DR. D. MORRISON ANSWERS "CITIZEN"

Charges He Did Not Even Vote on the Matter of the Ferry Subsidy.

For the opinions of correspondents, THE UNION ADVOCATE does not hold itself responsible. The Editor of the "Advocate." Dear Sir:—

My attention has been called to a letter that appeared in your issue signed "Citizen" in which he alleges that I as Alderman used my influence to pledge town for more debt that I and shareholders of the Newcastle Steamboat Company may profit thereby.

During the twenty-four years I represented the town as Mayor and Alderman, as well as member of the Municipal Council, I have refused to notice scribbles in the press, who were used or afraid to attach their names to their communications, and I would have treated libel with the contempt it deserves were it not that it deliberately misrepresents the Steamboat Company, whose Directors are endeavoring to give the town a ferry service.

I will not take up your space to discuss the circumstances under which the Newcastle Steamboat Company came into existence, as anyone in Newcastle knows it was organized, not as a financial venture, but to meet a public need of the town, and only after every other conceivable effort to run a ferry service and improve navigation had failed, and as everyone who attended the various public meetings are also aware, many persons with large investments in the town who were present in the clamor for it, carefully abstained from putting their money into a company to meet the people's wants.

The company was however organized with not a little difficulty, were it not for the assistance given by parties outside of the town, the project would have failed through. Great credit is due the President and Secretary of the Board of Trade, and a few residents of the town, who put their money into this enterprise.

The season's operations resulted in a loss to the company of $10,000 and at the annual meeting the stockholders residing out of the town, naturally were disappointed with the result of the investment, and recommended that the boat be put to some other service. The Directors, whose principal object was to help the town, decided to place the boat before the local government, with the view of getting an assessed subsidy to meet the cost of operating this ferry. They had been getting $1000.00 and left a deficit of some $1,000. The council, who alone have the power and authority of assessing and maintaining a ferry, were anxious to know if the Steamboat Company would accept the service this season.

In a meeting of the Directors held in order to get the information and they, the Directors, decided to submit the whole facts to the council and show them their position in the matter, that they were willing to keep the boat on the ferry route if running expenses could be secured.

When the company, through its President and Secretary, submitted their case to the council, I was asked, and gave, the financial statement of the boat for the past year, and at the same time stated to the council, and to the Directors, that I could not exercise my privilege as an Alderman, on the question of giving assistance from the town, owing to my being a stockholder and Director. The other Aldermen of the Board who held stock in the company took the same view, and declined to make any motion or vote on the question. Therefore when your correspondent "Citizen" charges me with using my position as an Alderman to make profit for myself and my fellow shareholders, he states what is absolutely false, and what he knows to be absolutely false, if he knows anything about it at all.

I challenge him or anyone else to point to a single act of mine, as a representative of the town, either in its council or in the municipal council, by which I ever attempted to make profit for myself, or misuse the revenues I was administering.

It is to be regretted that we have in our town some people who do nothing whatever to improve it, but who seem to delight to throw mud at those who make an honest effort to make it better. They apparently think that they are doing something clever by publishing misrepresentations in anonymous letters, without the courage, or even the decency, to take the responsibility of what they say, in the hope that some one will believe them.

Excuse me for taking so much of your valuable space. My only apology is that the subject requires it. Statements such as contained in your correspondent's letter tend to injure the town. I am, Yours truly,
D. MORRISON
Newcastle, April 18, 1911.

Ald. Falconer, H. Wyse and D. C. Smallwood Among the Defeated

The Annual Civic Elections passed off very quietly yesterday, voting from 10 to 4 o'clock. Very few votes were cast in the forenoon but as the hour for closing drew nearer the electors came in faster and interest increased. The two majority candidates were on hand all the day but half of the Aldermanic Aspirants spent very little time at the booth, while few of the rest were seen to do much canvassing. The crowd was orderly all the demonstrations coming from the ubiquitous small boy who was present in great numbers.

Many of the voters were conveyed to the polls in carriages, the day being cold and damp. The total vote polled, which in 1908 was 421; the next year, 380; and last year only 279, rose yesterday to 294. Eleven of those who voted did not indicate their choice for Mayor.

H. H. Stuart, who in 1908 received 84 votes or 20 per cent; the next year 121, or 32 per cent; last year 134, or 48 per cent; this year received 160 of the 294 votes cast, or 54 per cent of the total, and was elected.

CHATHAM GOES WET

Scott Act Ticket, Which Has Ruled The Town The Last Year, is Drowned.

The result of the Civic Election in Chatham yesterday was a severe defeat of the men who stood for a strict enforcement of the Scott Act. ### 1000 REBELS DEFEAT 1600 DIAZ TROOPS

Most Important Battle Yet In Revolt for Mexican Freedom.—Rebels Capture two Guns and Kill 200.

Agua Prieta, Mexico, April 17.—The most important battle of the Mexican revolution thus far was fought here today, between 1,6000 Federals under command of Lieut. Col. Diaz and 1,000 rebels under Balasario Garcia, and resulted in the repulse of the former.

The battle lasted from 6.30 a. m. until sundown. At nightfall, two Federal machine guns were in the possession of the rebels, and the Federals has sustained a loss estimated by the rebels as at least 200 killed and wounded. The rebels gave their own loss at 20.

From the beginning of the battle regardless of the warning given by the United States government to the leaders of both forces, a rain of bullets poured into the American towns of Douglas, Ariz., and when the day was over it was found that seven non-combatant residents of that city had been wounded. It was a day almost of terror in Douglas.

ELOPED WITH DIVORCED HUSBAND

Her Love for Her First Husband, Said to be a Former Newcastle Man, Triumphed at Last.

BOSTON, April 17.—An unusual case in which New Brunswick people are concerned here has developed in Haverhill. The following advertisement has been forwarded to several newspapers in this state and New Brunswick by Mrs. Elizabeth Bansley:

"Margaret—you and baby come back to Haverhill. Mother and husband willing."

Mrs. Bansley said today that this "Personal" is intended for the eye of her daughter, Mrs. Margaret E. Bansley Munroe Lyle. Mrs. Lyle was married last November to John W. Lyle. That was a month after her divorce decree had been made absolute, severing a former marriage to Ira Munroe, whose wife she had been for three years.

Mrs. Bansley said Mrs. Lyle left home last week taking Thelma Munroe, her two and one-half years old daughter by her first husband. Mrs. Bansley received a letter saying Mrs. Lyle left with Ira Munroe, her first husband, and asking Mrs. Bansley to tell Lyle, her second husband. Lyle is twenty-three years old and Munroe is twenty-four. Mrs. Bansley said in an interview today:

"A week ago Saturday Munroe gave up his position, saying he was going to Montreal. The following Monday Mrs. Lyle left her home taking Thelma.

"Margaret is under her first husband's influence. She can come back to me and her second husband any time. If Margaret or any of her friends see the advertisement they will know what it means."

"Munroe came from Newcastle N. B. They may be in Newcastle or St. John, or some other down east place."

NO INCREASE IN BRITISH PREFERENCE

Ottawa, April 12.—In reply to Mr. R. L. Borden, Mr. Fielding said that on the adoption of reciprocity it may be necessary to make some further changes in the tariff and in connection with the British preference. But these will be in small matters, and not of an important character. They will not include an increase in the British preference to fifty per cent, nor will they include free agricultural implements. We hope to persuade the people of Canada that they should not press for these changes now. We desire to see the manufacturer successful. We believe that these things would have a disturbing influence on trade in Canada, and we aim to reciprocity something that will work unfettered for the benefit of Canada.

ICE RUNNING

The ice, which was weakened a few days before, is now running on Sunday and is now running. Rowboats are plying between here and Nelson, but the river is not clear of ice.

PRICELESS GEMS AT CORONATION

The Jewels in the King's Crown include 2818 Diamonds and 297 Pearls.
 "The grandeur of the whole thing is unimaginable, remaining one of the stories of one's childhood and the jewels massed in heaps waiting the first-come on the floor of Aladdin's cave." It is thus that one who has been privileged to make a close inspection of the crown worn by Queen Victoria at her Coronation in 1838. The Royal crowns, however, are remarkable each coronation. This is necessary, of course, on account of the difference in the sizes of the heads of the respective monarchs. King Edward's measure from temple to temple was 7 1/2 in., and from the forehead to the back of the head 6 1/2 in., the height being 9 1/2 in. King George's head is slightly smaller, and in addition he has desired that a place be found for a portion of the great Cullinan diamond, called the "Star of Africa." The larger portion of the diamond will be added to the sceptre which King George holds during the Coronation ceremony.
 According to the "Times," it is probable that the smaller portion of the Cullinan diamond will take the place of the great Prince Regent sapphire, immediately beneath the Black Prince ruby, the great egg-shaped jewel which was worn in his helmet by the Black Prince at many battles, including Crecy and Poitiers, the great sapphire being transferred to the back of the crown.
 It might be mentioned that when the Cullinan diamond, which, before cutting, was no less than 3 1/2 lb. in weight, was cut into two portions, a great number of smaller diamonds were made from its "shavings," which were set in various designs for the use of Queen Alexandra.
Famous Earrings.
 The King's crown is simply one gorgeous mass of jewels, and so closely set that it is almost impossible to see anything of the frame or gold setting. The base of the crown, two inches in depth, is formed of a bandeau of large round pearls and various colored jewels. Above are four great arches, which spring from the pearl-rimmed bandeau and surmount the purple-crimson velvet cap. These arches are simply masses of splendid diamonds, which give the impression of being thrown on in great heaps. Then comes the orb, which supports the St. Andrew's cross, both being composed of immense single-stone diamonds of the finest water.
 Perhaps two of the most interesting jewels in the King's crown are Queen Elizabeth's earrings, two pear-shaped pearls which were brought out from among the disused Crown jewels by special command of King Edward to adorn the crown at his Coronation. Exactly as worn by the Virgin Queen at her own Coronation in 1558, these were, by King Edward's order, left untouched and fastened high on each side of the arches of the crown and directly under the orb.
 In the case of Queen Alexandra's crown, this was composed entirely of diamonds, not a single colored stone finding its way in the design. It is possible that Queen Mary will follow out the same plan. Many diamonds privately owned by Queen Alexandra were temporarily removed from their settings and inserted in the crown. A few of the Crown diamonds, including the Koh-i-noor, were brought into requisition, and the Crown Jewellers temporarily supplied any deficiency.
 Immediately after the Coronation Queen Alexandra's crown was taken to pieces; the Koh-i-noor was again free to be set as a brooch or pendant for Queen Alexandra's use, whilst her own diamonds were reset in their previous forms.

BOGUS BARONETS

They Will Likely Be on Hand During the Coronation Festivities.
 Titled impostors will be more numerous than ever this season on account of the drawing power of the Coronation.
 Owing to the consequent rush of social festivities a few title holders whose names are unknown to busy hostesses will give rise to no suspicions. Suave rascals with unimpeachable manners will undoubtedly have their chance during that time. With the help of their bogus distinctions these adventurers, who look upon wealthy travelers as their natural prey, go about their nefarious business with a tactful cunning and a calm effrontery that almost defies detection.
 Knowing the game, they avoid taking any title higher than the baronetcy, an order most open to abuse, for there are over one thousand genuine baronets besides the premier baronet, Sir Hickman Beckett Bacon, whose title dates back to 1611.
 In order to prevent the false assumption of a baronet's title when it lapses by the death of its holder, a royal warrant was issued by the King in February, 1910, stating that an official roll of baronets must be prepared by the Home Office, and that when a baronet dies his successor must prove his right to the baronetcy.
 Within recent years the daughters of many well known Americans have assumed the titles conferred upon them by marrying into the baronetcy. Baronets do not sit as hereditary legislators in the House of Lords, neither are they officially represented at the coronation of an English Sovereign. But the tercentenary of the institution of this order falls this year, and prominent baronets will undoubtedly take steps to advertise the dignity of their rank, and to render it less liable to abuse. The police court magistrates are sure to have to deal with a few of the less expert masqueraders in borrowed plumage.

If you've been eating fad breakfast foods in the belief they were more nutritious than oatmeal, it's time you knew the truth.

In his great book, "Food and Dietetics," Robert Hutchinson, M.D., Edin., M.R.C.P., says "Oats may be regarded as the most nutritious of all cereals. They are rich in nitrogenous matter and mineral substances. Of the total nitrogenous matter 94 per cent. is in the form of protein, and therefore available for tissue-building."

Now that you know the facts you will take an added enjoyment from your bowl of oatmeal each morning. You will serve it to your children regularly.

INSURING CORONATION

Lloyd's Petting Place to One That
Crown in 1911 Not to Be Postponed

A postponement of the Coronation would mean a heavy loss to many millions of the shopkeepers. Innumerable warehouses, particularly city warehouses, filled up with goods a great part of which would become practically valueless if the Coronation did not take place on the appointed date. It is, therefore, possible to insure against such a contingency, and this peculiar sort of insurance is, underwriters say, a most advantageous of this year.

The insurance for a cent premium, which for every $100 handed over to the underwriters at Lloyd's will be recovered if the Coronation is postponed.

It is pointed out that King Edward was insured by tradepeople and commercial men. Even before the public found how grave his last illness was the insurance premium had jumped to 50 per cent. When he died, over a million changed hands. Not only Lloyd's but some 50 insurance companies were interested, though there are a few firms which refuse this sort of business.

But the insurance people were not so heavily hit as one might suppose, for most of the policies on King Edward's life had been taken out when he was very young and was the Duke of Cornwall—largely by tenants of the Duchy with covenanted leases or leases that expire when the person named in them dies. So that the insurance firms had already received more in premiums than they had to pay out.

It is for a similar reason that the young Prince of Wales, being Duke of Cornwall, is already heavily insured in the districts forming the Duchy.

But neither King Edward nor King George, nor the young Prince of Wales has ever had so much money hanging on his life as had Queen Victoria. This sort of insurance was unheard of till her accession, but she looked so delicate that it soon became popular. The insurance companies demanded—as they have always done since in the case of Royalties—a premium about half as large again as for ordinary cases, owing to the fact that they could not, of course, have her examined by their medical officers. About half the London fire insurers, however, owing to the length of her reign they only recovered in the end about a third of what they had paid in premiums.

When the insurance companies have taken as much as they care for they pass the overplus on to Lloyd's. It is Lloyd's that do all the Coronation insurance. It is all done in that famous long low room known all over the world as "The Room." There is a line of pews, called "boxes," down either side, each pew containing a narrow writing table.

In each sits an underwriter and his clerks. An insurance broker's clerk walks round the room. His firm may have had a commission to insure against the postponement of the Coronation for, say, $25,000 at 20 per cent. He sits at one table and shows the "slip." The underwriter there jots his name down for $5,000 of the total.

At the next table the clerk may find an underwriter willing to be responsible for $2,500 at the suggested premium. And so the clerk goes from box to box till the whole sum is underwritten. All his responsibilities are shared in this way.

Though underwriters have not the guarantee of the whole house behind them, as have members of the Stock Exchange, a bill in Parliament gives it to them. But even without that an underwriter's financial soundness can be counted on, for before he is accepted as a member of "The Room," he has not only to undergo a searching examination into his career, but to make a deposit, the minimum being $25,000. So the Coronation money is pretty safe.

KING GEORGE
At the age of two years.

MUSIC FOR CORONATION

How Choir will be Made up—Anthems for Occasion.

Gratifying progress is reported in the preparation of the musical ritual of the Coronation services. The programme will follow closely that at the Coronation of Edward VII, with a few notable additions. There will be a larger choir and also a larger band than at the Coronation of the late King. The singers will number almost five hundred, and the instrumentalists probably one hundred.

The nucleus of the choir will naturally be the Westminster Abbey singers, who will be reinforced by the choirs of St. Paul's Cathedral, the Chapel Royal, St. George's Chapel at Windsor, and drafts from the choirs of Rochester Cathedral, and other sources in the Province. The orchestra in which the trumpeters will have a conspicuous part, will be made up of musicians from the King's Private Band, the orchestra of the Royal Choral Society, and the Kneller Hall School of Military Music.

The chief feature of the musical ritual will be the anthems specially composed for the occasion by Sir Frederick Bridge, Sir Walter Parratt, and Sir George Martin, the three greatest organists of England. Sir Frederick Bridge probably will be selected to compose the anthems which will signalize the entrance of the royal party into Westminster Abbey. This recalls an interesting and time-honored custom. Midway in the anthem a break will be made, so that the boys of Westminster School may execute their ancient psalm of greeting their Majesties by the

NEWCASTLE, NEW BRUNSWICK, APRIL 19, 1911

EXPORT OF PULP WOOD

The Act passed by the Provincial Legislature last week regarding the disposition of pulp wood, other than poplar, cut upon crown lands, is a good one. It provides that such pulp wood must be manufactured within the Dominion of Canada. As Quebec and Nova Scotia have all the pulp of their own they need, the act will, in practice, merely cut off the export to the United States of pulp wood produced on our public lands. It will encourage the erection of more pulp and paper mills in this province, thus enlarging the sphere of our industry and increasing the number of our working men and the farmer's opportunities to dispose of his farm products in the home market. As the Act refers only to wood cut upon crown lands it does not interfere with any real or imaginary private right, while it will benefit the whole world in eliminating the needless loss of time and labor hitherto sustained in the transportation of the raw material from our forests to the distant mills of the United States. The pulp can be more cheaply manufactured in the vicinity of its origin, thus making an absolute saving of a large percentage of the present cost. The gain to the province will be great. Whereas only about $7 00 a ton is paid in wages in this province for the preparation of pulp wood for export, it provides about $15.00 if manufactured into pulp here and from $35.00 to $37 00 a ton if fully made into paper here. The government's decision to follow the example set by Quebec and Ontario is to be commended.

As little as possible of our natural products should be sent out of the country to be manufactured. Paper should be made, lumber sawn into deals, boards, laths and shingles; iron smelted, and gypsum ground as near as possible to the place from which they are cut or dug. It is a great loss to the country to have our iron ore shipped to the United States to be smelted and worked by outsiders who expend the least possible sums in the country in which the iron is mined. The Act relating to Pulpwood, however, is a distinct gain, and the country will stand for a lot more of government regulation and ownership.

THE FAILURE OF PROTECTIVE TARIFFS

The discussion started by the Canadian Government's reciprocity agreement with the President of the United States has been productive of great good in more ways than one. Not the least of the beneficial results is the greater awakening of the people to the inherent iniquity of the Protective system. Not only the justice of High Protection but the wisdom of any protection at all is being seriously called in question. So whether the Reciprocity Agreement becomes law or not it will not have been made in vain. In an able editorial on "Ruling Classes," the St. John Daily Telegraph of a recent date has the following timely remarks upon the political failure of the United States which failure, though by no means entirely due to fiscal mistakes, has been greatly hastened by that country's tariff system:

"The excessive protective tariff system among our neighbors is simply a means by which certain interests get control of legislation in order to tax their fellow-citizens for their own benefit. Some of the victims get strong enough to force admittance into the steal, so it comes to be the accepted idea in the pursuit of wealth that the way to success is to organize a steal of some kind and to get inside of it. Everyone must have his little sphere of plunder and special advantage. The administrators of American life insurance companies, telephone companies, public utility corporations, banks, and trust companies laugh at remonstrance as out of date and use their position for their own advantage. What else are they there for? It is the supreme test of a system of government whether it is adequate for repressing the cliques formed of special interests and saving the public from raids of plunderers. Thus far the United States has failed under this test."

THE BOARD OF TRADE

The Newcastle Board of Trade shows signs of activity, and has already successfully demonstrated the value of persistent and united efforts in getting from Dominion and local government financial concessions and needed alterations in railway platforms, mail changes, dredging, etc. The recent influx of new members is encouraging. Up to lately very little interest was taken in Board of Trade matters, but little by little the business men are discovering that a well constituted and well officered Board can do much to promote the interests of commerce and advertise the town. With unrivalled position and facilities for doing business all Newcastle needs is co-operation among its people—"A long pull, a strong pull, and a pull together." The new regulations re pulp wood should result in the erection of several more pulp or paper mills on the Miramichi, and of these new industries Newcastle is well situated to take advantage. The Town needs industries that will go the whole year, thus inducing the floating population to permanently reside here with their families.

A good way to increase the business of the Town would be for all the business men to put their heads together and agree to buy as far as possible within the town—to patronize home industry as much as possible, setting the example by advertising largely in the local press, getting their printing done at home, and going to each other for goods they do not keep in their own stores. Resident workmen should all be given employment before outsiders are sent for. Even if they will not work as cheaply, it would pay better in the end. All things are possible to those who believe in their own country and loyal Co-operate to promote its interests.

EDUCATION AND CHILD LABOR

The amendment to the Provincial Compulsory Education Act passed this session and providing "That children between 14 and 16 years of age, who secure a certificate showing that they have a preliminary education will not come under the provisions of the act when it is shown to be necessary that they should be employed for the livelihood of the family," is receiving much unfavorable criticism. The Moncton Transcript, which would have the age limit made 15 years, very truly says that "Too low an age restriction for juvenile employment in a factory is undesirable. It strikes a serious blow at the standard of living—and is probably one of the chief reasons why organized labor is so strongly opposed to child labor. Sociologists have frequently pointed out that in industries where all members of the family are employed, the aggregate wages of the whole family tend to fall to the level of the wages of the head of the family in industries where only men are employed."

The Eastern Labor News thinks that Hon. Mr. Hazen's amendment was initiated by the factory interests for the promotion of child labor, and there appears to be some ground for such a contention. At any rate the amendment places the children of poor people at a decided disadvantage educationally with the sons and daughters of the well-to-do. The parents who are too poor to do without putting their children under sixteen years of age to work should be assisted by the government so that their little ones may receive as good a start in life as any others. Poverty should never be allowed to deprive a child of a good elementary education. Let everybody have an equal opportunity!

LEST WE FORGET

What are the public, our readers especially, going to do about the monument to the late Honorable Peter Mitchell, so enthusiastically proposed and endorsed by the County Council and Newcastle public meetings in January last? Is the oratorical display of that date to be the end of the matter? What have the collectors done? When will the central committee be ready to report? We trust that our readers will make an early move and send in their subscriptions forthwith.

WHERE THE SHOE PINCHES

Sometimes mail order houses offer a leader, that is, they sell some article less than cost in order to induce buyers to make up an order which will include many things at a great deal more than cost. The big firm comes out ahead on the whole transaction all right—that is what they are there for.

We heard of an experience of a certain lady the other day who thought it would be a good scheme to simply order the leader, the article sold at less than cost. The particular bargain offered was a pair of shoes at $1.69. When the shoes arrived there was a change of 25 cents for express, which she paid: After she got the shoes home, she packed them up again and returned them by express. The firm said she could return the goods if not satisfactory, at least that was in the advertisement. She paid another twenty-five cents to return them. After awaiting about a week the new shoes arrived, and she paid another quarter for express. Unfortunately, they were no better than the first ones, so far as fit was concerned. She had now paid $2.44 for a pair of $2.00 shoes, with more to follow. She tried to change them with a local dealer, but, of course, that would not work; but while in the local store she saw as good a pair, in every respect, which the dealer sold for $1.65 regularly. She may find a lady friend to fit the shoes. If so she may not lose more than a dollar. If not she is out $2.44.

When a woman thinks she has obtained a bargain, she tells her friends about it; but when the experience is not so favorable she is apt to say nothing when she has got the worst of a deal, although they say a great deal, when they think they have got the best of it. This is human nature, but that is why we do not hear more about the experiences of those who deal with mail order houses.

When you come to think of it, is it not rather foolish to buy things just from seeing a picture of them? A farmer would not buy a cow from a catalogue, because he knows something about cows. How much more important is it to see what you buy and know with whom you are dealing when you are getting something about the quality of which you are not able to judge. The local merchant wants your trade, and he knows that the best way to secure it is to be perfectly candid about the quality of the goods he sells. He knows more about quality than you will ever learn unless you go into business for yourself. If an article is not the best he will tell you so, and change you fairly for what you get. We cannot all afford to buy the highest quality of goods but we are at least entitled to get fair value for the money we spend and to know just what we are getting. The only way we know of to accomplish this is to buy at home from a merchant in whom you have confidence. In the long run you are money in pocket by doing so and in addition you are helping your town and society instead of injuring it.

BEARING DOWN PAINS

What woman at sometime or other does not experience these dreadful bearing down pains. Mrs. E. Griffith of Main street, Hespworth, Ont., says: "A heavy bearing-down pain had settled across my back and sides. I was often unable to stoop or straighten myself up. Many times each night I would have to leave my bed with the irregular and frequent secretions of the kidneys and was just as done out in the morning as on retiring. I was languid and would have to let my house-work stand. Nothing I had tried would benefit me. I learned of Booth's Kidney Pills and concluded I would try them, which I did, and soon found the long sought relief. My back strengthened and I began to feel better and stronger. I now enjoy my sleep without being disturbed and feel grateful to Booth's Kidney Pills for what they did for me."

Booth's Kidney Pills are a boon to woman. She would know less of backaches if she took more of these wonderful pills. They are nature's greatest specific for all diseases of the kidneys and bladder. TO ORGANIZE NEW TELEPHONE COMPANY

Dorchester Citizens Protest Against Methods of N. B. Telephone Company.

Dorchester, April 13.—There was a meeting of telephone users in County Court House on Monday evening last, to protest against unfair and grasping methods of N. B. Telephone Co. The feeling of the meeting was most pronounced against the Company.

A strong resolution was passed unanimously: that the people be urged to sign no contracts with that Company. A strong committee, representing wealth and influence, was appointed to look into at once the organization of a local telephone company and report back to this meeting assembled at the call of the chair.

A GOOD MEDICINE FOR THE SPRING

Do Not Use Harsh Purgatives—Tonic is All You Need.

Not exactly sick—but not feeling quite well. That's the way most people feel in the spring. Easily tired, appetite fickle, sometimes headaches and a feeling of depression. Pimples or eruptions may appear on the skin, or there may be twinges of rheumatism or neuralgia. Any of these indicate that the blood is out of order; that the indoor life of winter has left its mark upon you and may easily develop into more serious trouble.

Don't dose yourself with purgatives as so many people do in the hope that you can put your blood right. Purgatives gallop through the system and weaken instead of giving strength. Any doctor will tell you this is true. What you need in the spring is a tonic that will make new blood and build up the nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the only medicine that can do this speedily, safely and surely. Every dose of this medicine helps to make new blood, which clears the skin, strengthens the appetite, makes tired, depressed men, women and children bright, active and strong. Mr. B. Martin, Deserivieres, Que., says: "About a year ago I was all run down. I was pale, weak, and had but little appetite. I also suffered from a severe pain in the back, and though I tried several medicines nothing helped me until I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and these soon fully restored my health. I can strongly recommend these pills to every weak person."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brunswick, Ont.

A great engineering work has just been completed in Arizona. It is called the Roosevelt dam; and, with the exception of the great dam at Assouan, in Egypt, it is the largest work of the kind in the world. It dams the waters of the salt River, making an enormous storage basin for irrigation. The dam is one thousand and eighty feet wide, and forms a reservoir twenty-five miles long and more than two hundred feet deep.

The new battleship cruiser Indefatigable has made the record speed for Dreadnoughts of 29 knots. The Indefatigable was launched at Devonport in October, 1909. In her trials in December, 1910, she is said to have made 27 knots with reduced power.

The Hong Kong correspondent of the London Express telegraphs that a serious uprising is reported at Canton. It is said that the Tartar general commanding the troops has been murdered and that the city is in a state of siege. Troops from other sections have been ordered to Canton.

Two of our young ladies had rather a funny time of it last Saturday. They received the permission of a lady visitor to use her team for a drive during the all of the said visitor, and had a nice drive round the town. On returning to the house they were astonished to see a gentleman step into the sleigh and prepare to drive off. Naturally indignant the girls strove to point out the mere man's error in taking the wrong sleigh, and he had equal hard work in persuading them they had gone off in his own sleigh to start with. Girls be careful. Horse stealing is punished by hanging, godne's knows what it would be when a sleigh is attached to the charge.

GOVERNMENT AND BRIDGE SUPERINTENDANCE

More Light on Financial Matters—Accounts Held Back Till After Close of Fiscal Year.

FREDERICTON, April 12.—By reference to the government's own reports and other documents it has been proven beyond a doubt that under the Hazen administration bills incurred in one fiscal year are held over for payment into the following year. In this financial showing for each year is made to appear as somewhat better than it really is. This paper has already referred to cases indicating that the government holds over some of these bills from year to year. However, one or two striking cases which have been brought out in the Public Accounts Committee.

Take, for instance, the case of the Sheridan Mill Pond Bridge and the Renauds Bridge in the county of Kent. The work on these bridges was finished in October, 1909. The accounts were sworn to by the proper persons, one on October 26th and the other on October 26th. The Public Works Department did not apply for payment of the bills until November 3rd of the same year, or two days after the fiscal year closes, though the accounts were sworn to about two weeks before the close of the year. This fact stands. The accounts for this work done in 1909 were all in order before the close of the fiscal year. In spite of this they were not paid until 1910. It might be said in attempted justification that the Public Works Department did not forward the accounts for payment until two days after the fiscal year closed. What excuse had the department for this delay when the accounts had been in readiness for nearly two weeks? But, as a matter of fact, Hon. Mr. Fleming has stated in the house that accounts for the fiscal year are not closed until ten days after the year really ends. In other words, in the case of these bridges the accounts were presented for payment by the Public Works Department over a week before, according to Mr. Fleming's own statement, the accounts of the province were really closed.

There can be but one explanation of this state of affairs. The government deliberately carries over bills from one year to another in its attempt to show on paper a better financial position than really exists. Amounts were carried over from 1909 to 1910, and so on just as long as the present incompetent administration is in power. In this way the government tries to fool the people into the belief that there are no over-expenditures and that every care is observed in handling the financial affairs of the province. But the people will not long be fooled by such transparent methods. And it must be born in mind that it is not merely in the case of the two bridges above referred to that this carrying-over process has gone on. Bridge after bridge throughout the report is found to reveal the same state affairs.

It is interesting to notice also the method by which the government allows its superintendents to prepare their accounts. It has been shown in the Public Accounts Committee that in the case of Kent, for instance, many of the bills are made out by a man named Felix Michaud, though the superintendent is a close political friend of Dr. Landry, to wit, Mr. Peter Bernard. The accounts are made up by Mr. Michaud and the accounts are sworn to before Mr. Michaud, the same gentleman who made them up. It was also shown in the committee that in the case of at least one bridge in Gloucester county, Pont Brule Bridge, for which lumber was bought and never put in the bridge, the bills for lumber were not made out by the man who sold the lumber, but by a Mr. Stewart, a Conservative patronage dispenser in Gloucester. As the Opposition apparently transacts the business and gets the superintendent to sign the bills.
 The lumber for this Pont Brule Bridge was got out in 1909, it was paid for in 1910, it has yet to be put in the bridge, although the outlay for it of over $200 was charged against the account of the bridge.

Another sidelight on the Hazen bridge was brought out when it was shown that some men, political friends of the government, who have reaped such rich rewards as bridge superintendents have really not actually superintended the work of certain bridges at all, although they have been paid for so doing. In some cases, for instance, it was shown that the superintendent had been at the bridges before the work began, had not been at them during the progress of the work, but made an inspection after the work was completed. In these cases, just as in other cases, the superintendent was paid a tidy sum for superintending the work. How farcical the Hazen pretensions of carefulness in bridge work really are is well shown by facts such as these. Imagine paying the people's money to a man for superintending work which he did not see while it was being carried on! It is somewhat strange also that in these cases the superintendents could swear to the pay lists for the work although it was clear that they had no absolute personal knowledge as to the details of the work and the men employed.

The Hazen-Morrissey method of handling the bridge work of the province is apparently one of the most scandalous pieces of mismanagement of public affairs which could be brought to light. The people's money is being grossly wasted, while the government members and the government supporters sit by complacently and allow the abuse to go on. Their political friends benefit and the province suffers.

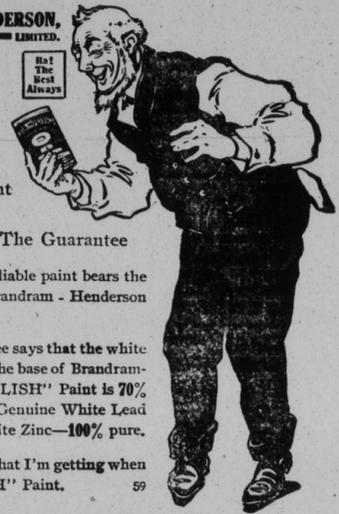

The town of Welland—says the Toronto Globe—has imposed heavy license fees on peddlers. The effect of this kind of legislation is seen in many towns and cities in the inflated cost of living. There seems an eager desire everywhere to keep producers and consumers apart.

A notable ancient hostelry has perished by fire in the Star Hotel, Shifnal, Shropshire. Erected about 1520 the hotel was for a long time in the possession of the Pitt family, and its commercial rooms were noted for their valuable oak panelling.

UNIVERSITY NOTES

Fredericton, April 10.—At a meeting of the Senior Class held at the College on Wednesday, it was decided to invite His Lordship Bishop Casey to preach the Baccalaureate Sermon in St. Dunstan's Church. Arrangements were made for the events of Ecceania Week, Mock Parliament adjourned on Saturday night after a very stormy session. The House opened with the Liberals in power. Considerable legislation was enacted, including an Act to extend Suffrage to Women. During the passage of their Bill, the Suffragettes stormed the Chamber. When it became law, they signified their appreciation by voting with the Conservatives on a want of confidence motion, and the Liberals were put out of power. But both members and Suffragettes forgot their differences in a very pleasant little dance in the Acts Building after the adjournment.

Lectures stop for the Easter recess on Wednesday, the 12th, and the bunch may be expected home on Thursday morning's express.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. ### THE SENLAC.

It has been said that the steamer Senlac, which was put up at auction at Dalhousie on the 5th, and withdrawn, will be put again on the Gaspe route. In Campbellton there is a report that the Canada, now on that route, will be taken off and the Senlac put on. Formerly, with keen competition, the route was said to be unprofitable but with a single boat on there are more inducements. As P. W. Thomson of Wm. Thomson & Co., the managers of the steamer was out of the city the report could not be verified.

CORONATION TOYS

Many Speculators Get Their Money Back with Good Interest

If anybody wants to make some money, now is his time. There are warehouses packed from cellar to roof with toys in readiness for the Coronation, nearly all of them, he it noted in passing, of home manufacture. At the last Coronation the Germans swamped the market with novelties, mementoes, toys, and so forth; but this time they have been forestalled. Now, if anybody can tell which of the toys is certain to "catch on" in June—well, need more be said?

Fortunes have been sunk in Coronation toys; but many speculators will get their money back with liberal interest. Of a certain very popular article of this kind more than two millions have been sold, and the inventor—a poor man—of another toy made $140,000 out of it.

Even "latest novelties"—the penny articles vendible by butter merchants—sometimes yield "big money." One of the most successful was invented by a manufacturer of such things. When he conceived the idea he was so sure it would "go" that he decided not to try it tentatively, but to turn out a large quantity before offering one for sale. So he kept making it till he had a stock of two millions.

He then engaged a few score aliens and had them taught, parrot-fashion, several phrases of English. As soon as they were "letter-perfect" out they were sent with absolutely "the latest novelty," which proved, as the manufacturer had confidently anticipated, an enormous success. Incredible, as it may seem, it is none the less a fact that in ten days considerably more than a million were sold.

KING GEORGE Signing the oath of office.

CORONATION CORNERS

Famines There Will Be at the Coming Crowning.

The bill for the Coronation robes of George IV. was $100,000.

Of this $58,000 fell to the share of the furrier, and we are told that the feet of no fewer than 6,500 Astrachan lambs were required for the black spots on the inside of the robes.

No wonder that every Coronation has seen a famine in furs, for not only Astrachan lamb, but black fox, sable and, above all, ermine, are required in immense quantities for the robes of those who are privileged to attend the Coronation service in Westminster Abbey.

For months past agents have been busy in Siberia and elsewhere buying up ermine, and the price is already double the ordinary. One hundred and twenty ermine skins are required by each peer for his Coronation cape and collar.

Judging by the Coronation of the late King Edward VII., no other ceremonial causes such a boom in trade, and lots of things besides furs are going to become scarce and expensive before June.

In 1862 seats were provided for 98,250 persons in public stands, and the stands themselves cost $260,000. Every hotel in London will be full from basement to attic, and lodgings will be at a premium. Those who come late will be lucky if they pay less than $25 a night for a bed.

Houses, too, will be scarce. In the year of the last Coronation Lord Tweedmouth received $20,000 rent for Brook House just for the season; the Misses Keyser refused $25,000 for their house in Grosvenor Crescent and a house in Chelsea Place brought $75,000 for four months!

To-day motors have largely superseded the horse and carriage, but one almost shudders to think what one will have to pay for a car during Coronation week. Certainly nothing will be procurable under $60 a day, and the prices may run far beyond this.

Ten years ago there was an absolute corner in bands. Certain interested parties retained all the good bands, and people who wanted music had to pay a great price.

So, too, with fireworks. The demand for Coronation rockets was simply enormous. All the larger towns spent on an average $4,000 apiece on fireworks, and the private demand was very large. It will be remembered that there were hundreds of Coronation bonfires, and at each fifty rockets were sent up.

The bonfires recall the fact that tar-barrels were not to be had for love or money for some days before the last Coronation. They were all absorbed by early buyers.

Bisley Team at Coronation. The Canadian Bisley team will arrive in England in time for the Coronation. Arrangements at the meeting of the D. R. A. Council will be made to give the riflemen a chance to see this great ceremony. Since this takes place on June 22nd, the team will sail about the 19th of that month from Montreal. The Bisley team starts early in July.

A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established this confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken.

Never has she published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the Company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which Mrs. Pinkham has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge needed in your case. ### "BRAVEST MAN IN 1910"

The King received recently at Buckingham Palace the bravest man in 1910, Frank Fraser, chief engineer on the Aberdeen trawler Dentide, and presented him with the St. John's gold medal awarded by the royal Humane Society, only one of which is given annually.

It was on that night of August 27 last that Fraser's heroic deed was performed. The Dentide was fishing at the time on the Viking Bank about 225 miles from Aberdeen, and though it was blowing hard with a heavy sea running, the captain decided to shoot the trawl.

Unfortunately a deck hand was standing on a part of the net, and was carried over the side of the vessel. Fraser, who was below, rushed up on hearing the shouting, and at once plunged into the seething water, when he discovered that it was his own brother. It was only after fifteen minutes' patient work that both were got safely on board again.

Accompanied by Admiral Sir G. D. Morant (chairman of the Royal Humane Society, General Sir W. T. Adair, Mr. A. T. Hawes, and Mr. J. H. Blackwood, Fraser arrived at Buckingham Palace yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, and was ushered into the presence of the King. Admiral Sir G. D. Morant introduced him to His Majesty. Afterwards Mr. Blackwood read an official account of Fraser's brave deed. The King then handed the medal.

Despite the peace movement, the super-Dreadnaughts still continue to splash into the water at the rate of several a week.

THE ENERGY FOOD

The Vim and Vitality One Gets From Oats

There is something in oats which creates spirit and energy. No other grain can bring results like them. Everyone knows what oats do for horses. They have the same effect on man.

An extract of oats is employed as a tonic. A diet of oats multiplies one's vitality. That's why energetic men—men of vim and spirit—are said to "feel their oats."

In Quaker Oats the finest grain—Canadian grown—is subjected to 62 siftings. Just the rich, plump grains are used. There is only ten pounds of Quaker Oats in a bushel.

These grains have the maximum of richness and energy. They are also the most delicious. To eat Quaker Oats once a day for a month will show to the limit what tonic effects, what bubbling vitality one can get from oatmeal. One never knows how good oat food is, or what it can do, until he tries Quaker Oats.

Made in Canada.
