish Industry Feared Thru Express Increase Vancouver, Jan. 12.—Serious developments in the cost-of-living situation in Vancouver and serious crippling of British Columbia's fish and fruit industries, particularly, are anticipated should the subject of increased express rates develop as asked for by the express companies. The proposed increase of express on fresh fish in carload lots is from the present rate of $3 a hundredweight from Vancouver to Montreal, to $9 a hundredweight.

MONDAY MORNING, JAN. 13.

Lloyd George's Government.

Much alarm is expressed by some writers over the situation in which Premier Lloyd George finds himself or has created, since the announcement of the membership of his new cabinet.

It is to be remembered that the present British Parliament is the result of an appeal to the country by a coalition government. The result has been a phenomenal majority, placing Lloyd George in the strongest position ever held by any British statesman.

His government numbers sixty. Of these thirty are Conservatives or Unionists, and thirty are Liberals or Labor men, five of the latter being included. No division could be fairer.

On the other hand Lloyd George himself is an army with banners. The two Geddes and George Nicoll Barnes are big men, and H. A. L. Fisher is one of the ablest men in politics.

Get in Queue

Pay-as-you-enter cars are to be regarded as a civilizing influence. For some time past they have been in operation on the civic car lines on Danforth avenue, and it is an education to see the long lines of intending passengers forming in queue at the rush hours in order the more easily to get aboard.

The Great Criminal.

A good many people are worrying over the possibility of Mr. Wilhelm Hohenzollern escaping the deserts of his crimes. They must be patient. These particular mills of the gods are no exception to the usual standard of slow grinding.

ISAAC VON NEWTONHEIMER DISCOVERS THE LAW OF MORAL GRAVITY

The object in view is not lost sight of in any respect. The ex-kaiser is so safe in Holland that he can go nowhere else, and when the indictments are all ready, the international high sheriff will know where to go and what to do.

The case against Mr. Hohenzollern is very strong and very black. Already 100,000 cases of ill-treatment of prisoners have been investigated, and there are 150,000 more to come.

It must not be forgotten that he is being tried by the law of the nations among whom he proclaimed himself a kaiser and chief. Had his criminal intentions been accomplished he would no doubt have arranged to get himself absolved of all his evil deeds.

Being more or less popular, (?) we have received several communications during the last couple of days, which really call for answers, and so today we are going to fulfil the job to the best of our somewhat depleted ability.

"J. M. W."—Yes, the law profession is supposed to be quite the cream of the earth, but, as you say, funny things are allowed to go among its members without any apparent check.

"The Wife" By JANE PHELPS. Brian is decorated for Bravery Under Fire. CHAPTER CXXXVI. "Just think, Brian has the Croix de Guerre, Aunt Louise. He is brave and I am not surprised, but to think of taking so many prisoners all by himself. It is a wonder they didn't kill him."

"I couldn't sleep without dreaming," Ruth declared at breakfast. "I was too much excited. I guess. Then she explained to Rachel, who had asked that excited her so she couldn't sleep, that Brian, her husband, had been decorated for great bravery. If she had been present she would have seen him how proud she was; how happy that he had not been wounded while doing so marvelous a thing."

"There was the subject in him after all," she thought as she, too, became a little enthusiastic because of Ruth's excitement and eagerness. "Sholy he will come back now," Rachel had said, after listening, open-mouthed, to Ruth's description of what had happened to her husband. "He done 'nough fightin' when they gives him all them crosses you tell 'bout'."

"Yes, Rachel. The colored troops have been wonderful. We are proud of them. "Glor'y be, they ain't 'mounted to much befo', some of 'em. I've glad if 'has done somethin' to be proud on."

"You need feel that way no longer, Rachel. They have proved themselves. Ruth was so happy herself that she wanted to say to her husband, 'make everyone around her happy also. When she reached the shop her face was still lighted up with pride, her eyes shone with big happiness. "I must congratulate you again," Mandel said when she came into his office later on. It is becoming quite a common occurrence, Mr. Hackett evidently doesn't let us forget him."

"Thank you, and isn't it wonderful? To think he did such a thing unaided! I don't see how he did it. In spite of all the talk of the Germans being such wonderful soldiers, they must have a streak of cowardice to let one man take nine of them prisoners. "The yellow in them is bound to come out," Mandel returned, not thinking of the Germans, but of Brian Hackett and of Ruth. Who and what was he to think that a woman, who belonged to a man who had shown himself so brave, so much of a soldier, would give him up even if he were lacking in some other qualifications?"

"For the first time Arthur Mandel held all hope of ever being more to Ruth Hackett than he then was. He looked at her radiant face, her shining eyes and his heart sank. Never could a man cause a woman to pride like that would do it. And she must love him devotedly. Slight love never gave that expression to a woman's face, nor brought that light to her eyes. It is not easy to give up one's cherished dreams. And that was not easy for Arthur Mandel to give up the idea he had hugg'd so closely of some day making Ruth Hackett—the only

Time flies fast, but don't abuse him. Seize him as he goes and use him. There is nothing worth the doing. Working, playing, singing, wooing; Not an effort, not a mission. Not a hope or high ambition. But old time if you but know it. While he passed would help you to it.

THE WIFE By JANE PHELPS

Brian is decorated for Bravery Under Fire. CHAPTER CXXXVI. "Just think, Brian has the Croix de Guerre, Aunt Louise. He is brave and I am not surprised, but to think of taking so many prisoners all by himself. It is a wonder they didn't kill him."

"I couldn't sleep without dreaming," Ruth declared at breakfast. "I was too much excited. I guess. Then she explained to Rachel, who had asked that excited her so she couldn't sleep, that Brian, her husband, had been decorated for great bravery. If she had been present she would have seen him how proud she was; how happy that he had not been wounded while doing so marvelous a thing."

"There was the subject in him after all," she thought as she, too, became a little enthusiastic because of Ruth's excitement and eagerness. "Sholy he will come back now," Rachel had said, after listening, open-mouthed, to Ruth's description of what had happened to her husband. "He done 'nough fightin' when they gives him all them crosses you tell 'bout'."

"Yes, Rachel. The colored troops have been wonderful. We are proud of them. "Glor'y be, they ain't 'mounted to much befo', some of 'em. I've glad if 'has done somethin' to be proud on."

"You need feel that way no longer, Rachel. They have proved themselves. Ruth was so happy herself that she wanted to say to her husband, 'make everyone around her happy also. When she reached the shop her face was still lighted up with pride, her eyes shone with big happiness. "I must congratulate you again," Mandel said when she came into his office later on. It is becoming quite a common occurrence, Mr. Hackett evidently doesn't let us forget him."

"Thank you, and isn't it wonderful? To think he did such a thing unaided! I don't see how he did it. In spite of all the talk of the Germans being such wonderful soldiers, they must have a streak of cowardice to let one man take nine of them prisoners. "The yellow in them is bound to come out," Mandel returned, not thinking of the Germans, but of Brian Hackett and of Ruth. Who and what was he to think that a woman, who belonged to a man who had shown himself so brave, so much of a soldier, would give him up even if he were lacking in some other qualifications?"

"For the first time Arthur Mandel held all hope of ever being more to Ruth Hackett than he then was. He looked at her radiant face, her shining eyes and his heart sank. Never could a man cause a woman to pride like that would do it. And she must love him devotedly. Slight love never gave that expression to a woman's face, nor brought that light to her eyes. It is not easy to give up one's cherished dreams. And that was not easy for Arthur Mandel to give up the idea he had hugg'd so closely of some day making Ruth Hackett—the only

MAKE BEGINNING, DETAILS LATER

Viscount Bryce States His Views on Proposed League of Nations.

London, Jan. 11.—The main object of a league of nations, which the peace congress should create, is to prevent future wars, possibly through arbitration and conciliation, Viscount Bryce, former British ambassador to the United States, declared today.

While the congress may not be able to fix all details, it should settle upon principles and appoint committees to arrange the details.

In a statement to the Associated Press Lord Bryce said: "The creation of some combination or league of nations, disinterested in their aims, trusting one another and strong enough to enforce their joint will, is a fundamental necessity in order to carry out the settlement of Europe and the east, which is the task of the conference, and to determine the future of the German colonies."

"The main object of this league, besides providing for the welfare of the regions liberated from Turkish tyranny and safeguarding the new free states which are to arise, will be to prevent the outbreak of future wars. To do this some method of settling disputes other than war must be provided, and that we are all agreed, must be found in the methods of arbitration and conciliation.

These methods must be studied and organizations for undertaking them must be provided. It may be impossible for want of time to settle at the conference the details of these methods, but it is essential that a beginning should be made and a solid foundation laid before the conference separates.

"There is an increased volume of feeling in Great Britain supporting this idea, and we trust that the American people, eminently peace-loving, is overwhelmingly of the same opinion and that both the British and American delegations will have the weight of their two countries behind them."

"Such details as the conference may not have time to settle might be submitted to a strong international committee drawn from the four powers—France and Italy—Great Britain, and the United States, with perhaps some expert from neutral countries who could draw out a scheme in detail and submit it to a meeting of the conference or representatives of its members to be held later in the year.

"Such a committee or another committee would also consider urgent questions of economic settlement, financial settlement and reduction of armaments. But at present the conference, ought, if possible, to agree upon some general principles for the guidance of these committees."

F. TEDESCO, ITALIAN, MURDERED AT GUELPH

Guelph, Jan. 12.—Lying in a pool of blood a few feet from the back door of his home, 120 Morris street, shortly after midnight last night, was found the body of Fortunato Tedesco, a young Italian. He was dead, but the body was still warm, and there was evidence that he had been fatally murdered by some unknown person or persons.

When the body was turned over in the yard, a .22 automatic pistol was found under the right hand, but not clutched. There was no evidence of the pistol having been fired. It was found that the murderer had used a shotgun, as there were no less than 43 shot wounds in the chest and right arm of the victim. The gun which was used was found by the police in a vacant field next to the Tedesco home.

Tedesco was employed in the shipping room of the Guelph Street Works and was considered to be one of the most respectable Italians in the city. He came here with his parents and sister some eight years ago, and the family own the property in which they live. Coroner MacKinnon has ordered an inquest, which will open on Monday morning.

WORK MEN PREACH RED REVOLUTION
Charlie Charnie Suggests Dominion-Wide Industrial Strike.
HANDS OFF RUSSIA
"Brand All Anti-Revolutionists as Traitors—Long Live Class War."
Bolshevism and Karl Liebknecht vied for the limelight at last night's mass meeting held at Broadway Hall, Spadina avenue, which had been called to urge the need of the repeal of order-in-council detrimental to the interests of the worker, when both the system and the man were cheered to the echo by 1200 men and women. Following a moderately couched address by Frank Watkinson, secretary of the Carpenters, a red revolutionary speech by Charlie Charnie and all manners of Birks, a returned soldier, and James McCutcheon, international organizer for the boilermakers out west, a petition signed by 1100 from the audience calling upon the government to immediately release Watson and Cheeseman, the one undergoing sentence of three years in Kingston Penitentiary, the other awaiting sentence, and also repeal definitely all order-in-council made under the War Measures Act, was passed unanimously. This petition will be sent to the government at Ottawa and to other members of parliament in the Dominion. A hundred and twenty dollars was collected from those present.
Dominion-Wide Strike.
"I speak alone under the auspices of the revolutionary conscience," said Charlie Charnie, "and you may take my tip—anyone who capitulates to government for justice and equity knows little or nothing of capitalism. I have my suggestion to make to you here tonight: let us issue the government our own spiritual order-in-council for an immediate abandonment of petitions and the immediate call to all workers to a Dominion-wide industrial strike."
"And as soon as you have consummated this order-in-council make yet another suggestion to the government to lift his hands off Russia or to let us have our own spiritual order-in-council for an immediate abandonment of petitions and the immediate call to all workers to a Dominion-wide industrial strike."
"Don't let us be bothered with this or that petty little scrap," continued the speaker, "let us consider the bigger picture of the question. Those who know anything know that Watson went to prison because there was no order-in-council in Russia and another was feared in Canada. Let us issue an order-in-council to the government to take its hands off Russia or to let us have our own spiritual order-in-council for an immediate abandonment of petitions and the immediate call to all workers to a Dominion-wide industrial strike."
Following a speech by a returned soldier which demanded the repatriation of the returned soldier, and also called upon the worker "to get a move on" if he meant anything at all, John Bruce moved a resolution which was passed without a dissenting vote, to the effect that the worker was to be organized for the war being over there was no use or just purpose in order-in-council, which had been made only for the prosecution of the war, and the worker had supported wholeheartedly, and that this meeting called for the repeal entirely of these orders-in-council.
W. McCutcheon, international organizer for the Union of Boilermakers or Western Canada, who was present when, as one of the two-legged cattle at the great yards in South Chicago, he had been rapped on the shins by the minions of the government, expressed a social, rather than a political state. The government now looked after many things which in the past they never even touched, such as state education, looked after hospitals, and other public works. In 1901, the education expenditure for Canada had been seven million dollars and had reached the amount of fifty-five millions.
Society, he said, should be a state wherein the strong support the weak; this was the highest philosophy, and the purest religion.
Harkening back to his subject Mr. Bryce said that the widow could not be the breadwinner, and the home-maker also for the normal family life was the foundation of the state. The average wage of the unskilled worker was $12 per week, and the same year he had deduced from his investigations that the minimum amount of money needed to maintain a family was $17 per week.
Incapacity of bread winners, he said should be divided into different classes; first there was the breadwinner whose incapacity was due to insufficient wages. Health and unemployment were also great factors in determining the value of the breadwinner. Those who were incapable on account of health should have been looked after in their childhood by a state system of medical inspection in the schools. Unemployment could be largely obviated by a system of labor bureaus, and employment insurance.
When the widow was unable to keep her home together, she usually sent her children to an orphanage. "The state," declared the speaker, "supports the orphanage, but it does not help to the mother to keep the home together." The remedy proposed for these evils was the appointment of a commissioner to have full jurisdiction over all cases of want, the commission to consist of seven members, three of whom were to be women; it is proposed to transfer the commission a provincial body, which would be partially supported by the municipalities, not on the basis of cases helped, but rather on the basis of population.

5000 CANADIANS SAIL ON OLYMPIC
London, Jan. 12.—A civic send-off was given at Southampton to 5000 Canadian troops on board the liner Olympic. Thousands assembled at the quayside and scenes of great enthusiasm and much cheering, both from the ship and shore, occurred. The mayor made a megaphone speech, praising the troops for their courage and rejoicing in their wonderful victories. He wished them godspeed.
Scheme by Government To Provide Work in Winter
Ottawa, Jan. 12.—At the request of the repatriation committee, the different departments of the government will endeavor to participate their requirements for supplies for the year 1919 in order to provide employment during the winter months.
WORK ON CANALS
Resumption of Enlargement and Extension of Welland and Trent Waterways.
Ottawa, Jan. 12.—In an interview today the acting prime minister, Sir Thomas White, indicated to the press the preparations which have been made for the coming session of parliament and the progress accomplished in developing the demobilization, repatriation and reconstruction program. The following is an official outline of the position respecting these matters.
Active preparations are now being made for the legislative work of the coming session of parliament, which is to be called early in February. The precise date will be fixed and announced this week. Most of the important legislation has been already introduced. The estimates for the departments were in by the end of December, and are ready for final revision.
The most pressing problems which have confronted the government since the armistice have been those relating to demobilization and so-called reconstruction. Complete plans for demobilization and return to Canada of the Canadian expeditionary force and the wives and other dependents overseas, have been worked out between the militia department here and the overseas minister of militia in consultation with Sir Arthur Currie and others of the militia authorities there. Having regard to the available amount of shipping, the limitations of railway facilities from Canadian Atlantic ports and the fact that there are in addition to the forces overseas women and children dependents to the number of 50,000, the task is both heavy and difficult. Among measures taken by order-in-council may be specially mentioned the following:
Important Works.
Resumption of important public works interrupted by the war such as the Welland and Trent Canal enlargements and extensions and upon national ports and harbors. This program will be materially aided to in the estimates which will be presented to parliament. The policy of the government in this regard is very clear. Money will not be recklessly spent. The work or buildings proceeded with must be essential or of a productive character.
An extensive shipbuilding program is under way, which will involve the expenditure of seventy million dollars. This policy, set forth in the marine department keeps thousands of workmen engaged at good rates of wages and stimulates activity in many subsidiary industrial enterprises.
Large orders for steel rails and rolling stock have been placed by the government for its own railway system and the Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk Railway Companies, with whom the matter was promptly taken up by the government.
It is probable that the speech from the throne will foreshadow important legislation relating to reconstruction in Canada.

SECOND WEEK OF "SPORTING LIFE"
Splendid Story of English Racing Circles Proves Popular.
Maurice Tourneur's special Paramount Artcraft production, "Sporting Life," is enjoying tremendous popularity at the Allen, and in accordance with popular demand, the management has extended the engagement another week. On account of future bookings, this will positively be the last week of the film adaptation of the famous Drury Lane melodrama. Showing a phase of English life that, owing to the recent stress of the war, may never be seen again, "Sporting Life" has been declared by the public and press to be one of the greatest motion picture spectacles yet produced.
The scenario by Winthrop Kelley departs from the original play only in the character of the hero. The general outline is not disturbed, the plot concerning itself with Lord Woodstock's winning of the Derby with his mare, Lady Love, and his stepping into the prize ring to take the place of a pugilistic "unknown" whom he had backed heavily and who had been dragged through another to victory by the war, such as the instigation of her husband, who is Woodstock's deadly enemy. The entire story, in fact, has to do with the attempt of the Earl of Carteret, to ruin Lord Woodstock.
The romantic element is provided by the Earl, who is in love with the sister of the hero, who is the Earl's sister, and who she attempts to marry, her father in learning the truth, becomes a willing ally of the Earl, and in doing Lee just as he is to step into the ring. Lord Woodstock takes his place and not only wins the fight, but also the Derby. The next day his horse wins the Derby at Epsom and the ruin of De Carteret is complete.
The production is a notable one from every angle, the cast being of an exceptional degree of excellence.
PUBLIC HELP FOR "MOTHERS' PENSIONS"
Support Widow's Family, Not Orphanage, Says Rev. Peter Bryce.
Geneva, Jan. 10.—It is reported here that the international Socialist conference at Lausanne will be postponed indefinitely because of differences among the representatives of different countries, coupled with the disinclination of the Swiss Socialists to receive the delegates until the peace conference has been ended.

ONE MILLION LOSS BY MONTREAL FIRE
Premises of Jennings, Hudson Bay and S. J. Carter Companies Suffer.
Montreal, Jan. 12.—Over a million dollars' worth of damage was caused this afternoon by a spectacular fire which destroyed the plant of Jennings and Company, 15 Wellington street. One hundred and forty motor cars, including nine ambulances to the order of the Canadian Government and ready for shipment, were a total loss and the premises of the Hudson Bay Company and S. J. Carter and Company were seriously damaged when the flames spread, temporarily beyond the control of the firemen, at one time leaping clear across the street and setting ablaze the premises of the Hudson Bay Company on McGill street. Fireman Jack Ross suffered a fractured collar bone when a part of a wall collapsed on him and another fireman was taken to the hospital with minor injuries. Suspicion attaches to the origin of the fire.
Head Asks Protection.
According to officials of the Jennings Company, there has been a feeling of danger of some one setting the place afire for some time and it is so acute that military protection had actually been asked for.
The fire broke out shortly after one o'clock and in about two hours was under control. The destroyed premises are partly covered by insurance.
It is stated that an investigation into the origin of the fire will be held.

ARGUMENTS FINISHED IN NORTHLAND PROBE
Counsel for Liner Claims Veterans' Charges Are Not Sustained.
Ottawa, Jan. 11.—The arguments in the Northland enquiry was finished this afternoon. John F. Orde, K.C., presented the case for the government. David Loughnan, editor of the Veteran, spoke for the Great War Veterans' Association, and A. R. Holden, K.C., of Montreal, for the White Star Line. The general trend of the arguments was that the complaints made by the men had not been established. That food shortage was due to the method of serving rather than to any fault in the provisioning of the ship and that the men's quarters and accommodations were as good as could be expected.
Justice Hodgins said he would keep the commission so as to allow the admiral to put in evidence, if desired, worthy President.

NEW PROTECTION for Ford Owners

HERE are now 160,000 Ford cars in actual use in Canada.

The demand for service on these 160,000 cars has created a big business in repair parts.

The Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, is responsible not only for the cars that bear the Ford name, but for the Ford parts it manufactures and supplies.

It and its authorized representatives alone have the right to sell genuine Ford parts.

Yet, inferior repair parts not made by the Ford Company are being offered to the public as "Ford Parts"—or "Parts for Ford Cars."

The makers of these "spurious" parts have no interest—such as we have—in the performance of the Ford car. They are not under obligation—as we are—to serve Ford owners well.

The result is what might be expected.

Whereas parts made by the Ford Company are made to give Ford service, the inferior parts are simply "made to sell."

GENUINE Ford parts are made under rigid inspection in the Ford plant from Vanadium and other high-grade steels. The inferior parts, most of them, are cheaply made from low-carbon steel.

The Ford owner, who allows any but GENUINE Ford parts to be used in his car, suffers more than the actual loss on the inferior part. Other parts in his car are liable to damage from the inferior parts, and, of course, the Ford warranty behind his car becomes void! There is also the dissatisfaction arising from poor service and repeated breakages.

To protect Ford owners in this situation—
To make authorized Ford Service available to every Ford owner—

To give the widest possible distribution to GENUINE Ford parts—

The Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, has adopted a new policy.

Hereafter we will supply genuine Ford parts, not only to our regular Ford dealers, but to every reliable garage which is rendering service on Ford cars. Such garages will become authorized Ford Service Stations. They will display the Ford Service sign.

The result of this change in policy will be an immediate benefit to Ford Owners.

Authorized Ford Service will be available everywhere.

Instead of 800 Ford Dealers—heretofore the most complete service offered on any automobile manufactured in Canada—there will be approximately 3000 Ford Service Stations.

To get GENUINE Ford parts—and the Ford service expected from those parts—Ford owners will have only to look for the familiar Ford sign or the new Ford Service Sign.

When the Ford Service Sign is displayed it indicates that the garage owner has been authorized by this Company to render Ford service, AND HAS AGREED TO SUPPLY ONLY GENUINE FORD PARTS.

It will prove more than a convenience to Ford owners.

It will be a protection against the damage and expense he might incur through the use of inferior parts in his Ford.

ROYAL BANK WILL HELP TO BRING MORE FOREIGN TRADE TO CANADA

Sir Herbert Holt, President, Pays Graceful Tribute to Valour of Canadian Soldiers—Edson L. Pease, Vice-President and Managing Director, Deals With the Policy of the Bank in Foreign Fields and Announces Important Extensions—C. E. Neill, General Manager, Refers to Features of Growth and Expansion of Past Year.

Montreal, Jan. 11.—(Special).—The Annual Meeting of the Royal Bank of Canada was marked by announcements of the greatest importance to the extension of the foreign trade of the Dominion.

For the past few years it has been evident that just as soon as the war was over Canada would have to do energetically after foreign trade in order that the industries of the country might continue to maintain as large a percentage as possible of the increased production obtained during the war period.

With a view to the extension of Canada's foreign trade, and encouraged by our past success in this field of banking, for which we are well equipped, the bank has decided, after long consideration and carefully studying the situation, to open three additional branches in South America: Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; Buenos Ayres, Argentina, and Montevideo, Uruguay.

It is establishing in foreign countries for the purpose of fostering Canadian trade, it does not follow that Canadian deposits would be diverted to foreign fields—the experience of this Bank's operations has always exceeded our foreign commercial loans, as the government returns show.

Mr. C. E. Neill, General Manager of the Bank, in reviewing the financial report, pointed out that the statement submitted before the shareholders of the Bank, he drew attention to the fact that the total assets were now $427,512,952.31, the increase for the year being over $30,000,000.

Dealing with the growth and expansion of the Royal Bank, Sir Herbert said: "In July last we consummated the purchase of the assets of the Northern Crown Bank, which aggregated $27,315,291. After closing 14 offices, at points which were ready had branches, we secured through this amalgamation 76 branches in Manitoba and the Northwest, excellently located, and 20 in Ontario. In this, as in previous amalgamations, you will see that our position was very definitely strengthened in a particular district.

"The substantial growth in the Bank's assets has resulted in a pronounced increase in earnings. Net profits for the year were $2,809,848.24, being 10.19 per cent on the combined capital and reserve, as compared with $2,277,975.31, 8.33 per cent on capital and reserve the previous year.

"We must now grapple with the problems of a period of deflation and reconstruction and we do so with the strong conviction that no serious difficulty will be encountered in surmounting them."

Neediness of Securing Foreign Trade, Mr. Edson L. Pease, Managing Director, dealt particularly with the urgent diseased that existed for Canada to go after foreign trade, and insisted that extension of export trade was vital to the commercial self-preservation and future economic welfare of the country.
