TO THEE.

I bring my sins to Thee, The sins I cannot count. That all may cleansed be In thy once-opened fount. I bring them, Saviour, all to thee; The burden is too great for me.

My heart to thee I bring. The heart I cannot read. A faithless, wandering thing, An evil heart indeed. I bring it, Saviour, now to thee, That fixed and faithful it may be.

To thee I bring my care, The care I cannot flee ; Thou wilt not only share. But take it all for me. O, loving Saviour, now to thee I bring the load that wearies me.

I bring my grief to thee, The grief I cannot tell; No words shall needed be. Thou knowest all so well I bring the sorrow laid on me, O, suffering Saviour, all to thee !

My joys to thee I bring, The joys thy love has given, That each may be a wing To lift me nearer heaven I bring them, Saviour, all to thee, Who hast procured them all for me.

My life I bring to thee, I would not be my own; O, Saviour, let me be Thine ever, thine alone My life, my heart, my all I bring To thee, my Saviour and my King. -Sunday Magazine

" A LITTLE CHILD SHALL LEAD THEM."

An interesting revival of religion was i progress in the town of H---; many children and youth had given their hearts to the Saviour, and many others were anxiously inquiring what they must do to be saved. It was a precious season, and one long to be remembered. not only on account of the gracious outpouring of the Spirit on children and youth, but throughout the community.

Among the number who had lately espcused the cause of Christ was Frederick M., a youth of twelve, the only son of the wealthiest man in way I believed your letter ?" our town.
