THE WESTERN MINE STRIKE

Pernie, B. C., Oct. 17.—Negotiations between miners and operators said to be at a standstill against neither operators or miners have any news of progress being made or nothing can be learned as to whether the operators are conferred upon the situation and the miners say they have heard nothing from them. The situation seems discouraging today and looks like another deadlock just ahead.

A TRUE PROPHECY.

A correspondent at Canterbury Station sends to The Standard the following interesting item:—
When Mr. J. Kidd Fleming, mining expert, Premier of New Brunswick was teaching a school near Canterbury Station, about twenty-one years ago, he said in one of his many public speeches: "You may say what you will and laugh you will but the day is coming when I shall be leader of the Provincial Government of New Brunswick." His then laughing friends are now rejoicing that his words were prophetic. They send hearty congratulations to the new Premier of the Province through the columns of The Standard.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—Four electoral districts have not yet made complete returns, viz: Cumberland, in Nova Scotia; Regina, and Battleford, in Saskatchewan, and Yale-Cariboo in British Columbia, which are estimated to give a population of 70,000.

The population of the cities and towns reported may be changed slightly on revision but it is thought it may be accepted as correct. The official census figures of the Dominion were handed out tonight by Hon. Martin Burrell, minister of agriculture. They show that the population is about 7,100,000, an increase of nearly 2,000,000 in ten years. The figures will be slightly increased when the full returns have been received.

GARBAGE REMOVAL SCHEME HELD UP

Officials of the Board of Health are somewhat annoyed at the delay which has arisen in connection with the proposition to make provision for the collection and removal of household garbage as a civic enterprise. Some time ago the Board of Works called for tenders from contractors willing to undertake the work of collecting and removing garbage, but the specifications as drawn up by the city engineer, did not meet with the approval of the contractors who were expected to tender and no bids were received.

Their names are: Miss Rosa Lillian Bensen, Miss Mary Harrington Easson, Miss Helen May Carter, Miss Agnes Anna Pieschling, Miss Emma Ella Barry, Miss Bertha Katherine Snell, Miss Joyce Thomson Wisbar, and Miss May Florence Armstrong.

Progress of Sunday School Work. In his presidential address Rev. J. B. Ganong sketched the growth in Sunday school work in the province which had taken place since the association had commenced work in 1884. In Carleton county there was only one school which kept open all the year round, and but seven that kept open all summer. There were 47 schools in 1887. What was true of Carleton was true of most of the counties of the province.

Continuing, he said that the association was the clearing house for improved methods of work and those schools which kept in closest touch with it were the foremost in all lines of endeavor. The discovery and training of workers in the parishes of the province is another department in which the organization deserved great credit. Contrary to the expectations of many the association has not tended to do away with denominational lines to any great extent as those who have been most prominent among its workers have also been most faithful to their own churches.

Rev. Mr. Ganong said that a problem had been created through the fact that many of the denominations in New Brunswick and the other provinces, provided their own courses of study, issued their own certificates and diplomas, both for teacher training and Bible classes. He expressed the conviction that now they had come to the parting of the ways and a readjustment of the work of the association was necessary. He concluded by saying that the work of the association was not yet nearly done, and expressed the hope that during the coming year all would put more energy and prayer into it.

In the unavoidable absence of Mayor Frink, Rev. W. G. Gaetz delivered the address of welcome to the city, which was replied to on behalf of the delegates by J. W. Spurgeon of Fredericton. The greetings of the Prince Edward Island convention were presented by Rev. W. M. Field.

The Call for Leadership. Rev. Franklyn McElfresh delivered the address of the evening on "The New Call for Christian Leadership." The speaker said that a charge made against the church today is that with great resources she is not efficient. There was a new spirit abroad in educational matters everywhere, but religion and education were separated as never before. There was no teaching of religion except in the church. What China and Japan were going to do in the future depended on what Christian America was going to do. There was a new spirit abroad in education to busy men and women absorbed in the affairs of their everyday life. The day of the Jack-of-all-trades in the church was gone. Skilled workers, and specialists were needed. The child, the boy, the girl, the adolescent youth each require a special teaching for themselves. The opportunity was before them to develop leaders for these groups. Men must be found big enough to meet the tasks of modern civilization, and there was no nobler task for young men or women than the teaching to their fellows of the principles and truths of Christianity. SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS HOLD ANNUAL CONVENTION

New Brunswick Sunday School Association Opened Its Annual Session in Queen Square Methodist Church -- A Large Attendance and an Interesting Programme.

The annual convention of the New Brunswick Provincial Sunday School Association opened yesterday afternoon in the Queen Square Methodist church with a very large attendance of delegates. Many of these arrived in the city yesterday morning and were met at the depot by Rev. J. C. B. Appel and Rev. J. H. A. Anderson.

There was a meeting of the elementary institute at 2.15. Mrs. W. A. Ross presiding. After devotional exercises addresses were delivered on subjects of interest by Rev. W. A. Ross, M. A., general secretary; Mrs. W. A. Ross, M. A., C. Matthews, Mrs. J. W. Bridges and Rev. Franklyn McElfresh, Ph.D. There was a good deal of interest in the opening of the question box which was conducted by Mrs. W. C. Matthews.

At 2.30 there was a conference of pastors at which Rev. L. B. Gibson, Ph.D., Rev. J. K. Curtis, Sunday school secretary of the Methodist church and Prof. W. C. Kierstead were the speakers. A discussion took place afterwards on the addresses delivered which proved very helpful and timely.

A public mass meeting was held in the church in the evening at which the church was filled to the doors. There was a half hour's song service before the speaking commenced.

NATURAL HISTORY SOCIETY ELECTED YEAR'S OFFICERS

Society Has Had Year of Great Progress—Extensive Changes in Rooms and Additions to Museum.

The annual meeting of the Natural History Society of New Brunswick was held in their rooms last night. Senator Ellis in the chair. The society has had a remarkably successful year, as the reports of the different officers and leaders showed. The treasurer showed that the finances were in excellent condition and that the mortgages had been paid off, leaving a balance in favor of the society. The amounts paid by the New Brunswick and city governments with the fees of members, it was found, are about sufficient to pay the ordinary expenses of maintaining the museum. The society has increased the number of its specimens for the museum at least fourfold during the year. In biology, plants new to the province have been found, and two birds also new to the province, have been observed. Extension charges have been made in the building during the year, a better system of lighting introduced, and other improvements for the better display of the collection. The museum has been closed for the past six months in consequence of the work being carried on, but during that period the institution was open to be visited by more than 7,000 persons more than in the previous twelve months.

The ladies' association had a fine course of lectures during the past two years, and is in a flourishing condition. The society has had a series of very profitable outings and gatherings during the past summer. The total number of members in the society and its different branches is now nearly six hundred, and the success of the work for the year, and the fine prospects for the next year, were a source of gratification to the members and the general public. The following are the officers elected last night: Hon. V. Ellis, president; Dr. George E. Matthews, Dr. G. U. Hay, vice-presidents; A. Gordon Leavitt, treasurer; William McIntosh, secretary of the county; T. Hervey, recording secretary; James A. Estey, librarian; H. G. Addy, M. D., T. H. Eastbrook and W. F. Burditt, members of the council. Two other members of the council are yet to be chosen.

THE NORTHAMBERLAND COUNTY COURT OPENED

Special to The Standard. Newcastle, Oct. 17.—The October sittings of the county court for Northumberland opened here today. Judge McLatchy presiding. The most important case was that against T. Hervey, a well known barrister, who faced allegations of attempting to secure a pass over the intercolonial railway. The case was presided over by the publisher of the Leader, George F. McWilliam, R. A. Lawlor, K. C. appeared for Mr. Whalen.

The court resumed its sittings this afternoon that they could not find time to do so yesterday. It threw out the charge of assault against Fleigher on complaint of John Ruth. The evidence in this case was not substantial.

There remained five charges in which true bills were entered. A. Davidson prosecuted in the case of the King vs. Joseph Mayes on a charge of theft and R. A. Lawlor, K. C., defended. The charges were explained and evidence was taken with dispatch. The case went to the petit jury late this afternoon and a verdict was returned in favor of the Crown. All the cases are of a minor character and in the most instances should never have come before the county court.

Judge McLatchy said in his address to the jury that the county was free from serious offences. It was clearly the duty of the lower courts to dispose of these matters. The impression is general that the county is put to unnecessary expense in the administration of justice.

The court resumes Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. E. H. Sinclair said today that the damage to deals in yesterday's fire would be about $1000, partially covered by insurance. The smallpox situation in Douglas town shows no improvement. Coun. L. Doyle is directing measures to do in the future in the absence of the permanent chairman of the Northumberland board of health. Coun. Doyle is understood on good authority, will be the new chairman of the board.

led by Rev. G. A. Lawson. 3.50—"The Educational Value of the Sunday School"—Dr. McElfresh. 4.15—Address—"The Teacher's Inner Life"—Rev. W. G. Lane. 4.40—"The Child and the Evangelist"—Rev. S. J. McArthur. 5.00—Closing.

Evening Session. 7.20—Praise and devotional service. 8.00—Minutes. 8.05—Address—"The Mystery of Adolescence," Dr. McElfresh. 8.45—Music and offering. 8.50—Address—"The Religion of Youth"—Rev. George B. Cutter, Ph.D., president of Acadia University. 9.20—Closing.

Continuing, he said that the association was the clearing house for improved methods of work and those schools which kept in closest touch with it were the foremost in all lines of endeavor. The discovery and training of workers in the parishes of the province is another department in which the organization deserved great credit. Contrary to the expectations of many the association has not tended to do away with denominational lines to any great extent as those who have been most prominent among its workers have also been most faithful to their own churches.

Rev. Mr. Ganong said that a problem had been created through the fact that many of the denominations in New Brunswick and the other provinces, provided their own courses of study, issued their own certificates and diplomas, both for teacher training and Bible classes. He expressed the conviction that now they had come to the parting of the ways and a readjustment of the work of the association was necessary. He concluded by saying that the work of the association was not yet nearly done, and expressed the hope that during the coming year all would put more energy and prayer into it.

In the unavoidable absence of Mayor Frink, Rev. W. G. Gaetz delivered the address of welcome to the city, which was replied to on behalf of the delegates by J. W. Spurgeon of Fredericton. The greetings of the Prince Edward Island convention were presented by Rev. W. M. Field.

The Call for Leadership. Rev. Franklyn McElfresh delivered the address of the evening on "The New Call for Christian Leadership." The speaker said that a charge made against the church today is that with great resources she is not efficient. There was a new spirit abroad in educational matters everywhere, but religion and education were separated as never before. There was no teaching of religion except in the church. What China and Japan were going to do in the future depended on what Christian America was going to do. There was a new spirit abroad in education to busy men and women absorbed in the affairs of their everyday life. The day of the Jack-of-all-trades in the church was gone. Skilled workers, and specialists were needed. The child, the boy, the girl, the adolescent youth each require a special teaching for themselves. The opportunity was before them to develop leaders for these groups. Men must be found big enough to meet the tasks of modern civilization, and there was no nobler task for young men or women than the teaching to their fellows of the principles and truths of Christianity. Following is the program for today:

Morning Session. 9.00—Conference of county officers led by Rev. W. A. Ross, general secretary. 9.15—Address—"The Mystery of Adolescence," Dr. McElfresh. 9.30—Devoations—Rev. A. J. Archibald. 9.42—Minutes, notices, etc. 9.50—Report of general secretaries (two minutes each). 10.20—Report of executive secretary—Rev. W. A. Ross. 10.40—Report of executive committee—A. Malcolm; report of advocate committee—L. G. Sinclair; report of treasurer—A. H. Chipman. Discussion. 11.20—Address—"Forward"—Our New School Standards—Rev. W. A. Ross. 11.40—"The Child and the Evangelist"—Rev. S. J. McArthur. 12.00—Closing. Adult Division Afternoon Session. 2.30—Report of A. B. C. department. 2.45—Devoations—Rev. H. A. Read. 2.55—Minutes. 3.15—Address—"The A. B. C. as the President sees it"—H. E. Gross; The A. B. C. in the Rural Congregation, Rev. J. B. Ganong. 3.30—Conference on A. B. C. work.

WILLIAM BRADGON PLACED IN TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE

Grand Jury at Woodstock Murder Case Brought in True Bill, and the Taking of Evidence is Commenced -- Several Witnesses Examined Yesterday.

Special to The Standard. Woodstock, Oct. 17.—This afternoon the grand jury brought in a true bill against Wm. Bradgon, charged with the murder of Woodman McCluskey. Great interest is being taken in the trial and the grand jury was crowded when Bradgon was brought into court in charge of Sheriff Armstrong. The prisoner looked well after his five months' confinement in jail and did not appear to realize the seriousness of the crime charged against him. When the indictment was read by L. E. Young, the clerk, the prisoner in a strong voice responded "not guilty" and the other grand jurors were ready for trial, he quickly answered "yes Sir." F. B. Carvell said he appeared for the prisoner, and Hon. H. P. Leonard for the crown. There was some difficulty in getting a petit jury, the panel having been exhausted by challenge and a new panel of ten was ordered. This panel was ready in an hour and the jury was selected as follows: Thos. Watt, Edmund Lipsitt, Thos. Wilkinson, A. Ritchie, Arthur Avery, Wm. Mitchell, Chas. Gardner, Wm. Loane, Hugh Tweedie, Harvey Higgar, Moses Moore and Norman MacArthur. The counsel for the prisoner, Mr. Carvell challenged Wm. Sutton, Herbert Boyce, Allison Gibson, Geo. Gillmore, Norman MacArthur, Harry Long, H. E. Burt, L. L. Hull, Harry Bolyea, R. L. Allingham, Elmore Robinson, Tyler Maxon. The crown acted aside and finally challenged John Holmes, Carey Estey, H. P. Carvell and C. L. Smith. Those absent were, J. W. Smiley and John Gilchrist. The Bible was read. The clerk read the indictment to the jury. Hon. H. P. Leonard addressing the jury, said that they were charged with the murder of Wm. Bradgon. There was an earnest desire on the part of all jurymen that justice should be done. The facts of the case in brief were as follows: Wm. Bradgon on May 3rd went to Fredericton on a raft. He returned at 9.30 p.m. and went to his home when he met the deceased, Thomas Woodman McCluskey, who was coming out of his (Bradgon's) mill. The two men walked together and finally Bradgon drew a revolver and fired three shots at McCluskey. The bullets were fired by Bradgon from a revolver. At 10 o'clock McCluskey called at the office of Dr. Rankin, who examined a bullet wound in the stomach. Deceased was taken to the hospital, where he died. An autopsy showed by shock and gangrene in the intestines. He died at 11 o'clock p.m. on May 4th. Two colored men, who were with Bradgon at the time he fired the shot, were called upon to give evidence. The evidence was as follows: Wm. Bradgon on May 3rd went to Fredericton on a raft. He returned at 9.30 p.m. and went to his home when he met the deceased, Thomas Woodman McCluskey, who was coming out of his (Bradgon's) mill. SUFFRAGE AWAKENS HER SISTERS WITH A BUGLE BLAST; YOUNG WESTERN WOMAN SYMBOLIZES THE "CAUSE."

"SUFFRAGE" IN SCULPTURE AND MISS ELLA BUCHANAN WHO DESIGNED IT.

The comprehensive composition in sculpture, "The Suffragist Arousing Her Sisters," by Miss Ella Buchanan, has become a bond of sympathy and effort between leaders of the cause in New York, Chicago, San Francisco, St. Louis, Cincinnati and Louisville. Pretty casts from it, in ivory-like statuettes, are on sale as also post card prints.

Ella Buchanan comes of a newspaper and literary family. On the paternal side, she is a writer and straight through generations. On the maternal side she is an artist and writer. For some years her father was an editor in Springfield, Ill. Then the family moved to Pittsburg, Kan., where the father became prominent in state journalism and politics.

The New York suffragists plan to spend the larger part of each year in Chicago. Miss Buchanan tells a significant story in her suffrage group, "Suffrage" is the central figure, calling upon her sisters with the bugle at her lips. Leaning upon "Suffrage" is the wage earner; the other figures represent prostitution in the dust, vanity and convention.

TWO ST. JOHN EMPLOYERS FAVOR SHORTER HOURS

To the Editor of The Standard. Sir—As a reader of your valued paper who enjoys especially your editorials which are always instructive to the everyday workman, I make bold to write to you about a subject which is of interest to a large number of toilers, in this city and elsewhere. As you know, sir, the wire-nail factories in this city all work in hours a day. Everybody must agree that this is too long, day in and day out. Some time ago the employees of one of our wire-nail factories drew up a petition signed by every man working day work, requesting a nine hour day.

The manager promised to place the petition before the proper authorities, explaining that he himself was willing to grant the nine hour day, but that as the Montreal wire-nail factories were working ten hours a day, he did not think the factory here could compete with them if a nine hour day was put in force here. The employees of the other wire-nail factory also interviewed their manager, and the same answer was given them. The manager of this factory offered to pay the wages and expenses will be away of a delegate picked by the men to go to Montreal and interview the managers there with the object of bringing about a universal nine hour day, provided the managers of the other factory would do the same. The manager of the other factory has agreed to this.

These managers deserve the respect and confidence of their employees, and it is to be hoped their competitors in Montreal will show a similar interest in the welfare of their employees. The delegates have been chosen by the men and are expected to start for upper Canada in a few days. If their mission is successful and the nine hour day adopted it will be of mutual benefit to employer and employee. The men would have more time for recreation and I am sure would be grateful to their employers, and so exert themselves during the nine hours that when the shareholders counted their dividends at the end of the year, they would need a microscope to discover the shortage caused by granting the nine hour day.

Thanking you for your valuable space, St. John, N.B. NAILER, Successful Concert.

The concert held last evening in the Tabernacle United Baptist church was well attended. The programme consisted of an anthem by the church choir; selection, North End male quartette; reading, Miss Jessie Burns; mixed quartette, Mrs. Coggan, A. H. Paterson, Miss D. Belyea, Robt. McEachern; reading, Miss Florence Williams; reading, Mr. Wolfe; piano solo, Mr. Bond; reading, Mrs. S. Willis; duet, Miss Mary Owens and Mrs. Coggan; reading, Miss Wolfe; reading, Miss D. Oram. The pastor of the church, Rev. J. D. Wetmore, occupied the chair.

CLOSING STOCK LETTER. By Direct Private Wires to J. C. Mackintosh & Co. New York, Oct. 17.—It is hardly worth while to make anything out of the stock market today. With trading centers in a few stocks and the course up and down at the whim of the professionals who are doing practically all the business there is no comment to make. The usual talk reflecting the American Tobacco plan is heard and the criticisms have been made but until the courts decide what the company will be allowed to do the situation is unchanged. That a disintegration will take place is expected, and even by the courts if the courts it will be some time before the plans can be carried out. The fluctuations in United States Steel which by the way were same as ever are not of a very large proportion. The trading has not been very important as the larger interests are merely looking on and letting the stock take its course. At one time we are informed that the government will purchase its intentions of further investigations of the corporation, only to be denied later. But it is facts like these that are making our market and it is not surprising that the interest has lessened. There is nothing significant that would bear on the character of the trading. There is no real news, and the change in the general situation, merely a little activity on the part of room traders to take profits when possible, or sell a few if market looks just right.

CLOSING COTTON LETTER. By Direct Private Wires to J. C. Mackintosh & Co. New York, Oct. 17.—Southern sell- ing orders were in the market at the opening and it looked as if room traders were trying to put out a line of shorts on the opening but they found it necessary to sell on the scale down, after opening up 15 points on the near months the market developed a margining tendency. During the session the market became very weak and unsettled on reports that China was cancelling orders for goods. In Manchester which seemed to be selling more actively. Active general selling. Weather forecast Arkansas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Texas, market closed barely steady to 8 points below last night's prices.

AWARDS GRANTED. In connection with the Grand Trunk exhibit at the Festival of the Empire, Crystal Palace, London, England, further advice dated September 12th has been received from London regarding the awards that were given to the Grand Trunk and the Grand Trunk Pacific, and it is gratifying to know that these companies have received "Grand Prix" for their splendid display instead of the two that were announced in the cable received on September 1st. These awards have been made under the following: "Arts and Crafts"; "Engineering, Lighting and Transportation"; "Building Trades"; also "Advertising." This is considered by the companies named as a great honor, as other railways exhibiting at the exhibition have only received one award. The official report from the Grand Trunk representative at this Exhibition, for week ending September 9th, shows that the number of persons visiting the Grand Trunk Pavilion was 21,186, bringing the attendance up to September 9th to 279,942 people.

STOCK MARKET UNCERTAIN IN TONE

New York, N. Y., Oct. 17.—The uncertain and confused state of sentiment in the securities market at present was shown by the fluctuations of stocks today. Prices declined sharply in the morning seemingly for no better reason than that what were construed as indications that the department of justice was about to make further moves against large corporations. In the afternoon the market recovered, apparently for no reason at all. The whole movement was a decline and the range of prices of most stocks was not more than a point. The only activity was on the selling side. The market seemed to be in the hands of professional traders. Stocks were sold at the opening on the report that the federal authorities were soon to take action against the United States Steel Corporation as well as on account of the attitude of government officials toward the industrial list. Foreign houses were heavy sellers of United States Steel early in the day. Denial of the steel trust's hopes for the recovery, which set in before now and not only complete recoveries made, but the best prices of the day were touched. The Union Pacific made a net gain of nearly a point. Norfolk and Western was the only stock which fell early in the day, and it held its advantage throughout the session. Buying of this stock has extended to a period and according to report has been chiefly in the nature of accumulation of interests which expect to profit from the recovery, which is the highest price of its recent steady advance. Reports of increased buying of iron and steel were noted by trade advisers today. Buying at this time is regarded as logical in view of the depletion of supplies of iron and steel. A reduction in the price of tin plate to the lowest figure since 1906 was reported. American Tobacco secured the local market through its outspoken opposition to the reorganization plans. The common stock fell 5 points on the current although it subsequently recovered. The preferred stock and bonds also were heavy. Depressions of the European markets on account of the present and the seriousness of the uprising in China was a contributing factor in the heaviness of the local market. The selling however, was not large aside from United States Steel. Bonds were lower in the forenoon, but turned upward sharply when the tone of the stock market improved. Total sales, par value, $2,850,000. U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

THE ALBERT COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

Convention Met in Hillsboro and was Largely Attended—Interesting Programme Carried Out—Dr. Carter Present. The thirty-fourth annual convention of Albert County Teachers' Institute met at Hillsboro on the 12th and 13th inst. The convention was largely attended and very successful. G. J. Marr was the president and gave the inaugural address. Dr. W. S. Carter, Chief Superintendent of Education, was present and did much to stimulate the teachers in their work by his encouraging words and helpful suggestions. The presence and aid of Inspector O'Brien was also much appreciated. An interesting number on the programme was a practical demonstration of physical drill conducted by J. S. Henry. Miss Swanson read a carefully prepared paper on Domestic Science, which called forth much discussion. Successful lessons in grammar and paper folding were taught by Miss McEwen and Miss Mary Hamilton. A. W. Seaman, principal of Riverside Consolidated schools gave an excellent paper on Teaching Composition. Mr. O'Brien gave a practical lesson on Mental Arithmetic. Much information was gleaned from a well conducted question box. On Thursday evening a public meeting was held. The speakers on that occasion were Dr. W. S. Carter, Mr. O'Brien, Rev. P. G. Gaudier, Rev. J. A. Corbett, W. B. Dickson, M. P. P., and A. W. Seaman. F. M. Thompson presided. Music was interspersed between the addresses, making a pleasing variation. Seaman, president; Miss Mary Archibald, vice-president; Miss Eliza Avard, secretary-treasurer. Additional members of executive, J. S. Henry and J. Dixon. The club elected the following officers for the coming year: President, LeBaron Wilson; Vice-Pres., Alex. H. Campbell; 2nd Vice-Pres., Geo. H. Allen; Sec.-Treas., J. V. McEllen; Executive, Mauri Call, Walter H. Carnall, Frank I. McCaffery, Charles Conway, J. J. Lachure. AROUND THE CITY

Expected to Recover.
George Minnette who was seriously wounded on Monday when he was accidentally shot while driving in the vicinity of St. Marins, was removed to the general public hospital yesterday. His condition last night was reported as not so dangerous as at first supposed, and his recovery is expected.

Women's Canadian Club.
The Women's Canadian Club of St. John will hold its annual meeting on Friday evening at 8 o'clock, in Keith's assembly rooms. Cards have been sent out to the members, and it is expected that there will be a large attendance. Reports of the year's work will be presented and should prove of great interest. Officers for the ensuing year and a committee of management will be elected.

The Dolan Case Heard.
In the police court yesterday afternoon before Magistrate Ritchie, hearing was resumed in the case of Henry Dolan, charged with selling liquor to an intoxicated man. After the evidence of Officers McLaren and McLeod had been heard, the hearing was adjourned until Thursday morning at ten o'clock, when the magistrate will give his ruling in writing.

Charter Committee Meets Today.
Another meeting of the committee appointed to draw up a new charter for the city will be held this afternoon. A member of the committee, when seen yesterday said they were making progress, but declined to give out any information as to what had been done so far. Asked how the committee proposed to solve the problems which arise from relations of the city and county, he said there was nothing to disclose to the public at this stage.

Rehearsed "The Messiah."
The St. John Choral Society held the first practice since organization last evening. A short rehearsal of "The Messiah" was held after which the members held a social hour. An interesting programme was carried out and addresses were given by the president, A. G. Burnham, and other honorary vice-presidents, Gershon Mayes. Refreshments were served during the evening. The society has already a large membership list, and it is expected that the roll will be further augmented within a few weeks.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.
A largely attended meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held yesterday afternoon in the Seaman's Mission. The president, Mrs. C. H. Dearborn occupied the chair and following the transaction of routine business, gave an interesting address on the juvenile courts as conducted by Judge Lindsay. The work among the boys was then generally discussed by the meeting. The Dominion convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held in Sherbrooke, Que. on the 21st of this month. Among the representatives who will attend from the local union will probably be Mrs. T. H. Bullock and Mrs. Planders.

Will Speak on Missions.
A young, fluent and energetic speaker from the diocese of Antigonish, Archdeacon Ross, will address the various Anglican congregations in the city during the ensuing week in the interests of the mission work of the church as follows: Mission church, Oct. 20; Sunday, Oct. 22, St. John's (Stone) church in the morning and Trinity church in the evening; St. George's church, Carleton, Oct. 23; St. Luke's church, Oct. 24; St. Mary's church, Oct. 25; St. James' church, Oct. 26; St. Paul's church, Oct. 27. Following these dates he will speak at various points in the province. While in the city he will be the guest of Rev. G. A. Kubring.

Will Inspect Fish Weirs.
J. F. Calder, of Campbellton, inspector of fisheries for St. John and Charlotte counties, was at the Victoria yesterday. He has received complaints that several fish weirs on the Musquash are defective and will proceed to the river today to make an inspection. He expects to return to the city tonight, and hold a conference with Mr. Gerow, of the Fish and Game Society. Speaking of fishing matters Mr. Calder said the fishermen were doing little at the present time, as this is usually the season for the year with the fishermen of his jurisdiction. He added that the department of fisheries was making a special effort to keep the rivers clear of obstructions so as to permit the fish to have easy access to the spawning grounds.

A SCHOOL GIRL'S VIEW OF THE WESTERN LAND
A Little Eastern Maiden Who is Not Carried Away by the Lure of the Prairies.

How does the great prairie land of the west strike the children of the east? That is a phase of the migration from these provinces to the west of which little has been made public—perhaps for good reasons from the standpoint of the boosters of the west. A Standard reporter was shown a letter the other day which if read to parents considering the idea of going west might make them pause. It was written by a girl of 14, now with her parents on a western farm, to a former school friend in this province. It was a touching little letter, full of the intimate revelations of a brave and youthful spirit crushed by the vast monotony and crudeness of its surroundings, and pleading for the dear associations of the east—the sight of the guardian hills, the mystery of the forests, the sky reflecting lakes, the music of the brooks and the birds, the tang of the salt wind from the sea and the companions of her childhood. The letter was all the more pathetic because of the brave little note running through it in tone of the homes on the prairie—a shack, crudely built and innocent of any of the conveniences or adornments that the girl had known in her New Brunswick home. It told of the ugly school house on the plains, of wading through the snow in October, and doing her summer work with numb fingers. It told too of her schoolmates in the west—Germans, Swedes, Slavos, Poles, a motley lot whom she could not understand, with whom she could have no sympathies in common, and who hardly know how to play. "It's awful, Mabel, sometimes," she added, "I do so long sometimes to be back home. This place will never seem like home to me."

LOCAL OPINION VICTORIOUS IN PARISH OF LANCASTER

As the Result of Yesterday's Voting the Licensed Saloon will Cease to Exist in Fairville -- Temperance Forces Had Majority of 109 After Hard Day's Fight.

The will of the electors of the Parish of Lancaster was voiced yesterday at the polls, and as the result of this expression of their sentiment the licensed saloon will disappear from the parish, and beginning on May 1st next, local option will prevail. The measure carried at the polls yesterday by 109.

The fight was one of the most keenly contested ever held in that district, and an exceptionally large vote was polled—over 900 ballots being cast. From the moment that the polls opened the voters swarmed to the booths, and all day enthusiasm ran high as the leaders on both sides marshalled their forces at the polls. One of the most striking features of the fight was the excellent organization of the temperance workers, and to this fact may be attributed in great measure, the success of the struggle. The leaders on both sides were active at the polls, and kept a close lookout. The whole election, however, was conducted in a most orderly manner.

The polling was carried on in the Mason building, and four of the six booths were used for the local option voting.

The result shown at the different booths showed as follows:

For Local Option	Against
A D 112	107
E L 118	115
M Q 81	84
R Z 121	79
Lorneville 84	16
Total 513	404
Majority 109

The large majority given by Lorneville for local option played a large part in swinging the tide of victory in favor of the temperance cause.

Result Was Popular.
As the returns were made public from the different booths the eager voters for the most part cheered, and it was evident that local option met with the approval of the crowd. When the last word came from the booths announcing that the measure had carried, the enthusiasm of the temperance workers was given vent to in prolonged cheering, and all around hand-shaking. The local option forces then adjourned to Temperance Hall where a banquet was held at which addresses were given by Rev. W. R. Robinson, Rev. H. E. Thomas, Rev. G. A. Ross, Alex. Donaldson and others who had been prominently identified with the local option campaign in Lancaster. J. W. Stevens presided at the meeting.

TRYING TO LOCATE LEAK IN FERNHILL
City Engineer Has Large Staff at Work, but Efforts are Vain—Still Hopes for Success.

In regard to the allegations in the Evening Times that the city officials have paid no attention to the complaints of the directors of Fernhill cemetery that one of the water mains was leaking and causing an intolerable condition of affairs there, the city engineer when seen by The Standard last evening, said he had had workmen employed nearly all summer along the line of the mains trying to locate the supposed leak. "So far," he said, "we have not discovered any leak in the mains, and it rather looks as if the water that was causing the trouble came from an underground spring. We are keeping up the search, and if there is a leak in the mains we ought to find it soon."

Mayor Frink who was for some time chairman of the water and sewerage board, has often expressed the opinion that the city made a great mistake when it ran the water mains through the cemetery 45 or 50 years ago, and that it should seriously consider the question of removing the mains from the city of the dead.

In graphic language he has sometimes painted the horrors of the situation which would arise if one of the big mains burst, and the great stream of water suddenly unloosed, started to uproot the corpses interred in the neighborhood. At one time corpses were planted in a Jewish lot right over the line of the mains, but the Jews were subsequently given another lot. During the excavation in search of the leak this summer, the city workmen have sometimes exhumed the bones of Jewish children.

Most of the city fathers are in favor of removing the mains from the cemetery, but the cost of bringing the water into the city by another route would be considerable, and there are so many demands upon the civic treasury that there is not much likelihood that the mayor's suggestion will be carried out for some time.

ALD. M'GOLDRICK IS WAITING FOR A CALL
Chairman of Board of Works Not Particularly Impressed with Work of the Investigating Committee.

The investigating committee of the Board of Works held another session yesterday afternoon and tried to extract wisdom and knowledge from W. J. Crow and ex-Ald. Sproul, who have been acting as inspectors of the street paving work. When seen after the examination, Mr. Sproul said he did not think they got much out of him.

Ald. McGoldrick, chairman of the Board, is waiting for a call. "I've got a thing or two to tell them," says the alderman from Stanley. "I'm apt to tell them that the investigation is a case of love's labor lost. I don't know how they are going to effect any improvements in the system of administration unless they create some new offices and pay out more of the taxpayers' money. Besides, it looks to me as if the investigation is labor in vain. About all the work is done for the current aldermanic year, and next year the commissioner will come and run things to suit themselves. The commissioners are not likely to pay much attention to their recommendations, because the commission will introduce an entirely new order of affairs, and each commissioner having charge of a particular department will naturally want to work out his own system of running his department without reference to Ald. Kinstead's committee, or what we have been trying to do under the present system."

"It looks to me as if the committee was taking up the time of the city's servants mainly for the purpose of learning things about the city affairs that they might learn off their own bat."

ARE YOU GIVING YOUR EYES ALL THE CARE THEY NEED?

Eye-Strain

Is responsible for many more troubles than most people imagine possible. Many people suffer for years from disordered digestion, severe headaches, or nervous troubles of one kind or another. These troubles they ascribe to "billiousness"—to anything under the sun but the eyes, when in many cases the trouble could be directly traced to uncorrected eye-strain, which the wearing of proper glasses would entirely remove. We can tell you if your eyes are in any way defective, or if they are under strain.
