Lloyd George Scored in Great Fashion

(Courier Leased Wire). NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—A cable to The Tribune from London says: There was a delightful little comedy in the House of Commons yesterday. The Prime Minister was absent, and as the notice paper contained several questions put to Mr. Asquith about the land reform programme, it fell to Mr. Lloyd-George to answer them.

May Find a Cure for Infantile Paralysis

(Courier Leased Wire). BUFFALO, Feb. 7.—The study of infantile paralysis during the epidemic here last July, has resulted in discoveries which it is claimed will ultimately result in the finding of a cure for the disease, according to Health Commissioner F. E. Fronczak. The disease is caused by a germ which is ultra-microscopic, a discovery resulting from experiments by Dr. Simon Flexner and Dr. Hideo Noguchi of the Rockefeller Institute of Medical Research, made from the cultures obtained during the epidemic here.

The Death of a One Time Beauty

(Courier Leased Wire). NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Lillian Lorraine Hollis, who was said to be a famous beauty of the Pacific Coast in 1882, died in obscurity here last Monday it was learned to-day. Her body was found in a little furnished room on Forty-ninth street in which a score of cats were found slinking about, and there was every evidence

An up to Date Young Chinam an

(Courier Leased Wire). SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—When Chin Guey, high priest in a Chinese joss house here, went into the street yesterday to make oblation to the sun, his queue was snipped off by a Mongole youth in a checked suit and tan shoes. "Some class to you now, old kid," said the youth. "You may keep your queue." Chin tucked

THE GRAND OPERA HOUSE, BRANTFORD

FOR A TARGET (Courier Leased Wire). LONDON, Feb. 7.—"The Gainsborough portrait" was used as a target by youthful archers, was the amazing statement made to-day by the noted counsel Montagu Shearman in accounting for some marks of restoration on a picture, the possession of which is now the subject of a law suit. The portrait, recently valued at $42,000, is a reproduction of the history of the portrait, Mr. Shearman said that it hung on the walls of a rectory of a church and that the two sons of the rector, Johnnie and Jimmie armed with bows and arrows had used it as a target for shooting practice. One archer made an inner, piercing the lady's neck. The other scored an outer.

DON'T OPEN GOLF BALLS (Courier Leased Wire). NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—"Don't open golf balls to see what's inside," said many disgruntled players have given vent to their wrath over a poor vote or satisfied their curiosity by smashing golf balls open, with disastrous results, that the United States Golf Association is preparing an official warning to the country against such practice. Several instances have been recorded in the last year where cutting open a ball or squeezing it in a vice has caused it to burst open, the ball's eye to see Acids and other several persons. Acids and other strong-destrorying compounds are used in the manufacture of some golf balls.

STOPPED FIGHT (Courier Leased Wire). ## THE NEW DODGE

Of the Suffragettes is to Send Pepper to the Ministers—An Exciting Scene Takes Place in the House of Lords.

(Courier Leased Wire). NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—The London correspondent of The New York Tribune cables this morning as follows: Exciting scenes arising out of the suffrage agitation occurred last night in the House of Commons, while the division on the Lord's amendment to the Scotch Temperance Bill was in progress. A gentleman in evening dress in the Strangers' Gallery suddenly arose and standing in the centre of the gangway shouted: "I protest against your dishonorable treatment of women. You are simply driving them to violence. Women have been brutally assaulted in prison."

Most of the other occupants of the gallery shouted a deprecatory "Oh, Oh," but some others called out "Bravo." Several attendants immediately went to where the man was standing, and he was hustled out of the gallery, wildly protesting, amid a scene of great excitement. Several occupants of the public gallery went to assist the officials in the ejection. The man had a paper from which he had been reading his harangue, but had not got beyond the first three short sentences before he was seized. He was taken down the back stairs of the House, avoiding the lobbies and public hall and shown into Palace Yard. The interrupter proved to be H. D. Harben, a prominent Socialist.

Affairs of the Marquis of Hartford are in Bad Shape

(Courier Leased Wire). NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—According to a cable from London to The Tribune, the affairs of the Marquis of Hertford were considered at a meeting of creditors in the Bankruptcy Court yesterday. The Marquis, who succeeded to the title in 1912, and who at the time the proceedings were instituted was still known as the Earl of Yarmouth, married in 1903, Alice Thaw, who obtained a decree of nullity against him five years later. Lord Hertford's liabilities were stated to amount to £200,000, more than £18,000 being due to professional moneylenders. A scheme was proposed to pay all unsecured creditors seven shillings and sixpence on the pound on all debts, and this was agreed to without discussion.

These Pills Cure Rheumatism

—To the many who suffer from rheumatism a trial of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills is recommended. They have pronounced action upon the liver and kidneys and by regulating the action of these organs act as an alternative in preventing the admixture of uric acid and blood that causes this painful disorder. They must be taken according to directions and used steadily and they will speedily give evidence of their beneficial effects.

Trial is Inexpensive

—To those who suffer from dyspepsia, indigestion, rheumatism or any ailment arising from derangement of the digestive system, a trial of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills is recommended. Should the sufferer be unacquainted with them. The trial will be inexpensive and the result will be another customer for this excellent medicine. So effective is their action that many cures can certainly be traced to their use where other pills have proved ineffective.

HOCKEY.

ORILLIA, Feb. 7.—In a game that was replete with brilliant rushes and which took ten minutes overtime before a winner could be decided, Midland last night won the championship of their senior O.H.A. group when they defeated Toronto Canoe Club by the score of 5 to 3. The teams were tied at the end of the first half 1 to 1, and at the expiration of the 90 minutes' play the score stood 2 to 2. Neither team scored in the first five minutes of overtime, but in the second Midland tallied in the first two minutes, only to have Canoe Club tie it up. The 'No. 11'ers however, finished strong and rattled in two goals in a minute. Another for the Bank of Hamilton.

AS TO BRANTFORD'S PUBLIC BUILDING

"Every thinking man in the county knows that it was Mr. Lloyd Harris who made the first practical move in the direction of a new public building, and secured the first appropriation; that Mr. Cockshutt is but carrying on the work so well begun, and that Brantford was not asked to give the market square for nothing, but to make an exchange of one-half the square for the present post office."—Expositor.

We'll accept your amendment as to the offer of the old post office building for half the square, but none of the rest of it.

As a matter of fact, the term "nothing" is even then quite appropriate, because:

1.—The market square cannot be used for other than market purposes, according to the deed of gift, and

2.—Said square appears in the assessment rolls as worth $233,360, and the post office $34,100, so that the Laurierite offer was not only impossible of acceptance, but also an insult.

How in the name of Heaven can it be said that Mr. Harris made "the first practical move," when the whole proposition was on an absolutely impracticable basis?

It was Mr. W. F. Cockshutt who got the Government to admit the need for a new public building, and that was a long time before Mr. Harris became a member.

The need admitted, why didn't the Expositor's friends get busy? And why didn't the organ itself urge them on?

Got any answer to either of the above queries or both of them? It is a safe wager that if the Liberals had stayed in power, Brantford's new public building would still be where it remained for years—in a state of nebulous desuetude.

THE EFFECT OF THE CANADIAN OFFER ON GERMANY

The effect of the Canadian naval proposals in Germany is described by the Berlin correspondent of "The Navy," the organ of the Navy League in England. This correspondent says of those who have been describing the British Empire as being on its last legs:—

"But they and their disciples of the press have again been thrown into confusion by the Canadian development, which with its implication of union between the mother country and its first Dominion on all matters touching the maintenance of the Pax Britannica, they rightly regard as being of immense significance. But it is too much to expect that henceforth the German nation, repudiating these false prophets, will arrive at a sane understanding of the facts that never before has the British Empire stood upon a firmer foundation, that a challenge to Britain means a challenge to a world-wide Empire, and that a blow struck at her will be returned with the united force of the Imperial Commonwealth."

The writer states that the idea that the British Empire is a flimsy framework has taken deep root in Germany. "But each fresh manifestation of unity in the British Empire will help to dispel this false idea and it is probably a sober fact that the signs of 'militarism' which short-sighted people at home affect to discern in the action of Canada and the other dominions will do more than any isolated efforts on the part of England herself could do to convince our continental rivals that a continuance of their anti-British policy can bring nothing save trouble and loss to themselves. As regards their actual value as arbiters of peace, the Canadian Dreadnoughts represent much more than three additional units for the Imperial fleet. Certainly these three ships, or the principle to which they give expression, will inspire more respect in Europe than a whole squadron of Dreadnoughts built at the initiative of England alone."

A POOH BAH OF A TELEPHONE

There is only one telephone on the second floor of Brantford city hall, and it is in City Engineer Jones' office.

If you want the Assessors, call Jones.

If you want to talk to the Medical Health Officer, why ring up Mr. Jones.

If you want Mr. Glover, the Sanitary Inspector, hunt in the phone book for the number of Jones.

If you want to speak to Mr. Eddy, the Relief Officer, why get at Jones.

And if any of the gents above mentioned want to ring up anybody why they also have to call on Jones.

It is rumored that they recently got together and made up the following as a sort of a city hall national anthem:

"The temperature is chilly, And you feel it in your bones, Just slide across the mosaic hall And make a call on Jones.

If your razor mayhap be dull And stands in need of honing, Just make a triplet 'cross the way And tell your want to Jones.

If at the breakfast table Wifey said she'd like some scones, When you reach your place of work Just put it up to Jones.

If by some sardonic chance, Your face is full of groans, And you want to ring a dentist up, Just do it via Jones.

ply imposing vast expense upon the people for nothing.

The Hamilton Times says that city has all the territory it requires for many years. So has Toronto, but the promoter who wants to make a quick fortune out of suburban lots always starts off by engineering an annexation scheme.—Toronto Globe.

Hamilton doctors are talking of raising the medical fees there. If the disciples of Esculapius would get down to business methods of paying someone to draw up and present their accounts, they would see such a difference in their revenues as to make reductions and not advances advisable. As it is many of them have a happy go lucky plan of looking after the job themselves, with the result that the collections do not begin to jibe with their bookings.

Any ordinary business conducted in like manner would speedily be on the blink.

A MOTHER'S PRAISE OF BABY'S OWN TABLETS.

Mrs. Pierre Lambert, Paquetteville, Que., says: "I read in the papers of what Baby's Own Tablets were doing for other children so decided to try them for my baby who was suffering from constipation and stomach trouble. They worked like a charm and now I always keep them in the house and recommend them to all my friends. 'Baby's Own Tablets' cure constipation and indigestion; they expel worms, break up colds and allay simple fever and make teething easy. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CANADA LIFE'S SPLENDID STATEMENT.

Many Records Broken in 1912.

Care, watchfulness and ability are evidenced in the statement of the Canada Life, and as a result of this good management the statement for 1912 stands out as one of the most successful in the whole sixty-six years' history of that great company. The General Manager, Mr. E. W. Cox, in the course of his address said: "At our last annual meeting I spoke of the policy of your Directors to encourage more particularly the expansion of the company's business in Canada, and as a result of this policy the Canadian applications for new assurances showed an increase of $3,033,220 and the policies paid for, an increase of $2,880,358 over the corresponding figures for 1911." The total assurance now in force in Canada amounts to $103,534,696.65 and it is a noteworthy fact that this company is the first and only legal reserve company to carry upwards of one hundred millions of ordinary assurances on the lives of citizens of the Dominion."

The Canada Life now has over $14,877,000 of business in force, an increase of $9,252,000. Several years ago the Canada Life broke all records by earning $1,000,000 of surplus in a single year. Since then, for five successive years it has yearly earned a greater amount than ever before. In 1912 the surplus earned was $1,530,000.

The income last year was $7,596,000, this constituting a new record, and the rate of interest earned, which had been steadily advancing since 1890, was further improved. The assets were increased by over $4,000,000, and now stands at $48,301,000. It is noteworthy that when the Canada Life was just half its present age its total assets were no greater than the increase of this single year. The funds are now twelve times as great as they were thirty-three years ago. From every point of view the statement of the Canada Life Assurance Co. for 1912 calls for congratulation, and its policyholders will doubtless study its many favorable features with deepest satisfaction.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed. Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh), that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

20% Per Cent off Easter Suits If Ordered This Week

The Easter Style-Parade will be a bigger event than ever this year. Of course you'll take part in it but you must order your "Easter Togs" very soon for Easter comes unusually early, March 23rd. To keep our tailors busy before the season starts we are taking orders for Easter Suits this week at 20% off regular prices. Why not

Order Now and Save

- $3.60 on a $18 Suit
- $5.00 " " $25 "
- $7.00 " " $35 "

There are other strong reasons besides the money-saving why you should order Now. Extra good workmanship is one. First choice, which means best choice of the New Spring Goods, is another. Avoiding the delays of the Easter "rush" is a third. Then remember, you don't inconvenience yourself any by ordering now for you needn't take the Suit until Easter unless you like.

WHEN IS A MAN DRUNK?

Tests of the Police Doctors of the London Courts.

Mr. Plowden, the celebrated London magistrate, is always listened to with interest, and his latest opinion is attracting more than usual attention. In dismissing a taxi-cab driver who was charged with being drunk, he said he was not much influenced by the tests made by doctors at police stations.

Not long ago he was called upon to try a man charged with being drunk, where the doctor's test had been to make the man stand with his feet together, clasp his hands behind his head, and close his eyes. The doctor pointed out that the man, being drunk, could not do this, but he supported, but the magistrate doubted even his own power of maintaining his equilibrium under such a complicated test, and dismissed the case.

A favorite test of sobriety with police doctors is to make the accused person repeat some word or words. Their inability to do so correctly being considered proof of drunkenness; but here, again, a test which, if taken as final, could be made to prove the most sober person drunk, for there are words which few people can pronounce correctly with ease.

This, no doubt, was the view taken by the magistrate in dismissing a chauffeur who had come under the eye of the police, and failed to pronounce "sure main" after six attempts.

Not so fortunate, however, was the man who was tested with the lines: "When Britain first at Heaven's command Arose from out the azure main." He failed at "azure main," as well he might; but that was only a part of his ordeal—a preliminary trot, one might say. What sealed his doom—three shillings or five days—was the difficulty he experienced in touching his nose with his forefinger when he was standing with his feet together and eyes closed.

A far simpler and, it must be admitted, more conclusive proof of insobriety is the inability to fasten one's clothes. If a man cannot button his coat, presume, of course, that the necessary buttons and buttonholes are there—why, then, he must be drunk. So thought the Worcestershire magistrates who fined a man for drunkenness after he had unsuccessfully tried to button up his waistcoat.

In some parts of Ireland they have queer ideas as to whether a man is drunk or not. Some time ago a policeman was conveying a man whom he considered quite helpless to the police station, when an Irishwoman stopped him and asked him what he was doing. "I am taking this man to the station," said the constable; "he is drunk." "Drunk?" exclaimed the Irishwoman, in amazement. "Why, you must be dreaming. I saw one of his fingers move!"

Stood Up Apparently Dead.

The porters at Abbeville station, France, recently noticed the curious attitude of a man who had been standing for a considerable time motionless before the board on which the delays of the train service are recorded. It was observed that his eyes were tightly closed. As he still remained without movement, an official touched him on the shoulder. The man, it is said, immediately fell into his arms, his body absolutely rigid. A doctor who was called diagnosed the case as one of catalepsy. It seems that for a considerable time the man had been standing in the middle of the busy station in an unconscious condition.

Ancient Science.

It is generally supposed that those who combated the opinion that the earth was a sphere when Columbus proposed his great voyage were only giving expression to opinions that had always been entertained. But the fact is that long before the Christian era the Greek and Egyptian philosophers contained the idea that the earth was round and knew vastly more about eclipses, the motions of the moon and other astronomical matters than many do even today. The idea of Columbus had been anticipated by more than sixteen centuries.

Couldn't Resist.

Willie and Tommy were each given a bit of auntie's wedding cake, nicely wrapped in white tissue paper, by their romantic mother. The cake was to be placed under a pillow for the wee boys to "dream on."

After the prayers and the "good nights" had been duly said the mother retired to the sitting room.

Shortly afterward she heard the announcement in a clear, boyish treble: "Mother, Willie's eaten his dream!"—London Telegraph.

Very Much Settled.

An elderly woman, on being examined before the magistrate of Buxary as to her place of legal settlement, was asked under what pillow for the wee boys to "dream on" she had supposed that her deceased husband's settlement was at St. Andrews.

The old lady looked earnestly at the judge and said: "He was born there, he was married there, and they buried him there; and if that isn't settling him there, I'd like to know what is!"

She Was So Timid.

A military man laughed at a timid little woman because she was alarmed at the noise of a cannon when a salute was fired. He subsequently married that timid little woman, and six months afterward he took off his boots in the hall when he came in late at night.

The Silent Father.

"I'll bet that man is the father of six or seven children."

"Why?"

"If he had less than three he'd be bragging about them."

The Natural Part.

"She seems to be a natural flirt," he said.

"Natural!" the woman impatiently replied. "There's nothing natural about her but her framework."

UGH! NOT CALOMEL, OIL OR SALTS, BUT DELICIOUS "SYRUP OF FIGS."

Give your stomach, liver 30 feet of bowels a thorough cleansing without gripe or nausea. Ends headache, biliousness, indigestion and constipation.

This wonderful fruit laxative acts as a liver and bowel cleanser—tonic—not as an irritant. Its action is natural and gentle—no gripping. It is delicious—no dreading. It is positive and prompt—no waiting. If your stomach is sour and filled with vile gases, your head aches, or you are bilious, nervous, dizzy, half sick, your tongue coated, your thirty feet of bowels clogged with waste not properly carried off—don't wait. Surely take a teaspoonful of delicious Syrup of Figs to-night, and in the morning all constipated waste sour bile, gases and poisons will move on and out of the system—gently but thoroughly—no gripping—no nausea—no weakness. In the old days people let these matters run until they needed a large dose of physic, then they took something like castor oil, salts or cathartics that meant abuse to the bowels. These are the days of gentle and natural—the days of Syrup of Figs. This way you are not drugging yourself. Syrup of Figs being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics can not cause injury.

Getting Ready to Receive the Duke

A meeting of the Committee in charge of the reception to be tendered the Governor General, H. R. H. Duke of Connaught on Saturday morning the Fifteenth instant, took place in the Mayor's office this afternoon, nearly all of the committee being present.

City Treasurer A. K. Bunnell, Convenor of the Committee acted as Chairman.

Matters pertaining to the reception were discussed and plans for the affair gone into.

As it has been stated in the columns of this paper before, the Royal party will arrive here on the 15th, instant, on the 9.45 a.m., T. H. and B. train.

It was moved by Mr. F. D. Reville seconded by Mr. T. H. Preston. That the following gentlemen should be invited to attend the ceremonies on that morning: His Honor, Judge Hardy, Sheriff Ross, Warden Kitchen, County Clerk, A. E. Watts, the Chairman of the Public School Board, Separate School Board and Collegiate Institute Board. The Mayor of Paris, Presidents of the Paris and Brantford Board of Trade.

Moved by Col. Muir, seconded by Col. Howard, That the B. C. I. Cadets and Mohawk Institute Cadets be requested to act as a guard of honor at the station on that day.

It was decided that Mayor Hartman should greet His Royal Highness on alighting from the train and that the address of welcome should be read by City Clerk H. F. Leonard.

It was decided to request the station agent of T. H. and B. Ry. to allow them the use of the Ladies waiting room in which the reception committee would receive H.R.H. and present him with the address. The interior of the station will be decorated with flags, bunting, etc for the occasion.

It was the wish of those present, that Messrs T. H. Preston and F. D. Reville be a committee to prepare the address of welcome to be presented to the Duke. After the civic reception the party under the supervision of Major Smith, (Superintendent of Indian affairs here) will go direct to the Six Nations Council House at Oshweken, where H.R.H. will pay a visit to the Indians. After the ceremonies at the Reserve, the party will return to the city and if time permits a visit will be made to the Mohawk Church and Mohawk Institute.

The party will leave on the 2.20 T. H. and B. train for Toronto.

CITY NEWS

Probab. Strong winds and gales, from the westward; decidedly cold and partly fair to-day and on Saturday; light local snow falls.

Temperature. Temperature for the last 24 hours: Highest 12; lowest, 4 above zero. Same date last year: Highest 25; lowest 12 above zero.

A Change. Hon. Mr. Hearst, having found it impossible to attend the Conservative annual banquet, his place will be taken by Hon. I. B. Lucas.

Good Bill. Manager Symons has a splendid bill playing at the Colonial. The colored quartette is quite up to "snuff."

Plasterers' Banquet. The officers and members of the Plasterers' Union will hold a banquet in the Palm Room of the Sun-beam cafe this evening.

Splendid Photo. Major Smith received a handsome photo this morning taken at the foot of Brock's monument last fall on the occasion of the one hundredth anniversary of the noble hero's death.

Bellview School. Messrs. Taylor and Taylor, architects are preparing plans to be laid before the trustees of Bellview school, Cockshutt Road for the enlargement of the school from four rooms to eight.

Masonic. Doric Lodge, A. F. and A. M., of Hamilton, will pay a fraternal visit to their brethren of Brant Lodge on Tuesday evening. The District Deputy Grand Master will be present on that evening.

B Company Theatre Party. The members of B Company, Dufferin Rifles held a theatre party and banquet last night and a very pleasant evening was spent. The members of the company assembled early in the evening at the armories and to gether with Capt. W. F. Newman and Lt. W. D. Coghill accompanied by Major Genet and Sergt-Maj. Oxtoby, proceeded to the Colonial Theatre, where they held a theatre party. After witnessing the splendid programme which is being presented at that popular play house, the soldier boys marched to the Tea Pot Inn where Caterer Crumbback had in waiting a splendid menu for the boys. The volunteers sat down to a dainty repast and after they had captured all the good things, Sergeant Pickles who acted as chairman and toast-master, called the B's to attention and after singing the National Anthem a lengthy toast list followed. Major Genet replied to the toast of the staff, who complimented Capt. Newman for the good showing of B company during the last year. Sergt-Maj. Oxtoby spoke in high terms of the captain and the members of B company. One of the pleasing features of the evening was the presentation of a watchfob bearing the Dufferin Rifles Crest and suitably engraved to Col-Sergeant Prior who is retiring. Sergt. Prior on being presented with the piece of jewelry made a suitable reply.

Speeches were made by Capt Newman and Lt. Coghill. During the evening songs were sung by Pte. Ramshotom, Pte. Casey, Pte. Bingham, Pte. Hutchinson, Pte. Hulme, Pte. Nichols, Pte. Lockyer.

Bugler Wright made the hit of the night in his whistling solos and imitations of birds, animals, etc. Bugler Wright is an artist at this kind of entertainment and could easily make vaudeville his business. He is one of the cleverest whistlers heard in the city for a long time. The press was responded to by R. B. Garrett and C. B. Todd.

It was a banner night for B Co. After singing God Save the King the company dispersed.

COULD NOT BE TAKEN OFF (Courier Leased Wire) QUEENSTOWN, Feb. 7.—The seas were so terrific outside Queenstown harbor when the White Star liner Baltic sailed for New York at 2 o'clock to-day, that the local pilot could not be taken off the vessel and was obliged to proceed with her to America.

Mr. John Muir stated that the matter needed agitation, and should be given the attention of the board, have given the attention of the board. Send a strong delegation to Toronto and put the facts before the Railway Board.

The Annual Meeting of the Board of Trade.

The annual meeting of the Brantford Board of Trade was held in the council chamber last night. Among those present were Messrs. W. P. Kellett, J. Fair, Geo. Matthews, J. Muir, G. Pickles, M. McEwen, R. Searle, A. C. Lyons, W. C. Boddy, Geo. Watt, C. Emmerston, H. Watt, J. H. Spence, A. L. Baird, W. B. Preston, K. V. Bunnell, F. D. Reville, S. G. Read, G. Batchelor, and Mr. Barrow.

The secretary, Mr. George Hatley, called the meeting to order. The President, Mr. C. A. Waterous, on account of the death of his uncle, was unable to attend, and also the vice-president, Mr. J. S. Dowling was out of the city on business and unable to attend the meeting. Mr. John Muir was called upon to fill the chair for the evening.

Mr. George Matthews asked for information regarding the rural delivery mail, also the foreign mail. Mr. Matthews said that more information should be secured from the Post Office Department at Ottawa in regard to this matter.

Mr. F. D. Reville said he understood, through Mr. Cockshutt, M.P., that the Department in Ottawa had this under consideration at the present time.

Mr. Matthews cited cases where cars of coal had taken three or four months to come from Niagara Falls to Brantford. In one instance it took a car of merchandise from December to the middle of March to get here from the Falls to Brantford.

Mr. Matthews thought that when a railway company accepted freight it was duly bound to deliver same at its destination within a reasonable time, and failing to do so they should be penalized. He was of the opinion that a good strong committee composed of shippers and manufacturers should appear before the Railway Board which meets in Toronto April 15th, and lay this complaint before them and press their claim for better shipping facilities.

Mr. John Muir stated that the matter needed agitation, and should be given the attention of the board, have given the attention of the board. Send a strong delegation to Toronto and put the facts before the Railway Board.

Mr. S. G. Read read a report in connection with a man now employed at the Brantford Screw Co. who asked the loan of $30 to bring his wife and family here from the Old Country. Mr. Read read a number of recommendations in regard to his good character, etc.

Forbes, F. R. Dymond, H. C. Hewetson, J. A. H. Burt, Fred L. Jarvis, James Lang, E. S. Dean, J. H. Featherston Osler, took the chair, and Mr. A. D. Langmuir, the Hon. Featherston Osler, took the chair, and Mr. A. D. Langmuir, the Assistant General Manager, acted as Secretary to the meeting.

The financial statements, showing the operations of the Corporation for the year ended 31st December, 1912, were submitted, and commented upon by the General Manager, Mr. J. W. Langmuir.

The report to the shareholders was then read as follows:

The Toronto General Trusts Corporation being for the year ended 31st December, 1912.

To the Shareholders:—

The Board of Directors have pleasure in submitting the Thirty-first Annual Report of the Corporation, accompanied by the Profit and Loss and Assets and Liabilities Statements for the year ended 31st December 1912.

The net profits for the year, after payment of entire cost of management and all other fees and expenses, amount to $233,915.93. To this amount the net profit on the sale of the Corporation's old head office premises, corner of Yonge and Colborne streets, amounting to $95,618.74, must be added, together with the premium of $213,746.50 received from the sale of the new stock of $250,000 issued during the year, and the balance of $1,237.37 brought forward to the credit of Profit and Loss from 1911, making a total of $614,518.54, which has been dealt with by your Board as follows:—

To payment of four quarterly dividends at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum	$110,892 38
To total cost of office furniture and equipment for Treasury and Filing Vaults in new Head Office building written off	17,155 08
To Reserve Fund (increasing this fund to $1,100,000)	400,000 00
To amount carried forward to the credit of Profit and Loss	86,471 08
Total	$614,518 54

The Assets and Liabilities Statement for the year shows that the total assets in the hands of the Corporation amount to $53,852,564.15, an increase over the year 1911 of $8,765,904.16.

The volume of executorships, administrations, trusts and work of a kindred character which came into the hands of the Corporation during the year ended 31st December, 1912, amounted to $10,424,764.20, which exceeds the amount of new work assumed by the Corporation in any one year since its inception.

The Board of Directors regret to announce that during the year no less than four members of the Board have passed away, viz., Mr. John Laing Blakie, Mr. Samuel Nordheimer, Mr. Frederick Wyld and Mr. William Henry Beatty.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

FEATHERSTONE OSLER,
President.

The President, Hon. Featherston Osler, moved the adoption of the report, seconded by John Hoskin, K.C., LL.D.

The President then called upon Mr. J. W. Langmuir, Vice-President and General Manager of the Corporation, to address the Shareholders.

Mr. Langmuir spoke as follows:—

First, I may be permitted to congratulate the Shareholders and all associated with us on the completion and entire occupation of our new building. At our last Annual Meeting on 7th February, 1912 we were able, by ejecting plasterers and painters, to occupy the Board Room in which we are now in session for the day only, but our offices and vaults were not ready for occupation until Easter, at which time we took possession of our new Head Office home, and transferred, with a good deal of labor and not a little anxiety, the accumulated contents of our Safe Deposit, Treasury and Filing Vaults. You will be pleased to show that the transfer and lodgment of securities, documents, books and records, the accumulation of over thirty years, was effected without inconvenience to any of our clients, and without any loss or misplacement of a single document.

A sale of our former premises was made shortly after we vacated at a net profit over the book value of $95,618.74.

I have pleasure in reporting that after over nine months' occupation of our new offices we find them in all respects well suited for the Corporation's purposes, both in regard to location, interior arrangement and general equipment.

Although we have received excellent offers for the purchase of the premises on Melinda street east of our present building, and which were included in the original purchase by the Corporation, the Board decided to retain and rent this property, so that it might be available for any future extensions to the Head Office that may be required.

The Shareholders will doubtless be interested to learn that the Corporation has been successful in providing itself with a much-needed Head Office that in architectural beauty and construction is quite up to the best standards either here or in the United States, and at the same time produces a fair interest return upon the capital expenditure. The entire space on the upper floors was readily leased to high-class tenants at a rent which, added to a sum equal to less than $1.50 per superficial foot which we charge ourselves for the ground floor, basement and first floor, produces a net return of 5 per cent. on the investment, or a net return of approximately 6 per cent. if we include the rents derived from our Safe Deposit Vaults.

So much for our new building.

Coming now to a review of the general operations of the Corporation for the past year, after reviewing the very elaborate statements which have been laid on the table, it will, I think, only be necessary in my remarks to summarize the more salient points in connection with the year's operations.

The Corporation has now passed the fifty million dollars record in its assets as the residuum under its care the actual amount being $53,852,564.15, or an increase over the preceding year of close upon $9,000,000.

During the year the Corporation made permanent mortgage and debenture investments, authorized under the Act, or by the respective instruments appointing the Corporation, of over $6,000,000, as against $4,750,000 for 1912. It will be observed from the statements placed before you that there is close upon $1,000,000 cash on hand in the various banks, only a portion of which, however, is subject to investment, and for this amount there were sufficient loans in the Solicitor's hands at the end of the year.

The character of our loans in the Province of Ontario may be judged from the fact that out of mortgage investments aggregating $14,081,723.21 94.40 per cent. of the interest was paid as at 31st December, 1912, and a large portion of the 5.60 per cent. arrears has since been paid. Respecting mortgage investments in the Northwest Provinces, it will be obvious that they cannot be judged on the same lines as Ontario loans, for the reason that interest on these loans is payable annually, and interest payments depend very largely upon weather conditions and means of transportation. Even with these conditions, out of $6,331,867 invested in the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, interest to the amount of 73 per cent has been paid as at 31st December, 1912, and large collections have been made since that date.

The interest, dividends, rents, and general income collected by the Corporation on the assets under its care during the past twelve months amounted to close upon $3,000,000, as compared with $2,643,003.02 in the preceding year, or an increase of about $350,000.

The compensation received for the management of estates for the year, as fixed by the courts or by special arrangement with the beneficiaries, amounted to $195,503, as against $167,000 in the previous year, or an increase of $27,684.14. While this compensation in the aggregate may appear considerable, it represents approximately only two-fifths of one per cent of the value of the Trusts and Agencies under the control of the Corporation.

I think I can safely assert that there is no business of a monetary or commercial character which necessitates the employment on its staff of a larger percentage of skilled and properly trained employees than a company having the care and management of estates and trusts. A trust company must at all times be prepared to take over and effectively administer assets of every description, which can only be properly done by having in the service men who have acquired thorough practical experience and a thorough knowledge of almost every branch of industrial and commercial activity. During its career the Corporation has been called upon to conduct or supervise and wind up such business as, for instance, wholesale groceries, dry goods, general stores, timber limits and mills, cement plants, contracting enterprises of all kinds, manufactories, elevators, hotels, summer resorts, farms, drug stores, livery stables, stock broking, etc.

Keeping this in mind, I think it will be admitted that the cost, viz., $216,007.22 of managing and administering the large mass of business under the care of the Corporation (now amounting to over $50,000,000) is quite moderate, it being considerably less than one-half of one per cent on the business in hand. Of this amount the expenditures for the inspection and oversight of properties alone amounted to close upon $20,000.

The foregoing figures as to compensation and cost of management very plainly indicate that the compensation allowed for the care and management of a trust company's assets of a fiduciary nature can only show a reasonably profitable return through the accumulation of a large volume of business. That, at the same time, the experience of this Corporation, for as a matter of fact, we are now only beginning to derive a fair profit from the management of our Trust and Agency business, apart from our investments of capital and guaranteed funds.

One of the large increases in the volume of business placed under the care of the Corporation during the past five years, the Board of Directors considered it necessary to increase the Capital Stock of the Corporation, and that end a by-law was passed authorizing an additional capital issue of $1,000,000 (making our total authorized capital $2,000,000), which had previously received the sanction of the Shareholders at a special meeting called for that purpose on the 7th May, 1912. It was decided, however, to issue during 1912 only $250,000 of the amount authorized, and to allot the same at a premium of 85 per cent., at $1.85 per share, to the Shareholders as of record on the books of the Corporation on the 5th day of June, 1912. Effect was given to this resolution, and as the Statements show, the sum of $213,746.50, representing premium, was credited to the Profit and Loss Account.

From the printed statements which have been placed in the hands of the Shareholders it will be observed that the net profits for the year amounted to $233,915.93, as against $198,324.22 last year, and they further show that we have carried to Profit and Loss Account the surplus profit on the sale of our old office premises on Yonge street, namely $95,618.74; that we have credited that account with the premiums received on the new stock issue of $250,000.00, amounting to $213,746.50, making a total of $614,518.54 appearing on the credit of Profit and Loss as at 31st December, 1912. Out of this amount your Directors declared and paid four quarterly dividends at the rate of ten per cent per annum, amounting to $110,892.38; wrote off the entire indebtedness for office equipment, $17,155.08; and carried to the Reserve Fund the sum of $400,000, leaving at the credit of Profit and Loss the sum of $86,471.08. It will thus be seen that our paid-up capital now stands at $1,250,000.00 and the Reserve and unappropriated profits at $1,186,471.08, or a total of $2,436,471.08.

Reviewing the operations for the past year as a whole I feel assured that not only the Shareholders have reason to be satisfied with the results, but what is perhaps of greater importance in a Trust Company, our clients, comprising many thousand beneficiaries of estates and trusts, and others whose interests we have in charge, will also be satisfied with the financial condition and strength of the Corporation.

At the risk of wearying the shareholders and the public generally with a repetition of the warning given at almost every Annual Meeting of the Corporation of the great danger incurred in the indiscriminate granting of charters and licenses to companies designating themselves "trust" companies, but many of which are really brought into existence primarily for the purpose of selling their stock in order to obtain funds for speculation in real estate and the promotion of speculative enterprises generally, I must continue to place warnings on record. Were it not that many of these companies—more particularly in the Northwestern Provinces—have equal, if not greater, powers conferred on them to act as Executor, Administrator, Trustee, etc., etc., than companies that are legitimately confining themselves to the performance of duties primarily and specially devolving upon trust companies, fault might not be found with the improper and misleading designation of "trust" companies. So long as they are not entrusted with the management of estates and the investment of trust funds it perhaps would make little difference with a discerning man in the appointment of an Executor and Trustee. Unfortunately, however, with the marvellous growth and prosperity of the country we have reason to believe that many of these companies are using their charter powers in the flotation of land schemes and other purely speculative transactions of a more or less doubtful character, which undoubtedly will result in loss to many people who can ill afford to lose even the small sums that they are placing in such transactions.

So long as the Dominion and Provincial Governments cannot see their way to place more drastic restrictions on the work and offices of "trust" companies, as desired, I shall consider it my duty to place my views upon the public. Speaking for the Toronto General Trusts Corporation, I again repeat the unalterable decision of this Corporation to rigidly confine itself to purely trust and agency business, and the investment, either as agent or guarantor, of funds committed to its care, but only in securities authorized by the Trustee Investment Act, unless otherwise directed by the investors, together with the transaction of other business of a purely fiduciary character.

Before closing, I have much pleasure in expressing my appreciation of the excellent services rendered by the Advisory Boards of the Corporation at Ottawa and Winnipeg, and also the faithful performance of the duties devolving upon the respective members of the staff of the Corporation both at the Head Office and its Branches.

AUDITORS' REPORT

We, the undersigned, beg to report that we have made a full examination of the books, accounts and vouchers of The Toronto General Trusts Corporation to the 31st December, 1912, and find the same to be correct and properly set forth in the above Statements of Profit and Loss and Assets and Liabilities. We have examined and find in order, all the mortgages, debentures, bonds and scrip of the Corporation, as well as those presented for the Supreme Court of Judicature for Ontario, and Trusts, Estates and Agencies in the Corporation's hands, and we have checked same with the mortgage and debenture ledgers and registers. The bankers' balances, after deducting outstanding cheques, agree with the books of the Corporation.

We have also examined the reports of the auditors of the Winnipeg and Ottawa Branches, and find that they agree with the Head Office books.

R. F. SPENCE, F.C.A. "C" } Auditors.
GEO. MACBETH.

Toronto, January 27th, 1913.

The Report was unanimously adopted.

The report of the Inspection Committee, as signed by the Hon. J. J. Foy, Sir Aemilius Irving and Mr Hamilton Cassels, K.C., was also adopted.

The following Shareholders were elected Directors for the ensuing year:—W. R. Brock, Hamilton Cassels, K.C., Sir William Mortimer Clark, K.C., Hon. W. C. Edwards, Hon. J. J. Foy, K.C., M.P., Sir John M. Gibson, K.C., A. C. Hardy, John Hoskin, K.C., LL.D., Sir Aemilius Irving, K.C., Hon. Robert Jaffray, J. W. Langmuir, Major R. W. Leonard, Thomas Long, W. D. Matthews, Hon. Perer MacLaren, J. Bruce Macdonald, Hon. Sir Daniel McMillan, K.C.M.G., Sir Edmund Osler, M.P., Hon. Featherston Osler, K.C., J. G. Scott, K.C., Sir Edmund Walker, D. R. Wilkie.

At a subsequent meeting of the Board of Directors, Hon. Featherston Osler, K.C., was re-elected President, and Hon. J. J. Foy, K.C., and J. W. Langmuir, Vice-Presidents.

The Inspection Committee was re-elected, namely, Hon. J. J. Foy, (Chairman), Sir Aemilius Irving, K.C., and Hamilton Cassels, K.C.

The following members were elected to the Advisory Boards of Ottawa and Winnipeg:—

Ottawa—W. D. Hogz, K.C., (Chairman), Sir Henry N. Bate, George Burr, Capt. J. L. Murphy and Hiram Robinson.

Winnipeg—Hon. Sir D. H. McMillan, K.C.M.G., (Chairman), Hon. D. C. Cameron, W. H. Cross, A. L. Crossin, H. H. Smith, and Frederick T. Griffin.

HE WANTED IT.

The Prisoner Hat... (Pie-Powder)

"A Circuit Tramp" in "Pie-Powder" tells of an amusing sequel to the eloquence of defending counsel in a murder trial. The real question left in doubt was the identity of the criminal. A common round hat had been found at the scene of the crime, and was said to have been worn by the prisoner. His counsel addressed the jury at great length upon the insufficiency of the evidence, and the hat was produced to them for their inspection.

"An ordinary black bowler hat, gentlemen, such as most men wear—such as many of us wear ourselves! It is upon evidence of this flimsy description that you, gentlemen, are invited to pronounce the doom of a fellow-creature—to send to the scaffold—and so on and so on."

The jury were much impressed, returned a verdict of "not guilty," and the prisoner was discharged. But he lingered awkwardly in the dock and cast a wistful glance round the court upon his heart. The warder tapped him on the shoulder and intimated that another gentleman was waiting to take his place. Then, as he spoke, in a voice husky with emotion, "Beg pardon, your lordship, but can I have my hat?"

Here another story from "Pie-Powder." No lawyer was more sarcastic in regard to his profession than the notable Devonshire advocate known for many years as Counselor Carter, who possessed the bitterest tongues and did not seem to care one iota to whom he addressed his remarks. Even judges sought to avoid his outbursts. An example of Carter's unconventional language is afforded by an incident which occurred on one occasion when he was defending a man at the Assizes on a charge of obtaining money by false pretences.

"False pretences!" said Carter, with fine scorn. "Why, we all make them every day—barristers and solicitors and judges—the whole lot of us! Talk of the purity of the judicial system! Here he pointed derisively at the learned judge, who sat cowering on the bench. "Why, it's only rabbit-skin!"

Not In Sight.

A countryman named Street owned a runaway cow. As the season advanced Street was compelled to make several long pilgrimages into the country for the reprehensible animal. On one occasion the trail led on and on until Street had entered the environs of a town where a trolley system was installed. Just as the runaway turned a corner in the outskirts, the car lumbered up and the conductor called out: "Cedar Street!"

The owner of the estrayed cow stopped in his tracks and bawled back at the man in blue and gold: "No, Mr. burg, I ain't seen her, and when I do it won't be good for her blamed old hide either!"

Racine at His Work.

Racine, the French writer, composed his work while walking rapidly about, shouting out the lines in a loud voice. One day while he was thus composing part of his play of "Mithridates" in the Tuilleries gardens in Paris he was surrounded by a group of workmen who took him to be a maniac. On his return home from these walks he would write down scene after scene in prose, and when he was finished he would exclaim, "My tragedy is done!" considering the transposition of the lines into verse only a trivial thing.

Accepted the Apology.

An Irishman was going along the road when an angry bull rushed at him and tossed him over a fence. The Irishman, recovering from his fall, upon looking up saw the bull pawing and tearing up the ground, as is the custom of the animal when irritated, whereupon he smiled at the animal and said: "It was not for your bowing and scraping and your humble apologies, you brute, fair I should think that you'd thrown me over the fence on purpose."—London Answers.

Swiss Chimney Sweeps.

There are some strange things to be seen in Switzerland, states The World Wide Magazine, but nothing stranger than the chimney sweeps, who, curiously enough, are the only people in the country who wear top hats. The silk hat, usually of respectable antiquity, is for some inexplicable reason the recognized headgear of the chimney cleaner in Switzerland, and he would probably feel as unprofessional without it as a policeman without his helmet, or a mufin man without his flat cap.

Compassionate Nature.

"I haven't much objection to you personally," said Mr. Cumrox, "but you know my daughter has been accustomed to every luxury."

"Well," replied the confident suitor, "I won't ask her to give up anything on my account. I think I could go along and enjoy luxury as much as anybody."

Tiny Liechtenstein.

Liechtenstein, the smallest of Europe's sovereign states, has a monarch, a parliament, but no taxes and no army. Prince John provides its finance, and in return nominates three of its fifteen members of parliament.

Curiosity.

Curiosity is finding out something about somebody else that doesn't concern you and which would make you mighty mad if somebody else found it out about you when it didn't concern somebody else.

Time To Go Home.

"Well, dear, I guess the honeymoon is over."

"Why do you say that?" pouted the bride.

"I've been taking stock and find I'm down to $2.65."

Rheumatism Crippled Arm

So stiffened up by rheumatism he could not dress himself without help was the condition of Mr. Clark who tells in this letter how he was entirely cured by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The kidneys must be got right before rheumatism can be really cured and hence the success of this great medicine. Mr. James Clarke, Manitowish, Sask., writes: "I can honestly say that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have done me a world of good and cured me of rheumatism. For two years I suffered from rheumatism in the shoulders, and could not raise my arms above my head. I could not dress or undress myself without help, and was obliged to hire help to do my work. No medicines that I could find did me any good."

"A friend wrote from England and begged me to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. This treatment soon brought relief, and in six months I was entirely free of rheumatism. That was four years ago. I am now 60 years of age, and can do a day's work with any man."

The Dominion Express Company is gradually extending its service until now it has running rights over 18,000 miles of railway in Canada, which is practically two-thirds of the railway mileage of the whole Dominion. On the 1st of February its service began operation over the Intercolonial and Prince Edward Island Railways, with direct connection with Newfoundland, and it will also establish a service on eight other tributary roads in Quebec and the Maritime provinces—the Atlantic, Quebec and Western Railway, Quebec Central Railway, Temiscouma Railway, Carleton and Gulf Shore Railway, International Railway, Northern Railway, North Shore Railway, and the Moncton and Bouchette Railway. Those roads with its government railways give an additional mileage of 2,400 miles.

How to Get Free Seeds

We want to send everybody interested in gardening or farming our new free 1913 Seed Catalogue. If you will write us to-day, we will include free a package of our Asparagus Beet. This Beet is most delicious. You get two distinct dishes from one vegetable. Use the ribs as Asparagus—the leaves as Spinach or greens. Our new Catalogue is one of the most complete published this year. If you prefer, we will send free package of our Burbank's Giant Cucumber, California Poppy, or D. & H.'s Excelior Swede, instead of the Asparagus Beet. Let us know to-day which you want.

Kindly mention this paper. It is important to us.

PARIS

(From our own correspondent.)
The telephone wires were kept pretty busy here Wednesday night. Crowds gathered around the instruments all eager to get the score. Owing to the late hour the game started, news was not received here until nearly half past eleven. It is estimated that nearly two hundred went from here to see the game. Although the locals were defeated by a score of 8 to 2, the people feel assured that the boys in green will make a clean getaway at Ingersoll to-night, where the tie game is to be played.
The board of education held its regular monthly meeting Wednesday night. The members present being: Messrs. Dunton, Telfer, Hare, Munn, Martin and Whitby. In the absence of the Chairman, Mr. Martin presided.
A letter was read from the inspector of household science, Mr. A. H. Leak, stating that the evening grant is paid separately from the day grant and that the Board would receive the grant later. The letter was filed.

Principal Dickson's report for January showed 484 pupils on the public school roll, with an average attendance of 441. The receipts for the penny bank for the month were $120.83.
Mrs. Horace Sharp, St. Andrew St. died very suddenly last evening, about 10 o'clock. Mrs. Sharp was not complaining of being sick. She was about all day, and heart failure was the cause of death. Deceased was a member of the Presbyterian Church and a faithful attendant.
Mr. and Mrs. Sharp lived on a farm near Glen Morris for a greater part of their married life. They retired to Paris about seven years ago. She leaves her husband and a brother in Paris to mourn her loss. Mr. Sharp took sick a week ago and is far from well. He has the sympathy of his many friends in this, his hour of sorrow.

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian Church are having a social evening Tuesday next at the home of Mr and Mrs. Hicks, Mechanic St.
St. Andrew's Young People are paying the young people of the Presbyterian Church a visit Monday next.
Mrs. Jennie McKinley, daughter of Mrs. O. Maus of Paris, was married to Mr. Andrew Laidlaw of Drumbo Friday last. Paris friends extend best wishes.
Paris Customs receipts were as follows: January, $5,750.33, a decrease of $243.33 as compared with last year. London Y.M.C.A. plays Paris Y.M.C.A. at Basketball to-night.
Simple and Sure—Dr. Thomas Electric Oil is so simple in application that a child can understand the instructions. Used as a dressing to apply. The directions are so plain and unmistakable that they are readily understood by young and old.

A FEW OUTSTANDING FACTS

FROM THE

SIXTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

CANADA LIFE

ASSURANCE COMPANY

A Splendid Year.	In important respects the Company in 1912 excelled its record for any previous year in its history.
Greatest Surplus Earnings.	1. THE SURPLUS EARNED in 1912 was $1,530,667, exceeding by over $237,000 the earnings of 1911, and by a much larger amount the earnings of any previous year.
Interest Rate Increasing.	2. THE INCOME of $7,396,760 was greater than that of the previous year by $833,559, and the greatest in the Company's history. The rate of interest earned, which had been steadily advancing since 1899, was further improved in 1912. This is an important factor in producing surplus.
Assets Show Record Growth.	3. THE ASSETS were increased by $4,044,182, and now stand at $48,301,523. This growth surpasses that of any previous year.
Another New Record.	4. THE NEW PAID-FOR POLICIES amounted to $15,512,339, exceeding the amount of the best previous year, 1911, by over $3,000,000. THE TOTAL ASSURANCES now in force are for $144,877,970.
Payments to Policyholders.	5. THE PAYMENTS TO POLICYHOLDERS in 1912 totalled $2,462,965, an increase of $167,891 over those of 1911. In addition to this, LOANS TO POLICYHOLDERS on security of their policy contracts were made for $1,353,704.
Strong Reserves.	6. THE CANADA LIFE now values $76,500,000 of its business on a 3% basis, and $68,400,000 at 3 1/2%, which means that its Reserves are much stronger than are required by any Government Insurance Department on this continent.

Gray Hair Restored
My hair was getting quite gray and falling out rapidly and I was troubled with a terrible itching of the scalp. My head was full of dandruff, which fell upon my clothes and kept me continually brushing it off. While on a visit to Rochester I heard of your Sage and Sulphur for the hair. I got a bottle and used it. A few applications relieved the itching, my hair stopped falling out and gradually came back to its natural color. It is now a nice dark brown color, soft, glossy and pliable. Several of my friends want to use it, and I want to know what you will charge me for six bottles of it.

Grew Hair on a Bald Head
For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin until the top of my head was entirely bald. About four months ago I commenced using Sage and Sulphur. The first bottle seemed to do some good, and I kept using it regularly until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is fairly covered and keeps on coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer, as I notice a constant improvement.

THE CHINESE JUNK

A Curious Craft It Is, With Eyes Painted on Its Masts.

SOME TOPSY TURVY METHODS

The Crew's Quarters Are Aft, Not Forward, and John Blandly Sets His Course East South and Tells You the Wind is Blowing From West North.

The origin of the ancient old world junk, like all things Chinese, is involved in some obscurity, but its first model seems to have been a Chinese conception of some huge marine monster. The teeth which are usually shown in all the terrors of ferocity on the bow demand the mouth. Long boards running aft from the bow, both to port and to starboard, represent the awe inspiring jaws. The sails are fins, while the tall waving aloft, an appendix which all properly constituted dragons of the sea must certainly have, is denoted in the high stern. But those of these characteristics have lost much of their significance in recent years, with the one exception of the eyes, which are always painted on the masts. Captain John is loath to part with them, for, as he warily exclaims:

"No have eye, no can see; no can see, no can go."

John Chinaman, shipbuilder, when he takes a notion to build one of his junks does not bother himself much about plans and specifications. Give him the model. Then he will lay his lines off on his construction. But first he goes along by the simple rule of thumb. Considering the result he has attained, he is no doubt convinced of the superiority of his method over every other. Fir, teak and pine are the woods he uses in his construction. The seams of the hull are caulked with rattan shavings and "paved" with a cement of oil and gypsum. The whole of the hull is well tarred, while the upper works are smeared with wood oil. Then comes a final coat of paint—green, blue, white, red, etc. The hull is painted in a way that is reserved for the many flags the completed ship will carry to proclaim her nationality.

When it comes to equipments, they seem antiquated compared with the ones we employ. The windlass is an angled, horizontal roller extending across the broad bow, on either side of which is arranged a series of fixed spokes bearing a strong resemblance to a wheel without a tire. From this is hung great teakwood anchors with iron bound flukes and cables of coil or bamboo rope. This ingenious contrivance is capable of being operated by either hand or foot.

In the way of sail the style depends on whether you are in north or south China. Among the northern Chinese a long mainmast carrying short lug sails is found. In the southern country the sails are generally of woven mat strips sewed into a single sheet and provided with yards at the top and bottom. The bamboo ribs crossing it serve to keep the hoops on the mast in place and enable the boatmen to haul the sail close on the wind. This mainmast is the chief dependence, though, sometimes, a "driver" is placed on the taffrail and a small sail near the bow. But bowsprits are not considered at all necessary by John Chinaman.

In the matter of rigging we find John quite familiar with everything he requires. Halyards, sheets and braces are used as with us. His blocks, though larger, are not as shapely and are fewer in number. Clumsy as the rudder appears, it is so contrived as to require little effort to manipulate it, for why John has understood the principle of a balanced rudder and centerboard for centuries. The inboard end resembles just what it is intended to represent—a huge oar handle—and is so cunningly rigged with guys and whips that it makes our own stiff jointed wheel and short helm a poor alternative.

His compass is stationary. The needle swings on its pivot and points contrarily to the south pole. With twenty-four divisions and some 2,000 minor points or degrees on this faithful guide, John insists on referring to his course as E. S. or the wind blowing from the W. N. How he would disarrange such complex compass bearings as E. by N. ¼ E. or N. W. by N. ¼ N. can be left to an imagination sufficiently vivid to embrace such a calamity.

In the arrangement of his ship John again exhibits his consistency by beginning wrong end foremost—that is, considering the matter from our viewpoint. His provisions are carried above deck and aft instead of forward and below. The crew eat and sleep near the stern. The passengers are accommodated in the forward end. In China there is no Plimsoll mark and no government inspector ready to check off the number of passengers as they go aboard. Neither is there any instance upon such requirements as life belts, fire appliances and lifeboats. When everything is ready John starts forth on his voyage feeling safe in the happy possession of his practice or clearance papers, whereby he is commanded to refrain from many practices. These include about everything from smuggling to the carrying of stinkpots. This practice also commands his son to the gods and bids him an affectionate farewell and wishes for a safe passage.—Norman W. Browne in New York Post.

It never occurs to fools that merit and good fortune are closely united—Goethe.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

WANTED MIXED TEA.

How the Iron Duke Ordered It Served to His Timid Guest.

The reports of a revival in the consumption of green tea in England recall a story of Wellington, told in Horsley's "Recollections of a Royal Academician."

"At St. Paul's it was customary at breakfast time for the duke's favorite man servant to bring in a long tray with a number of small silver teapots, one for each guest. In those days people had their choice of black or green tea, and the duke, himself putting the tea into each pot, questioned his guests individually: "What do you take, sir, black or green?" in stentorian tones.

"On the particular occasion referred to his guests included the future Lord Denman, who had been consumed with nervousness ever since he had entered the house at the thought of converse with his distinguished host, and when the question was shouted at him as to black or green the poor youth hesitated, stammered, and when the question was put a second time with some impatience the reply came out with a rush at last:

"I take it mixed, your grace!" "The duke was taken aback at the unaccustomed answer, but in a moment roared out: "Take Mr. Denman two pots!"

PRESENCE OF MIND.

A Woman's Cool Nerve in a Moment of Deadly Peril.

An Englishman in traveling through Ceylon was the guest of a dockyard official at Trincomalee.

"The dinner was excellent," he says, "and when it was about half over I was startled by hearing the wife of my host tell the native servant to place a bowl of milk on a deer skin near her chair.

"Although she spoke as calmly as if giving an ordinary order, I knew at once there was a snake somewhere in the room, for they prefer milk to anything else. As a hysterical movement might have meant certain death, we all sat like statues; but, for all that, my eyes were inspecting every nook and corner, with a peep under the table. However, it was not until the milk was placed on the deer skin that the snake appeared. And then, to our amazement, a large cobra uncoiled itself from my hostess' ankle and glided toward the bowl, when, of course, it was immediately killed.

"But just fancy the nerve of the woman, though she fainted when the thing lay dead on the floor. How many could have remained motionless in such circumstances?"—London Tit-Bits.

Lincoln's Chin Fly Story.

A certain amount of trouble is a good thing. Lincoln used to illustrate the point with a story about a chin fly.

It seems that once a man was plowing with a very lazy mule. Suddenly the mule lifted his head, switched his stump of a tail and went across the field at a rapid walk and with most unusual energy.

Reaching the end of the row, there was a man on the fence. When the mule and man came up the fellow got down, walked over to the mule and hit him on the jaw, at the same time remarking, "Well, I killed him that time!"

"Killed what?" "Why, that chin fly." "Well, you interfering fool, I wish you would mind your own business. That chin fly was the only thing that made this mule go."—Judge.

Wearing the Trousers.

Ancient Britons were among the people whose wearing of trousers was noted by the more civilized ancients who eschewed them. "Dracoe" or breeches seem to have impressed the Roman mind very much as Chinese pigtail did the modern west. Gaul, beyond the Alps, was at one time known as Gallia Braccata—Trouseland—and Cicero taunts a man with having sprung from "trousered" ancestors. As Roman ways degenerated the use of trousers began to creep in, and it is recorded that Alexander Severus wore white ones, previous emperors' trousers having been crimson.

Rice Stealing Coolies.

Among Chinese coolies a favored method of stealing rice is to lean up against a pile of sacks and stick a tin tube through the sacking, the rice, which is dry, flowing naturally through the tube into the coolie's clothing. Flour is also stolen in this manner, and a common punishment in this case is to let the thief obtain a large quantity and then pour water into his clothing, which makes matters rather uncomfortable for the culprit.

The Obstinate Cook.

Father—Cooking schools are of some use after all. This cake is delicious. Daughter—Is it? I thought it would be a terrible failure. Father—Why? Daughter—I told the cook exactly how to make it, and she went and made it some other way.

Cruel.

"Why do you encourage your husband to drink so much coffee?" "It's the one thing that will keep him awake nights, and that's the only chance I get to tell him what I really think of him!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

With or Without.

"Does she slug?" "Yes." "With or without?" "With or without what—her master?" "No. With or without coaxing."—Detroit Free Press.

Police Court News.

A conductor for breach of traffic law was fined $20. Peter Adams, was charged, that on the 13th day of January last, he did wilfully set fire to the Brantford Cordage works. The Crown called three witnesses, Mr. Messer, the manager of the above firm; Mr. John White, the night watchman and one of the foremen.

His Worship, after hearing the evidence submitted, committed the defendant for trial, to come up at the assizes.

Miller's Worm Powders are par excellence the medicine for children who are found suffering from the ravages of worms. They immediately alter the stomachic conditions under which the worms subsist and drive them from the system, and, at the same time, they are tonical in their effect upon the digestive organs, restoring them to healthful operation and ensuring immunity from further disorders from such a cause.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking will not cure children of wetting the bed, because it is not a habit but a dangerous disease. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co., Dept. 291, Chicago, Ill., have discovered a strictly harmless remedy for this distressing disease and to make known its merits they will send a sample package securely wrapped and prepaid Absolutely free to any of The Courier readers. This remedy also cures frequent desire to urinate and inability to control urine during the night or day in old young. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co. is an Old Reliable House. EXPERT ADVICE. Money spent on keeping time pieces "on the job" is really a necessary expenditure. Plenty of good watches aren't doing their best work, simply because they can't. Many a fifty or hundred dollar watch is being slowly but surely ruined, because it needs a dollars worth of cleaning. If this reminds you that your watch is in that shape, let it also remind you that our repair dept. can attend to your needs on short notice.

NAME..... ADDRESS.....

Evening Programme

Mr. N. Simpson, president of the Farmers' Institute, acted as chairman. Mr. Schuyler of Paris, gave an interesting talk on poultry management.

Mrs. Woelard gave an address on home influence, and Mr. A. Groh of Preston, a talk on The Stairway to Success, touching on some people finding the wrong mission in life. These speakers are recommended as among the best, and their subjects were of great practical value and also very interesting.

Mrs. Rosalind Sharp's recitation, "Childhood," touched on Mrs. Woelard's address, home influence, and was much enjoyed.

Mrs. Sayles gave a vocal solo, Miss Hazel Armstrong and Mr. Carl Moyle an instrumental duet. Mrs. J. Moyle acted as accompanist.

The meeting came to a close with the singing of the National Anthem.

LAUGHTER LINES

Recently in Seattle in a cigar stand appeared the sign, "We give $15 for 1000 Lincoln pennies. No less a person was attracted by this than Judge Watson. He walked up to the counter and laying down a penny triumphantly asked for $15. The clerk took the penny, examined it closely, asked if it were genuine, and after several minutes sighed and said he guessed it was good.
"Certainly it is," answered the Judge. "Where is my $15?"
"Where," said the clerk, "are the other 1998?"—Life.

A Harvard professor, noted for his severe way of examining students, tackled a raw looking freshman. "I understand you attend the class for mathematics?" "Yes." "How many sides has a circle?" "Two," said the student. "Indeed, what are they?" "An inside and outside," was the prompt reply. "And you attend the moral philosophy class also?" "Yes." "Well, no doubt you heard lectures on various subjects. Did you ever hear one on cause and effect?" "Yes." "Give an instance." "A barrow wheelled by a man." The doctor hastily sat down and put no more questions.

A Texan and a New Yorker were one day discussing the relative merits of their respective climates.
"Down where I live," said the Texan, "we grew a pumpkin so big that when we cut it my wife used one half of it as a cradle to rock the baby in."

The New Yorker smiled. "Why, my dear fellow," he said, "that's nothing at all. A few days ago right in New York City, three full grown policemen were found asleep on one beat."

For the purpose of advertising fishing rods, a shopkeeper hung a large rod outside his shop, with an artificial fish at the end of it. Late one night, Perkins, who had been dining a bit too well, happened to see the fish. Going cautiously to the door he knocked gently.
"Who's there?" remanded the shopkeeper from an upper window.
"Sh-h! Don't make a noise but come down as quietly as you can," whispered Perkins. Thinking something serious was the matter, the man dressed and stole downstairs.
"Now what is it?" he inquired.
"Hist!" admonished Perkins. "Pall in your line, quick; you've got a bite."

What Will '13 Bring Us?
What will 1913 add to the history of nations? For six centuries, up to one hundred years ago, the thirteenth year of every century has been marked by an event or a personality of outstanding note.

In 1313 Boccaccio, author of the "Decameron" was born. The work was supposed to be read during the 10 days of a plague that visited Florence in 1348.

Turkish Jams and Grandmothers.
Among the various duties falling to the lot of the Ottoman housewife that of providing the home with an

In 1413 King Henry V. succeeded his father on the throne of England. In 1413 the Battle of Flodden Field was fought and James IV. of Scotland was defeated and slain with the flower of Scottish chivalry.

In 1613 Michael Romanoff became Czar of Russia, thus founding the existing dynasty.

In 1713 came the signing of the treaty of Utrecht terminating the wars of Queen Anne. This treaty secured the Protestant successor in this country, separated the French and Spanish Crowns, and enlarged the possessions in America.

A century ago witnessed "the battle of nations" at Leipzig, when Napoleon, with an army of 160,000 men met the allied forces of Austria, Russia and Prussia, numbering 240,000; and of the 80,000 slain upwards of one half were Frenchmen.

In the same year was Richard Wagner, the composer, born. Other notable men born in 1813 were: Isaac Pitman, inventor of Phonography; David Livingstone, the great missionary; explorer; and Henry Ward Beecher, the noted divine.

Should women take a daily cold bath? The question is discussed at some length in Dr. Elizabeth Sloan Chesser's book, "Perfect Health for Women and Children." Dr. Chesser has no doubt that a daily bath with plenty of soap, brisk friction, and rubbing down with a bath towel should be adopted by every woman who wants to be healthy. But what of the cold bath? It is hygienically advisable? Some women enjoy it, and these can safely indulge in the stimulating effect of a cold plunge, even when the weather is freezing.

"But there is no virtue in its so-called 'hardening' effect for the people who are miserable, depressed, shivery after forcing themselves in mistaken martyrdom, to take a cold bath."
"To some people the cold bath is a danger, and only those who have sufficient vitality to ensure a glow and exhilaration afterwards should go in for cold baths in winter at any rate. The effect of cold water is to drive the blood from the skin to the interior of the body. If the reaction is satisfactory afterwards the blood suddenly flows to the skin and a sense of warmth and exhilaration is felt."
"The cold sponge after a tepid bath, or whilst standing in warm water, has the same effect, less shock, and is more suitable for people who are not very robust, especially in winter. Instinct is often the best guide in the matter of baths. There have been many controversies on the subject. There are extremists who advocate considerations altogether. The idea is just as absurd as the contrary theory, that daily bathing is injurious because it removes the natural oil from the skin and makes people more liable to chill."

Most women (Dr. Chesser decides) will find that a warm tepid bath followed by a cold sponge is the most comfortable and the most satisfactory. The function of a warm bath is to help the system to get rid of various poisons through the skin, and after application of cold water and friction with a towel stimulates the skin, increases its elasticity, cleanses it, and prevents colds and catarrhs more than almost any other measure that can be employed.

Medicine and Education
In the medical world an Englishwoman has been the first of her sex to be awarded a licentiate's diploma by the Royal College of Surgeons, while the first woman bachelor of dental surgery has also gained her degree during the year at Manchester University. The appointment of Dr. Elizabeth Macdonald as ship's surgeon to the steamer Waimana opened up a new field for women doctors. The initiation of the new South London Hospital, which is to be entirely staffed and run by women, is also a notable mark of women's activity in the English medical world. At St. Petersburg the first woman private lecturer received her appointment to the chair of medicine. The services of women were requisitioned in Berlin, Hamburg, and several other cities in Germany as school and Civil Service doctors.

In the educational world France the Guist'hau proposals give women teachers the most promising hopes yet received of equal pay for equal work throughout all grades of the French school system. A similar campaign is being waged by the women teachers of Austria, where the teachers of Vienna have won a long-contested victory for the eligibility of married women to continue in their profession, a reform also won in the canton of Zurich. In Spain and Uruguay women have been admitted to the universities for the first time in full standing, while a thoroughly revolutionary change in China has placed within reach of children of both sexes, under ten the full benefit of the first system of free State education ever proposed in that country.

In England, the establishment of a Woman's Labour College, which is to be formally opened in February, is another result of modern women's activity in the educational world.

Unfailing supply of jams and sweetmeats is considered highly important. Eastern races as a rule are inordinately fond of toothsome preparations of any kind, Ottoman ladies are known as fanciers and makers of candies and jellies. It is common in Turkish families to refer to a member of the household's fair sex as "the one whose raspberry jam five seasons ago was so delicious." Many of the harem's inmates become jealously proud of the reputation thus acquired. Gossip about their friends' activities in the preparation of sweet dishes finds as interesting a share of the conversation as the discussion of the new fashions in a western paper.

As the various fruits come into season, from two to four days are set apart in each home for making preserves. The event in each case is made the occasion of a holiday. Invitations are sent out to friends to come and assist, or at any rate to witness the important proceedings.

The central figure in such events in old Turkish homes is usually a grandmother, as always in Oriental households the presiding genius-of-the-jam is the eldest lady in the house. She is the one whose dignified bearing adds weight to the cooking lore she imports to her younger relatives. She takes her place on a chair placed well in the middle of the kitchen, and directs the day's operations. Servants and children alike do her bidding. Soon a savory smell, reminiscent of a Parisian bonbon shop invades every nook of the kitchen. No reference to books or cooking is made on such occasions, neither is a written recipe ever handled by any of these Turkish ladies. Every step of the process in the making of the jam is drawn out of memory's recesses, the interest taken in cooking having been sufficient for its retention there.

When at last the presiding old dame decides that the jam is ready, the cauldron is taken off the fire and left to cool gradually, until its contents can be safely stored in jars. The family provision is poured in large brown-colored earthenware jars of cylindrical shape. That designed to be given away is placed in jars of fancy design, the beauty of which varies according to the means of the donors. The custom of sending presents of jam to friends is a prevalent one in Turkey. Such gifts are made immediately after the jam has been classed. Among the well-to-do classes it is usual to send this offering accompanied by flowers. This is but another form of the excessive courtesy peculiar to Orientals.

A final portion of the jam is kept in sets of small jars of varying design, and often of exquisite beauty. These presents of jam to be served to visitors. This is more especially a Turkish custom, although it is also found among the country's Eastern neighbors. Soon after a visitor is led into the parlor of a Turkish house, he is waited upon by a servant, carrying a large sized silver tray of highly ornamental design, in the middle of which one of these jars is placed between two elaborate spoon holders, also wrought in silver, and one of them empty. Space is reserved behind this set for a row of glasses filled with water. As the servant holds the tray before the visitor, the latter takes a spoonful of jam and disposes later of his spoon in the holder to his left provided for the purpose. He then washes his jam down with a glass of water. This offering is followed in quick succession by that of a tiny cup of coffee prepared in the Turkish fashion, that is to say, the cup is half filled with the grounds. The unwritten laws of hospitality have now been complied with to everybody's satisfaction. The custom is to never use a jar over again on such occasions, the code of civilization preventing the setting before a guest of a jar previously opened.

Economical Plum Pudding
Put one cupful of finely chopped raisins in the bottom of a mixing dish and mix one cupful of flour, with it, add one cupful of brown sugar, one cupful of suet chopped fine, one-half teaspoonful each of clove, cinnamon and allspice, the juice and grated rind of one lemon, citron to suit, and salt, one cupful of grated carrot, one cupful of grated potato, one teaspoonful of soda, mixed with the potato. Mix all thoroughly, and steam three hours. Hard or liquid sauce as you please. This tastes much like English plum pudding, but it is far more easily digested.

Amsterdam Steak
One pound of lean beef chopped fine, three thin slices of bacon chopped fine and seasoned with salt, pepper and a few drops of onion juice, shape the meat into small round cakes and brown in a hot, greased frying pan. Garnish with parsley and serve.

Welsh Rabbit
One half pound of mild cheese, one egg, two rounding tablespoons of butter, two level teaspoons of flour, two cupfuls of milk, one half teaspoonful of salt, red pepper to taste, hot toast or large soda crackers.

Cut the cheese into small pieces, put it in a saucepan with the butter and place it on the stove to melt slowly. In another saucepan scald the milk and pour into it the egg, flour and salt, which have been beaten together. Let this mixture cook, stirring constantly, until it is perfectly thick, then pour the cream mixture into the melted cheese and butter. Beat the combined mixtures vigorously with the egg beater, then add the red pepper. Serve on hot toast or large soda crackers which have been browned slightly in the oven. The secret of the success of this recipe lies in the proper careful combining of the two mixtures.

SCHOOL BOARD

Ashton voting in favor of it. The report as read was adopted.
I. D. Scruton, chairman of the Finance committee, got through a batch of accounts.
Worshipful Open Salary Question.
A petition signed by 45 teachers was presented. It requested that the salaries of all teachers be raised $50 a year until the maximum is reached. At the present time a teacher receives a $50 increase up to $600, then $25 up to the maximum, which is $700. As the board re-arranged the salary increases only in December last, they considered it unwise to reopen the question at this time.
Principal Park of Prince Edward school, wrote asking for leave of absence until September 1, in order that he may give his attention for a few months to the manufacture and introduction to the public of his geographical invention. The invention is an excellent one and will greatly simplify the teaching of the movements of the solar system. The matter will be dealt with later by the Management committee.

The treasurer was ordered to pay the disputed accounts of Architect Hall and T. A. Cowan, on receiving a satisfactory discharge of the same. A claim against the board by Edmund Brown was also settled.
The trustees this year are showing enthusiastic interest in school affairs and are dealing with matters in a business like way.
The board then adjourned.

With some mothers, it is simply a matter of pride when they select "Little Darling" or "Little Daisy" hosiery for their children. They buy the daintiest, prettiest stockings available. Other mothers, again, choose these brands because of the soft, comfortable material—Australian Lamb's Wool.

You should be influenced by both the above considerations, and by the knowledge that "Little Darling" and "Little Daisy" stockings are hygienically knitted and sanitariously dyed.

HE COULD NOT HOLD A CUP OF TEA

Doctors Agreed Toronto Nurse Had Bright's Disease.

Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Her After Five Years Suffering—Felt a Benefit After First Box.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 3.—(Special)—Mrs. Alberta Giffin, a nurse, living at 40 Wright Ave., this city, has been interviewed in regard to her reported cure of nervous or kidney trouble by Dodd's Kidney Pills. She stated that the report is true in every particular.

"My sickness," Mrs. Giffin says, "was caused from a nervous breakdown and what the doctors called incurable Bright's Disease brought on by cold and long weeks of nursing. I suffered for five years.

"I was treated by three doctors and was a patient in two hospitals, but gradually got weaker. Reading the experiences of other sufferers like myself led me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. At that time I was so weak and nervous I could not hold a cup of tea without spilling some of its contents.

"I felt a benefit after taking the first box of Dodd's Kidney Pills, and eight or nine boxes cured me so completely I can now walk a mile without fatigue."

If you haven't used Dodd's Kidney Pills yourself almost any of your neighbors will tell you they always cure Kidney Disease in any form.

TREASURES OF TURKEY

GREAT COLLECTION OF JEWELS KEPT IN ROOM IN PALACE.

Throne and Many Robes of Past Sultans Are Incriminated With Thousands of Gems—Privilege of Seeing Treasures Gained Only by Influence—The Chamber Is Jealously Guarded at All Times.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 3.—(Special)—An interesting article in the London Academy, headed "Turkey's Treasure House," discusses the marvelous collection of jewels and curiosities that are in a corner of the Topkapi Palace, known as the treasury.

"Here, in all conscience," says Mr. Turner, "is lost enough alone to justify a triumphant entry into the ancient city of Constantinople and to make the mouths water of the Bulgarian or Serbian hosts if they were permitted to cross the threshold of the treasure chamber."

"In the time of Abdul Hamid access to this veritable cave of Abdullah was difficult to obtain. Ambassadorial intervention in the case of Europeans was necessary, and the sultan's consent. Since the advent of Mahmud and the Young Turk, viewing privileges have been extended, but the signature of the grand vizier is still necessary to insure the unlocking of the famous portals.

"The procedure for a private view is quite an affair. After passing the sentries at the gate of the old palace and through a maze of narrow passages, the visitor is brought to a courtyard, a stately procession of befezzed and frock-coated officials, headed by a venerable Bede, issues from a side building. The Bede, with a stentorian voice, before the huge key is inserted in the lock the seal of the door is broken by the venerable one and carefully to turn the lock. The door opens only to reveal another barrier which is as solemnly unlocked. The black-coated procession flows in and takes up strategic positions.
