

The Charlottetown Herald.

NEW SERIES.

CHARLOTTETOWN, PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 4, 1897.

Vol. XXVI. No. 32

Calendar for August, 1897.

First Quarter, 5th day, 3h. 12 pm. a. m.
Full Moon, 13th day, 10h. 10m. a. m.
Last Quarter, 21st day, 5h. 16m. a. m.
New Moon, 29th day, 11h. 16m. p. m.

Day	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat	Sun
1 Sun	2 Mon	3 Tue	4 Wed	5 Thu	6 Fri	7 Sat	8 Sun
9 Mon	10 Tue	11 Wed	12 Thu	13 Fri	14 Sat	15 Sun	16 Mon
17 Tue	18 Wed	19 Thu	20 Fri	21 Sat	22 Sun	23 Mon	24 Tue
25 Wed	26 Thu	27 Fri	28 Sat	29 Sun	30 Mon	31 Tue

SOMETHING TO THINK OVER.

You are aware that you cannot go without food and still retain your strength; yet you do neglect the exercise and recreation necessary to perfect health and long life. Why don't you buy a bicycle, ride it and add ten long years to your life? You can then, with clear brain and added energy, accomplish more than you do now, and in less time. With an easy-runging Stearns Bicycle you can save enough time to enable you to make delightful outings. The Stearns is called the Yellow Fellow because of its orange finish; we have it in black if you prefer.

MARK WRIGHT & CO. Ltd.

D. A. Bruce

Is a name known throughout the Province and carries with it the assurance of exceptional high values at exceptional low prices.

This is especially true with our

New Spring Suitings and Overcoatings.

Beautiful goods, beautifully made, beautifully trimmed, reduced to a low price.

See our Gents' Furnishings.

D. A. BRUCE.

Wall Papers Wall Papers

NOW OPEN—A full line of American and Canadian Papers.

Sample Books always on hand.

A few bales of the latest patterns still to open.

For quality and prices we will not be beaten.

Try us before purchasing elsewhere.

McMILLAN & HORNSBY,
Queen Street, Charlottetown.

LAXA-LIVER PILLS
CURE
BILIOUSNESS
CONSTIPATION
SICK HEADACHE
AND ALL LIVER TROUBLES

As a laxative, one pill acts perfectly, and if a stronger action is desired a cathartic effect is produced by two pills. In obstinate cases, where a purgative is necessary, three pills will be found sufficient. These pills leave no unpleasant after effect. One pill taken each night during thirty days will cure constipation.

Local and Special News.

CANCER CAN BE CURED.
For six years I suffered from cancer, and so on until I used Barkley's Blood Purifier. I used seven bottles faithfully, when the cancer gradually dried up and finally disappeared. I am now entirely well and rejoice that by using B.B.P. I have escaped death after from the cancerous knife or from the cancerous heat.

SHORTNESS OF BREATH.
"Since last year I have had serious heart trouble caused by malaria. Shortness of breath, smothering spells on resting, violent palpitation, etc., often made me gasp for breath. On receiving Minard's Liniment and Herve's Pills I found to my surprise and delight that they gave almost instant relief. I got healthy, restful sleep, my heart ceased to palpitate, and I now feel very well and strong indeed."

UNDOUBTED THE BEST.
GENTLEMEN—I wish to say that Dr. Fowler's Kidney and Bladder Pills has proved a wonderful remedy in my family. We would not be without for twice its price. I say it is the best, not merely because of the fact that the medicine never brought before the public for cancerous complaint or disease, either in children or adults.

NORWAY PINE SYRUP CURES coughs, colds, hoarseness, sore throat, asthma, bronchitis, etc.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES Burns, etc.

NATURE'S MEDICINE.
Nature's medicine for constipation, liver complaint, sick headache, biliousness, indigestion and other ailments is Laxa-Liver Pills. They are perfect laxative never griping or causing pain. One pill each night for 30 days will cure constipation.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS.
Doan's Kidney Pills act on the kidneys, bladder and urinary organs only. They cure headache, backache, rheumatism, dizziness, congestion, inflammation, gravel, blood in the urine, and all other ailments arising from impure action of the kidneys and bladder.

BURDOCK PILLS do not grip or sicken. They cure constipation and sick headache.

MINARD'S LINIMENT Relieves Neuralgia.

REPAIRING puncturing attended to Clocks, Watches and Jewelry.

G. G. JURY,
North West Corner Square, opposite the Market.

Encyclical Letter For Pentecost.

To Our Venerable Brethren, the Patriarchs, Primate, Archbishops, Bishops, and other Local Ordinaries Having Power and Communion With the Holy See.

LEO XIII, POPE.

VENERABLE BROTHERS,

Health and the Apostolic Benediction.

That divine office which Jesus Christ received from His Father for the welfare of mankind, and most perfectly fulfilled, had for its final object to put man in possession of the eternal life of glory, and to promote during the course of ages to secure to them the life of divine grace, which is destined eventually to blossom into the life of heaven.

Wherefore, our Saviour never ceased to invite, with infinite affection, all men, of every race and tongue, into the bosom of His Church: "Come ye all to Me," "I am the Life," "I am the Good Shepherd." Nevertheless, according to His inscrutable counsel, He did not will to entirely complete and finish this office Himself on earth, but as He had received it from the Father, so He transmitted it to His completion to the Holy Ghost. It is consoling to recall those assurances which Christ gave to the body of His disciples a little before He left the earth: "It is expedient to you that I go: for if I go not, the Paraclete will not come to you: but if I go, I will send Him to you." (1 John, xvi, 7.) In these words He gave as the chief reason of His departure and His return to the Father, the advantage which would most certainly accrue to His followers from the coming of the Holy Ghost, and, at the same time, He made it clear that the Holy Ghost is equally sent by— and therefore proceeds from—Himself and the Father; that He would complete, in His office of Intercessor, Consoler and Teacher, the work which Christ Himself had begun in His mortal life. For, in the redemption of the world, the completion of the work was by Divine Providence reserved to the manifold power of that Spirit, who, in the creation, "adorned the heavens" (Job xxii, 14,) and "filled the whole world" (Wisdom, i, 7.)

Now we have earnestly striven, by the help of Christ, to follow the example of His own Son, the Prince of Pastors, and the Bishop of our Souls, by diligently carrying on His office, entrusted by Him to the Apostles and chiefly to Peter, "whose dignity faileth not, even in His unworthy successor." (St. Leo the Great, Sermon ii.) On the Anniversary of His Ascension, in pursuance of this object we have endeavored to direct all that we have attempted and persistently carried out during a long pontificate towards two chief ends: in the first place, towards the restoration, both in rulers and peoples, of the principles of the Christian life in civil and domestic society, since there is no true life for men, except from Christ; and, secondly, to promote the reunion of those who have fallen away from the Catholic Church either by heresy or by schism, since it is most undoubtedly the will of Christ that all should be united in one flock under one Shepherd. But now that we are looking forward to the approach of the closing days of our life, our soul is deeply moved to dedicate to the Holy Ghost, who is the life-giving Love, all the work we have done during our pontificate, that He may bring it to maturity and fruitfulness. In order to be most fully to carry out this, our intention, we have resolved to address you at the approaching sacred season of Pentecost concerning the indwelling and miraculous power of the Holy Ghost; and the extent and efficiency of His action, both in the individual souls of His members, through the glorious abundance of His divine graces. We earnestly desire that, as a result, faith may be aroused in your minds concerning the mystery of the adorable Trinity, and especially that piety may be increased and be inflamed towards the Holy Ghost, to whom especially all of us owe the grace of following the path of truth and virtue; for, as St. Basil said, "Who denials that the dispensation concerning a man, which has been made by the great God and our Saviour, Jesus Christ, according to the goodness of God, have been fulfilled through the grace of the Spirit?" (of the Holy Ghost, a. xvi, v. 33.)

THE HOLY GHOST AND THE INCARNATION.

Having thus paid the due tribute of faith and worship owing to the Blessed Trinity, and which ought to be more incalculable upon the Christian people, we now turn to the exposition of the power to the Holy Ghost. And, first of all, we must look to Christ, the Founder of the Church and the Redeemer of our Race Among the external operations of God, the highest of all is the mystery of the Incarnation of the Word, in which the splendour of the divine perfections shines forth so brightly that nothing more sublime can ever be imagined, nothing else could have been more salutary to the human race. Now this work, "although belonging to the whole Trinity, is still appropriated especially to the Holy Ghost, so that the Gospel that speak of the Blessed Virgin: "She was found with child of the Holy Ghost" and "that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost." (Matt. i, 18, 20.) And this is rightly attributed to Him who is the love of the Father and the Son, since this "great mystery of piety" (1 Tim. iii, 16) proceeds from the infinite love of God towards man as St. John tells us: "God so loved the world as to give His only begotten Son" (John iii, 16.) Moreover, human nature was thereby elevated to a personal union with the Word; and this dignity is given, not on account of any merits, but entirely and absolutely through grace, and therefore, as it were, through the special gift of the Holy Ghost. On this point St. Augustine writes: "This manner in which Christ was born of the Holy Ghost, indicates to us the grace of God, by which humanity, with no antecedent merits, at the first moment of its existence, was united with the Word of God, by so intimate a personal union, that He who was the Son of God was also the Son of Man" (Enchiridion, c. xi; St. Th. 3a, q. xxiii, a. 1.) By the operation of the Holy Spirit, not only was the conception of Christ accomplished, but also the sanctification of His soul, which, in Holy Scripture is called His "anointing" (Acts x, 38). Wherefore all His actions were "performed in the Holy Ghost" (St. Basil de Sp. S., c. xvi), and especially the sacrifice of Himself: "Christ, through the Holy Ghost, offered Himself without spot to God" (Heb ix, 14). Considering this, no one can be surprised that all the gifts of the Holy Ghost inmanated the soul of Christ in Him reified the absolute fullness of grace, in the greatest and most efficacious manner possible; in Him were all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge, graces gratis datae, virtues, and all other gifts foretold in the prophecies of Isaiah (Is. li, l; xl, 23), and also signified in that miraculous dove which appeared at the Jordan, when Christ by His baptism, consecrated its waters for a new sacrament. On this the words of St. Augustine may appropriately be quoted: "It would be absurd to say that Christ received the Holy Ghost when He was already thirty years of age, for He came to His baptism without sin, and therefore not without the Holy Ghost. At this time, then (that is, at His baptism), He was pleased to prefigure His Church, in which those especially who are baptized receive the Holy Ghost" (De Trin. i, xv, c. 26). Therefore, by the conspicuous apparition of the Holy Ghost and by His invincible power in His soul, the twofold mission of the Spirit is foreshadowed, namely, His outward and visible mission in the Church, and His secret indwelling in the souls of the just.

THE HOLY GHOST AND THE CHURCH.

The Church, which already conceived, came forth from the side of the second Adam in His sleep on the Cross, first showed herself before the eyes of men on the great day of Pentecost. On that day the Holy Ghost began to manifest His gifts in the mystic body of Christ, by that miraculous outpouring already foreseen by the prophet Joel (Joel, ii, 28-32), for the Paraclete "sent upon the apostles as though new spiritual crowns were placed upon their heads in tongues of fire" (St. Cyril Hier. Catech. 17). Then the apostles "descended from the mountains" as St. John Chrysostom writes, "not bearing in their faces borrow their form and beauty, their order and harmony. He is for as the Way, the Truth and the Life; the Reconciler of man with God. "By Him are all things," by Him, referring to the Son. The Holy Ghost is the ultimate cause of all things, since, as the will and all other things, finally rest in their end, so He, who is the Divine Goodness and the Mutual Love of the Father and Son, completes and perfects, by His strong but gentle power, the secret work of man's eternal salvation. "In Him are all things" in Him, referring to the Holy Ghost.

THE HOLY GHOST AND THE INCARNATION.

Having thus paid the due tribute of faith and worship owing to the Blessed Trinity, and which ought to be more incalculable upon the Christian people, we now turn to the exposition of the power to the Holy Ghost. And, first of all, we must look to Christ, the Founder of the Church and the Redeemer of our Race Among the external operations of God, the highest of all is the mystery of the Incarnation of the Word, in which the splendour of the divine perfections shines forth so brightly that nothing more sublime can ever be imagined, nothing else could have been more salutary to the human race. Now this work, "although belonging to the whole Trinity, is still appropriated especially to the Holy Ghost, so that the Gospel that speak of the Blessed Virgin: "She was found with child of the Holy Ghost" and "that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost." (Matt. i, 18, 20.) And this is rightly attributed to Him who is the love of the Father and the Son, since this "great mystery of piety" (1 Tim. iii, 16) proceeds from the infinite love of God towards man as St. John tells us: "God so loved the world as to give His only begotten Son" (John iii, 16.) Moreover, human nature was thereby elevated to a personal union with the Word; and this dignity is given, not on account of any merits, but entirely and absolutely through grace, and therefore, as it were, through the special gift of the Holy Ghost. On this point St. Augustine writes: "This manner in which Christ was born of the Holy Ghost, indicates to us the grace of God, by which humanity, with no antecedent merits, at the first moment of its existence, was united with the Word of God, by so intimate a personal union, that He who was the Son of God was also the Son of Man" (Enchiridion, c. xi; St. Th. 3a, q. xxiii, a. 1.) By the operation of the Holy Spirit, not only was the conception of Christ accomplished, but also the sanctification of His soul, which, in Holy Scripture is called His "anointing" (Acts x, 38). Wherefore all His actions were "performed in the Holy Ghost" (St. Basil de Sp. S., c. xvi), and especially the sacrifice of Himself: "Christ, through the Holy Ghost, offered Himself without spot to God" (Heb ix, 14). Considering this, no one can be surprised that all the gifts of the Holy Ghost inmanated the soul of Christ in Him reified the absolute fullness of grace, in the greatest and most efficacious manner possible; in Him were all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge, graces gratis datae, virtues, and all other gifts foretold in the prophecies of Isaiah (Is. li, l; xl, 23), and also signified in that miraculous dove which appeared at the Jordan, when Christ by His baptism, consecrated its waters for a new sacrament. On this the words of St. Augustine may appropriately be quoted: "It would be absurd to say that Christ received the Holy Ghost when He was already thirty years of age, for He came to His baptism without sin, and therefore not without the Holy Ghost. At this time, then (that is, at His baptism), He was pleased to prefigure His Church, in which those especially who are baptized receive the Holy Ghost" (De Trin. i, xv, c. 26). Therefore, by the conspicuous apparition of the Holy Ghost and by His invincible power in His soul, the twofold mission of the Spirit is foreshadowed, namely, His outward and visible mission in the Church, and His secret indwelling in the souls of the just.

THE HOLY GHOST AND THE CHURCH.

The Church, which already conceived, came forth from the side of the second Adam in His sleep on the Cross, first showed herself before the eyes of men on the great day of Pentecost. On that day the Holy Ghost began to manifest His gifts in the mystic body of Christ, by that miraculous outpouring already foreseen by the prophet Joel (Joel, ii, 28-32), for the Paraclete "sent upon the apostles as though new spiritual crowns were placed upon their heads in tongues of fire" (St. Cyril Hier. Catech. 17). Then the apostles "descended from the mountains" as St. John Chrysostom writes, "not bearing in their faces borrow their form and beauty, their order and harmony. He is for as the Way, the Truth and the Life; the Reconciler of man with God. "By Him are all things," by Him, referring to the Son. The Holy Ghost is the ultimate cause of all things, since, as the will and all other things, finally rest in their end, so He, who is the Divine Goodness and the Mutual Love of the Father and Son, completes and perfects, by His strong but gentle power, the secret work of man's eternal salvation. "In Him are all things" in Him, referring to the Holy Ghost.

THE HOLY GHOST AND THE INCARNATION.

Having thus paid the due tribute of faith and worship owing to the Blessed Trinity, and which ought to be more incalculable upon the Christian people, we now turn to the exposition of the power to the Holy Ghost. And, first of all, we must look to Christ, the Founder of the Church and the Redeemer of our Race Among the external operations of God, the highest of all is the mystery of the Incarnation of the Word, in which the splendour of the divine perfections shines forth so brightly that nothing more sublime can ever be imagined, nothing else could have been more salutary to the human race. Now this work, "although belonging to the whole Trinity, is still appropriated especially to the Holy Ghost, so that the Gospel that speak of the Blessed Virgin: "She was found with child of the Holy Ghost" and "that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost." (Matt. i, 18, 20.) And this is rightly attributed to Him who is the love of the Father and the Son, since this "great mystery of piety" (1 Tim. iii, 16) proceeds from the infinite love of God towards man as St. John tells us: "God so loved the world as to give His only begotten Son" (John iii, 16.) Moreover, human nature was thereby elevated to a personal union with the Word; and this dignity is given, not on account of any merits, but entirely and absolutely through grace, and therefore, as it were, through the special gift of the Holy Ghost. On this point St. Augustine writes: "This manner in which Christ was born of the Holy Ghost, indicates to us the grace of God, by which humanity, with no antecedent merits, at the first moment of its existence, was united with the Word of God, by so intimate a personal union, that He who was the Son of God was also the Son of Man" (Enchiridion, c. xi; St. Th. 3a, q. xxiii, a. 1.) By the operation of the Holy Spirit, not only was the conception of Christ accomplished, but also the sanctification of His soul, which, in Holy Scripture is called His "anointing" (Acts x, 38). Wherefore all His actions were "performed in the Holy Ghost" (St. Basil de Sp. S., c. xvi), and especially the sacrifice of Himself: "Christ, through the Holy Ghost, offered Himself without spot to God" (Heb ix, 14). Considering this, no one can be surprised that all the gifts of the Holy Ghost inmanated the soul of Christ in Him reified the absolute fullness of grace, in the greatest and most efficacious manner possible; in Him were all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge, graces gratis datae, virtues, and all other gifts foretold in the prophecies of Isaiah (Is. li, l; xl, 23), and also signified in that miraculous dove which appeared at the Jordan, when Christ by His baptism, consecrated its waters for a new sacrament. On this the words of St. Augustine may appropriately be quoted: "It would be absurd to say that Christ received the Holy Ghost when He was already thirty years of age, for He came to His baptism without sin, and therefore not without the Holy Ghost. At this time, then (that is, at His baptism), He was pleased to prefigure His Church, in which those especially who are baptized receive the Holy Ghost" (De Trin. i, xv, c. 26). Therefore, by the conspicuous apparition of the Holy Ghost and by His invincible power in His soul, the twofold mission of the Spirit is foreshadowed, namely, His outward and visible mission in the Church, and His secret indwelling in the souls of the just.

THE HOLY GHOST AND THE CHURCH.

The Church, which already conceived, came forth from the side of the second Adam in His sleep on the Cross, first showed herself before the eyes of men on the great day of Pentecost. On that day the Holy Ghost began to manifest His gifts in the mystic body of Christ, by that miraculous outpouring already foreseen by the prophet Joel (Joel, ii, 28-32), for the Paraclete "sent upon the apostles as though new spiritual crowns were placed upon their heads in tongues of fire" (St. Cyril Hier. Catech. 17). Then the apostles "descended from the mountains" as St. John Chrysostom writes, "not bearing in their faces borrow their form and beauty, their order and harmony. He is for as the Way, the Truth and the Life; the Reconciler of man with God. "By Him are all things," by Him, referring to the Son. The Holy Ghost is the ultimate cause of all things, since, as the will and all other things, finally rest in their end, so He, who is the Divine Goodness and the Mutual Love of the Father and Son, completes and perfects, by His strong but gentle power, the secret work of man's eternal salvation. "In Him are all things" in Him, referring to the Holy Ghost.

THE HOLY GHOST AND THE INCARNATION.

Having thus paid the due tribute of faith and worship owing to the Blessed Trinity, and which ought to be more incalculable upon the Christian people, we now turn to the exposition of the power to the Holy Ghost. And, first of all, we must look to Christ, the Founder of the Church and the Redeemer of our Race Among the external operations of God, the highest of all is the mystery of the Incarnation of the Word, in which the splendour of the divine perfections shines forth so brightly that nothing more sublime can ever be imagined, nothing else could have been more salutary to the human race. Now this work, "although belonging to the whole Trinity, is still appropriated especially to the Holy Ghost, so that the Gospel that speak of the Blessed Virgin: "She was found with child of the Holy Ghost" and "that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost." (Matt. i, 18, 20.) And this is rightly attributed to Him who is the love of the Father and the Son, since this "great mystery of piety" (1 Tim. iii, 16) proceeds from the infinite love of God towards man as St. John tells us: "God so loved the world as to give His only begotten Son" (John iii, 16.) Moreover, human nature was thereby elevated to a personal union with the Word; and this dignity is given, not on account of any merits, but entirely and absolutely through grace, and therefore, as it were, through the special gift of the Holy Ghost. On this point St. Augustine writes: "This manner in which Christ was born of the Holy Ghost, indicates to us the grace of God, by which humanity, with no antecedent merits, at the first moment of its existence, was united with the Word of God, by so intimate a personal union, that He who was the Son of God was also the Son of Man" (Enchiridion, c. xi; St. Th. 3a, q. xxiii, a. 1.) By the operation of the Holy Spirit, not only was the conception of Christ accomplished, but also the sanctification of His soul, which, in Holy Scripture is called His "anointing" (Acts x, 38). Wherefore all His actions were "performed in the Holy Ghost" (St. Basil de Sp. S., c. xvi), and especially the sacrifice of Himself: "Christ, through the Holy Ghost, offered Himself without spot to God" (Heb ix, 14). Considering this, no one can be surprised that all the gifts of the Holy Ghost inmanated the soul of Christ in Him reified the absolute fullness of grace, in the greatest and most efficacious manner possible; in Him were all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge, graces gratis datae, virtues, and all other gifts foretold in the prophecies of Isaiah (Is. li, l; xl, 23), and also signified in that miraculous dove which appeared at the Jordan, when Christ by His baptism, consecrated its waters for a new sacrament. On this the words of St. Augustine may appropriately be quoted: "It would be absurd to say that Christ received the Holy Ghost when He was already thirty years of age, for He came to His baptism without sin, and therefore not without the Holy Ghost. At this time, then (that is, at His baptism), He was pleased to prefigure His Church, in which those especially who are baptized receive the Holy Ghost" (De Trin. i, xv, c. 26). Therefore, by the conspicuous apparition of the Holy Ghost and by His invincible power in His soul, the twofold mission of the Spirit is foreshadowed, namely, His outward and visible mission in the Church, and His secret indwelling in the souls of the just.

THE HOLY GHOST AND THE CHURCH.

The Church, which already conceived, came forth from the side of the second Adam in His sleep on the Cross, first showed herself before the eyes of men on the great day of Pentecost. On that day the Holy Ghost began to manifest His gifts in the mystic body of Christ, by that miraculous outpouring already foreseen by the prophet Joel (Joel, ii, 28-32), for the Paraclete "sent upon the apostles as though new spiritual crowns were placed upon their heads in tongues of fire" (St. Cyril Hier. Catech. 17). Then the apostles "descended from the mountains" as St. John Chrysostom writes, "not bearing in their faces borrow their form and beauty, their order and harmony. He is for as the Way, the Truth and the Life; the Reconciler of man with God. "By Him are all things," by Him, referring to the Son. The Holy Ghost is the ultimate cause of all things, since, as the will and all other things, finally rest in their end, so He, who is the Divine Goodness and the Mutual Love of the Father and Son, completes and perfects, by His strong but gentle power, the secret work of man's eternal salvation. "In Him are all things" in Him, referring to the Holy Ghost.

THE HOLY GHOST AND THE INCARNATION.

Having thus paid the due tribute of faith and worship owing to the Blessed Trinity, and which ought to be more incalculable upon the Christian people, we now turn to the exposition of the power to the Holy Ghost. And, first of all, we must look to Christ, the Founder of the Church and the Redeemer of our Race Among the external operations of God, the highest of all is the mystery of the Incarnation of the Word, in which the splendour of the divine perfections shines forth so brightly that nothing more sublime can ever be imagined, nothing else could have been more salutary to the human race. Now this work, "although belonging to the whole Trinity, is still appropriated especially to the Holy Ghost, so that the Gospel that speak of the Blessed Virgin: "She was found with child of the Holy Ghost" and "that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost." (Matt. i, 18, 20.) And this is rightly attributed to Him who is the love of the Father and the Son, since this "great mystery of piety" (1 Tim. iii, 16) proceeds from the infinite love of God towards man as St. John tells us: "God so loved the world as to give His only begotten Son" (John iii, 16.) Moreover, human nature was thereby elevated to a personal union with the Word; and this dignity is given, not on account of any merits, but entirely and absolutely through grace, and therefore, as it were, through the special gift of the Holy Ghost. On this point St. Augustine writes: "This manner in which Christ was born of the Holy Ghost, indicates to us the grace of God, by which humanity, with no antecedent merits, at the first moment of its existence, was united with the Word of God, by so intimate a personal union, that He who was the Son of God was also the Son of Man" (Enchiridion, c. xi; St. Th. 3a, q. xxiii, a. 1.) By the operation of the Holy Spirit, not only was the conception of Christ accomplished, but also the sanctification of His soul, which, in Holy Scripture is called His "anointing" (Acts x, 38). Wherefore all His actions were "performed in the Holy Ghost" (St. Basil de Sp. S., c. xvi), and especially the sacrifice of Himself: "Christ, through the Holy Ghost, offered Himself without spot to God" (Heb ix, 14). Considering this, no one can be surprised that all the gifts of the Holy Ghost inmanated the soul of Christ in Him reified the absolute fullness of grace, in the greatest and most efficacious manner possible; in Him were all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge, graces gratis datae, virtues, and all other gifts foretold in the prophecies of Isaiah (Is. li, l; xl, 23), and also signified in that miraculous dove which appeared at the Jordan, when Christ by His baptism, consecrated its waters for a new sacrament. On this the words of St. Augustine may appropriately be quoted: "It would be absurd to say that Christ received the Holy Ghost when He was already thirty years of age, for He came to His baptism without sin, and therefore not without the Holy Ghost. At this time, then (that is, at His baptism), He was pleased to prefigure His Church, in which those especially who are baptized receive the Holy Ghost" (De Trin. i, xv, c. 26). Therefore, by the conspicuous apparition of the Holy Ghost and by His invincible power in His soul, the twofold mission of the Spirit is foreshadowed, namely, His outward and visible mission in the Church, and His secret indwelling in the souls of the just.

THE HOLY GHOST AND THE CHURCH.

The Church, which already conceived, came forth from the side of the second Adam in His sleep on the Cross, first showed herself before the eyes of men on the great day of Pentecost. On that day the Holy Ghost began to manifest His gifts in the mystic body of Christ, by that miraculous outpouring already foreseen by the prophet Joel (Joel, ii, 28-32), for the Paraclete "sent upon the apostles as though new spiritual crowns were placed upon their heads in tongues of fire" (St. Cyril Hier. Catech. 17). Then the apostles "descended from the mountains" as St. John Chrysostom writes, "not bearing in their faces borrow their form and beauty, their order and harmony. He is for as the Way, the Truth and the Life; the Reconciler of man with God. "By Him are all things," by Him, referring to the Son. The Holy Ghost is the ultimate cause of all things, since, as the will and all other things, finally rest in their end, so He, who is the Divine Goodness and the Mutual Love of the Father and Son, completes and perfects, by His strong but gentle power, the secret work of man's eternal salvation. "In Him are all things" in Him, referring to the Holy Ghost.

THE HOLY GHOST AND THE INCARNATION.

Having thus paid the due tribute of faith and worship owing to the Blessed Trinity, and which ought to be more incalculable upon the Christian people, we now turn to the exposition of the power to the Holy Ghost. And, first of all, we must look to Christ, the Founder of the Church and the Redeemer of our Race Among the external operations of God, the highest of all is the mystery of the Incarnation of the Word, in which the splendour of the divine perfections shines forth so brightly that nothing more sublime can ever be imagined, nothing else could have been more salutary to the human race. Now this work, "although belonging to the whole Trinity, is still appropriated especially to the Holy Ghost, so that the Gospel that speak of the Blessed Virgin: "She was found with child of the Holy Ghost" and "that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost." (Matt. i, 18, 20.) And this is rightly attributed to Him who is the love of the Father and the Son, since this "great mystery of piety" (1 Tim. iii, 16) proceeds from the infinite love of God towards man as St. John tells us: "God so loved the world as to give His only begotten Son" (John iii, 16.) Moreover, human nature was thereby elevated to a personal union with the Word; and this dignity is given, not on account of any merits, but entirely and absolutely through grace, and therefore, as it were, through the special gift of the Holy Ghost. On this point St. Augustine writes: "This manner in which Christ was born of the Holy Ghost, indicates to us the grace of God, by which humanity, with no antecedent merits, at the first moment of its existence, was united with the Word of God, by so intimate a personal union, that He who was the Son of God was also the Son of Man" (Enchiridion, c. xi; St. Th. 3a, q. xxiii, a. 1.) By the operation of the Holy Spirit, not only was the conception of Christ accomplished, but also the sanctification of His soul, which, in Holy Scripture is called His "anointing" (Acts x, 38). Wherefore all His actions were "performed in the Holy Ghost" (St. Basil de Sp. S., c. xvi), and especially the sacrifice of Himself: "Christ, through the Holy Ghost, offered Himself without spot to God" (Heb ix, 14). Considering this, no one can be surprised that all the gifts of the Holy Ghost inmanated the soul of Christ in Him reified the absolute fullness of grace, in the greatest and most efficacious manner possible; in Him were all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge, graces gratis datae, virtues, and all other gifts foretold in the prophecies of Isaiah (Is. li, l; xl, 23), and also signified in that miraculous dove which appeared at the Jordan, when Christ by His baptism, consecrated its waters for a new sacrament. On this the words of St. Augustine may appropriately be quoted: "It would be absurd to say that Christ received the Holy Ghost when He was already thirty years of age, for He came to His baptism without sin, and therefore not without the Holy Ghost. At this time, then (that is, at His baptism), He was pleased to prefigure His Church, in which those especially who are baptized receive the Holy Ghost" (De Trin. i, xv, c. 26). Therefore, by the conspicuous apparition of the Holy Ghost and by His invincible power in His soul, the twofold mission of the Spirit is foreshadowed, namely, His outward and visible mission in the Church, and His secret indwelling in the souls of the just.

THE HOLY GHOST AND THE CHURCH.

The Church, which already conceived, came forth from the side of the second Adam in His sleep on the Cross, first showed herself before the eyes of men on the great day of Pentecost. On that day the Holy Ghost began to manifest His gifts in the mystic body of Christ, by that miraculous outpouring already foreseen by the prophet Joel (Joel, ii, 28-32), for the Paraclete "sent upon the apostles as though new spiritual crowns were placed upon their heads in tongues of fire" (St. Cyril Hier. Catech. 17). Then the apostles "descended from the mountains" as St. John Chrysostom writes, "not bearing in their faces borrow their form and beauty, their order and harmony. He is for as the Way, the Truth and the Life; the Reconciler of man with God. "By Him are all things," by Him, referring to the Son. The Holy Ghost is the ultimate cause of all things, since, as the will and all other things, finally rest in their end, so He, who is the Divine Goodness and the Mutual Love of the Father and Son, completes and perfects, by His strong but gentle power, the secret work of man's eternal salvation. "In Him are all things" in Him, referring to the Holy Ghost.

THE HOLY GHOST AND THE INCARNATION.

Having thus paid the due tribute of faith and worship owing to the Blessed Trinity, and which ought to be more incalculable upon the Christian people, we now turn to the exposition of the power to the Holy Ghost. And, first of all, we must look to Christ, the Founder of the Church and the Redeemer of our Race Among the external operations of God, the highest of all is the mystery of the Incarnation of the Word, in which the splendour of the divine perfections shines forth so brightly that nothing more sublime can ever be imagined, nothing else could have been more salutary to the human race. Now this work, "although belonging to the whole Trinity, is still appropriated especially to the Holy Ghost, so that the Gospel that speak of the Blessed Virgin: "She was found with child of the Holy Ghost" and "that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost." (Matt. i, 18, 20.) And this is rightly attributed to Him who is the love of the Father and the Son, since this "great mystery of piety" (1 Tim. iii, 16) proceeds from the infinite love of God towards man as St. John tells us: "God so loved the world as to give His only begotten Son" (John iii, 16.) Moreover, human nature was thereby elevated to a personal union with the Word; and this dignity is given, not on account of any merits, but entirely and absolutely through grace, and therefore, as it were, through the special gift of the Holy Ghost. On this point St. Augustine writes: "This manner in which Christ was born of the Holy Ghost, indicates to us the grace of God, by which humanity, with no antecedent merits, at the first moment of its existence, was united with the Word of God, by so intimate a personal union, that He who was the Son of God was also the Son of Man" (Enchiridion, c. xi; St. Th. 3a, q. xxiii, a. 1.) By the operation of the Holy Spirit, not only was the conception of Christ accomplished, but also the sanctification of His soul, which, in Holy Scripture is called His "anointing" (Acts x, 38). Wherefore all His actions were "performed in the Holy Ghost" (St. Basil de Sp. S., c. xvi), and especially the sacrifice of Himself: "Christ, through the Holy Ghost, offered Himself without spot to God" (Heb ix, 14). Considering this, no one can be surprised that all the gifts of the Holy Ghost inmanated the soul of Christ in Him reified the absolute fullness of grace, in the greatest and most efficacious manner possible; in Him were all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge, graces gratis datae, virtues, and all other gifts foretold in the prophecies of Isaiah (Is. li, l; xl, 23), and also signified in that miraculous dove which appeared at the Jordan, when Christ by His baptism, consecrated its waters for a new sacrament. On this the words of St. Augustine may appropriately be quoted: "It would be absurd to say that Christ received the Holy Ghost when He was already thirty years of age, for He came to His baptism without sin, and therefore not without the Holy Ghost. At this time, then (that is, at His baptism), He was pleased to pre

THE HERALD

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 4, 1897. JAMES McISAAC, Editor & Proprietor.

Denouncing the Treaties

The Imperial Government have intimated to Germany and Belgium that the commercial treaties existing between Great Britain and those countries are denounced, such denunciation to take effect one year hence. This is in accordance with the terms upon which these treaties were entered into, one year's notice of a desire to terminate being necessary from either party to the compact.

Not much is known about the condition of the French fisheries at St. Pierre; but I have lately obtained some figures compiled from the French Year Book which throw some light on this matter. The following table shows the total export of dry and green codfish from St. Pierre since 1881, together with the value in dollars:

Table with 3 columns: Year, Dry and green Value (cwt), and Value in dollars. Rows range from 1881 to 1896.

The foregoing figures show that during the last sixteen years there has been no very marked increase in the French export of codfish from St. Pierre. Within the last ten years the number of men and vessels employed has considerably increased, but there has not been a corresponding increase in the catch of the fish.

Another important fact may be noted: The bait act was in operation from 1887 till 1891, but the returns do not show that the French export was affected to any serious extent by the application of this act; nor do they show any great increase in the years following the suspension of the act.

YESTERDAY was declaration day in connection with the recent Provincial elections. In Summerside Hon. Angus McMillan was declared elected by a majority of two, instead of DesRoches. This change was effected by the special votes. In the Murray Harbor district, McKinnon and Aitken are reported to be equal. These cases may involve some further proceedings. Apart from these the parties stand as hitherto reported, viz., Government supporters, 19; Opposition 10, with one seat (Murray Harbor) doubtful. Five of the opposition members are elected in Prince County, and five in King's. Queen's elected no oppositors of the opposition.

On Friday evening last, John L. Clouston, Esq., Barrister, of St. John, N. B., will lecture in St. Patrick's Hall, this city, under the auspices of the Benevolent Irish Society. Subject: "Boys O'Paddy, the Feet of Humidity." Admission ten cents.

The St. Pierre Fisheries

The special correspondent of the Montreal Gazette at St. John's, Newfoundland, sends that journal the following facts regarding the French fisheries in that quarter, and their effect on the Newfoundland trade:

More than three-fourths of the codfish consumed in France come from St. Pierre and Miquelon. If France consumed the whole of their catch, we Newfoundlanders would have no cause of complaint. But unluckily for us the French have long ago established a system of bounties to sustain and render these fisheries attractive. The consequence is that after these fisheries have invaded European markets—Spain, Portugal and Italy—and here, being aided by their boundaries, they can undersell our fishery products. This is our great grievance. We are handicapped by the bounty-fed French fisheries. The competition is an unfair one, and they have been able to drive our fish from many European markets.

Seeing that the treaties have been denounced it seems fair to infer that both Sir Louis' contentions failed. It is now manifest that there can be no British preferential trade till the effect of these treaties is removed. That is, the course advocated by the Liberal-Conservatives has to be pursued. That course, as set out in the amendment, moved by Sir Charles Tupper, to the "reciprocity clause" of the tariff was as follows:

That on several occasions the government and parliament of Canada have requested her majesty to be pleased to take such steps as might be necessary to terminate the effect of the provisions of all treaties which prevent the parliament of the United Kingdom and the self-governing colonies adopting such tariffs as will be required for the promotion of trade within the empire, but no decisive action has been taken in this direction; that the desire for preferential trade with the United Kingdom is now general throughout Canada; that this house is of opinion that the government of Canada should cause her majesty's government to be advised that as soon as the difficulties in the way are removed the parliament of Canada is ready to enter into a preferential trade arrangement with Great Britain and Ireland.

Against this amendment, Mr. Davies made the argument already referred to, and the Grits, of course, voted the amendment down; but the course here suggested is the one that Mr. Chamberlain is pursuing, and that had to be pursued if British preferential trade is to be established. The vast importance of the denunciation of these treaties is an inviting theme to be discussed on a later occasion. But what is the position in which the Laurierite government find themselves? Briefly it is, as we suggested some time ago would be the case, that they have a tariff act on their hands that they would be glad to get clear of. If they could suspend the operation of the "reciprocity clause" on the tariff they would no doubt gladly do it; but though they asked and received numerous large powers from parliament they took no power to suspend this clause in 1894 of any contingency making such a course expedient. Thus it results that after protesting that no country

Kingdom and New South Wales, should come under this clause, they have, and will have for a year hence or until the clause is repealed, besides Britain and N. S. Wales, Germany and Belgium under these treaties, and over thirty other countries under "favored nation clauses," entitled to have their goods entered in Canada under the reduced duties of the "reciprocal clause." The thing that the Grits declared never should be, is that which has come to pass; and the thing which the Conservatives said must be, according to law and the treaties, is that which exists. Besides this discomfiture, the government will have to pay back 12 1/2 per cent of all duties collected on all goods from Germany, Belgium and the thirty odd other countries, since the new tariff came in force. This may not be a very serious matter, but it is one which will not give the government much comfort. The more serious matter is that from the passing of the act till its repeal, a large number of non-British countries will be able to send their goods to Canada at the reduced rates. Whether the government will care much about the public effect of this reduced tariff, is doubtful; but they can hardly help feeling humiliated by the fact that they have made through their wonderful "reciprocal clause."

The Treaties and the Grits

The Grits have probably seen by this time, whether they acknowledge it or not, that they were entirely wrong, and that the Liberal-Conservatives were entirely right as to the bearing of the Belgian and German treaties on the "reciprocity clause" of the new tariff; and also that the Liberal-Conservatives were right when they contended that the first practical step towards any useful preferential trade within the British Empire must be the denunciation of these treaties. Mr. Fielding and his colleagues contended that their tariff clause was so ingeniously constructed that it slipped right round these troublesome treaties and left them side-tracked and harmless. Sir Wilfred (then Mr. Laurier, democrat), declared that the government had searched the world and found that no other country but Great Britain was entitled to the tariff of the "reciprocal clause." Mr. Davies made in the house what he seemed to think was a legal argument to show that these treaties could not touch Canada as a self-governing colony, and especially could not touch this tariff. Sir Louis went to London to repeat this argument, and there added a third clause to his brief as an escape in case of the failure of his prime contentions. In London he instructed a representative of Reuter's Agency as to his mission there as follows: "I am here to press before the colonial office the Canadian contention that (1) existing treaties with Germany and Belgium do not apply to Canada, not having been ratified by imperial or colonial legislation; (2) that if they do apply the Canadian proposition for preferential trade does not interfere with them; (3) that if both these contentions fail it is imperative in imperial interests that the treaties should be denounced."

MONTEAL GAZETTE: Mr. Labouchere says Mr. Cecil Rhodes and his friends were down and he took the opportunity of kicking them as hard as ever he could. Sir William Harcourt disdained to make political capital out of national misfortunes, and his self-restraint will elevate him immensely in English public opinion. His defence of Mr. Chamberlain, who had been a bitter political opponent of his and has often spoken of him in terms of personal disparagement was one of the incidents which made British subjects all the world over proud of the Mother Country and the men who dominate her public life.

TIRED, NERVOUS, SLEEPLESS Men and women—how gratefully they write about Hood's Sarsaparilla. One who has been discouraged, having lost all faith in medicine, now in good health and able to do his own work, writes: "Hood's Sarsaparilla has power to enrich and purify the blood and make the weak strong—this is experience of a host of people."

HOOD'S PILLS are the best family cathartic and liver medicine. Gentle, reliable, sure.

DEED. At the residence of her brother, Thomas Dennis, Dorchester Street, on Wednesday, July 29th, Elizabeth Dennis, aged 84 years. The deceased who for the past four years had been comatose for Rev. Allen J. McNeill, of Fort Augustus, came to the City the previous day to consult a medical man, she not having felt in her usual good health for some time before. Shortly after reaching the city her condition became more acute, and she was suddenly prostrated with inflammation of the bowels, which carried her off in less than twenty-four hours after her arrival. Her funeral took place Thursday, the remains being interred at Fort Beaufort, the Requiem Mass being celebrated by Rev. Father Allan. May her soul rest in peace.

In St. John, N. B., on the morning of July 29th, Elizabeth Dennis, aged 82 years, beloved wife of Albert M. Dennis, leaving a husband, three sons and three daughters to mourn their loss. In this city, on the 31st ult., Patrick Conroy, in the 32nd year of his age. At Norway, N. B., on July 27, James Gavin, aged 80 years. May his soul rest in peace.

A Helpless Woman. For Years a Rheumatic Cripple—Under the Healing Balm of South American Rheumatism Cure suffering ranchman—Through Faith in the Testimony of Others She is to-day a well Woman. My daughter, Mrs. Gregory, had rheumatism so badly in her right hand and arm that they were rendered almost helpless for over a year. Notwithstanding the testimony of persons who had been cured by South American Rheumatism Cure, I procured a bottle, and when the bottle was used the rheumatism had completely left her. It is a great remedy, and we take pleasure in recommending it.—Nell Morrison, St. John, N. B.—Sold by GEO. E. HUGHES.

OUR GREAT JULY Clothing Sale

PROWSE BROTHERS, The Wonderful Cheap Men. Ask for a critical comparison or examination of the Ready-Made Clothing

Handled by them. It is apt to result in securing them a customer. Thoroughly reliable material used only, and nothing but strictly high grade work on each and every garment sold. Read our prices for July 27 Suits for men for $2.75; 13 Suits good Blue Serge, $3.75; 10 All Wool Tweed Suits, $5.00; 44 All Wool worth $10.50 for $6.00; 57 Alabama Tweed Suits, worth $11.00 for $8.00; 200 Youths' Suits, worth from $4.50 to $6.00, will be sold for $3.75 and $4.50; 20 doz. Top Shirts for 15 cents each; 40 doz. Linters and Drawers, summer weight, for 15 cents each; 2,200 yds. Print Cotton for 5 cents a yard; 4,150 yds. good print, worth 11 cents, will be sold for 8 cents a yard.

Ginghams, Cotton, Cottonade, Towels and Toweling, Dress Goods, Hats and Flowers, all sold at large discounts this month.

PROWSE BROS. The Wonderful Cheap Men. PERKINS, STERNS & TURNER ON SATURDAY WE BEGIN A Big Clearance Sale

BOYS' CLOTHING. We are going to make the price exceedingly low to effect a speedy sale. Prices reduced on Boys' Cotton Blouses, prices reduced on Boys' Galatia Blouses, prices reduced on Boys' Serge Sailor Suits, prices reduced on Boys' Galatia Sailor Suits, prices reduced on Boys' Tweed Sailor Suits, prices reduced on all Boys' Clothing, and a big discount off Boys' and Men's Straw Hats. Stock all new. No old goods of any kind. Come and share in the bargains.

Sunnyside Dry Goods Store, COMMON CENTS, Its common sense to save the common little cents. We mention this because on some kinds of Shoes we can save you a few cents. We wish you'd look—just look at our stock of Oxford Shoes at 68c, 75c, $1.00 and upwards.

CH TOWN STORE. We Carry the Largest Stock OF Black Dress Goods IN THE CITY. WE KEEP EVERYTHING NECESSARY FOR A Complete Mourning Outfit.

36 inch Black Tweed Dress Serge, guaranteed pure wool, 22c. per yard. 42 inch Black French Dress Serge, all wool, good weight, 32c. per yard. 46 inch Fine French Cashmere, the best goods on the market for 50c. per yard. 45 inch Alma Cloth, a beautiful new French material, 55c. per yard. 44 inch Figured Alpaca, all that could be desired for wear and appearance, 48c. per yard. 42 inch Black French Cashmere, Raven Black, every thread wove, 35c. per yard. 44 inch Coating Serge, had finish, a great goods to wear, 45c. per yard. 44 inch Figured Solid, union goods, perfection in finish, 48c. per yard. Figured Alpaca, 42 inches wide, nice bright Mohair finish, 32c. per yard. 46 inch Coating, full wool, all that could be desired for a fashionable dress, 55c. per yard.

STANLEY BROS., THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE. Cheapness! What is it? Cheapness is not peculiar to prices. Poor Furniture at low prices is not cheap. But Good Furniture (our kind) at a medium price is. Try the Home Makers for value. These points account for the qualities of Furniture seen leaving our store these days. A small profit and a quick turn over is a good principle in any business.

Mark Wright & Co., Ltd. THE HOME MAKERS. NEW STORE! Farm Seed & Implements.

OLIVERS—Early Red, Mammoth, Alsike and White Dutch. TIMOTHY—Island and Best Canadian. VETCHES—Corn, Peas, Flax, Buckwheat, Barley, etc., etc. —ALSO— HARROWS—Spring Tooth and Disc, Seed Sowers, all Steel Feed and Seed Boxes, to fit any Ethica Rake.

Finlayson & McKinnon TERLIZICK'S CORNER, Queen and Kent Sts. Charlottetown, April 14, 1897.

All the Island Farmers Are welcome to call at Paton & Co's on Tuesday, Jubilee Day. Don't forget to bring us your Wool. Best stock of Ready-made Clothing on P. E. Island. JAS. PATON & CO.

CH TOWN STORE. We Carry the Largest Stock OF Black Dress Goods IN THE CITY. WE KEEP EVERYTHING NECESSARY FOR A Complete Mourning Outfit.

36 inch Black Tweed Dress Serge, guaranteed pure wool, 22c. per yard. 42 inch Black French Dress Serge, all wool, good weight, 32c. per yard. 46 inch Fine French Cashmere, the best goods on the market for 50c. per yard. 45 inch Alma Cloth, a beautiful new French material, 55c. per yard. 44 inch Figured Alpaca, all that could be desired for wear and appearance, 48c. per yard. 42 inch Black French Cashmere, Raven Black, every thread wove, 35c. per yard. 44 inch Coating Serge, had finish, a great goods to wear, 45c. per yard. 44 inch Figured Solid, union goods, perfection in finish, 48c. per yard. Figured Alpaca, 42 inches wide, nice bright Mohair finish, 32c. per yard. 46 inch Coating, full wool, all that could be desired for a fashionable dress, 55c. per yard.

STANLEY BROS., THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE. Cheapness! What is it? Cheapness is not peculiar to prices. Poor Furniture at low prices is not cheap. But Good Furniture (our kind) at a medium price is. Try the Home Makers for value. These points account for the qualities of Furniture seen leaving our store these days. A small profit and a quick turn over is a good principle in any business.

Mark Wright & Co., Ltd. THE HOME MAKERS. NEW STORE! Farm Seed & Implements.

OLIVERS—Early Red, Mammoth, Alsike and White Dutch. TIMOTHY—Island and Best Canadian. VETCHES—Corn, Peas, Flax, Buckwheat, Barley, etc., etc. —ALSO— HARROWS—Spring Tooth and Disc, Seed Sowers, all Steel Feed and Seed Boxes, to fit any Ethica Rake.

Finlayson & McKinnon TERLIZICK'S CORNER, Queen and Kent Sts. Charlottetown, April 14, 1897.

All the Island Farmers Are welcome to call at Paton & Co's on Tuesday, Jubilee Day. Don't forget to bring us your Wool. Best stock of Ready-made Clothing on P. E. Island. JAS. PATON & CO.

The Treaty Demanded.

Berlin advice of the 30th. It announced that the commercial treaty between Great Britain and the German empire, which has been in force since May 20, 1865, was denounced that day by Great Britain, and will cease to be operative a year hence.

Provincial Elections.

Table of Provincial Elections with columns for District, Candidate, and Votes. Includes sections for First District-Queen's, Second District, Third District, and Fourth District.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

News items from Victoria, including a notice from the Victoria Association of a meeting of white and friendly societies in New Orleans.

THE GREEN BEARER.

Swaps down on young and old alike. The green bearer has been seen on the streets of the city.

WEEKS' MIGHTY Midsummer Sale

Weeks' Big 10 days Clearance Dress Goods, Capes, MILLINERY. The Jubilee is over. The superabundance of loyalty sentiment has spent itself.

30c. For Dress Goods 80c. Worth up to 50c. For Dress Goods $1.00 Worth up to

At 85 cents we offer three thousand two hundred and fifty yards of all kinds of Dress Goods, Black and Colored Cashmeres, Serges, fancies and plain, bought from best English and French makers.

WEEKS & CO., The Peoples' Store—Wholesale and Retail.

Hard Cash.

The value of money is usually enhanced when business is sluggish and times are hard. This is why shrewd people buy in dull times.

In Boots & Shoes. We are saving lots of money for the people who buy of us. See our Women's Shoes, Worth $1.00, now 65c.

See our Men's Laced Boots, Worth $1.35 for $1.00. And if space would permit, we could enumerate lots of money-saving prices.

HIGH GRADE English Manures

Superphosphate, Nitrate of Soda, Murate of Potash, Kainit, Bone and Meal, etc., etc. These we guarantee to be the BEST and MUCH THE CHEAPEST FERTILIZERS on the market.

Every "I" in P.E. Island IS ON THIS ADVERTISEMENT. If you catch the idea read on, as we have some very catchy ideas to present.

- 1st catchy idea, "Canada's best" 32 inch Print Cottons, guaranteed fast colors, worth 13c., our catch price 10c. 2nd catchy idea, large Cotton Towels worth 10c., our catch price 7c.

BEER BROS.

Advisers from Tacoma, Washington, state that Edgar McLeure fell over a 300 foot precipice while descending Mount Tacoma in the darkness Tuesday night of last week.

The Montreal correspondent of the Patriot writes, among other items, the following: While a lady and gentleman with their little daughter, were visiting at a relative's house about a mile from the village a short time ago, the little daughter had rather a curious experience.

Biliousness Hood's Pills

News of the Week. The imposition of an American duty of $4 on lumber will seriously affect the Ottawa district and during the coming winter instead of some 25,000 tons of lumber being exported from 500 to 700 will be working.

Wrong Heart Action. Wrong action of the heart causes nervousness, nervous dyspepsia, shortness of breath, and other distressing symptoms. Mr. Samuel Yelland, of London, was cured of those troubles by taking Milners Heart and Nerve Pills.

Get Instant Relief from Piles. This most irritating disease relieved in ten minutes by using Dr. Agnew's Ointment and is cured in from three to six weeks.

The stroke of a hammer upon a nail caused a $40,000 fire at Olean, N. Y., on the 24th ult., and eleven men escaped being hurt, but one died.

DR. MORRIS, Physician & Surgeon, Mt. Stewart. First-Class Honor Graduate and Scholarship Winner, University of Pennsylvania.

LAND FOR SALE. At Head of Hillsborough. Seventy and one-half acres of land, near Douglas Station, Lot 34, covered with a good growth of hardwood.

BEER BROS. & McKinnon. Largest Stock of Press Goods in the City. Burning Outfit. 42 inch Black French Cashmere, Raven Black, every thread wove. 35c. per yard. 44 inch Coating Serge, had finish, a great goods to wear, 45c. per yard.

