Hon. Walter Runciman, the New British Minister of Agriculture—Young Lord Torrington in Hands of Money Lenders

(Copyright, 1911, by the Brentwood Company.)
Baron von Robeck, who has just arrived in America from Ireland, is, although a member of the Swedish nobility and the possessor of a Swedish title, nevertheless an Irishman, being born and bred in Ireland with several generations of Irish forefathers. His paternal grandfather, the great-grandfather, John Henry Fock, Baron von Robeck, played an important role in the fighting in the County of Wick. He entered the Swedish army as a cornet of cavalry, and thereupon obtained permission of the Swedish king to join a French dragoon regiment, under orders for America. There he served in the command of the Count de Roussin, was aide-de-camp for a time to the Duke of Launay, and was badly wounded at the battle of Glorious, having to go to France in 1783, he received from the French government a pension of 1200 livres a year for his distinguished services in America. Being invalided out of the French army, he returned to Sweden. Having fallen in love with a beautiful Irish girl, daughter and sole heiress of the Hon. Richard Fitzpatrick, younger brother of the Earl of Upper Ossory, he emigrated to Ireland, secured naturalization by act of parliament as a subject of George III, and became, through his wife, possessed of all her father's, grandfather's and uncle's property, including their ancestral home, Govan Grande, near Naas, in the County of Kildare. He died leaving only one son, who served throughout the Peninsular War under the Duke of Wellington, and was twice married, the first time to a daughter of Lord Clonsilla, and subsequently to Miss Emily Fitzgerald, niece of the third Duke of Leinster. The late baron also served in the army, and so, too, has his son and successor, now in the United States.

In fact, the present baron is a lieutenant colonel on the retired list of the Royal Artillery and for a time was also the commissioner of police in Dublin. He is married to one of the Alexanders of Straw Hall, in County Carlow, and has several children, besides the original parent stem of the family. There is in Sweden, also, a branch of the family, the late baron's nephew, General Fock, who distinguished himself in the Far East, in connection with the defence of Port Arthur during the war in Manchuria.

The Right Hon. Walter Runciman, who has just become minister of agriculture, is, with the exception of Winston Churchill, the youngest and only Wesleyan member of the Asquith Cabinet. Curiously enough they were formerly the bitterest of political adversaries, Runciman defeating Winston Churchill in Odham in 1889, while Winston Churchill secured a slender victory over him in the same constituency just twelve months later. The Runciman had from Scotland, and although one of them is now in the Royal Scottish Academy at the close of the eighteenth century, the father of Walter Runciman may be described as a self-made man.

He went to sea at the age of twelve, worked up through all grades from ship boy to master mariner, founded a steamship line known as the Moor line, and also the great shipping firm of Runciman & Co. A brother was James Runciman, the literary and journalist on the staff of the London "Pall Mall Gazette," in the days when Lord Morley of Blackburn was its editor.

It was at James Runciman's house, by the way, that Walter Runciman made the acquaintance and became the friend of Robert Louis Stevenson as he left a message who can boast of having had two grandfathers fighting in the battle of Salamis and who prince as the most valued treasure the medals which they won on that occasion under the command of Nelson, he is devoted to the sea, and fond, above everything else, of the sport of yachting. There is no doubt that if he had had his choice of office, he would infinitely have preferred becoming the first lord of the admiralty, instead of minister of agriculture. That his former adversary at Oldham, Winston Churchill, should have obtained the post, merely goes to show that in spite of their being colleagues of the same administration, there is still a certain amount of rivalry between them. Perhaps one of the reasons which have prevented the premier from taking Runciman into consideration for the admiralty is the fact that he still owns the Moor Steamship line, of which he conducts the business, a business, thanks to which he is one of the richest members of the cabinet.

He is an excellent speaker, and is gifted not only with a keen sense of humor, but also a quickness of repartee. Thus, when the latter was in the House of Commons, he once said to a member of the opposition who had just made a long speech: "I am glad to hear that you are a member of the House of Commons, but I am sorry to hear that you are a member of the opposition."

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

WE received the news the other day that one of the prettiest and most interesting girls our acquaintance was about to announce her engagement. "What's the matter with him?" I thought he must say I'm disappointed in Gertrude," said the one who brought the news. "Why?" we asked. "Why, to think she's going to marry him."

The Famous Rayo Lamp

The best part of the day is the evening, when the whole family is gathered together around the lamp. The old days of the smoky fireplace and flickering candle have gone forever. In their place have come the convenient oil stove and the beautiful Rayo Lamp. There are to-day, in the United States alone, more than 3,000,000 of these Rayo lamps, giving their clear, white light to more than 3,000,000 homes. Other lamps cost more, but you cannot get a better light than the low-priced Rayo. It has become so popular we may almost call it "the official lamp of the American family."

Simple Home Remedy For Wrinkled Faces

(From Popular Monthly).
Thousands of women are spending fortunes in their frantic attempt to remove the signs of premature aging from their faces. When in this state a woman will spend any amount of money on worthless cosmetics, and many of them are very expensive. If these women would know the most effective remedy, it is a simple, harmless face wash which can be made up at home in less than a minute. They have only to get an ounce of powdered soapite and half a pint of witch hazel at the drug store and mix the two. Apply this daily as a refreshing lotion. The effect is almost magical. Even after the first treatment a marked improvement is noticed and the face has a snug, firm feeling that is most pleasing.

WOULD FALL IN A FAINT

When She Attempted to Work, so Exhausted Was the Nervous System—The Feeble, Wasted Nerves Were Restored and Revitalized by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

Nervous prostration is a terrible disease to all who understand its symptoms. At times the sufferer feels comparatively well, but with slight exertion the dreaded helplessness returns and all strength and vitality seems to leave the system. This letter, Mrs. Martin very well describes the terrible condition in which many a sufferer finds herself. She also tells how a regular and steady strength by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food after all other treatment had failed. Mrs. Martin writes: "Before I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I was in a terrible condition from nervous exhaustion and prostration. Dizzy spells would come over me and I would fall to the floor. The weakness was so great that I could not so much as sweep the floor without fainting, but the nerve food helped me after the doctors failed. It has done wonders in building up my nervous system. I can do my own housework now and washing, and feel that this great medicine has been a God-send to me. I think it is the best of medicine."

MUST HAVE LIGHTS ON BABY GO-CARTS

St. Paul, Nov. 8—Baby carriages in the streets of Minnesota towns and villages will be required to have white lights in front and a red one behind to warn traffic. The law is not designed to keep women at home nights, but is an accident of the last session of the legislature. The law was framed to aid motorists who had been compelled to maintain lights by compelling farmers and other users of wheeled vehicles to display them. Baby carriages are not exempt from the provisions of the act, according to the attorney general, neither are children's wagons nor other forms of vehicles having wheels.

WOMAN MAKES 650 MILE TRIP FROM WILDS

Braves Dangers of Journey From Interior of Alaska Where She Has Accumulated Wealth

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 8.—Mrs. Elsie Morris, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. E. McKenzie, at Hilliard, a suburb of Spokane, accomplished a trip of 650 miles from the interior of Alaska, where she holds extensive mining interests, to Fairbanks, a journey never before attempted by a woman. Rather than remain in camp for six dreary months, she faced the hardships and hazards of the long trail from the far north to civilization. The first leg of the journey was made on a dog sledge and on foot over ice and snow.

Mrs. Morris arrived in Fairbanks a half hour before the last boat sailed for Seattle and was caught in the tail-end of a storm, which caused numerous wrecks. This is her first visit to Washington in three years. She will remain until next June, meanwhile visiting relatives in the middlewestern and eastern states, where she lived before coming to the Northwest. Mrs. Morris has amassed a comfortable fortune during her residence in Alaska.

THE LAST WORD FROM THE ELECTIONS IN THE UNITED STATES

New York, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Election returns from various states this morning clear up some of the uncertainties apparent in the late reports of last night.

In Massachusetts, Governor Eugene N. Foss, Democrat, will be head of the state for another year, but he will, as in the past, be surrounded by state officials elected by Republicans. Foss was the only Democratic candidate to pull through yesterday.

There were reversals from the Republican to the Democratic party in Kentucky and Ohio. In the former, the Republicans were given to practically all the Democratic candidates and James Bennett McCree, governor, was re-elected by more than 30,000. The state legislature will have a Democratic majority of probably eighty-five, sufficient to secure the election to the United States senate of Congressman Ollie James.

Municipal elections in Ohio resulted in the election of George J. Karb, Democrat, as mayor of Columbus. Democratic mayors in Cincinnati and Cleveland also were elected.

Two states, New York and New Jersey, replaced Democratic assemblies with Republican. New York elected an assembly that will have a Republican majority greater than the present Democratic majority of the lower branch of the legislature. The Republicans will hold the assembly by upwards of fifty, as against the Democratic majority of twenty-four.

In New Jersey, which has a Democratic assembly and a Republican senate, a Democratic governor and state officers were elected. A Democratic legislative executive was chosen in Rhode Island where Governor Pothier, a French-Canadian, defeated Louis Waterman, Democrat.

Governor Judson Harmon, who is speaker of the Democratic senate, also is a Democrat. He predicted a national Democratic landslide next year.

Massachusetts elected a Democratic governor for the second time in thirty years.

Missouri elected a Democratic governor. The Socialist candidate for lieutenant-governor ran strong.

The municipal elections in Ohio resulted in the election of Democrats as mayors of Cincinnati, Cleveland and Columbus. Grand Whitlock was re-elected mayor of Toledo.

In Kentucky, James B. McCreary, Democrat, was elected governor by a majority estimated at 20,000. A Democratic legislature will elect Ollie James as United States senator.

New Mexico will probably elect a Democratic candidate for governor. Indications point to a Republican legislature, which will elect two Republican United States senators.

Democrats were elected to congress in the third Nebraska and second Kansas districts. In the 14th Pennsylvania district, a Republican was elected in place of the incumbent Democrat.

Philadelphia elected Rudolph Blankenburger, independent Republican, who headed the fusion ticket by 4,300 plurality, defeating George H. Earle Jr., the candidate of United States Senator Penrose.

Eight Ohio cities elected Socialist mayors.

ST. JOHN CHORAL SOCIETY

There was a good attendance at the rehearsal of the society last evening in the society's new meeting place, Oldfield Hall. During the evening, the resignation of Miss B. Farmer as accompanist was read and accepted, and Miss Worden, organist of the Brussels Street Baptist church very kindly undertook to act as accompanist at a moment's notice and did so in a most efficient manner.

It is hoped that the society will secure Miss Worden's services permanently. The membership of the society is now considerably more than one hundred and the rendering of the Messiah about Christmas time promises to be a success. Applications for membership are to be made to the secretary-treasurer, C. A. Munro, 89 Union street.

A BISHOP'S CHARGE Plain speaking marks the exhaustive charge of Bishop Richardson to the Synod of the Church of England. He does not hesitate to set his finger upon the weak points in the general situation. More general interest in church affairs on the part of the laity is required. Greater sympathy should be extended to ministers of the gospel coming from England to the New Brunswick parishes. There is a sad dearth of native candidates for holy orders and of the few who present themselves scarcely any come from the homes of the wealthier members of the church.

CONTINUATION SCHOOLS The city of Cincinnati has developed a plan by which working boys who leave school at fourteen to work in factories, may keep up their connection with school work, and increase their efficiency by study. The plan is thus generally described by Mr. J. Howard Renshaw, principal of the continuation school for machine shop apprentices in that city: "In the city of Cincinnati the voters have said that the child of from 14 to 18 years of age cannot work unless his education is looked after for not less than four hours a week. The manufacturers have said that no boy or girl 16 years of age shall be employed in their place of business who does not continue his or her education at least four hours per week and in the daytime. The first query of the boy seeking work is, 'Will you let me go to school one-half day a week without loss of pay?' Manual training introduced skill into the school room. When the pupil begins his employment in the shop where his skill will be applicable and greatly augmented, he is returned to the school four hours a week that his mental activities will continue to be developed. A Continuation School is not a room full of machines—it is more like a library or home room, with piano, stereopticon, library, magazines, pictures, etc., operated in the spirit and atmosphere of culture and refinement. A Continuation School looks after the life of the boy rather than his living."

CHURCH AND WORKINGMEN The relations between the church and the working men were the subject of a very interesting discussion at Monday's meeting of the Evangelical Alliance. Rev. Mr. McCutcheon's paper, introducing the subject, showed careful research, and a broad view of the situation. In reading the paper, one gains a fuller knowledge of what is being done by the various churches, not so much to press upon working men the claims of religion as to clear the ground, by overcoming indifference and prejudice, so that the religious appeal might be made with greater hope of success. It is recognized that employers and employed do not meet and mingle in the churches to the extent that is desired. The assurance, "all are welcome" in church announcements, is not taken literally by the man on the outside. Possibly he reasons it out some what in this fashion: "Those people in the churches offer on Sunday to help me solve the problems of another life, but I do not see that they are over-anxious to help me make the conditions under which I toil and my family suffer in this life any better."

OF course this is a narrow view, but the world has not yet got beyond the stage of narrow views. To reach this man the church must do more than invite. It must give practical evidence that it desires the reform of social conditions, and is working to this end; not merely concerning itself with salvation in another world, which so many men regard with indifference. Having convinced the man that it is seeking to help him solve his problems, the church may fairly ask for his sympathy and support; and when these are secured it will be found that he is not deaf to the religious appeal, rationally presented. He will realize that religion is not something apart from daily life, but the very inspiration of that life which yields the highest satisfaction. Perhaps he will not learn to distinguish very well between formal creeds and doctrines, but he will get a working religion which will give peace to his soul, and bring him into sympathy with all effort for the betterment of conditions in the community wherein his lot is cast.

The relation of the church to the man who is out of work opens up a large question. There are several classes of such men—those who want work and are able to perform it, those who want work but are physically unable to perform reasonable service, those who will reject all work except that which pleases them, and those who refuse work of any kind. An organization connected with a church might act as an information bureau to assist men to find temporary or permanent employment; but that does nothing whatever to solve the general problem of unemployment, of discovering the causes which lead to loss of work, or to the creation of a certain proportion of persons who prefer idleness to industry. More than sixty years ago Carlyle wrote against the conditions in England, where there was abundance of food and clothing, and yet nearly a million and a half of paupers. There are still so many papers or people on starvation allowance in England, that radical legislation designed to improve conditions has become almost commonplace. Social unrest is everywhere. We have it in Canadian cities. The problem of unemployment is not solved. Not all the men who have steady work have learned to make provision for the lean years to come. There is an enormous waste through careless spending. There is waste through dissipation. And above all there is the millionaire and multi-millionaire, and all the spendthrift army of colossal wealth, provoking by its extravagance the bitterest class prejudice and sowing seeds of social strife. It is therefore idle to hope for an easy method of making working men as a class piously contented with their lot, or of overcoming conditions of unemployment in any community. There are conditions, economic, social, individual and educational, which must be taken into account. To the extent that the church can root out class prejudice; interest its well-to-do members in social questions rather than in handing dolars to the poor; encourage workmen to be sober and thrifty and keenly alive to their interest in public questions, and the power they wield at the ballot box, it will bring the church nearer to the hearts of these men, and bring them nearer to a condition of mind where the appeal of the church in behalf of the higher life will not be made in vain.

"Once upon a time, James," went on his mother, "there was a little boy who ate and ate until one day he ate too much pudding and he burst." There isn't such a thing as too much pudding! grumbled Jimmy, as he finished his helping. "There must be," said his mother, "or why did the little boy burst?" "Not enough boy!" replied James, and handed up his plate for a fifth helping.

If a young man wishes to attain success he should honestly endeavor to master the science of the business he has chosen. Without this he must always content himself in the lower walks of his calling. Without such diligence the best teacher in the world could not turn him into a scholar.

VOICE MAY BE LIKE CARUSO'S

Russian Boy Singer Found in New York Hospital

There's a little boy with the voice of a thrush in his throat and a musician's soul looking out through his great, sad eyes, living at the Skin and Cancer hospital in East Nineteenth street, and one of these fine days he is going to be discharged as cured, when he hopes to start on the road to becoming another Caruso, says the New York World.

He has been in the country only five months, and has lived in the hospital all of that time, and when he got to New York with his father and mother and two little sisters, from the town in Russia where they had lived it was discovered that the children had ringworms.

The government authorities were about to deport the children, but the boy, Isaac Weidman, was so bright and clever that officials themselves became interested in his desire to become an American citizen. They telephoned to the hospital and it was agreed to receive the children there and cure them. They are all more than usually intelligent and have already learned to speak English.

But it is 12-year-old Isaac who has become the most notable one of the family. When he sings out in the yard of the hospital all the windows in the neighborhood are raised to hear him. Although he is a frail and thin child, even for his twelve years, his voice is strong and very liquid. He is a natural musician and sings with much expression.

His selections are altogether from the operas, and he knows many roles completely. He sings "Rigoletto," "Il Trovatore," and many others, but in Russian. The nurses say that he apparently does not care for popular music, but amuses himself by the air singing selections from his favorite composers.

The way he came to learn these songs Isaac explained as follows: "My papa, when we are in Russia, is a man who makes clothes for the actors in the opera, and attends to their wardrobe. Always, I love music, and to hear the people in the theatre to sing. So when school is over my papa lets me come to the theatre. I can sit in a corner on the stage or out in the auditorium where it is dark, when the people are rehearsing. So I watch, and when they practice I listen and see how they sing. I learn the notes as well as they do, and when I go home I sing out loud as I heard them sing. I love the music—love the lights—love the theatre—and the people clapping their hands—and most of all I just love the songs."

CAMPAIGN FOR KING'S COLLEGE

Anglican Synod Unanimously Decides to Help Institution

CANON POWELL HEARD

Plan is to Have Money-Raising Campaign of Week Beginning on Nov. 12—Reginald Harris in Strong Appeal

Rev. Canon Powell, president of King's College, and Reginald Harris, secretary of the King's College extension movement, both addressed the synod on the subject of assistance to King's College from the diocese of Fredericton. The remarks of both gentlemen were enthusiastically received, Rev. Canon Powell making a marked impression upon his hearers. The general opinion was that, with him as head of the college, King's never had a better opportunity to expand. Canon Powell was the first speaker. He gave instances of the manner in which the campaign for the extension of King's College had been received in Nova Scotia. Not only had people of the Church of England responded in the most generous manner, but those of other denominations had also contributed to the fund for the extension of the college empire.

With regard to the contribution of the diocese of Fredericton, it could take any form that might be desired. The money collected could be invested in New Brunswick, and the income devoted to the support of a professor of divinity. An endowment of $30,000 or $40,000 would be ample. It was not aimed to make King's a low church college or a high church college. It was to be a college for the people of the Church of England. Reginald Harris was the next speaker. He introduced his remarks with the statement that the value of the buildings and plant of King's College were not properly appreciated. The endowment equaled $140,000. The value of the buildings was $200,000. The governors came to the diocese with an appeal of $200,000. All that was asked for was $100,000 for additional endowment and $20,000 for buildings.

The plan was to begin the campaign on Sunday, November 12, continuing for one week. Books for subscription and directions for the conduct of the campaign would be distributed at once. The church of King's College had come to the place in her history where she had either to repudiate King's College or support it. In Nova Scotia there would be no turning back. "King's is ours," said Mr. Harris in conclusion. "Will you help?" In the ensuing discussion part was taken by Canon Smithers, Canon Newham, Archbishop Raymond, Rev. C. F. Wiggins, H. B. Schofield, G. O. D. Oty and others. This evening the anniversary service was held in Christ church, parish church, where Rev. Canon Foxley preached to a large congregation.

DOES NOT LOOK LIKE FORTUNE HERE. From time to time appears a story with regard to a fortune of $83,000,000 left by a man named Churchill of this city, and said to be in charge for the last 100 years. The story is alike without foundation or results from a mistake as regards the origin of this fortune. A search of the records of the early history of the city reveals no one of the name of Churchill residing or doing business in St. John. There are families of that name in Yarmouth and Windsor, N. S., who were large ship owners. The present claimant is said to be the descendant of the daughter of a Churchill, who married a man named Roland. There is a Nicholas Bowland mentioned as one of the Loyalists who sailed in the settlement of land here by 1785. TOO TRUE. Smithers—He that courts and runs away may find himself in court another day. DO YOU ENJOY YOUR MEALS?

One of the Most Important Questions to Consider in the Search for Happiness and Health

The burning question to you is, "Are you getting out of life all the pleasure and the health you are entitled to?" If not, why not? No matter whether every organ and member of your body is in a sound state of health and strength, if your stomach is in any way unhealthful, you are not getting the "you're self." You are going to be a worried, out-of-sorts, nervous or un-healthy individual, whose actions will reflect your condition inside, and people will naturally avoid you. The brain and stomach are so intimately connected as a needle and its thread, one can hardly be used to advantage without the other. If your stomach is slow and lazy in digesting your food, it will produce at once a slow, lazy and cloudy influence upon your brain. Mark it! If your stomach has absolutely quit work, and fermentation is poisoning your vitals as a result, surely your brain is going to be sluggish and correspondingly depressed. No one need tell you that. But why continue to suffer all the miseries and torments that a disordered stomach brings you? If your stomach can not digest your food, what will? Where's the relief? Where's the cure? Stuard's Dyspepsia Tablets are the relief and the cure. Why? Because all stomach troubles arise from indigestion and because of the scientific discovery of Stuard's Dyspepsia Tablets, which thoroughly and completely digest 1000 grains of any kind of food into 100 grains of what is called these little Dyspepsia Tablets are going to digest all the food and whatever food you put into your stomach's stomach. The relief they afford is almost immediate. Their use with persistency and regularity for a short time helps bring about a cessation of the pains caused by stomach disorders. Recall Dyspepsia Tablets aid in healthy appetite, aid digestion, and promote nutrition. As evidence of my sincere faith in Recall Dyspepsia Tablets, I ask you to try them on my risk. If they do not give you entire satisfaction, I will return you the money you paid me for them, without question or formality. They come in three sizes, prices 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain them only at my store—The Hecol All Store, Chas. R. Watson, 100 King street.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS

Budget of News Concerning Stage Favorites Known to St. John Audiences.

Jack Pollard, who was a member of the Pollard Opera troupe when they played here a few years ago, is now "grown up" and a member of the Max Dill Co. playing in Vancouver this week. Their friends in St. John will be interested to hear of the presence of a new member of the Chicago Stock Company, Carl Andrew Sherred, who saw the light of day for the first time on Halloween in Sullivan, Ind. Hearty congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Sherred are being extended by their friends. Mr. Sherred is remembered here as an advertising manager of the company. His wife was a member of the Chicago Stock Company. The Detroit star is playing the part of Billy Bolton, the star half-back at Att-wal College. That he has to be a football hero instead of baseball idol is the fault of George Ade, the author, and not his. The audience on the opening night appeared to enjoy the performance and that is all Cobb or his managers desire.

ALL YOU NEED IS A CASCARET TONIGHT

No Sick Headache, Bilious Stomach, Coated Tongue or Constipated Bowels by Morning

Turn the rascal out—the headache, the biliousness, the constipation, the sick stomach and the foul gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lax liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach. Don't put another day of distress. Let Cascarets regulate your stomach; remove the undigested and fermenting food and clear out the mis-making gas; take the excess bile from your liver; carry out of the system all the de-composed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. Then you will feel great. A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work every city originally looked with a drug store means a clear head and cheerful face for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.

WEIRD FEATHERS ON THE NEW STYLE HATS

London, Nov. 7.—Feathers are weird and wonderful objects in the autumn millinery. No extravagance is too great to be acceptable to those who favor the bizarre in hat trimmings. The Gourahah plume has reappeared. It is a detached affair. Then if the feather is not set at this absurd angle it sticks out at the back of a hat or rises abruptly from a mass of plumes. A toque made of velvet carries out this branching out style by "donkey's ear loops," which are made of the velvet and stick out either side like large ears. This is one among the many trimmings of plume-like effect; others are the knotted quill, composed of beads and set at an angle dangerous to the eyes of passer-by, and the spun glass brush. Turbans made of gold and silver tissues with up-standing brushes rising from handsome ornaments herald the Durbar and the fashions this ceremonial will bring in its train. The hair bag of Victorian days has again appeared. It is made of fine cloth, with a band of brilliant jeweled meshwork in front, finished with dangling ornaments over the ears. It tucks into the nape of the neck and completely covers the hair except over the brow.

TEMPERANCE FEDERATION BUSINESS SESSION

The members of the St. John county branch Temperance Federation held a very enthusiastic meeting in the Christadelphian Hall, in Union street, last night, the president, C. Fraser McLavah, occupying the chair. There was a good attendance of members present, including Rev. W. E. Robinson, Rev. H. E. Thomas, J. Willard Smith, president of the provincial federation, and H. S. Haminger. In an address to the members, Mr. Robinson severely criticized the liquor license inspectors of this city, and declared that he was guilty of gross neglect of duty. He also declared that the chief of police, as deputy inspector, was the wrong man for the position. Touching on politics, he said: "Politicians must not try to hood-wink the temperance people. They must understand that inconsistency cannot be tolerated." J. Willard Smith also made some pertinent remarks on the willful indifference of prominent individuals who professed to be strong temperance advocates, but who in reality favored their opponents. The committee appointed at the last meeting to prepare some prohibitory measures, met with Rev. H. E. Thomas in the chair. A. A. Wilson was present and will act as legal adviser for the branch. A sub-committee, consisting of Rev. W. E. Robinson, Rev. H. E. Thomas and J. Willard Smith, was appointed to assist Mr. Wilson in framing such a prohibitory law for the province of New Brunswick. The meeting was marked by an interest and the outlook for a good season's work is very bright.

NEARING THE FINISH

Peking, Nov. 7.—The legations consider that the end of the Manchu dynasty is imminent. There seems no hope of saving even a nominal throne. The provinces north of the Yangtze are now declaring for a republic. The only force of Manchu troops large enough to cope with the local situation are in Peking, but there are indications tonight that the capital will be surrounded before many days by Chinese soldiers.

Itching and Burning on Face and Throat

Sores Disfigured So He Dreaded to Appear in Public: No Rest Night or Day. Cuticura Ointment Cured.

"Six months ago my face and throat all broke out and turned into a running sore. I did not bother about it at first, but in one week's time the disease had spread so rapidly over my face and throat, and I began to seek relief in different medicines, but none seemed to give me any relief. The sores disfigured my face so to such an extent that I dreaded to appear in public. I suffered terribly and could get no rest night or day. At last a friend advised me to give up hope, and that I would have to try Cuticura. I bought a little Cuticura Ointment and applied it to my face. I continued to use it until the next day, and I was completely cured. I can say I would advise anyone suffering from skin disease to use Cuticura. It is the best healing balm in the world." (Signed) HOSCOO GOD, Seven Persons, No. 12, 15, 1911.

FOUND RELIEF ONLY FROM CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"My little girl when only a few weeks old broke out on the top of her head and it became a solid scab. Then her cheeks became raw and sore and after trying different remedies found relief only from using Cuticura Soap and Ointment. It lasted six months or more, but after a thorough treatment with the Cuticura Soap and Ointment never had another return." (Signed) Mrs. W. S. OWEA, Yachin College, N. C., May 26, 1911. For more than a generation Cuticura Soap and Ointment have afforded the most successful treatment for skin and scalp troubles of infants, children and adults. A single cake of Cuticura Soap and box of Cuticura Ointment are often sufficient. Although sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world, a liberal sample of each, with 25¢ book on the skin, will be sent free, on application to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., 64 Columbus Ave., Boston, U. S. A.

NOT TILL JANUARY
Suggestion That Trip of Board of Trade Secretary Be Extended to West

The trip to Upper Canada planned by the Board of Trade yesterday for the secretary, W. E. Anderson, for the purpose of enabling him to study the publicity methods in use in other cities, will probably not be undertaken by Mr. Anderson until the first of the new year. He will be detained in St. John for the annual meeting in December, and the holiday time which follows would not afford a very good opportunity for securing the kind of information desired. It has been suggested that the length of the trip should be extended to take in the Northwest and British Columbia as well as Upper Canada, as conditions there are declared more in line with the situation in St. John. Some of the best publicity work and some of the most advanced methods of advancing a city's interests along the lines desired for St. John, are in practice in the west, and it is thought that the experience of those who are conducting this work would be of much value to the St. John Board of Trade.

SON OF WALTER GOLDING RUN DOWN BY TEAM

Eric Golding, the five-year-old son of Walter E. Golding, manager of the Nickel theatre, was quite badly injured in front of his home in Waterloo street about noon today. The boy was playing in the street, and in attempting to cross to the other side, was knocked down and run over by a carriage. He received several nasty gashes on the head. He was taken to the hospital, where he had his injuries attended to. As far as can be learned, the driver of the team did not stop, and it is not known who he was. It has been said more than once that there is great danger to children, and elders as well, in this vicinity because of the practice of speeding indulged in by drivers of horses and autos on the Waterloo street stretch. Today's accident is the second. The owner, in this case, continued on his rapid course up Cliff street, leaving the child on the ground.

THE POPULATION AND THE DEATH FIGURES

The possibility that St. John has been given a much higher death rate than it should have was pointed out by Secretary Burns, of the Board of Health today. Commenting on the rate shown by the official figures which is high for as healthy a city as this, Mr. Burns drew attention to the fact that the average per thousand is based on the official census returns. There have been complaints that the census does not show the full extent of the population. If this is the case, and the number of deaths is figured on a smaller total population than we have in the city, it would have the effect of making the percentage higher than it should be.

There have been suggestions that the Board of Health should take a census of its own when the inspectors are making their rounds, in order to check the official returns, as a high death rate is not a desirable advertisement for a city which is seeking to attract a larger population.

A. O. H. MEN IN GREETING TO PRESIDENT

James Regan Given Hearty Welcome by St. John Members—A Talk on the Order—His Plans

A large delegation of members of the A. O. H. this morning greeted the National President James J. Regan, of St. Paul, Minn., when he stepped from the Fredericton train, accompanied by J. H. McCloskey, the provincial secretary, who has been with him on his tour through the province. In addition to members of the order, and the Hibernian Knights there was also present a contingent of the Hibernian cadets and a large escort. Mr. Regan went by automobile to the Royal Hotel. A short time later two automobiles left the hotel bearing members of the A. O. H. and Mr. Regan, on a sight-seeing tour about the city. On his return, he said he was much pleased. "You have a great city here," he said to some of the brother members, "and there are fine chances for further development." The members who accompanied the national president were Mr. McCloskey, Wm. Perry, county vice-president, Capt. E. J. McLaughlin, F. J. McInerney, Sgt. William Daley, J. Ryan and William O'Neil. Various places of interest were visited among them the reversing falls, the churches and the schools. Speaking to a Times reporter, Mr. Ryan expressed himself as being greatly pleased with the progress of the order in Canada saying that its numbers were decidedly on the increase and the society was in a prosperous condition. He had visited Campbellton, Chatham, Fredericton and Moncton, and was delighted with the reception accorded to Mr. McCloskey and him at every place. This was his first visit to this part of Canada, although he had been a citizen of Montreal for some time but he left there twenty-five years ago. Mr. Ryan is now successfully located in St. Paul where he is a prominent contractor. The object of his visit to Canada, Mr. Regan said, was to familiarize himself with the work of the order here, and make a general inspection. This, he marked the diamond jubilee of the institution of the A. O. H. and special plans were made to commemorate the occasion. Partridge Island is to be visited this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock through the courtesy of M. W. Doherty who has loaned a tugboat for the occasion. The evening social will be held in the A. O. H. rooms and prominent citizens have been invited.

WEDDING THIS AFTERNOON

Miss Ethel B. Pooley the Bride of Chas. H. Stewart of Bank of Ottawa

A wedding of much local interest was solemnized at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon when Miss Ethel Berrymann Pooley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Pooley of this city, was united in marriage to Charles Hall Stewart of Perth, Ont. The wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, 288 Union street, by Rev. David Lang, assisted by Rev. W. J. Westworth. The house had been very prettily decorated for the occasion with potted plants, chrysanthemums and other flowers.

The bride was attired in a white satin dress with pearl trimmings and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. She was given away by her father. There were no attendants. After the ceremony a luncheon was served in the dining room, prettily decorated with flowers and plants. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will leave on the Boston express tonight on a honeymoon trip to Boston, New York, Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto and thence to Cobalt where they will reside. The groom holds a responsible position with the Bank of Ottawa in Cobalt, and at the present time is acting manager. The bride's going away dress was of grey with hat to match, and she wore mink fur.

Many handsome presents including cut glass and silverware were received by both the bride and groom. The groom is present to the bride was a beautiful pearl and diamond sunburst. Mrs. Jessie Stewart, mother of the groom, arrived in the city yesterday from Perth to attend the wedding. William E. Pooley of Moncton, brother of the bride, was also present at the ceremony.

FREDERICKS IS FINED

Waterloo Street Case Ended in Police Court Today

Abraham Fredericks, a colored man, charged with assaulting George Wright in Waterloo street on Saturday night, was brought up in the police court this morning, and was fined $20 or two months in jail. Several witnesses gave evidence of seeing a crowd in the street at the time but all failed to identify the prisoner. The court held, however, that the evidence of Mr. Gibbs, who swore positively that Fredericks was the man, was enough to convict the prisoner and he was fined accordingly.

Bernard Barry, George Murray, George Pooley, Felix Holland, George Moore and Charles Nealy were each fined $8 or two months in jail on the charge of drunkenness.

James Moore, aged twelve and Ronald Fraser, aged ten, both charged with stealing newspapers from E. G. Nelson's doorway, in King street, were remanded till this afternoon until their parents could be summoned to court.

May Ferris, arrested on Sunday night on charge of lying and lurking in a yard off Courtney street, was brought into court this morning. Policeman Perry told of making the arrest.

The prisoner went on the stand and said that she was standing in the street talking to a man when the policeman came along and arrested her. The Ferris woman was allowed to go home with her husband, but was cautioned by the constable to keep off the streets, unless she was in company with her husband.

Later in the afternoon the two boys, in connection with the newspapers case were allowed to go with a caution.
