OPEN AIRSHIP LINE TO-MORROW

First Voyage for Passengers by German Co'y
MANY WANT TO GO

Service Between London and New York Being Worked Out by Russian Baron in London—Plans to Carry 400 People Across in 72 Hours

Friedrichshafen, Germany, June 21.—Tomorrow the first passenger airship, the giant Deutschland, will leave here on her maiden trip to Stuttgart, Mannheim, Cologne and Düsseldorf. At that remains to be done is the stocking of the buffet and the filling of the huge envelope with gas tonight.

There will be a full complement of passengers. In fact, the passenger capacity of the airship could be filled many times over with the requests that have come, but accommodations can be found for only those who have been selected either as guests of honor or who made applications for reservations some weeks ago.

The schedule of the airship, like that of the ships of the sea, will be subject at all times to weather conditions, but it is expected that it will not vary more than that of the great ocean liners on such account. The time of the first voyage will be the running time of the airship.

There will be no attempt to make a speed record on this trip, but later the speed may be increased as the engines are tried out and the pilots become more certain in their mastery of the craft. Thirty-three miles an hour is the calculated mean speed of the Deutschland.

London to New York.

London, June 21.—An airship which is to fly from London to New York has already been designed and is expected to be ready for its first flight in twelve months.

It is to be 1,000 feet in length, sixty-five feet in diameter, will be worked by sixteen propellers, and will have a lifting capacity of thirty-eight tons beyond its own weight.

The designer, Baron Roenne, is a Russian, but the airship is to be built by British workmen, with British materials, within ten miles of London and owned by an exclusively British company.

It is to be a rigid dirigible, with an outer covering of an alloy called chromium, the surface of which is to be so prepared as to resemble a mirror.

This is to be the pioneer of a fleet of such British airships. Baron Roenne has mapped out a passenger service from London to Paris, Vienna, Rome, and St. Petersburg.

With regard to his scheme for passenger and mail services, he has omitted no detail. Each vessel will carry 200 first-class and 200 second-class passengers.

It may be stated that a tract of about a hundred acres of land for the erection of aerial stations and docks has already been secured.

BADEN-POWELL EXPECTED AT Y. M. C. A. CAMP

Look for Him at Big Cove, N. S.—Chancellor Jones With New Brunswick Boys

The members of the Y. M. C. A. are looking forward with eagerness to the eighteenth annual camp to be held at Robert's Point, from August 3 to 17. Preparations are now fairly well advanced. It is expected that a creditable representation will be present from the local Y. M. C. A. as already an encouraging number of names has been submitted to W. H. Moor, boys' secretary.

Rev. G. A. Lawson has been appointed camp leader, and he will be ably assisted by Mr. Moor. The camp will be marked by the usual features attractive to healthy, sport-loving boys, such as athletics, running and swimming, besides a number of features not yet included in the programme. Chancellor Jones, of the U. N. H., is to be a guest of honor at the camp during the period under canvas.

The Big Cove, N. S., camp is to be held from July 15-29 under the leadership of Rev. F. W. Forbes, Gen. Baden-Powell is expected to be a guest of honor at this camp.

THE WEATHER

RENO VERY LIKELY TO GET FIGHT

It's Only a Matter of Raising $17,000
JEFFRIES STARTS

All Kinds of Pressure Being Brought to Bear to Prevent Battle in Nevada, but Apparently Without Success—Attell-Moran Bout Shut Down On

Reno, Nev., June 21.—If Reno raises funds to construct a suitable arena with a seating capacity of 25,000 people, pays the $10,000 license fee and furnishes a site, the Jeffries-Johnson fight will be held here. Tex Rickard practically assured this city the contest, if it meets the stipulations, at a meeting which began a little after midnight and lasted more than an hour this morning.

There is no doubt that the money, which will amount to about $17,000 will be raised. There will be a mass meeting of representatives of business men of Reno this morning.

Ben Lombard, Cal., June 21.—James J. Jeffries and his retinue will start for Nevada today.

Dewitt Vancouver, formerly boxing instructor at the Olympic club in San Francisco, the man who suggested Jeffries when Corbett was looking for a sparring partner during his training at Pittsborough, will accompany Jeffries to Nevada and may be one of the seconds in the ring.

Want Nevada Governor to Act

Carson, City, Nev., June 21.—Hundreds of letters and many telegrams, pleading that steps be taken to prevent the holding of the Jeffries-Johnson fight in Nevada, are pouring into the office of Governor Dickinson. There has been a continuous stream of communications since the issue of the ultimatum by Governor Gillette of California. All manner of pleas are being made to Governor Dickinson to prevent the fight from taking place in Nevada.

San Francisco, June 21.—To all appearances the fight promoters have surrendered completely so far as California is concerned. Rickard, Gleason, Blum and the Los Angeles promoters have ceased all talk of contesting the fight in California. They have issued orders to stop bouts scheduled for the present month in Los Angeles, Shasta and Kern counties. The latter includes the Attell-Moran ten-round affair down for next Friday in Los Angeles.

The last vestige of the proposed opposition to Gillette's position has seemingly faded away and the fighting fraternity have apparently concluded that the game is dead in California, during Gillette's term at least.

Jeffries will reach San Francisco this morning and start for Reno this evening. Johnson will probably not start for Nevada before Wednesday and possibly not until Thursday morning. The Board of Supervisors of San Francisco will be pulled off in Reno on the morning of July 4.

Dickinson Not Unfriendly

Considerable apprehension was caused in the camp of the fighters by a report to the effect that Governor Dickinson of Nevada would follow Gillette's lead and prevent the fight in his state. Johnson seemed more disturbed than any one else and announced last night that he would move towards Reno until definite assurances were given that the Nevada governor would not interfere. It is known here that strong pressure is being brought to bear to stop the fight in Nevada, but Governor Dickinson is said not to be adverse to fighting and will not go out of his way to prevent it. Assurances to the effect were received from the governor last night.

JUBILEE OF FATHER BELLIVEAU

Kent County Priest Ordained 25 Years Ago
CELEBRATION BEGINS

Bishop Casey, Father Chapman and Father O'Neill There From St. John—High Mass Today; Presentation of Addresses—Father Belliveau Noted Speaker

Reston, June 21.—The celebration in connection with the silver jubilee of Rev. Philip L. Belliveau, parish priest of Grand Digue, Kent county, was commenced this morning with a solemn high mass solemnized at 10 o'clock. Rev. A. Robichaud preached an able sermon, befitting the occasion.

On Webb's person were found two watches, one of which Mrs. Johnson identified as her husband's and two women's handkerchiefs, both blood stained. One of Webb's hands was injured and bandaged. He carried an international typographical union card issued by Vancouver, (B. C.) Local No. 228. Webb is believed to have operated in real estate in Seattle within the last few months.

An ordinary looking trunk was received at the depot late in the day and ordered checked via the Oregon and Washington Railroad to North Puget, a station not on that road. A baggage man noticed a pool of blood which had trickled from the trunk, broke it open and discovered the body of a man.

A visit to the rooms in the hotel resulted in the discovery that the mattress was saturated with blood and also that blood was spattered over the furniture.

The detective believed Johnson was drugged with alcohol, then struck over the temple with a blackjack as he lay on the bed, next about through the temple, and finally, to make death certain, his negligee shirt had been twisted and tightly knotted about his neck.

In "Powers" room a suitcase was found containing a black jacket clothed with blood. An ornamental clock was found on Mrs. Johnson. The woman said her husband had recently sold a farm near Seattle and had entrusted the money to her safe keeping.

NEGRO BURNED AT THE STAKE

Had Mistreated and Murdered a Young Woman—Texas Mob Puts Him to Death

Rusk, Texas, June 21.—Leonard Johnson, a negro charged with having murdered Miss Maud Redding, a young woman, near here yesterday, was burned at the stake by a mob near the scene of the crime late last night.

Sheriff Norwood and deputies were on route to Rusk with the negro when they were overpowered by a mob at Lone Star, near the home of the murdered woman.

Said the negro, who pleaded for his life, the mob, composed of more than 100 men and boys, dragged him a short distance from the town. There, it is said, he confessed that he had mistreated and murdered Miss Redding. The negro was taken to a stake and hanged there.

Disregarding the pleadings of Johnson, the fire was fed until he was dead and partly incinerated.

Miss Redding left her home to go to Lone Star. Later her body, with throat cut, was found in a wood a short distance from town.

BLUNDER REVEALS MURDER

Trunk With Body In It Wrongly Addressed
CRIME WAS BRUTAL

Johnson Had Just Sold Farm and Gone to Portland, Ore.—Wife Arrested After Auto Outing With Man Suspected of the Murder

Portland, Ore., June 21.—The blunder of the murderers in wrongly routing a trunk sent to the Union Depot in this city was the means, late yesterday, of disclosing a ghastly murder. The victim is William Johnson, who with his wife and seven years-old son, arrived here on Monday morning with a man who went by the name of A. C. Powers. The party registered at a cheap north end hotel, "Powers" as coming from Nome, Alaska. The Johnsons did not give their residence.

Powers, whose real name is J. F. Webb, and Mrs. Johnson were arrested at an uptown house early today as they were returning from an automobile trip to a suburban resort.

On Webb's person were found two watches, one of which Mrs. Johnson identified as her husband's and two women's handkerchiefs, both blood stained. One of Webb's hands was injured and bandaged. He carried an international typographical union card issued by Vancouver, (B. C.) Local No. 228. Webb is believed to have operated in real estate in Seattle within the last few months.

WANT A RAILROAD IN NOVA SCOTIA

WALKS ACROSS CONTINENT IN 77 DAYS

San Francisco, June 21.—Lowering all records for the walk across the continent, Jack Eldredge, a man of 26, arrived here yesterday, covering 4,000 miles in seventy-seven days. Eldredge's performance won him a purse of $2,000 offered by the Boston Athletic Club for any one covering the 4,000 miles just within 100 days. The record for the distance has been held by Edward Payson Weston, who walked the 4,000 miles in 105 days last year.

Eldredge left Boston March 15. The seventy-seven days in which he covered the distance were walking days, as he rested on Sundays.

IT'S A TRIP ROUND THE WORLD THAT THE SECRETARY IS ON

Washington, D. C., June 21.—Instead of going merely on a short trip to his home in Tennessee and other points in the United States, as announced, Mr. Dickinson, secretary of war, left Washington for a month's trip around the world.

The secretary was accompanied by Mrs. Dickinson, her son, J. M. Dickinson, Jr.; Brigadier General C. R. Edwards, U. S. A., and Mrs. Edwards, their daughter, Miss Beatie Edwards; Mr. and Mrs. Lars Anderson, L. R. Clark, confidential clerk to the secretary, and George Long, messenger to the secretary. They sail in about two weeks from San Francisco aboard the Pacific Mail Steamship Siberia.

While abroad the secretary of war and Brigadier General Edwards, who is chief of the bureau of insular affairs, will make a five weeks' trip of inspection through the Philippines. The route of the party is from San Francisco to Honolulu, then to Japan and to the Philippines.

MAN AND WOMAN HURLED 100 FEET FROM AUTO; BOTH KILLED

Los Angeles, Cal., June 21.—Samuel Elmore, a wealthy salmon packer and Mrs. M. F. Garretson, of San Francisco, were killed late last night at Florence by a car that struck them as they were riding. The automobile was hurled 100 feet and almost every bone was broken in the bodies of both occupants.

A discussion arose among Mr. Turner, president of the tribunal and Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, regarding the question whether the right to fish was really a result of this arrangement, or whether this arrangement was drawn up merely for the benefit of the thirteen states which in 1783 formed the union.

NOT MUCH INTEREST IN THE BY-ELECTION

The by-election to fill the vacancy in the board of aldermen, caused by the retirement of J. King Kelly, which is being held today, is apparently creating little interest and it is likely that only a small vote will be polled.

The candidates both express confidence in the result. The returns should be in early as the ballots will be easily counted. In compliance with the law the saloons are closed today.

COUSINS HANG FOR MURDER OF OLD MAN THEY TRIED TO ROB

Leicester, Pa., June 21.—Walter and Benjamin Aston, cousins, were hanged today for the murder of Alfred Hallman in Pequea township in January, 1900. Hallman and his aged wife lived in a hotel and were known to have money. The two Atons and Paul Fornwall, went to the home intending to rob. While Benjamin Aston stood guard outside the door the other two entered the house, entered the place and, finding neighbors in the house, opened fire, killing Hallman. The neighbors fled.

Mrs. Hallman, who was ill, witnessed the tragedy from her bed. The three men fled without getting any money and subsequently were arrested and made confessions. They accused a saloon keeper and planning the robbery, but he was acquitted after a trial. Fornwall, who is only nineteen years old, claimed he was induced to become a member of the party while intoxicated. He was convicted of murder in the second degree.

BUXTON'S SLY LITTLE DIG AT ROOSEVELT

British Cabinet Member Hits it off Well at Congress of Chambers of Commerce

London, July 21.—Sir Charles Buxton, president of the board of trade, opened the International Congress of Chambers of Commerce today by a sly dig at Theodore Roosevelt. Referring to the differences in national policy, he said: "The British cabinet minister gave a dig to Theodore Roosevelt. Referring to the differences in national policy, he said: 'But not being ex-president of the United States I am not going to tell you how to run your show.'"

The speaker promised, on behalf of the British government, every possible assistance to the delegates, realising as he said that such conference had the influence of certain classes of politicians and journalists, who, respectively, from the month and endeavor to embitter international relations."

The congress is attended by 450 delegates. Those from Boston have great hopes of securing the next meeting for their city.

Rails have been laid from McGivern's to West Brook Summit, a distance of about fifty miles. The road crosses the south-west Miramichi in two places and also the north branch. Concrete piers for the bridges have been completed.

The Normal school students completed their examinations in military drill yesterday and the majority of them have left for home.

A first offence Scott case against the Lorne Hotel was dismissed in the police court this morning for want of evidence.

NEW YORK HAS NEW MURDER MYSTERY

Body of Jewelry Salesman Found in a Trunk—He Had $2,000 in Goods When Last Seen

New York, June 21.—New York has a new murder mystery in the finding of the body of a man packed in a trunk in the hallway of a house in Goerick street. An hour after the discovery the body was identified as that of Moses Sachs, a jewelry salesman, who had been missing.

It was only a short time before the body was found that his two sons, Isidor and Moses, Jr., had gone to police headquarters to report that their father had left home with $2,000 worth of jewelry in his possession and had not returned.

The police found that the rope-bound trunk containing the body had been left at 51 Goerick street in the morning by an exilesman. The authorities, not knowing to whom it belonged, asked the police to remove it. The trunk was taken to the nearest police station, where it was opened, and the body, bent double, with the head against the knees, was discovered. Sachs was formerly proprietor of a Houston street jewelry store.

CANADA EAST AND WEST REPRESENTATION IN HOUSE OF COMMONS

FIGURES THAT TELL STORIES.

EASTERN VS. WESTERN REPRESENTATION

OPTIMISTS estimate that the population of Canada will reach eight millions when the census is taken next year. The Census Bureau estimated our population at 7,184,744 on March 31, 1905, and of this number, 1,430,000 are in the West. East and West.

Immigrants reached our shores, and, assuming that practically all of these are now west of the Great Lakes, the population there would equal 1,839,000. The effect of the upbuilding of the West is shown nowhere more strikingly than in the representation of the House of Commons.

In 1867 the House numbered 111 members, all Easterners; in 1875, there were 196 Eastern representatives and 10 Western; in 1895 the proportions were 136 and 17 respectively, and at present they are 103 and 33.

The East is bound to lose in the equalizing process, unless the present Act, so as to provide that no Province shall carry to amend the representation it had when entering the Confederation, and Westerners are decidedly opposed to this proposal. If the West can show a population of 1,850,000 at the next census, and if Quebec—the pivotal Province—shows a population of 2,100,000, the West will elect more than one-fourth of the House of Commons, instead of less than one-fifth as at present.

It has a population of about 3,400 and its location at the head of navigation on Lake Winnipeg makes it quite an important trade centre, an extensive fleet of boats having their headquarters there. The town is only 25 miles from Winnipeg with which it is connected by a very efficient railway service as well as by the Canadian Pacific Railway. It is surrounded by an excellent agricultural district. We believe it will improve in importance and population, its finances are in good shape making its bonds at the above investment most desirable.

MANY ATTEND SUNDAY SCHOOL CONFERENCE

The conference of the Church of England Sunday school workers being held in the Rochesay College buildings is proving a big success and the attendance is large. This morning there were about eighty or 100 people present and the services were most interesting.
There was an early celebration of Holy Communion by the Very Rev. Dean Schofield, assisted by Rev. R. W. Hubbard. This was followed by a half hour Bible reading by the dean, who took as his subject Isaiah 6. A lecture was given by Rev. Dr. Bedford, of the Montreal Diocesan College, on Preparing, Planning and Presenting Lessons. Followed by a conference on primary work conducted by Miss Ethel Jarvis and Mrs. H. H. Tuckett.
This afternoon, if the weather permits, it is planned to have a cricket match between the laymen from Rochesay and the city and the clergymen.

WRECKING TUG HERE TO RAISE PEJEPSCOT

The powerful wrecking tug Taseo, Captain D. J. Hunt, arrived in port about 10 o'clock this morning and, today or tomorrow, will go to the wrecked tug Pejepscot at Cape Spencer. The Taseo is the property of the T. G. Scott Wrecking Co., of New London, Conn., who will undertake to float the Pejepscot and tow her to this port.
The tug is one of the most powerful of the kind that has come here. She is 310 tons and was built at New London a little more than a year ago. She is the largest of the six wrecking tugs owned by the company. The big wrecker is fitted with all the latest apparatus used in the business.
She has a wrecking boiler that can be placed aboard a vessel after it is raised. She will await the arrival of Captain Goodall, wrecking master of the company, before going down the bay. He was expected at noon. T. A. Western is the mate. The tug has a crew of about twenty men.
The owners of the tug Pejepscot have chartered the Central Wharf, Downtown Co.'s tug Portland, at Portland, to take the place of the former tug in the pulp carrying trade from New Brunswick to Bath.

IMPERIAL FEDERATION

The question of imperial federation still excites some discussion in England. From a recent issue of a London paper we take the following report of an address delivered in London by Mr. Edward J. Duven on an Imperial Parliament.

"This imperial parliament he suggested might be composed of members selected by each of the parliaments of the self-governing states, and would be representative of the different parties in those assemblies. Representation in the imperial parliament would have to be found also for India, the crown colonies, and the various dependencies. The parliament would meet in annual session in its own parliament house in London. The functions this imperial parliament would exercise would be limited to matters which concern the empire, and naval and military affairs would fall under the control of the imperial parliament. Among other questions to be dealt with by this body would be (i) the Commercial Relations of the Empire with Foreign Countries; (ii) Treaty-making Powers; (iii) Patent and Copyright Legislation; (iv) Coinage and Currency; (v) Mail Services; (vi) Fisheries; (vii) Bureau of Trade Statistics; (viii) Naturalization; and (ix) Emigration. Such an imperial parliament could only proceed from an alliance based on preferential agreements. He ridiculed the suggestion that the empire must not be saved because preference, which is the only means for bringing about this result, involved the abandonment of free trade. If free trade was inconsistent to close imperial relations, then away with free trade. It was not a valid objection to the federation of the German Empire, the creation of the United States, the constitution of the Australian Commonwealth or the South African Union that one of the constituent states, acting independently, might have preferred a free trade fiscal system. Similarly there was no reason why the empire should not be consolidated because one of the constituents might be compelled to sacrifice free trade for this great object."

Mr. Duven explained that he regarded such a parliament as necessary because there were certain disintegrating influences within the empire that should not be permitted to go unchecked. What or where those influences are he did not state, and they are not apparent to the average observer. Rather does there seem a tendency toward closer relations, as illustrated by the movement for imperial defence. The out-and-out plan of imperial federation will not commend itself to the people of the various states. They will prefer to meet conditions as they arise, and progress toward closer unity without any sacrifice of the principle of autonomy. What the future may develop along lines of imperial control and administration it is idle to attempt to predict. At present there is no general desire for such a scheme as Mr. Duven proposes.

ON KING SQUARE

Should St. John place its benches on exhibition for the benefit of tourists and sight-seers, and as an advertisement of what the city can produce?

If not, the seats along the west side of King Square, facing Charlotte street, should be removed to a less conspicuous place on the square. Those benches are never used by ladies or children. They are the resort of loafers. Why should the city provide seats for these gentry, where they become conspicuous, beside one of the best streets in the city? Why should the city provide a comfortable resting place between drinks for men who do not work, and who gratify day after day between these benches and the saloons? Of course this is not true of all men who may be seen there, but it is true of many. There should be no seats along that walk. They should be placed on the less frequented portions of the square. The city should not convey to visitors the impression that it is proud of its loafers and desire to have them in the front row for exhibition purposes. The mayor, or whoever has authority in the matter should have the benches removed entirely from the walk that fronts on Charlotte street. Either that or let it be told in the literature of the Tourist Association that Exhibit A on King Square, St. John, is a rare display of the genus Loafer, which flourishes in the glorious climate of the region and may be inspected at leisure and without charge at any hour of the day.

REMARKABLE GROWTH

The trade of Canada grows at an amazing rate. For the month of May it was almost $80,000,000, or more than 30 per cent greater than that for May of last year. The increase is general. An Ottawa despatch states that the total trade for the current year may reach $800,000,000. These figures tell of wonderful progress. The country is prosperous in all departments of activity. The rapid increase of population creates a great demand for both native and imported merchandise. The newcomers are bringing with them a large amount of capital, which creates business, makes larger markets, and gives an additional impulse to every line of industry. It is true the greatest growth is in the west, but eastern products find a market there, in ever increasing quantity, and there are also evidences of healthy development in the east. With growth of trade comes increased revenue, and a surplus of large proportions. The government is extremely fortunate in being able to meet all legitimate demands and keep the finances in a most healthy condition. Present day conditions in Canada are the best possible tribute to Liberal policy and Liberal administration.

ABUSING SIR WILFRED

The campaign of Mr. Borden in Ontario has developed a new phase. Sir James Whitney joined the party at Niagara Falls, and according to the Standard report coupled the name of Sir Wilfrid Laurier with that of Paul Kruger. Some other Conservatives have thought it clever to compare Sir Wilfrid with Mr. Botha, but since the latter has been chosen premier of United South Africa, and highly honored by the imperial government, there is less disposition to make the comparison. Now it is the name of Kruger and not of Botha that is selected, and Sir James Whitney attempts to classify one of the ablest and most honored statesmen of the empire as an enemy of the flag.

It would have been better for Mr. Borden to have conducted his own campaign without the aid of the premier of Ontario. The people of Canada are disposed to hear both sides of an argument, but they will not approve of the course pursued by Sir James Whitney. The attempt to inflame Ontario with prejudice against Quebec and a French-Canadian premier is the last resort of a reckless politician, not the policy of a statesman. The Standard informs us that Sir James delivered "a whirling speech." This is wrong. It was the wind, and the whirlwind will find Sir James's party at a later date.

The people of Canada have too high a regard for Sir Wilfrid Laurier to tolerate such attacks as that to which the Ontario premier stooped yesterday. They remember the brilliant service Sir Wilfrid has rendered Canada and the empire, and they know that his career has been marked by the highest sense of public honor. That his political opponents stoop to abuse is the best evidence that they lack more effective material.

THE TWO PARTIES

The Montreal Witness, discussing Mr. Borden's speeches in Ontario, says:—"He does not prove that the standards of public life are lower today than heretofore, but rather that they are raised; and that the grafters, who have always preyed on succeeding governments, have during recent years had an enormous increase of opportunity owing to the increase of every kind of government activity. To the victors belong the spoils was, as it were, an order of nature in good old Tory days, and the scandals of those days are not yet forgotten, and are not likely to be. In those days the civil service, for instance, was unregenerate, and 'place' was almost invariably the reward of party service instead of essential fitness. The civil service has many blemishes still, but the Liberals have at least reformed the indoor branch of the service, and established the doctrine there of appointment for merit."

The Witness gives Mr. Borden credit for having assisted the cause of civil service reform but adds:—"When public opinion judges, however, between the parties represented respectively by Mr. Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, it finds little encouragement to believe that the placing of Mr. Borden's party in power would be an improvement; and that is why Mr. Borden remains Leader of the Opposition. For one thing, Mr. Borden represents the party of Privilege as a Principle, and such privilege has everywhere meant Corrupt Practices."

There should not be any room in St. John for ferocious dogs that attack children.

The awful news comes that the governor of Nevada also may refuse to permit Mr. Jeffries and Mr. Johnson to honor that state with their fistie encounter. In other words, the Reno sports may fail to get the rhino.

In the British House of Commons yesterday Under Secretary Seely stated in reply to a question that Canada's treaties are made with the full knowledge and consent of the imperial government, and that the same course would be adopted in respect to the other overseas states. This is an important statement. It disposes of An Ottawa despatch states that the total trade for the current year may reach $800,000,000. These figures tell of wonderful progress. The country is prosperous in all departments of activity. The rapid increase of population creates a great demand for both native and imported merchandise. The newcomers are bringing with them a large amount of capital, which creates business, makes larger markets, and gives an additional impulse to every line of industry. It is true the greatest growth is in the west, but eastern products find a market there, in ever increasing quantity, and there are also evidences of healthy development in the east. With growth of trade comes increased revenue, and a surplus of large proportions. The government is extremely fortunate in being able to meet all legitimate demands and keep the finances in a most healthy condition. Present day conditions in Canada are the best possible tribute to Liberal policy and Liberal administration.

ABUSING SIR WILFRED

The campaign of Mr. Borden in Ontario has developed a new phase. Sir James Whitney joined the party at Niagara Falls, and according to the Standard report coupled the name of Sir Wilfrid Laurier with that of Paul Kruger. Some other Conservatives have thought it clever to compare Sir Wilfrid with Mr. Botha, but since the latter has been chosen premier of United South Africa, and highly honored by the imperial government, there is less disposition to make the comparison. Now it is the name of Kruger and not of Botha that is selected, and Sir James Whitney attempts to classify one of the ablest and most honored statesmen of the empire as an enemy of the flag.

It would have been better for Mr. Borden to have conducted his own campaign without the aid of the premier of Ontario. The people of Canada are disposed to hear both sides of an argument, but they will not approve of the course pursued by Sir James Whitney. The attempt to inflame Ontario with prejudice against Quebec and a French-Canadian premier is the last resort of a reckless politician, not the policy of a statesman. The Standard informs us that Sir James delivered "a whirling speech." This is wrong. It was the wind, and the whirlwind will find Sir James's party at a later date.

The people of Canada have too high a regard for Sir Wilfrid Laurier to tolerate such attacks as that to which the Ontario premier stooped yesterday. They remember the brilliant service Sir Wilfrid has rendered Canada and the empire, and they know that his career has been marked by the highest sense of public honor. That his political opponents stoop to abuse is the best evidence that they lack more effective material.

THE TWO PARTIES

The Montreal Witness, discussing Mr. Borden's speeches in Ontario, says:—"He does not prove that the standards of public life are lower today than heretofore, but rather that they are raised; and that the grafters, who have always preyed on succeeding governments, have during recent years had an enormous increase of opportunity owing to the increase of every kind of government activity. To the victors belong the spoils was, as it were, an order of nature in good old Tory days, and the scandals of those days are not yet forgotten, and are not likely to be. In those days the civil service, for instance, was unregenerate, and 'place' was almost invariably the reward of party service instead of essential fitness. The civil service has many blemishes still, but the Liberals have at least reformed the indoor branch of the service, and established the doctrine there of appointment for merit."

The Witness gives Mr. Borden credit for having assisted the cause of civil service reform but adds:—"When public opinion judges, however, between the parties represented respectively by Mr. Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, it finds little encouragement to believe that the placing of Mr. Borden's party in power would be an improvement; and that is why Mr. Borden remains Leader of the Opposition. For one thing, Mr. Borden represents the party of Privilege as a Principle, and such privilege has everywhere meant Corrupt Practices."

IMPERIAL FEDERATION

The question of imperial federation still excites some discussion in England. From a recent issue of a London paper we take the following report of an address delivered in London by Mr. Edward J. Duven on an Imperial Parliament.

"This imperial parliament he suggested might be composed of members selected by each of the parliaments of the self-governing states, and would be representative of the different parties in those assemblies. Representation in the imperial parliament would have to be found also for India, the crown colonies, and the various dependencies. The parliament would meet in annual session in its own parliament house in London. The functions this imperial parliament would exercise would be limited to matters which concern the empire, and naval and military affairs would fall under the control of the imperial parliament. Among other questions to be dealt with by this body would be (i) the Commercial Relations of the Empire with Foreign Countries; (ii) Treaty-making Powers; (iii) Patent and Copyright Legislation; (iv) Coinage and Currency; (v) Mail Services; (vi) Fisheries; (vii) Bureau of Trade Statistics; (viii) Naturalization; and (ix) Emigration. Such an imperial parliament could only proceed from an alliance based on preferential agreements. He ridiculed the suggestion that the empire must not be saved because preference, which is the only means for bringing about this result, involved the abandonment of free trade. If free trade was inconsistent to close imperial relations, then away with free trade. It was not a valid objection to the federation of the German Empire, the creation of the United States, the constitution of the Australian Commonwealth or the South African Union that one of the constituent states, acting independently, might have preferred a free trade fiscal system. Similarly there was no reason why the empire should not be consolidated because one of the constituents might be compelled to sacrifice free trade for this great object."

Mr. Duven explained that he regarded such a parliament as necessary because there were certain disintegrating influences within the empire that should not be permitted to go unchecked. What or where those influences are he did not state, and they are not apparent to the average observer. Rather does there seem a tendency toward closer relations, as illustrated by the movement for imperial defence. The out-and-out plan of imperial federation will not commend itself to the people of the various states. They will prefer to meet conditions as they arise, and progress toward closer unity without any sacrifice of the principle of autonomy. What the future may develop along lines of imperial control and administration it is idle to attempt to predict. At present there is no general desire for such a scheme as Mr. Duven proposes.

ON KING SQUARE

Should St. John place its benches on exhibition for the benefit of tourists and sight-seers, and as an advertisement of what the city can produce?

If not, the seats along the west side of King Square, facing Charlotte street, should be removed to a less conspicuous place on the square. Those benches are never used by ladies or children. They are the resort of loafers. Why should the city provide seats for these gentry, where they become conspicuous, beside one of the best streets in the city? Why should the city provide a comfortable resting place between drinks for men who do not work, and who gratify day after day between these benches and the saloons? Of course this is not true of all men who may be seen there, but it is true of many. There should be no seats along that walk. They should be placed on the less frequented portions of the square. The city should not convey to visitors the impression that it is proud of its loafers and desire to have them in the front row for exhibition purposes. The mayor, or whoever has authority in the matter should have the benches removed entirely from the walk that fronts on Charlotte street. Either that or let it be told in the literature of the Tourist Association that Exhibit A on King Square, St. John, is a rare display of the genus Loafer, which flourishes in the glorious climate of the region and may be inspected at leisure and without charge at any hour of the day.

REMARKABLE GROWTH

The trade of Canada grows at an amazing rate. For the month of May it was almost $80,000,000, or more than 30 per cent greater than that for May of last year. The increase is general. An Ottawa despatch states that the total trade for the current year may reach $800,000,000. These figures tell of wonderful progress. The country is prosperous in all departments of activity. The rapid increase of population creates a great demand for both native and imported merchandise. The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"WHAT will that child think up next?" sighed Eleanor's mother. You see, Eleanor had just been very vigorously dispossessed of the notion that it would be a splendid idea to get the merry gurdy man to sing to her and her little girl, and go on his rounds with him for a few days.

She had come into the room where we were, bubbling over with delight at her scheme. "You see, mamma, the little girl could sleep in my bed and have my place at the table, and she wouldn't be any more bother for you than me, I'm sure, because you always say I'm a whole household, and she is just as quiet— And then I could go along with him and shake the little plate with the jingles on it, and catch the money when the people throw it out of the windows, 'cause I'm very good at catching."

CHURCHES CRAZY ON PROHIBITION

So Said Rural Dean Cayley to the Synod in Toronto—Sunday Tobogganing a Sin—A Spirited Debate

(Toronto Star)

At the concluding session of the Anglican Synod yesterday afternoon, the discussion became quite heated when the delegates were asked by the Temperance and Moral Reform committee to place themselves on record as opposing the granting of liquor licenses to clubs. Rural Dean Cayley described the clause as "humbug," "The Christian Church," he said, "exists to preach the Gospel. We are going mad on this subject of prohibition, not only in one but in many ways." The Rural Dean quoted a remark made to him that this kind of action by churches was "the church sink in the nostrils of some of the most splendid men in the country."

"We haven't the right," he added, "to alienate the respect and support of men who do not happen to think it wise for men to be more prohibitory than God."

H. T. Beck stated that the Synod had passed such a resolution last year, and by harping upon the matter the Church wools the moral and financial support of a great many leading men who were members of clubs.

"Do you mean to say," called out a delegate, "that these influential men would resign if there were no liquor sold?"

"If this means the Brockton Club, for instance, I am in favor of it," remarked T. M. Millar, "but if it means the National Club and the Yacht Club I do not agree." He declared that he was a member of clubs, and that there was no more harm in drinking there than in the home.

"I am much more afraid of the clubs than I am of the low tavern," shouted a clergyman at the back of the hall. "They are much more dangerous to my boy."

By a vote of 60 to 36 the Synod went on record as opposing club licenses.

Hon. S. H. Blake as Inquirer

A second recommendation from the Moral Reform committee, urging the Synod to protest against the popular pastime of tobogganing in High Park on Sunday, stirred up another wordy debate.

"I am supporting this recommendation," said Hon. S. H. Blake, "and I would protest all Sunday tobogganing, because I believe the Lord would have me do it. By so doing I hope to set the example, and see the children and help them to live right, too. I suppose some will say we are peculiar. Well, I want to be peculiar in regard to this. I regret there's not more of this kind of peculiarity among our friends, the Methodists. They have gone far from the footsteps of old John Wesley."

"This is humbug," said Rural Dean Cayley, in criticizing Mr. Blake's support of the resolution. "We are a peculiar people, and if we remain so it must be by holiness, not by humbug. If Mr. Blake had lived during the inquisition he would have been a first-class inquisitor."

"I say we ought to exercise our reason, and not indulge in spiritual tyranny. Mr. Blake pays generously, yea, and misquotes Scripture generally."

Rising to a point of order, Mr. Blake said: "I don't think this is proper language. You are insinuating that I'm a humbug."

Dean Cayley: "Pardon me, I didn't say you were a humbug, but I do say that the aim of your resolution is a humbug."

His Lordship interposed, and urged that anything in the nature of personalities be kept out of the discussions.

"We are simply wasting the time of this Synod discussing trivialities," Dean Cayley continued. "I wouldn't be surprised if such a resolution as this would result in even more unchristian conduct on the Lord's Day than there is at present. We shall not say that people shall not go tobogganing on Sunday, but we could say that people shall not use our property on our toboggan slides on Sunday."

Dean Cayley then moved an amendment that the clause referring to the High Park toboggan slides be struck out, but it was voted down by a large majority.

Does it seem reasonable to suppose that human knowledge of the body of man is progressing and increasing from day to day because of the research work of earnest scientists that the knowledge of the impassible soul of man and its relation to the universe, to past, present, and future, is complete? Are we to believe that a careful scientific study of the very sources of Christianity is another method of touching the Ark, and that the

 If so, then it is possible for man to Evangelical Christianity is the child of independent investigation. From Gregory the Great to Savonarola, from Martin Luther to John Wesley the great evangelists have cast aside the empty husks of formula, and glorified the search for truth. No Methodist, if he is worthy, is spiritual ancestors, can accept any tradition-dread theory if it does not appeal to his reason and his conscience. The Methodist keeps his own conscience, and protests against the assumption of the duty by bishop or clergy, by church conference. How, then, consistently,

SCHOOL MEDICAL INSPECTION WORK
(Ottawa Medical Journal.)

The work of medical inspection of British public schools has disclosed the exist ence of conditions which directly affect the health of the children. The measures taken to direct attention to the physical defects which demand a remedial course are of the greatest importance. The work of over 1,100 medical inspectors has shown that even bodily cleanliness is not sufficient to insure the health of the children is neglected. In Bradford, of 30,000 pupils were clean, when the physical inspection was made years ago. Recently the percentage showed great improvement, and appeared today at 200 per cent. Those who appear to be strangers to soap and water are not so in some of the rural districts many of the girls have unclean heads; and of the 9,000 pupils of London, 16,000 are verminous. The condition of English school children's eyes is better than that of the children of some other countries, yet ab-per cent need the care of an oculist while 5 per cent. suffer from ear trouble. Tuberculosis is, fortunately, on the decline among children of 10 to 15 years. In the last 40 years the cases have been reduced half or more. Diphtheria, scarlet fever and croup are also much reduced under careful medical inspection. The children's teeth are very much neglected. Thousands of the little ones are absolutely unacquainted with the tooth brush or any substitute therefor. Of the children between 6 and 7 years, only 25 per cent. have sound teeth. Nearly 50 per cent. of the 8 to 9 year olds are sound. In the 10 to 12 age group 60 per cent. are sound. Of 1,000 children under 9 decaying teeth: not one child under 3 has a decayed tooth; 200 children between 3 and 4 have 100 decayed teeth; 300 children between 4 and 5 have 1,000 decayed teeth; 400 children between 5 and 6 have 1,500 decayed teeth; 500 children between 6 and 7 have 2,000 decayed teeth; 600 children between 7 and 8 have 2,500 decayed teeth; 700 children between 8 and 9 have 3,000 decayed teeth.

dentured. After having had a tooth filled treated. The recent medical inspection have resulted in thousands being sent to the dentists' to receive attention.

Medical inspection of the schools is, though, systematic medical inspection—do much to benefit the rising generation to prevent the spread of disease, and to cure the remedying of defects which, neglected, would seriously affect the healthfulness and happiness of the children after life. It is unfortunately too true that thousands of parents take less interest in the health and training of their children than in the care of their pet dog or other domestic animals. Anything will arouse them to a sense of their duty toward their offspring will be a good thing for the country.

CLEANLINESS IN DENTISTRY

If people knew the frightful risk they run of infection from unclean dentistry they would better realize the awful chances they take and what a mighty important factor cleanliness is.

Sackville Tribune—St. John churches continue to increase their offerings for foreign missions. There must be room for mission work in the city itself. The bluecoats of the city are agitated considerably over the prospect of a match between them and the newspaper men with bats and balls as the weapons. Many of the policemen are anxious to show that they can wield a bat as well as a baton, can twist a ball as well as a prisoner's collar, and are eager to meet the scribes on the ball field. It has been proposed that a game be played during exhibition week as a feature of the fair.

AUSTIN CAME DOWN FROM HUB IN 19 HOURS

All Connections Made on Inauguration of Six Trip a Week Service—Had 177 Passengers

The Eastern Steamship Company's seamer Calvin Austin, in command of Captain Pike, arrived this morning and docked at 6.15 o'clock, inaugurating the new summer schedule of six trips a week. The steamer made the voyage from Boston in nineteen hours, coming direct with 177 passengers. Among the number were passengers for Fredericton and Woodstock and Digby and other points in Nova Scotia reached via the D. A. R. steamer Prince Rupert, as well as for points on the Intercolonial and the Shore Line railway. The steamer made connections with the trains and boats for all these points and thus obviated a stop over at St. John for those who were in a hurry to get to their destination. Passengers for the north shore were able to catch the I. C. R. express leaving at 7.10 a. m. The steamer will leave at 7 o'clock this evening on her return voyage. The indications point to a big tourist season via this route.

GIRL INTOXICATED IN SQUARE, SAID TO BE WIFE OF ST. JOHN MAN

It was a pitiable sight in the police court this morning to see Ethel Bullock, a rather attractive girl of nineteen years, face Judge Ritchie and hear her plead guilty to a charge of being found drunk in Queen square last night. She was respectfully dressed, and her general appearance was neat. The girl was arrested last night by Policeman Joseph Scott. She said that she was in her nineteenth year.

It is said that the girl belongs to Moncton, and that she was married there, but her husband and she quarrelled and separation was the result. Her husband is said to be employed in this city. The girl was remanded for the present.

CITY HAS ALMOST CLEAN BILL OF HEALTH

As regards health conditions in the city, the present year has been a banner one so far, and the number of infectious diseases reported at the board of health has been far below other years. The number of cards placed in position in houses where there was a contagious disease, is easily counted. At present the city presents practically a clean bill of health, there being but three danger cards in position, two for diphtheria and one for scarlet fever.

WEDDED TODAY

There was a very pretty ceremony this morning in the cathedral when Rev. A. W. McLean, with nuptial mass, married Elizabeth B., youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Holland, of 42 Clarence street, and James Edwin Emery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Emery, of 48 Exmouth street.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a pattern dress of lustrous lace over tulle, with trimmings of pearl and crystal. She wore a large picture hat of white with trimmings of ostrich feathers and carried a bouquet of white roses. Her travelling dress is of grey broadcloth with trimmings to match.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lulu, who wore a princess dress of wisteria shade and a picture hat of cream with trimmings of marabout. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The flower girls were Misses Helen and Margaret Stanton, little nieces of the bride. The groom was supported by his brother, Oliver. Leo T. Holland and Stephen Hurley acted as ushers.

The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful amethyst bracelet, to the bridesmaid a sapphire ring and to the groomsmen a pearl stickpin. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served and reception held at the home of the bride's parents. The rooms were prettily decorated with cut flowers. Many handsome and valuable presents were received, among them being a chest of cutlery from the staff of Brock & Paterson, where the groom is employed. The happy couple left for Halifax on the C. P. R. and will tour Nova Scotia.

DEATH OF J. P. HIPWELL

One of the best known railway mail clerks in the service, John P. Hipwell, passed away this morning at the age of fifty, after an illness of about six weeks. Death was due to an abscess on the brain. On Sunday last Mr. Hipwell took a weak spell, and became unconscious, remaining in that state until this morning at 3.30, when the end came.

He was a railway mail clerk for the last twenty-eight years, running chiefly between this city and Montreal. In his long career of service he made many friends who will bear of his death with regret. Mr. Hipwell was a member of the Orange order as well as of the I. O. F.

He survived by his father, Police Sergeant John Hipwell, his wife, four sons and one little daughter, Flossie. The sons are Edward, Frederick, Hedley and Allan, all living at home. Two brothers, Wm. of Lynn, Mass., and David of this city, also survive, as well as two sisters in Lynn—Mrs. Fred Wain and Mrs. Stephen Morris.

The funeral will be held at 2.30 on Thursday afternoon.

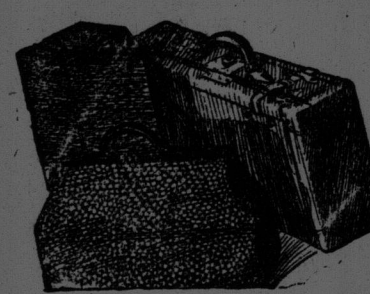

The police extinguished a bonfire last night in Spring street. No. 1 chemical engine responded last night about 6 o'clock to a still alarm received at No. 2 engine house, for a slight blaze in the house of Mrs. Joseph Bowes, Wellington Row. Little damage was done.

Those Men's Shirts At 59c.

This is by long odds the best lot of Shirts ever sold under price. There isn't one in the collection that wouldn't be readily bought by any man at full price, for they're thoroughly up-to-date in every detail.

The materials are Percal, Madras and Gingham in dark, medium and light colors. You could pick blind-folded and not get an undesirable pattern, or one that isn't a full dollar's worth. And not only in material and patterns are they notably good, but the workmanship is of the highest order, and at the price they should go like wild-fire—they will, too, for Saint John men know a good thing when they see it.

They are arranged on a table, according to size to facilitate selection.

In City or County Every Bedroom Should Contain A Rowe Lavatory

Formerly a wash basin with running water frequently required expensive plumber's repairs. Many houses and summer cottages have no plumbing. In those houses where running water it is nearly always found in the bath-room. Sleeping rooms, where running water is so necessary, are not provided with pipes. Offices also are generally without facilities for running water, and likewise hotel bedrooms in even the most modern hotels.

In all these places the ROWE HYGENIC WASH BASIN answers every requirement. It is cheaper than the wash stand with its accessories. It looks much better. Takes up less space. It procures all the comfort of a wash in running water without the expense of a plumber.

HOW YOU USE IT

You will notice that the tank holding the fresh water is behind the mirror. Its capacity is five gallons, and it is easily filled. When you wish to use the Lavatory, press the faucet and draw as much water as you please. As it is a spring faucet there is no danger of the water being left running.
