EBERT'S GOVT DETERMINED TO PUNISH GUILTY

While An Immense Amount of Damage Has Been Done in Germany by Uprising, Not Cataprophal.

TROUBLE INCITED BY MILITARISTS

All of Whom Will be Charged With High Treason and Might be Punished by Penal Servitude.

Stuttgart, March 21.—(By A. P.)—The immensity of the damage caused in Germany by the revolution and the consequent opinion of the Cabinet, President Ebert said today. "I am optimistic enough to think that the damage has not been catastrophic, and that is also the opinion of the Cabinet," President Ebert said. "I am sorry the events of the last few days have proved there are still circles in Germany that think the distress of the last war not great enough. They are the same groups that always desired war; they are the inciters of the militarists and reactionaries."

Regarding punishment of the Kapp leaders and the expectation of some that the state of siege would make necessary the execution of all the guilty, the President declared: "Those guilty shall feel the full weight of the law. All officers of reputeable position, and all leading civilians who joined willfully will be regarded guilty and be charged with high treason and might be punished with penal servitude."

CARRIED NARCOTICS FROM ST. JOHN

Now Two Calais Girls Are Held in Boston, Charged With Violation of the Narcotic Act.

Special to The Standard. Boston, March 21.—Isabelle Leclair and Mary A. Lillis, claiming residence in Calais, Me., were arrested here today charged with violation of the Narcotic Act. The young women are charged with attempting to bring into this country a quantity of cocaine, presumably acting as the agents for some unknown persons. Little could be learned from the young women, who deny all knowledge of the presence of the drug in their luggage. It is claimed, however, that the drug was being brought here from St. John. The prisoners are well dressed and appeared to have plenty of money. They were stopping at a fashionable hotel, when apprehended.

LIBERALS FISHING FOR THE FARMERS

Mr. Duff Declares the Farmer and Labor Parties Will Soon be in Liberal Fold.

Montreal, March 21.—Mr. W. Duff, M. P. for Lunenburg, N. S., spoke at the weekly luncheon of the Reform Club here on Saturday, the burden of his remarks being that there was no discrepancy between the ideals of the Liberals and the Farmers. It was quickly realized, he said, that the folds of the Liberal flag were wide enough to cover and protect the interests of farmers, fishermen, laborers and even of merchants. "It was the reason why I was elected, in spite, I should say, not of the soldiers vote, but in spite of the manipulation of their votes." He thought that a thorough understanding with the farmers and the labor parties was at hand.

UNITED KINGDOM STIRRED BY MACCARTAIN MURDER

Tragedy Comes on Heels of Sinister Rumors of Sinn Fein Plot for Revolution in Ireland at Easter Time.

London, March 21.—Not since the attempted assassination of Viscount French, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has any Irish outrage of the scores perpetrated caused such a sensation throughout the United Kingdom as the murder of Lord Mayor MacCartain, of Cork, early Saturday morning. Reports from Cork indicate that the people decline to attribute the affair to Easter time. It such a plot exists, it is pointed out, the murder of one of the Sinn Fein leaders would not tend to throw water on the fires of conspiracy. At the moment the whole affair remains a sensational and dark mystery, whose clearing up is rendered doubly difficult owing to the disordered conditions in Ireland.

When the police of Cork visited the MacCartain house on Saturday, to make inquiries for inquest purposes, they were refused admittance. The Lord Mayor's body, draped in the Sinn Fein volunteer uniform, lies in his residence, which is guarded by volunteers. Two hours after the murder a large force of military visited MacCartain's home and searched the room where the body was lying.

BRITISH DREADNAUGHTS IN THE BOSPHORUS

Great Surprise to Turks Who Refuse to Believe That the Spoils Belong to the Victor.

Constantinople, March 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—That the mediaval grandeur of the Sultan's pageant is an anachronism which must pass is typified by the long line of British dreadnaughts in the Bosphorus. Surprise is evidenced by most of the Turks, who refuse to believe that the spoils belong to the victor. The Sultan issued an edict to his subjects Friday to pursue their usual vocations in peace, regardless of foreign occupation. Meantime, a British warship was steaming towards Malta, carrying Reaf Bey, and many others of the Nationalist leaders who were supporting Mustafa Kemal's opposition to the dismemberment of Turkey, and were rounded up in a raid on Constantinople preceding its occupation. The Nationalists charge the Sultan with treachery, and say he lacks courage and patriotism.

WAR TROPHIES FOR CANADIAN GOVT

Halifax, N. S., March 21.—With six thousand tons of cargo, the Canadian Pacific steamer Holbrook, arrived in port on Saturday after a 14 days' voyage from Bristol, England.

The steamer brought two thousand tons of cargo for the government, including considerable quantities of such as guns, cartridges and aeroplane which have been sent to Canada to augment the Canadian war trophies collection.

TO DEMOBILIZE PERSONNEL OF NAVAL SERVICE

WITHDRAW SHIPS FROM COMMISSION

Laying up Some of Them and Disposing of Others by Sale if Purchaser Can be Found.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, March 21.—Orders which will have the effect of demobilizing the 500 officers and men now engaged in the Canadian Naval Service, of withdrawing ships from commission and placing naval dockyards in charge of caretakers at the end of the present month, have been issued by Hon. C. B. Borden, Minister of the Naval Service. The order means that the majority of the force of officers and men now employed on ships, in dockyards and in clerical capacities in the naval service department here will be disbanded by April 1, the beginning of the new fiscal year, 1920-21.

A skeleton force, it is said, will be retained until July 1, to wind up the business of the department, lay out certain ships, sell others and close up the yards. It is stated that the closing of the Royal Naval College at Esquimaux was at first intended but that, subsequently, the order was countermanded. The principal vessels of the Canadian naval service are the Cruiser Niobe and Hochelaga on the Atlantic Coast, the Cruiser Rainbow and the Stadacona on the Pacific Coast, and a number of tender craft, including trawlers, drifters, and other smaller vessels. The Niobe has not been in full commission for some time. The Rainbow is a small armed cruiser and certain other vessels which were employed in the mine sweeping and coast patrol services during the war are naturally not required now. Certain of these auxiliary craft, it has been reported, are to be sold.

Several members of the Government, spoken to with regard to the report, stated that it must have been a departmental order, no action having been taken by the Government. Hon. C. B. Borden and his deputy are both out of the city. The news comes, however from an apparently good source, and is in a measure confirmed by a despatch from Esquimaux announcing the receipt of such orders there.

SENSATION FOLLOWS CORONER'S INQUEST

Over Body of Lewis King Who Was Burned to Death in Fire at Oxford Saturday.

Special to The Standard. Amherst, N. S., March 21.—A coroner's inquest was held Saturday at Amherst, N. S., on the body of Lewis King, who was burned to death in the fire of the Wood, Patton block, Saturday morning.

Crown Prosecutor Hanaway is following the case closely and future developments will depend on the outcome of the final finish of the inquest on Monday. The evidence given points out the fact that the fire originated in M. A. Peel's store, which destroyed the block also that Peel and King were drinking and when Peel got home about one o'clock, he told his wife there was a fire down town. He gave his wife the key to the shop to get his papers and money and nothing was said of King who was found lying, face downwards, about three feet from the rear of the store. King's arms and legs were badly burned, but his body and face were not burned beyond recognition. Mr. and Mrs. Rushton occupied rooms near the store in the same block gave evidence which put a serious aspect to the fire. She was awakened by the noise of scuffling and quarrelling in the Peel store, and she put her ear to the floor she heard some one say "You G— D— fool you are going to burn me alive." "Al is young Peel's first name. This was about five or ten minutes before the fire.

The fireman testified that they had to break the doors open, they being locked. This concluded the evidence of Saturday. The case will be continued on Monday when Mrs. Milner and McQueen, of Amherst, will give evidence. They have been holding an autopsy of the body. The inquest raised the question of Oxford and Amherst as the parties are well known in both towns, and belong to the best families of the county.

The Gonzales Observatory yesterday morning, Supt. Napier estimated the distance from Victoria was 4,700 miles.

Sinn Feiners Placed Aboard Destroyers

Dublin, March 21.—There was a round-up of prominent Sinn Feiners throughout Kerry yesterday. A number of them were put aboard a destroyer by military authorities, their destination presumably being the English prison. The conditions under which the Sinn Feiners are held at Roscommon is considered indicative of the precautions being made to protect some of the public men. Six armed policemen guard their lodgings at night; others follow their carriage when they drive to the court, and while they are presiding at sessions the court room is guarded by plain clothes men.

STATE OF SIEGE IN BERLIN NOW RAISED

Manifesto Issued by Trades Unions Advises a Resumption of Work—Streets of Berlin Show Peaceful Aspect.

Berlin, March 21.—(By the A. P.)—The state of siege in Berlin and the province of Brandenburg was raised Saturday afternoon it was announced officially today. The streets of Berlin, for the first time in a week, present a peaceable aspect today. The shops are closed, but only because it is Sunday. Trains are running, but the tramway service has not been resumed. Most of the hotel staffs have returned to work. A manifesto, issued today by the Trade Unions, advises a resumption of work now that all grounds for continuance of the strike have been removed. It also adds that the fundamental cause of the reactionary coup lie in the unnatural peace of Versailles, radical amendment of which, the manifesto declares, is necessary. The semi-official news agency says that nothing is known regarding a report that General Von Leutwitz, head of the Kapp military forces, had committed suicide.

Troops of the Ebert Government had been ordered to remove the barricades and military set up by the Von Leutwitz forces and all forces of the Kapp coup are disappearing so far as Berlin is concerned. Apparently the Communists have sufficient forces to muster in sufficient force to attempt a concerted effort against Berlin. Officials of the restored government of Versailles, radical amendment of which, the manifesto declares, is necessary. The semi-official news agency says that nothing is known regarding a report that General Von Leutwitz, head of the Kapp military forces, had committed suicide.

DELEGATES ARRIVE AT MONTREAL

For Dominion Great War Veterans' Convention Which Opens There Today.

Montreal, March 21.—Over two hundred delegates, the advance guard of the Dominion Great War Veterans' convention which opens here tonight, were registered here tonight. The local attendance is expected to reach four hundred and an international meeting today all members of the Dominion executive were present, including President W. P. Purdy. He is not in good health, and is probably the duties of chairmanship will fall upon R. B. Maxwell, of Winnipeg.

The convention will open at ten o'clock tomorrow morning, the first business being registration of credentials. The President's address and an address of the Secretary-Treasurer will be delivered at the afternoon session. Three thousand resolutions have been forwarded to the Dominion secretary and these have been boiled down to thirty.

AUSTRALIA TO RAISE PENSIONS

Melbourne, Australia, March 21.—A government resolution bill just introduced raises the pension of permanently disabled soldiers to four pounds weekly for life for unmarried men, to four pounds eighteen shillings for a man with a wife and no children, and to six pounds for a man with a wife and three children. Partially disabled men are to receive two guineas weekly.

PREMIER GEORGE DISCUSSED THE TURK QUESTION

With Indian Caliphate Delegation Who Declared That Turkey Should Have Her Pre-War Territory Restored.

PREMIER SEES NO REASON WHY TURK

Should Expect to Have Any Lighter Sentence Meted Out to Them Than Was Imposed on Germany and Austria.

London, March 21.—Premier Lloyd George on Friday discussed the Turkish question with the Indian Caliphate delegation, headed by Mohamed Ali, who declared that Turkey should have all her pre-war territory restored. The Premier replied: "I do not understand Mr. Mohamed Ali to claim indulgence for Turkey; he claims justice and justice shall be meted out to the world and death struggle? Is there any reason why we should apply a different measure to Turkey than we have meted out to the Christian communities of Germany and Austria?"

"I want the Mohammedans in India to get well into their minds that we are not treating Turkey severely because she is Mohammedan. We are applying equally the same principle to her as to Austria, which is the greatest Christian community."

Referring to the temporal power of the Caliphate, the Premier said he had no objection to a religious campaign in which Mohammedans themselves differed. The delegation requested that the Armenian massacres be investigated by an international commission on which the Moslems were represented.

BOMB EXPLOSION IN POLISH BAKERY

Does Much Damage at St. Catharines, Breaking Glass and Alarming Populace.

St. Catharines, Ont., March 21.—A bomb, which had been placed in the doorway of the International Co-operative Bakery and Grocery here, exploded early this morning and damaged the building, as well as breaking windows on both sides of the street and causing a great deal of alarm to the people living in the neighborhood. No person was in the store at the time. After the explosion seven large railroad spikes were found in the woodwork of the establishment. Bread has been sold at a price by the Poles, and this fact was emphasized by them today in connection with the explosion.

SEVEN BY-ELECTIONS PENDING IN ENGLAND

Heavy Opposition to Coalition Candidates Expected from Liberal and Labor Candidates.

London, March 21.—(Canadian Press)—Seven by-elections are now pending in England. Mr. Asquith, who was promoted to Minister of Labor, will have a stiff fight against the Liberal and the woman Labor candidate in Northampton. Five candidates have appeared in Dartford, made vacant through the death of James Bowden, including Tow Wing, formerly Liberal member of Parliament. All the seats likely to be vacant shortly are now held by the Coalitionists, and since Premier Lloyd George's speech in the week it is obvious that the main issue will be individualism versus socialism. There is a plethora of candidates everywhere so straight fights will be few.

Mr. Asquith, replying to Premier Lloyd George, who asked what he (Asquith) would have done if his government had remained until the end of the war, declared that the Coalition was for the war only, and designated the election in December 1918 as a trick election. Mr. Bowden, speaking yesterday, agreed with Lloyd George that the Coalition should continue and emphasized the necessity of united action in constitutions toward this end.

FEED SHORTAGE BECOMES SERIOUS

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, N. B., March 21.—Shortage of bran and shorts is causing alarm among the stock and dairy farmers of the Province, and the Department of Agriculture, in conjunction with the Departments of Ontario and Quebec, has taken steps to get the Wheat Board to take prompt action in the matter. The situation at this time is especially serious, as unless the cattle can be kept supplied with these necessities until grain time, there will be a general falling off in the milk supply. "At this time of the year," E. F. Brand, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, stated, "a large majority of the cattle in the Province are freshening, and if the feed cannot be obtained by dairy farmers for the cattle to hold them over until the grazing season, conditions will be serious."

The local committee in charge of a war memorial in Fredericton have decided to erect a monument, and will seek the assistance of the Counties of York and Sunbury and the towns of Marysville and Devon in the project.

CONFERENCE ON STATE OF PEACE DECLARATION

Senators and Representatives in Disagreement Over the Measure, and Differ as to Plan to be Followed.

SOME FAVOR SIMPLEST AFFIRMATIVE TERMS

While Others Would Repeal Declaration of War and Go on Record as Demanding Concessions from Germany

Washington, March 21.—Although active steps to declare a state of peace by Congressional resolution are not expected until late this week, Republican leaders of the Senate and House are to begin conferences tomorrow on the exact form such a declaration should take.

Some Senators and representatives want to phrase the peace measure in the simplest affirmative terms, others prefer to repeal the declarations of war and go on record as demanding certain concessions from Germany, while others are for inclusion of some sort of a declaration of international policy.

Irreconcilables Oppose. The principal opposition to a policy declaration is expected to come from the treaty irreconcilables in the Senate, some of whom have told the majority leaders they consider the time inopportune for Congress to take any binding stand on the subject. These Senators do not like even the pending peace resolution by Senator Knox, Republican, Pennsylvania, which re-affirms the belief of Congress in an international tribunal and disarmament.

For the present, however, the Knox resolution has the right of way so far as the Senate programme is concerned. It was reported by the foreign relations committee in December and unless present plans are changed will form the basis of opening discussion of the subject late this week on the Senate floor.

House Has No Policy. In the House the situation is less definite. The Republican leaders there having formulated no policy. In December they determined to let the question of a peace declaration come up at all, but many House members believe the case may be different now that the Senate again has refused to ratify the treaty. The House foreign affairs committee already has several peace measures before it and representative Britton, Republican, Illinois, announced tonight that they would introduce another tomorrow.

MORE CONCESSIONS

Demanding of Germany by the Independent Socialists Because of Power Held in West Germany.

London, March 21.—Government officials received from Germany today are to the effect that the Independent Socialists are demanding further concessions on the part of the governments probably because the communists are gaining the upper hand in West Germany. The advice from Essen, Düsseldorf and Elberfeld indicated that all three towns were in the hands of the Spartacists; and that something approaching anarchy was taking place in Essen and fighting was continued in Leipzig.

THOUSANDS VIEW REMAINS OF THE MAYOR OF CORK

REVENGE FOR RECENT MURDER OF POLICEMAN

Given as Only Reason for Assassination of the Lord Mayor—Campaign of Retaliation Expected.

Cork, Ireland, March 21.—Thousands of persons resident in the city and from the surrounding country passed through the city hall where the body of Lord Mayor MacDonagh, who was assassinated early Saturday morning, was lying in state.

Today a proclamation printed in English and Gaelic and signed by Father Dominic, bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese, was read by the Lord Mayor's representative, the Rev. Fr. O'Connell, who walked in front of the first body of the Cork Sinn Fein Volunteers, which acted as a body guard and which furnished the guard of honor in the Town Hall during the night.

The only reason suggested for the assassination of the Lord Mayor is revenge for the recent murder of policeman. Some persons today expressed the belief that it meant the beginning of a campaign of retaliation for the killing of numerous members of the Royal Constabulary and soldiers, for which acts no one has yet been punished.

The inquest into the death of the Lord Mayor was begun, but as adjournment was taken after brief formalities had been carried out. The solicitor for Lord Mayor MacDonagh's family requested that no further proceedings should be held on the coroner's jury.

Alexander MacCabe, member of parliament for South Sligo, who has been released from prison after having a sentence imposed last year on a charge of inciting to disorder and unlawful assembly, has been recommended to be sentenced to three months' imprisonment for inciting to disorder in the Sinn Fein ranks.

Sinn Fein flags are flying over the evacuated constabulary barracks at Shercock, County Cavan. Sinn Fein policemen are in charge there.

(By Rear Admiral William S. Sims.) The English-speaking peoples, whether in Great Britain or America or Australasia, are spiritually one.

All prize justice and deal dealing above all else, and all have those qualities of individual initiative and progressiveness in trade which led the sons of old England to adventure overseas three hundred years ago and establish themselves in one after another of the vacant places of the earth and built up our great countries.

Though we are linked together by our common origin and are actuated by common tenets, each branch has developed its own individuality. Australians have a set of problems internal and external to their own people which are peculiarly Australian.

Similarly Americans and Antipodeans and Canadians each have their own problems and their own points of view. Yet all are linked together in a common purpose to promote the progress of the world in accordance with our fundamental principles of liberty and justice—which can be done only by the free and political subdivision making itself a sound unit of our common civilization as possible.

And there is another common link joining us all together. Some think of our different peoples as separated by vast expanses of sea. They do not realize that, instead of being separated by the seas, we are joined by the seas for the seas have ever been the easiest and cheapest highways of human communication. How few steps to realize that sea-faring has always been a vital element of English-speaking civilization. It is that element without which our ancestors would have remained confined to the British Isles, instead of building up all that we are today in America and Australasia and Africa and Asia.

To the old English merchant adventurers of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries America owes its foundation and its earlier upbuilding. They founded the first overseas "plantations," and the trade resulting between these colonies and the mother country developed a great merchant fleet in which was schooled Britain's great body of sturdy mariners. It was this merchant fleet and these merchant seamen that made possible the naval fleets of Britain and enabled the immortal Nelson to win the battle of Trafalgar and block Napoleon's attempt at world domination.

Just as it was the merchant mariners of a hundred years ago who manned the guns at Trafalgar, so it was the merchant mariners who made it possible to man the guns last year in France. Our navies hemmed in the German fleet and, in the end, got the upper hand of the seamen of Britain and her Allies, and latter those of America, who went to sea in spite of every danger, who carried the food to the armies of the Allies, who carried over the great American army which enabled all of us together to deliver the final knock-out blow. All this de-

AT ST. MATTHEW'S CHURCH.

Services at St. Matthew's Church, Douglas Avenue, were very well attended yesterday. In the evening the pastor, Rev. E. I. Egan, preached an interesting sermon upon the subject "A Dead Church and a Live Church." The discourse, a practical one, was listened to attentively by the large congregation.

A SPECIAL PROGRAMME.

A special programme of very fine music was given at St. Andrew's Church last evening. This included a solo, "Fear No, Oh Israel" (Duet), "Love Divine" (Stainer), Miss Louise Anderson and Miss McAdam; a duet, "Speed Away," Mrs. L. Le Lachour, Miss Louise Anderson, Messrs. Cliff McAdam and Thomas Guy.

RETURNS TO DUTY.

FARMERS TO OPPOSE MACKENZIE KING

Newmarket, Ont., March 21.—The United Farmers of Ontario, at a meeting held here on Saturday, decided to put a candidate in the field against Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Liberal member of the next Federal election.

A convention to nominate a candidate will be held here on April 10th, and it is probable that R. W. E. Burnaby, President of the U. F. O., will be the choice of the convention.

Depended upon the simple courage of the merchant seamen, on the calmness of the stoker who went down while his ship was passing through the submarine zone. I know no finer group of heroes.

As our civilization has been cradled on the sea, so it is bound together by the sea, bound together by the intelligence and hardihood of our seamen in peace as well as in war.

Certain people in Canada were greatly shocked and turned up their eyes in holy horror a couple of years ago when W. P. Nickle, then M. P. for Kingston, engineering an increased pension by through the Ottawa Parliament, boldly made provision for "unmarried wives." Ultra pluck people will be still more shocked to find that the "unmarried wife" is officially recognized as an established institution in Great Britain, as witness the following extract from a recent London paper:—

There seems to be some difficulty as to the rate of allowance paid to an unmarried wife and a separated wife. Let us first take the case of the unmarried wife, and we find that Article 1a (4) of the Royal Warrant reads:—

An allowance of $175 (substituted for $250, as paid to a legal wife) may be granted in respect of a woman living with a disabled man, if she has drawn separation allowance as for a wife in respect of him.

It should be understood that the full amount of $175 (substituted for $250) is payable only when the disabled man is in receipt of full 100 per cent. disablement pension. Where the disability is assessed at less than 100 per cent., the unmarried wife's allowance will be at such proportion of $175 as corresponds to the degree of disablement at which the man is assessed for pension. An example will simplify the above:—I am in receipt of an 80 per cent. pension. Who should my allowance be, as from Sept. 3 for my self, unmarried wife, and two children? The answer to this question is as follows:—Providing the unmarried wife draw separation allowance in your respect as for a wife, your allowance should be as follows:

80 per cent. disablement pension $ 8.00
Wife's allowance equals 8/10ths of $175 or 1.50
First child's allowance equals 8/10ths of $175 or 1.50
Second child's allowance equals 8/10ths of $150 1.00

Total $13.00
Where there are three or more children, simply add $1 in respect of each child after the second to the total of $13. It should be noted that in all such cases the unmarried wife's allowance is at the same rate as the first child.

In the case of a separated wife, we have to refer to Article 1a (2) (C) of the Royal Warrant for the definition of the word "wife," which reads:— "Wife" shall not include a wife who is separated from her husband, but, subject to sub-section (3) of the said article, a minister of pensions may, in his discretion, grant to such a wife an allowance of $250, where the husband is in receipt of 100 per cent. disablement pension, or such an allowance as corresponds to the degree of disablement at which the man is assessed for pension.

COMMUNISTS SET FIRES IN LEIPZIG

And by the Use of Machine Guns Hinder the Work of Firemen—Several Dead, Many Injured in Fights.

Berlin, March 21.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Volkes Bunde, in Leipzig, headquarters of the Communists, capitulated today after a hard fight with the Reichswehr, according to despatches received here. Five persons are dead, two seriously wounded and fifty taken prisoners by the troops as a result of the fighting.

Conflicts continue in other quarters of Leipzig. Many parts of the city have been set on fire by the Communists, who are hindering the work of the firemen with machine gun fire.

It is reported from the Rhinefeld that at least four towns, Dortmund, Essen, Mulheim and Hauer, are governed by Soviet councils. In Essen, bombardments and street combats lasted more than twenty hours. Several of the streets are badly demolished and the casualties and property damage are enormous.

Special to The Standard. Newport, Vt., March 21.—Because of the late arrival of the Boston and Maine transfer shed in this city and made presents to Mrs. Jean Kinney, a pretty seamstress, a newcomer here, whose former home town is Newport, N. B. Arthur Fountain will spend two and a half years at hard labor at the Vermont State prison at Windsor.

Stockings, coats, shoes and many other articles were missed for some time, but no trace of the theft could be secured.

But one day Fountain and Mrs. Kinney quarrelled, and the result was that she got revenge on him. Fountain had carried her presents of candy, nuts, silk stockings and other gifts. In a fit of anger, Mrs. Kinney wrote a letter to L. D. Fuller, Transfer Manager, telling him of the stealing. A railroad official interviewed Mrs. Kinney and got the full story of the stealing, which had been going on for eighteen months. Fountain's confession implicated two accomplices, Arthur LeClair and Archie Orzig. LeClair has gone to Canada. Griggs, who had secured a hall, did not appear today to be sentenced.

KEEP DOORKNOBS BRIGHT.

A good many people may come to your house and never notice the doorknobs. But there are women who always notice doorknobs and judge one's principles of housekeeping by them. Shining doorknobs add to the attractiveness of a house just as shining windows and polished floors do not particularly notice that they are not particularly polished.

Knobs and window panes of a charming home are bright and shining—but not the woodwork of the door. Rub with a piece of newspaper and slip the paper over the door. So that the metal polish may not get on the woodwork of the door. Then rub and rub with vigorous strokes and a sufficiently large cloth for easy handling. Doorbells and facets are always shining, also, in a house where the doorknobs look bright.

DRUNKEN SEXTETTE.

Six lovers of prohibitory booze were gathered in by the police during the week-end and will be charged with drunkenness in the Police Court this morning. Arthur Kennedy was arrested by Police Constable Hogg yesterday afternoon, charged with being drunk, and with having liquor in his possession other than his private dwelling.

HEAD STUFFED FROM CATARRH OR COLD

Eye Cream Applied in Nostrils Opens Air Passages Right Up. Instant relief—no waiting. Your clogged nostrils open right up; the air passages of your head clear and you can breathe freely. More hawking, snuffling, blowing, headache, dizziness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or croup disappears. Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly. It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed-up with a cold or nasty catarrh.

ST. STEPHEN WOMAN "SQUEALS" ON LOVER

Reports Him to B. & M. Authorities for Stealing from Their Transfer Shed at Newport, Vt.

Newport, Vt., March 21.—Because of the late arrival of the Boston and Maine transfer shed in this city and made presents to Mrs. Jean Kinney, a pretty seamstress, a newcomer here, whose former home town is Newport, N. B. Arthur Fountain will spend two and a half years at hard labor at the Vermont State prison at Windsor.

Stockings, coats, shoes and many other articles were missed for some time, but no trace of the theft could be secured.

But one day Fountain and Mrs. Kinney quarrelled, and the result was that she got revenge on him. Fountain had carried her presents of candy, nuts, silk stockings and other gifts. In a fit of anger, Mrs. Kinney wrote a letter to L. D. Fuller, Transfer Manager, telling him of the stealing. A railroad official interviewed Mrs. Kinney and got the full story of the stealing, which had been going on for eighteen months. Fountain's confession implicated two accomplices, Arthur LeClair and Archie Orzig. LeClair has gone to Canada. Griggs, who had secured a hall, did not appear today to be sentenced.

TO CLOSE HALIFAX DOCKYARD JULY 1ST

Between Four and Five Hundred Men, Mostly Skilled Mechanics, Now Employed at the Yard.

Halifax, N. S., March 21.—The dockyard at Halifax is to be closed about July 1st according to advices from headquarters at Ottawa just received here. The Captain Superintendent is to proceed with demobilization of the dockyard will be required to vacate their residences on month after demobilization, and all the ships and boats are to be sold. There are at present between four and five hundred men employed in the dockyard and many of them are skilled mechanics. There is also an office staff of about 75.

POETICAL ROBBER CUTS SOME SWATH

New York, March 21.—The police today arrested James Smith on the charge of being a "poetical robber." According to Peter Kuris, a baker, who claims his cash register was rifled by Smith, the latter entered his establishment early this morning, pointed a revolver at his head.

"Say, kid, look me in the face, I just dropped in to clean this place. So come across with all you've got, I never fail to hit the spot."

Berlin, March 19.—A sudden and widespread revival of the antisemitic movement made itself felt yesterday, when at intervals throughout the day, leaflets were distributed protesting against the presence of Jews in public offices and attempting to influence public mind by cartoons picturing the German people as starving in a cage while well fed and prosperous Jewish merchants took an end and made to say: "Don't feed the animals."

Prominent Jew residents are outspoken in expressing their serious apprehension over the recurrence of the movement at this time.

The Baltic troops which made such a sanguinary departure from the city are accused of taking a leading part in the agitation and numerous rioting incidents are attributed to them.

Among the anti-semitic street speakers were Baltic officers and enlisted men.

Since the first German invasion in November, 1918, it has been estimated that about eighty thousand Jews from Poland, Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia have come to Berlin. The Jewish population of the capital now is estimated at 21,000 persons.

The great influx of Jews stirred up feeling because of the widespread circulation of reports that many of the Jews were speculating in foodstuffs and other necessities, and also operating as money lenders.

The Jews are generally keeping of the streets today. The recrudescence of the anti-Jewish movement is attributed by some of the attempts of the conservatives to combat the growing strength of the radical elements, many leaders of which are Jews.

Argument of counsel for Price Bros. on the one hand, and for the Attorney General of Canada on the other hand, has occupied the best part of three days and the decision of the court will affect the right of the Federal Government to control prices of such essential commodities as newspaper paper. This is necessary to secure an adequate supply of paper for Canadian newspapers at a reasonable price in the argument of counsel for the defence.

The argument which counsel for Price Bros. advanced against the order was that it constituted an infringement of provincial rights not justified in the conditions. The question, it was contended, was merely one of whether or not Canadian newspapers should pay less than the market price for the production of paper.

The order of the Board of Commerce which is being contested, sought to compel Price Bros. to ship a portion of their newspaper production to consumers in the Province of Quebec at a price of $30.00 per ton which is from ten to thirty dollars per ton less than the price obtainable in the United States. It was contended by Canadian Consumers that the entire output of the Price Bros' mill was being exported to the United States as a consequence.

Scatched On Stanley Cup

The battered old Stanley Cup, now in Ottawa, which symbolizes all the sentiment of hockey in professional circles has been far older since the Ottawa last held it in 1910.

Gone But Not Forgotten.
Its surface is scratched and marred by additional mashes, but its base has been replaced by an ebony foundation. On its surface the old monarchs of long forgotten heroes are dimly prominent are the names of the old historic Silver Seven, the king pins of their day, whose march of triumph extended over four years and who were acknowledged the foremost of their time.

The hieroglyphics of Alf Smith stand out. Alf, in his youth was noted as a great lacrosse player as well as a hockey player, and a sporting editor of another decade wrote the following couplet which related the lacrosse accomplishments of Smith:

For Alf's cover went into the fence
And cried police, come take me hence,
And Wall-eyed Bob didn't score then
So he had

As little Alf Smith that the Capitals had.

Alf Smith was a great hockey player who never asked, or sought, favour. The name of Frank McGeie is inscribed in the next writing that is forgotten hero. The great little centre, probably the most wonderful that ever stepped on Canadian ice, lies asleep somewhere on the Somme. McGeie holds the Canadian record, amateur or professional, of fourteen goals in one game, which was accomplished when Ottawa defeated Dawson City by 23 to 2.

The Great McGeie.

There never was a greater centre than McGeie. When Kenora defeated Ottawa in the first game of the famous series of 1905, McGeie, then in retirement, was induced to don the blades again. The great little centre scored the final goal in the dying minutes of the final game when Ottawa won out by 5 to 4. It is still a tortant memory among old-time fans.

Bosse Hutton There.
Bosse Hutton, peerless custodian of a long forgotten day, has his sign manual on the historic poster. Bosse was some goal in his time.

Rat Westwick, Suddie Gilmour, Dave Gilmour, Art Moore and others of the great Silver Seven have written their names on the celebrated silverware. Their fame lingers, as does that of Harvey Palford, one of the greatest athletes that ever represented Ottawa in the classics of hockey. The 1909 team is represented by "Cyc" Taylor, Bruce Stuart, "Dubble" Kerr, Bruce Ripath, Fred Lake, Percy Lesueur, the late Marty Walsh, Billy Gilmour, and Edgar Day have their names in the hall of fame. Of the present team only Jack Durrage and Frank Nighbor have been on Stanley Cup teams. Durrage was a member of the Senators' team in 1911 that scored 13 straight victories and Nighbor was with Vancouver in 1916.

All Canadians On U.S. Hockey Team

Pittsburgh, March 20.—The personnel of the American hockey team to be sent to the Olympic games at Antwerp in April was announced here last night by Roy D. Schooley, manager, as follows:

Forwards—Joe McCormick, Larry McCormick and Drury, of Pittsburgh; Goben and Corroy, of St. Paul, and Geran and Syantoff, of Boston.
Defence—Small and Tucker of Boston, and Fitzgerald of St. Paul.
Goal—Bonney of Pittsburgh.
Twelve players will be taken to Europe, according to present plans. Mr. Schooley announced, although it is possible the number may be increased to 14. The choice of a substitute goaltender has not been made definitely, but it is said to be between Weddenbomer, of St. Paul, and Lacroix, of Boston.

Nearly all the players named on the "United States" team are Canadians. Two more players may be added later, as it is the intention to include Mannes and McCormick of Pittsburgh if they can be proved to be eligible. Eddie Nagle of Ottawa, captain of the Pittsburgh team would have been appointed captain of the All-American team if he had been able to make the trip, but he graduates from the University of Pittsburgh very soon and could not take the time off.

Joe and Larry McCormick are from Birmingham, Que., Drury is from Midland, Ont.; Bonney is from Ottawa; Lacroix and Mannes are also from the Capital, while McCormick hails originally from Brockville.

O'ROURKE AFTER CARPENTIER.

Tom O'Rourke will be one of the first fight managers to meet Georges Carpentier on his arrival in New York. Tom chased the Frenchman while he was abroad with Fulton to get Carpentier to meet the big plasterer and now he figures that with Dempsey out of the running, for the time being at least, Big Fred ought to be the logical opponent for the French heavyweight.

STREET FIGHT DURING REVOLT IN BERLIN

Spring Haberdashery

Whether the designers of haberdashery are particularly prophetic or whether men will indulge with greater abandon in the still higher prices of haberdashery, is a question that this season will develop. Silk shirts at $18, $20 and $25 must be considered a luxury and the lavish use of these is problematical. For several years past men have worn their silk shirts for business purposes as well as dress regardless of the fact that they do not stand the wear or the onslaughts of the laundry with the same resistance as the less costly shirt fabrics. But will they continue to practice what they preach at $20, or thereabouts, a throw the shirt makers seem to be playing safe. They seem to feel a strong doubt that with men, "price is no object." The Mrs. knows no restraint in her penchant to dress up to the minute but men think twice when the purse is strenuously invaded for their apparel outfit.

So the shirt makers have gone a long way to meet the men who are more conservative in expenditure. To offset the real stigma of the silk shirt—its shimmering radiance, its soft richness and the impressive coloring that silk textures offer, there is launched for this spring an endless variety of novelty textures that evidence the glossiness of silk, very handsome pattern weaves and fabrics that are less costly and more durable.

Never before has such progress in the beautifying of fibre silks been of record as is evidenced in the spring lines. Many of these shirts are so handsome that it takes a close examination to distinguish them from the pure silks.

You'll see a lot of these fine fibre silk and mercerized weaves worn by the mighty well dressed men and you'll like them. Even such shirts will bring from $5 to $10 this spring.

Then there are many other novelty weaves that will appeal in beauty of patterns, richness of cloths, durability and price moderation. There are fine madras cords, chambrays, corduroys, chevrons, percales and percales.

A very prominent note in men's shirt fashions for spring are the madras and percale shirts with stiff collars to match. Broadway has taken to these with unmistakable favor and they rarely are exceedingly dressy.

Flannel shirts, too, are becoming more popular and the rich French and English cloths in these are considered very smart.

In all silk shirts the baby broad-cloths and Jersey knit weaves are the finest, most costly and most popular, as men find the lighter thread silks, madras, percales and Jap silks are too fragile to warrant an expenditure of the price they command.

In neckwear, prices, too, have taken a bound, but this is one item that men will indulge themselves with in order to get the richer and finer effects to be found in the more elegant silks. These ties are of imported silks and satins from Italy, Switzerland, France and England and the Par East.

Mogador and gromadines are also very rich and tasty and present very smart pattern and color effects. Furbies in floral effects, conventional figures, and polka dots are good and will find many adherents among those who want the more moderate priced scarves. Knit and crocheted ties are also very dressy in the darker tones, of which plain black is considered exceedingly smart.

In hosiery there is not much in the way of novelty revealed. Very smart dressers who formerly felt that their social position or reputation for good dressing confined them to silk hose now find that fine casimere, camel's hair and imported worsteds are highly fashionable and just as expensive as silks. There are in small two tones or heather mixture effects and solid colors.

There are not quite so many of the fine silk accoutrements and embroidered effects shown as in recent seasons but cloths of self or contrasting colors are still very smart.

In the plain silks and lises but few new colors are launched. Some of the more recent shades still hold over, such as sand, mustard, oyster grey Kelly and hunter's green, coco brown, cordovan, burgundy and amethyst. In gloves we still have the same popular finishes. Cape, Arabian, mocha, suede, buck and chamole in

Half-Mile Tracks Will Be Wiped Out

Much interest is being shown in the legislation which may be brought down by the Government as a result of the report on race track and betting which was tabled in Commons Thursday by Sir George Foster. It is expected that as a result of the report practically all the half mile tracks, which generally have been credited with being offenders in the past, will be wiped out by the legislation.

The tracks which are to be allowed to continue operations it is said will likely be Dorval and Blue Bonnets, Montreal; Kenilworth and Windsor, at Windsor; Woodbine and another at Toronto; Connaught at Ottawa, and the Hamilton tracks.

In regard to several of the tracks, the commissioner, Dr. J. G. Rutherford, made no comment either way, simply giving a summary of the evidence taken in regard to conditions at those plants. In dealing with some of the more questionable tracks, however, he rather censured the methods practised by those having control of them, and while he made no recommendations or findings on the lengthy report of over 250 typewritten pages, it was intimated that some of the tracks in operation in 1917 might well be discontinued.

WELSH RAREBIT.

Put the crusts from six slices of bread, toast and butter and then quickly into hot water and then on hot platter. Stir two cups of grated cheese into one cup of hot milk. When melted add salt, cayenne and the yolks of two eggs. Cook one minute and pour over the toasted bread.

SPRING MILLINERY WHITE.

According to present indications the all-white hat will be an early spring favorite, and, as every woman knows, the white hat is almost uniformly becoming and is very smart with the tailored suit or frock.

We still may have pockets without affronting Dame Fashion. The newer designs are inserted, but the patch pocket has not departed. Some attractive skirts have pockets outlined with stitched bands of the same material, and trimmed with big, ornamental buttons.

At the velling counter they are selling more veils by the yard than the made-up variety. The Russian nets are the favorite now, and the all-over dot patterns, which are appearing in constantly increasing quantities, will soon be in high favor.

SEVERAL TURKISH OFFICIALS DEPORTED

Constantinople, March 19.—Halide Edib, the most prominent woman leader among the Turkish Nationalists and Resat Bey, Deputy for Sivas, and mouthpiece of Mustafa Kemal, in this city; Cara Vassif Bey and several other members of the Chamber of Deputies have been deported, presumably to Malta by the British Hebuscus yesterday shortly before they were placed on board the cruiser that waship sailed.

After Mustafa Kemal and Resat Bey, Halide was the best known speaker and organizer in the Nationalist movement when the Greeks landed at Smyrna and some Turks were killed the east aside all traditions of Turkish women. She organized and addressed mass meetings and so inflamed the Turks when alleged plans for the dismemberment of the country that the Allies higher commissioners forbade further meetings.

She has often been described in the British press as a "fire brand and a dangerous agitator." French detachments are reported to be meeting stubborn resistance in their effort to occupy districts north-east of Aleppo, where British troops were formerly stationed.

USE FOR WORN BEDSPREAD.

If you have a heavy bedspread too worn to be presentable, hem it all around the four edges to prevent raveling; patch worn spots and use it as a pad for the dining room table. If it is so worn that it "sheds" cover it on both sides with silkline or cheesecloth, tacking together here and there as you would a quilt.

THE CALL OF THE SPRING.

Come, choose your road and away, my lad,
Come, choose your road and away,
We'll out of the town by the road's bright crown
As it dips to the dazzling day.
It's a long white road for the weary;
But it rolls through the heart of the May.

The call you hear this day, my lad,
Is the Spring's old hagle of mirth,
When the year's green fire in a soul's desire
Is brought like a rose to the birth;
And knights ride out to adventure
As the flowers break out of the earth.

There's a fir-wood here, and a dog-rose there
And a note of the mating dove;
And a glimpse, maybe of the warm blue sea
And the warm white clouds above,
And warm to your breast in a tender nest
Your sweetheart's little glove.

There's not much better to win, my lad,
There's not much better to win,
You have lived, you have loved, you
Have fought, you have proved
The worth of folly and sin,
So, now, come out of the city's rout,
Come out of the dust and din.

OUCH! BACKACHE! RUB LUMBAGO OR PAIN FROM BACK

Rub stiffness away with small trial bottle of old "St. Jacobs Oil."

Ab! Pain is gone!
Quickly?—Yes. Almost instant relief from soreness, stiffness, lameness and pain follows a gentle rubbing with "St. Jacobs Oil."
Rub this soothing, penetrating oil right on your painful back, and like magic, relief comes. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless kachache, lumbago and sciatica cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin.
Straighten up! Quit complaining! Stop those torturous "ditties." In a moment you will forget that you ever had a weak back, because it won't hurt or be stiff or lame. Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from your druggist now and get this lasting relief.

Come choose your road and away, my lad,
Come choose your road and away,
We'll out of the town by the road's bright crown
As it dips to the dazzling day.
But hey for the heart of the May,
Come choose your road and away, dear lad,
Come choose your road and away,
ALFRED NOYES.

BITRO-PHOSPHATE IS GOOD FOR THIN NERVOUS PEOPLE

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE
Frederick S. Kelle, M. D., Editor of New York Physicians' "Who's Who," says that weak, nervous people who want increased weight, strength and nerve-force, should take a 3-grain tablet of Bitro-Phosphate fast before or during each meal.
This particular phosphate is the discovery of a famous French scientist, and reports of remarkable results from its use have recently appeared in many medical journals.
If you do not feel well, if you tire easily, do not sleep well, or are too thin; go to any good druggist and get enough Bitro-Phosphate for a two weeks' supply—it costs only fifty cents a week.
Eat less; chew your food thoroughly and if at the end of a few weeks you do not feel stronger and better than you have for months; if your nerves are not steadier; if you do not sleep better and have more vim, endurance and vitality, your money will be returned, and the Bitro-Phosphate will cost you nothing.

Wearing RUBBERS in Bad Weather Keeps Your Shoes like this— Instead of like this—

Rubbers are a wise economy. They protect the shoes as well as the health. They prevent the shoes from becoming saturated on wet days—make shoes wear longer and hold their shape better—and enable you to wear old shoes on stormy days, thus saving the new shoes for the fine days to come.

Dominion Rubber System Rubbers

are made in styles and sizes to perfectly fit the shoes of every member of the family. And their sturdy quality assures long and comfortable wear. You can get dependable Rubbers by asking your dealer for any of the Dominion Rubber System brands.

HONEYMOONS SHOULD NOT BE TOO LONG

So Says Hotel Proprietor Who Has Known Many Brides and Grooms in the West Country.

BORED WITH EACH OTHER

Tourist Agent and Woman Novelist Agree That Short Honeymoons Are Best—Few Long Tours Possible Nowadays.

"Long honeymoons are a mistake. I have had endless opportunities of watching young couples on their honeymoon question with a representative of the London Daily Chronicle. The hotel is in a district of the West Country popularly known as the 'Honey-mooners' Paradise'."

"The happiest guests who have stayed under my roof were the young couples who spent their war-time honeymoons here," the proprietor went on. "Leave given for marriage rarely exceeded ten days, even in the case of senior officers, and very often it was merely a week-end."

"But these war-time honeymoons were delightfully happy. They have been succeeded by married couples who are returning to the habit of a three-week honeymoon."

"And a honeymoon of so long a duration is a mistake. Very soon the honeymooners get bored with each other. I have often noticed how glad they are to join fellow-guests in making up expeditions to beauty spots in the district."

"At the beginning of the honeymoon the young couple long to be alone; but very soon they take the opportunity for occupying from each other's society."

"My experience is that, if the average married couple could be persuaded into candour, they would confess that their honeymoon was the most miserable phase of their joint life."

Tourist Agent's View.
The manager of a tourist agency said:

"My experience of honeymooners is confined mainly to young couples who want long Continental tours. Before the war it was quite common for a young man of moderate means to spend half his savings on a month or even six weeks' tour of the Continent."

"In that time he took his bride to half a dozen countries, and I imagine the number of young couples who really enjoyed the test of new languages, new food, new conditions and constant travelling must have been smaller than is generally supposed."

"Today the continuance of passport restrictions and the enormously increased cost of travelling have practically killed the long Continental honeymoon. A week-end at Ostend or ten days in Paris is likely to be the most ambitious dream of the average young couple in the future. And probably the short honeymoon will prove after all to be the best."

Woman Novelist's View.
"The bride who wishes to keep her husband's romantic affection never faces the ordeal of much travelling. No woman looks her best after a long sea or train voyage. The seaside wife takes her husband to a jolly little hotel within a hundred miles of home, and ends the honeymoon down to a very few days."

"There's a delightful new name for the little mirror, powder-puff, lipstick and other dainties that women carry round in their handbags. Vamping utensils.—Public Ledger."

"And men forget all about 'votes for women' when they see a vanity box and remember that women will be women—and feminine for all time."

CHINESE PLAYS THROUGH CHINESE EYES

(By J. S. Tow, Secretary Chinese Consulate at New York in the Winnipeg Telegram.)

Nowadays the Chinese people are supposed to be well known in this country. Plays are often seen imitating and exaggerating their life and customs. But as the writers of these plays mostly, I am sorry to say, do not understand or know the real life and customs of our people they are usually ridiculous and insulting to the eyes of the Chinese themselves. It is a pity that our people should innocently suffer in free mockery and humiliation before the American public. Of course, we cannot expect these writers to study our people more carefully before they write about them. But we lament upon the worst caricatures that are put upon us, and the most unaccountable misrepresentations that are practically contrary to our real life and customs, and that can serve to create illfeeling and contempt in the American public toward our people as a nation.

A play called "East is West" our girls are represented to be sold at auction, which never happens in China, as strict law has been provided against it, even in the most fatal days of Manchu government. A Chinese is made to kidnap the girl of an American missionary in China, which is too impossible to imagine. Our people are supposed to be bitterly against Christianity, but the fact is that since the foreign missionaries have proved themselves to be real Christians discriminations against them have long vanished. The Chinese who own restaurants in this country are given the worst character—the character of a villain. Indeed, the author has proved himself to be very kind in expressing his own impressions and feeling toward the Chinese people through Ming Toy and Charlie Yang.

I hope that those who see the play will notice that justice is denied our people. We are portrayed to be what we are not. It is too injurious to the feeling of the two people to have this play continue unchanged. It is too serious to be a comedy and too excuse that it is only to poke fun and to produce laughter, and even to derive profit for these players, is too little, considering the friendly relations between the two republics. Suppose that in Shanghai there was presented a play in which the lynching of your Ontario Mayor by a mob was represented. Just imagine what would be the feeling of our people toward the American people. And this is a fact, while those in "East is West" are only imaginations and exaggerations. Is it reasonable that we are entitled to a better representation?

I was greatly surprised the other night when I saw a play called "The Son-Daughter" at the Balsaco theatre. The surprise was that I have never seen a play so free from fancy to me as this. I admit it not because it presents better features of our people, but because there is no conceivable exaggeration; not because it shows that Chinese are patriotic, but because it proves that they are the same human beings as the Americans and that they enjoy and suffer and are happy and sorry just as the American people. We must congratulate Mr. George Scarborough and Mr. David Balsaco, the authors of the play, for their appreciation of this essential in representing a foreign people. We must thank them for doing justice to us and not deceiving the American public.

As to the plot of the play, it is very reasonable and truthful. It is not an exaggeration at all that a Chinese girl can be as sensible, patriotic and heroic as the American. There was in the Ming dynasty a practical Chinese Joan of Arc, whose name was Liang Hung Yu, who was an army general. There was a real Chinese Madame Roland by the name of Chia Jean, who took active part in agitating revolutions at the end of the Manchu dynasty. Such a thing as a Woman's Death Battalion is not unheard of in China; it was found in Shanghai only eight years ago, when she great Chinese revolution took place.

At the peace conference in Paris, there was attached to the Chinese delegation a girl whose name was Set my Teheng, who is a graduate of law from the University of Paris and who has been in this city lately on her way home to take part in political and diplomatic affairs.

PLAYGROUND STARTED; JAIL IS KILLED

THE MOVIES IN SCHOOLS

Best Pictures Should be Demanded—Natural History and Geography Could be Taught to Advantage—Movie as an Educative Medium Coming to the Fore.

Mrs. E. L. Graves of the Toronto School Board, speaking before the Women's Canadian Club of London, Ont., gave the following address, says the Free Press.

"I make no apologies for my choice of subject, the Onward March of Education, for education is a subject dear to the hearts of all our citizens at the present time in history when the child has occupied the position in the world that it does today; our manpower is not what it was, the war has taken mighty toll of our best blood—it behooves us to look well to the upbringing of our children by a right educative system. 'Germany,' the speaker declared, 'is an example of education along wrong lines.'"

Clean Sport.

Mrs. Graves is of the opinion that you kill a jail every time you start a playground, and that a healthy body and plenty of time for good, clean sport are essential factors in the education of the child. She declared that the juvenile court should be the very last resort, and that the delinquent child should be the care of the school, and made a strong appeal for manual training, which, she stated, did more to develop individual talent than any other means that could be employed.

"We must break away from our mass formation in the school," she said, "there are potential artists and musicians and men of letters among our children if this talent is trained, and the boy who tormented his teacher with drawing of caricatures on all his books has become one of the foremost cartoonists of his day."

System at Fault.

"I do not blame the teacher for this 'stuffing,' Mrs. Graves said. 'It is the system that is at fault, and the teacher has a big task in the time allotted her, too many lines to follow—I don't blame them for demanding an increase, and I am glad that in most places they get it.'"

The moving pictures as an educative factor was the subject of a strong appeal from the speaker, who felt that while the commercial movie has been a financial success it has not been quite a success morally. "I do not know how your conditions are in London," she remarked, "but I know that in Toronto, while there are many houses that show only the best class of pictures and have the highest standards there are some theatres that should not be allowed to exist, and that are catering to the lowest element of the population. The solution of the difficulty does not lie in our staying at home from picture shows altogether, we should go, and we should demand the best that can be produced for ourselves and especially for our young children, whose plastic minds have been subjected to the most revolting scenes of blood-thirsty crime and immorality."

Movies in Schools.

Referring to the introduction of the moving picture into the school Mrs.

Graves was strong in her approval of the measure. "Few children are given the opportunity to travel, and the moving pictures will impress the characteristics of other countries on their minds as no amount of verbal description could do. Think of the joy of natural history lesson where each point was aptly illustrated by beautifully colored pictures. Think how much more geography would mean. The movie as an educative measure is coming more and more to the fore, it is our duty to see that it is in no sense a failure."

METEOLOGICAL CAREER OF JACK PICKFORD AND WIFE, OLIVE THOMAS

One of the most interesting couples on the screen is the Jack Pickford family, consisting of Jack, husband, and Olive Thomas, wife. For the first time they are happily married, an unusual affair in filmdom. Jack recently courted pneumonia when he sought a station to welcome his wife with a brand-new automobile, when she arrived in Los Angeles, a few months ago. And every one speaks of his devotion, and that of his whole family, to the simple little Irish girl, who is as natural and sweet today as she was when she was just a little shop girl earning $3 a week.

From the shop she went to the "Polies," where she became a favorite, and from there she made her debut in filmdom. Now she is a star, full-fledged, under the auspices of Selznick Pictures, and all who know her unite in wishing her nothing but more of the good luck which has hitherto guided her.

Jack himself is only 23, but he has a long and successful career behind him, and a bright future. He and Olive slipped away to get married in New Jersey, some time ago, without any one of their families knowing a thing about it. Thomas Meighan acted as chaperon and witness, and stood sponsor for the two. And when Jack brought home his bride everyone was overjoyed that it was Olive.

The two leased the Hitchcock place at Great Neck for the summer, to have their own bathing beach. And Olive raves about the little tea garden the estate boasts and the availability of it for pictures, so that she and her better half can be together. She is just a simple Irish girl, she says, and doesn't pretend to be anything else.

She loves clothes, and children, and sports, and good times, and, in short, is just as wholesome as can be 100 per cent. attractive.

MY CREED.

I would be true for there are those who trust me; I would be pure for there are those who care; I would be strong, for there is much to suffer; I would be brave, for there is much to dare.

I would be a friend to all, the foe, the friendless; I would be giving and not forget the gift; I would be humble for I know my weakness; I would look up—and laugh—and love—and lift.

TIPS TO HOUSEWIVES.

Mixed chicken and macaroni make an excellent dish. Wash the piano keys with a damp rather than a wet cloth. Oily bottles may be cleaned easily if a little ammonia is used.

Remove spatters of paint on window panes with steel wool. Green peppers and olives will lend color to a macaroni salad.

Never clean aluminum with strong soap or scouring powder. Cover the brims of an open bottle of olives with oil and it will not mold.

Flower pot stains may be removed from the window sill with wood shaves. Cut worn out tablecloths in three or four pieces and hem, making excellent bread cloths.

Half-inch blue tape is just the thing to use in finishing armholes, collars, etc. Makes a neat piece of work and saves time.

When lamp wicks are short and the kerosene can empty put enough water in lamps to bring the oil up to the wicks and the lamps will burn until every drop of oil is consumed. Be sure to empty water out and dry wicks before refilling lamps.

Trouble In Camp Of I. O. D. E. Executive

Ottawa, Ont., March 19.—Statements have recently appeared in the press of Canada regarding the differences between Lady Kingsmill and Mrs. Gooderham, which led to the latter's resignation from the National Executive of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. Lady Kingsmill is at present in California and it has been impossible to get in touch with her to obtain a statement with reference to the matter today. Counsel representing her in Ottawa stated that Lady Kingsmill's attitude has always been that it was not in the interests of the Order that differences between herself and Mrs. Gooderham should be dealt with by the National Executive should take no further part in the controversy was passed at the January meeting and again at its March meeting.

"Lady Kingsmill's offer to Mrs. Gooderham of an arbitration was declined by Mrs. Gooderham," counsel stated. "Mrs. Gooderham's resignation followed the action of the National Executive. Mrs. Gooderham under date of March 8th proceeded to circulate all the chapters of the Order and to enclose them her own statement. In the past the right to circulate the Chapters has been reserved to persons holding official positions in the Order, under the authority of the National Executive and has never been recognized to be the privilege of private individuals."

VOLLEY BALL GAMES.

In the Y. M. C. A. Volley ball games Saturday morning, Rockwell and Thomas defeated Stratton and Stewart 15 to 12; and Sprout and Armstrong won from Healey and Langstroth 15 to 13.

In the Junior "B" league, Humphrey got 15, Noble 5, Robertson just won from Finley 15 to 14, while Wetmore won from Barker 15 to 7.

If the clothesline is bolted before used it will not stretch. A new broom sweeps almost as clean as a straight flush.

"WHAT EVERY WOMAN LEARNS"

Is the Joking, Jolly Husband a Success?

IF YOUR WEALTHY GRANDFATHER ON HIS DYING BED admonished you to marry a light-hearted, joking sort of a chap and leave the serious sober-minded ones alone, would you do so? The heroine of this very gripping domestic drama, out of her love for her grandfather, did what he advised. The superior chap, who was overruled because he did not come up to the dead relative's specifications as to jollity, was finally forced to assert his "rich of the heart" as the story very prettily shows. This is not a silly sex yarn but a consistent, edifying—and warning—human document.

Personages of the theatrical world again are travelling the seas, and the France, arriving in New York from Havre, brought several. There were Mlle. Bourgeois dite Mistinguett, whose legs have been called the most beautiful in Paris and have been the subject of special cables; Miss Irene Bordoni, French actress, well known on the stage here; Taviel Heise, Belgian soprano, and her husband, Captain Emile Paul Hendrickx, returning from their honeymoon. Miss Irene Bordoni also returned after a "delayed honeymoon" with her husband, E. Ray Goetz. The actress visited her friends and family in France for the first time since the war began. She said that she was glad to be back home in the United States again, with due respect for her father-in-law. Mr. Goetz is responsible for the American trip of Miss Mistinguett, who is known on the Continent as a dramatic dancer.

THE CANADIAN CONSTITUTION.

From time to time since 1867 it has been found necessary to have certain changes made in the British North America Act, the Charter of Canadian Constitution, and the fact that that Act is an Imperial one and can only be changed by the Imperial Parliament makes matters very intricate when any changes are desired. It is perhaps not surprising, therefore, that efforts are about to be made to obtain a further amendment to the Act which will give to the Canadian Parliament itself the power to make in the future such changes as circumstances may demand. Before any such change can be made in the B. N. A. Act, it is, of course, necessary that the Provinces should be consulted, and the Minister of Justice has announced to the House of Commons, a few days ago, that he had already communicated with the Attorneys-General of the various Provinces on the matter; and at the same time he said that there would not be any objection on the part of the Imperial Government to making the desired changes in the Act. That the Provinces will have any objection to offer is scarcely likely; for, it will be the opinion of the great majority of the people of Canada, that the country has now arrived at a stage in its history and advancement where it can safely be left to look after itself. It should not nowadays be necessary for Canada to appeal to London whenever any change in its Constitution is desired. Other overseas dominions, Australia and New Zealand, do not have to, and Canadian intelligence is at least equal to that of the Antipodean dominions. Just why, however, any further change in the B. N. A. Act should be suggested at this time is not quite clear, as no announcement has so far been made of any proposed alteration in the Constitution. The proposal originated with Mr. Mackenzie King, the Leader of the Opposition, who seems to think that Canada's national status is not sufficiently defined in view of changed world conditions. He wants to know why Canada has an equality of status with all the other nations in the Empire if she is not permitted to have the B. N. A. Act amended. At the same time he maintains that Canada is no farther developed at the present time than she was in Sir Wilfrid Laurier's day. Then why, it may reasonably be asked, should it be necessary now to change a condition of affairs which was satisfactory enough in Sir Wilfrid's time? What has happened to make any change desirable at this stage? As to this Mr. King seems to fear the development of a form of centralized Imperialism which would not be compatible with the status and dignity of the country.

It is scarcely to be wondered at that Sir George Foster should deplore that way of speaking, for the reason that it tends to give rise to popular prejudices and suspicions with regard to Canada's relations with the Mother Country and other parts of the Empire. There is no justification whatever for expressing apprehensions about centralized Imperialism, for there is no centralized Imperialism under the British flag. There has been nothing in the history of the relations between Canada and the Mother Country to give the smallest excuse for the habit some public men, and newspapers have fallen into of speaking as if everybody in the Dominion had been or should be led down to Downing Street should beguile us of some of our freedom. Great Britain has put not a straw in the way of Canada's progress towards national independence. It is not Britain's fault if the amending of our Constitution is still a function of her Parliament. The power to change the Dominion Constitution could have been obtained by the Dominion Parliament long ago if it had been asked for by Parliament acting under orders of the Canadian people and with the sanction of the constituent Provinces of Canada. We may be sure Britain would have been as ready to concede this power to the oldest of her Dominions as she was to grant it long ago to those younger Dominions—the Commonwealth of Australia, the Dominion of New Zealand and the Union of South Africa. If it is the desire of the people of Canada to have and exercise the same power, the Imperial Parliament will promptly grant it.

At the same time it should not be overlooked that, so far from being an abridgement of Canada's national rights, the loss of the power to amend her Constitution in the hands of the British Parliament is itself one of her constitutional securities and a necessary condition of the pact of Confederation. Had the scheme of Confederation provided for the amending of the Constitution by the Parliament of the Dominion, Quebec would not have come into the union. It may be that Quebec has now more confidence in majority rule in the Dominion and might be willing to have the power of amending the Constitution, subject to Provincial sanction, vested in the Dominion Parliament.

THE DIVORCE LAWS.

However much public sentiment may be averse to divorce in the abstract, it is realized that it is an evil that exists and has to be met and dealt with. Moreover it is very evident that it is increasing rather than otherwise, due no doubt to a large extent to conditions arising out of the war. Many of those who find it necessary to take advantage of the facilities afforded by the law of this country to free themselves from a tie that has become insupportable, are unable to do so on account of the expense attached to the proceedings, for in most of the Provinces there is not, as is the case in New Brunswick, any Court having jurisdiction in matters of that kind, and appeal to the Senate has been introduced into Parliament will, if carried, go a long way to remedy this state of affairs.

Unwholesome as divorce is, it is perhaps less so than other conditions which might be if there were no such thing known. Men and women unhappily married would simply agree to separate, and in thousands of cases would set up illicit establishments with other partners. Canada is not by any means free from this sort of thing as it is; and conditions may become worse unless some improvement is made in the machinery by which marriages are dissolved. The same thing applies to the laborer who owns a car, or anyone else with different occupation, leaving them to do more work at home, or on land or on sea. Now, then, Mr. Reader, I think for one that the car ceases to be a luxury, but a necessity. I would like to ask you the reason for increasing taxation on the car and not on other than motor driven vehicles. The man that owns a pair of driving horses, and the man that owns a Ford car are assessed by his parish assessors about the same for taxation. But when the man with the horses drives out on the road his tax is paid and he can at any time, single out the horses and place two vehicles on the road without any further tax and has got the better part of the right of way. Again, when the man with the car drives out on the road he has to pay other taxes. He has to buy numbers for his car, he has to pay six cents per hundred pounds, and has been increased to eighty cents per hundred pounds according to the manufacturer's weight. Then, again, if it is a new car he has to pay five dollars for a license to drive his own car. And when he is assessed for his car, he has to pay the man with a car to take him along with him, he has got to have a chauffeur's license to drive his own car for hire. Then it is a question of all the taxes he has paid if he is not held up on account of frost coming out of his car, or something. But the man with the horses can drive right along and does not have to put his dimmers on either.

What you think about it, Mr. Reader, does this look like equal rights to all? It is possible that the writer is a little dull of intellect, and possibly some of our learned legislators may be able to explain. But the writer believes that the man with the automobile owner can do with his ballot at the polls when the opportunity presents itself, which, we hope is not far distant. That's all, Mr. Editor, for your time and space I remain, Yours truly, J. EDWIN CONNORS, Black's Harbor, Charlotte Co., N. B.

A BIT OF VERSE

SOME DILEMMA.
(New York Sun.)
"Alas," cried the poet, "alas and alack,
For though I possess a poetical knack,
Which no one can truly deny,
And though I'm in love with a beautiful girl,
Who causes my pulses to thump
And sets all my senses and brain in a whirl,
Her name is 'Euphemia Gump!'"
"What use is my lyrical talent to me
Although all my heart is aflame,
What kind of a poem, I ask would it be,
Which chanted that sort of a name?"
To me it's her name and its cadence is sweet,
But wouldn't I look like a chump
Should I scramble verses designed to repeat.
The name of Euphemia Gump?
"Euphemia" isn't so hopeless, and yet
There's only one rhyme that I know
To which that dear title could ever be set.
And that is 'Anemie!' Oh,
I love and am loved, but my muse
Must be mute.
And I but a dull, leaden lump,
For who could imagine a song to the late
That caroled 'Euphemia Gump?'
"Perhaps you imagine that when we
Are wed
And her name is altered to mine,
My troubles and woes of this sort
Will be fled,
And I can write many a line
Of verse in the name of my beautiful wife!
Alas, your kind thought meets rebuke,
I never can write her a rhyme in my life,
For my name's Bella McGulke!"
A young husband calls his wife "Belle" because she is always associated in his mind with a bill.

The Massachusetts Senate has passed the bill making sports legal on Sunday afternoons under certain restrictions. The measure has reached its final reading in the House and will doubtless be enacted. When the bill has been finally passed in both branches there will be an effort made to have it declared an emergency measure, this attempt being undertaken to foil the intention of the opponents of the bill to have it subjected to a referendum which would delay its operation during the present year. If declared an emergency measure it will not be subject to a referendum of the voters.

One observer's explanation of Von Kapp's failure in Germany is that his administration was built only on machine guns. He had no political prestige, so had to step down at the first show of opposition. Machine guns are effective protectors of authority only when the public is behind the man charged with their handling.

For the year 1916, the last year of the late Government's existence, the "travelling expenses" of the members of the Executive amounted to $3,522.55. Last year the Post Government spent $3,883.25 for this item, and, be it remembered, they travel free on the railways in this Province. Zeal for economy seems to be conspicuous by its absence.

According to the Comptroller-General's report, it cost $6,374 to investigate the Patriotic Potato transaction. Satisfying political rancour and a thirst for revenge appear to come high; but what of it? The people pay.

Ratepayer's View

Mr. Reader: Regarding the taxes paid by the automobile owners, the writer would like to say a word to the public. Not many years ago when a man bought a Ford car it seemed to look to the public as if luxury. Today a man can keep a Ford car running as cheap as he can feed and harness a driving horse, and a great many do. Also, farmers can go to market and take most anything they want to and bring back home the same amount of horse in one quarter of the time he could with his team of horses. The same thing applies to the laborer who owns a car, or anyone else with different occupation, leaving them to do more work at home, or on land or on sea.

Now, then, Mr. Reader, I think for one that the car ceases to be a luxury, but a necessity. I would like to ask you the reason for increasing taxation on the car and not on other than motor driven vehicles. The man that owns a pair of driving horses, and the man that owns a Ford car are assessed by his parish assessors about the same for taxation. But when the man with the horses drives out on the road his tax is paid and he can at any time, single out the horses and place two vehicles on the road without any further tax and has got the better part of the right of way.

Again, when the man with the car drives out on the road he has to pay other taxes. He has to buy numbers for his car, he has to pay six cents per hundred pounds, and has been increased to eighty cents per hundred pounds according to the manufacturer's weight. Then, again, if it is a new car he has to pay five dollars for a license to drive his own car. And when he is assessed for his car, he has to pay the man with a car to take him along with him, he has got to have a chauffeur's license to drive his own car for hire. Then it is a question of all the taxes he has paid if he is not held up on account of frost coming out of his car, or something. But the man with the horses can drive right along and does not have to put his dimmers on either.

Scene, snowing in Siberia. Man (driving home in a sled with 6 pork chops in a paper bag). Giddup, giddup if I could run any faster than you 2 horses I'd get out and walk. Flock of wolfs in the distance. Grr, Grr. Man. Holy smoke, I'm being peesed by a flock of wolfs. Giddup, giddup, wat are you, horses or snakes? Wolfs, (closer) Grrr, Grrr. Man. G, they're gaining on me. Giddup, giddup, if I was a wild animal trainer I wouldn't care, but I ain't, giddup, do you think you're going to a fawnrri? Wolfs, (much closer) Grrrrr, Grrrr. Man. I know wat I'll do, I'll throw a couple of these pork chops and burry up keeping on going wile they're stopping to eat them. (Wich he does.) Giddup, giddup, do you think giddup means w? Wolfs, (close as anything) Grrrrr, Grrrrr. Man. This is sumthing awfll. I gess I'll throw 2 more pork chops. (Wich he does.) Giddup, are you going to giddup or sint you? Wolfs, (close as everything) Grrrrrr, Grrrrrr. Man. How goes the last 2 pork chops. G, w did I buy a duzen like my wife told me? Wolfs, (jumping in the sled and licking the mans face, Grrrrrr, Grrrrrr. Man. Well I'll be darned, theyve tame wolfs. (Terns erround and goes back for some more pork chops.)

THE LAUGH LINE

Realistic Drama
"Why, Robbie, can't you play with out making all that noise?"
"No, mamma. You see, we're playin' pienie, and a storm has come up and I'm the thunder."

Warning
Never tell a girl that she is vivacious. If you do she will think that it is up to her to giggle her way into your affections.

Says the Office Humorist
The cleverest gardener in the world cannot grow an oak tree out of a rose bush. But the stupidest pipe smoker can make the "ash" grow inside the "briar."

More of the Same Kind
A fellow who loses his temper seems to know just where to get another just as bad.

Two Confederate soldiers bargaining over a very ordinary looking horse.
"Hell do my farm, Jim," said one.
"I'll give you $20,000 for him."
"No," said the other.
"Give you $50,000."
"No."
"Give you $100,000."
"Not much!" replied the owner, "I just paid $120,000 to have him shod."

With a Moral
(Sioux City Tribune)
A Maine girl has been left $100,000 by a newspaper man to whom she was kind. Moral: be kind to newspaper men.

A Reast
Artist (showing latest picture)—It's the best thing I ever did.
"Critic—Oh, well, you didn't let that discourage you."

High-Priced Horsehoaling
The depreciation of our currency to day is to be compared with the slump in Confederate paper money after the Civil War. General Muhlolland relates that shortly after Lee's surrender he heard

Letting Him Down Easy

KEEPING AHEAD

Whether he's employee or boss, when a man isn't keeping up he's slipping.
And the smooth piece of ice many a man has slipped on is an unreliable watch. It costs him valuable minutes. Time is capital to you—too precious an asset to waste!
Putting aside the old watch for one that conserves your time, and is in keeping with the progress you've made in life, is true economy.
Buying it at Sharpe's is wisdom—the kind of business judgment that keeps you ahead.

Sunday School Workers Assembled at Mass Meetings Yesterday—Addressed by Dr. James King and Rev. W. A. Ross.

The lesson that from the neglect of the Sunday School comes the death of the church was emphasized yesterday afternoon at a mass meeting held under the auspices of the St. John County Sunday School Association in St. David's Church, at which the speakers were Rev. James King, Ph.D. of Mount Allison University; Rev. W. A. Ross, Maritime S. S. Secretary, and A. M. Gregg, Maritime Secretary for Boys' Work.

The proceedings opened with a song service led by E. E. Thomas. I. Belyea presided, and Rev. H. A. Goodwin led in prayer.

I AM MORE GRATEFUL TO Tania than words can express, for it has given me health and happiness after twelve long years of suffering" was the enthusiastic statement made the other day by Mrs. Olive Pettier, of Vermont.

"I am more grateful to Tania than words can express for it has given me health and happiness after twelve long years of suffering," was the statement made the other day by Mrs. Olive Pettier, No. 28 East Allen Street, Winooski, Vt.

"I had been troubled so long with nervousness and sleeplessness that my housework was a drudgery and I got so weak and faint at times that my appetite left me entirely and at times I could hardly bear the sight of food and what little I did eat caused me severe suffering afterward. Gas would form on my stomach so badly that it affected my heart and I thought I had heart trouble.

"I was so nervous I would jump at the least unexpected noise and would drop everything I had in my hands. I got so weak and faint at times that I would have to catch hold of something to keep from falling over. My sleep was broken and restless and I was losing weight rapidly. I had little strength or energy and, as I had tried all kinds of medicines without relief, I had become very much discouraged over my condition.

Great Questions Under Discussion

Congregation Greatly Interested in Third Discourse of New Series Preached by Rev. Dr. Morison in First Presbyterian Sunday Morning.

The third discourse of the new series was preached by Rev. Dr. Morison in the First Presbyterian Church West St. John yesterday morning to an interested congregation.

"I am the First and the Last: I am he that liveth and was dead; and have the keys of Hell and of death." The section of Holy Scripture with which Rev. Dr. Morison dealt in his third discourse in the new series was that found in Revelations 1:17-20, in which emerged the two great questions of the Divinity of the Christ and the definite appointment of a fixed time for every human life.

Before entering upon the discussion of these themes the preacher quoted from "Measure for Measure": "Heaven doth for us as we with torches do, not light them for themselves; and found in the life and work of the author of this book a sublime and unmistakable example of these words of the bard of Avon. The same thought exactly was emphasized by Dean Freeman in his volume entitled "The World the Subject of Redemption."

Amateur Boxing Tourney In Halifax

Two Nights of Boxing to be Held in Halifax—Battle for Championship of the Three Provinces—Number from St. John Expected.

The Halifax Herald says the following regarding the amateur boxing tourney to be held in that city: "Halifax will probably stage the Maritime amateur boxing championships this spring, and the Simon pure performers throughout the Provinces are already getting in shape for the mills. A record number of entries are expected, as the past six months has brought out many performers in the amateur ranks. The championships were staged at St. Patrick's Hall last spring, and even though the arrangements of running the preliminaries and finals on the same night were poor, the bouts were all keenly contested and a large crowd turned out. This year it is planned to have the tourney go through two nights, such as properly conducted tourneys are run. A large building will be secured, as a record crowd of amateur shows is expected this year.

From Glace Bay.

Glace Bay, where they develop good boxers, will be represented by a large delegation. Steve Gillis, McLeod and Nolan will be back again, and these boys' chances for wins are good, as they have the goods, and will take mighty good men to defeat them. At present, the Cape Breton amateurs have a big gym which they have been utilizing for training. It was from the amateur tourneys in Glace Bay that Roddie McDonald, Mickey MacIntyre, Nelly MacIntyre, Billy Parsons and other noted pros got their start, and these boys have not made mean records for themselves in the ranks of the money boxers.

From St. John.

Red Triangles will possibly have entries, as their men made such a fine showing last year that the instructor at this well-known building is keen on having representatives in the show. St. John will send over ten or more boxers, and reports from the sister city are to the effect that some star amateurs will be here for the tourney. St. John was not represented last year, owing to the short notice they received that the tourney was to be held in this city. Moncton may also have two men entered in the welterweight division, there being several likely looking boys eligible for this class in the thriving city. Definite information on the holding of the tourney will be announced next week, but it is probable that the dates of the show will be April 23 and 30.

Final Basketball Game On Saturday

Junior "A" Boys Match for Championship of Y. M. C. A. Was Fought to a Finish—Stewart's Team Won by Score of 4 to 3.

The final basketball game to decide the championship of the Y. M. C. A. Junior "A" boys was a fight to the finish when played at the gym Saturday morning, amidst great excitement on the part of the loyal rooters of each team who were out to see their sides win the game, and the title to the honor of the league. The two teams playing were captained by Stewart and Sproul.

From Glace Bay.

The game was very even, both teams checking hard, when the final whistle blew Stewart was leading by one point, the score being 4 to 3. The boys then surged on to the floor and carried Stewart and his team mates off on their shoulders to the locker room.

The teams were: Stewart, Capt. (4) Witteria, Stratton, Lewis, Lurgie, Sproul, Capt. (3), Irving, Brown, McAlpin and Roalston.

From St. John.

WHAT A TAYLOR OF MONTREAL SAYS OF ST. JOHN SPEED SKATERS

President of Canadian Skating Association and Vice-President of International Association, Hopes We Will Have New Rink—Says "St. John is Greatest Centre for Speed Skaters in Dominion of Canada."

It was recently mentioned that a new rink would perhaps be erected in St. John to be ready by next winter, but the site or the probable promoters have not been mentioned. It is to be hoped that there is more than a rumor in the statement.

St. John is greatly in need of an up-to-date rink where not only skating can be enjoyed, but a sheet of ice will be available for hockey and other winter athletic sports. It is a proposition that should be taken seriously by some wide awake promoters for undoubtedly such a place would not only mean a place for recreation, but a place for business.

The old Victoria rink on the East side, and the Carleton open air, along with the South End open air were the only places for the skaters last winter. Not one of these rinks are suitable for hockey, and while some fact times has been made in the old "Vic" at the different meets, it is not suitable for hockey. Even when the old Queen Square rink was running it was not by any means a place for hockey.

St. John is known as one of the best speed sport centres east of Montreal, it has turned out some of the fastest skaters in the world, and as the older speed skaters drop out of the game, their places are filled by a younger generation, and the entry lists in the past three meets held during the winter were exceptionally large. All that is wanted is encouragement for these skaters, and with a place to play hockey, St. John could really get busy and build a real rink.

All that is wanted is encouragement for these skaters, and with a place to play hockey, St. John could really get busy and build a real rink.

St. John is known as one of the best speed sport centres east of Montreal, it has turned out some of the fastest skaters in the world, and as the older speed skaters drop out of the game, their places are filled by a younger generation, and the entry lists in the past three meets held during the winter were exceptionally large.

Pacific Coast Players Greeted

The Seattle Hockey Team Arrived in Ottawa and Were Given Reception by Over Three Thousand People—First Game Tonight.

Ottawa, March 21.—The Seattle hockey team, champions of the Pacific Coast, and opponents of the Ottawa in the world's series Stanley cup in the arena this week, received an enthusiastic reception on their arrival from the West. Over three thousand people—the largest crowd that has thronged into the Central Station for many months—were on hand to greet the invaders.

The Seattle players appeared to have stood the long journey well, and were in the best of spirits. They were naturally disappointed that the weather was not a few degrees colder, but remarked they could play on any kind of ice.

The visitors are to have a light workout at the arena tomorrow morning.

The weather which was cold all week, turned warmer today and the indications are that the going will be heavy tomorrow night.

Amateur Oarsmen Annual Regatta

National Association Regatta Awarded to Worcester, Mass. — Races on July 23 and 24.

New York, March 21.—The annual regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen, was awarded to Worcester, Mass., at a meeting of the Association here last night. The races will be held on Friday and Saturday, July 23 and 24. Annual interest centered in the selection of the course and dates for the regatta this season as the war has prevented the regatta from being held in the United States for several years.

Very One-Sided Basketball Game

St. John High School Team on Saturday Defeated Normal School of Fredericton by a Score of 71 to 17.

In a very one-sided basketball game the Y. M. C. A. team Saturday afternoon on the Provincial Normal School of Fredericton made a decisive victory in their return game with the St. John High School team. The High School boys took the lead from the very start of the game and all through the first period piled up score after score until half time saw them leading 28 to 2.

In the second period the High School team again scored well, although the Normal boys were able to increase their own score to a limited extent. The game ended 71 to 17.

After the game some good cheering for High and Rockwell helped the play by setting the jump on the Normal team. The Normal boys played a hard game on defense, holding the P. N. S. forwards very close.

Of the losers, Russell and Nichol were alone able to net the ball. The teams lined up as follows: Normal School — Forward, Thomas Robinson; Center, Josephine Robinson; Defense, Rockwell, Patterson, Robinson.

St. John High School — Forward, Thomas Robinson; Center, Josephine Robinson; Defense, Rockwell, Patterson, Robinson.

SENATE WON'T HAVE ANYTHING TO DO WITH THE PEACE TREATY

And Once Again Has Returned to President Wilson—America is Therefore Still at War With Germany.

Washington, March 19.—The treaty of Versailles failed ratification for the fourth time tonight and the Senate voted to send it back to President Wilson, with a notification that it had finally refused to advise and consent to its ratification.

On the decisive roll-call the vote was 49 for ratification, to thirty-five against, the opposition numbering in ranks twenty Democrats who were unwilling to see the treaty go through with the Republican reservations attached by the President, and three Democrats and twelve Republicans.

Whether the President would return the treaty to the Senate remained undetermined, but the Republicans served notice that they would oppose for many weeks to come in a committee pigeon-hole.

The roll-call on ratification was taken by the Senate on this day, the hands of the subject and sent the treaty to the White House. The Republican leaders had the support of the mild-reservationists as well as the irrevocables of their party, while the Democrats voted almost solid in opposition.

The next step planned by the Senate majority is a declaration of a state of peace, which the nations of the world will have to accept if the treaty is not ratified.

A fight on the proposal probably will begin when the Senate reconvenes Monday.

The roll-call on ratification came after the failure of the three attempts at ratification on November 19. On that occasion the Senate voted against the treaty by a vote of 49 to 35.

From the democratic side several Senators bitterly assailed the President for his stand against the administration could not afford to carry the issue as it presented itself today into the campaign.

The line-up of the entire Senate to vote was fifty-seven for ratification to thirty-five against, including members paired. Four months ago the treaty alignment was forty-two for and thirty-three against with one seat vacant.

Never neglect whooping cough. It may be followed by some serious lung trouble.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is highly recommended by mothers everywhere for the relief of this trouble. It will clear the clogged-up air passage of the mucous and phlegm that has collected, and in this way bring on the "whoop" which brings the so-much-sought-for relief.

There are many imitations of Dr. Wood's on the market. Get the genuine when you ask for it. It will pay in the end. Put up in a yellow wrapper. A fine treat for the trade mark price 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SAFETY METHODS FOR THE FARM

One-Half of the Accidents in the Province Happen to the Farmers and Farm Hands.

Accident prevention in industry is an accomplished fact and is being conducted with humanitarian and sound business principles. Accident and fire prevention are taught in the schools, on the streets and in the homes of the cities. It is not time, though, to teach accident prevention on the farm. It is said that nearly one-half of the accidents in this province happen to farmers and farm hands.

Whether the President would return the treaty to the Senate remained undetermined, but the Republicans served notice that they would oppose for many weeks to come in a committee pigeon-hole.
