BORDEN CHEERED BY THOUSANDS IN MONTREAL

Scenes at Victoria Pier and Windsor Hotel Were of Unbounded Enthusiasm, French and English Uniting in Demonstration — Borden Lauds Entente-Cordiale

MONTREAL, Sept. 7.—(Can. Press.)—Few more enthusiastic welcomes have been accorded to any Canadian prime minister than those which marked the progress of the Right Hon. Robert Laird Borden since he landed at Quebec on Friday last. There, irrespective of political complexion, his welcome was hearty and sincere and his triumph in the centre of Liberalism has been repeated at Three Rivers, Sorel and was one of the outstanding features of the demonstration accorded him in Montreal on Saturday night. No more ideal conditions could have prevailed than those of Saturday night, the threatening weather of the day clearing at sundown. From start to finish the event was a success. The spirit of the thousands who lined the wharf and the long route seemed one of sincerity and the tribute paid was appreciated by Premier Borden, who, in his brief addresses at the landing stage and at the reception in the Windsor Hotel, expressed his pleasure at being home again. The keynote of both his utterances in reply to addresses from the mayor, was for a continuance of the entente cordiale which exists between the two nations and between the two great races of this country.

Gaining Strength in Quebec.

To welcome the chief came colleagues from Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Ontario and Quebec, and his growing popularity among the French was evidenced by the large numbers which turned out on Saturday and showed equal enthusiasm with the English colleagues. French and English alike jostled each other in the throng at the hotel to shake the premier by the hand and bid him welcome.

So large was the crowd at the informal reception in the hotel that the original intention of having the premier speak from one of the windows

TROLLEY WRECK COSTS 5 LIVES

Thirty Others Injured at Cleveland When Lake Shore Car Struck Brewery Truck.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 7.—(Can. Press.)—Thirty-five people were injured, five of them fatally, when a special Lake Shore electric car, with a trailer attached, crashed into a brewery truck at Cleveland, Ohio, on Saturday night. The accident occurred at 11.30 o'clock. The driver of the truck apparently had no warning of the car's approach. The car was carrying a load of beer. The truck was carrying a load of flour. The collision resulted in the death of five people and the injury of thirty others.

Motor Car's Fatal Skid.

CAMDEN, N.J., Sept. 8.—(Can. Press.)—One girl was killed and three others seriously hurt here tonight when an automobile skidded on a road known as the "White Horse Pike" and dashed into a group of girls who were standing in the highway. Lillian White was caught under the automobile and sustained a fractured skull, from which she died soon afterwards.

Motorman's Injuries Fatal.

GLAVERSVILLE, N.Y., Sept. 7.—(Can. Press.)—Motorman Abram Nellis of this city died from injuries sustained in a wreck caused by a collision between north and southbound cars at Pinegar's Curve, just north of Fond du Lac this forenoon.

Indian Burying Ground Covered by Workmen Found 13 Skeletons

Bones of Red Men Were Unearthed Lying Side by Side in Perfect State of Preservation, and Have Been Buried Near Islington.

What is evidently an ancient Indian burial ground has been found at Islington. Already thirteen skeletons have been dug up by workmen at the Hide gravel pit. When the pit was first started last March a teamster struck one of the skulls. This was turned over to Coroner Dr. Bull of Islington, who buried it. A few days later the bones of a human being were located. This was undoubtedly the skeleton of an Indian. Not long after Jack McElroy, Jack Cashen and Tom Renton, who were all hauling gravel, struck another skull. The other bones of the body were also nearby. It was at once seen that this was also the remains of a redman. The next surprise for the workers occurred a week or two after. The complete skeletons of nine Indians were unearthed side by side in the new pit.

Covered With Earth.

By closely examining the earth the men saw that wherever the skeletons were found the soil was different. This led to the suspicion that there were graves there, and the belief was confirmed when it was seen that a layer of gravel separated the skeletons and that dirt was on top of them, showing that the bodies had been placed in the graves and covered up by earth. All the skeletons were found about 13 inches below the surface. On Monday last Jack McElroy dug up another skeleton. All the rest had been turned over to Dr. Bull. This one he kept.

Hundred Years Old.

Some of the residents who have lived in the districts for the past 75 or 80 years have been questioned about the skeletons. They did not remember any Indians nor did they ever hear their fathers mention them. Some of these men living in the district are the offspring of pioneers who originally cleared the land in this section of the country. Should there have been any redskins dwelling there in those times the tradition would have been passed on. This means that the skeletons have been there more than a century. As all the bones are in the best of condition and perfect it is supposed that these Indians were braves killed in war and buried on the field by the other redmen.

2 HIGHWAYMEN CAUGHT AFTER STRUGGLE

Malcolm McCullan and Bert Small Terrorized Residents of St. Clarens Avenue, Held Up Two Women and Robbed a Man After Giving Him a Severe Beating.

Two women were robbed, another man was badly beaten and attempted to sell a pair of spectacles. Falling in this, their talk became so desperate that the people were terrorized. Doors were bolted and barred. Within a few minutes the whole street was deserted. The men then went to a private house, posing as representatives of the Salvation Army, and asked for and were given some money. Two ladies were returning home on St. Clarens avenue, when the two robbers confronted them. In response to threats the women turned over their money. Hardly had they done this when the robbers noticed a man also coming along. This was Eugene Latchford, 36 Montroy street.

Without any warning, they jumped on Latchford, knocked him down and attempted to rifle his pockets. After taking severe beating, Latchford broke away. He rushed up the street shouting "murder!" A resident phoned No. 6 police station. Several constables were sent out. Constables Clarke (326) and Stewart (650) finally rounded up Small and McCullan.

BRITISH BATTLESHIP AN OIL BURST.

GLASGOW, Sept. 7.—(Can. Press.)—The government has asked for tenders for 200,000 tons of oil fuel for the navy. Great storage tanks are now being constructed at Rosyth, on the Forth, and it is supposed that one of the new battleships will burn only oil.

JOHN RUSSELL DIED ON SUNDAY

Pioneer of the East End, Founder of Oldest Brick-making Business in Toronto, and Father of Joseph Russell, ex-M.P., Succumbed to Attack of Heart Trouble.

John Russell, a pioneer in the east end of the city, the oldest brickmaker in Toronto, and father of Joseph Russell, ex-M.P., died Sunday at 8 a.m., from heart trouble, at his home, 165 Wellesley street.

For seven years from 1898, Mr. Russell was in the city council as an alderman from ward one. At his death he owned about one hundred acres on Queen street, and was at one time almost the heaviest property holder in the ward. For fifty years he carried on farming as a hobby at a highly developed farm on the Kingston road, about five miles out of the city.

Mr. Russell, who was born in County Monaghan, Ireland, Feb. 11, 1837, came to Toronto in 1849, having lived here ever since. He started up as a brickmaker early in life, and was actively engaged until 1896, when he turned over his business to his only son. Mr. Russell's wife, who was Mary Smith, died ten years ago. There are eight daughters: Mrs. Edwin McPherson, Winnipeg; Mrs. J. J. Walsh, Montreal; Mrs. Ardagh Cunliffe, Great Falls, Ontario; Mrs. James Alkins, Toronto; Mrs. H. L. Armstrong, Toronto, and three unmarried daughters living at home, Elizabeth, Annie and Mabel.

Mr. Russell gained great fame five years ago in a fight with the city over a tax sale. The fight he carried upward thru the Canadian courts, winning almost every time, right to the imperial privy council, where he lost, rather fortunately for the city, for a victory on Mr. Russell's part would have decided innumerable similar cases at great cost to the city. The fight concerned a large tract of land that included the greater part of Carlaw avenue. This land Mr. Russell once owned, but he allowed the taxes to lapse during a long period of hard times. The city took over the land. When it became valuable, Mr. Russell demanded it back on the ground that there was some technical error in the city's advertising of the seizure. Although the land today is immensely valuable, Mr. Russell's other real estate ventures and business enterprises were so successful that he is understood to have died worth nearly a million.

SIX KILLED AT MOTORCYCLE MEET

Champion Hasha of Fort Worth, Tex., Going Ninety-Two Miles an Hour, Struck Rail at Course in Newark, N.J., and Was Hurled Among Spectators.

NEWARK, N.J., Sept. 8.—(Can. Press.)—Motorcycle Champion Hasha of Fort Worth, Tex. and five others lost their lives as a result of a peculiar accident tonight. Only two of the six dead were positively identified up to a late hour tonight, Hasha and Johnny Albright, a Denver motorcyclist, who was riding third in the race. The other four dead were boys and young men among the spectators.

Five thousand spectators were witnessing the finish of a four mile free-for-all race, when the daring Texan rider, doing 92 miles an hour, took his fatal plunge. He was riding high on the bank of the track when the wheel of his heavy machine swerved and struck the upper rail. He was pitched headforemost fifty feet into the air. He must have been instantly killed in the collision. His body was shapeless from broken bones when it was picked up, almost at the feet of his wife, seated among men and boys in the bleachers.

Albright was thrown headfirst in the other direction into the enclosure of the track when the champion's wheel came sliding down the steep bank and struck him. He was picked up, for dead, but he lived in an unconscious state for more than two hours after removal to a hospital. He finally succumbed to hemorrhage of the lungs.

Spectators Hurled into Air.

The spectators injured were mainly the men and boys who were leaning over the rail yelling encouragingly to the riders when Hasha came tearing into their midst. Some of the spectators were hurled high into the air and landed in the laps of those seated behind. A scene of panic among the spectators generally followed the tragedy.

FRENCH WORKMEN SEE POPE.

ROME, Sept. 8.—(Can. Press.)—The pope received in audience today hundreds of French workmen under the leadership of Leo Harmel, who for 22 years has conducted these pilgrimages to Rome. It was reported that the pope in answering the address of devotion might allude to the possible re-establishment of good relations with France, but the pontiff dealt entirely with religion.

U.S. on Brink of Intervention in Mexico

BEVERLY, Mass., Sept. 8.—Although President Taft will not intervene in Mexico without the fullest deliberation on a step that would mean war, and although every diplomatic resource will be tried in the effort to protect Americans in that trouble-wracked land, his friends declared tonight that intervention was nearer than at any time since the first American troops were rushed to the border eighteen months ago. It can be stated on the highest authority, however, that should the president decide intervention is the only course open to him, he will call congress in special session and demand of it the authority to send the American army across the border. Under no circumstances, he has told his friends, would he do an unfriendly act against Mexico without consulting congress. Friends of the president realize that he would give the order to invade Mexico only with the greatest reluctance. They are aware that it already has been charged by senators that the president might send the army across the line, make himself a "war president" and rely on that to bring to victory, to himself and the Republican party in November.

MIDFORD TO END WATER TROUBLES

Energetic Captain, After Imposing Old London, is Coming Back Laden With Information.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—(C.A.P.)—Captain Midford, Toronto, who sailed for Canada yesterday, has just completed a thorough inspection of the water supply and filtration plants of London and contiguous municipalities and has also inspected the water systems of Liverpool and Leeds, with all of which he is favorably impressed. Midford's researches will undoubtedly be of great value in solving the domestic problems of Canada. Captain Midford has made his name a familiar one to Torontonians by his repeated charges against the waterworks department and by the attempt he made at a personal investigation of the intake pipe, which the board of control sanctioned at a cost to the city of $2000.

BENNETT STILL IN INDIAN RESERVE

Murderer Has Been Seen, But Eludes Capture, Tho Pursuit is Growing Quite Warm.

BRANTFORD, Sept. 8.—(Special.)—That Jack Bennett, wanted on the charge of murder at Middleport, is on the Six Nation reserve and is being protected by friends was the information received by a posse of police from this city who made a special effort to capture the Indian Sunday morning. A dozen suspected houses were searched but no trace of Bennett was found. It is believed his capture will be effected this week, however, the offers of a provincial reward having given a further impetus to the chase. Bennett was seen by reserve residents on several occasions recently but disappeared when officers penetrated the reserve.

CHALLENGE CUPS FOR THE CADETS

One of the most pleasing events in connection with the visit of the Imperial Cadets to the Canadian National Exhibition took place on Saturday night. The cadets were lined up in a square in the military encampment and on behalf of the Daughters of the Empire a silver challenge cup was presented to each of the contingents: Australia, New Zealand, Newfoundland, Ireland, England, and Scotland. This is to be shot for annually by the cadets of the respective countries. The presentation of the cups was made by Mrs. Albert Gooderham. A number of the directors and leading officials of the Exhibition were present, and addresses were made in which the hope was expressed that the cadets would again on some future occasion pay the Dominion a visit.

OTTAWA READY TO HONOR BORDEN

OTTAWA, Sept. 7.—(Can. Press.)—The Right Hon. R. L. Borden, prime minister of Canada, arrived in Ottawa early this morning, having come thru from Montreal immediately after the notable demonstration in his honor on Saturday night. The premier's coming was known to few and at an hour that prevented many persons from meeting him. That honor will be fully atoned for tomorrow when the official civic welcome will afford the citizens of this city an opportunity of greeting their foremost citizen. The welcome promises to be a noteworthy function. The city hall is appropriately festooned, white signal flags and other decorations added color and gaiety to the parliament grounds. The premier is to be escorted by the city council and a parade of automobiles from his residence on Wurttemberg street to the city hall, where the address will be presented and he will reply. This will take place at noon. The route will be Rideau, Wellington and Elgin streets to the hall. Afterwards Mr. Borden will go to Lansdowne Park, where he will attend the Central Canada Exhibition as guest of the C. C. E. A. directors' luncheon. Afterwards he will open the Dominion Exhibition. Tomorrow night at the Chateau Laurier he will be banqueted by the Ottawa Conservative Association. The success of the affair is assured.

President Chamberlin of the G. T. R. Says Facilities for Removing Grain From Terminals, and Not Railways, Are at Fault—Proposition to Take Over the McArthur Contract Has Been Made to the Government—Work on Toronto Union Station to Commence Before End of This Year.

E. J. Chamberlin of Montreal, president of the Grand Trunk Railway, and a party of G.T.R. officials, which included Alfred W. Smithers, president of the Grand Trunk Board in London, England, and the assistant secretary of the board, H. Deer, arrived in Toronto shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday. There were twelve persons, including secretaries, in the party, which came in by special train from Niagara, and took rooms in the King Edward Hotel. Mr. Chamberlin is returning to Montreal after a month of traveling in Western Canada. Interviewed upon his arrival at the King Edward he stated that the plans for the new Union Station at Toronto were maturing as rapidly as could be expected when so large a structure was planned, to meet the needs of two companies of so great magnitude. Detail work must naturally require a great deal of time, and he could not say definitely whether actual construction would be begun before the end of the present year. "We are going along with the grade separation work at the west end of the city," said Mr. Chamberlin, "and when the Union Station detailed plans are finished and approved, the station will be built." "What is your attitude towards the present tendency to send railway traffic thru Toronto by a line built further north than your present lines?" asked The World. "We will continue to use the waterfront right of way exclusively," was the reply. "The accommodation at the new Union Station will be easily sufficient to handle our business."

Elevated Tracks.

Mr. Chamberlin stated that elevated tracks would form the approach to the station from the east. He agreed with the C.P.R. officials, who were of the opinion that level tracks and bridges would in the long run prove more satisfactory to the greatest number of persons, but that matter was out of his hands. The C.P.R. had objected strongly to the first draft of plans, the two companies, he said, were now working together and everything was going smoothly. "Is it true, Mr. Chamberlin, that the Grand Trunk Pacific is not willing to lease that section of the transcontinental road between Superior Junction and Winnipeg from the government, instead of, as at present, from Mr. McArthur, who holds the original contract because the change would involve placing the G.T.R. under control of the railway board in the matter of rates and so forth?" "It is not true. The absurdity of the statement that we are unwilling to submit our rates to the railway board becomes manifest when one considers that our present rates between Fort William and Winnipeg are identical with those charged by the other two roads operating between those points, and that the tariffs were filed with the Board of Railway Commissioners." "Would Have Been Idle." The contract under which this section of the transcontinental is run, is held under the "McArthur contract," by the builder of the road. McArthur has not been able to sell his contract to the government on terms suitable to himself, so that the road would be idle had not the G.T.P. stepped in and leased the line. Under the contract between the government and the G. T. P., the company must on the completion of the transcontinental take a fifty year lease of the road. For the first seven years no rental will be charged, after which the company must pay annually to the Dominion Government a rental which will represent three per cent. of the total cost of construction of the transcontinental. Should the company desire at any time to take over any section on completion, this will be permitted, but obviously there would be no profit to the company after the three per cent. annual rental was paid, operating an isolated section of road built thru a thinly populated stretch of country. The G. T. P. does not wish, on this account, to lease the McArthur section of the line from the government until the completion of the entire transcontinental.

CITIZENS MUST FACE BIG PROBLEM

Rev. Byron H. Stauffer, in a Strong Sermon Dealing With the Social Evil, Says Canada is in Its Infancy and Must Face the Problem at Once.

For every depraved woman there must first be a depraved man. Canada faces every year ten thousand young women for the brothels of the United States.

It is a lie to say that the social evil is an economic necessity. Young men, if you cannot control yourselves, marry first and think of the means and money afterwards.

While accusing the police of Toronto from any policy of dishonesty in connection with the wiping out of houses of ill-fame, Mr. Stauffer yet insisted that they should be more active in the city and that the police system is powerless to prevent their growth.

He was fervent in his denunciation of the house of ill-fame, and the American cities which drew their stock of inmates from Canadian cities and exported them to the city.

His justification. As some justification for his attitude in this speaking publicly of a subject which has been taboo, Mr. Stauffer reminded his audience that Miss Jane Adams, at the recent convention in New York City, faced ten thousand men and spoke candidly of the evils he sought to bring before his congregation.

Awakening to Peril. Mr. Stauffer deprecated the fact that while the newspapers of the city had given much space to the exhibition committee, which would have a more lasting effect upon the good of the Dominion than any exhibition or other movement of the kind could have.

EXHIBITION SHORTCOMINGS.

It required considerable moral courage on the part of Controller Foster to get up at the directors' luncheon at the Exhibition on Saturday and say what he did. The criticism which followed was directed chiefly at the controller and not at what he said. His apoke by request, and on an occasion when the views of the city council were desired, and their assistance being requested for the further support and development of the Exhibition. Sir Geo. Reid very graciously complimented the Exhibition, and spoke highly of its positive success and the high standard it has attained. But he was not in a position to contrast it in detail with the results of previous years. It does not appear from what Controller Foster said that he minimizes the excellence of the Exhibition as a whole, or that he wishes to curtail its activities in any way. But his undoubtedly wishes, as we all wish, that the whole revenue of the Exhibition be laid out to the best purpose and that no department of the Exhibition be neglected.

In this connection, Controller Foster gave expression to what many people have been saying privately, but nobody appeared to have the courage to say publicly. It was right and proper that nothing should be said to embarrass the management, or detract from the interest of the Exhibition during its course, but now that it is over, and there is a year to prepare for the next, it will be well if all the complaints that have been gathering force for the last two or three years are investigated and the grounds for them, or the lack of grounds, determined. The chief criticism made by Controller Foster was to the effect that the Exhibition was losing its agricultural character, and while first-class as a manufacturers' show and as an amusement ground, the interests of the farmers were not being considered so much as formerly. Many excuses were legitimately made this year for the absence of the farmer, and the weather had much to do with it. But if the farmer was idle at home, it ought to be the easier to attract him to the Exhibition.

It is absurd to suppose that an affair of such magnitude as the Canadian National Exhibition could be run without friction. There is friction, more or less, in almost everything human. But there ought to be some attempt to remove friction which persists, and which apparently does injury to the Exhibition. No doubt Controller Foster knew what he was talking about in making his remarks, and we trust that where any grievance exists it will be brought to light and dealt with. The directors have always shown themselves anxious to remedy and adjust difficulties when they know about them. It is charged that most of the difficulties are waylaid between the committees and the executive. If this be the case, all the questions at issue should be brought up by the committees and laid before the directors in person. President Keefe has been a distinct success, and has maintained the traditions so worthily established by W. K. Munro. We feel sure that the whole matter is safe with him, not only in the interests of the Exhibition, but in the interests of Toronto and of the whole Canadian people.

It is, perhaps, too frequently forgotten that the Exhibition is not now a leading Toronto amusement attraction, but is intended to represent the resources of the Dominion to the crowds of visitors from all parts of the world. The manufacturers, as Mr. Foster pointed out, have made their part of the show a great success. The farmers, however, are not keeping up with the rest of the show. The live stock this year was below standard. And there was a good deal of half-suppressed complaint in and about the cattle sheds. The poultry show was nothing like as good as it was three or four years ago. Definite complaints were made in this department and when the executive heard them, they were attended to, but the harm had been done. The dog show was not as good as usual. The honey was a comparative failure as contrasted with previous Exhibitions. The fruit, as Mr. Foster said, did nothing like justice to our orchard resources. Of course, it will be said that the fruit and honey show in the fall takes away from the interest of the earlier show, but this is to admit the whole charge. The fall show is only seen by local visitors, and the Canadian National ought to have a fine show relatively of the earlier fruits. It means that more attention should be given to this department.

The weather may be taken as an excuse for the fact that the attendance this year did not reach a million. But there are other reasons. Manager Fleming of the street railway touched upon one of them. The attendance will not be greatly increased until the transportation facilities are greatly improved. Of course, it is a triumph of skill and economy to pack 100,000 people away in the minimum number of cars, but after a few experiences the people cease to desire to exemplify such skill and economy.

And there must be an appeal to new masses of people who do not now attend the Exhibition. There are thousands of people in Toronto who do not go to the Exhibition, either because there is nothing there to interest them, or because they do not know what is there to be seen. It is not merely grand stand performances and vaudeville exhibitions which will draw these people from their homes. There is no reason why there should not be 150,000 people a day at the Exhibition next year.

The press has more to do with the success of the Exhibition than any other agency, and the press will continue to do what it can to assist. But when honest criticism such as Mr. Foster offered is made, or such as may be found in the press from time to time, is put aside and accounted for by the management as due to over-enthusiasm, it is time for the executive to take the matter up. Whitewashing will not improve the exhibits nor attract the crowd. The only question is whether Controller Foster's criticism is just.

NOT WEALTH, BUT WELFARE.

Governor Johnson of California, Colonel Roosevelt's running-mate on the national Progressive ticket, declares that the true end of government is not to increase the wealth of the nation but to promote the welfare of the people. The two old parties in the United States, he says, are continually contending about this or that principle of political economy, but their contentions are vain because political economy deals only with the wealth of the nation and does not concern itself in the slightest with the happiness of the individuals who make up that nation. The distinction between "wealth and welfare" may not at first appear to us, accustomed as we are to pronounce any man "well off" who has a certain amount of property irrespective of his physical health, his private morals, his domestic affairs or any other factor which contributes to make his existence as a whole either happy or miserable. In the case of communities we are even more given to reckoning their position in the world by the amount of their commerce and the state of their finances.

The political economist may demonstrate the advantages of free trade to a country, he may oppose any increase in the volume of its currency, he may deprecate laws to regulate child labor, the minimum wage, the day of rest, compensation for the injured workman, as taxes upon thrift, but the people, by experiment and observation, are learning that their condition is improved by disregarding many of his precepts.

That acquiring wealth may harm instead of benefiting a community is startlingly shown by the fate of more than one town grown suddenly rich. One such town we have in mind was a pleasant village in the neighboring State of Ohio, clustered about a denominational college which attracted students from all parts of the country. One day a prospector sunk a well and struck oil not far from the college campus; there was the usual rush, boom and excitement, and a few individual land owners made some money. Two years later the oil was gone and with it the oil man, but the town could not resume its old life because the college had closed its doors. The cost of living during the boom-time had made it impossible for the students or even the faculty to remain.

Had this deposit of oil been the property of the state, and had it been wisely administered by the municipality under the direction of the state it would have lasted indefinitely, furnishing fuel and light to the citizens at a trifling cost. The town would have developed according to its natural bent, the college would have prospered, and the community would have permanently benefited. There would have been less immediate wealth for a few people but more welfare for the entire community.

SYNDICALISM IN BRITAIN.

By what is reported to be a decisive majority the British Trades Union Congress has pronounced against syndicalism, the new labor doctrine that originally came from France. The name, derived from syndicat, the French equivalent for trade union, however connotes a principle in sharp conflict with the aims and objects of British trades unionists who have steadily pursued a policy making for greater parliamentary influence. But the syndicalist desires to achieve industrial solidarity and by means of the general strike and all other methods that may prove effective in the struggle to secure that the workers themselves shall control the conditions of their own work. In the words of a recently published pamphlet, "the product which is now the property of the capitalist would become under syndicalism the property of the community."

Evidently the British labor leaders have satisfied themselves that nothing of real benefit can be gained from the device of a general strike, which could

Ten Per Cent. Clause Dead for Years is Declaration of Sir Thomas Shaughnessy.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 8.—Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, arrived in his annual inspection tour of the system. He is accompanied by three directors of the company—R. B. Angus, Sir Edmund Osler and W. D. Matthews, and by Ferdinand F. Begg, a London financier, now in Montreal, but formerly well-known in Winnipeg, and R. Osler, of Osler and Nanton.

Interviewed later, Sir Thomas made a statement of the Canadian Pacific policy with regard to the new stock issue, the issue of stock below the market quotations, freight rates jurisdiction and other matters of much interest to the railway.

Of the proposed new stock issue he intimated that it was made necessary by the increasing scope of the company's undertakings, and was in no way affected by the fact that large dividends have been paid. These, he said, were in a great extent, revenues from land sales, quite apart from the earnings of the railway.

The "ten per cent. clause," he declared, was a dead letter, saying that for years the company had earned more than ten per cent. on its capital investment.

THE MAINE ELECTION.

The people of Maine vote today for governor, state officers, members of the legislature and representatives in congress. The state is strongly Republican, but surprised the country by going Democratic at the September election in the presidential year of 1890.

In 1884, with her favorite son, James G. Blaine, as the Republican nominee for president, Maine abandoned the Democrats and remained consistently Republican until 1910. At present the Democrats control the legislature and the state government, while the U. S. senators and two of the four congressmen are Democrats.

In the present contest, Governor Plaisted, Democrat, is a candidate for re-election. The Republican organization of the state is friendly to President Taft, but the rank and file of the party are Roosevelt men, and Maine supported Roosevelt at the national convention.

The understanding seems to be that the regular organization is to be helped out by the Roosevelt supporters in today's contest, and that the electoral vote of the state will go for the Progressive ticket. The situation is, however, complicated by a bitter fight on the liquor issue, the Democrats favoring local option for cities, and the Republicans being pledged to straight prohibition.

Plaisted's re-election would be hailed as an augury of Democratic success in the country next November; his defeat would check the boasting, but by no means destroy the confidence of the Wilson supporters. Maine is naturally a Republican state, favors a high tariff and the immediate repeal of the Reciprocity Act.

Colonel Roosevelt would probably get the electoral vote of the state, even were the Democrats to carry today's election; none the less, a Democratic victory will greatly help the cause of Wilson with the floating vote always eager to ride upon the tidal wave of coming victory.

NEW YORK STATE GOVERNOR.

In the nomination of Oscar Straus for governor, the Progressive Convention has established a high standard for the Democrats and Republicans to meet.

Mr. Straus is a man who fully measures up to the governorship. He is honest, he is scholarly, he is experienced in public affairs and he has exceptional administrative ability. Regardless of party differences, he would unquestionably discharge the duties of his office in the interest of the whole people.

We have never quite understood what a man of his sense and ability was doing in the third-term gallery. He ought to be supporting Governor Wilson. Nevertheless, the fact remains that New York Progressives have named for governor the one man in their party who is best qualified to be governor.

Will the Democrats and Republicans do as well? It that proves to be the case, the Progressive Convention will have rendered to New York a greater public service than reasonably have been expected of it.—New York World.

CROP PROSPECTS AGAIN BRIGHTEN

Fields Given Good Drying Out, and Harvesting Should Go on With a Rush.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 8.—(Special.)—The prospects for harvesting this week seem to be excellent. There has been local storms, one of which hit Manitoba on Saturday night but on Sunday the weather proved to be a fine drying character and helped along the crop.

Flax will be a late feature in the harvest in Manitoba, but, given dry weather, the grain crop will be good. Saskatchewan also reports quick drying after the rains and the binders ready for business and harvest hands are ready and crops heavy.

Alberta has had two fine drying days and high hopes of practically ending the harvest this week. The storms so far all over have caused a great deal of damage to the crops and temperatures tonight the best is anticipated this week over the three provinces.

THINGS USEFUL FOR ALL READERS

Some Say it is Worth Its Weight in Gold, and All Are More Than Pleased With it.

What is it? What do you suppose it is? There are many useful things, but not many of them are worth their weight in gold.

This is not intended to be a "guessing contest," so you are to be given the answer at once.

The one thing known to be useful in every family is the new kind of Bible which The World is presenting to its readers on the popular plan explained in the certificate printed elsewhere in this issue.

The reason for calling it a "new kind" is because it is entirely different from others in that something like six hundred "eye-teaching" pictures adorn its pages. These pictures have been made alone for this great work. They cost more than $50,000, and the publishers brought together the world's greatest artists for the purpose. Each picture brings out a point in the particular verse illustrated and makes it plain to the reader.

This explains why it is so useful. Some Bibles are said to be "illustrated" in that they contain only a few meaningless pictures. But the illustrations in The World's Bible are printed in with the type and accompany the subject illustrated. In addition to these text illustrations there are numerous full-page color plates from the world-famous Tissot collection, making this in all a gallery of art of the rarest educational value to everybody.

A reader who got it the other day says it is worth its weight in gold. Praises come from all sources and everybody who sees it is pleased with it. You can have it if you clip today's certificate and follow the directions explained therein.

WAS SHOT BY MASKED MAN

Harold Wallace, Youth of Niagara Falls, N.Y., Victim of Mysterious Assault.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Sept. 8.—(Special.)—Held up and shot thru the neck by a masked man as he walked thru the park on the American side late last night with Jenny McLaughlin, a waitress in a local hotel, Harold Wallace, aged 18, is in the hospital today. The police on both sides are searching for the assailants.

When the young couple passed a clump of bushes, two men with handkerchiefs over their faces and masks, ordered them to hold up their hands. Young Wallace struck one masked man square in the face in spite of two revolvers pointed at him. The second hold-up man fired and Wallace dropped to the ground with a bullet in his neck. Both assailants escaped.

MAN IS A MAN NOT AN ANIMAL

Rev. Andrew Robertson Says All Temptation and Environment Do Not Alter Man's Conscience.

"A certain newspaper in the Dominion declares that it is of no use trying to regulate or put down the red light district and its attendant evils. Man is such a creature and until man is changed it is a waste of time attempting to prohibit. Man is not a beast, he is a man and until man is changed it is a waste of time attempting to prohibit. Every intelligent person knows that such is not the case." This spoke Rev. Andrew Robertson, D.D., in his sermon at St. James' Square Presbyterian Church last night on "A Man is a Man." "A man is a man and not an animal," declared the preacher. "A man is a man in spirit and remains a man in spite of all temptation and environment."

"And so it is written, the first man Adam was made a living soul; the last man, Adam, was made a quickening spirit." "Man is a man and not a mere animal, and possesses a conscience which does not belong to any other creature of flesh and blood," said the preacher. "For one there is simply the present, but for the man there is eternity."

"Some think that man is simply a part of the machine of industry and that it is simply his part to live such a life. In spite of conditions a man may remain upright and strong. A man is master of himself. Christ died to set men free."

The Nursery

Whooping Cough

From the board of health reports for the past month, it is evident that there are many cases of whooping cough in the city. Whether it is more prevalent now than is usual, I do not know, but it is just as wise for the young mother to know something of the symptoms of the disease. It is not well to worry over every gurgle and gasp your baby gives, else you will be in no condition to nurse if he should become ill; but every mother should take a common sense view of the everyday problems that confront babies.

For a week or ten days whooping cough runs like an ordinary cold on the chest. Then gradually the coughing grows more severe and vomiting may follow. After a severe coughing fit the breath is caught with a peculiar noise known as the "whoop."

This disease is generally so contagious as some of the other infections, but it is quite as dangerous once it is acquired. It cannot be carried by a third person, but it may be contracted in the open air. Keep your children well away from whooping cough victims, especially if there is a baby in the family, for it is most fatal among children under one year of age.

A child suffering from this disease should be kept away from other children for two months, or even longer if the cough continues. When a child shows the first symptoms of any serious illness, put him to bed immediately and dilute the food to one-half the usual strength. Take his temperature, and if the bowels are constipated give a teaspoonful of castor oil, but no other medicine except with the consent of a doctor. Keep other children from contact with the patient. As soon as possible teach your baby to show you his tongue and to gargle his throat. This saves a lot of trouble when illness comes.

Eliza Murray.

Home Helps

Above your sinks have screw hooks, on which hang small articles used often. It will save many steps.

For darning stockings, use crocheted cotton. It is preferable to darning cotton, as it does not harden when washed.

If paint spots stick to window panes do not use a knife to loosen them. A cloth wet in hot vinegar will clean them perfectly.

A white porcelain bath tub that has grown brown may be most perfectly cleaned by the use of spirits of turpentine applied with a flannel cloth.

The mica windows of coal stoves can easily be cleaned with a soft cloth dipped in vinegar and water. This should be done when putting the stove up.

Good Cleaner

When cleaning delicate fabrics, faces, ribbons or plumes use a mixture of flour and gascol. Mix this as you would flour and water. Dip the articles in and scrub them thoroughly. Hang in the air, without shaking, until dry. Then shake them gently. All the dirt will come out with the flour. This preparation will clean the most delicate materials of the palest colors.

At the Theatres

Mme Nazimova at the Princess Theatre

Mme. Nazimova, the Russian actress, will be too star at the Princess Theatre this week, opening tonight. Mme. Nazimova's play this season is "The Marionettes," a witty comedy, in which she made her first appearance in New York last winter and scored a big hit. Later she visited Chicago, Boston and several other cities, and everywhere the play was greeted with enthusiastic approval. Her scenes as Lady Francis and Mme. Nazimova impersonating her husband, resorts to a marionette scheme that is very amusing in the way it works out. In the first act she is a plain, awkward, little country mouse. In the next act, supposed to be five weeks later, she has blossomed forth into a situation, alluring charmer, courted by the men and envied by the women of the most fashionable set in Paris. Mme. Nazimova is delightful in both phases of the character. In her supporting company there will be, with her from New York yesterday, Mrs. Lewis, Edward Fielding, Frank Lewis, Frank Goldsmith, A. Romaine and Sybil Matland. There will be the usual matinee on Wednesday and Saturday nights.

"Over Night" at the Alexandra

The playgoers of this city are due for a real comedy treat in the form of the New York and Boston success, "Over Night" which comes to the Alexandra Theatre, commencing tonight. One of the best advertisements for the comedy is that it is absolutely free from coarseness and leaves a sweet memory behind it. That is why "Over Night" is so entirely different from the usual comedies of the present day. It is a comedy without being suggestive; its cleanliness is its greatest asset. It is a proof positive that authors do not have to descend to the lower strata of decency to create laughter. The laughable matter in "Over Night" is very much in the majority. In fact, it is as advertised, "a long, lingering laugh." Then the laughs come from the natural, every-day things that are so straining to the point of breaking, the entire comedy is heavily laden with merriment of the simplest kind. It tells the story of two college chums on their honeymoon with brides who had never before discovered a runaway match. The explanations seem to be useless at the time being, and the aggressive blunders coming thick and fast cause no anxiety of merriment. The fact is that no one can make-up can fail to laugh at the incessant nonsense of "Over Night." The usual matinee will be given on Thursday and Saturday.

"The Red Rose"

"The Red Rose," a musical production, in which the talented prima donna, Zoe Barnett, is starring, comes to the Princess Theatre next week under the personal direction of John C. Fisher. Harry B. Smith and Robert B. Smith, with music by Robert Hood Bowers, have written a book of real humor and wit. The story is a mix-up of the most interesting kind. The play is a comedy of the most interesting kind. The play is a comedy of the most interesting kind. The play is a comedy of the most interesting kind.

The Arena Musical Festival is still four weeks away.

The Crisp, Tasty Toast

Food science has taught us that there is much body-building nutriment in the whole wheat grain which we do not get in white flour. The only question is how to make the whole wheat grain digestible. That problem has been solved in the making of the shredded whole wheat wafer.

It is the whole wheat, steam-cooked shredded, compressed into a wafer, and baked—the maximum of nutriment in smallest bulk. Many people prefer it to ordinary bread toast. Heated in the oven to restore its crispness it is delicious for luncheon, or for any meal, with butter, potted cheese or marmalade.

Spanish Carrots

Stew small carrots until tender, with enough water left on to cover or enough for a gravy. To one quart of carrots, add five tablespoons good red catsup (tomato), one even teaspoonful chili powder, such as is used for chili con carne; and tannin; piece of butter (concentrated) and about a teaspoonful of sugar; then thicken a little with moistened flour. The gravy should be a bright red.

"The Bachelor's Baby"

Etienne Girardot of "Charley's Aunt" fame will be seen at the Grand next week in Francis Wilson's big comedy success, "The Bachelor's Baby."

Ray Cox at Shea's Today

Heading the bill this week is one of Toronto's greatest favorites, Ray Cox and the clever comedienne will find a warm welcome. Their first appearance here since making a great success in musical comedy and touring the west in vaudeville in the act she is now offering.

"The Midnight Maidens"

Don't bother about your glad rags. Just get your "old" and "like" down to the Gayety Theatre. "The Midnight Maidens" appear in "The Honeymoon" general "jollification." They are about to start on a tour thru Australia, and they want all their friends to be at the popular theatre, where they always have a good show. "The Midnight Maidens" are the real "top-notchers" of this year, and they are anxious to prove it.

Harry Welsh at the Star

Harry Welsh, the funny little fellow, with the funny slide, "Monte Carlo Orie" always with him. This week is a new face on the Empire Circuit. Mr. Welsh is a comical man in burlesque. He has a unique style in comedy and always keeps the pace swift. His slide is a feature that never fails to get a roar of laughter.

Scarboro Beach Open This Week

Owing to the favorable change in the weather, the management of Scarboro Beach has decided to keep the park open another week. The appreciation of the patronage accorded the resort this summer, notwithstanding the inclement weather, the gates will be thrown open and the park admitted free of charge. This invitation will no doubt be appreciated and taken advantage of by the public, who is the first time in the history of the park that its gates have been thrown open without charge. All the amusements will be in operation, and for the lovers of good music, Conductor Robert of the Mississauga Horse Band rendered each evening, included in which will be many numbers featured by the Scots Guards' Band. As there will be no open-air vaudeville performance, an opportunity will be afforded to listen to a full program of this splendid band, which has won an enviable reputation as one of the best musical organizations of its kind in Canada.

WINDSOR TABLE SALT

HE SAID—"Few of us realize how much salt we eat. The fact is that we eat salt in meats and vegetables—in bread, cake and pastry—soups and sauces—and in cheese and butter. It is the most important of salts in science and art."

SHE SAID—"Well, we are using WINDSOR SALT and no one could make me believe there was any better salt in the whole world than my old steady."

FALL ACTIVITY MOST APPARENT BUILDERS BUSY IN MANY SECTIONS

—House Accommodation Still Very Scarce—Real Estate Market.

With the Exhibition over, an attraction that made it rather hard for real estate men to make appointments or keep prospects interested, agents are now ready for a big fall business.

For the last three weeks there has been a brisk business in vacant building land on accounts of fall builders, especially has business been good down in the east end where some good tracts have been made possible for building operations by reason of activity on the part of the city in getting in improvements.

Mining Stocks Unchanged at Week End--Commercial Reports

NO RETURN IN WHEAT PIT IS CARRIED FURTHER

Another Break in Chicago Pit Sends Prices Down to New Low Level for the Year--Corn and Oats Firm.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Wheat today barely escaped going into the '90s. December delivery sold as low as 90c to 90½c, the third day in succession that the low price record for the season has been broken. The market gave way beneath the shadow of the on-coming crop, and closed weak ¼c to ½c under last night's. Corn finished ¼c to ½c up, but unchanged to ¼c higher and provisions varying from 12½c decline to 7½c advance.

There was considerable speculative selling pressure on wheat in the last half hour, a condition attributed mainly to liberal receipts shipped, where a falling off had been expected. It was also said that heavy shipments were on the way here from Southern Minnesota and South Dakota. Arrivals at Minneapolis and Duluth were nearly double those of a week ago, and another big run was expected for Monday with Winnipeg prices to receive as high as a thousand carloads.

Covering by shorts here and considerable undating of spreads between Chicago and other markets made a firmer tone in wheat early, but the advance was followed by depression later. Dry weather southwest brought good support to the bull side of corn. Shipping sales and lake charters offset the gains. Cash grades were in good demand. Butter markets were quiet.

Cash concerns were good buyers of oats futures, but brighter weather held prices in check. Unloading of European pork by a big individual trader disturbed the provision pit.

MONTEAL GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

MONTEAL, Sept. 7.—There was an increased demand from foreign buyers for new crop Manitoba spring wheat, but as cables were weaker at a further decline of ¼d to ½d per quarter, the prices bid in most cases were out of line and little business was done. The demand for oats is still good and as the price bid show exporters good profits considerable store shows an increase of 10,000 bushels, as compared with last week, but this is accounted for by the fact that a lot of American oats are coming forward here for export account. The local market is strong with a good demand for car lots. Flour is steady, with a fair demand for small lots. Milled active and firm.

The demand for butter is good and the tone strong. Receipts for week were 15,000 packages, as against 14,919 a year ago. Cheese is quiet, but firm. Receipts for the week were 7,432 boxes, against 8,638 a year ago. Eggs active. Receipts for the week, 475 cases, against 479 a year ago.
