Notes.

Baptism to-night. Quietly, but surely, the good work goes on. The Lord is moving graciously amongst us. Let us take advantage of every opportunity to lead the unsaved to Christ. There are many more we ought to be anxious about. Are we true watchmen warning them of the danger they are in? If any amongst us profess to love Jesus, but have not followed Him in baptism, we have a duty towards them. "If ye love me keep my commandments." As Baptists we follow our Lord's command, not "in order to be saved, but because we are saved."

Rev. Geo. Churchill and wife, our returned Missionaries, are to be with us Sunday afternoon, March 26, to address our Mission Band. Let us give them a hearty welcome. On Tuesday, March 28, we are going to have grand Missionary day in our church. In the afternoon the ladies of the City and Dartmouth have a meeting. Tea will be served at the close. In the evening we are to have a great Missionary Mass Meeting, to which all our Baptist Pastors and friends, with those of other denominations, are invited. It is not often we have the opportunity of coming into such close touch with our Missionaries.

"What is the Church?" A place of entertainment? A religious club? A resort for intellectual or spiritual banqueting? It was spoken by its founder in the same breath with "the gates of hell," which shall not prevail against it. The exhortations of the letters of the Apostles were to a striving church. The terrible symbols of the Revelation, as far as we can understand them, seem to have shadowed for that church at war with the titans of darkness and perdition. The church was organized for struggle.

Our Revenue.—This Church is supported by the free will offerings of the people. Every member, young and old, is expected to contribute regularly. If each one gives as "God has prospered," no one will be burdened, and there will be ample means for support of every department. Subscriptions may be made at any time to the Treasurer, Deacon W. T. Harris, and A. E. Sorlis, Chairman of the Finance Committee, who will supply envelopes for "CURRENT EXPENSES," "MORTGAGE FUND," and "ORGAN FUND." Convention Fund offering the second Sunday of each month.

All Seats Free.—Application for sittings should be made to Deacon J. S. McPherson, Chairman of Pew Committee, who will also provide envelopes. The seats are assigned—not rented. Each pew holder is expected to be a contributor. Notices for "Our Calendar" must be given to the Pastor not later than Thursday evening.

The Pastor will be glad to speak with you at the close of each service. Kindly inform him immediately concerning the sick, strangers, any without regular church home, and where a visit will be helpful. All are urged to use the information cards in pews.

Get your "Letter" at once and help save the Lost.
