Peculiar

To itself in many important particulars, Hood's Sarsaparilla is different from and superior to any other medicine.
Peculiar in combination, proportion and preparation of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom.
Peculiar in its medicinal merit, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown.
Peculiar in strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "100 doses one dollar." Medicines of larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's Sarsaparilla.
Peculiar in its "good name at home"—there is more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers.
Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time. Do not be induced to take any other preparation. Return to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

THE Y'S.
Annual Meeting of the Y. W. C. T. U.—The Year's Work—Election of Officers.

The second annual meeting of the Young Women's Christian Temperance Union was held yesterday afternoon in their rooms in the Mischeke Block, and was well attended. Mrs. Allan, president, occupied the chair.

The report of the secretary was then read by Miss C. Smith, acting secretary. It showed that the union had been in existence for two years. After securing their present quarters, the landlady placed at the union's disposal the former tenant's furniture left by the former tenant, and these together with some articles donated by friends have proved sufficient to the wants of the society. Several days' hard work had made the rooms cozy. Mrs. Shaw-Wood had also generously paid their rent for the piano, which greatly added to the comfort of the members. A much-needed bookcase was donated by a friend, and contains the library of the union, which was also secured by the kindness of friends, together with others purchased by the members.
