ELECTRIC RADIANT TOASTER.

Price $4.50.

Let us demonstrate one for you at your Home.

The "Helping Hand" OF ELECTRIC SERVICE.

It is the General ELECTRIC RADIANT TOASTER. This Toaster was designed to make PERFECT TOAST for discriminating people—and it does.

Perfect Toast is therefore vitally essential. Aside from the quality of this Electric Toast, each slice only costs one-tenth of a cent. And there is positive joy in making it, for there is something cozy and cheerful about the soft glow of the coils reflecting on the shining white porcelain base. The General Electric Radiant Toaster adds grace and charm to any table.

When you eat Toast made on a General Electric Radiant Toaster you will quickly appreciate the big difference between Perfect Toast and the other kind. And you should recollect that Toast is very "versatile" food; it is the foundation for scores of the most deliciously toothsome viands.

Your House is Thirsty

for paint. It's furnishing for a good swig of Linseed Oil and pigments. It's been through a strenuous winter, after your failure to give it any attention last year, and now with cracks and pores gaping and gasping, it faces the summer sun within a few short weeks. Try our house tonic. It's cheaper to paint than not to paint, and the sooner the cheaper.

Use Good Paint, that's Matchless.

Answer: MICHELIN

As a Time and Money-Saving Proposition, 77 per cent. say MICHELIN. As an Experimental Proposition, 23 per cent. are undecided, still experimenting with various makes, with the consequent loss of time and money.

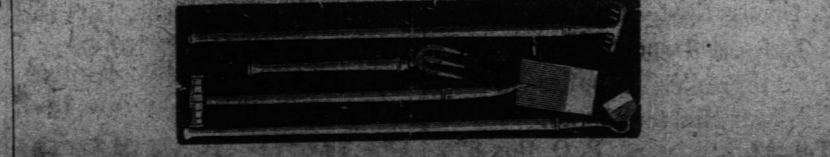

Fancy pattern covers are no doubt attractive, they are intended to be; they are also a good advertisement. To the shrewd buyer the very fact of such a great variety of Fancy Pattern Tyres proves conclusively that none of the patterns are correct. Either one is best and should be universally adopted, or all are unnecessary.

MICHELIN are not fancy pattern covers: Quality is their watchword, and in their merits they stand or fall.

CHAPTER XVIII.
OFF TO THE FRONTIER.

Darrel was not surprised. He remembered incidents, quite small incidents, which had occurred in the past—scraps of conversation between his father and Mr. Burridge, certain covert insolences which Burridge had occasionally displayed. There also flashed across his mind at that moment the words, the threats, Sampson had tipsily uttered outside the Savoy, Lady Westlake's taunt of "impecunious baronet." He was not surprised, but his gorge rose at the thought of Burridge's duplicity, the complete and skillful way in which his poor father and he had been engulfed by that voracious boor.

Poor Darrel knew nothing of business, but he had sense enough to put the question:

"You mean that you hold the mortgages on the Court and the estate."

Psoriasis All Over Body

Doctors Said Incurable, But Now There is No Sign of Disease, Thanks to Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mds. N. Massey.

"Psoriasis is one of the most dreaded of itching skin diseases. It is a sort of chronic eczema. The itching it causes is almost beyond human endurance, and doctors are accustomed to give it up as incurable.

But here is a case that was given up and pronounced incurable. The result proves that Dr. Chase's Ointment almost works miracles in curing the worst form of itching skin disease imaginable.

Mrs. Nettie Massey, Concession, Ont., writes:—"For five years I suffered with what three doctors called psoriasis. They could not help me, and one of them told me if anyone offered to guarantee a cure for $50.00 to keep my money, as I could not be cured. The disease spread all over me, even on my face and head, and the itching and burning was hard to bear. I used eight boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and I am glad to say I am entirely cured, not a sign of a sore to be seen. I can hardly praise this ointment enough."

The soothing, healing influence of Dr. Chase's Ointment is truly wonderful. Eczema, salt rheum, barber's itch, ringworm and scores of such torturing ailments are relieved at once and as certainly cured if the Ointment is used persistently. Mothers and Dr. Chase's Ointment invaluable in preventing and curing the skin troubles of babies, such as chafing, irritations of the skin and baby scum.

ly: "but I didn't understand; I didn't pay any attention. I see now that I was wrong in not doing so. You wish to talk with your father? Pray do so; I will leave you."

"Oh, it's nothing much," said Sampson. "Don't go, Mr. Frayne—Sir Darrel. The place doesn't belong to us—yet."

Darrel started as if he had been stung, as, indeed, he had.

"You are right," he said, "it does not. For to-day, at least, this house is mine. Be good enough to leave it, both of you."

With white face and flashing eyes he pointed to the door.

The old man scrambled to his feet; he was a servant, and servile at heart. He felt the bonds of his servitude inclosing him at that moment; he stood with bowed head for a moment, then moved toward the door; but, warmed by the whisky, Sampson's blood was up, as he would have put it; he laid his hand on his father's arm and stared insolently across the elder man's bent figure at Darrel.

"So you're going to ride the high horse, are you?" said Sampson. "Go in to carry it with a high hand, eh? You're ordering us out of the house, as if we were dogs, cattle? All right! We're going; but it won't be for long; we shall be back soon, and we shall come back as masters. There's an end of you and your lot, and you may thank your stars that we've given you as much rope as we have done; we could have kicked you out long ago, if we'd liked, couldn't we, father?"

"Hold your tongue, Sampson!" growled Burridge.

"Oh, it's all very well," retorted Sampson; "but who's going to stand his impudence. I won't, at any rate. Let him know his place. He's our debtor; he owes us more money than he can pay. He ought to recognize the fact that we've held our hands for years, for years; that, so to speak, he's been living on us, actually living on us. You may stare, Sir Darrel, but it's true enough, and you can put it in your pipe and smoke it."

Darrel's hand fell to his side, and he sank into his chair. Perhaps the sight of his humiliation touched Burridge. For he pushed Sampson toward the door, and looking back at the bent figure in the chair, muttered: "Another time, Sir Darrel, another time. Go out, Sampson."

The door closed on them, and Darrel, free to indulge his misery, let his head fall upon his arm, and gave way to his anguish; but not for long. He was young, and he was a Frayne. His manhood called to him in no uncertain voice, and he responded to it.

He arose, a little shaky, but supported by a firm resolution. The blow had been a crushing one, but he would not consent to be crushed. His ancestral home, the home he had loved so dearly, was passing, had already passed, from him; he was an intruder in the house in which he had thought himself master; he was, as Mr. Burridge had said, penniless. But his youth and his strength and the girl he loved remained to him.

Then suddenly he remembered the most crushing blow of all. Cynthia also had gone; there was absolutely nothing left.

Instantly he asked himself the question: Had she known, before she wrote her letter dismissing him, that he was ruined? His whole soul recoiled from the thought. Cynthia, his old playmate, whose pure, innocent, unworldly heart he thought he could read as if it were an open book, to jilt him, throw him off, because he was a poor man!

It was impossible; he knew her too well. And yet she might have heard of his ruin. Lady Westlake might know of it; in his drunken fury Sampson had spat out his venom very plainly that night; she might have heard him. And yet, if she had, how, to account for her acceptance of his love, for her promise to marry him, her refusal of Northam?

He paced up and down in a whirl of confusion, one moment accusing Cynthia of mercenary worldliness, the next acquitting her.

But suddenly he realized that whether Cynthia were true or false, were actuated by base motives or simply obeying the dictates of her heart, the separation between them was final. For how could he ask her, permit her, to marry a penniless man! She was lost to him forever; he must accept her letter of dismissal.

He dined that night with the quiet state habitual at the Court; but he ate little and drank less. Priestly hovered about him with a kind of paternal affection; the other servants eyed him commiseratingly.

Darrel considered it incumbent upon him to acquaint the old man with the changes which were about to take place. As Priestly, having put on the dessert, was about to leave the room with his usual deferential bow, Darrel said in a voice which he endeavored to keep steady:

"I ought to tell you, Priestly, that I am going to leave the Court, that I shall not come back. I—I think it will be said. Of course, your wages, and the others' wages, will be paid."

Priestly—he had been in the service of the Fraynes since boyhood—peep, footman, valet, butler—caught his breath with a kind of sob.

"Oh, Mr. Darrel!" he gasped. "I beg your pardon—Sir Darrel—it isn't true, sir, is it? They are saying—"

"That I am ruined," said Darrel quietly, but with something like a sob in his own voice. "I'm afraid it's true, Priestly. Mr. Burridge—"

"Don't you mention that man's name to me, sir," broke in Priestly agitatedly. "It's all his doings. I've had a suspicion for a long time—"

"I'm afraid there were grounds for your suspicion, Priestly," said Darrel. "But we won't talk of it; what's the use? I am sorry to part with you, Priestly—but I'm going myself. I shall never come back."

He held out his hand. Priestly took it, and the tears, that did not disgrace the old man's manhood, ran down his cheeks.

He was devoted to the family, had been fond of Sir Anson; but the love of Priestly's heart had been spent upon the boy whom he had held in his arms as an infant—Darrel's mother had placed him there—and the thought of Darrel's ruin was an agony to this faithful servant; but he was a well-trained servant, he knew that he must not give way to his grief, and, after wringing Darrel's hand in mute agony, he went out of the room.

9568.—A NEAT FRÖCK FOR MOTHERS GIRL.

Girls' Dress with Dickey and with Two Styles of Sleeve.

Blue chambray with blue and white striped percale for trimming is here shown. The design will also look well in white linen embroidered in self or contrasting color, or in crepe, voile, corduroy and other seasonable materials. The closing is at the side in front, and the waist may be worn without the dickey. The long sleeve with band cuff, may be used, while for a cool summer dress the shorter sleeve may be preferred. This design offers many possibilities in style and trimming, and is easy to develop. The Pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. It requires 3 3/4 yards of 40 inch material for a 10 year size. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

9547.—A NEAT AND SIMPLE MODEL

Child's Play Dress.

This charming little dress is easy to make, and suitable for percale, chambray, gingham, linen, flanne, or galathea. It is cut with kimono sleeve, and has tucks over the front, forming a box plait. The dress may be worn with or without the belt. It makes an ideal play or beach dress, for warm days. The round neck is finished with a band that may be of contrasting materials, together with the tabs and belt. Tan colored chambray with red line for trimming, or cadet blue flanne with white for contrast would be very effective. The Pattern is cut in 3 sizes: 2, 4, and 6 years. It requires 2 3/4 yards of 40 inch material for a 4 year size. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

How a Resident of the West End

WAS TREATED BY THE GOVERN-MENT.

Some time ago a young member of a family living in the West End, contracted what was termed smallpox, and was taken to hospital. The rest of the family, some seven or eight, were quarantined and a watch set on the house to see that no one came out. They were not allowed to pass out any money for provisions, and not being very well provided to stand a long quarantine, they naturally expected the Government would look after them. After the lapse of several days, the Government sent them 10 lbs. of hard bread, 1 gallon of black molasses and a half pound of tea. They were reduced to such extremes that they even had to kill a few hens they were keeping, to save themselves from want. The father was working for one of the large mercantile firms of the city for some years and when put under quarantine had about $4.80 due him. This firm added about $2.20 more to the amount when they sent the man his wages.

Wesley League Election of Officers.

The annual meeting of Wesley Epworth League for the election of officers, was held on Monday night and resulted as follows: President, Mr. Wm. Whelan, re-elected; 1st Vice President, Miss K. Goobie, re-elected;
2nd V.P., Miss L. Taylor; 3rd V.P.,
Mr. A. Rooney; 4th V.P., Mr. Chislett;
Sec. Secretary, Mr. A. James, re-elected; Asst. Secy., Miss Taylor; Cor.
Secy., Mr. E. Perry; Treasurer, Miss
N. Martin; Organist, Miss C. Adey.
The past year has been a very successful one and many have been the blessings enjoyed spiritually and temporarily, and we are still marching on and keeping our motto ever before us. We heartily thank our worthy President and Pastor for the deep interest they have taken in the work and also the young ladies of our League for their untiring efforts and constant attendance to all matters pertaining to same which makes very largely in the present success.
We are very thankful for past blessings, and we are looking to a more prosperous year than ever. We know our President is the right man in the right place, and conscious that our aims are for the advancement of Christ's kingdom, we are assured that our labor will not be in vain.—Com.

here at the C. of E. school room on Thursday, 24th. The weather being all that could be desired, one of the largest gatherings ever assembled at Withbourne, attended to greet the performers. All thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The songs, recitations and dialogues were all that could be desired and much praise is due Mr.
George Sparkes for his untiring efforts to make the concert a success.
Those who took part did remarkably well; the songs by Miss Flynn, Miss Helen Leslie, Miss Maud Hollett, Miss Myra Simmons, Mr. Wm. Grenfell and Mr. James Mercer were very prettily rendered and received merited applause. Miss Flynn, E. C. teacher, a noted pianist and organist, and Miss Helen Leslie, Miss Minnie Sparkes, Miss Madeline Flynn played the accompaniments. Those who took part in the dialogues and recitations were Misses Flynn, Ella Noseworthy, Lizzie Carroll, Ada Rendell, Minnie Sparkes, Helen Leslie, Ada Leslie, Edith Leslie, Maud Hollett, Mina Murrain, Lena Kilpatrick, Hazel Kilpatrick; Messrs. James Mercer, Wm.
Grenfell, George Sparkes, Robert
Luby, and Masters Gordon Sparkes,
Willie Gosse, Aaron Reid, Reuben
Sparkes, Edward Mercer. The closing chorus "The Three Jolly Britons" was sung by the whole company. Mr.
Grenfell in kilts, represented the Scotch; Mr. Mercer in Irish constabulary uniform, Ireland; and Master Gordon Sparkes in white sailor suit and red rose, England. The stage was very nicely decorated by Mrs. Geo.
Sparkes, Miss Carroll and Miss Hollett. At the conclusion of the programme which had been announced by Master Willie Gosse, dancing was indulged in and refreshments served by Mrs. John Sparkes and Mrs. Geo.
Sparkes. The proceeds were for charitable purposes and a goodly sum was raised.

Jessie Bonstelle.

Miss Jessie Bonstelle, who made such a sensation in theatrical circles here a few years ago, and who undoubtedly was one of the most brilliant female performers ever seen in St. John's, is now making a name for herself in New York, her histrionic talents having pushed her to the front rank in Gotham's fastidious dramatic circles. She recently starred in the "Lady from Oklahoma," and her well known versatility has led her to a new departure that of a playwright. Her production of the "Little Women" has won unstinted applause from American cities and recently she dropped a dinner which she had been asked to attend to play "Hannah," the maid, the impersonator of that character, having failed to put in an appearance at the Majestic Theatre. Little need to tell St. John's folk that her impersonation was delightful and well received. St. John's has a warm corner in its heart for Miss Bonstelle, and should she visit us she will have a welcome commensurate with her ability and popularity.

A Record Hatch.

The poultry raising business in this city during the past few years has developed to a large extent through quite a number of people taking it up and finding it profitable. The latest and best methods of hatching by incubator, and fostering and rearing by brooder are being employed. Pure stock of various breeds, not the old common barn-door fowl, holds the attention. One of the first to enter this business under the new methods, was Mr. Howard Parsons, of Pleasant St., who has met with a uniform success from the beginning. This week his efforts were again rewarded. For so early in the season he secured a record hatch. He gained one hundred and four chicken out of one hundred and fourteen tested eggs. This success should encourage others to enter this profitable business, as there is always a market for the products.

Bread.

BY H. L. RANN.
Bread is called the staff of life because the appetite can lean upon it three times a day and not go away disappointed. There is nothing more unpleasant than an appetite which leaves the table with a slow and faltering footstep, like a bridegroom who is arrested at the church steps for already having four wives looking for revenge and aliiance.

On account of the ease with which it can be constructed, bread is used more often than any other article of food, unless it is the dried apple pie, which is usually erected in some incubator and can be carried home upside down without the slightest danger of spilling any of the contents. The principal ingredients in all bread are flour, yeast and elbow grease. The flour and yeast can be dispensed with, if necessary, but when the elbow grease is left out the bread either has to be fed to the nearest cow or worked up into milk or oatmeal.

Yeast is something which is placed inside of a loaf of bread so that it will not lie down on its back in the oven and refuse to get up by dinner time. Many a woman has had the temper she got married in totally ruined as the result of using yeast which has lost its ambition and caused a batch of new-mown bread to look like an egg plant in distress.

Just before bread is placed in the oven it is treated to a chemical process called kneading, which consists in backing it up against the wall and pushing it heavily in the face with both fists. By the time a determined housewife with an arm like a bolt of cinecloth has finished this operation, she will be too numb across the shoulders to care whether the bread burns or not.

The most popular by-product of bread is toast. This bread which has grown gray in the service and is put on the table day after day without being intercepted by anybody. Dry toast is one of two articles which cannot be eaten at a gait faster than a walk without producing an uneasy through a brush heap. The other is noise, like driving the family cow celery.

sion: Miss Pennell, Mrs. English,

WEDNESDAY, April 30, 1913.

Notes and Comments.

Sir Robert Bond was in town yesterday. He looks well after his trip to the old country. He is in great spirits, good health and first rate fighting trim.

The horrors of the six months siege of Scutari are now coming to light. Bread five shillings a pound during the last week. Bread eaten made of sawdust, maize and straw to fill up a gnawing stomach. People eating grass. Three hundred starved to death. Such was the terrible toll taken by war.

"At last the invitation for tenders to erect the new Lunatic Asylum has been issued, and in a few weeks it is probable that this most necessary work will be initiated." So says the Daily News this morning, and our comment is that it is election year, and Government work will be offered in profusion, in which it is evident the West End will participate.

Commenting on the announcement in "Canada" that Austrians are coming to Newfoundland for the purpose of buying up pulp areas and establishing a large paper plant for the supplying of Austrian newspapers, the editor of the Daily Newfoundland writes:—"Just at present, however, it looks as if Austria was more interested in the reduction of Montenegrin aspirations to pulp than in the subjugation of Newfoundland's forests." Is this sarcasm, and is it meant as a barbed dart at Morris's failure to introduce any large pulp and paper proposition during his regime?

We observe that during the discussion of the Municipal Amendment bill, as reported officially this morning, the Hon. John Harvey introduced the Housing problem, and commented on the proposition to build Model Workingmen's Houses, which was taken up some years ago by Sir Edward Morris and which is now dropped. He read to the Council a reply his firm had made to the suggestion that his firm and others should erect such dwellings. We give some extracts from the letter, which Mr. Harvey states was never answered:

"We are unable to say whether or not anything on these lines is practicable, but it is in the hope that this might be possible that we intimated last winter to the Municipal Council that we would undertake to erect some Model Houses by way of helping to solve the difficulty, provided that we could obtain such plans as appeared likely to give a return of 2½ or 3¼ per cent. interest on the capital invested together with a small sinking fund towards the ultimate repayment of the principal. Our idea was that each tenant might thus by degrees secure an interest in the house occupied by him and eventually might become its owner."

"As an alternative we would be prepared under certain conditions to donate at once a sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000) to the Committee for the purpose of experimenting in the practical working out of some such plan as we have indicated."

In discussing these matters, Mr. Harvey said, among other matters:—"I think that some experiment will have to be tried to ascertain if a type of tenement can be erected and operated to give a small profit, after allowing for a low rate of interest and with better housing than the various plans and estimates before us, but at the rate of rental which is commonly paid here for the poor type of house, which it is desirable to replace, we have been unable to show a calculation which will meet the object in view. This, however, is the problem, which must be faced, and simply as a business proposition. The town, as regards its poorer parts, has got to be rebuilt before long. It is possible that with better housing the laboring class might become more ambitious and willing to pay better rents. It is a matter of experiment. I can name a number of localities, such as Rosister's Lane, Cuddihy Street, Wickford Street, and others, in which a majority of the houses are utterly unfit for habitation. The houses are getting steadily worse, and the owners of the tenements are often too poor and the rents are too low for them to rebuild. The children, in such conditions, cannot be expected to grow up healthy, either in mind or body. The only practical way appears to be to solve the problem of providing a loan at a low rate of interest secured on the land and buildings and force the owners to rebuild."

Twelve Minstrels at Rossley's

Another packed house last night at Rossley's enjoyed the fine minstrel act prepared for them, and it deserves all the praise that has been so freely given. Jack Rossley was in fine dancing form and during his clog dance received round after round of applause. After his champion skip dance he danced an Irish jig without music, his feet fairly playing the tune; he is one dancer and does not need take off his hat to the best of them. Shadrack and Juliette Talbot were extra good; the Song Bird sang simply wonderful. Many changes of costumes last night. Orth and Burkhardt were heartily received. Little Victor, the 9-year-old son of Rossley's, caused many big laughs with his jokes. Mrs. Rossley and Bonnie were all that could be desired. There is a matinee to-day and to-night is the last chance of seeing this splendid act. Big act Thursday.

Here and There.

SHIPWRIGHTS' MEETING.—The Shipwrights' Union will meet to-night holding a special meeting to render financial aid to the shoemakers who are on strike.

SOMEWHAT COOLER.—It was raining across country this forenoon, and was somewhat cooler. It was 48 above at Bishop's Falls, 45 at Quarry and 40 at Humbermouth.

GLENCOE'S PASSENGERS.—The S. S. Glencoe arrived at Placentia at 10 a.m. to-day bringing Rev. Mr. Hill, H. Disken, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stone, Miss J. Slaney, Mrs. R. Pike, Mr. and Mrs. Reddy and 4 in second class.

REPORTED ASHORE.—Men here from St. Mary's Bay to-day report that a Burin banker went ashore there yesterday while looking for bait and that she is likely to become a total wreck. They could not remember her name.

INTRODUCING NEW CABLES.—Report has it that the Western Union Cable Co., operating at Bay Roberts, will introduce three new cables there shortly. It is also said that they will transfer their business from Canso to Bay Roberts.

CLEARED THE PROPELLER.—Diver Butler was yesterday under the Nascope for two hours, at the dock premises, clearing the propeller of a cable 4 doubles of which was wound about it. He had to use a sharp chisel and hammer to cut it clear.

RECEIVED PAINFUL INJURY.—Mr. L. G. Chafe, of the firm of Nicholle, Inkpen and Chafe, yesterday fell and twisted his ankle so badly that he had to get the services of a doctor. He will be confined to his home for several days as the result of the accident.

FISH MARKET.—The Board of Trade have received this letter from Oporto: "Since our last report the consumption has been very poor, but this week has opened well, and there is now a good demand. Owing to the limited supplies in the market, prices have been advanced for all qualities."

POPULAR DANCE.—An enjoyable and successful dance, in which over two hundred people participated, was held in the O'Donel Hall last night by the lady friends of the B.I.S. A children's party will be held this afternoon, and to-night the promoters will treat their gentleman friends to a dance.

BALL AT BELL ISLAND.—The staff of the D.I.S. Co., at Bell Island, are giving a ball to-night at the Wabana Hall which promises to be a brilliant affair. A large number will be present including many ladies and gents from the city. The hall has been very beautifully decorated and a city orchestra will furnish the music.

SPRINKLER OUT.—The Reid Nfd. Co. had the sprinkler out yesterday for the first time. It was badly needed for clouds of dust were blown through the streets and this was quickly allayed on Water Street when the big car got round. But what about the other streets and the rest of the sprinklers?

NEW PILOT BOAT.—The new pilot boat of about 12 tons, built by shipwright Butler, will be launched Saturday. The boat is one of the most solidly constructed and staunch craft ever turned out here and she will be fitted with a powerful motor. She will certainly be a fine sea boat and one which the pilots should much appreciate.

BITTEN BY HORSE.—Yesterday afternoon as a young man named Kielly, was passing up along Bowring Bros. wharf, near the freight shed, a horse standing there turned on him and bit his left hand severely. The wounds were deep and bled profusely and he went to a doctor to have them cauterized. The man knows the owner of the horse, and will sue for damages.

C. E. I. Dinner.

The annual billiard dinner in connection with the Church of England Institute was held at Smithville last night. Mr. C. E. Hunt, President of the C. E. I., presided with his usual tact. An ideal menu served by Furlong Bros. was discussed, after which the following toast list was taken up: The King—Prop. the Chairman; Resp. God Save the King.

The Church Institute—Prop. W. J. Higgins; Resp. James Chaffey. Our Guests—Prop. T. F. Thompson; Resp. R. A. Squires, M.H.A. Sister Institutes—Prop. W. A. H. Long; Resp. J. Pippy (B.I.S.); R. A. Squires (M.C.L.I.); and R. Dowden (Feildian Club).

The Teams—Prop. E. Hawkins; Resp. T. Hallett.

The Press—Prop. J. C. Phillips; Resp. R. Dowden.

The Chairman—Prop. W. J. Higgins; Resp. C. E. Hunt.

Messrs. Hallett, Hart, Noonan and Churchill contributed to the evening's pleasure with songs.

Bankers Baiting.

HERRING PLENTIFUL.

Herrings are reported abnormally plentiful in Connaigre Bay and Bay de Leau. Numerous seines are in the water and large quantities are hauled daily. All along that section of the coast are bankers seeking bait. Quite a number of vessels got their necessary supply of bait and sailed for the Grand Banks within the past few days.

LINTROSE'S PASSENGERS.—The S. S. Lintrose arrived at Port aux Basques at 9:20 a.m. to-day bringing J. H. Caldwell, L. Chassen, Miss A. Winsor, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Griffin and two children, J. A. Grant, Chesley Hallyard, A. Hallyard, H. Parsons, Theo. Penny and John Blair.

DIED.

On Tuesday night after a lingering illness John Gillingham, leaving a widow and one sister to mourn their loss; funeral on Thursday, at 2:30 p.m. from his late residence, 17 Charlton Street; friends and acquaintances are respectfully requested to attend without further notice.

At Avondale, April 28th, 1913, Mrs. Eliza Clarke, widow of the late W. L. Clarke, aged 59 years; funeral on to-morrow (Thursday) at Briggs, on arrival of noon train. Friends and acquaintances will please accept this the only intimation.

On the 4th inst., in Dresden, of pneumonia, Maud Hamilton, second daughter of the late John Stuart, of Glenbrook, St. John's, and widow of Walter Griewe, of Silwood, Greenock.

At Grand Falls, on April 19th, in her 44th year, Martha, beloved wife of Elkanah Sheppard, of South Side Harbor Grace. The deceased was born in Norwich, Shropshire, England, and was a daughter of William and Elizabeth Morrey, leaving a husband, four children, father, sister and two brothers to mourn her sad loss.—English papers please copy.

The Blessing of the Mission Cross at Conception.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Last afternoon was concluded the most edifying and certainly the most important affair in the history of Conception, the closing of the Mission. Although the Rev. Fathers had practically finished their work here a fortnight ago, yet the Mission was not virtually closed here until last evening, when the Mission Cross was solemnly blessed by the Rev. Fr. Holland. The ceremony took place in front of the Parish Church after the conclusion of which a procession was formed which was headed by the Altar boys bearing the Processional Cross. After these came the school children followed by the women of the Parish and adjacent places; next to these was the Cross which was placed on a long car with ropes attached and hauled by men of the settlements; then followed the men of different places, and lastly, the rear was filled in by Rt. Rev. Mons. Veitch and Rev. Fr. Holland and the Sisters of the Mercy Convent.

These were in carriages, and together with a vast concourse of the faithful—nearly a thousand people—wended their way to the Cemetery, the place chosen for the erection of the Mission Cross. After the erection of the Cross an explanation on the same was given by Rev. Fr. Holland. He pointed out to us that we assisted at a two-fold ceremony, viz., that in connection with the erection of the Mission Cross, the erection of which also marked the last resting place of our dear departed friends. He explained to us the meaning of the four points or spires of the Cross, i.e., the base points to Hell, the dome or top to Heaven, and the two arms represent the division which will be made between the good and the wicked on that last dread day of reckoning.

He exhorted all to remember the good things of the Mission and thereby be among the blessed, on the right hand. Solemn prayers were then chanted for the dead. The ceremony was sublime and impressive in the extreme and one which will not soon be forgotten. The Mission Cross will often remind us of these indefatigable and zealous missionaries and many a prayer from grateful hearts will wing its way to the Throne of Mercy for them. Long after Fr. Holland has gone, long after he has laid aside his armour of toil, and long after, he has folded his tired hands and with his eyes closed in that last, long, dreamless sleep, many, very many, on beholding that Cross will vividly remember the day on which it was erected and say with fervent but sad hearts: The Lord have mercy on his soul.

The Rev. gentleman leaves to-day for Brigus (and in honor of the occasion bunting is displayed from all the prominent places in the Parish), whence he proceeds to the West Coast there with Fr. McCandish to conduct a Mission at St. George's. Before closing I wish to say one word in praise of our beloved pastor, Rt. Rev. Mons. Veitch. It was through his solicitude that the missionaries visited us and the Mission Cross, besides reminding us of the Mission, will remain as a living monument of the zeal of our good Pastor.

I am, yours truly,
SPECTATOR.

Why Children Work.

"Why Children Work" is the title of an article in McClure's Magazine, which gives the reply made by child-workers in Chicago factories to the question: "If your father had a good job and you didn't have to work, which would you rather do—go to school or work in a factory?" Out of 500 children between the ages of fourteen and sixteen, 412 replied in favor of the factory. Here are some of the answers given:

"Because you get paid for what you do in a factory." "Because it's easier to work in a factory than 'tis to learn in school." "You never understands what they tells you in school, and you can learn right off to do things in a factory." "They ain't always pickin' on you because you don't know things in a factory." "School ain't no good. When you works a whole month at school the teacher she gives you a card to take home that says how you ain't no good. And yer folks hollers on yer an' bits yer."

Chicago, April 23.—Jack Johnson was fined $1,000 by Judge Carpenter in the United States District Court today, after charges of smuggling a $2,000 necklace had been dropped, and the heavyweight had pleaded nolle contendere to charges of concealing from the Federal officials the fact that he had jewelry in his possession. The necklace was forfeited to the Government, and probably will be sold at auction. Johnson is still to come to trial on an indictment charging violation of the Mann Act.

The Fortune Harbor Squabble

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—In a recent issue of the Plaindealer I notice an account of a concert given here by members of the F. P. U.; also at the same date notes headed: "F. P. U. Causes Trouble," in reference to the same entertainment. I may say that to judge from the language in both letters they can be easily traced to one doorstep, and only a fool can fail to discover the motive of the person or persons who authorized this odious, and to a degree, false statement, concerning the people of Fortune Harbour.

The writer undoubtedly has the trick of basing his or her false accusations on truthful grounds, thereby giving the general public an idea that is neither true nor false. "Liberator" (we fail to see the liberal side), states that "after the concert, the fight started and lasted all night." Now this is a deliberate falsehood, for to speak candidly there was no fighting at all. It is true that one or two individuals who it is supposed were under the influence of liquor got arguing, and after a few others began interfering it grew rather hot, as far as words went, and amounted to what is usually called a "scene." One of those implicated got a fall owing to the slippery condition of the ground, which resulted in the loss of a little skin, but he didn't have to "stay in for several days." If this is what is named "fighting" we don't have to go back many months to meet several "fights" and if he wishes we can furnish information to testify the same.

There is still another side to the question. The reader would be under the impression that the F. P. U. hall was the scene of the above, whereas nothing of it occurred inside, and those enjoying the entertainment did not even know that anything out of the ordinary was taking place outside. With regard to the cursing, swearing, etc., we unfortunately hear such if we are so inclined for listening, in other places outside the Union Hall, and these who are guilty of such language are not usually the promoters of any entertainment which the ladies and gentlemen of the place attend.

It seems that the publicity of this affair is meant as a direct snub to the members of the F. P. U. as well as others who took part in the concert, but the snub is by no means effective, considering the fact that no public sociable can be successful given here without the aid of F. P. U. members.

If the writer remains here to make a living it should be with the understanding that it will take several pages of the Plaindealer to affect the social standing of the gentlemen who are F. P. U. members.

Yours truly,
EYE WITNESS.

Feel as Well as Ever.

Tuberculosis Patient Apparently Cured by Friedmann's Treatment.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 25.—Fred W. Lang, Jr., of North Tonawanda, who was taken in February to Pasadena, California, suffering from pulmonary tuberculosis in an advanced stage, had returned apparently cured by the Friedmann treatment. When he left he was so weak he could hardly walk, and Dr. C. T. Crance, who attended him, said there was little hope for him.

Dr. Crance obtained from Dr. Friedmann, however, sufficient vaccine to treat three patients and selected Lang as one of the patients. Lang had just suffered two hemorrhages, and was very weak. In a few days he had gained two pounds. Another injection was given, and later a third. After remaining under observation of the California doctor, Lang was allowed to return to his home, near this city, apparently a well man.

To-day Dr. C. T. Crance, who was commissioned by the State of California to make weekly examinations of the patient, said that Lang had not a symptom of tuberculosis and was apparently absolutely cured. When Lang went to California the State Health Department made a verified statement that he was in an advanced state of tuberculosis. The last injection was given over two weeks ago. Lang has gained twelve pounds in weight since that time, and says he feels as well as ever.

The Police Court.

A man charged with being drunk and disorderly in his own house, was discharged.

A young man, who pleaded guilty to the larceny of a watch, a pair of shoes and a collar, was remanded for eight days.

The defendant in an assault case was ordered to sign bonds to keep the peace.

Two young men charged with being drunk and disorderly in their father's house were ordered to leave, and to give bonds for good behaviour.

Joint Parade.

The three brigades—C.L.B., C. C. C. and Nfld. Highlanders will hold a joint parade on next Friday night when the cups and medals won at the Coronation Sports will be presented. It is not yet exactly determined where the presentation will take place but is not unlikely the Prince's Rink will be engaged for the ceremony as it is the most spacious building available.

Marine Notes.

The brig. Clementine, Capt. Kenrick, arrived at Oporto yesterday, after a run of 23 days.

The Earlsall, Capt. Conrad, is now loading fish at Monroe & Co's for Brazil.

The s.s. Wasil left here for Sydney at 12.30 p.m. to-day and returns with a load of coal to J. J. Mullaly & Co.

Why Duffy's Malt Gives Health and Strength.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has been for fifty years one of the greatest restoratives known to medical science.

Why? Because it contains in a form most available for the human system, the wonderful strength-giving power of nature's greatest food—grain—combined with unusual tonic properties obtained through the process of malting and distilling which has been exclusively used by us since the beginning.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

One of the results of this process is to obtain a whiskey of such purity and quality as complies with the test requirements of the United States Pharmacopoeia.

As the pharmacopoeial standard does not require that the grain be all malted, as found in Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, it will be seen our process gives a whiskey superior to the requirements of the United States Standard.

Another result is to secure that wonderful palatability and delicacy of flavor for which Duffy's has always been celebrated and which renders it acceptable to stomachs which will not even retain other whiskeys or the most easily digested food.

First Catch of Codfish.

The schr. St. Patrick, Wise, master, arrived yesterday afternoon from St. Joseph's. Skipper Wise reports having a rather pleasant and unusual experience while en route. When off St. Bride's there was a moderate breeze and the craft was coming along very slowly. Passing a shoal known as the "Nest," the crew put out "raw" jiggers in 25 fathoms of water and caught over a hundred codfish, some which were of a large size. This morning the fresh fish were disposed of in the local market and fetched good prices. It is not a frequent occurrence to see fish coming in from deep water so early in the season, and Skipper Wise's opinion is that prospects for a successful codfishery on the Cape Shore grounds this summer are bright.

Variety Concert.

A variety concert was held in the Strand Hall last night in aid of St. Michael's Church Fund. A playlet "Why Young men Don't Marry" was produced by Misses E. Lyon, A. Butler, L. Hamlin, W. Reid, F. Ewing, G. Hamlin, Messrs. A. Harvey, H. Dewling and A. Calvert. The audience were delighted with the evening's performance.

BOLLINDERS ENGINES.—Persons interested in the Bollinders Marine Motor Engine will on application to Alex. McDougall, McBride's Cove, be supplied with a card to go on board Messrs. Job Bros. Barq. "Earlsall" now in port, to view the 120 H.P. ENGINE installed on that vessel.—ad.

To-Day's News.

Special to Evening Telegram.

OTTAWA, To-day.
Cable messages received from England in connection with the illness of the Duchess of Connaught have occasioned some anxiety. The Government has been advised daily by cable as to the progress made by the Duchess since first operation. The information received was satisfactory till yesterday, following the second operation, when the cables were less reassuring. The Duchess' heart is said to be weakening and recovery is very doubtful. The physician's bulletin issued last night says:—Considering the gravity of the operation on the Duchess of Connaught her condition is satisfactory.

LONDON, To-day.
The British Government, according to announcement made by Premier Asquith, will provide an annuity of £500 to the wife of Captain Robert Scott, head of the British Antarctic expedition who perished while returning from the South Pole, in addition to her Admiralty pension of $1,000.

AFTER THE THIEF.—The police are after the thief who stole the two coats out of Templeton's store Monday, in the pocket of one of which was a $10 bill. A party seen loitering around there is strongly suspected.

BLACK DIAMOND LINE.—The S. S. Morwenna left Montreal on Monday night for here, coming via Gulf ports. This will be the first Black Diamond liner to visit us for the season since navigation opened in the St. Lawrence.

Two boys named Foley, aged 12 and 13 years, belonging to St. Bride's, arrived in the city to-day to be treated for beriberi, which they contracted. Both patients have been put in boarding houses, there being no room for them at the Hospital. This disease, we hear, is becoming more prevalent than ever in the outports, but is not of a serious type.

Just received ex S. S. Longest Liner.

BOATS FOR 4,250 PEOPLE.
The Cunard Company have at last disclosed the length of their new ship the Aquitania, launched in the Clyde recently. She is 901 feet long or 21 ft. more than the new Hamburg-American Imperator, which makes her trial trip in May. She will also stand 33 ft. higher in the water, but her tonnage is 3,000 below that of the Imperator. The three largest liners in the world are:—

	Length	Brdth	Dpth.	Tna.
Aquitania	. 901	. 97	. 92½	. 47,000
Imperator	. 880	. 98	. 59	. 50,000
Olympic	. 852	. 92	. 59	. 45,324

The Aquitania will have a speed of 23 knots and accommodation for 3,250 passengers and a crew of 1,000, and boats for all. She will be a ship within a ship, and in addition to a highly developed plan of water-tight bulkheads, will be fitted with water-tight decks.

No Wonder.

He was a healthy looking man to be begging, and the gentleman eyed him suspiciously.

"I can't give you any money," he said sternly. "A stout, able-bodied fellow like you ought to be earning a living."

"But I haven't any work, sir."

"That's your own fault, I'll venture to say. You lack energy. You didn't throw yourself into your work when you did have it."

"I wouldn't like to have done! Nor would you, sir."

"Oh, I wouldn't eh? Why not?"

"Because I was a gravedigger!"

C. C. C. MEETING.—The C. C. C. Battalion with the band will meet for drill in the armoury to-night.

MORRIS INJURED.—The man injured in the Reid machine shops, on Monday, was Thomas Morris, and not Walsh.

Anxious Time.

Special to Evening Telegram.
LONDON, To-day.
The condition of the Duchess of Connaught, wife of the Governor General of Canada, remains stationary. The results of yesterday's operation for abdominal troubles are regarded as satisfactory, but the critical period will not be passed for several days in the opinion of the surgeons in attendance. The following bulletin was issued just before noon to-day: "The Duchess of Connaught had a fair night. Her condition will cause anxiety during the next few days." Special precautions are being taken to ensure quiet for the Royal patient. The King himself descended from his carriage in the stable yard instead of driving into the gardens when he visited Clarence House yesterday. The Duke's birthday will be celebrated tomorrow. His Royal Highness is Colonel of the Grenadier Guards, and it has long been the regimental custom for the band of that regiment to serenade the Duke at breakfast on his birthday, and be afterward entertained by him. To-morrow, however, the custom will not be followed owing to the illness of the Duchess.

Predicts a Warm Summer.

AND BIG FISHERY.
One of the oldest banking men of the S. E. Coast, now in the city, predicts that we will have a long and exceptionally warm summer. He also presages that the codfishery will be the best for the past 29 years. Weather conditions and certain infallible signs which he has observed in his lifetime all go to demonstrate this.

The Sacred Hour.

"God bless mamma," she says at night,
"And God bless papa," her childish prayer,
And we stand by her bed in the fading light,
And look at the little one kneeling there;
About her shoulders her tresses fall
Like fine spun gold in each yellow curl,
And a gentle silence steals over all
As we listen there to our baby girl.
I reckon the evening hour must be A wonderful hour for God above;
For every where that He looks He'll see
Our little ones bending to Him in love,
And the angel choirs must pause to hear
The sweet, soft prayer that the children say;
With the little voice so sweet and clear hen "God bless mamma," they nightly pray,
And God must smile as He looks below,
At the little ones in these robes of white Kneeling there in the evening glory,
Asking his care through the hour of night,
For this must be His most sacred hour,
When the heavenly silence most perfect seems;
As the children ask for His gracious power
To keep them safe in the land of dreams.

Bicycle Accidents.

Amateur cyclists always a nuisance on the streets are now becoming a positive danger on thoroughfares like LeMarchant Road and Pleasant St. where people pass in large numbers at night. Some motor cyclists so along at top speed in a very erratic manner and pedestrians who are covered with dust must look lively even though keeping to the sidewalks to avoid being run over. Some of these gentry disdain to use lights and should be prosecuted. Yesterday evening there were two accidents on Pleasant Street where a cyclist collided with a boy and was shot out over the handle bars of his machine and was severely hurt, while the boy also received a bad shaking up.

Two cyclists collided near Gower Street Church yesterday evening and men and machines were pretty badly hurt.

Waterfront Theft.

The first waterfront theft for the season, has been reported, and Detective Byrne has succeeded in running down the perpetrator, who is an 18-year-old fisherman of King's Cove. It appears that this young man, who is here on a craft lying in the harbor, visited another schooner berthed at a waterfront premises, on the night of the 19th. The object of his visit was to meet some friends, which he evidently did not. However, before leaving he ransacked the vessel and "lifted" a watch, which was in the pocket of a vest, a pair of shoes and several articles of underwear. The property stolen belonged to Thomas Harvey, and was valued at $15.00. Harvey reported the matter to the police and 'Tec' Byrne was put on the trail of the culprit, who was rounded up after a diligent search. The prisoner has been remanded as there is an accomplice in the theft.

LADIES MUST HAVE BEAUTIFUL HAIR TO BE ATTRACTIVE

SALVIA

THE DAINLY PERFUMED HAIR TONIC.

Creates a Magnificent Head of Fluffy, Luxuriant Hair—Men and Women of Culture use Salvia, the Latest Paris Hair Dressing and Tonic—it will Make Your Hair Grow or Your Money Back.

SALVIA—the Pride of Paris Hair Dressing and Tonic—at once goes to the roots of the hair and turns harsh characterless hair into beautiful wavy hair; full of character and life—hair that changes the whole appearance.

SALVIA destroys the dandruff and will positively make hair grow. SALVIA is not a sticky sulphur preparation, but a pleasant non-sticky and daintily perfumed. Ladies of taste and refinement wouldn't think of using any other. All actresses in every country now use SALVIA continually.

We claim and absolutely guarantee that SALVIA will create a new growth of hair. If your hair is getting thin, commence using SALVIA at once. It will soon stop your hair from falling out and make the hair grow.

SALVIA is compounded by expert chemists, who have made the hair and its diseases a life-long study.

If your druggist doesn't happen to have SALVIA in stock, insist on his getting it for you; don't allow him to sell you "something just as good" because there isn't anything "just as good" as SALVIA. All wholesale druggists in Canada sell SALVIA; and your druggist, if he is up to date, keeps it. Refuse substitutes.

A large generous bottle sells for 50 cents.

LONDON, April 29. Mrs. Pankhurst's release has been extended for a week, the result of a visit to her of her son and an official doctor.

LONDON, April 29. The rumor spread in the stock exchange here this afternoon, that Austrian troops had entered Montenegro. Confirmation was unobtainable.

LONDON, April 29. Neither the British Foreign Office officials nor the foreign diplomats accredited to the Court of St. James, have any confirmation of reports that Austro-Hungary has decided to take independent action to force Montenegro to evacuate Scutari. These reports are discredited.

VIENNA, April 29. It is understood that the Government are dissatisfied with the failure of the Ambassadorial Conference at London, to initiate decisive action against Montenegro, and is continuing its preparations for independent action. An exchange of views is proceeding between Austro-Hungary, Germany and Italy.

PARIS, April 29. Professor Arsene Darsonval, of the College of France, has discovered a new explosive, said to be ten times more powerful than dynamite. The explosive is composed of a combination of which liquefied gas is the principal component. Experiments in the quarries near Paris have given remarkable results.

GRETA, Manitoba, April 30. A fire, which broke out here, whilst a high wind was blowing, burned down about fifty per cent. of the business places in the town. The first to burn was the post office. An attempt was made to dynamite one of the buildings, in order to save the Bank of Montreal, but the effort failed. The loss will reach $300,000.

CETTINJE, April 29. Crown Prince Danilo received an ovation on his arrival here to-day to hand over to King Nicholas the Turkish fortress of Scutari. The formal ceremony was greeted with cheers from an excited throng. Members of the Royal Family afterwards marched in procession to the Cathedral, the Queen and each of the ladies giving her arm to wounded soldiers.

LONDON, April 29. Another operation was performed this morning on the Duchess of Connaught. A bulletin issued later in the day read: "An operation performed on the Duchess of Connaught severe in character, was carried out to relieve intestinal trouble, due to widespread adhesions of an inflammatory nature. The Duchess is doing as well as can be expected."

NEW YORK, April 29. Suspected of squealing to the District Attorney, Jerry Malda, known as Jerry, the lunchman, met death on 41st Street near Broadway, to-day. He was shot down by gangsters, who sent five bullets into his body. The shooting occurred a couple of blocks away from the scene of the murder of Herman Rosenthal, last July, but the gunmen had less luck than the Rosenthal crew. Five policemen, who were in the immediate vicinity, heard the shots and pounced upon five men who are accused of the killing.

CRIPPLE CREEK, April 29. A charge of nitro-glycerine, which wrecked the house of James Bacon, a former member of the Colorado Legislature, killing his wife and six-year-old daughter, and probably fatally injuring himself, was placed in the cooking stove by enemies of the family, according to the belief of the authorities. Bacon, who is the lessee of several mines, is reported to have recently referred to some fellows laying for him. It is said that Mrs. Bacon, last Saturday, endeavored to sell their home, explaining that she feared her husband's enemies.

CHICAGO, April 29. William Whitney Borden, a young Chicago missionary, who died in Cairo, Egypt, on April 9th, while preparing to enter the missionary field of Central China, not only gave his life but almost his entire fortune, amounting to nearly $1,000,000, to the work of spreading the truths of Christianity, developed to-day, when his will was filed in the Probate Court. With the exception of a few minor bequests to members of his family, the entire estate is left to thirteen institutions engaged in religious work. Mr. Borden's personal belongings and household goods he bequeathed to his brother. Mrs. Mary Borden, his sister, did not receive anything. The largest bequest, $250,000 was to the China Inland Missions of Cincinnati, Philadelphia, $100,000 of which is to be invested in a fund, the income of which is to be used for the maintenance of aged and infirm missionaries and mission workers.

Why Introduce Politics?

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—The editor of the Daily News commenting upon my letter in reference to the reduction in the price of biscuits, expresses some surprise that you should permit such a letter to appear, when one of the proprietors in the baking business referred to, is a strong supporter of the Liberal Party. Why he brings politics into such a discussion I am at a loss to understand, for according to his philosophy the Press should shield the interests of manufacturers who are favourable to the political party that that paper supports, even though the action of such manufacturers may mean overcharging the general public. According to Mr. Robinson's arguments we can look for very little adverse criticism of overcharging from his paper if those who do the bleeding are of the same opinion politically as he is. I must say that I am disappointed in the Editor of the News, for I was of the opinion that he was developing a little more broadmindedness, but his latest effort clearly proves that he is as narrow as ever, and only criticizes those who are opposed to him on party lines. Politics seems to be uppermost in his mind, but why does he conveniently wink out of sight the fact that if I struck Mr. Browning hard, I also hit Mr. Harris whom he must know is an ardent supporter of the party of which Mr. Robinson is an advocate. We look for sounder reasoning from a gentleman of Mr. Robinson's pretensions, but as in days of old he seems to be blinded by narrow partisanship, and throws the workman aside when it comes to a matter of self.

Yours truly,
WEST END GROCER.

Seal Killing Closes To-day.

Seal killing closes to-day and it is expected that the three steamers—Diana, Erik and Lloydson—now out will make their appearance tomorrow. While the three hundred thousand mark will not be reached yet the catch is above an average one and the seal fishery for 1913 may be looked upon as a success. Twenty-one ships, including the s.s. Seal, were provisioned and cleared for the ice-fields. Out of that number two were prevented from prosecuting the voyage entirely and one was put off commission temporarily. The Boethic was disabled by a collision in the harbor; the Labrador sprung a leak during a snow storm and was beached in St. Mary's Bay and the Lloydson, which was to operate in the Gulf had her rudder post smashed. The owner of the latter vessel, with pluck, perseverance and enterprise, had repairs effected. The Lloydson was refitted and again sent out to hunt the whitecoats, the latter part of March. At that time the chances of getting young seals were small but prospects were bright for a load of old ones and it is hoped that Captain Alpheus Barbour will bring in a saving trip of old seals. But for the regrettable mishaps, as mentioned, the catch might have reached 300,000 this spring.

What About Your Cough?

Is it gradually growing from bad to worse? A person contracts a cold some way or another. Very often you do not know how you contracted it. The symptoms do not begin until 1 or 2 days after.

1st—It affects the head, causing a nasty, uncomfortable feeling for about 26 hours, leaving the head and affecting the throat and gradually settling on the chest, which 9 cases out of 10 neglected. This is the time when the danger is at hand.

If there is nothing to relieve the spasms of coughing and to take effect on the bronchial organs of the throat and chest, the chances of the cough leaving the system of its own accord is not very great.

As a rule in the night your cough is worse than any other time. Phoradone Cough Mixture quickly gets at the seat of all kinds of coughs and colds, and in a few hours great relief is obtained. If you mix equal parts of Stafford's Liniment and Sweet Oil in a saucer, warm slightly and apply on a piece of thick flannel, placing same over chest and allowing it to remain three or four hours, this will also relieve you a great deal.

Hundreds of people have coughs and colds gradually growing from bad to worse just because they do not take the proper treatment. If you are one of these don't delay any longer.

Phoradone Cough and Cold Cure is prepared only by DR. F. STAFFORD & SON, St. John's, Nfld. Price 25c. a bottle; postage 5c. extra. apr25,11

Standing Still.

BY RUTH CAMERON.
"He who does not improve to-day will grow worse to-morrow."
—German Proverb.

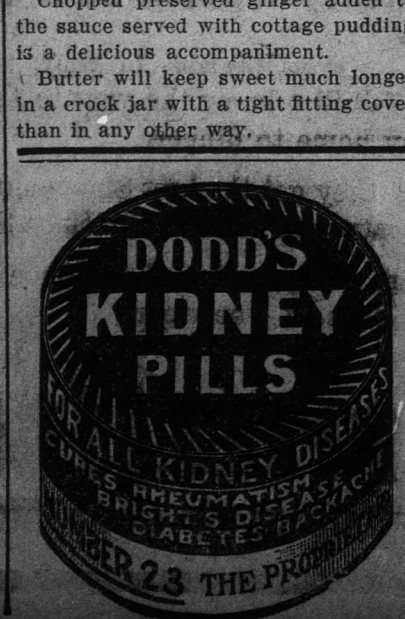

An energetic young business man was telling me the other day about the splendid business of which he is one of the owners. "We are running full capacity in all our factories," he said proudly. "We have practically every bit of business we can handle."
"Then why on earth," I asked, "are you starting a campaign of advertising now?" He had just been outlining to me a campaign of advertising which he was about to start. "If you have all the business you can handle, why are you trying to get more?"
He laughed at my ignorance of business ways. "Because we have to grow constantly," he said. "If we were content to stand still we should soon find ourselves going backward. We'll get the business and then we'll find a way to handle it. There is no room now-a-days for any business that is not improving its methods and growing bigger and better every day."
I suppose every business man knows that.
It is an axiom of twentieth century business conditions.
But why confine it to business?
Isn't it just as true of life, itself?
Of you and me, and all other human

THE SECRET OF LONG LIFE.

Do not sap the springs of life by neglect of the human mechanism, by allowing the accumulation of poisons in the system. An imitation of Nature's method of restoring waste of tissue and impoverishment of the blood and nervous strength is to take an alternative glyceric extract (without alcohol) of Golden Seal and Oregon grape root, Bloodroot, Stone and Mandrake root with Cherrybark. Over 40 years ago Dr. Pierce gave to the public this remedy, which he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. He found it would help the blood in taking up the proper elements from food, help the liver into activity, thereby throwing out the poisons from the blood and vitalizing the whole system as well as allaying and soothing a cough. No one ever takes cold unless constipated, or exhausted, and having what we call mal-nutrition, which is attended with impoverished blood and exhaustion of nerve force. The "Discovery" is an all-around tonic which restores tone to the blood, nerves and heart by imitating Nature's methods of restoring waste of tissue, and feeding the nerves, heart and lungs on rich red blood.
"I suffered from pain under my right shoulder blade also a very severe cough," writes Mrs. W. Dore, of New Brookland, S. C. to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. "Had four different doctors and none did me any good. Some said I had consumption, others said I would have to have an operation. I was bedridden, unable to sit up for six months and was getting into a live skeleton. You advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Peppermint. When I had taken one bottle of the 'Discovery' I could sit up for an hour at a time, and when I had taken three bottles I could do my cooking and tend to the children. I took fourteen bottles in all and was then in good health. My weight is now 167 pounds."

Household Notes.

Homemade cakes will be nicer if the flour is put in last.
Wood ashes mixed with kerosene will remove rust from iron.
String beans seasoned with mint are delicious served with roast lamb.
Whole peppers are better for seasoning soups and sauces than ground pepper.
Jelly cake should have the edges pared off carefully to make it roll easily.
Instead of using barley and rice for thickening soup try oatmeal occasionally.
A few minced nasturtium leaves sprinkled over an omelet give a snappy flavor.
A teaspoonful of vinegar put into homemade candy keeps it from being sticky sweet.
Witch hazel and rosewater, half and half, is good for wind-tortured complexions.
Baked stuffed tomatoes or peppers will be much improved if brushed over with olive oil.
Faded plush may be brightened by brushing it lightly with a clean sponge dipped in chloroform.
Fresh mint may be always at hand for cooking purposes by growing it at home in a glass of water.
Old kid gloves worn while ironing will keep the hands in good condition and free from callouses.
Chopped preserved ginger added to the sauce served with cottage pudding is a delicious accompaniment.
Butter will keep sweet much longer in a crock jar with a tight fitting cover than in any other way.

Getting Pa Into a Dress Suit.

Whenever Pa and Ma have got to go to some place swell
An' Pa must wear his evening clothes you ought to hear him yell.
He starts in grumbling days before an' says to Ma that he Can't understand why people want to Cause him misery.
"You needn't think that I'm goin' to rig up for that affair
If it's a dress suit party," says he, "I won't be there!"
But Ma, she doesn't say a word, she's heard that tale before.
An' Pa goes on: "If there's a thing that really makes me sore
It is to have to squeeze myself into that spike-tailed coat.
An' be in agony all night. That sure does get my goat!
You needn't plan on bein' there, I'm tellin' you what's so.
If they want spike-tails on the men I'm not a-goin' to go!"
An' then the party night comes round an' Pa sits down to tea.
An' Ma has got her hair all crimped as pretty as can be.
She's all fixed up to go except to slip into her gown.
So she'll have time to wait on Pa an' get his dress suit on.
An' put the buttons in his shirt an' straighten out his tie.
An' Pa just grunts, an' cats, an' says: "It must be nice to die."
As soon as Pa goes up the stairs then all our troubles start
In getting Pa dressed up to go we all must play a part;
I get his shiny shoes, an' Sis gets out his fancy vest.
An' Ma keeps humping all the time, she has no chance to rest, Coz Pa don't stay in one room when he puts his dress suit on,
If we had 18 bedrooms he'd make use of every one.
He turns the house clear upside down; you'll find on every chair
Some garment that he's taken off or just about to wear.
An' all the time he's growling that he'd rather go to bed,
Or tell of a hundred things he'd like to do instead
Or goin' where he's goin', but at last away they scoot,
An' once again Ma's landed Pa into his evening suit.
—Detroit Free Press.

WASHINGTON, April 29.
Britain is again pressing Guatemala for satisfaction for the long standing claims of British subjects. The attention of the State department has been directed to the situation by the Guatemalan minister here, and the outcome is expected to develop some measure, indicative of the Administration's policy towards Central American republics and their foreign debts. A loan of $20,000,000 by American banking houses has been under way for some time, but never consummated. With its proceeds it was proposed to pay Guatemala's British debts, and reform the currency system. The delay has been irritating to both Britain and the United States.

LONDON, April 29.
Alphonse Courlander, who entered Scutari with the Montenegrins, sends a harrowing description of the condition of the inhabitants. "The faces of the children haunt me," he says. "They were starved and withered, with faces of old men and women, sitting in the dust, watching the conquerors with uncomprehending eyes. Women in baggy Turkish trousers, with veiled faces, followed the soldiers, as well as their weak limbs allowed, towards the quays, where great loaves of bread were given them by the Montenegrins, the first bread they had eaten for months. During the last week of the siege, bread was five shillings a pound. Cheese fetched and of maize and rice straw was eaten towards the end. The plight of the poorest people was fearful. Some ate grass, others filthy rubbish, anything so long as they could fill their stomachs. The situation became so desperate that the military finally commanded everything from private houses. I gave one shrunken man a few crumbs of bread that I had in my pocket. He clutched them greedily, and crammed them in his mouth, babbling his gratitude. Almost 300 people died of absolute starvation; 2,000 sick and wounded are in the hospitals. The garrison had just one day's food left the day before the surrender. The Bardanjot garrison of two battalions had nothing but a few pounds of beans." Courlander describes how the Turks, who formally surrendered the fortress, kissed the guns before handing them over. He also tells of the damage from the shells in the residential part of Scutari, and of the destruction of the Roman Catholic Church. Terrible bombs riddled the roof, smashing everything. The interior was full of rubble, part of the Campanile was smashed, leaving a twisted tangle of ironwork. The candelabra and crucifix remained miraculously intact.

Other Peoples.

Don't you think you're the only old boy that is lonely, discouraged, down-hearted, world beaten and blue; the world's pretty roomy, and others are gloomy and galled by their troubles as deeply as you. But others are braver; their souls have the savor of courage undaunted, the courage that wins; when effort seems futile and Fortune is brutal, they take what she hands them and greet her with grins. So Fortune grows weary of swatting these cheery unquenchable fellows, who will not repine; these smiling humblers she takes by the fingers and leads them to regions of roses and wine. But you sit a-brooding, your eyeballs protruding, your whiskers look while you're straining your innards complaining, a statue of grief from your heels to your ears. Dame Fortune will spy you, and if she come nigh you she'll hand you a brickbat instead of a rose; she hasn't much kindness for men who have blindness for everything here but their own private woes. So cut out the grouching and mourning and show you're a scrapper named Scrapperovitch; go forth to your labors like stout-hearted neighbours, and soon you'll be happy and sassy and rich.

Hr. Grace Notes.

Mr. Ambrose Clarke has just completed a very fine trap boat to be used by him in his Labrador business this summer. May he have abundant success.

Mr. H. Traphell, of the cable staff, Heart's Content, spent Sunday with his relatives and friends here, returning to the cable city on Monday.

Mr. J. W. Nichols had quite a large number visit the drawing exhibition in Coughlan Hall last night, and all were greatly interested in the work of the children.

A couple of cases of diphtheria developed in a house on Harvey Street yesterday. The yellow placard was put up at once and a man stationed there to attend to the wants of the inmates.

A young lady in one of our grocery stores, who is always noted for her smiles and pleasant disposition, was noticed on Saturday during her busy hours in the store to be morose and apparently in pain. Her voice always so merry now sounded like a funeral knell, a friend enquired the cause and found that she had been to the dentist and had some teeth drawn.

The anchor and chain belonging to the schr. Procyon was tripped and towed some distance up the harbour by the S. S. Southern Cross a couple of weeks ago. After several attempts to locate it, without success, Mr. R. S. Munn hit upon the successful method of offering a reward of $20. Mr. Stephen Hunt was the fortunate discoverer of the whereabouts of the lost anchor and with several other men they secured it, and got the reward.

A novel sight was witnessed in town this morning, and was watched for hours by many people. It was a goat on the steep roof of the house opposite Mr. Watts' shop on Water Street, Nanny possibly went up to have a look at the town from the housetop, and enjoyed the surroundings so much that she remained there several hours.

Miss Annie Tetford and Miss Naomi Walsh leave by this afternoon's train for Boston. Mr. R. Tetford also goes out by same train for Sydney.

Indian Island Notes.

During the winter the heavy ice damaged the public wharf considerably, and at present a number of men are employed building and attaching a new piece on the outside of the wharf, so that at any time the depth of water will not prevent the mail steamer from landing freight on the wharf.

Some of the fishermen are already trimming their boats for the fishing voyage, the click of the hammer in the early morn not only does its own work but excites to action the sleepy heads so much the better for the health providing one has had sleep enough.

Max Perry had a narrow escape from having his thumb cut off yesterday. He was playing hide and seek with his brother, when he accidentally fell on an adze which was stowed away under a work bench.

Mr. Thomas Carnell, who happened to be working near, dressed the cut doing it so well that to-day Max says he doesn't feel any pain in it.

Messrs. Frampton and Hynes, two stalwart young fishermen, have each purchased a cod-trap from Mr. S. Roberts, Change Islands. We wish them every success during the fishing season.

A young converts' sociable, under the patronage of the Methodist Church was held at the residence of Mr. Sheppard, Easter Cove, April 17th. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the Perry's Island converts had little chance to be there. However, it was a grand success. The young people are getting every encouragement from the worthy young pastor Rev. W. Vey. Since his coming the work of the church has been greatly benighted.

Quite a number of seals were killed to-day. The weather is all that can be desired for sharp shooters. No doubt the Bixby Brothers will do well as they generally get a good share of whatever can be killed with a gun.

Feast of Music.

The sacred recital at George Street Church to-night promises to bring a large audience and should be very entertaining. Selections will be given by the choir and Messrs. Allen and Mews will give instrumental selections and solos will be heard from Misses Herder, Anderson and Story and Mr. Ruggles.

WEDNESDAY, April 30, 1913.
If you want the best seeds this year—and every sensible person does—be sure and get Sutton's. Their seeds are ones that not only grow, but yield large crops of perfectly formed roots and vegetables. The doubtful merit of cheapness may not be theirs—though considering the fact that there is not a grain of "killed" seed among them, they are not dear in the end; but their appeal is to those who want the best results in harvest time; and this appeal they answer well. We have been selling Sutton's Seeds for some five years now, and year by year the hold they have on the public of this country deepens and widens. Let us send you our catalogue. Your name and address on a post card brings you one promptly.

DEAR SIR.—Photography is now being recognized as a method in Education too valuable to overlook. More and more are we turning to Nature, because we recognize for the first time in the history of the world that we are a part of Nature. We are Nature. And the more we love Nature, the more we understand her, the stronger, the healthier, the happier, the saner we are. The Camera brings us very close to Nature. It makes us feel our kinship with the Infinite. The Camera habit isn't a passing fad. More and more it is becoming fixed in the heart of the race.

Yours faithfully,

MR. CAR OWNER, As a Business Proposition,

Which would You Buy?

The DUNLOP TIRE that is moulded as a UNIT, whereby the thick, tough rubber Traction tread, the rubber side strips, the layers of rubber impregnated fabric and of pure rubber are blended in one live integral product? Or the other kind which vulcanizes its tread strip on to the body to make a finish.

Your Business Acumen says, DUNLOP. The DUNLOP TRACTION was put on the market in 1911. After one season's experience it proved so successful that last year it was used by 75 per cent. of all cars in Canada.

Will you buy a proven Tire like the Dunlop, or will you buy a Tire which was proven to be fourth rate by the tire test recently held in England.

Your Business Acumen says, DUNLOP.
