SIX BLIGHTIES TO ONE KILLED

A St. John soldier writing from France on June 15 says: "I saw Ken Christie, he is waiting orders to proceed to Canada and expects to go to the United States to help in training American recruits. A large number of N. C. O.'s are going back. There are eleven from one unit alone. Douglas Holman is in England and takes his leave on leave when I was round last night. I just missed Charlie Sullivan a couple of nights ago. He is in the N. S. Highlanders. They are in a bad spot and I wish him luck. The best of it is that there are roughly about seven blighties for every man killed. So you have six out of seven to live.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTES OF NEW BRUNSWICK ARE HELPING IN CRISIS

In response to a circular sent out by the supervisor of the department of education to the nature of a lecture or demonstration to be addressed by a departmental delegate this summer and fall, forty-four societies have asked for canning demonstrations, two for home nursing, one for a desert and supper dish, one for table setting and serving; thirty-three institutes have asked for lectures on "Women's Responsibilities of Today," twenty-three for lectures on "Institute Work," and fourteen for an illustrated travel talk making a total of 118 meetings. There are at the present time ninety-two institutes in the province, but other societies, such as the Housewives' League, Women's Canadian Club, and Daughters of the Empire, have asked the department to send to them a canning demonstrator, which the department has been glad to do. Thus the reason for the extra number of meetings.

PROHIBITION IN ALBERTA

Edmonton, July 10.—Prohibition under the amended act is in full force in Alberta. The new amendments to the liquor act were scheduled to become effective July 1, but three days of grace were given the dealers and mail order business in which they might close up business. The new regulations are now effective in force. It is not permissible for any person in Alberta to keep liquor in excess of one quart of spirits and two gallons of malt. This automatically rules out everything in the way of saloons and commission firms, and the several establishments in the city that were doing business under the former system have closed their doors accordingly.

HUGE FLYING CORPS PROVIDED IN DRAFT OF TWO BILLS

Washington, D.C., July 10.—Secretary of War Baker has transmitted to Congress the draft of two bills providing for a huge flying corps. The legislation provides for 22,000 airplanes and full equipment of machine guns, bombs, etc. The cost of the machines is estimated at $38,140,000. One item provides 831,000,000 for training stations. All told the bills provide for 850 training squadrons.

EACH HEN THREE DOLLARS

Wellington, July 10.—As a proof that egg farming is a profitable industry it is cited that Garfield Yerex, of East Lake, Prince Edward county, from a flock of fifty hens, has sold 850 dozen eggs since January 1, 1917, in addition to what were required for home use. This is an average for the six months of a hen.

Senate Widens Ban on Whisky

Not Only Prohibits Manufacture, but Votes for Sizing of All in Bond

Final Lineup is 45 to 37

War Tax Bill Recommended to Find New Revenue—Wine and Beer Undisturbed—The Effect of the Legislation

Washington, July 10.—The foes of whisky won their fight in the United States senate today when Section 12 of the food administration bill was amended so as to prohibit further manufacture of distilled spirits during the war, while the president was directed to take over all stocks of whisky, rum, gin and brandy in bond, but stipulates that owners of the stocks taken over be paid the actual cost of them, plus 10 per cent. All these stocks are valued at approximately 200,000,000 gallons of whisky in bond. If the government takes this over it will entail an outlay of 75 cents a gallon, which is approximately the cost price, or 187,500,000, besides the 10 per cent. profit allowed, which would add $18,750,000, an aggregate of 206,250,000. In addition, the government would lose the war tax levied in the war revenue bill, $220 a gallon and the existing tax, $10 per cent. The aggregate effect, therefore, to the government would be a loss of $220,000,000 in revenue and an outlay in buying the bonded stocks of $206,250,000. The section as adopted cannot affect the revenue of whisky from bond before the food bill becomes a law. By paying the tax upon it, owners of the stocks now in bond may have the entire reserve supply for the country's use after the new law becomes operative. So the nation's war drinking may be beer, wine and whiskey, as usual; only no more whiskey is to be made and the price is finally disclosed. The vote that knocked out whisky came upon an amendment by Senator Bacon, which provided that the president be authorized to take over all stocks in bond for the period of the war, with provision for the compensation by paying the cost to the owner, plus 10 per cent. Senator Smoot had succeeded early in the day in getting the amended act passed by a vote of 69 to 19, but later on it was reconsidered, then put back again as an amendment to the food bill. The amended act, however, was passed by a vote of 45 to 37, showing an unanimous vote against permitting any whisky coming from bond after the passage of the act.

KILLS OLD MAN FOR $100

Victim, Dying, Accuses His Son's Boy Companion

New York, July 10.—Samuel Schneiderman, sixty years old, was pressing a pair of trousers in his little shop on the first floor, 185 Second street, when a young man walked in and began to talk with him. A few moments later Schneiderman started from the room, the visitor spoke to him and the old man turned to be shot through the chest. He was struck in the heart and received another bullet in the neck. The two grappled, and the assailant was broken. Then he picked up a knife and stabbed Schneiderman, making $100 in cash and the old man's watch and chain the assailant escaped through a window.

THE HOME GUARD

(American Lumberman)

In this war the persons who stay at home will constitute the "home guard" not because there is likelihood of invasion that will necessitate their shoddering rifles, but because they constitute the backbone of the nation's strength and require to perform its part in the war at home.

Our soldiers will fight in the trenches; our "home guard" will raise their food, make the clothing and pay the bills. The hazard in the one case is greater than in the other, but the need of the one is not greater than the need of the other.

As the soldiers in the fighting branch of the army must be organized and disciplined, so the producing part of the army must be organized and disciplined. Those who stay at home must be prepared to "obey orders" and under-stand with win the tasks allotted to them; and ultimate victory is as likely to be determined by the one branch of the army as by the other.

Every community that has not put itself "on a war basis" should do so at once, for the time is coming when communities that neglect to "do their bit" will be pointed at by the finger of scorn exactly as the individual "slacker" is scorned today. The community must be a unit in the programme of preparation and defense.

If leadership is required in the army proper, it is equally important in the "home guard." Leadership always has been needed in the community to enable it to perform its normal functions; leadership is indispensable to the performance of the community's duty in support of the nation in the war. There can be no leadership, no organization, without submission to authority, without obedience to orders.

The army has its military leaders; the community should have its laymen leaders. But if it does not have its laymen leaders, if it does not organize and "do its bit," something akin to military leadership may become necessary even in the "home guard." The community that does its bit and does it bravely does it doubly and wins the glory that is accorded the volunteer.

Will this community be a volunteer? Or will it make itself subject to the draft? Its attitude, its conduct, will be determined by the attitude of its citizens. If they are volunteers who come at the first call, their community will be among the first to respond to the needs of the nation; if they are slackers, waiting for the draft, so their community will be. Everybody knows "where the honor lies."

Penalty For Obstruction

New York, July 9.—Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman, anarchists, were found guilty of conspiracy to obstruct operations of the selective draft law by a jury in the federal court here today. Judge Mayer imposed the maximum penalty of two years in the federal prison and a fine of $10,000 upon each of the prisoners.

Battering at French Line

London, July 9.—Evidently the German high command has decided that France is the weakest link in the allied chain, and is determined to concentrate the most pressure on General Foch's army. The British have been steadily free from enemy attacks recently, and it appears that the Germans have about given up hope of making any very remarkable gains against the British, who are just now in splendid condition and ready for any offensive the Kaiser's chiefs may launch. At the same time the Germans have been hitting sharply on the French front, and today's news is no exception. So far, the Teuton attacks have been fruitless, but the crown prince is stubbornly hammering away.

Early yesterday morning the Germans made four separate and simultaneous attacks launched at many points along the Aisne. At several places the French had to give ground before the onrush of the enemy masses, but generally they maintained their positions.

Around Froimont farm the Germans pierced the French first line and held their gain for several hours until the battle turned in France's favor. The net result of the enemy's attack is practically nil. He gained nothing, and on the other hand suffered terrible losses.

Amsterdam, July 9.—The Austrian cabinet, the Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin says it learns, has decided to resign. A new ministry, it added, already is in course of formation.

The present Austrian cabinet, under the premiership of Dr. Von Zeydler, has been in office but two weeks, having been formed on June 24. It succeeded the cabinet of Count Ciam-Martinio, which had a stormy career of but six months.

Amsterdam, July 9.—The main committee of the Reichstag today continued its confidential discussion of internal and external political affairs. Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, the imperial chancellor, the secretaries of state and many members of the Bundestag attended the meeting.

Copenhagen, July 9.—A sharply censored Berlin despatch says that the emperor at yesterday's audience expressed confidence in the imperial chancellor and approved Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg's course in opposing the Reichstag demand to commit Germany to peace without annexations or indemnities.

The Berlin Tageblatt says that the all-day conferences of the Reichstag middle parties and moderate Socialists brought the parties nearer to an agreement regarding the questions of peace terms and internal reforms.

Grand Headquarters of the French Army in France, July 8.—(By the Associated Press)—The most daring air raid yet carried out against the enemy was guided only by the moon and stars and the compass, as the voyage was made in the darkest hours of the night, the destination being reached exactly according to plans. Sergt. Gallois narrated his story in the simplest manner. He said:

"I was in the cockpit of the plane, which was being piloted by a French aviator, when we were discovered by the German front line twice, flew over many Rhenish cities and reached home safely."

Catarrahal Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrahal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts through the blood on the mucous surface of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.

"FINISH THE WAR FIRST"

"Finish the war first. Then we will all help to clean house."

These are the words of a St. John soldier at the front, who knows how sorely the Canadian divisions are in need of fresh drafts, to keep them up to anything like fighting strength.

Partisan politics does not cut any figure with the men at the front. They are not caring whether a Conservative or a Liberal of a National government sends the needed help. They are facing the stark realities. They are doing their part and they know that unless the thinning ranks are filled there will eventually be no Canadian army at the front. It was not for this they enlisted. We pledged ourselves as we cheered their departure from the shores of Canada that we would do our part.

We have failed to do our part. Merely to go back again without proper rest because there were not enough in reserve to relieve them. And this after days of hellish torture, enduring in the sodden fields and flooded trenches the furious fire of the German guns, and the sleepless watch to prevent surprise attacks. It is an old story and a shameful one. There was perhaps some shadow of excuse in the earliest stages of the war, but we have been at it for nearly three years. The Canadian who does not desire the needed reinforcements to be sent as quickly as possible is a betrayer of the trust of the living and the dead.

"Then we will all help to clean house."

But there must first be a house to clean, and the house is still in danger. There must be no shirking of the duty which demands that relief be sent, not scantily, but in full measure, to the men on the firing line—Canada's first line of defence, which is in France and Flanders. Else, how shall we look the maimed survivors in the face?

Why is it that after three years there are still those in Canada who do not know where our first line of defence is? What pains has the government taken to impress that thought upon every mind in every province of the Dominion, as it is now being done in every state of the American Union? Addressing the International Convention of Rotary Clubs, while presenting an American flag from the city of Augusta, Georgia, the Rev. Ashby Jones last month thrilled the vast assemblage when he said:

"But, after all, each generation must choose its own flag, giving its own definition to its national life. Is that our flag, and its definition of America our America? When Belgium was raped and the fertile fields of France drenched in blood; when Serbia was left a desert of dust and ashes, and when the hitherto free highway of the seas was soiled with the blood-stains of women and children, it became inevitable that we must either fight or change our flag. And strange, strange spectacle in this American land of ours there were blind ones who could not see the light of those stars, and deaf ones who could not hear the voice of human wrongs, and they cried:—'Wait until America is invaded, then our sons will leap to the defence of our flag and our country.' Oh ye of little faith, did you not understand when Prussian legions first crossed the Belgian border, that America was invaded? For then it was that autocracy struck its first blow at democracy. And ever since that day the place to defend America has been upon the soil of Belgium and France. If we had but one flag, rather than place it upon the encircled dome of the Capitol at Washington, I would place it in the hands of the gallant Pershing, to keep knightly company with the Union Jack and the Lilies of France; for, where human liberty is at stake, there fights the guardian spirit of America."

In these thrilling words there is a challenge to all Canada, and if any province or any section of the community be so misguided as not to be able to appreciate its force, the Dominion as a whole must respond, and bear its part in that battle-front where today the invasion of Canada, of America, of democracy the world over, is being met by the men of France and Belgium, of the British Empire, and now of the United States.

"Finish the war"—let no thought of partisan advantage obscure the people's view until that has been accomplished.

THE WAR SITUATION

The real centre of interest today is not on the French front, where the Germans for some days have been launching furious attacks, but in Berlin, where the Reichstag threatens to get out of hand and declare for a peace without annexations or indemnities, and for such internal reforms as would mean an approach to democratic methods. It is intimated once more that Austria is heartily sick of the war, and is disposed to find a way out, and such an attitude on her part would necessarily have a great influence upon German policy at the present time, since Germany cannot afford to attempt the role of dictator as in the earlier stages of the war.

It is of course regarded as good policy to inaugurate a vigorous offensive against the French, to convey to the Reichstag and the country the impression that all goes well with the armies in the field; and this is the more necessary because of the growing knowledge that the submarine campaign is not doing its work to anything like the extent hoped for and promised. In spite of every effort of the Kaiser and his coterie, however, the people of Germany are apparently coming to the belief that they are fighting for a lost cause. Once that belief becomes fixed in their minds, the Kaiser's house of cards will begin to tumble down. Nothing like a sudden collapse is anticipated, since the insistence of the Allies upon the terms of peace already outlined by them will afford the war party in Germany further ground for appeals to save the fatherland, and thus prolong the struggle.

Further success by the Russians, and the assertion of an American officer who has toured the Russian front, that the army will continue to fight with vigor, serve to strengthen the feeling that hereafter the eastern front will contribute more and more news of an encouraging nature. The Russian democracy appears to be standing the test more satisfactorily than was anticipated a few weeks ago. The lack of news from the Italian and Macedonian fronts is rather surprising, and can only be taken as an indication that the armies of the Allies are not yet able to conduct a vigorous and sustained offensive. The successful bombing of the German works at Essen suggests much more ambitious air raids in the future, and much is to be hoped from this species of warfare during the next year.

WHERE THE FAULT LIES

Sir Sam Hughes re-asserted in parliament yesterday that the falling off in recruiting in 1916 was due to interference by Sir Robert Borden and Sir Thomas White, who were being urged by financial and industrial interests to "let up." Sir Robert and Sir Thomas had denied this, but Sir Sam re-affirms the charge. As a matter of fact, those who were members of the military and recruitment committees, and were doing their best to get men to enlist, know perfectly well that orders to different times to cease recruiting upset their plans and made it almost impossible to revive the enthusiasm previously aroused. With regard to the dispute at Ottawa, some will believe Sir Robert Borden and Sir Thomas White, and some will believe Sir Sam; but the great mass of the people will regard it as a shameful thing that the direction of Canada's affairs in relation to the war should have been in the hands of men who were all the time quarrelling, and who never spoke one another with open falsehood. It is quite clear that Canada's half million men would long ago have been recruited but for the Nationalist influence, the influence of "big business" and the utter incompetence of the government. Let not this be forgotten in the present crisis, which has been brought about by the same lack of real leadership at Ottawa.

The Financial Post of Canada says: "Sir Robert Borden has not told enough. He has not given out even a reasonable amount of important information. If parliament, and the people of Canada, knew the real seriousness of the situation, there would be no opposition to the fullest preparations. They would back up the premier in a complete re-organization of his cabinet; taking in the ablest executives in Canada—regardless of party or precedent—and in the up of the most capable leaders in the important walks of life: Agriculture, Labor, Finance, Manufacturing, to advise and assist him in taking care of the present emergency; and to plan for the rehabilitation of the country after the war."

Sir Sam Hughes Repeats Charges

Ottawa, July 9.—At a preliminary to today's continued discussion in the committee stage of the details of the military service bill, the commons had another illuminating instalment of the mutual recriminations between General Sir Sam Hughes, the prime minister and the minister of finance with regard to Sir Sam's charges that he had been directed to let up on recruiting in the spring of 1916.

On Friday and Saturday of last week Sir Robert Borden and Sir Thomas White declared that truth and Sir Sam were considerably at variance and that the ex-minister had imagined things. Today Sir Sam returned vigorously to the attack. He declared that he had spoken the truth in regard to the influences which had worked on the prime minister to induce him to call a halt in recruiting, and he repeated the charge that Sir Thomas White and the financial group back of him were mainly responsible for interfering with recruiting.

Home Rule Won, Says O'Connor
Declares Failure of Irish Convention Would Merely Delay It
Would Placate Orangemen—Believes in This War Crisis They Can Be Induced to Accept—An Interview of Deep Interest
(Special to The New York Times)
Washington, July 7.—In what he said was the most important interview he had given since he came to the United States, T. P. O'Connor, the noted Irish parliamentarian and writer, today described the Irish situation in detail and expressed the conviction that the "unanimous and ardent support by the people and government of the United States" of home rule for Ireland would be brought home to Great Britain should reason arise. Mr. O'Connor had an interview with President Wilson on Thursday. He had strong reason to believe, he said, that neither Mr. Balfour nor any of the other British statesmen at home had been left in any doubt of this unanimous and ardent support of home rule here in America.

Mr. O'Connor discussed the prospects of a permanent settlement of the Irish question through the Irish convention, the probable influence and action of some of the strong elements that will enter into its composition, and the practical way in which Irishmen in America may be of service. In answer to a question Mr. O'Connor said he saw with satisfaction that the date of the first meeting of the convention was now announced as July 25 and that practically all the preparations for it were complete. When he was asked if he was hopeful as to its results, Mr. O'Connor said: "I am neither hopeful nor despondent. I do not think anybody can give an accurate forecast of what so uncertain a thing as a gathering of such heterogeneous elements can turn out to be. Nor do I at all accept the idea that the convention is the end any more than the beginning of the struggle for home rule. In some respects it might be said that the struggle for Irish self-government is over. Nobody who wants to defeat self-government for Ireland now has to fight, not Ireland, but the world. The world has spoken; the cause is decided."
"The when the world of Home Rule alone remain important things that just set themselves, and now that the principle of Irish self-government has been adopted with the sanction of the entire world, and with that of practically all England, almost as much as of all America. I refuse, then, to say that if the convention failed, that would do anything worse than mark another milestone on the road to which there can be only one ending."
"Would you venture even a guess of a speculative forecast?"
Ought to Placate Orangemen
"If you insist, certainly, though politicians do not like to prophesy. What I think the convention ought to do is for the Nationalists to offer freely, without even being asked, every possible safeguard against the apprehensions—unfounded but sincere—which the Orangemen entertain of interference by the Dublin parliament with their liberties, civil or religious. I would be willing, for instance, to increase the representation of the urban districts; that would do good all over Ireland, for I see some danger in a mere farmer parliament might be too conservative. An increase, however, of urban representation would give more additional members to Ulster than to the rest of Ireland."
"I would also give larger representation in the senate to the Unionist forces of the country. Finally, I have heard a suggestion that there might be in Ulster and in the south of Ireland provincial councils for dealing with purely local affairs, both these councils, of course, being subject to the national parliament in College Green. I don't quite like this suggestion, but it has the backing of several very important men in Ireland and in more than one party. I would, in short, give the Orangemen any fair concession, but no Irish Nationalist can now accept, even temporarily, the partition of Ireland in any shape."
"Will the decisions of the majority of the convention be binding on the minority and on the government?"
"I must answer both yes and no. The convention has advisory, not legislative, powers; what recommendations it makes must afterward be accepted by the government, be put by them into a bill, and passed through the houses of parliament. On most of the questions submitted to the convention I believe there will be little difficulty in coming to an agreement. The one crux of the problem now as for the last three years—is Ulster, or rather Orange Ulster."
"Will the Orangemen still hold out for the separation of the Ulster Orange counties from the rest of Ireland and

"What can America do for Ireland at this hour?"

"America has always been doing a great deal for Ireland. I have no official information, but I have strong reasons to believe that neither Mr. Balfour nor the British statesmen at home were left in any doubt as to the serious and ardent support of home rule by the people and by the government of the United States. I have no doubt that on the occasion of the occasion, that opinion will again be brought home to the people and to the government of Great Britain. The friendly counsel of America must be the more welcome to Great Britain and have even greater influence over when there begins to appear in the papers of the world all the names of the Cassey, the Kellys, and the Sheas, now, as in every war of America, have figured in the ranks of America's army and navy."

Of the men of Irish blood in America Mr. O'Connor said: "Influence of American Irish. They can exercise great influence on the Irish situation, great influence for good, great for evil. If they give their support to the impracticable demand for an Irish republic and help to keep Ireland in disorder and in chaos, of course their influence will be mischievous, and though even such folly cannot defeat home rule ultimately—nothing can now defeat home rule—it may postpone it, and this, for a thousand reasons, and not when the war is over, is the hour to settle the Irish question."

"What form do you expect home rule to take when it emerges from the convention?"

"I am glad you asked that question, for so much attention has been concentrated on the Ulster issue that other and in some respects more important aspects of the Irish question have been forgotten. Take, for instance, the question of finance, a vital question, so vital, indeed, that home rule without good finance might have many evil consequences. When the home rule measure now on the statute books was passed, Ireland was in this peculiar position in that the government spent on her by the imperial government yearly was something like $65,000,000, while the yield of Irish taxation was only $85,000,000.

In other words, Ireland cost more than she gave. She was a debtor, and in such condition the imperial government limited the financial control of Ireland by the Irish government, but it was expressly provided that the limitations would come to an end when the deficit disappeared. Under the increased taxation brought by the war, the Irish deficit has disappeared and Ireland's right to what may be called full fiscal autonomy has been established. Thus the home rule measure can be so much amended in the direction of fiscal freedom as to make it almost twice as great a measure of liberty as it was in its original shape.

LIBERALS HAVE TWO STRONG CANDIDATES IN FIELD IN P. E. ISLAND.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., July 9.—The government is to have opposition in the two bye-elections. The Liberals nominated their second man, Saturday, selecting W. W. Jenkins, of Georgetown, against J. D. Stewart, an ex-premier Matheson's old seat, the fifth district of Kings. Mr. Jenkins is regarded as a strong man and his nomination increases the Liberal hopes of defeating the government in the bye-elections.

Health and Beauty Answers

BY MRS. MAE MARTIN

June: The "French complexion" you inquired about is probably the case for liquid powders. They are thought to be more wholesome for the skin, as well as more beautifying and less likely to show, than ordinary powder. The following preparation can be made at home from ingredients to be purchased from any druggist. Get 4 ounces spermac from your druggist, dissolve in one-half pint hot water and add two teaspoonfuls glycerine. It is splendid in effect, looks very natural and clings as if it belonged to your skin.

Lilly: You will find shampooing with a teaspoonful carbox dissolved in a cup of hot water is a quick and pleasing way to free the scalp of dust, dandruff and excess oil. This is a cleanser and invigorator most appreciated by one whose scalp is either dry, scaly and itchy or profusely oily. It uses restored healthful vigor to my scalp and induced the hair to come in plentifully, with a gloss, and greatly enriched color.

Bess: The best blood cleanser I know is Karden, because it acts on the liver and kidneys, and if, as you say, you're troubled with severe and constant headaches, it is an indication that your kidneys and blood need attention. To prepare, put one ounce Karden (from the drug store) into one-half pint alcohol (whisky should not be used), then add one-half cupful sugar and hot water to make a full quart. A tablespoonful before meals is the dose. This Karden tonic gently expels poisonous waste from the body and tones up the internal organs so they can do their work. You will find this tonic good for lost appetite, falling strength, and to clear up the complexion.

Lorelei: Even the woman of middle age nowadays is determined to keep her

Formal Opening Of New School

Two Months After Beginning of Fall Term

The Coal Situation

Chairman Not Discouraged—Will Use Soft Coal if Anthracite Not Available

The school board in monthly session last evening decided that the general public will be given an opportunity to inspect the new Bentley street school through the means of a formal opening to be held two months after the schools have been re-opened. The matter of the coal supply for the coming winter was also before the meeting, the fear being expressed that some of the buildings might have to be closed in order to keep the others open. The question of the disposal of the old school building in Douglas avenue was also before the meeting.

The chairman, R. B. Emerson, presided, the others present being Trustees Theo. Nagle, George E. Day, M. Coll, Mrs. James Dever, E. R. W. Ingraham, G. H. Green, Dr. Manning and superintendent H. S. Bridges.

Miss S. A. G. Mullin wrote from Sheffield asking for a year's leave of absence for the purpose of taking a course in singing. The matter was referred to the chairman and Superintendent H. S. Bridges said that in cases where a member of the staff had been teaching for fifteen or twenty years, and in cases where the teacher had been for four or five years on the staff and asked leave for other purposes it was different.

Miss Dorothy Dixon, 12 First street, wrote asking for a position on the teaching staff. The board decided that her application could only be considered when the applicant had received her first class license.

Miss Frances C. Reid, 48 Queen street, Fredericton, wrote asking for a position on the local teaching staff and giving her qualifications. Referred to the teaching committee.

Miss Barbara J. Dobson, formerly of the high school staff, granted leave of absence on account of illness, wrote asking for an extension for the same reason, which was granted.

Miss Elizabeth D. Corbett, 179 Wright street, wrote tendering her resignation as a teacher. Accepted.

Miss Bessie B. McAlvenney, formerly of the Victoria annex, wrote thanking the board for the payment of her months' salary and tendering her resignation, which was accepted.

George D. Mowry, janitor of the Dufferin school, wrote asking for an increase in pay. It was said at the meeting that the salaries of janitors had only recently been advanced. Referred to the committee in charge.

The New Brunswick Power Company wrote notifying the board that they were removing the guy wire from the King Edward school.

Lockhart & Ritchie wrote with respect to school insurance held by the company, also making some suggestion as to the policy. Referred to the finance committee.

Robert M. Magee wrote asking for a share of the fire insurance controlled by the board. Fyler.

D. McDonald wrote asking if the board would fix a price for the old Douglas avenue school.

Trustee Day, who owns the ground on which the building stands, said that Mr. McDonald had asked him if the building was for sale and about what the board would want for it. He had advised Mr. McDonald to write to the board.

Trustee Coll commented that the board had no lease of the grounds to which Trustee Day remarked that the law compels the owner of the land to go through a negotiated or public sale of the property.

Trustee Day reported that the blackboards for the new Douglas avenue school had been ordered from a firm in Dies in Halifax Hospital.

The death of Private William Thomas, aged twenty years, occurred on Monday July 9, at Hazelwood Hospital, Halifax. Private Thomas came to St. John from Bristol, England, about twelve years ago, and was employed for several years by T. M. Davidson, Little River. Private Thomas was formerly a member of a New Brunswick battalion, and was wounded at the battle of Courcurel on September 15, 1916. He was then taken to the military hospital at Chichester and later to Shorncliffe. In February, 1917, Dr. John O'Regan left the city last evening for Montreal and will leave shortly to take a post with the Imperial medical forces. He was given a hearty send-off.

Dr. John O'Regan left the city last evening for Montreal and will leave shortly to take a post with the Imperial medical forces. He was given a hearty send-off.

Dr. Edmund Lunney, of this city, who recently graduated from McGill, has joined the medical corps. Dr. Lunney is a brother of Dr. Thomas Lunney, who has been on active service since the commencement of the war.

Men have started work at the property acquired by D. S. Saker with the object of building ships. The work now underway, Mr. Saker says, is but preliminary, and in the way of a cleaning up.

DANIEL

London House Head of King Street

HEADS FIRST DIVISION
Ottawa, July 9.—Brigadier-General Archibald Cameron MacDonnell has, it is understood here, been appointed to succeed Major General Sir Arthur Currie in the command of the first division of the Canadian corps in France. General MacDonnell is a native of Ontario and has been connected with the Canadian regular forces for many years. He is a graduate of the Royal Military College and was with the second Canadian division during the South African campaign from 1909 to 1902, being awarded the D. S. O. for distinguished services and the Queen's medal with four clasps.

He has commanded a brigade on the western front and seen much of the hard fighting since the Canadian expeditionary force first landed in France. As commander of the first division, he will have the rank of major-general. The new divisional commander is a cousin of Brigadier-General A. H. MacDonnell, who commands a brigade at the front and of A. C. MacDonnell, M.P., of South Toronto.

NEW MOTOR APPARATUS
The motor truck, purchased by the commissioner of public safety, for No. 1 Salvage Corps, made its appearance in the streets yesterday. The commissioner feels highly elated with the success of his purchase and officials at City Hall and others who inspected it expressed admiration. The complete vehicle cost about $2,800 and a self-starter which may be bought later, will add about $125.

KING-MAKER RESIGNS
London, July 9.—General Chang Hsun, leader of the attempt to place the Manchus again on the throne of China, has resigned all his offices and handed over the administration of affairs in Peking to General Wang, who is a friend of Tuan Chi-Jui, leader of the republican forces.

SHIPBUILDING OUTLOOK

According to the president of William Cramp & Sons, the great shipbuilders of the United States, the plants of the United States, Canada and other countries will be kept busy for the next five years. The Cramp Company already has orders which will keep it fully occupied until the end of next year. It is not a question of where orders are to be obtained, but one of where the material is to be secured.

President Hand says: "The industry of shipbuilding has attained a position of permanence and importance which two years ago would have been thought impossible, and for some years at least, all the shipping of this and other countries will be busily engaged in replacing tonnage destroyed by the war." This will be particularly encouraging to concerns in Canada which are contemplating entering the business.

Hair Often Ruined By Careless Washing

If you want to keep your hair looking its best, be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsified coconut oil which is pure and greaseless, and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

A Never Failing Way to Banish Ugly Hairs

(Aids to Beauty.)

No woman is immune to superfluous growths, and because these are likely to always have some delicate powder handy to use when the occasion arises. A paste is made with some of the powder and water and spread upon the hairy surface; in about 2 minutes this is carefully removed and the skin washed. You will then find that your skin is entirely free from hair or fuzz. Be sure, however, to get real delatone.

Health and Beauty Answers

BY MRS. MAE MARTIN

June: The "French complexion" you inquired about is probably the case for liquid powders. They are thought to be more wholesome for the skin, as well as more beautifying and less likely to show, than ordinary powder. The following preparation can be made at home from ingredients to be purchased from any druggist. Get 4 ounces spermac from your druggist, dissolve in one-half pint hot water and add two teaspoonfuls glycerine. It is splendid in effect, looks very natural and clings as if it belonged to your skin.

Lilly: You will find shampooing with a teaspoonful carbox dissolved in a cup of hot water is a quick and pleasing way to free the scalp of dust, dandruff and excess oil. This is a cleanser and invigorator most appreciated by one whose scalp is either dry, scaly and itchy or profusely oily. It uses restored healthful vigor to my scalp and induced the hair to come in plentifully, with a gloss, and greatly enriched color.

Bess: The best blood cleanser I know is Karden, because it acts on the liver and kidneys, and if, as you say, you're troubled with severe and constant headaches, it is an indication that your kidneys and blood need attention. To prepare, put one ounce Karden (from the drug store) into one-half pint alcohol (whisky should not be used), then add one-half cupful sugar and hot water to make a full quart. A tablespoonful before meals is the dose. This Karden tonic gently expels poisonous waste from the body and tones up the internal organs so they can do their work. You will find this tonic good for lost appetite, falling strength, and to clear up the complexion.

Lorelei: Even the woman of middle age nowadays is determined to keep her

THE GROCERY MARKET

The following comment on the market situation as regards food stuffs appeared in the Canadian Grocer last week.

There is an uncertain tone to the four market, due to the possibility, in large measure, to speculation as to what the Canadian food controller is likely to do in the United States.

Behind the majestic Hudson, in peaceful New Jersey, live Teddy Rutherford and his wife, who are the parents of a red-blooded youth of metropolitan ideas and a vigorous exponent of preparedness.

Butter was in easier market, declines having been recorded, due to the big production. Eggs are also easier in price, but there is a disposition to anticipate the bottom of the market is somewhere near on eggs.

Sugar held in steady position, although there was a disposition to look for higher prices in view of the advancing market in the United States.

Someone's mania for placing bombs under Jersey, ammunition plants disturbs the sheriff's peace of mind to the extent of promising the hand of his daughter to the person who can throw some light on the mystery.

Fate intervenes, however, at the last minute, just as Teddy is about to be lynched by the angry Jerseyans and not only does he go free, but through a strange coincidence, he catches the real criminal, thus winning the hand of his sweetheart.

Iron Is Greatest of All Strength Builders, Says Doctor

A Secret of the Great Endurance and Powers of Athletes. Ordinary Nuxated Iron Will Make Delicate, Nervous, Run-down People 100 Per Cent. Stronger in Two Weeks' Time in Many Cases.

New York, N.Y.—Most people foolishly seem to think they are going to get renewed health and strength from some stimulating medicine, secret nostrum or narcotic drug, said Dr. E. Sauer, a Boston physician who has studied widely both in his country and Great European Medical Institutions.

when, as a matter of fact, real and true strength can only come from the food strength can only come from the food strength can only come from the food.

Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained.

NOTE—Nuxated Iron recommended above by Dr. E. Sauer, is one of the newer organic iron compounds. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most pure remedy, in nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous, run-down conditions.

The Manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $100.00 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron and increase their strength 100 per cent. or over in four weeks' time, provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in two days' time. It is dispensed in this city by Watson's Drug Store and all other druggists.

Strikers' Activities On Night of Fatality

Plumbers, on the Stand, Tell of Meeting; Harris' Name on the Blackboard; There Had Been Drinking

The inquest into the death of Robert Harris was continued last evening. The proceedings were probably the most interesting of the inquiry so far. The attendance, however, was not as great as on previous occasions, though the seating capacity and a large proportion of the standing room were occupied. F. R. Taylor, K. C., acting in behalf of the master plumbers, took an important part in the hearing, cross-examining the plumber-witnesses carefully. The chief of police was in court, and occasionally acted as prompter to Mr. Taylor.

Dr. F. L. Kenney presided and about 10 o'clock, when a witness, Livingston, a striking plumber, failed to respond to the summons, adjourned court until Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.

The victim's fiancée, Rose McAuliffe, the young lady with whom Harris kept company, was on the stand in the early evening. Harris, she said, left her home in Kitchener street about 9 o'clock that evening. Two days previous Harris told her of being followed and threatened by Carlyn, to which he replied that if he didn't stop annoying him he would secure means to make him.

The striking plumbers were first brought into the hearing when James Campbell was called to the stand. The witness was called upon by the coroner mark at all. Someone remarked that Carlyn had followed McManus, that was all.

From here the party adjourned to Carlyn's place where some three girls consumed. There were two O'Briens, Carlyn, Hughes and the witness. No reference was made to Harris here.

Dr. Baxter recalled.

Dr. Baxter was recalled. He stated that the man in the back of Harris' head was long and could have been inflicted by a brick, thrown or used in the hand. The witness on the face might also have been inflicted by half a brick used in a similar way.

Lawrence Lambert was the other striking plumber who testified. He went to the hall on the night in question about 8:15 o'clock, accompanied by Carlyn and Hennebery, and stayed until 9:20 or so. The boys there were drinking and carrying on, but he heard no reference to Harris. On leaving he heard O'Brien step up to young Spears in the street and utter some words, but was interrupted. At the corner of Union and Charlotte streets Joe O'Brien shouted after him, "Carlyn, you scab!" and invited him to come back. Later he shouted after him and started speaking to the effect that the scab was "taking the bread out of our mouths."

Carlyn and O'Brien left at the corner and went down Union, walking briskly and apparently quite sober. The following afternoon the witness saw Carlyn and O'Brien. Later Carlyn remarked that an expression or milkman had told him Harris was found badly beaten up.

"Carlyn told me about following Harris on a street car," the witness said. Livingston also told me that Carlyn had followed Harris along the track one night from the armory to his home."

To Mr. Taylor's cross-examination, he told practically the same story as the other witness regarding what went on at the meeting on the night of June 14. The next day when the plumbers assembled only passing reference was made to Harris.

The morning after the 14th the witness met Carlyn and remonstrated with him for leaving the party the night before, saying that if he and O'Brien had stayed the boys would not have been arrested. Carlyn replied that Jack O'Brien had to take him home.

"The last time I spoke to O'Brien about it," witness continued, "was when I picked up a stick and said, 'The man who hit Harris must have used something like this.' O'Brien just grinned. He said nothing."

Organizer's Warning.

Questioned whether the burning of Crawford's house, the breaking of Blake's windows had been discussed in the rooms, he replied in the negative. He only remarks that these things had happened.

"Bruce (the organizer) had told us to keep clear of violence and stay away from booze."

VALUATIONS COMPAIRED

Mayor Hayes has made an interesting compilation of comparative figures of rates and valuations for assessment in St. John and Halifax. The rate this year in St. John was 2.18 per $100 with an additional 80 cents for patriotic purposes, bringing it to $2.48. In Halifax the rate was 2.24, eleven cents of which was for patriotic purposes. The total valuation for assessment purposes in St. John was $41,288,800 as compared with $37,880,810 in Halifax; the total valuation for patriotic taxation in St. John, $92,868,000, and in Halifax $87,880,800. It is of much interest to note the difference in the various valuations. For instance land in St. John was valued at $7,802,800 and in Halifax $10,224,810; improvements in St. John, $14,378,000 and in Halifax $30,726,000; personal

ACID STOMACHS ARE DANGEROUS

Nine-tenths of All Stomach Trouble Said to Be Due to Acidity

A Physician's Advice on Cause and Cure.

A famous physician whose successful researches into the cause and cure of stomach and intestinal diseases have earned for him an international reputation, said in the course of a recent lecture that nearly all the troubles which attend the stomach, such as indigestion, as well as many diseases of the vital organs, were directly traceable to a deranged condition of the stomach which in turn was due nine times out of ten to excessive acidity, commonly termed sour stomach or heartburn, which not only irritated and inflamed the delicate lining of the stomach, but also set up gastritis and stomach ulcers. It is interesting to note that he condemns the use of patent medicines as well as of medical treatment for the stomach, stating that he and his colleagues have secured remarkable results by the use of ordinary bismuted magnesia, which, by neutralizing the acidity of the food, removes the source of the trouble. He contends that it is as foolish to treat the stomach itself as it would be for a man who stepped on a tack to rub liniment on the foot without first removing the tack. Remove the tack and the foot will heal itself—neutralize the acid and the stomach troubles will disappear. Irritating medicines and medical treatment are useless, so long as the contents of the stomach remain acid; remove the acidity, and there will be no need for medicine—the famed lining of the stomach will then heal itself. Sufferers from acidity, sour stomach or heartburn should get a small bottle of bismuted magnesia from their druggist, and take a teaspoonful in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water after meals, repeating in fifteen minutes, if necessary, this being the dose which the doctor has found most efficacious in all cases.

The Crisis!

Untold sacrifices are being made in defence of the world's liberty, assailed by the Hun, who declares he fights for "existence." Let us not forget that other crisis in which the fate of the dread Liquor Traffic, subdued just now by the necessities of war, is also fighting for existence.

Prohibition must be impregnable, fortified now by means of proper enforcement in readiness for the struggle to come when Prohibition must be finally ratified or lost by the votes of the people in many provinces, including New Brunswick.

Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick have adopted Prohibition during the war. Prince Edward Island has enjoyed its benefits since 1901. The great majority of districts in Quebec are "dry." That is the situation to-day, but remember, the crisis comes after the war.

The total value of foodstuffs destroyed by the liquor traffic in 1916 was approximately $4,244,030.22. Add to this the immense waste of transportation facilities, clogged and hindered by carrying the grain to destruction, and again conveying the product of the breweries and distilleries to make precious men less efficient in this solemn hour!

Ontario's Splendid Record

Since September 16, 1916, Ontario has enjoyed good enforcement of Prohibition in all but a few districts. Not the most daring anti-prohibitionist hopes for a return of the curse of the traffic in Ontario. Here are some figures showing results in Ontario's largest cities for the last three months of 1915 and 1916:

City	ARRESTS FOR DRUNKENNESS
	Under License 1915	Under Prohibition 1916
Toronto	2,908	953
Ottawa	286	234
Hamilton	498	61
London	367	144
Brantford	152	16

Note.—"It will be noted that Ottawa has not much reduction in arrests for drunkenness. It is perhaps strange that it should show any reduction in the drunkenness record, inasmuch as it is separated only by the river from the license city of Hull."—PIONEER, Toronto.

Whether your district be under the new Provincial Prohibitory Law, or under the Canada Temperance Act, help us to arouse the full force of public opinion for vigilant enforcement of province-wide Prohibition.

A VAST DELAY, WERE OFF FOR BIPPINS BAY

HEY! CUT THAT OUT! I'M WORKING ON AN INVENTION TO BEAT THE U-BOATS. I'M UNDER SECRET ORDER FROM THE NAVY DEPT. AND I MUSTN'T BE DISTURBED

WELL, I GUESS THE WAR IS AS GOOD AS OVER IF YOUVE BROUGHT YOUR MASSIVE BRAIN TO BEAR ON THE SUBMARINE PROBLEM! WHAT'S THE BIG IDEA

MY IDEA IS TO PUT A BIG SPRING ON THE BOTTOM OF A STEAMER, THEN WHEN THE U-BOAT'S TORPEDO IS SAID TO COME TO THE BOTTOM OF THE SEA, BY RELAXING THE SPRING IT GOES DOWN TO THE BOTTOM OF THE SEA, ALLOWING THE SHIP TO RISE UP IN THE AIR, WITHOUT DOING ANY DAMAGE

YES, BUT, WHAT HAPPENS TO THE SHIP AFTER THE SPRING THROWS IT OUT OF THE WATER? HOW DOES IT COME DOWN AGAIN SAFELY?

I SHOULD WORRY! I HAVEN'T GOT NOTHING TO DO WITH THEM AFTER THEY LEAVE THE WATER!

"IN AGAIN, OUT AGAIN"

SHE WAS THE JAILOR'S FAIR DAUGHTER and he loved her dearly. But he was a stranger with a lowly job in a munition factory. She spurned him, so he sought solace in the flowing bowl, eventually landing in her father's jail-house. Here he pressed his love-suit as far as the bars would allow. Papa got wise and discharged him. The rest of the uproariously funny story is devoted to our hero's attempts to get back into jail. The climax is side-splitting and for seven reels everybody is kept excited and laughing. A pure wholesome comic offering. No cheap devices to raise a laugh but clever, intelligent story, artistic, strenuous and mile-a-minute action. It's a Fairbanks picture, that's sufficient.

Motor Boat

The Dixie cup race, which was held in Millville last evening, was won by the Dixie, owned by John Frohman. This cup has now been up for several years, and according to the rules it has to be won by the same boat three consecutive years before it is permanently awarded, and since this has been done by the Dixie, the cup now belongs to Mr. Frohman.

The course, which was ten miles, was twice around, from Millville to Sand Point, thence across to the Millish, then around the island and back to the starting point.

The time of the winner was thirty-eight minutes. The boat owned by Gandy & Allison, finished second, and the Flint, owned by James Hoyt, finished third.

BOY IN TROUBLE
A boy fifteen years of age appeared before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning to answer a charge of misappropriating funds of the St. John Creamery. Walter H. Bell, proprietor of the Creamery, testified that sums amounting to $12.40 had been collected by the defendant and had not been turned in. A list of names was produced and the boy acknowledged having received money from several of those mentioned. Questioned by Magistrate Ritchie, he said that he did not know how many commissions there were. He did not belong to any church, but his people had been members of the Salvation Army. He was told that there was one commission which was "I you Shall Not Steal," and which he would have to remember in future. As the presence of one of the cashiers was necessitated, he was sent below with a warning that he was liable to be sent to the reformatory for four years. The case was set for this afternoon.

AN IMPORTANT MATTER
The secretary of the St. John Board of Trade has sent out the following:
Last winter, it will be recalled, there were many complaints in regard to delays in handling orders, feed and flour from points in the maritime provinces, chiefly where lumber operations were being carried on.
While it is not expected that the same congestion will obtain during the coming winter, the probabilities are that Canadian railways will be greatly taxed in the handling of munitions and war supplies after the closing of navigation on the St. Lawrence, and there is also the likelihood of severe weather conditions.
The Board of Trade has been asked by the freight department of the C. P. R. to urge upon its members and upon the public generally the advisability of such supplies being brought in before December 1.
The board has been assured that the C. P. R. will do all in its power to provide cars and facilitate transportation. Your co-operation will be appreciated.

RECEPTION TO NEW PASTOR AND WIFE AT THE CLOSING MEETING OF THE SEASON
Pleasant Evening Enjoyed by Rev. Thos. Marshall and Mrs. Marshall and Fairville Methodist Y. P. S.
Last evening the Young People's Society of Fairville Methodist church held their last meeting for the summer, and instead of the regular service a reception was held giving the members opportunity to meet the new pastor of the church, Rev. Thos. Marshall and Mrs. Marshall.
The vestry was beautifully decorated by an efficient committee. Baskets of wild flowers hung from the electric fixtures, the platform was banked with ferns and the whole effect showed taste and care.
After the national anthem, and an introductory address of welcome by the president, a solo was sung very acceptably by Miss Hazel Kelly. Then came a welcome poem bespeaking the allegiance of the flock to the new minister, by Miss Stella Kirkpatrick, followed by a similar expression of co-operation by Audrey McColgan on behalf of the Blues. Great applause greeted these efforts.
Five young ladies next sang a lullaby, Miss Ebel McColgan taking the solo part.
On behalf of the society, Ives Anglin presented to Mrs. Marshall, in a very neat speech, a beautiful bouquet. Mrs. Marshall responded briefly, expressing her pleasure at meeting the young people and thanking them for their thoughtful gifts.
Rev. Mr. Marshall followed in a brief address complimenting the society and promising his utmost support in every way. Mr. Marshall's speech was well received. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Stout introduced the members individually to Mr. and Mrs. Marshall. Several games were played, refreshments served and after a sing song of old favorites, the society disbanded for the season.

STRAWBERRIES 23 TODAY
Coming in More Freely—Reports Say Blueberries Plentiful
Some cultivated strawberries were to be had today at twenty-three cents a box, a drop of seventeen cents in the last two days. Merchants expect another sudden drop during the next few days. Few wild strawberries have yet made their appearance. Farmers say they are about as scarce this year as for many years. There were plenty of blossoms, but the heavy rains were harmful. Blueberries are expected to be abundant.

THE HOUSE FURNISHER
Dear Mary:—
Do you know I faithfully believe that very few men think about the personal comfort of their wives. It is only careless, ness in most of them. A man wants his wife to appear pretty and cheerful in the evening, but seldom thinks of what she must go through with in keeping house during the day.
I wish I could get every husband in this town in an opera house and tell him that he owes it to his wife to give her new furniture and rugs, and make her housekeeping easy.
Affectionately—HELEN
P. S. Say, wouldn't this make lots of business for
