THE GUIDE-ADVOCATE welcomes all items of interest for this column. Call Phone 11, send by mail or drop item in GUIDE-ADVOCATE Letter-Box.

TAILORING in city styles.—SWIFTS'. MR. CHAS. POTTER, Jr., is spending the winter at his home here.

ADVERTISED goods are always cheapest—remember that.

THE bailiff's sale of the goods of T. J. Thauvette has been changed to Saturday, Nov. 28th.

THE German army need not outfit for a cold winter, the allies will make it warm for them.

LADIES we are showing a fine stock of coats at $10.00, $12.50 and $15.00.—SWIFTS'.

CORP. J. G. SMITH, has been made Sergt.-Cook of the 7th Regt. home guard, at London.

THE home-made baking offered for sale by the ladies of Trinity church on Saturday sold rapidly, $25 being realized from the goods.

WE may object to a censorship that gives little or no news, but it is better than an official bureau that feeds a nation on news that's not true.

WANTED—All our bills paid by Dec. 4th, as we need the money on that day.—SWIFT, SONS & CO.

PARKHILL people contributed $1985.00 to the Patriotic Fund before the collectors had time to call on them. Nothing small about the Parkhillites.

MR. E. D. SWIFT received word on Monday of the death of his mother, who passed away at her home in Streets, Westmeath county, Ireland, on November 10th.

ALL come to the H. S. Commencement and hear the splendid instrumental quartets and choruses. Every dollar of the net receipts means nearly two dollars to the town.

WE have a large assortment of new dinner and tea sets in china and semi-porcelain, also fancy china of every description. Some choice designs for Christmas presents.—P. DODDS & SON.

A WARWICK FARMER writes suggesting the re-election by acclamation of the present council and the forwarding of the amount thus saved to the Belgian Relief Fund. A good idea.

NO one should miss hearing the recitations and that most amusing farce, "When Your Wife's Away." H. S. Commencement in the Lyceum, Wednesday night Dec. 2nd. See bills.

WHILE we are helping the Belgians let our charity at home not be diminished. Instead of diverting our philanthropies to a new channel, let us double them. Not a woman and men are out of work in our own country.

THOSE new fur band caps at 25c., 35c. and 50c.—SWIFTS'.

MACCAVISH—"They say 'tis so cauld whaur that Shackleton laddie's gangin' to that e'en whisky freezes." Macdronthy—"Losh! mon; talk o'peppermint, what a pairf sweetneat that wad mak' to tak' to the kirk wi' ye!"

THE winners in Lambton for the J. C. Carter scholarship are:—Percy W. Hone, Petrolea; 2, E. E. Anderson, Petrolea; 3, Vivian McDonald, Sarnia. These are awarded to scholars for their standing in the June upper school examinations.

THE Forest Standard in referring to the patriotic meeting held in Watford on Monday of last week, says:—"The attendance was small, there apparently being a lot of people in that district who need to be awakened to a sense of their duty at the present time."

ORDERS in our tailoring dept. from four towns in the west.—SWIFT, SONS & CO.

THE apple evaporator is closed and the proprietor, Mr. Geo. Eccles, has returned to his home in Toronto. Apples were plentiful this season but on account of the war the market for the product of the evaporator was limited. A number of people got steady work at good pay during the season.

VERY few who are reading the war news realize what a million men, and there are several million in the present European war, really means. A million men marching four abreast would make a closed up column 750 miles long. The food for a million men for one day would fill about 200 freight cars.

IT is rumored that on account of the heavy tax rate this year the members of the Watford council will not accept the usual $20 honorarium. This is only a rumor, however, and there may be no foundation for it. In some municipalities the amount received by the councilors is being turned over to the Red Cross or Belgian Funds.

THOSE fifty coats open Saturday.—SWIFT, SONS & CO.

AT the District Meeting of the Methodist church, held in September last, it was decided to give two Sundays during the year specially to the claims of missions. On Sunday next, Nov. 29th, Rev. A. I. Brown, D.D., of Alvinston, will preach in the Lyceum at 11 a.m. and at 7 p.m. and at Zion church at 2.30 p.m. The subscriptions for missions will not be taken next Sunday, as a personal canvass will be made in February by the men of the congregations.

THE girl who uses powder hopes one day to bear a call to arms.

THE kiddies had a good time at the dog and monkey show Friday.

SEE our windows, new goods shown every day.—SWIFTS'.

WHAT about the Belgians! Have you sent your parcel to the Armory?

THURSDAY was a bad day for Turkey across the line. Even grease was running.

EVERYTHING comes to the man who waits—unless the man who goes after it gets there first.

LT.-COL. KELLY was in London Wednesday attending the inspection of troops by Major-General Hughes.

WINTER will have a hand in this war but it will be as a neutral. She will refuse to help either side.

THOSE new dress skirts, $4.50 to $7.50.—SWIFTS'.

EARLY Christmas shopping, says an expert, is a combination of the safety first movement and the golden rule.

MISS WILLIAMS would be pleased if all accounts due her be paid by Dec. 21. Wholesale firms have to be paid and we need the money.

TURN it over in your mind again—Eighty-five per cent. of the business failures in the United States are among firms which do not advertise.

WHEN writing to the boys at the front enclose a sheet of their blank paper and a self-addressed envelope. These may ensure a quicker reply through the soldier boy having them handy.

RUBBERS and overshoes of all sizes always in stock. Also rubber boots and a full line of stylish and new shoes for men, women and children. A fine line of Christmas slippers.—P. DODDS & SON.

MANY great movements are based on what some people call sacrifice. The buy "Made in Canada" movement, its high patriotism and enlightened selfishness, prosperity to self and country, and satisfaction in the purchase.

A LAMBTON soldier in England writing home mentions about the money raised here for patriotic purposes and adds:—"It certainly gives one a better heart to fight for his country when he knows his loved ones so far away are being well cared for."

YOU can't read our ad. without saving a few dollars.—SWIFTS'.

A MEETING to re-organize the Watford hockey club for the coming season will be held in P. Dodds & Son's store on Wednesday evening next at 7.30. A good attendance is requested. Anyone having in their possession sweaters or other material belonging to the club will please hand them in at this meeting.

MISS NESBITT will have her display of Christmas goods in Harper Bros. store and will open Saturday, Dec. 5th. Novelties in all new and original designs, all handmade and hand-decorated. Pictures as a gift give lasting pleasure, and I will have many suitable subjects which will find a welcome place in any home. I kindly invite your inspection. n27-5t

THE postal authorities are advising that all persons who desire to send Christmas gifts to the Old Country this year should have them ready well in advance of the usual time, as the possibility of delay in the postal service, and the greatly increased business expected as the result of the presence of the Canadian contingent in England, are liable to interfere with the service.

MR. A. DUNLOP and family left this week for Chatham where they will make their home in future and conduct a flour and feed business. Mr. and Mrs. Dunlop have been residents of Watford for many years, and the numerous friends of the family much regret their removal from our midst. They have proved themselves to be the best of citizens and all acquainted with them wish them success and comfort in their new home.

GET in your special orders as soon as possible.—SWIFT, SONS & CO.

DON'T be foolish. Give your trade to the merchant who keeps store the year around. Buy of the man who stands at your side at the tax collector's counter. Buy of the man who is your neighbour, your acquaintance, your friend. Buy of the man who is a factor in the town you live in, who helps to make a market for the things you have to sell. Buy of the home merchant who advertises in the newspaper.

YOU keep abreast of the times when you read the Weekly Sun of Toronto. It is a farmer's newspaper, and that means, market reports, editorials, special farming articles, special departments for all the family, "other people's opinions," where the readers may say their say—and a countless list of bright features of interest and importance to all farmers. Fifty-two weeks in the year the Sun is on the job. Do you read it? When renewing your subscription for this paper we will be pleased to take your subscription for the Sun.

THOUSANDS of people in every part of Canada are helping the Rexall Stores raise a fund for the Canadian Patriotic Relief Work. They are doing it by simply buying Rexall Toilet Goods, Rexall Remedies and Rexall Merchandise from October 15th to December 31st. Five per cent. of the total purchase of these goods by the 400 Rexall Stores in Canada is being contributed by them to the Canadian Patriotic Fund. Buying Rexall Goods also means to keep Canadian employees busy. Will you lend a hand.

START your Christmas buying.—SWIFTS'. A CROOKED man sees something crooked in everything.

THOS. DOHERTY is a candidate for mayor of Sarnia for 1915.

THE man who does not pay his bills promptly is a burr upon the commercial world.

TOWNSHIP TREASURERS will soon begin to prepare their financial statements to be issued Dec. 15th.

MRS. W. ST. G. ANDERSON and daughter, Irene, London, were the guests of Mrs. W. E. Fitzgerald this week.

MR. FRED JONES, who has been ill for some time had a stroke on Monday and is in a rather critical condition.

MOVING PICTURES shows every Tuesday night continue to give the best of satisfaction and draw crowded houses.

THOSE marmot muffs and stoles from the makers in England. Sets from $10 up.—SWIFTS'.

MISS MINIELLY has opened her new Xmas goods and is making a special cut on balance of trimmed hats. Come and see them.

THOS. AND LEN. MCWATERS, contractors, Sarnia, spent Monday in Watford renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Thos. McWatters has fully recovered from his recent accident.

DECEMBER meeting of Tecumseh Chapter I.O.O.F. will meet at the home of Mrs. W. E. Fitzgerald on Tuesday, Dec. 1st, Mrs. Lowry assisting hostess. Quotations on Christmas.

HAVELOCK LODGE A.F. & A.M. will meet next Tuesday evening. Work in second degree. The District Deputy Grand Master, R. W. Bro. W. J. McCormick, of Sarnia, will pay an official visit. After business refreshments will be served. Visiting Masons welcome.

AT the time of going to press only one of the six teams of Patriotic Fund collectors had completed their canvass. They report about $260 for their division and state that they were kindly received, and that nearly everyone approached was willing and many anxious to give to such a worthy cause.

PLACE your order for fruits for Christmas cake and pudding with P. Dodds & Son. All kinds of dried fruit and candied peels received fresh each week. You get them right when bought from P. Dodds & Son.

A FISH peddler was whipping his slow but patient horse in a residential street the other day, and crying his wares at intervals: "Fresh pickerel! Fresh pickerel!" A woman, seeing his acts of cruelty, put her head out of the window, and called to him: "Have you no mercy?" "No, mum," he replied; "nothin' but pickerel."

A NOVEL, and what is believed to be unusual gift was presented by St. John's Lodge, A.F. & A.M., Hamilton, to its members leaving for the front with the second contingent. Each man received a parchment with a statement in English, French and German, guaranteeing financial remuneration to anyone assisting the bearer. It is expected that this will be of great value to the owner before the end of the war.

MR. GEO. MCCUBBIN, civil engineer, Chatham, was here on Saturday making a survey and taking levels for tilting the main drain in the north part of the town, with a view of making a report and estimates as to the cost. We are informed that Mr. McCubbin proposes to run this drain along the streets as much as possible so as to avoid passing through private property. When his report is received by the Council a by-law will be passed to the ratapayers to ascertain their wish regarding the construction of the drain.

REV. A. C. BINGHAM, Baptist Minister, Petrolea, in a letter to the Topic advocating a library for that town, closes the article in these words:—"Watford has a Public Library, Petrolea has none. Watford sent thirty to join the first contingent, Petrolea sent about half that number. Four of Watford's squad were returned, about four of Petrolea's representatives were kept. The town that cares for the moral and mental welfare of her citizens will be in a better position to help the Empire in peace and war." The rev. gentleman is right. Watford's public library is one of the most valuable assets of the town, and could be made still more valuable by the reading room being kept open at all reasonable hours.

A LAYMEN'S missionary society for Watford was organized at a meeting called for that purpose on Tuesday evening at the public library board room. Rev. Mr. Irwin and Rev. Mr. Forster explained the objects of the society. Rev. Mr. Forster was appointed chairman of the meeting, while W. E. Fitzgerald acted as secretary. The following officers were elected, viz:—President, Col. Frank Kenward; Vice-President, Alex. Cameron; Secretary, Dr. Geo. Hicks; Executive Committee—P. J. Dodds, A. G. Brown, J. W. McLaren, W. B. Laws, T. B. Taylor, Benj. Parker, P. E. Fuller, Manfred Thompson, William Marwick and S. B. Howden. It was decided to hold a banquet on or about January 18th, 1915, and the executive committee was subdivided equally into program and banquet committees.

DAVID Newell, an old, tried and trusted servant of the Canada Company, who has been acting as their agent in Theford district for the past 32 years, has resigned, and is taking a well-earned rest at his home in Stratford.

ENGLAND EXPECTS THAT EVERY MAN WILL DO HIS DUTY

AM I DOING MY DUTY?

The sailors and soldiers of the Empire are doing theirs. I have only to look at any newspaper to see how nobly and at what a sacrifice.

Every true Briton who cannot fight is asking, "WHAT CAN I DO?"

This question has been answered all over the Empire, and the answer is the same. "I CAN HELP THOSE WHO ARE FIGHTING TO PROTECT MY HEARTH AND HOME AND TO PRESERVE MY LIBERTY."

HOW CAN I HELP THEM? BY GIVING ACCORDING TO MY MEANS.

For men who are giving their lives I cannot do less than the utmost. I can help:

1. TO SUPPORT THE FAMILIES OF THOSE ON ACTIVE SERVICE.

2. TO SUPPORT THE FAMILIES OF THOSE KILLED IN WAR.

3. TO SUPPORT THE FAMILIES OF THOSE PLUNGED INTO WANT BY THE WAR.

To do this at once is a DUTY—A PRIVILEGE—A SACRED TRUST.

Watford Patriotic Fund

If any person has been overlooked his contribution will be received by any of the officers. If you have not been approached in regard to the matter you may rest assured it was an oversight as it is the aim to give ample opportunity to everyone to help along this great work.

The committees will meet again next Monday night, after which a report will be given the public.

Children's Patriotic Concert

There was a fair-sized audience in the Armory on Wednesday evening to hear the concert given by the children for the benefit of the Belgian little ones. The program opened with "O Canada" in chorus by a number of girls and an address was given by Mrs. A. G. Brown. Master Wm. Fitzgerald made an excellent chairman and introduced the performers like an experienced old-head. Little Irene Anderson, of London, showed herself to be a clever dancer, and, like all the others who took part, was loudly applauded. Recitations were given by Jean Fitzgerald, F. Rapson, Jean Rapson, Sidney McNally, G. Fuller and Jack Davis; a Japanese song by Marjory Swift; piano solo by Esther Weight; mouth organ solo by Hallie Potter; song by three McNally children, and dumb-bell and bar-bell drills by 12 girls, combined to make a most interesting program which closed with the "Maple Leaf" and the national anthem. Miss Pearl Saunders filled the arduous position of accompanist. The little ones are to be congratulated on the excellent and most interesting entertainment given and their little friends the Belgians will be benefited to the amount of $25.

From Female Ills—Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Belleville, N.S., Canada.—"I doctored for ten years for female troubles and did not get well. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. I write now to tell you that I am cured. You can publish my letter as a testimonial."

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and now I am in good health."

—Mrs. WILLIAM H. GILL, No. 15 Pleasant Street, Auburn, New York.

NOTE AND COMMENT

What Belgium needs is less culture and more bread.—Washington Post.

Italy is taking a little while to make up her mind, but once she starts up the map-makers can begin to remove Austria from the scenery.

In the State of Ohio, more than two-thirds of the daily newspapers refuse to print any kind of beer, wine or whiskey advertising.

Our national emblem, the maple leaf, cannot be improved. Even the apple could not serve the purpose better. It lends itself excellently to gastronomic uses, but not to purposes of decoration.

Perhaps you have never heard of it, but it is nevertheless a fact that Great Britain is the only nation in the world that does not borrow money from other nations—but she loans many millions.

The German officer who got $50,000 with which to finance a plot to blow up the Suez Canal now gets imprisonment for life. He will have

The Local Newspaper

No business man, professional man or manufacturer in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns, says an exchange.

This applies to all kinds of business—general stores, dry goods, groceries, furniture dealers, manufacturing establishments, automobile dealers, mechanics, professional men and in fact all kinds of business. This does not mean that you should have a whole or half of even a quarter of a page ad. in every issue of the paper but your name and business should be mentioned, if you do not use more than a two line space. A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell just what business is represented in a town by looking at the business mentioned in the paper.

This is the best possible town advertisement. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and his town. He is the man who expects the most free boosting for his town. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to a town but refuses to advertise his business is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of any town depends upon the live, wide awake and liberal advertising business men.

An Apple Emergency

What can be done and what ought to be done, are always present to the mind of the social reformer. It is only in emergencies such as the present war situation has precipitated that most of the reformers' remedies get any attention. While the world can jog along without absolutely going to pieces in time of peace, people are satisfied with things as they are. When the trump of destiny sounds and all things are seen to be on the verge of transformation, when it becomes a problem how to live, and when the waste of a former day is now seen to be the sustenance of weeks, the reformer comes in for a little respect and attention. Apples have been going to waste for years in Ontario, as anyone can tell who is familiar with orchard conditions. It has taken the war to wake us up to the common sense of letting the waste apples go to those who could eat them.

Records of Pure Bred Dairy Cattle

Report No. 6 of the Canadian Record of Performance for pure bred dairy has recently been issued by the Live Stock Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture. This report covers the period from March 31st, 1913, to March 31st, 1914, and includes the records of production of milk and butter fat of 120 Ayrshire, 165 Holstein, 30 Jersey, 9 Shorthorn, 2 French Canadian and 2 Guernsey cows, as well as the names and progeny of several Ayrshire, Holstein and Jersey bulls that have qualified, by reason of production of their offspring, for registration. In an appendix to the report will be found the records of a number of cows, which produced sufficient milk and fat to qualify for registration, but failed to freshen within fifteen months after the commencement of the test. The rules and regulations governing the Record of Performance tests and the standards for registration for the various breeds of dairy cattle are also given. Copies of this report may be had on application to the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Prosperity has, to some extent, spoiled many Canadians. They have lived high and accustomed themselves to expensive tastes. It hurts their feelings to have to adopt economies because they are really necessary. It exalts, however, the one who is wise and willing to profit by kind advice. Plain food, plain clothing, and plain living generally, benefit all classes of the people at this particular time, and the sooner all classes become reconciled to it the better.—Glencoe Transcript.

The Ontario Legislature is expected to meet about the middle of January, and, judging from present indications, the sessional program will be a light one, with war measures crowding out the usual contentious matters. The most important war legislation will, of course, be the modified form of moratorium covering principal payments on mortgages and agreements of sale promised some time ago by the Government, but there will be a large number of private bills to be dealt with, covering enterprises undertaken by municipalities to provide employment, as well as employment made for other patriotic purposes.

Perhaps you have never heard of it, but it is nevertheless a fact that Great Britain is the only nation in the world that does not borrow money from other nations—but she loans many millions.

An Apple Emergency

What can be done and what ought to be done, are always present to the mind of the social reformer. It is only in emergencies such as the present war situation has precipitated that most of the reformers' remedies get any attention. While the world can jog along without absolutely going to pieces in time of peace, people are satisfied with things as they are. When the trump of destiny sounds and all things are seen to be on the verge of transformation, when it becomes a problem how to live, and when the waste of a former day is now seen to be the sustenance of weeks, the reformer comes in for a little respect and attention. Apples have been going to waste for years in Ontario, as anyone can tell who is familiar with orchard conditions. It has taken the war to wake us up to the common sense of letting the waste apples go to those who could eat them.

Records of Pure Bred Dairy Cattle

Report No. 6 of the Canadian Record of Performance for pure bred dairy has recently been issued by the Live Stock Branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture. This report covers the period from March 31st, 1913, to March 31st, 1914, and includes the records of production of milk and butter fat of 120 Ayrshire, 165 Holstein, 30 Jersey, 9 Shorthorn, 2 French Canadian and 2 Guernsey cows, as well as the names and progeny of several Ayrshire, Holstein and Jersey bulls that have qualified, by reason of production of their offspring, for registration. In an appendix to the report will be found the records of a number of cows, which produced sufficient milk and fat to qualify for registration, but failed to freshen within fifteen months after the commencement of the test. The rules and regulations governing the Record of Performance tests and the standards for registration for the various breeds of dairy cattle are also given. Copies of this report may be had on application to the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Atrocities

From a number of sources there have come stories of children, girls as well as boys, who have been brought to England with their hands cut off, or with their wrists hopelessly mutilated. We daily meet people who know people who have seen it, or who know people who are harboring such. We do not, however, see this charge among the official formulations of German brutality. There was one story current of a child so maimed, whose mother told those who inquired that it had been done by the German soldiers, who, on finishing their work, had boasted that he will not now be able to use a rifle against the fatherland. Exceptionally brutish men from the slums of some German city, possibly a man who had at home been a robber and a highwayman, may have, in drunkenness, done such a deed, and there are possibly men in the French and English armies who are capable of duplicating it, but because of occasional atrocities we need not attribute brutality to all German soldiers. It must be borne in mind that just as horrible stories are told in the German camp about the atrocities committed by the English, Belgian and French as we hear about the Germans, and that there is nothing that will so tend to make brutes of our own soldiers and help them to commit such deeds as the publication in undue perspective of alleged barbarities committed by the enemy. Whatever the other side do, we must act as civilized beings, not returning barbarity for barbarity, but showing always kindness to the captured and wounded of our enemy. It is satisfactory to know that these alleged savageries are being recorded and investigated, and come into judgment against those who have committed them. It will probably be found that the fountain of cruelty is in the military system.

A Doctor on Bravery

(London Morning Post.)

Dr. Ludwig Taskar, of Alexandra Park, London, who is with the R.A.M.C. at the front, in the course of further letters just received, speaks in eulogistic terms of the bravery of the British soldier.

If the people of the United Kingdom could see the conditions under which our fellows fight, how they fight, and how they die, I swear that every head would uncover to the colors of any regiment bearing the name of a battle, because that name had been won through the blood of real heroes. Believe me, the Victoria Cross is won over and over again in a single day. They are brave! What if you were to see how the wounded act after the excitement of battle! They suffer their wounds, great and small, without a murmur; they get their wounds dressed, take chloroform, give consent to have their limbs amputated, just as if they were going to have their hair cut. They are gloriously brave. Men who have been in the thick of the fight all day, seen their chums wounded and killed, their own lives not worth a second's insurance, still these men cook their food and go off to sleep, and, most wonderful of all, go back to the thick of it next day.

An officer of the Bedford while in the trenches was opening a parcel and a letter from his wife, and in the excitement of the moment I suppose the poor fellow forgot his cover, and was shot through the heart. A pathetic incident also occurred in the case of a Tommy whom we picked up. He had been shot in the chest. By a curious coincidence the bullet which killed him also passed through a corresponding spot in a photograph of his wife which he carried with him.

It is Sunday, and we have had Holy Communion administered in a cow-shed, and very impressive it was under the circumstances. In the evening we had another service in a barn, conducted by the chaplain and the Wesleyan minister. A great crowd of officers and men collected. Some of the familiar soul-stirring hymns were sung, and the commanding officer read from the Book of Samuel about Jonathan going up against the hosts of the Philistines. The scene was very impressive, with the room lit with only camp candles, the soldiers rough and dirty with the work of war, some of them just returned from the trenches, and others going there the same night—some who in all probability would be dead before another night came along.

The men sang heartily, but when the prayer for dear ones at home was being offered there were few dry eyes among those brave men who faced death daily, and all through the service we could hear the roar of the cannon sending forth their messages of death and sorrow. It was terrible in its impressiveness.

Requisite on the Farm.—Every farmer and stock-raiser should keep a supply of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil on hand, not only as a ready remedy for ills in the family, but because it is a horse and cattle medicine of great potency. As a substitute for sweet oil for horses and cattle affected by colic it far surpasses anything that can be administered.

Culinary Notes

When Preserving Fruit.

The secret of preserving fruit is simply the killing of ferment germs and bacteria by intense heat and the exclusion of air.

Fill jars brimful—this excludes air—then see that the lids are screwed down just as tight as possible. After screwing the lids on tight place the jars upside down until cool. Any leak caused by cracked cup or faulty sealing rings will be instantly discernible.

Be sure your jars are well sterilized—that is, heated through and through by placing in hot water and let come to a boil. This sterilizes and also toughens the jars, so they are not so apt to break when filling with hot fruit.

Don't take any chance of losing your fruit by using sealing rings from the previous year. Rubber is very susceptible to climatic conditions and rots very easily. Provide yourself with new rings each year.

If jelly does not "set" well a few days in the rays of the hot sun will improve it.

To seal jellies pour melted paraffin over the jelly in each glass. Fruit jars may be sealed in practically the same way. After filling jars with fruit screw lid on as tight as possible, turn upside down till cool, then dip tops in melted paraffin, using care that the caps and rubber sealing rings are completely covered.

Fruit may be kept several years in this way.

German Potato Salad.

The Germans excel in the art of preparing potato salad in a variety of combinations. Their first consideration is the potato, which must be just right. They use a hard little potato, which boils tender, but does not crumble. These potatoes may often be bought in delicatessen shops in your city and are usually called German salad potatoes or Hamburg potatoes. Blend them with onions, green peppers, beets, string beans, radishes, okra, carrots, cucumber, tomato, parsley, cress and lettuce for a vegetable salad.

With salt or smoked fish, shrimps, salmon, sardines, oysters or scallops you may have a different potato salad every day, so well do they combine with other good things to eat. All cooked meats, fresh or salt, make most excellent salads combined with potato. Poultry and fresh fish, except those mentioned, are an exception.

Potato salad is the one exception to the rule of serving salads as cold as possible. They are very good served hot and oftentimes should be served in this way, particularly for luncheon or supper with cold meats, or, if combined with meat, as a warm supper dish. Potato salad should never accompany a regular dinner of roast and vegetables, as it is too hearty a dish in itself.

Dried Fruit.

Unquestionably sun dried fruits and vegetables are better than most preserved foods. Yet the many difficulties in drying them out of doors in this climate prevent most people from considering it. But nothing is easier if you own a hotbed, such as where you start vegetables or flowers. Lay a floor on top of the earth; spread a clean cloth over the boards and put the fruit or corn, peas or beans on the cloth. After placing the articles to be dried in the frame put the covering sash back on it, taking care to raise both ends about two inches to give free circulation of air over the fruit, for the air carries off the moisture and prevents the fruit burning. Insects cannot stand the heat in this frame, and rain cannot reach the fruit, although it is advisable to put the sash tight on the frame in case of storm.

Cooking Fresh Vegetables.

Some cooks use a little vinegar with green beans, spinach or cabbage to soften the cellulose. A small onion sliced and cooked with peas is the method employed by another cook. But it is very necessary that the water be soft, and therefore in case you must use hard water a very tiny bit of soda may be added in the water. When peas are cooked in the soda water, after fifteen or twenty minutes pour off this water and finish with fresh boiling water. A few green mint leaves added at this time will increase the palatableness of the peas.

Making Cabbage Digestible.

Cabbage that is crisped in cold water before it is cooked or served raw will agree with almost every one if you do not commit the error of overcooking it. Overcooked, water soaked cabbage is an unpalatable sign against the powers of digestion. If you find that the peas, green beans, cabbage, etc., have grown beyond their tender youth you may resort to the use of a little baking soda added to the water in which they are boiled. But use soda very judiciously. The slightest excess will injure their flavor.

Useful Kitchen Set.

Something just imported and useful for kitchen work is a set of imported wooden utensils. It consists of a bread board, two scoops, two smaller spoons, a meat pounder—useful also as a potato masher—two whisks, useful in baking, and a butter former. These, carved of smooth white wood and bound carefully on the bread board, are only $1 a set.

HIS HEAVY CROSS.

It Was Only a Chalk Mark, But Was Too Cumbersome to Carry.

There is a story of an envious tailor or current with the French peasantry. He fancied that his neighbor, who received a pension for the loss of an arm incurred while fighting for his country, was better off than himself. Both men went to pay their rent on the same day.

"That's a lucky man," said the tailor to the landlord. "He gets well paid for his arm."

"But who would be willing to part with an arm, even if he were paid for it?" said the landlord.

"I would," declared the tailor.

"You!" cried the landlord. "Why, man, you wouldn't be willing to bear anything of the sort, no matter how much you were paid for it."

"I wish some one would try me," said the tailor.

"So the chalk mark in the form of a cross was made on the back of his coat, and the delighted tailor sallied forth upon the street.

Strangers and acquaintances hailed him to tell him of the mark on his back. Jokes were made at his expense, children laughed and pointed at him, and his wife annoyed him with questions and with conjugal familiarity told him he was a fool. The usually amiable man grew surly and morose. He shunned men, women and children and frequented back streets. Before the week was up the tailor found himself embroiled in a quarrel with his best friend, his wife had threatened to leave his house, and he considered himself miserable and ill used.

Finally one night he took off his coat and rubbed out the chalk mark and said: "There! I would not wear that cross on my back another week, no, not if I could have all the money there is in Paris!"

Aroused Her Curiosity After All.

"Don't want any," said a housekeeper from her second story window to a street vendor whose covered wagon was standing a few steps away and who had just pulled the bell.

"Don't want any what?" gruffly asked the vendor, who hadn't had even a chance to tell what his wares were.

"What have you got?" asked the housekeeper, whose curiosity was getting the better of her annoyance.

"Oh, never mind. You don't want any. Git up, Bob!"

"Now, I wonder what that exasperating man is selling, anyhow!" she exclaimed as the wagon disappeared around the corner.

Way down in Florida two darkies were discussing the color of certain Biblical personages. One of them asserted that as Palestine was about in line with Africa, the people all must have been colored. "Lor' bress your heart!" said the speaker, "St. Peter an' St. Paul an' the rest of the apostles was as white as that North'n gen'l'man ober dere." "No, sah," said the man in opposition, "Paul may ha' been, but St. Peter—no sah. St. Peter was a culer'd gen'l'man." "You're wrong; for if St. Peter'd been culer'd dat cock wouldn't ha' crowed more'n once't."

Miller's Worm Powders never fail. They immediately attack the worms and expel them from the system. They are complete in themselves, not only as a worm destroyer, but as a highly beneficial medicine for children, correcting weak digestion and restoring the debilitated system to healthfulness, without which the growth of the child will be retarded and its constitution weakened.

War Summary

Nov. 23.—The greatest activity of the warring factions still appears to be centred along the front in Russian Poland between the Vistula and Warthe rivers, where the Germans are endeavoring to push back the Russians to Warsaw. Berlin says there is no change in the situation, while Petrograd declares that the Russians have obtained "some partial successes."

Of the contests farther south in Poland and in Galicia, a similar state of affairs exists so far as knowledge of the trend of events is concerned. Vienna declares the Austro-Hungarian troops have captured 15,000 prisoners in lower Poland and that an important battle is proceeding near Donajec, Galicia, and in the Carpathians. It is claimed also that two Russian battalions surrendered northwest of Czenstochwa and that the Austrians have resumed the offensive on the Cracow-Przemysl line.

In the west there has been comparative quiet. Paris records in its official report that the Allies demolished many lines of German trenches.

Turkey, according to Berlin, has inflicted heavy losses on the Russians near Batum, Asiatic Russia. The Turkish cruiser Hamidieh and torpedo boats bombarded Napsa. The Ottoman forces on the Shat-el-Arab River declare they have defeated a British force and that a shot from a Turkish cruiser caused an explosion on a British gunboat.

Russia has mined the Russian littoral of the Black Sea in many places sixty miles out from the coast. Ship are forbidden to sail at night from or into the mouths of the Dnieper and Bug Rivers or in the Gulf of Kertche.

British aviators have made a daring attempt to blow up the Zeppelin balloons works at Friedrichshafen by dropping bombs. One of the British aeroplanes was brought down by the German guns and a lieutenant aviator captured.

A Petrolia dispatch announces that the rebel General De Wet in South Africa has again been defeated.

London, Nov. 24.—The secretary of the admiralty announces that the German submarine boat, "U-18," which was reported off the coast of Scotland this morning, was rammed by a British patrolling vessel and foundered.

The big news of the day comes from the eastern theater of the war, where the fighting in Poland between the Vistula and Warthe rivers has taken a turn in favor of the Russians. London has a report that the advance of Von Hindenburg's army on Warsaw has been checked by a big victory at Kutno, where 12,000 prisoners were taken.

Once again the Russian plan of leading the Germans far from their own base and giving battle from a well-selected position appears to have borne fruit. This time the defeat is administered to an invasion that represents the supreme effort Germany has been able to make at this time. At Warsaw in October the Russians led their enemy almost to the very gates of Warsaw, then administered a defeat that sent the Germans flying back to their own borders. They have not led their enemy on as far this time, but it would appear that their tactics are of the same character as a few weeks ago.

Concurrent with news of the Russian success in Poland comes news of another success in East Prussia, where the city of Gumbinnen is officially reported to have been taken. Gumbinnen is 66 miles northeast of Konigsberg and is the capital of a Prussian government district.

They takes best place as a claimant of victories, but for practically all of her claims there is no foundation whatever.

Nov. 25.—The combined French and British armies have been attacked by the Germans in force, from Ypres to La-Basse, and a battle on the scale of the battles of the Marne, of the Yser, and of the first and second battles of Ypres, has commenced. In this terrific struggle, into which the Germans enter with large reinforcements and fresh guns, the French and British armies are acting directly in concert. Already the fight has been in progress forty-eight hours.

Petrograd, Nov. 26.—One entire German army corps—about 50,000 men—has been captured, with all the artillery and transport. Another corps has been wiped out, and thirty-six trains loaded with prisoners are on the way to the Russian interior.

... A ... KIDNAPING

It Was Not For Ransom, but For a Benefit to the Kidnaped

By MARTHA V. MONROE

Rudolf Kenyon at sixteen graduated from the high school of the town in which he lived. He was a bright boy and would have been glad to go to college, but his mother had done all she could for him, and it was time he began to do for her. Consequently he must go to work.

The graduating exercises were over, the pupils had been handed their diplomas, and Rudolf started for his home to tell his mother all about it. Leaving the main thoroughfare, he entered the quiet street in which he lived, having still half a dozen blocks to go to reach his home, when an automobile that was being driven in the direction he was walking stopped at the curb a few yards ahead of him, a man alighted, took him by the arm and forced him into the car. Rudolf was physically no match for the man and offered little resistance. Once in the car he was powerless to call assistance, for it was a closed vehicle, and his captor at once drew down the curtains.

That he was kidnaped to be held for ransom did not occur to the boy for several reasons. In the first place, the man who had taken him was a mild mannered person, with no resemblance to the class of common kidnapers. In the second place, kidnaping was associated in Rudolf's mind with little children, too young to serve as effective witnesses against their captors. Thirdly, the man told him in a reassuring voice that he would be at no discomfort whatever. As they drove along he asked Rudolf a few questions.

"Do you remember your father?" "No; he died when I was a little child."

"Has your mother ever spoken to you of him?" "I don't remember that she has."

"And you have never had the curiosity to ask about him?" "Indeed, I have, but have not done so because to mention him always gives me much pain."

send my mother a message." "That you may do. Has your mother a telephone?" "No, but our next door neighbor has one, and we are permitted to use it."

"Show him the telephone booth," said the host to the butler. Rudolf went to the booth, called for his mother and found her much worried at his failure to return to her after the school exercises. He gave her a brief account of what had happened, finding her an excellent listener, but when he asked her for his views as to who his captor might be and what were his intentions he found her uncommunicative. As soon as he told her he had been promised that after he had listened to what the stranger had to say and had time to consider it he might go home she seemed much relieved and told him not to try to escape, but await further developments. On leaving the telephone Rudolf found his captor-host waiting for him in the dining room, and the two sat down to such a luncheon as the boy had never tasted before. While they were eating the gentleman talked, but not about what Rudolf wished to hear—an explanation of this strange captivity. He asked Rudolf what he proposed to do now that he had left school, and when Rudolf told him that he was going to hunt for a position in business the other shook his head.

"You will never succeed in business," he said. "Why do you say that?" "By the shape of your head and the expression of your face I judge that you were born for an intellectual career. How would you like to go to college?"

"Oh, I should like that above all things. But I can't. Mother has done everything for me up to this time, and now that I am nearly a man I must begin the work of taking care of her."

"The host seemed to wince at this and remained quiet for a time. Then he continued: "If certain arrangements can be made which I shall propose to you, will you go to college?" This quite took Rudolf's breath away. For one year during which his mother was ill she had been obliged to put him in a store as errand boy. This had given the natural distaste there was in him for business an opportunity to crop out. The bare idea of going to college filled him with delight.

"Where will the money come from?" he asked. "I will furnish that."

"When the luncheon was finished his host led him to the library, pointed to an easy chair, then, seating himself in another, said: "Rudolf, your father is not dead; he is very much alive."

The boy started, then sat looking at the speaker, waiting hungrily for more. "He came to America from England about twenty years ago. He was the son of a nobleman, and in that country they have what they call a law of entail, which settles the family estate on the oldest son. Your father was the second son. He came to America, met your mother, who was then a beautiful girl, fell in love with her and married her. After you were born his father in England sent for him to come back—without his wife—and a proposition would be made to him. He accepted the invitation. His father told him that his older brother had received an injury while hunting from which he would never recover. If your father would remain in England, divorce his American wife and marry among his peers in England he should be put in possession of the title and estates. Your father after much persuasion wrote your mother of this proposition. She consented to it and obtained a divorce on the ground of desertion. Your father married again, and his wife died childless a year ago. "These are the bare facts. I shall neither try to excuse your father nor to condemn him. That I leave for your mother to do. I will say, however, that he condemns himself bitterly."

When Rudolf reached home his mother asked him to give her a couple of hours of quiet thought in her room and then she would give him her decision. For awhile she found it hard to conquer rebellious feelings against the husband who had deserted her, but memories of her early happy married life softened her heart.

Rudolf went back with a favorable reply. He remained at the house his father had temporarily taken during his stay in America while his father went for an interview which the boy hoped and prayed might bring a family reunion. During the time that he was left alone he was treated with every attention by the servants, but so great was his impatience to learn what might be the result of the interview between his parents that he found no enjoyment in the luxury by which he was surrounded. On the third day after his father's departure the car pulled up under the porte-cochere. Rudolf ran out eagerly. His father alighted, then—behave he praised—banded out his mother. Rudolf ran to her, and she caught him in her arms.

What further explanation the boy received was given by his mother. The pair had just been married a second time and were to live together. The husband and father was now Earl of Edgerton, and the son was heir to the title and estates.

Spain's Royal Bodyguard. The Spanish royal family has an especial and historic bodyguard to prevent intrusions. For centuries the Monteras, who must be natives of the town of Espinosa and have served with honor in the army, have had the exclusive privilege of guarding the royal palaces by night. In their historic costume and wearing felt shoes they take up their posts at midnight outside the rooms of the king, queen and other royalties, while detachments patrol the halls and corridors all night long. They speak no word, acknowledging each other's presence by sign and counter-sign. In the morning they disappear as silently, giving place to the ordinary sentries and attendants.

The Brute. "Mother, I'm afraid I have made a mistake in marrying George." "What's the matter, my dear? Has he been brutal to you?" "Yes, he has."

"What has he done?" "Yesterday when I asked him for a new hat he said he couldn't afford it, and—" "Yes, go on."

"And even when I broke down and cried he didn't give in and say I could have it."

His Hot Dinner. The voice of the tempter was heard outside the works at Saturday midday. "Bill, come and 'ave a pint."

"Not me; I've a nice 'ot dinner waiting."

"Just one pint, Bill."

"It won't take you a minute."

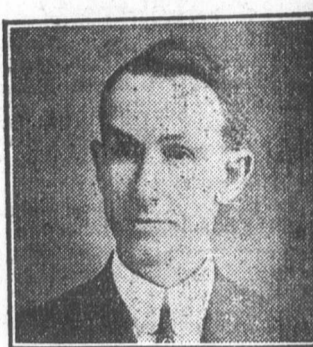

"That 'ot dinner'd be spoiling."

At this point the hospitable man lost his temper. "Go 'ome, ole man, to your bread and mustard."—Manchester Guardian.

Easy. The teacher had been trying to explain the law of gravitation to the juvenile class. "Now, Morris," she said, "can you tell me why it is impossible for you to lift yourself up by your bootstraps?" "Yes, ma'am," answered the young scientist. "It's because I wear shoes."

CRYING CHILDREN

When baby cries it is because he is unwell—not because he is bad-natured as so many imagine. Crying is the way the little one has of telling of his pains and the wise mother can instantly tell what ails her little one simply by his cry. When baby cries a great deal give him Baby's Own Tablets and he will soon be happy again. Concerning the Tablets Mrs. Jas. Gaudreau, Notre Dame des Bois, Que., says: "My baby cried day and night and I was greatly discouraged. I began giving him the Tablets and he was soon happy, healthy and fat." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Address and Presentation

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 18th, about seventy friends and neighbors met at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Jas. Johnson, on the townline between Plympton and Enniskillen, to bid them farewell prior to their removal to Sarnia. At the end of an interesting impromptu program the following address was read and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were presented with two handsome oak chairs and Miss Elsie with a fountain pen.

Encouraged to remove from our neighborhood in the very near future, we have met this evening to spend a few more pleasant hours with you in the old home where you have always so cordially welcomed us. For many years you have shared the joys and sorrows of our community and your kindly sympathy, your sincere faith, your open hearts and willing hands have lent ready encouragement and practical aid to every good cause; and we could not leave you without in some way telling you how much we have appreciated your many virtues, and how greatly we shall miss you in our social, religious and our neighborly intercourse. "What one sows he must also reap" and while we are confident that your sterling qualities will win for you true and loyal friends in your new environments, we trust the old ties may remain and be often renewed and strengthened; and that you may have a visible reminder of the happy relations existing between you and us, we ask you to accept these simple tokens of our esteem.

MOTHER SUPERIOR ROSARY HILL HOME

Tells How Vinol Restores Strength and Vitality to the Weak, Worn-Out Ones in Her Charge.

Rosary Hill Home, Hawthorne, N. Y. "I have been at work among the sick and poor for nearly eighteen years, and whenever I have used Vinol for run-down, weak or emaciated patients, they have been visibly benefited by it. One patient, a young woman, was so weak and ill she could hardly creep to my door for aid, and was leaning on a friend's arm. I supplied Vinol to her liberally and in a month when she returned to thank me I hardly recognized her. She was strong, her color charming and her cheeks rounded out. These words uttered from my heart, in order that more people may know about Vinol, as there is nothing makes me happier in the world than to relieve the sick." Mother M. ALPHONSA LATHROP, O.S.D., Hawthorne, N. Y.

Such disinterested and reliable testimony should convince everyone of the merits of Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic to build up health and strength for all weakened and nervous conditions, whether caused from over-work, worry or chronic coughs and colds. If Vinol fails to benefit we return your money.
