LIKELY TO HAVE MARKED EFFECT

Assassination of Heir to Austrian Throne and His Wife

BURDEN NOW ON EMPEROR

Late Archduke a Very Powerful Man and He Will be Missed by Aged Ruler—Some Look for More Peaceful Times

SARAJEVO, Bosnia, June 29.—Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir to the Austria-Hungarian throne, and the Princess of Hohenberg, his morganatic wife, were shot dead in the main street of the Bosnian capital by a student today while they were making an apparently triumphant progress through the city on their annual visit to the annexed provinces of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The archduke was hit full in the face and the princess was shot through the abdomen and throat. They died a few minutes after reaching the palace, to which they were hurried with all speed. There were two assassins, the first armed with a bomb, and the other with a revolver. The bomb was thrown at the royal automobile, but the archduke saw the missile coming and warded it off with his arm. It injured several bystanders a little later. As the royal automobile reached a prominent point in the route to the palace an eighth grade student, Gavrijo Princip, sprang out from behind a house, and fired a bullet into the archduke's chest.

Princip and a fellow conspirator, a compositor from Trebinje named Gahinovic, barely escaped lynching by the infuriated spectators and were seized by the police, who afforded them protection. Both men are natives of the annexed province of Herzegovina.

Momentous Political Effect

Vienna, June 29.—The tragedy at Sarajevo yesterday is bound to have a momentous political effect on the dual monarchy. Archduke Francis Ferdinand, who became heir presumptive, was as comparatively unknown as Archduke Karl Ludwig, but his death has caused a comparatively short time to be governed by an inexperienced prince, instead of a ruler with twenty years of close acquaintance with state affairs, and second only in influence to the Emperor himself.

Archduke Francis Ferdinand on coming here to the throne formally renounced all rights to the throne on behalf of his children. This was necessary because Austria forbids the offering of morganatic marriages becoming rulers of the country. No such disqualification exists under Hungarian law, and in the event of a division of monarchy without such voluntary renunciation, the son of Francis Ferdinand might succeed to the Hungarian throne.

A Powerful Man The death of Francis Ferdinand will throw all burdens of government upon the aged emperor, and at the moment it is next to impossible to predict what political results will follow. The late archduke had a tremendous strong personality and wielded an enormous influence in every department of political, military and naval affairs. He possessed a temperament of fiery energy, and had strong clerical sympathies. He was bitterly opposed to Hungary and all separatist movements. He was in favor of the restoration of temporal power of the Pope, which made him unpopular with Italy and endangered the Italian alliance, and is believed to have looked to an alliance with the southern Slav races to counteract Hungarian influence. Whether this was true or not, he certainly was anxious to increase Austrian influence in the Balkans, and worked energetically with that aim in view, which is held as explaining the Serbian antagonism toward him.

Little is known of Archduke Karl Francis Joseph's political leanings, but it is supposed that with the disappearance of such a strong personality Austria may soon enter upon a period of greater quietude than she would have experienced under Archduke Francis Ferdinand.

London, June 29.—The London morning papers editorially express strong indignation and sorrow at the manner of Archduke Francis Ferdinand's death. The Telegraph says:—"His death is, we believe, a serious loss to Europe at large as well as to Austria." The Times fears that Sunday's events must assuredly add clouds to the political outlook in Austria-Hungary. It thinks that the dual system of Austria and Hungary will probably be strengthened for a time, but that the more southern Slavs see their hope recede, the greater will be the danger of an ultimate explosion.

The king has ordered court mourning for a week. The state ball which was to have taken place tomorrow has been postponed.

The archduke's successor as heir to the throne is a popular figure in England and other countries. He represented Austria at the coronation of King George. Archduke Charles is of athletic build and carriage, and shows his military training. With Austria and Hungary alike he is immensely popular, and the close study of Slavonic and Balkan problems to which he has devoted himself should be of good service when he comes to the throne.

Berlin, June 29.—The Berlin morning papers representing all parties unite in considering the tragedy an outcome of Austria's misadventure in the Balkans.

The motive is Serbian hatred for the Austria-Hungarian state. The archduke and his wife have fallen as the victims of passionate enmity which the Austria-Hungarian policy of late years has awakened among the Serbian people.

The Tagblatt thinks the crime will further intensify the already tense situation in the dual monarchy.

Rome, June 29.—King Victor Emmanuel and Pope Pius X. have sent their condolences to the Austrian emperor. The Pope cancelled the St. Peter's Day reception, for which 10,000 invitations had been issued. The assassination has caused a deep impression throughout Italy on account of the close relations with Austria. Only recently the signing of a concordat between the Pope and Serbia took place, and it was generally considered that this would tend to diminish Serbian agitation against Austria.

MAY REVISE THE DOG LAW

Conference of Kennel Club Officials and Commissioner—S. P. C. Takes Up The Matter

A delegation from the New Brunswick Kennel Club conferred with Commissioner Potts this morning regarding the enforcement of the dog law. The members of the club, including the president, J. Werner McLellan, and the secretary, Albin F. Sturdee, expressed their approval of the general provisions of the law, and of the effort being made to rid the streets of masterless dogs.

Commissioner Potts said that the law was passed before he took office, and he had to do as he found it. He said, however, that he was open to conviction regarding the harshness of applying the law to well behaved dogs in the company of their owners. The commissioner promised to bring the matter to the attention of the council, and the law may be amended.

Since the appointment of the dog catcher eighteen canines have been placed in temporary restraint in a box stall in the city station, and there are now various dogs in the pen, waiting to be claimed by their owners, sale to the high bidder, or death in the city's lethal chamber.

There was a rumor this morning that a bull dog in the pound had killed three other dogs there, but both Commissioner Potts and Leo Blizard, the pound keeper, emphatically denied that any such occurrence had taken place.

When asked this morning what his opinion was regarding the enforcement of the dog law, Mr. Wetmore said that he did not altogether approve of the method of keeping the dogs in one enclosure.

The seven dogs now under restraint compose the largest number which they will be kept at auction. They are not all of the same breed, but some are of various breeds, some of them being just dogs.

On both sides there is a feeling that there will either be a landslide that will carry the Liberals into power, or that there will be little or no change. The battle has been fought largely on the issue "the abolition of the bar."

The vote this morning from all over the city was reported to be coming in very rapidly indicating that an unusually heavy vote will be polled.

London, June 29.—The failure of the banking firm of Chaplin, Milne, Grenfell & Co. will result in an important art collection of old masters being thrown on the market. The collection to be auctioned at Christie's for the benefit of the creases of Arthur M. Grenfell includes the portrait of the Countess of Chesterfield by Van Dyck, formerly hung at the palace, and a portrait of a man in a red cap ascribed to Titian.

The Dutch and Flemish schools are represented by Bot, Breckelenkam, Gyp, Dow, Pieter Dubordieu and Wouvermans, and the English by portraits from the brushes of Sir Joshua Reynolds and Sir Thomas Lawrence. The only modern picture is G. F. Watts' "A Greek Boy." Much public interest is excited over the Titian, which has been auctioned several times by Christie's since the uncertainty of its authorship makes it more or less of a gamble.

COMING HOME

Rev. Kenneth Kingston, son of William Kingston, retired U. S. R. in the United States Army, left Edmonton, Alta., on Tuesday on a visit to his old home here. After spending a few weeks here, he will return to his home in Dorchester, where he will take charge for a year or more and will then return to the west.

greater will be the danger of an ultimate explosion. The king has ordered court mourning for a week. The state ball which was to have taken place tomorrow has been postponed.

A LESSON FROM SATURDAY'S TRAGEDY

Commissioner Urges Action in Matter of Having Grappling Irons Available

The need of proper grappling irons in some easily accessible place was grilly impressed upon Commissioner Wigmore on Saturday afternoon at the time of the drowning of the little boy in the Marsh Creek. The commissioner was superintending some civic work in the neighborhood when the accident happened and he was among the first on the scene.

He secured a boat and aided in the efforts to rescue the boy. When it was found that no grappling irons were available he drove around the city from place to place looking for some and it was only after considerable searching that he found a man, in the pilot rooms, who volunteered to secure the irons and who was successful in doing so. The commissioner returned to the scene of the tragedy and aided in the work until it was closed. His experience, impressed upon him more strongly than ever, the need for having such irons available in some public place where they could be secured easily in an emergency and it is his intention to bring the matter to the attention of the common council this afternoon.

FOR RE-UNION

A circular received from Boston says that the New England descendants of the Starr family were to leave Boston today by steamer for St. John, en route to the annual re-union of the Starr family, returning via St. John on July 4.

BAND CONCERTS

If the weather continues unfavorable this evening the band concert which was to have been given by the 62nd regimental band in King square will be postponed until tomorrow evening. Arrangements have been made for another concert by the Sons of England band on Friday evening.

TROUBLE ENDED

The difficulty arising from the erection of fishing wiers at the entrance to King street, West St. John, has now ended. The matter was taken up by Commissioner Russell who instructed the city engineer to report. He found that $28.88 had been received and it is to the effect that nets and poles erected by J. Fred Belyea have been removed and that there is now no obstruction in the way of the entrance to the slip.

BURIED TODAY

The funeral of Lorne Hodgins, who was accidentally drowned in a boating party on Saturday, was held this morning. Service was conducted at the home of the deceased, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Leonard, Haymarket square, by Rev. B. U. Denison. The body was taken to the cemetery and will be laid to rest this afternoon.

FISHERMEN BRING TO CITY STORY OF WILD STORM ON LAKE

It cannot be said that a party of fishermen who were at a disappointment on the lake at the time of the storm on Friday last enjoyed the unique experience which was given them when a violent storm broke over a bright, clear sky, but to say the least they will never forget it. Miss Gladys Fitzgerald won the Douglas medal for classics and the Ontario general-governor's bronze medal for the letter to her father. Miss Mary Chevalier won the Goughard memorial medal, and also the U. N. B. mathematical prize. Miss Olga MacNutt, daughter of Collector MacNutt, won a prize for best essay, presented by the Daughters of the Empire.

Rev. Dr. Smith will leave this week for P. E. Island to spend a vacation.

ANOTHER BURIED CITY HAS BEEN DISCOVERED

Egyptologist Finds One as Well Preserved as Pompeii London, June 29.—Recent exploration in the Nile Valley has resulted in the discovery of a buried Egyptian city as well preserved as Pompeii, according to the Rev. Professor A. H. Sayce, a famous Egyptologist, in an address at the Royal Society. The discovery was made by Professor Garstang, investigating at the time, the dig from the ruins of a palace, public baths, gymnasia, streets and private dwellings. Trees set in pits lined with brick bordered the streets, and walks, quays and landing stages were built along the riverbank. This city was the centre of the iron industry of the time, and the dig from the ruins of a palace, public baths, gymnasia, streets and private dwellings.

PAVING WORK FOR ROTHESAY AVENUE

It will be good news to those who have to use Rothesay avenue to learn that the northern side of the roadway is to be paved and put in good condition immediately. As soon as this is completed the commissioner of public works hopes to be able to go ahead with similar improvements to the southern side on which all the traffic is now concentrated. When the improvements are completed the roadway will be wider and in much better shape than before the street rails were laid.

COMPLAINTS OF SERVICE

Once more the suburbanites along the I. C. B. have complaints against the management for what they term mistreatment. There are several causes of trouble, but they have all some bearing to the failure of the management to have the schedule adhered to. On Saturday last the cars had to be delayed, and this has caused a delay at Rothesay, and also meant that people living beyond that station are late in reaching home. There has also been a delay in the return of whole of the trains.

THE RUSSIAN EFFECT.

One of the very latest ideas in fashions for misses and small women. Rattine combined with Roman silk is used to make it. The Russian tunic is the distinguishing feature of the design.

The Russian influence predominates in the newest summer modes. This dress for misses and small women shows how well the idea may be developed. It is carried out in blue rattine, the Russian tunic falling over a foundation that is faced with a deep band of Roman striped silk.

To make the dress will require 3 1/2 yards of rattine, 4 1/2 inches wide and 2 yards of 40-inch Roman silk. If lace is used for the waist 1/4 yard 18 inches will be required.

The home dressmaker need not hesitate to attempt cutting the dress. Although there are many parts to the pattern, they can be so arranged on the material that there will not be any waste, neither will there be any excuse for errors. The back goes (2), front goes (3), back tunic section (2), back (3) and front tunic section (3) are laid on a lengthwise fold of the rattine. The collar may also be placed on the fold between the back tunic section and the back. This leaves only the front and the sleeves to be placed on a lengthwise thread of the material.

GIRL AND MAN BOTH SAY THEY KILLED BLACK HAND CHIEF

New York, June 29—Maria Magaluso, a grass widow of eighteen years, started District Attorney Whitman of New York County by telling him she had murdered Giuseppe Marino, a Black Hand leader of New York. At the same time William Plack, who knew Marino, said he had killed the Black Hander. The girl said Marino broke into her room in her brother's house with several companions and beat her. She feigned death and the gang left. "I thought Marino had gone," continued the fair prisoner, "and I started to leave the flat, but I discovered that he was in another room. When he found that I was not seriously injured as I had led him to believe, he began to brandish the revolver again and to threaten my life unless I worked with the gang. "At last I could not stand the strain any longer and said, 'I'll do it, Joe, but put that gun away.' Marino hid the revolver on a table and I watched every move he made. I saw my chance when his back was turned and, seizing the revolver, I shot him dead. "I had a right to do it, didn't I?" insisted the girl as she completed the dramatic part of her story and turned to her listeners for vindication.

CHOPIN'S GREAT FEAT.

(The Canadian Courier). Curious are the errors that creep into print. One of the most remarkable came to light recently in a corner of the weekly calendar of St. James' Square Presbyterian Church, Toronto. It seems that one of the prominent members of the church choir, and who is organist and choirmaster decided to do something special in the musical line, and he could think of nothing better for the occasion than Chopin's wonderful Funeral March. There was but little time in which to arrange things, and the announcement of the order of service was to print on the church calendar. So the choirmaster had his secretary telephone the particulars of the order of service to the printer so that the thing could be done in time. Now it so happened that the secretary was a recent arrival from England and her accent still clung to her tongue with exceeding tenacity. The printer had a little difficulty making out just what she meant, but he did his best. Imagine the smiles on the face of the congregation, and though the occasion was, imagine the chagrin of the choirmaster when the church calendar appeared in the paper with the promise, instead of the great Funeral March, the following: "A Few Remarks, by Chopin."

Fats Make the Hottest Fire

And as the digestion of food generates body heat, so the more greasy, heavy food you eat, the hotter you are. One can feel several degrees cooler and more comfortable in summer by selecting proper food.

Grape-Nuts

is made of carefully selected wheat and barley and contains all their nutritive values, including the mineral phosphates, (grown in the grain), that are especially necessary for rebuilding the tissue cells of the body and brain. Grape-Nuts is thoroughly baked (16 to 24 hours) which breaks down the starch cells. Therefore it is easily and quickly digested—generally in about one hour. If you care to feel cool and fit make Grape-Nuts a part of the summer diet—a delicious part! "There's a Reason" —sold by Grocers everywhere. Canadian Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Windsor, Ont.

LORNE HODGIN, AGED SIX YEARS, DROWNED IN MARSH CREEK

Lorne Hodgkin, the six-year-old son of Samuel H. Hodgkin, 327 Brussels street, crew near the Marsh creek, on Saturday afternoon and his little cousin, Nellie Short, twelve years old, narrowly escaped the same fate while endeavoring to rescue the little fellow. She was pulled from the water in an unconscious condition by an Italian laborer, Peter Telansky, employed at Courtenay Bay. The two children, accompanied by Gladys and Jennie Hodgkin and Fred and Arvilla Short were playing on the banks of the stream when Lorne went in bathing in some manner he got beyond his depth and although the little girl was able to catch hold of him, she was unable to pull him from the water. The timely arrival of the Italian saved her life. Frank Armstrong, a member of the Stone church Boy Scouts recovered the boy's body by means of a long pole. Besides his parents, the little Hodgkin left one brother Walter, one half brother, Ernest, and six sisters—Mary, Gertrude, Lillian, Jeanne, Pearl and Gladys. He was the second youngest of the family. The body will be taken to the funeral home on Tuesday morning for burial. Service will be held at the house at 10 o'clock.

SKIN TROUBLE ON THE SCALP

SKIN Dried and Cracked and Hair Fell Out—Cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment. Eczema is annoying and distressing at any time, but doubly so when it gets into the scalp and causes the hair to fall out. Here is a grateful letter from a lady who was cured by using Dr. Chase's Ointment. Mrs. Hector Currie, Tobermory, Ont., writes: "I was cured of disagreeable skin disease of the scalp by using Dr. Chase's Ointment. The trouble started with itching and pain in the scalp, the skin would get red and crack, and at times would bleed, and the hair would fall out. I tried three doctors without benefit, and suffered for three years. Reading in the almanac about Dr. Chase's Ointment, I began to use it as soon as I was able to. The hair has grown again, and I am as well as ever now. You are at liberty to use this letter for I am glad to recommend so excellent a treatment." Dr. Chase's Ointment has no rival as a cure for itching skin disease.

Summer-Spoiled Skin Removed by Absorption

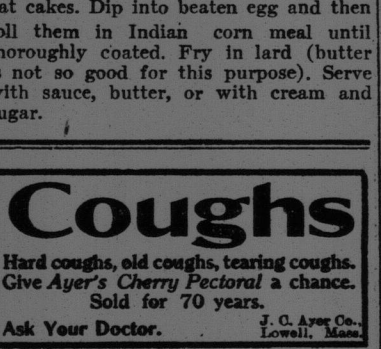

As undue summer exposure usually leaves an undesirable surface of tan, dust or grease, often irksome, it is more service to remove such surface than to hide it with cosmetics. There's nothing better for this than ordinary macrolase wax, which actually absorbs an undesirable complexion. The thin layer of surface skin is itself absorbed, gently, gradually, as it is incorporated in the attention indoors. Spread the wax gently over the entire face at bedtime and take it off in the morning with warm water. You will get one session of macrolase wax at the drugstore, use for a week daily. When the underlying skin is wholly in view your complexion will be a marvel of softness, purity and beautiful whiteness. Don't let those summer wrinkles worry you, worry those wrinkles wrinkles. Banish them by bathing the face in a solution of powdered macrolase, 1 gr. dissolved in 1/2 pt. witch hazel. Used daily for awhile this will be found wonderfully effective.

WANT OSLER FOR PARLIAMENT Influential Representations Being Made To Famous Canadian Medic To Go To House of Commons (Times Special Correspondence) London, June 16—Everybody is hoping that Sir William Osler will yield to strong and influential representations made to him to go to the House of Commons as member for Oxford University—the seat made vacant by the death of Sir William Anson. If he decides to do so it is altogether likely that it will be an election by acclamation. It goes without saying that the House of Commons would welcome this distinguished Canadian whose signal services to the cause of medicine have made him a world-famous figure. He is fond of rebutting the popular opinion that Oxford University is the home of conservatism and lacking in progress and as he said the other day he believes it to be "the most alive, intelligent, stimulating and fertile place that any Englishman or colonial could visit". It is his intense love for the university where he is the idol of the undergraduates particularly of those from Canada—that would form the principal objection to his taking parliamentary honors. He would much prefer to complete his life-work in the quiet arena of the university than to participate in the noisy struggle of Westminster. In the house, however, he would exert considerable influence, and he is not inconsiderable of the fact that Britain requires the presence of the principal thinkers in her national councils. THE "RAINBOW" NEEDED (The Canadian Courier) Many honest citizens have been unable to see the value of the little cruiser, the "Rainbow" which was stationed at Esquimaux under Laurier and dismantled under Borden. Yet during the past fortnight the "Rainbow" would have been very valuable to the Canadian Government had it been in commission and well manned. BODIES OF TWO WOMEN ON EMPRESS ARE FOUND BY DIVERS (Continued from page 2) Rimouski, June 28—The body of Miss E. Smith and that of an unidentified woman of 40 were recovered yesterday by divers at the Empress wreck. The bodies were found between the funnels. Miss Smith's head and shoulders were stuck in one of the ventilators and her foot between what appeared to be two pipes. The other body was not far away with one foot caught in the bight of a rope.

General Pablo Gonzales is one of the four men who are dividing Mexico among themselves for military operations. Gonzales has been in command on the east coast, down which he is travelling parallel to Villa's route. He will invest points south of Tampico. PHIPPS-PATCHELL Miss Margaret Patchell was joined in marriage to Thomas J. Phipps, at the parlour of the First Baptist church, 7 Park street, Boston, by the pastor, Rev. Addison B. Lorimer. The single ring service was used. The bride was tastefully groomed in blue silk. Joseph Phipps, a brother of the bride, was best man, and Mrs. D. W. McLean, of Dorchester, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor. They were also attended by Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Tweed of Lynn. A wedding reception was held the same evening at 54 Commercial street. Mr. and Mrs. Phipps will immediately take up their residence in their new home at 88 Camden street, Boston. LIQUOR LAW CASE A case against William O'Keefe, charged with selling liquor to an intoxicated man is being heard in the police court this afternoon. The report was made by Inspector Jones, who testified this afternoon that he saw the man served by the bar-tender, Joseph Brennan. The boastful financier was discussing his career. "I owe my great success and wealth," he said grandly, "to just one thing—luck." "Indeed! And whom did you pluck?" inquired a bored listener. "Now, Archie," asked a schoolmistress, dialling on the virtue of politeness, "you were seated in a tranee, every seat of which was occupied, and a lady entered. What would you do?" "Pretend I was asleep." The steel barge George E. Hartnell, which went ashore on Saturday night during a storm on Lake Superior, was floated last night and docked for repairs. The terrific gale on Lake Superior subsided early today. The White Star liner Canada left Liverpool on Saturday for Montreal.

"PRACTICAL POLITICS" The Chatham World, whose editor, Mr. J. L. Stewart, is a Conservative and a member of the legislature, is always an interesting newspaper, but especially so at the present time; for Mr. Stewart is discussing with much frankness the situation in regard to provincial politics and the Royal Commission. The Frederick Gleazer the other day said:—

Mr. Stewart was elected as a supporter of Mr. Fleming and of the present government, but his allegiance would not stand the test of practical politics. The kind of "practical politics" the Gleazer meant is thus described by Mr. Stewart in Saturday's World:—

"That is to say, when the government introduced a bill to renew crown land licenses for a long term, without giving anyone except the holders a chance to get any timber limits, Mr. Stewart opposed it and moved amendments in the interests of the small operators. That was the first sample of the government's 'practical politics' he would not stand for. And when 'practical politics' took the form of giving Mr. Gould $2,000,000 more than the contract price for building the Valley Railway, Mr. Stewart's 'allegiance would not stand the test.' When the Royal Commission bill was introduced Mr. Stewart sought to amend it by giving the commission wider powers of inquiry, 'practical politics' having restrained its scope, and the commission has taken the powers which he tried to give them by statute."

Continuing Mr. Stewart says that he was not elected as a supporter of Mr. Fleming, but that he promised to support all government measures which, in his opinion, would be in the best interests of the country and the province, and that he has kept that promise. Referring to a statement in the Moncton Times that many thousands of dollars were collected from the lumbermen by Mr. Berry, ostensibly for a campaign fund the World says:—

"Yes, and it is established by the evidence that the money so collected was paid to the man Premier Fleming designated as the one to receive it. The government may not be responsible for Berry, but it is responsible for Fleming."

Discussing the Valley Railway inquiry the World says:—

"One of the government engineers admits that an engine can haul three times as much over the Transcontinental as over the Valley road. Our friends of the government have been claiming that it is just as good a road."

The World also directs the attention of its readers to the fact that the $880,000 which was loaned by the Prudential Trust Company to Mr. Gould and others was not wanted at the time it was loaned for railway construction. In a previous issue the World expressed the view that Mr. Fleming should resign, and all of its comments on the condition of affairs as revealed by the inquiry by the Royal Commission are such as to show that self-respecting Conservatives are not in harmony with the policy of the St. John Standard and the Frederick Gleazer.

A GREAT CRIME

The world is again shocked by a story of assassination, the victims of the tragedy being the heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne and his morganatic wife, who were shot down in the street in the capital of Bosnia. The dreadful crime was committed by a young student who gloried in the act, and who is reported to have said that "he had long intended to kill some eminent person from nationalist motives." He is about eighteen years of age, and there was associated with him another aged twenty-one years, who attempted to do with a bomb what the younger did so effectively with an automatic pistol. Both are said to be natives of the province of Herzegovina, which with Bosnia had been annexed to Austria. They had been in close communication with anarchists in Belgrade, the capital of Serbia. Relations between Austria and Serbia have been strained, and this dreadful crime will have far-reaching consequences. Profound sympathy will be felt for the venerable Emperor Francis Joseph, who has himself but just recovered from a very severe illness, and for the three children who have been made orphans. No cause is ever advanced by assassination; and, whatever may have been the dreams of the misguided youth who committed this crime, he has but made them less likely ever to be realized, while at the same time he has plunged a nation into mourning.

CHEAP HOUSES FOR PARISIANS

A housing scheme on a very large scale has been entered upon by the municipality of Paris, France, following the passage of an act by the national assembly dealing with the housing problem. That act empowers the municipality to incur a direct expenditure of $80,000,000 in improving housing conditions and to make advances to philanthropic and building societies which are trying to solve the housing problem. An exchange gives the following statement of what it is proposed to do.

"During the next eighteen months, cheap and hygienic dwellings will be erected in Paris (a city of high rents) for not fewer than 60,000 persons who are at present living in unsanitary houses. The Municipality of Paris has borrowed $40,000,000 from the National Pensions Office at 4 1/2 per cent. and has already purchased 80 acres of building land for $2,185,000, an average cost of $1.33 per square foot. At a cost of $13,000,000 it will be possible to build 11,000 lodgings, each capable of accommodating at least five persons. These dwellings will, it is hoped, be ready for occupation in June, 1915. The council has decided to spend the remaining half of this authorized expenditure in the construction of dwellings on the site of the dismantled fortifications of Paris when the grand scheme which will give Paris yet another ring of boulevards becomes a reality."

A prosecutor under the prohibition law in Prince Edward Island says he is urged by Conservative members of the legislature and by one member of the government to "go easy" in regard to certain offenders. These Tory politicians have their own idea of law and order.

St. John is well represented on the board of the Maritime Home for Delinquent Girls, and the promoters of that institution have met with a gratifying degree of success in their efforts to raise funds to establish it on a good working basis. The Children's Aid Society of St. John is still unable to begin work, owing to lack of funds.

The Ontario provincial elections are in progress today. The contest is the most bitter that has been waged in that province for many years, and the result will tell to what extent the people are in earnest in regard to the abolition of the bar. West Virginia has become a prohibition state, being the ninth to adopt prohibition. A Montreal dispatch says that a provincial campaign of prohibition will be launched in the province of Quebec.

The Bureau of Railway Economics, in a summary statement of revenues and expenses of about ninety per cent. of all the steam railway mileage in the United States for the month of April, shows that there was a considerable decrease both in operating revenues and operating expenses compared with the month of April, 1913. It states the situation in brief as follows:—Returns for April reduced to a per mile of line basis and compared with the returns for April, 1913, show a decrease in total operating revenues per mile of 4.1 per cent., and a decrease in operating expenses per mile of 5.0 per cent. Net operating revenue per mile was less by $4, or 1.5 per cent. than for April 1913, while that for April 1913 was 2.4 per cent. greater than for April 1912."

Evidently the people in the western provinces anticipate a revival of business. The following is an extract from a letter received last week by the Montreal Financial Times from a bank manager in Alberta:—

"The crops here are in first class shape, most of the grain is over eighteen inches high, some farmers claim that their grain is heading out already. I anticipate the harvest will be three weeks to a month earlier this year than has been for some years past, and, provided we escape the hail, it will be a bumper crop. The live-stock business here is increasing very fast, this week we shipped out five cars of hogs and some cattle, next year I expect some considerable shipping of cattle as well as hogs. Shipments of cream and eggs are also mounting up. In one day last week we shipped 4,000 pounds of cream and several hundred dozens of eggs. Altogether the prospects of this district are bright for this year."

A memorial window in Westminster Abbey is to be erected in memory of Lord Strathcona, and the cost will be defrayed by Canadians resident in the United Kingdom.

It is proposed to build in London a $250,000 American church, which Americans of all denominations may attend.

RENEWED VIGOR IN OLD AGE

This Letter Brings a Message of Cheer to the Aged—Results of Using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

New, rich blood is what is most needed in the declining years to keep up energy and vitality. That Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is a wonderful help in maintaining good health and prolonging life is attested by the writer of this letter.

Mr. Stephen J. Leard, North Tynes, P. E. I., writes: "At seventy-five years of age my heart gave out and became very irritable and weak in action and would palpitate. My nerves also became weak, and I could do nothing but lie in bed in a languishing condition, losing strength and weight. In that condition I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and am cured. Had I not obtained this treatment I would now be in the box with the rest over my nose. At eighty-one I have an energy which means good health and strength by using this great medicine." See a box, 6 for $2.50. For sale by all druggists.

Thought She Would Go Mad WITH HEADACHE.

In all cases of headache the treatment should be directed to remove the cause, for with the cause removed the headache vanishes for all time. Headache powders just relieve for the time being, but what is necessary for a permanent cure is something that will go right to the seat of the trouble. For this purpose it is impossible to find a better remedy for headaches of all descriptions than Burdock Blood Bitters, acting as it does on every organ of the body to strengthen, purify and regulate the whole system.

Mrs. Altha Bowman, Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"I have suffered terribly with my head for weeks at a time till I thought I would go mad. A friend advised me to give Burdock Blood Bitters a trial, so I got a bottle and found relief. I have used four bottles in all and I am glad to say that I have had no more headaches since. I would advise all sufferers to give it a fair trial."

THERE AM I.

They who tread the path of labor Follow where My feet have trod; They who work without complaining Do the holy will of God.

Where the many toil together, There am I among My own; Where the tired find some way to take back Their own I with him alone.

I, the peace that passeth knowledge, Dwell amid the daily strife, I, the bread of heaven, am broken In the sacrament of life.

Every task, however simple, Sets the soul that does it free; Every deed of love and mercy Done to man is done to Me.

Nevermore thou needest seek Me, I am with thee everywhere; Raise the stone and thou shalt find Me; Cleave the wood and I am there. Henry Van Dyke.

LIGHTER VEIN.

Evaded By Some "When you prove that a man is a grafter, people will regard him with aversion." "Some will," replied Senator Sorghum, "but unfortunately a lot of them will be slightly envious of him."

Sorey Ho Sorey

"I suppose you are thinking up new things to tell the people out home." "No," replied Senator Sorghum, "I'm trying to find some way to take back what I told them when I was there before."

An Exasperating Fellow

"Bliggins is a dreadful man to argue with." "Does he lose his temper?" "No," replied Senator Sorghum, "he laughs when the other fellow loses his temper."

The Busy Student

"So your son could stay home only a couple of days. I suppose he is 'busy at college'." "Yes, he's got to get back from the hockey team's western trip in time to pack his duds for the baseball team's southern trip."

Terribly Afflicted With Lame Back.

Could Not Sweep the Floor.

When the back aches and pains it is almost impossible for a woman to do her household work for every move and every turn means an ache or a pain.

Women are beginning to understand that weak, lame, and aching backs from which they suffer so much are due to wrong action of the kidneys, and should be attended to at once so as to avoid years of suffering from kidney trouble.

On the first sign of anything wrong with the back Dean's Kidney Pills should be taken.

They go right to the seat of the trouble. Mrs. Wilfrid Jolicoeur, Nouvelle, Quebec, writes: "I take pleasure in writing you stating the benefit I have received by using Dean's Kidney Pills. About three years ago I was terribly afflicted with lame back, and was so bad I could not sweep my own floor. I was advised to try Dean's Kidney Pills. I only used three boxes, and I am as well as ever. I highly recommend these pills to any sufferer from lame back or kidney trouble."

Price, 50c per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25, at dealers throughout the Dominion. Receipt of price by The T. Millburn Co., Toronto, Ont.

If ordering direct specify "Dean's."

Jooke MANSFIELD IN STRIDE MAGGONS BALZAG both 2 for 25

Er Wn. Sharen's stable which won the matched race at St. John last week, has offered the owners of Pearl Baronmore, the other mare in the race, a chance for a return match. Dominion Day was named as a satisfactory date by Mr. Glynn, but the best answer he could get was that the other parties would take the matter into consideration. Mr. Glynn offered to make the return match for $200 a side, the same amount as posted for the previous race, on which the Black Bes backers cleaned up in all something more than $1,000. Wins Another Good One Paris, June 29.—The grand Prix de Paris, chief turf event in France for three year old colts and fillies, was won by Baron Maurice de Rothschild's Sardapale, which recently won the Prix du Jockey Club, the French Derby. La Farina was second and Durbar II third. The latter horse ran third to Sardapale in the French Derby. The Grand Prix de Paris carried a purse of $60,000. The distance was one mile and seven furlongs.

Zepp, of India, will be the principal speaker at the Beulah Camp meetings which will be held this year at the Beulah camp grounds, Brown's Flats from July 8 to 12. Besides Evangelist Zepp, there will be twenty other ministers and many lay workers who will speak at the meetings. Rev. S. A. Baker of Fredericton, is the secretary for the arrangements. "Gentlemen, I can't lie about the horse, he is blind in one eye," said the auctioneer. The horse was soon knocked down to a citizen, who had been greatly struck by the auctioneer's honesty, and after paying for the horse said: "You were honest enough to tell me that this animal is blind in one eye. Is there any other defect?" "Yes, sir; there is. He is also blind in the other eye," was the prompt reply. About 800 couples are married in London every week.

CHAMPION PACE FOLLOWER Players We Know Bob Melrose, a local boy, is doing some spectacular pitching for the Pats in the Fredericton City baseball league. On Friday evening, playing against the Federals, he fanned eleven men and assisted in the retiring of three more. Two swats for two tallies out of three times up—one a two-station hit—is a pretty good record at the bat, too. Jack Fenney, who is also known here was on the mound for the opposition, but was hit hard. Tanker Hughes is battling his way towards the top of the Cape Breton League, which is now running smoothly again. In last Wednesday's game he had four safe ones, half of them for two bases. Art Finnamore, who is managing the Sydney team, poled out a long one that netted a home run. Despatches to the Boston Globe say that Pat Duggan's all round work was the feature of the game which the Haverhill club played in Fitchburg on Thursday in the New England League. Joe Scanton, who pitched the deciding game of the N. B. & Maine League for Houlton against Fredericton in the fall of 1912, did the pitching for Fitchburg, held Haverhill to six hits and Fitchburg won by a score of 4 to 8. Duggan had two of Haverhill's five hits, had five put-outs and also was credited with a sacrifice fly. The previous day Duggan had two hits, both of them doubles, and six put-outs, while Eben Reed, a former Bangor and Houlton player, was the star of the game, making a sensational catch, which made it possible for the Fitchburg club to break its long string of defeats. Hank Callahan drove out a long triple in the game against Brockton on Wednesday after McSherry had hit a homer, Pawtucket won the game. They were helped along by errors by Billy Lynch, who last year was at third base for St. Croix. Callahan is now playing first base for Pawtucket. He had two hits in the game with Brockton. George Sullivan had two safe ones also, one a three bagger. Jacobson, who was with the St. Croix team in the N. B. and Maine League last year, is now with Brockton and on Wednesday had a triple and a homer. MARITIME PROVINCE PEOPLE IN ENGLAND Mrs. T. H. Gallant also has an offer to take part in an open air bout at Sackville on the holiday. After twenty rounds of rather amateurish boxing, "Jack" Johnson was given the decision over Frank Moran, of Pittsburg in Paris on Saturday. Moran did most of the leading, but the negro's superior skill and effective upper-cutting told on his opponent. Moran appeared badly played out about the middle of the contest but he stuck to the work and won a great deal of admiration. The match was attended by a large crowd, including many of the smart set of Paris. Several hundred women, dressed in the height of fashion, including a princess, a barones, a countess and a couple of duchesses, were among the spectators.

Fearful Death of Sailor On Easington; He Joined Here Eddie Firor Falls While Painting Smoke-stack and Head is Crushed on Deck

A Halifax despatch says:—Falling thirty feet, Eddie Firor, of Baltimore, aged twenty-two years, unmarried, was killed instantly this morning on the steamer Easington, which is undergoing repairs in dry dock. He was an able seaman on the steamer. He and another man were on a scaffold painting the smokestack. The wire strap supporting one end of the scaffold gave way. Firor was hurled to the deck, striking the back of his head on the iron deck with tremendous force. His head was smashed in, his neck was broken, and his face badly bruised.

P. E. ISLAND CROPS

Charlottetown, P. E. I., June 29.—The crop report of the Provincial Department of Agriculture, shows that an average yield of hay is promised, although the season is late. Clover has suffered to some extent from winter injury. There will be an average crop of wheat. In the eastern sections the excessive rain and continued cold has had a backward effect. Oats will also be an average crop and in some localities there is an increased acreage. In some low lands damage has been caused by the unusually wet season. There is only a small amount of barley grown, but the present indications are for an average crop. The corn crop was late in being planted. Early potatoes are making good growth, and there will be greater acreage than usual. In some sections the root crops have not yet been planted. There is a good show for apples. The prospects for plums are unfavorable. There will be a good cherry crop and about an average crop of bush fruits. There is a brisk demand at high prices. The breeding of Karakul sheep for the raising of Persian lambs was initiated this spring. Already about sixty lambs have been born on the three farms controlled by the one Karakul Sheep Company.

THE STILLWELL CONCERTS

The second of the Stillwell song recitals, on Saturday evening in Centenary school room, by the National Society for Broader Education, in co-operation with the Every Day Boys' Club, was even more enjoyable than that of Friday evening and there was also a larger attendance. The rays of the setting sun streamed softly through the stained glass windows of the lofty room as the concert opened, and the whole effect, as the gifted artists followed each other in brilliant interpretation of the music of great composers was such an appeal to the feelings and the artistic sense as is seldom experienced at public entertainments. Miss Stillwell's wonderful voice was heard in a variety of songs, including several old favorites. Mr. Warner's perfect mastery of the violin was shown in difficult as well as more simple airs, and Mr. Cronican at the piano was no less successful in delighting the lovers of that instrument. It was a remarkably well balanced programme, and though encores were forbidden the artists were compelled to acknowledge after each appearance the hearty applause of the audience.
