Cork Buildings Burn As Fighting Proceeds

IRISH REGULARS COMPEL REBELS TO LEAVE CITY

Nationalists Reported To Have Consolidated Their Positions.
AVIATOR INVESTIGATES Torch Applied to All Military and Police Barracks.

London, Aug. 11.—All the military and police barracks in Cork are burning, according to the report of a government aviator, who flew over the irregular stronghold late yesterday, says a Times dispatch from Dublin. The national troops at that time had consolidated their positions near Passage West, six miles east of Cork, but had not yet invested the city. (A Dublin despatch last night said it was officially announced that the national forces had entered Cork.) The pilot flew over the town at a height of only about 200 yards. Little rifle fire was directed at him, he reports, much less, in fact, than when he passed over Dungarvan, although the irregulars have evacuated Dungarvan proper. An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Dublin today said many big buildings in Cork were in flames, including the offices of the Cork Examiner and the Constitution. Heavy fighting was still in progress, said the dispatch, although most of the irregulars were believed to have evacuated the city proper.

COMMUNICATE BY SEA.
Dublin, Aug. 11.—Communication with Cork except by sea is still impossible, and the exact results of the fighting between the irregulars and the provisional government forces are unknown here. It is variously stated that the Nationals have entered and that they have not entered the city. There also is divergence as to the extent of the fighting. Some of the wounded brought here on a ship which says the irregulars were strongly posted at Passage West, and that the Nationals had to fight their way through under tense fire, a number being wounded and one killed. They reported that the government troops landed at Union Hall also are fighting their way through the hostile districts. The crew of another vessel arriving from Cork said the admiralty house and the British Naval Hospital at Queenstown, both of which became familiar to Americans during the war, were being shelled. It is reported that the irregulars have evacuated Clonmel.

ENGLISH PRINTERS RETURN TO WORK

BANDIT GET CASH, ORDER OWNER TO LIE UNDER BED

Brockville, Aug. 11.—Awakened at a late hour by the sound of his front door being forced, Owen McGovern, a farmer living alone near Oxford Station, was confronted by a masked man, carrying a revolver and flashlight, who demanded his money. This request complied with, McGovern was ordered to get under his bed and remain quiet. When neighbors, who were summoned, investigated, they found that, apparently, two bandits had taken part, one remaining outside, while his companion entered the house. McGovern places his loss at $200. Provincial police are investigating.

MAY PROVIDE FREE RIDES FOR LEGLESS VETERANS

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—There is a possibility of a clause being put in the future agreement between the city and the Ottawa Electric Railway that returned soldiers in this city who have lost a leg may be given free transportation on the company's street cars. Major F. D. Burpee, general manager of the company, said yesterday that the company had been approached some time ago by the local branch of the Amputation Association, with regard to this question, and that it was now under advisement.

2 DIE IN EXPLOSION ON SS. ADRIATIC

White Star Line Officials Believe Spontaneous Combustion Was Cause.

New York, Aug. 11.—Two members of the White Star liner Adriatic's crew were killed, five were seriously injured, and one is missing as the result of an explosion of undetermined origin in her No. 3 hold, according to a wireless message received today at the White Star Line. The message reported that the Adriatic was proceeding to New York at half speed.

Coal was stored in the No. 3 hold, and officials of the line in the absence of details, thought that spontaneous combustion may have caused the explosion. The men killed were a fireman and a trimmer. Those injured included an electrician and other employees of the engine room. The Adriatic's passengers knew little of the accident, according to the White Star officials, who stated that an immediate investigation would be made. The liner, after proceeding at a slackened speed for some time, later resumed full speed and is expected to reach New York Sunday afternoon.

Among those who booked passage on the ship, and presumably are aboard, are former Governor Martin L. Glynn of Albany, and Clarence Howard, president of the Commonwealth Steel Company and his son, of St. Louis, Mo.

PROVINCES ACT ON WHEAT BOARD

New York, N. Y., Aug. 11.—The tugboat Clarence P. Howland was overturned and sunk in an odd accident off Staten Island today when a tangled towline looped under the stern, and caused her to capsize and two members of her crew of six lost their lives.

NORTHCLIFFE'S CONDITION.

Toronto, Aug. 11.—A London cable to the Toronto Star says: "Fighting for life with the will that carried him to the peak of British journalism, Viscount Northcliffe today amazed physicians by once more winning a respite when death seemed but a matter of seconds. 'A bulletin issued by his physicians stated that the condition of the famous publicist was unchanged.'"

Drury Marvels At Nerve Shown In Conservative Leader's Attack

GALT, Aug. 11.—Premier Drury, who addressed a gathering of about 2,000 people last night at Valen's Corners in the constituency of the Hon. F. C. Eggar, replied to the attacks made on the government by C. Howard Ferguson, and declared that the Conservative leader was so inefficient in managing his own department when the last government was in power that he allowed certain interests to get away with money that the court afterwards said should be returned to the province to the extent of a million and a quarter dollars. "The man who tells the people of this province that we are an inefficient government was so inefficient and wasteful, not in the management of a government, but of a single small department, that it would be wonderful to go on as I have told you," added Mr. Drury. "I wonder at his nerve. I greatly marvel at his nerve."

EXPPOSE PLOT TO GET INSURANCE

M. B. Knudson of Bay, Wis., and Brother, Make Revelations.

Body of Woman Exhumed in Order to Defraud Company.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Aug. 11.—Investigation of a robbery of a grave on Drummond Island, said to have been committed for the purpose of obtaining the body of a woman, which was to be used in an alleged plot to defraud a Canadian insurance Company, was today under supervision of Merton Wiley, attorney-general, with whom county officials were co-operating.

Aided by information given them by Mrs. Ruth Knudson of Bay, Wis., and her brother, Clifford Harrison, the authorities announced that they were pursuing clues, which promised to reveal the main figures in the alleged plot. One of them, it was reported, was a prominent Canadian physician.

Harrison told the investigators yesterday that the body of a woman was disinterred for use in an insurance fraud, while his sister was said, by the officers, to have declared certain organs of the woman's body were desired by a physician for experimental purposes. According to Harrison the body was to have been placed in a house as evidence that Mrs. Knudson had perished. An attempt then was to have been made to collect $11,000 insurance, carried by Mrs. Knudson. To support Mrs. Knudson's story, however, officials declared, was the fact that certain organs were removed from the disinterred body, apparently by a surgeon.

Mrs. Knudson, according to the authorities, admitted a part in the plot, explaining that she was drugged and forced into it by threats upon her life. Harrison declared he was intoxicated when he entered into the scheme.

NEW BOARD TO DEAL WITH PERE MARQUETTE DISPUTE

Minister of Labor Establishes Second Body to Handle Wage Reduction Controversy.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—A second conciliation board has been established by the minister of labor between the Pere Marquette and its employees, growing out of the wage reduction disputes in the United States. This new board will deal with a dispute between the company and its clerks who are members of the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employees' international body. The chairman of the board is W. T. R. Preston, the company being represented by Alexander Lewis of Kingsville, and the men by Charles B. McClurg, of St. Thomas. There is already a board of inquiry sitting in the wage dispute between the Pere Marquette and its shop employees.

DOMINIONS RATIFY WASHINGTON PACT

London, Aug. 11.—(Canadian Press Cable).—The ratification of the Washington treaties by all the dominions of the British Empire has been completed. Necessary legislation, passed by the respective parliaments, has been endorsed by the King. Copies are being dispatched to Washington in exchange for the ratification by the United States.

London, Aug. 11.—(Canadian Press Cable).—Lord Henage, high steward of Trimby, former M. P. for Lincoln, prominent agriculturist and one-time owner of famous race horses, is dead. He was 82 years of age, and owned 10,800 acres in Lincolnshire County.

From Halifax to Vancouver by Goat Power

HALIFAX, Aug. 11.—William Burlingham and George Osterhout, two students at Dalhousie University, are spending their summer vacation in a novel manner. They are driving from coast to coast with the above outfit. They take turns in driving. They carry a sleeping and cooking outfit, and expect to make the cross-country run with little trouble.

BURNED OUT LAMP SUPPLY

Recent Storm Wrought Much Damage to City's Lights.

Damaged Bulbs To Be Replaced As Soon As Possible.

Damage by lightning during recent electrical storms is the cause of several street lamps in London being out of order, according to General Manager E. V. Buchanan, of the public utilities commission. The lightning burned out several hundred electric lamps on various city streets, and as a result the unexpected demand has exceeded the supply. An ordinary three months' supply of lamps has been used in replacing damaged bulbs, but even this number was insufficient to fully cope with the need of the city.

JOHN GORDON HURT IN FALL FROM HOUSETOP

Falling from the roof of 484 Talbot street, about 11 a.m. Friday, John Gordon, carpenter, residing at 75 Wellington street, sustained internal injuries, the extent of which are as yet undetermined which necessitated his removal in the police ambulance to the Victoria Hospital. Gordon is reported to be resting quietly. No bones were broken, it is said, and an X-ray examination Friday afternoon will reveal just to what degree he has been injured. He is not considered as being in too serious a condition, however, despite his long drop.

Commends Friendship Between French and English CITY STUDENT GIVES EXPERIENCE.

A keen realization of the bond of sincere friendship and understanding which exists between the university life of the French and English people has come to Richard Crouch, the London student and graduate of Western University who has spent the past four years at the University of Paris. "The French are a naturally courteous and attentive race," Mr. Crouch said, when interviewed Friday morning, "but the interest of the French professors in the foreign student who attends the university evinces more than a mere attitude of instinctive politeness. The touch of personal interest in the work of the foreign students will go a long way toward realizing the French ambition of making Paris foremost among intellectual centers of the world. 'A continual interchange of French and English professors is taking place, and noted English students are granted honorary degrees from French universities—all of which, together with the interests which bind together the student bodies of the two nations, will be a strong factor in making the intellectual friendship of France and England a force potent enough to outweigh any political or diplomatic issue which might arise.' 'The University of Paris wields a great influence in the life of Central Europe,' he continued. 'Students attend the university from all those countries newly-formed since the war, and from the older-established small kingdoms and principalities.'

PNEUMONIA TAKES 410 TORONTONIANS

Toronto, Aug. 11.—The general mortality rate in the city for July was 9.86 per 1,000 population, according to the monthly report of Dr. Charles Hastings, M. O. H. For the year estimated upon the first seven months, indications are that 1922 may be the healthiest year yet recorded. For the first seven months pneumonia, with 410 deaths, was the chief cause of death, and cancer, with 320, was second. Organic heart disease followed cancer closely, with 318 deaths.

MRS. W. P. HINTON DIES IN WINNIPEG

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—News was received here today of the death in Winnipeg of Mrs. W. P. Hinton, aged 49, wife of the ex-general manager of the Grand Trunk Railway and formerly Miss Olive Parr of this city, who died last night after a lengthy illness.

DEADLOCK ENDS RAIL PARLEY

Union Men Demand Restoration of Former Schedules.

Members of Conciliation Board Decline To Interfere.

Montreal, Aug. 11.—Conciliation proceedings in the railway shopmen's fight came to an abrupt conclusion this morning when the disputants—the railway executives and the union heads—deadlocked on the question of the pay reduction being already enforced by the railways. The rail executives were, to a degree, supported by the majority of the conciliation board in the contention that the board itself could not try to compel the railway to restore the old scale of wages until the conciliation finding is announced. He was backed up by John Bruce, of Toronto, representing the plumbers and steamfitters, and by James Simpson, labor nominee on the board. The latter constituting himself as interpreter of the unionists' views, summed up their contention to be that the board could not actually continue its sittings until the 15th of July. Isaac Pitblado, K.C., representative of the board, announced an adjournment until Tuesday morning next, at 10 o'clock, in the interests of all parties.

THREATEN TIE-UP.
Chicago, Aug. 11.—Serious threats to traffic by refusal of trainmen to move trains at points where troops are on guard; renewed outbreaks of violence resulting in several deaths, and the possibility of walkouts by members of the unionists' ranks, marked the progress of the strike of United States shopcraft employees as railroad heads and union leaders gathered for conference today to consider separately President Harding's proposal for ending the strike. "Big Four" transportation brotherhoods, upon whom train movement depends, were authorized by their chiefs to suspend work if they consider strike conditions, and the presence of soldiers turned to Page 11, Column 5.

STEAMERS CRASH AT THREE RIVERS

French and Norwegian Boats Land on Sand Bar After Collision.

Three Rivers, Que., Aug. 11.—The French cargo boat Indo-Chine en route from New York to Montreal, collided at 1:50 this morning in the Port of Three Rivers with the Norwegian cargo boat Sarmatia, going down the river. No lives were lost, but both ships are aground on sandbars, and both will have to be towed, the Indo-Chine to Montreal, and the Sarmatia to Quebec probably for repairs. The steamer Berthier rushed to the aid of the steamers from Sorel and arrived here this morning at 8 o'clock. The steamer Mekinac was already on the scene of the disaster. The first mate, Gage, of the Indo-Chine, related to the representative of the Canadian Press the particulars of the collision. "The fog on the river was very dense, and there was also heavy clouds of smoke," he said. "We were going very slowly when a 200 metres we suddenly saw before us the flank of a steamer. It was too late for signals, and the prow of the Indo-Chine caught the Sarmatia amidship, causing a large hole above water. Everybody was soon on deck on both ships, but it was soon ascertained there was no danger of sinking. "We left New York on Aug. 3 for Montreal, where we were to take a cargo of wheat for the French government in the Indo-Chine."

GRITS AND TORIES MAKE CRANBROOK NOMINATIONS

Nelson, B.C., Aug. 11.—N. A. Wallace, Conservative, and John Taylor, Liberal, were nominated yesterday as candidates for the provincial by-election in Cranbrook constituency, necessitated by the appointment of Hon. Dr. J. H. King as federal minister of public works. STEAMERS COLLIDE.
Three Rivers, Que., Aug. 11.—The cargo steamers Indo-China and Sarmatia collided at 1:50 a.m. here. Fog and smoke prevailed. No lives were lost.

TRUSTEE ROWE DEMANDS FULL INVESTIGATION

"Dean of School Board" Condemns the Many Reports Circulated.

AWAITS COMPLETION

Would Suppress Talk Until Contractors Finish Structure.

"If there is foundation for any adverse criticism in connection with the new central Collegiate Institute, take the lid off and let it hear it." This is the attitude of School Trustee Thomas Rowe, "dean of the school board," as expressed Friday morning, indicating that in his opinion at least there should be none of the alleged secrecy in this and other reports.

"If there is anything wrong in the construction of this or other schools," Trustee Rowe asserted, "I am certainly not willing to condone it, and I don't suppose that any of my colleagues are as a matter of fact."

"As regards the many reports from time to time in connection with the new Collegiate Institute, I say let them wait until the contractors complete their contract. Then the architect and the Collegiate Institute committee will inspect the building no doubt. If then there is any shadow of a doubt in their minds that the structure is not up to expectations, and they suspect that there is anything radically wrong, they should make their report to the board, and the latter if it is deemed expedient may order a thorough investigation by outside and uninterested experts. "Until that time there is nothing to be done. It is useless to attempt to deny and refute every idle rumor that floats up and down the street. There must be some foundation for a charge. The school board cannot and never will be able to avoid criticism of some nature. That is unavoidable. There will be always some who will register a complaint despite what may or may not have been accomplished."

In the meanwhile, while the employees of the Kingston Construction Company are still reported as being busily engaged at "odds and ends" at the new school, a report is forthcoming from the office of the school architect, L. E. Carrothers. A strict silence is likewise being maintained in the general direction of the Collegiate Institute committee and among the former members of that group. "I don't know anything about the matter" is the favorite declaration.

Bench Finds Leniency With Boyd To Be Useless

"THERE is no use trying to be lenient with you. You will just go out and get drunk again."

Arriving at this conclusion Friday morning, Police Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon fined Bruce Boyd $15 and costs, the latter pleading guilty to two charges, intoxication and disorderly.

Boyd, the police records show, was discovered fighting with an old acquaintance one evening not long ago. During the scuffle he became incapacitated by reason of a broken wooden leg, which prevented his appearance in court at an early date, as scheduled.

In the interim it seems he imbued too freely, and when the constables, armed with a bench warrant, set out to apprehend him they were compelled to prefer the second charge, they relate.

"TORCH" CARROLL VISITS CITY AFTER MANY YEARS

Back in London after several years of absence in the United States, where he has made a decided success of his several bakeries, "Torch" Carroll arrived here Friday by motor from Liberty, Indiana, accompanied by his family.

"Torch," as he was popularly known to the youth of London twenty years ago, was a member of the London Baseball Club, and one of the most promising players on the old "Pastimes," who hung up a record in the district for baseball victories.

After leaving London he engaged in the bakery business in Indiana, his successful venture culminating in the operation of five establishments. Subsequently retiring, Mr. Carroll engaged in the flour business in Indiana with equal success.

ALLEGED LAUGH ANNOYS POLICE

Whatever you do, keep your lights burning brightly, and whether you think he is right or wrong, don't laugh in the police constable's face if he essays to direct you in this or similar connections.

P. C. Louis McCaughey testified in police court Friday that he spoke nicely to Mike Zocanno, as the latter drove past him, informing him that his lights were out, and that his only reason for being a good fellow was a derisive chuckle.

Much grieved seemingly by the accusation, Mike denied the charge most vehemently, and held stoutly to his claim that subsequently he discovered himself that his lights were out by reason of a faulty fuse, after which he drove down for immediate repairs.

After a length harangue with the magistrate, the chief of police and the defendant participating, the latter gained the day, with a severe warning to keep his lamps trimmed under all circumstances.

TELL KIWANIANS OF COAL SITUATION

London Dealers Discuss Conditions Arising From Strike At Weekly Luncheon.

"Don't panic," and "leave it in the hands of the coal dealers," was the only advice offered London Kiwanians, who at their noon luncheon at the Tecumseh House gathered together to discuss the situation of the coal trade for a discussion of the present coal situation, and possible consequences of the strike now in progress.

However, in spite of the humorous manner in which the coal dealers dealt with the situation and their attempt to throw consternation into the ranks of Kiwanians by forecasts of extremely inflated prices for the coming winter, a note of optimism was struck regarding the situation, and convincing arguments offered to show that by a careful handling of the situation by both dealer and consumer, there would be sufficient heat to keep Londoners warm throughout the winter.

Charlie Martin, George Chantler, Roy Lyons and Douglas Hunt each contributed to the discussion in an able manner. Bert Heaman was called upon, but announced himself as a cement dealer, and confined his witty remarks to that subject.

Mayor Cameron Wilson echoed the advice of the coal dealers in warning Kiwanians against becoming panicky, intimating that if the coal dealers couldn't take care of the situation, the city would.

A former Kiwanian of London, who was received at the meeting with great enthusiasm, was Rev. Thomas S. Roy, formerly of Talbot Street Baptist Church, and now of Brockville, Massachusetts. His short address served to express his appreciation of the London Kiwanians, and to extend a hearty invitation to any who might find themselves in the neighborhood of Boston.

Vincent Colgan, of the British American Oil Company, was the booster of the day, and assured Kiwanians that, if the optimistic predictions of the coal dealer failed to be realized and hard times set in, the company of which he was the tentative, would, in company with the well-known oil stove, step into the breach, and prove a potent factor in relieving the situation.

The "silent boosting" was carried out under the leadership of Jack Greer. The three prizes went to Charles Martin, Lloyd Riley and Hugh Murray.

Occupying the position of honor on the center table was the handsome silver cup won by the Kiwanians' team from Kingston, at the recent match in Toronto.

Kiwanian Harry Muir presided at the meeting.

W. BONSER DENIES CAR OWNERSHIP

Haled to Court, Claims Auto Sold Six Weeks Ago.

There are many automobile owners who obviously are not sufficiently familiar with the laws pertaining to the transfer of licenses.

While charged in police court Friday morning with a breach of the motor vehicle act, Walter Bonser pleaded not guilty, explaining that he had sold his machine six weeks ago, and was actually in Detroit when the alleged offence occurred.

"I suppose the license has not been transferred yet," he suggested. "But that is your duty," warned the magistrate, much to the defendant's surprise. "As soon as a person sells his car he must notify the department respecting the change of license, and submit all details. You are the one responsible, it would now appear."

At the request of the defendant, the magistrate granted an adjournment of the case until Monday next, however, in order that Bonser may make inquiries as to who was driving the car on the day in question, as he now believes that the car has again changed ownership.

Discharges Playful Youths Charged By Police With Boisterous Conduct

Neatly dressed and with shining faces, two youthful offenders, of the type that one would expect to see at a Sunday school picnic or leading the church choir, appeared in juvenile court Friday morning, charged with boisterous conduct on Talbot street the other evening.

Both defendants were discharged with a warning. The constable, who preferred the charge, testified that they were jumping up and endeavoring to damage signs hung from stores on the thoroughfare in question.

ENJOY FROLIC AT GARDENER'S PICNIC

Many Turn Out to Annual Outing Held in Springbank Park.

The market gardeners from London and the surrounding district took a short respite from their daily toils Thursday afternoon to hold their annual picnic at Springbank Park. The outing was probably one of the most enjoyable held at the park this season, and before the close of the afternoon it is estimated that more than 4,000 were in attendance.

Two ball games, a baby show and a long list of novelty events kept the large crowd of pleasure seekers amused for many hours.

Margaret Davis was the prize-winning baby in the show for children under one year. Margaret Bancroft was second and Dorothy Glover third. The winners in the show for babies over one year were Wilfred Gilkes, first; Freddie Fisher, second, and Archibald Grover, third.

The feature baseball game between the Pumpkins and the Hubbards Squash aggregation resulted in a victory for the former. The score, 17 to 15, however, was a close one, and not until the last inning were the crowd sure who would come out victorious. Charley Maker, the popular umpire, filled the strenuous position of umpire in a commendable manner that he was asked by many fans how long he umpired in the major leagues.

The teams were: Pumpkins—R. Awcott (captain), J. Eggett, T. M. McCormick, C. Joyce, H. Awcock, J. Whitlow, W. Parkinson, F. Gard and P. Parkinson. Hubbards Squash, H. Staffel (captain), G. Kirby, E. McCormick, A. Mitchell, W. Whitlow, O. Eggett, E. Davis, R. Smith and W. Sharrman.

In the game between teams composed of men over 40 years of age, T. Whitlow's team won over W. R. Trot's nine by the score of 5 to 2. The members of the teams were: First, W. R. Trot, captain; E. Davis, H. Awcock, J. Carroll, J. J. Davis, E. G. Fuller, K. Whitlow, E. Grover, W. C. Baker, second, T. Whitlow, captain; M. Eggett, J. Lucas, W. Crossan, G. Kirby, R. Pett, J. Newman, G. Parkinson, F. Gard.

During the supper served by the ladies, Mr. Poad delighted the picnickers with many charming solos that were greatly applauded.

The results of the events are: Girls, under 6—Marjorie Charlton, Frances Awcock, Madeline Boyce. Boys, under 6—Norman Crossan, Russel Carroll, Wilfred Gilkey. Girls, 6 to 10—Myrtle Scott, Ruth Whitehall, Irene Kirby. Boys, 6 to 10—Bert Awcock, Walter Crossan, Horace Crossan. Girls, 10 to 14—Margaret Boyce, Lillian Kirby, Winnie Whitehall. Boys, 10 to 14—John Whitlow, Weald Parkinson, Charles Awcock. Young ladies' race—Greta Awcock, Edna Nelson, Elsie Fuller. Young men's race—Victor Whitlow, George Kirby, Russell Awcock. Married ladies' race—Mrs. M. Eggett, Mrs. McKay, Mrs. Gilkes. Married men's race—Eli Davis, W. Gilkes, Walter Crossan. Ladies' peanut race—Laura Attridge, Greta Awcock, Mrs. Grover. Watermelon-eating contest—George Gard, Richard Thorne, Laura Attridge. Elopiement race—Eli Davis, Charlie Bycroft, Miss Davis, Elsie Fuller.

USE PAPER SCRAPS TO TRAP AUTOISTS

County Constables Employ Unique Methods to Catch Speeders.

County Constables Alex. Shaver, William Fifield and Robert Clifford have found a new method of bringing speedy motorists before Squire Chittick in the county court.

Two bits of paper are the secret of the trick; but their use must be further aided by a barb wire fence. On July 30, these three constables went to a certain section of the Wellington road by motor car, and having placed a piece of paper on a barb wire fence, they measured off a sixteenth of a mile and erected the barb wire with another piece of paper, and the trap was set.

Shaver parked himself opposite one piece of paper with a stop watch, while his colleagues put on their spectacles.

These actions, though mysterious, were very significant, viewed in the light of the sequel, which was the appearance in county court Friday morning of James Caravella and J. W. McLaughlin. The former was charged with exceeding the speed limit at this place, and the latter was there as witness for the defence, and also on a charge of speeding, though not on the same piece of road.

Constables Shaver and Clifford testified against Caravella. They claimed he had covered the ground between paper and paper in seven seconds. Caravella said he had been going only fifteen miles at this point and saw the constables there. Squire Chittick deserved decision on Caravella's case, and held the McLaughlin case over until after lunch.

W. Ten Elks, who appeared both for Caravella and McLaughlin, declared at the close of the hearing: "The evidence goes to show that they are just taking numbers and not taking time at all."

However, it is presumed that motorists, owing to the clever constables, will not always dismiss something they see on a barb-wire fence in future as "a mere scrap of paper." In such cases two bits of paper are often involved, the first is the one on the fence, and the second, the summons that the motorist gets.

REMANDED UNTIL LIQUID ANALYZED

Joe Thompson Claims Bottle Contained Alcohol For Rubbing.

What seemed to be the grand finale of a spree that commenced a few days ago occurred in the city police court Friday morning, when Joe Thompson rose in the prisoners' dock, and answered to two separate charges under the provisions of the O. T. A. to wit, drunk, and having liquor in other than a private dwelling.

Adjournment was ruled until Saturday morning by Police Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon, pending the analysis at the Institute of Public Health of the contents of a certain bottle found in the prisoner's hip pocket, which he asserts, confidentially, is merely rubbing alcohol.

Chief Birrell is equally positive, nevertheless, that the liquid was primarily intended for drinking purposes, and that it was actually used with more or less success as a beverage.

Thompson admitted that he was drunk, as charged, when arrested near his place of residence. He accumulated his load, he told the bench, between London and St. Thomas.

"Where did you get it?" persisted the magistrate. "Biggers gave it to me," replied the prisoner.

"This is a continuation of the drunk staged down on Harris' flats," explained Chief Birrell. "You will recollect that one of the three men—Haynes—was here yesterday and allotted ten days. This is just a continuation of the same drunk, your worship."

At the prisoner's request, Magistrate Graydon ordered an adjournment while the contested liquor is analyzed.

MINIMUM WAGE BOARD TO MEET

Will Hold Public Hearing For Discussion of Proposed Provincial Decree.

On Aug. 14, 1922, at 8 p.m., the minimum wage board of the Province of Ontario will hold a public hearing for the discussion of the proposed decree fixing minimum wage rates for the female workers in the needle industry of the province. This meeting should be of greatest interest, as all are invited to be present to discuss or present their criticism of these proposed wage proposals.

In the needle industry is included all garment-making, under factory conditions, which excludes custom tailoring, dress-making and millinery. It also includes the making of tents, awnings, beds and generally all articles which are chiefly manufactured by sewing machine operations.

The needle trades are largely concentrated in Toronto, Hamilton and Kitchener.

The proposed wage rates have been set by groups of representative employers and employees meeting in conference with the minimum wage board. In these meetings those closest to the trades and most interested in them can discuss the problems peculiar to their particular industry.

As in all other minimum wage rates set so far, the employers and employees set the rate, based upon the cost-of-living budget prepared by the minimum wage board. As the cost of living varies in different cities, so the minimum wage based upon the cost of living must vary.

The conference of employers and employees to set the rate for Toronto met on June 16, and decided upon $12.50 per week as the minimum wage rate for an experienced adult employee in the needle industry for Toronto. The conference for London, Hamilton, Windsor and Ottawa (cities of 30,000 and over) met July 11 and fixed $11.50 as the minimum wage for an experienced adult employee in these cities; the third conference met in Kitchener on July 25 and fixed $11 as the minimum for experienced adult employees in places under 30,000 population.

Such are the proposed minimum wage rates for the needle trades of Ontario. On Monday evening the orders will be presented for discussion, and anyone in the province who wishes to present criticism may do so. It is this remarkable and careful method of procedure which has made the work of the minimum wage board so generally satisfactory. It is claimed.

Ki-Y Boys Make Average Gain of 2 1-2 Pounds In Weight

THE benefits of camp life were emphasized to a very great degree when it became known Friday that the 140 boys who attended the K.-Y. boys camp at Sage's farm had put on an increase in weight of from one to six pounds within the short period of three weeks.

The average increase was two and a half pounds.

Lloyd Houlding, camp director, declared that many people wonder what value there is in sending a boy to camp, but when they see for themselves the benefits wrought they are no longer skeptical.

Camp officials give much of the credit for the splendid health and growth of the boys to the camp chef, whose food preparations were so keenly appreciated by the boys.

SUES HOTEL PROPRIETOR FOR FALSE IMPRISONMENT

Harry L. Pratt of London has entered suit in the supreme court against J. Collins, proprietor of the Brunswick Hotel, for $5,000 damages for false arrest and imprisonment.

Pratt appeared in city police court Friday, Aug. 4, on a charge of fraud laid by Collins. The case involved a dispute over a hotel bill which Collins claimed was owing to him from Pratt.

Deputy Magistrate Bartlett, after hearing Collins' evidence, dismissed the case, and now Pratt is retaliating by entering a damage suit against the hotelkeeper.

Gibbons, Harper & Braden are appearing for the plaintiff.

BECK ANSWERS N. Y. ENGINEERS' HYDRO CHARGES

CLAIMS REPORT UNFAIR

TORONTO, Aug. 10.—A reply to the criticism of the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission, which has gained wide circulation in Canada and the United States through the agency of the Murray report, is contained in a "refutation of unjust statements" which the commission today handed out.

The Murray report was a voluminous document by Messrs. Murray and Flood, a firm of New York engineers, at the request of the National Electric Light Association. It purported to be a comparison, the report states, based on an "impartial and exhaustive study," between government-owned and privately controlled electrical enterprises.

Its substance, however, was regarded by friends of public ownership as little less than an endeavor to discredit the hydro project.

Sir Adam Beck, chairman of the Ontario Hydro-Electric Commission, has a lengthy foreword to the "refutation."

Following are some extracts from Sir Adam Beck's foreword:

"Mr. Murray has made definite statements purporting to be true, but which are at absolute variance with well-known facts. He has misquoted statements, even replacing significant words therein with others. He has presented grossly misleading statements respecting even physical facts within his knowledge, and he has made comparisons between entities radically different, which even recognition of the real differences would have created an impression entirely at variance with what he has represented.

"He has inflated costs in a manner which falsifies the conclusions. Such procedure is characteristic of the use made of much of the essential material embodied in the premises which Mr. Murray has adduced and upon which he has based his conclusions. This accounts for the worthless nature of such conclusions."

Replying to Mr. Murray's statement that the Ontario Hydro Commission enjoys almost unlimited powers and that no suit could be brought against it, Sir Adam points out that since 1912 the attorney-general has granted writs permitting twenty-five actions to be brought against the commission.

Claims Rates Lower.
Sir Adam continues: "According to Mr. Murray the average cost of electrical energy to the citizens of Buffalo is twenty per cent lower than to the citizens of Toronto as supplied by their hydro system, whereas the data rightly employed show that the reverse is the fact and that the energy costs in Buffalo are on the average higher than the costs of hydro service in Toronto by over 35 per cent."

After referring to the cost of the Chippawa development, Sir Adam continues:

"By such artifices as have been described, Mr. Murray has estimated a total annual production cost for power of $12,310,000, as against a corrected total under his own assumption of $7,200,000. Thus he has overestimated the cost of generation by $5,000,000, or seventy per cent. He arrives at a figure of $25.60 per horsepower per year, whereas a correct estimate under his own assumption is only $14 per horsepower per year."

GIRL AFRAID TO GO HOME, FINED $30

HAMILTON, Aug. 10.—Cora Evans, 536 Gage avenue north, felt so nervous last night when about to go home that she called the police to escort her.

The result of all this was that Cora was charged before Magistrate Jelfs with being drunk, and that she was fined $30, just like a mere man. She admitted having a couple of glasses of wine at the home of a friend.

Call Summer Vacationists To Port Stanley in Warm August Days.

Largest Picnics of Season Will Be Held During Present Month.

July and August are the two supreme months of the year at Port Stanley. These two are the hottest time of the year, and Port is the place to which the public's fancy turns in Western Ontario during that time. Happy those who receive vacations then and enjoy them at the famous watering place.

One of the two months remains August is the time when the delightfulness of Port is emphasized in nature, and incidentally in the crowds who go there to enjoy themselves.

The season is now half way over, but what lies before promises for the visitor to Port equally and more than what has gone.

A great number of picnics have been held at the resort already, but a large number still remain to come. Chief of these is the Irish picnic and the Scotch picnic.

Both these events are famed. In other years they have been the two outstanding days of the year at Port. Greater crowds have attended them than on any other day of the season.

Preparations are under way now for both picnics. The Irish outing is to be held shortly, and the Scotch some time, in all probability, about the middle of the month.

REPORT CONSERVATIVES TO OPPOSE LEGISLATION
Suggest Result of Special Manitoba Session Would Mean Lengthy Debate.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 10.—A report is published here today that should the Bracken government call a special session of the Legislature to put Manitoba in line with Saskatchewan and Alberta in the creation of a wheat board, the necessary legislation will be opposed vigorously by the Conservative group in the house, in particular by J. T. Haig and Sanford Evans, members for Winnipeg City.

ITALIAN SESSION BREAKS AS DEPUTY DRAWS GUN
ROME, Aug. 10.—The action of Deputy Giunta in reaching to his hip for a revolver during a storm demonstration by the fascisti, broke up the session of the chamber of deputies today. The demonstration was staged against Deputy Repossi, a communist, while the government was presenting its plan for restoration of peace in Italy.

BOY SERIOUSLY HURT AS RAIL TORPEDO EXPLODES

George Neil, 10 Years Old, of St. Thomas, Rushed to Hospital.

Special to London Advertiser.
ST. THOMAS, Aug. 10.—As a result of exploding a railroad torpedo with a brick, George Neil, 10-year-old son of George Neil, Pere Marquette conductor, Media street, was seriously injured Wednesday night, and had to be rushed to the hospital for attention.

In company with two other boys, he found the torpedo near the Wash-Trunk tracks, and the desire to hear it go off led him to explode the cartridge with a brick. His chest and limbs were badly lacerated by the flying pieces of metal, and when picked up he was bleeding profusely.

Fortunately his life is not in danger.

MATHILDE MCCORMICK GOES TO SWITZERLAND

PARIS, Aug. 10.—Mathilde McCormick, the wealthy Chicago girl, whose marriage to Max Oser, former Swiss cavalry officer, has attracted wide attention, left Paris for Switzerland this morning, presumably to join her fiancée.

Plan Passenger and Mail Air Service, England To Australia.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Aug. 10.—Sir Keith Smith has submitted to the federal government details of a scheme for a mail and passenger air service between England, India and Australia. The mails now take four or five weeks from England, and Sir Keith estimates the air service would only take twelve days. The plan is divided into two stages, as follows:

A service twice a week to India.
A service to India on alternate days, with a weekly extension to Australia.
The Australian extension would allow ten tons of mail weekly each way.

Alkali in Shampoos Bad For Washing Hair

Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get Mulsified at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply put two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup or glass with a little warm water, then moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh-looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure you get Mulsified. Beware of imitations. Look for the name Watkins on the package.—Adv.

2 NON-UNION RAIL EMPLOYEES KILLED

CLEVELAND, Aug. 10.—Two non-union employees of the New York Central Railroad in its Collingwood roundhouse were shot and killed tonight.

The men had been standing on a street corner arguing with a third man, according to the police, when the latter suddenly drew a revolver and began shooting. The assailant escaped.

NAME RICE—JONES FOR GRAIN BOARD

EDMONTON, Aug. 16.—Reports in official circles here speak of the possibility that if the chairmanship of the wheat board is refused by H. H. Wood, it will be offered to C. Rice-Jones of Winnipeg, who just now has the offer of the vice-chairmanship.

GROOM BRINGS BRIDE TO ANCESTRAL HOME

Sunshine Valley Farm Does Honor To Mr. and Mrs. Ross McIntyre.

An interesting event to many friends in London and vicinity was a fete held at Sunshine Valley stock farm, near Komoka, in honor of the brother of the proprietor, Mr. Ross R. McIntyre, and his winsome bride, who have just arrived from California. The young couple were married two weeks ago in Modesto, California, where the bride's father, Mr. Joseph Alway, a former Canadian, is a prosperous fruit grower.

Upon arriving at Sunshine Farm, the birthplace of the groom, happy hours were spent in discovering places familiar in boyhood, amongst these the old apple orchard that in days gone by was one of the finest in the county. Of interest also was the opportunity of seeing at close range the thoroughbred horses for which recent years the farm has become noted. The lucky bride and groom are to receive as their wedding present from the master of Sunshine Farm a high-bred mare and a show buggy. Tea was subsequently served on the spacious lawns in front of Sleepy Nook, the bungalow on the farm, more than a hundred friends calling to offer congratulations and enjoy a chat with the guests of honor. The newly-weds were then carried off to waiting cars, decorated for the occasion, and a musical ride was the sport of the evening, a band of 15 pieces accompanying the procession, to say nothing of bells and chimes and cow bells. Short stops were made in Komoka and Lobo villages, in the course of the tour through the township.

The young couple propose remaining in Canada, and will take up farming near London. The bride is a university graduate and taught for some years. The groom, a Lobo township boy, received his early education in London. He has travelled extensively in the last 12 or 15 years, and has served with distinction overseas during the war, and while abroad made a thorough study of farming conditions in the British Isles, as he also had done in Canada and the United States. He has paid Western Ontario the compliment of choosing to locate here to engage in farming.

Garden Fete Held On St. Peter's Lawns By Catholic Women To Aid Athletics

Thousands of visitors were attracted to the grounds surrounding St. Peter's Cathedral on Thursday afternoon and evening for the charming garden fete, held by the Catholic Women's League, under the auspices of the Catholic Athletic Association. The proceeds are to be used to improve Sunshine Park, and further encourage athletic activities for the Catholic young people of the city.

Mrs. R. H. Dignan was general convener of the affair, assisted by Mrs. Joseph Leech and the ladies of the various parishes in the city. The fancy work table, decorated with yellow and white bunting and bright flowers, was in charge of Mrs. Darcy, assisted by Mrs. W. McPhillips, Mrs. Philip Pocock, Miss Margaret Darcy, Mrs. Philip Cook, Miss Isabel Ramahan, Mrs. Coffey, Mrs. R. M. Burns and Mrs. Phillip Lewis. At the country store could be purchased a variety of articles including vegetables, canned goods and articles of clothing. This booth, which was very attractive with sheafs of wheat and corn flowers, was convenered by Mrs. Thomas Kibicki, assisted by Messrs. Thomas Brennan, Duncan, Corcoran, Benenati, Pierre and Ryan.

Mrs. M. J. Kiley was convener of the candy and flower stall, which was decked with gay summer flowers. Mrs. Kiley's assistants included Miss Derr, Mrs. C. Meader, Mrs. C. De Luca and Mrs. Richard Forristal. Lovely dolls were found at the doll table, in charge of Mrs. J. Moir, assisted by Mrs. E. A. Pocock, Mrs. W. Wilkinson and Mrs. Best.

The verandas surrounding the seminary were made very attractive, decorated with purple and white streamers, and here supper was served at dainty tables, centered with giddoll. Mrs. J. J. Roach was in charge, and her assistants included Mrs. T. McLaughlin, Mrs. P. J. Sweeney, Mrs. Lenehan, Mrs. Connell, Mrs. McGuire, Mrs. McCormick, Miss Larkin, Miss Carty, Miss Pelton, Miss McDonald, Miss Maynard, Miss Connell, Mrs. J. McLaughlin, Mrs. O'Leary, Mrs. Dalton, Mrs. Flood, Mrs. Hartney, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. McGinnis, Miss Fallon and Mrs. Hockin. An excellent program of music was supplied during the evening by the R. C. Band, under the direction of Capt. Ryan.

ADVERTISER PATTERNS

Pattern 3436 furnishes these two practical styles. It is cut in 5 sizes: 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. A 10-year size will require 1 1/2 yards of 36-inch material for the blouse and 1 1/2 yards for the knickerbockers. Serge, cheviot, corduroy and khaki are good for the knickerbockers and cambric, madras, linen, chambray and flannel for the blouse.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 15 cents in silver or stamps. Address all pattern orders to the pattern department.

Form for ordering patterns, including fields for Name, Town, Province, Age, and Measurement.

CAUTION: Be careful to inclose the above illustration, and send size of pattern wanted. When the pattern is bust measure, you need mark only 28, 44 or whatever it may be. When in waist measure, 22, 24, 26, or whatever it may be. If a skirt, give waist and length measure. When misses' or child's pattern, write only the figure representing the size. It is not necessary to write "inches" or "years." Patterns cannot reach you in less than one week from the date of application.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

THE FIRST AUGUST BABY. Dear Miss Grey,—Just picked up The Advertiser of Aug. 1, and noticed in your answer to Yellow Rose you say why not have an August babies' celebration some day? So I thought as I was an August baby away back about the middle of last century I would second the motion, and perhaps, as I was born the first day, I might be first. My year was 1851, so you see I am old enough to remember the old log schoolhouse and the time when summer holidays just lasted two weeks, the first of August, and went to school every other Saturday.

I also can remember seeing deer running through the fields, and of hearing the wolves howling around. But I have not time now to tell you all I can remember. Will send a mite for the S. C. H. Wishing the same every good, also the page. MDCCLLI.

Our first August Baby proved to be a most interesting one, and a very generous one, as a one-dollar bill was enclosed in her letter. Thank you very much for the same. I am sure you could relate some interesting stories of the sixties and seventies, couldn't you? Won't you write again and tell us more of Canada in those days?

RONDEAU PARK. Dear Cynthia and All,—Just thought I would drop in and see how you all are. Isn't it lovely and cool tonight? or is it in the country one needs their sweaters or coat when outside? How is it in the city, Cynthia? If you find it hot just take a spin to Rondeau Park and you will find it cool and refreshing. How many of the Boxes have ever been to Rondeau Government Park? Those who haven't would enjoy a day there, I am sure. It is not made beautiful by flowers, but it is just as Nature made it, with the exception of the buildings which have been erected by the Government. On one side there is Lake Erie, and on the other is Rondeau Bay, where you can enjoy the cool breezes boating and bathing. There are at least 3,000 acres of woods, thickly populated with deer and other animals, and in pens they have several kinds of pheasants. There is also a restaurant and dancing pavilion and a large picnic ground. It is also a great summer resort, as there are a great many cottages.

I am sorry to think I neglected writing before now to thank you for the lovely flower seeds I received. I just wish you could see my bed now; it is all out in bloom and is a lovely picture. If I was near you I would send you a big bouquet for your office.

I feel sorry for all the Boxes who are in need, and hope that their bad luck will turn to good soon. Well, if I don't stop, Cynthia will be scolding, and I don't like to be scolded, so will just slip in a mite for the kiddies and go. Good luck to all, from SWANEE.

It is quite cool in the city, also, Swanee; more like fall weather, isn't it? Your account of Rondeau Park sounds so interesting that I regret very much that I have never visited that particular spot. Isn't it lovely to think so many pretty flowers have come from our Mail-Box seeds? Everyone has glowing reports of their gardens this year. How are the cinnamon vines coming along? Mine are growing like weeds. Thanks, Swanee for the little mite for our hospital fund.

A MOUSE JOINS CORNER. Dear Miss Grey,—This is my first letter to your Mail-Box, but I have been reading your letters every day. I see what Buskin was wanting some little girl her age to write to. I am 11 years old, and in the senior III. class at school. I have light bobbed hair, and brown eyes. So would you please send me her address? I am sending a self-addressed envelope. I will close now.

Your pen-name seems to suit you, Little Mouse. I am glad you weren't too timid to come into the Mail-Box, although none of us are cats, so you really have nothing to fear. I am forwarding Buskin's address, and hope she proves an interesting correspondent.

Miss Dorothy Barrett of Center Island, Toronto, has returned home after spending several days in London, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. V. Ellis, Clarence street.

Mr. A. H. Birmingham, G. T. R. claims agent, and Mrs. Birmingham and children are enjoying a visit in Montreal, where they are the guests of Mrs. F. Lavette, a sister of Mrs. Birmingham.

Mrs. C. Somers of Chatham, Miss Jessie MacKellar, Hamilton, and Mrs. George Young, Thamesford, have been in town this week, staying with Mrs. Comber, 476 Trafalgar street, coming for the funeral of her daughter, Mrs. Donald MacKellar.

Mr. and Mrs. John McGill have moved to London, having disposed of the valuable property in Detroit. They are living for the summer in the home of Mr. John A. Nash, corner of Waterloo and Grosvenor streets. Mr. McGill will erect a handsome bungalow on the Base Line, where he has purchased a lot from Mr. Rowland Stephens.

Charming week-end visitors of Dr. G. A. Routledge and Mrs. Routledge, "Edgemoor," Lambeth, are Miss Ada Rose and Miss Louise Cullen of Toronto. Miss Rose, who is a Licentiate of the British Academy of Music as well as the Canadian Academy of Music, and is possessed of a soprano voice of rare beauty, will sing on Sunday at the 11 o'clock service in St. Paul's Cathedral, and in the evening in Lambeth Methodist Church.

WELL-KNOWN LONDONERS MARRIED IN DETROIT

Harvey Mitchell and Maude Terry. Harvey Evade Stereotyped Wedding.

Evading the conventions and voting unanimously against a stereotyped wedding, a well-known London young couple were quietly married in Detroit on Friday last, and are now enjoying their honeymoon in American cities.

Last week Miss Maude Terry, a girl and great favorite with a large circle of friends, left for Walkerville, presumably to visit her sister, Mrs. George Austin. A prominent young businessman of the city, Mr. Harvey C. Mitchell, "went following after," and on Saturday relatives were notified of a quiet little wedding which took place in Detroit, dated August 4. Friends are now busily engaged forwarding congratulations and making plans for a suitable reception for the elusive pair when they return.

WITH THE BRIDES

COFFIN—PUTTOCK. A quiet wedding took place Saturday, August 5, at 7:30 o'clock at St. George's Rectory, Rev. Canon Sage officiating, when Miss Maud Puttock and Mr. Charles Coffin, both of London, were united in marriage. Miss Maud Baggett was bridesmaid, and the groom was supported by his brother, Mr. A. Coffin. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace, and the groomsmen, an amethyst tiepin. Following the nuptial ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Perkins, the latter a sister of the bride. Thirty-five relatives and friends attended.

The house was prettily decorated with gladioli and sweet peas. Out-of-town guests for the occasion were: Mrs. G. Puttock, the bride's mother; Miss G. G. Puttock and daughter, Lillian, Sudbury; Miss G. Grinnell, Miss G. Eby, Goderich; Mr. and Mrs. G. Grigg, Miss Ellen Grigg, and Mr. and Mrs. O. Grigg, Mount Brydges.

SPRY—McNAUGHTON. The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McNaughton, Base Line, South London, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at noon on Wednesday, August 9, when their daughter, Myra Edna, was married to William Albert Spry, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Spry of King street.

The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. F. Ballantyne, M.A., under an arch of maiden-hair fern and golden glow. The bride, who was given away by her father, was beauteously gowned in navy serge with embroidered and with crystals, and wore a black panne velvet picture hat, and a corsage bouquet of sunset roses, orange blossoms and maiden-hair fern.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. George N. Williams of Exeter, Ontario, aunt of the bride, who sang "All Joy Be Thine" during the signing of the register. The gift of the groom was a handsome check. Luncheon was served in the dining-room from tables beautifully decorated, the color scheme being pink and white. Later the happy couple left for Toronto, where they will take the home for the Thousand and Montreal. The bride traveled in a suit of sand-colored radiocloth, with black hat and sable choker. Mr. and Mrs. Spry will reside in the city on their return.

The RED HOUSE MYSTERY

by A. MILNE

BEGIN HERE TODAY.

Who had shot and killed the poor-do-well ROBERT ABLETT, within two minutes after his arrival at The Red House, the country estate of his bachelor brother.

ABLETT? Robert's body on the floor of the locked room had disappeared and the eyes of Police Inspector Mark were clear that Mark had viewed Robert's return to Australia with annoyance, his brother and then disappeared there were mysterious circumstances. The shot was heard just a few moments before ANTONY GILLINGHAM, gentleman adventurer and friend of BILL BEVERLEY, one of Mark's guests, entered the hall where he found MATT CAYLEY, Mark's constant companion, pounding on the locked door and demanding admittance. The two men entered the office through a window and discovered the body.

Later, Antony vaguely suspects Cayley. Bill tells him that Mark was upset a few evenings ago when one of the guests appeared as a ghost on the bowling green. Antony and Bill discuss various theories of the murder.

GO ON WITH THE STORY.

"No, that's rather hopeless, isn't it?" Bill thought again. "Well," he said reluctantly, "suppose Mark confessed that he'd murdered his brother?"

"That's better, Bill. Don't be afraid of getting away from the accident idea. Well then, your new theory is this. Mark confesses to Cayley that he shot Robert on a secret passage?"

"A secluded passage, anyway. There must be."

"I say, what fun! I love secret passages. Good Lord, and this afternoon I was playing golf just like an ordinary merchant! What a life? Secret passages!"

"Well, then, I want to ask you two questions. First, is it possible, as I said before dinner, that any man would commit such an idiotic murder—a murder that puts the rope so very tightly round his neck? Secondly, if Cayley is prepared to perjure himself for Mark (as he has to, anyway, now), wouldn't it be simpler for him to say that he was in the office all the time, and that Robert's death was accidental?"

Bill considered this carefully, and then nodded slowly again.

"Yes, my simple explanation is a wash-out," he said. "Now let's have yours."

Antony did not answer him. He had begun to think about something quite different.

CHAPTER IX.

"WHAT'S the matter?" said Bill sharply.

Antony looked round at him with wide eyes.

"You've thought of something, haven't you?" Bill said. "What is it?"

Antony said nothing.

"My dear Watson," he said, "you're supposed to be as clever as I am. Well, I was wondering about this ghost of yours, Bill. This is where she appeared, isn't it?"

"Yes."

"How?"

"How? How do ghosts appear? I don't know. They just appear."

"But how did Miss Norris appear suddenly—over five hundred yards of bare park?"

Bill looked at Antony with open mouth.

"I don't know," he stammered. "We never thought of that."

"You would have seen her long before, wouldn't you, if she had come the way we came?"

"Of course, we should."

"And that would have spoilt it rather. You would have had time to recognize her walk. She couldn't have been hiding in the ditch?"

"No, she couldn't. Betty and I walked round a bit. We should have seen her."

"Then she must have been hiding in the shed. Or do you call it the summer-house?"

"We had to go there for the bowls of course. She couldn't have been there."

"Oh!"

"It's dashed funny," said Bill, after an interval for thought. "But it doesn't matter, does it? It has nothing to do with Robert?"

"Hasn't it?"

"I say, has it?" said Bill, getting excited again.

"I don't know. We don't know what has, or what hasn't. But it has got something to do with Miss Norris. And Miss Norris—" He broke off suddenly.

"What about her?"

Antony knocked out his pipe and got up slowly.

"Well, then, let's find the way from the house by which Miss Norris came."

Bill jumped up eagerly.

"By Jove! Do you mean there's a secret passage?"

"A secluded passage, anyway. There must be."

"I say, what fun! I love secret passages. Good Lord, and this afternoon I was playing golf just like an ordinary merchant! What a life? Secret passages!"

They made their way down into the ditch. If an opening was to be found which led to the house, it would probably be on the house side of the green, and on the outside of the ditch. The most obvious place at which to begin the search was the shed where the bowls were kept. There were two boxes of croquet things, one of them with the lid open. Antony tapped the wall at the back of the shed.

"This is where the passage ought to begin."

"It doesn't begin here at all, need it?" said Bill, walking round with bent head, and tapping the other walls. He was just too tall to stand upright in the shed.

"There's only one reason why it should, and that is that it would save us the trouble of looking anywhere else for it."

Antony began to feel in his pockets for his pipe and tobacco, and then suddenly stopped and stiffened to attention. For a moment he stood listening, with his head on one side, holding up a finger to bid Bill listen, too.

"What is it?" whispered Bill.

Antony waved him to silence, and remained listening. Very quietly he

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS CHOCOLATE ROOSTER MELTS

[By Olive Roberts Barten.]

The Chocolate Rooster had disappeared completely.

SOMETHING dreadful happened. The Chocolate Rooster had fallen into the lake on the Tinkly-Winkly Star and was half melted before the Twins rescued him. Suddenly Nancy saw a fire on shore.

"We'll take you there and dry you, poor dear," she said kindly, "and then we can go on. We simply must find the fire, and the wicked fairy, who has caused all this trouble with the wand he stole from the Fairy Queen."

The fire was high and hot, but nobody was around tending to it. Not a Tinkly-Winkly was in sight. "Maybe it's a magic fire," said Nick. "Maybe Flap-Doodle is sorry he changed you into chocolate and he's caused this fire to dry you out."

The Twins were so busy looking around to see if Flap-Doodle was near that they had not noticed what could see almost entirely inside it. Everything seemed to be as they left it. The bowls-box, the lawn-mower, the roller, the open croquet-box, the—

"By Jove!" said Antony to himself. "That's neat."

The lid of the other croquet-box was open, too.

Bill was turning round now, his voice became more difficult to hear. "You see what I mean," he was saying. "If Cayley—"

And out of the second croquet-box came Cayley's black head.

GRIMSBY BASKET STORAGE BURNS

HAMILTON, Aug. 10.—A storage warehouse owned by Merritt Bros., basket manufacturers, in Grimsby, was burned to the ground shortly after noon today with about 200,000 baskets which it contained. The loss is estimated at about $15,000.

The factory, just across the road from the warehouse, did not catch fire, and the G. T. R. depot, about 100 yards from the burning building, also escaped.

Radio Radiations

BY THE RADIO EDITOR.

AN antenna nine miles long! That's the size of an aerial used on Long Island for trans-Atlantic radio reception. But it is only 15 feet high.

It is of the type known as the "wave-wire" antenna, used in long-distance reception because it comes nearer eliminating static interference than any other form known.

Like any of the long-wire type of antennae, it receives best only from those directions toward which it points. By properly absorbing energy from the wire at one end, the wire can be put into such condition as to receive from one direction only. This is accomplished by the use of a resistance and an earth connection.

When but one wave length long, the wire is quite directional in its characteristics. When two wave lengths long, it is decidedly more directional.

HOW A WAVE-LINE ANTENNA IS PUT UP.

The longer it is, the more desirable it becomes as an antenna designed to receive but from one fixed station.

As installed on the Atlantic coast for European communications, little difficulty is now met because of static except that due to local thunderstorms. Even these effects are dodged by the association of several stations spread along the coast from Asbury Park, N. J., to Bar Harbor, Me.

Most thunderstorms originate over land and pass out to sea. Thunderstorms which prevent operation of the stations on the Jersey coast are recorded at Bar Harbor because of the directional characteristics of the antenna there. Thunderstorms at Bar Harbor are usually of insufficient intensity to affect operation on the Jersey coast.

Since all these stations are connected by telegraph, it becomes an easy matter, then, to shift operations from one to the other. In this way European traffic comes through with but few interruptions.

CUCUMBERS

WHILE cucumbers are in season one has to use them very quickly, either fresh or made into pickles and relishes.

The very young cucumbers are better sliced, with oil and vinegar, but older ones are excellent cooked.

Foreign people know this, and as cucumbers are one of the oldest known vegetables many interesting recipes have come down in history. In the Orient cucumbers are stuffed and baked.

Cucumbers pared, cut in one-inch pieces crosswise, may be fried in a little oil or butter.

Dip the pieces of cucumber in egg slightly beaten and diluted with two tablespoons water.

Roll in flour or cornmeal the pieces thus dipped and cook slowly in the fat. They should be soft all the way through and nicely browned.

Drive constipation out of your system with Kellogg's Bran!

Get away from the dangers that confront you and every member of your family if you are neglecting constipation or constipation conditions! Eat Kellogg's Bran, cooked and crumbled, every day, and you will be astonished at the improvement in your health and spirit!

Bran's value as a constipation corrective is wonderful. It is heartily endorsed by physicians because Bran is the natural means of relieving constipation with the food you eat! We guarantee that Kellogg's Bran, eaten regularly—at least two tablespoons daily; in severe cases with each meal—will permanently relieve the most stubborn constipation! It does wonderful health work for children, making them strong and robust.

You realize what constipation means when authorities state that 90% of all illness can be traced to constipation! It is responsible for most cases of diabetes, Bright's disease, rheumatism and hardening of the arteries. It dulls the brain, makes the sufferer sluggish and causes headaches, bad breath, pimply complexion!

Kellogg's Bran, as nature's corrective food, sweeps, cleans and purifies. It regulates the bowels naturally and does not cause irritation or discomfort like pills and cathartics, which cannot afford permanent relief and only aggravate dangerous conditions!

You will like Kellogg's Bran, cooked and crumbled. Its nut-like flavor is delicious. Eat it as a cereal, sprinkle it over your favorite cereal, or use it in countless delightful ways in baking, such as in pancakes, gems, raisin bread, muffins, etc. Buy Kellogg's Bran at all grocers. It's wrapped "WAXTITE."

BASEBALL and LATE SPORTING NEWS

LONDONERS MAKE TWO HITS WIN 2-0

Saints and Tec's Furnish 69-Minute Game in First.

Two hits in the eighth, combined with a couple of sacrifices and a fielder's choice just when the Londoners were beginning to wonder what real hits sounded like, gave them two runs and a 2-0 in over the Port Huron-Londoners hypen game yesterday afternoon. The game was played in 69 minutes, near the league record, which could probably have been broken had not Malmquist and Getzle, who had been knocked out and causing a few minutes delay.

Carmen was nipped for eight hits, but the only times they came close together, he tightened up or his support did, and stayed off the visiting side's opportunity to get in their small but potent punch.

It came in the eighth. Will Coogan, hero of the Wednesday mixers, started it with a single to right. Stimpson sacrificed him alone. Butler laid down a grounder toward third, but Malmquist wanted to tag the runner. Coogan, the Londoner, ducked neatly under the put-out without leaving the path and continuing to third. Later, while being perfectly safe and same in first. A bunt did not look very good, but Malmquist, who had been nipped for eight hits, and Malmquist's perfect tag toward first was sufficiently upsetting. Coogan scored, but Malmquist and Getzle, who took a running catch, landed at first and into each other at the same time, the catching team both out. Getzle, however, lazily pegged to third before he keeled over. Blake's triple to right scored Butler, and the second run. Mackey fouling out to end the inning.

The eighth inning followed frame after frame of snappy baseball with only one error to mar the flawless work of both teams. Both teams made several run-sized holes for runs. London started all the threatening in their first when Stimpson walked and was hit to single. Malmquist's choice got Stimpson going into third. Blake grounded-out and Mackey was out there. He passed to Getzle. This somewhat foolish proceeding worked out all right as Carmen sent one right at Brown, who made the out at third.

Pitched Out of It.

With two gone in the second, Williams sent a single, but Coogan then only three times to get to Glasier to right this situation.

On the third, Glasier got on through Brown's error, but was out stealing, and Malmquist, who singled, was nipped at second on Blake.

The only chance for the Londoners in the second hole was the fifth as the runner jumped to make a stand, and Ashley, singling, was hit to single. Williams' runner, Worey's, leader's choice stopped Ashley at third, and the next two were easy groundouts. That was the last real hole, as the runner went out in three up until their ninth when Goulat intercepted a hit, but he made a throw to centre, and Williams' runner's long fly was nabbed by Coogan to end the game.

Members of French Net Team

UPPER, HENRY COCHET, CENTE R, ANDRE GOBERT. LOHER, JEAN BORTOLA.

The French Davis Cup team which yesterday played the Australian team for the right to meet the American cup defenders form a well-balanced trio. Andre Gobert, one of its members, has had the European courts gasping with the brilliancy of his game.

He is comparatively an unknown player, but his record of recent months stamps him as a dangerous competitor. Jean Borotra, the second member of the team, is a well-known figure on the European courts.

He is supreme at the net, volleying sharply and being a wizard at returning overhead shots. One fault that he has against his game is the slicing of his forehand and backhand shots. He is a Basque, and always wears a little round blue cap on the courts.

The third member of the French trio is Henry Cochet, the 29-year-old star, who was the sensation of the meet at Wimbledon. Dean Mathey, the American tennis star, who took part in the Wimbledon tournament, was enthusiastic in his praise of young Cochet on his return from Europe, calling him the "Vincent Richards of Europe." He is a streak on the courts, volleys well, and his back-court game possesses great reach and accuracy.

Tennis experts in this country feel that if the Australians win the match between the two countries it will be because they played super-tennis.

ROUND THE KITTY

The annual tourney of the Lam-beth Bowling Club will be held on the afternoon of Aug. 23. The first 24 rinks to enter will be drawn and accommodated.

Four games will be played for the Lambeth-Ward trophy, won by W. J. Hanley's Aylmer rink last year, and four prizes.

The Lambeth Club has established a reputation in the short time it has been in existence for its hospitality, and there is no doubt that a large entry will be made.

PALMERSTON KIDS OUST WINGHAM FROM N. W. B. A.

PALMERSTON, Aug. 10.—Pie Hawkes stalwarts went out tonight and won back what they lost in the first round of the Junior N.W.B.A. semi-finals at Wingham Monday when they ran up a score of 15 to 6 runs here tonight against the same team with the exception of Crutcher, who defeated them in the first game, 13 to 8. It was Palmerston's game from the second inning and looked as though Pitches and Leakey would score a shutout, but several errors accounted for the score against him. For the Wingham club Bell and Atchison on second were the best players.

COBB AND SISLER ARE PRACTICALLY TIED

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—Ty Cobb and George Sisler were into a virtual tie in their race for batting honors in the American League yesterday, when the "Georgia Peach," traveling as a .300 clip, socked out two hits in four times at bat, while Sisler connected safely but once in five times up, or at the rate of .200.

Cobb has a slight margin over Sisler, who led him by three points before yesterday's game. In the four determining games, it was necessary to carry the decimal beyond the usual three figures, making Cobb's mark .4955 and Sisler's .4920.

Their records to date follow:

Player	A.	B.	R.	H.	P.	O.	A.	E.
Cobb	96	375	154	40956	10	0	0	0
Sisler	101	413	169	40920	10	0	0	0

WEISSMULLER BREAKS ANOTHER.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 10.—Johnny Weissmuller of Chicago established a new world's record for 80 yards, winning the 100 yard free style open event in the National A. A. U. swimming championship here today. His time for the distance was 43.5 seconds, or 1.25 seconds better than the old mark.

Orients and Forest City Meet For Right To Enter Finals With Alerts

Forest City and Orients will battle out at Queen's Park Saturday for the championship of the second series of the local O. B. A. group, and the winners take the series, first half winners on a week from Saturday.

Tomorrow's game starts at 3 o'clock. All will go the full nine innings route. Cook will oppose Down, Orients' pitching ace, on the mound with Hicks or Jeffries as his battery mate. Armstrong will do the receiving for the Orients.

Owing to the delay in deciding a winner in this group, it is possible that St. Thomas may not be the next opposition in the first round of the O. B. A. The Guelph Maple Leafs have drawn a bye, and they may be stacked up against the St. Thomas crew before a week from Saturday.

PIRATES WIN 14TH STRAIGHT GAME

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 10.—Pittsburgh won its eleventh straight victory today by defeating Philadelphia, 14 to 4. Carlson, the Pirate pitcher, and Walker of the Phillies both had homers in the four-game series. Pittsburgh scored runs and made 84 hits for a total of 108 bases.

The score: P. 000 122 100—14 15 2. Philadelphia 010 000 012—4 8 4.

Carlson and Schmidt, Ring, Weintner and Henline.

BOSTON, Aug. 10.—St. Louis defeated Boston today, 7 to 3, hitting Marquard freely. Gaynor's triple in the second inning led into the first Cardinal run. His homer in the third came with two men on bases.

The score: S. 000 000 000—7 11 2. Boston 000 000 100—3 8 1.

Pfeffer and Almsmith, Marquard, Cincinatti and O'Neil.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Cincinnati made it three straight from the Giants, winning today by 7 to 3. Scott was knocked out in the seventh when a Cincinnati battering rally yielded four runs. Daubert hit a homer in the third inning with two on bases.

The score: C. 000 201 400—7 11 0. New York 011 000 100—3 10 9.

Donohue and Harrigan, Scott, N. Barnes, Jonard and Smith.

BROOKLYN, Aug. 10.—After losing the first two games of the three played to Chicago, Brooklyn swamped the Cubs today, 15 to 1, in the last game of the series. Kauffman, Stupeland, Jones and Zouli, all had homers.

TRAFFIC STOPPED ON DUNDAS STREET

Pottersburg Left Without Car Service While Paving Proceeds.

All traffic on Dundas street, between Ashland and Oakland avenues, was closed by City Engineer H. A. Brazier Friday morning, in connection with paving of this thoroughfare. The street car trucks were taken up in this stretch Friday night and Dundas cars will be forced to "X" at Ashland avenue until the paving is completed and new rails laid.

This means that citizens residing in Pottersburg who ride street cars must walk several blocks until the job is done. Rapid progress is being made by the city employees, and the engineer reports that concreting will be commenced Monday.

Gangs are working at both ends of the unpaved section removing the roadbed in preparation for the concrete base. Earth from the west section is being used as filler for proposed sidewalks on Nightingale avenue, while that from the east end is being used to grade the unpaved portion of the Governor's road, connecting the paved highway with Dundas street.

The section of road near the city limits will not be closed to traffic until other sections are paved. Motorists are now detouring at Ashland avenue, via King street, returning to Dundas street via Highway avenue. However, this strip will be closed next week, and Highway avenue will not be open until the detouring being substituted by Hale street, one block further east.

Rails for the London Street Railway Company are expected to arrive in the near future, along with a shipment of steel ties, which will be utilized, and if this material arrives in London as scheduled it is expected that the paving will be completed by Fair week.

DERIDES REPORT OF CHEAP HYDRO

E. V. Buchanan Claims City Charge to Westminster Residents Proper.

Pronouncing the report that the public utilities commission demands $15 a year for consumption of electric power to be supplied to Westminster Township residents, while the Hydro-Electric Power Commission has offered to do it for $23.11, as nonsense, E. V. Buchanan, general manager of the public utilities commission, declared Friday morning that the city's offer is a reasonable one, and that the commission is indifferent in regard to its acceptance.

"The $20 offer credited to the Hydro-Electric Power Commission is nonsense," declared Mr. Buchanan. "It almost costs that much to run the wires from the street to the houses. The Hydro-Electric Power Commission cannot possibly do it for that amount, as they must come further than us to supply the power."

"Of course, the fact that the U. F. A. government subsidizes the cost for the commission 50 per cent, may have something to do with it," continued Mr. Buchanan, "but we do not get the offer then all right. We have had complaints from some citizens already regarding supplying power beyond the city limits. Our attitude is a passive one, and it is different with a supply of drinking water, as the township residents cannot get a supply from the power commission."

"We are not going after business," concluded the manager, "but we are willing to try and help these people out. We have done more than any other municipality in this regard."

DEADLOCK ENDS RAIL PARLEY

Threaten Tie-Up.

Western divisions of the Atchafalaya and Santa Fe, because they refused to accept of transcontinental trains by refusal of engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen to operate trains while troops were stationed along the line where outbreaks occurred earlier in the strike.

At other centers throughout the country similar situations threaten. Switchmen joined the trainmen in their protests against working under guard, and the situation on the Santa Fe at Needles, Barstow and other California points was further aggravated when the entire yard force at Fresno left its post, the men notifying the company they would refuse to return until armed guards were removed. Conferences between Santa Fe officials and union leaders were held, following joint meetings of the two groups, but no agreement was reached, and the strike was continued.

Two non-union employees of the New York Central lines in the Collingwood yards at Cleveland, one a dispatcher and the other a call-boy, were shot and killed on a street corner. Their slayer escaped.

Use Dynamite.

At Hubert, Ark., two negro shop employees of the Ohio, Rock Island and Pacific, were shot and probably fatally wounded.

At Birmingham, Ala., an attempt was made to blow up a dining car used for reading shopmen and laborers in the Erie yard. The bomb missed its mark and blew a hole in a nearby box car.

Dynamite was used in an attempt to blow up shanty cars and a diner in the Southern Railway yards at Asheville, N. C.

Windows were shattered in a car containing coal workers.

State rangers were sent to Texas, Texas, in connection with strike disturbances there. Water pipes supplying the Texas and Pacific yards and the union station were cut twice by unknown persons.

Marvin Oxner, a car repair employee by the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad at Memphis, Tenn., died from gunshot wounds received when he was attacked and robbed by two negroes while on his way to work.

PAYS $10 FINE FOR ABUSING POLICE

Young Londoner Wounds Dignity of Constable Percy Last.

Police Constable Percy Last objects strenuously when accosted on one of the public highways and directed to go to a place where the fires burn night and day with great intensity, and if all reports and predictions are correct, it is a long long time between drinks.

"Ten dollars and costs," declared Police Magistrate Graydon in police court Friday morning. "We can't allow our constables to be abused."

The defendant, a young Londoner of considerable renown, through his attorney, Howard Cliff, admitted playing a practical joke on Constable Last, but offered the defense that the remark was directed not at the officer, but at another occupant of the automobile in which he was riding.

The defense scouted this excuse as too far fetched. Last declared that he was standing at the corner of Oxford and Richmond streets at a late hour when he was hailed from a passing touring car, "good night, Mr. Last."

The latter relates that he remarked that it was a pleasant evening, or rather morning, and was not a trifle surprised when it was suggested that he was being hailed from a passing touring car, "good night, Mr. Last."

"There was no mistaking the voice," declared Constable Last. "I would know it anywhere."

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

HAY PRICES RISE ON CITY MARKET

Apples Offered in Large Quantity at $1 a Bushel.

Friday's market was a very small one on account of the farmers being busy cutting the oat crop, and not having the time to bring produce to the city.

Hay advanced 50c per ton, and six loads were sold at $12 1/2. The demand was fair.

New wheat was steady at $1 01 1/2 per bushel, and the demand was strong. The apple crop is a bumper one this year, and competition is keen. They were plentiful at 75c per bushel.

Live hogs are in good demand at $12 per cwt.

Dressed hogs sell at $17 1/2 per cwt. Farmers predict that the best crop of grain in years will be reaped in the London district. The oat crop is an especially large one, and soon may be cutting their second crop of alfalfa and clover.
