Mr President, Members of the Court

This is a case where the facts are simple and uncontroverted. The accused, a soldier with over 3½ years in the Army, arrived at 4 Bn early in June on a Far East Draft. At about 0530 hours, on 8 June 45 the accused fell out with his draft ready to move off. He had two kit bags and in one of the kit bags was a loaded Schmeiser automatic weapon that th e accused intended to take home.

Capt Dowds the 2 i/c of 22 Coy, being the coy that was holding the accused's draft, will give evidence that at about 0540 hrs that same morning he heard a shot in his lines. On investigating he found that the accused had been taken to the MIR. He thereupon witnessed the opening of the accused's kit bag and saw the Schmeiser weapon which was wrapped in a blanket. The weapon was cleared and a 9 m.m. empty casing was ejected.

The prosecution will also produce Medical evidence that the accused was treated for a gun shot wound in the same morning and that the proper conclusion is that the accused's injury was received as a result of the firing of the Schmesier.

Although handicapped by the absence of an eye witness who was on the same draft as the accused and who is now in Canada, nevertheless the prosecution submits that there will be sufficient evidence produced to put the accused on his defence.

At this point the prosecution is prepared to concede that it is not able to prove knowledge on the part of the accused of Cdn RO (21 Army Gp) 657 which prohibits the retention of enemy weapons. This RO is dated 1 Dec 44 at which time the accused was in Italy. Whether this RO was republished in the Part I or standing orders of the accused's unit which it would be necessary to do in order to fix him with knowledge is something the prosecution is unable to do.

But the prosecution does submit that the presence of a loaded automatic weapon, irrespective of its make, in the kit bag of the accused, the firing of which caused this soldier's injury does establish a strong case of careless handling against the accused, which it will be his obligation to explain to this court.

PROSECUTION:

1st Witness

Capt C.P. DOWDS, sworn states:

I am 2 i/c of "A" Coy 4 CBR Bn. I recognize the accused Pte Demers. On 8 June 45 at about 0530 hrs I was despatching 2 serials of CFEF drafts from our coy. I heard a shot from the area of our lines. I ran to where the draft was forming up I was Capt Robertson. He had a kit bag which he proceeded to empty. In it we found a Schmeiser automatic wrapped up in a blanket. Capt Robertson cleared the weapon and it ejected a 9 mm empty casing. There was some 9 mm ammo in the kit bag. This is the Schmeiser found in the kit. (Produced marked Ex A) This is the empty casing (Produced marked Exhibit B). The kit bag was marked with Pte Demers number name and rank.

Cross-examination.

I recognize the weapon by the tag. I delivered it to the Adjt I did not see it tagged. I did not see Pte Demers handling the weapon. There was no mag on it when Capt Robertson took it from the kit bag. I did not examine the blanket.

R P 83 (b) complied with.

2nd Witness

Capt F L Woodman, RCAMC sworn states:

I am a MO presently employed at 16 CGH. I recognize Pte Demers. On 8 June 45 I was RMO at 4 CBR Bn. About 0600 hrs I was called to the RAP where Pte Demers had been taken. He had received a gun shot wound in the left shoulder. He had received first aid treatment which I checked and then ordered him evacuated to 1 CGH. It was a gun shot wound which entered his left arm at going from below upwards and backwards and emerging above the left shoulder blade. The injry may interfere with his future efficiency.

Cross-examination.

I recognized it as a gun shot wound because I was told he had been shot. I saw no powder marks. In my opinion his condition will improve. He may however lose some of the use of his left arm. It may get worse or better. There is some disability at the present time.

By the Court

A through and through wound by a bullet or piece of shrapnel is characterised by a small hole of entry and a large hole of exit. This condition was present.

R P 83(b) complied with.

JM

DEFENDING OFFICER

No prima facie case. Can't handle a Schmeiser in a kit bag.

Prosecuting Officer

Does not make any reply.

Judge Advocate

The question for the court to decide at this time is whether or not the prosecution has produced evidence on which the accused could although not necessarily would be found guilty of the charge. The charge is reads charge and the particulars are (reads particulars). There is evidence that a shot was heard. That there was taken from a kit bag a Schmeiser from which was ejected an empty shell. The kit bag had the accused's name on it. About the same time or shortly after the accused was admitted to the RAP with a wound that had the appearance of a gun shot wound. On that evidence has the prosecution made out a prima facie case or in other words a case which requires an answer by the accused..

Mr President, Members of the Court

This is a case where the facts are simple and uncontradicted. The accused, a soldier with over 3½ years in the Army, arrived at 4 Bn early in June on a Far East Draft. At about 0530 hours, on 8 June 45 the accused fell out with his draft ready to move off. He had two kit bags and in one of the kit bags was a loaded Schmeiser automatic weapon that the accused intended to take home. ~~He seized the weapon visibly because he had used it in action.~~

Capt Dowds the 2 i/c of 22 Coy, being the coy that was holding the accused's draft, will give evidence that at about 0540 hrs that same morning he heard a shot in his lines. On investigating he found that the accused had been taken to the MIR. He thereupon witnessed the opening of the accused's kit bag and saw the Schmeiser weapon which was wrapped in a blanket. The weapon was cleared and a 9 m.m. empty casing was ejected.

The prosecution will also produce Medical evidence that the accused was treated for a gun shot wound in the same morning and that the proper conclusion is that the accused's injury was received as a result of the firing of the Schmeiser.

Although handicapped by the absence of an eye witness who was on the same draft as the accused and who is now in Canada, nevertheless the prosecution submits that there will be sufficient evidence produced to put the accused on his defence.

At this point the prosecution is prepared to concede that it is not able to prove knowledge on the part of the accused of Can RO (21 Army Gp) 657 which prohibits the retention of enemy weapons. This RO is dated 1 Dec 44 at which time the accused was in Italy. Whether this RO was republished in the Part I or standing orders of the accused's unit which it would be necessary to do in order to fix him with knowledge is something the prosecution is unable to do.

But the prosecution does submit that the presence of a loaded automatic weapon, irrespective of its make, in the kit bag of the accused, the firing of which caused this soldier's injury does establish a strong case of careless handling and against the accused which it will be his obligation to explain to this Court.

14 Witness

Capt C.P. Hounds sworn states.

I am a 2/c of 'A' Coy 4 C BR Bn. I recognize the accused Pte Clemens.
On 5 June 45 at about 0530 hrs I was despatching 2 recruits of CFEF draft from our Coy. I heard a shot from the area of our lines. I then ran to where the draft was forming up. I saw Capt Robertson. He had a kit bag which he proceeded to empty. In it was found a Schmeisser automatic wrapped up in a blanket. Capt Robertson cleared the weapon and it ejected a 9 mm empty casing. There was some 9 mm ammo in the kit bag. This is the Schmeisser found in the kit. (Produced marked Ex A) This is the empty casing (Produced marked Exhibit B). The kit bag was marked with Pte Clemens number name and rank.

Cross-examination

I recognize the weapon by its tag. I delivered it to the A/Q. I did not see it tagged. I did not see Pte Clemens handling the weapon. There was no mag on it when Capt Robertson took it from the kit bag. I did not examine the blanket.

RP S 3 (b) complied with

2nd Witness

Capt F.L. Woodman, RCAMC sworn states

I am a MO presently employed at 16 C.G.H. I recognize Pte Clemens.
On 5 June 45 I was RMO at 4 CBR Bn. about 0600 hrs I was called to the RAP where Pte Clemens had been taken. He had received a gun shot wound in the left shoulder. He had received first aid treatment which I checked and then ordered his evacuation to 16 C.G.H. It was a gun shot wound which entered his left arm pit going from below upwards and backwards and emerging above the left shoulder blade. The injury may interfere with his future efficiency

Cross-examination

I recognized it as a gun shot wound because I was told he had been shot. I saw no powder marks. In my opinion his condition will improve. He may however lose some of the use of his left arm. It may get worse or better. There is some disability at the present time.

~~Prosecution~~
By the Court

It through and through wound by a bullet or piece of shrapnel as abrasion by a small hole of entry and a larger hole of exit. This condition was present.

RP S 3 (b) complied with.

Defending Officer

No prima facie case. Court handle a dishonour on a hit bag.

Prosecuting Officer

Does not make any reply.

Judge Advocate

The question for the Court to decide at this time is whether or not the prosecution has produced evidence on which the accused could although not necessarily would be found guilty of the charge. The charge is read charge and the particulars are (reads particulars). There is evidence that a shot was heard. That there was taken from a hit bag a dishonour from which was ejected an empty shell. The hit bag had the accused's name on it. About the same time or shortly after the accused was admitted to the R.D.P. with a wound that had the appearance of a gun shot wound. On that evidence ~~on~~ has the prosecution made out a prima facie case or in other words a case which requires an answer by the accused.

A-5: Yes, Sir. (On behalf of the accused the Defending Council made the following short address).

"I have known Spr. Demers, for over 2 years, and enlisted him, and I know that he is capable of being a good soldier, and desires to be a good soldier.

In his original unit, 1st.Cdn. Corps Field Park Coy.,RCE., Spr. Demers never got into trouble. Knowing Spr. Demers as well as I do I am able to state that he is a man that is easily led and if he falls in with the wrong people he is easily led astray.

On the First Charge of A.W.L. there was another man who went A.W.L. at approximately the same time, and I submit to the Court that

/Spr.Demers

/Court that

Spr. Demers was possibly talked into going A.W.L. by this man.

As regards the Second Charge, that of escaping, at that time there were two men in our detention compound. One of them had a very bad record both civil and military and I submit to the court that this man attempted to escape. Spr. Demers seeing this and again being easily led went out the same open window.

Had Spr. Demers intended to remain A.W.L. he certainly would have never surrendered himself, and I submit to the court that if Spr. Demers was given proper care and attention he would never go A.W.L. This man has not a very clean "onduct Sheet but that is because he has not been locked after properly".

(12) Question by the Court to Accused.

Q-6: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or call any witnesses as to character?
A-6: No, Sir.

(13) Captain R.B. Fraser, 1 Bn. R.C.E., is duly sworn.

Question by the Court.

Q-7: Have you any evidence to produce as to particulars of Service and character of the Accused?
A-7: Yes, Sir.

The above statement being Army Form B296 is read (Marked App.5), signed by the president and attached to the proceedings.

(14) Question by the Court.

Q-8: Is the accused the person named in the statement?
A-8: Yes, Sir.
Q-9: Are they true extracts from Regimental Books and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheet a fair and true summary in entries?
A-9: Yes, Sir.

(15) The accused declines to cross-examine.

(16) Question by the Court To the accused. ~~Ct~~

Q-10: Do you wish to address the Court?
A-10: No, Sir.

(17) The Court is closed for consideration of Sentence.

NOTE: All questions, etc., were put forward to the accused in French by interpreter or by the French-Canadian Member of the Court, Lieut. Dussault.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the pars in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 86(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA) (RP 40 fn 10), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 86.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 91.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 48(E), KR Can 567(a).)

Defending Officer:

In mitigation of sentence I'd like to bring to the attention of the court that the accused was severely wounded in Sicily. He spent three months in hospital and his nerves were quite low when released from hospital he intended to return to his regiment. He felt the need of an holiday in the meantime. He put off returning for a few days until he was feeling better. I feel that he had no intention of deserting and in considering the sentence I would ask the mercy of the court.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

MEDICAL OFFICER'S CERTIFICATE

I certify that No C.21470 Pte Demeule A.J.R. of C CCY, CAMERON HIGHLANDERS OF OTTAWA (MG) is fit to undergo trial by Court-Martial.

Signature of Medical Officer.

COMMANDING OFFICERS ADDRESS

Sir, I submit the following statement in order that you may be aware of the circumstances which led to the arrest of Lieutenant [redacted] R.T.R. by me. I am convinced that the action I took was the only one which I could take in the circumstances, and I am sure that you will support me in it.

On the evening of [redacted] I was in the Officers' Mess when I received a telephone call from the Provost Sergeant, who informed me that Lieutenant [redacted] had been arrested by the Military Police for being drunk and disorderly in a public house in the town. I immediately went to the police station and found Lieutenant [redacted] in a very excited state. He was shouting and swearing at the police and refusing to leave the station. I spoke to him and asked him to calm down and to come with me. He refused and said that he would not leave the station unless he was released immediately. I then told him that he was under arrest and that he must come with me. He still refused and I had to call in the assistance of two of the police constables to help me to get him out of the station and into my car. I then drove him back to the Officers' Mess where I placed him under close arrest in a room set aside for that purpose.

I then reported the matter to the Commanding Officer, who ordered me to bring Lieutenant [redacted] before him at 10 a.m. the following morning.

At that interview I explained the circumstances to the Commanding Officer and he ordered me to place Lieutenant [redacted] under close arrest in his quarters and to remain with him until further orders.

I then reported the matter to the Brigade Major, who ordered me to bring Lieutenant [redacted] before him at 2 p.m. that afternoon.

At that interview I explained the circumstances to the Brigade Major and he ordered me to place Lieutenant [redacted] under close arrest in his quarters and to remain with him until further orders.

I then reported the matter to the Brigade Major, who ordered me to bring Lieutenant [redacted] before him at 2 p.m. that afternoon.

At that interview I explained the circumstances to the Brigade Major and he ordered me to place Lieutenant [redacted] under close arrest in his quarters and to remain with him until further orders.

MS

CASE OF B-66688 S/SGT. DeMONTMORT, H.
Plea for Mitigation of Punishment

To The
President and Members of the Court

The accused is a man of much more than average intelligence and ability. He has had a long and honorable career as a member of the Army of the United States, in fact he has been connected with the military life of his country since his boyhood days. His records show that he lost no opportunity to improve himself as a soldier and further, that he had exceptional ability is borne out by his marks at the various courses taken.

Furthermore, it is evident that his ability was recognised by the Military services of his country as shown by the rank he attained.

Upon the outbreak of war -3 Sept.39 - he chose to give up his rank and life in his own country and throw in his lot with the cause of freedom by joining the Canadian Army, which he did upon Canada's declaration of war. That his ability as a soldier was soon recognized is evidenced by the fact that he shortly became a Sergeant and was enrolled as a member of the University of Toronto C.O.T.C. where he successfully completed the course and was granted his diploma qualifying him as a Lieutenant and therefore for his commission in the Canadian Army.Through a regimental custom prevalent in a few Canadian units at that time a person who served in the ranks was not considered for commission, this was the case in the unit in which he was then serving.

Subsequently, he served in Iceland, with his unit, later proceeding to England. On various occasions his outstanding ability and qualifications were recognized by high ranking officers in the Canadian Army and action started to have him transferred to some branch of the service in which his qualifications would be of more value and bring promotion. In every case these actions did not bear fruit, due to the officer who instigated the action being transferred, or for similar reasons. He was finally transferred to the R.C.C.C. and in fact successfully completed his pre-C.C.T.U. training in that Corps.

Subsequent to the entry of his own country into the war, he tried to transfer to the U.S. Army, feeling, with justification, that his services to the allied cause would be of more value there, where he had already had long and honorable service and had attained rank commensurate with his qualifications. In this action he again received no encouragement. Had he chosen to remain in his native land until its entry into the war he would undoubtedly have entered the active service with his rank and would have by this time been filling a responsible position in that great force with according rank.

Failing to secure a transfer, he chose to join the United States army in any case, moved no doubt by a feeling of loyalty to his own country and feeling too that his services would be of more value there. In so doing, he may have committed a crime, but I contend that if he did it was a breach of procedure rather than a moral crime, for he in no way attempted to dodge his duty to the cause for which we are all fighting, but on the contrary, took action which he honestly believed would render his services of greater value.

That the value of his services was recognized by the Military Authorities of his own country is evidenced by the fact that he was, at the time he was discovered by the Canadian Authorities, being put forward for a commission in the U.S. Army, and was in his possession the application forms for that purpose.

I believe, Sir, that you will agree that the present is no time to be wasting the services of a man who possesses such ability and qualifications. Further, Sir, I believe, that this is a splendid opportunity for the Canadian Army to show a real example of co-operation with our Ally and great neighbour by granting S/Sgt. DeMontfort an honourable discharge from the Canadian Army for the purpose of joining the Armed Forces of his own country.

1. On 13 Nov 42 S/Sgt DeMONTFORT, of the above mentioned Cdn
SIS/D-7-133 unit went on leave. On the 22 November he failed to return to the Unit and from 14 Dec 42 he was listed as a deserter.

2. Information was received at this office to the effect that this man might attempt to join the United States Forces in Great Britain. It was common knowledge at this man's unit that he was an American, and had previous military service with that country.

3. On the 5 Mar 43, the Officer i/c S.I.S. contacted the U.S. Provost Marshall General's Office, and supplied them with the information at hand also a complete description of the man in question. Agent Geo. CALLAHAN of the U.S. Army Investigation Dept. later informed us that on the 7 Dec 42, a man answering this description had joined the U.S. Army in London. He had given his name as George A. HENSLEY. This man claimed he had stowed away on a boat from U.S.A., and also stated that he had previous Military Service with the U.S. Army. HENSLEY had first applied for enlistment in Nov 1942. He had been sworn in as a Private, and had been held in a casual company in London, whilst American authorities checked with Washington on his previous service. His claims regarding previous service proved to be correct and he was given his original Ser. No. as stated above.

Mil-First 4. On the 6 Mar 43, I accompanied the Officer i/c S.I.S., and Agent Geo. CALLAHAN, to the American Recruiting Office, London, and ascertained that Pvt. George A. HENSLEY was at that time posted to an American Reinforcement Unit stationed at Lichfield, Staffordshire. Later this same date I proceeded to Lichfield accompanied by Agent CALLAHAN for the purpose of making inquiries in this connection and interviewing HENSLEY.

5. Upon arrival at the Reinforcement Unit, we found that HENSLEY had within the last few days been posted to the 2034 Port Bn. The location of the unit at this time was not known for security reasons, and we returned to London.

6. On the 10 Mar 43, Agent CALLAHAN and myself proceeded to Bristol having found that the 2034 Port Bn. was stationed in that area. We interviewed HENSLEY and after an interview with his officer commanding, Maj. D.N. CERVICE, he admitted he was S/Sgt. DeMONTFORT of the Canadian Army. He was placed under arrest, but it was not possible to take him back to London due to the fact that the unit was under quarantine for scarlet fever. We obtained the following statement from HENSLEY. (Begins)"I enlisted
0 April in the Canadian Army at Toronto, Ontario, Canada, 11 Sep 1939, after having left U.S.A. for the purpose of enlisting. I am an American citizen by firth, having been born at San Francisco, Calif., on the 11 Oct. 1903. When I enlisted in the Canadian Army, I used the name of Harold DeMONTFORT, and gave my place of birth as Victoria B.C. I went overseas with the Canadian Forces and went to Iceland in June 1940. From Iceland we came to England in November 1940.

In November 1942 I went on leave from the Canadian Army for nine days. I did not believe that I would be allowed to transfer from the Canadian Army to the American Army in England, as I had used an alias when I joined the Canadian Army. While still a member of the Canadian Army, I applied for enlistment in the American Army, at the Recruiting Office in London in November 1942. I was sworn in the American Army on the 7 Dec 42 while still a member of the Canadian Army. I have read the above statement and it is true.

7. On the 15 Mar 43, HENSLEY was brought to London for identification purposes. C.S.M. Diplock of 2 Cdn B.O.D., R.C.O.C. on the 22 Mar 43 came to London, and at the American detention Bks., Rochester Row, viewed a parade of six American soldiers, and from these picked out DeMONTFORT. C.S.M. Diplock made the following statement:
(Begins) "At 1530 hrs., 22nd March 1943, in company with Agent Callahan, I.D. P.M.G. APO 887, and Sgt. Gibbs, Canadian S.I.S. I proceeded to the Detention Barracks, London Base Command, APO 887, where an identification parade was drawn up, and from that parade I picked out S/Sgt DeMONTFORT previously of my unit. I have known this man over a period of roughly two years. The last time I saw this man in the Canadian Army and with my unit was in the fore part of November 1942 when he proceeded on leave. When I stated that I recognised DeMONTFORT as a S/Sgt., I was referring to the rank he held in my unit prior to going A.W.O.L.

8. On the 19 Mar HENSLEY gave the following statement to the American Authorities. He was properly warned in the manner laid down by the American regulations.

Pvt. George A. Hensley, it is my duty to inform you of your rights at this time. It is your privilege to remain silent. Anything you say may be used for or against you in the event that this investigation results in a trial. Do you thoroughly understand your rights?

(Sgn) George A. Hensley

(Statement) I was born 11 Oct 1903 at San Francisco Cal. I enlisted in the regular army of the United States on the 1st Oct. 1920 and was discharged 11 July 1921 as a Pvt with excellent character. Reason for discharge was reduction of the Army. I was a member of the Nat'l Guard of California from Oct .1923 to 1929 except for a three month interval when I was a member of the Enlisted Reserve Corps of the U.S. Army. I was in the Reserve Corps from Aug 1924 to Oct 1924. In Oct 1924 I was commissioned a 2nd Lt. in the Reserve Corps of the U.S. Army. I was not given active duty in the National Guard as an Officer until Dec.1925, but from the time I was commissioned until I obtained the active stetus I was an enlisted man in the Guard. I was an officer in the California National Guard from Dec 1925 to the latter part of 1929 during which time I served as a 2nd and a 1st Lt. in the Reserve Corps of the U.S. Army. All the service I have mentioned was served in my right name, George A. Hensley, and my discharges were honorable with character excellent. In January 1933 I became a member of the Enlisted Reserve Corps at Chicago, Ill., under the alias of Harvold DEMONTFORT. I was commissioned a 2nd Lt. in the Cavalry Res Corps of the U.S. Army in Oct. 1933 and about three years later I was commissioned a 1st Lt. I obtained these commissions under the alias DeMONTFORT. I served as an officer on active duty with the C.C.C. and periods of Military training from 1934 until 1939. My active duty was not continuous -- I had about two and a half years active duty as an officer under the alias Harould DeMONTFORT. I resigned my commission in March 1939 and enlisted in the Canadian Army Sept 11 1939 under the Alias DeMONTFORT. I was given the Ser. No.B66888 I arrived in England as a member of the Canadian Army in November 1940. While still a member of the Canadian Army I enlisted in the Army of the United States in London on 7 Dec 42. I enlisted in the U.S. Army here under my right name, George A. HENSLEY. I told the Recruiting Officer that I had just arrived in England and had come to this country as a stowaway. I was allowed to stay at the Casual Center on Green Street, London as a civilian for a few weeks until I was sworn into the Army of the United States. I stated to the American authorities that I was single, while actually I am married. The reason for saying this was that I had married under the name of DeMONTFORT, and I did not want to complicate matters. My wife received an allowance from the Canadian Government while I was in the Canadian Army. She is my lawful wife. I had been married before, also under DeMONTFORT, but my first wife died before I married again. I fully realise that I am in the Army of the United States under fraud, and that I am a deserter from the Canadian Army, but I am very desirous of remaining in the United States Army in any capacity. My reasons for assuming an alias were personal and I do not care to discuss the matter. When I deserted the Canadian Army, my unit was No. 2 Sub-Depot of No. 1 Canadian Base Ordnance Depot located at Woking, Surrey.

-ctd-

I have read my statement and it is true.
(Sgd) George A. Hensley
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 19th March 1943
(Sgd) Robert B.Carruth, Summary Court

DeMONTFORT is at the present time held by the American authorities in London, awaiting trial for Fraudulent enlistment in the United States Army. There is at present no suggestion when the trial will take place.

10. I have had conversation with DeMONTFORT, and from it I gather that his only desire is to remain in the American Army. He wished to know if it were possible for him to remain with the U.S. Army and not return to the Canadian Army at all. I informed him that he would most likely have to return to the Canadian Army for discipline.

11. American authorities have checked DeMONTFORT's previous military service under the name of HENSLEY and find it to be correct as contained in his statement. Canadian Records state that DeMONTFORT's wife, Adell DeMONTFORT, is now residing in Steel, Alabama, U.S.A., and at the time of enlistment was living at 558 Gerrard Street, Toronto, Ont. It is presumed that he had to present some proof upon enlistment that he was married, as there was some slight suspicion that he may have defrauded the Government by stating he was married when he actually was not.

12. A further report will be submitted after DeMONTFORT has been dealt with by the U.S. Army. True copies of all the above statements are held at this office.

The accused, B-66888 A/S/Sgt de Montfort, No. 2 Sub-Depot, 1 C.B.O.D., Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states as follows:-

"I am a citizen of the United States. From the age of nine, when I entered Military Academy, not a single year of my life has passed, except since I enlisted in the

ctd-

Canadian Army, without my being a member of a military organization in the United States. At the age of sixteen (16) I entered the United States Army. My last peace time service in the United States Army was as a First Lieutenant. I hold a United States Captain's Certificate of Capacity. I have completed over a hundred (100) United States Military Courses including those of the Small Arms Firing School and the Cavalry School. I am a graduate of the Texas Military College, a B.A. of the University of Chicago, and have been a post graduate student at Harvard. I have been a member of teams representing the United States Army in the National Matches. In many of my United States Army courses I have been trained to act as a division or brigade commander or as a General Staff Officer. My United States Military duties have included assignments as Camp Commander, Adjutant and Company Commander. In 1939 I resigned my commission in the United States Army and went to Canada to enlist. I started for Canada the day of Great Britain's declaration of war against Germany and enlisted 11 Sept.39 in the hope that my military education and training might be of value. I went to Iceland with the first Canadian contingent in June 1940. In November 1940 I landed in Britain, where I have since been. On 16 November 1942 I went on seven (7) days leave. Feeling that my lifetime of United States military training was being wasted and that I would be of far greater value to the Allied cause in the Army of my own country, as well as for patriotic reasons, I presented myself at United States Army Headquarters in England and was attached to the United States Army 17 November 1942, and in due course enlisted. In fact my military service has been uninterrupted. During the period of my seven (7) days leave and during the entire period of my absence I have been either attached or assigned to the United States Army forces in England. My reason for not applying for enlistment in the regular manner was because at the time no applications from Americans were being forwarded from my unit, No. 2 Sub-Depot, 1 C.R.O.D. At the time this seemed the only way and I was advised to take this step by a Canadian Officer who informed me that if I were accepted by the United States Army the Canadian Army would discharge me. I was doing well in the United States Army and had been given papers to fill out for a commission, when on 10 March 1943 I was located by the Canadian Authorities. My American Commanding Officer was anxious for me to remain in the United States Army. I was informed by those officers who were concerned with the case that the wisest course for me was to be discharged from the United States Army and then to enlist again following the procedure for the enlistment of Americans serving with the Canadian Army. My American Commanding Officer said he hoped to see me back soon. I feel that although the letter of the law may have been violated, the spirit has not. I hope to be allowed to return to the United States Army and shall be proud to have my Canadian service entered on my American service record.

In regards to the name I used with the United States Army in England, my grandmother made a second marriage. Hensley was the name of my step-grand-father. I used it during the first part of my life but changed it over a dozen years ago to the one I now bear, taken from my grandfather. This was done for purely family reasons. My academic diplomas, all my American military training from 1930 to 1939 and my married life have been under the name I now bear and which I intend to keep. I only used Hensley because I thought it might facilitate matters, but intended to have the American records amended to De Montfort as soon as practicable.

This is the only statement which I have made in this matter in my own words and composition.

Signed. Harold de Montfort B-66988

The accused declined to call any witnesses in his defence.

I certify that the foregoing summary of evidence consisting of three (3) pages was taken down by me in writing in the presence of the accused and rules of procedure 4 (C), (D), (E) and (F) have been complied with.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of evidence in the case of B 54826 L/Cpl Dempsey, E.M., R. Regt C. att No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp, charged with, when on active service wilfully injuring himself with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service (AA Sec 18(2)). alternative. When on active service neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (AA Sec 40).

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS . Capt W.E. Armour RCAMC, No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp, sworn, states:

I am Capt W.E. Armour, Medical Officer No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp. L/Cpl Dempsey was admitted in my ward on 25 Jul 44 from No 84 Brit Gen Hosp suffering from a wound of the right foot incurred on the 12 Jul 44, according to medical reports accompanying him. The wound perforates the second toe of the right foot fracturing the proximal phalanx at the proximal interphalangeal joint. He has been fit for duty since the beginning of September 1944. In my opinion the wound could have been caused by a small arms projectile fired from a weapon held by the man himself. There is nothing to show at what distance from the wound the weapon might have been fired.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Witness

SECOND WITNESS. C 30918 C.S.M. Tait, T.B., No 1 S.I.S. First Cdn Army , sworn, states:

On 20 Sep 44 I interviewed L/Cpl Dempsey whom I now recognize as the accused at No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp. I informed him who I was and I informed him that I had in my possession a statement purporting to have been made by him in the presence of Sgt Harrison and Sgt Southers of No1 S.I.S. on 27 Jul 44 and bearing in two places the signature of "E.M. Dempsey". I informed him that it was desired he should reaffirm or otherwise the authenticity of this document as a statement made by him. I cautioned the accused in these words. "You do not have to say any thing unless you wish to do so but anything you do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence". The accused then made a statement which I reduced to writing and which he signed after same being read over to him and he having read same. The attached statement was also read over to the accused and he read same. The statement given by L/Cpl Dempsey refers to the second statement I produce. There were no threats or promises made to make him give this statement.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness

Witness

The statements referred to in the evidence of the above witness are attached hereto as Exhibits "A" and "A1".

3RD WITNESS . Major W.G. Ewen, RCAMC, No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp.

I certify that in my opinion the attendance of this witness is, owing to the exigencies of the service not readily procurable, and a written statement of his evidence, signed by him, has been read to the accused and is attached hereto as Exhibit "B"

Officer taking Summary.

I do not require the attendance of Major W.G. Ewen, for the purpose of cross-examination.

Accused

The accused is cautioned as follows:

Do you wish to make a statement or give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say any thing or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you do say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

"I have nothing to say right now"

The accused does not call any witnesses.

I certify that the foregoing summary of evidence consisting of two pages was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that R.P. 4 (C) (b) (Z) (Y) and (G) have been complied with.

Officer detailed to take summary of evidence.

EVIDENCE

B 54826 Pte HENRY MICHEAL DEMPSEY: sworn states

Born Westmeath, Ont. 17 Feb 1921, Went to country public school for 1 year and a half. Home broke up when I was 9. Mother lost h r mind and after that my father drank quite a bit and uncle and I worked on his far, until he died later did odd jobs and when I joined up was working as a mucker at "Dome" mines at wage of 63¢ an h ur. On 24 Jul 40 enlisted with Algonquin Regt and trained with them and R.R. of C. arrived U.K 42. France 4 Jul44 Married 8 Jan 44 in England. Wife lives in Susex and she is expecting about 18 Nov 44. This had some bearing on my condition. This is the first opportunity of setting up a home. Planned to go back to mines in Canada after the War. Everything came at once the first night I was there, That got me. I am not afraid of fighting if it had only come on more gradually. I would have been able to stand it. The trench was only about two feet deep. Morter bombs were coming over, we were in an orchard and the bombs hit the trees and scattered all over. I don't know if the safety catch was on or off I guess when I put tracer bullet in the breach I must have left it off. I don't know whether I pointed the rifle at my foot. I don't know whether I shot myself or not. Never had intention of shooting myself. I joined the army to stay up at the front longer than one day and expected to learn something. My wife does not know anything about it. If I was given a chance to go back to the line with the Alg Regt R.R.of C. I would like to prove that I did not do it intentional y. Parents born in Canada.

BY PROSECUTOR

Q Did you get out of the trench to deepen it?
A Yes Sir
Q Was there firing at the time?
A It had quietened down but still firing.
Q Your platoon Officer walked along and told you to dig your trench deeper?
A He did not just walk along, he was sometimes crawling and running from trench to trench.
Q Remember in your statement upt said "I had all I could stand".
A Yes, I made that statement.
Q Isn't that the reason you were w unded?
A I don't know Sir.
Q Where did the Bullet go through your foot?
A Accused indicated centre of his boot halfway between centre of laces and toe of same.
Q In your statement you said "I must have fired my rifle into my foot" and that coupled with your statement "I had all I could stand".
A No Sir.
Q You told the psychiatrist that you had nothing on your crime sheet?
A No Sir. I told him about my fights with the Americans.
Q You knew about your crime sheet?
A Yes Sir.
Q As you were questioned by the psychiatrist did he put down the answers in his own handwriting?
A Yes Sir.
Q As each question was asked did he write down the answer?
A Yes Sir.
QYou told the Psychiatrist you were confused?
A Yes Sir.
Q You did not tell him that you got out of the trench to dig it deeper?
A I don't re-call Sir It was so long ago.
Q Were you not telling the truth to the psychiatrist or are you not telling the truth now.
A There is no use in saying any more.

RE-EXAMINATIO BY DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q You stated you were willing to return to the front line?
A I feel ashamed of myself and I want to go back I think I can stand it now. I think I would be better with some Medical Corps.
RULED OVER RULE 83 B.

PLEA IN MITIGATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER:

This accused has been under hospital care since 12 Jul 44. It is now the 28 Sep 44 i.e 78 days. Under the circumstances I would suggest that it is time for a further psychiatrist's report. The one in the summary is based on the man's general condition at that time. I submit to the Court that his condition in this respect in so far as battle exhaustion is concerned has materialy changed and that the accused is now fit to return to service. He has expressed the desire to do so. He is ashamed of himself. The question IS even if the Court were to decide on a suspension, to give him a second chance, would this be a case wherein the accused would be of any real value in an Infantry Battalion. My own view is. The accused, although presentl sentenced to normaley is not mited for anything more than base or L. of C. duties he has worked at this hospi al since he came here and has made good progess at this type of work. I thereby consider that the point of outstanding importance in this matter, in sofar as constructive disposition is concerned lies in having this man receive further psychiatric attention. This will reaffirm or otherwise the report made on record and I ask the Court to make such a recommendation as will ensure such for this action by senior authority.

Born Westmeath, Ont 17 Feb 1921. Went to Country public school for 1 yr and half. Home broke up when I was 9. Mother lost her mind and after that my father drank quite a bit and home was broken up. I was adopted by an uncle and I worked on his farm until he died and later had odd jobs and when I joined up was working as a trucker at "Dome" mines at wage of $ 60 a month. Then 29 Jul 40 enlisted with Algonquin Regt and trained with them and R H of C. arrived U K Aug 42. Transf 4 Jul 44 Married 7 Jan 44 in Eng. Wife lives in Ottawa and she is expecting about 12 Dec 44. This had some bearing on my condition. This is the first opportunity I've had of setting up a home. Planned to go back to mines in Canada after war. Everything came at once the first night I was there. that got me, I am not afraid of fighting if it had only come on more gradually I would have been able to stand it. The trench was only about 2' deep. Mortar bombs were coming over we were in an orchard and the bombs hit the trees and scattering all over. I don't know if safety catch was On or Off I guess when I put round bullet in the breech I must have left it Off. I don't know whether I pointed the rifle at my foot. I don't know whether I shot myself or not. Never had intention of shooting myself. Joined the army to stay up at the front longer than one day and expected to learn something. My wife does not know anything about it. If I was given a chance I would go back to the line with the Edmonton R H of C. to prove that I did not do it intentionally. Parents born in Canada.

A. He did not just walk along, he was sometimes crawling and running from trench to trench.

Q. Remember in your statement you said "I had all I could stand"?

A. Yes, I made that statement.

Q. Isn't that the reason you were wounded?

A. I don't know, sir.

Q. Where did the bullet go through your foot?

A. Entered underside centre of his boot halfway between centre back and the heel.

Q. In your statement you said "I must have fired my rifle into my foot" and that coupled with your statement "I had all I could stand" is the reason you shot yourself in the foot?

A. No, sir

Q. You told yourself the psychiatrist that you had nothing on your crime sheet?

A. No, sir. I told him about my fights with the Americans.

Q. You knew about your crime sheet?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you not telling the truth to the psychiatrist or are you not telling the truth now.

A. There is no use in arguing any more

"This accused has been under ~~care~~ Hospital care since 12 July 44. It is now the 28th of Sept. i.e. 78 days. The circumstances would suggest that it is time for a further psychiatric report. The one in the Summary is based on the man's general condition at that time. I submit to the Court that his condition in this respect is so far as ~~his~~ his condition in battle exhaustion is concerned has materially changed and that this accused is now fit to return to ~~service~~ duty. He has expressed the desire to do so. He is ashamed of himself. The question is, can if the Court sees fit decide to ~~a~~ suspension, ~~would~~ this be a case wherein the accused would be of value in an Infantry ~~Coy~~ Regt.

battalion? In my view it is that the accused, although presently attached Shornaley, is not suited for anything more than base or L. of C. duties. He has now been at this Hospital since he came here and has made good progress at this type of work.

I therefore consider that the point outstanding in importance in this matter, insofar as any construction of his disposition is concerned, is as to having this man receive further psychiatric attention. This will reaffirm or otherwise the report now on record and I ask the Court to make such recommendation as will ensure such further action by Senior Authority."

Sentence of Imprisonment with Hard Labour for 2 years.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of evidence in the case of B.84826 L/Cpl Dempsey, E.M., R.Regt.C. att No 7 Cdn Gen Hospital, charged with, when on active service wilfully injuring himself with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service (AA Sec 18(2)), alternative, when on active service neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (AA Sec 40).

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness Capt W.E. Armour, RCAMC, No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp, sworn, states:

I am Capt W.E. Armour, Medical Officer No 7 Cdn Gen Hospital. L/Cpl Dempsey was admitted in my ward on 26 Jul 44 from No.84 Brit Gen Hospital suffering from a wound of the right foot incurred on the 12 Jul 44, according to medical reports accompanying him. The wound perforates the second toe of the right foot fracturing the proximal phalanx at the proximal interphalangeal joint. He has been fit for duty since the beginning of September 1944. In my opinion the wound could have been caused by a small arms projectile fired from a weapon held by the man himself. There is nothing to show at what distance from the wound the weapon might have been fired.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Witness

Second Witness C.30818 C.S.M. Tait, T.B., No.1 S.I.S., First Cdn Army, sworn, states:

On 20 Sep 44 I interviewed L/Cpl Dempsey whom I now recognize as the accused at No.7 Cdn Gen Hospital. I informed him who I was and I informed him that I had in my possession a statement purporting to have been made by him in the presence of Sgt Harrison and Sgt Southers of No.1 S.I.S. on 27 Jul 44 and bearing in two places the signature of "E.M. Dempsey". I informed him that it was desired he should re-affirm or otherwise the authenticity of this document as a statement made by him. I cautioned the accused in these words, "You do not have to say anything unless you wish to do so but anything you do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence". The accused then made a statement which I reduced to writing and which he signed after same being read over to him and he having read same. The attached statement was also read over to the accused and he read same. The statement given by L/Cpl Dempsey refers to the second statement I produce. There were no threats or promises made to make him give this statement.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Witness

The statements referred to in the evidence of the above witness are attached hereto as Exhibits "A" and "A1".

Third Witness — Major W.G. Ewen, RCAMC, No 7 Cdn Gen Hospital.

I certify that in my opinion the attendance of this witness is, owing to the exigencies of the service not readily procurable, and a written statement of his evidence, signed by him, has been read to the accused and is attached hereto as Exhibit "B"

Officer taking Summary.

I do not require the attendance of Major W. G. Ewen, for the purpose of cross-examination.

Accused.

The accused is cautioned as follows:

Do you wish to make a statement or give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you do say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

"I have nothing to say right now"

The accused does not call any witnesses.

I certify that the foregoing summary of evidence consisting of two pages was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that R.P. 4 (C) (D) (E) (F) and (G) have been complied with.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of evidence in the case of S.24626 L/Cpl Dempsey, E.M., R.Sgt.C. att No 7 Cdn Gen Hospital, charged with, when on active service wilfully injuring himself with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service (AA Sec 12(2)), alternative, when on active service neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (AA Sec 40).

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness Capt W.E. Armour, RCAMC, No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp, sworn, states:

I am Capt W.E. Armour, Medical Officer No 7 Cdn Gen Hospital. L/Cpl Dempsey was admitted in my ward on 25 Jul 44 from No.84 Brit Gen Hospital suffering from a wound of the right foot incurred on the 12 Jul 44. According to medical reports accompanying him, the wound perforates the second toe of the right foot fracturing the proximal phalanx at the approximal interphalangeal joint. He has been fit for duty since the beginning of September 1944. In my opinion the wound could have been caused by a small arms projectile fired from a weapon held by the man himself. There is nothing to show at what distance from the wound the weapon might have been fired.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Witness

Second Witness C.20618 C.S.M. Tait, T.H., No.1 S.I.S., First Cdn Army, sworn, states;

On 20 Sep 44 I interviewed L/Cpl Dempsey whom I now recognise as the accused at No.7 Cdn Gen Hospital. I informed him who I was and I informed him that I had in my possession a statement purporting to have been made by him in the presence of Sgt Harrison and Sgt Southers of No.1 S.I.S. on 27 Jul 44 and bearing in two places the signature of "E.M. Dempsey". I informed him that it was desired he should re-affirm or otherwise the authenticity of this document as a statement made by him. I cautioned the accused in these words, "You do not have to say anything unless you wish to do so but anything you do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence". The accused then made a statement which I reduced to writing and which he signed after same being read over to him and he having read same. The attached statement was also read over to the accused and he signed after same being read over to him and he having read same. The statement given by L/Cpl Dempsey refers to the second statement I produce. There were no threats or promises made to make him give this statement.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness

Witness

The statements referred to in the evidence of the above witness are attached hereto as Exhibits "A" and "A1".

Officer detailed to take summary of evidence.

The accused arrived in Normandy in 2 Jul44 and he was injured 12 Jul 44

FIRST WITNESS PROSECUTION — Capt R.C. Anderson att No 8 Cdn Gen Hosp duly sworn states

I recognize the accused he is a patient under my care He was admitted to hospital with a wound in second left toe in right foot. It was a through and through wound. The scars are such that the wound could have been inflicted by a rifle bullet, and the weapon held in the mans own hand. There was a fracture. The scars are completly healed. The accused is quite fit for duty.

CROSS EXAMINATION. The accused is quite fit to return to duty.
R.P. 83 (B) complied with.

SECOND WITNESS — A 55251 Sgt Harrison J.T. No 1 Special Investigation Section No 1 Cdn Army duly sworn states

I recognize the accused. I interviewed him at No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp on 27 Jul 44. There was present Sgt Suthers. I identified myself to the accused and told him I was inquiring into the circumstances regarding a wound in his right foot. I cautioned him in the following words
You do not have to say anything unless you want to do so but whatever you do say will be taken down in writing and may be given as evidence.
After the accused had signed the caution he gave me a statement in writing which was read by the accused before signing it. The statement is Produced as exhibit A. It was given voluntarily. The defence has no objection to the statement.

CROSS EXAMINATION. I believe the statement given to was taken on the 27 Jul 44. I went out with the accused at 1100 hrs and he told me when his wound had happened. Our conversation was friendly. There was only Sgt Suthers present in the jeep at that time. There was no conversation in which the accused suggested that the statement he had given was untrue. I do not admit that there was any other version of the accusdes statement except what was contained in it

Q I suggest that the accused did give another version which you stated to him was fantastic.

A I did not give any such version. I remember the occasion quite clearly.

Q Is it true that the jeep was stopped during the course of the journey and you got out with the accused and he gave you his version of how this wound had happened.

A The accused sat in the jeep, in the seat beside the drivers seat. I occupied the drivers seat. Sgt Suthers got out of the jeep. There was no demonstration of how the accident happened.
R.P. 83 (B) complied with.

Q Was accused walking then.

A Yes

Q Prosecutor suggested that accused said he would get back to unit quickly as possible.

A Yes

Q Was anything to indicate that this statement was not sincere------ A No

PROSECUTOR Q Is there anything else you have that you could assist the Court with.
A Nothing except that the accused was very straight-forward.

THIRD WITNESS Major Ewen, RCAMC ? Cdn Gen Hosp Qual.-MCOM Specializing-gen medicine.
Interviewed witness 28 Jul 44 as psychiatrist. He arrived in Normandy 4 Jul 44 and he went up to go into action on night 11-12 Jul 44. Presumably he recieved his wound during that night or in the morning of 12 Jul 44. He told me that she 1s were landing 88 and other shells but the from was not particularly active. Said the smell was terrible and the sight of the dead men upset him badly-nerves became worse and worse and he got into a slit trench almost terrified during morning his mate a bren gunner opened fire at something he thought he saw moving in the half light- more morter and HE shells were coming down - became acutely terrified and greatly confused - jumped out of his slit trench and his mate said to him "You have a hole in your boot". -He said he did not feel any pain and did not know that he was hit. He looked down and saw the hole and figured he must have been hit. He said he presumed that it was his own rifle that went off but he doesn't remember when this occured. I did not press the matter as it was not my business- that concluded my interview with him- I had been through his life history previously a record of which I have done.

Report submitted as Exhibit B no objection by defence.
Q As result of interview can you assist the Court
A From my interview I would say that the accused was capable of forming an intent.
Q Did he say that he wanted to return to the line again.
A His attitude was that of a man whose moral was completely broken-completely unfit for front line soldier. He didn't care if he was called yellow and if he was sent back up he didn't know what would happen. He said he would be quite content to carry on in a rear area-he said he couldn't take action. I went into his record completely-he said he had had no civilian or Army crimes. On questioned he told about his fight in a pub.

CROSS EXAMINATION:
Q You interviewed accused 28 Jul 44 which is 110 days ago.
A Yes.
This mans attitude may Have changed since I last saw Him-may have built up some gurs but they are generaly only temporary and if they broke down once they usually do so again. My personal opinion is that he would not recov r. It might be useful to have a pyshicistrists examination. I suggest that he be sent before another doctor.
R.P. 83 (F) complied with.

DEFENDING OFFICERS ADDRESS

May it please the Court-the prosecutor has endeavored to establish on the first charge before you that the accused wilfully rendered himself unfit for service by wounding himself. Now inevery essence of that charge is the question of "intent" Intent must be established by the prosecutor beyond any reasonable doubt whatsoever before a conviction can be registered on the first charge. Let us consider the evidence then as to whether the prosecutor has discharged this onus. The first witness Capt Anderson a physician barely stated that it was possible that the wound in question could have been inflicted by a weapon held by the accused himself but it did not establish definately that such was the case. This witness also stated that the wound from which the accused had suffered is now completely healed and that he can be described as asoldier who is ready to go back to duty. The second witness for prosecution was Sgt Harrison of the S.I.B. Cdn Prov Corps. He interviewed the accused on the afternoon of 27 Jul 44, that is to say two days after the soldier was admitted to Hospital and it is not denied that at said interview there was also present one Sgt Sutherst of the RCMP and he produces a statement proporting to have been taken from the accused at this particular time in which the accused to use this Sgt's own words appeared to have been very straightforward and sincere and he also gave this Sgt the impression to use this Sgt's own words again that he was sincere in his desire to return to action. Now gentlemen I have no doubt that this Sgt was merely carrying out his Military duty when the interview took place, but I would remind you that at the time the said statement was made the accused's morale was extremely low and I ask you to take into consideration the fact that as a result of this it is well within the realm of possibility that this soldier said a good many things on the spur of the moment as this was the weak frame of mind he was suffering at the time and I say to you that it is highly probable is it not that without having had a few more days under which to regain his stability it would hardly fair to say that this statement was made under ideal and reasonable circumstances and it would follow from this course of logic then, that one word unable to convict a man on his own evidence. Then gentlemen we come to the evidence of the pyshiciatrist Major Ewen by name who had an interview with the accused on the 28 Jul 44 that is to say three days after that this accused was in a very upset condition when the statement referred to by Sgt Harrison was taken. This fact it is admitted by the inference would purely indicate the condition of the accused when the statement was taken by Sgt Harrison. For Sgt Harrison's interview only took place the day before. Again Maj Ewen when asked about the capability of the accused to for m an intent-admitted that this was a difficult question to answer, that is to give an exact answer. And he said that he could only base his answer which was in the affirmative on the various considerations he had taken into account in making his physic analysis finally Major Ewen when reminded that 110 days had elapsed since he had examined the accused had admitted the possibility of his character having changed during this interval. And that even though it might be the exception to the rule there was that possibility that the accused had changed in his stability and that as a result I say one can infer his present state of stability to aquit himself with honor in the line. Now gentlemen ultimately this may to you after having called to your attention and anglysed the entries of the prosecution that there is insufficient evidence to convict on the first charge and since a prima facia case has not been made out the accused being innocent until proven guilty to that reasonable benefit of doubt. Coming to the second charge I w uld merely say that if you consider this man in the heat of battle and in the dire circumstances so clearly portrayed to you at the time this happened if you can say he was blameworthy under such circumstances I cannot.

only say I do not feel it would be the conclusion of a reasonable man which is your test, and I alone then by merely stating that it is the submission of the defence that both charges should be dismissed and that the accused should be sent back to his Unit this afternoon in order that he may prove to soldiering his ability to acquit himself with honor alongside his comrades.

In this Court one cannot allow himself to be sympathetic where the morale and discipline of the army are at stake.

PLEA IN MITIGATION

You have before you this afternoon an C/m Infantryman who is proud of the Regt he calls his own-Royal Regt of Canada. And there is good reason for his pride when one considers its battle honors in the last war, the job it has done to help preserve humanitarian ideals in this one. There is only then gentlemen one question which the accused is weighing in his mind and that is this "Am I worthy of the great body of C/m soldiers". Gentlemen the answer to that question by the accused is that he is worthy and to show his good faith in making this submission he asks you but one request namely to allow him to go back and prove to you that he is right that this whole unfortunate incident occured because he was the victim of an extremely harrassing experience when he first made his attempt in action in this theatre. He does not ask you to view what occured sentimentally for he knows that military Law like all law is not concerned with sentiment in fact he says this was a new experience in my life. I had never experienced anything in serenity like it before but I know now and I feel that I can aquit myself with honor. I can prove to you that my mind at the time I did this was incapable of forming the intent necessary to carry out such a dastard act. His last and only appeal to you then gentlemen is to the effect that you allow him to return at the earliest possible moment that he is what he says he is and that he will not let his country or his corps down but rather will be go back and shoulder the burdens to the best of his ability so that he can meet any man in future on equal and conscientious terms.

I am B-54826, L/Opl. Dempsey, Emery Norton. I made a statement in writing to Sgt. Harrison of No.1 Special Investigation Section, on the 27 July 1944. That statement is the one which S.S.M. 'SELF INFLICTED WOUND'

1. On 27 July 44, whilst engaged on investigations at the 7th. Cdn Gen Hospital, the writer in company with Sgt. Harrison, saw the above mentioned soldier who was undergoing treatment for a rifle bullet wound in the right foot. This injury occurred on 12 July 44 during the fighting in the Caen Area, and it was suspected that it was a case of self infliction.

2. DEMPSEY, when interviewed by the writer and Sgt. Harrison, claimed the injury was purely accidental. After being questioned as to the circumstances he admitted that he had shot himself. A voluntary statement, taken under caution, was obtained and reads as follows:-

BEGINS.

I have been cautioned by Sgt. Harrison of No.1 Special Investigation Section, First Cdn Army, that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say willbe taken down in writing and may be given as evidence.

To show that I have read over and understand this caution First I sign my name here.

(Sgd) E.M. Dempsey

Early in the morning of the twelfth of July 44, while holding down a position in a slit trench in the front line near Caen, I was waiting for orders as to when the advance was to start. At about 03.00 hrs No. 1 of the Bren gun, Pte. Granger, fired a burst which woke me up. I had been sleeping for an hour. I got up and put ten rounds in the magazine and one tracer in the breech of my rifle. The reason for putting tracer in my breech was to identify the target for the Bren gunner. I asked Pte. Granger what he was shooting at and he said that he had seen something move ahead of us. I looked around but couldn't see what he was firing at. About fifteen or twenty minutes after this, the enemy opened up with M.E. mortar bombs which continued for about an hour and a half or two hours. There were two corpses lying on the parapet of the trench, one of an English soldier and the other a Jerry. They both smelled very strongly. From time to time these bodies were repeatedly hit by bomb fragments and their positions changed by the blast of the bombs. The smell became almost unbearable. During the shelling two of my section had been carried out by stretchers. During this time I got down well rattled up and was shaking with fright. During a short lull in the firing Pte Granger suggested that we dig the trench deeper because a lot of earth had been blown back into the trench and there was a lot of blood in there from others who had been either wounded or killed before we occupied it. The longer I stayed in the trench the more unnerved I became. Frankly, I was almost out of my head and shivering from the concussion. I remember throwing my small pack out of the trench. My rifle without the 'Safety' on was standing alongside of me. I grabbed my rifle to jump out of the trench. I had stood all I could stand. I don't know exactly just what went wrong with me, at any rate I must have fired my rifle into my foot. The mortaring had so dazed me that it is pretty hard to tell you just what happened. I got out of the trench and heard someone shout, 'Stretcher bearer' Dempsey got shot in the foot," a stretcher bearer came along and took off my boot, although the wound was bothering me, I told him to put a dressing on it and leave me there. He said that I would have to go back out. About the rifle not having the safety catch on, I did not know that it was not on. I have read over this statement and it is true.

3. This man appears to be quite straight forward and gave the impression that he had endeavoured to do his upmost whilst fighting in the front line. Dempsey stated that he would like to have another try at the front line.

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

Q. You returned accused 18 Jul. 40. Did in 110 days ago -
A Yes.

His whole attitude may have changed since Pet saw him - may have built up some quite but they are generally only temporary as if the broken down they usually do so again. My personal opinion is Pet. he would not recover. It might be useful to have a psychiatric exam. I suggest Pet. be sent before another doctor.

DOCK

Defending Officer Address.

May it please the court. The prosecution have endeavoured to set on the 11th Charge before you Pet. his accused wilfully rendered himself unfit for service by wounding himself Now the only essence of Pet. charge is the question of "intent". In Pet. I may must be set by the prosecution beyond any reasonable doubt whether before a court-martial can be regarded as of first class. Let us consider the evidence then to see whether the prosecution has discharged this onus. The first witness Capt. Anderson a physician very clearly stated that it was possible that the wound in question could have been inflicted by a weapon held by the accused himself, but it did not state directly that such was the case. His testimony does state that the wound from which the accused had suffered in war completely healed and that he can be described as a soldier who is ready to go back to duty. The next witness for the prosecution was Sgt Harmer of the R.C.A.M.C. Section Base Prov. Corps. He informed the accused on the afternoon of 27 July that in three days after the soldier was admitted to hospital it is not denied that at said interview there was also present one Sgt. ~~MUTHERST~~ SUTHERST of the R.C.M.P. and he produced a statement purporting to have been taken from the accused at this particular time in which the accused is said to have made very straightforward and sincere and he also gave the sgt the impression that he was sincere in his desire to return to action. Now gentlemen I have no doubt that the sgt was merely carrying out his military duty when the interview took place but I would remind you that at the time the said statement was made the accused's morale was extremely low and I ask you to take into consideration the fact that as a result of this it is well within the realm of possibility that the soldier said a good many things on the spur of the moment as the war the weak frame of mind he was suffering from at the time and I say to you that it is highly probable is it not that constant leaving had a few more days under which to regain his stability it would be hardly fair to say that this statement was made under ideal or reasonable circumstances and it would follow from the course of logic then that one unable to commit a man on his own evidence then gentlemen we come to the evidence of the physcologist Maj Ewen by name who had an interview with the accused on the 28 July that is to say three days after the accused admission to [illegible] Gen Hospital this physcologist admits that this accused was in ~~an extraordinary disturbed state of mind when the statement referred to by Lieut Harrison was taken~~ a very upset condition when the statement referred to by Lieut Harrison was taken this fact it is admitted by the inference would purely indicate the condition of the accused when the statement was taken by Lieut Harrison for Lieut Harrison interviewed and took place the day before - Again Maj Ewen when asked about the capability of the accused to form an intent admitted that this was a difficult question upon which to give an exact answer and he said that he could only base his answer which was in the affirmative on the various examinations he had taken of the accused in making his physcoanalysis finally Maj McEwen when examined the 11th days had elapsed since he had examined the accused had admitted the possibility of his character having changed during the interval and that one could not might be the exception to the rule but was that possible that the accused had changed in his stability and that as a result I may one can infer his present state of culability to acquit himself with honour in the hire. Now gentlemen although the Army is upon the law called it. to your attention and analysed the evidence of the prosecution that law is in all such evidence to consist on the first charge and upon a prima facie case has not been made out - the accused being innocent until proven guilty & that must be beyond doubt. Coming to the second charge I would merely say that if you consider the view in the light of battle and in the dire circumstances as clearly portrayed to you at the time that happened if you can say he was blameworthy under such circumstances I can only say I do not feel it would be ~~in~~ the ~~concluding~~ conclusion of a reasonable man what is yours that and I done can by merely stating that it is the submission of the defence that both charges should be dismissed and that the accused should be sent back to his unit the afternoon to in order that he may prove to soldiers his ability to acquit himself with honour along side his comrades.

In the end we cannot allow himself to be sympathetic when the morale and discipline of the army are at stake

Plea in Mitigation

You have before you the case of a man who is proud of the Regt. he calls his own - Royal Regt. of Canada. and there is good reason for his pride when one considers the battle honors in the last war and he got it. You have to help preserve humanitarian ideals in this one there is only one question one question which the accused is weighing in his mind and that is this Am I worthy of the trust that has been placed in me as a member of this great body of Canadian soldiers. Gentlemen the answer to that question by the accused is that he is worthy and he places his good faith in making this submission to us asks you but one request namely to allow him to go back and prove to you that he is right that his whole unfortunate incident occured because he was the victim of an extremely harrowing experience when he first made his attempt in action in the West. He does not ask you to views what occurred rationally for he knows that mentality has little all have is not concerned with sentiment in fact he says this was a new experience in my life I had never experienced anything in anything like it before but I know now and I feel that I can acquit myself with honor - I can prove to you that my mind at the time I did this was incapable of forming the intent necessary to carry out such a dastardly act this last and only appeal to you then gentlemen is to be afforded that you allow him to return at the earliest possible moment that he is what he says he is and that he will not Let him carry on his comrades down but none will be so broad and shoulder the burden to the best of his ability so that he can meet any man in future on equal and conditions terms.

27 July/[illegible] Statement of B54826 Vol. 1
L/Cpl. E. M. Dempsey, 13 Platoon
6. Coy. Royal R[illegible] of Canada.

I have been cautioned by Capt Harrison of No. 1 Special Investigation Section, Provost Corps Army, that I do not have to say anything unless I wish to do so, but that whatever I do say, will be taken down in writing and may be given as evidence.
To show that I have read over and understand this Caution, I sign my name here E M Dempsey.

Early in the morning of the twelfth of July [illegible] while holding down a position in a slit trench in the front line near Caen, I was waiting for orders as to when the advance was to start. At about 0300 hrs B/[illegible] of the Brew gun

Pte Granger fired a burst which woke me up. I had been sleeping for an hour. I got up and put ten rounds in the magazine and one tracer in the breach of my rifle. The reason for putting tracer in my breach was to identify the target for the Brew gunner. I asked Pte Granger what he was shooting at and he said that he had seen something move ahead of us. I looked around but couldn't see what he was firing at. About fifteen or twenty minutes after this the enemy opened up with H. E. mortar bombs, which continued for about an hour and a half or two hours. There were two corpses lying on the parapet of the trench, one of an English soldier and the other a Jerry.

C

They both smelled very strongly
From time to time these bodies were repeatedly hit by bomb fragments and their positions changed by the blast of the bombs. The smell became almost unbearable. During the shelling two of my section had been carried out by stretchers.
During this time I got damn well rattled up and was shaking with fright. During a short lull in the firing the Sergeant suggested that we dig the trench deeper because a lot of earth had been blown back into the trench and there was a lot of blood in there from others who had been either wounded or killed before we occupied it.
The longer I stayed in the trench the more unnerved I became Frankly, I was almost out of my head and shaking from the

C.C.

conversion. I remember throwing my small pack ~~[illegible]~~ out of the trench. My rifle without the "safety" on was standing alongside of me. I grabbed my rifle to jump out of the trench. I had stood all I could stand. I don't know exactly just what went wrong with me at any rate I must have fired my rifle into my foot. The mortaring had so dazed me that it is pretty hard to tell you just what happened. I got out of the trench and heard someone shout "Stretcher bearer" Dempsey got shot in the foot" a stretcher bearer came along and took off my boot, although the wound was't bothering me
I told him to put a dressing on it and leave me there. He said that I would have to go back out. About the rifle not having the safety catch on. I did not know that it was not on.

I have read over this statement and it is true

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of evidence in the case of B 54826 L/Cpl Dempsey, E.M., R. Regt C. att No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp, charged with, when on active service wilfully injuring himself with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service (AA Sec 18(2)). alt native. when on active service neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (AA Sec 40).

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS . Capt W.E. Armour. RCAMC, No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp, sworn, states:

I am Capt W.E. Armour. Medical Officer No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp. L/Cpl Dempsey was admitted in my ward on 26 Jul 44 from No 84 Brit Gen Hosp suffering from a wound of the right foot incurred on the 12 Jul 44, according to medical reports accompanying him. The wound perforates the second toe of the right foot fracturing the proximal phalanx at the proximal inter phalangeal joint. He has been fit for duty since the beginning of September 1944. In my opinion the w und could have been caused by a small arms projectile fired from a weapon held by the man himself. There is nothing to show at what distance from the w und the weapon might have been fired.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Witness

SECOND WITNESS. C 30818 C.S.M. Tait, T.E., No 1 S.I.S. First Cdn Army , sworn, states:

Dempsey". I informed him that it was desired he should re-affirm or otherwise the authenticity of this document as a statement made by him. I cau tioned the accused in these words. "You do not have to say any hing unless you wish t o do so b t anything you do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence". The accused then made a statement which I reduced to writing and which he signed after same being read over to him and he having read same. The attached statement was also read over to t e accused and he read same. The statement given by L/Cpl Dempsey refers to the second statement I produce. There were no threats or promises made to make him give this statement.

EVIDENCE

B 54826 Pte KERRY, MICHEAL DEMPSEY: sworn states

Born Westmeath, Ont. 17 Feb 1921, Went to country public school for 1 year and a half. Home broke up when I was 9. Mother lost h r mind and after that my father drank quite a bit and uncle and I worked on his far, until he died later did odd jobs and when I joined up was working as a mucker at "Dome" mines at wage of 63¢ an h ur. On 24 Jul 40 enlisted with Algonquin Regt and trained with them and R.R. of C. arrived U.K. 42. France 4 Jul44 Married 8 Jan 44 in England. Wife lives in Susex and she is expecting about 18 Nov 44. This had some bearing on my condition. This is the first opportunity of setting up a home. Planned to go back to mines in Canada after the War. Everything came at once the first night I was there, That got me. I am not afraid of fighting if it had only come on more gradually. I would have been able to stand it. The trench was only about two feet deep. Morter bombs were coming over, we were in an orchard and the bombs hit the trees and scattered all over. I don't know if the safety catch was on or off I guess when I put tracer bullet in the breach I must have left it off. I don't know whether I pointed the rifle at my foot. I don't know whether I shot myself or not. Never had intention of shooting myself. I joined the army to stay up at the front longer than one day and expected to learn something. My wife does not know anything about it. If I was given a chance to go back to the line with the Alg Regt R.R.of C. I would like to prove that I did not do it intentionaly. Parents born in Canada.

BY PROSECUTOR

Q Did you get out of the trench to deepen it?
A Yes Sir
Q Was there firing at the time?
A It had quietened down but still firing.
Q Your platoon Officer walked along and told you to dig your trench deeper?
A He did not just walk along, he was sometimes crawling and running from trench to trench.
Q Remember in your statement you said "I had all I could stand".
A Yes, I made that statement.
Q Isn't that the reason you were wounded?
A I don't know Sir.
Q Where did the bullet go through your foot?
A Accused indicated centre of his boot halfway between centre of laces and toe of same.
Q In your statement you said "I must have fired my rifle into my foot" and that coupled with your statement "I had all I could stand".
A No Sir.
Q You told the psychiatrist that you had nothing on your crime sheet?
A No Sir. I told him about my fights with the Americans.
Q You knew about your crime sheet?
A Yes Sir.
Q As you were questioned by the psychiatrist did he put down the answers in his own handwriting?
A Yes Sir.
Q As each question was asked did he write down the answer?
A Yes Sir.
Q You told the Psychiatrist you were confused?
A Yes Sir.
Q You did not tell him that you got out of the trench to dig it deeper
A I don't re-call Sir It was so long ago.
Q Were you not telling the truth to the psychiatrist or are you not telling the truth now.
A There is no use in saying any more.

RE-EXAMINATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q You stated you were willing to return to the front line?
A I feel ashamed of myself and I want to go back I think I can stand it now. I think I would be better with some Medical Corps.
[redacted] OVER RULE 83 B.

PLEA IN MITIGATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER:

This accused has been under hospital care since 12 Jul 44. It is now the 28 Sep 44 ie 78 days. Under the circumstances I would suggest that it is time for a further psychiatrist's report. The one in the summary is based on the man's general condition at that time. I submit to the Court that his condition in this respect in so far as battle exhaustion is concerned has materialy changed and that the accused is now fit to return to service. He has expressed the desire to do so. He is ashamed of himself. The question is even if the Court were to decide on a suspension, to give him a second chance, would this be a case wherein the accused would be of any real value in an Infantry Battalion. My own view is. The accused, although presentl sentenced to normalcy is not suited for anything more than base or L. of C. duties he has worked at this hospital since he came are and has made good progess at this type of work. I thereby consider that the point of outstanding importance in this matter, in sofar as constructive disposition is concerned lies in having this man receive further psychiatric attention. This will reaffirm or otherwise the report made on record and I ask the Court to make such a recommendation as will ensure such for this action by senior authority.

- - - -

FIRST WITNESS for the Prosecution

Lieut. H. R. Davis, No. 16 Coy, CFC, being duly sworn, states: "I am Lieut. H.R. Davis, No. 16 Coy, CWC and was in charge of the detachment at Heeze, Holland."

Examined by the Prosecutor

Q. 1 I am going to read you the charges against the Accused. (Charges are read.) The Court has decided that it will try the Accused on the two charges at the same time. Will you give the Court your evidence in respect of these two charges.

A. 1 I was in charge of the detachment at Heeze, Holland on the 21 Jan 45. At 1230 hrs. I was approached by Sgt. Dubois, my bush foreman. He stated that during the morning there were remarks and indications that the men were not going to work in the afternoon. He asked what should be done. I informed him that I would call the parade at the usual hour and see what developed. The parade was called at 1300 hours by Sgt. McArthur, A/CSM, from which there were no absentees with the exception of the regular kitchen and quarter store personnel. He was told at that time by the men they wished to see an officer and did not want to go to work. He therefore informed me of this. I immediately went to the parade and spoke to the corporals first, who were standing apart, as to the trouble. The answer was that the men did not want to go to work. I then asked the men their difficulties. I had numerous versions of it. One, namely Pte. Smith, stated that he would like Sundays off to go to church; another, Pte. Stringer, stated that the English engineers in the District were only working five and a half days a week and did not see why it was necessary for the Forestry Corps to work seven. I told the men this was not the English Army; that our orders came from the Canadian authorities and that we must abide by them. Pte. Smith then asked the question, "If this is the Canadian Army, why are we eating English rations.". My answer to that was that some of us had been eating these rations for four and a half years. I then told them that my instructions were to work seven days a week. They had had already most of Thursday afternoon off for a bath parade. I then ordered the men to board the trucks. No one moved. The second order was given, "Those wishing to go to work fall to the rear.". Still no one moved. At this point the remark was made by Pte. Dempsey that we could go to work on Sunday afternoon but that we could make up for it during the week. The exact words were, "We could fuck the dog during the week.". I then gave the third order, stating that I would give them two minutes to carry it out -- bush crews to board the trucks that were waiting. There was no one moved. In the interval, while waiting for the command to be carried out, there was another remark passed by Pte. Dempsey, of which the exact words cannot be recalled, but had the meaning of anyone boarding the trucks would be foolish. I then instructed Sgt. McArthur to detail two corporals and twelve other ranks to guard the camp. I put the Camp under close arrest. That is all, Sir.

Q. 2 How did you know that it was Pte. Dempsey that made those two remarks?

A. 2 Pte. Dempsey was standing immediately to my left in the front row.

Q. 3 Did you recognize his voice?

A. 3 I recognized his voice and also recognized his features.

Q. 4 Did you see his lips moving?

A. 4 Yes; because I looked directly at him.

Cross-Examined by Officer for the Defence

Q. 5 Mr. Davis, did Sgt. McArthur call the roll on this parade?

A. 5 No; he did not. It was not the custom to call the roll on the noon parade.

Q. 6 If he did not call the roll, how could he report to you that there were no absentees when there were some thirty odd men involved?

A. 6 Immediately after placing the camp under close arrest myself, Sgt. McArthur, and Sgt. Dubois checked the nominal roll.

Q. 7 Would you consider this an organized parade when there had been no roll called?

A. 7 It was an organized parade in as far as our custom has been in the Company.

Q. 8 Were the men formed up in a regular platoon or were they standing around in a group?

A. 8 They had been formed up in a regular platoon and when I went to the parade I call the men in a semi-circle.

Q. 9 Mr. Davis, you stated that you could not recall the exact words of Pte. Dempsey when he made the second statement. Is that correct?

A. 9 That is correct.

Q. 10 If Pte. Dempsey made this statement, do you suppose the meaning that you took was the same meaning as it was meant when given?

A. 10 Yes; it conveyed to me that meaning.

Q. 11 If Pte. Dempsey made this statement, could he have meant something else, as many meanings can be taken from a statement like this?

A. 11 No; I would say not.

Q. 12 When you had called the men into a semi-circle where were the corporals standing?

A. 12 The corporals were standing to my right a little to the rear between a tree and the trucks waiting to take them to work.

Q. 13 Were there any corporals standing among the men?

A. 13 There was not.

Re-Examined by the Prosecutor

Q. 14 Did you break the men off from their formal parade when you started to talk to them?

A. 14 I called them in a little closer and told them to gather around.

Q. 15 Were they then in an informal group?

A. 15 They were in an informal group in a semi-circle.

SECOND WITNESS for the Prosecution

E 38183 Sgt. McArthur, L.J., No. 16 Coy, CPC, being duly sworn, states:

Examined by the Prosecutor

Q. 1 Do you recognise the Accused?

A. 1 Yes, Sir.

Q. 2 I will read the charges against the Accused. (Charges are read.) Please give to the Court the evidence you have in respect of these charges.

A. 2 On 21 Jan 45, Sunday afternoon, I went over to fall in the gang and go to work in the bush. They all came outside and gave me the opinion they did not want to work Sunday afternoon before they saw an officer. I told them to stand fast and went over and got Mr. Davis. Mr. Davis came over and asked them the trouble, which amounted to the same thing -- They didn't want to work Sunday afternoon. He ordered the gang three times to get on the truck. No one obeyed. After the third order, as nobody obeyed, he placed them under close arrest to which I detailed a guard of twelve men. That is all.

Q. 3 Did you see the Accused present when the order was given?

A. 3 Yes, Sir

Q. 4 Do you consider it possible for him not to have understood them?

A. 4 No, Sir; it wasn't possible

Q. 5 When was the bush crew told that they would be working Sunday afternoon?

A. 5 Sunday morning.

Q. 6 Please describe in detail the formation of the group when the orders were given.

A. 6 They were just all standing around in a group. When Mr. Davis told them, he called them all around.

Q. 7 Was there any right hand marker or other formalities?

A. 7 No, Sir.

Q. 8 Did you hear the Accused make any remarks?

A. 8 Yes, Sir. He made the remark that we could go to work Sunday afternoon and fuck the dog all the rest of the week, which we don't.

Q. 9 Did you hear him say anything else?

A. 9 No, Sir.

Q. 10 How do you know that he made the statement that you have contributed to him?

A. 10 I was there listening to him.

Q. 11 Did you recognise the voice and see him speaking?

A. 11 I definitely saw him speaking, Sir.

Cross-Examined by Officer for the Defence

Q. 12 From this remark that you heard Pte. Dempsey say, would you take the meaning from it that he was refusing to go to work?

A. 12 No.

Q. 13 Did he make this remark to anyone in particular or was it just said?

A. 13 He made the remark to Mr. Davis.

Q. 14 Did he point to Mr. Davis and say, "I am directing this to you."?

A. 14 No.

Q. 15 That is the only remark you heard Pte. Dempsey say?

A. 15 Yes, Sir; the only one.

Q. 16 Where were the corporals standing?

A. 16 On the left of the squad I'd say.

Q. 17 Were they mixed with the men to any extent?

A. 17 No; they were not.

Q. 18 As A/CSM had you called the roll after you had blown the whistle?

A. 18 No, Sir.

Q. 19 When the men came out from their quarters, did they ask to see an officer or did they say, "We are not going to work."

A. 19 They said, "We are not going to work until we see and officer." was the opinion I got.

Q. 20 Did they see an officer?

A. 20 Yes.

THIRD WITNESS for the Prosecution

W 6452 Sgt. Dubois, A.J., No. 16 Coy. CPC, being duly sworn, states:

Q. 3 Were you present on the noon parade at Heeze on 21 Jan 45?

A. 3 I was after Mr. Davis came down.

A. 5 Yes, Sir.

Q. 6 Did Pte. Dempsey obey that order?

A. 6 No, Sir.

A. 7 I heard him speak, Sir, but I couldn't swear to what he said.

Q. 8 How far away from the group of men were you at that time?

I had a sore knee but I went on as the Orderly Corporal was away. When the whistle went at 1300 hrs. I went out and over to the other billets to get the men who were on light duty to cut some wood for the camp. While I was over there the men were all out in front of the billets. I heard that they weren't going to work that afternoon, so I hung around there just to see what was coming off. The Sergeant went over to get an officer as the men said they wanted to see an officer before they went to work. Mr. Davis came over from his billet and the fellows gathered around him and there was different conversations went on. He said that they were going to change the hour that the men went to work; that they were going to be more strict, or something to that effect. Then he gave an order to get on the truck. CLOSING ADDRESS BY OFFICER FOR THE DEFENCE

Mr. President, Members, and Honourable Opponent:

I would like to go over, briefly, the evidence brought out by the the Prosecution with regards to the two charges as laid against the Accused. Evidence was brought out in Mr. Davis's statement that he could not remember the exact words that the Accused had said when he ordered the men on to the truck, and yet he lays the charge of inciting other men to refuse to go to work. I have brought out evidence that there were considerable conversations being carried on in this group. The Prosecution has failed to bring forward any evidence by any witnesses who were standing anywhere in close proximity to the Accused. I have brought out evidence by witnesses who were standing next to the Accused, who stated they did not hear at any time Pte. Dempsey say anything that encouraged the men not to go to work. I have brought in six or seven witnesses to this fact and, in all probability, could have brought in most of the men in that group. I therefore say that with regards to the second charge no evidence was brought in by the Prosecution where the Accused incited other soldiers to refuse to perform their proper military duties. With regards to the first charge, I have established the fact that this was not by any means an organized parade and that there were in the vicinity of some thirty to forty men in the group, and, according to the rules of Section 9, Subsection 2, a lawful command must be a specific command to an individual. "Individual" means it must be an organized parade, which this was not, or "individual" could mean to a small group of men, which this was not. In summing up, Pte. Dempsey, therefore, did not disobey a lawful command given by a superior officer and the prosecution failed to bring out the fact that he incited other soldiers to not perform their proper military duties; that is not to work in the bush on Sunday afternoon, 21 Jan 45.

CLOSING ADDRESS OF THE PROSECUTOR

Two or three remarks that might be of value in deciding this case. When does a group become large? The Prosecution submits that a disobedience of an order given to a group of this size could quite legally be charged under Section 9, Subsection 2. The Defence went to some length to prove that the Accused did not state verbally that he refused to go to work. We do not contend that he did. We only say that he did not obey the order by action. Evidence for the Prosecution and the Defence does not agree, but both provide statements made by the Accused, and it is a matter for the Court to decide whether or not these statements would tend to incite the balance of the group. The evidence of witnesses on this point varies. One defence witness thought that the remarks made would incite the group. Others of them thought not, but, in any case, their evidence can only be an expression of their opinion and cannot, therefore, be considered conclusive. In short, it is a matter for the Court's decision. One other small matter to lay before the Court is the proper weight to be given to a mass of negative evidence such as has been produced by the Defence. There are many thousands of people, doubtless, who did not hear what was said on that particular Sunday. It is with those that did hear that the Court must be concerned. Thank you, Sir.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness — Lieut. M.R. Davis, No.16 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps, having been duly sworn, stated:-

I am a Lieutenant of No.16 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps. I was in charge of the woods operations of No.16 Company at Heeze. On Sunday, 21 January 45, at about 1230 hours, my woods foreman, Sgt Dubois, came to me and said that there had been indications during the morning that the men were not going to work in the afternoon. I told him that we would have a parade at 1300 hours and just see what developed. At 1300 hours, Sgt MacArthur, who was acting C.S.M., and had fallen in the parade, from which there were no absentees, came to me and told me that the men did not want to go to work but wanted to see an officer. I thereupon went over to the parade and asked the men there what the trouble was. One man, Pte Smid, said he would like Sundays off so he could go to church. Another man, Pte Stringer, said that the British Army was working only five and a half days per week and he didn't know why we should work seven. I told them that this was not the British Army but the Canadian and that we received our instructions from Canadian authorities. Pte Smid then asked that if this was the Canadian Army, why were we eating English rations. I replied that we had been eating British rations for four and a half years. I further explained that I had been instructed and ordered to work all day Sunday and some after 813, they had had most of Thursday afternoon off for [redacted] of washing. At that point Pte

(Sheet -4-)

The accused elects to cross-examine this witness.

Q.1. You said that when you came over to the parade that there were no Corporals standing among the men?

A.1 The Corporals were standing apart and I went to them first and asked them what the trouble was. The reply was that the men did not want to go to work.

Q.2 Cpl James was standing among us and asked you the first question when you came over - which was, "Why could we not get Sunday afternoon off". Is that correct or not?

A.2 To my knowledge I was not asked any question by Cpl James. When I first went over he was standing with Cpls Lawlis, Lescard and Ludwig behind a tree between the parade and the truck.

Q.3 Are you sure that I made any remark at all about anybody who went to the truck being foolish?

A.3 I am sure that you said words to that effect.

Q.4 Are you sure that I said we could go to work Sunday afternoon but make up for it during the week?

A.4 Yes, your exact words were, "We could work Sunday afternoon but we could fuck the dog during the week."

H.R. Davis

Witness: R36187 Sgt MacArthur, L.J. No.16 Company, Canadian Provost Corps. Having been duly sworn, states:-

He came over and asked the boys what was the trouble, and got the reply that they did not want to work on Sunday afternoon. The chap, Pte Reid, said that he thought it was pretty rotten for them to have to work all day Sunday when the others could go to church on Sundays. The Sergeant said he could go to work on Sunday, but he could also work the day during the week, which he didn't. Lieut Davis then ordered the entire crew to get on the truck that was waiting to take them to work. He ordered them three times and the last time he gave them three minutes but nobody moved. He then placed them all under close arrest and ordered me to detail a guard of twelve men and two Corporals.

Q.1 Do you recall any other remarks made by Dempsey?

A.1 There were several remarks passed and I cannot recall just who was the author, of each, or the words said.

Q.2 When were the men told they would be working Sunday afternoon?

A.2 They were told Sunday morning.

The accused elects to cross-examine this witness.

Q.1 Are you sure the words you used above were the exact words spoken by me?

A.1 Yes, I am positive.

Q.2 Sgt, do you remember where the Corporals were standing when Lieut Davis came over to us?

A.2 They were standing a short distance to the left of the main body, near a big tree that was between the men and the truck that was waiting to take them to work.

Q.3 Do you recall me saying anything about anybody getting on the truck being foolish?

A.3 I recall some such remark being passed but I do not know who said it or if these were the exact words.

Next Witness 2.(sgd) Cpl Coyderman, J.W., No. 16 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps. Having been duly sworn, stated:-

I am a Cpl of No. 16 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps. On Sunday, 21 January, '43, I was Orderly Cpl of the House detachment of No 16 Company.

3rd Witness (Cryderman)

At about 1300 hours I went over to the far billet to get some light duty men to cut wood for the camp stoves. I found that Sgt McArthur had left the group to get Lieut Davis, since the men of the bush crew had refused to go to work. I naturally stayed around to see what would happen and in a minute or two Lieut Davis arrived. I was standing to the rear and a little to one side of the group of men and heard several conversations regarding Sunday afternoon work. I remember distinctly hearing Pte Smid mentioning church and wanted to go to it. I did not see each of the fellows who had remarks to make and only recognized Smid because he was on the outside of the group. Then Lieut Davis ordered the men to get on the truck and go to work - nobody did. He repeated this order and gave them a time limit in which to obey. Still nobody got on the truck so he placed the bush crew under close arrest and instructed Sgt McArthur to put a guard on the billets.

Q.1 Did you hear Pte Dempsey made any remarks?

A.1 I heard various remarks but cannot swear who made them, with the exception, as I have mentioned, of Pte Smid.

Q.2 Did you see Pte Dempsey in the group?

A.2 I cannot recall seeing him in the group but I remember him walking away when the guards were called out and the group dismissed.

Q.3 Did you see Pte Dempsey get on the truck or go over towards the truck after Lieut Davis had given his orders?

A.3 No.

The accused elects to cross-examine this witness.

Q.1 Cpl Cryderman, do you remember if there was one group or two?

A.1 I can recall no separation - there seemed to be one group.

Q.2 Did you hear me say that if anyone got on that truck they would be damn fools?

A.2 No.

Q.3 Did you hear any such remarks as the above, (Q.2), from the group?

A.3 No.

Third Witness

Q.4 Did you hear me say that we would go to work this afternoon and pay up for it during the week?

A.4 No.

J.V. Cryderman

Fourth Witness H62501 Sgt Dubois, A.J., No.16 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am a Sergeant of No.16 Company, Canadian Forestry Corps. On 21 January 45, I was head bush foreman of the Heeze operation of No.16 Company. During the morning I heard a number of the men discussing the work on Sunday afternoon and I formed the impression that they would probably refuse to go to work, although at the same time I thought it might just be talk. I did not hear the accused, Pte Dempsey, join in the talk. At noon time I told Lieut Davis of the impression I had and he said that the fall-in would go as usual. At about 1300 hours, I was loading a tractor line onto the truck, to take it to the woods, while Sgt McArthur was getting the men out to work. I noticed him walking away from the parade and he told me that he was going to get an officer, as the boys had asked to see one. Very shortly afterwards Lieut Davis arrived on the scene and stood about twenty-five feet from the men, while I stood about the same distance behind him. He asked them what the trouble was and I heard several men speaking; two that I can remember and am sure of were Ptes Dempsey and Smid. I cannot quote their exact words because even at the time I could not hear them properly owing to their distance away. I did hear Lieut Davis order the men to get on the truck and go to work, and I heard him repeat the order a second time when he gave them a two minute period, in which to obey. Nobody moved either time.

The accused elects to cross-examine this witness.

Q.1 Are you sure you heard me say anything?

A.1 Yes, but I cannot give the exact words.

Q.2 Did you hear it said that any man that gets on that truck is a damned fool?

A.2 I cannot say that I did.

...ch Witness

Q.3 Did you hear anybody say that we could go to work this afternoon but could work the day during the week to pay up for it?

A.3 No, I was too far away to hear what you did say.

Q.4 Do you remember if their were two groups of men over there? Were the Corporals standing to a side or in with the men?

A.4 There were two groups - the Corporals were standing about ten feet to the left of the group of men.

(A.J. Dubois)

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

Q. Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

A. I want to made a statement on oath.

The accused, having been duly sworn, states:-

First of all, on Sunday, 21 January 45, at about 1250 hours, we went into our room. I was lying down on my bed. The other boys gathered in from the other rooms and said they were going to see the officer for to go to church and have a bath parade, instead of working on Sunday afternoon. So after the signal went for the men to pile out to work we went outside; Sgt McArthur was standing there. Cpl Lessard asked us if we wanted him to go and tell Sgt McArthur that we wanted to see an officer. The answer from the men was yes. Sgt McArthur went and got Lieut Davis and brought him over. While Sgt McArthur was gone the Corporals were discussing something among themselves and when Lieut Davis came over the Corporals were with the men. When he first came there he asked what was wrong and Cpl Lessard told the men wanted Sunday afternoon off. There were remarks from several of the men but the only one I can remember is Reid asking about going to church. Lieut Davis then said: 'You are now about twenty minutes late and I am giving you a direct order to get on the truck; any man who refuses to get on the truck stand aside.' He said, 'If I can't make you work I'll damn soon get someone that will.' I then said; 'That is the best thing to do.' He then said;

"Sgt MacArthur, pick out two Corporals and twelve men for a guard and place the rest under close arrest in their billets."

On Sunday, 21 January 45, at about 1300 hours, I was in the bush crew. We had asked to see Lieut Davis and he gave us a direct order to get on the truck. No one moved. He then said: "If I can't get you fellows to work, I will get someone who can." I heard Dempsey reply, "I think that would be a good idea." At that time I was standing four to six feet from Dempsey about in the centre of the group near the front. I am sure that that is all that Dempsey said.

Cross-examined by accused:

Q.1 Was there one or two groups and where were the Corporals standing?

A.1 It was all one group and the Corporals were with the men.

Q.2 Where was Sgt Dubois standing?

A.2 Slightly to the left in front - I would say about ten feet from the group of men.

On Sunday, 21 January 45, I was working repairing a Scotch Bunch. At about 1300 hours I saw a large group gathered round and went over to see what was going on. Very soon after I got there Lieut Davis appeared and asked them what was wrong. I remember Cpl James asking him why they had to work on Sunday afternoon, or words to that effect.

Second Witness called by the Defence

I was right close to Cpl James at that time. There were several men who had something to say but I cannot tell just who said what. I heard Lieut Davis saying that if he could get NCO who [illegible] he would get someone else. I remember Dempsey saying, "How should I know?" [illegible] Lieut Davis to [illegible] he turned. On Sunday, 21 January 45, the fall-in whistle blew just after dinner, about 1300 hours. Everybody turned out and the men asked to see Lieut Davis. He came over and the boys said they thought they could have Sunday afternoon off. There was quite a lot of talk and some mention of church but I couldn't name the fellows who did the talking or exactly what was said. At one time Lieut Davis said that if he couldn't handle the detachment he would get somebody who could. Dempsey replied that that wouldn't be a bad idea. All N.C.Os. were standing together about twenty feet on the left flank of the group of men. There was Cpl James, Cpl Cryderman, Cpl Lawlis and Cpl Lescard there with me. How much more Dempsey may have said or if he said anything more I wouldn't know, I just happened to be looking his way when he made the remark I have mentioned.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q.1 When Lieut Davis gave Alvah orders for us to get on the work did you hear anybody say that any man that gets off the truck is a damned fool?

A.1 No, I didn't hear that.

EVIDENCE FOR PROSECUTION NOTE D-3
DLR

FIRST Witness
for Prosecution
B-61574 Sgt LEWIS,D.E Having been duly sworn, states:-

I recognize the accused as being Tpr Dempsey.

On the 7 Dec 43, at approximately 1400 hrs, I was checking over details in the M/C store, when I heard the report of a shot which came from the inside office. On rushing in I saw Tpr Dempsey limping around on one foot.
On looking at his foot I noticed a bullet hole in the same, and on the floor was a revolver. I picked up the revolver and placed it on the table. I then rushed outside and got a truck and took him to the M.O.

DLR DLR cross-examined

DLR ~~Sgt Lewis, being interrogated, states as follows:-~~

The accused was employed as a D.R in this unit.
When D.Rs went out they would take a revolver with them.
As far as I know the accused had a revolver issued to him.
I am in charge of the Motor Cyclists in this Unit.
I am not sure whether D.Rs have their revolvers loaded when with them.
The lights were on in the hangar that day.
As M.C.C., I carry out the regular inspection of M/Cs.
I have never found that the accused had been either negligent or neglectful in his duties as a motor cyclist.
I cannot remember whether I saw the accused cleaning his pistol before the shot was fired.
I cannot remember whether I had been in the office where the accused was, before I heard the shot.

DLR The Def Officer declined to Cross Examine.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(

2nd WITNESS
for Prosecution
Capt G.J. Beatty, Having been duly sworn, states:-
of HQ. Sqn.

I recognize the accused as being Tpr Dempsey.

On the 7 Dec 43, I was Officer Commanding D & M WING, No.3.C.A.C.R.U. Shortly after lunch on that date I was in my office when I was told that the accused had met with an accident whilst cleaning his pistol in the M.C hangar.

I immediately went to the hangar, but the accused had been taken to the M.A.P.

On the table in the hangar I found a Smith-Wesson pistol along with four unexploded cartridges of .38 amn, and in the pistol one exploded round of ammunition. I also saw four pieces of 4 x 2 cleaning material and one cleaning rod. I took these articles and put them in a place for safekeeping.

DLR DLR cross-examined

DLR ~~Capt G.J. Beatty, being interrogated, states as follows:-~~

It was in order for the accused to have a pistol as a D.R They are not supposed to have these pistols loaded whilst acting as D.Rs to convoys.

I cannot say for sure whether, or not, they, (the D.Rs.) are issued with ammunition.

2nd WITNESS for Prosecution, Contd. Capt O.J. Beatty,

Cross-examined by Defending Officer, states:-

I did not tamper with the pistol, as I knew there had been an accident, and that the pistol would be needed as evidence.

I did not know whether or not it was the practice for D.Rs to carry their pistols loaded.

I personally did not lay a charge against the accused, and I did not know anything about laying a charge.

I consider the accused to be a good D.R.

IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

3rd WITNESS for Prosecution Lieut J.P.HUGHES, No.3 C.A.C.R.U.

Having been duly sworn. The Prosecutor states he had no questions to ask the witness.

Cross-examined by the Defending Officer, states:-

On the 7 Dec 43, I was acting as Asst-Q.M., of No.3 CACRU. I know nothing about the examination of the pistol which the accused had.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP83(B

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED.

EVIDENCE FOR THE DEFENCE, (Note D.5) First WITNESS for the Defence.

The accused, B-131886 TPR Jack Dempsey, having been duly sworn, states:-

On the 7 Dec 43, at 1045 hrs in the morning, Records had asked for a D.R, to be sent to D.A.D.O.S.

Sgt Lewis gave me the order to report to Records, and I loaded my pistol before leaving. It has been our custom in this unit to load our pistols when going out, and unloading it on our return. This had been the custom since I became a D.R. in this unit in May 43. Having loaded my pistol I left on a trip to the DA & Q.M.G., and arrived back about 1340 hrs. I had had no dinner as I knew I was too late, and so decided to clean my pistol.

I opened the chamber, and I pressed the plunger, and I took four cartridges out of the pistol in my hand, which I placed on the table.

It had been my custom to carry four rounds in the pistol as a safety precaution.

I placed the first cartridge in the chamber at 4 o'c, so that if the trigger accidentally contacted it would be able to do so at one, before contacting a live round.

I got my 4 x 2 and rod, and then proceeded to wipe the outside of the pistol with a piece of oily rag. As I was going so, holding the pistol in my right hand, my thumb slightly back of the hammer. When I was finishing wiping the barrel down I released the hammer from the pressure of my thumb and the pistol went off.

I took three or four steps and felt a burning feeling in my right foot. Sgt Lewis then came in and took me to the M.A.P. The M.O., applied a bandage and a splint.

EVIDENCE for the Defence - Note Db,
FIRST WITNESS for the Defence, contd.
B-131886 Tpr J. Dempsey.

The bullet was between my big toe and the one next to it, about half an inch back. There was a slight fracture of the big toe. I stayed in the hospital about a month. I limp slightly now: the big toe not being fully flexible. I have ridden my motor cycle since I came back from hospital. I had a fifth cartridge in my pocket which I may have put in with the other four. I am anxious to continue my job as a D.R., and hope I may be able to do so; although at present I have a little difficulty in operating the starter. This charge was first laid against me on Tuesday of last week.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 63(2)

PROSECUTOR ADDRESSED COURT ON THE FINDING

The accused is charged with Neglect in Injuring his foot. The evidence shows it is customary for him to have ammunition and a pistol when in the performance of his duties. The pistol was in his charge and it was his duty to clean it.

The accused should have proved the pistol by making certain that no live round remained in the chamber. This was not done, and as a result of this neglect was that on explosion the bullet injured the foot of the accused.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSED THE COURT

As the Sgt, who was in charge of Tpr Dempsey when he was a D.R., stated in his evidence - "Tpr Dempsey has at no time been found negligent of neglectful in his duties, or maintenance of his motor cycle" - but he belongs to that renowned company known as D.Rs., and to be a D.R., as the officer in charge of him, stated in his evidence, he must have been very thorough in his work and taken good care of himself and equipment. He was doing this when cleaning his pistol; it was another part of his equipment, and although he had had no training in the firing of the pistol or maintaining the weapon in England, he had looked after it as a part of his equipment since it has been on his charge.

It has been brought out that the pistol was not proven before he commenced to clean in the academic sense of the word, but had he taken the precaution at the time to make sure it was not loaded it might possibly not have happened. He was surprised when the pistol was accidentally fired, as many people would have been in a similar case.

I certainly think it was an accident, one which may easily happen to the most experienced person, and therefore I submit he should not be convicted on the charge. I have no doubt that it would never have been laid except that C.A.R.C.....demands and makes it essential that a R.C.C.N., be held in respect of every case of accidental wounding.

DEFENDING OFFICER states: NOTE E-3 BLR

In Mitigation, that Tpr Dempsey has a specially good record, and is very well thought of by both his n.c.o.s, and his superior officer; but it is true that he had been A.W.L.; and has been in Detention. The accused being somewhat discouraged by the wound he had received had gone absent in January, which was his first was his first offence of any importance since he joined the regiment in 1942, otherwise the record is excellent, but he certainly not be given Detention in this case, to which we all agree. He is very anxious to continue as a R.H as he has not lost his nerve or ambition, and without doubt is very useful to the Army in the capacity.

When running in I saw Tpr (then A/L/Cpl) Dempsey limping around on one foot. On looking at his foot I noticed a bullet hole in his toe. On the floor was a revolver, which I picked up and placed on the table. I then ran out and got a truck and took him to the M.O. Hangar but upon my arrival there Tpr (then A/L/Cpl) Dempsey had been taken to the R.A.P. In the M.C. Hangar on a table I found a .38" Smith & Wesson pistol (short barrel) with one expended round in the chamber. I also found lying on the table 4 non-expended rounds of .38 ammunition, several pieces of 4 x 2 cleaning material and a cleaning rod. I ordered that the pistol, the 4 non-expended rounds, the 4 x 2 and the cleaning rod to be placed in a safe place.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to sayanything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence

After the above caution the accused elected to give evidence on oath as follows:-

FIRST WITNESS (for the defence) The accused B-131886 Tpr Dempsey, J. of No 3 CACHU, having been duly sworn, states:-

I am B-131886 Tpr Dempsey, J. of No 3 CACHU. I have been employed as a D.R. in Instructional Wing, No 3 CACHU, for approximately eleven months. At about 1400 hrs Tuesday, the 7th December, I was in the Motorcycle Hangar. I took out my pistol to clean it since I hadn't done so over the week-end. I opened the chamber to empty the cartridges, and used the plunger to remove them. Four cartridges came out and I closed the chamber. I had always at all times kept the weapon loaded with only four cartridges. As a safety precaution I always loaded these starting at four o'clock, in case anyone happened to pick up the weapon and fool around with it. I was cleaning around the hammer and had clicked it three or four times, but when I was wiping down the barrel I was holding the hammer back with my thumb. I took my thumb off the hammer, which clicked shut and a cartridge exploded. I took two or three steps and noticed a burning sensation in my right foot. Sgt. Lewis, D.E. came in, looked at my foot, then got a truck and took me to the RAF right away. At the R.A.F. the M.O. treated my foot for a bullet wound and then sent me to the hospital.

In the Case of: G/17668 - Pte DEMPSEY J.G.:

31 Aug 43

With regard to the FOURTH CHARGE, under S. 8(2) — it has been clearly proven by the evidence, for the defence, that the accused did not threaten to kick L/Cpl. MILES, A.L. in the face but merely told Pte MEYERS to do so. In other words he was coaching Meyers from the sidelines, and did not address his remark to a SUPERIOR and is, therefore, NOT GUILTY of ~~using~~ threatening (or insubordinate) to his SUPERIOR OFFICER, namely, L/Cpl. Miles.

Now, since the remark was not addressed to his Superior Officer, I can see no alternative for the Court but to dismiss the accused on this, the Fourth Charge. (Authority - Note 5 to Sec. 8 of A.A.)

As I had PTE HOMES under control I asked Constable Wilson to go to the assistance of L/CPL. HOMES which he did as PTE DEMPSEY was on the top of him and was attempting to gain a grip on his throat and was also trying to bite his arm. P.C. WILSON then went to the assistance of L/CPL. HOMES, the result of which PTE DEMPSEY received injuries which necessitated him being taken to the GENERAL HOSPITAL, STEELHOUSE LANE and was later transferred to the CENTRAL LOCK UP, STEELHOUSE LANE to be detained. He was formally charged by L/CPL. HOMES and was cautioned. He replied " I can stand plenty more if you like". He was sober.

STATEMENT OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF:-

(3)

G.17668. PTE. DEMPSEY.J.G.
CARLETON AND YORKS REGIMENT.
No.7.C.D.I. H.U.
CROOKHAM.HANTS.

Sir,

At BIRMINGHAM on the 18th Aug 1943 at about 10.30.hrs I was on duty in STEELHOUSE LANE accompanied by L/CPL. MILES, C.M.P.POLICE where I saw the above named soldier in company with another Canadian soldier, whom I now know to be F.40068. PTE.MILES. WEST NOVA SCOTIA REG, NO.7.C.A.I.H.U.

I asked him if he was on leave and he replied " Yes" and when ordered to produce his pass he said " I have lost it". The manner in which he answered caused me to suspect him of being an absentee and I asked him if he was absent and he said " What of it you are nothing to do with us".

At this moment, the other soldier who had up till now been questioned by L/CPL. MILES called to PTE DEMPSEY "We are not going with these are we" and PTE DEMPSEY answered "No we are not". PTE DEMPSEY then attempted to walk away and I gripped his arm and held him back, he struggled and kicked me on my right leg. At this point L/CPL. MILES was struggling on the ground with the other soldier and PTE DEMPSEY then broke away from my grip and went over towards L/CPL. MILES and said " I will kick his in the bastard face" and drew back his right foot as if to kick him.

I closed with him and pulled him away, I then pulled out my whistle and when I raised it to my mouth he struggled to prevent me, I managed however to blow my whistle several times. I then fell to the ground and he fell on top of me and put his hands round my throat and tried to bite my arm when I attempted to free myself.

Just then I saw P.C.WILSON. 219.A. of the BIRMINGHAM CITY POLICE approach and drew his truncheon and hit PTE DEMPSEY on the head, I was then able to free myself and got up from the ground.

PTE DEMPSEY who was bleeding from the head was then taken to the LOCK UP, STEELHOUSE LANE, where he was given first aid treatment and afterwards he was conducted to the OUT PATIENTS DEPT., GENERAL HOSPITAL to receive further treatment. This being completed he was then taken back to the LOCK UP, STEELHOUSE LANE where he was informed of the charges against him to which he replied " I can stand that and plenty more if you like". He was then detained to await escort. PTE DEMPSEY was dressed in uniform and he was sober.

It was later confirmed by telephone that PTE DEMPSEY was absent from Friday, 13 th August 1943.

P.C.

On my arrival to my H.Q., I reported my injury to my leg and at about 15.00.hrs I proceeded to the M.I.Room, 39 HADLEY ROAD and was examined by the S.M.O. whose report is herewith attached.

1943.

Sir,

I, Pte. Dempsey. T. G. do swear that this statement (~~written and~~ signed by me,) to be a true statement.

I enlisted at Woodstock. N. B. Canada, and after my training I was drafted to England in the Carleton + York Regt. 1st Div. C.A.O.S. In June 1940. I received a letter from my brother in Canada who was in the C.P.C. at that time, saying that my wife was unfaithful to me, and that she was illtreating my child by leaving it (alone) for several days on end.

She went around spending my allowance on drink, and other men, and only for neighbours, hearing my child cry, it may have died from hunger, and cold

After this letter arrived I reported (to) the illtreatment of my child to my Paymaster at 102 Camp. Witley.

The Paymaster had the case investigated through Ottawa, and word was returned to him saying, that the information received by me was untrue.

I then wrote a letter to Ottawa myself, and had it signed by my Company. Sgt. Mjr, and in answer to this letter, Ottawa confirmed that my

Between the ruin of my home, and the breaking up of my family, the loss of my pay, and all the other bad luck which has befell me, since my enlistment, I know in my heart and soul that I shall never again have faith in the Army (or) I also know that never in God's creation shall I ever soldier for anyone in this country.

I therefore I ask you to either grant me a transfer into the Merchant Navy, and give me a chance to lead a decent life, or give me a dishonourable discharge, so that I may go home to Canada, and try to straighten out my home life Either way, I can see that my child is well cared for.

Signed by me this 30th day of Aug 1943 former statement was correct, and that my allowance had been stopped, and was then assigned to a Childrens Aid Society, and they supported my wife and child, by a monthly allowance. The Balance left from each month, was put in the Bank in trust, these monthly sums amounted to $365.00.

Two weeks ago (August 13) I received another letter containing papers; stating that my wife had left with another man, and is living with him, as his mistress. My child was once more left alone, so the Authorities placed it in a childrens home in Fredricton N.B. where it still remains.

The Govt then assigned my $20.00. allowance to my child, but they also cut out of their own $12.00 allowance to my daughter.

Due to this, and the other complaints in my statement, and also the fact that my pay has been completely stopped, and I have drawn no pay since my enlistment, and according to my debits I shall not draw any for the next Six(6) years.

Statement

At Birmingham on August 18. 1943 at 10.35 am I was walking down Shelbourne Lane where I saw two Military Police men talking to two Canadian soldiers. I saw one of the soldiers try to run away, but he was caught by one of the N.C.O's he then turned round and attacked the N.C.O. in question who drew his pistol, they stood and fell to the ground together, the Canadian soldier wrested the pistol from the Military Policeman and threw it into the ground that had gathered. Meanwhile the other soldier broke away from the other N.C.O. who had been holding him, and ran towards the Military Policeman who was on the ground and raised his boot saying, I will kick him in the bastard face. He was prevented from doing so by the other N.C.O. who stood with him and they also fell to the ground. At the time of arrival of the Civilian police both Military policemen were underneath the Canadian soldiers who also were kicking and striking one Canadian soldier had gripped one N.C.O. around the throat and was trying to bite him in the arm. With the assistance of the civil police the two Canadian soldiers were taken away. At no time did either of the Military policeman strike the Canadian soldier.

This statement was made by me and taken down by L/Sgt. MILES. C.M. POLICE in my presence.

Lieut. E. R. Bennett having been duly sworn states:-

May it please the Court as it is abundantly proven from the accused's AFM6 that his record has not been any too good since he enlisted in the army, but it shows that the accused thought he was one of our 'tough guys'. He has not been before a Court Martial before and I think that if he got a sentence it might make a different man out of him, and may even cure him of being a tough guy. The Court should take into consideration that this man was held a long time awaiting trial (50 days), and that he is a married man with one child.

During my tour of duty as guard commander 15 Dec #2 at approximately 0030 hours a Lance Corporal from the provost reported to me that he had brought three men from No 2 Company in from town and had taken them to their billets. I sent an N.C.O. and four men to bring the three men to the guardroom. On arriving the guards found the three men gone. I reported to No 3 Company Sergeant Major. Summary of Evidence in the case of G17668 Pte Dempsey J G a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, on the strength of 17 Cdn Spec Emp Coy CACMF.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness — F55700 Sgt Fahey P, 17 Cdn Spec Emp Coy No 1 Sec, Sgt., having been duly sworn states:

I am F55700 Sgt Fahey P.L. 17 Cdn Spec Emp Coy, Section Sgt, of No 1 Section, On the 2 Feb 45 at approximately 1245 hrs, I entered the billets where my section were living and to call th out for parade. I met Pte Dempsey J G whom I recognize as the accused, and he told me that he was not going on parade. I told him to fall out with the rest of the men and he told me again that he fucking well wasn't going out on parade, and that he was going to see an MO before he fell out on parade. I asked him if he had been on sick parade that morning, he said, he had been on sick parade, but that no miserable bastard that was up there with two pieces of tape on his arm was going to give him medicen and duty. He was not even fit to be a horse doctor. I told him that as far as I was concerned I couldn't do anything but tell him to fall out on parade, and that I had to take the medical and orderlies word for that he was fit for duty. He told me that regardless of what I thought or anybody thought he wasn't going out on parade, I told him that he had to, that when I called his name on parade and he didnt answer to it I would place him under close arrest. He told me to go ahead that he was not going on parade, so I then left him and went upstairs to my corporals room and he followed me and told me that I could go fuck myself that he was going on no fucking parade, I warned him again and went downstairs and fell in my section for roll call. When I called the roll Pte Dempsey did not answer his name I repeated his name three times and when he did not answer I sent my Cpl into the billets for him. The Cpl couldn't find him so I went in myself and could not find him. I then put a charge of absent without leave against him. Pte Dempsey told me when I said I would charge him, to go ahead that he would refuse anything but a court martial and that we would have a fight for it. He said he busted better NCO's than I was.

The accused declines to Cross-Examine the witness.

On the 2nd Feb 45 at approximately 1245 hrs., Pte Dempsey whom I recognize as the accused came into my room and said he was looking for Sgt Fahey and that no Cpl horse doctor could give him medicine and duty and that he wouldn't go on parade. He continued in that manner for awhile and then went over to Cpl Desbiens and I heard him say the same thing, he told me and also stated that he wasn't shell whacky that he was put out of his regiment because he drank too much and he might just as well be in jail, or words to that effect. Sgt Fahey then came out in the room and he followed him out. At 1300 hrs he did not show himself on parade.

While I endeavor to draw to your attention that this man has committed offences under circumstances that did temporarily unbalnce his reasoning, I do not imply or even suggest that these circumstances justify this man's behaviour, nor are they legitimate excuses for his offences, but, I do beseech you to consider them in passing your judgement. I do also maintain that, a bullying treatment and severe punishment will not and did not in the past show the accused he was wrong nor did it help the army.

The accused is quite defeated and has a broken spirit, which at a time when we must soon rehabilitate ourselved and become citizens again is detrimental, not only to the person himself but also for the welfare and development of Canada.

We want this man to be proud of Canada, he volunteered and despite the fact that he has, in the past, given the Army trouble, he has served and risked his life at the front.

Once again I ask that leniency and consideration be shown towards this man and I am certain that it will do more to mend his behaviour and mind than the punishments he has served in the past.

Plea in Mitigation

The defence of this case has been duly considered by the accused and myself. The accused has pleaded guilty, knowing and realizing fully that he is guilty and while he has been under arrest for the past four months, he has repented many times for his misdemeanors.

It is only fair to yourselves, that, before you judge this man I should draw to your attention a few facts. Facts about this man's Army life that are very seldom shown in Army documents.

Firstly, since this man came overseas in 1940 his married life has been anything but happy. Volunteering and coming overseas he left his wife, he was sorry to leave her but trusting and happy in his hopes that he would some day return to her. Then when in a strange country he finds out his wife is no longer faithful to him. He found out that his wife was behaving badly and that she eventually had an illegitimate child, which she did not and is not yet supporting. In an effort to forget he began to drink excessively, which is so very often the case, this led to a wave of petty offences and punishments. These punishments did not show the man that he was doing wrong but only made him more stubborn. Punishments did nothing to alleviate his family troubles. Having a feeling that everyone was against him, the Army, his wife, the church, and worries made him a habitual offender and led to more serious punishments.

Had a proper investigation been made as to why this man was behaving as he was and advice given as to how he could solve his family troubles. I am convinced that the accused would not be before you today. I base this opinion on the fact that he is in this Company on the direction of a Psychiatrist. The reasons being worry combined with battle exhaustion.

While with an Infantry Regiment, this man, I find, did his job and after the Hitler Line battle in Italy, he was evacuated to hospital suffering from nervous exhaustion. While in the hospital he was told he could not return to an infantry Bn., but was allowed to go to a L.A.A. Regt, then a re-organization took place and the L.A.A. were disbanded and made into a traffice control unit in an infantry Bn., namely the Lanark & Renfrew Scottish. The accused chose to go to the Infantry Unit but after five and a half months service he was once again evacuated to hospital and from there he was sent to a Spec Emp Coy. This made the accused even more dissatisfied and he came to this Company to be, in my opinion, disciplined.

Onee again his drinking and petty offences began and under the influence of wine, he was insubordinate to a senior N.C.O. and quite rightly was charged. Here again he was drinking to excess and still more worries and mental anguish, not only was he suffering from War Nerves but he had been indiscreet and contacted syphilis. Since that time he has been given the best of Medical treatment and is cured. But due to a discrepancy in treatment by the American Medical Corps where he received treatment and our Canadian Medical Corps, in as much as they did not agree on a date set for re-examination caused him more worry. The accused in an unbalanced frame of mind, broke out of the guard room which maked him guilty of the Fourth Charge.

G17668 Pte Dempsey J G Sworn states:-

I am 26 yrs of age went to school till grade III. I stopped school as my mother died when I was 13. I worked in lumber mills. My father was cruel to me before I lefthome. I am married 15 June 39. I have one girl. I came overseas 15 June 40. I have never seen my child. I was happily married. About 2 years after I came overseas my wife had an illegitimate child. I took it pretty hard and everything from then onhas never gone right. When I came to 17 Special emp Coy I had had boils. I saw medical corporal and was given medicine and duty. It bothered me considerably. I tried to get compassionate leave and also applied for a divorce. I was with Carlton & York Regiment for two months in Italy. I was rifleman. (1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 96(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accsd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 80(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 96(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 81.)

STATEMENT IN PLEA OF MITIGATION OF SENTENCE, by
B 44775 Gnr DEMPSEY, M. J.

On August 2nd, 1945, I was given a 48 hour pass to Petersfield, Hants, where my wife is living. When I arrived at my wife's place, I found her feeling ill. Therefore I did not wish to leave here when my pass fell due on August 4th.

I remained at the house with my wife. On August 7th, I visited Dr. Campbell-Cooke in Petersfield as I was not feeling well myself. He gave me a bottle of medicine and implied that my condition was serious enough to warrant my returning to camp and reporting sick. He also gave me a note stating that I had gone to him.

However, my wife was still not well, and she asked me if it were possible for me to stay with her. I decided to remain. During this time my wife was often nauseated and could not keep her food down at all. Then she believed that she was pregnant. Finally, about August 23rd, my wife thought that she had a miscarriage. This left her weak and unwell. Therefore I continued to remain with her.

My wife's illness and subsequent miscarriage were the only reasons which caused me to remain away from my unit. I did not intentionally go AWL with the idea of avoiding duty. I did it because in this instance I thought my first duty was to my wife, while she was in this unfortunate condition. On these grounds I ask the court for a lenient punishment.

I should like to submit to the court a brief statement on Gnr Dempsey's service record.

He enlisted in October, 1942, was posted overseas in August, 1943. He was placed in the 14th Fd Regt, RCA, and employed as a gun layer. He was with his unit in the first days of the Normandy invasion until wounded about D plus five. He was evacuated to the UK and spent seven months in hospital and has since then held a category.

From October, 1942 until May of this year Dempsey's MFM 6 was clean. I submit that this is an excellent record, and warrants consideration in the passing of sentence.

Statement by Mrs. B.M. Dempsey

My husband came home on August 2nd. At that time I was not feeling well. I asked him to remain with me as otherwise I should be left alone at home during the day. He stayed, and a short time later I thought that I was pregnant. I continued to feel ill, and about Aug. 23 I thought that I had a miscarriage. My mother thought the same. My husband remained home during this time & finally was picked up by the police on September 1st.

2. When soldiers are apprehended in plain clothes, at a distance from their units, and after having been absent for some time, the reward may be increased to 10/- or 15/- according to the nature of the cases and the trouble incurred in apprehension. A reward in excess of 15/- will seldom be granted.

PLEA FOR MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT

in the case of H.46525 Tpr (A/1/Cpl) Dempsey, R., "B" Coy 3 Bn 1 C.D.R.D.

If it please the court, the accused has pleaded guilty and I would like to make this statement for your consideration. The accused's character is excellent, he is a hard and conscientious worker and he has never been in trouble and has never been on charge in the army. As the evidence indicates, the accused failed to report for a parade. This was not a premeditated crime as his troop Sgt can verify that his attitude on parade, prior to the incident, had been faultless and certainly not surly. During the noon meal hour events arose that disgusted the accused to such an extent that he momentarily forgot his military discipline and he did not go on parade. No effort was made to find the accused and warn him to get on parade, nor was any effort made to inform him where his troop had moved to. As a result he was absent for three hours at the end of which time another parade was formed up and he was present. In view of these facts I would ask the court the greatest leniency.

FIRST CHARACTER WITNESS in the case of H.46525 Tpr (A/L/Cpl) Dempsey, R., "B" Coy 3 Bn 1 C.B.R.D.

Lieut A. Chubb, "B" Coy 3 Bn 1 C.B.R.B., having been duly sworn states:

I have known Dempsey for a period of four and a half months. He has been a Cpl in my troop at Crookham, Shobham and also in North Africa while we have been here. During that time I have found him to be a conscientious N.C.O. and always of the highest character, an inspiration to the rest of the troop. He carried out all orders effectivly and performed his duties at all times to my satisfaction.

SECOND CHARACTER WITNESS

B.168 Sgt Tibbs, J., "B" Coy 3 Bn 1 C.B.R.D., having been duly sworn states:

I was Sgt in charge of Two troop on 24 Sep 43 and up until that time Dempsey had always been a good and efficient soldier and carried out any duties without question and to the best of his ability. I have only known him for the three weeks that he has been in my troop. The accused is not at all a surly type of man.

6th Witness for the defence

Mrs WIGHAM, MORDEN, SURREY, having been duly sworn, states:- Had known the accused in MORDEN during the summer of 1940 and had known of his family troubles. The accused had spoken to her of going back to CANADA the but she had persuaded him not to. She had spoken to the accused' commanding officer at the time to see if the family troubles of the accused could be settled

Closing address by the prosecution

Due to the fact that the accused left ENGLAND in civilian clothes and arrived in CANADA in civilian clothes leaves no doubt that he was trying to evade the police. The accused states that he travelled in uniform when in CANADA but that there is no proof of that. Family troubles were no reason to desert his unit, that such things must be done through the proper channels.

Closing address by the defence

Troubles at home had placed a great mental and physical strain on the accused. These troubles had been on the mind of the accused for a long time and he had not been able to have them straightened out through his unit. On arrival in CANADA and after he had not attempted to conceal himself but had remained in his own town where he was known.

Statement as to character of the accused read by the adjutant.

Evidence as to character given by S/t. CORNISH, provost Sjt. Knew the man and never had any trouble with him. Was a good worker.

Re: Anslem Arthur Denike, C-4014
#3 A. Dist. Depot

Dear Major Latta:

The following is a summary of my findings of the above named soldier who was examined at the Kingston General Hospital On June 9th, 1941.

Private Denike, age 23, was able to give a clear and comprehensive history of his life There was no evidence of mental retardation or defect. He denied any previous delinquent behaviour or court record although he admitted that he had been asked to leave the United States by reason of the fact that he had never taken out his American Citizenship papers nor paid his Head Tax on entering that county. He admitted several minor misconduct charges in the Army, maintaining that the majority of them were due to the fact that he was ignorant of army or unwilling to accept Army discipline. His only reason for desertion he maintains was due to the fact that his common law wife was in serious trouble at home and the Army authorities had been unwilling to grant her a sufficient allowance to maintain her, readily admitting however, that there were regulations governing allowances in matters of this kind and clearly recognizing the serious nature of the act which he is now being detained for

I was unable to detect any symptoms which would indicate neurological disorder, his only complaint being that he had one flat foot which gave him considerable trouble and that he had been told he had adenoids for years.

It is my opinion that this man is not suffering any mental disability in the form of defect or disease which would relieve him of responsi ility for his actions.

Yours very truly,

C.H. Mc Cuaig, M.D.

McC/F.

It is my opinion that this man is not Kingston, Ont., June 18, 1941.

Re : #C4014, HENIKE, Arthur A.

Dear Sir,-

This man was seen at the Military Hospital to-day, and particulars were obtained from him, from his military file, and also by interview with two N.C.Os. who knew him prior to enlistment.

He is 33 years of age, and had a Public School education only. His mother died when he was an infant, and he ran away from home when about 14, and has worked, mainly, with sideshows, radio and vaudeville teams, both in Canada the the United States. I understand he was reasonably good as an entertainer.

His father is said to have been a conscript in the last war, and he and his son have never been friendly. His father has remarried, but there are no other children by either of his two marriages. The accused was married about five years ago, to a Hungarian girl, but they lived together only a short time, and she is now said to be living as common-law wife in Quebec Province. He has known his present common-law wife for quite a long time, and knew that she was pregnant prior to his enlistment in October 1939.

He denies any other court record, but in 1938 left the United States to avoid deportation. His medical history is negative prior to enlistment, except for venereal disease about five years ago.

The only basis he advances for desertion was his desire to get home and make the necessary arrangements for his wife to secure separation allowance, as he claimed that she had never been given the amount to which she was entitled. As to the basis for this statement, I have no information. He denies any mental symptoms prior to enlistment, and I could find no evidence of any at the present time, nor was I able to learn anything which would point to their existence during his time in the Army.

It is my opinion that this man is quite responsible for his actions and, as indicated above, I could find nothing to suggest that he has ever suffered from active mental disease.

Yours very truly,

1st Witness

C.40904, Sgt. Kirkey, A.J. Hastings & Prince Edward Regiment, having been duly sworn, states:

I am the Bn. Orderly Room Sgt. of the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment. My work deals with Regimental Documents and Correspondence under Capt. C.S. Nickle, Adjutant. I produce the following documents in connection with this case:-

1. Record of the Declaration of a Court of Inquiry on the Illegal absence of a soldier. A.F.B. 115 (A.A. 163 (1) H).

2. Certificate of arrest A.A. 163 (1) M.

3. Certificate of Delivery to Military Custody. A.A. 163 (1) K.

The accused declines to question the evidence.

(C.40904, Sgt. Kirkey, A.J.)
Hastings & Prince Edward Regiment.

President

The accused having been duly warned in accordance with rule of procedure 4 (E) elects to give evidence on oath;

The accused No.C.4014 Pte. Denike,A.A. "A" Coy. the Hastings and Prince Edward Regiment, C.A.(A.F.). having been duly sworn states;

My reasons for returning to Canada are;

1. Lack of suficient finance for my wife and child to maintain themselves on.

2. Persistent rumours and correspondent's information to the effect that my wife was resorting to prostitution to secure money on which to maintain herself and the babe.

3. Sickness and ill health on the part of my wife and child and insufficient finances to secure proper medical treatment.

4. Abuse to my wife and child received at the hands of her own brothers, and no steps taken to stop such abuse.

5. Persisting letters from my wife to the effect that she could not manage or carry on under the conditions she was in, and could not get help or assistance from anyone, also that she was so depressed in mind that she was pending a nervous breakdown.

6. Lack of her not receiving full dependants allowance from the Govt. for her and the babe and their refusal to give her such.

7. Worry and mental strain on the part of myself in regards to this matter.

8. Lack of proper co-operation from Govt. in securing proper dependants allowance.

In regard to my leaving England. I had no intention of deserting the army but had to change to civilian clothing to manage a passage for myself home. I did not destroy or hide any of my army equipment. I left it all with the exception of my army boots, checked at the soldiers hostel on West Nile St. Glasgow, Scotland. Upon arriving in Canada I did not hide or conceal my whereabouts from anyone; had my intention been desertion I would have done so, also I made no attempt to move my wife or child from Picton, had I contemplated desertion I should have done this, also hid my whereabouts to anyone knowing me, and evaded or resisted the civigl or army authorities, which I did not do. I gave no trouble or cause for any other punishment than close arrest all the time I have been in custody.

My full intentions upon embarking from this country were upon arriving home immediately taking steps to help my wife in her domestic troubles, also to try and prevent her health from growing worse, by taking the worrying troubles she was having to stand up on onto my own shoulders, and trying to get the dependants allowance board to give her the full and proper allowance. I secured a legal adviser in regard to this, also to help defend me in the case the army held against me, for returning home without leave or permission. I had full intention of returning to the army depot of my unit in Canada and reporting my absence without leave to them. After I had achieved my purpose, mainly as I have explained in the later. Also before leaving my unit I was both physically and mentally in such a state of worry that I just couldn't adjust myself according to what the army required of me, as I can produce witnesses to that effect. Also I still feel that the Govt. should give my wife and child the full dependents allowance sixty-seven dollars and fifty cents a month instead of fourty-dollars a month, as it is impossible with the present conditions in Canada for her to live on her former allowance

In the case of No D-3692, Private Joseph Roch DENIS, of Le Regiment de La Chaudiere, on the strength of No 6 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas on active service.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, this Summary of Evidence was taken under oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution. E-4178 Sgt Martineau, F., Royal 22e Regiment, 6 CIRU, having been duly sworn, states:

I am E-4178 Sgt Martineau, F., of the Royal 22e Regiment, 6 CIRU. I am A/CSM of "A" Company, 6 CIRU. I produce as Exhibit "A" a copy of Daily Orders, Part II, No 75, dated 29 Apr 43, which show in para 9E that Pte Denis, J.R. was A/L from 2200 hrs 15 Apr 43 and was still so absent after the 8th day. From 16 Apr 43 until 3 May 43 a roll call was made of the Company daily in my presence. The accused, whom I now recognise, did not answer his name at any such roll call, nor did he appear on any parade during this period. To the best of my knowledge he was AWL.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

F. Martineau

Second Witness for the Prosecution. D-41040 Sgt Benoit, G., Fusiliers Mont-Royal, 6 CIRU, having been duly sworn, states:

I am D-41040 Sgt Benoit, G., of Les Fusiliers Mont-Royal, 6 CIRU. On 1 May 43, when I took over the duties of OOC of "A" Company at Algonquin Camp, the accused, whom I now recognise, as shown on the Absentee Reports as being A/L from 2200 hrs 15 Apr 43. From then on until 3 May 43, I called the roll of the Company daily on parade. The accused did not answer his name at any such roll call nor did he appear on any parade during this period. At about 1400 hrs on 3 May 43, the accused reported to me as returning from AWL.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

G. Benoit Sgt.

The accused, having been duly cautioned in French in accordance with RP 4 (E) and Overseas RO 1424, reserves his defence.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence, consisting of one page, was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused at Algonquin Camp, Witley, Surrey, on the 6th day of May 1943, and that Rules of Procedure 4 (C), (D), (E), (F) and (G) have been duly complied with.

Plea of the Defending Officer.

The accused is a volunteer and has been overseas for almost 3 years. He went P.O.W. under a mental stress caused by the fact that ~~the accused~~ he, and a friend of his, transferred from the 1st Recce (17H) to the R. 22 Regt. Due to a misfortune the accused was withdrawn from the draft to the 22 Regt. and seeing his friend cook and two having tried many times to be put again on draft for the R. 22nd Regt ~~on many occasions~~ he found his efforts unsuccessful. Then he found himself posted to the R de Mais, realised that his chances had gone, went P.O.W. I wish to bring these facts to the court as a plea for mitigation.

First Witness for the Prosecution.

Lieutenant Jean Louis Pimquet, having been duly sworn states:-

"I am Lieutenant Jean Louis Pimquet, R 22e R, attached to "C" Coy. I identify the accused as Pte Denis, of No 14 Pl "C" Coy. On Aug 6, 1943, our company was the leading company of the Adverie bridgehead. At 0900 hrs, I sent a section to clear out a house. The corporal Lalonde reported to me afterwards that while tryingto dispose his section, he found out Pte Denis wasn't there.

Q Was the enemy supposed to be in this house?

A Yes, the enemy was there. We were the leading company.

Q Do you believe that the accused was aware of the importance of his duty?

A Yes.

Q On the 9th of August, 1943, could you tell the Court what happened?

A On Aug 9, 1943, I was coming back in a 15cwt truck from a rear party. At 1915 hrs, on the way I found Pte Denis who was walking towards us. I asked him where he was going and he told me he was trying to find the regiment. I told him to get in the truck and I took him back to his section and told him to stay there until further orders.

Q When was he put under close arrest?

A The next morning.

Q At what time was Denis reported as ~~missing~~ having left the section?

A The Corporal reported to me at 0930 hrs that when clearing the house he couldn't find Denis.

Cross Examination by the Defence.

Q At 0700 hrs were your men told that they were supposed to do a house clearing job at 0900 hrs? Did they know before 0900 hrs?

A They were told at 0900 hrs to clear the house.

Q How can Pte Denis be aware that he was supposed to be in the house clearing party since he was missing from 0800 hrs?

A He should have been there.

Q Before the attack, in the preceding day, were you aware that any of your men, or men in your company were sick?

A None of my men or NCO's reported sick.

Q Did you know yourself before 0900 hrs that you were going to attack?

A Yes, I knew we were to advance.

Q When you started in the morning, did your men know they were going to attack or going to take up a defensive position?

A It depended on two situations. If there were enemy there, we would attack; if not, we were to take up a defensive position.

Q Did you give permission to any of your men to go to the laterine that morning?

A No one asked me for such permission that morning.

Q Did you usually give permission to the men to go to the laterines?

A No, it was usually given by the section commanders.

Question by the Court.

Q At what time did you receive your orders to advance?

A At about 0700 hrs.

Q Did you pass these orders on to the section commanders at this time?

B-4603 Pte Leo Denis, R 22e R. The accused makes this statement:-

On the morning of the sixth of August, when we were going altogether, No 4 section was detailed to clear up a house. I was sick, suffering with diarrhoea and I had to stop. When I stopped, I told Pte Reginbald as I was myself too much in a hurry to tell my section commander that I had to stop. When I was ready to move forward, the company had moved, also No 4 section and a barrage of artillery had started, giving me no chance to advance. Seeing that, I stayed there till night. After that, I saw a battle in front of me, but I couldn't see if it was my company. Then I started to go backward, where there was no fire, to try to find Battalion H.Q. Then on the morning, I found the mule party. I went to report to the sergeant, but he was sleeping and I did not want to wake him up. I stayed with the mule party. When the mule party started to go forward, I met on the way, a truck, in which Lieut Ringuet was. I got in and joined my company. The next morning I learned I was on charge.

SUMMING UP BY PROSECUTOR

Summing up - Case of Pte Denis, Leo - R 22e R

Attention of the Court drawn to Page 19 Para 1F five (j) first lines.
Again Para 20, page 19. 5 lines.
Intention proved by facts.

Importance of the Duty
At about 0530 or 0600 hrs they were advancing.
Advancing against enemy.
Defensive against enemy.
Always susceptable to be attack by enemy.
They were on a battle field.

Knowledge of the importance of this witness.
Denis is sane. His section was on the move. He knew his section could meet enemy at any time.
He knew he was on a battle field.
He knew, being on a battlefield, he could not leave his section without permission.

Absence long enough to permit him to avoid that duty.
Left at 0800 hrs when Coy left at 0600.
It was on the move towards the enemy.
Left without permission until 1915 hrs 9th Aug 43.
Mules - only way to go back? Alibi.
His duty was to be with his section all the time.
Sickness is of no importance.

Mules
After he had been sick, why didn't he follow?
Why did he come back instead of going forward?
A Coy going forward does not advance fuitily, especially if they are shelled. He could easily have reached them.
When in the back, he did not report to Bn H.Q.
He was not seen reporting to NCO i/c mules.
He is not reported as having reported himself to his C.O. Coy when going up with the mules. He was found on the road by his Vl Comdr, who did not meet the mule party. Denis told him he had been with the 3 River Tank.
His duty was to be in his section.

DEFENCE SUMMING UP

Gentlemen of the Court. We may talk and talk of different things as the prosecutor did, but the offence is much to serious for that.

It is clearly stated by all the witnesses that Pte Denis didn't know before hand that they were suppose to attack the enemy's lines or to clear a house. Nobody Did.

So Pte Denis took sick as it is permitted to be and lost himself. We cannot accuse Pte Denis of being a deserter, because there is no intention of his part to do such a thing. Pte Denis took part and did battle and I don't see why at the last battle he would had done such a thing. He got lost; and even an officer with instruments has difficulty sometimes to find his way. Pte Denis I think, when he decided to join the mules that were suppose to bring the rations to his company, took the normal and logical decision. This was the and safest way to go back to his Coy.

I am morally convinced that Denis is not guilty to any of the charges but got simply lost as the case happened so many times to others.

I am sure ~~xxxxx~~ gentlement that you will take his service in consideration and that evidence of the witnesses will give him justice, thank you.

X1 "W.P.Steen"

I just want to point out to the Court that in giving these sentences to take into consideration the fact that Pte Denis fought all the battles and also that he is well considered by his platton Commander and his comraded in arms and I am sure that he had no intention of being AWL and if a chance being given to him he would be there for the next show, thank you

Dear Sir — 3/6/43

I am very sorry to say that I have let you down so badly by going A.W.L. At least I left my work to Sergeant Adams by returning on the time my pass expired. I had no intention of ever going absent again but circumstances arose which the Army would not understand, and could not help me in. For my own future life and those of my three children, as well as the happiness and peace of mind for the girl I once had I just had to go. How I went or why I myself can not understand and there has been much happened and different phases

I have been, where I can not find reason, or excuse for being. I just find myself there without understanding how I arrived. You of course shall disbelieve me, or at least think it very strange. But I am searching for a party, wherein I must and shall find. I can't help it because I neither can study, be content, or happy until I do. I am getting much closer to that person now.

Next week I shall return to Barracks, give myself up, and hope that I am not returned to Hendley for I am sure I could never find myself able to stand it again. So far I am still unable to get any trace of wife or family. I had even thought of staying away and going home as I did on my last U.W.L. term. But I know it is not worth it. However upon my return to Barracks I know I shall be doing so with a free mind and no further depressed feelings.

I will never dream save have any reason to go again, but of course can expect no leniency now or trust upon anyones part. But perhaps upon returning I could speak privately with you, or Colonel Baker, [illegible]

I hope I shall not have their allowance stopped again. And I would like to know that (at least, who played Square, and more decent to me than any other person I have met in the Army, would not think badly of the way I let you down.

Incidently where this letter is mailed I shall not be within miles of. So I can't be be traced.

Remaining yours faithfully

ON ACTIVE SERVICE

Sir—

I would like permission to submit this written statement in aid of my defence.

I was taken care of by a Lady named Dennis in Kingston Ontario from the age of two weeks being of illegetimate parents and left under her care. My life there was of a very rough nature for mrs Dennis only livelihood was earned by keeping a boarding house for Italian Tannery workers. They were all heavy drinkers and often quarelling effect many times used to get me to drink for the fun they would get out of it. Mrs. Dennis died when I was eleven. My mother who lived at Belleville 6 mts and was married with a family took me to live with her but there had always been a feeling about me that I was not wanted there and I was not very well treated. I ran away after staying about one year I went to Kingston and obtained employment by stating that I was fourteen. When that contract was finished I went sailing and stayed until I was seventeen when I married Nellie Furman of Kingston whom I had met the previous winter. We were not happy after the first few months of our marriage. There were four children from our marriage, one of them being drowned in 1938. I had been employed as a transport driver for a long time, and when war broke out I was running a compressor for the city of Kingston. I joined the Army on Sept. 4/39 & our wife and I then began having frequent quarrels over diffent fellows whom she was going with. I began drinking heavily & hare and started to become very depressed. On November 4/39 I was discharged from the Army and re-joined it on Jan. 10/40. Everything seemed to go well until one evening I came home unexpectedly from guard duty and found my children alone in the house. I went to search for my wife and found her drinking with a soldier in a hotel. We quarrelled often after that and in June of 1940 I was sent to Petawawa Camp. I was only in camp a short time until I received a letter from a neighbour saying that she had not saw my wife in two days and my children were alone at home. I left camp and found my wife at a summer Cottage I owned a few miles from Kingston. She was again in Company with a soldier. This time the Childrens Aid wished me to let them look after my children for me But I couldnt bring myself to separate them from their Mother I had the Childrens Aid Societys promise to keep watch on them for me. Shortly after that in Petawawa I became very depressed and left camp for a considerable length of time. I finally had a long talk with my wife in which she promised to behave and we could both start over again for the Childrens sake. I then went to camp and asked to be put on draft. As soon as I arrived in England I began getting very confused letters from my wife. One of the first ones stating that she was in love with a man whom I had put out of my home before. She stated that being in England I could do nothing to stop her and she hoped I would get that I asked Ottawa and the Children first to investigate it for me I received no word from and went absent from here. I joined the Merchant Navy and later was caught. I received no word from home upon my return to camp. While I was in Hadley Detention Camp I began to get very worried and depressed as to the whereabouts of my children and a young lady in England who knew of my past and was willing to marry me if I obtained a Divorce But her parents separated us as soon as I went to Detention I received a letter from my Mother stating that she had the oldest boy with her and that my wife and other two children had gone away. I made some requests to Major Dick about investigating my case But could get no help from him as he said he had no time for me. I began getting into a great amount of trouble in Headley through worry and bad nerves, I was placed into solitary confinement on a lot of occasions. But it only made things worse for me, as being locked up made me more nervous and upset. I could hardly stand being locked up alone and often felt that I must have someone to talk to or I would go crazy. But I seemed unable to make any one understand what was wrong and this is the first time I have yet been able to express my feelings. Upon one occasion I was given twenty one days P.D. and at that time I was feeling very bad and used to imagine that all sort of things were happening at home even to waking up at night sweating all over. I was taken to solitary confinement for observation and the next day while on Orderly room parade I remember falling down and the Sergeant Major ordered three men to take me to solotary confinement. They dragged me a number of yds. to the confinment block and upon reaching there I was held by two of them while the other punched and picked me several times also banging my head against the wall. I am of the impression that this was kept from the O.C— as I myself made no complaint knowing that it could not be proven. Often examined by the M.O. I was ordered to be released and given a course of some kind. But I was unable to concentrate upon anything and had severe headaches often, which I still have and believe may be caused from a head injury received in Scotland. Upon my release from Headley ~~from Headley~~ there was no mail waiting for me. My wifes people lived in England and I applied for a pass to visit them in order to find out if they might have word of my family. I received a pass eventually through the kindness of Major Warner. The first day I arrived at their home I found no one there. I returned to the home of the girl I had known. I had a long talk with them and next day I returned to my wifes parents. Mrs Turner was at home but was very angry and believed that I had escaped Detention. She refused to give me any information. Something then seemed to snap inside of me and I seemed to go all to pieces. I can remember getting in a field for a long time crying very hard. I can remember very little else except wandering around England for a long time trying to concentrate myself upon some definate reason. Some time in June I was picked up on the road near Eastland late at night by a lorry Driver who said I was lying in the road. I was badly injured about the face and can remember being in a fight a few days before. I was very sick. At first the Driver was going to take me to a hospital or the Police

PLEASE WRITE ON BOTH SIDES

PLEASE WRITE ON BOTH SIDES

But after ~~dictating~~ hearing my story he took me to his home in Glasgow where I stayed for a week later I got a job on a coal lorry but was unable to work steadily. I gave myself up on Sunday 15/7/43 to the Glasgow C.I.D. I was under the impression that I had not returned to camp off pass, but have been told here that I did return and left the next day. But to me everything is very vague and I can only remember some parts of it all, others being what I was told. I still get severe headaches my nerves seem to me to be very bad and I am unable to concentrate for any length of time on anything. I can't seem to get interested in anything. I would like to get some trace of my children and I ask the Court to send me to any other Military or Civil Prison except Leadhy as I feel I could be unable for long to stand any more confinement than. I swear this statement to be an entire truth.

"The accused makes the following statement".

No. C.16528 Private John James DENNIE, on strength of No. 1 C.O.R.U., states:-

"I was not apprehended. I sent word to the C.I.D. to come and get me at 92 Panmure Street, Glasgow. Two C.I.D., came and I went with them to the Police Station. I told them I was A.W.L. and wished to surrender. One of the C.I.D. men telephoned the Cdn. Provost Corps that I was there and in a few minutes, two Cdn. Provosts came in and took me to their Barracks. I feel nervous and confused and have bad headaches and wish to be examined at the Cdn. Neurological Hospital which was promised to me at the time of my last Court Martial.

Plea of Mitigation. (M104793 Pte. Denning, R.)

Volunteered joined the army 10 Nov 42. After completing training was sent on a cooks course & was employed as a cook in Calgary for some time. During the time he was employed as a cook he tried to get on a draft for O/S several times but was told he was needed as a cook. Finally was put on draft and arrived in England 3 Dec 44 where he was remustered from the RCASC to the infantry. At CITR he was again employed on a cook then given 1½ wks. training and then came to Belgium. While awaiting draft at CBRC he was sent out to the Chateau for training. The first night they were all allowed down town & he and another chap went to a cafe & while being very short they drank too much and stayed away. When they realized they were AOL they came back to their Coy & reported to the orderly room where the accused was placed under open arrest. He admits losing the equipment as detailed on the charge sheet. His equipment was all rolled up in his ground sheet and left at the Chateau with his name logged to it. When he returned to CBRC he found it had not been brought in with the rest and could not be found. Since being placed under open arrest he has been employed as a cook with 11 Bn. Due to his past good record in the army I ask the court to be lenient in sentencing the accused.

All lost equipment replaced by accused. H E Jewett, Lieut

THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.1 Sgt. do you recognize the accused?
A.1 Yes, sir.
Q.2 Do you remember the night of the 11th of September, 1943?
A.2 Yes, sir.
Q.3 What night was that?
A.3 Saturday, sir.
Q.4 Will you tell the Court everything you know, relating to the arrest of the accused?
A.4 On Saturday afternoon of the 11th of September, 1943, I proceeded on pass to Reading and arrived in Reading about 5 o'clock, and walked around a bit, and finally entered the Rose & Crown pub with C.Q.M.S. Hills. After being in there a while I noticed the accused enter the pub and went to the back of the room where he stayed for about an hour and 15 minutes. We had two glasses of beer and on finishing the second glass we left the pub. On going outside, just as I went through the door, I heard somebody call my name and I [illegible]

A.4 (con'd) to see who it was and the accused approached me. He walked up to me and said that I had got him 27 days detention.
Q.5 How did he say that? He didn't actually say "I had got him 27 days detention" did he?

DEFENDING OFFICER: "I object. The Prosecutor is leading the witness. He is suggesting the answer to him."

PRESIDENT: "Objection sustained. You may ask him what were the exact words of the accused."

Q.6 Just what did the accused say?
A.6 "You got me 27 days detention, you are not in 7 CIRU now." He grasped me with his left hand on the right side of my blouse and I said, "Listen to me". He then struck me with his right hand and I turned around and walked back into the pub to avoid further trouble.
Q.7 Where did he strike you?
A.7 In the face. I was followed into the pub by C.Q.M.S. Hilts, and the accused followed me back into the pub, and nothing further was said.
Q.8 Prior to the incident outside the pub that evening, had you any words whatever with the accused?
A.8 No, sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q.9 Do you know the accused quite well?
A.9 I just met him since I came to 7 CIRU sir.
Q.10 When was that?
A.10 Well, I can't say exactly. He has been in the company, but I am not prepared to say that.

THE PRESIDENT: "How long have you been at 7 CIRU?"
A.11 I landed there on the 27th of May.

Q.12 Have you known the accused ever since that time?
A.12 No, sir.
Q.13 Well, would you be prepared to say how long you have known him?
A.13 No, sir, when I first heard tell of him he was --

(The remainder of A.13 was deleted from the record on the instructions of the President)

Q.14 How long have you known the accused -- can you say in months or weeks or days?
A.14 I might say approximately 2 months ago.
Q.15 Since 2 months ago, you have known the accused?
A.15 Yes, sir.
Q.16 How many times would you have seen him, during these two months?
A.16 I have seen him several times sir, before I went out to the field.
Q.17 Would you recognize him anywhere?
A.17 Yes, sir.
Q.18 Was he every in your company or platoon?
A.18 He was in the company sir.
Q.19 Would there be any danger of your mistaking him for someone else?
A.19 No, sir.
Q.20 Under no circumstances?
A.20 No, sir, at no time?
Q.21 Now, on the night this particular incident happened, you are positive that it was the accused?
A.21 Yes, sir.
Q.22 Could you tell us what he was wearing that particular night?
A.22 He was wearing a battle dress sir?
Q.23 Anything else outstanding about his dress?
A.23 He had a highland cap on sir?
Q.24 What type of highland hat do you mean?
A.24 Well, I am not just sure of the proper names.

PRESIDENT: "Was it a balmoral or a glengarry?
A.25 A glengarry sir.

Q.26 Any particular colour?
A.26 Dark blue or black sir.
Q.27 Did you see any friends with the accused that particular night?
A.27 There were men standing near the door of the pub, whether they were friends or not, I don't know.
Q.28 You don't know how they were dressed?
A.28 No, sir.
Q.29 They may have been dressed the same as the accused, on that particular night?
A.29 I am not prepared to say sir.
Q.30 You should be. You know there was somebody there with him. You are not prepared to say that they were dressed the same as the accused -- you cannot say; they may have been; is that right?
A.30 Well, I --

PRESIDENT: "He has already said that he doesn't know. There is not much use in trying to make him say something he doesn't know."

Q.31 Was there anyone with you that particular night, when this incident was supposed to have occurred?
A.31 Talking right to me sir?
Q.32 Yes.
A.32 No, sir.
Q.33 You say you were just stepping outside the door -- was there anyone with you when you stepped outside the door?
A.33 No, sir, I was following C.Q.M.S. Hilts.
Q.34 Where was C.Q.M.S. Hilts?
A.34 He was standing outside the pub near the door.
Q.35 Now, how far was he when the accused was supposed to have said to you, "You got me 27 days detention"?
A.35 2 to 3 yards sir.
Q.36 How far was that from the door?
A.36 He was standing to the left of the door, I would say 2 feet -- possibly 2 feet.
Q.37 You know the accused by name, do you Sgt.?
A.37 Yes, sir, his name is Deanis.
Q.38 Did anyone else speak to you that night besides the accused?
A.38 Not that I know of.
Q.39 No one else spoke to you?
A.39 Well there were men spoke to me that night.
Q.40 Sgt. at this time I would like to call to your attention that you are under oath. Now the words, "You got me 27 days detention" do you know who said that to you?
A.40 Yes, sir.
Q.41 Who was it? Was it the accused?
A.41 Yes, sir.
Q.42 You are sure that it was nobody else but the accused?
A.42 Yes, sir.
Q.43 Could it have been somebody else besides the accused?
A.43 There was nobody else besides the accused.
Q.44 You claim to have been struck outside the pub -- at any time were you hit a blow inside the pub?
A.44 No, sir.
Q.45 You are sure of that?
A.45 Yes, sir.

EXAMINED BY THE PRESIDENT:

Q.46 Were there many more people around this door of the pub, as you came out?
A.46 Yes, there was quite a few soldiers followed us out.
Q.47 Just as you were going through the door, how many people would have been around the door?
A.47 When we came out sir, I never noticed any people around the door.
Q.48 Where were you struck -- outside or inside the pub?
A.48 Outside the pub.
Q.49 How many soldiers would be around you at that particular moment?
A.49 The accused would be the only one around me -- there were several standing not close to the door.

Q.50 And you are perfectly sure that the accused is theman who hit you.
A.50 Yes, sir. (In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(b) in connection with this witness.)

SECOND WITNESS For the Prosecution. F-40567 CQMS Hiltz, C.R. West N.S.R., on the strength of No. 7 CIHU, being duly sworn is examined by:

THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.51 Do you recognize the accused?
A.51 Yes, sir.
Q.52 What is his name?
A.52 Dennis.
Q.53 Do you remember the night of the 11th of September, 1943?
A.53 Yes, sir.
Q.54 Will you tell the Court everything you saw happen with relation to the accused and his arrest?
A.54 On Saturday, the 11th of September, Sgt. Elliott and myself, in the afternoon proceeded to Reading on pass, arriving there about 1700 hrs. We had taken a walk down around the park and decided to go down to the Rose & Crown, which we did, and were there approximately an hour, when we decided to leave. I was first going out of the door and the Sgt. followed me out. I turned left when I got outside and I heard the remark, "You give it to him, he deserves it more from you than he does from me". I don't know who made that remark, but it caused me to turn about and I saw Pte. Dennis strike Sgt. Elliott in the face. Sgt. Elliott ran into the pub and Pte. Dennis ran in after him. I didn't go in immediately, but I stated to Pte. Bryantem, I think it was, "Is all that necessary?" or words to that effect, and he said, "He is no good, he had it coming to him anyway." I then went into the pub and I saw Sgt. Elliott with a handkerchief up to his face and there was blood on it, and I asked him where he was hit and he told me that it was on the face, on his lip.
Q.55 Did you actually see the blow delivered?
A.55 Yes.
Q.56 What hand did he hit him with?
A.56 His right hand.
Q.57 How far were you from Sgt. Elliott or the accused?
A.57 Approximately 3 yards.
Q.58 Was anyone closer to Sgt. Elliott and the accused than you?
A.58 No, sir.
Q.59 Could you have delivered a blow to Sgt. Elliott or the accused from where you were?
A.59 No, sir, not from that distance.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q.60 You say that you overheard someone say, or you heard someone say, "You can give it to him, he deserves it more from you than from me", - you heard that.
A.60 Yes, sir.
Q.61 Yet you are not able to say who said it?
A.61 No, sir, I don't know -- there were people standing around there.
Q.62 They were that close were they?
A.62 Pardon.
Q.63 There were people standing right close, by the door?
A.63 Yes, sir.
Q.64 How far were you from the door?
A.64 About 6 steps sir, approximately 6 steps to the left of the door.
Q.65 Were they in between you and Sgt. Elliott?
A.65 No, sir.
Q.66 What time was it?
A.66 About 2100 hrs, sir.
Q.67 Was it a very moonlight night?
A.67 Well --
Q.68 That is at 2100 hrs?
A.68 Yes, sir.
Q.69 Was it bright enough to see who struck the Sgt.?
A.69 Yes, sir.
Q.70 Did you see Sgt. Elliott, or did you see anyone strike him any other time that evening?
A.70 No, sir.

Q.71 Not inside the pub?
A.71 No, sir, I didn't go inside the pub immediately after him. When I saw him he was holding a handkerchief over his face, or over his mouth.
Q.72 How long have you known the accused?
A.72 I have not known him very long.
Q.73 How long would you say?
A.73 From when he came to 'B' Company, that afternoon on draft.
Q.74 How long before?
A.74 A couple of hours before I saw him that night.
Q.75 Then how could you recognize him so readily that night?
A.75 I looked right at the man sir, when he was there.
Q.76 You can remember faces that well?
A.76 Yes, sir, I remember him.
Q.77 How was he dressed?
A.77 He had a hat on, a black one -- I forget what you call it -- with tassles on the back that hang down, and a battle dress.
Q.78 Did he have any friends with him?
A.78 I wouldn't be prepared to say that.
Q.79 How was Pte. Bryanton dressed?
A.79 In battle dress sir.
Q.80 What did he have on his head -- think hard now?
A.80 I believe it was a forage cap.
Q.81 Is there any doubt in your mind?
A.81 I wouldn't say positively.
Q.82 You are pretty certain of what Pte. Dennis was wearing?
A.82 Yes, sir.
Q.83 But you have doubt as to what Bryanton was wearing?
A.83 Yes, sir.
Q.84 Yet Pte. Bryanton spoke to you, and you have told the Court that Pte. Dennis did not speak to you?
A.84 No, sir, he did not -- I spoke to Pte. Bryanton.
Q.85 And the man you spoke to, you don't remember his dress.
A.85 I know he had battle dress on, but I wouldn't say for certain what he had on his head. I know Pte. Dennis -- it was very outstanding -- had a black hat on with tassles hanging down the back to his shoulders.
Q.86 Do you know the names of any of the others who were there?
A.86 No, sir.
Q.87 How come you can name Pte. Bryanton here then?
A.87 I didn't know his sir, until we got before the Company Commander.
Q.88 Were there any others there besides Pte. Dennis and Pte. Bryanton?
A.88 There were others standing around.
Q.89 Do you know whether or not they were in company with the accused?
A.89 No, sir, I don't.
Q.90 I would like to remind you that you are under oath.
A.90 Yes, sir.
Q.91 And that it is quite a serious charge that is laid against the accused. It is never too late to retract statements, in case you have made a mistake. You are certain that it was the accused struck at Sgt. Elliott?
A.91 Yes, sir.
Q.92 No doubt in your mind whatsoever.
A.92 Not a bit sir.
Q.93 You only met, or saw Pte. Dennis for the first time, a few hours before this.
A.93 Yes, sir.
Q.94 Under what circumstances did you meet him previous to this?
A.94 Well, I am the quartermaster.
Q.95 Who went out of the pub first, you or Sgt. Elliott?
A.95 I did, sir.
Q.96 Do you know who spoke to Sgt. Elliott first?
A.96 No, sir, I was walking away from the pub when I heard the remark -- I don't know who it was said it, but I do remember the words, "You give it to him. He deserves it more from you than he does from me."

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.97 As C.Q.M.S. of B Company, did you have any dealings with the accused in the few hours you knew him?
A.97 No, sir.

Q.98 Did you allott him in his quarters?
A.98 No, sir, there is a Sgt. who does that.

EXAMINED BY THE PRESIDENT:

Q.99 You are positive that the accused is the man you saw strike Sgt. Elliott?
A. 99 Yes, sir.

(In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b) in connection with this Witness)

THIRD WITNESS For the Prosecution.

F-60095 Sgt. McCallum, A.J.,(C.I.C.) on the strength of No. 7 CIRU, being duly sworn is examined by:

THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.100 Were you on duty the night of the 11th of September, 1943?
A.100 Yes, sir.
Q.101 In what capacity?
A.101 Orderly Sgt. of 'B' Coy.
Q.102 And as Orderly Sgt., it is your duty to do what?
A.102 Collect tattoos and submit them to 'H' Wing?
Q.103 Was F-59703 Pte. Dennis, C.E., an absentee on that report?
A.103 Yes, sir.
Q.104 From what time?
A.104 From 2200 hrs., sir.
Q.105 Of what date?
A.105 Of the 12th of September, sir.

PROSECUTOR: "I made an error at the beginning in asking him the question, in connection with the 11th of September.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

(The evidence in chief of the witness is read at the request of the Defending Officer)

Q.106 Do you know Sgt., whether or not there was a roll call in the huts that night?
A.106 I didn't check up on it sir.
Q.107 For all you know then, the accused may have been in his hut that evening?
A.107 Well, I put more faith in NCOs than that sir.
Q.108 But judging from that point, whether or not a roll was called -- you yourself do not know about that.
A.108 No, sir.

PRESIDENT: "You didn't call the roll yourself."
A.109 No, sir, I didn't.

Q.110 As far as you know then, Pte. Dennis may have been in his hut that evening?
A.110 Yes, sir.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.111 Why didn't you call the roll Sgt?
A.111 We have not been carrying on that way sir.
Q.112 Why?
A.112 Because, on account of the fact that there are too many men in the Company.
Q.113 How many men in the Company approximately?
A.113 Well over 300 men sir.
Q.114 What is the system you follow out then?
A.114 The NCOs call the roll and submit their individual reports to me at the Orderly Room.
Q.115 Were you duty Orderly Sgt. on the night of the 12th?
A.115 Yes, sir.

EXAMINED BY THE PRESIDENT:

Q.116 On this particular evening Sgt., who called the rool in the hut in which the accused slept?
A.116 I can't tell you that sir.
Q.117 Who was on duty that night -- how many Corporals?
A.117 11 sir -- 1 for each platoon, which would make 11.
Q.118 What platoon does the accused belong to?
A.118 I couldn't say sir.

(In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b) in connection with this witness)

DEFENDING OFFICER: "I would like to suggest to the Court, that the Prosecution should have had one of the NCOs present to give this evidence instead of the Orderly Sgt."

PROSECUTOR: "I would like to remind the Court, that this is a holding unit."

DEFENDING OFFICER: "It is taking an unfair advantage of the accused, and judging from the fact that he did not call the rool, I don't know how the Sgt. can swear to what he has; in effect that the accused was absent."

PROSECUTOR: "At this stage sir, I would like to file as an exhibit, certificate in accordance with P.C. 2797 which certifies that the accused was arrested at Reading at 2120 hrs., on the 13 Sep. 43"

PRESIDENT: "The Court cannot allow you to produce that document, because it is illegal."

PROSECUTOR: "I was under the impression that it was admissible sir."

PRESIDENT: "No, it is not admissible -- however, if you wish an adjournment will be granted in order to have you procure the evidence of any witness, who can swear to the contents of this certificate."

PROSECUTOR: "No, sir, that will not be necessary."

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED :

DEFENDING OFFICER: "Sir, at this point I make a motion that the Prosecution has not established a case against the accused. I move that the case against the accused be dismissed, on both charges, on the grounds that the Prosecution has not established a prima facie case against the accused. One point in particular in the 2nd charge, is that Sgt. McCallum gave evidence that the accused was absent from 2200 hrs. on the 12th of September, and he says himself that he was not the one who called the rolls in the huts, so that unless he could hear and see the roll being called or called it himself, I don't see how he would be prepared to say that the accused was A.W.L.

Regarding the first case, I think there is a doubt there as to what the witnesses soldier Bryanton, one of the accused's friends was wearing on that particular night. Also there were others present who could have very easily have delivered the blow, and I think we could prove that without any trouble at all, that it was not the accused, but someone else who is not available at the moment, who struck the Sgt. on that particular night."

PRESIDENT: "Are you suggesting that if you should be required to defend the case, that you will have to have an adjournment to get this witness?"

DEFENDING OFFICER: "That is right sir."

PRESIDENT: "Did they give you enough time to prepare this case?"

DEFENDING OFFICER: "I got a short notice from the Prosecutor at noon."

PROSECUTOR: "Regarding the motion before the Court, I would like to point out that there is nothing to the contrary, that the accused did strike Sgt. Elliott. There was no doubt whatever in the minds of the witnesses, and I don't see why a witness, having seen a blow struck, or having witnessed any other fact, should have to recall how everyone in the area was dressed, and I maintain that there is a definite case before the Court, against the accused."

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SUBMISSION:

THE COURT IS REOPENED

PRESIDENT: "The Court accepts the motion of the Defence in so far as it relates to the 2nd charge only, and disallows it in so far as it relates to the 1st charge. The Court allows the motion on the 2nd charge, due to the fact that there is no proof before the Court of the beginning or end of the absence without leave, with which the accused is charged."

DEFENDING OFFICER: "I request an adjournment then, in order to have a certain witness, whose name is McQueen, give evidence for the Defence."

PRESIDENT: "The Defending Officer was only warned at lunch time of this case, this afternoon. The motion to quash having been dismissed in so far as it concernes the 1st charge, the Defending Officer requests an adjournment because he requires the presence of a Pte. McQueen who it appears is at present in Civil custody. The Adjournment is granted and the matter is referred to the Convening Officer."

THE COURT ADJOURNED AT 1630 HRS. UNTIL 0930 HRS. ON 21 SEP 43.
SAME
THE COURT IS REOPENED AT 0930 HRS. on 21 SEP 43.
R.P. 40 Complied with.

FIRST WITNESS For the Defence. The accused, F-59703 Pte. Cyril Eric DENNIS, (C.I.C.) on the strength of No. 7 CIRU, being duly sworn is examined by:

THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q.119 Would you tell the Court what took place in Reading on the night of the 11th of September, 1943?

A.119 On the 11th of September 1943, I was in reading at about 1830 hrs. I entered the Rose & Crown pub with Pte. McQueen. We stayed there until about 2130 hrs. I first noticed Sgt. Elliott when I entered the pub, and we bought a bitter together. Between 9 and 930 sir, I cannot say the exact time, we noticed Sgt. Elliott and CQMS Hilts go out. Pte. Bryanton, McQueen and myself went out behind them. Sgt. Elliott and CQMS Hilts were headed towards the gentlemen's toilet. Pte. McQueen walked up to Sgt. Elliott and spoke to him. I don't know what he said but when I walked up I stated to Sgt. Elliott, about what he called me when I was up and remanded for the CO that is "convict". Then Sgt. Elliott turned and moved back up towards the pub. While I was talking to him about what he called me, Pte. McQueen stepped in from my right hand side, which would be Sgt. Elliott's left, and hit Sgt. Elliott on the face. Sgt. Elliott ran for the pub door. Pte. McQueen got him before he got to the door, and he hit him again at the entrance, also at what I thought to be his face. He entered the pub with Pte. McQueen holding onto his back. When he went into the pub Pte. McQueen turned him around and hit him again, which caused blood to come to his nose. Then the fight was over and that was all. We drank bitters until the time the pub closed and Pte. McQueen and I took a girl home. That is all.

Q.120 CQMS Hilts tells us he was outside. Do you remember seeing CQMS Hilts at this time?

A.120 There was only one place I seen CQMS Hilts, and I am pretty sure he could not see him, as another man, Pte. Bryant, held him up against the wall and told him not to move -- that if he moved he would give it to him too.

Q.121 CQMS Hiltz also said it was pretty bright out that night?
A.121 Well, sir, to my knowledge I cannot definitely swear that it was. It was sort of a damp rainy night. It was sort of dark sir, and it would be pretty hard for CQMS Hiltz to say it was bright.
Q.122 Do you remember any moon at that time?
A. 122 No, sir, there was no moon. It was pretty bright about 11 o'clock, when we were at this girl's home, when we were stopping at the gate, but at the time I am accused of hitting Sgt. Elliott, it was pretty dark.
Q.123 You said something about blood on Sgt. Elliott's face. When did you first notice that?
A.123 Directly after Pte. McQueen hit Sgt. Elliott.
Q.124 Was that outside?
A.124 No, sir, inside the pub. It was the first blood on Sgt. Elliott that I noticed.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.125 When you saw Sgt. Elliott leave the pub, why did you follow?
A.125 Not for a fight.
Q.126 Why did you follow?
A.126 I was going to the toilet.
Q.127 Did you go to the toilet?
A.127 I was going to the toilet.
Q.128 Who passed out through the door first?
A.128 Pte. McQueen.
Q.129 How big is McQueen?
A.129 He isnot quite as tall as I am sir. He might be heavier set -- broader shoulders.
Q.130 He could hardly be mistaken for you?
A.130 I don't know sir -- in the dark he might.
Q.131 What did you say to Sgt. Elliott?
A.131 All I said to Sgt. Elliott sir, is that I started talking to him about him callingme a convict.
Q.132 What didyou say?
A.132 I said, "Sgt. do you remember about calling me a convict the morning I was remanded for the O.C?" That is what I said.
Q.133 Anything else?
A.133 No, sir, there was 27 days detention mentioned in it, but it was not me mentioned it -- it was Pte. McQueen.
Q.134 Who did the 27 days detention?
A.134 I did.
Q.135 Who said "You got me 27 days detention" to the Sgt.?
A.135 I didn't.
Q.136 But you were the man who served the 27 days.
A.136 I served 27 days, yes.
Q.137 Did you say anything else to the Sgt.? Didn't you go up to him and say "You are not at 7 CIBU now."?
A.137 No, sir, not that I can recall.
Q.138 Did anyone say that?
A.138 I cannot swear definitely on that. I am on oath sir. I can't swear that because I really don't know who said that. It might have been said. I won't say it was, and I won't say it was not, because I don't know.
Q.139 Who said, or who made the remark about the 27 days detention?
A.139 I heard it, but I cannot swear who said it.
Q.140 Did Pte. Bryanton also come out of the pub with you?
A.140 Yes, sir, the 3 of us came out together.
Q.141 And Bryanton was the last going out?
A.141 No, sir, I was last.
Q.142 And when you got outside, there was an argument with the Sgt.?
A.142 I won't call it an argument.
Q.143 Somebody was talking to the Sgt.
A.143 Pte. McQueen was talking to the Sgt.
Q.144 And not one of the 3 of you had gone to the urinal yet.
A.144 No, sir.
Q.145 You don't know what Pte. McQueen said to Sgt. Elliott?
A.145 I couldn't swear on it sir.

Q.146 You were close enough to talk to him yourself.
A.146 I walked up to him after Red McQueen had finished -- McQueen was not talking to him then.
Q.147 Did McQueen walk away when you walked up?
A.147 He stepped aside and Sgt. Elliott stood with his back to the pub, and I was talking about the time he called me a convict.
Q.148 Where was Bryanton?
A.148 He had Hiltz up against the door and would not let him move, and told him if he did that there would be trouble.
Q.149 How far were you from the door?
A.149 Half way from the door to the urinal.
Q.150 You could hear what Bryanton said to the CQMS at the door, but you could not hear what Pte. McQueen said to Sgt. Elliott, yet it was half way.
A.150 He was further from me. Sgt. Elliott was further from me at the time he was speaking to McQueen, than Pte. Bryanton was when Sgt. Elliott and I were talking.
Q.151 In other words you left one to go to the other.
A.151 No, I did not.
Q.152 Which fight started first?
A.152 There was only fight sir.
Q.153 And you were last man out of the pub.
A.153 Yes, sir.
Q.154 CQMS Hiltz was the first man out of the pub and Bryanton had him up against the door, and McQueen had Sgt. Elliott over between the door and the urinal.
A.154 They were just standing on the sidewalk sir, which goes along by the side of the pub.
Q.155 How far was Sgt. Elliott and Pte. McQueen from the door of the pub?
A.155 About 6 yards -- half way sir.
Q.156 There was 12 yards altogether then.
A.156 No, sir, 6.
Q.157 Where were you?
A.157 In the centre sir.
Q.158 Then there were 3 yards on each side, and you could hear what one was saying and not the other.
A.158 When I came out of the pub, and walked down towards the place where I was going, when I was coming out the door Pte. McQueen was talking to Sgt. Elliott.
Q.159 Where was Pte. Bryanton?
A.159 He was standing at the doorstep right then.
Q.160 Where was CQMS Hiltz?
A.160 I don't know, but when I turned around Bryanton had him up against the door.
Q.161 While you were talking to Sgt. Elliott you turned around.
A.161 Yes.
Q.162 Just tell us then, what Pte. Bryanton said to CQMS Hiltz?
A.162 He told him that if he moved there would be trouble.
Q.163 You could hear that.
A.163 Yes, Bryanton talked a little louder than McQueen did.
Q.164 Did you threaten the Sgt.?
A.164 I asked him sir would he fight man to man -- that is not threatening sir, I don't think.
Q.165 Did you ask him anything else?
A.165 No, sir.
Q.166 What did he say?
A.166 He never said nothing. He was hit before he had a chance to say anything.
Q.167 How were you standing?
A.167 Sort of like this. If he would have fought with me, I was ready.
Q.168 You were in a fighting position.
A.168 I never had my hands up as if I would fight. I had them up here though against my breast.
Q.169 Who went into the pub first after Sgt. Elliott?
A.169 Pte. McQueen was right on his back sir.
Q.170 Who came next?
A.170 I just can't say whether anybody came in after him or not, but there might have been one ahead of me, but I came in behind them.

Q.171 But McQueen and Sgt. Elliott were in before you were.
A.171 Yes, I just got in in time to see McQueen hit him, and I seen the blood and then Sgt. Elliott pulled his handkerchief out and put it to his face. He stayed in the pub to closing time.
Q.172 Was there light inside?
A.172 Yes, sir, the pub was open and well lit up.
Q.173 And you mean to tell me, that the Sgt. has taken McQueen for you.
A.173 I am not saying he has.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q.174 You say that Sgt. Elliott once called you a convict.
A.174 Yes, sir.
Q.175 Do you think he had something in for you?
A.175 Well, I don't know sir, he might, because I told him that he better watch what he was saying. I first asked since when did he start calling men convicts that were remanded for the C.O.

PRESIDENT: "This is not coming out as a result of the cross-examination. The Defence had an opportunity to bring this out in the examination in chief."

Q.176 You didn't threaten Sgt. Elliott?
A.176 No, sir.
Q.177 And you definitely state that McQueen hit Elliott?
A.177 I will definitely state that McQueen hit Sgt. Elliott 3 times. Once when I was talking to him, once going in the pub and once in the pub.

(In the opinion of the Court, it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (b) in connection with this witness).

SECOND WITNESS For the Defence. F-59642 Pte Bryanton, W.C., West N.S.R., on the strength of No. 7 CIRU, being duly sworn is examined by:

Forestal, and very shortly after 7 o'clock we went down to the Rose & Crown, and around about 1/4 past 9 I went outside the pub and there was a big argument on and I heard Pte. Dennis say to Sgt. Elliott some words accusing him of something about getting him detention and he asked him if he wanted to fight it out, and he also said he was not at 7 CIRU now. Sgt. Elliott said he didn't give a fuck for all the 7 CIRUs in England and they both squared off, and this other chap hit Sgt. Elliott, and Sgt. Elliott turned around and went into the pub, and I followed them.
Q.180 Do you know who this other chap was that you mention?

A.187 Well, Pte. Dennis would be about 12 feet sir.

Q.188 From the door of the pub?
A.183 Yes, sir.
Q.189 And where were you standing?
A.189 I was standing right outside the door.
Q.190 And Pte. Dennis was between you and Sgt. Elliott?
A.190 No, sir, he was out front. Sgt. Elliott was handier to me than Pte. Dennis.
Q.191 Whereabouts was McQueen standing?
A.191 I don't know sir. At the time I think he came out behind him. I didn't Q.192 Did you come out of the pub with the accused? see him then.
A.192 No, sir, he must have went out ahead of me, because he was out there and the arguing was going on when I went out.
Q.193 He was already out side when you went out.
A.193 Yes, Pte. Dennis was sir.
Q.194 What were you doing standing at the door of the pub?
A.194 Well, sir, I was going to the toilet, but there was Sgt. Elliott and this quartermaster and they were having an argument, and naturally I stopped.
Q.195 Did you have the CQMS backed up against the wall threatening him, or anything?
A.195 No, sir.
Q.196 You didn't have him against the wall?
A.196 No, sir, he was out front.
Q.197 Did you say anything to him when the fight was going on?
A.197 No, sir, I never spoke to him.
Q.198 Who entered the pub first after the fight?
A.198 Sgt. Elliott did I think.
Q.199 Who came after him?
A.199 I think Pte. McQueen sir.
Q.200 Did Pte. McQueen have a hold of him going in? He had to pass you, you know?
A.200 I didn't turn around when they went in, and my back was to them.
Q.201 But you were standing right at the door and they passed you.
A.201 Yes, behind me sir.
Q.202 You didn't have the CQMS backed against the wall.
A.202 No, sir, I didn't.
Q.203 And you say that the accused was already outside when you went out, and you did hear him threaten the Sgt.?
A.203 Yes, sir.

Q.206 Yet you are sure that he was outside when you came out.
A.206 Definitely sir, I recognized him as soon as I came out.
Q.207 About CQMS Hilts, did you speak to him or did you not, that evening?
A.207 No, sir, I never seen either of these men before. CQMS Hilts said I said that Sgt. Elliott was no good. I never said that and I didn't know neither Sgt. Elliott or Quartermaster Hilts Before.
Q.208 Did CQMS Hilts speak to you?
A.208 No, sir, he spoke to me after the fight sir.

THIRD WITNESS For the Defence.

F-77921 Pte Chisholm, D.S., North N.S. Hldrs. on the strength of No. 7 CIRU, being duly sworn is examined by:

THE DEFENDING OFFICER:

Q.212 You were in Reading on the night of September 11th.
A.212 Yes, sir.
Q.213 Will you tell the Court what happened that particular night, with regard to the accused?
A.213 On the evening of September 11th, 1943, I was in Reading and I met the accused Pte. D nnis in front of the Rose & Crown pub. We went inside and were drinking beer in there until about 1/4 past 9, and we then left the pub and went outside to the urinal. On the way back coming in from the urinal, between the urinal and the door, there was an argument started. I went over and saw that Pte. Dennis was arguing with Sgt. Elliott. I didn't know him then. I couldn't quite distinguish what was said - I couldn't make out what was said because there was quite a few around the vicinity there. After that the Sgt. walked into the pub., and we followed him in. After we got inside I saw the Sgts' nose bleeding. That is all I seen. I never saw any blows struck, when the argument was going on.
Q.214 You say you never saw any blows struck outside, - did you see any blows struck inside the pub?
A.214 No sir, I never saw a fight at all.
Q.215 You didn't see then, Pte. Dennis hit Sgt. Elliott?
A.215 No, sir.

A.218 Yes, sir.
Q.219 Did he go with you to the urinal?
A.219 Yes, sir.
Q.220 And on the way back from the urinal you saw him arguing.
A.220 Yes, sir.
Q.221 He had gone to the urinal with you.
A.221 Yes, sir.
Q.222 And on the way back he started the argument with the Sgt. Did you see anyone else hit Sgt. Elliott?
A.222 No, sir.
Q.223 Who first entered the pub afterwards?
A.223 Sgt. Elliott sir.
Q.228 Did anyone have a hold of him when he went in?
A.224 Not that I know of sir.
Q.225 Who followed afterwards?
A.225 He followed in afterwards. I couldn't say if the CQMS went in right afterwards or not.
Q.226 Were you long afterwards?
A.226 Not long after, no.
Q.227 You couldn't hear a word that was said?
A.227 No, sir.
Q.228 Was there anybody else arguing with the Sgt.?
A.228 I never seen anybody else.
Q.229 How far was Pte. Dennis standing from the Sgt., when he was talking to him or arguing with him -- as near as I am to you?
A.229 He would be a little further back.
Q.230 Was anyone else closer at any time to the Sgt.?
A.230 I didn't see anyone else any closer -- there was quite a bunch together.

EXAMINED BY THE PRESIDENT:

Q.230 Do you know a Pte. McQueen?
A.231 Yes, sir.

Q.234 Did you see Sgt. Elliott go back into the pub?
A.234 Yes, sir.
Q.235 Did Pte. McQueen go back in with him?
A.235 No, sir, Pte. McQueen came in with us, behind.
Q.236 Of your group, that is, yourself, McQueen and the accused, which one of you went in first?
A.236 Pte. Dennis, I think, went in first sir.

DEFENDING OFFICER: "That is the defence sir."

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED:

DEFENDING OFFICER MAKES A CLOSING ADDRESS: "I have now no alternative but to leave the case with the Court, as to whether or not Pte. Dennis is guilty of the alleged charge against him, that is, that he did, 'at the entrance to the Rose & Crown Public House in Reading at approximately 2120 hrs. 11 Sep 43, strike with his fist in the face G-19083 Sgt. Elliott, R.F., Cape Breton Highlanders, 7 CIRU." In support of the Sgt's claim, of course, we have his own testimony that he was hit or supposed to have been hit by the accused. Against this the Defence has the testimony of Pte. Dennis himself, to say that he did not strike or hit Sgt. Elliott; so that on that score I think everything is even -- that is my opinion. In reference to the witnesses the Prosecution brought forward, was CQMS Hiltz who said that Sgt. Elliott was hit by Pte. Dennis. To even that score the Defence has the testimony of Pte. Bryanton, who did say that Pte. Dennis did not hit or strike Sgt. Elliott. That would still leave us even, except that Pte. Bryanton took it a step further and he did mention by name Pte. McQueen, who was the man that struck at Sgt. Elliott. With that in mind I think it puts the defence a step ahead of the Prosecution, especially so when the accused himself under oath as well as the witness Pte. Bryanton, who is also under oath, both stated that it was Pte. McQueen who hit Sgt. Elliott, and that it was not Pte. Dennis.

In connection with Pte. Bryanton, I think we can take his word very definitely, because he is wearing a good conduct badge, and he stated that it was Pte. McQueen that hit Sgt. Elliott. When the Prosecution tried to shake him from this evidence, he still stuck to his story, that it was Pte. McQueen who delivered the blow. As far as the other witness is concerned, personally I view his more or less in a neutral way. He was not able to throw much light on the matter, one way or another, so that from the testimony that was given, the preponderance of evidence is in favour of the accused, but also on the matter of justice or from the stand point of justice, where the two witnesses for both sides balance one and other, I do not think that Pte. Dennis should be found guilty of the charge against him. However as I said at the beginning, I shall leave it with the Court to decide.

THE PROSECUTOR MAKES A CLOSING ADDRESS: "Mr. President and Members of the Court. I could go ahead and pick the evidence as submitted by the Defence in many small pieces, but rather than waste time, I shall bring out a few points which are the main ones.

The accused himself said that Pte. McQueen, Pte. Bryanton and himself left the pub in the order named, and that Bryanton was supposed to be in front of the accused. Bryanton says that when he got out there, the accused was already arguing with the Sgt. The next witness for the Defence , said that the accused accompanied him to the urinal and the argument started on the way back. Now, the accused under oath said that Pte. Bryanton had CQMS Hiltz up against the pub, and even quoted words said by Pte. Bryanton to the CQMS. If this is true as I presume it is, given under oath, Pte. Bryanton who says that McQueen struck the Sgt. would have his back to the accused, and could see nothing, whereas CQMS Hiltz would be facing him and he could witness it all. The accused claimed that the Sgt. entered the pub with McQueen on his back; but all the other witnesses deny this. Pte. Chisholm states that the accused himself entered before McQueen did.

I could go on pulling this evidence apart, but I am sure that all the facts are before the Court, and it is no difficult matter for them to come to the proper conclusion.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF ITS FINDING:

THE COURT IS REOPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES:

> "The Court find the accused not guilty of the 2nd charge. The finding on the 1st charge being subject to confirmation by higher authority, will not be announced in open Court."

THE PROSECUTOR PRODUCES MFB 355 AND MFM 6 IN CONNECTION WITH THE ACCUSED.

R.P. 46 (b) IS COMPLIED WITH.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER MAKES THE FOLLOWING PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT:

> "The accused enlisted for active service on that fateful day, the 3rd of September, 1939, the very day of the outbreak of the present War. He served 2 years in Newfoundland. The rest of his service has been between Canada and here. There is nothing drastically wrong with his crime sheet, to indicate anything of a serious nature against this man. It would have all the tendancies to point to a man that is at least an average soldier. He is a married man with a wife and child. It should be pointed out more so than anything else in this man's case, that this is his first Court Martial, and if the Court finds some way to be as lenient as possible, in my opinion it would have the desired result, to make a good soldier of this man."

THE COURT ANNOUNCES THAT AS THE SENTENCE OF THE COURT IS SUBJECT TO CONFIRMATION, IT CANNOT BE ANNOUNCED IN OPEN COURT.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SENTENCE.

PROCEEDINGS IN OPEN COURT ARE TERMINATED.

I, the undersigned, hereby certify that the preceding fifteen pages, annexed together, the front of each page being typewritten upon, is a true transcript of the evidence taken down by me in shorthand and transcribed by me, in the case the particulars of which are noted on the first page hereof.

Hiltz came into the Pub behind me. The accused also entered shortly after but no further was said or done. We stayed inside for about 20 minutes had a beer then left went to the station and caught the train home. There were a number of soldiers both in the Pub and when the incident happened outside. I am F 40587 C.Q.M.S. Hiltz, C.R., West N.S.R., [illegible] Rft Unit. On the evening of 11 Sep 43 Sgt Elliott and I went to Reading, arriving there about 1700 hrs and after taking a walk we decided to go to the Rose and Crown Pub for a beer. Approximately one hour later having finished our second glass of beer we decided to leave. We left the Pub, I was first through the door, Sgt Elliott was right behind me. I had taken about half a dozen steps to the left of the door when I heard some one say "you give it to him he deserves it more from you than from me", I am not prepared to say who uttered these words but they caused me to turn around and it was then I saw Pte Dennis whom I recognize as the as the accused strike Sgt Elliott in the face. Sgt. Elliott ran back into the Pub and Pte Dennis went in after him. I didn't go in immediately. I asked Pte Bryanton who was now standing near me if this was all necessary or words to that effect, he replied, "Sgt Elliott was no good he had it coming to him" I then entered the Pub where I saw Sgt Elliott holding a handkerchief up to his mouth. I could see blood on the handkerchief so I asked him where he was cut he replied, "the inside of my lip". We stayed there from 15 to 30 minutes then proceeded straight to the station and caught our train for home.

Sgt Elliot said "I don't give a damn for all the CIRUs in England". Dennis was standing in front of Sgt Elliott in a fighting pose. Almost immediately and like a flash a chap butted in coming from the side and hit Sgt. Elliott. Sgt. Elliott turned and ran into the Pub, all the others standing around went in shortly after. A C.Q.M.S. and I were the only ones left outside and he said to me "What was the cause of this was it necessary", I replied, "Perhaps he had it coming to him". I went inside and he followed me.

Plea for Mitigation

In Re: F51783 Pte Cyril Eric Dennis

The accused has for three years tried to stop his wife's allowance. In my opinion he had very good reasons to do so. On the first place she sold all his furnitures without his permission, on the other hand coming back from Newfoundland, where he had served under his Majesty's flag, he found his wife living under another man's roof.

As I take it he tried to stop her allowance but nobody would believe his story, or when they did, they promised him to look after that, but nothing has never been done.

The accused couldn't get any results so he deliberately went absent just to have her allowance stopped. Unfortunately I don't have any written evidence to prove his family trouble, but I would ask the Court to question the accused if they think it's necessary.

(See overleaf for words and notes for use on trial.)

Capt J.W. Braden, SD&G Highrs sworn states:

I am Capt J.W. Braden, 2 i/c of A Coy SD&G Highrs. On 22 Aug 44 while the Bn was in Trun I went to the coy kitchen to see how the noon meal was coming. Pte Dennis whom I now recognize who was on kitchen fatigue was there and I noticed he was unable to carry out his duties owing to drink. He was endeavouring to start serving the meal, and was staggering over the hay boxes and spilling the food. I ordered him to return to his platoon, which he did not do. His pl Sjt then came and a charge was laid against Pte Dennis. The pl Sjt took charge of Pte Dennis and sometime later he appeared before me in coy orders. I noticed at the time Pte Dennis had a very glassy stare in his eye. I could smell alcohol on Pte Dennis' breath. I am convinced that Pte Dennis staggering over the hay boxes was from influence of alcohol.

Cross examined by the Defence

This incident took place at the noon meal. I do not know whether Pte Dennis was placed under open or close arrest.

Questioned by the Court

In my opinion Pte Dennis was drunk.

C.54199 Sjt Hummell, A.A. SD&G Highrs sworn, states:

I am C.54199 Sjt Hummell, A.A. pl Sjt of 8 pl A Coy S.D. & G Highrs. Dennis was detailed for kitchen fatigue on the morning of the 22 Aug 44. He reported to the kitchen fatigue all right. When I went up for dinner Dennis was sitting on the sidewalk. I could smell liquor on him. and he was trying to eat his dinner which he made a poor job of. I told him he was under close arrest and laid the charge. When he was eating his dinner he could not manipulate his fork and mess tin. I would say that Dennis's difficulty with his mess tin was due to drink. In my opinion he was drunk.

Cross-examined by the defence

I am not positive as to whether this ~~incident~~ incident with Pte Dennis was at the noon or supper meal. I do not what duties Pte Dennis performed after he reported back to his pl area. He was ordered to report to his cpl, which he did, and I told the Cpl Dennis was under close arrest and was not to leave the area. I do not know if Dennis was placed on guard after he returned to his pl area.

Statement of accused.

I don't understand very much but I know I was drinking that day, I was working in the kitchen, washing pots and pans and the barber came over and gave us a haircut, and he had two bottles of wine and gave us a drink. We did not take very much. only two glasses of the wine, and we drank two glasses of cognac, that's all we drank. I was talking to Capt Braden and he told me to report to the pl sjt and after that I was talking to the sjt when I was eating supper alongside the road, and the sjt told me to go back to my own area and we went back. After that I reported to my own area to the cpl and I was placed on guard from 0100 hrs to 0400 hrs in the morning, I knew what I was doing. I was not very drunk. I am an Indian and don't drink very much as in Canada an Indian cannot get any liquor. Whenever anybody gives me something I drink.

Ples of Mitigation of Sentence for P.36422 Pte Dennis F.

Gentlemen of the Court, there are a few points that I would like to draw to the attention of the Court.

(1) That the liquor and spirits of France are entirely different than the spirits in England or Canada. And unless one was warned of the effects of a few drinks of certain types of liquor over here, he would indulge in too much and would do things that he would not ordinarily do.

(2) To the fact that Pte Dennis is a Mic-Mac Indian. In Canada they are not allowed to purchase or have in their possession any liquor what-so-ever. We know that liquor has a greater influence on them, and Pte Dennis is no exception. He did sample a few drinks, and I strongly plead for leniency of his sentence.

That is all gentlemen.

The Court feel that as this man is an Indian who is not allowed liquor in Canada, and further that as he has a very low mentality, (the Court had great difficulty in proceeding with the case as it was hard to make the accused realize what was going on) that the sentence might be reviewed (after the accused has been sos the regiment) and possibly reduced.

2. The Court further suggest that this man should be reallocated from a field unit to duties at a pioneer or base unit.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. The Court feel that as this man is an Indian who is not allowed liquor in Canada, and further that as he has a very low mentality, (the Court had great difficulty in proceeding with the case as it was hard to make the accused realize what was going on) that the sentence might be reviewed (after the accused has been sent to the regiment) and possibly reduced.
2. The Court further suggest that this man should be reallocated from a field unit to duties at a prisoner of war unit.

Plea of Mitigation of Sentence for F. 36432 Pte Dennis F. RJC.

Gentlemen of the Court, ~~although Pte Dennis pleaded guilty~~, there are a few points that I would like to draw to the attention of the Court.

(1) That the liquor and spirits of France are entirely different than the spirits in England & Canada. And unless one was warned of the effects of a few drinks of certain types of liquor one has, he would indulge in too much and would do things that he would not ordinarily do.

(2) In the fact that Pte Dennis is a Nic-Mac Indian. In Canada they are not allowed to purchase or have in their possession any liquor whatsoever. We know that liquor has a greater influence on them, and Pte Dennis is no exception. He did sample a few drinks, ~~but did not [illegible]~~ and I strongly plead for leniency of his sentence. That is all Gentlemen.

Dr. Stewart Lieut.

Capt J W Braden. SD; 9 Highs sworn states

I am Capt J W Braden. 2/c 3 A Coy. 1 Bn 9 Highs. On 22 Aug 44 while the Bn was in Trun I went to the coy kitchen to see how the noon meal was coming. Pte Dennis who was on kitchen fatigue was there and I noticed he was unable to carry out his duties owing to drink. He was endeavouring to start serving the meal, and was staggering over the hay boxes and spilling the food. I ordered him to return to his platoon, which he did not do. Two pt sgts then came and a charge was laid against Pte Dennis. The pt sgt took charge of Pte Dennis and sometime later he appeared before me in coy orders. I noticed at the time Pte Dennis had a very glassy stare in his eye. I could smell alcohol on Pte Dennis' breath. I am convinced that Pte Dennis staggering over the hay boxes was from influence of alcohol.

Cross examined by the defence.

This incident took place at the noon meal - I do not know whether Pte Dennis was placed under open arrest.

Questioned by the Court

In my opinion Pte Dennis was drunk.

C/S 4199 Sgt Hammell, A.A., Corps of Military Police:

I am C/S 4199 Sgt Hammell, A.A., Corps of Military Police. I am Provost Sgt of Highs. Dennis was detailed for kitchen fatigue on the morning of the 22 Aug. He reported to the kitchen fatigue all right. During the time he was ~~there~~ there I was up for dinner. Dennis was sitting on the side walk. I could smell liquor on him, and he was trying to call his names, which he made a poor job of. I told him he was under close arrest and told the charge. When he was taking his dismissal he cursed and manipulated his fork and mess tin. I would say that Dennis had difficulty with his mess tin was due to drink. In my opinion he was drunk.

Cross examined by the defence.

I am not positive as to whether this is what Dennis was at the moment. Perhaps mud with the dinners on it. I do not what duties the dinners performed after he reported back to hospital area. He was ordered to report to hospital when detailed, and I told the Sgt Dennis was under close arrest and was not to leave the area. I do not know if Dennis was placed on guard after he returned to hospital area.

Statement of accused:-

I don't understand very much but I know I was drinking that day, I was working in the kitchen washing pots and pans and the barber came over and gave me a haircut, and he had two bottles of wine and gave me a drink. I did not take very much, only two glasses of cognac that's all we drank. I was talking to Capt Strachan and he told me to report to the pl sgt. and after that I was talking to the sgt when I was taking supper about 5:00 he told me & go back to my own area and we went back. after that I reported to my own area to the sgt and I was placed on guard from the 01:00 hrs to 0401 hrs - the morning I knew what I was doing. I was not very drunk. I am an Indian and don't drink very much as a Canadian Indian cannot get any liquor when we buy beer or something I drink.

CHARACTER WITNESSES FOR THE DEFENCE.

1st Witness For the defence — Captain Phillips, padre of the 1st Cdn Medium Regiment R.C.A. was duly sworn.

Q.1 Will you please tell the Court how long you have known the accused.

A.1 My first intiment knowledge of the accused commenced in February 1941. My knowledge of the family goes back to 1928.

Q.2 Would you tell the Court, your knowledge of the conduct of the accused.

A.2 Yes. He is a slightly irresponsibile soldier, he is a bit fed up with things lately waiting to get into action, but he is not a bad lad. Since his arrest I have had several personal talks with him and he stated "One thing is worrying me, and that is my Mother. I am worrying about my assigned pay being cut off". A man with so much consideration for his Mother, cannot have very much wrong with him. In my firm and honest opinion he is a good lad.

2nd Witness For the defence — Captain J.D. Hazen of the 2nd Med Bty 1st Cdn Medium Regiment R.C.A. was duly sworn.

Q.1 Are you Troop Commander of the troop to which Gnr Dennis belongs?

A.1 Yes.

Q.2 How long have you known the accused?

A.2 I have known Gnr Dennis for four months. Since my acquaintance with Gnr Dennis I can quite truly say that he is a good soldier. He has had two minor charges, but he is definitely an asset to the troop.

21 Aug 43.

ADDRESS OF THE DEFENDING OFFICER.

The accused has pleaded guilty but in sentencing him, I would like the Court to take these facts into consideration. You have heard the Padre and his Troop Commander, Capt. Hazon, who have both stated that the accused is a good soldier and an asset to his Troop.

Gnr Dennis enlisted on the 2nd September 1939. He came Overseas with the 1st Medium Regiment in February 1940. Since then the accused has been employed as Battery Commanders Driver. He is also qualified as a Driver Mechanic. His record of Character is very good having had only two minor charges since he joined the Army. I do not wish to minimise the seriousness of the charge now laid against him, but I would like the Court to take these facts into consideration, his very excellent record and the evidence of his Padre and Troop Commander as to his previous conduct and his value to the Regiment.

The Court took evidence to cover a discrepancy in the Summary on 1st Charge.

Police Sergeant, 85, J.H. Allman, Cheshire Constabulary, Altrincham, being still under oath, states:-

I first met the accused at 6.15 p.m. at Altrincham, Cheshire, on 2 Oct 43. I arrested him and took him to the Civil Police Station where he was detained in custody and he was handed over to C.Prov.C. the same night.

The President then pointed out that there was no evidence in the testimonies of Lieut Rhodes or elsewhere proving that the accused absented himself "from "C" Pl 41 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy, RCASC." He also stated that the court could not make a special finding on a plea of Guilty. The Defending Officer stated that the accused would not make a plea with an exception under RP.44(H), and asked the court to enter a plea of Not Guilty, which was granted, and the record was amended accordingly.

The prosecutor stated that Lieut Rhodes cannot be summoned to be a witness as he is on special duty elsewhere and will not be available and stated that he had no evidence to prove the particular facts above referred to.

The prosecutor asked for an adjournment to obtain a Part II Order from the Rear Party of 41 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy, RCASC, to prove those facts.

The Defending Officer stated that he opposed the granting of an adjournment. The accused had been in close custody awaiting trial 30 days. Two Summaries of Evidence had been taken and any deficiencies in the evidence could have been remedied. He stated that the prosecutor at any time during the 30 days had not evidence to meet the plea of Not Guilty. He said that a Part II Order that was now obtained would probably be based on hearsay because if there were any facts available on which to base such an Order that evidence could now be produced before this court.

He stated that the lack of preparation of evidence on the part of the prosecution was negligence on their part. They could have got the Part II Order any time in the last 30 days. He quoted fn.4 to RP 86 and said that the court should not grant an adjournment or allow any evidence to be called at this stage.

The court was closed to consider the application.
The court re-opened.

The President announced that the court refused to grant an adjournment or to allow new evidence to be called.

The Defending Officer submitted that no prima facia case had been made by the prosecutor on the 1st charge and asked that the accused be found Not Guilty thereof.

The prosecutor replied.

The court was closed to consider the Defending Officer's submission.
The court re-opened.

The President announced that the submission was allowed and that the accused was found Not Guilty on the 1st charge.

[redacted] was released.

THE COURT WAS CLOSED.

His speech was so thick that I couldn't understand him. He was quite unfit to be in charge of a motor vehicle and as a result of my judgment the accused was charged. when driving a motor vehicle. I did not ask him if he was under the influence of drink as I am satisfied that he was in charge of the vehicle etc. if I had done so I would have received a denial by a drunk person

He about 30 miles from Liverpool to Altrincham. The accused was quiet. He was almost incapable of doing anything He was asleep in his cell for the 3½ hrs during which I remained on duty.

4th witness for the Prosecution

His face was congested and I concluded that he was incapable of understanding what was said to him

Argument for Defence -

One witness for prosecution swears positively the accused was taller. The new hair showing a faint stubble had been growing. The evidence shows he had been AWOL for a week - Accused 184 with day before - 90 miles that day & very tired & two & a half weeks before the record of razor that witness can be accounted for by reason of fatigue from hard & nature of the work. Onus on prosecution to prove case beyond all reasonable doubt - Evidence of defence raises a reasonable doubt as to his conviction.

Fifth witness for the prosecution

Mrs Alice Hodgson Jones, 44 old Market Place, Altrincham

I would not like to swear to it that the accused is the man who knocked Miss Burton off her cycle. A motor cyclist coming in the same direction as Miss Burton, my husband and myself, hit Miss Burton and knocked her off her cycle. He carried on for about 10 yards or so and then fell off himself. I do not think he realised he had hit anyone. We tried to get him to remain there until the police came, but although he stayed for awhile he would not wait until the police came. He smelled very strongly of drink and I think he was drunk.

Affidavit obtained for prosecution

Mrs. ann Hidden, Kangemous, W. L. A. Hoad, Chester Road, Millington, having been duly sworn states:

Sat. afternoon Oct. 2nd about 3:30 P.M. I was sitting in my house reading when I heard what I thought was a skid outside and then a crash. I saw a large boxed wagon which was passing also, so I went out to see if there was anything I could do. There were two groups of people on the other side of the road about 10 or 12 yds. apart. The group to my left were people with bicycles, and they were gathered around a woman who was lying on the grassy verge there, so I asked if they would like to bring her into my house. They said a private car was taking her to Knutsford Hospital, so I asked what had happened. They said that he, the accused, had hit her, I went over to the other group and saw they were standing around the accused, whom I now recognize, and his engine was still running. I told him he'd better switch off his engine as he shouldn't go until the police have seen him. That he was so drunk he didn't understand what I said. I asked one of the lay attendants to switch the engine off, and they said they couldn't do that. I said, in these circumstances I gave no good card, in any case, hold him and take his number because

EXHIBIT "F"

I'm going to phone for the police." She then came into the house again and phoned for the London police. When I went out the accused had gone. I told them they were a pack of fools and if anything happened it was more their fault than his, and I asked which way he'd gone. They said he'd gone to Myers to pick up a convoy, so I came back into the house and telephoned to the Kindapied police, and asked them to send a man down to Myers corner to stop him there."

Cross Examined by the accused:—

Q. The noise you heard, what did you think it was, brakes or what?

A. I wasn't sure but I thought it was a yoke.

Q. Do you think I knew I'd been in an accident.

A. Frankly I don't think you had a fainted idea about anything.

The accused was cautioned as follows:—

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

3rd WITNESS (For the Prosecution).

Inspector Thomas Heatley, Liverpool City Police, whose sworn statement reads as follows,

" At 1830 hrs, 2 Oct 43 I was on duty at the main Bridewell Liverpool when the accused, whom I now recognize was brought in by P.C. 270 "A" Hipkiss. He was drunk and not fit to have control of a motor vehicle"

Cross Examined by the accused:-

Question 1. Did I cause any trouble when I was brought in ?

Answer 1. No.

(Sgd) T. Heatley, Inspector.

4th WITNESS (For the Prosecution)

P.C. Hipkiss, Liverpool City Police, whose sworn statement reads as follows,

" At half past five on Saturday, 2 Oct 43 I was standing on the junction of London Road and Lyme street on traffic duty when I saw a military D.R. coming down the London Road. He suddenly swerved into the side and fell off his machine. I went over and assisted him to his feet and noticed that he was very drunk, smelling very strongly of alcohol. I took him into Lyme street Railway station and from there conveyed him in the Police Petrol Van to the main Bridewell Police Station, where he was detained pending escort. I recognize the accused as the D.R. I have been speaking about."

Cross Examined by the accused:-

Question 1. The road on which I fell off my cycle, was it cement blocks or level cement ?

Answer 2. It was the blocks, that is what is called setts.

(Sgd) J.A. Hipkiss, Con 270A

5th WITNESS (For the Prosecution)

Lieut. W.F. Rhodes, 41 Cdn Gen Tpt Coy, RCASC, whose sworn statement reads as follows,

" On 2 Oct 43 at approximately 1230 hrs the accused, whom I now recognize, was on point duty escorting a convoy out of the outskirts of Manchester. The convoy proceeded on as per route laid down and the accused failed to return to his section in the convoy. I did not give them permission to leave the convoy. I did not see them again, but I heard about them from the police in Wellington."

(Sgd) W.F. Rhodes, Lieut.

6th WITNESS (For the Prosecution)

Mrs. Alice Hodgson Jones, 4A Old Market Place, Altrincham, whose statement reads as follows,

" I would not like to swear to it that the accused is the man who knocked Miss Burton off her cycle. A motorcyclist coming in the same direction as Miss Burton, my husband and myself, hit Miss Burton and knocked her off her cycle. He carried on for about 10 yards or so and then fell off himself. I do not think he realized he had hit anyone. We tried to get him to remain there until the police came but, although he stayed for awhile he would not wait until the police came. He smelled very strongly of drink and I think he was drunk."

Cross Examined by the Accused:-

Answer 1. No. The only convoy we saw passed through Altrincham at about 1230 hrs, and the accident occurred at about 1530 hrs.

Question 2. What were my reactions to our references to the accident ?

Answer 2. You seemed to think it was your accident of falling off your motorcycle. I dont think you knew you had hit anyone else.

(Sgd) Alice H. Jones

7th WITNESS (For the Prosecution) Mrs. Ann Hidden, Rangemore, W.L.A. Hostel, Chester Road, Millington, whose sworn statement reads as follows,

" Sat afternoon Oct 2nd about 3:30 P.M. I was sitting in the house reading when I heard what I thought was a skid outside and then a crash I saw a large boxed wagon which was passing stop, so I went out to see if there was anything I could do. There were two groups of people on the other side of the road about 10 or 12 yards apart. The group to my left were people with bicycles, and they were gathered around a woman who was lying on the grassy verge there, so I asked if they would like to bring her into the house. They said a private car was taking her to Knutsford Hospital, so I asked what had happened. They said that he, the accused had hit her. I went over to the other group and saw they were standing around the accused, whom I now recognize, and his engine still running. I told him he had better switch off his engine as he shouldn't go until the police had seen him. But he was drunk he didnt understand what I said. I asked one of the by-standers to switch the engine off, but they said they couldnt do that. I said, in these circumstances of course you can, in any case, hold him and take his number because I'm going to phone for the police. I then came into the houseand phoned for the Bowdon Police. When I went out the accused had gone. I told them they were a pack of fools and if anything happened it was more their fault than his, and I asked which way he'd gone. They said he'd gone to Mere to pick up a convoy, so I came back into the house and telephoned to the Knutsford Police, and asked them to send a man down to Mere corner to stop him there."

Cross Examined by the accused:-

Question 1. The noise you heard, what did you think it was, brakes or what ?

Answer 1. I w sn't sure but I thought it was a skid.

Question 2. Do you think I knew I'd been in an accident ?

Answer 2. Frankly I dont think you had the faintest idea about anything.

~~Sir~~: Mr. President and Members of the Court.

The court, by merely looking at this man can see that he is no weakling, but is determined, capable & self-reliant.

No Wonder! At the age of 14 Gnr. Dennis went to work to help support his mother and invalid father. At the time of his enlistment in June 1941. he was a machine Repairman earning $25.00 per week. He had held this job for 4 years. Hardly an indication of unreliability.

He came to England with the 14th Field Regiment in July 1941. and was with them until hospitalized by a broken leg in Nov. 1941. His record with the Regt. is good. and without crime.

He spent almost a year in hospital - from Nov. 1941 until Oct. 1942. Sufficient in itself to slightly sour a keen, energetic young man of 20.

But Gnr Dennis came out - still eager for action. Imagine then his disappointment on finding himself - though apparently fit - categorized B2.
He sought to have his category raised - and failed.
He sought to transfer to the Pioneer Corps - hoping for greater activity there - and failed.
He sought, for the same reason, a transfer to the Forestry Corps - and failed.
Suffering from depression & seeking relief from the prosaic monotony of the training centre. he went A.W.L.
Eventually he gave himself up voluntarily & took his punishment.

Each time he has absented himself he has voluntarily surrendered. His surrender has not been dictated by lack of money - for each time he has found employment. During this absence, for example, he was working 14 hours a day, earning 32 pence an hour.

He is not lazy. He wants to work. But he is not suited to his present environment. He sincerely believes that given congenial employment he could settle down.

I submit therefore that Gnr. Dennis, if suitably placed, has the energy & ability to become a useful, productive and reliable member of the Canadian army.

He does not seek mitigation of punishment. He does respectfully request that, upon the completion of his sentence, the court direct his transfer to a unit, such as the Base Ordnance workshop where he can use his abilities and thus feel useful - this provided he is unable, because of category, to return to the field.

Respectfully submitted
J. M. Eastman Lieut.

Pirimiti Camp,
Thursday Nite.
Nov. 13. 1941

Evelyn Dearest,

Good ole Iowa raining almost incessantly, day + nite, for over a week. Just like the weather we had this time last year when we were hauling rubble from London every day to make roads in our camp in the bush at Hanley, & we finally had to give it up for a bad job. You should see this camp Dear. It's positively in a deplorable condition. It was certainly an unwise location for a regiment of artillery. Our equipment is so heavy. The last sort of wheel, yesterday and then we tried to move the guns they got so badly mired we had all morning just getting out & to the pomp.

where I'll try and get it. They have a sort of reading library here in camp but the books are all terribly old and dirty things that women's institutions have contributed, you know the variety.

"Sea under your piano" - hm. -m-m, wonder what that means? --- What is watercolory colour dress? that sounds (& looks?) like a nice coat your sketches. Has hat you had on in the garden at Victoria looks like the same one with the loop in front that you had when I left home?

Well Deario I must wind this up - grab what to do about Xmas cards. I just feel about want to be bothered getting any at all Poor Vi that's true.

Yr 'Angel'
Adore you Dorig.

CANADIAN LEGION

WAR SERVICES 1941

So now I guess they'll decide to build platforms for the guns and tracks and then we won't be able to move them at all till the rainy season is over and then of course the winter is on too. Yeah you know its marvellous the way the German troops can overcome these obstacles and keep their armies moving ahead all the time in spite of the rain. Some day they calculates. If they could have seen us struggling to keep our guns etc. from going out of sight right here in camp yesterday they would have had plenty of reason to smile.

Yes to matter of course the conditions understood for walking.

Am just answering your letter as I come to them.

So that's one reason you feel shy, possessing a woollen sweater Dearie? Ha! did I ever say you were too fat under one? Dearie me?!

And another regret in the same eye! darn.

Dearie I wonder if you'll be visiting the Erskine church on the corner of Wright & Rosser walks at Xmas time, and will it be as pretty as it was that time you and I went?

Yes Dear the leaves don't die out in such a galaxy of colours here, like they do at home.

I've heard of that book "The Sun is My Undoing". If I can it's easy.

CANADIAN LEGION

WAR SERVICES 1941

One of the lads here in the hut got a huge birth-day cake from home b-day, it must have been at least, 18 inches across, and he cut it up and divided it among about 8 of us, as you can imagine how big a chunk we each had. Holy smoke I have ate so much rich cake at one time before and that was before supper. I swapped a no bit sour in my tummy and the others say the same. Incidentally this chap is a French Canadian & his cake had "Bonne Fête" on it, and candles wrapped up with it. He didn't bother sticking them in + lighting them or sh.

the location. Dearie I imagine if you do any strolling there the park there you'd have a few recollections - darling - - -!! Have you by any chance called on Mrs. Elliot at 292 Wright - was that not her name? You'd also be familiar with the store on Rochambeau.

You've heard of that dog [illegible] Dix. seen Dietrich in the Star I think. It's a good publicity idea isn't it?

I asked you to tell me if there was anything else in Tartan material that you would like me to send you whenever I go in town but you didn't say anything about it dear. By the way I'm afraid I'm not holding out arguments in this letter but

WAR SERVICES 1941

Well Smethurst, since I wrote you a week ago to-day, or was it a week ago tomorrow morning - I was on telephone duty all night anyway - since then I've had 4 letters and a birthday card from you, as follows:

104 - Oct. 8
105 - " 9
106 - " 17
card - " 15
} Nos. 9

107 - Oct. 20 - Nos. 11

I'll mention once more that 94, 98 and 99 must have been lost, so with those exceptions I'm all caught up.

I haven't much news of my own, so I can dispense with that in a hurry and answer all to see anything that looks like this sketch I'll get it for you. Meanwhile I'll send him a cheque to buy Xmas gifts with like I did last year and I'll try to think of something to hear him send you. ~~Actually~~ Actually, I don't like the idea of sending things ~~of any nature~~ from here except when we leave, just casually as it were.

Yes Dear I realize you just offered it as a suggestion but I wish you had made more than one suggestion.

I hope you had enough of that tartan material for the pleated skirt; and glad the slippers fit.

I can easily understand the lay-out of your rooms Dear from your diagram. and also your letter afterwards. On Friday evening I decided to go over to Horsley and for some unknown reason left here before supper, with the result that when I got there about 5 o'clock I was starving so I went straight to the Mess, and you can imagine my delight to find they were having a banquet, followed by a sort of concert or smoker. Full of consuming one of the old boys so to speak, I felt quite justified in staying and got together with Hank Hogg & the others. Gosh dear what a spread - just about as good as the meal we had there last Xmas.

How dare it Dearie David you had give me a more practical suggestion for a xmas present. Not that I wouldn't like to get something like that to send you Darling but I mean - well in the first place I can't really understand what your drawing is intended to represent and in the second I couldn't get anything in china very conveniently because I haven't access to stores where they would be apt to have it, and in the third I wouldn't be a good judge of things like that. Even if I were to go up to London on a Saturday afternoon I'd be completely lost shopping for china. I'll certainly promise you this tho Dear - if at any time I do happen

There were a lot of faces new to me - the men who came to take our place when we left Horsley a month ago. There was a battle of beer for everybody as there usually is at a smoker. I think the banquet was intended to be in honour of the fact the battery - in fact the whole 1st Sust. Regiment is upsetting to move down to the south coast to take over defence duties from the English troops. It's a desirable place and they aren't looking forward to the winter there with much enthusiasm. I don't know how soon exactly exactly when they are leaving Horsley but soon.

abstracted it" to you but it wasn't mine of course

Now for your letters - thanks. Dreadful for the comet card. it was a few days late but that must be expected, the parcel came in good time anyway.

So my 120 was reasoned? Sir Hearn some of the others saying their letters have been opened too lately, well they didn't find much to black-out in it anyway.

I'm glad dear that you found your new place not so bad as you thought at first:

- oh by the way it was funny the censors blacked out the word "Guildford" because I was mistaken anyway. it was Woking where Mrs. Lunn was cremated. Do you suppose they were just correcting me? ha:

There were 2 or 3 musicians and there were some old army songs & jokes & speeches & so on & the usual variety of entertainment, crude but there were lots of laughs.

Saturday afternoon some of us went down to Kingston on skates and went to a show - "40,000 Horsemen" not bad but not good either.

Sunday it was too rather a day to go out so just lay around and slept all day & evening.

Monday nite Don Robinson and I went up to London and went to the Paramount ball room, and spent all nite dancing around the nite clubs, wrote the ex-girl-friend a real hot letter. You know we always see the Star Weekly & someone always has one sent to him, & we often see pictures of Canadian troops over here, in various activities, both military and social, you never know who is apt to be taking candid snaps to send back to the Canadian papers, and it must often occur that girls and wives back home are shocked to see their boy-friends or husbands making puppy love to ~~some~~ English girls over here. Not so good! We had a Star Weekly here a while ago with a picture of us the day Mr. King "reviewed" us, & wasn't it the pictures had several of the boys could be recognized. I would have cut the picture out and sent there is always something going on in such places. floor shows + so on, and we came home on the morning train - stayed home Friday nite and last evening the same chap and I went down to Eaton's to see "Underground" a real good propaganda picture. ~~with~~ also Father Takes a Wife.

So this pic about brings me up to date - but here's a funny little incident I want to tell you about - or is - incidents (and actually not so funny) One of the lads in this hut - a Toronto boy - happened to pick up the rotogravure section of a Star Weekly that one of the others had,

and as he was glancing thro it he noticed a fall that looked familiar to him, and darned if it wasn't his own girl friend
. she lives in Owen Sound - and here she was promenading along the lake shore, arm - in - arm with a Polish soldier, and looking as ~~contented~~ sickeningly happy about it!
It said something underneath it about some Polish troops who had organized up that way and how friendly they were treated by the local population.
Now if that wasn't irony what was it? Josh Mac was mad! well naturally he would be, to see his own girl friend in company with a Pole. He stuck the pillow up on the door here with a knife then it, and tried all the humour in it but not Mac. It certainly was down and and I'm not complaining only stating facts for after all we are lucky!

What! a couple girls? You're not getting jack shit ahead of you are I'm afraid so Anne!
wouldn't you like to know? Ariette!!! ask me!
x would not you

TRIAL OF - C16636 Gnr. Dennison D.G., 5th Cdn. Med.Regt.

Prosecuter.

Lieut. A. M. Boulton

Defending Officer

Lieut. J.L. Etherington

The convening order was read by the President and the accused arraigned on the charge.
The accused pleaded guilty.
The accused No. C16636 - Gnr. Dennison D.G., made no statement.

The defending counsel made the following statement in mitigation.

The accused has a case of unusual type, a test case to bring out the importance of security to officers and other ranks of the Canadian Forces.
The letter in question was the 136th letter written to the accused's fiance, whom he has known for six years. The accused has been careless without ulterior motive. The information given was of no importance to the enemy. The accused was one unfortunate man unlucky enough to have had his letter opened. The reference to the 1st Medium was to convey news of mutual friends. The accused did not think that the reference to Kingston and Esher was a breach of security. He has not mentioned the name of his unit anywhere in his letter. The accused in the letter is trying to refute any suggestion that the Canadian Forces live a cosy life. The accused was under the impression that all letters were censored and anything objectionable deleted by the censors. The accused has learned his lesson and I intend to bring character witnesses before the Court.
I submit that the Court, in considering punishment of accused, should take into account that his breach was through carlessness and that detention could not make him any more securely minded.
I respectfully ask the Court to award the accused as low a sentence as allowed by the Army Act.

Character witnesses were then called.

First Witness

Lieut. A. Melanson 23rd Bty., 5th Med. Regt. having been duly sworn states;
I am an officer of the accused's battery. I have known the accused since July 1940 and have always found him obedient, doing a good job, clean and well educated but a little foolhardy. He has the qualities of a good soldier. He has shown enough ability to be considered for promotion. He is an R.T. operator in battery headquarters, and a very good one.

Second Witness

Lieut. C. W. Tapley 23rd Bty., 5th Med.Regt., having been duly sworn states:
I am an officer of the accused's battery. I have known the accused for 10 months and have worked with the accused for 2 months in the 1st Med. The accused came to the 5th Med. in the same troop as myself from the 1st Med. His character is very good and he was the first man I recommended for promotion. He is one of the best signallers, a willing worker and his general bearing is very good.

Third Witness

B21059 - Troop Sgt. Major Fletcher N.S., having been duly sworn states:

I have known the accused since Feb. 1940 and have always been in the same batteries where the accused was under my command.

His character is very good, he is clean, cheerful and willing. He has always been an R.T. signaller and has been recommended for promotion in that line.

Fourth Witness

B21154- L/Sgt. Hosking A.H., having been duly sworn states:

I am N.C.O. i/c 23rd Bty. Signallers. I have known the accused since Feb. 1940. Up to six or seven months ago I knew him by sight, since then he has been under me in the signal section.

He is at present storeman in the signal stores, which job calls for a responsible man. The accused has been recommended for promotion and is a very good soldier.

The Prosecutor having been duly sworn presents statement as to character and particulars of the accused, A.F.E. 296 and a certified true copy of A.F.B. 122

A. 46 Yes, sir.

"The only thing I can see which would influence this case is that the regt was involved in a number of exercises and the accused went absent. He had just returned from an exercise that day and a Coy bath parade was called in the afternoon. The accused slept in and as he had a lady friend in town, did not show up or return to the unit lines at the time stated. Later in the evening he returned to barracks but we have no evidence to show it. In the morning he went to London. There he managed to get along as soldiers do in London and at no time had the intention of not returning to his unit when he was picked up and told the provost that he was absent. In view of that and in view of the fact that no passes were given in King's Lynn, there may be something in his favour and I ask that you take this into consideration."

The President announces:

"The Court is closed for consideration of the sentence. The sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced but will be promulgated later and the proceedings in Open Court are accordingly terminated."

The Court is closed to consider the sentence.

The sentence is recorded, dated and signed by the President on page 2 of AFA 3.

ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTING OFFICER

I have attempted to point out through the evidence of CSM Neilly that the accused was warned for duty at 1800 hours 17 July and was not again see until he was returned to the unit by the military police. From the evidence of the military police who apprehended the accused, there are a good many indications to show that the accused did not intend to return to his unit.

First of all he was wearing flashes of another unit and secondly he was in possession of a forged pass which as a matter more or less in conjunction with the flashes. His head dress had been changed. I feel that all these things point out that the man was trying to disguise his unit, equip himself with forged passes and thereby carry on indefinitely. When he was searched, he was found to have in his possession a blank paybook and with this there would be a wide scope for him to get away anything. It is possible that the man could have shown himself a RSM and thereby made himself much less liable to accosting by the military police and could have walked the streets of London for some months without being picked up.

These things point out that the man had no intention of returning to his unit until such time as he was arrested by the Corps of Military Police and returned to his unit.

Another thing this absence was for almost 39 days which is another indication that he had financial resources to carry on. If he had financial resources to carry on for 39 days, I feel he could have carried on indefinitely. I think it is quite conclusive that he left his unit with the intention of not returning.

Gunn.

ADDRESS BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

The criterion between desertion and AWL is intention. That means that the intention for desertion must be for the soldier to intend to desert his unit or to military service, or to escape from some important military service.

There has been no evidence to show that the accused had any of these intentions. The Prosecution has shown that he was wearing flashes of the RCE, that he was wearing a head dress other than that of his own unit and he was carrying a pass which was not official. In my opinion that points out merely that the accused was AWL and was using these means to stay away. He was taking a holiday. His unit was in East Anglia on special training. Had he appeared in London wearing his own head dress and flashes, he would have been picked up immediately. He did not attempt to make any entries in the pay book. All these things point out he was merely taking an illegal holiday.

The Prosecution brought out the point of 39 days absence. The length of the absence is not at all important. A man might be a deserter if only away for five hours if he had the intention of deserting. The Prosecution has not proven in any way that the accused had the intention of deserting.

At the time of the offence, the unit was in King's Lynn. The accused had been warned for a swim parade. He slept through that and that came out in the evidence of CSM Neilly. The evidence is that he was absent from 1800 hours and used the various means described to have a holiday.

When arrested by the Corps of Military Police, he did not create any impression that he had the intention of not returning to his unit. One witness went so far as to say that he thought the accused said he was going to return to his unit. He produced his own paybook and handed over the blank one. He admitted that the pass was false and that he was AWL for 6 weeks. There is no evidence to show that he had no intention of returning to his unit. The mere fact that he was wearing military uniform in London bears out that he was not deserting. The only thing he can be found guilty of is AWL and certainly not desertion.

"I am B78512 CSM Neilly S R,- On Saturday 17 Jul 43 Pte Dennison did not report for swim parade with the Company I asked him why and he made some excuse about being at the signal barracks. I ordered him to report to the Coy Orderly Sgt at 1800 hrs that day for duty. He did not appear at this time. I then told any of the NCOs who might see Dennison on the street to tell him to report back to barracks. Late that evening, Sgt Elliott K asked me if Dennison had reported back, as he had seen him on the street and told him that he was to go back to barracks. On enquiring at the Guard Room I found that Dennison had Not reported back. To the best of my knowledge he has not been with the Company since that time.

PROCEEDINGS.

A.
Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this Second day of October, 19 42

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 6th Canadian Infantry Brigade, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *~~and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer.~~]

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit if not applicable

~~I am unable to appoint~~
~~(1) Three Officers to form the Court.)~~
~~(2) A Field Officer as President.)~~
~~(3) Three Officers having more than one year's service.)~~

~~for the following reasons, namely~~

In my opinion military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units and difficulties of communication and other difficulties render it inexpedient to observe the provisions of those rules inconsistent with Appendix "A" to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the person named in the annexed Schedule

EAST SUSSEX CONSTABULARY.

Exhibit "A"

From Sgt. B.Woodall, No. 11 Lewes

To The Supt. of Police, Lewes

23rd September 1942.

Re:- CANADIAN SOLDIERS IN PRIVATE DWELLING HOUSE

I beg to report that at 9.30 a.m. on Tuesday, the 22nd September 1942, in company with Sgt. D. HENZIE of the R.C.M.P. and other members of the Provost Corps, I went to No. 4, Baxter Road, Lewes, where upon entering the gateway I saw a Canadian soldier just leaving the house. I stopped him, and asked him if he was living there and he replied "No." I then called Sgt. Henzie, who then got into conversation with him. On entering the house, I saw another Canadian soldier sitting in the scullery repairing the tyre of a bicycle, and another soldier making his way to the back door. Subsequently Corporal R. BEAUCAGE, No. D.63320, F.M.R. Pte. E.A. LACQUEMENT, No. H.411492, R. Winnipeg Rifles, and Pte. A. DENOMME. No. D.62981, F.M.R. were arrested and conveyed to the Lewes Police charged as deserters.

While at the house I saw the occupier, Mrs. Annie BARNETT, aged 53 years, with Vera BARNETT, aged 19 years, Doris BARNETT, aged 22 years, both daughters of Mrs. Barnett, and a young child, the mother of whom Miss Eva JEFFREY was not in at the time. Miss Jeffrey is the daughter of Mrs. Barnett's sister. All four of the womenfolk live at No. 4 Baxter Road with an uncle Arthur Jeffrey, an old cattle drover, well-known in Lewes.

As a result of my enquiries, I ascertained that the soldiers in question all visited the house during the evenings, and had called there at an early hour in the mornings to wash, and prepare themselves for the day's duty, at least this is what the soldiers gave Mrs. Barnett to understand. Corporal BEAUCARE has been visiting the house almost daily since about three days prior to the 'Dieppe Maid,' but the other two have only been there during the past 10 days.

I am inclined to believe Mrs. Barnett's story, inasmuch that the house is very small, and there would hardly be sufficient accommodation for more then one man, and he would have to sleep on an old sofa in the sittingroom which is already well packed with furniture and rubbish.

The house is in a filthy condition, and at the time I visited it, a large table was still covered with the remains of several days' food, and dirty crockery ware.

Each of the three girls have no doubt encouraged these soldiers there during their spare time, and one vera Barnett goes so far as to say that she is engaged to Corporal Beaucare.

At the Police Station, I have spoken to each of these soldiers in turn, and I gather that they have in turn spent nights there on the sofa, no doubt for a certain purpose, but during the day time they have each borrowed the girls' cycles and cycled to a farm at Barcombe where they have been working on the land, returning each evening, and leaving after dark, and finding sleeping out space on the hills or on straw stacks or sheds in the district.

I visited the house again later in the morning, and searched the ground flior with Mrs. Barnett's permission, but apart from the three cycles already mentioned, I could find no trace, of any material in which to prefer a charge. I am satisfied that the 3 cycles belong to the girls.

(Signed) B. Woodall. Sgt. No. 11.

Proceedings in the case of B86789 L/Cpl. Denomme, A.J.

Members of the Court	President	Major H.C. Pattison
	Members	Capt. F. Petry
		Lieut. J.E. Parsons

Court convened at 1130 hrs. 23 Aug 44. Accused paraded in. Convening order read. No objections to the members of the Court were made. All members and other personnel were sworn in. Charges were read.

The Court asked "How do you plead, guilty or not guilty?"

Not guilty, sir.

Opening Address for the Prosecution:

Sir, Members of the Court, I wish to state the substance of the charges against the accused and the nature and general effect of the evidence, which I propose to adduce in support of

(1) Personnel where not charged under the usual "Being unfit for duty, because of previous indulgence in alcoholic stimulants".

(a) As in some cases it was considered they were fit for duty.

(b) Previous indulgence implies "the morning after or hangover".

(2) These men knowing the importance of the operation, realizing surely that they must have full control of all their facilities, took a drink and they left themselves open to over-indulgence under vital operational circumstances, and subsequent inefficiency in the handling of a W.D. Vehicle which simply means being unfit for duty.

First Witness for the prosecution called. Lieut. A.F. Goff having been duly sworn states:

I am the Platoon Commander of No. 4 Platoon. We were attached to the Royal Winnipeg Rifles for a troop lift. We were to lift the Royal Winnipeg Rifles from the Rest Centre to the Forward Assembly area. At approximately 1300 hrs. on the 8 Aug we started this move. Due to circumstances at the front it was never completed and we stopped at an intermediate point. We arrived there at about 1700 hrs and I was instructed from Battalion Headquarters that we would be on one hour's notice to move. There was about 15 or 20 minutes the troops were left on the vehicles and the order came through that we would be on one hour's notice to move. At this time the platoon was splitted up into sections. Sections of 3 or 4 were then sent to the various companies and were attached directly to them. We remained there all the 8 August and we were still left on this one hour notice all day.

Witness not cross-examined.

Second Witness for the prosecution called. Sgt. MacGregor having been duly sworn states:

The evidence that he gave at the time of the Summary of Evidence was read to him to refresh his memory.

Cross-examined by the Prosecution:

Q. What was his appearance at the time?
A. Very unsteady, sir, and not able to stand and fell around the lorry at the time.
Q. Did you smell liquor on his breath?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. When you spoke to L/Cpl. Denomme, did he hear you?
A. I told L/Cpl. Denomme that he was under arrest and he said "Very Good".

Q. Was he clear in his speech?
A. No, he sounded thick in his speech.

Q. In your statement you stated that he was unable to drive his lorry. Was he unable to drive his lorry due to his unsteadiness?
A. He was unable to drive his lorry due to his unsteadiness.

Cross-examined by the defence:
Q. Where was L/Cpl. Denomme when you placed him under arrest?
A. By his lorry.
Q. Did he drive his lorry after you placed him under arrest?
A. No, sir.

Questioned by the Court
Q. Due to L/Cpl. Denomme's condition was it necessary for you to put a replacement driver on his vehicle?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did L/Cpl. Denomme lose the use of his limbs?
A. No, sir, he was still able to stand up.

Statement by the Accused. Accused having been duly sworn states: I was working around my lorry when the sergeant from the infantry came over and asked me if I would like to have a drink. I figured that it was a drink of tea but he did not say what it was. I went over and there was a bunch of the boys around and they were drinking beer and gave me a mug of beer. I called the rest of the boys over. I had 3 mugs of beer and went back over to my lorry and had some beer over there. It had been issued and I had another mug of it and was fooling around the truck. Sgt. MacGregor came up and said that I was under arrest for being drunk. So I told my spare driver he would have to drive the truck which he did. I got in the spare driver's seat and came into camp.

R.P. 83 has been complied with.

Cross-examined by the Defence:
Q. How may drinks of beer di you have?
A. Four drinks.

Q. What kind of a day was it?
A. A hot day, sir.

Q. Did you feel any ill effects.
A. None except that it was warm.

Q. Did you feel a dizziness?
A. No, sir.

Q. Were you conscious of any unsteadiness?
A. A bunch of the boys were fooling around together.

Q. Do you feel if you had been called upon you could have driven your vehicle as capably as ever?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. L/Cpl. Denomme, you stated that a sergeant from the Infantry came over and asked you if you wished a drink. You stated that you had no information what it was. Did you check what the drink was?
A. No, sir.

Q. Did Sgt. MacGregor order you not to drive your lorry?
A. No, sir, he just placed me under arrest.

Questioned by the Court:
Q. Did your spare driver take over your lorry at your orders or Sgt. MacGregor's orders.
A. No, sir, it was at my order that he took over the vehicle.

Did Sgt. MacGregor order you not to drive the vehicle?
A. No, sir.

Q. L/Cpl. Denomme, you stated when you went back to the lines you had another drink of beer. Where did it come from?
A. It came from our orderly room, sir.

Q. Was an issue make to the section?
A. Every section got some.

Q. Did you have any more than the others?
A. I do not know, sir. We had a jerrican amongst the section. There are 13 men in a section.

Cross-examined by the Prosecution:
Q. L/Cpl. Denomme, you stated that an issue of beer was made from the Orderly Room Lorry. How didyou know this beer was issued from the Orderly Room?
A. They were talking about it and I asked them where they got it and they said that it came from the Orderly Room

Q. You actually never saw it issued from the Orderly Room lorry then.
A. No, sir, I was not down to theOrderly Room lorry.

Sgt. MacGregor recalled and questioned by the Court:
Q. Did L/Cpl. Denomme's spare driver take over his vehicle at L/Cpl. Denomme's request or at your order.
A. I ordered him to, sir.

Q. Did you give this order in the hearing of L/Cpl. Denomme?
A. Yes, sir

Q. Was he in such a condition that he did not hear you give the order?
A. He was right there but I do not doubt that he did not hear me.

Q. It was definitely your orders.
A. Yes, sir.

First Witness for the Defence: L/Cpl. Funnell having been duly sworn States:
Cross-examined by the Defence:
Q. On the 9th August, L/Cpl. Funnell, you were with your platoon which was doing troop lift for the Royal Winnipeg Rifles.
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was L/Cpl. Denomme under your observation at the time that the platoon was supposed to move?
A. Yes, sir, I saw him 3 or 4 times through the day.

Q. Did anything appear out of the ordinary with him.
A. No, sir.

Q. Did you notice any unsteadines in his gait or condition of his speech?
A. No, sir.

Q. Were you aware that L/Cpl. Denomme had been drinking some beer?
A. I heard some of the boys say that he was drunk but I saw him through the day and he was not drunk when I saw him. I also saw him just before the convoy pulled out and he was sitting in the spare driver's seat in his truck. The spare driver was driving his truck and I called to him and asked him if he was too lazy to drive his own truck. He just laughed, sir.

Q. Then as far as you could see L/Cpl. Denomme was not in a drunken condition?
A. No, sir.

Cross-examined by the Prosecution:
Q. Did you actually speak to L/Cpl. Denomme around 1700 hrs.?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you smell his breath?
A. No, sir. He was sitting in his truck across from my truck.

Q. At that time he was in the spare driver's seat, is that correct?
A. Yes, sir

Q. Did you inquire why he was not driving his own lorry?
A. Yes, sir. He just laughed at me

Q. In other words, L/Cpl. Funnell, you did not received a direct reply as to why he was not driving his lorry.
A. Yes, sir.

Q. You neglected to find out why?
A. I said it more in a joke and he just laughed back.

Q. Did you see L/Cpl. Denomme after you returned to your Company's lines?
A. No, sir.

Q. When you saw him in his vehicle, was he sitting up?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you have a drink during the day?
A. No, sir. None of my section had any because the Section Corporal and myself decided to lock it up until we got back to camp.

Sgt. MacGregor called as a character witness.

Defence said "Sgt. MacGregor, you are called as a character witness for L/Cpl. Denomme and nothing has been added to the case. I believe you agreed to do this".

Statement by Sgt. Macgregor:
L/Cpl. Denomme came to No. 4 Platoon one year ago January. I found him to be a very willing and efficient man. He was later promoted on these grounds. Since that time L/Cpl. Denomme has has some of the most difficult jobs that I have had to pass on. He has always carried them out in a very efficient manner. I might add this is the first time that I have seen him drink, let alone being under the influence of liquor. In my opinion someone gave it to him. That is all, sir.

There was no summary by either the prosecution or the defence.

The Court cleared for the members to come to a decision.

L/Cpl. Denomme paraded back in.

President of the Court States:

L/Cpl. Denome, you have been charged under Sec 19 of the Army Act and pleaded not guilty. On the evidence submitted by the prosecution you have been found by the Court GUILTY.

Summary of Evidence in the case of B86789 L/Cpl. Denomme, A.J. 8 Canadian Infantry Brigade Company Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness for the prosecution — Lieut. A.F. Goff, Officer Commanding No. 4 Platoon, 8 Canadian Infantry Brigade Company Royal Canadian Army Service Corps having been duly sworn states:

I am employed as Platoon Commander of No. 4 Pl. This Platoon was attached to Royal Winnipeg Rifles on 7 Aug 44 for transporting troops to carry out a move from the rest area to a forward assembly point. Due to circumstances the move was only partially completed and the T.C.Vs were held up at an intermediate point awaiting further instructions. At approximately 1700 hrs. 8 Aug 44 we were placed on one hour notice to move. I passed this information on to Sgt. McGregor who, in turn, informed the Section N.C.Os.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(2), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(3)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans 2/0.(4)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records findings of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12(4) and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?
Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf?

(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans 2/0

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex B and Ex C respectively.(3)

Plea for mitigation in the case of

M-104909 Ens Donovan JH

Mr President members of the court, for the M46355 of the accused you will see that he has been serving in the Canadian Army for a period of 1 yr 6 ms and his present age is 22 yrs 8 ms.

During his army career he has only one small entry on his conduct sheet.

The M46355, however does not paint a true picture of the service he has rendered to his country since the beginning of hostilities.

He joined the M/N in 1940 as a stoker and made several trips across the most important waters of the North Atlantic on a ship carrying vital supplies to the shores of, at that time, a sorely pressed Britain. He found in fact, he travelled on a munition ship.

Later on he was engaged on a troop ship carrying our troops to some of the far flung battle fronts of service, India China

While on this latter job, his ship was done in by the cowardly dogs of Nippon. He received wounds and his ship was lost. As a survivor he was landed at Singapore and then went through most of the siege for that unfortunate battle

F. 40229. Lt/pr. d'Entremont R.C.A., the accused, after being warned in accordance with R.A.F. 40. elected that he would testify under oath in his own defence, after being duly sworn, testified as follows, that while on guard at approximately 1630 hrs Monday 22 Feb, he found a lighter in the vehicle park. He carried it for several days, and then sold it to L/c Oakley for ten shillings. He admitted denying selling it when questioned by Sergt Patterson to avoid trouble. That morning he got permission from the guard commander to go to the canteen, where he purchased some lighter fluid. Cross examination revealed that civilians had access to the car park which is used as an air raid shelter. He denied that he had heard that the lighter was missing at 1600 hrs Friday, 26 Feb, but did not report that he had found a lighter. He did not remember being in Brunneau's room that week.

Prosecutor's Address

Before court on three charges. first theft of a cigarette lighter property of Bonneau etc.

2. Conduct to the prejudice etc — being an improper possession etc

3. Selling a lighter well knowing it not to be his own property.

1. We have here sworn Sgt. Pelham, description of lighter, value known. Lighter not found by the police + denial of sale. Substantiated by Fraser who also said that accused knew what was being searched for. Also Kelly's evidence. Ackley's statement that accused told the lighter. Also some finding not in d'Entremont + all the lighter. Also some finding not in accused may have retrieved the lighter.

Finally we have Bonneau's evidence who is very definite as to the time he last saw the lighter and first missed it. He was not in the garage all during the week -:. lighter was not lost in the garage. No evidence that the lighter ever taken from the pocket although opportunities were present.

Only two inferences or 1) lighter stolen + lost in garage

2) d'Entremont took the lighter from collection

OE two types of persons. have turned lighter in. Reasonable one would have known lighter was missing + Subsequent to the imputation to know lighter was missing + sold it but knew where it was. If he did know the purchase he might say nothing but not on proved circumstances Commenting on discrepancy of Bonneau's evidence, possibly trying to take over d'Entremont

3. He knew + knew it was but no inquiries made. Owner could easily be found.

d'Entremont lying when he found it in garage or Ackley

Also doubt but what he knew it was property of comrades

Similarly on 2nd charge

I came over & saw Sgt Kelly of the Provost and as a result in the presence of Tpr Brussaux L/Cpl Oakley produced a lighter which corresponded with the description given me by Brussaux and the lighter was identified by Tpr Brussaux as his. F 40 229 Spr d'Entumen to B.A.

The accused has pleaded guilty to charges which have arisen because of a protest action and are in reality no reflection of his great worth as a soldier. He has had five years service in the army, in that time he managed to collect two noticable entries on his A.B.64 but the court is asked to note that he has had no entries in the time he has been in action and that service includes part of the Sicilian & all of the Italian campaigns up to the time of his first incarceration.

His civilian background is one of a steady man in the field jobs for three year periods, was a farmer & truck handler and a taxi one as a mechanic in a garage. In the unit, he was employed as a driver in both the unit was mobile and became a rifleman when the unit turned to infantry and played his part as such.

The circumstances of his A.W.L. are simple to begin with. In company of a Cpl named Scott both units had leaves passes & went to the town of Molfetta & they had arranged to return with a truck in which they knew wanted to go to. There but the truck didn't turn up & they proceeded to get pissed up, at which stage it was decided that they were in trouble and might as well make it worth while & go to Rome. When they sobered up they found themselves in custody & were kept two weeks in Perugia & returned to the unit on 17 Dec. The accused was released from arrest and sent right into the line & stayed there on the f/l for five days, after the second day he was in charge of a section. He finished the action which was rather rough and when the unit moved back to Ravenna he took out again on his own, this was due again to an more than liberal amount of wine which caused him to place undue emphasis on the apparently poor spirit of the new men who had been under his command, he felt that the situation was intolerable & in that state of mind it seemed that he could so his problem by taking a loaf on his own and by leaving the solution to some one else.

This man has been a soldier a good one, he had a good share of battle and quarrels himself smell. He knows he must be punished and only asks that the court will be lenient enough that he may die in action with the men who were his own by his actions.

Date 2 Dec 44

(H.Q. RCASC 2 Cdn Corps)

Statement of the accused B84396 Pte Dupuy C.D.

Sir with being with a Pl of the coy on "Whelan" Jan 44 we were getting definite reports from the coy that the OC was asking NCO's to revert at their own request. Some of these NCO's were better men than I was or ever hoped to be. I was a L/Sgt at the time. I took 22 days unauthorized leave knowing then that I would loose my stripes. On returning to the unit I received a severe rep. and reverted. I was then reposted to A Pl where I took over the duties of MT Clerk. While there the clerk in the O Room had made application for a transfer out of the unit. This was granted. The OC then asked me if I would take over the clerks duties. I told him that I was not qualified and could not type. He told me to use the typewriter at HQ to get practice and then I would be TT'ed. The L/Sgt in A Pl asked for a transfer out of the unit. This was granted and a new L/Sgt was made to take his place. It seemed to me that I was the L/Sgt and he was the clerk wearing the badges of rank of L/Sgt. I still had not been TT'ed and doing this extra work "browned" me off. On taking a pass on the 7 May 44 I did not return.

PLEA FOR MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

B.84396 Pte Depew, C.O.

In making a plea for mitigation of sentence it is often overlooked by the defence the seriousness of the crime at hand. In the case of Pte Depew, the accused and the defence both realize that the crime committed is of a most serious character. I do not deny that being A W L for 169 days is not serious but I do wish to point out to the court that the accused had what he considered grievances which were not rectified up to and until the time of his crime.

He has stated before the court that he went A W L in the spring of 1944 because he heard rumours to the effect that senior NCO's in his Coy were having to revert at their own request. This began to prey on his mind because he firmly belived that these NCO's were better than he. In my opinion this man suffers from an inferiority complex which his officers did not try to rid him of, and the result was his first case of A W L.

Again having been s tripped of his rank he was allocated to another platoon and given a job of some responsibility. Promises were made and if not kept w ere certainly slow in being fulfilled. This man no doubt felt that his former crime and the punishment meted out had not as yet been forgotten and he went A W L for a second time.

Mr President and members of the Court I wish to bring to your attention now the fact that this man in my opinion suffers as I said from an inferiorty complex and after having been punished for one crime and given promises for future betterment after it, they were not kept. A grave injustice was thereby perpetrated.

The accused has been in the army since Sept 1939 and until the original crime in 1944 had only one entry on his conduct sheet. This should be proof to the court that he is not a habitual criminal and would not have committed this crime unless he felt that some grievance had been done him. Add to this the fact that he gave himself up voluntarily realizing the seriousness of the crime and the consequences thereof.

I abjure the court in their considerations of this case that they do not deal too harshly with the accused. The proper amount of punishment to be inflicted is the least amount by which discipline can efficiently be maintained. It must be the object of all concerned to aim at the high state of discipline which springs from a military system administered with justice and impartiality, and to induce in all ranks a feeling of confidence that, while no offence will be overlooked, no offender under any circumstances will suffer an injustice.

In conclusion sir before I lay my case in your hands may I sum up my points.

(1) Depew is not a habitual criminal as shown on his AFW 6.
(2) An injustice was certainly done.

STATEMENT OF THE ACCUSED B 84396 Pte Depew C.O.

Sir while being with Cpl of this coy on Wheels II Jan 44 we were getting definite reports from the coy that the O C was asking N.C.O's to revert at their own request. Some of these NCO's were better men than I was or everhoped to be. I was a L/Sgt at the time. I took 22 days unauthorized leave XXXX knowing then thatI would loose my stripes. On returning to the unit I received a severe rep. and reverted. I was then reposted to A Pl where I took over the duties of MT Clerk. While there the clerk in the O.Room had made application for a transfer out of the unit. This was granted. The O C then asked me if I would take over the clerks duties. I told him that I wasn't qualified and could not type. He told me to use the typewriter at HQ to get practice and then I would be TT'ed. The L/Sgt in A Pl asked for a transfer out of the unit. This was granted and a new L/Sgt made to take his place. It seemed to me that I was the L/Sgt and he was the clerk wearing the badges of rank of L/Sgt. I still had not been TT'ed and doing this extra work "browned" me off. On taking a pass on the 7 May 44 I did not return.

Summary of Evidence in the case of B 84396 Pte Depew C.O. 34 Canadian Corps Troops Composite Company, R.C.A.S.C. Canadain Army Overseas, charged with Absenting himself without leave.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

I am B 86295 Cpl Acciarcli, E of 34 Cdn Corps Tps Comp Coy., RCASC. On 8 May 1944 I was Orderly Corporal in 'A' Platoon of 34 Cdn Corps Tps Comp Coy RCASC. On making a tattoo Roll Call at 2245 hrs 8 May 44 I found that B. 84396 Pte Depew, C.O. was absent. I looked for him throughout all the billets but could not find him. I then checked with the Platoon Orderly Room and found that Pte Depew had been allowed out on 24 hrs pass and was due in 1200 hrs 8 May 1944, but had not returned. I therefore marked him A W L as of 1200hrs 8 May 1944.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

Lieutenant E. Eperson, 34 Canadian Corps Troops Composite Company, RCASC having been duly sworn, states:

I am Lt. E. Eperson, of 34 Cdn Corps Troops Coy, RCASC., I command 'A' Platoon of which B 84396 Pte Depew, C.O. was a member. Since 1200hrs 7 May 44 when Depew proceeded on 24 hrs pass I have not seen him on any roll call. He has been A W L, as I am concerned since 1200hrs 8 May 44. The first time I have seen Depew was today at 1500hrs, 19 Nov 44.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

THIRD WITNESS

Captain C.M. Longbotham, of 34 Canadian Corps Troops Comp Coy RCASC, having been duly sworn states:

I am Capt C. M. Longbotham, of 34 Cdn Corps Troops Comp Coy., R.C.A.S.C. and produce as Exhibit "A" the original certificate of surrender petaining to B 84396 Pte Depew , C.O. dated 2210 hrs 24 Oct 44. Said certificate forming part of the Regimental Books of this unit.

The accused has read the evidence submitted and declines to cross examine it.

RP (c) (d) (e) (f) having been complied with, the accused declines to make any statement or to give any evidence on Oath. Taken by me in the Field in the presence and hearing of the accused this 18th day of November 1944.

(C.M.Longbotham) Capt.,

B 84396 Pte Depew, C.O.

In making a plea for mitigation of sentence it is often overlooked the defence the seriousness of the crime at hand. In the case of Pte Depew, the accused and the defence both realize that the crime committed is of a most serious character. I do not deny that being A W L for 169 days is not serious but I do wish to point out to the court that the accused had what he considered greivances which were not rectified up toand until the time of his crime.

He has stated before the court that he went A W L in the spring of 1944 because he heard rumours to the effect that senior NCO's in his Coy were having to revert at their own request. This began to prey on his mind because he firmly believed that these NCO's were better than he. In my opinion this man suffers from an inferiourity complex which his officers did not try to rid him of, and the result was his first case of A W L.

Again having been a stripped of his rank he was allocated to another platoon and given a job of some responsibility. Promises were made and if not kept were certainly slow in being fulfiled. This man no doubt felt that his former crime and the punishment meted out had not as yet been forgotten and he went A W L for a second time.

Mr President and members of the Court I wish to bring attention now the f act that this man in my opinion suffers as I said from an inferiority complex and after having been punished for one crime and given promises for future betterment after it, they were ntnot kept. A grave injustice was there by perpertrated.

The accused has been in the army since Sept 1939 and until the original crime in 1944 had only one entry on his conduct sheet. This should be proof to thecourt that he is not a habitual criminal and wouldnot have committed this crime unless he felt that some grievance had been done him, add to ht this the fact that he gave himself up volentarily realizing the seriousness of the crime and the consequnnces thereof.

I abjure the Court in their considerations of this case that they do not deal to harshly with the accused. The proper amount of punishment to be inflicted is the least amount by which discipline can efficently be maintained . It must be the object of all concerned to aim at the high state of which springs from a military system administratived with justice and impartiality, and to induce in all ranks a feeling ofconfidence that, while no offence will be overlooked, no offender under any c ircumstances will suffer an injustice.

In conclusion sir before I lay my case in your hands may I sum up my points.

(1) Depew is not a habitual criminal as shown on his AFW 6.
(2) An injustice was certainly done.
