OPPOSED EXTENSION OF RADIAL LINE CHARTER

Hydro Radial Supporters Fought Application Made by C. N. R. Road.

ACTION WAS DELAYED

Toronto, Hamilton, Brantford and St. Catharines Were Represented in Fight.

OTTAWA, Feb. 17.—In the railway committee this morning there was a hotly animated discussion over a bill to extend the charter of the Niagara, St. Catharines and Toronto Railway Company, the bill was finally "tabled out" and will come up again on Tuesday next.

Mr. Buzynko of the Ontario Hydro Union made a vigorous protest against this bill. He said that the company got its charter in 1899 and all it had ever built was 12 miles of line. The line was a duplication of a road the Hydro Commission proposed to build. This was a matter of great importance to the farmer and the community generally.

Mr. Wilson of Wentworth in support of the hydro radial proposal asserted that the feeling in Ontario was practically unanimous in favor of the radial. It was a proposition for the people. They wanted transportation, and cheap transportation. They wanted to build so as to compel the hydro to buy them out. The bill, in his opinion, should at least be laid over until the municipalities interested were heard.

ELEVEN GERMAN SHIPS PLANNING TRADE RAIDS

MOBILE, Ala., Feb. 16.—Eleven German steamers laid up in Canary island ports, have been secretly armed for commerce raiding and are preparing to make a dash for the open sea, according to a statement made here today by Capt. F. E. Marzette of the American schooner Edgar W. Murdock, who says he delivered 2100 tons of coal to German agents in Tenerife, and which he loaded into the bunkers of the interned German vessels. The Murdock is in port here.

Economy in construction—the sort of economy that saves every dollar, once absolute efficiency has been achieved—and a business management, make it possible for the Toronto Electric Light Company to pay dividends and taxes, to provide a sinking fund, which is a real sinking fund, and cheerfully to face any kind of fair competition. Not only that but the Toronto Electric Light Company will meet or better any rate offered by any other supply company. No better service is obtainable.

WOES OF A PEDDOR RECOUNTED BY OLIVER

Proposal That Edmonton's Stray Dogs Be Corralled Was Misunderstood.

SOLDIERS WERE IRATE

Hughes Rejected Theory That Malicious Tories Inspired Raid on Paper.

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, Feb. 17.—Upon the orders of the day, Hon. Frank Oliver, rising to a question of privilege, recounted the woe and somewhat bizarre misadventures which recently overtook his newspaper, The Edmonton Bulletin. It appears that The Bulletin investigated editorially against the number of dogs allowed to run at large in Alberta's capital as increasing the dangers to child life and aggravating dog-bite cases. It suggested that it might be a good thing to kill off three battalions of these mongrels and mail their hides to the front. Thereon the report spread that The Bulletin had denounced the soldiers in camp at Edmonton as dogs and a small riot was caused. The soldiers, assisted by some civilians, surrounded The Bulletin office, demanding apologies, and were not dispersed for some time. Mr. Oliver suggested that some Tories in Edmonton had misled the soldiers and instigated the riot.

"Are We Downhearted?—No!" Streamer Stretched Across Guttered Building.

"Are we downhearted?—No!" reads a streamer now decorating the front of the gutted American Club building on Yonge street. It shows with what courage the members are facing the situation supposedly caused by an enemy hand. It is stated on reliable authority that the club will be rebuilt at a cost of $40,000 or $50,000. Meanwhile, it has been decided by the officers of the club to make headquarters at the "Carnegie Hotel," which was so generously offered after the fire.

CAPTURE OF ERZERUM OF FIRST IMPORTANCE

Fortress Dominating Factor in Military Calculations as Armenia's Key.

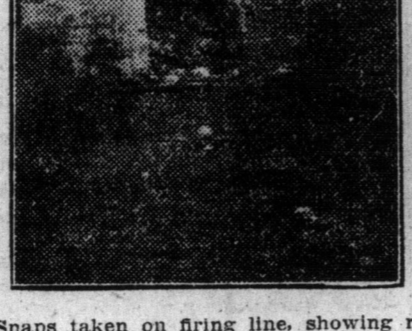

LONDON, Feb. 17, 1:55 a.m.—The capture of Erzerum by the Russians is regarded here as a feat of first importance, the fortress being in any campaign by Russia against Turkey a dominating factor in military calculations, as it is the key to Armenia, both politically and from a military standpoint. Its retention by Russia is considered essential to the liberation of the long-suffering Armenian race.

TROPICAL BERMUDA.

The nearest approach to paradise on earth is probably Bermuda. It is an ideal resort, the like of which can be seen nowhere else in the world. The Quebec Steamship Company is operating two passenger steamers between New York and Bermuda, the Bermudian and Evangeline, both favorably known and suitable for that trade.

NEWS FROM THE CITY HALL

CITY HALL NOTES

Controlled John O'Neill was acting mayor yesterday, in the absence of Mayor Church, who is in Ottawa.

Six hundred and two public school children received thrashings during the month of January, according to the reports received by Chief Inspector Cowley.

Prisoners at the jail yesterday numbered 130, while a year ago there was a total of 250. There are 114 men at the men's industrial farm, and there is sufficient accommodation for more than the 25 men at the jail. There are 37 women at the women's farm.

War measures at the city hall continue to pile up and yesterday it was decided to close the gallery of the council chamber. Mayor Church believes that the gallery is a fire trap anyway and says that it would be an easy matter for anyone to throw a bomb into the chamber.

An offer has been made by the bureau of municipal research to make a confidential study of the accounting system of the board of education, in view of making certain changes which it is believed would be in the interests of the school system.

The city has received $285,000 from the insurance companies on the lives of Toronto soldiers since the war began, the amount having been distributed as follows: Widows, $88,000; parents, $181,000; relatives, other than wives and parents, $14,000. The companies insured 10,000 soldiers and the city is carrying 17,000 itself. $11,000 has been paid by the city for this insurance.

The laboratories of the department of health, located in the attic of the city hall, are being provided with fire escape apparatus, as they are considered a fire trap. Yesterday a man slid down a cable to demonstrate the ease with which it could be done, but the doctors refused to venture, believing that it would be better to wait until they were compelled to take the slide.

PROPERTY OWNER ASKS DAMAGES AGAINST CITY

House of M. P. White on Glen Road Was Expropriated for Viaduct.

Further evidence was yesterday presented to Official Arbitrator P. H. Drayton, K.C., in connection with the claim against the city for damages by Mitchell P. White, whose house on Glen road was expropriated as a result of the building of the Bloor street viaduct. Mr. White stated that his house had cost $25,000, and that the slide had cost $2000. He explained that great care had been taken to keep the construction cost of the apartments down and that they had been fully occupied until expropriated. The net profit on the investment for one year was $3622. In 1914 the price asked for an adjoining lot of the same size was $30,000.

WILL CITY LIVE UP TO ITS BUILDING BYLAW?

Ald. Plewman has a question for the city council when it meets on Monday. It is this, "Will the city live up to its building bylaw, or will it amend it every time a deputation comes along and asks for a concession?"

THINKS CHANGE WILL MEAN SAVING TO CITY

City Architect Pearce stated yesterday that he had nothing to do with the scheme to transfer the plumbing department from the medical health department to his department. He thought, however, that the change would mean quite a saving to the city, as the building inspectors could do the work now done by the plumbing inspectors. Dr. Hastings says that the plumbing department costs $25,000 annually to operate, and that the change would bring about a saving of $15,000 annually.

A Double Service The citizen who insures his life performs a service to the State as well as to his dependents. Through the contributions of their policyholders the Canadian life companies subscribed over $8,000,000 towards the government war loan, and in 1915 they invested $75,000,000 in municipal debentures, mortgages, industrial and utility bonds, etc., all calculated to promote the general progress of the community. Unless gathered together and utilized in this way the money represented would have meant nothing to the country's growth. The funds of the Canada Life, totalling $56,217,000, are invested profitably as well as usefully, the surplus earned in 1915, $1,480,000, being one of the most satisfactory in the company's history. The cash dividends paid policyholders in the year totalled over $2,800,000. The full report will gladly be sent you on request. Herbert C. Cox, President and General Manager.

"It was wonderful in London at the time of the presentation of the 'Masque' known to the dramatic action of the battle of Neuve Chapelle, and feeling was at its height."

EX-BURGOMASTER MAX
RELEASED BY KAISER

Belgian Mayor of Brussels Out of Prison, Residing in Switzerland.

PARIS, Feb. 17.—It is reported that the Kaiser has released Max von Goltz, former burgomaster of Brussels, who was arrested by the Germans shortly after the outbreak of the war and taken to Germany, where he was held in a prison until he was liberated and sent to Switzerland, where he now is.

The military governor of Brussels announced the arrest of Burgomaster Max in the latter part of September, 1914, in a public poster which said:
 "I have found myself obliged to suspend Burgomaster Max from his office on account of his irreconcilable attitude. He is now in honorable custody in a fortress."

Reports from Germany at the time said discussions had arisen between the German governor, Gen. Von Der Goltz, and Burgomaster Max. Von Goltz ordered the burgomaster to remove Belgian flags from public buildings, and Max published a manifesto which explained to the population the necessity to comply before being forced to do so. This, it was said, angered Von Der Goltz and the arrest of Max soon followed.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN IN PEEL NOMINATIONS

Contest Now on Between J. R.
 Falls, Conservative, and W.
 J. Lowe, Liberal.

BOTH WELL RECEIVED

Hartley Dewart, K.C., and Richard Blain, M.P., Asked Support for Candidates.

Freedom in the history of a provincial election in Peel County has such an intense interest been manifested as that which characterized yesterday's proceedings when James R. Falls, conservative candidate, and W. J. Lowe, the Liberal candidate, were nominated to contest the seat.
 No other names were placed in nomination, the proceedings remaining from noon till 1 o'clock, while the speaking was scheduled to begin at 2 o'clock. Long before that hour the local theatre where the proceedings were held was crowded, and hundreds were unable to gain admittance.
 Representing the Conservative interest were Richard Blain, M.P., and the candidate, Mr. Falls, while Mr.
 Dewart, K.C., and W. J. Lowe spoke in the interests of the Liberal party. The candidates were fairly well received.

The only point in this contest is whether I shall continue as the representative of Peel County in the legislature," declared Mr. Falls in opening.
 Mr. Dewart declared at the party convention that there would be no discussion on the general policy of the government. I am prepared to appeal to the electors on that ground and will stand or fall by it.

His Horse Deals.
 He reviewed at some length his connection with the horse deals, charging that he had taken only the ordinary commission such as any other man as a member of the legislature would be entitled to and that $100,000 had been put into the pockets of the farmers of Peel thru his appointment as a government buyer.

"I bought and sold horses long before the war broke out," said Mr.
 Falls, "and I never had anything to do with the government at all in the beginning of the war and it was not until December, 1914, that I was appointed purchasing agent. What harm was there in my taking money out of horses any more than out of cattle?" he queried.

He had no doubt but that the people of Peel would return him by a substantial majority.

"If Mr. Falls is convinced that the money he received from the purchase of horses was honestly obtained, why did he turn over to the Peel Battalion?" asked Mr. Lowe. He characterized as regrettable the causes which had led up to the present situation and stated that he was not in the fight of his own volition. The action of Mr. Falls was one, however, which could not be lightly passed over by the Liberal party, and all honorable men. He made a strong appeal for independent support, and was accorded a fine reception at the close of his speech.

"Sordid Avarice."
 Hartley Dewart, K.C., made a bitter arraignment of the status of the conservative candidates, taking up in detail the several charges in connection with the now famous horse deals and commenting at some length on the findings of Sir Charles Davidson, the special commissioner. "Some people who have taken secret commissions have been prosecuted," said Mr.
 Dewart, referring to the deals of Mr.
 Falls. "Sordid avarice," was the term used by the K.C., to express his opinion of the ex-M.L.A. for Peel County.

"I admit that Mr. Falls made a mistake politically, but he has not knowingly violated the laws of the land," said Richard Blain, M.P., who appeared as sponsor for Mr. Falls.

He scored the Liberal leader's claim to the discovery of a new type of political morality in Peel County and made a strong appeal for the support of the Conservative party to return Mr. Falls to the legislature on Thursday next.

manded free wheat and a radical reform in the banking system that would establish rural credits. The big government elevator at Calgary, he said, served no useful purpose and its location at that place showed that Sir George Foster had but recently visited his department from the balcony influence of the party patronage system.

Col. John A. Currie (North Simcoe), moved the adjournment of the debate, which will be resumed on Tuesday.

A. K. Maclean Opens Fire.
 A. K. Maclean (Halifax), assuming the budget debate adjourned from Tuesday, said that the country should not be deceived by the boast that we had a balance of trade in our favor amounting to $200,000,000. It would be found that this surplus was more than eaten up by the interest payments we had to send to England and by the heavy exactions levied upon Canadian trade by the shipping and insurance interests. We had to send every year to Great Britain upon interest charges $150,000,000 and another $50,000,000 to our creditors in the United States.
 Therefore, we should remember that the current year was abnormal in many respects. There had been a bumper crop and great industrial activity from the munition business.
 Next year our crop would be smaller and our munition orders might be expected to decrease. Great Britain would probably make all her own munitions and he doubted if our manufacturers could afford to make munitions for the allies and take their securities in payment.

Referring to the domestic loan floated during the parliamentary recess, Mr. Maclean objected that it was not really a popular loan. The prospectus issued by Sir Thomas White, he said, was the stereotyped appeal intended for underwriters rather than investors.
 Most of the bonds had been purchased by the banks and resold in the United States.

Surplus Not Actual.
 Mr. Maclean thought there was a good deal of "bunk" about the finance minister's alleged surplus. As a matter of fact the financial operations of the current year, altogether apart from war expenditures, would show a deficit of $5,000,000. There should have been a surplus, he said, so far as ordinary expenditures were concerned and there could have been except for the reckless extravagance of the government in payment.

Mr. Maclean then drew a rather doleful picture of Canada's present and future financial position. For the fiscal year ending March 31, 1915, our total revenue had been $135,000,000.
 In that year we had spent $135,000,000 on current account, $11,000,000 on capital account, and $50,000,000 on war account.
 The deficit for the year had been $102,000,000. For the fiscal year that would end March 31, 1916, our revenue would amount to $170,000,000, but our expenditures would be $125,000,000 for current account, $10,000,000 for capital account, and $125,000,000 for war account, making a deficit for the year of $125,- 000,000. For the coming year, ending March 31, 1917, we figured upon special account, $125,000,000 on current account, $30,000,000 on capital account and $250,000,000 on military account. By the spring of 1917 our national debt would have risen to $835,000,000. Nearly one-half of all the money we could collect from customs and excise would be required merely to pay the interest due upon our national debt.

"Extravagance" Alleged.
 Mr. Maclean said that he presented these striking figures to the house to show the urgent necessity for economy. He was sorry to say that the government had shown no disposition to check any extravagance. The reason was to be found in the patronage system, and he was free to say that never had patronage and party spirit been so rampant as it has been in Canada since the beginning of the war. The estimates presented by the finance minister were swollen by votes beyond all justification. There was $12,- 000,000 appropriated for rivers and harbors which ought to be stricken out summarily; work on the Hudson Bay Railway should be discontinued, and, perhaps, that enterprise should be altogether abandoned. It was said the minister of public works would not spend the enormous sums placed at his disposal. "Perhaps not, but that gentleman's portrait hung in the gallery of prodigal administrators at Winnipeg and Ottawa alike (Laughter)."

High Running Expenses.
 Mr. Maclean complained that the expenses of the immigration department had not been cut down although immigration had practically ceased. The postoffice department, he said, showed a deficit for the year ending March 31,

1915, of $3,000,000. If it surrendered to the receiver-general the money it collected during the current fiscal year from the sale of war stamps its deficit on March 31, 1916, would not fall short of $5,000,000. During the current year, Mr. Maclean said, the government had expended a great amount of money in printing voters' lists and soldiers' ballots, while the prime minister occupied himself cutting clippings from Liberal newspapers which protested against a war time election.

The government had covered up a great many of the expenditures by charging them up to war account.
 Even the department of trade and commerce expended $3,000,000 labeled as war expenditures. Nearly every other department had dipped in. Even the department of Indian affairs had obtained $81.72 from the war credit. Was it really necessary for us to borrow money from England to carry on the war and to take $81.72 and give it to the department of Indian affairs?

Criticism Retractions Taxation.
 After criticizing the increased duty on apples and petroleum, which he said were injected into the budget to please the approval of the British operators of British Columbia, Mr.
 Maclean dealt somewhat gingerly with the business tax. He said it was not altogether devoid of merit, but open to certain criticisms. He objected to the retroactive feature except in the case of munition manufacturers. The retroactive feature would hit the small manufacturer, the retail grocer, the furniture would hit the small manufacturer and not the big corporation. The railway companies, for example, had a very heavy year after the outbreak of the war.

Premium on "Water."
 The budget also put a premium upon watered stock. A substantial like the Eddy Company in Hull, with an enormous plant, but a small capitalization, would have to give up an enormous sum, while some other corporation, perhaps more properly capitalized and larger profits would escape the tax thru having vast issues of watered stock. He also complained that tax did not mean getting rich thru unearned increment or real estate or the possession of inherited or invested wealth. It discriminated against stockholders in favor of bond holders. It was a tax on business instead of a tax on wealth. It would frighten off foreign capital so badly needed by our industrial, mining and transportation companies. He, therefore, urged the government to substitute an income tax.

Foster Makes Reply.
 Sir George Foster commented upon A. K. Maclean's "moderate and cautious criticism." In every scheme of taxation, he said, there were bound to be some inequalities and injustice.
 He had no doubt that the government would carefully consider when those who go into committee any suggestions coming from the opposition.

Amid cheers from the opposition benches Sir George declared he believed that the patronage system was an unmitigated evil; a grievous canker on our body politic. He would speak plainly, he said, and he hoped it would give him license to say what was in his mind. He had been in public life for 34 years, and he had seen the patronage system at work during all that time and he did not believe that it ever really helped a party, a government, or a member of parliament. On the contrary, it was usually the canker that disintegrated and ruined a government. He quite agreed with Mr. Maclean that strict economy should be observed in the public expenditures.

Calls for Retrenchment.
 "These are no easy times in the history of Canada," declared Sir George, "never a time in the history of any administration when the call came more clearly to those administering the affairs of the country to be more careful in the matters of expenditure to direct them properly and to administer them with honesty; to be strong enough to be tough to refuse unnecessary demands. It is our business to administer the funds of the people with perfect economy, and to devote ourselves to the noble purpose of prosecuting this war to its successful and final conclusion."

Great Changes After War.
 Sir George turned his attention to the future economic situation of Canada. He thought it was a mischievous nonsense to talk about our doubling our population with Mr. Maclean's war-time figures. After the belligerents were exhausted and tired of the war it would take perhaps a year to conclude a treaty of peace; demobilize the armies and exchange the prisoners.
 The war would be followed by great social as well as economic changes, but he believed two lessons would be learned from it. The first was the necessity for military preparedness, and the second was the necessity for co-ordination and co-operation among the parties of the British Empire.

Australia's Example.
 Australia, he said, had set a great example by seizing all her metal results. All the natural resources of the empire should be conserved for the good of the empire, and our present military war would be followed by a great commercial war and he hoped to see the habits of the British empire allies remain unbroken. He would not look for German immigrants and Germany should be the last place from which any of the allies hereafter should buy goods.

Dr. Chase's Ointment Cured

It may be interesting to note that Dr. Chase's Ointment was originally compounded to cure a case of eczema on a child. The disease had spread almost over the entire body and defied all the regular treatments for such troubles. The doctor was perplexed, but finally hit on the formula of Dr.
 Chase's Ointment, and, as many say, "it worked like a charm," healing up the nasty sores and leaving the skin soft and smooth.

That was a good many years ago, and since then many thousands of cases of eczema, both in children and adults, have been cured, until today Dr. Chase's Ointment is recognized as the standard cure for itching skin diseases.

Mrs. Geo. McNair, River Charles,
 N.B., writes as follows: "We use Dr.
 Chase's Ointment in our home, and would not wish for anything better for cuts, burns and bruises. A few

Erzerum

Those who took delight in the Grand Duke Nicholas as one of the grand figures of the war will be pleased to hear the news from Erzerum. Evidently the Russian authorities knew what they were about when they sent him to the Caucasus, and they may not mistake in selecting him for the expedition against the Turks in that quarter.

It is necessary to get out a map of the whole region between Constantinople and the Persian Gulf to understand the situation properly, and the bearing that the seizure of Turkey's Black Sea port, with 100,000 men and 1000 guns, has upon the military situation in Mesopotamia and Persia. The British expeditionary force on the Tigris will feel the ripple of the Russian exploit, and it will not lose its force until it has advanced in India and Egypt and the wastes of Africa.

The Turks have received a blow which must be recognized as one of the most notable achievements of the war for the allies. Constantinople itself appears as a probable objective. It utterly upsets the calculations of the kaiser about his attack on the Suez Canal, and the recreant Ferdinand must tremble in his shoes at this first clear token of the retribution that awaits the evil-doers of the Balkan States. It is impossible for Germany to ignore the shock to her prestige which the grand duke's victory delivers.

The simple fact of the fall of Erzerum is not the only thing to be considered. It indicates also that Russia is still a great military power, and that with proper equipment is a match for any foe. The latest British papers have not ceased praising the gallantry of the Turks as exemplified at Gallipoli, and in the Anzaco engagements. They are a match for any modern foe on equal terms, in the view of the military experts. It is these men that the Russians have overcome, aided by the experience of the Germans in Belgium, where it was sufficiently demonstrated that no fortress can withstand the pounding of modern artillery. Trenches are plainly a better protection than the strongest forts. The Turks trusted the huge fortifications of Erzerum, and were deceived as the Belgians were.

The effect of the triumph of the Russians will be most encouraging to all the allied troops on other fronts. It has been the fashion to discount the assistance that Russia might be able to extend. Confidence will be renewed in the czar's armies, and with the assurance which events in London and Paris give, that co-operation among the military leaders of all the allied nations is a settled policy, we may rest assured that there is a deep strategy behind all the movements and all the delays that have to be accounted for among the allied armies.

Russia is capable of playing her part. The other allies should prove equally capable when their turn comes for action. Erzerum means that there is a definite plan behind all the allied movements. We must wait and see as Germany must wait and see what is to be the upshot of it all. The difference is that we can wait with confidence, while Germany can only wait in the terror and hate, to which she so frequently gives expression, for the approaching doom. But we must not be impatient and perhaps we may learn a lesson from Germany in this respect, and be satisfied that the doom is on its way.

Facts for the Board of Education.

Whatever may be the facts that the bureau of municipal research has set before the public concerning any phase of the public life of the city, one thing is quite certain. All that has been done by the bureau has been done in the public interest, and with the most impersonal aims for the public good. It is, therefore, most ill-advised that any public official should represent the action of the bureau or make the mistake of regarding the work done by it as of anything but for the benefit of the people of Toronto. It is not claimed that the bureau is infallible or that mistakes are impossible, but as far as correctness can be assured, the bureau, with Dr. Brittain at its head, has taken every pains to secure accuracy. The complaint of the board of education or any one speaking for the board, places the members of the board in the awkward position of being on their defence, instead of regarding the bureau as an ally and assistance to the board, capable of making useful suggestions and pointing out methods of improvement.

No one ought to be foolish enough to think that the board of education is beyond improvement, either on account of its present perfection, or, as some think, its utter degeneracy. It is like other public bodies, liable to dry rot, and susceptible of many changes for the better. Obvious defects and incapacities, such as Dr. Brittain has pointed out, are not to be taken as indictments of individuals, unless individuals identify themselves with the weaknesses indicated.

The view that most people take is that the system is wrong in certain respects, and it can be improved by eliminating the weaknesses which Dr. Brittain has brought to light. Any attempt at defence of these frailties is so much fuel to the fire, and so much the worse for the board of education and its system. If the board should take the position of refusing to consider improvements, it means that the state of affairs is worse than the municipal bureau reports would suggest. Charles Lamb used to say that anybody might have a tear in his clothes, but a patch was premeditated poverty. There is no reason why the board of education should premeditate its errors.

The board of education and all other civic departments which may be given attention by the bureau of municipal research would be much wiser to hear what the bureau and its experts have to say, and consider these things in a dispassionate manner, than to endeavor to make it appear that any personal reference was intended. The bureau has now been too long at work in the city, and its officials are too well known for such an idea to gain any ground. The sooner the board of education takes up the work of the bureau in a co-operative spirit the better it will be for the board and the citizens.

After all, very little has been asked of the board but a plain statement of plain facts. The board should not be afraid to face the facts, whatever they are. Knowing the facts, if real service to the city be intended, it will be all the easier to make improvements and carry out the forward policy which we cannot imagine it is not the desire and wish of the members of the board to adopt. Without the facts it is impossible for them to make real progress. Any one who sets the facts before them should be hailed as a benefactor, and efforts to discredit such a benefactor should have no encouragement.

In any case the board of education and its friends will make a grave mistake if they try to head off the carefully built wall of facts which Dr. Brittain and his assistants have compiled from the not too luminous reports of the board. Chairman Houserton, Mr. C. A. B. Brown and other members of the board must realize that more headway can be made by accepting assistance from whatever quarter it comes, than by declining to listen to statements which appeal to all who have heard them outside certain charmed circles.

It will be difficult not to listen to the offer of the bureau in the spirit in which it is made with increasing frequency of reactionary tendencies. The bureau offers at its own cost to make a confidential study of the accounting and financial reporting system of the board, and to report advisable changes; and, further, to install any such changes in system which the bureau might convince the board would be advantageous, likewise at the cost of the bureau. This is good business and should be so received.

"The Dynasts"

Frank Lascelles is such a consummate artist that it is a blow to the self-respect of Toronto to suppose to possess that the splendid production of "The Dynasts," which has been produced at the Royal Alexandra this week in aid of the Red Cross fund, should have such undistinguished poor patronage.

The performance is a splendid one, flawless in all the more important parts, and with such a wealth of beauty, historical interest and sterling humor, that even had it not been of the richest patriotic color one might have expected the theatre to be filled for the sake of its artistic interest alone.

There are still a few opportunities to see this wonderful series of pictures of Nelson, Napoleon, Wellington, in the flesh as they lived, with their nearest companions in the great crises of empire a century ago, and anyone who can go and falls to do so, must have little regard for the British spirit.

TAG DAY AT THE CAPITAL

HEAD OF BONAPARTISTS EXCLUDED FROM ARMY

Prince Roland Devotes Energies to Map-Making for French Service.

KEEPS OUT OF POLITICS Useless to Pretend to Imperial Sceptre, According to His Philosophy.

PARIS, Feb. 17.—Prince Roland Bonaparte, the only male descendant of the oldest branch of the house of Bonaparte having male representatives living, and consequently head of the family according to the rules of primogeniture, is taking a modest part in the war. Educated from an early age by the law of 1886, as a member of a family having reigned over France, he was attached to a quantity of civilian auxiliary to the geographical section of the army, and has helped in the making of maps that millions of maps that the field forces have required.

"I should have been glad to fight for France in the field," he said to a representative of the Associated Press. "I have no imperial ambitions and no other desire than to serve my country and the interests of science."

Physically, Prince Roland recalls but feebly his famous uncle, the First Napoleon. He is six feet tall and is built in proportion; what is characteristic of Bonaparte about him is his untiring energy, his Corsican complexion and a nose that would look like Napoleon's had it no moustache under it.

"Be so kind as to be seated," he said to the correspondent, pointing to an arm chair which Napoleon the First sat when at work in his study. It stood in front of one of Napoleon's desks, on which were piles of scientific books and documents, among them a copy of his latest publication, issued since the war began, consisting of 348 groups of 24, among which are 35 new species and 24 hitherto unknown forms of old species.

The prince lives on the Avenue d'Antin, in a modern spacious mansion big enough to be called a palace, but resembling more the quarters of an important public institution or a well ordered commercial enterprise. There is an air of business all about the place. In addition to the million and more of natural history specimens, all catalogued and de-

A Line o' Cheer Each Day o' the Year

By John Kendrick Bangs. TOMORROW.

(Copyright, 1916.) TOMORROW is not yet, but sad or gay When Dr. Good comes may hang upon today. Wherefore today I'm using all my wit To give a glad complexion un-scribed in voluminous publications, there is a library of 200,000 scientific works which the prince puts to considerable use, judging from the volumes lying about the floor, on the chairs and on the desk of his own study, which address a chamber where he sleeps in the bed Napoleon occupied at Exba. The prince receives with about the same hospitality as does a congenial country gentleman, who doesn't see dozens of callers every day and is really glad you came.

Studied Human Race. When Prince Roland was excluded from the army just after graduating from Saint Cyr, he turned to the study of the human race under the eminent anthropologist, Dr. Broca. He has since seen nearly every specimen of humanity on his native soil. The zoology of the sea, botany, geology, geography, glaciology and aviation subsequently occupied his attention in turn and furnished him with the material for eighty different scientific works. Some of Prince Roland's discoveries in plant life have been of confirming the theory of the existence of an ancient continent, the existence of which is proved by the remains of coral, Madagascar and India. He found specimens of the same varieties of ferns all those countries.

As to the war and its different complications, the prince is obliged to maintain a certain reserve by usage of the common rules of humanity, he should be paid in kind. I have no criticism to make on the policy adopted by the United States; it has occurred to me, however, that President Wilson is a prodigious note-writer.

"When a nation goes to war," he said, however, it should wage war to the limit and when the adversary resorts to methods not countenanced by usage of the common rules of humanity, he should be paid in kind. I have no criticism to make on the policy adopted by the United States; it has occurred to me, however, that President Wilson is a prodigious note-writer.

Prince Roland Bonaparte is president of the Geographical Society and a member of the French Institute; honors he esteems quite as highly as his title of Prince Imperial, which he has not always been entitled to. Lucien Bonaparte, his grandfather, was excluded with his family by Napoleon from the imperial succession. During the hundred days Lucien was recognized for the services he rendered Napoleon. Napoleon III, however, modified the decision of Napoleon I, and the he descended from a junior branch of the Bonaparte family, claimed Lucien's descendants among the "Civil Family." Sedan having canceled this imperial decree, Roland Bonaparte has since been recognized as Prince Imperial, the same as Prince Victor, the pretender, who descends from the younger branch, that of Jerome, who was King of Westphalia.

LIEUT. HERTZBERG NOT A GERMAN-CANADIAN. In The World of Feb. 14, an Ottawa dispatch was published to the effect that Lieut. C. Hertzberg had been dangerously wounded; this was followed by a reference to "other German-Canadians," thus giving the impression that Lieut. Hertzberg was a German-Canadian. Lieut. Hertzberg is a son of J. L. Hertzberg, divisional engineer in charge of the C.P.R. who is Norwegian and whose family have lived in Norway for generations. His wife—Liese C. Hertzberg—is a Canadian. In addition to the one who has been wounded, Mr. Hertzberg has two other sons at the front, both fighting for the empire.

BULGAR LOSSES LARGE RUSSIA GREATLY FEARED

King is Openly Blamed for Selling Germany to the Germans

ROME, Feb. 17.—A neutral diplomat who recently returned from Bulgaria says the Bulgarian losses so far amount to 150,000; hence the army is now reduced to about 180,000 men. This is absolutely insufficient to aid the Germans in an attack on Saloniki. The soldiers, who are on short rations, are the Government requisitioned all available supplies of wheat, are disheartened and tired of the war. They fear Russian reprisals in the near future. The king is openly blamed for selling the country to the Germans, and is becoming very unpopular. His journey to Berlin and Vienna was taken because he feared it would be impossible to avert a revolution unless the Austro-Germans took the precaution of organizing timely measures. These the king personally urged in Berlin and Vienna.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—Young married men who have not enlisted are soon to receive the attention of the war office, which is considering the question of bringing pressure to bear upon them to induce them to join the army. WOMAN SPY IS GIVEN LIFE TERM IN PRISON

Samuel Announced to Commons That Death Sentence Had Been Commuted.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—The case of a woman spy who was recently sentenced to death, but whose sentence was commuted to penal servitude for life was announced in the house of commons today by Herbert L. Samuel, the secretary of state for home affairs. The woman was found guilty in a criminal court, the home secretary stated. An appeal was dismissed, but the sentence was commuted. Her activities were discovered six days after her arrival in Great Britain, and her correspondence was intercepted in the interval between this time and her arrest.

She was not a British subject. It was the first time since the beginning of the war, it was stated, that a woman has been given so severe a prison sentence in England for espionage.

FOE WOULD CONSUME FOOD SENT TO POLAND

Grey Explains Why Britain Has Deferred Giving Its Consent.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—Great Britain has not refused to allow food to reach Poland, according to a statement made by Sir Edward Grey, British foreign secretary, in reply to a question in the house of commons today. The foreign minister added that the entente allied governments had been approached with a request to permit food to be sent to Poland under national control, but that the allies had replied they could not consider the question until the various "methods of spoliation" adopted by the central powers had ceased. To do otherwise, he said, would be merely to supply food to the Germans.

Under the guise of a question to Sir Edward Grey, J. Ginnell, National member of parliament for the north division of West Meath, made the allegation that pressure had been used by the entente allies to dissuade the Belgian government from accepting from Germany an offer to re-establish the integrity of Belgium, to restore her independence and fully to compensate her for damages sustained. This brought a blunt answer from the foreign secretary, who stated: "The statement made in question is entirely untrue." Sir Edward added that he believed the statement of an offer being made to Belgium was also untrue.

DO the prohibitionists ever ask themselves what the probable effect of prohibition in Ontario would be on the value of property and the condition of business in general?

FINANCIALLY

The capital invested in the breweries and distilleries of the whole Dominion is given in the last industrial census as $24,000,000. In Ontario there are about 1,500 licensed hotels.

COMMERCIALLY

Just now we are suffering from extreme commercial depression, especially in property. Thousands upon thousands are land-poor, weighed down by investments and commitments on account of real estate.

MORALLY

The other day an American Judge, on being asked to explain why the State of Maine had upheld prohibition almost without a break since 1846, said the principal reason was that "prohibition does not prohibit," but merely calls into existence a host of "blind-pig" managers.

ONTARIO Would Be Dubbed "The Home of Crank Legislation"

We should see much the same thing in the larger cities and towns of Ontario, accompanied by a decline in the value of real estate, already in a bad way, and by our becoming notorious among the traveling public and business men as an abode of "crank legislation" to be shunned by all who had money to spend or to invest in new enterprises.

Can we afford to run this risk? Remember that if we once put the ban on the hotels we shall never be able to repair the damage done to them and the community at large.

The Personal Liberty League of Ontario believes in temperance in all things, and in its promotion; we favor the license system under proper regulation and control, but we are opposed to prohibition or any legislation which encroaches upon or curtails the purely personal liberties of our people.

The Personal Liberty League of Ontario

The undersigned subscribes to the Declaration of Principles of the Personal Liberty League of Ontario, assures the officers of the League that he is in sympathy with the general purposes of the organization, and hereby applies for membership, pledging himself to the furtherance of the aims and objects of the League.

UNCERTAINTY FELT IN MINING MARKET

This Feeling Caused Irregularity in Trading—Dome Extension Advanced.

The panicky liquidation which featured the mining stock market on Wednesday following the finance minister's budget was absent from the market yesterday.

There was a feeling of uncertainty and this was depicted in the action of the market which was very irregular.

Traders having recovered somewhat from their recent waiting to see what the future will uncover.

There was a prevailing tendency to accept the tax for the present, but with a strong conviction in the action of the market that it will be made later.

It will take a few days for the market to get back to normal again.

Stocks and Feeder Held Their Own Yesterday as Demand Was Good.

Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards on Thursday were 78 cars, comprising 833 cattle, 1613 hogs, 108 sheep and lambs, 42 calves and 547 horses.

The "sellers' cattle" it would have been better for trade had there been no fresh numbers arriving on the market during the first three days of the week.

According to the Union Stock Yards, the market was quite active, and the competition which took place when 500 more were placed on the market.

There had been a fairly active trade, but the weather was less than ideal, and the market to open up and prices to decline on an average of 10c.

Instances of this nature are not infrequently met with. The common and medium classes were the most active, and there was little good or choice on sale.

There was no change in the cow and bull prices. Stockers and feeders—in these two classes values held their own as the demand was quite active.

Receipts in this class were not large, and generally of poor quality, and the market was not seen by sales made.

Veal calves, number 20 on sale to convince the trade that prices for calves of all classes were firm, and more than sheep and lambs—Only 104 of these were again on the market.

Lamb sales were very firm. Lambs sold at $13 per cwt. D. McDonald, Swift and Co., 1000 York St., Toronto, having sold 14 choice Shropshire lambs to Swift Canadian Company at that price.

These were brought in by Droyer Feascher. Hogs—Receipts were moderate and prices steady at unchanged quotations.

Choice, heavy steers, at $7.50 to $7.80; medium steers, at $7.15 to $7.35; light steers, at $6.75 to $7.00; common steers, at $6.25 to $6.50; calves, at $5.75 to $6.00; hogs, at $5.25 to $5.50; heavy hogs, at $4.75 to $5.00.

Stockers and Feeders. Choice feeders, 800 to 900 lbs., $8.75 to $9.00; medium feeders, $8.25 to $8.50; light feeders, $7.75 to $8.00; common feeders, $7.25 to $7.50.

Choice, $10.50 to $11.00; heavy, $10.00 to $10.50; light, $9.50 to $10.00; common, $9.00 to $9.50.

Light sheep sold at $8.50 to $9.00; heavy sheep at $7.50 to $8.00; culled at $6.50 to $7.00.

Selected, $10.40 weighed off cars at the packing houses; 60c per cwt. for the car lots; 40c per cwt. for the bulk lots.
