THE WHEEL 'FORTUNE

But Royson had found adversity a hard task-master. He had learnt early the lesson that a man who takes a leap in the dark should at least jump from a high ground, and when he asked himself what was the definite charge he would prefer against von Kerber his logic was brought to a sharp halt.

"Anyhow," reflected Royson, smiling at the queer manner in which many opposing interests helped to entangle him in a mesh of difficulties, "I need not rush my friends. Let Fenshawe read his letter, and, above all else, let me see before Mr. Fenshawe does not demand a sacrifice.

When a young man does not want to deprive himself of the company of a nice woman, he may be depended on to argue himself into a state of mind which does not demand a sacrifice.

At that instant Irene rose and took Captain Stump that she agreed with him in the opinion of the upper stories, and the scrutiny of the frocks worn at the last window of the upper stories seemed to be bleaching visibly in the slanting rays of a fierce afternoon sun.

Mrs. Haxton, appointed giving no heed to Royson, glanced listlessly at the wrappers and postmarks. The task seemed to prove uninteresting. Soon she selected a periodical, and was about to open it when a remark from Irene caught her ear.

"That Italian standing in front of the gran-dealer's place seems to be rooted to the ground with astonishment at seeing strangers in the hotel," said the girl, turning her smiling face towards her companion.

"Them Dagoes is impudent pups at times," replied Stump, his red eyes no doubt meeting the man's stare with a fixity that might have disconcerted most happenings.

"Does he know you, do you think?" I happened to see him coming along the street, and as soon as he saw us he stood stockstill. He has been going up here now for the past two or three minutes.

"I've booted a rare lot of Italians in my time," said Stump. "I wouldn't be a bit surprised if he was some loafer I'd helped across a ship's gangway at Genoa or Naples."

"But captain," laughed Irene, "that man appears to be a superior class." "Bless yer heart, miss, that's not his name."

THE SYNOD HAD THREE BUSY SESSIONS YESTERDAY

The Proposed Medley Canonry Fund was the Subject of Much Discussion Yesterday Afternoon and Evening.

At the sessions of the Church of England Synod yesterday considerable business was transacted. Consideration was given to various sections of the Bishop's charge and committees were appointed for the ensuing year.

The report of the committee on the Bishop's address was resumed. Section 7 relating to the Medley Canonry was adopted as follows: "Your committee are of the opinion that this office should at once be filled, and that the board of missions be instructed to augment the interest accruing from the Pan-Atlantic thank-offering by chapter in the parishes, the diocesan, and to secure the stipend of such canon to the sum of $1,000.00 and traveling expenses."

Your committee heartily rejoice to hear of the good work done for the diocese by the members of the different chapters of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in St. John and elsewhere, and also of the phenomenal success of the laymen's missionary movement in St. John.

Your committee heartily rejoice to hear of the good work done for the diocese by the members of the different chapters of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in St. John and elsewhere, and also of the phenomenal success of the laymen's missionary movement in St. John.

The section was adopted without discussion.

Section 10 regarding appointments to rectories and removal therefrom was adopted as follows: "Your committee most strongly approve the principle set forth in his lordship's charge, with regard to appointments of clergymen to aided missions, and recommend that the executive committee be authorized to prepare a bill to amend the church act, insofar as it relates to election, and presentation to rectories and the management and control of aided missions."

Section 11 relating to aided missions was adopted as follows: "The report of the committee as originally presented was as follows: 'A committee of aid to the mission, on condition that an amount of $10,000 be raised for the purpose of payment to the missionary the great majority of the clergy from the country parishes were in favor of the present system. Dean Schofield, G. O. Dickson City and one or two other members advocated the change. The discussion had not concluded at 8 o'clock when the synod adjourned until 8 p. m.'

This and the remaining sections of the report were adopted at the evening session. The other sections provided: That the stipend of each canon be raised to $1,000 a year and traveling expenses, and that the offerings at confirmation services be devoted to the needy carriers of the faith. The executive committee were appointed to consider all proposals to erect new churches in the diocese.

His Lordship announced that he had appointed Rev. A. W. Smithers, Medley Missionary Canon.

The report of the committee on constitution was considered and adopted and the notice of motion from last year, to transfer the funds of the board of education to the finance board was carried.

W. B. Wallace, K.C., gave notice of motion for next year to amend the canon referring to the widows and orphans fund and the synod adjourned till this morning at 10 o'clock.

THIS SHOULD INTEREST THE PURITY LEAGUE

John E. McAuley and Ira Earle Figure in Interesting Correspondence.

John E. McAuley, of Lower Millstream, Kings county, is a councillor of the parish of Studholm and an active Conservative and supporter of George W. Fowler. He is also a member of the Purity League and Temperance Federation of Kings county.

Ira Earle is a prominent Liberal in the parish of Kars. He is postmaster at Belleisle Bay, and for years has tended the scow ferry placed at that point for the convenience of the people.

The following letter from John McAuley to Mr. Earle explains itself and is commended to the attention of those interested: "Lower Millstream, Sept. 23, 1908. "Dear Friend:—I am writing you a short letter, I believe for your own benefit, regarding the future. As you know, we are before an election and everything is present points to the Laurier Government going down. Now I, let you and I reason together for a moment. First of all, the local government is changed and you are holding a position. Now if you put up a good bluff that you are taking no part, you WILL MAKE YOURSELF FOR THE OFFICE YOU HOLD FOR THE FUTURE, ALSO YOU WILL MAKE ANY ACTIVE PART IN THE COMING ELECTIONS, and so I do conscious believe they go out, YOU WILL LOSE YOUR POST OFFICE AND THE SCOW BOTH. So I, for your own sake do not make any fuss over elections. Now remember, I am not asking you not to vote for your own party, but let no man know how you vote. Than neither party can accuse you anyway. As I want to see you hold the Post Office, also the scow, please do not give me away as I am registering this letter. If you cannot do anything else, you CAN SHAM SICK FOR A MONTH. I HAVE DECIDED NOT TO MAKE ANY PRICE THIS TIME."

"LET LAURIER FINISH HIS WORK"

CANADA'S PREMIER MAKES A DIGGING APPEAL TO THE CANADIAN ELECTORS

Extracts from Sir Wilfrid's Speech at Great Demonstration in Montreal on Tuesday Evening.

"All I Ask is Time to Complete the Work Upon the Fulfillment of Which I Have Set My Heart—Give Me That Time and I Ask No More of You, the Electors of Canada."

THE LIBERAL CHIEFTAIN, SIR WILFRID LAURIER.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier was the central figure in Montreal on Tuesday night of the greatest demonstration ever given to any public man in the history of Canada.

A BRIEF RESUME OF SIR WILFRID LAURIER'S TOUR

How Twenty Five of His Speeches Were Received in Ontario and Quebec—Some Striking Passages From the Addresses of Canada's Greatest Premier.

(Montreal Star, Independent.) A month and a half have passed since Sir Wilfrid Laurier opened his election tour at Sorel.

LAURIER'S WORK.

The main announcement of the tour was made at Niagara Falls, when the Postmaster-General made his official statement of the intention to introduce free rural mail delivery.

He quoted Mr. Borden's action in connection with the claim of the province of British Columbia for special treatment and declared that if Mr. Borden had any objection to raise, he should have raised it in the House of Commons.

Georgian Bay Canal To Be Pressed Forward

Repeating his previous announcement with reference to the Georgian Bay Canal project, the premier declared that it was a necessity for the country.

Driven To Seek For Inspiration In Gutter

Criticising the attitude and policy adopted by the Opposition during the campaign, the premier stigmatised this as unworthy of any Opposition, however weak and ineffectual.

Hon. Wm. Pugsley—"Mr. Hazen knew it was a false affidavit and should have had it corrected and resworn."

"I do not object to Mr. Borden being flanked by three provincial governments. I do not object to Mr. Borden being flanked by three provincial governments."

Hon. Mr. Pugsley—"I stood with my back to the wall and resisted their attempts to extort money from my department, and did my duty to the public and to myself and to this constituency."

"A wilful, deliberate and criminal attempt has been made to blackmail me into purchasing Mr. Mayes' dredge beyond what is worth."

SOME LAURIERISMS

"I would willingly give up my position as Premier of Canada to see more become the student of old McGill I was forty years ago."

"I am a Liberal of the English school. My political ideas and ideals have been entirely from such men as Burke, Fox, Gladstone, Bright and Daniel O'Connell."

Honor Ancestors But Be Ancestors Also

"I do not want anybody to renounce his religion or to give up the land of his ancestors. But I do say that we should endeavor to follow these principles."

Race And Creed No Difference to Party

"After eighteen years of opposition, the position of leader of the Liberal party became vacant, and when my colleagues of the House of Commons—necessarily Protestant and English—were in the great majority, I stepped into the shoes of my predecessor."

SIR WILFRID'S FORECAST OF THE ELECTION

Speaking in Montreal on Tuesday night last of the election on Monday next, Sir Wilfrid Laurier made the following forecast:

"It is with shame and disgust that I find the issue we are to fight upon is this petty scandal cry of the Conservative leaders."

"The Liberal party and the Liberal principles are broad enough to give to all people and races an equal measure of justice, liberty and light."

SOME LAURIERISMS

"The Liberal party and the Liberal principles are broad enough to give to all people and races an equal measure of justice, liberty and light."

"The mentality of the Opposition is so weak that they have been driven to seek inspiration in the gutter."

LAURIER'S WORK.

Laurier's work included the adjustment of the Manitoba schools difficulty, and the removal of an issue that had disturbed the country for years.

THE EVENING TIMES, ST. JOHN, N. B. FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1903.

The Evening Times

The St. John Evening Times is published at 27 and 29 Canterbury street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by the St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

THE EVENING TIMES, THE DAILY TELEGRAPH.

New Brunswick's Independent newspapers. These newspapers advocate British connection. Honesty in public life. Measures for the material progress and moral advancement of our great Dominion.

No graft! No deals! "The Thistle, Shamrock, Rose entwined, The Maple Leaf forever."

Of more importance to St. John people than many petty scandals hatched for election purposes are the improvements in Courtenay Bay and on the west side of the harbor. These are the things the people will vote for on Monday next.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER

There is one great and lofty figure in Canadian public life to-day, not only great by comparison, but by virtue of achievement. There are many able public men in Canada, and they are not all in one political party, but Sir Wilfrid Laurier stands pre-eminent as leader and statesman.

The Times to-day devotes a page to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, giving extracts from a number of his speeches delivered during that historic tour of Ontario and Quebec, which ended with the magnificent and unparalleled demonstration in the city of Montreal. The readers of this paper are invited to read carefully the words of Sir Wilfrid. There is an element of pathos in his allusion to his own advancing years, and to the fact that on that account this is doubtless his last appeal to his fellow citizens, who have already crowned him with the highest honors and hailed him for twelve years as the foremost citizen of Canada, as irreproachable in private as he has been incorruptible in public life.

It is this man who appeals to the Canadian people for a mandate to finish his work. High above the clouds of slander and abuse, in a serene atmosphere, he dreams of a greater Canada, and like Cecil Rhodes mourns that his own period of activity is drawing toward its close. The people will not fail him. He is to have another term of office in which to complete the great transcontinental railway with which he would have his name forever associated.

The people of St. John are especially interested in this great project, for here will be its chief terminus on the Atlantic coast. They are also interested in the Laurier policy of Canadian development along all lines, and will unite with the rest of the country in support of it, and send to Ottawa the ablest public man in this province to aid the premier in his great task.

"The Conservative campaign falters," says the Montreal Star. "It is preaching the sacredness of a public trust with Mr. Foster in the second place in the party and is denouncing land deals with Mr. Fowler and Mr. Lefurage as prominent candidates."

THE GREAT FACT

One fact the electors of St. John should keep in mind on Monday next. The government will not be defeated.

The people estimate at their true value the pious professions of the Conservative party, which goes about its task of purifying politics with the Calgary Eye Opener in one hand and a secret circular in the other; and has its high priests of political purity in the men whom the Montreal Star declares should be driven from public life.

If Mr. Borden had a policy which commended itself to the country as superior to that of Sir Wilfrid Laurier there might be a fighting chance for him. But he merely claims that he will give a more honest administration. Human nature,

Liberal and Conservative, does not vary so much that all the honest and patriotic and high-minded men are on one side. An opposition, to win, must have a better general policy than that of its opponents.

Therefore the government will not be defeated. Not only is this the verdict of a common-sense view of the situation, but it is confirmed by the reports from all parts of Canada. The Liberals will carry the West. They will make gains in Ontario. They will hold Quebec and Nova Scotia. They will make gains in P. E. Island, and there is no doubt at all that they will come out of New Brunswick with a better showing than in the last federal election.

It would be the extreme of partisan folly if St. John failed to elect either of the government candidates on Monday next.

St. John's growth must be as a terminus of transcontinental railways. Therefore, harbor improvement is the great local issue. Vote for Pugsley and Pender and winter port development.

COURTENAY BAY

An attempt is being made by the Conservatives to persuade the people that there will be no development of terminal facilities at Courtenay Bay, and that Dr. Pugsley is merely talking humbug.

Thinking people know, however, that a man holding the office of a responsible minister would not attempt this to deceive his own constituents, to whom he must answer for his acts. Even if he were so disposed, the government of which he is a member would not permit him to go to the length of calling for tenders for work they had no intention of doing.

The Grand Trunk Pacific must come to St. John. It must do Canadian business through Canadian ports, to gain the advantage of the British preference. Its chief winter freight port must be St. John. It must have terminals. Dr. Pugsley proposes to begin the work at once, so that when the freight comes there will be no frantic appeals to Ottawa such as have marked the whole history of west side development. He is supported in this policy by Mr. Pender, and the government is already committed to the policy of developing the port. It has already awarded the contract for more wharves on the west side.

Those who sneer at the idea of dredging Courtenay Bay are not thinking about the interests of St. John. They are trying to secure the election of Daniel and MacRae, and will use any and every means to discredit and destroy the chances of Pugsley and Pender.

It is for the citizens to disregard all personal and petty issues and vote for the men who will develop the port of St. John. What could Daniel and MacRae do if elected? They would merely ornament two of the opposition benches. St. John wants to be represented by the minister of public works and his colleague, Mr. Pender.

The new armory, the marine repair shops, and a parade ground and park where Sheffield Street now disgraces the city will completely transform that section. This is part of Dr. Pugsley's programme.

From reports received at Liberal headquarters in Ottawa from all parts of the country, the government majority is estimated at anywhere from fifty to seventy in the next house. Keep St. John in line.

Dr. Pugsley's work for the port of St. John speaks for itself. Vote for Pugsley and Pender.

Only one day more of active work before polling-day. Every elector who desires to see St. John developed as a winter port should exert his influence in behalf of the government.

Hon. Dr. Pugsley since he became minister secured $730,000 for St. John harbor, in addition to the work of the dredge Fielding. He plans to develop terminal facilities at Courtenay Bay. Strengthen his arm.

Free rural mail delivery is already a fact in one section of Carleton county, and the people appreciate this boon, which will be made universal as rapidly as possible.

FOOLISH COMPLAINTS

The charge is gravely made against Dr. Pugsley that he is promising St. John too much, and his opponents take the lofty ground that it is most improper to exchange promises for votes.

Let us examine the situation. St. John sends representatives to parliament for two purposes. One of these is to assist in framing policies and making laws affecting the welfare of the whole Dominion. The other is to guard the local interests of their own constituency. Thus there are general issues and there are local issues. The people, in choosing their representatives, have a perfect right to ask which of those who offer will best serve local interests. Under such conditions as now exist, when there is no great national issue, the local one assumes greater importance.

The two political parties in Canada are not sharply divided on any great question of policy. The opposition do not offer anything new. They simply assert that they are more honest than the government. Nobody believes this assertion. So far as St. John is concerned, the people are well satisfied with the general policy of the government, and from them the local issue attracts the most attention. It is in connection with the local issue that promises are made. Dr. Pugsley, as the minister of public works, outlines a plan of harbor development, and promises to carry it out. His opponents scoff at the plan and the promises. The trouble with them is that they are worried by these promises, and object to them not because they are not perfectly proper, but because they spell defeat for the Conservative candidates.

St. John has been clamoring for years for harbor improvement at national expense. Dr. Pugsley has inaugurated that policy. Therefore the enemies of the government hate and fear him. He has robbed them of a grievance. They are not able to rise up and denounce the government or its neglect of St. John. Thoughtful citizens, who care more for the welfare of St. John than for the triumph of a party, appreciate the work that Dr. Pugsley has done, and what he has pledged himself to do; and they will show that appreciation by electing the minister and his colleague, Mr. Pender.

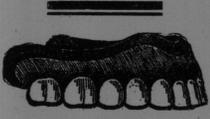

The best friend of the working man is he who provides profitable employment for working men. Mr. Pender does that. Vote for him.

ABLE MEN WANTED. Hon. Dr. Pugsley is one of the ablest of Canadian public men. He is the head of the great federal department of public works. He sits in parliament as the representative of the city and county of St. John, and the leader of the Liberal contingent from the province of New Brunswick. Occupying his present position he is able to do much that is needful for this city and province, which could not be so well done by a less able and influential man. It is all very well to prate about broad statesmanship which never takes note of so small a matter as the needs of any one city or province; but we are living in a practical age, and in a country of which one section is growing with marvellous rapidity, and clamoring for an ever increasing representation and voice in the conduct of public affairs. The growing west is not troubling itself about the maritime provinces. It is thinking of its own affairs. It is strong, self-reliant, assertive, and not given to backing down. Its influence is growing very rapidly. It is sending strong, clever, alert men to parliament. These eastern provinces must look to themselves. They must present their own claims, and guard their own interests. They need men of ability and resource to represent them in parliament. New Brunswick and St. John especially have such a man in Dr. Pugsley, one who can fill one of the most important positions in the administration of the country's affairs. The electors of this city and county are asked to replace him by Dr. A. W. MacRae. Surely this is asking too much. Surely the people realize the difference between these two men as representatives. It is so apparent that at this critical period in the history of the winter port the minister may count on a decisive majority, both for himself and for Mr. Pender. Any other result would certainly be against the best interests of St. John.

SIR WILFRID'S APPEAL. "IN FACT, WHEN I LOOK OVER THIS COUNTRY I MUST SAY WITH THE LATE CECIL RHODES, 'SO LITTLE DONE AND SO MUCH TO DO.' AND I ASK THE PEOPLE OF CANADA TO GIVE ME THE OPPORTUNITY TO TRY TO CONTINUE MY WORK FOR THEM, BUT UNFORTUNATELY MY TIME IS CREEPING ON, AND THIS IS PROBABLY THE LAST TIME I SHALL APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTRY, SINCE I FIND THAT I HAVE MADE THE GREAT MISTAKE OF GROWING OLD. AND THAT NOW THE TIME IS GROWING SHORT IN WHICH I CAN WORK FOR MY COUNTRY. BUT I FEEL THE GREATEST CONFIDENCE IN THIS APPEAL, AND UNLESS ALL SIGNS DECEIVE ME, I AM CONFIDENT THAT THE RESULTS WILL BE THE SAME ON THE TWENTY-SIXTH OF THIS MONTH AS THEY WERE IN 1896, 1900, AND 1904."

St. John will not make the mistake of trying to fit Dr. MacRae into the place filled by Dr. Pugsley. He won't fit. Mr. Michael McDade coined some striking phrases in his speech at Milford last evening. They form a slogan for the party of progress and prosperity. St. John is coming into her own. Stand by the government that is doing justice to her claims. Where is the original of the Mayes affidavit?

Mr. Borden offers nothing that Sir Wilfrid Laurier is not earnestly seeking to do for Canada.

St. John would have nothing to gain and much to lose by electing Dr. Daniel and Dr. MacRae. The government will be sustained. There is no doubt of that result. Therefore the minister of public works and Mr. Pender should be the representatives from St. John.

St. John's interests demand the election of two government supporters.

Mr. Foster is late with his libel suits. The Montreal Star has been waiting for a few for a long time. The elections take place next Monday.

The Liberals have given Canada twelve years of prosperity.

Tomorrow evening's Liberal demonstration should be made the greatest in the history of St. John.

St. John has a representative in the government. Keep him there.

The working men of Milford cheered Dr. Pugsley to the echo last evening. They will also vote for him.

INCURABLE. "Let me kiss those tears away!" he begged tenderly. She fell in his arms and he was busy for the next few minutes. And yet the tears flowed on. "Can nothing stop them?" he asked, breathlessly. "No," she murmured; "it is his fever, you know. But go on with the treatment." POOR YOUNGSTER. (By Nora Chesson, in the Westminster Gazette.) "Amber and russet beech-leaves flying. Racing with leaves from the maple shed: This is a sign that Summer is dying. This is a sign that the Summer is dead. "No more swallows around the gables. Hang or hover or wheel or flit. Summer memories are as fables. Winter's true and we shake at it. "Roses and lilacs grow dim, receding into a past all gold and blue. Asters stay with us, love-leaf-bleeding. Lingers still where the sweet peas grew. "Winter comes, and the Summer's beauty is as a legend of far away. And long ago. It is no one's duty To stretch belief beyond yesterday. "Dawn comes up in a sea of crimson. And red haze comes in the sky at noon: A sea of darkness a white heat swims on- The Chestnut Moon or the Hunter's Moon! "Sets the sun in a misty splendor. Minutes earlier every day. RENIGING CHEERS GREEN; DR. PUGSEY IN MILFORD; HIS SECRET IS SURE; In Enthusiastic Meeting Last Night Minister of Public Works Hits at Hazen and Mayes for the Dredging Slander—Milford to a Man Will Stand for Pugsley and Progress.

If ever an audience gave a candidate a vote of confidence it was accorded to Dr. Pugsley by the people of Milford, last evening. His exposure of the Mayes conspiracy, to which he has referred, acted like magic on his hearers, and they made the rafters ring with applause. When he went on to contrast Canada of twelve years ago with the Canada of today, and showed the progress and development under Liberal rule, touching more particularly on what he had been able to accomplish for St. John, the audience cheered him to the echo.

His announcement that sure as tomorrow's sun would rise, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his government would be sustained, was the signal for another grand outburst. The response to his appeal for support that he might continue his good work in St. John, left no room for doubt that Milford appreciated having the minister of public works as a representative. The meeting was for "Pugsley and Progress" to a man.

The working men of Milford turned out in force to welcome Hon. Mr. Pugsley, who delivered an eloquent and stirring address in the Temple of Honor hall. The building was crowded to the doors and many were unable to secure seats. Dr. Pugsley was given a most enthusiastic greeting. Throughout his masterly speech, in which he dealt with important domestic issues, the audience cheered him again and again.

Michael McDade also delivered an excellent address and was given an enthusiastic welcome. David Delaney presided and briefly introduced the speakers. The minister, on rising, was given a great reception. He said before taking up the discussion of domestic issues he would like to occupy a few minutes in discussing a matter that had been brought up within the past few days. "Some of my opponents," he said, "particularly Hon. Mr. Fleming and Premier Hazen, think that I should meet them on the public platform and discuss provincial issues."

"If it was so, I would have had to hang my head in shame and resign my seat in parliament. Sir Wilfrid Laurier would not stand for one minute to have such a man in his cabinet," he said. "When I heard it, I knew it to be false and I wondered how any man in Premier Hazen's position could lend himself to such a plot. He had not done what every honorable man would have done and sent me a copy of the statement, but he publicly stood up there at that meeting and read this statement to damn me in the eyes of the public."

"In the papers the next day I published a denial of the charges and showed how before when it was perfectly proper for me to accept it as I was acting as Mr. Mayes' counsel and legal adviser. Mr. Mayes then wrote me that it was a typographical error and the date should have been 1900.

"Would it not strike you as an extraordinary thing that every Tory newspaper made the same mistake? It went all over Canada and glibly editorialized that the minister of public works would have to get out of the cabinet. I took the means at my disposal to deny it, but neither Mr. Hazen nor Mr. Baxter nor any other of the Conservative party managers had the manliness or common decency to express their mistake. As it was their duty to do."

"You know a lie travels faster than the truth and doesn't today and contrast what the provincial government did when I was a member with the barren legislation this government has passed. The new highway act, for instance," (Applause.)

The minister referred also to the increased subsidy of $100,000 which he had secured for the province and which should be used to improve the roads and build bridges, etc. The Hazen government had passed the new highway act but they were afraid to bring it into force. "I would like," said Dr. Pugsley, "to discuss all those matters with Mr. Hazen or his colleagues," (applause.)

"The Standard," the organ of the Conservative party was careful not to publish the minister's address. It was a denial of the charges and showed how before when it was perfectly proper for me to accept it as I was acting as Mr. Mayes' counsel and legal adviser. Mr. Mayes then wrote me that it was a typographical error and the date should have been 1900.

"The Liberal government," he said, "is doing things, not standing still and what has been done is an earnest effort to make progress. He pointed out that while twelve years ago the exports through the port of St. John were nothing, last year they were $20,000,000. He referred to the improvements which, with the assistance of the government, the C.P.R. and Grand Trunk Pacific were making in the harbors of Victoria and grain exports which would pass through St. John as a result of those improvements and the reduction in the grades.

After touching upon the debt of $18,000,000 which accumulated under Conservative rule and the extensive works which the Liberals had been able to accomplish, he said that in the five years from 1903 to 1905, the capital invested in factories had increased from $465,000,000 to $883,000,000; wages paid to laborers had increased from $115,000,000 to $182,000,000 and the products of the factories had increased from $481,000,000 to $708,000,000.

He had, therefore, not only increased the foreign trade but the manufactures of Canada as well. Great quantities of goods were being exported as well as the needs of the dominion being supplied.

Charges Against Hazen. "I want to charge the Hon. J. D. Hazen, premier of the province, leader of the Conservative party and attorney-general, with the fact that he should be seen to be just and fair. I want to charge that he read out at a public meeting a material instance and which he knew to be false."

"What was that statement? It was that I had asked the Graham S. Mayes dredging contractor, in October, 1907, when I was minister of public works, for $2,000, for favors shown him. That statement was published in the Standard newspaper and in the Conservative papers all over the dominion that a minister of the crown, who you, a year ago sent to parliament, had so lowered himself and lost all sense of honor as to receive money from a contractor for services to be rendered at Ottawa."

"If it was so, I would have had to hang my head in shame and resign my seat in parliament. Sir Wilfrid Laurier would not stand for one minute to have such a man in his cabinet," he said. "When I heard it, I knew it to be false and I wondered how any man in Premier Hazen's position could lend himself to such a plot. He had not done what every honorable man would have done and sent me a copy of the statement, but he publicly stood up there at that meeting and read this statement to damn me in the eyes of the public."

Great Development Under Liberal Rule. "In speaking of what had been done in the twelve years of Liberal rule in development of the country, the minister told how in his own department $10,000,000 was being spent each year in the erection of public buildings, all built by private contractors. He pointed out that the deepening of canals and the railway construction. He referred also to the great work being done in the building of the transcontinental railway that would open up a vast fertile country for settlement.

Improvements were being made in the harbors of the dominion, both inland and on the coast, in order to provide for an increasing business, and this policy would be continued.

Another Bluff Sprung on the Eve of Election. HE SUES EDITOR TOO. Toronto Globe and Rev. J. A. Macdonald Its Editor Served With Writs in Suit—Charges Objected to Have Been Aired in Parliament and Published in Many Papers but This is First Action Taken.

Toronto, Oct. 22 (Special)—Hon. George E. Foster today issued writs for $50,000 against J. A. Macdonald, editor and publisher of the Toronto Globe, and for $100,000 against the Globe Printing Company, for libel. The writs were issued in connection with a speech by Mr. Macdonald at Ottawa last night and an editorial in the paper referring to his connection with Union Trust Company, western lands and Foresters' fund matters.

"I stand and we all stand for what is honest and just and righteous," (Applause.) I am glad this matter came out because when these people charge that this government is a government of grafters I want you to look at my connection with this dredging matter and see that I did not swear in my duty and accepted no favors and granted none.

"If I wanted to make money there was the opportunity. I would not take it as it would not be right. I leave it to you if the conduct of Mayes and those associated with him is not worthy of your condemnation," (Applause.) My opponents, Dr. Daniel and Dr. MacIver, who have taken this contractor under their wing, have invited him to speak at their meetings, are responsible for the actions of their party leaders. I have said nothing whatever about my opponents but if the limelight was turned on them I might find something. I feel that our cause is such a good one that I can ask the people to support me on that alone.

"This policy of progressive government will be continued and a still greater era of prosperity will be experienced in the future. Let us contrast what the Liberals have done in their twelve years of office. In 1896, when Sir Wilfrid Laurier was premier, there was a protective tariff—the Conservative party had put into force their National policy of high protection. Many factories and mills were built but there were no people to work them and many of them were idle. The young men were leaving the country and fully 2,000,000 people who should be in Canada now had their homes in the United States.

"When Sir Wilfrid Laurier came into power the foreign trade was only $237,000,000, but under the policy of the Liberal government it had been increased to $650,000,000, which means the handling of $400,000,000 worth more of goods."

"Yes, it means more work. Another voice—'And it means that the right men are in the right places.' (Applause.) 'Yes, it means that too.' The speaker then went on to tell of the British preference which was so strongly condemned by the Conservatives, and showed how it had resulted in the increased trade with that country.

Referring to Finance Minister Fielding, he said he was the peer of any Canadian statesman. He had accomplished for the development of St. John the speaker had no warmer friend or ally than he. He had greatly encouraged and introduced in the dominion so that in the five years from 1903 to 1905, the capital invested in factories had increased from $465,000,000 to $883,000,000; wages paid to laborers had increased from $115,000,000 to $182,000,000 and the products of the factories had increased from $481,000,000 to $708,000,000.

Many factories and mills were built but there were no people to work them and many of them were idle. The young men were leaving the country and fully 2,000,000 people who should be in Canada now had their homes in the United States.

"When Sir Wilfrid Laurier came into power the foreign trade was only $237,000,000, but under the policy of the Liberal government it had been increased to $650,000,000, which means the handling of $400,000,000 worth more of goods."

"Yes, it means more work. Another voice—'And it means that the right men are in the right places.' (Applause.) 'Yes, it means that too.' The speaker then went on to tell of the British preference which was so strongly condemned by the Conservatives, and showed how it had resulted in the increased trade with that country.

Referring to Finance Minister Fielding, he said he was the peer of any Canadian statesman. He had accomplished for the development of St. John the speaker had no warmer friend or ally than he. He had greatly encouraged and introduced in the dominion so that in the five years from 1903 to 1905, the capital invested in factories had increased from $465,000,000 to $883,000,000; wages paid to laborers had increased from $115,000,000 to $182,000,000 and the products of the factories had increased from $481,000,000 to $708,000,000.

He had, therefore, not only increased the foreign trade but the manufactures of Canada as well. Great quantities of goods were being exported as well as the needs of the dominion being supplied.

Great Development Under Liberal Rule. "In speaking of what had been done in the twelve years of Liberal rule in development of the country, the minister told how in his own department $10,000,000 was being spent each year in the erection of public buildings, all built by private contractors. He pointed out that the deepening of canals and the railway construction. He referred also to the great work being done in the building of the transcontinental railway that would open up a vast fertile country for settlement.

Improvements were being made in the harbors of the dominion, both inland and on the coast, in order to provide for an increasing business, and this policy would be continued.

Toronto, Oct. 22 (Special)—Hon. George E. Foster today issued writs for $50,000 against J. A. Macdonald, editor and publisher of the Toronto Globe, and for $100,000 against the Globe Printing Company, for libel. The writs were issued in connection with a speech by Mr. Macdonald at Ottawa last night and an editorial in the paper referring to his connection with Union Trust Company, western lands and Foresters' fund matters.

"I stand and we all stand for what is honest and just and righteous," (Applause.) I am glad this matter came out because when these people charge that this government is a government of grafters I want you to look at my connection with this dredging matter and see that I did not swear in my duty and accepted no favors and granted none.

"If I wanted to make money there was the opportunity. I would not take it as it would not be right. I leave it to you if the conduct of Mayes and those associated with him is not worthy of your condemnation," (Applause.) My opponents, Dr. Daniel and Dr. MacIver, who have taken this contractor under their wing, have invited him to speak at their meetings, are responsible for the actions of their party leaders. I have said nothing whatever about my opponents but if the limelight was turned on them I might find something. I feel that our cause is such a good one that I can ask the people to support me on that alone.

"This policy of progressive government will be continued and a still greater era of prosperity will be experienced in the future. An Excellent Meeting Held Last Evening in the Interests of the Liberal Candidate in Queens-Sunbury.

Blissville, N. B., Oct. 23 (Special).—A most enthusiastic meeting was held here last night in the interests of Col. McLean. There was a large attendance and any hope that Conservatives might have had of electing their candidate is now completely extinguished. Col. McLean, F. J. McPeake and Mr. Burke, of St. John, were the speakers and held the audience interested while they discussed the issues of the campaign. Premier Hazen was severely reproached for his failure to keep his pre-election pledges. There was not a dissenting voice in the audience and hearty cheers for Col. McLean at the close of the meeting showed the temper of the electors.

Blissville will return a substantial majority on Monday for Col. McLean the next representative of Queens-Sunbury in the Dominion parliament.

The three-masted schooner Conrad S., that arrived yesterday afternoon from Port Georgeville, N. S., with a load of pig-iron, came down from the north like a whirlwind. POLICE COURT

S. P. C. A. Funds Enriched by Milk Dealer who was Summoned to Court.

The fact that no prisoners were arrested yesterday can be ascribed to either of two causes, a spasm of abstinence held the city in its grip, or the bibulous individual succeeded in eluding the vigilant blue-coats.

Thomas Robinson, the milk dealer whom the S. P. C. A. has been prosecuting, was again in court on complaint of that body.

Robinson said he disposed of the horse for $10 on Friday, which it is claimed he attached to the milk wagon when unfit for use and the animal was conveyed up town Saturday afternoon. He addressed a communication to the magistrate on Friday night which did not reach its destination, stating that he had sold the horse. A King Kelly, who prosecuted for the society, said a fine of $50 should be imposed as Robinson had continued to use the horse despite representations. He said the horse was believed to be suffering from incurable and contagious hoof disease, and Robinson's stable, according to testifiers, was also infected. Another of the horses is held to be in a similar condition to the one sold.

The magistrate suggested that Robinson donate the $10 he received for the horse to the S. P. C. A. and the fine would be suspended. The milk vendor acceded.

The hearing of a dispute between a Mrs. Cummings and Mrs. Swayne was abruptly terminated by both women and their adherents being summarily dismissed from the judicial chamber. Mrs. Cummings was the complainant.

Kim Fee, the employer of Wong Soy Tying, who arranged the demonstration of Wednesday, informed the court that he had secured his countryman's license and thus the matter dropped.

IF YOU INSIST UPON ABSOLUTE STYLISHNESS, if thoroughness in Tailoring is the chief essential in your estimation or the superior quality of materials strikes you as the prime consideration in buying a Winter Overcoat, by all means give us the opportunity of proving what we claim for our goods. Instead of indulging in reckless superlatives kindly consider how we have built up our enormous clothing trade; remember that we stand back of every garment we sell and that we allow no garment to enter our establishment until the M. R. A. Standard of unquestioned superiority and reliability is met to the fullest, and furthermore that no garment leaves our establishment unless it is a perfect fit.

THE "CLARENDON" which bids fair to be the ruling style, is a 46 inch Long Coat, has close-fitting collar shapely lapels and shoulders; full breasted and Skirted, made in high grades of Melton's, Vicunas, Kerseys and Tweeds, Black, Browns, Greys, Etc.

THE "BALTIMORE" while longer, is very much the same coat as the Clarendon—Cloths and everything

COLLEGE COATS in Heavy Scotch Cloths with Prussian Collars, Etc.
