DOWN THERE

"Down there," says the Toronto Star in concluding an article dealing with the Duncan Commission and the Maritime Provinces ("the people want some sort of a new deal and mean to be 'up-letting' until they get it.")

There, in short metre, we have the outstanding truth about politics in the Maritime Provinces today, and wise men should give heed to it.

The Star rightly says that the people of the Maritimes, for two years past, so far as politics are concerned, have been in the position of those who were determined to "compel a hearing." If we are to judge by public sentiment as expressed in the newspapers of the six provinces west of us, the Maritimes have been suffering not only in compelling a hearing but in winning a favorable verdict.

It remains to be seen what will be the result of the work of the Board of Railway Commissioners and of the Duncan Commission in connection with various issues of vital importance to the Atlantic Provinces, and furthermore what the next Federal Government will do to rectify Maritime disabilities so far as these are the result of federal injustice and the gradual and increasingly great departure from the principles of federal union.

Too many of the candidates appealing for election today in the Maritimes have been dealing in generalities. Too few of them have committed themselves to definite and binding statements concerning their attitude in case they become members of the new House of Commons. That is true, also, of the political leaders and their lieutenants. It should be thoroughly understood by all parties and leaders alike that, as the Toronto Star has emphasized, the people of the Maritimes want a deal and mean to be "up-letting" until they get it.

We should get a new deal and a satisfactory one as a result of the coming election and the creation of a new House of Commons following the presentation of the Maritime case to the Canadian public during the last two years. The time for bland generalities is long since past. We have been fed upon those for a generation or more. We need concrete evidence that Parliament at last has come to realize that Canada extends beyond Quebec's eastern boundary.

A MATTER OF HONESTY.

Having in mind that the humble reporter knows what the speaker means, the Border Cities Star observes that nowadays he must be able to write not only what was said but also know what the speaker meant to say, adding: "Outside of that, the job's a cinch."

Even in those instances in which the reporter knows what the speaker means to say, it sometimes happens that what the great man did mean to say occurred to him on the following morning as impolite or inexpedient, in which case the reporter is expected to take on the crown of martyrdom.

Canadian Press, Limited, made up as it is of the chief Canadian daily newspapers, performs so valuable and so essential a public service it can scarcely consent to be used as a mere convenience to public men, great or little.

The Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen in Portage La Prairie has for his opponent his former law partner, Ewan A. McPherson, K. C., city solicitor of Portage, a member of the Provincial House, and now a fusion candidate. Young McPherson was admitted to the bar twenty-two years ago and at that time formed a partnership with another young man who was recognized as one destined to rise—the present Prime Minister of the Dominion. The partnership was continued for three years.

Edwin Markham, who achieved sudden fame when he wrote "The Man With The Hoe," has written "The Ballad of the Gallows Bird." This is to be one of a series of Markham ballads to be published next year. It is said that Markham took nine years to write "The Gallows Bird." One of the literary reviewers observes that he must have found time hanging rather heavy on his hands.

Experience is the acid test of wit. The bump of knowledge comes from the hammer of experience. Experience is a thief; it robs us of our illusions.

You have to be a pretty good bargain hunter to get experience at reduced rates. Experience is all right as a teacher, but it has some awfully stupid pupils. Despite the present vogue, experience has not yet opened a correspondence school.

Why Didn't She Speak Before? An Episcopal bishop, at a dinner recently, was seated next to a beautiful young lady. When the lobster was served he left it untouched and the young lady noticing it inquired the reason.

What's this? Here is Mr. Thomas Cantley, former member, and Conservative candidate for Pictou, N. S., telling the electors in his campaign speeches that he "was and is in favor of lower duties on automobiles." Mr. Meighen really ought to have some definite and uniform policy for his candidates. It is not calculated to develop public confidence in the sincerity of either leader or in the sincerity of candidates and supporters advocating directly opposite policies in different parts of the country.

REFORMS AFFECTING MARITIMES ARE PREDICTED BY KING

LIBERAL CHIEF OPENS N. B. TOUR AT WOODSTOCK

Tells of Tariff Reductions Made for Benefit of Consuming Public
PREDICTS VICTORY FOR PARTY IN ELECTION
Charges Meighen With Dereliction in Attempting Task of Government

WOODSTOCK, Aug. 24.—"Far reaching measures of reform, affecting those provinces backed by expert opinion," were predicted by Mr. Mackenzie King at his first meeting in the Maritimes here tonight. The Liberal leader was referring to the two commissions now considering Maritime problems. To the Railway Commission, the last government had assigned the task of revising freight rates and special instructions had been given to consider the claims of the Maritime Provinces in respect to the Intercolonial Railway.

At the outset tonight, Mr. King told his audience that from observations of a speaking tour to the Pacific he was able to predict a Liberal victory. The constituency was to be congratulated on the union of Progressive and Liberal forces in the selection of the candidate, A. R. Foster.

In three successive years, said Mr. King, reviewing the financial record of his government, there were three surpluses in the public accounts of the country. This was done when times were particularly hard. The Liberal leader told of the tariff reductions which had been made for the benefit of those engaged in the basic industries and for the consuming public at large.

The only effect of Mr. Meighen's all-round increase of protection would be to increase prices all round. The Liberal party was not in favor of abolishing tariff entirely.

"Some tariff might be essential for the upkeep of some industries," said Mr. King.

TARIFF BOARD.
But the Liberal government had created a tariff board to deal with these matters. The reason the government was able to reduce tariff rates was because the treasury of the country required less than it did under Conservative administration, said the Liberal leader, in replying to Conservative campaign statements to the effect that the cuts had been made at the expense of the treasury.

The whole customs matter should be investigated by the commission of three judges which would go from coast to coast hearing whatever charges had been made in any port. If the Liberal party was returned the whole affair would be cleaned up.

"It is madness to talk of a general election in time of war, yet that is what Mr. Meighen lays down as his policy," said Mr. King, in dealing with the constitutional question. "How is he going to get a general election if the Governor-General will not grant him a dissolution?"

When Mr. Meighen advised His Excellency that he could form a government he made a statement that was not true.

"I would say that Mr. Meighen did a deceptive thing when he told the Governor-General he could carry on. He knew he could not," said Mr. King. "I have challenged Mr. Meighen to reply to that but he has not done so."

MARITIME RIGHTS

The commission on Maritime Rights, he said, had been appointed by the Liberal government.

"Had reciprocity carried, I venture to say that you would not have any Maritime Rights problem at the present time," said Mr. King. "There is a great natural market at your door which you would have today but for the old false Tory cry of disloyalty and annexation."

This had worked to the great detriment of the country at large but no part had suffered more than the Maritime Provinces.

A great deputation had come to Ottawa from the Maritime Provinces asking that only imported goods entering by Canadian ports be given the advantage of the British preference. The government had made this resolution in the last budget brought down. The Railway Commission had been instructed to give its consideration to the problem of the shipment of Canadian goods over Canadian lines and through Canadian ports. The last government also wanted the commission to take full cognizance of the obligations undertaken by the provinces which entered upon Confederation.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION
Create Gas, Sourness and Pain. How to Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sour, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every sufferer knows and which every sufferer fears.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do great harm. Try having acids all digestive aids and hasten relief. Take a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This soothes the stomach, prevents the formation of excess gas or pain, Bismarck Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

CHARLOTTETOWN RESOLUTIONS

AT CHARLOTTETOWN on November 6 last a highly representative conference, called together after much searching preliminary work, adopted eight resolutions dealing with the situation here under review. These resolutions set out the principal needs and demands of this division of Canada, specifying what we are asking from both political parties, in short from the Parliament of Canada. Let us summarize briefly.

1.—That the Dominion Government should initiate and finance an immediate and aggressive immigration policy specifically for the Maritime Provinces, continuing the same for not fewer than ten consecutive years; and that this policy involve adequate organization both overseas and in the Maritime Provinces.

2.—That in the opinion of this conference the Maritime Provinces should be conceded a revision in freight and express rates to modify the disabilities under which they labor in marketing their goods in other parts of Canada, detailed representations concerning which will be made to the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada during the general freight rate investigation now being conducted by that body. (As to this matter, there is needed from the leaders of both parties a binding engagement that any beneficial judgments brought down by the Railway Commission will be implemented by Parliament under the leadership of the party which is dominant after September 14.)

3.—Resolved that in the opinion of this conference the equipment of the ports of the Maritime Provinces should not only meet present requirements but be well in advance of those of the future; and that in the interests of the whole country, and as a national undertaking, immediate steps should be taken by the Dominion Government to this end.

4.—Resolved that in the opinion of this conference Maritime exporters and importers should, in order to compete in export markets, be granted a substantial reduction in existing rates to the nearest seaport, and the rates so established applied equally to and from Saint John, West Saint John, Halifax, Montreal and Quebec throughout the year.

5.—That the Federal Government be urged to make larger annual appropriation for the purpose of developing our fishery resources and for the expansion of export markets.

6.—That Canada should establish a much larger number of competent trade commissioners to promote adequately her export and import trade.

7.—That coaling plants should be established at central points in Canada and render unnecessary the importation of American anthracite; and that legislation should be passed looking to an expansion of the markets for the coal of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Alberta.

8.—That the disabilities of Prince Edward Island with regard to trade and commerce should be modified by the erection of needed frost-proof warehouses and the construction of deep-water terminal facilities; that another car ferry steamer be built and put into service; that the C. N. R. service from Sackville to the Island ports be brought up to date, and that the cost of the present and the enlarged ferry service be charged to the consolidated revenue of Canada.

WHERE DO THE LEADERS STAND?
THE work at Charlottetown was not done in a corner. It vastly increased the interest which the other provinces had displayed in the Maritime cause, and it was followed by the great Winnipeg conference which, after hearing the Maritime representatives, passed the following resolution unanimously—the first of all the resolutions to be adopted:

"Therefore be it resolved, that this conference urge the Dominion Government immediately to take such steps as may be necessary and justifiable by the circumstances as will remedy the economic disabilities which now prevent the Maritime Provinces from realizing those advantages which under Confederation and the subsequent development of the Dominion of Canada should have accrued to them."

THUS the matter stands at date. What will the Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen say tonight to his fellow-Canadians in these provinces? What will the Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King, in turn, say when he addresses the people of the Maritime Provinces from the platform of the Imperial Theatre?

What is to be the National railroad policy of this country? We paid for the Transcontinental a Canadian or a foreign institution? We paid for it. Is it to be employed, or is any other part of the C. N. R. system to be employed, to build up American lake and seaboard cities at the expense of our own ports or our own people, or is there to be a resolute all-Canadian railroad policy, employing the hundreds of millions spent in Canada in railway construction, for the benefit of its own people and the upbuilding not only of the port cities, but of all the territory served by this great system?

What will the Hon. Mr. Meighen say with respect to this—in forthright, definite and binding language? And, in turn, what will the Rt. Hon. Mr. King say when he comes here?

We in the Maritimes know too well from long and bitter experience the value—or the lack of value—of vague pre-election promises. We know that political leaders hesitate to make binding political commitments here, fearing these will embarrass them and their party in the other provinces. Nevertheless, we must all know just where the leaders of both parties stand on these issues, and now is the hour in which that must be made clear beyond the possibility of misapprehension.

TO SPEAK IN SALISBURY

SALISBURY, Aug. 24.—Thus far during the campaign matters political have been very quiet in this section of Westmorland county and the general consensus of opinion is that the electors have their minds pretty firmly made up as to how they will vote. The first political meeting of the campaign here is billed for Saturday evening when Dr. O. B. Price and other Conservatives will speak. The Liberals have not yet fixed their date for a political meeting at Salisbury.

Six Montreal Sea Scouts Reach New York In Whaler

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The whaler, James Caird, with its sea-hardened crew of six Montreal Boy Scouts, is tied up at the foot of West Ninety-eighth street. Under the direction of Kenneth Brown, the vessel's 17-year-old skipper, the scouts are preparing for the return trip to Montreal after five days in New York City.

Standing at the head of his crew of ten, ruddy scouts in sailor uniforms, Skipper Brown talked tersely of the "practical" benefit which the two-weeks' cruise here had been to the "men" who, he explained, had been selected because of their superior status and sea experience. Each of the Scouts, with one exception, has a record of 2,000 miles of cruising to his credit. "Each of them had a man's job in combating the rough head winds on Lake Champlain," he said. "But it was splendid experience for us all. We have had plenty of theory but not

"It is the Marry-in-Haste People Who Keep the Path to the Divorce Court Hot," Says Dorothy Dix—"It Should Take Six Months Instead of Six Minutes to Get a Marriage License."

THE only way to stop divorces is to keep people from wanting divorces. To reform marriage we must begin at the right end and prevent unwise and unsuitable marriages.

After a couple have got to the point where they hate each other with that loathing which is the result of a partnership not earthly good is attained by keeping them bound together. They bring out all the worst that is in each other's characters, as a hot potato brings out the measles, and it doesn't make a bit of difference whether this state of affairs is the result of a deadly sin or deadly boredom. The cancer is there, and the only humane thing is divorce—the surgeon's knife that cuts away the festering sore and that gives healthy parts of the heart and soul a chance to live.

BUT it is better to prevent the disease than it is to cure it, and any one who will devise a way of stopping the hasty and idiotic marriages that are foredoomed to end in misery and broken homes will have done society an incalculable benefit.

Many remedies have been suggested. One of the latest is that in every community a commission of five good and intelligent men and women should be appointed who shall pass upon every marriage license and decide whether it shall be issued or not.

OF COURSE this plan will never be adopted, but it has its good points. For all of that, in the first place, while the Matrimonial Committee was debating whether John Jones and Susan Dough had the financial and physical qualifications that entitled them to enter into the holy estate and were temperamentally suited to each other, it would give John and Susan themselves a chance to think it over.

It is the marry-in-haste people who keep the path to the Divorce Court hot. If it took six months instead of six minutes to get a marriage license half of the men and women would change their minds and withdraw their applications before the cancer was up. And those who still wanted their "glory ticket" as our colored friends say, would prove that the matrimonial knot is not always a slip-knot.

ALSO, the advantages of having the calm and dispassionate opinion of five persons, with a veto power, on a marriage is too obvious to need pointing out. What folly they would save their fellow creatures from committing! What mistakes they would prevent! From what abuses of regret they would yank the unwary! What a life-saving station they would be! For love is a madness that temporarily clouds one's faculties and renders common sense nil and judgment void.

Would such a committee grant doty grandpa, with his millions, a license to marry a flapper? Not much.

Would they give an elderly widower with six children a legal right to bring trouble home with him in the shape of a wife as young as his own daughter? Nay, verily.

WOULD they let Cholly Adelpate commit himself to paying alimony for life by tying up with an elderly soubrette old enough to be his mother? Not a chance of it!

Would they snatch one of the jaws of disaster the generous-minded youth who is about to ensnare himself to the doctor's bill and the sanitarium by marrying a sickly woman? There's not a doubt of it.

Would they head off from certain misery the girl who feels that she has a mission to make a Keezy cure of herself by marrying a drunkard? Every time!

Would they write "held up for further consideration" on the back of every marriage license in which a young couple proposed to go and live with their in-laws? They would.

EVERYBODY but the rich old man knows that he is bringing trouble on himself when he marries an 18-year-old instead of a 28-year-old. Everybody knows that the widower's wife and children will fight. Everybody knows that the drunkard's wife will come whining to the Divorce Court. And everybody knows that the virtuously every young couple who live with their in-laws are slated for trouble.

What a blessing if there could have been some power that could have saved all of these matrimonial fools from their folly before it took place. Instead of trying to rescue them from it when it was too late! For the time comes when men and women look at their marriages through other people's eyes and recognize the plain folly displayed in their choice.

If the glamour of love lasted it would be enough to marry on, but it is only a passing illusion. After it is gone there must be something to stay the heart and stomach on or marriage is a failure. There must be suitability and compatibility and bread and butter in the larder. And it is because people so seldom consider these necessities in marriage that so many marriages end in divorce.

OF COURSE, it will be argued that no committee, however wise, could pick out satisfactory husbands and wives for others, because nobody can tell what it is in another human being that fires our fancy. Granted. It is also conceded that every man and woman should be allowed the right to choose his or her own mate. But undoubtedly it would make for the general happiness if this choice could be done under guidance, and it would save them much suffering if they could be kept from committing a matrimonial blunder that every one but themselves could see was bound to end in disaster for them.

But, alas, the one subject about which no one ever takes advice or listens to reason is marrying. Even the experience of others hangs no red lantern at the edge of its pitfalls. Cupid is amenable to none, not even the fool killer, and so the hasty and ill-considered marriage and subsequent divorce are ever with us.

The Difference

Flapper Fanny Says

SEE-SAWING DOWN BROADWAY

IT IS a safe bet that, at the approach of September, 40 per cent of the population of this great city considers moving to new apartments or flats. Of this number a million, perhaps, actually gets up the courage to change quarters.

Art still is the Village's main industry. But the artists have grown prosperous. The poets still possess, but have taken to making many honest dollars in other ways.

ONE misses the gay and fevered discussions of "isms." This is indeed a day strangely devoid of them. All of the "isms" of the Village of yesterday now have become accepted. Freud is now a genius of science, and psycho-analysis has found its way to the college. The entire younger generation is finding that "freedom" and the Soviet is established.

Cream of Onion Soup—To make enough for six persons scald in double boiler one quart skimmed milk, and keep hot while preparing the onion, etc., which is to be added.
Six onions are boiled in enough water to cover them and they are cooked hard for twenty minutes then drained off—keeping the liquid, which is thickened by adding the pulp of one of the onions which has been run through a sieve and then had stirred into it one tablespoonful of whole meal. This should be seasoned by adding one tablespoonful salt, one salt-spoonful chopped parsley.
Bring this to a boiling point and add to the hot milk in the double boiler. Do not boil, but serve immediately.
Banana-Raisin Sandwiches—One cup raisins (seedless), three bananas, six slices of bread, peanut butter or butter.
Butter the bread, slice the bananas in three slices lengthwise and lay on three slices of the bread. Place the other buttered slices on the filled ones and cut any desired shape. Peanut butter may be used on one slice and butter on the other if desired.

BEHIND THE SCREEN

WHEN tales of struggling film actresses are recounted Ethel Shannon and her plans are never forgotten. You see Ethel had her heart set on being an actress, but the funds weren't forthcoming so she sold the piano to the highest bidder, put the money in her pocket and boarded a train. Her funds were low at San Francisco so she went to work as a shipping clerk and telephone operator.

studios the first time she applied. Three weeks after she landed in Hollywood she was selected to play the feminine lead opposite Bert Loyal in "Easy to Take Money." Lean days set in and Ethel went back to the extra ranks.
When she learned that Bill Hart was looking for a leading lady she was so excited that when he told her the part needed an emotional actress who could weep copious tears Ethel shed so many he hired her on the spot.
She is now in New York working in "The Cherry Tree," the first of the pictures to be made under her new five-year contract.

PICTURES TO COME

"Joseph's Wife," the novel by Kathleen Norris, is to be filmed and Ivaute Frederick has been signed to head the cast and star.

Twelve new Fox pictures will soon be in production. "Seventh Heaven," a John Golden stage play, and "One Increasing Purpose," a A. S. M. Hutchinson novel, will be filmed abroad. "The City," a Clyde Fitch play, "The Auctioneer," "The Monkey Talks," "The Story of Mother Machree," "Whispering Wires," "Canyon of Light," "The Fulback," "Desert Valley"—a Buck Jones vehicle, by the way—"Wings of the Storm" and "Going Crooked" are others scheduled for immediate screen production. And judging from the titles a good time may be anticipated by all the movie fans who favor melodrammer and such.

BETTY IN VAUDEVILLE

After a busy year or so abroad Betty Ellyth has returned to her native shores and is contemplating a vaudeville appearance in some of the larger cities. Betty should be able to put on a pretty good sketch after all her experiences. You remember that we got "all wrought up" over her capture by Arabian bandits, abductees, bedouins, or what have you, and more recently she had a much more harrowing time in England trying to collect her pay check. However, she survived both experiences and after the said tour—which we are assured will be brief—she will resume her screen activities in this country.

STAR DUST

Patsy Ruth Miller will only work 40 weeks a year from now on. She's to do "The Third Degree," another stage play, and a Mary Roberts Rinehart story, "What Happened to Father."

Dale Fuller, character actress, is a favorite with Erich von Stroheim, director of "Greed" and "The Merry Widow," in case you don't place him. She is playing her fifth consecutive role under his direction.

MARIE: "Why did Jane break off your engagement?"
Fred: "Because I stole a kiss."
Marie: "But surely she wouldn't object to that?"
Fred: "Ah, but I stole it from another girl!"

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Aline Michaels
Sometimes, I often dream of it, how splendid things will be! Sometime, I catch the gleam of it, what promises for me! The days will all be brighter then, more filled with song and sun, my loads will all be lighter then, my tasks more sweetly done. I'll travel then to lands afar where thrilling romance waits. I'll wander over sands afar, before strange cities' gates. Sometime I'll have my dearest ones to dwell close by my side, my truest ones and nearest ones to love and bless and guide. Sometime—but still that may be far and, in long years between, those well-loved ones—will they far and all too seldom seem? Sometime, I often dream of it; and yet henceforth I vow, I'll put aside the dream of it and get to living now!

MUCH EVIDENCE ABOUT NOTICE TO HYDRO OFFICE

Difference as to Notification in New System Laundry Matter

COMMENT ON POWER OF COMMISSION

Evidence Completed and Court Adjourns to Consider Decision

Claims by employees of the New Brunswick Power Company that they had mailed the removal notice of the New System Laundry Ltd. to the Civic Power Commission and denials by members of the commission staff that any such notice had been received, featured yesterday afternoon's hearing of the case in which the commission is seeking an injunction to restrain the laundry from purchasing current from the Power Company, and for damages for loss of sale of current since the laundry changed over from the Commission to the Power Company, before

OHIO FARMER FINDS MASTODON

Bones of two giant mastodons, who died in a fierce battle some 200 centuries ago, were uncovered on the farm of James W. Bailey, near Johnstown, O. H. R. Goodwin, registrar of the Ohio State Archaeological museum at Columbus, believes they were hairy mammoths. At the top is shown 12-year-old Ruth Edgerton holding one of the animal's tusks. Beside her is a photo of one of the huge skulls. Below Bailey (left) and Goodwin display bits of the animals' vertebrae.

Mr. Justice White in the Chancery Court. The evidence for both sides was completed and decision will be rendered at a date to be announced later. Ronald A. McAvity, commercial manager for the New Brunswick Power Company, was the first witness called. He said that on Feb. 10 last, a contract between the New System Laundry Ltd. and the Power Company was entered into and a removal notice signed by the manager, Russel Holt, was addressed to the Hydro Commission, to Miss Coleman, a clerk in the Power Company's office and it was his duty to forward it to the Civic Commission.

SYSTEM ADOPTED. To Mr. Inches, witness said that the custom of one competitor notifying the other of a change in the service was adopted by the Power Company as a result of its first having been adopted by the Hydro Commission. Mr. McAvity further stated that while he was chairman of the Civic Hydro Commission, the soliciting agents for hydro had been instructed by their superiors to take any business they could get away from the Power Company as the contracts of the latter company "were not worth the paper they were written on."

TO DR. BAXTER THE WITNESS ADMITTED that the laundry people had signed a new contract with the Power Company before the removal notice in respect to the existing contract with the Hydro Commission had gone on its way to the latter. He knew of no agreement between the Power Company and Commission as to the giving and receiving of notices. The witness said that of his own knowledge he knew nothing further regarding the removal notice question after he had handed it to Miss Coleman.

MISS COLEMAN CALLED. Miss May Coleman, stenographer in the commercial department of the Power Company, was then called to the witness stand. She stated that she had been employed by the company since April, 1926. She said that the typing of orders for installations and removals of gas and electric meters was part of her duties.

Witness testified that she had had the contract of February 10 between the laundry and the Power Company, in her possession. She said she typed the contract before she was called to give the typewritten copy to the return from the laundry premises.

Witness responded in the affirmative when Mr. Inches asked her if Mr. McAvity had given the removal notice signed by the New System, as brought in by Mr. McAvity's testimony. Miss Coleman said she put the removal notice in an envelope and addressed it to the Hydro Commission. When questioned by Mr. Inches regarding the procedure of mailing, as carried out by the Power Company, witness stated that sometimes letters were mailed by the office boy and sometimes by herself. When Mr. Inches asked the witness if the envelope in question was properly stamped, she replied that she had placed a two-cent stamp on it and placed it with the rest of the mail on her desk. In answer to Mr. Inches' question, all correspondence for the Power Commission is registered, witness testified. Removal notices are generally registered, witness continued.

Dr. Baxter suggested to witness that there was a possibility of letters, containing removal notices, not being registered. Witness said that this was possible. In answer to Dr. Baxter, Miss Coleman said that these notices were generally registered.

Dr. Baxter—"I suppose it would be possible to put a registered letter in the pile of 'ordinary' mail?" Witness—"It has happened."

Dr. Baxter—"With this letter in question you are not sure whether you attached sufficient postage or not?" Witness—"I am not sure."

OFFICE BOY TESTIFIES. This concluded Miss Coleman's testimony. Walter Wilson, office boy with the Power Company, was then sworn. He said it was his duty to attend to the mailing of letters.

Witness replied affirmatively when Premier Baxter asked if he was given receipts when he registered letters. When asked if he had looked in the registration receipt book to see if the letter in question was registered, witness replied that Miss Coleman had charge of the book and he did not know whether any one had looked up the receipt.

Miss Coleman was then asked if she had looked in the registration receipt book and said that she had but had found no receipt.

THE CHIEF CLERK. Fred Withers, chief clerk with the Power Company, was called to the stand. He said he had been employed by the company almost eight years and had been chief clerk for the last four. When Mr. Withers had been sworn, Mr. Inches stated that witness had prepared a list of the names of hundreds of people who, counsel alleged, had been customers of the Power Company but had broken their contracts by going over to the Power Commission, and asked Judge White that this be allowed in the evidence. Dr. Baxter interrupted with the remark that "I will never get through this thing if this taken into the evidence. If Mr. Inches' opinions are better than Your Honor's and mine, he will get a new trial and I think the Power Commission is able to stand the costs."

Mr. Inches retaliated with the charge that Mr. Willet, accountant secretary of the commission, had testified Friday that the Power Commission was a losing proposition. (Mr. Willet, while on the witness stand at the Friday hearing, admitted that the Power Commission was at the present time operating at a loss but could show profits if 10,000,000 kilowatt hours were sold.) Judge White ruled that the list prepared by Mr. Withers was not admissible evidence. Dr. Baxter—"There is a suggestion, as the evidence shows, that the letter might have been forwarded by the Power Company as unregistered mail. I do not wish to reflect on the business conduct of the employees of the Power Company office. I think we should examine employees of the Power Commission office to find out whether or not we received the notice." The was done later in the afternoon.

JUDGE QUOTES STATUTES

Judge White—"I'd like to draw your attention to the fact that this commission, assuming it is a commission, is given power by the statutes to manage and control the distribution system (wires, poles, etc.) The statutes do not give the commission the power to sue." Dr. Baxter thereupon referred to sections 16 of the Electric Power Act of 1923 and quoted as follows: "A commission may regulate and fix the price which the commission's electricity power is to be sold by any municipality or commission thereof."

"To be it down," Dr. Baxter continued, "the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission can fix the price at which the commission's electricity is to be sold by any of these power commissions. It is absurd to say that the commission may not sue. The commission could not make contracts for current."

Judge White said that he himself had quoted from section 94 and subsequently remarked that the question of the moment would appear to be whether the commission had authority to contract for sale of power.

Dr. Baxter, who left yesterday afternoon for Montreal on a business trip from which he expects to return Thursday, then withdrew from the court, his associate, looking up the case of the Power Commission.

R. A. WILLET RECALLED

R. A. Willet, accountant secretary of the Power Commission, was called upon to testify. "Did you have a conversation with Mr. Holt, manager of the laundry, regarding the removal notice alleged to have been sent to the Power Commission?"

Mr. Willet—"Yes, I had two conversations with Mr. Holt. In the first, I told Mr. Holt that we had not received the notice to date (March 6) and he further promised to send me the notice at that time."

Mr. Willet—"I had a second conversation with Mr. Holt. In the first, I told Mr. Holt that we had not received the notice to date (March 6) and he further promised to send me the notice at that time."

Mr. Willet—"I do not recall his telling me that."

When asked by Mr. Carter what postman delivered the mail at the Power Commission office, witness replied J. K. MacDonald. Witness said that he was at the Power Commission office between Feb. 6 and Feb. 13 and it was his custom to open the mail. He denied that he had at that time or since read a removal notice signed by the New System Laundry.

Mr. Carter—"Did you have any special reason to watch the mails closely between Feb. 6 and Feb. 13?"

WAS INFORMED, HE SAYS.

Mr. Willet—"Yes, I had been informed by one of my employees that the New System was considering a change. I was most watchful for the removal notice and was so some time after Feb. 13."

THE HYDRO ENGINEER.

Barry Wilson, engineer with the Hydro Commission, was the next witness. In answer to the next witness, he said that he was usually present at the office when the mail was delivered but did not open it unless Mr. Willet was absent. Witness stated he has not seen any removal notice signed by the laundry and had no knowledge of any such notice being received by the Commission.

Miss Winnifred Blair, clerk at the Power Commission office, testified that she sorted the mail when it arrived, putting the Commission letters on Mr. Willet's desk and distributing the private letters among the members of the staff. She said she did not open letters herself and knew of no removal notice received from the Power Company regarding the laundry contract.

LETTER CARRIER HEARD.

J. K. MacDonald, letter carrier, testified that he delivered the mail to the Power Commission. In answer to Mr. Inches, Mr. MacDonald said that in only one instance, to his knowledge, had a letter, addressed to the Power Commission, been placed in the New Brunswick Power Commission's post office box.

Miss Sadie Steves, clerk with Miss Blair at the Commission office, said that either she or Mr. Wilson received the mail if Miss Blair or Mr. Willet were away from the office. She said she did not open the mails. Witness testified that she had not seen any removal notice concerning the New System.

Adjournment for decision followed.

INDUSTRIALS ARE OFFERED IN LARGE BLOCKS
Many Declines Recorded With General Motors Lowest Since Peak
TRADING ACTIVE IN MONTREAL MARKET
Values Irregular With Attention Spread Over Wide List of Issues

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Selling pressure was renewed at the opening of today's stock market, which displayed a distinctly reactionary tone. Popular industrials were again traded in large blocks, initial declines of a point or so being recorded by Allied Chemical, General Asphalt, and Montgomery Ward. United States Steel Common and General Motors each advanced three-quarters lower, the former touching the lowest price since the establishment of the new record high of 1924 last week.

Morning Stock Letter
NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—The market was just as weak yesterday afternoon as it was during the morning trading. There were various rumors of a big bear pool being formed and attempts to break the market by selling leading stocks. We are inclined to believe there is a concerted effort on the part of professional traders to break steel, G.M., Allied Chemical and other leading stocks. These efforts will probably result in acute weakness from time to time, but we doubt if they are successful in bringing out lower levels. The market is very two-sided and it is just as doubtful if the bears can make any more headway when stocks are down, as they are now, than the bulls could make when they were up yesterday. In the meantime we believe the moves in special stocks will continue. Yesterday, despite the weakness of the market, Warner Bros. Pictures and Int. Paper G.M. will probably continue to be the widest fluctuating stock on the list, and although it lost seven to eight points from its high of yesterday, we believe it can be bought on this reaction for a sharp rally.

FEWER FROM EAST TO HARVEST IN WEST

Shortage of Laborers is Threatening Western Canadian Farmers
Canadian Press Despatch.
OTTAWA, Aug. 24.—Fewer east-erners are going to the prairie harvest fields this year.
From present indications the contingent of harvesters from east of the Great Lakes will be much smaller. Reports to the Labor Department show that there will be a shortage of harvest help this year, especially in Saskatchewan and Alberta, unless there is a greater influx from the east.
The preliminary trainloads, which have already arrived, were smaller than usual. The next contingent leaves the Maritime Provinces tomorrow; the Quebec group will be assembled for departure on Friday next; eastern Ontario's quota on Aug. 31 and western Ontario's on Sept. 8.
The lateness of the eastern crops this year has much to do with this. Generally these are pretty well harvested by the time the real demand for labor in the western fields begins. This year the younger farm hands in Ontario are busy at home.
The average wages on prairie farms run from $2.50 to $4 per day.

Saint John Not To Enter Hockey League

After Carefully Considering Proposition From All Angles It Has Been Decided by Local Men Financially Interested in the Sport that It Would Not Be Feasible at the Present Time to Operate a Saint John Team in a Professional Hockey League.

After carefully considering the proposition from all angles it has been decided by local men financially interested in the sport that it would not be feasible at the present time to operate a Saint John team in a professional hockey league. One of the greatest handicaps would be the long jumps that would have to be made by the team and it was thought that the expenses of such an undertaking would be too heavy.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25 — After breathing the restless air at the peak of the National League, for one whole day unmolested, the St. Louis Cardinals are again chewing dust in the wake of the world champion Pirates. The Cardinals went back to work yesterday, against the Boston Braves, after a rainy day's rest, with the temporary crown perched over a cocky eyebrow, and a lead of almost a point in the mad scramble for honors in the elder circuit.

AT ALBERT MEETING

Colonel MacLaren and Thomas Bell Discuss Campaign Issues
HOPEWELL HILL, Aug. 24 — Lieut.-Col. Murray MacLaren and Thomas Bell, Conservative candidates for Saint John-Albert, addressed a public meeting in Oulton Hall, Albert, this evening which was attended by a fair-sized audience considering the state of the weather and other unfavorable circumstances. An important Masonic meeting with a large number of visitors from Saint John and elsewhere was held at the same hour and in the same building. This was a conflicting circumstance that was somewhat unfortunate from the standpoint of attendance at the political meeting.
Dr. MacLaren spoke about three-quarters of an hour and Mr. Bell a somewhat shorter time. O. A. Reid, of Albert, acted as chairman. Dr. MacLaren dealt chiefly with the questions of tariff, transportation and the customs check so prominent in the Conservative campaign addresses. Mr. Bell spoke at some length of the cause of dissolution. He claimed that a good deal of the responsibility rested on a member of the late House who broke

In addition to the usual large display of live stock, and other agricultural products, women's and children's work, and so forth, the amusements provided are decidedly in advance of all previous offerings. For the first time anywhere "down east" visitors will have the opportunity to experience the thrill of their lives, when the SPECTACULAR AUTO RACES are staged. These involve more risks than most "thrills," but the competitors seem to be charmed lives, and to emerge unscathed from the most appalling "mix-ups" imaginable. Besides, there will be Auto-polo matches each day, which is also something quite new for this part of the country. GAUTHIER'S TOY SHOP, with its live animals taking the part of toys, and the world renowned artist THE MORALES FAMILY, in their hair-raising trapeze acts in mid air, will in themselves provide enough amusement for the average visitor. But besides all these

NAME OF SAINT JOHN NURSE IS AMONG HONORED

Miss Anna Irene Stammers' Relatives at Unveiling in Ottawa

LLANDOVERY CASTLE TALE IS RECALLED

Tablet Bears Tribute to Nurses Who Died in War

The name of Nursing Sister Anna Irene Stammers of Saint John, who was drowned with a small group of other wartime heroines while escaping in a lifeboat from the sinking hospital ship Llandoverly Castle, torpedoed by a German submarine, is one of those gracing a huge tablet unveiled yesterday in the corridor of the Canadian Parliament, adjoining the main doorway into the House of Commons. Henry Drayton, acting Premier, officiated.

The unveiling of a memorial to nurses who gave their lives in war service was most impressive, according to dispatches. It was one of the opening ceremonies of the all-Canada convention of the War Nurses' Association. Ottawa is at present being visited by hundreds of wartime nurses from all parts of the Dominion. The convention is to continue several days. Among the delegates are several Sisters belonging to the religious orders of the Catholic church.

THE SAINT JOHN GIRL

Mrs. Lavinia Stammers, mother of the Saint John heroine, and Mrs. John Addy, sister, were present at the ceremony yesterday. Nursing Sister Stammers was a daughter of the late Benjamin A. Stammers who conducted a navigation school here. Her nursing training in the General Public Hospital. When war broke out she gave up a lucrative private practice and joined the colors.

THE GREAT TRAGEDY

One of her early appointments was to the staff of the white hospital liner Llandoverly Castle, carrying wounded men from France and Belgium to English bases. It was while crossing the infected waters to England that the large ship, though shimmering white and bearing Red Cross markings, was fired upon. It sank quickly and the nurses, who were among the last to leave the vessel, scrambled into a boat swinging from the davits. One of the boats, an enemy opened fire in the darkness upon the lifeboats once they were successfully floated in the turbulent sea. The incident of the sinking drew from the press of the world expressions of horror. Two Saint John men were in the Llandoverly Castle as members of the crew, but were saved.

LOCAL MEMORIALS

Tablets in commemoration of Nursing Sister Stammers' heroic death were afterwards placed in her church and Sunday school, the Central Baptist, and in the Nurses' Home of this city, the latter being subscribed for by the Saint John Nurses' Association.

The Ottawa tablet bears the following inscription in its base in dull gold letters:

"Erected by the nurses of Canada, in remembrance of their sisters who gave their lives in the Great War, 1914-1918, and to perpetuate a noble tradition in the relations of the old world and the new."

"Led by the spirit of humanity across the sea, woman by her tender ministrations to those in need has given to the world the example of an heroic service, embracing three centuries of Canadian history."

The words were composed for the memorial by Right Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, when as Premier of Canada, he made arrangements for the erection of the monument.

Two veterans of the civil service in Saint John are to retire from active service in a few weeks on six months' leave of absence, preliminary to superannuation. They are Thomas Jenkins, clerk in charge of the stores department at the Post Office and Ross D. Woodrow, principal Post Office.

Mr. Jenkins entered the postal service in 1875 and so completes 51 years of good service. Mr. Woodrow began his postal career in 1878 and so has 48 years of service. They are both well known in the community for their long and efficient service.

Mr. Jenkins will be succeeded by George W. M. Elliott, now district freight agent at Cleveland. The change is to be effective Sept. 1.

W. S. ELLIOTT

C. P. O. official here who goes to Cleveland to take charge of the C. P. R. freight traffic interests in that territory. He has been division agent here for several years in various places on the railway system since 1881. Mr. Elliott will be succeeded by George W. M. Elliott, now district freight agent at Cleveland. The change is to be effective Sept. 1.

SEE THE FALLS

At high tide the water of the Bay of Fundy reaches a level that the water of the Saint John River gorges the Falls, creating a "Falls" that is up to 118 feet high.

At low tide the water in the Bay and River are about equal. The water at the Falls becomes smooth as the surface of a lake.

To fully appreciate this wonder of the world it should be seen at all three stages.

M. C. EWING'S GLEE SONGS RECORDED

Further Honors in Music Have Come to Saint John Man

A singular honor comes to Saint John musically in the grateful acceptance, on the part of Dartmouth University, New England, of a group of glee choruses and songs, composed and versed by M. Courtwright Ewing, organist in Imperial Theatre. Mr. Ewing, who is of Anglo-American family, is a graduate of Dartmouth and his scoring of the lutey songs was in the nature of a tribute to his Alma Mater. The Columbia Phonograph Co. has graciously recorded the selections for Dartmouth which sent its famous glee singers to the laboratory for the purpose.

Mr. Ewing has been supplied with a number of copies of the two-sided discs and his friends are pleased to hear his compositions in real college glee style, as conceived by the author. Mr. Ewing, whose residence in Saint John has been marked with a number of unusual examples of musical culture, aside from his daily work in orchestra and at organ, has about completed the score of an operatic setting upon which he has been working for several years.

Sanford, K.C., on behalf of the Saint John Globe Publishing Co., Ltd., made application to sell $100,000 seven per cent preferred stock of the company. ### As Hiram Sees It

THE SETTLEMENT—Well, sir, they was two fellers here last Sunday that hadn't seen one another since they was somewhere in France. One of 'em had been in the trenches all through the war, an' come off without a scratch. The other one got his fill of shrapnel an' hospitals an' things like that afore he was through. It kind of brought the war back agin to hear them fellers talkin' about their experiences with Fritz an' the times they hed in the trenches an' back of the lines—an' the poor fellers that was with 'em one day an' gone the next. To hear 'em reel off the names of French places was like readin' the newspapers way back afore 1918—only when you listened to them you seemed to know the places better—an' what our fellers hed to go through. Afore the day was over they seen four more fellers that was over there too. None of 'em wants to talk about the war—but when two of 'em met like the first two did last Sunday they think about what they seen an' went through with—an' it makes a story that ain't never gonta grow old—no, sir.

HIRAM.
