

Will Be The Last Word From Allies

Reply to Counter-Proposals of Germans To Be Final FEW DAYS TO DECIDE

Another Protest is Made—Austrian President Much Distressed Over the Terms—Adriatic Question Again Before Council of Four

Paris, June 6.—(By the Associated Press)—When the Germans are handed the Allied reply to their counter-proposals, they will be informed, according to French circles, that the discussion has been finally closed and will be given no further than three or more days in which to accept or reject the conditions.

Berlin, June 6.—(By the Associated Press)—The German peace delegation yesterday entered a formal protest against alleged French violations of the Rhineland, pointing out the danger of disturbance of the peace negotiations, since Germany will be unable to meet her obligations if the Rhineland district is lost.

St. Germain, June 6.—Dr. Karl Renner, chancellor of Austria, arrived here today for a conference with Dr. Otto Bauer, the German-Austrian foreign minister, is expected to arrive here today.

Vienna, June 6.—(By the Associated Press)—Before leaving this city for a short journey in the country, Renner will take a rest, Premier Seitz said regarding the Austrian terms of peace: "They surely are only proposals. What a terrible disappointment America is for me. This is driving me to despair. The terms are also bad for the Allies, as they mean the feeling of Bolshevism, against which we are helpless, especially from the Hungarians, who are meeting with new military successes. I have no power to enforce such terms upon the people of German-Austria and it will be dangerous for the man who signs them."

Dr. Karl Renner, head of the German-Austrian peace mission, will attempt to secure a verbal discussion of the terms at St. Germain.

Paris, June 6.—When the Council of Four met this morning, Premier Orlando of Italy was absent. This led to the belief that the Adriatic question was under consideration. It is understood that no further progress has been made by the various elements working in the solution of this problem.

MAURETANIA BRINGS 3,689 ON QUICK VOYAGE

Four Battalions on Big Curmudgeon At Halifax FOUR DAYS AND 18 HOURS

Three Generals Among the Home-Comers—Captain A. E. Burnham of St. John Among the Officers Aboard

Halifax, N. S., June 6.—The Cunard liner Mauretania, with 198 officers and 8,607 other ranks, including the 87th Battalion of Montreal, the 17th and 162nd Battalions for Toronto and the 56th Battalion for Hamilton, arrived here early this morning from Liverpool and docked at Pier 2 at seven o'clock. The steamer made the voyage in five days.

Among the officers arriving on the ship were: Major General Sir H. E. Burdall, K. C. B., C. M. G., A. D. C.; Brigadier General C. S. Tuxford, C. B., C. M. G., D. S. O., Moosejaw and Brigadier-General H. C. Thacker, C. M. G., D. S. O.

Officers on the ship included Captain A. E. Burnham, St. John and Captain T. S. McLanders, Tatamagouche, N. S.

Under Five Days Halifax, N. S., June 6.—The Mauretania made the voyage in four days and eighteen hours. Major-General Burdall said the behaviour of Canadian troops since the signing of the armistice, on the continent of England had been magnificent. Men had been killed at Kinmel, but apart from the casualties, the conduct of the troops was of a high order. He praised the generosity with which the people of England had sung and were singing the praises of the Canadians and said that any misunderstanding of this spirit which had developed in the minds of some of our people, due to the practice of some English newspapers of featuring incidents involving Canadian soldiers which were really trivial to mention at all.

General Burdall proceeded to France in command of the artillery of the first division. He was accompanied by the artillery of the Canadian corps and when December 1918 he took over the command of the second division.

Major-General Archibald MacDonnell, K. C. B., C. M. G., D. S. O., Legion of Honour, of Alexandria, Ont., who went overseas in command of the Strathcona Horse, was promoted to the command of the seventh infantry brigade and in June 1917 to the command of the first division. He was accompanied home by Lady MacDonnell and daughter. He praised the work of Brig-General Tuxford and Thacker, who also returned on the ship, saying the entire corps was especially proud of their altogether exceptional record in France. General MacDonnell was badly wounded in 1916 while Brigadier-General G. S. Tuxford, C. B., C. M. G., D. S. O., Legion of Honour, of Moose Jaw, claimed the records for the third Canadian infantry brigade which he had commanded in France. First the brigade had won more V.C.'s than any other of the Canadian corps. Second, the pipe band of the sixteenth battalion had more decorations than any similar unit in the British army—one V.C., one D.C.M. and ten military medals. Third, the thirteenth Royal Highlanders of Montreal and the fourteenth Royal Montreal battalion had been given their colors by a representative of the throne on enemy soil and at the end of a victorious campaign. He said the brigade lost 700 officers and 15,000 men killed and wounded. But they had hit the Hun six times to his one.

A War Romance. Captain E. S. Hutchison, V.C., M.C., of Mound City, Ill., who went over as medical officer of the 97th American Legion, returned as medical officer of the 7th. He won his M. C. in the Amiens show of last August and his V.C. at the breaking of the Drocourt-Queant line in September, when he spent the entire day in open ground bringing in the wounded under withering and continuous fire and escaped without a scratch. When he was training with the 97th battalion, Alton, near Kentville, N. S., he met and became engaged to a nursing sister attached to the Camp Hospital. This morning his fiancée, who is now serving in a naval hospital here, was at the gang plank to meet him, and it is understood the marriage is to be celebrated soon.

Lieut.-Colonel C. C. Harbottle, D.S.O. and bar, of Toronto, who returned as acting O. C. of the eleventh brigade, said that Brigadier-General Odham, commander of the 7th, was planning to sail on the Minnesota. Among the officers returning with the 7th is a famous padre, the person of Major the Rev. W. L. Baynes-Reed, D.S.O., of St. John parish, Toronto. Major Baynes-Reed won his D.S.O. during the Amiens fighting.

Among the other distinguished passengers on the Mauretania were Sir Arthur Balfour, surgeon to the king, who is proceeding to Atlantic City to read a paper before a convention of surgeons; Sir Albert Stanley, director of the Metropolitan Railway; James French, chief surveyor of Lloyds; Capt. M. S. Sasserio, of Italy, on a special mission to the United States, and Lieut. Commander Sakano, of the imperial Japanese navy, who served as liaison officer with the Japanese squadron operating in the Mediterranean during the war.

All Will Have To Pay The Tax

Salaries of Senators, Judges, Members of Parliament Taxable; Press Opinions on the Budget

Ottawa, June 6.—A resolution relating to income taxes to be passed by the House of Commons yesterday contained particulars not mentioned in his speech. The date of assessment will be changed from April 30 to June 30. It is reasonable to tax the salaries, indemnities or other remunerations of members of the House and Commons as well as members of provincial legislative bodies, municipal councils, commissions and boards of management, or of any judge of any court or provincial court appointed after the passing of the act. The allowance of $300 for each child under sixteen years of age is for the purpose of the normal tax. In determining the normal tax no deduction shall be allowed for personal and living expenses and in cases in which personal and living expenses form part of the profits, the same shall be assessed as income.

Amounts paid to Great Britain or any of the self-governing colonies or dependencies shall be allowed if the taxpayer furnishes satisfactory evidence. The share of a taxpayer in the undivided or undistributed gains and profits of a corporation shall not be deemed to be taxable unless the minister is of the opinion that the accumulation of such undivided and undistributed gains and profits is made for the purpose of evading the tax and is in excess of what is reasonably required for the purposes of business.

Press Opinions. Toronto, June 6.—Commenting on the Finance bill, the Globe says: "The adequate protectionists have scored a distinct triumph. There will be general approval of the stiffening of the income tax on large incomes. The Canadian taxes on the incomes of the well-to-do are still far short of the corresponding rates in Great Britain and the United States."

The Mail and Empire says: "If the new budget does not contain as much tariff reduction as the west wanted, it contains more than most of the people in the Dominion expect. While the budget will not be to the liking of some of the manufacturing industries it will be helpful, and it ought to be satisfactory to the farming industry."

Industrial Commission AT SYDNEY, C. B.

Witnesses Examined About Conditions in Big Works

Housing Report Bad—Soldiers Out of Work Because They Do Not Like Employment Offered Them

Sydney, N. S., June 6.—The Industrial Relations Commission this morning received a report from an employee of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company that in some branches of its local plant men had to work twenty-four hours straight every second Sunday. J. A. Gillies, third international vice-president of the Iron, Steel and Tin Workers of North America, said the number of men employed by the Dominion Iron and Steel Company was around 2,760. He said that of them two-thirds got from twenty-seven and a half cents to thirty-three cents an hour. The cost of living in Sydney, according to the Labor Gazette, was $24.50, which price did not include clothing. They had to work on the provincial government with a demand for considered as lunatics who were not dangerous because they were not organized. They were now debating whether to bring in a bill to prohibit the eight-hour day, the provincial or the federal authorities—while Australia secured it in 1916, New Zealand in 1910 and New York in 1910. Mr. Gillies objected to the term Bolshevism as applied to the moment they demanded rights. Detectives had been sent to Sydney to look for sedition, but he found none. The people were called by MacDonald or Morrison, and an man of these names was ever a traitor. Senator Simeon White—But you have many foreigners working here? Mr. Gillies said they numbered 600. He said that while they behaved themselves they were called Poles, but the moment they gave trouble they were styled as Germans and Austrians by the press.

Mr. Gillies said the company had been suspended because of conferences with the Nova Scotia Steel Company over the submarine coal area.

Discussing housing conditions, Mr. Gillies said they were bad in Sydney. A large number of families of workmen were living in two small rooms of six-roomed houses without sanitary conveniences for $28 a month. It was not an exception for families of six to be living in two small rooms. A large number of soldiers were out of work because they did not like the employment offered them in Sydney. Arthur MacLennan, a machinist in the plant of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company, complained that the premises had been fired by the concern, while Austrians and Germans were retained.

Mr. MacLennan said the company laid off a large number of men on Saturdays, but made them work on Sunday, some of them straight time. He thought the introduction of an eight-hour day might partially solve the unemployed question. Mr. MacLennan described the operation of a co-operative store organized by the men in an attempt to cut down the cost of living. He said it had forced the retail stores to offer a discount of five per cent. for cash. The store bought direct from the manufacturers or wholesale.

John MacLeod, a pump man of the Dominion Iron plant, said it was in the blast furnace four men worked the twenty-four hours straight every second Sunday. No overtime was paid.

Gilbert Benanger, a printer said a few years the workers would have interest in municipal ownership and other social reforms of government; in fact, the Soviets would be the only cure for conditions confronting them.

While Mrs. Graham was in the car amateur photographers were busy and many snaps were taken while she considered themselves very lucky when her husband rejoined her just before going aboard in getting a snap of both together. It was about twenty minutes before the party accompanied by Leon Keith and Mr. and Mrs. Archibald, were crowded out to the plane and Mr. Graham went aboard to see that all was right. The crowd of citizens on shore hung about patiently watching with interest every move of the three leather-clad people on the ship, until finally their right was rewarded by seeing her put in motion, affording a pretty and attractive spectacle as she skipped along the harbor, then mounted steadily and continued on her course through the air.

Lieutenant Graham with his wife as navigator, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon at 4:35 in his seaplane on the first leg of the trip from Halifax to Three Rivers, Quebec. Lieutenant Graham was met by large crowds who assembled along the waterfront. The plane landed in the bay in front of the Atlantic Hotel. The report was that the seaplane was met by large crowds who assembled along the waterfront. The plane landed in the bay in front of the Atlantic Hotel. Veterans of Great War Become Special Constables in Winnipeg—The Strike Situation

Winnipeg, June 6.—In a formal proclamation published this morning Mayor Charles F. Gray ordered the stripping of the city hall of the strike situation. The mayor's police force of 1,000 veterans as special constables caused an increase during the night in minor disturbances and personal encounters, but no unusual demonstrations occurred. Conciliation efforts were practically at a standstill as the general strike today entered its fourth week.

Men of the Veterans' Association here who were opposed to the general strike have been gathering strength in their counter demonstrations, and hundreds of them returned to give Mayor Gray their arduous but their demonstrations have so far been orderly.

More Out in Vancouver. Vancouver, June 6.—Ranks of Vancouver strikers were swelled yesterday when the metal trades workers, carpenters, sugar refinery employes and a number of small local unions walked out. Coastwise shipping has been almost completely tied up. As rapidly as the coast steamer service was resumed, the C. P. R. Company announced yesterday it intended to continue passenger boats to Victoria.

C. P. R. Men Say No. Calgary, June 6.—Union railway men employed here by the C. P. R. have voted against joining the general strike. Striking painters yesterday returned to work. Twenty-four mail delivery routes are being operated by the Calgary post office.

According to postal and public officials, no cases of interference have been reported by postal employes, most of whom were recruited to do work of strikers.

Domination Express. Ottawa, June 6.—Sir Robert Borden yesterday received from Allen Patton, grand president of the Brotherhood of Dominion Express Employees, a telegram stating that members of the Brotherhood who are on strike in a west are acting contrary to the orders of the grand lodge. Referring to a resolution in which western express employes condemn the attitude of the government, Mr. Patton said: "They do not represent the attitude of this Brotherhood and are being operated by the Calgary post office."

In Toronto. Toronto, June 6.—Anticipated trouble between the extremists and moderates in the local labor situation at a meeting of the Toronto District Trades and Labor Council last night did not materialize, and no attempt was made to carry the meeting in favor of asking all the Toronto unions to take another general strike vote. Instead, the district council decided to ask the unions to request each individual member to contribute one day's pay each week towards the support of the metal trades workers in their strike.

In connection with the attitude of the Toronto street railway company on the demands of the employes for increased pay and shorter hours that the company has not the money necessary, Premier Hearst has replied to Mayor Charles F. Gray that the Ontario government appoint a commission to investigate the company's affairs. The premier says the government has no power to appoint such a commission. He suggests that the company should be referred to a tribunal to be named by the lieutenant-governor-in-council and that the city and council should abide by the findings.

Montreal, June 6.—The Montreal Trades and Labor Council, with regard to the labor situation, has decided to night tender its moral support to all organized workers fighting for the principle of the eight-hour day, and to collective bargaining and to request the federal government to reinstate the position of the general strike today entered its fourth week.

Winnipeg, June 6.—When Mayor Gray left the city hall yesterday with the mayor's police force of 1,000 veterans as special constables, a number of his men went down to crank the machine gun, pistol in his hip pocket excluded. The weapon was seized by a man said to be a striker. A policeman proceeded and obtained the guard's release. A belligerent crowd gathered and shoulder their way through. One man struck at the mayor. Despite the fact that the day passed without serious trouble, the tension was not assuaged and many fat fights have been reported. A conference of military, provincial and municipal officials, decided that Mayor Gray should take full charge of the situation, with the assurance that he had every available force of governmental authority behind him.

Prague, June 6.—(By the Associated Press)—Admission was made today by Dr. Iohar, Czech minister here, that the Hungarian Bolsheviki army had achieved an unexpected success over the Czech troops in Slovakia, who were reported still to be retreating. The situation in Slovakia is said to be very serious.

Phenix and Pheridan WEATHER REPORT

Second Leg of Flight To Three Rivers

Crowds Watch Departure—Aircraft Flies Low Over City and People Get Fine View—Incidents of the Vint

Witnesses Examined About Conditions in Big Works

Housing Report Bad—Soldiers Out of Work Because They Do Not Like Employment Offered Them

The second leg of his journey by air from Halifax to Three Rivers, Quebec, was begun today when, in his hydro-aeroplane, Lieut. Stuart Graham, A. F. C., accompanied by his wife as navigator and Walter Kahn as mechanic, skipped lightly off the surface of St. John harbor and with a slight climb, sped over the city and soon out of view. Although it had been intended to get away as soon after 9 a. m. as possible there was much delay in getting the necessary stock of gasoline and oil aboard and in overhauling the machine and it was not until 12:15 that a start was made.

At first the machine went slowly down the harbor from the wharf of the Eastern Steamship Company, where the land had been lying to take on the gas, then turned some distance from Partridge Island and sailed speedily coming back. These aboard waved their hands to the crowds who lined the wharves, and once again the craft was turned and with still increased power sailed out towards the entrance of the harbor; the elevating gear was applied and the machine rose gracefully into the air, flying in the direction of the bay.

This course was not long continued, a turn being made towards the city and flying at a low altitude at first, Mr. Graham began to ascend. On the earlier stage of this flight a considerable number of people who were in the streets could see the persons aboard—going towards the Cathedral, a considerable portion of the spire was visible above her. The course was shaped then northwesterly and over Grand Bay speed was slackened and the plane came down quite low over the water, then rose and speeded upwards.

Quite a large crowd of people assembled before the departure of the aviators. Before that spire the mechanic was aboard going over the machinery, then Mr. Graham, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Archibald, arrived in a motor car. Mr. Graham remained with Mrs. Archibald in the bus until finally he went with friends about her. A remarkable variety of questions was fired at her, all of which she answered with patience and cheerfulness, most of them having to do with flying sensations experienced and many other matters of which one or other of the crowd would think.

Among those introduced to Mrs. Graham was Joseph Howles, who said that he had almost missed this important event in local history because of an automobile accident. "You should know better about automobiles, Mr. Knowles," said the aviator, jokingly, "you should go in for flying—why not come along with us?" The crowd laughed but Mr. Knowles with his usual ready wit, responded: "There's nothing in flying, but Mrs. Graham, only I haven't an overcoat with me and I'm afraid it would be rather chilly up yonder this morning."

Mrs. Graham said that her husband planned on reaching 7,000 or 8,000 feet on this trip but it was deferred because of the amount of excess baggage to be carried. "The intention was to take a westerly course and a part of it would lie over the state of Maine. Three Rivers is the objective and the part of it would be over the state of Maine. Three Rivers is the objective and the part of it would be over the state of Maine. Three Rivers is the objective and the part of it would be over the state of Maine."

THE CITY COUNCIL CONTROLS

It is idle to talk of vocational training being carried on by the board of school trustees. The law provides for a vocational board of which the majority will be members of the present school board, whose chairman will also be chairman of the vocational board. In other words, members of the school board have the controlling power in the vocational board. What more can they reasonably ask—and why should they protest against the presence on such a board of representatives of labor, capital and home economics? What reactionary influence is it that is trying to prevent the introduction of vocational training in St. John? The most that enemies can do is to postpone its introduction, for the people will have their way in the end.

The city council is not quite clear whether if a vocational education board is appointed it may not have the power to force large assessments on the council, city council or town council. Here is the law, and it is perfectly clear—

"In cities and incorporated towns the board of school trustees may apply on the recommendation of the common council, city council or town council, as the case may be, * * * and upon such application being approved by the Vocational (Education) Board, any city or town so recommending * * * shall have the power to assess and collect * * * and for the purposes aforesaid shall have all the powers of a board of school trustees under the Schools Act, Chapter 50 of the Consolidated Statutes, or under any amendment thereof."

That is to say, the city council—not the school board, has the power to assess and collect, and has for the purpose of this act all the powers of a board of school trustees.

This section of the law was fully debated at Fredericton and it was unanimously agreed that this is the meaning of the section. There are references in the same section to boards of school trustees in rural districts and in their case the power of assessment lies with the board, which is elected by the people; but that does not apply to cities and towns. The city council therefore need have no fear that there will be any assessment except that which it makes.

THE WOMEN'S INSTITUTES

The Women's Institute ten days' course of instruction in household science, garment making, millinery and nursing, which closes today in this city, in the new community centre which the local Women's Institute, under the leadership of Mrs. J. W. Y. Lawlor, has established, has been of great benefit. Mrs. Lawlor's announcement that the local organization plans to make such courses continuous will be welcomed, and the plan should receive hearty support. Such a community centre, enabling women young and old to receive valuable hints and instruction in the art of home-making, would be of inestimable value. The social benefits would also be very great. Every woman who has attended the ten-day course will highly testify concerning its value.

The Women's Institutes are doing a great work in this province. When the influenza epidemic broke out last year the health department found in the institutes a group of centres for spreading information and for genuine aid in fighting the disease. All through the year these splendid organizations of women are doing valuable community work, and it is especially valuable where there is a community hall or good school house available for meeting purposes. The work is a branch of the activities of the agricultural department of the province that closely touches the life of the people and helps them to solve their problems. The movement is now not only national but international, and the scope of its usefulness grows wider year by year.

AIR LINE VISITORS

Halifax and St. John were brought closer yesterday when the journey between the two cities was reduced to a little less than two hours. The seaplane that made the flight was the first of its kind seen here, and the great crowds on the wharves near where it floated so easily and whence it moved out and took the air so gracefully for the flight over a portion of the city and back to the starting point showed how deeply interested the people are in the new method of transportation. The interest was intensified when it was learned that one of the three aviators was a woman. Hers was an experience every woman—and man—would like to have, if it could be secured with assurance of perfect safety; and it will be remembered as a notable fact that an intrepid member of the gentler sex was in the first aircraft to make the flight between the two cities—and that she was the navigator. Ten years hence, no doubt, aircraft will be so numerous as to cease to be an object of curiosity, but yesterday's visitor was a novelty—though not the first airplane to be seen in St. John. What it accomplished with so much ease will soon be in a measure commonplace; but it is nevertheless a wonderful fact that by the air route St. John and Halifax are little less than two hours distant from each other. First the railway and the telegraph, then the telephone, then the wireless, and now the airplane. Distance is annihilated.

LOOKING TO THE SENATE

There appears to be a doubt as to what the senate will do with the common bill relating to prohibition. There should be no doubt. The measure should pass, no matter how powerful a lobby the opposing interests may have in Ottawa. The country at large approved of the action of the house of commons and would be very seriously disappointed if the senate failed to pass the bill. There is as much need of prohibition now as there was in war-time. Public sentiment has not changed. No legislator should be deceived by the clamor of a minority which is prompted by purely financial reasons to have even a partial restoration of the liquor traffic. The interests favoring the traffic are well organized. Self-interest moves them, while there is no possibility of financial gain for those who fight for prohibition. The senators are aware that the country at large favors the common measure, and it is not easy to believe they would pursue a course contrary to the popular will. No pains should be spared to make them fully aware of what the people desire and expect at their hands. Quebec, in the vote on light beers and wines, did not speak for Canada. A national referendum would show a great majority in favor of prohibition.

A COMPROMISE

There is nothing radical about the new tariff announced in the budget at Ottawa. It is a return to pre-war conditions with some concessions to the low tariff advocates. It will not satisfy the west, nor will it be of any material benefit in decreasing the cost of living. The Toronto Globe is very outspoken in its disappointment and says—

"There will be anger in the west, and among the friends of tariff reform in the east, because of Sir Thomas White's failure to deal comprehensively with the tariff in its relation to the high cost of living."

The government has endeavored by a compromise to prevent a split in the union ranks that would put an end to the union government. It promises a tariff enquiry and revision later on. Whether this will satisfy the government's Liberal-Unionist supporters in the house remains to be seen. The budget debate will be bitter. Hon. Mr. Creer has placed his resignation in the hands of the prime minister, and many of the western members will speak in no uncertain tones. Whoever hoped the government would reduce the tariff in a substantial way is disappointed with the announcement of resignation in the hands of the prime minister. It is possible that the government will be able to get through this session, but the Liberal convention will be held in August and another session would find the country lined up squarely on the tariff, which

PROGRESS OF RELIEF WORK IN PALESTINE

New York, June 5.—That the Jews in Palestine have been well cared for by the British government and that plans for their education and economic establishment are progressing well was announced by Felix M. Warburg in his first report as chairman of the joint distribution committee, which has handed some $10,000,000 raised in the United States for Jewish relief. Mr. Warburg urges the adoption by people in this country of Jewish orphans, just as war orphans of France and Belgium are adopted here. He says that this is no time to talk of reconstruction, since the need of temporary relief in the way of food and clothing is so immediate.

SENATE RESOLUTION ON SUPERANNUATION IN CIVIL SERVICE LOST

Ottawa, June 6—Senator Power yesterday offered a resolution providing that the civil service committee of the senate be authorized to consider superannuation. He said that a bill was introduced in 1910, but never into effect. The result was that there had been no provision for civil servants whose incapacity detained them from the service or for widows and orphans of civil servants. He argued that there was need for superannuation and similar provisions for civil servants and their dependents. He did not favor the contributory system now in force.

Sir James Lougheed expressed the hope that the resolution would not be pressed so late in the session as the government now has the matter under consideration. There was difference of opinion as to whether superannuation was desired or not.

Senator Power said that the govern-

SECOND READING FOR BILL TO REFORM INDIA'S CONSTITUTION

London, June 6—By a unanimous vote the government bill to reform the constitution of India passed second reading in the House of Commons last night. The bill was referred to a joint committee of the Lords and Commons.

Mr. Montague, secretary of state for India announced in the House of Commons on May 22 that the bill for the reform of the constitution of India would "make of India what may very properly be described as a union of great self-governing countries entrusted with the custody of their own well being as partners in the great freedom loving British Empire." Major-General Curzon, secretary of state for the Colonies, said that the bill would "make of India what may very properly be described as a union of great self-governing countries entrusted with the custody of their own well being as partners in the great freedom loving British Empire."

The resolution was declared lost. The bankruptcy bill, with some amendments, was given third reading.

Investigated and licensed by the U. S. Capital Issues Committee. Rated in Bradstreet's $500,000 Highest Credit, 3 dividends paid to date. An annual investment, offering a high degree of safety, with unlimited possibilities for profit. Its stock is backed by millions in tangible assets. In size, Great Western is about the fourth largest independent oil corporation in America. In production and earnings it is about fourth.

The difference represents possibilities.

OIL IS THE MASTER-MONEY-MAKER OF THE AGE, 83% of the oil producing companies are success according to statistics, $200,000,000 has been invested in the Texas fields, and $120,000,000 already returned in profit. 72 Texas companies have paid dividends averaging 200% in eight months only. Burck-Wagoner Company paid $300,000 for every $1 invested. Fowler Company paid $75,000 for every $200 invested. Vanclieve paid 688% Marine Co. 1200%. Sunday New York Sun, feature article, stated that Texas Pacific Co. stock increased from $125 to $210 a share, and their property valuation increased in three years from $8,000,000 to $108,000,000. Drilling statistics show 247 wells drilled in April, 89 were dry and 208 were oil wells, producing 46,000 barrels or about $1,500 daily in oil. In March 123 wells were drilled in Burkburket field alone with only 4 dry holes. The 127 oil wells paid for the four dry holes in TWO DAYS, producing 22,000 barrels daily, or $185,000 in oil in two days. And some people still say that oil is a gamble! The oil industry shows 83% SUCCESSFUL WELLS, other lines of business show 69% FAILURES. Statistics prove it. A well yourself now—today—of this opportunity to learn more of these real money-making securities. If you are "striking" for larger dividends—we hold the key.

MRS. MITCHELL STATES SHE HAD TO WALK FLOOR

After Spells of Indigestion She Could Hardly Breathe—Praises Tania For Overcoming Thirty Five Years of Trouble.

"I just feel so good over what Tania has done for me that I want to recommend it to everybody, because it is the only medicine that ever helped me and it deserves all the credit I can give it," said Mrs. Isabella Mitchell, of 11311 76th avenue, Edmonton, Alberta, to a Tania representative the other day. Mrs. Mitchell is the wife of a well-to-do retired farmer and for the past three years has been living in Edmonton, where the family is well-known. They are also well-known in Tofteld, Alberta, where they formerly lived.

"I suffered from stomach trouble for thirty-five years," continued Mrs. Mitchell. "At times my stomach would be so sour that gas would form and I would have to get up and walk the floor in order to breathe. I was terribly nervous, too, and the doctors would advise me and I was so weak at times I could hardly do any of my housework and sometimes I'd be so dizzy I'd have to grab hold of something to keep from falling. I couldn't sleep, either, and lots of times I'd just walk the floor so I'd get too tired not to sleep. I had tried everything I knew of to get relief, but nothing I ever took did me any good till I started taking Tania.

"I have only taken two bottles of it now and my appetite has come back to me and I can eat anything I want and nothing seems to hurt me and I can eat nothing seems to hurt me in the least. I'm not bothered with those shortness of breath and when I go to bed now I sleep just like a child and get up in the morning feeling rested and full of energy for my day's work, which I can do with ease now. My nerves are steady, too, and I'm not bothered with those dizzy spells any more; in fact, I just feel like a different person since I started taking Tania.

Tania is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Company and F. W. Munro under the name of Tania. It is a special Tania representative.—(Adv.)

LITTLE HOPE FOR CHEAPER LIVING GIVEN IN THE BUDGET SPEECH

Resignation of Hon. T. A. Crerar Reported; The West Disappointed; Heavy Increase in Business and Income Taxes

Ottawa, June 5—The resignation of Hon. T. A. Crerar, minister of agriculture, from the government, outspoken declaration of disappointment and discontent from the Western low tariff Unionist members, and an unanimous opinion voiced by the Liberal opposition members that the protectionist wing of the Union forces has again determined the chief issue of the next election, all indicate the character of the budget announcements made by Sir Thomas White in the Commons today.

Mr. Crerar's resignation, though not yet officially announced, is in the hands of the prime minister. The Western Liberal-Unionists, though they asked time to study the details of the tariff reductions announced today, will undoubtedly disclose after a caucus on Monday next that the support given is not nearly sufficient to oppose the low tariff west. The opposition platform of free agricultural implements, free food-stuffs, free cement, and tariff reductions generally on the necessities of life, has not been stolen in whole or even in part by the other side of the house.

The budget announcements followed pretty closely the expected lines. The war super-tax of five per cent on the British preferential and seven and a half per cent on the general tariff is wiped out or a fairly large list of items including clothing, bituminous coal, foodstuffs, boots and shoes and mining machinery. It is still retained on considerably over half the tariff schedules. On some classes of agricultural implements there is a reduction of five per cent from the pre-war basis and of two and one-half per cent on other classes.

The duties still left on, however, are quite high enough not to jeopardize the "adequate protection" afforded the Canadian agricultural implement manufacturers. Although the tariff reductions mean, according to the finance minister, a reduction of about seventeen millions in customs revenue, or nearly one-third of the tariff taxation added by the war import.

To balance in part this reduction in customs taxation there is an increase in the income tax. The stiffening of the income tax, now brought up to approximately the level of the new United States measure, will add, it is estimated, another ten million dollars to the revenue derived from this source last year. The anticipated deficit of some four hundred millions between total revenue and total expenditure this year will, of course, have to be met by further borrowing.

This year's budget is admittedly only an expedient to bridge the gap from war to peace conditions. The permanent solution of the problem of paying the war debt and making both ends meet is left over until next session.

The promised general revision of the tariff is also left over until next session. Sir Thomas announced that a cabinet committee of three members would undertake the scientific investigation and revision during the coming recess, and he hoped they would be able to "commence" the work in the fall.

Meanwhile the high protectionists apparently still have possession of the fort. For the low tariff men it is another case of hope deferred.

There is still little chance of any real decrease in the cost of living resulting from the present budget.

Probably the most interesting statement made by Sir Thomas was that the ultimate debt of the dominion when all expenditures are met will be $1,800,000,000 or $220 per head of population and involving an annual interest burden of $115,000,000. This is exclusive of persons which will cost the country from thirty-five to forty million dollars per annum. While impressing upon the fact that the burden to be borne is heavy, Sir Thomas said Canada was in a much better position than many other countries and there was no reason why we should be discouraged.

The cost of the war up to March 31, the close of the fiscal year, was $1,227,273,848. For the fiscal year it was $420,000,000, as compared with $60,700,000 for the first year of the war. During the war period $275,848,977 of its principal cost was paid out of revenue. With pensions and interest disbursements the amount paid out of revenue was $408,292,248.

The business profits war tax will be renewed for the fiscal calendar year so as to make it apply to accounting periods ending on or before Dec. 31, 1919. The rates of the business profits war tax will be as follows:

Business having a capital of $25,000 and over but less than $50,000, profits in excess of 10 per cent to be taxable, rate of taxation 25 per cent; business with a capital of $50,000 and over (exemption for incorporated companies 7 per cent; other than incorporated companies, 10 per cent), profits in excess of exemption but not exceeding 15 per cent, rate of taxation 25 per cent; profits from 15 to 20 per cent inclusive, rate of taxation 50 per cent; profits in excess of 20 per cent, rate of taxation 75 per cent.

The total estimated loss in revenue, Sir Thomas placed at $17,000,000, and owing to the estimated reduction in the total volume of imports due to diminishing purchasing power during the current year, and a probable decline in prices as well, he said, the expectation was there would be a total loss in customs revenue over the present fiscal year of at least $25,000,000. To partially offset this loss and close the gap of $15,000,000 between revenue and current expenditure, a heavy increase in income taxation was proposed.

Sir Thomas announced that in the future all corporations shall pay a ten per cent tax on their net incomes in excess of $25,000.

In the case of the individuals it is proposed that the normal rate of four per cent shall be levied on all incomes exceeding $1,000, but not exceeding $6,000 in the case of unmarried persons and widows and widowers without dependent children, and upon all incomes exceeding $2,000 but not exceeding $6,000 in the case of all other persons.

A normal tax of eight per cent will be imposed upon all incomes exceeding $6,000.

The sur tax will commence from $5,000 instead of $6,000 and shall increase by graduation applying, firstly, to incomes between $6,000 and $8,000 and to every $2,000 between $8,000 and $100,000. Upon incomes in excess of $100,000, increased rates are levied.

WAR VETERANS IN WINNIPEG TAKE ACTION RE STRIKE

Ottawa, June 5—The dominion executive of the Great War Veterans' Association, in session here today, has offered to act as mediator in an effort to effect a settlement of the Winnipeg strike.

Winnipeg, June 5—More than four thousand war veterans today, assembled at a mass meeting, considered the general strike situation, adopted resolutions denouncing some of the strike leaders as anarchists and promised Mayor Grey that his appeal for two thousand special constables would be filled from the ranks of the returned soldiers. The meeting demanded that the government bring to justice men responsible for the Winnipeg strike, urged deportation of "all undesirable aliens, and declared that the only big union which Canadian soldiers would recognize was the Union Jack."

KANSAS PLANS TO HOLD OFF I. W. W.

Topeka, Kansas, June 5—Kansas sheriffs and police chiefs were in session in Topeka yesterday to work out plans for handling I. W. W. agitators if these men should attempt to interfere with the Kansas wheat harvest. Kansas has a new law on the statute books for the special purpose of taking care of agitators. It is a vagrancy statute which gives officers authority to arrest "on view" any person without visible means of support, or who may attempt to foment disturbances among workmen. When the expected I. W. W. agitators appear, the plan as worked out by the officers is to arrest them and lock them up. Then they will be transported to other counties and kept there, away from the sections where the men were directed to work in the harvest fields.

CATHOLIC GIRLS' GUILD.

The fourth annual meeting of the St. John Catholic Girls' Guild was held on Wednesday in the Y. M. C. I. with Miss Elizabeth McInerney in the chair. Miss McInerney in her report outlined the work accomplished by the members during the year, which was of a favorable nature. Reports were also received from the following committees: membership, Miss Frances Traynor; physical culture, through Miss Florence O'Neill; social committee, through Miss Katherine Lawlor; girls' work, through Mrs. Over religious committee, through Miss M. Deberry; educational, through Miss E. J. Bardeley. From these reports it was shown that very satisfactory work has been accomplished in all the departments. The following five directors were also elected during the meeting: Miss Margaret Carney, representative from St. Joachim's parish; Mrs. Charles Reynolds, Miss Marie Dolan, Miss Elizabeth McInerney and Miss Mary Killom.

The tone of communications from Great Britain is warmly in favor of the preference granted to empire-made goods, says the Canadian Trade Commission.

CONSUMERS' COAL COMPANY SERVICE GOES FAR BACK OF THE MERE DELIVERY OF THE COAL BY TEAM

It starts with the selection of coal at the mine. The quality from all mines varies, some being good, others indifferent or very poor. At a cost of thousands of dollars and careful investigation, we have learned the best and most reliable sources of supply; and with this knowledge our Service begins. Coal cannot be selected with too much care.

Again, we place at your command, a large stock, comprising all sizes of coal, at all seasons of the year. Thus, we can serve you more cheaply in summer than in winter, but, think of the convenience of our all-the-year-round Service.

Our facilities for taking the "raw" coal, as it comes from vessels or cars, and screening out the slack and dust, so detrimental to a good fire, and giving it to you in absolutely the best condition, is another part of our Service.

Our Delivery Service—The above illustration represents the Consumers Coal Company delivery equipment in August, 1917, which has since been enlarged by three new houses and three new motor trucks, bringing up our delivery capacity to the householder to 125 tons per day.

Fight For Lebaudy Millions Is Begun

Sister of "Emperor of Sahara" Files Suit to Revoke Letters of Administration Makes Attack on Widow

Mincola, L. I., June 5.—A suit to revoke the letters of administration of Mrs. Jacques Lebaudy, who was released by the grand jury after killing her husband, the "Emperor of the Sahara," on Jan. 11, on the ground that she acted in self-defense, has been begun in behalf of Maria de Pels de Paris, a sister of Lebaudy.

The papers in the case were filed by Major Henry A. Uterhart, who returned to this country a month ago, after serving as an observer with the Italian Army. They assert that Mrs. Lebaudy never was lawfully married to the eccentric Frenchman, and that she is a drug addict and therefore unfit to manage the property. It also is asserted that thirty-year-old Jacqueline Lebaudy is not Lebaudy's daughter.

The letters of administration were issued to Mrs. Lebaudy twelve days after the killing, on her assertion that she was Lebaudy's lawful wife. The question as to the legality of her status was not raised in court proceedings at the time, but it was asserted in her behalf that a legal marriage had taken place.

Major Uterhart said that Lebaudy had declared, during proceedings regarding his sanity, in October, 1915, that no marriage had taken place, and that he never had acknowledged his companion of twenty years as his wife. On one occasion, it was stated, Lebaudy sought to sue for libel a newspaper, alleging, among other things, that he had been injured by the paper saying he was married to Mrs. Lebaudy.

"Of course," he said, "if Mrs. Lebaudy appears in court and produces satisfactory evidence of her marriage to Le-

SIR A. GEDDES' NEW POST IN MONTREAL

St. William Peterson, who is retiring as principal of McGill University, after twenty-four years of service, to be succeeded by Sir Auckland Geddes, said farewell in a letter which was read at the annual convocation. "My colleagues in the administration and on the teaching staff know how greatly I have valued their co-operation and loyal support during those twenty-four years," said Sir William. "May the record of McGill in the next quarter of a century outshine and eclipse everything that has been accomplished in the past. In any case the friends of the university may rest assured that her progress and prosperity will always have a foremost place in my thoughts and affections."

The announcement from the Carnegie Foundation that a retiring allowance of $4,000 had been voted to Sir William Peterson was received with gratification by every one connected with McGill. In his letter the secretary of the Carnegie Foundation said: "The executive committee in taking this action desired me to express to you, as best I might, their affectionate and kindly feeling, as well as to assure you in this official way of their appreciation of the work you have done for education as the principal of McGill University, no less than their appreciation of the magnificent services for civilization which you were able to do during the four hard years of war which have passed. The committee hope that there will be left for you many years of activity and influence in education and statesmanship such as can come only from a man of your ripe experience and knowledge."

baudy that will lend the proceedings. Otherwise the relatives of Jacques Lebaudy, though willing to make a liberal provision for the woman known as Mrs. Lebaudy, are not ready to admit a claim that she is a wife by common law."

Paul E. De Fere of 183 Broadway, New York, lawyer for Mrs. Lebaudy, said he had not heard of the filing of the suit. He said it had not been possible to form an estimate of the value of the Lebaudy estate, because it was scattered all over the world and much of it consisted in mines, the value of which was more or less uncertain. He said the estate undoubtedly was large. Persons who knew Lebaudy have estimated its value at figures running from $8,000,000 to $25,000,000.

The Royal Air Force of England has instituted an eye drill that has made many splendid pilots out of men who would otherwise have been useless. It was discovered that a large percentage of men only use one eye at a time, and in the early days pilots were not tested for eye balance. Many men were then passed into the air service who could never land correctly. When these deficiencies were discovered a school was formed and under an eye specialist twice a day men undergo; the cure was paraded for eye drill and taught how to use both their eyes at the same time. The result was that 95 per cent of the men who would have been bad pilots became good ones in a little while.

ASKS $10,000,000 TO BUY CAPE COD CANAL

Baker Says Company Can't Keep it in Repair—Fears Government Will Lose the $400,000 Spent on Betterments

Washington, June 5—Sen. Baker has sent to the House the text of a bill providing for the purchase of the Cape Cod Canal at a price not exceeding $10,000,000, similar in phrasing to the bill introduced the other day by Senator Lodge.

In a letter to the Speaker the Secretary recites the fact that the canal has been operated since July 25, 1918, by the Railroad Administration, during which time the Federal Government has expended $400,000 for additions, betterments and maintenance, mostly for dredging shoals, so that the full charter depth of twenty-five feet has been restored. The secretary points out that there has been a large increase in traffic through the canal from August, 1918, to April, 1919, over the corresponding period of 1917-18. The figures for 1918-19 are: Number of vessels, 2102, increase 99.88 per cent; tonnage, 1,788,182, increase 103.39 per cent; cargo tonnage, 1,064,854, increase 184.97 per cent.

"It is believed desirable in the public interest," says the letter, "that government control of this canal continue without interruption. If the canal is relinquished now, the betterments will become the property of the canal company, and it is more than probable that, through financial inability to provide for maintenance, the company will pursue its previous policy of neglect, with the result that serious shoaling will take place and the existing adequate depths will be greatly reduced. If this deterioration occurs, it is needless to say that the canal will be more or less disestablished as a trade route and its value as a going concern will be diminished."

Director General Hines wishes to relinquish the canal, Mr. Baker said, because its "operation adds to the Railroad Administration's expenses" and there is no necessity, as far as the Railroad Administration is concerned, to continue in possession of it.

"BUZZARDS OF WORLD" AT PARIS, SAYS RYAN

New York, June 5—Declaring that "the buzzards of the world are gathered at Paris," Michael J. Ryan of Philadelphia, returned delegate of "The Irish Race in America" to the peace conference, sounded a call to the millions of Irishmen in the country to "educate our fellow Americans" to the "danger" in the United States "binding herself to England in the League of Nations."

Mr. Ryan was addressing a meeting of the Victory Fund committee of the Friends of Irish Freedom, having returned ahead of Frank P. Walsh and ex-Governor Edward P. Dunne of Illinois to report on the failure of Irish-Americans to obtain admittance to the peace conference of representatives of the "Irish Race."

TOBACCO FORBIDDEN TO KANSAS TEACHERS

Topeka, Kansas, June 5—Miss Lizzie Wooster, superintendent of public instruction in Kansas and the first woman to be elected to a state office, has sent notices to all the teachers in Kansas that she will not tolerate the use of tobacco by teachers.

Miss Wooster will ask that the certificates of teachers who are found to be addicted to the tobacco habit be revoked. "There is no law in the state prohibiting the use of tobacco by teachers or others except children, but the law requires teachers to give instructions in the effects of narcotics to children. Miss Wooster holds that no person is competent to give effective instruction and use narcotics at the same time, and that a teacher using tobacco sets a bad example to the children."

SENATE PLANS TO HOLD FOOD INQUIRY

Washington, June 5—Sweeping investigation of high cost of living causes will be undertaken by the senate agriculture committee of the present congress.

The Government Wheat Corporation, in charge of Julius Barnes, which handled millions of dollars worth of wheat flour during the war, will come in for scrutiny soon, Republican senators said yesterday.

Packers, charged by members of the committee with attempting to corner virtually all food staples, also will be asked to testify.

PREPARE TO WELCOME GENERAL WATSON HOME

Quebec, June 6—Quebec City is preparing an official welcome to Major-General David Watson, proprietor of the Quebec Daily Chronicle, who is expected to return home from overseas service about June 22. Sir David left Quebec in the very first days of the war, with the rank of lieutenant colonel in command of the Second Battalion. Subsequently he was made a brigadier, and then a major-general when the Fourth Division was formed.

LABOR SHORTAGE REPORTED

Duluth, Minnesota, June 5—A serious shortage of common labor is already reported in this city and district. At a meeting of industrial and building trade interests held at the Commercial Club to consider the problem, it was reported that several thousands of men are urgently wanted in the various trades and that unless relief is afforded many projects will be held up.

The charge resulted from the sale to Mr. Anthony of a watch, it is said, Corning did not own. He was also charged with breaking and entering the barn of John Glynn, Red Head, and stealing a wagon.

Detectives Biddiscombe and Donahue arrested Corning last night at Red Head. The accused was remanded until the complainants could appear in court.

A case against Wallace Stevens, charged with assaulting Jacob and Jacob Fisher, was resumed and the defence opened. The case was postponed until Monday morning. W. M. Ryan appeared for the prosecution and L. P. D. Tilly for the defendant.

Four men who were arrested on May 31 for drunkenness, were each fined $5 or two months in jail.

A case against Clarence Hill and Mrs. Mary Halliday was resumed this morning and accused were remanded.

Aron Magnus, an Austrian, charged with not reporting to the police as required by law, was again remanded.

CAMPBELL DISCHARGED IN CARLETON WATCH CASE

In the county court this morning, Judge Armstrong presiding, the case of the King against J. Marshall Campbell was resumed. The accused was charged with breaking and entering the jewelry store of R. L. Adams in Union street, West St. John, and stealing watches and other jewelry valued at more than $400. He was tried under the speedy trials act and his honor said, in giving judgment, that he found the accused guilty of breaking and entering, he having gone on the stand in his own defence and said that he had found the watches under the steps of the Temperance Hall in Winklow street. Subsequently some of the watches were found by a little girl named Donohue. When arrested it was found that the accused had disposed of one of the watches and two others were missing, evidently taken by some other person from him, and under the circumstances as all damage had been made good and the accused had taken the pledge, he was discharged. John A. Barry appeared for the accused and C. H. Ferguson for the crown.

FOR BRIDES-TO-BE

Members of the Soldiers' Comforts Association of Brookville and Torriburn tendered one of their fraternity a novelty shower last evening at the home of Mrs. James Garrett, Brookville. Miss Gertrude Adams was the recipient and the first indication she had of anything unusual was when Mrs. Robert Smart struck up the wedding march on the piano and then there were many doings. It was more like a deluge than a shower from the thirty or forty five young people present. There were poetry and prose, music and games and the bride to be was assured of the good wishes of the Brookville S. C. A. in her new home in the west.

About forty friends of Miss Marion Devlin gathered last evening at the home of Mrs. Joseph McAuley, 28 Adelaide street and tendered her a novelty shower in anticipation of a happy event of next week. Cut-glass and linen were among the many beautiful gifts received. After a pleasant evening of games and music refreshments were served.
