Catholic Record.

Unristianus mihi nomen est Catholicus vero Cognomen."-(Christian is my Name, but Catholic my Surname)-St. Pacien, 4th Century.

VOLUME XXXVI.

The Catholic Record

LONDON SATUBDAY DECEMBER 26, 1914

BXPECTATION

How poor the world would be if deprived of the pleasure of expectation ? Looking forward is one of the fountains at which we drink life and vigor. Imagine if you can droppinginto Christmas in the twinkling of an eye without the privilege of tast-ingitinadvance. Christmas becomes the great day of the year because it is preceded by such elaborate and long drawn and loving preparation.

To cut off all that preceded Christmas would be like shearing the sun of its heams. The whole year becomes brighter to everybody who has Christ-

DO IT NOW

of battle are strong upon us, yet as we lift our eyes to the East there is the Star of Christmas showing steadfastly as the Star which once guided the wise man. Through the darkness of the present the light shines ahead, the light that means Peace and Good will to all men. This is the hope that cheers our hearts, that makes all our endeavors and all our

The Star led to the Christ Child turn to the little ones and seek our comfort at their tiny hands. Bebe deprived of their Christmas hapfathers havo offered the supreme sacrifice : there are many little ones from that sorely tried and heroic little kingdom, Belgium. We must make all these forget their childish sorrow and anguish, and in doing so we can do in the name of the Christ

Child Whose coming meant freedom giving and loving, are this day entwined together. The longer we retain some of the child's instinctive confidence that the love he feels is returned and the more we cultivate the pure faith of a child the more will we be capable and worthy of distributing quiet happiness and sweet

CHRISTMAS THOUGHTS

Once more the "old old story will ring out stirring even cold, sluggish natures and granite hearts to rise above their wonted love of kind-sympathy at Christmas.

bondage. The ideas of childhood, of food and clothing.

brethren.

sacrifices well worth while.

The tumult of war, the aftermath mas to look forward to.

LONDON, CANADA, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1914

1888

CATHOLIC NOTES

Mr. W. D. Brady, of Little Rock, is the generous donor of a handsome statue of St. Benedict to the Bene dictine Abbey at Subiaco, Ark. He is a non Catholic, but his son is at Subiaco studying for the priesthood. Monsignor Faisandier, S. J., Bishop of Trichinopoly, who has been one of the most active workers for the Marian Congress to be held in India early next year, has issued a circular announcing its postponement to a more auspicious time.

An English paper tells us that an application by Catholic authorities in Russia for permission for Catholic priests to go to the front to minister to the spiritual needs of Catholic soldiers has been granted by the government.

Among the many stained glass windows in Antwerp Cathedral, one was given by Henry VII of England to commemorate his treaty with Philin I of Castile. In the sixteenth century the Lutheran "reformers smashed many of its statues and images.

On November 9, in the chapel of the English College, Rome, Admiral Darcy Irvine of the British Navy was received into the Church. He ?was baptized by Bishop McIntyre, rector of the college, and received the sacrament of confirmation from Cardinal Merry del Val.

The Handelshlad of Amsterdam has published a report from Christiania. aying that the managers of the Nobel institute have decided to give this year's peace prize, which amounts to about $40,000 to the Netherlands government, to be applied to the support of Belgian refugees in Hol-

Professor Gibson of the University of Louvain, calls the ruined city a "new Pompeil"; everywhere an "oppressive silence; everybody has fied; at the windows of cellars I see frightened faces; at the street cor-ners sordid, immovable, silent Prussian sentinels; in Louvain's center stand the walls of St. Peter's, now a grinning silhouette. Entering St. Peter's, I find the big bell among the ruins, the vaults caved in ; the city exists no longer."

Associated Press dispatches from Copenhagen, Denmark, announce that postoffice officials there have carried out the idea of printing stamps for one, two and three cents, bearing the picture of St. Martin, Belgium's patron saint, and for eight cents, bearing the picture of the Belgian royal family, which are to be sold for the benefit of Belgian refugees. The press subscription throughout Denmark for the same purpose has been most successful.

Lady Holmes who was received into the Church on All Hallows' Eve by Canon Drake at St. Bernard's Convent, Slough, England, is the widow of Sir Richard Holmes, K. C., V. O., V. P. S. A., for thirty-five years librarian to Queen Victoria and King Edward VII. at Windsor Castle : she is also the eldest daughter of the late Rev. Canon Richard Gee. D. D., for many years the Protestant Vicar of Windsor and canon of St. George's. His Eminence Cardinal Aristide Cavallari, Patriarch of Venice died year of his age. He was born at Chioggia, Italy on February 8, 1849. His theological course was completed at the Seminary of Venice where he was ordained on September 24, 1872 He served for many@years in Venice under Cardinal Sarto, Patriarch of that See, and later Pope Pius X, whom he succeeded as Patriarch of Venice on February 15, 1904. He was created and proclaimed Cardinal in the Consistory of April 15, 1907, by the late Pope Pius X. by the late Pope Pius X. Cardinal Di Pietro, dean of the Sacred College of Cardinals, died in Rome, Dec. 5. Cardinal Di Pietre was born May 26, 1828, in the Sabine Hills of poor parents who, despite their poverty, fostered the holy voca-tion of their son, until he ultimately became a priest. He had held many offices of distinction in the Church. In 1870 he was Nuncio to Brazil, in 1882 to Munich, and in 1887 Madrid, succeeding Rampolla, who was then created Cardinal. He was highly regarded in Spain by the court as well as the Government. In 1893 he was created and proclaimed Cardinal. At the time of his death he held the office of Datarius.

much morally or spiritually by our red with the blood of martyrs, radiprofession of Christian faith. It is ant with the wisdom of her doctors not enough to read Dickens and to and beautiful with the charity which denounce the Gradgrinds and Scrooges has made her the altar of every sacrifor their meanness and neglect ; an fice and the home of every misery. increasing number of people who are We can go into the stable and see neither more nor less sympathetic the Child wrestling with an unconneed to be directed into wise chanscious happiness in the arms of His Mother-a Child Who felt as others nels of benevolence. before Him the rough contact of the It is true that poverty may be largely due to class privilege and elements and the pain and misery of poverty. He is like unto any child, but natural negligence and that indiscriminate almsgiving often weakens He was God-the Word set up from the already debilitated will instead eternity by which all things were made Flesh. of strengthening it to cope with the

But though He is God, He is also chances and changes of twentieth century civilization. But we cannot man as real and as true a man as afford to cut ourselves off from the was ever born of woman. His Body stream of moral inspiration which is real, formed of the blood and flesh bears men and women away from and bone of Mary ever Virgin. He took that body not for a time but their comfortable homes into close forever ; for as long as God the Father contact with their suffering fellows. reigns so long also shall, equal to There are and always will be calls upon those who have escaped the Him in all things, the God - Man Christ Jesus sit at His right hand. evils which are generated among the poor and these calls this year will Yet the person that was there that night at Bethlehem was God. The be louder and more urgent than ever. little hands stretched out to the It is well to know that many are and will be rescued from the depths Virgin Mother are the hands of God : the eyes dimmed with the tears of of abject misery by the funds and redawning human life are the eyes of lief new in operation. Yet this provision should not lift from our hearts God ; the voice murmuring in infant sorrow is the voice that awoke creathe shadow that is thrown by much remediable sorrow that cannot be tion into being. The soul, the body. the senses of that human nature alleviated by official effort. We cannot wholly discharge the duties of belonged to God and although every charity through this medium or conact they did was the act of a human Who brought gladness and comfort sign to public bodies the obligations nature nevertheless every act was to an unhappy world. So let us which spring from a deeper sense of the act of God who owned them.

neighborly fellowship. We cannot lose sight of the fact that the feast THE DIVINE RULER cause the whole world is in distress that so many of us will celebrate Only a Little Infant has ever is no reason why the children should with comfort in our own happy securely held the heart of our comhomes is sure to awaken envy and mon humanity. From the lowly piness. There are many whose brave regret among our less privileged manger He rules the courses of the stars and the workings of the human Wealth and waste display them heart. His will makes and keeps the selves on every side and those who harmony of the universe, shakes off have never known the pinch of right from wrong, robs death of its want or even the withdrawal of sting, gives to life an eternal worth customary comforts and modest crowns our common humanity with we shall forget our own. And this luxuries seldom give a passing a glory just less than angelic. En. thought to the vast numbers of throned upon that pure and innocent their impoverished neighbors who altar of the crib His Infant dignity to a world weary of tribulation and lack even the barest necessities of compels forever the love and devotion of countless missions who see

Especially do the children of want with the inner eye of faith His reand sorrow appeal to us for sympathy splendent Divinity and know by the and help at this most auspicious of higher instinct of love that in Him seasons. Here indeed the danger of are set all the hopes of humanitymisdirected benevolence is reduced Jesus Christ yesterday, to-day and to the narrowest proportions. the same forever.

Always there will be the moan of distress, the cry of pain, the sight of A Little Boy of heavenly birth patiently borne weakness. To the But far from home to day and of time innocent and guilty will Comes down to find his ball the and of time innocent and guilty will earth share the burdens of error and vice. That sin has cast away

Faith, Hope and Love, inheritors of And comrades let us one and all a sacred trust, will never wait for Join in to get him back his ball. legal sanctions but will hasten to bind up the wounds and relieve the suffering even though they seem to BELGIAN MARTYR evil and unthankful. As for the

He selected from amongst them wenty men, who were immediately nformed that their last hour had ome, and that they must perish for kind. twenty men, who were immediately informed that their last hour had come, and that they must perish for the sake of the village. It is possi-ble that this sentence might not have been carried out in its entirety, but in any case it was sufficient to terrorize the population. At this moment, however, some of the more courageous inhabitants approached the cap-tain and suggested that he should spare the twenty men until he had held an inquiry into the events which had taken place in order to try and discover who it was that fired upon the soldiery. The German officer re-plied that he had no time to waste upon such matters, but added that if the offender would give himself up he should be executed and the twenty

should be set at liberty. A MOVING SCENE

A deathly silence followed the announcement, and for some seconds no one moved. Then from amongst be rememb the hostages an old priest stepped painfully forward ; he was bent with years, and his scant grey hair sur-rounded a face as composed and tranquil as that of a saint. He advanced toward the captain and quiet ly said : 'It was I who fired."

The officer was not deceived by this self indictment, which he knew was untrue. He saw himself about to be forced into condemning an in nocent man, and became as pale as death. He hesitated and then said to the cure :

"Will you swear that it was really you who fired upon my men." And the little old priest, without a moment's hesitation, lifted his hand

Yes, it was I. I will swear. J'en fais le serment." There was nothing further to be done. The officer made a sign and turned upon his heel with lowered eyes.

His men led off the venerable priest. A few minutes later the re-port of several shots fired in a volley were heard. The flock of Francor-champ were without a shepherd, "and justice had been done."

CHRIS TMAS

Over the whole world, with its sins and its sorrows, its treasons and its infidelities, its self seeking and its self indulgence, there descends each succeeding Christmas a brooding ense of well-being that is not of the world's seeking nor of the world's making, but is the pure gift of God. His reminder of the ineffable condes ension and the unutterable goodness of the Incarnate Son of God. December, as the old year lies dying, down from heaven to earth with th

Christ Child there comes unseen and Christ Child there comes unseen and unappreciated, but all pervading, the peace, the blessed, priceless peace of Christ's nativity. The world, it is true, is no longer in any true sense a Christian world, it is out of sympathy with the doc trines and aspirations of Christ. Christmas does not mean for the majority of men what it meant for their fathers and grandfathers. To their shame, be it said, the Babe of the Catholic Church expects to be their shame, be it said, the Babe of the Catholic Church expects to be their shame, be it said, the Babe re-

ing over our people writes lows: "I despise bigotry of whatever "God so loved the world as to give nature. My time is too valuable to spend it in listening to purveyors of flith and falsehood. Though I at-His only begotten Son." Was He to allow the recollection of His gift to fade from the hearts of men? Christ's birth was one of the Father's tended the Baptist Church for twenty years, before becoming a Catholic, it greatest mercies. Was it to be per has never since occurred to me to cept of a faithful few ? Was the in-carnation and nativity of the Word made Flesh so slight a thing that it raise my voice against the purity of Baptist women in the hope of extract ing a few paltry dollars from admir ers of rottenness. It has never oc might be lightly forgotten ? Was curred to me to bring into question Mary to be regarded merely as a Jewish woman and her Son only as a big enough to retain my friendmight be lightly forgotten ? Was ship with every Baptist who was even Jewish child, both beautiful, but only a woman and a child and noth my friend, but my change of belief was due to conviction. I entertain ing more ? No, Mary was the Mother profound respect for clean men and of God, and her Son was God Him. self ; Mary's maternity and Christ's women, but I have not the word with which to properly express my contempt for defamers of virtue."nativity were most stupendous acts of God's bounty, acts of untold conse flood of nastiness and bigotry break-

Rev. Wm P. Cantwell, in The Mon quence to all mankind. And God as taken good care that they shall itor. Newark. Christmas joy is the means God A CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

has employed to remind men that for us men and for our salvation His By Cardinal O'Connell Swiftly fly the days, as nearer we only Son came down from heaven, was conceived by the Holy Ghost, approach the great Christmas festi-vai—the Christ Mass. At the very and born of the Virgin Mary, in all things like unto ourselves save sin. time that the days are darkest, the great light comes, "Lumen de Lum-Christmas joy is man's tribute to the new born King, his bomage to the Infant Saviour, his heart's silent pro-test against the forgetfulness of the In Christ, God gives us Himself.

Perfect love can never stop short of that. It must give and give until the mind and the blasphemy of the ton-gue, it is nature's thanksgiving for giver has exhausted His treasure, and finally gives Himself. And what the Messias. Deeds speak louder than words; and so it is, that we give back? shall although some lips deny Him and

One thing only we have to offer-one thing aloue He will accept. It is the best that is in us-Good Will. some ears are closed to His message all hearts proclaim Him. Christmas smiles are the reflection of the smiles Through the frail clay in which we

of Christ, Christmas greetings are echoes of the good tidings spoken by are so feebly fashioned, so weak of purpose, so filled with pitcous flaws, the angels, Christmas happiness runs this wonderful vein of gold, the the undying memorial written in the souls of men of Christ's birth accord. only riches we possess-Good Will. The Babe of Bethlehem stretches ing to the flesh. The nativity of the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity out His tiny hands for it, for it is His own. We need not hide our faces. He knows us all so well, in human form has been inscribed on tablets more lasting than stone ; and His poor, weak brothers, troubled by it has been done in a way that only the infinite kindness of the all wise so many cares, torn by so many conflicts. God could have devised. For just as We must not feel ashamed of the rage of poverty which cover us. He knows them all so well. The shepherds were as poor as we but no false shame, no proud bash-fulness held them aloof from Him. Les us take their hands and go to Bethlehem, sorry for His sake that we have nothing to offer but just our poor selves, poor clay with a little thread of golden will running through. But to one another we have so much to give, all of us, the least of Mutual forbearance, a kind, sincere word heartily spoken, silence when a word might only hurt, an injury forgotten and forgiven. What trifles they seem! Yet they are the very finest things in all the world. Come, let us offer them to one another, on that day when God comes down to earth, to make all men brothers.-Philadelphia Standard and Times.

NUNS AS WAR NURSES

The following item headed a sponse in their sense-bound, self-centred lives. The world has pagan-secuted, oppressed and abused. Its Minneanolis Journal recently Founder was libeled, mocked, scourged and crucified. It bears His "I was visiting at the convent in Carlisle Place the other afternoon sign of suffering. He predicted that when Lord Kitchener called and His followers would be reviled and asked for the reverend mother. Reverend mother,' he said, ' can you The Catholic Church cannot be delet me have immediately 100 nuns as nurses for the front?' After a moment's thought she realized she stroyed. Christ foretold that it would last until the end of time. Ite memies may hurt some of its mem could do as he desired, and forthwith bers, but they cannot exterminate it t was arranged that they were to They can hurt themselves worse than leave within a week. they can hurt it, and they can burt the tidings of peace to men of good will rang through the world on the first Christmas night, so their echo rings through the world on each succeeding anniversary; and men's hearts, be they sinless or sinful, vibrate in answer to its message. Christmas joy is God's Christman gift to the world. His reminder of the birthday of His Son.-J. Harding Fisher, S. J., in America.

A LONG LINE OF BATTLE

In Europe, says Archbispop Glennon, there is a battle line which is 150 miles long, but in this country there is a battle line which extends all across the continent. On one side of it is the Catholic Church; on the other side are immorality, infidelity, injured.

bigotry and prejudice. In this war weapons worse than any used in the conflict in Europe, are employed— foul lies, vile inventions, rotten im putations, unscrupulous actions, and liness; for is not Christmas nigh with all its incentives to generous feeling and gracious behavior. It is true that we have fallen upon days when sceptics deny and cynics deride the exclusive claim of Christian tradition. Nevertheless the spiritual foundation stands firm ; the chemists labora ory, the reformers rite, the historians study, the lecture room of the pessimistic professor of Comparative Religions leave uninjured the deeper grounds of faith. Anticipations and echoes only vary the appeal of the sublime narrative. Ancient Hebraism embodied the everlasting Gospel in the name "Immanuel." It is the voice of humanity's heart speaking in many dialects and the annual festival only emphasizes its message. The modern Gospel concerns itself with living rather than with dying. Ruskin was fond of showing that the manger and the guest chamber and the various miracles together with the gifts of loaves and fishes and especially the Being known to the disciples in the break ing of bread implied that other world liness but slightly occupied the master's mind : that religion was chiefly concerned with the life that now is : that Divine Charity sought to remould men and women in its own likeness. Enough by way of reminder : let us come to the paramount obligations reinterpreted now as the glorious privilege of all who name the name of Him whose life and work are the inspiration of Christmastide. First we shall do well to renew our own strength at the springs of power, that we may be able children, they are the pitiful victims of social neglect in which we are all involved. The least we can do to batter their lot is to minister to needs which lie on the surface, has been related by a correspondent affording them glimpses of the brighter destiny we ourselves have in view, kindling a little wholesome ambition to escape from the evils they know and feel, making them, if but for a day, discontented with sordid surroundings and degrading conditions. The heights are many and various. Who know show near to commenced, shots were heard. Heaven a child's thoughts may reach The German troops who occupied the place had seen figures stealthy by way of "the Stairway of Surprise?"

approaching the sleeping village, and taking these to be a Belgian patrol Wherefore let us take an indulgent at once opened fire upon them. As a view of even the humblest efforts to matter of fact, they were their own people. In order to extricate themglorify the season of goodwill by giving joy and good cheer to the selves from the dilemma into which their foolishness had placed them, little ones who often pine for need. the German soldiers explained to ful sympathy and help, keeping in their officers that the shots had been mind that trivial attentions and fired by the village inhabitants. A thoughtful remembrances are often captain who was in command immed iately ordered five of the villager worth more than costly benefactions from their houses, choosing these at random and without further ado had where no kindness is." Bestow gifts where they will go farthest them placed against a wall and shot. One would have thought that this and count for most. It will enhance would have, for the time, ended the and refine your own happiness troubles of this ill fated community gladden the hearts of the worn out but, unfortunately, the next night the world weary, the wayward. Wel the same thing happened. This time come into your heart and home the it was impossible to verify whether the soldiers had again shifted the Divine Christ-Child Who identifies responsibility for the shooting of their comrades upon the shoulders of the luckless civilians, or whether Himself with "the least, of these." Then you may with modest confid ence look for a Happy Christmas and some relation of those who had been so ruthlessly executed the night bea Glad New Year.

IN THE STABLE

secutors. The result was the same. The captain made all the notabilities Midway between the centuries is to play our part worthily in the the crib of Bathlehem. On one side of the village assemble before him season of good will. Personality is the are years of desire and prayer : on and announc first example he had given them had prime source of influence, and unless the other side we see the Word made proved insufficient, he found himself we are deepened and enriched by Flesh glorified in His Church by the obliged to take even more severe service we are not likely to gain heroism of her children-the Church | measures.

AGED PRIEST DIES TO SAVE ized the whole celebration of Christ-INNOCENT MEN

fore, being goaded into fury, had sought revenge himself upon his per-

to them that as the

mas, it has thrown a veil over its supernatural character, it has not One of the most striking stories of made ready for the coming of the neroic abnegation in the present war Lord ; and as far as it is concerned, the holy night will come and the holy day will go unheeded. mans had occupied, abandoned and

And yet even the cold heart of th reoccupied a village in the vicinity of Spa, Belgium. When night ap proached, the terrified inhabitants world loses some of its chill on Christmas morning. The sunshine of the presence of Jesus thaws the world's shut themselves up in their house seeking as far as possible to avoid giving any trouble to the soldiers of icy rigor, and its soul comes forth from the prison of selfishness, and grievously those persons, who, befor a day, at least, is more like the heart of the Saviour. It has not, in he enemy which could be used as a cause of retaliation. Despite their forts, when the night had barely deed, the fulness of the glories of

> of its sweetness. For the gift of peace is so bountiful that it over cause of their charges, false stories sermons and publications, are turned gainst the Church and die outside of its fold .- Catholic Columbian. God given Christmas peace, only to men of good will has this been prom-ised, but it has, nevertheless, a taste THE DIFFERENCE

Nothing, perhaps, shows the quality flows from the Church out into the four quarters of the earth. On Christmas morning Christ does not of the converts to the Church and the difference between them and the perverts to the sects than the atti-tude of each toward the ecclesisstical insist too literally on the meaning of good will; even in those who are not right with God. He finds someorganization which he has forsaker thing at least of what He demands. nd his treatment to those who renain members of that organization He seems to look less to men's sins than to their good deeds, less to their The whole world knows with what kindly charity the ex priests and the malice than to their frailty. And so in His great goodness He gives even to them some of the great joy that ex nuns treat the Church of their birth. There is nothing too vile to He gives to His friends. Even Christ's enemies are happier at say of it or of its priesthood and Sis-ters. For a few paltry dollars, these Christmas than at any other time of miserable wretches will travel the the year. They are happy because all men are happy at Christmas, and country pouring forth a stream of filth and calamny and delighting those whose hearts are as foul a all men are happy at Christmas, because Christmas is Christ's birinday their own putrid imaginations.

and Christ is the brother of all men. But how different the attitude of a Newman, a Manning, a Faber, a Bay ley, a Mother Seton, a Doane, a Ben Everywhere there is joy on Christmas day. It is a time when the heart forgets its envy and kindles with kindness, when bitterness turns -of the thousands of earpest con verts, holy men and women who through high and conscientions o ashes and the embers of charity motives and convictions have entered flame forth afresh, when sympathy and gentleness and compassion the Church ! Thinking men cannot soothe and chasten the spirit. The fail to mark the fine quality of these influence of Christianity is still too strong for those who would drive the sincere converts who retain only affection and respect for their old friends, though their conscience has t Jesus from the world. Even those who hate Him are better for His coming. In spite of sin and God. wickedness Bathlehem's cave still stirs the souls of men. And yet it is Oklahema, looking out upon the Church Progress. led them to the altar of the living

"If he could, Kitchener of Khar-toum would have nuns only as wan nurses, having the highest opinion of them in such capacity.'

This must prove a delectable morsel for the blatant bigots who are denouncing the Catholic Sisterhoods. At any rate, it will help to counteract the effect of some of the oisonous vomit of the unfortunate individuals who are suffering from anti-Catholic convulsions.—St. Paul Bulletin.

There are now 700,000 Belgian refugees in England and 25,000 more are expected in a few days. All have combined to give them welcome, and it is refreshing to find the charity displayed toward them by non Cath-Many Anglican and Dissenting churches are supporting a hote entirely among their own congregation, and in most cases have invited the local priest to visit the Belgians. Some clergymen, too, with roomy rectories are giving hospitality to amall families. Both universities, Cambridge and Oxford, have issued an invitation to all Belgian students, not only from Louyain but from other universities, to come to them. They will provide not merely the mental hospitality required but also the physical needs of impoverished students. On Nov. 15th, there will be a great gathering of these people at Westminster Cath edral, for on that day Cardinal Bourne has conceived the happy

The Rev. Hugh F. Lilly, O. P., the oldest member of the Dominican Order in the United States in point of service, died Dec. 3, in his seventy-fifth year at Columbus, Ohio, ef pneumonia, which followed an accilent of a week ago. For many years Father Lilly was prominently identiled with the missionary work of the Deminicans, making his headquar-ters in New York. He had much to do with building up the work of the Dominicans in this country. Born in Ireland, Father Lily made his college studies at Memphis, Tenn. The Civil War was in progress when be started for the nevitiate of his order, and he was arrested on his way to Springfield, Ky, the military authorities mistaking his celesias-tical letters of introduction for important military documents. Father Lilly brought to this country the Rev. Tem Burke, the famous Irish preacher.

TWO

SO AS BY FIRE BY JEAN CONNOR

CHAPTER XVI THE JUDGE'S SWEETHEART

Through the great picture hall with its rows of portraits, past the stately stretch of drawing rooms and library, Leigh led his bewildered guest. Late as was the hour there was light and warmth everywhere at was light and warmth everywhere at Rosecrofte to night, even down in the kitchen, where old Aunt Dill croaked and groaned over the wide hearth, and the servants, gathered in solemn expectancy, talked of the "old Marse" who was passing away. While up in her own room beautiful Miss Nellie was being warmed and coddled into safety under Aunt Van's ender care. The wide dining-room with

The wide anning-food with the crimson hangings, its gleaming silver and glass, was a cherry shelter. A log fire leaped and crackled on the spacious hearth, and lit with ruddy spacious hearth, and its with rundy glow the life sized portrait above, that only to day had been unpacked from its wrappings and lifted into place. Mr. Leigh's guest stood dumb before it. It was a girl in the full before it. It was a girl in the full bloom of life and loveliness, her arms full of roses. The graceful figure in its exquisite gown was strange to Mr. Mills, but the turn of the head, the red gold hair, the eyes, the wonder-ful sea-gray eyes, held him mute and

"Her picture !" And there was omething in the judge's tone that struck like a death.pang through Daffy's heart. "It took the prize at Daffy's heart. the Paris Salon last year, and has just come home. It is a wonderful likeness.

wonderful likeness, indeed! A wonderrul intenses, integer Through all the glamour of gown and jewels and flowers, Daffy could see the girl in the old gray sweater, the sharp-tongued starveling of the Road House, the little gray eyed girl seated on his scapbox. It was Weasel, Weasel, his Weasel !

Weasel, his Weasel! One thought alone stood clear in the mad whirl of his brain, the surge of his blood, the leap of his heart. If she had reached this, this, no word or glance from him should drag her down. He caught up the silver-mounted decanter that Leigh had put on the table beside him, and, nouring out a drink that made his pouring out a drink that made his host start, swallowed it at a draught. It steadied him.

It steadied him. "Your, your sweetheart, I take it, Judge?" he found voice to say. "My sweetheart; yee, Mills, my wife, I hope and trust in a not far future. As you've told me your heart story, I don't mind telling you mine. That little girl is the one woman in all the world to me, Mills, and you know what that means."

and you know what that means." "I know, I know!" repeated Daffy, huskfly. "Judge, it don't seem as if I did know anything clear to night. Your sweetheart, is it Judge? And how, how do you name her ?" "Elinor Randall," answered Leigh.

"Her grandfather wished her name, though she is really Elinor Kent."

light fell upon Daffy. Elinor Kent The name he had himself carved pitifully on the wooden tablet over the grave under the old yew that any one who sought the dead girl might gaining life and spirit in the Randall had died in the Road House !

loud way, 'Who're you ?' over to a corner and jammed him just what you would call a highof a stern and aged father, a gentle mother, an attractive darghter and a high spirited son who has just at tained his majority." (Michael did in the year that I was there. The the doomed train! It was Weasel, with cheerful blaze to night and in died-was killed somehow. Mills had the priest with me until I found out whether it would be safe for him to be there. So I said, "Who's sick those conditions. the chintz-cushioned chair be fore it was a slender figure gowned sharp, keen witted, starving Weasel who had stolen here in the dead girl's always chokes up when he comes to Lord ! The pluck of it, the grit of it, the mad daring of it ! Though a pang flerce as that of the Spartan boy when his vitals were rended ton that, and can't go on. But there's those conditions. "Well, the poor kid, between sob comething great in that fellow's conest love for the poor little beggar. here; what's the matter ?' worst of them all was a Jew gunwink a little here; but perhaps it "At that the man before me began was from eye-weariness.) "All goes well in the homestead until a bold bing and crying and shivering and toter who was called, in that no has really taken all the glow out to get over his scare of me and he laughing, got off the greatest tale you talked more easy. 'Oh, there's a ever listened to. He said that he and borhood, 'Rat Kelly.' I don't know where the Kelly part of the name came from : but 'Rat' suited him fine. He had a sharp yellow face of his good fortune, that he can not fling the fast coming dollars at her feet. He wouldn't ask a word or ever listened to. He said that he and talked more easy. 'Oh, there's a woman in childbirth here.' he said. young squire from a neighboring boy when his vitals were rended tore at Daffy's faithful heart, he vowed to his wife had been living in a small lemesne begins to make advances to been knotted into a loose coil, the young head lay back on the flowered room on the top of that I'm a doctor and there is a neightene the daughter of the house. He meet himself to stand by and give no sign. ook from her, he said, only to see ment where we were then in the cel-lar of it. He had been a ribbon bor-woman here. Who sent you with instant favor from the girl and ushion, the gray eyes stared drear her happy—this poor little girl who never had any chance. Why, the fine fellow actually offered me his whole and yellow fang teeth and eyes like shoe buttons. When I first seen him Again he took up the decanter an here and what do you want ?' with utter discouragement amount poured out a draught that seemed What was coming to her? The girl did not know. She sat there dully awaiting her fate. Even the ilv into the open fire. shoe buttons. When I first seen him playing pinochle with a couple of pokes in a drink place, he already maker or some such fool thing, and had been out of a job for a month. ing on one occasion, to a physical re-buff, from the old father." (Many a physical rebuff, Michael had admin-"I ran back and called the little only water to his parched throat, his Father and brought him over to the patent if I'd help him to get her He was warned and warned to pay his rent and they were both put out burning veins. "Here's to her, Judge, then! people near the lantern. I heard a had three notches on his gun-all chaps that had belonged, before he father out. It seems the poor wretch is dying in prison, and Mills is ready lot of voices say 'Priest !' as he came Here's to your sweetheart, and to you." He lifted the glass with a river was frozen against her to-night istered in his day, I'll warrant, but of their room a week before by the brute that owns them houses. The -there could be no rest in its gleam. plugged them, to the River Gang; and them fellows you know are alhe had evidently not thus named them.) "The inevitable happens: up and I heard very plain a man's voice crying and saying 'My God! give his last cent to set him free you." He shaking. shaking. "Here's, here's luck, and, and, love to you both. And though for that dead girl's sake." ing depths. girl was in no condition to walk Daffy! What Nemesis had brought Daffy to her side—Daffy, keen eyed, outspoken Daffy? What flery judg-ment had brought Daffy to bear wit ways scrapping with the Gas House the girl and the squire elope and How did he find us !' A strange, low cry startled the lownstairs, much less go out looking the old man curses her and shouts I'm off to my own hills in a day or "Well, the doctor spoke a few for a room on no money; and the two of them drifted down into that crowd. speaker. His listener had slipped down on her knees, her face buried two now, and ain't likely to ever out his hopes that her shadow will words to him and then when the "That was Spring or Summer when bother you again, Judge, I'd sort of like it when everything is settled "That was Spring or Summer when I seen him first. Along towards Fall a kill was made down town on the East Side and Kelly was blamed for it by everyone, but the bulls didn't seem to want him just then and he never darken his threshold again. n the cushions of her chair. priest slipped his purple stole over rotten cellar where a Dago used to ness to her living lie? The end had come, as she felt it must. There his shoulders everybody stepped back Dearest, Nellie, dearest !" he And then-'He was a hard old cuss, wasn't keep junk shop. between to have you tell her my putting his arm tenderly I then saw that there was another Now the funny part of it is that cried, was but one dull hope flickering in the blackness, that the old man dy. he ?" said Michael in almost an adman there beside the doctor. I asked as soon as they got into the cellar a horrible looking gink with a white little girl's story, Weasel's story Judge. Tell her how lonely she wa Weasal's story around her. "Oh I can bear it no longer-no the doctor if the child was born yet miring tone. "Yes," I answered, considerably Judge. Tell her how lonely she was and how pitiful, and how hard everying in yonder room might never know-that in mercy he might never never even took the trouble to hide. and he said yes, but he told me that longer !" she cried. "Allston, Alls face and a snarling mouth jumps up cheered by his strained attention, "and in the midst of his trouble his thing went agin her. You couldn' the mother was near death. 'That's the husband,' he said, pointing at Take it from me, Father, he was the know-that in mercy he might never know. Then suddenly a quick foot-step sounded behind her a tender voice called her name, and Allston Leigh, with all his soul shining in out of the rags and pulls a gun on on, worst man that ever lived, that chap them and begins squealing that he'd her for nothing, Judge, you But Aunt Van's voice at the door the other man who I could see be-tween me and the light, crying into high spirited son disgraces him couldn't blame poor little Weasel for doing nothing that would change her hard luck. She was up against it arrested the wild words on the girl's He had a reputation for being treach drop them if they come any nearer. (forges a cheque or something of that sort, you know) and after a stormy scene with the old gentleman and an erous that would have made the Apostle Judas look like a saint if you lips. "Nellie, your grandfather is call "Of course it was Rat Kelly, hidhis own hands like a woman, 'And the mother is lying on a bale of rags ing; but they didn't know that or know him from Peter McGinn, and his eyes, was kneeling at her feet. from the time she was born. Yes. his eyes, was kneeling at her feet. Life, love, safety again ! Life, love, safety ! In the wild rapture of her re-lief all lesser doubts vanished. He was pleading with her, the one man she had loved all these glittering, mocking years, the man she had loved form the fast began to compare the two. He was mean and low. He was a gonoph ing for you, dear child." affecting parting with his mother he there.' To tell you the truth, I could Jadge, I'd like that beautiful lady up after a while he found this out, and TO BE CONTINUED leaves the homestead too." not see even the doctor, much less there to know about my poor little girl that died, Judge, that was killed, and a sneak that nobody would trust; Well, what d'ye know about that !" he found out some other things, too, the woman for the lantern, hapging and nobody would have ever gone and he told them they could stay in exclaimed Michael, his eyes shining from the rafters was burning very near him at all, except that when he had a shot of coke in him, which was the cellar if they kept on one side and didn't bother him (all he wanted was POWER OF THE CONFESSIONAL low. Well the doctor gassed on a I'll tell her, Mills," answered with interest. with interest. "Now all this, you understand," I continued," happens as a prelude to the real story. Several years roll by and misfortunes fall thick and fast lot about the danger of her taking Leigh, wondering a little at the strange earnestness of the request, but concluding that the liquor Mills most of the time, he was loose with his money, and a lot of his 'friends' The Ave Maria, quoting from the room to work a coke gun on him. blood poisoning, I think, but I was watching and listening all the time loved from the first. "Sweetheart, you will listen, you will give that noble old man dying New York Independent, attributes the following statement to the late Miss Frances Willard : self, anyhow.) used to gather around him then to "Well, the boy spoke of the hos-pital, but the girl had the Irish fear to know if the priest was coming of if I was wanted by him. But he didn't call me, though he did had quaffed recklessly had gone to his head and loosened his honest tongue. "It's a story of simple, faithhelp him count it. on the venerable couple in the old in there this last happiness ? He "Well, it come about this time of home. Nothing has been heard from either of their children ; the wolf of knows me, he trusts me, I have been of it in her and wouldn't give in, and "I am a Protestant, but there is no " I am a Protestant, but there is no blinking this fact : the Catholics are, in this country and in England and in Ireland, ahead of us in social purity. You can take a Protestant family into a London slum and put them into a room at the right hand top of the stairs, and then put a Catholic family on the other side of the stairs, and you will find after two, three or four years, half of the the year, and another poor devil was leaded, at the Brooklyn sugar wharfs ngue. the two of them were about as fit for almost like a son to him-let him call the man who was crying in his ful love that will touch her heart as hands. He went over under the light and for a few minutes I could bless our love before he goes." the duties of parents as ordinary tenpoverty is howling at their door and a big mortgage which has been hang this time, and there was head-lines an inch high in the papers next morn-ing saying that the police knew that Rat Kelly was the guy that did it. it has touched mine." How the deep music stirred the chilled blood in her heart ! And she "I ain't looking for that, Judge," said Daffy, huskily. "Though the year olds would be. see the young priest talking fast to him and him nodding his head like a ing over them for years is about to be foreclosed on them and the date "So that awful night came on them faithful love is there, as you say-nothing can kill it, nothing in life or death. If Weasel wasn't dead had struggled against this strong, sweet call so long—she had striven to put land and seas, even the gilded in a hurry, and if you will believe me Father, they was both so unready of the foreclosure has been arranged by the hard hearted landlord to fall Chinese doll. Then he must have nothing can kill it, nothing in life or death. If Weasel wasn't dead, Judge, if she was living, I'd stand by her through thick and thin, Judge, though I never got a look or a word for it. I'd stand by her, no matter what she did," and Daffy rounded out his explanation with a pression "Well, he made a get away, just as quick and as complete as he was wanted to do by them higher up I guess knelt down beside the bed because that there wasn't even a little shirt or pants laid by for the poor kiddy if oll that I could see was the priest standing underneath the light readfetters of a loveless betrothal be tween her and Allston Leigh, all in on exactly the day after Christmas of it did come ! I could have choked him when he told me that, but his that very vear. two, three or four years, half of the girls of the Protestant family have gone to the bad, and all the members and for a long time we had daily news of how he was heard of in this place vain. To night she was weak and shaken, bewildered by the horrors of ing something out loud from his book. The Father then turned to us and called out for the doctor and Well that Christmastide, believe neck wasn't really the kind you like me, Michael, is not to be like the one and chased out of that and supposed to choke. . . Well, about 10:15 that night, things began to happen we are entering upon now. The gales of the north, in this one, shall death and darkness and danger Heaven closed against her impeni to be in another—but they never told of getting him. out his explanation with a passion ate oath that made his hearer start. of the Catholic family have retained tence. Faith, hope, all things sweet, their virtue."

"Now, I'm going, Judge. No, I couldn't stay," as Leigh ventured a remonstrance. "I just couldn't stay to-night. I've got to get out again into the storm. It's good night, Judge, and good luck to you and holy, divine, denied-only love was holy, divine, defined—bity love was left—this human love, that she must blind, deceive to the end. As Allston Leigh's wife there could be no retrac-tion—she must live a lie to the last. But all the light, mocking strength that had upheld her was gone. Without, the storm raged, the wind shrieked, the snow drifts swept over Judge, and good luck to you and your sweetheart — to you and to her." And Daffy, who had reached the front door while he was speak-ing, wrung Leigh's hand in a mighty grip and strode out on the porch, sprang into his sleigh, and dashed off into the storm. How or where he went he never knew—the rest of that wild night was a hideous blur of snow and sleet and darkness, of rose bower and rose garden ; with-out, the shadow of death lay in out, the shadow of death isy in heavy gloom-there seemed no light in heaven or on earth but the glow of this fireside where love was plead-ing. Her whole heart was crying that wild night was a hideous blur of snow and sleet and darkness, of sweeping drifts and shrieking wind, through which one picture flamed fire lit before his mental vision. The Judge's sweetheart, the girl with the red gold hair, the sea gray eyes, who had been borne away from the little mountain under Daffy's own despairing saze more than two surrender, but she started to he feet, pale, trembling, desperate, mak ing a last stand against herself and

ent 1

"I have warned you, I have warned you !" she said, in a quivering voice. "I am not good and true like Milly. I am strange and wayward and—and different." own despairing gaze more than two years ago! He saw it all now-he "I know it," he answered. "It is

And while the mocking winds

the case to a finish for him-so ame in a strained tone.

years ago! He saw it all now-he saw it all. Weasel-Weasel, pale and pinched, hungry, starving Weasel, had reached out desperate hands for all that had been denied tor that I loveyou. You are yourself." "Myself!" she echoed. "Is it that self you love, really ? If I stood here before you to night poor, shabby, low-born like—like that poor Rachel hands for all that had been her-had srolen the dead girl's name and home and place. And he would Varney of whom you once told me-that girl whom the proud Randalls stand by her again and again, he swore it, as he sped on through the storm and darkness—he would stand 'You would still be the one woma in all the world to me," he answered. "My love—my wife." "You will dare it, then," she said, by Weasel's lie though his own faithful heart was rent in twain.

with a long drawn breath. Then her pale face kindled and she held out both hands to him. "Oh, love of my life, I—I will dare it, too !" As Leigh turned back into the hall after his parting with Mills, Madame Van came down the stairs. All the lines of age marked her fine old face to night; her eyes were dim with shrieked around the gables of the old manor, while the great oaks that ears.

"The Judge is sinking fast, Allhad guarded Rosecrofte for a hun-dred years seemed to sway appealing Thank God the priest has Father Martin is ill with the ston. arms to the midnight sky, while ome. grip, but happily Father Lane was down at St. Barnabas' for a short Roger Randall lay semi-conscious in visit, and he came on horseback brough the storm. 'And Nellie ?" asked Allston eager

"She has recovered completely side. but is dreadfully nervous and shaken the storm," he said. "There was Allston, that girl's heart is yours, I know. Your name was on her lips note in your voice as we wandered out there in the snow-drifts that know. know. Your name was on her hips as she returned to consciousness. And ob, I wish—I wish that her grandfather could know that all was settled between you before he goes. made me wish that we could be wanderers forever. But it was surely your good angel that sent Mills on your track. He told me this evening, just before the death stroke fell, that he would in a low voice. rather give her to you than to any nan on earth.

"Dear old man, would to God that he might leave us with his dying blessing," said Allston, with emotion. "Let me see her, let me plead with her, Aunt Van. Of late, I have had tope that-

Hope!" repeated Aunt Van. have surety that she loves you, All ston. I know how to read a girl's heart. Come. She is up in the sittingroom waiting for a summons to her grandfather's dying bed. He is sleep ing fitfully now. Go to her, Allston; she will listen to you to night, I know Leigh sprang up the stairs like a boy. He knew the sitting room of Rosecrofte well. It was in the old wing of the house-the original manwainscotted walls, the small, deepset windows belonged to a genera tion long gone by. Here were gathered pathetic relics of the wife were

THE CATHOLIC RECORD

RAT KELLY KICKS IN ON CHRISTMAS EVE

By The Rev. Thomas Scanlar His Lordship the Chauffeur, dappe as an army officer and quite as well set up physically, left his seat of duty in the big steamline greyhound that had come to a stop before the church door, and came smilingly across the lawn to greet me (I was sitting at the time at an open window on the ground-floor of the rectory.) The sunlight flashed on the visor of the smart cap which he lifted in salute as he appeared, and gleamed in pleas-ant high lights from his polished boots and puttees. And upon the breast of his grey-blue uniform there was black braid in quantity to excite the envy, I am sure, of any Hungar an Orchestra leader. In his blue eyes there was sunlight too, or whatever that glow can be called which Celtic geniality enkindles in the windows of its posses-sor's soul ; and his cheeks were rosy despite the housing of plate glass wind shields which enclosed the migratory work-shop from which he had just emerged. Good morning, Father," said he.

striding up to the window ledge and grasping my hand with one that had peen calloused and strengthened by years, I knew, of "gear strippin'" on many different kinds of motor cars.

"'Tis a high morning; isn't it ?" he continued cordially. And verily to this statement there could be no response save assent, for we were then being blessed by almost June like weather in the very heart of the month of December. So-"It is that indeed, Michael." said I, "high and clear, and but little like the weather that a man would be needing for the work that I am at now." I flourished his splendid chamber, while Father Lane and Dr. Vance kept anxious watch near, Allston Leigh sat in a work that I am at now." I hourished some pencilled pad sheets before him. "Think of the superhuman difficulty Michael," I said, " of writing a Christ-mas story on a day like this ! Why that green lawn and this sun-warmed breeze are enough to drive a writer dream of rapture at his sweetheart' "A light broke upon me to night in into a fine epic frenzy on Spring Don't you think so yourself, Michael?"

I asked with unsmiling solemnity. "Well," he replied, scratching the top of his head dubiously, "I suppose you would be having trouble writing about snow and sleigh-bells and Santy Claus, now. But why don't your Reverence write about a Green "He did not come in ?" she asked. Only for a moment. I made him bristmas take a drink before he ventured out into the storm. A fine fellow, a regu-lar rough diamond. He has made a Precisely because nobody want to read about one," I replied. And, besides, I've got a story all thought pile of money out of a machine for out that needs snow and wintry winds and bitter weather for its crushing stone. Some scoundrels tried to steal his patent, and I fought background. Would you like to hear its plot ?" I asked. feels he is under undying obligations

"Well-yes," responded Michael in a tone that was a most humanly "He—he lives near ?" the question natural mixture of reluctance and resignation." That is, if your Rev. 'Oh, no, out in his own mountains erence pleases and it it is not too As keen, hard headed a fellow as I He glanced across at the ever saw. Has only one soft spot for which we should feel sympathy to night — his sweetheart, who is long ?" He glanced across at the church door. "I am waiting for the little lady "(that was his employer's wife)" she has gone to say the beads, I think, and will be out again in a few dead, and whom he mourns with a simple fidelity that is touching in minutes.'

such a rude, strong fellow. He got on the subject to night as he stood Then I lightly explained that the over towards one corner behind a big pile of junk, of some sort, I saw a light. I told the priest to stand on the stairs and I went over slowly holding a beer bottle that I had "I looked at the whole thing for a or of Colonial days, which had a simple, homely charm the later edi-fice lacked. The low ceiling, the Elinor Kent! And then blinding before your picture." "My-my picture!" she gasped. "Yes. He was struck by it, of course, as every one high or low is. And I suppose it brought back his revealing of a story plot was not an excessively time consuming opera-tion and proceeded forthwith to prove few minutes (the neighbor woman the eviction of them people in Eng. land made me think of it. You know was dozing against the rags and the doctor was gone) and d'ye know, Father, that I'm blessed if I didn't bemy assertion. "My plot, I wish to confide to you, Michael," I said, "is picked up, as a club, and expecting, I tell you the truth, Father, to be Father, that I was driving a taxical gin to blubber up, too. Just like that poor boob of a husband I was an entirely new and original one. It is a striking idea that I have thought out myself. I believe it will make a It in New York City two years ago, and own love story. Such a poor, pitiful a man at the wheel of one of them. rained any minute from behind or love story as it was, dear—and yet somehow Mills tells it with a rude know. Elinor Kent! Elinor Kent! sees and hears a good many things, I'm thinking that he wouldn't want ever to be talking about; but this from the darkness on both sides of getting to be! I turned around mighty quick, and with that, himself hood and the motherhood of the past —sewing table and work basket, and The rich, full liquor that had be wonderful story. . . . In the first place you must imagine an old homesomenow mile tens it with a rate eloquence that grips the heart. The girl—she had a queer name—Birdie, Bunny, no, Weasel—that was it— Weasel. She was a little stunted, me. "But nothing happened and as l came down the cellar stairs with a bottle of something the doctor had -sewing table and work bases, and writing deak. A toy-house in the far corner, the tiny rocking chair which the baby Nellie had called her own. The brick chimney place where, in later years, Allston Leigh and Milly Randall had roasted chestcellars for fifty years was quickening Daffey's dull brain into keen life, Elinor Kent! The forgotten girl who got nearer the light I saw what looked at first to be a big crowd of people sitting around and talking in whisstead situated in the midst of a bleak well it's a bit different from the rest. told him to get at the corner drug English moor " (that bleak moor " go by " Michael I am certain ; but he did "When I was driving for the Black store. He gave it to the neighbor half starved thing, as I judge, whose very forlornness won Mills' big heart. Taxi Company, I lived at the time in the old gas house district at the foot of Seventeenth street. That's not woman and then I collared him and pers. I went near them and a man The fierce old catamount of a not blink an eyelid and so I went on without pause). "In this old home-Her father was in prison—and she had never any show at all. And she stead there dwells a family consisting hauled him, shaking like a chicken jumped up before me and said in a grandmother, who would have no and Milly Randall had roasted chest-questions asked, the sudden flight in nuts and popped corn, was ruddy have been blowing furiously for a week before Christmas and the snow is to be piled in huge impassible drifts across the entire countryside. The icy wind whistles and shrieks in the gables of the old homestead and fights against the feeble warmth within which comes from a pitiably small log fire over which the two old folks are crouphing as the derivation I was living then, as I say, near the foot of Seventeenth street and I steyed there most of all because I wanted to help out with a little board-money an old widow that had came as a lass from the same part of Cavan as my mother. But that is neither here nor there. What I wanted to say was that there is a row of tenements there and my lodgings was in one of them. The folks are crouching as the darkness sets in on Christmas Eve. They have been discussing the coming mislodgings was in one of them. The day before Christmas came around and I found myself by the lots that we cast, scheduled for the noon to-midnight duty shift. I went up to the garage at noon for my car and was out from then until near eleven fortune of their eviction on the day after what they believe will be their last Christmas in the ancient home, and the old man has just risen with the sad remark, It's a wild night on the moor, Nell; I wonder where our that night bringing the shoppers to the stores in the morning and the usual sky,larkin' bunch at night to wandering bairns may be-" when the sound of jingling sleigh-bells in the lobster joints on Broadway. But along about eleven there came a lull and I took the chance to drive over the lobster joints on Broadway. borne to their cars above the whistl-ing of the winds ; the doors burst open and into the room rush the long-lost prodigals, their daughter followed by her handsome husband on the jump to my room at the widow's to get my mocassins, for it was a bitter cold night and my feet carrying a chubby infant ; their son was a bitter cold night and my feet were freezing to the pushes. "I got the shoes and pulled them on in a hurry and was beating it out to my cab again when a kid about waving a cheque for £5,000 not forged this time, but genuine and ufficient to pay the mortgage debt many times over. Then the ten years old comes up to me on the run and shoves a folded paper in my hand and then scoots like a bucko up the street. I stood there foolish, looking first at the thing in my hand night chimes are heard faintly peal ing from the village church spire as the old man relents and falls weep ing into his son's and daughter's arms. Now Michael, what do you think of that ?" I asked, as modestly

s I could. My listener drew a long breath and gazed across at the church door "It's good," said he, " but is it true D'ye know, Father, that I sometimes there was writing which said 'A Catholic dying in the cellar of 500 E think that half them things are made up?

This was staggering. "Why, of course ! They're all 'made up.'" "I replied sharply. "You never did replied sharply. "You never did hear a true Christmas story, I'm willing to wager. I mean a real story of Christmas, with a good plot and interest and beauty and romance in it, which was at the same time a true They just don't happen, that tory. is all.

Michael's eyes twinkled and a slight flush appeared beneath them. "'Tis not I, Father," he said almost shyly, eilent and dark as a grave and I felt pretty bad about dragging the young priest out of bed who did answer the bell, but I tell you the smoke-esters have nothing on him for getting dressed in a hurry. Why before I should be asking you to remember that we have wan true Christmas story at any rate. Of course I mean the story of the first Christmas. Father."

I bowed my head. "But apart from that," I persisted (my vanity as a fictionist having been wounded) "apart from that, I'll warrant you seemed to me, he was out through a back door and was diving into the vestry entrance of the Church. minute he came out again with his right hand held up at his breast. I knew what that meant of course, have never heard a good Christmas tale with a real Christmas atmos phere to it that was the story of a get in, with my hat off. I drove true occurrence. Now be honest have you? You have lived almost him at the front of the tenement in a half century now, tell me did you jiffy. "Now a cabby is not supposed f ever live through a single Christi ncident worthy of the name of a Christmas story ? He shook his head disconsolately and said, "Well, no, Father, not exactly, except-

Come ! out with it ; what was the exception ?" I demanded.

"Well it isn't a story and I don' think you could find one of them plots in it. Its only something that at first, to our eyes, all dark. I know that did happen and it happen ed on Christmas, and your Reverence speaking about Christmas and about over, and I tell you I felt pretty cheap standing there alone, bu found out in a few minutes that priest did not know I was in the cel-lar; he thought I had gone back to the cab to wait for him.

DECEMBER 26, 1914

Well after a bit I heard the queen est conglomeration of crying and laughing, and giggling you ever listened to. I did not know who was doing it all until I saw that poor fool of a husband coming out with the little priest and mauling him all over like a puppy dog. The priest was smiling too, and we three went to the sidewalk leaving the doctor and the woman with the new mother "When we got out in the air and under a street-lamp I had a good look at that husband and I saw then that he was only a boy about twenty with a little chin and round eyes like a girl's. He had had an awful lot to say to the priest and he said it sometimes crying and sometimes beating his thin hands together and laughing and jumping up and down like you've seen them school girls do when there's candy coming. Of course I didn't butt in, though I was mighty curious to hear from some of the things that I had heard the young fellow let drop; but after a while I saw the priest look at the poor shiver-ing kid and then do a very nice and then at him and finally I brought it over and looked at it by the light thing. He took the lap-rug out of the cab and put it around the young of one of the cablamps. It was a scrap of paper with a ten-dollar bill folded in it and across the paper chap's shoulders and he said to I'll nay for it. They need it, the two of them, badly enough, God knows.' "Well, I took the Father to the ectory then and of course I managed Eighteenth street. Bring a priest in to pull away from the curb just when he began handing over the payment for the rug. I yelled back at him that I could get a reduced rate on it the taxi quick, hurry up, don't wait." "I knew that that number and that I could get a reduced rate on it charged to my pay envelope if I told the company it had been stolen— which it certainly was, wasn't it? "But after leaving the priest home I knew it was nearly mitricit house was only around on the next block and at first I was going to take the risk of going around to investi-gate; then I thought, what's the use of that and I cranked her up and shot the gas into her at law-breaking limit until I pulled up at the Immaculate that my working time would so up; so I beat it around fast to the ten-Conception Rectory in Fourteenth street. Believe me, it looked as ment cellar again, for there was a silent and dark as a grave and I felt few things I wanted to know the rea son for. One of them was why that poor, crying simp was keeping that woman in a cellar and not in a hospital. "When I got there, there was quite an improvement in the place. Three lanterns instead of one, were hanging had the old boat turned around it up, and the smell of the doctor's drugs In a gave the air in the cellar a clean kind of a feeling anyhow. And then for the first time I saw the woman. She was Irish, a slip of a girl, black haired and a beauty. I didn't need three lanterns, let me tell your Reverence, to see that. Her eyes were closed, and I held the door open for him to careful and as fast as I could and had (he pointed to his own yellow eye lashes) "were lying like big black half-circles on her cheeks. Her face leave his machine you know, except to eat, while on duty. But I didn't was as white as the paper before you and at her bare breast was a little patch like the looks of things there and I wasn't going to let the soggarth run of black hair that I knew was the kid. any risks, so I stopped the motor and put the key in my pocket and led the And around the two of them-believe me that I didn't care whether I could way for him down into that awful get any reduced rate or when I saw it there-around the both of them cellar. It was terrible. It stunk of was that big warm cab-rug, covering them as well, if I say it myself, as an rotten rags and garbage and it was Irish mother's shawl would do it.

DECEMBER 26, 1914

and this poor chump lost his head entirely. All he could do was stand and weep into his hands! And who d'ye suppose showed up like an angel of God in that time, but that soum of all gun-showers, Rat Kelly! True as I'm standing here Father, all this happened. I'll leave you to figure it out. I believe myself that that rotten carceas of a man got a new soul put carcass of a man got a new soul put into him by God, for the occasion. Rat Kelly himself could never have Rat Kelly himself could never have acted as this new man acted. You'd have known that if you ever had known Rat. It seems that as soon as the woman and the man began to cry together he came yelling out at them to shut up—and he was waving a gun. But when he found out what may the matter he dranned the gun was the matter he dropped the gun and began burrowing into a box he had hid over in a corner. He gets out pencil and paper and writes two notes, quick. He put a ten dollar bill in each one. The first he gives to the husband; it was a doctor's ad-dress. The second he took away to some place himself and came back just ahead of the woman it brought.

"The doctor and the woman it brought the baby around, but the mother's case looked bad and when her noble husband found it out he wept big weeps and balled out something about her being a Catholic and dying without the sacraments. "Now Rat Kelly all this time was

Now has beily all this time was in the cellar, but of course he wasn't exactly showing himself off to the doctor and the neighbor woman. And when this word about the girl dying was given off, he climbed out, wrote another of his ten-dollar lined notes another of his ten-dollar inter hotes, came to the cellar-edge and grabbed a passing boy. He told the boy, I suppose, to give it to the driver of the first taxi-cab he would meet—and that was me. "But when he went down into the cellar again the Jew rat found out that his hole was taken by somebody that his hole was taken by somebody else. The doctor had carried the woman over to the place where he used to sleep, because it looked something more like a bed than the other spot did. So Kelly had to beat it out of the cellar—and out under the bright lights of Christmas Eve, too, which you may be sure he just did not want to do at that time.

"Now the father, God save the mark! of that sleeping baby told me all this, and he told me how the priest came too and how his wife had seemed to grow happy and begin to live again when she had received Communion and knew the kid was baptized.

And we called him John after me,' that young ass said with his voice in a high clutch, 'and oh, that's not all that the priest did for "Oh I know.' I yelled at him.

know all about it. He gave you the blanket and promised to get you out of here to morrow and get you a job and all that.'

"'Yes, but besides that, besides that, he, he, he......'" And do you know, Father," said

Michael ( just a trifle too solemnly to befit the twinkle in his eye), "that idiot drivelled and sniggered that and whistled away there for five min-utes, and I never did to this day find out from him what else it was that the young priest did for them that night !

Well, anyway: while I was getting all this news out of him between his cryings, a hell of rumpus started ( I beg your reverence's pardon but that was exactly what it was, a hell on earth it seemed as though it was let loose above us. I heard yelling and squealing and clubbing and I beat it up the steps three at a time, thinking of my cab being perhaps in the middle of it. And as come up Rat Kelly camedown-head first just like a rat, and for all that I know, dead before he ever reached the er, I Fact of the beside Jesus. He came across at the last minute too, you know. "The answers to them things, it seems to me, would be something that you writers might write some-thing about, eh, Father ? And find plots in them, too. And if—but there's my little lady, I hope she's given us a Hail Mary or two. She gets heard by God when she prays if anyone does. Good bye, your rever-ence." Before the war began there were numerous signs of a renascence of the Faith in France. (Mr. H. G. Wells, who almost alone among non-Catholic writers has a strong sense of fact, although his interpretation of facts will not always be acceptable to the Catholic mind, has recorded his own belief that a great revival of Catholicism will be among the most marked developments of the twen-tieth century.) In the face of such conspicuous conversions from in-fidelity as those of Paul Bourget

A dignified grey figure crossing the lawn; a muffied sound of gasoline exhaust; an almost inaudible shift-ing of gears and the grey car, himself and his "little lady" were gone. His long talk had, I admit, much distorbed my former line of thought and I had hard work getting back into it again. But by an effort at mental visualization with my eyes closed to

Huysmans, Brunetiére, Coppés, Retté, it was impossible to ignore the influence of the Church among litter-ateurs who a few years before were entangled in materialism or Eastern mysticism ; while an esthetic appreci ation of the Faith was a clear note in the verse and prose of the French visualization with my eyes closed to the actual view before me, I was able naturalist writers. Again one saw the resurrection of the Catholic to see again my bleak English moor piled high with eddying and drifting snow and the grey old homestead standing like a lone and ghostly thing spirit in the admissions of radical politicians that the attack on the Church had been barren of results, save that it had tended to strengthen and renew the Catholic body. These revlized their inability to dis-sociate the French mind from the moral demands of Christianity. in the fury of the storm. I began to write again-just at the place where I describe the old couple over the flickering fire. I haven't finished that story yet, but I'm going to do so Active anti-clericalism died about the year 1905. Moribund radical politicians did it is true, attempt to soon. It's a real Christmas story, even if, as Michael says, it is among the "half of them that are made up." revive the anti-Christian ardor of past years at the time of the Agadir crisis, against the advice of many of

Special to the RECORD NO ROOM IN THE INN Cold wind and rain and the night so dim, Did none befriend the Mother of

O cruel people of Bethlehem

Wearily down the street she passed. And every door was bolted fast, Knocking in vain at the very last.

Cheerful the lights through the case ment shone, But pitiless lips bade her begone, And she so weary and faint and wan.

The inns were full, and no place was there

For the lowly stranger young and fair.

No place save the manger bleak and bare. O would we had been in Bethlehem

For then indeed the Mother of Him Would not plead in vain with folks so grim.

But she comes again this Christman night,

And there is a place so clean and bright, The inn of our hearts, a chamber

white. -REV. D. A. CASEY, ("COLUMBA")

THE WAR

AND THE REVIVAL OF CATHOLI. CISM IN FRANCE

ago. Outside a village which never was famous for church going enthu-siasm, I chanced upon a game keeper As a spectator in Paris of the first two weeks of war I am left with the impression that one of the chief resiasm, I chanced upon a game keeper engaged in conversatiou with half-a-dozen soldiers bivouacking under a sults of the present conflict will be a great revival of Catholicism in railway bridge, a few miles north of Hirson, and he was just saying: "In

Of all the people in Europe the French are almost alone capable of our village there are no political parties; no Royalists, no Imperialrapid communal expression. That criticism of the democratic ideal which bases its case on the inability hets, no Radicals; everybody goes to Benediction at night." This was the plain truth, and it applied to all which bases its case on the inability of masses of men to express their collective will in an adequate man-ner, seems borne out by the greater part of modern European history. Yet the French nation by some oddity in her development gives this accusation the lie. That indescribthose parishes where a priest was left: everybody went to Benediction at night. The old Catholic feeling. which no amount of religious con troversy can kill, was alive every where. accusation the lie. That indescrib-able thing which differentiates one It seems to me impossible that those of the French nation who were shocked by the destruction of Rheime nation from another emphasizes in her case the fact that the strange force in Gaul, which has ever made

THE CATHOLIC RECORD

SOLDIERS' REQUIEM

On the frontiers of Alsace Lorraine near Gerbeviller, in a field where repose the mortal remains of three hundred French soldiers, Mass for the repose of their souls was recently celebrated by a soldier priest. Dis-tinguished Parisians assisted at the Mass, including Mile. Louis-Jaray and the more celebrated Maurice Barres. Sister Julie was there among the rough men who reverenced her and her assistant nuns for their heroic work in succoring the wounded. Hers is the only house in Gerbeviller not destroyed by the Germans during their tempor occupation of the village. She been mentioned in despatches for her heroic labors during the tragic days toward the end of August.-Translated from L'Illustration.

HOW A PRIEST DIED

Every village relates its tragic story. Some of these surpass the bounds of imagination by the re-Inement of cruelty which they dis close. At Voivre, for example, the Germans seized the parish priest accused of espionage because he had in his house a map planted with little flags which marked the hostile lines. They hauled him along the road, and announced that they were the keener minds of the movement ; about to shoot him. On their but that was a distinct failure. Thus they were seen by an old woman who at once interceded with the leader. before the war, the reappearance of the Catholic spirit in literature and She was apprehended to share the fate of the Cure. A little later an the effective pressure of the Cath-olic mass of the nation on the politiold man saw the cortege, and begge cians had opened the gates to the rising tide of the Catholic renascence hat the prisoners should be spare He in turn was seized, and all three What, then, of after the war ? were dragged outside the village and

To a person who witnessed, as the present writer did, the extraordinary told that they would be executed. The priest was placed standing between the two old people on their knees and they sang "Libera nos, Dominee. The squad fired but under orders to aim at only the priest. religious fervor in Paris at the com mencement of hostilities, not merely among ardent Catholics but among hose who had for many years neg lected their religious duties, it would The others were spared, the German seem impossible that there should be wishing to give an example of their reaction to indifferentism at the humanity.—Translated from L' Illus. cessation of hostilities. Mornings at tration. Mass, and afternoons spent in wandering through many churches in all quarters of the city, speedily brought me to the view I put forward : that this crisis has R. HUESTON & SONS hocked the French nation into a realization of the power of religion in moments of high tragedy. And if in moments of high tragedy, why not in those minor tragedies that crowd FINANCIAL even everyday life ? Nor do I think that these persona impressions of mine of great serv-ices at the Madeleine, the Sacre Coeur de Montmarte, play me false. I find that other witnesses support me. I quote from an article from the nen of an acute observer in a recent number of a prominent London

"To what extant the services attracted once rather slack congrega-tions I realized less than one month

weekly :

Livery and Garage. Open Day and Night. 479 to 483 Richmond St. 380 Wellington S Phone 423 Phone 441 THE ONTARIO LOAN & DEBENTURE COT Capital Paid Up, $1.750,000. Reserve $1.450,000 Deposits received, Debentures issued, Real Estat Loans made. John McClary, Pres.; A. M. Smart, Mgr Offices: Dundas St., Cor, Market Lane, London. PROFESSIONAL AND FOY, KNOX & MONAHAN Barristers, Solicitors, Notaries, &c

AUTOMOBILES, LIVERY, GARAGE

L J. J. Foy, K.C. A.E. Knox. T. Louis Mon E. L. Middeton George Reogh Cable Address := Foy Telephones (Main 794 Main 795

Offices: Continental Life Building CORNER BAY AND RICHMOND STREET

TOHN T. LOFTUS. BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, NOTARY, ETC. 712 TEMPLE BUILDING TORONTO Main 633 P. J. O'GORMAN

ARCHITECT Plans, Specifications, Betimates SUDBURY, ONT. FRANK J. FOLEY, L.L.B.

BARRISTER, SOLICITOR The Kent Building mer Yonge and Richmond Streets TORONTO, ONT,

Loretto Ladies' Business College 385 Brunswick Ave., Toronto MUSIC STUDIO ATTACHED

OUR Home Library 50c. Each

Free by Mail. Fifty Cents Per Volume Liberal Discount to the Reverend Heart Review). TEARS ON THE DIADEM, by Anna H. Dorsey. A novel of the inner life of Queen EliZabeth. So interesting that the reader will be loathe to lay it down before finishing the entire story. "DEER JANE," by Isabel Cecilia Williams. A sweet, simple tale of a self-sacrificing elder sister whose ambition to keep the little household to-gether is told with a grace and interest that are irresistible.

THE COMMANDER, by Charles D'Hericault. An historical novel of the Franch Resolution

APTAIN ROSCOFF, by Raoul de Navery.

Christmas Stocking." MERRY HEARTS AND TRUE, by Mary C. Crow-ley. A collection of stories for Catholic children, including "Little Beginnings," "Blind Apple Woman, "Poliys Five Dollars," "Marie's Trum-pet," and "A Family's Frolic."

pet," and "A Family's Frolic." THE AFRICAN FABIOLA, translated by Rt. Rev. Mgr. Joseph O'Connell, D.D. The story of the Life of St. Perpetua, who suffered matryrdom to-gether with her slave, Felicitas, at Carthage in the year 203. One of the most moving in the annals of the Church.

of the Church. AWTHORNDBAN, by Clara M. Thompson.

HAW THORNDEAN, by Clara M. Thompson. A story of American life founded on fact. KATHLEEN'S MOTTO, by Geneviere Walsh. An interesting and inspiring story of a young lady who, by her simplicity and honesty, succeeds in spite of discouraging difficulties. ALIAS KITTY CASEY, by Marie Gertrude Wil-liams. Kitty Casey is in reality Catherine Carew, a girl threatened with misfortune, who in an endeavor to seclude herself, and at the same time enjoy the advantages of the country in summer time, accepts a menial position in a hotel, taking the position of waitrees refused by her maid, Kitty Casey. The story is well written, and a romance cleverity told.

This is an exceedingly interesting story, in whi ome of the doctrines of the Catholic Church some of the doctrines of the California Charles clearly defined. OSE LE BLANC, by Lady Georgianna Fullerton.

NOVELS

THE TWO VICTORIES, by Rev. T. J. Potter. A story of the conflict of faith in a non-Catholic family and their entrance into the Catholic Church. THE MINER'S DAUGHTER. By Cecilia Mary Caddell. A story of the adventures and final con-version of a miner and his family through the zeal-ous labors of his daughter. In this book every part of the Mass is explained in a simple and clear manner. BIT OF OLD IVORY and Other Stories. This beautiful collection of tales is a veritable bower of blossoms sweet and fragrant. They are truly leg-acies left to us by Heaven, and as such should be treasured by every Catholic household. A DOUBLE KNOT and Other Stories, by Mary Waggaman and others. The stories are excellent-and have much pathos and humor scattered through them.

THE FRIENDLY LITTLE HOUSE and Other Stories, by Marion Ames Taggart and Others. A library of short stories of thrilling interest by a group of Catholic authors that take rank with the group of Catholic authors that take rank with the best writers of contemporary fiction. THE LADY OF THE TOWER and Others Stories, by George Barton and others. This is a collection of short stories which will please the most fastidi-ous taste. The volume comprises fifteen stories, which are all worthy to live in short-story litera-ture. Most of them are delicate little love tales; the others, stories of adventure or mystery.

tue. Most of them are delicate little love tales;
 the others, stories of adventure or mystery.
 THE SENIOR LIEUTENANT'S WAGER and ag Other Stories, by the foremost Catholic writers. Altogether it would be hard to find a fuller book than this. The authors have used up a great amount of material which might have been diluted into many pages. It is a book that may be enjoyed for a few moments or an hour at a time, and it makes in every part of it for high thinking and righteous living.
 THE TRAIL OF THE DRAGON and Other Stories, by Marion F. Nizon-Roulet and other Isading Catholic authors. A volume of stories which make very interesting and profitable reading for young and old.
 MARCELLA GRACE. By Rosa Mulholland. The plot of this story is laid with a skill and grasp to a complete mastery of the subject, poined to grace and force of diction.
 THE LAGHT OF HIS CONTENANCE. By Jer.

Irresistible. LOUISA KIRKBRIDGE, by Rev. A. J. Thebaud, S. J. A dramatic tale of New York City after the Civil War, full of exciting narratives infused with a strong religious moral tone. THE MERCHANT OF ANTWERP, by Hendrick Conscience. A novel of impelling interest from beginning to end concerning the romance of the daughter of a diamond merchant, and Raphael Banks, who, through the uncertainties of fortune, earns the parental approval of their marriage, which had been withheld on account of difference in social position. grace and force of diction. THE LIGHT OF HIS COUNTENANCE. By Jer-ome Harte. A highly successful story. The plot is flawless, the characters are natural, their con-versation is sprightly and unhampered, and there are bursts of genuine comedy to lighten the tragic darker shades.

darker shades. HER JOURNEY'S END. By Francis Cooke. A story of mystery, of strife and struggle, of petty jealousy, and of sublime devotion. AGATHA'S HARD SAYING. By Rosa Mulhol-land. Rosa Mulholland's best novel.

MARIAN ELWOOD, by Sarah M. Brownson. The story of a haughty society girl, solfsh and arro-gant, who awakes to the shallowness of her exist-ence through the appreciation of the noble char-acter and religious example of a young mar whom she afterwards marries. land. Rosa Mulholland's best novel. BOND AND FREE. By Jean Connor. A new story by an author who knows how to write a splendidly strong book. THE CIRCUS-RIDER'S DAUGHTER. By F. von Brackel. A high-class novel—a love story that Consciences and the second sec

THE CIRCUS-RIDER'S DAUGHT for short that Brackel. A high-class novel-a love story that every reader will feel better for having read. CONNOR D'ARCY'S STRUGGLES. By W. M. Bertholds. A novel that depicts to us in vivid colors the battles of life which a noble family had to encounter, being reduced to penury through improvident speculations on the part of the father. TABIOLA'S SISTERS. Adapted by A. C. Clarke. This is a companion volume and a sequel to This is a companion "Fabiola."

This is a companion volume and a sequel to "Fabiola." FORGIVE AND FORGET. By Ernst Lingen. A sweet and wholesome love story, showing the power of nobility of soul and unfaltering devotion. THE HEIRESS OF CRONENSTEIN. By Countess Hahn-Hahn. An exquisite story of life and love told in touchingly simple words. IDOLS; or The Secret of the Rue Chaussee d'Antin By Raoul de Navery. The story is a remarkably clever one; it is well constructed and evinces a master hand. IN GOD'S GOOD TIME. By H. M. Rose. This is a story that grips the heart, stirring in it the live-liest sympathy for what is human and good. THE MONK'S PARDON. By Raoul de Navery. An historical romance of the time of King Philip IV, of Spain.

thrilling story of fearlessness and adventure. CATHOLIC CRUSOE, by Rev. W. H. Anderdon M.A. The adventures of Owne Evans, Esq., Sur geon's Mate, set ashore with companions on a desolate island in the Caribbaan Sea. HAPPY-GO-LUCKY, by Mary C. Crowley. A col-lection of Catholic stories for boys including "A Little Heroine," "Med"s Baseball Club, "Terry and His Friends," "The Boys at Balton," and "A Christmas Stocking."

An interior romance of the time of King Philip IV of Spain. IV of Spain. BeATRICE. By Frances Cooke. The story of a society girl's development through the love of a strong man. It is vivid in characteriza-tion, and intense in interest THE OTHER MISS LISLE. By M. C. Martin. A powerful story of South African life. It is singu-larly strong and full of action, and contains a great deal of masterly characterization. THE OUTLAW OF CAMARGUE. By A. de Lamothe. This is a capital novel with plenty of Marc' Int.

Lamothe. This is a capital and the story and will appeal the story and will appeal the story and will appeal the story and story and story and story appeal the story and story appeal the story appear to story very sweet and tender story, and will appeal to the reader through these gualities THE SHADOW OF EVERSLEIGH. By Jane Landownee. It is a woird tale, blonding not a listloof the supernatural with various stirring and working incidenta.

THE TEMPEST OF THE HEART. By Mary

Casey. The story is well written, and a romance cleverly told. LATE MISS HOLLINGFORD, by Rose Mulhol-land. A simple and delightful novel by Miss Mul-holland, who has written a number of books for young ladies which have met with popular favor. FERNCLIFFE. Ferncliffe is the name of a large setate in Devonshire. England, the home of Agnes Falkland, who with her family and adopted sister, Francis Macdonald, furnish the interesting events and the secret influence of which Agnes Falkland is the innocent sufferer. THE ORPHAN SISTERS, by Mary I. Hofman. This is an exceedingly interesting story, in which exciting incident. THE TEMPEST OF THE HEART. By Mary Agatha Gray. A story of deep feeling that centers around a young monk musician. THE SECRET OF THE GREEN VASE. By Frances Cocke. The story is one of high ideals and strong characters. The "secret' is a very close one, and the reader will not solve it until near the end of the book. SO AS BY FIRE. By Jean Connor. After living a life that was a life, the heroine of this story renounces it all that she might atome for the great wrong abe has done. A really absorbing and profilable of COURAGE. By H. M. Res. A story that grips the heart. The well constructed plot, the breast area; THE TENN OF THE TIDE. By Mary Agatha Gray. There is a complexity in the weaving of the story that will keep the reader in suspense till the very end. THE UNION OF THE TIDE. By Frances Cooke. A tale of hearts that love, suffer, and win. It is a uniquely conceived tale, full of unexpected com-plications, and with a heroine who is so truly Catholic as to be an inspiration. DION AND THE SIBYLS. By Miles Keon. A

Cataoic as to be an inspiratou. NON AND THE SIBYLS. By Miles Keon. A classic novel, far richer in sentiment and sounder in thought than "Ben Hur." in thought than "Ben Hut." MISS ERIN. By M.E. Francis. A captivating tale of Irish life redolent of genuine Celtic wit, iove, and pathos, and charming in the true Catholic spirit that permeates every page. THEIR CHOICE. By Henrietta Dana Skinner. Its

A thoroughly entertaining story for young people by one of the best known Catholic authors. CHE STRAWCUTTER'S DAUGHTER, by Lady Georgianna Fullerton. An interesting Catholic DUTIES OF YOUNG MEN, by R. A. Vain. To which is added selections from Lacordaire's Lettern to Young Men. Georgianna Fullerton. An interesting Catholic story for young people. ADY AMABEL AND THE SHEPHERD BOY, by Elizabeth M. Stewart. A Catholic tale of England, in which the love of an humble shepherd boy for the daughter of a noble English family is ridiculed in the course of time various opportun-ities present themselves which bring him before her parents in a more favorable light, and finally results in her marriage.

to Young Men. DUTY OF A CHRISTIAN TOWARDS GOD, by St. John the Baptist De La Salle. Here nothing is left unexplained, no point unnoticed, of all the grand and beautiful system of religion from the most sublime mysteries of our Faith, to the sim-plest and most trivial practices of devotion.

HEROINES OF CHARITY. Sketches from the ST. CHARLES BORROMEO. Edited by Edward Healey Thompson.

ST. FLIZABETH of Hungary, by Montalembert.
ST. FRANCES of Rhome, by Lady Georgiana Ful-letton, with an essay os the saint's life.
ST. FRANCIS de Sales, Biship and Prince of Geneva, by Robert Ormsby M. A.
ST. IGNATIUS of Leyola, frunder of the Society of Jesus by Bartoli. Two volumes. soc. each.
ST. IGNATIUS of Leyola, frunder of the Society of Jesus by Bartoli. Two volumes. soc. each.
ST. IGNATIUS AND HIS COMPANIONS – St. Francis Xavier, Peter Faber, Simon Rodriguez, eto.
IRISH SAINTS from St. Pattek to Lawrence O'Toole, by D. P. Conyngham LL D.
ST. JOHN BERCHMANS of the Society of Jesus, and minacles after his death, by Father Borgo SJ.
ST. JOHN BERCHMANS of the Society of Jesus, and minacles after his death, by Father Borgo SJ.
ST. JOHN BERCHMANS of the Society of Jesus, and minacles after his death, by Father Borgo SJ.
ST. JOHN BERCHMANS of the Society of Jesus, and minacles after his death, by Father Borgo SJ.
ST. JOHN BERCHMANS of the Society of Jesus, and minacles after his death, by Father Borgo SJ.
ST. JOHN EBRCHMANS of the Society of Jesus, and minacles after his death, by Father Borgo SJ.
ST. JOHN EBRCHMANS of the Society of Jesus, and minacles after his death, by Father Borgo SJ.
St. DOKEPH. From the French of Abbe Boulan.
St. MARG of Egypt. The example and model of a THE MARY of Egypt. The is the strange hand model of a THE MARY of Egypt. The strange and model of a THE MARY of Strange Strange and model of a the MARY of Strange Strange and model of a strange strangestrangestrangestrangestrangestrangestrangestrangestrangestrange of the mass is explained in a map. Dorsey. As manner. TANGLED PATHS, by Mrs. Anna H. Dorsey. As a novel Tangled Paths is admirable; and if the author will compare this very satisfactory produc-tion with her earlier work, "The Student of Bien-heim Forest" for instance, she can almost sing the "Nunc Dimittis," for her improvement is so marked that she seems in her work to have almost reached its climax."—Ave Maria. its climat."—Ave Maria. THE ALCHEMIST'S SECRET, by Isabel Cacilia Williams. This collection of short stories is not of the sort written simply for amusement: they have their simple, direct teaching, and they lead us to think of and to pity sorrows and trials of others rather than our owa. IN THE CRUCIBLE, by Isabel Cecilia Williams. These stories of high endeavor, of the patient bear-ing of pain, the sacrifice of self for others' good, are keyed on the divine true story of Him Who gave up all for us and died on Calvary's Cross (Sacred Heart Review). true penitent. THE MARTYRS. This is the famous history of the last persecutions of the Christians at Rome, by

ST. CHARLES BORROMEO. Edited by Edward

THREE

THE MARTYRS. This is the famous history or the last persecutions of the Christians at Rome, by Viscount de Chateaubriand. MARTYRS OF THE COLISEUM, or Historical Reco ds or the Great Amphith-atre of Ancient Rome. By Rev. A. J. O'Reilly, D.D. IRISH MAATYRS, by D. P. Convagham, LL. D. VICTIMS OF THE MAMERTINE Picturing the trials and martyrdom of the saints of the early Church. By Rev. A. J. O'Reilly, D. D. SI, PATRICK, by Rt. Rev. M. J. O'Farrell, Bishop af Trenton.

ST. FATRICK, by Rt. Rev. M. J. O'Farrell, Bishop of Trento.
 ST. ROSE: (Lima. By Rev. F. W. Faber, D.D. GREAT SAINTS, by John O'Kane Murray. Over thirty saints, including the B esseed Virgin Mary, st. Joseph, St. John the Baptist, St. Agnes, St. Patrick, St. Bridg: t, St. Columbkille, St. Francis Xavier etc. Beautifully illustrated.
 ST. NNISLAUS KOSTKA of the Society of Jesus, by Edw.rd Healey Thompson.
 ST. TEAFSA. Written by herself. Translated by Rev. Canon Dalton.

ST. TENN'SA. Written by herself. Translated by Rev. Canon Dalton.
ST. VINCENT DE PAUL, by Rev. Henry Bedford.
MAID_NS OF HALLOWED NAMES. Embracing the lives of St. Agnes, St. Gertrude, St. Rose of Lima, St. Catherine, St. Genevice, St. Teresa, St. Cecilia, etc. By Rev. Charles Piccirillo, S. J.
A YEAR WITH THE SAINTS. Short mediations for each day throughout the year on diffe ent vir-tues with true examples taken from the lives of the saints.

ATHOLIC FLOWERS from Protestant Gardens. ST. MONICA, by M. L'Abbe Bougad. ST. PAUL OF CROSS, by Rev. Father Pius, C.P. HEROINES OF CHARITY. Sketches from live of the Sisters of Vincennes, Jeanne Biscot, Mile, Le Gras, Madame de Meramion, mother Seton and the Little Sisters of the Poor.

RELIGIOUS BOOKS

AUTH, HOPE AND CHARITY, by Anonymous. An exceedingly interesting tale of love, war and adventure during the exciting times of the French Revolution. LAVES OF THE SAINTS. Adapted from Rev. Alban Butler. IFE OF CHRIST. By Rev. M. V. Cochem.

IFE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN. By Rev. B. Rohner, O. S. B.

Rohner, O. S. B. THE ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRA-MENT. By Rev. A. Tesniere. AN EXPLANATION OF CATHOLIC MORALS. By Rev. J. Stanleton historical novel of the Fanny Warner. A tale of the SBECH BLUFF, by Fanny Warner. A tale of the South before the Civil War. Two other stories are contained in this volume : "Agnes," and "For Many Days."

By Rev. J. Stapleton. EXPLANATION OF THE COMMANDMENTS By Rev. H. Roltas, D.D. EXPLANATION OF THE CREED. By Rev. H. Roltus. D.D.

Rolfus, D.D. EXPLANATION OF THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS. By Rev. M. V. Cochem. EXPLANATION OF THE HOLY SACRA-MENTS. By Rev. H. Rolfus, D.D. HELPS TO A SPIRITUAL LIFE. By Rev. Joseph Schneider.

Schneider. HISTORY OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH. By Rev. L. C. Businger. Edited by Rev. Richard Brennan, LL.D. With a history of the Catholic Church in America by John Gilmary Shea. HISTORY OF THE PROTESTANT REFOR-MATION IN ENGLAND AND IRELAND. By MATION IN ENGLAND AND IRELAND. BY W. Cobbett. Revised by Abbot Gasquet, O.S.B.

HOW TO COMFORT THE SICK. By Rev. Joseph Krebbs, C.SS.R.

LOURDES: ITS INHABITANTS, ITS PIL-GRIMS, AND ITS MIRACLES. By Rev. Richard F. Clarke.

MORE SHORT SPIRITUAL READINGS FOR MARY'S CHILDREN. By Madame Cecilia.

MARY'S CHILDREN. By Madame Cecilia. THE TRUE SPOUSE CHRIST. By St. Alphonsus Liguori. THE NEW TESTAMEN' is mo edition. Good, large type printed on act. to tpaper. THE SACRED SCRIPTURES. By Rev. H. Saintrain. This is the best work on the subject, and is to be recommended to all lovers of the Sacred Heart. TAT ANTHONY. THE SAINT OF THE WHOLE.

recommended to all lovers of the Sacred Heart. ST. ANTHONY, THE SAINT OF THE WHOLA WORLD. By Rev. Thomas F. Ward. This life is written in a manner which can hardly fail to prove interesting to the reading public. ST. FRANCIS ASSISI, SOCIAL REFORMER By Rev. Leo. L. Dubois.

THE SECRET OF SANCTITY. According to St. SHORT MEDITATIONS FOR EVERY DAY. By Abbe Lasausse.

VENERATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN. By Rev. B. Rohner.

SHORT CONFERENCES ON THE SACRED HEART. By Rev. H. Brinkmeyer, D.D.

GLORIES OF THE SACRED HEART. By Rev. M. Hausherr, S. J.

DIVINE GRACE. By Rev. E. J. Wirth, D.D.

know then who or what dropped past me, because it was too dark to see anything, and the first thing I knew I was tumbled backwards by a big cop, who I knew was a cop, because he whaled at me with a night stick and missed my top about an inch, I think. I explained who I was to him you bet, dammed quick—oh, excuse me please, Father. Talking about the old days always gets me back into the lingo of them, too. I'll try to be

"The cops all had lights, of course and in a jiffy they found Rat Kelly crumpled up alongside the stairs and, if you'll believe me, he was beginning even then toget cold and stiff. Then snow-snuffers all act that way, I'm told, as soon as they kick in.

"And when they frisked him for his guns, do you know what they found on him ?

Well, you'll never guess, Father but the guns were gone and on his chest over his heart, pinned to his was one of them little lace shirt edged pictures that the children calls 'Holy Pictures.' And do you know what the scene on it was? The scene on it was the Birth of Jesus in Bethlehem. True as I stand on my two feet, that's what the cops found, and I was looking at them when they did Now can you explain that, Father ? The guy was a Jew ; he was a bone-head and bad and a killer and a hater all his life. Nobody ever told him Christmas, bank on that; on about Christ either. Yet in a pinch ts like a saint and gets clubbed to death allowing a woman he didn't know to give birth to a yelling baby in his bed! And how long did he have that picture on his chest? And did he know anything, do you think, at all about what it meant ? And what put it into his head to send for the priest? He was a selfish mutt all his life up to that minute. What got into him just then? I often won-dered since if it was a case like the ings, and then through a series of good Jew thief that hung on the cross personal impressions.

Europe is capable of being canalized these very edifices from their rightful owners. I can not see how the into the collective protest of a people. And it is this power of rapid com-munal expression that leads one to death of great priests like the Abbé Délebecque, the bravery of those thirty thousand of the clergy who think that the Catholic revival in are, according to a London estimate. France will not be a passive one. expressing itself merely in a cessation of attacks on the Church. It will be at the front, can fail but to impress the imagination of a people who have been asked to regard these men an active, nay, even a violent, nationas cassocked imbeciles. The French al movement that will reimpose the Faith on France.

isive

nation is united. When atheist has stood shoulder to shoulder with Gaul, again, almost alone among the children of the Roman Empire, retains the Roman tradition in its Catholic in battle, the former can no longer call the latter unpatriotic and a danger to France. Those who have purity. You can watch her reimpossneered at the pulpit as the "coward's fort," will have to admit that even if the pulpil is the "coward's fort," ng it on the Maghreb, on the northern shores of Africa, in her milithern shores of Arrics, in her min-tary camps, the straight roads, the planting of trees, and the towns with their one straight street. Europe, which once held northern the priest in any other kind of fort is a very brave man. Those who have regarded the Church, even as many Africa and lost it in the great Moslem raids holds it again through France. That which alone has made the second redid at the time of the Revolution, as dead, will have to admit not merely that it is alive, but alive and kicking. How can there be a revival of religious persecution in the face of such impressions and admissions ? occupation of the Maghreb incom-There is one other point I would the Roman tradition has recaptured Africa, the Roman faith is absent emphasize. If Alsace Lorraine becomes again at the end of this war The faith of St. Louis no longer vitalizes the French arms. Yet this an integral part of French territory —I do not say that it should or will, O Heckler for Neutrality!—it is not clinging to the "secular" side of the Roman tradition, has ever made Gaul the battleground of Europe. From those boundaries of hers, onceivable that even the stupidity of Radical politicians will allow them to impose the anti Catholic laws on which have hardly varied since she became a nation at the close of the a province that has enjoyed a large Dark Ages, she has led those great amount of religious liberty under German rule. And is it possible to make an exception of Alsace Lor-raine to the exclusion of the other European raids against Western paganism and Eastern decadence. She alone was capable of conceiving the Crusades; she alone in her flerce practicality conceived the Revolution. On whether the Faith provinces of France? The answer is self evident. Here I end my somewhat dogmatic diagnosis and prophecy of the future of Catholicism holds firm in France, then, depends in France, knowing full well that prophecy is apt to be not merely un wise but foolish !—Louis H. Wetmore eventually the salvation of Europe. That is what lends such extraordinary interest to the prospects of a complete resurrection of the Church in America. in Gaul at the conclusion of this war.

A true friend is one who multi-plies your virtues and subtracts your faults. I see this Catholic revival, first. through a series of recent happen.

and of revert to the Radical game of taking ST. JEROME'S COLLEGE ounded 1864 BERLIN, ONTARIO Excellent Business College Department, Excellent High School or Academic Department, Excellent REV. A. L. ZINGER, O.R., PH.D., PERS Winter Session $ Opens January 4th in all depart-ments of the CENTRAL BUSI-NESS COLLEGE, Yonge and Ger-rard Sts., Toronto. Our Catalogue explains our superiority in Equip-ment, Staff, Methods and Results. You are invited to write for it if interested in the kind of school work which brings best success. Address W. H. SHAW, President. ÷..... Funeral Directors C. A. CONNORS Undertaker 505 Yonge Street, Toronte Phone - North 1680 John Ferguson & Sons 180 King Street The Leading Undertakers and Embalmers Open Night and Day Telephone-House 373 Factory-543

results in her marriage. MAY BROOKE, by Mrs. Anna H. Doney. The story of two cousins who are left in the care of their wary wealthy but eccentric uncle, who professes no religion and is at odds with all the world. It follows them through their many trials and exper-iences, and contrasts the effect on the two distinct characters are cleverly drawn, and its pages full of shrewd wit and delicate humor. BETWEEN FRIENDS. By Richard Aumerle. BROWNIE AND I. By Richard Aumerle. N QUEST OF THE GOLDEN CHEST. By George Barton. iences, and contrasts the effect on the two distinct characters. AUNT HUNOR'S KEEPSAKE. 'A chapter from life. By Mrs. James Sadlier. BORROWED FROM THE NIGHT. A tale of Early Kentucky, by Anna C. Minogue. BLAKES AND FLANAGAN'S, by Mrs. James Sadlier. This book is the author's masterpiece. CARDOME. A spirited tale of romance and advea-ture in Kentucky, by Anna C. Minogue. CINEAS, or Rome Under Nero. A strong novel of early Christianit, by J. M. Villerinche. FOUR GREAT EVILS OF THE DAY, by Car-dinal Maning. THE MYSTERY OF CLEVERLY. By George HOW THEY WORKED THEIR WAY and other stories. By M. F. Egan. PREDDY CARR'S ADVENTURES. By Rev. R. P. Garrold, S. J. FREDDY CARR AND HIS FRIENDS. By Rev. R. P. Garrold, S. J. THE JUNIORS OF ST. BEDE'S. By Rev. Thos. Bryson. NED RIEDER. By Rev. John Wehs. JACK HILDRETH ON THE NILE. By Marion A. Taggart. WINNETOU, THE APACHE KNIGHT. By Marion A. Taggart. dinal Manning. OLD HOUSE BY THE BOYNE, by Mrs. J. Sadlier Disturing scenes and incidents true to life in as Pirturing scenes and incidents true to life in a Irish Bo ough. ADELAIDE PROCTER. Beautiful cabinet editio Marion A. Taggart. THE TREASURE OF NUGGET MOUNTAIN. By Marion A. Taggart. THE STRONG ARM OF AVALON. By Mary T. Waggaman. ADBLAIDE FICE Atholic poetess. ORPHAN OF MOS OW. A pathetic story full of interest for young readers arranged by Mrs. Sadlier. PEARL OF ANTIOCH by Abbe Bayle. A charm-ing and powerfully written story of the early ages PEARL OF AN INCO.
PEARL OF AN INCO.
of the Church written story of the early age-of the Church.
THALIA, by Abbe A. Bayle. An interesting and instructive taile of the Fourth Century.
THE WATERS OF CONTRADICTION, by Anna C. Minogue. A delightful romance of the south and southern people.
ALVIRA by Rev. A J O'Reilly.
HEIRESS OF KILORGAN, by Mrs. J. Sadlier.
HEIRESS OF KILORGAN, by Mrs. J. Sadlier.
HEIRESS Catholic norbined: very interesting.
ROSEMARY, by J. Vincent Huntington. One of the best Catholic novels seve written.
The best Catholic novels seve written.
This of the seven seven and the seven seve THE PLAYWATER PLOT. By Mary T. Wagga-CLARE LORAINE. By "Lee." CLARE LORAINE. By "Lee." HARMONY FLATS. By C. S. Whitmire. A KLONDIKE PICNIC. By Eleanor C. Donnelly. THE LITTLE MARSHALLS AT THE LAKE. By Mary F. Nizon Roulet. MILLY AVELING. By Sara Trainor Smith. THE NEW SCHOLAR AT ST. ANNE'S. Marion J. Brunowe. ROSEWARY, by J. Vincent Huntington. One of the best Catholic novels eve written. ONE CHRISTMAS EVE at Rozbury Crossing and other Christmas Tales, by Cathryn Wallace. This is a volume of delightful little stories for the .young. They are tales to attract and are written in most winning style. Christmas is coming. This will make an excellent gift book. ALLEY MOORE. A tale of the times, by Richard Baptist O'Brien, D. D. Showing how eviction murder and such pastimes are managed and jua-tice administered, in Ireland, together with many stirring incidents in other lands. The story tells of .the heroic lives of our Irish grandfathers and faccident. For those interested in Irish history of these later days Ailey Moore in a new dress will serve a good purpose. PETRONILLA, and Other Stories. By Eleanor C. POVERINA. By Evelyn Buckenham. THE MYSTERY OF HORNBY HALL. By Anna T. Sadier. TOLD IN THE TWILIGHT. By Mother M Salome. ¶ CALLISTA, by Cardinal Newman. A tale o the Third Century : attempting to imagine and express the feelings and relations between Chris-tians and heathem of that time. HARD and nestness or that time. "ABIOLA. By Cardinal Wiseman. This edition of Cardinal Wiseman's tale of early Christian times is much more modern and decidedly more attractive than the old editions. LIVES OF SAINTS attractive than the old editions. TIGRANES, by Rev. John Joseph Franco, S. J. An absorbing story of the persecutions of Catholics in the fourth century, and the attempt of Julian the Apostate to restore the gods of Homer and Virgil. THE SISTER OF CHARITY, by Mrs. Anna H. Dorsey. The story of a Sister of Charity who, as a nurse, attends a non-Catholic family, and after a shipwreck and rescue from almost a hopeless situ-ation, brings the family into the Church of God. It is especially interesting in its descriptions. ST. ALOYSIUS GONZAGA of the Society of Jesus, by Edward Healey Thompson. ST. ALPHONSUS M. LIGUORI, Bishop of Agatha It is especially interesting in its descriptions. THE SOLITARY ISLAND, by Rev. John Talbot Smith. As mysterious and fascinating in its plot as either of the sensational productions of Archi-bald Clavering Gunther, and it contains portraits which would not shame the brush of a Thackeray of Dickens. E. C. Killingsworth

ST. CATHARINE OF SIENNA, by Blessed Ray-mond of Capua. ST. CECILIA, Virgin and Martyr. By Rev. Father Guerager.

Can be supplied in the United The Catholic Record CANADA Biates free of duty.

Mile. Le Gras, Madame de Meramion, Mother Setor and the Little Sisters of the Poor; with a preface by Aubrey de Vere.

by Aubrey de Vere. JESUS ALL GREAT. By Father Alexander Gas-lerani, S.J. Translated by F. Loughnan. This new volume is a continuation of the sentiments contained in "Jesus All Good." JESUS ALL HOLY. By Father Alexander Galler-ani, S.J. This new volume is a continuation of the sentiments contained in last two books which have been so well received.

LIFE OF FATHER MATHEW, the People's Sog

DEVOTION TO ST. JOSEPH, by Rev. Father Joseph Anthony Patrignani, S.J. Translated from the French.

RELIGIOUS SOUL ELEVATED TO PERFEC-TION by the exercises of an interior life. B= Abbe Baudrand

Abbe Baudrand. UNDER THE BANNER OF MARY, by Father Henry Opitz, S. J. Translated by a Sodalist of Our Lady and edited by Father Elder Mullan, S.J. THE TRUE RELIGION AND ITS DOGMAS, by Rev. Nicholas Russo, S. J., formerly Professor of Philosophy in Boston College. GLORIES OF MARY. From the Italian of St. Alphoosus M. Liguori. New translation.

INTERNAL MISSION OF THE HOLY GHOST, by Cardinal Manning.

JESUS ALL GOOD, by Father Gallerani, S. J. Translated by F. Loughnan. This book is a book Translated I of the highes

DOVE OF THE TABERNACLE, or Love of Jesus in the Most Haly Aucharist, by Rev. T. H. Kinane. in the Most Holy Auchanist, by Rev. T. H. Kinane. LIFE OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, by St. Bonaventure. With 100 engravings. DIVINE LIFE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, by Ven. Mary of Jesus of Agreda. NEW TESTAMENT. Tranflaied by Rt. Rev. R. Challoner, D. D.

Challoner, D. D. OUR LADY OF LOURDES, by Henry Lasserre, A complete history of the apparition, together with a number of authentic mi acles pe formed at the Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes. SIN AND ITS CONSEQUENCES, by Cardinal Manning.

TEMPORAL MISSION OF THE HOLY GHOST,

TRUE DEVOTION TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN By the Blessed Louis-Marie, Grignon de Montfort, Translated fom the French by Father Frederick Wm. Faber, D.D.

VATICAN COUNCIL and Its Definitions, by Car

YEAR OF MARY. Seventy-two chapters on exer-cises of devotion to the Mother of God.

SPIRITUAL DOCTRINE, by Father Louis Lalle-mant, S. J.

mant, S. J. THE BEAUTIES of THE CATHOLIC CHURCH or Her Festivals and Her Rights and Ceremonies Popularly Explained. By Very Rev. F. J. Shadler. Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon this work. It is a clear, concise and interesting pre-matical of information regarding the practices of the Church. There is not a thresome page in the whole book. It is just the book needed to post Catholics upon matters with which all should be acquainted, but unhappily are not.

Open Day and Night 49 Pichmond St. Phone 8971

Funeral Director

FOUR

The Catholic Record

Price of Subscription-$1.50 per aunum. United States & Europe $1.00 " ditors { Rev. James T. Foley, B. A. Thomas Coffey, LL.D.

te Editors { Rev. D. A. Casey. H. F. Mackintosh

ton, Peterborough, and Ogdenaburg, N. V.P., Neven, E. J., Brottering, N. Uaray, George B. Bas Sara H. d the ick, M. J. Hagarty

D. J. Murray Smith, Miss Bride George B. Hewetton, Mrs. V. ara Hanley, Miss L. Heringer aunders are authorized to re-ind transact all other business THE CATEG

the copies may be purchased to, 249 Main Street, John J Co. Pharmacritic John J . B., single

Montreal single copies may be purcha E. O'Grady, Newsdealer, 106 St. Viate and I. Milloy, 241 St. Catherine street

CONDON, SATURDAY, DECEMBER, 26,1914

CHRISTMAS

As foretold ages ago by the Jewish Prophet, Malachi, in every place from the rising of the sun even to the going down, the clean oblation of the Mass is offered in the great name of the Most High God. Still there is a sweetness, a tenderness, a joyousness all its own about Christ's Mass-Christmas-the Mass offered to commemorate the day on which was born to us a Saviour who is Christ the Lord.

In spirit-and in a very real sense also-we hear again the good tidings of great joy ; the marvellous angelic message-Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men of good will.

"To men of good will"-this holy Christmas day when millions of men are interlocked in the deadly warstruggle the condition of peace on earth makes itself felt with a force peculiarly insistent. Peace on earth to men of good will.

Nations, as nations, have rejected God and usurped His prerogatives ; the State with luciferian pride declares itself Supreme. Culture rejects religion and proclaims itself the all-sufficient basis of civilized life. The new leaders of men scorn as outworn the creeds of the faith once delivered to the saints. And the result is that nation with nation struggles as savage with savage for national ideals and national interests and national existence.

But while the nations are demonstrating the futility of the new national gospel Christmas brings us once again the suprems message that this day is born to us a Saviour who is Christ the Lord. The greatest battles are of ephemeral importance; the mightiest empires sink into insignificance compared with the worth, the dignity, the majesty of a single human soul redeemed by the blood of Christ.

With regard to nations God works on too large a scale for us creatures of a day to be competent critics. Still many have contended that, since nations have no existence beyond this earth, divine justice must exact ue punishment for national crimes-unless indeed there is national repentance. We may not see-though in the perspective of a future generation it may be plain -the working of Divine Providence in this unprecedented war ; but the message of Christmas retains all its tenderness and sweetness, all its tremendous significance for men of good will. This day is born to you a Saviour who is Christ the Lord. The good tidings of great joy are for all the people ; but each by the exercise of that free will which God has implanted in the human soul, and which even He respects, must choose for himself whether or not he will accept in all humility the God-an of the Glasgow slums that priest don't trouble about quar "the priest don't trouble about qu ters the like of this." I am taken tack so politely, and such a mass of evidence is adduced to prove the de-votion of the Roman priest in Glas-gow, that I heartily desire to express gow, that I marking desire to express not only my regrets for having print-ed the statement in question, but my earnest and reverent admiration for the quiet, constant, perfectly organ-ized, and affectionate services ren-dered by the Roman priest in Glas-the quest the morthedest and most gow to the wretchedest and most helpless of the Glasgow poor. Whether this particular woman has been overlooked by the parish prisst, or whether she lied in order o create a silver sympathy, I canno say. I recorded the utterance only because it harmonized so completely with the poor old harridan's grumb ling acquiescence in a condition of the most dreary and destructive misery, and because it helped one to torpor which overcomes the inhabiof a vile neighborhood. It never occurred to me for one momen that I was attacking the Roman Catholic Church (who could attack that Church on the side of its serv ices ?) and I am grieved to say that it never occurred to me, as it ought to have done, that such a statement might give pain to people whose work for the poor I am not worthy ple whose even to praise. I shall be grateful if you will allow me to make public this explanation and this sincere apology. HAROLD BEGBIE.

February 28rd, 1914. Elsewhere he tells us:

"But my aversion from Catholic creed remains. I have gone once more patiently, and with the most honest effort to be just, into the question of Catholic dogma, and I find myself more puzzled than ever before in my life to account for the fact of any man, gifted with even a little knowledge, being able to accept, to accept so that they subdue his life, these amazing and humiliating superstitions of magic worship.

"Nevertheless, I should feel myself guilty of a crime if I wrote one single word with the object of weakening an Irishman's faith in his Church. So beautiful is the influence of that Church, so altogether sincere and attractive is the spiritual life of Catholic Ireland, that I for one. rather than lift a finger to disturb it, like the man in the parable would stand afar off, bow my head upon my breast, and utter the honest prayer, God be merciful to me a sinner.

"Let the Protestant reader ask himself this question, Whether his admiration goes to the Catholic priest living with the peasants of Ireland, sharing their poverty, and devoting himself to the beauty and chastity of Ireland's spiritual life or to the Irish clerical politician who secretly slanders in England their fellow-Christians, with no other object in mind than to preserve his own social ascendancy." Again :

"The spiritual life ! How odd that phrase would sound in the publichouses of our industrial slums. Would it be understood ? Would it have any more significance than a sonnet of Shakespeare ? In Catholic Ireland-even amongst the most ignorant of the peasants, the most de-

THE CATHOLIC RECORD

which attest a remarkable change in | nen's ideas and habits of thought." An institution that has reached such marvellous proportions, and while becoming stable and perma nent continues to grow in public favor must answer to some fundamental need of modern human life. What is this widely felt need ? It is the desire for compensation against loss, the wish to avoid needless pain and suffering arising from the accidental happenings of existence. It is the necessity felt by responsible beings of substituting certainty for uncertainty, of smoothing some of the grosser inequalities of life, of

'assuring oneself" against the offchance which may mean suffering. loss or ruin for ourselves or others. "The simplest and most general onception of insurance is a provision made by a group of persons, each singly in danger of some loss, the incidence of which cannot be foreseen, that when such loss shall occur to any of them it shall be distributed over the whole group. Its essential elements, therefore, are foresight and co operation."-The Britannica.

To narrow the field to our own ubject, life insurance implies the compensating or indemnifying of some one for the material loss likely to ensue from the death of another The father owes it to his children to provide against their being left in untoward circumstances at his death the husband owes it to his wife ; the young man owes it to his aged parents or to others dependent upon him; the business man to his partners and so on. Life insurance would have no application to human beings who recognized no obligations. "Foresight and co operation" are the essential elements of life insurance Without co-operation the object sought could not be reached. In other words life insurance is essentially mutual. The word in connect tion with insurance has been sometimes mis applied and misunderstood; that will appear later on. But we not only admit, we insist, that life insurance - all life insurance - is mutual in its conception and working. The head of family, desiring to insure his life for the benefit of his wife and children, agrees to make periodically a cash contribution (a premium) to a fund in orde that at his death the fund may pay a fixed amount (the sum assured) to his family. Others do likewise. The result is a common fund made up of the premiums contributed by all, and from that fund the insurance money will be drawn as each person pays the debt of nature. Such a common fund is known as a life insurance institution ; so essentially mutual is the business from start to finish that every life insurance company or society is and must be of this nature. The managers of the company are administrators. They fix the scale of premiums which each member should pay according to his age. They are there to collect the prem iums, to invest and keep safely the fund thus formed, to see that no

FRANCE HERSELF AGAIN."

Evidence multiplies that at least one great good is being drawn from has come again with new power | 8 per cent. of London's population to bear the country back to her rightful place among the nations. . France is done with superficial unbelief, and is coming by degrees to recognize that without religion the State cannot exist. This may with some go no deeper than a policy, but the movement toward aith is unmistakable ; men who, twenty years ago, would have thought their intelligence forbade them to believe are now practising Catholics. Combism, the child of Dreyfusism, is to-day ineffective. From these pages, with their wealth of allusion, their admirable nutshell foreign land. reviews of every department of national life, their acute deductions and startling epigrams, there rises vision of historic France in her noblest mood, restored, after much tribulation and many mistakes, to a new sanity, a new purpose, a new steadfastness. 'France Herself Again ' is a wonderful vision, and a vision which every day brings nearer complete fulfilment."

"THE GOSPEL AMONG BELGIAN REFUGERS

Our attention has been called an article in the Literary Digest under this title. A Mr. Levermore depicts himself as a swashbuckling evangelist who is shedding light in a truly marvellous way on the benighted heathen refugees from France and Belgium.

" Then comes more speaking, with much help from the blessed Holy Spirit, as we explain, with text and with illustration, what it means to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ."

of good will.

On the assumption that the God fearing Belgian unfortunates strong, so that your notes will pierce are in heathen darkness this even the din of battle. Even in the unctuous evangelist proceeds to midst of war's red havoc be not spread the light. That his motive is prosyletism naked and unashamed may be gethered from this extract from his veracious tale :

"One Belgian attracts a crowd by his vehemence, as he tells me the old story of priestly rapacity, concluding with, 'Let them come to England, and learn how these Protestants love us, and give their money and their time to do us good.' short, earnest talk on the glorious Gospel of the grace of God naturally

'Here is my penny,' says a Flem ish woman, as she receives a Gospel I explain that the Gospel is without money and without price. 'How can that be ?' she queries in amazement.

"Priestly rapacity" is good ; but the Flemish woman who could understand Mr. Levermore's French is better. However Mr. Levermore's French is not left to conjecture ; he tells us this himself :

" A sporting lady accosts me with 'A thousand pardons, monsieur, but my sister and I have a bet on as to hether you are French or Belgian Well, mademoiselle, if you will promise me faithfully to read this Hospel throughout, I will tell you.' Agreed, monsieur.' 'Good ; then I'm either French nor Belgian; I'm nglish.' 'Then the bet is off'' she ' she English. cries, 'but I'll read the book all the same

Now that is a modest little illustraon of our open-air evangelist's tages over his fellows, to disburse Persian accent." Then think of the the common fund in accordance with sporting lady's gratitude and indignathe just claims of all, and generally tion when she finds "the book" she to safeguard the interests of the promised to read is the Gospel which membership as a whole. Nor is their apacious priests withheld from her honesty and financial capacity the all this time. only guarantee that such interests Incidentally there is hope of bringwill be duly safeguarded ; laws are ing the English aristocracy to the enacted which rigidly protect the light:

and church would also suggest that zealous British evangelists might that curse us, be perfect as our find work to do without endeavoring Father in heaven is perfect. But the to pervert the faith of Belgian refu wise ones only shook their heads, gees. We may be sure that British They wanted something practical, something suited to the needs of the hospitality gratefully and generously extended to the Belgians in their time. Whatsoever things are snug hour of suffering is grossly libelled whatsoever things are comfortable by this evangelistic mountebank. these are the things they would hear Nevertheless he points the moral about. They would acknowledge no that Catholics everywhere should colight of the world that did not light their way to good things like these. operate to render possible adequat and He helped not at all to solve ministration to the spiritual needs of the problem of their vulgar comforts. our sorely stricken Belgian brethren Yes, indeed, this Christ was very inforced to seek temporary refuge in a teresting, but what did He ever con tribute to the sum of human com forts? Did He ever invent anything THE SCHOOL OF BETHLEHEM improve anything? No. Then away As the bells ring out this Christwith Him. Crucify Him. A practimestide, heralding the coming of the cal generation had no time to waste Prince of Peace, there are those who. on a dreamer who evidently knew looking forth upon a world rent with nothing about the three-per-cents. war's alarms, will be struck with And Armageddon is the answer to what seems the sorry mockery of it it all. The Gethsemani of nations all. And some who proclaim themhas revealed the lath painted to look selves "advanced thinkers" will tell like a man. The veneer of respect us that Christianity has been tried ability has come off. and the skeleton and found wanting. And yet the lies revealed in all its horrid naked truth is it has not been tried at all. ness. No, it will not do, this play Nations and individuals pretended to acting with Jesus Christ. The believe in Christ. They preached world must come round Peace with their lips the while they His point of view. It must sit at fashioned bayonets with their hands His feet and learn from His lips the They prated of love and fellowship, and all the while they followed after things that are for its peace. Civilzation must be erected on a Chris power. The message of the angels tian basis. It is no use setting Mater song had no meaning for the masses ialism upon a pedestal, burning a few because they were ill disposed to grains of incense before it, and labelhear it. They lacked the bonac ling it religion and civilization. The voluntatis, and though Christ indeed idol must be dethroned, and men brought Peace, it was only to those learn to worship at the shrine of Eternal Truth. Then only will we Ring out, then, ye Christmas bells. have peace and concord when the Never did a discordant world so need Christmas message is hearkened to by your soothing note Ring clear and men of good will. COLUMBA NOTES AND COMMENTS

A MONGTHE many Catholic chanlains ashamed. Let them prate as they serving with the British Expedition. will of the mockery of the Peace of ary force in Flanders, is Mgr. Bicker-Christ. It is not the message of staffe-Drew, better known perhaps Bethlehem's night that has been disby his pen-name, "John Ayscough. credited. It is the world that has refused to listen, preferring to sit at the feet of its own prophets. And the result is a civilization torn up by the roots ; a falling back into a state service in the same capacity at Plymouth and at Malta. As a novelof savagery from which Christianity ist his reputation is world wide would fain have rescued the human Mgr. Drew is a convert. having been Christianity and civilization are supposed to be synonymous. But

THE PRESBYTERIAN has given alas ! civilization is not Christian. another boost to "French Evangeli The popular idea of civilization is an zation," and, as in example of the arrangement of some kind that prowonderful inroads being made upor cures for us the greatest possible Quebec Catholicism, cites one dismeasure of material comforts. Now trict where all denominations having Christianity is another science altojoined together to form a congregagether. It treats not of the material, tion, they are now able to muster an but of the spiritual. It set out to attendance of forty men, women and teach the world that genuine culture children. If they persevere for was not measured by miles of well another ten years they may be able paved and electrically lighted streets, to muster fifty. There are apt to be by a perfect system of sanitation, a few derilects to work upon always. rapid means of communication, but But if we may take Presbyin human souls taught the meaning terian statistics in other districts of of their destiny, and trained to fol-Quebec as a criterion, the sum total low after and attain it. It cried halt in the next decade in the local to a world busy solely about the ity referred to, is more liable to multiplying of human enjoyments be ten than fifty. It is the stock com. and the mitigating of human sufferplaint when harping on "Romish ings. It declared that a people aggression," that Protestants are might have but few of the luxuries

DECEMBER 26. 1914 remarkable article on " Religion and the War." The writer, Miss Mildred Tuker, thinks that the result of the war will be a set back to Protestantism in Germany, and an extension of Catholic influence, and, in lesser degree of what she terms the " simple religious influence " of the Slavonic nations, especially Russia. She traces to Luther the spirit paramount in Germany at the present time-that is, the practical deification of brute force and disregard of the sanctity of international treaties as illustrated by the invasion and ruthless destruction of the kingdom of Belgium. In the distorted doctrine of Justification by Faith as formulated by Luther, she finds a theory which " however true in itself," became " mechanical and divorced from morality." Germany's action in precipitating the War is but the logical development of Luther's doctrine. NOTWITHSTANDING THIS attitude towards the religion of the Reformation. Miss Tuker by no means leans to the Catholic side. She aspires rather to that vague, misty revival of the inner religious spirit which appears to be the last recourse of those to who, having lost their hold upon dogmatic truth, would still persuade themselves that they are religious. The spirit of which she writes is of itself but a sorry substitute for the definite and assured truths of the Christian religion as promulgated and safeguarded by their only authorized custodian, the Catholic Church. But it is daily more and more becoming the religion of those outside the Church. Mere sentiment has surely no power to warm the heart, or to enlighten the soul, or to preserve intact the precious fabric of Christian society.

MISS TUKER'S reference to Luther in this connection is very suggestive. That " Reformer " when once committed to his course threw both prudence and restraint to the winds. He became a law unto himself much as the Kaiser gets credit for assuming to be in this generation. And is not the German reference to the Belgian Treaty as a "scrap of paper " singularly reminiscent of Luther's rejection of the Epistle of St. James, and his ironical reference to the same as an "epistle of straw." The two incidents are one in kind.

WITH REFERENCE to the anticipated falling-off in Christmas giving this year because of the prevailing condition of business throughout the world a correspondent writes to the Toronto Mail making a plea for some revision of the expressed determination of many people to fall into line with that idea. The result, should this resolution be widely acted upon, is in the judgment of this correspondent, likely to be disastrous to the business world, particularly to the small trader, to whom the Christmas trade is all in all. Back of him, and directly affected, is the manufacturer of holiday goods, and the many thousands of employees dependent upon him. It is, he concludes, the failure

Before the War broke out he was Senior Chaplain to the Forces at Salisbury Plain. He has also seen received into the Church in 1878.

sent Christmas message with its God imposed condition. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men of good will."

"THE RAPAGITY OF PRIESTS"

Harold Begbie is an author and journalist well known to the English reading public. He is intensely Protestant and intensely interested in Christian social work. Some time ago in reporting conditions in the slums of Glasgow he quoted a remark of a poor old Catholic woman whom he there visited Standing by itself the incident recorded by Mr. Begbie seemed to indicate neglect of the poor by Catholic priests. For this he was courteously challenged by the Glasgow Observer, whereupon Mr. Begbie wrote as follows to the Daily Chronicle:

Sir,-I am taken to task by the Observer for recording a statement made by a Roman Catholie lized of the urban population spiritual life is the supreme Reality. By their fruits you shall know them

> THE NATURE OF LIFE INSURANCE II

In the earlier ages of Christian civilization the objects sought to be members, and impose limitations and attained by life insurance were inobligations on the company which cluded in the exercise of Christian administers the trust, for such it is. charity. The guilds of the middle It cannot be too much emphasized ages for example, provided for the that the principle of mutuality, of maintenance of incapacitated mem all for each and each for all " bers, for the education of their chilonstant and paramount.

dren, the portioning of their daughters and the assistance of their widows. The Church administered the patrimony of the poor. "Jus pauperum," the right of the needy to rethe evil of the present war. France lief was recognized. Whether in the unquestionably is returning-and the orderly and uninterrupted course of war has hastened and deepened the evolution of Christian society the denation wide movement-to the ideals velopment of organized Christian and practice of Christianity. charity would have satisfactorily The Illustrated London News in remet new conditions as they arose, it viewing Abbé Dimnet's "France Heris not here necessary to consider. self Again" says: "It is not often that As a matter of fact such development a historian has the satisfaction of seewas violently interrupted by the Reing his theories confirmed by events formation. Another great factor in while his book is actually passing producing modern conditions was the introduction of machinery -- the through the press ; but that has been the gratifying experience of Abbé industrial revolution.

Dimnet. . . Read in the light of "During the latter half of the 19th what has happened since the end of century the practice of insurance ex-July they carry their own vindication. tended with unprecedented rapidity, . . The young men of to day partly in novel forms. While its have put aside dilletanteism ; they several branches, such as life insurhave seen the hollowness of a negaance, casualty insurance and others, tive philosophy, of a naturalistic have each a characteristic develop. literature. It is a clean and strenument, all these together form an in-ous race that faces the present strug. stitution peculiar to the modern world, the origin and growth of gle; the old chivalry of France

"Certainly, I never had such a grand opportunity for reaching the English aristocracy. Curiosity, and a desire to exploit their knowledge of French opened the door again and again for a word in season, and a gift of Gospel literature.

On the next page of the Digest is a summary of an article by the Editor of the Living Church from which we quote :

"The uncultured may read The Police Gazette; but then the cultur-ed may read the Philistine. Mrs. Cassidy may hanker after the Holy Jumpers in the back street ; but Mrs. de Puyster probably dallies with mahatmas at the Century Club. And after all, it is no flatter to say in a barroom, 'All these here priests are gratters,' than to say over the tea-table, 'The religion of Calabrian table, 'The religion of Calabrian peasants is wholly superstitious fear. What is called culture does not pre vent people from coquetting with groundless and half baked philoso-phies, nor from making silly generalzations. Charlatanism seems flourish quite as well among the cultured as among the vulgar, and clever and unscrupulous minds sway both classes, whether or not they are called demagogs. It is self-will and conceit that make men the prey of whatever and whoever catches then first, and these vices seem to grow hea thily in cultivated and fallow soil alika.

The quotation has its bearing on the question. The sad fact that but bread, to butter it first on one side of civilization and yet be really civ heing ilized ; that poverty and suffering by no means excluded the knowledge of the true science of existence. And crease they fail to hold their own, the world mocked it for its pains. But Christianity was right. The be put down to mere breach of good present dreadful upheaval has given had jar to the world's philosophy.

It has not discredited Christianity. Rather has it proved conclusively which the ministerial novelist, that it is the only system that can solve the problem of life, the one Mail and Empire's reviever in regard panacea for the ills of humanity. to his latest production, " The Patrol of the Sun Dance Trail." In our Germany had very many of the things that the world prized as evijudgment, however, it hit him off to a dence of "culture." Belgium not so many. But who would be rash Connor" (and the reviewer places enough to say to day that Germany is more civilized than Belgium? The world, busy about many things. forgot or ignored the one thing necessary. It built a mighty edifice, but upon the wrong foundations. And lo! the great structure has come crumbling about its ears. Nothing remains, then, but to begin all over again ; to go back to the stable of Bethlehem and learn there that weakness is indeed strength; to hearken to the angels' message with a good will, as did the shepherds.

A world without Christ has proven itself to be an unstable world. This is the great lesson the nations must learn from civilization's dread agony. The prophets of materialism have been tried and found wanting. Then enter Christ. The "new philosophy' encouraging for a boy to work hard voted Him a fool because He disfor fifty-two Sundays if that is to be dained to be useful in the matter of our little comforts. He offered us his reward." living bread, and they gravely asked

Him to butter the mere farinaceous

"crowded out" of Quebe of people to buy Christmas gifts that counties, which is but another way is throwing these thousands of people of saying that in point of natural inout of employment, and it will be but poor consolation even should, The "Romish aggression " plea may what he calls these short-sighted economists, dole out charity to them manners. later.

THAT WAS rather severe handling THERE IS MUCH to be said for this view, which is endorsed editorially Ralph Connor." received from the by the Mail. Its truth in one sense may be said scarcely to require demonstration. Yet it should not be confused with the traditional Christmas spirit with which both writers nicety. The selling success of "Ralph bracket it. Christmas giving as once understood and practised was truly a him at the head of Canadian writers blessed thing, but has it not become in this respect ) proves on what a vulgarized and commercialized in shallow foundation such success may this generation ? It is a wide subsometimes rest. A measure of facilject, having, perhaps, many pros and ity in description, a fund of shallow cons, and for the present we forbear sentimentality, a decided dexterity in discussing it. Bnt it would be a palming off the artificial for the real, happy thing should the present war with the faculty of indulging in a nasty with its multitude of horrors and deeside now and then against religious privations and their resultant widefeelings and practices of which he is spread retrenchment in the comforts wholly ignorant, form the staple of of life, recall to men's minds once his stock in trade, and these are the more the old spiritual idea of Christqualities that appeal to the shallow mas, and in a corresponding degree and unreflecting portion of the read relegating commercialism and the ing public. In the judgment of the materialistic view to the back. Mail reviever, there is no good red ground. Then assuredly would blood in any of this author's adven-Christmas giving revert to its timetures. "The Patrol of the Sun honored place in Christendom-that Dance Trail," he adds, "will probis as a vehicle for the sincere expresably be in demand as a Sunday sion of the Christian virtues of affec-School prize, but it will not be very tion and charity.

No man can be brave who con-siders pain to be the greatest evil of IN THE Nineteenth Century and Atter, for December, appears a rather

DECEMBER 26. 1914

ORDINATION AT ST. PETER'S

In St. Peter's Cathedral on Satur-day Dec. 19th His Lordship Bishop Fallon conferred on several students of St. Peter's Seminary the following

- W. Langlois, Windsor, Des Descone,— W. Langlois, Windsor, Ont.; J. Bell, Blyth. Ont.; F. Costello, London, Ont.; H. R. Dignan, London, Ont.; A. Finn, Windsor, Ont. Subdeacon,—F. McCarthy, Kinkora. Assisting the Bishop were the Rev. D. O'Connor, Rector of the Seminary,

Archdescon ; the Rev. P. J. McKeon Assistant Priest : Rev. J. Harding and Mr. L. Forristal, Masters of Cere-

ON THE BATTLE LINE

GERMAN CRUISERS SHELL ENG. LISH CITIES

Overshadowing all other war news of the week is the incredible daring of a German squadron which steame up to the east coast of England an up to the east coast of English and on Wednesday the 16th bombarded three English towns-Scarborough, Hartlepool and Whitby. The casualties were about 500, of which over 100 were killed.

The damage to property runs into millions

London Dec. 17th - The Germa raiders consisted of three battle cruisers and three armored cruisers. Six weeks ago their light flotilla of destroyers and light cruisers experimented at Yarmouth and found that a raid on the east coast was quite feasible. This time they came in sufficient force to do real damage and sufficient force to do real tamage and chose an overcast night with heavy fog hanging over the water. They slipped at full speed through their well charted channels, through their mine fields, and when near the English coast divided into two squadrons. Two armored cruisers and one battle cruiser headed for Scarborough, while two battle cruisers and one armoured cruiser struck for Hartlepool. They timed to arrive at the same hour an eached the coast strictly according to schedule.

The escape of the German warships yesterday is accounted as simply the hardest kind of luck. The British Admiralty was well informed of the pending raid, has made preparations for crushing the enemy's squatrons, but the fog interfered and the Ger-mans dashed homeward. The British ships were ready to take to sea having been forewarned that the raid was to be made, but when they go within sight of the hostile squadron. the Germans, seeing the British forc turned and steamed off at full speed The fog was so thick that the visitor le to cover their movements and make a clean get-away. navy is saying hard luck for itself and confidently waiting for another chance. The general feeling in London is one of hopefulness that the Germans will be encouraged by yesterday's success to try again.

A German official despatch says :

"The retreating cruisers were at-tacked by four British destroyers, one of which was sunk. Another apred badly damaged. At another point another English destroyer was sunk." This has since been denied by th British Admiralty.

STIMULATES RECRUITING

Right Hon. Thomas J. MacNamara, Parliamentary secretary to the ad miralty, in speaking of the effect of the German raid, said that it was talk in London as well as in Vienna of the Russians retiring again to the Vistula and the San to "straighten their lines." The Grand Duke Nicholas has plenty of men. He has shown conclusively that he is a good strategist. But he has been unable after three months of very hard fighting to drive the Germans out of Poland or make much of an inroad into East Prussis. The superior rapidity of German concentration trips him up every time. The power of rapid concenta-tion possessed by the foe is due to the strategic railways all along the German and Austrian frontier, which Verdun.

enable Von Hindenburg to pick up an army corps with all its impedi-menta and land it two hundred miles away ready to go into action twenty-four hours later. London experts have been advising Russia to build a number of railways in Poland as a first step toward making her superior numbers tell, and if the Russians have to fall back to the Vistula again they may decide that it is good advice.

VIENNA'S STATEMENT

The following official communica ion was issued at Vienna :

"The latest news permits of no further doubt that the resistance of the Russian main force has been shattered. After the defeat of the southern wing in the battle of Limanovo, which lasted several days, our allies also gained a victory near "The Russians are now completely routed on the River Bzura.

"Threatened by our advance across the Carpathians from the south, the enemy began a general retreat, which they are trying to cover by stubborn fighting in the regions before the Carpathians. 'Our troops are attacking on the line of Grodno Zakliczyu. "Along the other parts of the front the pursuit has begun.

WHAT BERLIN PAPERS SAY

Berlin, Dec. 18.-The Local zeiger, commenting on the news of a German victory in Poland, says : Never since this old earth has had a history has such a gigantic battle been fought. Seldom in centuries has there been an event of such decisive importance. The battle of Poland will be classed in history among the victories of the first rank. It will be mentioned in the same front. breath with the battle of Salamis and Leipsic. "We have to thank Von Hinden burg and the desperate courage of his troops who fought under the glorious banners of Germany and Austria.

The Tageblatt eulogizes the brav ery and tenacity of the troops, par-ticularly the West Prussians and and Hessians, and proceeds : "This vic-tory, with the defeat of the Russians is particularly signfloant because the ussians threw all their force into the scale in order to win a victory. obey. "Politically the victory will have widespread importance, especially with the Balkan States. With this victory in the West Polish theatre the campaign in the eastern theatre of the war is for the greater part decided."

THE BUSSIAN SIDE

Petrograd, Dec. 18.—(C. P. De-spatches.)—The following is from the General Staff to night : 'On the left bank of the Vistula an almost complete lull on nearly all of the front has replaced the attacks made by the enemy in the course of the past few days. All those attacks

In connection with the advance

THE CATHOLIC RECORD

bonds between superiors and sub jects become more and more loose

Non est potestas nisi a Deo.' From which St. Paul drew the obligation same nature so they must be equal in their more favored brothers.

BOOT OF EVIL

with the enjoyment of earthly goods

ness ; they rebel against anyone who thwarts their desires. But Our Lord taught that man can be and indeed joy he felt on ascending to the Chair of Peter ; he speaks of what he saw in the development of the hierarchy the improvement of the education of

GREAT FIELD FOR ACTION

But, he says, there still remains great field for action ; and he pointe out that the Bishops of the Catholic world may help him in the work

First of all is needed concord of souls, and his holiness expresses his arm intention that any discord that may have arisen may cease and that no more shall arise. Let there be no more personal ideas, personal and unauthorized teachings, either praise to his predecessor.

ocial conditions, envy, hatred and statement this afternoon as follows before, it is in reality not seen "Between the sea and the Lys we have occupied several German trenches at the point of the bayonet and organized, the territory taken from the enemy to the west of Gheluns, races, cities, individue divided by hatred and egoism even more effectually than by barriers and walls.

"The lack of respect for authority arises from this lack of brotherly love. When an attempt is made to We have made progress at som points in the region of Vermelles. "There has been no infantry action along the remainder of the front, but we report very effective shooting on the part of our heavy artillery in the environs of Tracq Le Val, on the Aisne and in Champagne, as well as in the Argonne and in the region of

'In Lorraine and in Alsace there nothing to report." Warsaw, Russian Poland, via London, Dec. 17. (4 20 p. m.)—A great battle was in progress at Sochaczew, 80 miles west of Warsaw. The German wedge, which is proceeding in a southeasterly direction from llow, has managed, after heavy fighting in which serious losses are reported to have been inflicted, to establish itself a quarter of a mile west of Sochaczew. The Polish campaign now centers at that point.

CONDUCTED ON LARGE SCALE London, Dec. 17 -The Times' cor respondent in Petrograd understands that three additional corps from the west have reached the German arm. ies on the Russian front, making altogether nine corps which have reached Field Marshal Von Hinden burg within a month. The Germans were thereby able, he says, to send two corps to Hungary while retain-ing 20 corps on the Polish front. The Times correspondent adds that it appears that 170,000 Austro Germans ave already crossed the Dukla and neighboring passes in the Carpathian Mountains. The Austrian contingent, he says, includes three active corps the withdrawal of which from the Servian front led to disaster there. "The Austro German flanking operations in the Carpathians and on the Vistula River both are being conducted on a large scale," says a dis-patch to The Times from Petrograd. The message continues: "Each is strategically important because the enemy would be enabled thereby to occupy flanking positions on the Russians lines of communication. This must be the reason why the Germans disregard the risk of an in vasion of Silesia and weaken the roops on the Czenstochowa Cracow

DIMITRIEFF DESPONDENT

Sofia reports that General Radko Dimitriefl, commander of the Russian army in the region of Przemysl, form er Bulgarian minister to St. Peters burg, and during the Balkan War commander of the Bulgarian forces against the Turks, has written to a friend in Sofia, stating that the Rus sian army is showing signs of dissolu-tion and that the men are refusing to

GERMAN RESOURCES

"The Swedish Lieut.-Col. Evet, after a long stay on the German front, says Germany's economical forces are sufficient, that her military reserves are inexhaustible, and that her forces are steadily increas ing. FIRST ENCYCLICAL EMPHASIZES LACK OF BROTHERHOOD (By Catholic Press Association

the fold. His immediate feeling was two fold-grief at the terrible condiions into which human society had fallen, and joy, great joy, at the con-ditions of the Church bequeathed to him by his predecessor. The awful spectacle of the present war impelled him immediately to repeat, as the first words of the new Pontificate, the prayer which Pius X. had launched from his deathbed—for peace. Might God so will, he prayed, that with the coming of the new Vicar of Christ to the Throne of Peter, as at the coming of the Redeemer to the world, the

Rome, Nov. 17, 1914. "Ad Beatissimi Apostolorum Principis" is the title of the long expected

CHRISTMAS 1914 air is hideous with the crash AUTHORITY DISRESPECTED guns ;

reaming sharpnel and the The hurtling she is night a Hades where the Make nations' sons, mancipate human and social author In demon frenzy that hell's hate ity from God, to assign to the power existing on earth no other origin than the free will of men, then the

Special to the RECORD

compels, War flercer than the Visigoths and Huns

The mangled corpses fill the village street

The peaceful plains are littered with the dead ; The roads are heavy with the hurry of conscience to obey the commands of the earthly ruler save when they went contrary to the Law of God. Let the rulers and princes of the 'ng feet Of homeless outcasts, seeking daily people remember that, and ask them-selves if divorce from the religion of bread And nought but new found horrors

Christ is wise, if it is good politics to banish the teaching of the Gospel from education. When thus the two fold element of social cohesion do they meet. The old are spared not, nor the young and fair ; Alike they tribute pay to ruinous is taken away—the union of the members, that is, in brotherly love, ages' heritage, the House of The and the union with their leaders Prayerthrough obedience to authority, whe thing to insure the safety (Be these, then, Christian men, or sons of Thor ?)

wonder if strife follows : those who have been blessed by fortune against Are razed to earth, so wantonly they who believe fortune has been unfain dare. to them? Starting from the false principle that as men are equal in the their sheelute unfitness to govern. The nations, heedless of the still But the good work is far from small Voice finished.

Of Bethl'hem's Babe, have trampled "We are hearing much these days into dust The glad evangel, and have made the about peace and freedom. Let us first of all see to it that at our very strife follow inevitably. Against this must be brought the Gospel teaching of brotherly love : it will not make conditions equal but it will doors the peace, the conscience and freedom of religion, the source and They wield the sword, impelled by bring about that those on high bend empire lust, to those below them with Christian And mothers weep while Satan doth virtues and above all with justice rejoice while those below will have perfe O what a spectacle for Him Who trust in the help in time of need of

With blessings on His lips, the Prince of Peace ! "For this end the great thing is to No star of hope the Christmas sky destroy the secret root of the evil-of all evil, for 'radix omnium malorum illumes, His beacon blest, herald of War's surcupiditas'-that is, material welleing as the one object of life

O world gone mad ! O place of many Men's minds are imbued with the worthy agents of this government. mha idea that hanniness is hound un

O mockery of that first Christmas

they seek these latter with all the strength with which they seek happinight, When shepherds heard the angel co nation we must put an end to the horts sing, While Juda's hills were robed in dazzling light!

s happy in tears, in poverty, in per O doth not e'en an echo of it cling secution. Happiness, then, does not lie in things of this world but of the In these sad days when brutal power is right? Is this the answer of two thousand next. So faith in the supernatural, desire and hope for the sternal good, must be restored. With the restora-tion of this faith will vanish the mad years Of Christian teaching? God in heaven desire for the goods of this world." Benedict XV. then passes to the look down, underhand support from this country but let our Catholic men continue to And pity'ng dry the mothers' blinding tears, nvestigate the truth of conditions sake of her who once in Beth-For and then stand for the truth in all l'hem town, their might, until every word and Could find no place, but now a place sentence of its revelation is heard in appears.

the young clergy, the defence of Catholic doctrine, the greater decorum of religious worship, the spread of missions, for all of which The little children call Thee. There is room

In our poor hearts where fain we'd ne pays due and great tribute of have you bide. Then come to us, blest fruit of Mary's womb. For some are faithful still, some doors are wide, Jesus, do not tarry, quickly Dear

Intermountain Catholic. come. Rev. D. A. CASEY, (Columb A SOCIALIST CORNERED

OUR NON-CATHOLIC CONTEMPORARIES

From The Sacred Heart Review

cinnati hotel some time ago, writes Fred Noyes, a well dressed mechanic addressed me thusly: "Pretty hard through books, newspapers or public iscourses, no more arbitrary intro It is remarkable how history rechance for a man out of work to get peats itself. The pretense was made in Elizabethan Bogland that Cathoanything to do nowadays, ain't it ?' duction of new titles. denominations epithets, in the profession of Catho I said I didn't know about that. Said he "Well, if they do get work licity ; for, lacking truth and justice lics were not persecuted and put to death because of their Catholicity, these things serve only to sow dis-sension. Instead of indulging in they will have to produce from $6 to $10 in order to get one. That's the but because of their danger to the useless questions let Catholics do State, and to day in America the at-tempted political, social and com-mercial proscription of Catholics sets kind of robber system we have." Said I, "You're a socialist."

human nature to imagine that they will forget in a day the atrocious in-sults offered them when they were yet comparatively weak by the stronger party in the body politic.

It is therefore just plain ordinary common sense for our Protestant year past have conclusively proven industrious.

tude.

Washington. "This is the work which faces

one day owe it a great debt of grati

The federation adopted resolutions addressed to President Wilson along

While sitting in the office of a Cin

the lines of the Cardinal's address.-

There was where I had some fun, asked him what volume, page etc., and finally I said : "My friend I don't mind making $5 out of you or letting you make it out of me. I'll bet you $5 that the census reports say nothing of the kind. Let us make this wager, then go to the pub-lic library and prove who is wrong."

FIVE

Church

Decoration

Did he bet ? You bet he didn't ; foundation of all real peace and free but he felt bad. I pitied him. I told him he had read that kind of rot in dom are not violated by men who might well be brought before the The Appeal to Reason or The Social Democrat Herald ; that like most of tribunal of the common law of humanity instead of aspiring to the presidency of a sister republic and the Socialist propaganda, it was un-true. Well, anyhow, he was going our nearest neighbor. But Catholic men will not rest until the truth is to look it up and see whether I was made known as it is, and not as it is reported by those who have proven themselves publicly and privately incapable of being considered trustlying or not : he even hinted that WAS

I then expressed a willingness to go to the library and pay his expenses (car fare) in order to show that the Socialists were fooling the working class. Being a Socialist, he "And when the truth is known, then all the world will realize that for the sake of our public honor as a didn't propose to get into any such hole.

Masonic conspiracy which has for two years deluged Mexico with blood, I saw him the next day in the hotel and made it my business to re-spectfully inquire if he had visited the library. No, he didn't bave time; drained the material resources of that country, and spread atheism and but he would. Still he was sore ; anarchy over a land once happy and didn't want to talk about it ; in fact, "Let us tolerate no further even a didn't want to talk with me at all -suspicion of what has been more than once openly asserted, that the leaders of this anarchy are receiving Buffalo Union and Times.

FATHER FRASER'S CHINESE MISSION

Taichowfu, China, June 7, 1914.

Dear Mr. Coffey, - When I came here two years ago I only had five catechists, now I have twentyone. I owe this rapid progre every Catholic man in this country to day. Let the federation lead the way and America and Mexico will principally to my dear friends of the CATHOLIC RECORD. God bless them and your worthy paper ! It takes about $50 a year to sup port a catechist and for every such sum I receive I will place a man in a new district to open it up to the Faith. During the past few months I have opened up quite a number of new places and the neophytes are very pious and eager for baptism. You will appreciate the value of my catechists when I tell that I baptized ing of the year as a result of their work. I have even brighter hopes for the future if only my friends abroad will continue to back me up financially.

Previously acknowledged... $4,610 98 A Friend, St John's..... Sacred Heart Society, Little 6 00 Pond .....

Agnes Nicholson, Mabou..... 1 00

5 00

2 00

1 00- 2 00-

5 00

5 00 2 00

1 00 1 00

worth two army corps to Kitchener's army.

THE GERMAN REPORT Canadian Press Despate

Berlin, Dec. 16 .- An official an nouncement issued here says: "A part of our high seas fleet made an attack on the English east coast and bombarded, on the 16th, early in the morning, both fortified and coast places at Scarborough and Hartle-

Regarding its further course of action no information can be given.

Berlin, Dec. 18.-The following official details concerning the German squadron's attack on the east coast of England are published here:

"When approaching the English coast our cruisers were unsuccess-fully attacked by four British torpedo boat destroyers in misty weather.

"The batteries at Hartlepool were silenced and the gas works destroyed. There were several detonations and three big fires in the town could be observed from our ships.

The coast guard station and water works at Scarborough and the coast guard station and signal station at Whitby were destroyed. "Our ships received some shots from the coast batteries, but suffered only slight damage. (Signed) VON BEHNEKE.

RUSSIANS DEFEATED

In the Eastern theatre of the War things look bad for the Russians-

The Globe Summary, Dec. 18 says : The news from Galicia is distinct ly unfavorable to the Russians. The Austrian armies which emerged from the Carpathians, and which it is believed were strongly reinforced by several German army corps, are forcing the Russians back from Cracow, and are menecing the Russian let flank as far east as Pizemysl, the siege of which the Austrians hope to of part of our troops towards the Bzura River (Russian Poland), and in view of the fact that the Austrians are continually receiving reinforcements in the Carpathians, we have thought fit to rearrange the positions of some of our armies. "We checked the offensive of the we repulsed.

enemy yesterday in western Galicia On the front between Sanok and Lisko we have succeeded in our offensive and have captured 3,000 prisoners. Several guns and mitrailleuses. and he looked, not only on those in communion but also on all the others destined by God to come into

EGYPT ANNEXED

(Canadian Press Despatch London, Dec. 17.-Egypt has been declared a British protectorate. This announcement was made officially to-night. OFFENSIVE MOVEMENT IN THE WEST

The German press, commenting on the situation in the west, has ex-pressed the opinion that operations of importance are impending in Al-sace, where, it is said, French reinforcements are being brought up. A new French attack from the direc.

voice of peace might be heard on the earth. But there is another war, the cause indeed of that which afflicts mankind to day, the war among men's souls, and of this Pope Banddict XV traces four principal tion of Toul also is expected in Berlin. The German and French official communications disclose little of Benedict XV. traces four principa what is going on in the west. The causes : the lack of mutual and sin-French claim to have organized the cere love among men ; lack of reground which they gained during spect for authority ; the injustice of the relations between different the preceding days. From the number of wounded reaching the hospitals of both the Germans and the allies it is evident classes of citizens ; the putting up of material well being as the one object of the activity of mankind. NO BROTHERLY LOVE TO-DAY that the fighting in Flanders was of a more severe character than shown "These enemies must be beaten in the official statements. The cor then true peace will return on the earth. Our Lord, bringing peace to the earth, established it on the basis respondents report that the hospital are again filling up, while along the Dutch border continuous firing can of brotherly love. The whole teach-ing cf His life, of His Passion and death accentuates this. But this is not the spirit which reigns now in

e FRENCH STATEMENT

be heard.

siege of which the Austrians hope to Paris, Dec. 17, 250 p. m.-The raise by their advance. There is French war office gave out an official the world, where, while brotherhood is talked of as never, perhaps, it was constantly.

everything to keep the faith pure ; let them root out for ever the evil Encyclical Letter which appeared in the Latin text late last night. plant of Modernism and the modern-izing spirit, which seeks for novelty

The Holy Father, Pope Benedict XV, addressing for the first time the in everything. Let them join to the profession of faith that excellent in "Patriarchs, Primates. Archbishops, Bishops and other Ordinaries of fluence for good, mutual example It may well take shape in Catholic places, in Peace and Communion with the Apostolic See," says that, raised to the Chair of the Prince of associations, and the Holy Father would like to see these multiply, with the one proviso that they always hold firmly to the instructions given the Apostles, his eyes turned to the immense flock entrusted to his care, and to be given by the Apostolic See.

SUBMISSION TO AUTHORITY

Then, as the work of the clergy is above all things necessary for the actuation of the things he has outlined, his holiness exhorts the bishops to supervise with all care the training of the young priests, remind-ing them of all that his two predecessors have said on this great sub-ject. He specially exhorts the clergy to be ever in complete union with and submission to their bishops and deplores that the spirit of insubor-dination is even found sometimes not far from the sanctuary. Let all remember that the authority of the bishops is not human but Divine; he, then, who is not with his bishop is not with the Church. His Holiness closes with another prayer for peace—peace for the nations, which will find in it inestimable good; peace for the Church which will find in it the liberty which is its right; an end to the abnormal conditions in which the Vicar of Jesus Christ is now placed, and against which, fulfilling his sacred duty he renews the protest of his predecessors. For all these inasmuch as the heart of man thing whose care he entrusts his person, his ministry, and the souls redeemed his ministry, and the souls rea by Christ.-Chicago New World.

their power as part and parcel of the nation. They can afford to retain their equanimity under the attacks of their short sighted enemies. Of course, no discrimination; no matter how unfair, practiced against Catho-The best of friends, like the best lice, would justify them in acting un of shoes, will wear out if used too fairly towards others. But it would expecting too much of poor up the same defense for itself. The atriotism of Catholics in England, who fought side by side with their Protestant neighbors against the common enemy, gave the lie to the charges of their slanderers, just as the patriotism of Catholics toas the particular of Catholics of day in America renders the charge of the "guardians" a thing for scornful laughter. Nevertheless, so deeply ingrained is this suspicion of Catholics, so easily is it aroused that the meanest and most contemptible creature that walks the earth when he emits an anti Catholic cry will be believed as against the evidence of a whole phalanx of reputable historians and statesmen.

This year has seen a recrudescence of anti-Catholic bigotry of the most malignant kind. It has attempted to make itself felt all over the country. We have seen it at work here among ourselves in Massachusetts, and in the State of New York it has been particularly malicious. To their credit be it said the leading daily newspapers have rebuked it in no uncertain terms. We regret exceed ingly that our Protestant contempor aries of the better class are not tak ing the stand they should against this ignorant fanaticism, for, after all, it is not Catholics that are hurt The A. P. A. boom is a boomerang. Catholics are in this country to stay. They are for the most part faithful to the old fashioned morality, and they are bound to increase and multiply. It is arrant folly and nonsense, to put it no stronger, to attempt to circumscribe their legiti-mate activity as citizens or to limit

"Yes, and every man ought to be. M. McC., Souris..... Why, under Socialism every man X. Y., Toronto..... would receive from $4,000 or $5,000 Mrs. McGlynn, Lucknow..... 50 00-1 00-Thansgiving Offering, Ottawa a year," he replied. Said I, "Why, friend, where did you get your statistics that cause you Eganville Friends... Baby Class, Eganville School. School Children, Eganville... to say to me that the workers pro Rev. P. S. Dowdall, Pembroke duce from $6 to $10 in order to get Rev. J. V. Meagher, Kingston He hesitated a bit and then broad. R. O'Connor, Quebec...... be United States census reports. K. R. Beaverly, Vancouver... In memory of Mrs. McDonald the United States census reports.

Merchants Bank of Canada ESTABLISHED 1864 Paid-up Capital $7.000.000 Reserve Fund and Undivided Profits 7,248,134 217 Branches and Agencies in Canada Savings Department at All Branches Deposits Received and Interest allowed at best current rates Bankers to the Grey Nuns, Montreal; St. Augustine's Seminary, St. Joseph's Academy, and St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto. Capital Trust Corporation, Limited Authorized Capital $2,000,000.00 BOARD OF DIRECIORS: BOARD OF DIRECTORS: President: M. J. O'Brien, Renfraw. Vice-Presidents: Hon. S. N. Parent, Ottawa; Denis Murphy, Ottawa; R. P. Gough, Toronto; A. E. Corrigan, Ottawa; McPhillips, K., Vancouver. C. H. Lang, Berlin. Seitz, Toronto. Provest, Ottawa. O'Brien, Montreal. ho beny, Montreal. Doheny, Montreal. Managing Director: B. G. Consoliy. G. McPhillips, K.C., Vancouver. o. C. H. Lang, Berlin. J. Seitz, Toronto. J. J. Seitz, Toronto. A. E. Provost, Ottawa. Hon, R. G. Beazley, Halifax. W. P. O'Brien, Montreal. Hugh Doheny, Mont R. W. Tobin, M.P., B

Offices : 29 Sparks St., Ottawa, Ont.

DO THIS WITHOUT FURTHER DELAY. If your will is not made, consult a lawyer without delay, draw your will and make provision for the perfect administration of your estate by naming as your Executor the Capital Trust Corporation, Limited, is in the hands of God, he exhorts all to pray to God and to ask the intercession of the Blessed Virgin, to

FIVE MINUTE SERMON

THE BIRTHDAY OF THE SAVIOUR

SIX

"For this day is born to you a Saviour, who is brist the Lord, in the city of David." Luke II, ii.)

My dear friends, these words of joy ere spoken by the angel of the hepherds near Bethlehem one tousand nine hundred years ago. I they filled the hearts of the dear shenhards with tenders mas by excessive drinking is not perhaps as prevalent now as in days Judean shepherds with joy long ago, so to day they fill the hearts of all with gladness, love, thanksgiving and Every nation celebrates the anniversary of the most important events in its history. The 22nd of February and the 4th of July will never be forgotten by the American people ; for they are kept alive each succeeding to Christmas time is not altogether gone. In many places, and among many people who ought to know better the custom of drinking intoxiyear by a proud and grateful nation in honor of the birth of the Saviour of our country and also in honor of birth of independence in America days.

To day we celebrate the anniverry of the birth of Him who was the Saviour, not of one particular portion of the earth, but of the whole world. What joy, then, should fill the hearts of all "For this day is born to you a Saviour.'

pagan times. If we cast a glance back, and conider what the world was one thouand nine hundred year ago, before the coming of Christ, and then conider what it has been since among peoples guided by Christian prin-ciples, then we will have some idea of our motives for rejoicing to day. When Christ came, the majority of mankind was in slavery, without honor, without freedom, without hope. They were sunk into the lowest of immorality and crime. He ught them new doctrines concern ing the duties of man to man, of the strong to the weak, of the rich to the poor, of man to woman. He incul-cated the mutual duty of love and erated. charity. He sent those who loved Him to feed the hungry, to give drink to the thirsty, to clothe the naked, to noom the captive and to visit the ick. He laid special stress upon the virtues of purity, meckness, humility, patience, faith and love. These doctrines of Christ were instrumental in securing the abolition of slavery, popular rights free government, pro-tection of children and the poor, in bringing knowledge within the reach of all and in spreading over the whole world institutions of charity. Is it any wonder then that we rejoice and feel that heaven is brought nearer to us? Angels are, no doubt, singing around us at this moment and assisting us to be more fervent in our acts of thanksgiving and praise. For it is a day of unijoy and the angel's message ot been received in vain. versal has not b

But if it is a day of rejoicing for all, it seems to me to be in a special manner a day of rejoicing for the poor and afflicted. The poor seem to the especial favorites of Christ. le was born in poverty. He, to Whom the whole world belonged, was born in a stable, destitute of the comforts of life. His parents were poor, and His first adorers on earth were poor, hardworking, mountain hepherds. And afterwards He pointed out as one of the signs that Ie was the Messiah that "The poor have the Gospel preached to them." And one of the characteristic marks of His Church seems to be that it is the Church of the poor. Is not to day, then, in a special manner a day of rejoicing for the poor?

When we cast our eyes on that Divine Infant wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying on a little bunch of straw in a stable on that cold December night, can we complain any more of our poor and wretched lot? When we see that God-man unffering from cold a can we refuse to suffer and bear our trials and tribulations patiently for His sake? When we reflect on the humble and abject birth of the Son of God, shall we any longer have those proud thoughts because of our wealth, our clothing, or our beauty? No. Let us practise those virtues especially taught by the Infant Jesus in the manger at Bethlehem. Let us practise the Godlike virtues of humility, poverty and mortification, and try as much as possible to imitate Him who came on earth to show us the way to the elevation of the Host we all felt His poor. Do this and you will have what I most carnestly wish you, A merry Christmas and a happy New Year. that above men and armies He is, He Who reigns in heaven and Who raises all Empires—He Who permits cants and of giving intoxicants to guests, at Christmas and New Year, still subsists, and much harm is done

'That spirit of imprudence and error' The fatal harbinger of the fall of TEMPERANCE Kings' * 'cet esprit d'imprudence et THOUGHTS FOR CHRISTMAS erreur, De la chute des rois funeste avant. The custom of celebrating Christcoureur').

perhaps as prevalent now as in days gone by. Temperance sentiment has had its effect upon the people at large and a sense of shame, if nothing else, keeps within bounds that tendency to over-celebration which come of us can well remem-ber as being characteristic of other days. The spectacle was unforgetabl when all heads bowed, the priest's chasuble left the spurs visible while the officer gave the Benediction. All the sturdy youth of La Comte were there, stalwart men, pensive and brave, the sons of those who had in former times furnished such valiant Nevertheless, the danger incident soldiers to France."

AN ABBE LIEUTENANT'S ADDRESS The "Semaine, Religiouse" of Tours relates another incident. Abbe Mauduit is in the front fighting line as lieutenant. Recently his com-manding officer ordered him to lead his company to a very dangerous position, telling him he feared he was particularly to the young and in-experienced at festivities, which purport to be a celebration of the sending him to his death. The Abbe dia not hesitate, but his mind was coming to earth of the Saviour of mankind, but which are really bac-chanalian revelries reminiscent of disturbed for his men. To make them accept willingly the dangerous To make mission he addressed them as follows, "My friends, you are all determined to do your duty. We are about to find ourselves in great danger. If Of late years, we regret to say there has been a departure from the home celebration of Christmas. It is considered smart to day for people sometimes in giving your orders I may have appeared harsh and irrita-ble, forgive me. You all know me to take their Christmas dinner at hotels, and the tendency in those places is toward an excess of gayety which accords ill with the real Christwell I have always sought to show mas spirit. Christmas is indeed a me more often Monsieur l'Abbe of time of joy, a time of good will; but those who make of it a time of flashy Monsieur le Cure than Mon Lieuten ant. Well, as priest would you like ependthrift hilarity, a time of over-indulgence in liquor, wrench it from me to give you my blessing and ab-solve you before we start ?" Having its real purpose. Such celebration of Christmas is an abuse; and among received a unanimous affirmative re-ply, all the brave men bowed and made the sign of the cross religiously, while the Abbe soldier traced the Catholic people it should not be tolerated. The time was when Christ-mas was not celebrated in this part of country at all. Puri-tan gloom enshrouded New England sign of pardon and salvation. The company then advanced intrepidly under fire from the enemy. In a few minutes its lieutenant, Abbe Mauduit in those days, and it was an offense to observe the Day which for centur fell wounded in the head by a burst-ing shell. His wound necessitated a ies the Catholic Church had cele most dangerous operation, but it is hoped his life will be saved. brated in such a joyous manner. At present, however, we have swung away so far from that straight-laced

GENERAL VON KLUCK A CATHOLIC away so far from that straight-laced period that we are fast near-ing the time, if we have not already reached it, when it maybe necessary to restrain our Christmas celebration as being altogether too boisterous, too dinnant, and entirely unworthy of The Catholic Messenger, of Daven port, Ia., has the following interest-ing item : "It is said that General Von Kluck, of the German army, who has been in command of the army operating in Belgium and who made flippant, and entirely unworthy the advance upon Paris is a Catholic the sweet Feast of the Nativity of It is not so well known that we have in the tricity a first cousin of the We hope during the coming season that Catholics who know the true general in the person of Father Kluck, pastor of St Mary's (German)

Church in Rock Island. Father Kluck has dropped the "Von," but we are informed that his father and the general's father were brothers." meaning of Christmas will not be found among those who disgrace the day by over indulgence in intoxicants themselves, or by tempting others to such over-indulgence. As there is a custom among us of taking the temperance pledge during Lent in honor of our Blessed Lord's thirst on VALOR OF FRANCE'S SOLDIER PRIESTS Official homage to the valor of the soldier priests of France is the fact that on September 15, after six weeks had been proposed to the Govern-ment by their military chiefs as de-serving the Legion of Honor for their

THE MALIGNED SISTERS

THE CATHOLIC RECORD

WHOLE FAMIL' USES THEM "Fruit-a-tives" Keeps Young And Old

in Splendid Health

CHE AND

J. W. HAMMOND Esc. SCOTLAND, ONT., Aug. 25th. 1913 "Fruit-a-tives" are the only pill manufactured, to my way of thinking. manufactured, to my way of thinking. They work completely, no griping whatever, and one is plenty for any ordinary person at a dose. My wile was a martyr to Constipation. We tried everything on the calendar without satisfaction, and spent large sums of money until we happened on "Fruit-a-tives". I cannot say too much in their favor. their favor.

We have used them in the family for about two years and we would not use anything else as long as we can get

"Fruit-a-tives". Their action is mild, and no distress at all. I have recommended them to many other people, and our whole family uses them".

family uses them". J. W. HAMMOND. Those who have been cured by "Fruit-a-tives" are proud and happy to tell a sick or ailing friend about these won-derful tablets made from fruit juices. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. A tall delay or sent on receint of prior At all dealers or sent on receipt of pric by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Regardless of color or religious be lief, they gave a shelter to the home-less, nursed the sick and comforted the bereaved in a manner that added their names to the annals of the part.

great. "In all the history of the world, in times of stress, the nuns have moved through the labyrinths of bloody war and darkness, angels of mercy. The priests have lifted the weary and aided them in struggling along stony paths ; they have held the wine of encouragement to dying lips and have made the dying hours of many hopeless ones happy. May the trouble between the sects be straightened out and each made to see that the strong arm of the other is made neces sary to the welfare of all.-St. Paul Bulletin.

HEMMED IN BY RING OF STEEL

PEOPLE OF BELGIUM POWER. LESS TO HELP THEMSEVES IN ANY WAY

London, Dec. 4.-Herbert Clark Hoover, chairman of the American commission for relief in Belgium, recommission for relief in Beigum, re-turned to London, to day after a week's trip of inspection in Belgium. Mr. Hoover reported that the distri-bution of foodstuffs sent in care of the American commission is well under way, but stated that the condition of famine which threatened the population of Belmember of a prominent Protestant family of Richland, Wis., sent to the Richland Democrat, a noble letter, in which she paid a high tribute to the maligned Sisters. We quote :

Every soul will be dependent upon us for bread within thirty days. "So far, our efforts have necessar-ily been devoted to provisioning the larger centers. It requires osganiza-tion and patience to be able to penetrate the outlying towns and villages. It will be difficult for the people of the United States to comprehend the the United States to comprehend the difficulties which we meet with, in purely executive matters, in the elaboration of this work.

icle the conversion to the true faith of Lady Holmes, widow of Sir Rich-ard Holmes, K. C. V. O., V. P. S. A., who was for thirty five years librarian to Queen Victoria and King Edward "The clock has absolutely stopped in Belgium. An industrial country in Belgium. An industrial country which was dependent on the over-seas before, is now walled up with 70 per cent. of the people idle. There are no telegraphs, telephones, railways or post offices except for military purpose. The Belgians, of a military necessity, are not allowed to pass from their own towns, and VII. at Windsor Castle. Lady Holmes is the eldest daughter of the late Rev. Canon Richard Gee, D. D., for many years Vicar of Windsor and Canon of St. George's. She was re ceived in the Church on All Hallows' eve by the Very Rev. Canon Drake at St. Bernard's Convent, Slough. consequently there is no communica-tion throughout the country except Admiral Sir St. George D'Arcy Irvine, retired, of the British by personal visits of our own men navy, who, as already announced, re-ceived the sacrament of baptism in

CANALS BLOCKED

" Transportation by rail is possible Rome, on November 9, is now eighty years old, but is hale and hearty. He joined the service at fourteen in only a few directions and then must await military necessity. The wonderful canal system is blocked in years of age and worked his way up to the important and honorable post of Admiral. He served at the Orimea, 1854 55, and got the Orimean and Turkish medals, the Sebastopol many places by the destruction of bridges and some canals have been allowed to run dry. Therefore it be-comes part of our business to get these cleared and to stimulate the clasp and the Baltic medal. He also served in the Russo Turkish war of subsidiary transport services of the country, not only for the transporta-tion of our food, but to permit the transportation of coal from the Belgian mines-a sore necessity this a K. C. B. 'There are no courts and the prisons have been emptied, but the gendarmes have remained at their policemen and judges. The people are most law abiding. The central story of Irish heroism is told by a and provincial governments have trooper of the Dragoons, writing disappeared. The city and com-munal governments, however, still d through them the distribuexist a carried a chum to a farmhouse un-der fire, and when the retreat came tion of food is being arranged. The Belgians are applying themselves got left behind. with the most extraordinary devo tion to the perfection of this organ them. There were only two, one wounded, against a dozen Uhlans. Behind a barrier of furniture they ization and if we lacked any other inspiration for exertion in our part of the rich and the poor, a veritable kept Germans at bay, wounding or democracy of famine which is workkilling half of them. "The surviving Germans made off, ing night and day to reform their

FOOD TICKETS

" The detail of the method is that after investigation by the communal authorities, food tickets are issued indicating the number and amount of rations the holder is entitled to, and twice daily this ticket, is presented by the holder to the food can teens for its quota and is duly punched. The ration consists of punched. The ration containing potatoes, together with a little coffee and salt. "All those who can afford to pay are compelled to pay the communal authorities at the rate of 4 cents per overshadowed everything else to such an extent that happenings ration. The destitute are given tickets gratis. The communal auth-orities contribute to the relief comsuch an extent that happenings which at other times would receive the widest and closest attention are mittee 1 cent per diem per capita on the total tickets issued in their com passed by or overlooked as too triv-ial for anything but local consider-ation. This is especially the case with Mexico, where the situation has mune. They obtaining this revenue from the tickets sold, or by public subscription in the communes through the national committee rapidly been growing worse, and ap-proaching the stage where some kind of intervention by the United States seems inevitable. The "fighting for freedom" of the armies under our supervision. These funds ultimately become available to us for the purchase of food. Further-more, the same ration of bread and salt per diem is sold through the bakeries to agreed lists of the more well to computation and as this of Villa, Carranza and Zapata has degenerated to the level of the bestwell to do population, and as this bread is disposed of at a positive profit, our income has some further increase. Taking it all together, about one half of the foods which we send o Belgium are paid for, so when the Mexico, with the abandon customary American people contribute two shiploads of food, they enable us to to the most savage hordes of Asia and Africa. A little more of this and and Africa. A little more of this and "As a type of organization, that "As a type of organization, that large example lity. In that take something bigger than an ignor.

THE EXTENT OF IT

or about five days' supply. We have about two or three days supplies in Liege and similar supplies in other centers such as Louvain, Charleroi, Namur and Luxemburg." 'Tis well to remember that the who seek advice generally want it

Caulfield

DISTINGUISHED CONVERTS

English Catholic exchanges chron

the chapel of the English College,

1878, and at the bombardment of Alexandria in 1882 and received the Egyptian medal and the Khedive's bronze star. In 1902 he was created

IRISHMEN SHOW DARING

HEROISM

Dablin, Nov. 12 .- By Mail .- This

"There was a man of ours who

A German patrol called and found and brought a machine gun to the house and threatened to destroy it.

The two soldiers were not unmindful bring loss on them or the village they rushed out, probably with some mad idea of taking the gun. Just over the threshold of the door they fell dead, their blood bespatter.

IN MEXICO

The great conflict in Europe has

ial. In all parts of Mexico convents are being sacked and burned, their inmates brutally treated, churches desecrated, schools razed, and the children beaten and tortured. Pillage, butcherd and lust are abroad in than

of the kindness shown them by the owners of the farm, and rather ing the walls of the house."

DECEMBER 26, 1914

CHURCH ORGANS TUNING REPAIRING WATER MOTORS LEONARD DOWNEY

will remove them and leave no blemishes. Reduces any puff or swelling. Does not blister or remove the hair, and horse can be worked. $2 abottle delivered. Book 6 K free. ABSORBINE, JR., the antiseptic liniment for man-kind. Per Bolis, Bruises, Old Sores, Sweilings, Varicos-Vens, Varicouties. Allays Pain. Price SL and $2 ab bottle at druggiss or delivered. Will tell more if you write. W F. YOUNG, P. D. 2051/ymans Bildg., Montreal, Can.

BELLS, PEAKS CHIMES Send for catange Copper a dEast India Tia. Famous avec tich tones, volume and durability. Guaranteed, tich tones, volume and durability. Guaranteed, tick tones, volume and durability. Guaranteed E. W. VANDUER DO., Propy Puckeys Bell Foundy (Estab. 1837). E. Second St., CINCINNATI, C

STAMMERERS

The methods employed at the Arnott Institute are the only logical methods for the cure of stammering. They treat the CAUSE, not merely the habit, and insure NATURAL SPECH. If you have the slightest impediment in your speech, don't hesitate to write us. Cured pupils everywhere. Pamphlet, particulars and references sent on request.

THE ARNOTT INSTITUTE, Berlin, Ont., Can.

FITS CURED By TRENCH'S REMEDY

The Famous Home Treatment for Epilepsy and Fits . . .

Recommended by Clergymen of all Denominations Twenty-five Years' Success. Over 1,000 unsolicited Testimonials in one year. CONVINCING TESTIMONY

Has been given by people in every walk of Those interested should write at once. Pamphlet containing proof positive post free from

Trench's Remedies, Limited 415 St. James' Chambers TORON' Sole Proprietors Trench's Remedies Limited, Dublin, Ireland. TORONTO

St. John's, Newfoundland

H. J. BROWNRIGG IMPORTER OF

Seeds, Fruit, Provisions, and Groceries

TO THE Wives and Mothers of Canada

There are in our Dominion one hundred and eighty thousand widowed women, of whom doubtless, many, on the death of their husbands, were left on their own resources. And in addition there were, doubt And in addition there were, dotter less, in numerous cases children left to be supported and educated. For-tunate indeed were those women whose responsibilities were lightened by life insurance. The Mutual is strictly a Canadian Compary issuing ideal home protect

Company, issuing ideal home protec-MUTUAL Policy in every Canadian

THE

Mutual Life

Assurance Co. of Canada

Waterloo, Ontario

war, eighty-two secular priests and a attitude under fire. These figures, says the London Catholic Times, are more eloquent than any panegy-ric. — Philadelphia Standard and

Max of Saxony, brother of the pres-ent King and a priest who has an in-Not long ago Miss Ella Fort James, member of a prominent Protestant family of Richland, Wis., sent to the timate knowledge of both London and Paris, in the former of which he worked for some years as a curate and in the latter as a professor. This the cross, so also during the Christ-mas season a similar pledge should be taken in honor of the Divine Babe in the crib .- Sacred Heart Review. THE WAR

" The

SOME CATHOLIC SIDELIGHTS

THE REV. PRINCE MAX GETS THE IBON CROSS Amongst the Catholic chaplains with the German armies in Prince

Our Blessed Lord.

myself, courageous and I demand of you to be also courageous. You call

He humbled Himself by becoming man. By humility He began and completed His victory over hell. He chose as His friends and apostles the humble. And He says to His followers, "Learn of Me because I am meek and humble of heart." lowers.

Meek and numble of neart." He was rich, but for our sake be-came poor that by His poverty we might become rich. His whole life, from the crib of Behlehem to the cross on Calvary's heights, was one ntinued series of suffering and mortification endured for sinful man. Without these virtues, and especially without humility, no progress can be made on the road to heaven.

For as pride is the source of almost all sin, so humility is the foundation of all virtue.

Is there not much, then, to cause us to rejoice on this day? And should it not be a day of happiness and joy to all the world?

But, although it is a day of rejoicing for all, and especially for the poor, there are some so weighed down poor, there are some so we so we with poverty and misery as to be un-happy. If you know of any such, happy. If you know of any such, try to make him happy, at least at this joyful season by relieving his wants. Those who do so may be assured that their own Christmas time will be all the more happy and bleesed: for He, who promised that a cup of cold water given in His name should not go unrewarded, will not fail to repay those who remember royal priest has just been decorated by the Kaiser with the Iron Cross for valor on the field. He goes every where with his men and in the few intervals of rest he never rests, for he is preparing the soldiers for death hearing their confessions and administering the sacrament. The King of Saxony and his son, both Catholics, are now with the armies. There is a possibility that if both are killed in the fortunes of war Saxony will have a sacerdotal sovereign. Another Caththe hours spent in the quiet halls of olic commander of the German host is Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria. Many members of the Centrum are also with the army serving, some as privates, while the workmen's clubs of Cologne and its neighborhood have scarcely a member left. The Volksverein and the Bonifaciusverein

Volksverein and the Bonifaciusverein are turning all there attention to succoring the wounded and assist-ing those dependents of the soldiers who are heavily struck by the gen-eral trade depression and the ab-sence of the breadwinner.

THE INFLUENCE OF FRANCE'S SOLDIEL

PRIESTS

It would be impossible to exagger-ate the beneficial influence exercised by the priests in the French army. Proof of it is furnished every day. What for instance, can be more elo quent than the following extract from a letter addressed by a soldier to Abbe Louis Ballu, parish priest of Parnay, in the department of the Chen? "This morning we left the trenches, carrying our shovels, pick-axes and rifles, to attend Mass (I could not help thinking of Parnay's pretty little church and its priest in the sweet, tranquil country). That Mass was celebrated by our captain writer was educated in a es for relie " It is difficult to state the position convent, and for six years lived among Catholics. Not once in all that time was any effort made to inof the civil population of Belgium without appearing hysterical," said Mr. Hoover in his statement. "I do duce her to enter the Catholic faith. not know that history presents any parallel of a population of 7,000,000 men surrounded by a ring of steel and utterly unable, by any conceiv-able effort of their own, to save No influence of that kind was brought to bear upon any of the Protestant pupils. The beautiful lives of the nuns had, however, lasting influence in other channels. One of the sweetest memories in that distant past are themselves.

THE RESPONSIBILITY

'From the nature of things, it is "The writer had a Protestant friend, who, at the age of sixteen, deimpossible for the commission even to possess any opinion on the rights and wrongs which have created this sired to become a nun. She applied to the Mother Superior of the Ursurations issued to adults, parents are situation. The Germans state flatly that the people of Belgium are norcompelled to produce all children to line Convent in Galveston, Texas, and was told that her admission communal doctors, who are on con-stant duty in charge of the canteens mally dependent on the importation of foodstuffs for five sixths of their would not be granted without the consent of her family and without Five different kinds of tickets gradusubsistence, that the Germans have not the slightest objection to the Belthorough premeditation on her own part. This girl afterwards decided to remain a Protestant and not one gians, or any one else, importing foodstuffs into Belgium, that it is not the Germans who have blocked the word was ever offered by the Mother overseas supply, and that there is no dairies. In the great tidal wave of Galves overseas supply, and that there is no obligation upon them to feed the civil population which could, through the normal course of trade obtain sub-sistence. The allies, on the other hand, contend that a free port for the importation of foodstuffs into Belton in 1900 the Sisters of the Ursuline Convent saved hundreds of lives

" The amount and character of the destitution may perhaps be appreci-ated from the present conditions in Brussels. Of the population of about 650,009 remaining in the city, an average of 218,000 were on the adult gium would practically amount to an gium would practically amount to an entry port for food supplies for the Germans. It is enough for us that there are 7,000,000 people ground between two gigantic millstones. canteens and 31,000 babies were on the baby canteens last week or more than one-third of the total population.

There is probably no more pitiable sight ever presented than the long We are meeting with no obstruction from the military authorities of lines of mothers with children in arms waiting their turn at these can-Belgium in the prosecution of our work. Not one loaf of bread or a spoontul of salt that we have intro-duced has been taken by the military. The most stringent orders have been teens. In the industrial districts where the people naturally would have less stores on hand than in the capital, a much larger population is now on the communal canteens, in given that we shall have no interference and our members meet with respect and assistance in all quarters. some instances over, 60 per cent. of the whole number.

"There are considerable quanti-ties of vegetables available in cer-tain districts. In some localities " Brussels 'consumed 3 000 of flour tain districts. In some localities there is still a supply of cereals for two or three weeks, but in certain other localities there has been no bread available for over a fortnight.

of those in each locality. ant bandit chief to restore Mexico. city at present there are 14 com-munal kitchens and 137 canteens for President Wilson has managed to keep out of the European struggle adults, and there are 16 kit-chens and 34 canteens for chilbut paganism triumphant to the south of him may force him to take dren under three years of age. For adults' service, food is prepared in the communal kitchens and is distributed to the canteens twice daily The kitchens and canteens are main. tained as a separate organization in a hand at the war game neares me.-London Advertiser. Art that suggests passion is like a fallen angel.—Archbishop Keane. "In order to guarantee that children are properly fed and that they are not subjected to the rigorous Meet me at the

New HOTEL TULLER Detroit, Michigan

Center of business on Grand Circus Park. Take Woodward car, get off at Adams Avenue

ABSOLUTELY FIREPROOF

200 200 100	Rooms,	Private	Bath,	$1.50 2.00	Single,	$2.50 3.00	Up "
	"	"		2.50	"	4.00	**
100		"	" 8.0	)0 to 5	.00 "	4.50	**	"
		Tota	Total 600 Outside Rooms

ALL ABSOLUTELY QUIET

New Unique Cafes and Two Floors-Agents' Cabaret Exellente Sample Rooms

Superior against this decision.

0

and full directions on Large Sifter-Can 109

DECEMBER 26, 1914

CHATS WITH YOUNG MEN

TWIN ALTARS

As I see it, "through a glass, dark," the bond of human fellowship "Good Will Toward Men," is the con-dition of peace. If so, it is possible to keep the Christmas spirit alive all the year round by such occasional or frequent reunions where self and care and sordidness are left outside the portals and "good will toward men" shines through the eye-windows of every soul, quickens every pulse, and flashes from heart to heart in each

It is the day upon which, standing It is the day upon which, standing amid the sanctities of our homes, we learn anew the lesson that "God is Love" in the union of affections which perfects individuality and makes each nobler in the sphere al-loted him. It keeps alive the beau-tiful and truthful simplicity of early feeling, and perpetuates and deep-ens the delicate glow of romance that then overspreads the scenes of ens the deficate glow of romance that then overspreads the scenes of existence. For the heart of our country lives in its homes, and the final test of our institutions lies in the domestic character of the people Side by side stand the Altar of Lib erty and the Altar of Home; and if Christianity feeds their sacred fires, it is from their flames, burning with steady strength of warmth and lustre that Providence brings the flery swords which arm us for our highest chievements and our grandest vic tories.

It is the day for affection's love bearing gifts as well as affection's love-laden wishes, and is the time when all the arts of ornament and amusement assert their importance in every heart, and the dullest eyes can discern a use in poetry and in painting, in music, in merry games painting, in music, in merry games and genial companionship, in the cunning of the toymaker and the deli-cate devices of the "worker in fine gold and stones of price." And these are gifts, upon the worth of which must throw an ever fairer light -gifts that we learn to love, loving giver all the more for the new tion we give to the gift's self.

It is the time when pleasure and charity may twine in the splendid trivialities in which the world delights, at times, to mask its best deeds. Balls and parties will grow out of the continual social attrition of the season, and the enjoy ment of these will not be less because pleasure ministers to pity, or be-cause many a heart will near its burden more lightly and many a troubled spirit grow more calm than the joys, the hopes, the charity and love that live in the heart of Christ-

Bat a few days and the wintry fros of the world will be garlanded by the rosy smiles of thousands of happy young faces over whose fresh, young beauty the waves of joy will flow as rapturously as the sunshine over fields of flowers. But a few days and the "peace and good will" which brought redemption to the world will be voiced in the universal greet ing — "Merry Christmas" — W. Hann in Catholic Columbian.

SYMPATHY

We may be swift to see and re-spond to the need of love and cheer and help in the lives of those about us, but unless we are equally thick to catch the gleam of gladness that may come to them, and give out the same measure of loving sympathy, we have failed in living up to the broadest and best that may be expressed by the term "sympathy." The command to "rejoice with them that do rejoice" was given in close with and even in advance of the command to "weep with those who weep." Too often we feel that all real need for this blessed quality of sympathy is at an end when someone whom we have, perhaps helped in loving interest over roagli places in life, at last meet with success, and is placed beyond the need of our material assistance. In many cases the need for sympathy is even greater in prosperity and success than in want and failure, but do we respond to it as readily ? Are we not likely to feel, rather, that those with whom we sympathized in adversity do not need us in the new prosperity, forgetting that the joy naturally attending the improved nowadays than there used to be that the boss has to get outside help onditions may be dimmed, perhaps Christmas eve, or he'd never be able wiped out altogether, by the absence to finish up his work in time. of the dear love and understanding sends for me an' a few others like me-heaven help us!-and we do his which went much farther than finan cial aid in making the old, hard life distributing for him. I'd just laid these things out here when you sursmoother? True, we would not will fully detract from any one's happiprised me." "Oh, isn't it beautiful !" he cried. ness-we who have done our b perhaps, to make some shadowy path a little fairer—yet we unconsciously "All these things for me! A watch too, just the very thing I wanted." dim the brightness when it comes, by withholding the "fellow feeling" —the feeling of real sympathy, that "Are you tired ?" asked Bobbie, leaving the tree and crossing to Santa Claus' assistant. "Yes," said the man. "Very." is necessary to the completion of happiness, especially from one who has been an understanding comrade "I'm sorry," said Bobby, affection-ately, as he took the other's hand in s good man for the post. " The only man I can honestly recommend a this moment," said the librarian is that foreigner yonder," and he binted to the young immigrant toiling eagerly over a huge tome. A few minutes' conversation satisfied the university's representative that the librarian's judgment was excellent and a little later the peanut vendor closed his stand for all time and be gan teaching. To day he is one of the really shining lights of Harvard University. — Catholic Union and Times.

OUR BOYS AND GIRLS

A CHILD'S CHRISTMAS SONG

Lord, I'm just a little boy. Born one day like You, And I've got a mother dear And a birthday, too. But my birthday comes in spring, When the days are long, And the robin in the tree Wakens me with song. Since the birds are all away, Lord, when You are born, Let Your angels waken me Cn your birthday morn. Lord, I'm just a little boy

Hidden in the night, Let Your angels spy me out Long before it's light. I would be the first to wake And the first to raise

In this quite house of ours Songe of love and praise

You shall hear me first, dear Lord, Blow my Christmas horn ; Let Your angels waken me On Your birthday morn. -T. A. DALY.

SANTA CLAUS' ASSISTANT

It was not long after midnight, he wee small hours of Christmas day were just beginning to arrive and down in the library, where the tree was sheltering a profuse array of toys, stood an unexpected guest He was ill clad, unshaven, and his hair looked as though it had never known a comb. In his right hand he carried a dark lantern, and slung over his left arm was a sack, a common jute bag and he had entered a window that looked out upon the street. The family had all retired, and for the most part were asleep. That is why the unexpected guest chose this time to arrive. "Hullo!" said a soft voice from the broad doorway that opened into the hall. He slid back the front of his lantern and lighted a match in flame. He turned on the gas and lit it, so that he might better see the exact character of his surround. 'Humph!" he said, as he observed the tree. "Quite a fine layout. I don't know but what, after all, it's a good thing that parents give their children expensive things these days It's a great help to our profession You can't raise much on candy, balls and two penny dolls, but these silver plated engines and purses with ten ollar bills in 'em come in handy Gold sleeve buttons, too," he added as his eyes took in a few further de tails of the scene before him, "an'a gold watch as well. This is luck." And then, as he bent over the group of toys and presents of a more expensive nature intended for Bobbie, his eyes glittering with joy at the prospective value of his haul, the heart of the unexpected guest stopped beating for an instant. There was a rustling behind him. With a quick movement he slid the e dark lantern to by mere cover of th force of habit, and at the same mo ment the curtains were parted and there stood Bobbie, clad in his night

THE CATHOLIC RECORD

ADVICE OF A BELGIAN

AMERICAN PRIEST

THE IDEA OF PROVIDING PARENTS B ADOPTION IN AMERICA FOR BELGIAN

ORPHANS IS BEAUTIFUL BUT

COSTLY SAYS PRIEST

rector of Our Lady of Victory' church and chairman of the Belgia relief committee in Rochester, says the Rochester Post-Express. Neither loes it receive the approval of other members of the committee who have yould be fatal to Belgium.

builders of the nation.

builders of to-morrow.

ALWAYS A WORKER

ity.

The movement started in Chicago

The unexpected guest buried his face in his grimy hands, and a great lump arose in his throat. "There was one other," said the assistant, "but there's nothing for him-and-and it's all my fault. I neglected to look after him.

"And won't he get anything ?" asked Bobbie. "No," said the assistant, roughly, rising and taking a step toward th

"He can have one of mine," cried Bobbie. "Here, take him this. I've got plenty, thanks to you." He handed him one of the treasures be

The unexpected guest looked at

The unexpected guest looked at the boy for a minute, and then he slowly reached out his hand and took the proffered toy. "I'll see that he gets it," he said, " and God bless you for it! Good-bye, little one. I must be off or he'll wake up and be disappointed."

to provide homes in the United States for the war orphans of Bel-gium does not meet with the appro-bation of Rev. Alphonse A. Notebaert, He moved toward the door when Bobbie ran after him, and holding up his little face said: "Won't you take a kiss for Santa Claus from me? "That I will," said the other, and he bent over, and kissing the child, flew precipitately out the window and disappeared in the darkness of the street. " Well," said the unexpected guest the following morning, as he watched his own pallid faced little youngster playing with the first Christmas present he'd ever known, "that was the rummiest thing. I went out to steal, and the only thing I bagged that wasn't really given to me was a kiss. It was a rich haul, but I think I'll get a more decent job at New Year's."-Catholic News.

THERE WAS NO ROOM By P. J. Coleman

There was no room !" Their hearts were hard, their eyes were blind, winter's gloom, with glory starred, to him was kind. om for Him! . No place to bide in khan or inn! eyes grown dim with selfish pride, with lust and sin ! me unto His own, His own re ceived Him not : 'Mid ox and ewe He makes His thron within a grot.

An outcast 'mid the outcast poor, de spised and spurned. Their Lord the shepherds of the moo alone discerned. nd, meteor led, sin undefiled, while seraphs sing, seraphs ing, At Mary's bed in Mary's Child they hail their King.

Ab, still, as then at Bethlehem the cold and blind, He comes to men and still of them would welcome find, But still the proud and great of earth, discerning not, Saviour drive from shelter Cheir forth, condemned, forgot. still, on lust intent and pride, the Christ with scorn rom door they thrust, the Babe de ride at Bethlehem born. But well for all who, seeing not yet who believe,

In hut or hall, in court or cot their Lord receive! For lo! at man's creative word, tho' hid from sight.

escends from Heaven creation's Lord in mystic rite. Not now in guise of flesh divine He taketh birth.

But wondrous wise 'neath bread and wine He comes to earth. Wherever stands an unctioned priest at altar stone Lo! to his hands He spreads the of shall know not death

Feast shall feed His own. The bread He gives, the wine of love heavy that the priest had to crawl along the ground on his knees. But the heavenly guardians strove with "When I speak of the Church I mean the great historical Church of Inrist, which also bears the surname the angels of death and prevailed, and the pricet with his Burden at last reached the trenches. In the stronghold of death he gave the Catholic, which alone presents to the world a united front, alone possesses an inalienable capital of truth, alone speaks with a voice of authority." Bread of Life to his brother priests and then departed, while the soldiers In that great Church no such in-quiry is ever heard as: "Have we of Christ again took up the arms of France. It is still possible to be a Catholic and a priest, as well as a brave man and a patriot!

lost faith?" which is now being dis-cussed in a New York daily paper.-N. Y. Freeman's Journal.

CULTURE AND KULTUR

Montreal Journal of Commerce-These two words are not transla-tions of each other. They mean two different things. It is doubtful if either one of them can be translated into the language of the other by a single word. The nearest word in German for what we mean by cul-ture is Bildung. Perhaps the near-est English word for Kultur is civilization. The vital difference between the two lies in this, that culture is of the individual and Kultur is of the

THEIR GRATITUDE TO THE SISTERS

the best interests of the war shatter-ed country at heart. Father Note-baert admires the spirit which prompts the movement but fears it The anti-religious forces of France pretend to find "proselytizing" in the efforts which the good nuns of that country, now in charge of the wounded soldiers, are making to soothe with religious ministrations "The officer is inspired by a beau-tiful charity, but I question its wis-dom," said Father Notebaert. "Belthe dark hours of the suffering and the dying. Instead of thanking those gium needs these children and they patriotic Frenchwomen for return-ing, in France's hour of need, from must be kept at home. The country looks to them to do the reconstruc the exile into which atheistic French officialdom forced them, the antition work. When this cruel war is over it will be found that one generation Catholics of France (who are not be it noticed, on the firing line) are of men has been lost; to let the children go to America would mean seeking to arouse a feeling of anti-pathy against what they call "cleri-calism " but what the decent porthe loss of another generation. These children are the saviors of Belgium ; they are the future up tion of mankind calls religion unde filed. It is hardly believeable that such ingratitude could find lodge. "My views are indorsed by those of the government. I have received inment in the breast of even the basest formation from the Belgium govern specimen of humanity. But the French anti Catholic is even more ment authorities at Havre that every effort must be made to prevent mean and malicious than the anti-Belgians from emigrating. I have also received letters from others in Catholic as we know him here in America, and that is saying a great deal. The New York Sun editorially this country who have the best in-terests of the stricken nation at no evidence that the French Govern excoriates, as follows, the contempt. heart to do everything possible to keep the Belgian children at home. ible campaign now begun in Franc against the Catholic Sisters : The government authorities recognize the danger if the country should

The worst spirit of French anticlericalism is exhibited in the attacks be depopulated. It would mean the end of Belgium, one of the greatest countries in the world. Two thirds of the country is reported devastated of the Socialist press upon the nuns who are nursing the wounded along the battle lines in northern France These devoted women are enduring all the sufferings and horrors of war by war ; 3,000.000 out of 7,000,000 of the people are dependent upon char for the sake of their country and of Nevertheless Belgium will surhumanity. More than one has given her life in the work. Their crime is vive, if the children of to day are kept at home, for they will be the up that they offer the consolations of religion to men dying and in pain.

The hostile newspapers call this an unfair advantage taken by the Church The Belgian is by nature a worker he is never a beggar. Give him a spade and he will work. He has built some of the finest public build-ings, elegant picture galleries and of the opportunity the war has given Of course religion is always at the height of its influence in times of woe. It is a natural advantage founded in human nature, and it is impressive churches in the world. Belgium is known as the 'Cradle of the very substance of faith and piety to press the advantage, thus awak-ening hope in the sufferers' breasts Art ;" everywhere in the country painting, art, science and industry instead of agony and despair-hope are enthroned. Her people for ages have been renowned for their indom in the future, hope here and hope here hereafter. The unimaginative type of mind that fails to see beauty itable energy and thrift. Such is the blood that flows in the veins of these nd good in this when hardly any war orphans and children. They are the very pillars of the country and must not be taken away or Belgium other beauty or good survives is aleful and destructive influence. Its true description is not anti-clerical will disappear forever. Let nobody fear that Belgium canwhich it propagates is far more ter not take care of her children. They will be brought up and will develop those who disagree with its teach. into strong men and beautiful women. There are a great many orphanages and convents in Bel-out inhuman. The narrow bigotry But O, what pain when, at God'sown rible than that which it imputes to A heartstring fills with kindness, ings. Its ultimate triumph in nation

SINKS, &S

mies to the State. To day

Sacred Heart Review.

heart

guise, looks within.

the mine,

birth,

hand

less lute!

command.

but is mute!

How

the virtues lies.

beauty shine,

gild the earth.

pretended enemies are showing how ney have been belied. Yet there i ment is the least bit impressed .-

UNSPOKEN WORDS

The kindly words that rise within the

And thrill it with their sympathetic tone, But die 'ere spoken, fail to play their part, And claim a merit that is not their

A sin that warps itself in purest and tells the heart that, doubting,

That not in speech but in thought

Unspoken words, like treasures in

Are valueless until we give them

To desert gray-to hearts that would rejoice. O, let the sympathy of kindly words

Sound for the poor, the friendless

And He will bless you; He Who

OF PRAISE

may render of value his tributes of impartial praise concerning events in England and on the Continent

-JOHN B. O'REILLY

struck these chords Will strike another when in turn and the weak :

you seek.

own. The kindly word unspoken is a sin-

Illuni

make her blameless, but they would at least, palliate her guilt. But what shall we say of a Church that was but a thing of yesterday, a Church that had as yet no services to show, no claims upon the gratitude of mankind, a Church that was by profession the creature of private judgment and was in reality generated by the intrigues of a corrupt court, which nevertheless suppressed by force a worship that multitudes deemed necessary to salvation; and by all her organs and with all her energies persecuted those who clung to the religion of their fathers? What shall we say of a religion which comprised at most but a fourth which comprised at most but a fourth part of the Christian world, and which the first explosion of pri-vate judgment had shivered into countless sects, which was neverthe-less so perverted by the spirit of dog-matism that each of these sects meserted its distinctive doctrines with the same confidence and persecuted the same unbesitating violence, as a Church which was venerable with

SEVEN

So strong and so general was its intolerance that for some time it may I believe, be truly said that there were more instances of partial toler. ation being advocated by Roman Catholics than by Orthodex Protestants.-(Rationalism in Europe, p. 51.)

This is a splendid passage, and all the more useful because from the pen of one who may be called anti-We do not Catholic. believe raking up the past, or laying the blame upon the good, genial non-Catholics of to day-the blame which belongs to an ancestry for which they are in no sense respons-ible. However, let us not be unjust in foolish attempts to administer justice. "Dwell as much as you riots; in France, particularly, the like upon Mary's three hundred vic, tims; she honestly thought (and she French Catholic from his earliest years learns to love the land which had a great deal to make her think) in days gone by gloried to be known as the "Eldest Daughter of the Church." The atheistic French Gov. that she was saving England from a horde of licentious infidels."

ernment has pretended that this was Such are the words of the exceed. ingly anti Catholic, Dr. Littledale, in ot so. It has pretended to find in nnovations (p. 19. ed. 1868.)-The the priests and nuns of France ene Missionary.

"KNOW THE TRUTH".

"We hear that the Church teaches this or that, when the fact is that the Church teaches nothing of the kind," says the Catholic Herald. "We are told that the Church takes this or that position, when as a matter of fact it takes none. And so we go on through life, hearing the Church charged with doing many things that it never does and with holding views that it never held. But if we have never studied Church history, or doctrine, how can we know that the harges are false, how answer them even if they have not foundation in fact? It is, therefore, a very serious and grievous matter when parents or guardians allow their children to grow up in ignorance of Catholic doctrine and history, when they never see that they go to church, never ake them there themselves, and never insist that they shall be well acquainted with Catholic truthe and history. It is true that persons well instructed sometimes are al-lowed by God to fail from faith, but their number is small, is insignifi-Like unfound gold, their hidden cant compared to the number who eink into apostasy because they have not been properly instructed when they were children, because they never read anything Catholic and are as ignorant of Catholicity practically as they are of the religious tenets of the Llama. Catholics who know their religion will learn to love 'it,

Which God has made to bless and ad 'twould be to see a master's Strike glorious notes upon a voice-in darker days.-True Voice.

his and kissed it. "Don't-don't do that," said the PEANUT SELLER A TEACHER man, huskily. "It's not-not clean." "I shouldn't think it would be," Among a boatload of immigrants from Germany to the United States there once was a poor young man who, after sundry adventures in quest of a livelihood, settled in Kansas City, where, near the public library, he established a small stand for the on the toys."

sale of fruit and peanuts. This was the assistant. "You see, this bag keeps the soot off. But I didn't come his vocation; his avocation, or hobby was the study of languages, at which he worked with admirable diligence in by the chimney this time," he added hastily, observing that there in the public library, sometimes closing his peanut stand for hours was no soot on the bag either. when absorbed in the solution of a though the window was easier." specially fascinating linguistic prob lem. A day came when the Univer-sity of Missouri, needing an addition said Bobbie, looking at the bag. "How do you know that ?" asked al instructor in languages, sept an emissary to the Kansas City librarian with the request that the latter name any one else for you to take a toy to?" al instructor in languages sent an emissary to the Kansas City librarian le tha he added, peering curiously at the unexpected guest. Who tasteth lives, who drinks there-

The man gave a short laugh. That's the first time I've been taken for any one that's half decent," he said to himself, and then he an-And still the meek, the pure of heart swered in a whisper loud enough for Bobbie to hear : Their Saviour seek where, veiled

'Oh we take care of that," said

You're all through, aren't you?

apart, He humbly lies. Well, not exactly, sonny. I'm Their flocks they leave, like them of well, hot exactly, sonay. In only his assistant." "Sh! Not so loud. my boy—you'll wake the family; and if you did that I'd vanish like the mist," said the man. "I said I was only Santa old whom angels led: Their hearts believe, their eyes be hold, their tears are shed. Their gifts they bring, to Bethlehen led by love's star. Claus' assistant. You see, my lad, To Christ the King-not gold or gen there are so many more children

He offereth-

the foolish wise

but richer far-More prized of Him than frankin cense or nard or spice-Clean lives, eyes dim with penitence heart's sacrifice; Yea, faith and love and childlike trust, that, prized of Him, In Heaven above shall know not rust nor e'er grow dim, rich increase shall take and But earn, them, by Christ's choice, To crown with peace of days eterne

ON THE BATTLEFIELD

Catholic delegates to the recent Conand devastation are working out their unholy purpose; but amid it vention of the American Federation of Labor in Philadelphia, Rev. Dr. Charles P. Bruchl made some inter esting and eloquent remarks on the Church as a power in the world.

"I shouldn't think it would be, laughed Bobbie; "climbing in by sooty chimneys can't be very clean work. Do you know, I always won-der why there's never any soot left number of them desired to receive der why there's never any soot left number of them desired to receive Holy Communion in honor of the angels and to celebrate the devotion of the first Friday. The battle was raging, and there was no question of the soldier priests leaving the firing line, even for the sake of their im-nand we know that she has never mortal souls. But the military chap-lain attached to the regiment heard of their wish, and, taking his life in trust in her judgment, and will per his hands, he set out for the thick of haps unwittingly, perhaps reluctant the fighting, carrying with him the | ly pattern their opinions after her Most Blessed Sacrament. All around utterances.

And Father Bruehl further retied, and at times the firing was so marked saying:

al life would mean complete servitude of the soul."-Sacred Heart Review."

CAREER

from one of the Sisters in a convent there and she tells about conditions. THE COUNT DE MUN'S I know that the children will be well taken care of by the Sisters, if their parents are dead. "The charity of the American gium. I have just received a letter women cannot be surpassed. I can-not praise it high enough. Their offer to take care of the war orphans of Belgium is a beautiful charity. " France cast out from the number of Catholic States !" exclaimed the of Catholic States" excitating the late Count de Mun, when France threw off the bond that bound her to Rome, "that s a sor-row unspeakable for those who tremble at the thought of the expla-But it must be refused for the reasons that I have given above. Women who have fled from Belgium with their babies and children are anxious to return in spite of the fact that they know their homes have destroyed. The homing inbeen stinct is a strong one and they want to build another home for their off. spring. The convents and orphau asylums will be thrown open to the orphans and the sisters will take care of them, if they are given a little help and encouragement .--- N Y. Freeman's Journal.

LONG AND NOBLE HISTORY In his sermon at the Mass for the

tions by which nations that are faithless to their destiny pay for their apostasy." Ever loyal himself to his Church and to the traditions of his country, he worked for both to the end. An editorial tribute in London Tablet ( Oct. 17 ) says of the Count's patriotism :

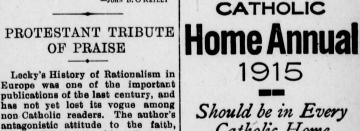

He saw the danger that menaced France, and though no longer able to mount the tribune, like the good soldier he was he changed his weapon, and wielded the pen with a power that was as surprising as it was effective. In the daily press he sound-ed the tocsin of alarm, and had no

ed the tocsin of alarm, and had no small share in the restoration of the three years' service. And then, two of his works published in 1870 there months ago, when the storm burst is a paragraph of singular weight which he bad foreseen, he began a which treats of the raign of Mary series of daily articles in the Echo de Tudor

Paris to hearten France to weather Catholicism was an ancient Church. She had gained a great part of her influence by vast services it successfally. These he continued to the day of his death. He gave his life for his country in the only way left to him. . And he died, in spite of a long career of combat, with no enemies but those of truth and his to mankind. She rested avowedly on the principle of authority. She For your Church is a great power in this world. A cause is the stronger was defending herself against aggres for having her support. Men, though sion and innovation. eion and innovation. She might point to the priceless blessings she had bestowed upon humavity, to the slavery she had destroyed, to the civilization she had founded, to the they be not of her fold, are inclined country, mourned by all as the great patriot and Christian that he was.' to regard a movement as right and With such a career as the Count de Mun's before its eyes, with the object lesson of his wonderful fidelmany generations she had led with made common cause with injustice and wrong. Thus men have great ity to France plain to be seen, and honor to the grave. She might show with the spectacle, now presented to how completely her doctrines were the world of thousands of priests interwoven with the whole social trust in her judgment, and will perand nuns on French bettlefields, is it system, how fearful would be the and huns on French Contractions, is to system, now format work work of the process of the proces of the process of the process of the process of the process

Then hide it not, the music and loving it they will not los They will cling to the faith as they should, and God will bless them in soul, sympathy expressed with Dear this world and the next." kindly voice, But let it like a shining river roll

> FOR ROUGH SKIN, SORE LIPS, OR CHAPPED HANDS Campana's Italian Balm is soothing, healing and pleasant. Sends 4 cents for sample — 27 years on the market. E. G. WEST & CO., 80 GEORGE ST., TORONTO.

Catholic Home

Contains a calendar of the Feasts and Fasts, a splendid picture of His Holiness Pope Benedict XV., and the following excellent articles and Short Stories by the best writers:

Pope Benedict XV. Our Lady of August. Lourdes, with illustrations. Brother Jocelyn. Pope Pius X. A sketch of his life. A Mother's Wooing. How the Pope is Elected. A complete list of the Popes. Marcella Blake's European Trip. Manresa, the Cradle of the Society of Jesus. The Beg-ar in the Corner.

Le Moyne d'Iberville. Terry's Vocation. St. Rita of Cascia Notable Events of Year 1918-14.

PRICE 25C. POSTPAID

The Catholic Record LONDON, CANADA

where saints rejoice.

On the battlefields in Europe death

all the life of grace flourishes. It was Friday, October 2, the feast of the Holy Angels and also the first Friday. In the trenches of the "It is," he said, "proper that you seek the approbation of your Church. EICHT

A CHINESE GIRL'S LETTER

This year our country is again very ch afflicted. A tarrible disease, Bubonic plague, broke out in aton which caused a large number leaths. It seems to have ceased w, but enother horrible disaster to come. The spring rains have in excessive and continuing to the sent time have flooded the country mg the rivers. Many have lost it lives.

In a place near us, Kom chouk, many Christians lived and were cared for by Father Wong, the oldest of our Chinese priests, more than sev-anty years. When the flood came he was forced to move upstairs; but the mater mounted within three steps of the upstairs floor. He had nothing o sat, and could only wait for help. d asked them for food. Happily ad asked them for food. Happily was rescued without other harm. More horrible still, the people in me places elimbed up to the roofs high up in trees, but the water se over them. Some of them tied ternselves to the trees in rows with ang cords, so that if their strength we can they might not be drowped. cople found a woman's corpse float-ig, a child was tied on her back as the Chinese constant and the held a a Chinese custom and she held a and by the hand even in death.

second by the hand even in death. The drowned corpses float every-where as on a sea. Some people saw they could not escape yet they hoped their children might be rescued, therefore they found tubs or large earthen urns, placed the children in and put them floating on the water. One of them was a baby wrapped carefally, with him a paper which told what family he belonged to and the day he was born. It begged those whe found the child to take care of him with the money that his parents enclosed, more than $200. But the man who found the child found no money. Some one had taken it and money. Some one had taken it and left the child to die.

How hard hearted poverty and suf-foring sometimes makes even sym-pathizing natures.

MARY CHAN.

BISHOP DOWLING HONORED

BENEDICT XV., POPE

To Our Venerable Brother, Thomas Joseph Dowling, D. D., Bishop of Hamilton:

Venerable Brother, - Health and ostolic Benediction. It has always an a fundamental custom of the man Pontiffs to bestow special honors and privileges on Bishops who have been distinguished by sterling faith and exemplary reverence for this See of Blessed Peter.

Venerable Brother, you have ow, during twenty-eight years, can adorned with the sacred altre; you are the Dean of be Canadian: Hierarchy, and the discharge of your pastoral les you have constantly exhibited tinguished testimony of loyal ob-unce to the Roman Chair, and, moredience to the Roman Chair, and, more-over, your zeal in promoting relig-ion and piety has been most con-spicuous. For these reasons, we deem you worthy to be honored by us with a new and higher dignity, and this dignity we bestow the more willingly since it is in conformity with the ardent desire of your clergy and people, and, as an additional proof of our special bene-volence we join in the congratulations you have received from all sides on the occasion of the fiftieth anniver-sary ef your priesthood, as well as on Thou art content upon her lap, Or in the rugged stalls. Thou lookest up into his face, So helpless and so meek. sary of your priesthood, as well as on the occasion of the twenty fifth year of your episcopate. Therefore, by of your episcopate. Therefore, by these presents, we, in virtue of our Apostolic authority, enroll you among the Assistant Bishops at the Pontifical Throne; We appaint you our Domestic Prelate, and We like-wise declare and create you a Noble, and We attach you to the numbers of those who are truly noble in every respect. We decorate you with the titles and insignia of these, and We titles and insignia of these, and We else grant to you most fully the right to enjoy all the privileges and honors they use or may use in the future. And all these We bestow, notwith-standing constitutions and Apostolic canotions and all other things, even those worthy of special and individ-ual mention and derogation to the con trary.

ne of Grace to bestow on Your ship the abundance of heavenly sings. 71th kindest regards, I remain, My dear Lord Bisbop, Very sincerely yours in Christ., P. F. STAONI, O. S. M., Abp. of Aquila, Del. Ap.

CONGRATULATIONS FROM CAR DINAL BEGIN

these little prayers, that they may drop, like healing dews, on thirsty souls ? Each one of these aspira-tions, devoutly repeated by a Catho-lie in the state of grace, is enriched with an indulgence of 800 days each time the words are said. Especially at Ohristmas time, when we are making so many Christ-mas gifts to our living friends, let us not forget our dead who used to share with us our Christmas joys. Let us have a Mass offered for them, let us offer a Communion for them, Quebec, Nov. 3, 1914. My Dear Lord Bishop —I most cordially thank you for your kind greetings on my return from the coronation of His Holiness Bene-dict XV. It gives me great pleasure to show that my old friend, the senior Bishop of the Canadian Hier-archy, hes hacome the worthy so Let us have a Mass offered for them, let us offer a Communion for them, at some time during the Advent and Christmas seasons. Let us use often the indulgenced prayers, the rosary, the aspirations mentioned above. The Raccolta contains some beautiful indulgenced prayers that are par ticularly suited to this season. Suparchy, has become the worthy re-cipient of one of the first marks of pose we take, as a novena in prepar-ation for the devout celebration of Christmas, the following prayer, reflecting carefully on its meaning and endeavoring to get its spirit and in-tention into our very hearts and ives : Most dear Infant Jesus, Who cipient of one of the first marks of the munificence of our newly-elected Sovereign Pontiff. Such a dignity is the fitting complement of half a century of devotedness to the in-struction and salvation of souls in the government of a goodly portion of the Vineyard of the Church. I most cheerfully unite with the clergy and faithful of your flourish-ing diocese in praise to the Divine Master for having blessed your en-deavors and allowed you to bel old the glorious ripening of the harvest you have sown in labore et fatiga-tione. being made an infant for us, wast willing to be born in a cave, to free as from the darkness of sin, to draw us to Thyself, and to inflame us with Thy holy love; we adore Thee as our Creator and Redeemer, we accept and choose Thee for our King and Lord, and for tribute we offer Thee tione. On the lovely Feast of the Immacu

brother in Christ, L. N. CABD. BEGIN,

his course.'

all the effections of our poor hearts. Dear Jesus, our Lord and God, deign late Conception, titular of the vener-able Basilica of Quebec, as well as of your own cathedral, and twofold to accept this offering; and that it may be worthy of Thy acceptance, pardon us our faults, enlighten us, and inflame us with that holy fire anniversary of your sacerdotal ordin-ation and of your consecration unto the fulness of the priesthood of Christ, I shall send up to the Alwhich Thou camest to bring into the world and enkindle in men's hearts. mighty an earnest prayer for your happiness here and hereafter, for the fulfilment of all your most cherished desires, and for an overflowing meas-May our souls thus become a per-petual sacrifice in Thy honor. Grant that we may ever seek Thy greater glory here on earth, so that we may one day come to rejoice in Thy infinite loveliness in heaven. ure of that peace which the Divine Infant, on the day of His birth into the world, brought to men of good-will. May the Lord spare you many For this prayer there is granted an years more to the veneration and affection of your flock and of your brethren in the episcopacy. Such is the sincere wish of your devoted indulgence of 100 days once a day; and if used daily for nine days as a little novens for Christmat, for which novena "any form of prayer may be used," then we can gain 300 days more, each day, and a plenary indul Arch. of Quebec. gence under the usual conditions on Christmas Day or during the octave

The Right Rev. T. J. Dowling, Bishop of Hamilton, Assistant to the Apostolic Throne. and we may offer these indulgences for the dead, while we prepare for Christmas.—Sacred Heart Review. The Hamilton Herald of Dec. 9 says editorially: "Far more honorable than even BEST CHRISTMAS GREETING

EVER WRITTEN

the most coveted of the military dec-orations and titles that are being so lavishly distributed in recognition of "There are many things from lavishly distributed in recognition of distinguished service in the field, is the honor just bestowed on Bishop Dowling by Pope Bene-dict XV., "for half a century spent in promoting religion and piety." Like the apostle, the Bishop of Ham-ilton has "fought a good fight " and "kept the faith;" but it is to be hoped that years will elapse before it must be said that he has "finished his course." which I have derived good, by which I have not profited I dare say, Christ-mas among the rest. But I am sure I have always thought of Christmas time when it came around—apart from the veneration due to its sacred name and origin, if anything belongname and origin, if anything belong-ing to it can be apart from that—as a good time; a kind, forgiving, charit-able, pleasant time; the only time I know of, in the long calendar of the year, when men and women seem by one consent to open their shut-up hearts freely and to think of people below them as if they were really fellow-passengers to the grave and not another race of creatures bound on other journeys."—Charles Dick-When Mary bids Thes sleep Thou

When Joseph takes Thee in his Yes, dearest Babel Those tiny hands That play with Mary's hair, The weight of all this mighty world fashioned no piece of jewelry, built no edifice, founded no city, erected no triumphal arch; but He stands in history as the great Giver. Silver While thou are clasping Mary's neck

It is worth remembering that Christmas is the birthday of Jesus, the Man who never gave the world a dollar. He bestowed upon mankind not a solitary material gift. He carved no statue, painted no picture, wrote no poem, composed no song,

The well-informed Pro The well-informed Protestant, of course, no matter how he may be opposed to the Catholic Church, is careful not to make the foolish assortion that the Catholic Church would rather see the Bible burned than read; but there are all too many of our separated brethren, who, thinking themselves well in-formed, undertake to use their pens for the instruction of the world. These are the man who will be

THE CATHOLIC RECORD

These are the men who will be found reiterating the statement that the Catholic Church is opposed to the Bible.—Sacred Heart Review.

THE CRIB Forninst the Crib there kneels a little child, Behind him in her ragged shawl his

For all the ages that have passed, one child Still finds God in another.

Now look how he wonders when he sees The shepherds with their lambs be side the manger. The cattle, poor dumb creatures looking down Upon the little Stranger. An' there's our Saviour lying in the hay, Behind Him in her shawl His watchful mother. Two mothers with their sons, each knows the joys And sorrows of the other. The hands he clasps in prayer are rough with labor. The likes of him that hunger and that toil Once called Saint Joseph neighbor. Outside the church the people travel

The sick and sad, the needy, the neg lected.

But just across the threshold Bethlebem lies Where none will be rejected.

-W. M. LETTC

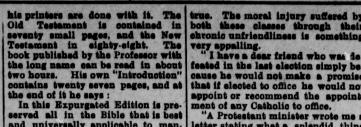

CUTTING TO PIECES THE WORD OF GOD

The cutting up of the Word of God which follows the private inter-pretation of the Holy Scriptures be-gan long ago before Martin Luther rejected the Epistic of St. James berejected the Episte of St. James be-cause it contained the doctrine of Extreme Unction. We find in the Back of Missionaries the only notice that would be taken of it would be to tear it up and commit it to the waste-paper backet.—The Missionary.

Book of Jeremias (Chap. xxxvi) that Joakim, King of Juda, not satisfied with the Scriptures read in the temple by Baruch, the servant of the temple by Baruch, the servant of the Prophet Jeremiss, ordered the sacred roll to be brought into his presence. On examination it was found that the prophecies of God's priests were not quite reconcilable with the king's mode of life and Government. He took his penknife, cut the roll to pieces, and threw the fragments into the fire. The process has been re-peated so often that, had not the Catholic Church held with firm grasp that which was committed to her keeping centuries ago, hardly a line of the Bible would be left. One is sometimes amazed at the extent to which the arrogance born of the boasted privilege of private interpretation of the Bible can go. We find a good illustration in far-away

India. An educated Hindoo, Mr. Venkataratoam, late Vice Principal of a Training College at Rajamundry, has taken it upon himself to publis 'expurgated' edition of the Bible. There is not much left of the word of God after Mr. Venkataratnam and served all in the Bible that is best and universally applicable to man-kind for enabling them to become good men and women, and when the wheat is thus separated from the chaff, it istessier to see what its true worth is and wherein its excellence really exists. It is believed that it is the only form in which the Bible should be circulated in the world for the benefit of the masses, the entire original being reserved for study by original being reserved for study by the learned few alone. Will the Bible Societies take a hint from this ? We do not believe the Bible So cistics will take a hint from Mr. Venkataratnam's question, for the Bible Societies have a way of doing things according to their own inter-pretation. But Mr. Venkataratnam pretation. But Mr. Venkateratham has more than multilated the Holy Soriptures—he has torn them to pieces; he has made way with nearly the whole of them; he has left only a few mangled remains; and who cares to pay any attention to the be-hests of a corpse ?

Useful

Concerning this latest mutilatio of the Holy Scriptures, our distant contemporary, the Catholic Watch-man of Madras, comments as follows :

To a Christian mind it will seem sacrilege to treat like this a b that has come down entire through the ages as a sacred volume, a volume in which many millions of people have found comfort and consolation. If he had declared it as his intention to produce a summary of the Bible for Hindu readers, his work might have een without reproach : but it is a piece of impertinence to treat the acred volume of Christians like this, and to say that, in accordance with his materialistic convictions, "this Edition is offered to the notice of the more educated and liberal section among the missionaries and other teachers and preachers of the Gospel of Jesus in this land." We imagine that if a copy came into the hands of any of the most educated

EX ORE INFANTUM Little Jesus wast Thou shy Once, and so small as I? And what did it feel like to be Out of Heaven, and just like me? Didet Thou sometimes think of there And ask where all the angels were? I should think that I would cry For my house, all made of sky; I would look about the air

I would look about the air And wonder where my angels were, And at waking, 'twould distress me, Not an angel there to dress me. Hadst Thou ever any toys, Like us little girls and boys? And didst Thou play in Heaven with all The angels, that were not too tall, With stars for marbles? Did the things Play, "Can you see me" through their wings? Didst Thou kneel at night to pray, And didst Thou join Thy hands, this young. And make the prayer seem very

And didst thou like it best that we

FARM FOR SALE A FIRST CLASS 100 A CRE FARM IN THE Township of Hullett, with good baak barn soafor, when house with good caller, with telephone stored, when house with good caller, with telephone stored, when house with good caller, with telephone the stored of the stored of the stored of the stored bush. This farm is situated a miles north of Clinton on a good gravel road. It is also convenient to church and Separate school. For particulars apoly

each, we will give you one of these absolutely free. Our Pictures are all reproductions of Famous Paintings and sell regularly in Art Stores at 50 cents each, so that at our below in paint and in the sen sell wholesale price of 15 cents, you can sell the entire lot in an hour. Order today. When pictures are sold, remit us the amount of your sales $1.80, and your Rosary will be sent you by return mail. Address:

Special Sale of Vestments 405 YONGE ST.

Long Distance Phones Main 6555 and 5499 College 452

Beautiful Rosary Complete with Orucifix

for personal Price $1.00, Post Free Cash to Accompany Order

123 Ohurch St. Toronto

DECEMBER 26, 1914

STAINED GIRASS

Solid Gold Plated

Beautiful Rosary

W. E. Blake & Son, Ltd.

ehronic unfriendliness is something very appalling. "I have a dear friend who was de-feated in the last election simply be-cause he would not make a promise that if elected to office he would not appoint or recommend the appoint-ment of any Catholic to office. "A Protestant minister wrote me a letter stating what a splendid thing it was for the country that Glynn, Catholic, in New York State, and Hogan, Catholic, in Ohio, and other Catholics were defeated for office in the last election.

the last election. "Such feeling as this is anti Christian and to be deplored."-Inter mountain Catholic.

DIED

GRIMM .- In Preston, Ont., Dec. 12th 1914, Martin Grimm. May his soul rest in peace !

O'MALLEY .- At Stayner, Ont., on Thursday, December 10, 1914, Miss Marcella O'Malley. May her soul rest in peace !

There is no real love without suffering.

TEACHERS WANTED

A QUALIFIED NOKMAL TRAINED CATHO-olic teacher for Separate school. Duties be-ginning after christmas holidays. Apply stating salary, to W. Ryan, Box 22, Charlton, Ont. A QUALIFIED TEACHER FOR SEPARATE thool, Stanleyville, Salary $500 Duties to commence after New Year. E. I. Byrne, Sc. Treas Stanleyville. 1887-3

TEACHER WANTED FOR THE PEMBROKE

Separate school, an assistant teacher, holdin professional normal school certificate, to enter o duty January 3rd, 1914, applicants to state salary an experience. Apply to A. J. Fortier, Sec. Pembroks Ont. 187-3 ANTED TEACHER FOR CATHOLIC ANTED TEACHER FOR CATHOLIC Separate school, section No 1, McGillivray, Holding first or second protessional certificate Duties to commence January 4th, 1915. Salary $ 500 Apply stating experience to Denis Farmer, Sec. Crediton, R. C. 1, On.

FEMALE TFACHER FOR C. S. S. No. 3 AND 4, Anderodou, Salary $450 per annum Apply to Sec., Treas., Timothy Kelly, Amhersburg, P. O. Ont. 1888-2

TEACHER WAN FED FOR ROLE SEPARATE school No. 6, for senior class room, Township Sherwood. Apply to William Kirwan, Sec., Treas., Barry Bay, Oat.

WANTED FEMALE TEACHER FOR C. S. S., No. 5. Raleigh, holding first or second class professional certificate. Duties to commence after holidays. School well located and boarding house convenient. Apply stating salary and experience to L. Waddick, See, R. R. No. 6. Chatham, Onc.

WANTED FOR C. S. S. No. 1, Stanley. pro-fessional teacher. Salary $400 per amum. Duties to commence Jan. 4th. Apply E. J. Gelinas, Zurich. R. R. No. 2. 1888-3

WANTED A CATHOLIC TEACHER FOR the bilingual Separate school No. 2, of Massey, Ont. Apply to Rev. Ed: Prouix, S. J. Sec., R S. O., No 2, Massey, Ont. 1888-3

TEACHER WANTED. HOLDIG FIRST OR wcond class certificate, for Catholic scheol, Fort William, Ont. Salary $600 per year. Duties, to commerce Jan. Apply to G. P. Smith, Sec., 114 Simpson street, Fort William, Ont.

1888-tf. POSITION WANTED POSITION WANTED LADY WOULD LIKE A POSITION AS matron or assistant matron of an institution, capable of good management and buying, could also superintend the sewing. Best references and exper-ienced. Apply to Box 24, CATHOLIC RECORD.

1888-1 LADY OF BEST REFERENCES AND EX-perience would like a position as housekeeper for a priest or in a family where there would be one to help with work. Please state salary paid. Apply to Box 25, CATHOLIC RECORD. 1888-1

"POULTRY AND LIVESTOCK "

"POULTRY AND LIVESTOCK" FREE WE WILL GIVE FREE TO ANY one of our 80 page illustrated books on how to feed, how to build hen houses; tells the common diseases of poultry and stock with remedies for same; tells how to cure roup in four days; tells all about our Reyal Purple Stock and Poultry foods and remedies. Writte W. A. Jenkins. Mfg. Co., London, Canada."

way? And did they tire sometimes, being the Fisherman, the 7th day of Octo-ber, 1914, in the first year of our Pon-tificate. Given at Rome, under the ring of

P. CABDINAL GASPAREI. Secretary of State to His Holiness

CONGRATULATIONS FROM THE APOSTOLIC DELEGATE

Delegatio Apostolica, Ottawa, Nov. 26, 1914.

Right Rev. T. J. Dowling, D. D., Bishep of Hamilton:

My Dear Lord Bishop,—I am very much delighted indeed to learn from your letter of the well-merited distinc-tion which the Holy Father has been pleased to confer on you, by appoint-ing you one of the Bishops Assistant b) ourselves. For instance, suppose that we have every that we make frequently through the day the following ejaculations, the source of joy to your good the Holy in the midst est our daily avocations, or on our walks and people. Among the motives which moved the Holy Father to show you this mark of the least I am sure, has been your tireless devotion to provide for the special care of the foreigners settled in your diocese.
In spirit and in prayer I shall very willingly join with your clergy and people on the Feast of the Immacon late Conception to beseech the
In spirit and in prayer I shall very
In spirit and in prayer I

In timid tight embrace; The boldest scraphs veil themselves Before Thine infant face.

THE BABE IN BETHLEHEM

sleepest, Thou wakest when she calls ;

arms, And smooths Thy little cheek ;

This very moment bear.

When Mary hath appeased Thy thirst, And hushed Thy feeble cry; The hearts of men lie open still, Before Thy slumbering eye.

O dear, O wakeful hearted Child ! Sleep on, dear Jesus, sleep ! For thou must one day wake for me, To suffer and to weep. -FATHER FABER

CHRISTMAS GIFTS AND THE HOLY SOULS

Numerous are the highly indul-genced prayers and ejaculations which our Mother the Church puts into our hands for the comfort and relief of the souls of our beloved dead; and great are the advantages accruing to our own souls from the frequent use of these same aspira-tions. We have already earnestly recommended our readers to become recommended our readers to become familiar with many of these brief prayers, and to use them often through the day, making a general intention that the indulgences gained thereby shall be given, when-ever so applicable, for the comfort and release of the suffering souls. Let us see how this practise may be-come not only helpful to them, but to ourselves. For instance, suppose that we make frequently through

He had He gave to men.-Dr.C. E. Jefferson. THE POPE AND THE

HOLY GOSPELS

It is well known-if to no one else, to a certain kind of Protestant at least—that the Catholic Church with the Pope at its head is bitterly opposed to the Bible; and, as a Pro-testant minister recently declared, would rather see the Bible burned than read. Proof positive of this dislike for the Word of God, such persons will doubtless find in a letter, written the other cay, by Pope Benediot XV. to Cardinal

Pope Benedict XV. to Cattern of Cassetts, president of the Society of Cassetts, president in Rome about able to play their favorite music with this method without any assisttwelve years ago for the spreading of the sacred book of the Gospels. In this letter, Pope Benedict says : ance whatever from anyone. This new system which is called the Numeral Method, is sold in Can-

Experience shows so clearly that it hardly needs pointing out that the errors of society to-day arise from the fact that the life, works, and teaching of our Lord Jeaus Curist, have fallen into the profoundest ob-livion, and that men no longer think of gaining inspiration from them for their daily actions. There can not ada by the Numeral Method Music Co. Experience shows so clearly that it hardly needs pointing out that the

You are not asked to send any money until you have tried and are satisfied with the new method. The Numeral Company is willing to send their daily actions. There can not be the slightest doubt, then, that a be the slightest doubt, then, that a work in the highest degree advan-tageous for the leading of souls toward Christian perfection is being done by those who strive, as you are striving, for the spreading of the Divine Gospels; and we have every present to concretulate all the mean it to you on one week's free trial, and you will not have to pay them

New Invention I used to think, before I knew, The prayer not said unless we do. And did Thy mother at the night

Enables Anyone to Play Piano or Organ Without Lessons

Kiss Thee, and fold the clothes in tight? And didst Thou feel quite good in Kissed, and sweet, and Thy prayers A Detroit musician has invented a said? wonderful new system which en-ables any person or little child to Thou canst not have forgotten all That it feels like to be small; earn to play the plano or organ in And Thou know'st I cannot pray To Thee in my father's way. one evening. Even though you know absolutely nothing about know absolutely nothing about music or have never touched a piano When Thou wast so little, say Couldst Thou talk Thy Father's way? So, a Little Child, come down And hear a child's tongue like Thine long?

Thee?

Take me by the hand and walk, And listen to my baby talk. To the Father, show my prayer (He will look, Thou art so fair) And say; "O Father, I, Thy Son, Bring the prayer of a little one, and the will swith that child And He will smile that children's tongue Has not changed since Thou was young. - FRANCIS THOMPSON

DEPLORES ENMITY OF CREEDS

"The Catholic and the Protestant should be friends."

Thus spoke Rev. Washington Glad-den, pastor emeritus of the First Congregational church of Columbus, one cent unless you desire to keep it. There are no express charges to be There are no express charges to be paid, as everything will be sent by mail. Simply write a letter or post card to the Numeral Method Music Co. of Canada, 118A. Curry Hall, Windsor, Ontario, saying "Please send me the Numeral Method on seven days' free trial." If you are satisfied after trying it, the Method and first differences of sheat satisfied after trying it, the Mathed and fifty different pieces of sheet music will cost you only $5, although the regular price of these is $10. You should not delay writing, as the Numeral Company will not continue this special half-price effer indefin itely. Later on, the Mathed and fifty pieces of music will be sold at the regular price.

Should join our hands to pray to church and Separate school For particulars apply to John Reynolds, 181 Queen St., Stratford, Ont. 1887-2

> C. M. B. A. Branch No. 4, London Meets on the and and 4th Thursday of every month at eight o'clock, at their Rooms, St. Peter's Pariab Hall, Richmond Street. P. H. Ranahan, President

COLOMAL ART CO., Desk R2., Terente, Out.

The Ontario Catholic Year Book and Directory

PUBLISHED BY NEWMAN CLUB, TORONTO

DIRECTORY OF CHURCHES AND PRIESTS CALENDAR AND FEASTS FOR 1915 TWENTY-THREE ILLUSTRATIONS 18 160 PAGES TIMELY ARTICLES

25c. Postpaid

Publication Office : 97 St. Joseph St., TORONTO

COLONIAL ART CO. DESK R.O., TORONTO, Ont.