TO THE ELECTIONS OF THE COUNTY OF CHARLOTTE.

Gentlemen—We the undersigned, seeing the great necessity of having a Member in the House of Assembly from this part of the County, sometime ago called upon W. F. W. OWEN, Esq., who we conceive to be a fit and proper person to represent our interests, and who has consented, forward in consequence thereof. We therefore call upon the other parts of the County to support our nomination, and trust we will not be disappointed in this our appeal to our fellow Electors, whose interests at all former Elections we have supported.

We are, Gentlemen,
Your Obedient Servants,

TO THE FREEHOLDERS OF CHARLOTTE COUNTY.

Gentlemen—The most influential persons in the three Parishes of the Islands, Manan, West Isles and Campobello, have done me the honor to nominate me as a Candidate approved by them to represent the County, and have, on the principle of our community of interests, as associated in the same County, called on you for reciprocal good offices to ensure my election and that of the favoured Candidates whoever they might be, from the three other sections of the County, viz: St.
Andrews, for one member, St. Stephen, Saint James and St. David, for one member, Saint George, St. Patrick and Penfield for one member, and the Islands for the fourth.
Every Freeholder acknowledges the principle to be just and reasonable, and the whole community of the said Island Parishes calls for the support of the said Freeholder of the County who is also at this time the interest of the County to admit our islands to a community of privileges and benefits from which we have hitherto been excluded; hitherto our political relations with you, have only served to deprive us of the advantages of a

TO THE INDEPENDENT ELECTORS OF CHARLOTTE COUNTY.

Gentlemen,
The lamented death of our late revered Monarch having caused a dissolution of our Provincial Parliament, you will be again called on to exercise your elective franchise.

We have had on all past occasions of the kind too much mere party work. The exigencies of the time call for the enlightened co-operation of all good men.

In the ensuing Session matters of the greatest importance will come under the consideration of your Representatives. The Casual Revenue will be a bone of contention, particularly with the wealthy and influential members of St. John and its dependencies, and unless our Representatives do, in a manly and able manner, meet the question, the sufferers of Charlotte, must unquestionably suffer. Let us therefore, Brother Freeholders, in the exercise of our high privilege, evince our sense of its great importance, by electing men who are influential,—of enlarged and liberal views—of an energetic and persevering character—men, who besides having a deep stake in the Agricultural, Manufacturing and Commercial interests of the County, not only have the mind to comprehend, but the ability and the will, in every situation, against the powerful and the designing, nobly to sustain these your great interests. And where can we meet with a man, who, in himself combines all these qualifications in so high a degree as

JAMES RAIT?

We, therefore, as a Committee, publicly chosen to act until his hourly expected return takes place, do offer him as a CANDIDATE for your support, under the firm conviction, that by the choice of such a man, you will maintain your high character for intelligence, and bestrengthen the growing interests of our flourishing County.

We have the honor to remain,
Gentlemen,
Your Obedient Servants,
THE COMMITTEE.

The Subscriber with feelings of gratitude to the independent Electors of this County for their powerful support on former occasions, for a continuance of which he still hopes, and unconnected with any other Person or Party, hereby declares his intention of coming forward as a Candidate at the approaching Election in full confidence that his Legislative course has been such as to meet the approval generally of his Constituents.

similarity, and further concession would become a virtual admission of French Canadian independence.

The leaders of the party opposed alike to the sentiments of the Constitutionalists of this Province and the intentions of the Imperial Government, have not hesitated to record their final determination not to co-operate with the Government, have loudly proclaimed the infraction of the Revenue Laws a virtue—have declared non-intercourse with the Mother Country a duty—and have published sedition to the constituted authorities, disloyalty to Her Majesty, and treason to the State.

Grieved as the Constitutionalists of this Province must be at any measures of coercion which the Imperial Government may be compelled to adopt, it is humbly conceived that the Legislative Union of the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada, which the Assembly are solicitous to obtain, will at once prevent the necessity of severity, and effect an adjustment, eventually satisfactory to all parties.

The Association confidently trust that this measure, which has already been submitted to the consideration of influential persons in Great Britain and Ireland, will be approved and adopted as the most substantial, and, at the same time, the least obnoxious remedy that can be applied to the present exigencies.

The advantages, actual and prospective, of such a measure must be so apparent to all unprejudiced persons in Lower Canada, that they do not require to be dilated upon here, nor can the inhabitants of Upper Canada be blind to the satisfactory results which must be its inevitable consequences.

The Legislative Union, however, of itself, and unaccompanied with some effective change in the constitution of the House of Assembly, and a new division of the Counties of Lower Canada, by which a fair share of Provincial representation will be afforded to the British inhabitants of this Province, will be entirely nugatory.

It is for the foregoing reasons that the Constitutional Association of this City confidently lay before the public the opinion which they entertain, and the Representation which they have previously prepared upon this subject; and they most strongly urge upon all who are interested in supporting the integrity of the Empire—in maintaining the Provincial connexion with the Mother Country—in promoting the true interests and real welfare of Lower Canada—and in preserving the establishment of a Republican Government in this Province, heartily and strenuously to co-operate with them in obtaining the great object which they now publicly propose.

W. BADELEY, Secretary, M. C. Assn.
Montreal, Sept. 4, 1837.

A Coroner's Inquest was held on Saturday on view of the body of Mary, wife of Mr. Joseph Hooper, which was found suspended by a cord the same day and quite dead. Verdict that she hung herself when in a fit of temporary insanity.

This melancholy and distressing circumstance was occasioned as follows, and in order to remove any false impressions that the evil malice are on all occasions but too ready to propagate they may have made, it is here related.
The husband of the unfortunate woman had, about a year and a quarter since retired and taken possession of a ten house in the lower-cove where the unfortunate happened to be the premises belonged to Mr. Anthony of Red Head; Mr.
Andrew Garrison, late of this city, had verbally agreed with Mr. A. for the purchase of said premises—went to Mr. Hooper, and induced him, under the plea that he had purchased the property, to sign an obligation for a five years' lease; Garrison then decamped from the city. Mr. John Angley a friend of Garrison's in the business obtained from him (Garrison) a Power of Attorney on the strength of which also Garrison had not the slightest claim to the premises, nor had ever paid one fraction on them, and Mr. Anthony had warned Mr. Hooper not to pay any rent to Garrison, he (Angley) issued a distress warrant on the goods and chattels of Mr. Hooper. Mr. Hooper knowing the pa-table injustice of the proceeding, repudiated the goods in order to stand trial: but the consequences have been as above described, to deprive the husband of his wife—the children of a mother, and the unfortunate woman of her life.
For although it is notorious to the neighbourhood in which she lived, that she was both of a happy and cheerful disposition up to the period of the goods being taken, yet such was the effect produced on a person unaccustomed to litigation, and its degrading effects, that from the moment the constable entered the premises up to the time of her death, a period of near a fortnight, she neither eat, drank, nor slept, but because daily more and more distressed in her intellect; and all the persuasion of her husband and the neighbours could not remove the impression of his being starved to death in a jail while at the same time his sack on hand would have covered both debt and rent twenty times over. This statement is made to show the world, that "all are not men who wear the human form."

The above remarks were offered to the Offiserver, but the propriety of that paper in its most inefficient and deplorable manner declined; giving it an insertion, preferring rather that the honest man should suffer in his character, than that the world should be shown in their true colors. JOHN RODGER.
St. John, 8th September, 1837.
