

CHIGNECTO POST AND BORDERER.

SACKVILLE, N. B., FEB. 11, 1886.

THE ELECTORAL LISTS.

The preliminary lists of the electors of Westmorland have been published, as required by law, and can be inspected by all. Many names have already been added, but a much larger number remains to be registered. As it is important that every person entitled to vote shall have his name duly entered on the revised lists, we publish for the information of any who may not have access to the franchise, a condensed description of the necessary qualifications of voters.

Every male person is entitled to be registered on the list of voters for the electoral district in which he resides, and when so registered to vote at any election, if he is of full age of twenty-one years, is a British subject by birth or naturalization, and is the owner or occupant of real property of the actual value of $150 in the county, $200 in a town, or $300 in a city, or if he is a tenant of any land, or if he is the monthly rental of at least two dollars, or at a yearly rental of at least twenty dollars; or if his actual income and earnings amount to not less than $800 annually; or if he is the son of any owner of real property, resident with his parents, provided there is enough property to qualify if divided.

It will be seen that very few persons of full age need be disqualified, and if any qualified person neglects to be registered the fault will be his own. For the further information of all interested we publish the following notice, which accompanies the preliminary lists:

"The Revising Officer for the Electoral District of Westmorland, in the Province of New Brunswick, appointed under the Electoral Franchise Act, hereby gives notice that he has completed and published in the manner directed by the Act, the first general list of voters for the electoral district, and that he will hold a sitting pursuant to the said Act for the preliminary revision of such list at Town Hall, in the Town of Moncton, in the Parish of Moncton, County of Westmorland, in the said Province, at ten o'clock, (Local time), in the forenoon of Monday, the twenty-second day of March, 1886.

"Any person objecting to any name on the said list may, at any time before the said day, and any person desiring to add any name thereto or deleting otherwise, to amend the same, may on or before the thirteenth day of March, 1886, deliver a written statement of his objections, or him by registered letter at his office or place of address, (Town of Moncton, Moncton Post Office) a notice in writing in the form for that purpose contained in the schedule to the said Act, as nearly as may be, setting forth the name or names objected to, and the grounds of objection, or the name or names proposed to be added to the list, with the grounds therefor, and the particulars of the qualification and residence of the persons whose names are proposed to be added, or the particulars of any other proposed amendment and the grounds therefor; and every such notice must be signed by the person so giving notice, and must set forth his residence, occupation and Post office address. In the event of the person giving notice objecting to the name of any person whose name is on the list, the person so objecting must also deliver to, or mail to, the last known address of the person whose name is objected to, by registered letter, and at the same time as the notice is given to the Revising Officer, a copy of the notice given.

"Dated at the Town of Moncton, in the Parish of Moncton, County aforesaid, this tenth day of February, A. D., 1886."

WESTMORLAND MUNICIPALITY.

The question whether Gallagher, one of the Valuers, is still in office is now before the Supreme Court. By the Consolidated Statutes the County Council appoint three Valuers who shall continue in office for three years, and these Valuers constitute a court called the Board of Valuers. In case of a vacancy by death, resignation or otherwise, the Council can appoint a person to hold office during the remainder of the period of three years.

The Valuator, Mr. Gallagher, having made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors, was held by the Council to be a person who, accordingly, appointed Mr. Kay. The question thus before the Supreme Court is whether insolvency creates a vacancy. The opinion prevails that there is no vacancy in the Board, but if there is, the line should be altered to provide for the case, as the office of Valuator is too important to be in the hands of an insolvent.

Senator Frye's bill introduced in the Senate on the 14th contemplates the subsidizing of ships upon the French plan. It provides that any vessel, whether steam or sail, built and owned in the United States and engaged in the foreign trade, shall receive as a bounty for ten years the sum of thirty cents per registered ton for every one thousand nautical miles sailed between the ports of the United States and those of foreign countries.

The Transcript has brought some serious charges against the management of the L. C. R. in connection with the Inch Arran House at Dalhousie, and for once it seems to have some foundation for its charges. At any rate the alleged proofs submitted are sufficient to call for a searching investigation.

Prince Bismarck has ordered the halting down of the German flag on the island of the German group occupied by the Germans previous to the decision of the Pope in regard to the ownership of the islands.

The Grand Lodge of New Brunswick L. O. A. meets at St. John next Tuesday.

Mr. Spurgeon has returned to London and will soon resume his labors.

Mr. Collings has been appointed Secretary of the Local Government Board.

There has been very little snow in southern Nova Scotia this winter.

THE GLADSTONE CABINET.

London Riots.

The new cabinet which Mr. Gladstone has succeeded in forming differs somewhat from the forecast published last week. The cabinet as officially announced is as follows: Gladstone—Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury. Sir Farrer Herschell—Lord High Chancellor. C. E. Childers—Home Secretary. Earl Rosebery—Secretary for Foreign Affairs. Earl Granville—Secretary for the Colonies. Earl Kimberley—Secretary for India. H. Campbell Bannerman—Secretary for War. Sir Wm. Vernon Harcourt—Chancellor of the Exchequer. Marquis of Ripon—First Lord of the Admiralty. J. Chamberlain—President of the Local Government Board. O. Trevelyan Secretary for Scotland. A. J. Mundella—President of the Board of Trade. John Morley—Chief Secretary for Ireland.

It appears to be pretty generally conceded that the selection is the best that could be made under the circumstances. The absence of Lord Hartington and Lord Selborne (Sir Ronald Palmer) from the new ministry is conspicuously noticeable, and is probably due to their pronounced opinions on the Irish question and their unwillingness to yield as Mr. Gladstone might wish to the demands of the Nationalists. John Morley, who has been appointed Chief Secretary for Ireland, is well known as a strong Radical and an ardent supporter of the Irish cause. The selection of Mr. Morley for this office is regarded as an indication of the policy of the Administration with respect to Ireland and the London Standard thinks his appointment is likely to elicit criticism. Whatever opinion may be formed concerning the selection of the new cabinet, there can be no doubt that it has hard work before it. The successful solution of the Irish problem and the satisfactory settlement of the land question in Scotland and Ireland are not likely to be easy tasks, and are likely to test the nature of the wisdom and statesmanship of the Government.

The appointment of Sir Ambrose Shea as Governor of Newfoundland has been cancelled and Sir George Williams, Des Vaux, at present Governor of Fiji, has been appointed Governor of "ye ancient colony." The change has been brought about by the determined opposition of the local government to Sir Ambrose Shea on account of his being a Roman Catholic, and is a result of the fierce religious strife now raging in Newfoundland.

Earl Fitzwilliam, in a letter accepting an invitation to preside at a meeting of the Loyal Irish union at Sheffield, sets forth that the purpose of the union, which, he says, "is founded on non-party lines, is to promote loyalty among the subjects of the Queen, and to unmask the nature of the agitation and hideous crimes in Ireland."

Local government supporters in Sunbury county are to hold a convention at Butler court house on the 18th inst. to select candidates for the local legislature. The name of Charles Harrison, a brother of Hon. A. Harrison, M. L. C., is mentioned as likely to receive the nomination with Arthur Glasier, M. P.

The Detroit Free Press comments on an invitation to preside at a meeting of the Loyal Irish union at Sheffield, sets forth that the purpose of the union, which, he says, "is founded on non-party lines, is to promote loyalty among the subjects of the Queen, and to unmask the nature of the agitation and hideous crimes in Ireland."

London critics say that in his address to the constituents Mr. Gladstone has cleverly expressed sympathy for the Irish without showing his own hand.

It is thought that the French Radicals will abandon their attention of introducing a Bill to expel the French from former reigning families from France.

Britain is to have a "Patronage Board" composed of distinguished soldiers, whose duties it will be to recommend deserving army officers for promotion.

Mr. Gladstone has issued his election address, in which he promises to institute an enquiry into the entire land policy of Ireland.

The Montreal Board of Trade has asked the Dominion Government to make a hydrographical survey of the St. Lawrence river.

Cardinal Newman has just celebrated his 84th birthday.

London Riots.

The "starving mechanics" of London held a mass meeting on Monday in Trafalgar Square, and it resulted in a serious riot. The socialistic element predominated largely in the crowd, and Burns, who ran as socialist candidate in Nottingham in the recent election, was conspicuous among the leaders of the multitude. After listening to the number of inflammatory speeches from this man, the crowd started out to do mischief. On its way to the Hyde Park, the front of the mob made an effort to enter the War office, but turned away when a sentinel at the entrance confronted the mob with his bayonet. Conspicuous among the buildings attacked by the mob was that occupied by the Devonshire Club, and that occupied as a residence by Arnold Morley, newly appointed Patronage Secretary.

The police along the route to the Hyde Park were brushed out of the way by the rioters, as so many men of straw, and many of the officers were terribly whipped for their interference. Some of the officials declare that upwards of 50,000 men made the march, and that the Hyde Park was completely covered by the mob. The rioters, as so many men of straw, and many of the officers were terribly whipped for their interference. Some of the officials declare that upwards of 50,000 men made the march, and that the Hyde Park was completely covered by the mob.

Later despatches state that the rioting was renewed on Tuesday and that the police after repeated unsuccessful attempts succeeded in breaking up the mob. Many of the rioters have been arrested. Some of these have been fined and charged, others have been remanded for trial, and a number have been sentenced to imprisonment for various terms. Burns, Champion, Hyndman and Williams, the four socialists who inspired the riot, called upon Joseph Chamberlain, the new President of the Government Board, and stated that they had called to obtain a statement of the Government's intention with regard to providing work for several hundred unemployed people at present starving in the city of London and elsewhere in England. Chamberlain said in reply that he felt the urgent necessity of having an enquiry made into the nature and extent of the distress and promised out door relief when labor tests had been arranged sufficient to prevent imposture. The Socialists were very much dissatisfied at the result of the visit.

Alden's Cyclopaedia of Universal Literature.

This work is the outcome of many years of planning and preparation. It will be an almost indispensable work of reference for every library, large or small, a trustworthy guide to what is most worth knowing of the literature of all ages and all nations. Occupying a dozen or more volumes, and yet issued at a price so low as to be within the reach of all, a familiarity with its contents will be a recommendation to a degree that can be claimed for few other works in existence. Dr. Loeving, the eminent historian and author, says of it: "I am strongly impressed with the great intrinsic value of the work as a popular education in a high degree of learning. The plan is admirable. Combining as it does a personal knowledge of an author with specimens of his or her best literary productions, it gives it an inestimable power for good among the people." The work is being published in parts of 100 pages each, at the price of 15 cents, also in very handsome cloth-bound volumes, gilt tops, 480 pages, 70 cents.

The parts can be ordered by mail, and the publisher's list of books is sent free of charge. J. B. Alden, Publisher, New York.

The Library Magazine.

The February number of THE LIBRARY MAGAZINE presents the following unusually attractive array of contents: Hindustan. By a Hindu. The Interpretation of Nature. By T. H. Huxley. The New Star in Andromeda. Cornhill Magazine. Reason and Religion. By Mary F. Wilson. Shakespeare's Love's Labour's Lost. By Walter Pater. The Origin of the Alphabet. By A. H. Sayce. Insanity and Crime. By Baron Bramwell. Old Florence and Modern Florence. By Jacob Kos. The Chances for Chivalry. By Edward Garrett. The Elder Edda—the Bible of Germanic Paganism. By H. H. Boyesen. Sun and Meteor. By Richard A. Proctor. A Novelist's Favorite Theme: Cornwall Magazine. The Coming Contexts of the World. The World's Future. The Day of the Central Park Obelisk. By Arnold Hagen. Eskimo Building-Snow. By Frederick Schwab.

This magazine is certainly quite the equal to the best of the four-dollar monthlies in the value of its contents, though its price is only $1.50 a year, or 15 cents a copy. J. B. Alden, Publisher, New York.

English Manufacturers are becoming alarmed at the rapid increase of German competition. Not only are the Germans competing severely with them in neutral markets, but underselling them in home market. Mr. Bates, a practical ship-builder, contends, in the Marine Journal of New York, that wood ships will outlast iron vessels and there are now ordering wire nails and iron wood-screws of German make at greatly under Birmingham manufacturers' prices.
