NOVA SCOTIANS HEAR APPEAL FOR ONE SCHOOL

Grand Master of the Loyal Grand Orange Lodge Thinks There Should be No Separate Schools in That Province.

SCHOOL LAW WEAK IN SPOTS

Claims the School Law Which Called for Non-Sectarian Schools Had Been Side-Stepped by Backboneless Men.

Sydney, N. S., July 7.—"One day, one school, one language," was the basis of an address by Rev. F. G. Ward-Whates, provincial grand master of the Loyal Orange Lodge, in St. Andrews Church, yesterday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Ward-Whates, in telling of their work, described their big objective. In Nova Scotia there were now separate schools, in which only French is taught. How can we expect these children, he asked, to stand together when they grow up? They are being trained to look with suspicion upon those who were not with them. That which makes a country great, was unity, and unity was obtained by language.

Nova Scotia had a school law which was the critically ideal, and yet a reach and four could be riding through it. The law called for only non-sectarian schools. The law was side-stepped by supine backboneless men. Rev. Dr. Pringle said he hoped the opposition to schools will be crystallized as a nation-wide fight. He had never yet used the pulpit to attack men who hold different opinions to his. In the Presbyterian Church took the same side as the Roman Catholic Church on the question, he would fight it.

ITALIANS ACCUSE FRENCH IN FIUME OF MISCONDUCT

Serious Incidents Have Occurred Which Resulted in Bloodshed—Italians Very Bitter in Their Feeling Toward French Soldiers.

Rome, Sunday, July 6.—(By The Associated Press)—According to dispatches to the Giornale d'Italia, serious incidents have occurred within the last day or two at Fiume. Two French soldiers are alleged to have mistreated Italian children. French soldiers are reported to have insulted Italian grenadiers, who remonstrated. The French fired on the grenadiers and then fled to their barracks from which they fired on the crowds that gathered.

In a cafe where many French congress, and a Jugoslav beer garden, one Italian officer, two French soldiers and several civilians have been wounded.

General Graziosi, into whose hands the National Council of Fiume placed the control of the city, has arrived and temporarily re-established order.

There are repeated cries by the crowds of "down with France. Away with the provocator."

STEEL WORKERS AND MINERS TO ASK GOVT ASSISTANCE

Steel Workers of the Dominion and Miners of the N. S. Coal Co. Want Plants Kept Running

Sydney, N. S., July 7.—Plans are being made for a joint meeting of the steel workers of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company and of the N. S. Steel and Coal Company, and the miners of the companies to discuss the advisability of asking the government to keep these plants running. Things have come to the point where immediate action is necessary and work is getting shakier every day. At Sydney Mine the miners are only working two days of the week.

THE OLD-TIME FORMALITY MARKED THE PROROGATION OF PARLIAMENT MONDAY

The Last Few Hours Were Occupied in Expressions of Gratitude to the Military and Naval Forces.

MANY MEASURES FALL BY WAYSIDE

Senate and House Failed to Get Together on the Prohibition Amendment Over Which There Has Been Much Speculation.

Ottawa, Ont., July 7.—Parliament prorogued at 3:30 this afternoon. There was the old-time formality—the customary triple knock on the doors of the House, the summons to the chamber of the "honorable" the Senate, and the formal closing of the session there by the Governor-General. The last few hours were occupied, chiefly, in expressing the gratitude of the House to Canada's military and naval forces for the unflinching courage, steadfastness and skill with which, throughout the war, they served the cause of their country and empire in circumstances of unexampled hardship, and for their splendid contribution to the final victory of right and liberty.

The resolution was moved by the Prime Minister, seconded by the leader of the opposition, and carried unanimously. Several measures of importance either fell by the wayside or were not passed by the Government. Senate amendments to the Prohibition Bill, insisted upon by the Senate and steadily refused by the House, led to its abandonment, for the present session at any rate. The purpose of the bill was to continue the terms of the Prohibition Order-in-Council in effect for twelve months after the proclamation of peace. It also took into consideration the new situation which has arisen in Quebec as a result of the decision there to permit the sale of beer and light wines. The bill would have permitted the manufacture of beer and light wines in such Provinces as permit their sale. With the dropping of the bill the status under the Order-in-Council will be maintained. Importation, manufacture and inter-provincial trade in alcoholic liquors remains forbidden until the Order-in-Council expires with the War Measures Act, from which it derives its authority—namely, on the proclamation of peace. The fall session for ratification of the Peace Treaty will, however, be called before the Act expires. Among other bills which failed to pass were:

The bill to create divorce courts; the bill to continue the terms of the existing commission in operation; and the bill to disfranchise military service defaulters.

The fall session will probably be called in September or in early October.

Dingible R-34 Will Not Get Away On Return Trip Today

Adverse Weather Conditions Are Scheduled for the Next 48 Hours Which Will Render a Getaway Hardly Possible.

Washington, July 7.—Weather conditions will be unfavorable for a return flight of the British dirigible R-34 during the next 48 hours, according to a weather report forwarded to the airship at Minnola late today by the Navy Department. The report said threatening weather would remain over the sea, and that head winds probably would be encountered as far west as Newfoundland.

The forecast prepared by the Weather Bureau follows: Moderate north-northeast and northeast winds. Fair weather, next 48 hours. Conditions not favorable for return flight within next 48 hours, as weather will remain threatening over the sea, and head winds will probably be encountered as far east as longitude 55°.

SENATE PASSES LARGE SUPPLY BILL AT CLOSE

Gov't Bill Respecting Electric and Power Companies Was Ruled Out of Order.

Ottawa, July 7.—A supply bill of a hundred and sixty-two and a half millions was voted by the Senate this morning; Commons rejection of Senate amendments to the sexual offences bill was read, and the government bill respecting electric and power companies, was ruled out of order. Then the Senate adjourned to meet at 2:45 for prorogation. The effect of these actions is that the government gets all the money it has asked of parliament this session, which, Senator Bostock said, was over seven hundred million. The age of consent remains at sixteen years. The Commons bill proposed to increase the age to eighteen in all cases where the girl had been previously virtuous, and the man was over eighteen, and, in the case of employer and employe, to the age of twenty-one. The amendment of the Senate was that, where the man was not wholly or chiefly to blame for the offence, the judge might instruct the jury that a verdict to acquit could be found.

The answer of the Commons to this amendment was that question of comparative culpability of the persons concerned cannot be considered. The non-concurrence of the Commons with the Senate on this point has the effect of killing the whole bill for this session, and leaving the age of consent as fixed by the criminal code, at sixteen years.

The bill respecting electric and power companies, contained provisions that previously had been embodied in the general railway bill and were dropped from that bill on the suggestion of the Minister of Railways, in order to secure its enactment. He undertook to introduce the clauses in a separate bill. The separate bill was passed by the Commons. When brought before the Senate this morning, Senator Ross said it was the general parliamentary practice that a question could not be dealt with twice in the same session. In addition to the general rule laid down by Todd and Bourinot, there was a special act of the Senate which declared that "no question or amendment shall be proposed which is the same in substance, as any question or amendment which

CANADA MAKES LARGE LOAN IN UNITED STATES

Financiers of the Dominion Think That the Government Has Acted Wisely and Secured Most Favorable Terms.

Montreal, July 7.—There was considerable interest displayed in financial circles here today over the terms of the $75,000,000 loan shortly to be offered in New York by J. P. Morgan & Company and their associates. At 9 1/4 for the two-year notes and 9 1/2 for the ten-year bonds the securities will yield approximately 5.50 per cent. The opinion was expressed in some quarters that the yield is unusually high for such a high-grade government security, and comparisons were made between the returns of the Dominion's domestic war loans and that of the new issue. Bankers and bond men here state, however, that to make such comparisons are unfair. They point to the fact that the adverse rate of exchange on Canadian funds, amounting to upwards of three per cent, rendered the return of the $75,000,000 two years, maturing in New York early next month, through recourse to borrowing at home a lower cost quite out of the question. To meet the maturing obligations the Finance Minister has had to enter the United States market at a time when rates are high, and as the time when favorable holiday season. The terms at which the new issue have sold, they declare, are highly favorable under the circumstances prevailing.

A more comprehensive study indicates that the terms of the new Canadian issue reflect the excellent credit Canada possesses in the United States. It is doubtful, local bankers declare, if any foreign country could have done its financing there to similar advantage.

It was pointed out that United Kingdom four-year notes floated in the United States in 1917 are selling at the present time on a 5.50 basis, compared with Canada's 5.50 per cent. The Commission, as finally constituted, consisted of Colonel J. S. Dennis, chairman, and the following members:

The Austrian Government Gives Up Idea of Union With Germany

Paris, July 5.—(French wireless service)—The Austrian government has given up, at least for the time being, the idea of a union with Germany, Dr. Otto Bauer, the secretary for foreign affairs, declared in an address delivered last week at the congress held by the council of workers, according to the Vienna correspondent of the Temps.

"Austria, small and ruined," the foreign secretary is quoted as declaring, "could only exist by the permission and assistance of the Entente, and that is why it was abandoning the idea of uniting with Germany at this time, as Austria was not powerful enough to bring about a union without the consent of the Entente. The essential thing of the present," the secretary adds, "was the maintenance of the unity of the proletarian front."

Canadian Trade In Siberia Gen. Smart Gives Harsh Criticisms

Commission to That Country Makes Its Final Report on the Possibilities There for Canadian Manufacturers.

Ottawa, Ont., July 7.—The final report of the Canadian Trade Commission to Siberia was presented at a meeting of the Commission, with Sir George Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce, here on Saturday last. It was expected that the report, which contains a mass of information and facts of great interest to Canadian manufacturers who contemplate extending their overseas trade, will shortly be printed for general distribution. Following the presentation of the report, the Commission was dissolved.

The Commission spent some months in Siberia, studying the possibilities for Canadian trade, and their report, which deals in detail with the question of the financial situation, markets and transportation, also contains information of the natural resources of Siberia, and the development and activities of the co-operation and other organizations through which Canadian trade to a large extent will be done.

THE RUSSIAN VOLUNTEER ARMY SUFFERS REVERSE

Have Been Obligated to Abandon Several Strongholds and Retreat Before the Bolshevik.

Copenhagen, July 7.—The Estonian bureau announces that the Russian volunteer army, which has been advancing victoriously toward Petrograd has suffered a reverse. The volunteers have been obliged to abandon, successively, the fortress of Krasnagorka, opposite Kronstadt, the town of Koporja and several stations on the railway. The bureau says that the Russian volunteers are now in full retreat.

A London despatch, under date of June 18, reported reception of a Russian Bolshevik government wireless message claiming the recapture of Krasnagorka fortress by the Bolshevik.

An Estonian despatch, reaching London the same day by way of Stockholm, admitted the evacuation of Krasnagorka after the guns and fortifications had been destroyed.

London, July 7.—(Canadian Associated Press)—The steamer Corsican sailed, Friday, for Quebec, carrying repatriated Canadians and Imperials from Winchester returning with their dependents. The cabin passengers numbered 48 and the third class 926.

GREAT BRITAIN AND U.S. TO THE AID OF FRANCE

Paris Journal Explains the Agreement Entered Into by G. B. and U. S. to Protect France Against Aggression.

SOME TIME BEFORE LEAGUE CAN WORK

The Danger of Aggression Menaces France More Than Any Other Country and it is Realized by Lloyd George and Pres. Wilson.

Paris, July 7.—(French Wireless Service)—The Petit Parisien, explaining the agreement entered into by Great Britain and the United States to come to the aid of France in case of unprovoked aggression by Germany, says: "For the first time a convention of this kind is made public directly after its conclusion. This may be called an act of diplomacy, accomplished in the face of the whole world, one all the more decisive, for not being kept secret in the chancelleries. The circumstances relative to its conclusion are known. 'The League of Nations cannot operate immediately, years may go by before it really comes into force, and, in the meantime, France may again be the victim of aggression. The danger of aggression menaces France more than any other country which is a member of the League of Nations, America being far away, and England more than ever protected by the sea. 'Mr. Lloyd George and Mr. Wilson realized that France needed an immediate guarantee, the simple proclamation of which would keep in check any desire for aggression. The agreement published answers the purpose; it will come into force if any unprovoked act of aggression is made against France. But who could imagine our country capable of provoking a war? The treaty does not impose any obligation on France, but her Allies have bound themselves by it to provide her with guarantees they deemed to be necessary. Finally, the treaty will remain in force until the League of Nations decides that the League itself is sufficient guarantee against aggression. Such is the meaning of this unprecedented agreement. It will not be possible to misconstrue it."

PLAINTIFF WINS CASE AGAINST STEAMSHIP CO.

Its Trial Before British Courts Was Complicated Because of Its Connection With Canadian Immigration Laws.

London, July 7.—(Canadian Associated Press)—In the case of Carrington against the Oceanic Navigation Company for damages for false imprisonment and breach of contract, the jury today found a verdict for the plaintiff, but the question of damages was left for argument.

Journeing to Montreal and San Francisco in October, 1912, the plaintiff was removed from the liner Laurentic, under the charge of the steward at Quebec, and detained in the hospital by United States immigration officials, under the suspicion of tuberculosis, was rejected as a defective, and ultimately sent back to England.

The defence was that the company was not responsible for what was done under the immigration laws.

ALL SINN FEIN ORGANIZATIONS ARE SUPPRESSED

Bulletin—Dublin, July 7. (By The A. P.)—A proclamation has been issued from Dublin Castle declaring all Sinn Fein organizations and Irish volunteers in the County of Tipperary unlawful associations.

This announcement is made in a memorandum by the chief secretary for Ireland enumerating a series of crimes and offences in the past year, and stating that as the measures already taken have failed to check the Sinn Fein's criminal activities, the government is compelled to suppress the organizations.

Opening of The 1919 Campaign

Grand Circuit at Cleveland Had Many Features Yesterday — Walter Cox Drove Frank Dewey a Winner of the Edwards Stake — The Other Classes.

Cleveland, O., July 7.—Frank Dewey driven by Walter Cox today won the eleventh renewal of the Edwards Stake of $3,000 for 2.08 pacers, the feature of the opening of the 1919 campaign of the Grand Circuit harness racing season at North Randall, after a grilling race. Three of the fourteen pacers qualified as heat winners. The only upset of the day came in the one mile dash for three year old trotters, which was won by Kentucky June, third choice in the betting. The final race fell to the undefeated half mile star, Grace Direct. Notwithstanding the street car strike, the largest crowd that ever witnessed the opening days of racing at North Randall was present.

AUSTRIANS PREDICT PERIL TO INDUSTRY BY SOCIALIZATION

Private Owners, Seeing Only Disaster Ahead, Neglect Business — Crisis Causes Officials to Call Halt.

Summarizing the sentiments of the Austrian press, "The London Times," in its survey of the economic scene in the "New Free Press" of Vienna, which represents capitalist interests, declares that the threat of socialization is paralysing Austrian industry. Private owners, fearing that their property may be taken over by the state and that they may be transformed into mere receivers before the question of compensation has been settled, have ceased to take an interest in their businesses. The crisis has become so acute that Vice-Chancellor Pink has been compelled to announce a limitation of advances of appropriations to coal, iron, electricity, water, power, forestry and the manufacture of munitions.

SUSPECTED AUTO THIEF ARRESTED AT FREDERICTON

A Man Giving His Name as Fred Smith Taken Into Custody on Suspicion of Having Stolen Automobile at Moncton.

Fredricton, July 7.—A man, giving his name as Fred Smith, was arrested here this afternoon on suspicion of stealing an automobile, the property of A. D. Johnson. The young man arrived here in a car driven by a resident of Havelock. It was said that the stolen car had been abandoned near Havelock. Smith got another car and driver. He said that he was a commercial traveller, and had to get to Fredericton at once. The accused is about twenty-seven years of age, heavily built and dark complexion. He will probably be taken back to Moncton tomorrow.

Two boys were arrested here today, and are charged with stealing about $35 from the Royal Clothing Store. They were before the police magistrate and remanded for sentence.

WANT PERMANENT CONTROL OF PARK

Lancaster Delegation Before City Commission—Water Extensions Also Considered

A delegation from the Lancaster community council appeared before the committee meeting of the common council yesterday and asked that the Freeman's Park be either deeded to the parish or a long lease issued. After some discussion it was decided to refer the matter to the Town Planning Commission. Those present from Lancaster were: Warden Gelling, Rev. A. B. Bishop, Rev. W. G. Dunham, Dr. J. V. Austin, M. Stout, W. J. Linton, Councilors Bryant and O'Brien and W. E. Earle.

Tenders for the extension of the East St. John water main were received and referred to the commissioner of water and sewerage, and city engineer as follows:

New Brunswick Contracting and Building Co., earth, $140; rock, $4.75 per cubic yard.

Moses & Tobias, earth, $1.05; rock, $5.25.

Louis and Thomas Stevens, earth, $1; rock, $5.50.

Commissioner Thornton was authorized to call for tenders for a new heating apparatus for City Hall, estimated cost $4,000.

G. A. Clark was given permission to install a gasoline tank in Rodney street, West St. John.

LABRADOR FORESTS TO BE CRUISED BY AIRPLANE

Expedition Left New York Yesterday for Nova Scotia on Novel Undertaking

New York, July 7.—An airplane expedition to ascertain the value of the wood pulp resources of Labrador, sailed from New York tonight for Nova Scotia. The party of forty is headed by Captain Daniel Owens, who served two years with the British air force. It is planned to take aerial photographs of all the large forests and from these calculate the value of the wood pulp. Four airplanes are to be used in the undertaking.

"VIRTUOUS WIVES" WILL CAUSE TALK

A Daring Exposure of High Society Methods and Foibles—Anita Stewart at Her Best.

What is a virtuous wife? Amy Forrester, around whom Owen Johnson centers the celebrated story of "Virtuous Wives," which, in motion picture form, is being shown at the Imperial Theatre at present, with Anita Stewart as the star, declares that virtue is essentially a state of mind. Webster's dictionary agrees with this definition, but Andrew Forrester, her husband, explodes society's upper crust in proving his own theory. The theme of the story and screen production, in which Miss Stewart returns to the ranks of stardom after an absence of several months, is of the modern problems of married life, the division of responsibilities, time and activities between husband and wife, the allegiance a wife customarily owes to her husband, and the extent of the trust he can place in her.

With the Forresters, Amy and Andrew, leaders in their social set, the atmosphere of the production is confined to scenes and locations long familiar to and patronized by New York's ultra-rich. The settings are necessarily lavish and extravagantly furnished, so make accurate the replica of the actual homes of the society personages they are intended to represent.

"Virtuous Wives" is a page from married life in New York society, and as such it had to be accurately and lovingly "dressed." Miss Stewart, in the role of Amy Forrester, wears eleven different dresses and suits in six changing scenes of the story. Mrs. DeWolf Hopper, who will be seen as Mrs. Irma DeBarre, was obliged to provide herself with nine new gowns and trunks to keep pace with the demands of George Loane Tucker, director for Miss Stewart, for the proper costuming of the women principals who play the part of social personages.

An exact counterpart of the setting, together with the details, of the famous cucumber ball given by New York society in a recent season, are used in one part of the filmed novel. Owen Johnson, the author, describes the extent to which society goes in racking discretion. The much-advertised ball provides what is believed to be the most novel and massive settings ever used in a production.

In fact the whole production is extraordinarily lavish and held yesterday's watchers spellbound with surprise and pleasure. Prudish people possibly received a shock or two before the photoplay had been fully reeled off but after all it was a very wholesome and elevating lesson.

AMERICANS HAD NO OCCASION TO THROW A FIT

Their Criticisms Over Trial of Former Emperor, as Announced by Lloyd George, Wholly Uncalled for According to Reuter's.

Paris, July 7.—The question of the trial of former Emperor William was on the programme for discussion by the Council of Three for several days while the president was still in Paris. Reuter's Paris Bureau declares today in an article regarding recent statements by the members of the American Peace Mission that Premier Lloyd George's mission on the subject in the House of Commons, had come as a surprise to them. Reuter's, which says its information comes from authoritative conference circles, adds, however, that, because of more urgent business coming up, the discussion of the question by the council was postponed. Nevertheless the agency declares that it is known that President Wilson expressed himself strongly as to the place for the holding of the trial, and it asserts that there is every reason to believe that he was fully cognizant of the decision to try the ex-emperor in London.

PRESIDENT WILSON TO TELL SENATE ALL ABOUT IT

On Thursday He Will Address the Upper House on Peace Treaty and the League of Nations.

Washington, July 7.—President Wilson will address the Senate on the peace treaty and the League of Nations at 12.15 p. m. Thursday, it was announced today at the White House. Because a treaty would be under discussion some doubt had been expressed as to whether the Senate would be in open session, but it was understood that Mr. Wilson desired that the session be open.

REAL STOWAWAY IN BIG DIRIGIBLE

W. W. Ballantine of Cromwell, England, First Man to Steal Passage in Air.

Mineola, N. Y., July 6.—If the British dirigible carried a "stowaway," "brig" probably would have been occupied on the airship's voyage across the Atlantic, for six hours after he had left East Fortune, Major Scott, commander of the craft, discovered he had on board a real stowaway.

"HINDY" PLAYING GRANDSTAND GAME

Begs Marshal Foch to Assist Him in Saving Former Emperor.

Copenhagen, July 7.—Field Marshal von Hindenburg, former chief of the German staff, has written Marshal Foch, appealing for support in his efforts to prevent the extradition of the former German emperor. Von Hindenburg offered also to place his own person, "fully and absolutely at the disposal of the Allied powers."

ESTHONIANS SIX MONTHS IN LINE IN WAR OF OUTPOSTS

Boys of 16 Take up Arms and Officers Say, "Give Us Armored Cars and We'll Drive Out Bolsheviki."

Conditions on the Esthonian front, where the army of the new Esthonian Republic is engaged in a fierce campaign against the Bolsheviki, are described by the special correspondent of "The Manchester Guardian." Writing from Revel, the correspondent says: "I have just returned from a three days' tour along the southern front from Pechory, the last outpost toward the southern end of Lake Peipus, to Salsburg, the farthest outpost Riga. The line is too long to be held continuously. It is a war of outposts and very exhausting, since none of the troops have left the line for six months. The men are famished and workless because of uniforms, and range in costume from ordinary civilian clothes to Russian sheepskins with the wool turned inside, and feet swathed in rags. I saw boys of sixteen with rifles, for all have had to turn out. The desire for freedom and independence has kept them in good hearts for six months' continuous duty, and has done wonders in improvising substitutes for their needs. I saw quaint armored cars fabricated out of lorries, but too weak for the wooded sandhills in which the sector sounds. Armored trains have also been improvised, in spite of the difficulty of engines and rolling stock, which were removed by the Germans.

ARMORED CARS ARE NEEDED

"The officers are splendid. They are chiefly experienced men who were formerly in the Russian army. 'Give us armored cars,' they say, 'and we can drive off the Bolsheviki. This is probably correct, for in three weeks in the Pechory sector, even with their imperfect equipment, they have driven them back twenty kilometers. In general along this 200-mile front, the Bolsheviki are five to one against the Esthonians and yet are held or driven back. In the western sector I saw a battery of four cars brought from Finland. They are Russian of 1906, with loose sights, and in such bad condition that they are dangerous to those who fire them. Imagine the courage of men who fight with such guns against an enemy supplied plentifully!

MEDICAL SERVICE LACKING

"At the same time the Esthonians have hardly any medical service or stores. For want of antiseptics amputated fresh wounds become gangrenous and end fatally and of field hospitals there seem to be none. Yet men prefer to die of their wounds, and were so cheered by the advent of an Englishman among them as to embrace me.

getting tired. We picked up two prisoners on the Pechory road who said they had been sent by their comrades to tell the Esthonsians it was time to make peace for they were tired. They were young fellows from Nijni Novgorod, who said they had been forced into the ranks. Similar things occur on the western sector but it is hard to know if the statements made by Bolsheviki prisoners are true. What is true is that convinced communists are generally behind the lines to overawe the men in front, though at times they lead the fighting.

No Tobacco in Esthonia. "It is more than probable that with the advent of armored cars this part of the world would speedily be free of Bolsheviki. But medicinal stores and tobacco are no less urgent. It has been proved how great a part tobacco has played in the great war. What of war in a country where there is no tobacco? Whatover can be made into cigarettes is sent to the soldiers. And where have all the foreign Red Cross services gone? I look in vain for them here.

"Things move rapidly in the north, where Russian forces operating beyond Narva River have encircled Jamburg, and are beyond it on the railway. Others crossed Lake Peipus, took Gdov, and are forcing the Bolsheviki to retreat in a diagonal line across country towards the railway from Pskov to Petrograd. This stimulates the men on the southern line. But it is a cruel war that keeps workers of an agricultural country in the ranks, and the wanton destruction of farms, such as I saw two days ago near Salsburg, is distressing. I admire more than I can say the determination of the people and their self-sacrificing efforts to free themselves but when is the end to come?"

Rules, Regulations and Conditions

CONTEST STARTS JULY 5, 1919 AND CLOSES AT 10 P. M. SEPTEMBER 13, 1919.

RULE NO. 1.—Any person of good repute, male or female, married or single, residing in any of the contest districts may enter the contest by sending in one of the application blanks below properly filled out.

RULE NO. 2.—There are four separate districts from which to enter, described on this page. No votes will be sold for money or other consideration, but can be obtained only by being clipped from The Standard, daily and semi-weekly or secured through the regular subscription channels.

No votes will be issued on subscriptions to this paper during the life of the contest unless for paid subscriptions and for no shorter period than for six months on the daily, and one year on the semi-weekly.

RULE NO. 3.—The first publication of names and vote standings of candidates will be made at an early date. The voting will commence at once. All newspaper coupon votes will be void unless received at The Standard office, Contest Department, within the time marked thereon.

Each issue of The Standard daily and Semi-Weekly Standard will contain a ballot good for one vote which will be published during the contest except the last two weeks.

RULE NO. 4.—Any district that shows little or no activity will be declared off and said district will be merged with the district closest to it in voting strength, and the contestants from said district added to the one with which it is merged. Merging of districts to be at the discretion of the Contest Manager.

RULE NO. 5.—All votes which have been voted will be filed in the Contest Department subject to the inspection and verification of a contestant's own votes at any time during business hours of the contest.

RULE NO. 6.—A board of responsible business men will have exclusive control of the ballot box the last night of the contest, and after a canvass of the vote declares the winners. The decision of the Board of Judges will be final and admit of no appeal.

RULE NO. 7.—No salaried employee or close relative of a salaried employee of The Standard who is actively employed in the plant of this paper, is eligible to enter the contest.

RULE NO. 8.—Candidates must enter from the district in which they live. The Contest Manager to decide any question regarding the proper districting of candidates. Candidates moving from one district to another after being nominated, will be retained in the district in which they were first nominated.

RULE NO. 9.—Votes cannot be transferred from one contestant to another nor can one candidate's name be substituted for another. Should a candidate withdraw from the contest his or her votes will be withdrawn. Votes once withdrawn cannot be recovered.

RULE NO. 10.—In cases of a tie between two or more candidates, identical prizes will be given those tying.

RULE NO. 11.—Nominations of candidates may be made by anyone at anytime; except the last two weeks, during the contest without cost. The management of The Standard reserves the right to reject any nominations or applications at its discretion. Any contestant wishing to have his or her name withdrawn from the list of contestants must write or call personally as positively no telephone withdrawals will be considered. There will be no change in the vote schedule during the entire contest and it will remain permanent as herein announced.

RULE NO. 12.—Contestants will compete only against the contestants in the same district for the regular district prizes and against other districts as explained for the grand prizes. The winners of the grand prizes cannot win district prizes too.

RULE NO. 13.—This contest will close at 10 p. m. Saturday, September 13, 1919.

RULE NO. 14.—A candidate who makes any disposition of subscriptions secured in this contest other than reporting them to the Contest Department will be declared disqualified, and the name permanently removed from the list of candidates.

RULE NO. 15.—No statement or promise made by any solicitor, canvasser or agent varying from the above rules as set forth will be recognized by The Standard.

DISTRICTS.

The contest territory has been divided into four districts and there will be one Grand Prize and a second and third prize awarded in each district as follows:

DISTRICT 1—City of St. John.

DISTRICT 2—Includes Kings, Albert, Westmorland and St. John counties (City of St. John not included) and Nova Scotia.

DISTRICT 3—Includes Charlotte, Queens, Sunbury, Kent, Northumberland and Gloucester counties.

DISTRICT 4—Includes York, Carleton, Victoria, Medawaska and Restigouche counties.

HOW PRIZES WILL BE AWARDED

To the candidate in each district securing the greatest number of votes, the automobiles will be awarded, the candidate getting the greatest number of votes in the entire contest territory will have first choice of the four automobiles, the next highest candidate in another district will have second choice, the next highest in still another district will have third choice and the remaining automobile after three districts have been eliminated, will go to the highest candidate in the remaining fourth district. The four pianos will be awarded to the second highest vote-getter in each district and the phonographs will be awarded to the third highest vote-getter in each district. The ten per cent. commission will go to those not winning one of the above prizes.

The conditions are simple—you have only two things to do—first send in your application, using an application blank, or write a letter to the Contest Manager. Second, let your friends know you are entered in the contest and want to win one of the prizes.

ST. JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, JULY 8, 1919.

STRENGTH IN UNION.

The parliamentary session which was brought to a close yesterday has been notable chiefly for the strengthening of Union Government. During the three months of last winter there were many who freely predicted that Union would not live until midsummer, that there was bound to be a return to party lines, that scores of Liberals would go back to their old allegiance and that Conservatives would be glad to aid in the reorganization of the Conservative party. The parliamentary session has produced an entirely different result. Union is more stable than ever, defections from the ranks have been few and have failed to include all those who were expected to withdraw from the support of the Government. The losses sustained by the administration in this respect have been much less serious than anticipated and are not sufficient to materially reduce the majority of Union administration in the house. Nor will there be further withdrawals of any account, for while there yet remain in the ranks of Government supporters several whose personal inclinations are toward party politics as before the war, these sentiments are not sufficiently strong to induce those members to give up what must be recognized as in the best interests of Canada, in order to participate in a purely partisan struggle. Despite the absence during the greater part of the session of Sir R. L. Borden, through whose personality alone Union was made possible, the Government has come through not merely with flying colors, but in the enjoyment of a wider measure of respect than before the session opened. It has accomplished during the past few months a very great deal of work and, while there are some features in our national life which continue in an unsatisfactory state, improvements in these lines can now readily be brought about by legislative action, but must come gradually with the restoration of pre-war conditions.

A SECOND CONVENTION.

Honorable W. E. Foster, who signs himself "New Brunswick Representative of the National Liberal Committee," has called a convention for St. John-Albert to be held this week for the purpose of choosing delegates to the National Liberal Convention at Ottawa in August. This action is taken in direct opposition to that of the old New Liberal party which met here a couple of weeks ago and at which convention delegates and alternates were elected in defiance of Mr. Foster's wishes, but in accordance with the request of the leader of the Liberal party. Mr. Foster's action is a direct challenge to those who have through thick and thin opposed the Conservative party as well as Union Government, and is an intimation that the convention held recently will not be recognized by the National Committee. Possibly Mr. Foster has succeeded in soothing the feelings of those whom he ignored in 1917 when he so completely failed either to endorse the efforts of the Opposition or to declare himself in accord with those former Liberals who accepted the principles of Union. It is doubtful, however, that such is the case, for many who stood by their party as did those responsible for the convention already held will not be inclined to take a back seat now, as is the evident determination of Mr. Foster to compel them to do, in order that the way may be clear for the personal glorification of the Provincial Premier. If Mr. Foster's convention goes through in accordance with his present intention, an interesting situation will be created by the election of two groups of delegates, each group claiming the right of official recognition.

THE SENATE.

Personal abuse of members of the Senate and unfair criticism of the actions and unfair criticism of the actions of that chamber will not produce the return in the Upper House now so generally desired. In the Senate of Canada there are quite a number of men who are held in respect and who it may be believed are worthy of the confidence of the people. The fact that they have in many cases been appointed to office because of political service does not justify the belief that their actions in matters of legislation are prompted by political motives, and that in holding their positions for life they feel free from responsibility. Members of the Commons take office for political reasons, and partisanship in the Lower House is the accepted attitude, whereas in the Senate impartial consideration of every question submitted is the policy, in theory, at least. At the moment, criticism of the Upper House is due to the action of that body in rejecting what is known as the prohibition amendment, that is in refusing to pass the bill providing for the continuation of national prohibition until a year after the conclusion of the war. While many will contend that the wish of the country is for continued prohibition, it must be remembered that several provinces have not had opportunity of expressing themselves on this important question and that other provinces are extremely uncertain as to whether or not they favor this legislation. Without adopting a definite attitude either for or against prohibition as a national measure a majority of the members of the Senate hold that in view of the apparent difference of opinion and the uncertainty extending everywhere, it is injudicious to extend the time limit of the order-in-council for the full year specified, but that the country as a whole or the provinces individually should be given opportunity to declare themselves. Although there would be little adverse comment had the Senate adopted the Prohibition Bill as presented, that chamber is not desiring of the measure now directed against it for its action in a matter in which the members of that body undoubtedly voted in accordance with their own personal opinions. There is no doubt that improvement in parliamentary procedure can be effected by reorganization of the Senate on a different basis, but such improvement cannot be brought about by condemnation of reputable men for their attitude in such a contentious issue.

IN NEW ZEALAND.

New Zealand papers recently received contain particulars of the vote on the prohibition question, taken in that dominion during the latter part of April. It appears that the civil vote resulted in a majority for prohibition of 11,967, but that this was more than wiped out by the soldiers' vote, which gave a majority of 15,260 for continuation of the license system. Prohibition thus being defeated by 3,293 votes. This is a very small majority in a total of half a million votes. According to the New Zealand system, a plebiscite along this line is taken every three years, so that friends of temperance are not discouraged, but feel that when the next contest is held there will be a sufficient change in sentiment to do away with the present free sale of liquor. It is pointed out that New Zealand soldiers who for several years have been familiar with French cafes and English bars have developed a different view of the liquor question than they formerly entertained, being latterly accustomed to the consumption of light wines in France and to the service of beer in England as an ordinary feature of private hospitality. It is contended, too, that the large vote polled by prohibitionists was to some extent due to the opposition of women to the liquor business.

MR. VENIOT'S DELIRIUM.

"The fever for road improvement has gripped practically the whole of the United States and every part of the Union to the south of us is almost delirious upon the subject." The words are the words of Don Roberts, but the voice is the voice of Peter. And indeed it is fitting that when fever and delirium are commented on we should look in the direction of the Minister of Public Health and the promoter of provincial highways. A gentleman by the name of Webster, who in the early days had something to do with compiling a dictionary, states that to be "delirious" is to be light-headed, to have ideas that are wild, irregular and unconnected. Accepting this definition as reasonably correct, it is not clear why Mr. Veniot is so delirious, for wild and unconnected ideas and for light-headedness, should stray so far from home. Road work, he says, "has taken such a hold upon the people and is demanded to such an extent that it is necessary to provide the necessary funds." These are his own words, the indication being to convey the idea that his present policy is doubly necessary, and there is no doubt that Mr. Veniot is the best judge, for he knows the demands made upon him by the hungry crowd who anticipate during his term of office the easiest money of a generation.

WHAT THEY SAY

Russia Falls. Detroit Times—If Russia falls down on the payment of many more credits granted by American bankers it may become our patriotic duty to establish law and order over there. Spring Epidemics. Tampa Tribune—The soldiers from overseas are bringing epidemics to this country, says a noted physician. We notice also, that these boys are bringing a goodly quantity of German gas helmets and other accessories, so perhaps we can overlook the alleged epidemics. German Names. Louisville Courier-Journal—With the signing of the peace treaty Chicago has returned to the use of the German names of German dishes. It is fully permissible now for her to call "Big Ben" Herr Mayor instead of Mr. Mayor. Big Task. Boston Transcript—President Wilson says the task of making the world secure for mankind has only begun. Heigh-ho! And we thought that when we had finished paying for that last 1850 Victory Bond the millennium was to begin! Philadelphia Enquirer—Lemmo has sent large sums of money to this country to push Red propaganda. It ought not to be difficult to learn who was on the receiving end of that debauching influence. Having learned, what is the government going to do about it?

Nobody Knows! Hamilton Times—Are we to understand now that the peace terms with Germany are signed, that the Dominion government's prohibition measures are at an end, and that we can again import liquor from Montreal?

Mr. Carvell's Plain Language. Victoria Times—In a communication to Premier Oliver yesterday, Hon. F. B. Carvell, Dominion Minister of Public Works, observes that in view of the report of the Superintendent of Dredging further dredging in the Inner Harbor "may be good business but I do not think so." The minister makes special reference in his letter to one of the shipbuilding concerns on the former reserve, and says if the dredging is done "it would be purely for the purpose of assisting a shipbuilding company which located itself somewhere on dry land without consulting this department, and now wants us to dig them out."

A BIT OF VERSE

THE FIRST ROSE OF THE SUMMER
The first rose of the Summer
Came forth on yesterday;
Her cheeks were kissed by raindrops
Soft.
Where vagrant breezes play,
Her heart was filled with sweetness
Rare.
I marvel at her grace—
Upon her lips reflected fair,
A smile from Nature's face.
Her presence, sweet with perfume,
That fills my soul with thrills;
She speaks to me in quiet tones—
"Her breath new quiet instills."
Ah! let me count my jewels on—
Tinged with the sunset glow,
Ah! let me rest where she would Choose—
My first sweet Summer rose.

A BIT OF FUN

Danger.
"Who are the plain people anyhow?"
"Well, I would not use the term to the lady voters."—Pittsburgh Sun.
Advice.
When lovers quarrel
As they will,
Old folks can help
By keeping still.
Tough Luck.
Clerk—We can't pay you the $25 on this money order until you are identified.
Man—That's tough! There's only one man in town who can identify me and I owe him $20.—Buffalo Commercial.
The Main Thing.
"My poor man," said the sympathetic prison visitor. "Do let me send you some cake to help
"Thank you, mum. That would suit me fine."
"What kind would you prefer?"
"Any would do," said the prisoner, lowering his voice to a whisper, "just so it got a file in it."—Birmingham Age-Herald.
Spirit Willing, Flesh Weak.
"How about that insomnia cure I gave you?"
"I must apologize old man. The fact is, I've been too sleepy nights to try it."
Worse Phase.
Mrs. Johnson—"Dat husband' er mine he done break mah habit."
Mrs. Simms—"Dat's nuffin, honey. Mah husband, he breaks de furniture."
Slightly Mistaken.
Lightning knocked over three men who were sitting on boxes in front of Sawyer's store yesterday, relates the Milltown Banner. One of them was knocked senseless, and the other two exclaimed, "Leggo! I'm comin' right home."
"Don't give way to cursing."
"Said old man McGillicuddy,
"If a gronch you are nursing
Just do it alone."
Leading Up to It.
He called his typist to his office.
"Miss Keytap, you dress neatly and you have a well-imparted voice. I might add that your deportment is also above reproach."
"Thank you very much, sir. But I don't think you should pay me such compliments," answered the blushing girl.
"That's all right," said he, "I was just leading up to the point of telling you that you don't seem to know a comma from a colon, and your spelling is simply rotten."
Different Tunes.
"P. T. Barnum said the public liked to be humbugged."
"Quite true," admitted the man who was doing some arithmetic. "But it cost so much less to be humbugged when Barnum was alive."
Inconvenient.
The honeymoon had waned, and the young bride felt the difference.
"You used to love to hold my hand, George," she said pathetically one evening.
"I love to now," George answered calmly, without looking up from his newspaper, "but it would keep you from your housework, dear!"—Answers, London.
No Tightwad.
"Ain't that guy that married Rose-maud sort of a tightwad?" asked Hebe of the rapid fire restaurant.
"Goah, no," returned Gladina, of the same establishment. "Why, he borrowed every cent she's saved up and spent it all in three days!"

Little Benny's Note Book

BY LEE PAPE.

Me and Puds Simkins was wawking home from skool today and we went past Mass' house and one o'lar window was open and me saying, I tell you wat sets do, Puds, lets play ventriloquist and fool Mary Watkins wen she comes home—you climb down the o'lar and anser wen I call down and she will think I'm a ventriloquist.
How about you going down and us doing the ventriloquist? sed Puds, and I sed, Who thawt of it, you or me?
O, all rite sed Puds. And he climbed down the o'lar and I sat on Mary Watkins' front steps and started to wait for her and after a while I tude called up from down the o'lar. Hay, and who coming yet?—this aint any fun down here.
Shh, keep quiet, she mite be hear eny minit I sed. And I keep on waiting, and Mary Watkins kapp on not coming, and Puds called up 3 times saying, No was coming rite up, and after a while Mary Watkins really came, saying, Hello, Benny, are you waiting for me?
O I dont know, I was jest setting down, did you ever know I was a ventriloquist? I sed.
Do you mean like the men on the stage? sed Mary Watkins, and I sed, Yes, do you want to see me do a ventriloquist trick? Well she sed she did, and I went and stooped down at the o'lar window, saying, Hello down there, how you feeling?
Miss, how you? sed Puds Simkins making his voice funny like a ventriloquist, and I called down, Wats you doing? and Puds called up, Nothing, wats you? and I called down, Whose up hear with me? and he called up, Mary Watkins.
Miss, how that? I sed to Mary Watkins, and she sed, Was that you, Benny, honest, really? and I sed Sure didnt you ever know I was a ventriloquist? and she sed, I dont believe it, do you cross your hart it was you?
Surs, I sed, And I crossed my hart with one hand and crossed my fingers with the other hand, and my o'ck so I wouldnt be telling a lie. And then me and Mary Watkins set down on her steps and after a while I saw Puds sed coming up out of the o'lar window and I quick waded my hand for him to go back agin. Well he did, and Mary Watkins sed, Goah, heed, did you think I was going to stay there all day? and I sed, Aw go on, I bet you waset down there a hour.
And I wese home mad and old he.

THERE IS DANGER IN TENDER GUMS

To preserve healthy teeth the ordinary tooth-paste is futile. You must first care for the gums, on which tooth health depends.
How many people think of this? Yet four out of five people over forty suffer from gum-decay, or Pyorrhea (Riggs' Disease).
As first the gums become tender, though actual gum-shrinkage is imperceptible. But in time receding gums will surely loosen your teeth, and then only a dentist can save them. The tender, bleeding gums of Pyorrhea also act as so many doorways for disease germs to enter the system—infecting joints or tonsils—or causing other ailments.
Forhan's (For the Gums) prevents Pyorrhea, if used in time and used consistently. This means that it prevents gum-shrinkage, gum-tenderness, gum-bleeding, automatically, Forhan's prevents tooth loosening.
Brush your teeth with it. It so effectively cleans the teeth—keeps them white and clean.
If gum shrinkage has already set in, start with Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for treatment. Of 35c and 60c tubes. All Druggists.

Among the most highly pleased persons under the big tent were the children of the St. Patrick's Industrial School, Silver Falls, and the Protestant Orphanage, Brittain street. As guests of The Standard they saw all there was to see, with a delight in each young face and awe-struck observations which were a delight to the wondrous progress. The children from the Protestant Orphanage enjoyed a car ride to and from the circus, making them right to the doors of their home, and thanks to the generosity and big heartedness of Sydney Isaacs, George H. Waring, F. L. Peters, Bernard Gallagher, C. H. Peters, J. A. L'Esley, Walter H. Golding, and Leo Gallagher, who volunteered the use of their automobiles, the children from Silver Falls were also given a most enjoyable trip in the bright June sunshine to and from their home, and were also provided with an abundant supply of peanuts, without which a circus would not be a circus.

Duluth Woman Gains 15 Pounds

Tanlac Made Mrs. Norman Well Two Years Ago—Her Good Health Continues, She Declares.

"Although it has been two years now since Tanlac relieved me of my suffering and built me up so wonderfully every day is still a well day for me," was the statement made by Mrs. Liddia Norman, Route 4, Box 242, Duluth, Minn.

"For three years," she continued, "I had suffered agonies with rheumatism all over my body. My feet were so swollen I could hardly get my shoes on, I had to wear gloves to keep down the swelling in my hands as much as possible. I was in so much pain that I was all bent over and had to use a cane in order to get about. My stomach was in a very bad condition, too, and what I would eat seemed to jump up badly and lay in the pit of my stomach and ferment. I would blast up terribly with gas and have such depressed feelings in my chest and around my heart that it was difficult for me to get my breath. My appetite was very poor—there were many things I couldn't eat at all—and at times I was very dizzy. I couldn't get any sound sleep, had fallen off a great deal in weight and just felt miserable most all the time.

"When I read and heard so much about Tanlac I made up my mind to try it, and it was the wisest decision I ever made. By the time I had finished my third bottle I discarded my cane and could eat what I wanted without the least trouble afterwards. After taking five bottles the rheumatism was gone entirely and I could walk as well as ever I could, and I also found I had gained fifteen pounds in weight. Well, I haven't had an ache or a pain to this good day and I still eat and sleep like a child and feel fine all the time. I have related my experience with Tanlac many times and am willing to keep on telling it as long as I can help other people out of their suffering. I am getting a bottle of Tanlac now just to take as a spring tonic and I hope what I say in this statement will start many others on the road to health."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co. and F. W. Munro under personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Advt.

GAGETOWN

Gagetown, July 4.—Dominion Day passed very quietly here; a few picnics coming in from Fredericton, and a goodly number of cars passing through; while most of the townspeople took trips to St. John or Fredericton. The horse races in Fredericton attracted the majority of those seeking a change, and most of the cars in the town were turned in the direction of the capital. Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Ebbett, Miss June Bulyea, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Caswell, J. W. Hamilton, N. H. Ott, Frank Hayden, W. P. Fox, F. H. Corey, F. W. Burpee, Henry DeVeber, R. H. Gilbert and H. H. Gilbert were among those motoring to Fredericton for the day. Others went to Upper Gagetown, where a most enjoyable and successful dinner and reception was given in honor of the Upper Gagetown veterans of whom nine were present. Major Gay Turner, V. C. being also a visitor at the affair while spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Coy.

Kenneth B. MacAlpine of Lower Cambridge, went down to Bay's Cove on Tuesday morning to take part in the Pioneer Club races; and easily carried off the honors in the speed race, being two minutes, fifteen seconds ahead of the other contestants. Mr. MacAlpine's boat, which is claimed by many to be the fastest on the river, was the last motor boat built by Lieut. Allen City before going overseas. Mr. MacAlpine returned home Tuesday evening.

Rev. Neil McLaughlin of St. John, spent the week-end here and on Sunday preached in the Gagetown Methodist church to a large congregation. Mrs. A. D. Thomas, Miss Isabel Thomas, principal of the St. Stephen High School; Miss Bessie Thomas, Miss Mary McCarthy, Miss Violet Betz and Miss Alice Brown, came down from Fredericton to spend Dominion Day.

The excursion to Benish Camp by the steamer Majestic, on Sunday afternoon, was largely attended by Gagetown people.

Mrs. H. H. Reid, Master Harry Reid and Miss Mary Reid are spending the week in St. John.

R. R. Reid left last week on a sail-moon-fishing trip to the North Shore, with Henry Chestnut and party of Fredericton.

T. Sherman Peters and the Misses Peters were in Fredericton on Tuesday to meet Mrs. P. H. Barnett, Master Tom Barnett and Mrs. Barnett's two little daughters, on their arrival from Vancouver. To spend the summer holidays with Mrs. Michael Law.

Moreland Robinson of Fredericton, is visiting his sister, Mrs. G. F. Rigby, John R. Duan, Deputy Sheriff Thomason and Mrs. O. H. Peters and children, Ralph and Phyllis are here from Charlottetown for a visit of some weeks with Mrs. Peter's father, Jarvis Boyd, Major and Mrs. Colwell, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Nell, Miss Betty and Master Malcolm Nell and Miss K. M. Taylor, composed a motor party from Fredericton, who were at Gray Gables on Saturday.

M. G. Fox, who has been principal of Sackville High School, returned home on Monday with a new car, which Fox Brothers have purchased.

D. A. Adamson's saw mill at Ottagobog, which is in charge of J. A. Duffy of Chipman, is undergoing repairs after the fire of last Thursday and it is expected to be running again in about ten days. The bolts and machinery were considerably injured.

The closing of the Gagetown school took place at the end of last week, that of the primary department being held on Thursday afternoon and the Grammar School closing on Friday morning. The rooms for both occasions were very prettily decorated with roses and other summer flowers, and the pupils made a very creditable showing in their various school subjects, as well as in the short program presented by them. Miss Gladys Gregory, B. A., who has been principal of the Grammar School for two years, is leaving in a few days for Edmonton, Alta., and will join the many other teachers who are finding wider opportunities in the West. Miss Grace Smith of the primary department is also expected to go to the West. Both teachers their pupils presented ivory tablet articles engraved in blue. The pupils leading their grades were: Grade one, Elsie Bridges; grade two, Doris Robinson; grade three, Della Allingham; grade four, Lacie Bridges; grade five, Alton Dingle; grade six, Kenneth McBurnett; grade seven, Violet Briggs; grade eight, Jennie Bidcombe; grade nine, Lloyd Rathburn. Smith Dingle returned Monday from spending the winter in Boston, Mass., and will be at Dingle's Hotel for the summer.

Among visitors from St. John, who were at Gray Gables last week were,

LIFT OFF CORNS!

Apply few drops then lift sore, touchy corns off with fingers—No pain!

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Freestone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic!

A tiny bottle of Freestone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the callus, without soreness or irritation.

Freestone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

A. W. Gregory, George Keefe, G. M. Johnston, H. C. Donnelly, H. C. Mousley, Charles Driscoll, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dunlop, Miss N. Stackhouse, Charles P. Clark, H. G. Odell, M. A. Carpenter and J. W. W. W.

Ex-Sheriff Travis of Barton, is also a guest at Hotel Dingle for some weeks.

Thos. A. Clark and P. Clark of Newcastle, were here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sinnott were here from Fredericton for a few days last week.

R. A. Masse of Montreal, is a guest at Gray Gables for a few days.

L. A. Gilbert and Adrian B. Gilbert, were here on Wednesday to attend the funeral of their mother, Mrs. T. H. Gilbert, and were accompanied by their uncle, Bradford Gilbert of Dorchester, N. B. Both brothers have but lately returned from overseas, and much sympathy is felt for them by their many friends here.

Newcastle, July 5.—The marriage is announced of Bernard Ramsey of Kinkow and Miss Kathleen M. Benn of Douglastown. The ceremony was performed last January in Chatham by Rev. J. P. Pinkerton, pastor of St. Luke's Methodist Church.

LEMON JUICE FOR FRECKLES

Girls! Make beauty lotion for a few cents—Try It!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well and you have a quart pint of the best freckle lotion, and complexion beautifier, for a very, very small cost.

The grocer has the lemon and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this greasy cream lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy-white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates.

Absent That Day.

A certain methodical teacher had a regular routine of questions which she asked her class every Sunday. The class was always arranged in the same order, and she began with the same question: "Who made you?"

And the boy at the head of the class answered, "God." Then to the next boy, "Who was the first man?" and he answered, "Adam." One Sunday the first boy was absent and of course the usually second boy was at the head of the class. As usual she began by asking, "Who made you?" and the boy answered, "Adam."

"No," the teacher said; "God made you."

"I don't think so, miss," the boy replied; "the boy that God made is not here today."

CANADIAN SOLDIERS PRAISED BY SIR ROBERT BORDEN

Speaks in Glowing Terms of the Valorous Deeds Performed on Foreign Fields by the Canadian Army, and Doesn't Forget to Pay a Tribute to Those Who Performed Duties at Home.

Ottawa, July 7.—Speaking in the House today, Sir Robert Borden paid a glowing tribute to the valorous deeds of Canada's soldiers and sailors. In part, Sir Robert said: "Let us not fail to remember those other Canadians who in our own naval forces, or in those of Great Britain, sided in the great task of guarding our commerce and ending the menace of the submarine; those also who in many varied occupations, whether in Canadian or British service, did their part as opportunity and occasion called them. A tribute also is due to the men skilled in science who went forth from our shores and whose notable contribution in following the desperate feet of the enemy has not yet been fully told or adequately appreciated."

"And shall we forget those who reluctantly remained in Canada, or in Great Britain, at the command of duty, chafing under their desire to see service at the front; who, during long hours, and through lonely vigils, toiled incessantly at tasks which lacked the inspiration of active service, and sometimes under unjust and unworthy reproach when, in truth, their most intense desire was to join their comrades in the fighting line."

"I have spoken of Canadians who served in British units. Let us not forget the distinguished service of many British officers who were attached from time to time to the Canadian corps, and whose names are inseparably associated with its records and achievements. "Time would fail me to speak by name of the thousands of Canadians whose service brought distinction and high recognition. Of one, however, I should speak, the Canadian who, during the latter years of the war, took command of the Canadian Army Corps after it had been relinquished by Sir Julian Byng."

"As Prime Minister, I was brought into very close and intimate relations with Sir Arthur Currie, especially during the early summer of 1918, when the fortunes of the Allies seemed at their lowest, when we had reached that darkest hour which came before the dawn of victory. There has been a whisper of criticism that he was not sufficiently mindful of his duty to safeguard the lives of those under his command."

"In my judgment, no criticism could be more unjust. Indeed, I know that on more than one occasion, and especially on one notable occasion, he took a stand in defiance of military precedent. A stand which would have been impossible, except for his independent position as a Canadian general; a stand which involved risk to his own status and reputation. That stand he took for one reason, and one reason alone—his duty to avoid any needless sacrifice of the troops under his command. No general at the front more fully realized that solemn duty, and, during the last eighteen months of the war, there was no general whose judgment was more respected, none whose ability and thoroughness were more relied upon than he who then commanded the Canadian Corps."

"There is one great essential in the development of a citizen army into an effective fighting organization. That essential is an adequate appreciation and acceptance of discipline. This lesson the Canadians learned very early in the war, and it served them always in good stead. It will serve them in good stead during the days of peace, because, in these times of disquiet and unrest, the steady influence of the men who held our line in Europe will be needed here in Canada, as much as their valor and devotion were needed at the front. Their responsibility is commensurate with the immense influence which they can exercise upon the national life and future destiny of their country. It is not only a collective but an individual responsibility of which no one of them can divest himself."

"Tender, in Eastern Europe, the class of men still remains, but pray God that we may now be approaching the days of perfect peace. The sacrifices that we have made, the burdens that we are called upon to bear, will have been of little purpose unless out of the war we can read some lesson, gather some example and establish some ideal which will more truly serve the national purpose. Compared with conditions in Europe, opportunity stands at every man's door in Canada. Compared with the intense racial animosities which exist in some countries beyond the ocean, our differences in Canada fade into utter insignificance. We have wasted too much time upon them in the past; for the future let us put them behind us."

"There are voices which have been hushed but which for us shall never be silent; the voices of those who died; the higher ideals of democracy and civilization might live. Sixty thousand Canadians who have given their lives for their country, and for the world's peace, speak to us by their example, their devotion, their sacrifice. They speak to us of wide sympathies, of broader understanding, of more generous forbearance, of more united effort in all the tasks that lie before us in our national life. If these voices can make themselves heard above noisy clamour and unworthy controversy, the future of our country rests secure upon an enduring and eternal foundation."

"Beyond the seas at St. Julian and Arras and the Barlon Wood, there will be erected solemn and stately monuments commemorating the valor, devotion and sacrifice of those who died, and of those who lived to see the final triumph. But neither granite columns nor graven woods will be so enduring as the imperishable memory of their deeds forever enshrined in the hearts of their countrymen."

Sir Robert then moved that the formal thanks of the House be conveyed to the military and naval forces of Canada.

Mr. D. D. MacKenzie, in seconding the motion, paid high tribute to the services of the men and women in the war. Canada, he said, was untrained in the arts of war. She was trained in the arts of peace, of civilization and of the democracy. But when the Kaiser undertook to change conditions the Canadian people sprang to arms. "We were glad," Mr. MacKenzie added, "to seal with our blood the principles for which our forefathers stood, and which had been handed down to us from past history."

Referring to General Currie, Mr. MacKenzie said he was sure the nation would never forget General Currie's achievements, and never forget the prominent part he had in bringing glory to Canada. War veterans in the United States were proud to say they had served with Grant. The day would come when the veterans of the grand army of Canada would be proud to say to their children:—"I served with Currie."

Mr. MacKenzie concluded with words of sympathy with the relatives of those who fell, and with those who had suffered wounds.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, in supporting the motion and speaking in French, said the war was not much of generals and high officers as a war of the soldier, of the poilu.

FRUIT MEDICINE MADE FROM FRUIT

Extraordinary Success Which "Fruit-a-tives" Has Achieved

One reason why "Fruit-a-tives" is so extraordinarily successful in giving relief to those suffering with Constipation, Torpid Liver, Indigestion, Chronic Headaches, Neuralgia, Kidney and Bladder Troubles, Rheumatism, Pain in the Back, and many other Sick Affections, is because it is the only medicine in the world made from fruit juices.

It is composed of the medicinal principles found in apples, oranges, pears and prunes, together with the server tonic and antiseptic of proven reputation.

It was the war of the simple soldier and lieutenant who went over the parapet and were swept down in thousands.

One of the great lessons of the war for Canada, one of its great complications, was that it meant not only the defeat of autocracy, but that on the field of battle an eternal alliance had been cemented between England and France. For long centuries, these two liberal nations now stand as sentinels of liberty.

Reproaches had been made against French-Canadians, because, it was claimed, they had not enlisted so freely as citizens from other parts of the Dominion. "I don't wish to discuss the merits of the campaign against my fellow countrymen," Mr. Lemieux said, "but I declare that when history is written it will render justice to the twenty or thirty thousand French-Canadians who served in the Allied armies, who, although representing a race which had been separated from Europe and from France for three centuries, yet enrolled themselves to defend an ideal."

"But our first duty," Mr. Lemieux said, "before entering the society of nations is to establish the society of Canadians."

The policy should be one of tolerance, charity and fraternity. The motion carried.

OBITUARY

A. W. Baird.

A. W. Baird, who was stricken with paralysis a week ago, while resting at the home of a friend in Newtonville, Mass., died early yesterday morning. The terrific heat of the past few days decided physicians to advise his return home, and he left Boston Sunday evening, accompanied by his daughters, Mrs. F. B. Ellis, Miss B. G. Baird, Miss P. E. Baird, and his son, W. W. Baird, of Cleveland, Ohio, but passed away a few hours before St. John was reached. Mr. Baird, the eldest son of the late Geo. Baird, of this city, was born in Boston in 1847. Educated at Kingston Grammar school he studied law here and at Harvard Law School, was admitted an attorney in 1867 and barrister in 1868. His wife, a daughter of the late John Hoop, died several years ago. Mr. Baird was one of the best known men in St. John and the lower section of this province, his popularity during many years as a public reader bringing requests which called him to entertainments of all kinds. During the early days of the war, when recruiting was in progress, he aided materially in the campaign, reading and speaking at many gatherings. All his life Mr. Baird retained an interest in agriculture, making frequent trips to Wickham, where he found pleasant recreation in agricultural efforts and the more ambitious efforts of his neighbors. For several years Mr. Baird has gone south in the winter, usually to Birmingham, Virginia, and there, as in St. John and Boston and everywhere where he was known, he has left those who mourn the death of a genial, kindly man.

J. D. Lewin Montgomery.

The death of J. D. Lewin Montgomery took place yesterday at his home, 15 De La Rue street, St. John. The deceased was severely wounded while fighting with the 26th Battalion in which he held the rank of corporal, and has been in hospital since the past two years. He was in his 26th year. Before enlisting, he was employed with the C. P. R. Besides his parents, John Montgomery, of the Post Office, and Mrs. Montgomery, he leaves a sister and two brothers.

Wm. McGuire.

William McGuire died at New Bedford, Mass., on Saturday morning. He was ninety-four years old and was a native of New Brunswick, moving to Boston a number of years ago. He leaves to mourn six sons, Thomas of Newburyport; Michael, of Chicago; William, of New Bedford; Joseph, of New York; Louis, of Old Orchard, and John, of Newburyport, also one daughter, Mrs. Thomas O'Grady, of this city.

Girlish, Wrinkle-Free Skin Easy to Have

Since its remarkable astringent and tonic properties became known, clever women all over the world have been using the saxonite face bath to "tone up" their faces, remove wrinkles and draw flabby cheeks and necks back to normal. After using the solution, the face immediately feels much firmer. The skin also tightens evenly all over the face, thus reducing lines and sagging. The formula is: Powdered saxonite, one ounce, dissolved in witch hazel, one-half pint. This simple but harmless face bath is a splendid thing for the outdoor girl, since sun, wind and flying dust are so provocative of squinting and other conditions which cause wrinkles and crow's feet. Also it is fine to freshen up a tired face in hot, dressing weather.

SLAYER TAKES BODY OF GIRL TO POLICE

Man Claiming to be Son of Senator New Surrenders to Los Angeles Police.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 7.—Coolly declaring to Detective Serg. G. A. Davison shortly after 3 o'clock this morning that he had killed a girl, Harry S. New, Jr., 323 East Bontia avenue, claiming to be a son of present United States Senator Harry S. New, led the officer to a sedan type automobile parked in front of police headquarters.

Within the vehicle was found the body of a beautiful young girl, huddled on one of the seats, her blood-stained face concealed by a sodden fur. She was identified as Freda J. Lesser, who lived with her mother in 4,409 Griffin avenue. The automobile was the property of the slayer's mother, Mrs. Lulu M. Burger, prominent in Glendale social circles.

Before being placed in his cell, New, who is 30 years old, told a story unequalled in local police annals. In his narrative the man, who may pay the supreme penalty for his act, chose his words deliberately and displayed a bombast which shocked the police officers and newspaper men he addressed, used as they were to the sordid side of life.

"I was at the girl's house, arriving for three hours after the crime he committed," he said, "and I shot the man, who may pay the supreme penalty for his act, chose his words deliberately and displayed a bombast which shocked the police officers and newspaper men he addressed, used as they were to the sordid side of life."

He also told the police that he is the son of Senator New, and his claim was corroborated by relatives of the girl, who said they had known New and his family in Indiana.

New told the authorities he borrowed the pistol with which he shot Miss Lesser from a friend. He seemed perfectly rational and not a bit excited.

over the tragic experience of the night. He told the officers, they said, that for three hours after the crime he drove around town trying to make up his mind to surrender. He also told the police that he is the son of Senator New, and his claim was corroborated by relatives of the girl, who said they had known New and his family in Indiana.

New told the authorities he borrowed the pistol with which he shot Miss Lesser from a friend. He seemed perfectly rational and not a bit excited.

The Land Where Premiers Grow

THE political record of the Maritime Provinces is summed up by Thomas Melville in an article in the July issue of MACLEAN'S MAGAZINE under the heading, "The Land of National Leaders." Here are some of the facts he brings out:

Three of the eight premiers of Canada have come from the East—and there is a fourth, perhaps, in sight. The Maritimes have contributed an overpowering contingent in the past to the role of prominent parliamentarians—Weldon, Blair, Pugsley, Foster and Carvell, from New Brunswick; Davies, from Prince Edward Island; the Tupper, Fielding, Russell, D. C. Fraser, Mackenzie, Maclean and Macdonald from Nova Scotia.

At present the Maritimes supply the Premier, the Leader of the Opposition, the Speaker and four Cabinet Ministers. Around these remarkable records a very readable and interesting article has been written, showing the part that the people of the Eastern provinces are taking in national politics.

The July number is, in a sense, a Maritime Number, presenting as it does the following features:

"The Spirit of the Maritimes"

An article on the attitude that the people of the Maritimes are adopting toward the big problems of the day, particularly with reference to the results of Confederation. It is a close and outspoken exposition of the situation and shows the reasons why the people of the East are not satisfied.

"Guarding Our Coast Line"

An extremely interesting description of the measures that were taken to patrol and guard the Atlantic seaboard during the war. Bonar Law, the man from the Maritimes, who has been the able lieutenant of Lloyd George at all crises in Great Britain, appears on the cover in a handsome three-color reproduction.

Other Big Features of the Number

"With the Snowball Brigade" By Captain Louis Keene
Just back from Siberia—Captain Keene tells some sensational and intensely gripping things about conditions in that country which the Canadian forces are helping to stabilize. It is a record of international complications, strange atrocities and almost unbelievable living conditions.

"Solving the Problem of the Arctic" By Vilhjalmur Stefansson
The fourth instalment of his remarkable story of the five years he spent in the north for the Canadian Government, appearing exclusively in MACLEAN'S.

"The Four Tommies" By Robert W. Service
A war poem of unusual strength.

Four Magnificent Stories
The best fiction obtainable is found in this issue: "Owners' Up," a race horse story by W. A. Fraser; "His Majesty's Well Beloved" by Baroness Orczy; "Petite Simonde," by Arthur Beverley Baxter; "Bunkerred," by Allen C. Shore.

Every Home in the Maritime Provinces should have a copy of this July MacLean's and place it in their library for reference.

BIG TURNOVER ON STOCK EXCHANGE YESTERDAY

After Protracted Recess Trade Was Characterized by a Degree of Breadth and Activity Only Once Exceeded This Year.

New York, July 7.—Resumption of trading on the Stock Exchange today after the protracted recess, was characterized by a degree of breadth and activity only once exceeded in many bull markets this far this year.

The turnover aggregating 3,000,000 shares. Trading at this outlet centered around stocks and affiliated issues, buying of these stocks being generally ascribed to trade reports which emphasized increasing expansion on that industry as a whole probably unequalled since the signing of the armistice.

Various other speculative industries, especially metals, motors, oils and tobacco, shared in the movement, the machinery of the exchange being taxed to its utmost throughout the session.

Danger signals were hoisted in the afternoon, when call loans rose to eight and ten per cent, after opening at six to six and a half, but the reaction made better headway until towards the close, when twelve and fifteen per cent, ruled for mixed and all industrial loans as much as twenty per cent, being paid at the end. That rate, in fact, was the final quotation of the session.

The setback ranged from one to five points among leaders and considerably more in stocks less favored by the speculative elements, many substantial gains being replaced by net losses of one to three points.

Stutz Motor was the sensational feature, rising twenty points before noon, but yielding more than half its gain in the sweeping final reversal. Steels declined one to four points and seasoned equities and peace industrial also broke sharply, secondary rails, notably Missouri-Pacific, almost holding firm to strong.

Weakness of exchange on London was again without explanation from authoritative sources, remittances to continental Europe also showing irregularity.

Beard dealings were enlarged, but uncertain including Liberty issues.

Total sales, par value, aggregated $1,450,000.

Out U. S. bonds unchanged on call.

Bankers Turn To Problems of Reconstruction

Believed in Conservative Quarters That New Bull Movement Will be Started.

Consumation of peace removes an element of uncertainty definitely from the arena of speculation and leaves the minds of financiers and industrial leaders free to concentrate wholly on the problems of reconstruction. The largest of these is the organization of the machinery whereby to finance the purchases of European countries in the United States.

The problem of marketing the securities of the foreign investment corporation which will be formed is likely to be difficult of solution. The question has been raised whether after all it would not be better to make the proposed organization a federal corporation. Some doubts are expressed whether the public will be ready to absorb a huge volume of securities of a form entirely new to it unless the government stands squarely back of the issue. Whatever is to be done must be done without delay. Bankers realize that and are striving to obtain results. Thus far the conference which have been held have dealt only with generalities.

If, as is suggested, the United States shall lend money to Europe on a special interest basis for the purchase of American commodities, it is reasoned that it can only mean higher prices for securities because most of these are selling on a higher income basis. A readjustment would be necessary. This is one argument advanced for predictions of a further advance in stocks.

It is confidently believed in conservative quarters that a new bull movement will be experienced, but some difference of opinion prevails as to when it will start. President has counted on this in one argument advanced for financing is to be done will be brought out as quickly as possible.

CLASHES OCCUR BETWEEN FRENCH AND ITALIANS

Happens at Fiume and the Casualties Reported Are Six Killed and Twenty Wounded.

Rome, July 7.—(By the Associated Press).—New clashes between the French and Italians at Fiume are reported in advices from that city. The casualties so far reported number six killed and twenty wounded.

Inference from previous market history would be that the usual mid-summer season of dullness in trading should be expected during the next few weeks with occasional flashes of bullish activity in specialty stocks. This view is entertained by some of the successful professional operators in the market. If a major bull movement is coming, they believe, it will not materialize for the present.

Sentiment is crystallizing favorably on the steel, copper tobacco and other stocks of companies whose business should expand with resumption of normal trade relations. Accumulation is reported in the steel and copper shares. Leather stocks are another group which are already reflecting a group revival of foreign buying.

The healthy tone of the bond market has encouraged corporations to attempt new financing which has met with success. The two recent offerings of large bond issues—that of the land banks for $54,000,000 and that of the Baltimore and Ohio for $35,000,000—are going well and are passing into permanent investment funds. In all probability a Canadian loan will be made in the next few days.

Investment bankers admit however, that the demand for new issues is slowing down and do not expect the market to continue in its present active state much longer. It is probable, therefore, that whatever new corporation financing is to be done will be brought out as quickly as possible.

Tanners Predict Shoe Prices Will Go Still Higher

Only Better Transportation Will Reduce Cost, They Say—Demand for Leather Heavy.

New York, July 7.—Still higher prices for shoes were forecast in a statement issued last night by the Tanners Council of the United States after a meeting here. Responsibility was placed by Fred A. Vogel, president of the council, at the door of "the good old rate of supply and demand." Not only is there a large demand for leather in this country, but European nations are "anxious buyers," it was said.

There is only one way to reduce prices, according to the statement, and that is to increase transportation facilities.

"There are considerable stocks of raw material scattered all over the world in this country, but European nations are anxious to get it," he said. "The only way to reduce prices is to increase transportation facilities. There are considerable stocks of raw material scattered all over the world in this country, but European nations are anxious to get it," he said.

"There are accumulations at all these points which, if made available for this country, would no doubt have a good effect on our prices here. The Tanners Council will make every effort to secure additional ships to bring in this raw material, because it feels that it is its duty toward the government and the public that this be done."

CALL LOANS WENT UP TO 20 PER CENT.

New York, July 7.—After the close of the market it was announced that call loans for both classes of collateral, the high rate ruling at the end of the day, were 20 per cent.

AROUND THE CITY
FAIR AND COOL

HOME! TODAY.
Miss Mabel Fina, who for some time has been acting as assistant to Captain Mary Plummer at the Canada Field Constable's Station, Shorecliffe, is expected to arrive in the city today.

RUN OVER BY AUTO.
John S. Macdonald, the nine-year-old son of Harry J. Macdonald, 74 Queen street, was run over by Percy Thompson's automobile. His face was considerably cut but no serious injury was received.

A LARGE MEMBERSHIP.
The regular meeting of G. W. V. A. was held last evening. Confirmed Tip-tops in the chair. Over forty members were initiated and the membership is now well over two hundred. Routine business was the order of the evening.

TO TAKE PICTURES.
The New Brunswick Tourist, Game and Resources' League has arranged for Thomas Travis, who represented Forest and Stream at the recent convention, to take a trip through the province taking photos and gathering material for lectures and magazine articles.

FAREWELL LUNCHEON.
At the Rotary Club luncheon at noon yesterday, farewell was tendered member F. H. Quirt, of the Canadian Oil Company, Ltd., who has been promoted to a position in the Montreal office.
On Saturday last, the members of the local office of the company presented Mr. Quirt with a chest of silver.

SHIPPING TO MONTREAL.
Only about ten thousand boxes of berries came down the river boats yesterday, and the price wholesale was seventeen and eighteen cents per box. Shippers are looking for large quantities on Wednesday and Friday of this week, as the rain of Sunday will keep them from drying up on the vines. Large quantities are being shipped to Montreal from up river points, and this has a tendency to keep the local market short.

POPULAR PRESENTATION.
As a token of remembrance of good fellowship and the untiring efforts which he ably put forth in his office as Bishop LeBlanc's agent for the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, a number of the members on Sunday evening presented T. M. Burns with a handsome walking stick. The presentation was made by P. Hennesbury in a few well chosen words. On account of extra work in connection with his duties as secretary of the Board of Health, Mr. Burns was obliged to resign the position as agent for the Bishop.

SOLDIERS COMING.
A visit to Charles Robinson, secretary of the New Brunswick Returned Soldiers' Commission, yesterday stated that the following men had arrived at Quebec on the Metacoma, time of arrival in St. John to be announced later:
C. S. M. H. Langworthy, 570 Main street, St. John; Pte. W. L. Kinney, Bath, Car Co.; Pte. H. B. Mayo, Campbellton; Pte. J. W. McLellan, Kiburn, Vic. Co.; Gnr. R. G. Smith, Briggs Corner, Queens Co.; Pte. F. C. Sutton, Sgt. J. D. Sawden, Gnr. J. Keith, Woodstock; Pte. R. H. Cameron, Soutouche; Gnr. W. N. Pelletier, Bathurst.

ENJOYABLE CONCERT.
A very enjoyable concert was given last evening in the Charlotte street Citadel by the combined Boy Scouts and Girl Guides of the Salvation Army. During the evening Brigadier Moore presented to Scouts Park, Addison and Patterson musical proficiency badges. The programme consisted of drills, selections by the Boy Scouts' brass band, the Girl Guides' string band, instrumental duets and trios by members of the Girl Guides, and vocal selections by the Scouts and Guides, concluding with a tableau, "The New Girl." Brigadier Moore presided, and Rev. H. H. Pinkets pronounced the benediction.

DEATH OF FORMER
ST. JOHN WOMAN

(From the Bridgeport, Conn., Post of July 5th.)
Following an illness of seven weeks duration, Maria Louise, wife of Louis H. Cortright, assistant advertising manager of the Post Publishing Co., died yesterday afternoon at the family residence, No. 75 Flaxhill road, South Norwalk. Besides her husband she is survived by four children, Russell, Marie, Ruth and Louis, Jr., and her mother, Mrs. Mary Perrault. The funeral will be on Monday from the late residence in Flaxhill road at 8:30 o'clock, and from St. Joseph's church at 9 with the celebration of a high mass of requiem by Rev. Father Carroll. The burial will be at St. Mary's cemetery. Mrs. Cortright was a member of the Foresters of America and she was very well known in this city. The news of her death will come as a great shock her many friends and acquaintances.

FUNERALS

Gagetown, July 2.—On Wednesday afternoon, on the arrival of the boat from Saint John, the funeral took place of Mrs. T. H. Gilbert, whose death occurred on Monday at the Infirmary, after an illness of several months. Services had already been conducted at St. Paul's Church, St. John, and the remains were taken from the boat to St. John's Churchyard, where the burial service was read by Rev. H. T. Buckland, rector of the parish; and interment made by Mrs. Gilbert's husband, who died nearly twenty years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert resided after their marriage at the old Gilbert homestead at Grimross Canal; and after Mr. Gilbert's death, the family moved into the town, where they remained until some years ago. For many years Mrs. Gilbert was a valued member of the choir of St. John's Church.

Laurier Liberals
And The Others

Leaders of Old Convention Declare They Represent Real Liberal Party—If Premier Foster and Others Want to Come Back So Much the Better.

Premier Foster's action in calling another Liberal convention in St. John raised the wings out of the ranks of the Laurier Liberals, and there was much pulling of wires yesterday and till late at night. The leaders of the old convention beyond declaring that they represented the real Liberal party were not prepared to discuss the situation, but intimated that they would have an announcement to make to the public before very long. Some efforts at reconciliation have been made by the Foster faction, and some of the more good-natured Liberals of the old school have been won over to the idea that it is still possible to patch up the differences. Others, however, are of the opinion that the Laurier Liberals who have borne the burden of the fighting in the past should still insist on their right to represent the party at Ottawa.

"We still hold that we are the Liberal party," said one of these yesterday. "We are not excluding anybody from the party. If Mr. Foster and others want to come back to the party and help, so much the better. But the manner they have selected to come back raises a pretty problem. Are the delegates we have selected to be turned down at Ottawa? That is a question about which we cannot be sure to know something in a day or so."
Children is directed at the Foster method of separating delegates, which introduces a new departure in Liberal politics in this constituency. The Foster plan is to call a public meeting at St. John to elect delegates to represent St. John and Albert at Ottawa. The old Liberals called primaries or ward meetings who selected delegates to a county convention to elect representatives to go to Ottawa. Will Mr. Foster be permitted to change the practice as well as the leadership of the party here? If the issue is forced at Ottawa as to which set of delegates are entitled to a seat at the national convention will the decision be for those elected in the regular way in accordance with the time honored practice of the party or for those elected in an irregular way at Mr. Foster's meeting?

Some of the Old Liberals were saying last evening that they should gather their forces together, and attend the Foster meeting, and either force through a resolution declaring the new convention irregular or take charge of the meeting and re-elect the delegates chosen at the first convention.
Others were of the view that no action should be taken until the convention was held, and the strength of the Foster faction known. If the convention developed that any considerable body of Liberal Unionists wanted to come back to the party under the leadership of Mr. Foster, then an effort might be made to effect a truce, and agree to a division of delegates to the national convention. If the Foster convention proved a fiasco then there would be no need to worry anyway.
So far as can be gathered the outcome of the present Bolshevik condition in the Liberal ranks in this constituency is likely to be mainly determined by the strength the Foster faction is able to gather to itself within the next few days. If the two factions are anywhere near equal some sort of a compromise may be arranged.

Annual Cruise
of The R. K. Y. C.

Yachts Will Start Cruise on Saturday, August 9—Rev. Dr. Morison Preaches Service at Crystal Beach August 17.

This year's "happy days" cruise of the R. K. Y. C. is expected to be one of the biggest and best ever held, as many who during the war did not feel inclined to take a week for cruising on the river, and many more who were "somewhere in France" will be in line when the starting gun is fired on Saturday, August 9, to enjoy the week's outing on the "Rhine of America," and its tributaries.
On August 17 the annual Sunday service of the club will be held at Crystal Beach. The sermon will be preached by the chaplain of the fleet, Rev. Dr. J. A. Morison, and it is expected this event will be the biggest ever and a fitting close to the cruise.
While the date of the cruise has been settled this is practically the only detail of this year's "joy time" that has been agreed upon, the route and other incidentals will be arranged at a meeting to be held in the near future, after which more definite announcement of the cruise will be made public.
The boats are being given a thorough tuning up by their respective owners in preparation for this the crowning event of the season, and the week of August 9 to 17 is being eagerly awaited by all of them.

So great has been the success achieved by Madame Ellis at the Opera House her engagement has been extended for three more days. She will be there this afternoon, to-night, tomorrow and Thursday, as the feature of the new vaudeville programme that opens this afternoon.
Thursday afternoon will be a special matinee for ladies only—no gentleman admitted—so that ladies may ask Madame Ellis private, personal questions if they wish. The time is 2:30 daylight.
PEACE CELEBRATION.

Labor Leader
From Winnipeg

F. G. Tipping, Former President of Winnipeg Trades & Labor Council, Arrived Here Yesterday—Will Enlighten Eastern Labor Men as to Causes of Recent Western Strikes.

F. G. Tipping, former president of the Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council, and at present a member of the executive of that body, arrived in the city yesterday on a mission, as he expressed it, "to enlighten the labor men of the east as to the causes and character of the recent strikes in Winnipeg and the West." He is being sent out by the Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council to ask the co-operation of the trade unions of the east in urging the government to grant an open jury trial to all the men who were arrested in connection with the strike.
While in Ottawa Mr. Tipping had an interview with Hon. Arthur Meighan, and also with Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, who said he would use his influence to secure a jury trial for the men arrested.

"The idea that the strike arose out of the one big union policy, and was intended to set up a Soviet government is ridiculous," said Mr. Tipping. "We are not all fools in the West. The strike arose through the refusal of the metal trades employers to recognize trade unionism."
"When the labor men were arrested a number of men with foreign names who had nothing to do with the strike were rounded up at the same time. The idea of this was to create the impression that the strike was of Bolshevik origin; but it is said the foreigners will be tried by the immigration authorities in camera. Now we are asking the trade unions in Canada to join in a demand that all be given an open trial. If this takes place we know it will be clear that some of the foreigners who are accused of Bolshevism will be shown to have had nothing to do with the strike. On the other hand if they are tried in secret and deported the impression will be left that the labor movement in Winnipeg is of a Bolshevik character."
The Trades and Labor Council has called a meeting in the Seaman's institute Wednesday evening, to give Mr. Tipping an opportunity to present the trade union side of the trouble in the west to the working men of the city.

ATLANTIC SUGAR
SOARING HIGHER

One of the Spectacular Stocks of Past Few Days— Said New York Buying Has Been a Main Factor Behind Recent Advance.

Atlantic Sugar has been one of the spectacular stocks of the past few days and Saturday morning new high record prices were again established. Well informed brokerage circles the story is heard that New York buying has been one of the main factors behind the recent advance. Sugar stocks have been popular in Wall street lately and the attention which has been given Atlantic Sugar by some New York investors is partly in consequence thereof.
One of the largest New York sugar interests is said to be a holder of approximately $1,000,000 of stock in Atlantic Sugar Refineries, preferred and common. Some time ago, Montreal took 1,000 shares of Atlantic Sugar from New York, and it is understood that this stock is being replaced by former owners at the advanced price.
The situation with respect to earnings in Atlantic Sugar is a most satisfactory one and is at the bottom of the movement.
Further talk has recently been heard regarding the possibility of a consolidation taking place between Canadian Sugar Refineries. This talk is thought to be a revival of the former rumor, from all of which it is learned that there are difficulties in the way which would make such a consolidation unlikely in the near future.

THE LATEST THING
IN FEMALE ATTIRE

The Stockingless Lady is the Newest Fad to Make People Stop and Pass Remarks on the Foolish Dress of Some Women.

The ladies are tackling the problem of the high cost of living in their own way. Not to be behind New York and Montreal, St. John has its stockingless lady. A particularly interesting example of the agility of ladies to beat the cost of living was witnessed on King street yesterday. She was not particularly good looking, and she was as thin as if she had been living on little or nothing for a long time being the great days of H. C. L. She had economized on her skirt so she could barely move one foot around the other, and her inimitable progress down King street attracted a great deal of attention from the rubber-neck young bloods of the city—to say nothing of the ladies who could afford a whole skirt. Why she came to the curb on Germain street she had to lift her narrow skirt in order to step over the curbstone, and then the interesting fact was revealed to admiring spectators that she had left her stockings at home. The stockingless lady appeared to be quite unconscious of all the commotion she was creating on the street. Whether the latest fashion will be a general here remains to be seen, but all who wish to keep informed of the costume which was fashionable in the climate that H. C. L. will decree it

Should Apply For
Portion of Grant

Commissioner Bullock Thinks County Council Should Apply to Provincial Authorities for Portion of Dominion Grant for Building Homes.

Commissioner Bullock said yesterday that the county council of St. John should apply to the provincial authorities for a portion of the grant being made by the Dominion for building homes for wage earners and returned soldiers. He said that the city had asked for $225,000, and that the effort of the city authorities would be to have this spent on house building within the city limits.
There were, however, quite a number of people who wanted to build in the country, and he thought these people should be able to get their share of the loan through the county authorities. The city was not anxious to spend money properly pertaining to the city in Lancaster, but would like to see some new buildings being done in Lancaster. If parties who wanted to build there could borrow the money needed through the county, the city or the housing commission, which the city intended to appoint, might co-operate in putting up houses on the city owned lands in Lancaster, giving the benefit of their advice and assistance in assuring economical construction.

Yesterday Commissioner Bullock received two applications from parties who wish to take advantage of the loan to build houses. The number of applications already received is very considerable. And once the Housing Commission gets to work and draws up the detailed plans governing the loans, it is expected that more applications will be coming in. Under the scheme so far in receipt of a salary of more than $3,000 a year is eligible for a loan.

Names of Stations

Secretary Carter Says Browns Flats Was Changed to Grand View After a Petition Had Been Received from Majority of Residents

According to a street rumor, the citizens of Browns Flats are not enthusiastic over the name of "Grand View," which is painted on the station there where all who travel on the Valley railroad may read.
E. S. Carter, secretary of the St. John and Quebec Railroad Company, told The Standard last night that the name had been changed after a petition from a majority of the residents of that district had been received by the company to that effect. When asked about the rumor of dissatisfaction which is current, he said that he had heard nothing at all about the matter, and that as a majority of the former Browns Flats did not like the name, it was up to them to petition to have it changed.
